PREFACE

The editors of the work in your hands are aware of the rich resources of the Christian faith. All too often, though, believers feel battered and helpless to answer skeptics and critics. Ironically, the Lord has been pleased to entrust the scholars of the church in our generation with the greatest wealth of biblical, theological, philosophical, historical, and scientific knowledge in history. Christian conviction, defense of the faith, and evangelization of unbelievers would profit vastly through exposure to this confirmation of biblical truth. Yet sadly, the church has had precious little contact with this treasure trove.

In response to this situation, The Apologetics Study Bible brings together in one resource the work of biblically faithful exegetes, historians, archaeologists, theologians, philosophers, and scientists—and all this work is wedded to the Bible. “Apologetics” comes from the Greek word apologia, meaning “defense” or “answer.” Accordingly, Christian apologetics is the practice of giving reasons that support the Christian faith and responding to objections raised against it. Apologetics contributes to the restoration of a view of the Bible as a source of knowledge of its subject matter as opposed to a source of true belief to be accepted by a blind act of the will. Christian apologetics strengthens the church by answering the critics of biblical doctrines and by encouraging the believer’s faith. The Apologetics Study Bible is designed to advance these ends by apologetics rooted in Holy Scripture.

The distinctiveness of The Apologetics Study Bible is its notes and articles appended to the biblical text at relevant points. Notes consist of commentary written by biblical scholars that relate specifically to apologetic issues raised by scriptural texts. Also related to specific biblical texts are over 50 examples of “Twisted Scripture.” These explanations treat those instances where portions of the Bible have been misused by various religious movements such as Jehovah’s Witnesses and Mormons. You will find 12 profiles of notable Christian apologists in history. In addition, over 125 articles treat broader apologetic matters such as “How should we handle unresolved questions about the Bible?” and “Evolution: fact or fantasy?” Though the notes and articles are not written for academicians, you can be confident they distill and present the very best of current Christian scholarship.

As 1 Peter 3:15 reminds us, our apologetic must be prayerfully presented, having set Christ apart as Lord in our hearts. Also, we must present our reasons for belief with gentleness and respect. So, to be most fruitful, our defense of the Christian faith must be offered under Christ’s Lordship, in humble dependence upon His Spirit, and in the context of loving and respectful personal relationships.

May it please the Lord, then, to exploit The Apologetics Study Bible in the service of His people’s promotion and confirmation of the truth of His Word.

INTRODUCTION TO THE HOLMAN CHRISTIAN STANDARD BIBLE®

The Bible is God's revelation to man. It is the only book that gives us accurate information about God, man's need, and God's provision for that need. It provides us with guidance for life and tells us how to receive eternal life. The Bible can do these things because it is God's inspired Word, inerrant in the original manuscripts.

The Bible describes God's dealings with the ancient Jewish people and the early Christian church. It tells us about the great gift of God's Son, Jesus Christ, who fulfilled Jewish prophecies of the Messiah. It tells us about the salvation He accomplished through His death on the cross, His triumph over death in the resurrection, and His promised return to earth. It is the only book that gives us reliable information about the future, about what will happen to us when we die, and about where history is headed.

Bible translation is both a science and an art. It is a bridge that brings God's Word from the ancient world to the world today. In dependence on God to accomplish this sacred task, Holman Bible Publishers presents the Holman Christian Standard Bible, a new English translation of God's Word.

Textual base of the Holman CSB®

The textual base for the New Testament [NT] is the Nestle-Aland Novum Testamentum Graece, 27th edition, and the United Bible Societies' Greek New Testament, 4th corrected edition. The text for the Old Testament [OT] is the Biblia Hebraica Stuttgartensia, 5th edition. At times, however, the translators have followed an alternative manuscript tradition, disagreeing with the editors of these texts about the original reading.

Where there are significant differences among Hebrew [Hb] and Aramaic [Aram] manuscripts of the OT or among Greek [Gk] manuscripts of the NT, the translators have followed what they believe is the original reading and have indicated the main alternative(s) in footnotes. In a few places in the NT, large square brackets indicate texts that the translation team and most biblical scholars today believe were not part of the original text. However, these texts have been retained in brackets in the Holman CSB because of their undeniable antiquity and their value for tradition and the history of NT interpretation in the church. The Holman CSB uses traditional verse divisions found in most Protestant Bibles.

Goals of this translation

The goals of this translation are:

- to provide English-speaking people across the world with an accurate, readable Bible in contemporary English
- to equip serious Bible students with an accurate translation for personal study, private devotions, and memorization
- to give those who love God’s Word a text that has numerous reader helps, is visually attractive on the page, and is appealing when heard
- to affirm the authority of Scripture as God’s Word and to champion its absolute truth against social or cultural agendas that would compromise its accuracy

The name, Holman Christian Standard Bible, captures these goals: Holman Bible Publishers presents a new Bible translation, for Christian and English-speaking communities, which will be a standard in Bible translations for years to come.

Why is there a need for another English translation of the Bible?

There are several good reasons why Holman Bible publishers invested its resources in a modern language translation of the Bible:

1. Each generation needs a fresh translation of the Bible in its own language.

The Bible is the world’s most important book, confronting each individual and each culture with issues that affect life, both now and forever. Since each new generation must be introduced to God’s Word in its own language, there will always be a need for new translations such as the Holman Christian Standard Bible. The majority of Bible translations on the market today are revisions of translations from previous generations. The Holman CSB is a new translation for today’s generation.

2. English, one of the world’s greatest languages, is rapidly changing, and Bible translations must keep in step with those changes.

English is the first truly global language in history. It is the language of education, business, medicine, travel, research, and the Internet. More than 1.3 billion people around the world speak or read English as a primary or secondary language. The Holman CSB seeks to serve many of those people with a translation they can easily use and understand.

English is also the world’s most rapidly changing language. The Holman CSB seeks to reflect recent changes in English by using modern punctuation, formatting, and vocabulary, while avoiding slang, regionalisms, or changes made specifically for the sake of political or social agendas. Modern linguistic and semantic advances have been incorporated into the Holman CSB, including modern grammar.

3. Rapid advances in biblical research provide new data for Bible translators.

This has been called the “information age,” a term that accurately describes the field of biblical research. Never before in history has there been as much information about the Bible as there is today—from archaeo-logical discoveries to analysis of ancient manuscripts to years of study and statistical research on individual Bible books. Translations made as recently as 10 or 20 years ago do not reflect many of these advances in biblical research. The translators have taken into consideration as much of this new data as possible.

4. Advances in computer technology have opened a new door for Bible translation.

The Holman CSB has used computer technology and telecommunications in its creation perhaps more than any Bible translation in history. Electronic mail was used daily and sometimes hourly for communication and transmission of manuscripts. An advanced Bible software program, Accordance®, was used to create and revise the translation at each step in its production. A developmental copy of the translation itself was used within Accordance to facilitate cross-checking during the translation process—something never done before with a Bible translation.

Translation Philosophy of the Holman CSB

Most discussions of Bible translations speak of two opposite approaches: formal equivalence and dynamic equivalence. Although this terminology is meaningful, Bible translations cannot be neatly sorted into these two categories any more than people can be neatly sorted into two categories according to height or weight. Holman Bible Publishers is convinced there is room for another category of translation philosophies that capitalizes on the strengths of the other two.

1. Formal Equivalence:

Often called “word-for-word” (or “literal”) translation, the principle of formal equivalence seeks as nearly as possible to preserve the structure of the original language. It seeks to represent each word of the original text with an exact equivalent word in the translation so that the reader can see word for word what the original human author wrote. The merits of this approach include its consistency with the conviction that the Holy Spirit did inspire the very words of Scripture in the original manuscripts. It also provides the English Bible student some access to the structure of the text in the original language. Formal equivalence can achieve accuracy to the degree that English has an exact equivalent for each word and that the grammatical patterns of the original language can be reproduced in understandable English. However, it can sometimes result in awkward, if not incomprehensible, English or in a misunderstanding of the author’s intent. The literal rendering of ancient idioms is especially difficult.

2. Dynamic or Functional Equivalence:

Often called “thought-for-thought” translation, the principle of dynamic equivalence rejects as misguided the desire to preserve the structure of the original language. It proceeds by distinguishing the meaning of a text from its form and then translating the meaning so that it makes the same impact on modern readers that the ancient text made on its original readers. Strengths of this approach include a high degree of clarity and readability, especially in places where the original is difficult to render word for word. It also acknowledges that accurate and effective translation requires interpretation. However, the meaning of a text cannot always be neatly separated from its form, nor can it always be precisely determined. A biblical author may have intended multiple meanings. In striving for readability, dynamic equivalence also sometimes overlooks some of the less prominent elements of meaning. Furthermore, lack of formal correspondence to the original makes it difficult to verify accuracy and thus can affect the usefulness of the translation for in-depth Bible study.

3. Optimal Equivalence:

In practice, translations are seldom if ever purely formal or dynamic but favor one theory of Bible translation or the other to varying degrees. Optimal equivalence as a translation philosophy recognizes that form cannot be neatly separated from meaning and should not be changed (for example, nouns to verbs or third person “they” to second person “you”) unless comprehension demands it. The primary goal of translation is to convey the sense of the original with as much clarity as the original text and the translation language permit. Optimal equivalence appreciates the goals of formal equivalence but also recognizes its limitations.

Optimal equivalence starts with an exhaustive analysis of the text at every level (word, phrase, clause, sentence, discourse) in the original language to determine its original meaning and intention (or purpose). Then relying on the latest and best language tools and experts, the nearest corresponding semantic and linguistic equivalents are used to convey as much of the information and intention of the original text with as much clarity and readability as possible. This process assures the maximum transfer of both the words and thoughts contained in the original.

The Holman CSB uses optimal equivalence as its translation philosophy. When a literal translation meets these criteria, it is used. When clarity and readability demand an idiomatic translation, the reader can still access the form of the original text by means of a footnote with the abbreviation “Lit.”

The gender language policy in Bible translation

Some people today ignore the Bible’s teachings on distinctive roles of men and women in family and church and have an agenda to eliminate those distinctions in every arena of life. These people have begun a program to engineer the removal of a perceived male bias in the English language. The targets of this program have been such traditional linguistic practices as the generic use of “man” or “men,” as well as “he,” “him,” and “his.”

A group of Bible scholars, translators, and other evangelical leaders met in 1997 to respond to this issue as it affects Bible translation. This group produced the “Guidelines for Translation of Gender-Related Language in Scripture” (adopted May 27, 1997 and revised Sept. 9, 1997). The Holman Christian Standard Bible was produced in accordance with these guidelines.

The goal of the translators has not been to promote a cultural ideology but to faithfully translate the Bible. While the Holman CSB avoids using “man” or “he” unnecessarily, the translation does not restructure sentences to avoid them when they are in the text. For example, the translators have not changed “him” to “you” or to “them,” neither have they avoided other masculine words such as “father” or “son” by translating them in generic terms such as “parent” or “child.”

History of the Holman Christian Standard Bible

After several years of preliminary development, Holman Bible Publishers, the oldest Bible publisher in America, assembled an international, interdenominational team of 100 scholars, editors, stylists, and proofreaders, all of whom were committed to biblical inerrancy. Outside consultants and reviewers contributed valuable suggestions from their areas of expertise. An executive team then edited, polished, and reviewed the final manuscripts.

Traditional features found in the Holman CSB

In keeping with a long line of Bible publications, the Holman Christian Standard Bible has retained a number of features found in traditional Bibles:

1. Traditional theological vocabulary (such as justification, sanctification, redemption, etc.) has been retained since such terms have no translation equivalent that adequately communicates their exact meaning.

2. Traditional spellings of names and places found in most Bibles have been used to make the Holman CSB compatible with most Bible study tools.
3. Some editions of the Holman CSB will print the words of Christ in red letters to help readers easily locate the spoken words of the Lord Jesus Christ.
4. Nouns and personal pronouns that clearly refer to any person of the Trinity are capitalized.
5. Descriptive headings, printed above each section of Scripture, help readers quickly identify the contents of that section.
6. Small lower corner brackets: indicate words supplied for clarity by the translators (but see below, under Substitution of words in sentences, for supplied words that are not bracketed).
7. Two common forms of punctuation are used in the Holman CSB to help with clarity and ease of reading: em dashes (a long dash — ) are used to indicate sudden breaks in thought or to help clarify long or difficult sentences. Parentheses are used infrequently to indicate words that are parenthetical in the original languages.

How certain names and terms are translated

The names of God

The Holman Christian Standard Bible OT consistently translates the Hebrew names for God as follows:

Holman CSB English: Hebrew original:

God	Elohim
LORD	YHWH (Yahweh)
Lord	Adonai
Lord GOD	Adonai Yahweh
LORD of Hosts	Yahweh Sabaoth
God Almighty	El Shaddai

However, the Holman CSB OT uses Yahweh, the personal name of God in Hebrew, when a biblical text emphasizes Yahweh as a name: “His name is Yahweh” (Ps 68:4). Yahweh is used more often in the Holman CSB than in most Bible translations because the word LORD in English is a title of God and does not accurately convey to modern readers the emphasis on God’s name in the original Hebrew.

The uses of Christ and Messiah

The Holman CSB translates the Greek word Christos (“anointed one”) as either “Christ” or “Messiah” based on its use in different NT contexts. Where the NT emphasizes Christos as a name of our Lord or has a Gentile context, “Christ” is used (Eph 1:1 “Paul, an apostle of Christ Jesus . . .”). Where the NT Christos has a Jewish context, the title “Messiah” is used (Eph 1:12 “. . . we who had already put our hope in the Messiah”). The first use of “Messiah” in each chapter is also marked with a bullet referring readers to the Bullet Note at the back of most editions.

Place-names

In the original text of the Bible, particularly in the OT, a number of well-known places have names different from the ones familiar to contemporary readers. For example, “the Euphrates” often appears in the original text simply as “the River.” In cases like this, the Holman Christian Standard Bible uses the modern name, “the Euphrates River,” in the text without a footnote or lower corner brackets.

Substitution of words in sentences

A literal translation of the biblical text sometimes violates standard rules of English grammar, such as the agreement of subject and verb or person and number. In order to conform to standard usage, the Holman CSB has often made these kinds of grammatical constructions agree in English without footnotes or lower corner brackets.

In addition, the Greek or Hebrew texts sometimes seem redundant or ambiguous by repeating nouns where modern writing substitutes pronouns or by using pronouns where we would supply nouns for clarity and good style. When a literal translation of the original would make the English unclear, the Holman CSB sometimes changes a pronoun to its corresponding noun or a noun to its corresponding pronoun without a footnote or lower corner brackets. For example, Jn 1:42 reads: “And he brought Simon to Jesus . . .” The original Greek of this sentence reads: “And he brought him to Jesus.”

Special Formatting Features

The Holman Christian Standard Bible has several distinctive formatting features:

1. OT passages quoted in the NT are set in boldface type. OT quotes consisting of two or more lines are block indented.
2. In dialogue, a new paragraph is used for each new speaker as in most modern publications.
3. Many passages, such as 1 Co 13, have been formatted as dynamic prose (separate block-indented lines like poetry) for ease in reading and comprehension. Special block-indented formatting has also been used extensively in both the OT and NT to increase readability and clarity in lists, series, genealogies and other parallel or repetitive texts.
4. Almost every Bible breaks lines in poetry using automatic typesetting programs with the result that words are haphazardly turned over to the next line. In the Holman CSB, special attention has been given to break every line in poetry and dynamic prose so that awkward or unsightly word wraps are avoided and complete units of thought turn over to the next line. The result is a Bible page that is much more readable and pleasing to the eye.
5. Certain foreign, geographical, cultural, or ancient words are preceded by a superscripted bullet (• Abba) at their first occurrence in each chapter. These words are listed in alphabetical order at the back of the Bible under the heading Holman CSB Bullet Notes. A few important or frequently misunderstood words (• slaves) are marked with a bullet more than one time per chapter.
6. Italics are used in the text for a transliteration of Greek and Hebrew words (“Hosanna!” in Jn 12:13) and in footnotes for direct quotations from the biblical text and for words in the original languages (the footnote at Jn 1:1 reads: “The Word (Gk Logos) is a title for Jesus . . .”).
7. Since the majority of English readers do not need to have numbers and fractions spelled out in the text, the Holman CSB uses a similar style to that of modern newspapers in using Arabic numerals for the numbers 10 and above and in fractions, except in a small number of cases, such as when a number begins a sentence.

Footnotes

Footnotes are used to show readers how the original biblical language has been understood in the Holman Christian Standard Bible.

NT Textual Footnotes

NT textual notes indicate significant differences among Greek manuscripts (mss) and are normally indicated in one of three ways:

Other mss read _____

Other mss add _____

Other mss omit _____

In the NT, some textual footnotes that use the word “add” or “omit” also have square brackets before and after the corresponding verses in the biblical text (see the discussion above in the paragraph entitled “Textual base of the Holman CSB”). Examples of this use of square brackets are Mk 16:9-20, Jn 5:3-4, and Jn 7:53–8:11.

OT Textual Footnotes

OT textual notes show important differences among Hebrew manuscripts and among ancient OT versions, such as the Septuagint and the Vulgate. See the list of abbreviations on page xxiii for a list of other ancient versions used.

Some OT textual notes (like NT textual notes) give only an alternate textual reading. However, other OT textual notes also give the support for the reading chosen by the editors as well as for the alternate textual reading. For example, the Holman CSB text of Ps 12:7 reads:

You will protect us<sup>a</sup> from this generation forever.

The textual footnote for this verse reads:

The textual note in this example means that there are two different readings found in the Hebrew manuscripts: some manuscripts read us and others read him. The Holman CSB translators chose the reading us, which is also found in the Septuagint (LXX), and placed the other Hebrew reading him in the footnote.

Two other OT textual notes are:

Alt Hb tradition reads _____ a variation given by scribes in the Hebrew manuscript tradition (known as Kethiv/Qere readings)

Hb uncertain _____ when it is uncertain what the original Hebrew text was

Other Kinds of Footnotes

Lit _____ a more literal rendering in English of the Hebrew, Aramaic, or Greek text

Or _____ an alternate or less likely English translation of the same Hebrew, Aramaic, or Greek text

 = an abbreviation for “ it means” or “it is equivalent to”
 Hb, Aram, the actual Hebrew, Aramaic, or Greek word is given using English letters
 Gk
 Hb the existing Hebrew text is especially difficult to translate obscure emend(ed) the original Hebrew text is so difficult to translate that competent scholars have root meanings of the words, and uses in comparative languages

In some editions of the Holman Christian Standard Bible, additional footnotes clarify the meaning of certain biblical texts or explain biblical history, persons, customs, places, activities, and measurements. Cross-references are given for parallel passages or passages with similar wording, and in the NT, for passages quoted from the OT.

PLAN OF SALVATION

What do you understand it takes for a person to go to Heaven?

Consider how the Bible answers this question: It's a matter of FAITH.

F is for FORGIVENESS

We cannot have eternal life and heaven without God's forgiveness. —Read Ephesians 1:7a.

A is for AVAILABLE

Forgiveness is available. It is—

- Available for all. —Read John 3:16.
- But not automatic. —Read Matthew 7:21a.

I is for IMPOSSIBLE

It is impossible for God to allow sin into heaven.

- Because of who He is:
- God is loving and just. His judgment is against sin. —Read James 2:13a.
- Because of who we are:
- Every person is a sinner. —Read Romans 3:23.

But how can a sinful person enter heaven, when God allows no sin?

T is for TURN

Turn means to repent.

- Turn from something:
- sin and self. —Read Luke 13:3b.
- Turn to Someone:
- trust Christ only. —Read Romans 10:9.

H is for HEAVEN

Heaven is eternal life.

- Here. —Read John 10:10b.
- Hereafter. —Read John 14:3.

How can a person have God's forgiveness, heaven and eternal life, and Jesus as personal Savior and Lord? By trusting in Christ and asking Him for forgiveness. Take the step of faith described by another meaning of FAITH: Forsaking All I Trust Him.

Prayer:

Lord Jesus, I know I am a sinner and have displeased You in many ways. I believe You died for my sin and only through faith in Your death and resurrection can I be forgiven. I want to turn from my sin and ask You to come into my life as my Savior and Lord. From this day on, I will follow You by living a life that pleases You. Thank You, Lord Jesus for saving me. Amen.

After you have received Jesus Christ into your life, tell a Christian friend about this important decision you have made. Follow Christ in believer's baptism and church membership. Grow in your faith and enjoy new friends in Christ by becoming part of His church. There, you'll find others who will love and support you.

WHAT IS APOLOGETICS?

by Kenneth D. Boa

Apologetics may be simply defined as the defense of the Christian faith. The simplicity of this definition, however, masks the complexity of the problem of defining apologetics. It turns out that a diversity of approaches has been taken in defining the meaning, scope, and purpose of apologetics.

The word “apologetics” derives from the Greek word apologia, which was originally used as a speech of defense. In ancient Athens it referred to a defense made in the courtroom as part of the normal judicial procedure. After the accusation, the defendant was allowed to refute the charges with a defense (apologia). The classic example of an apologia was Socrates’s defense against the charge of preaching strange gods, a defense retold by his most famous pupil, Plato, in a dialogue called The Apology.

The word apologia appears 17 times in noun or verb form in the NT, and can be translated “defense” or “vindication” in every case. The idea of offering a reasoned defense of the faith is evident in Php 1:7,16; and especially 1 Pt 3:15, but no specific theory of apologetics is outlined in the NT.

In the second century this general word for “defense” began taking on a narrower sense to refer to a group of writers who defended the beliefs and practices of Christianity against various attacks. These men were known the apologists because of the titles of some of their treatises, but apparently not until 1794 was apologetics used to designate a specific theological discipline.

It has become customary to use the term apology to refer to a specific effort or work in defense of the faith. An apology might be a written document, a speech, or even a film. Apologists develop their defenses of the Christian faith in relation to scientific, historical, philosophical, ethical, religious, theological, or cultural issues.

We may distinguish four functions of apologetics, though not everyone agrees that apologetics involves all four. Such opinions notwithstanding, all four functions have historically been important in apologetics, and each has been championed by great Christian apologists throughout church history.

The first function may be called vindication or proof, and involves marshaling philosophical arguments as well as scientific and historical evidences for the Christian faith. The goal of this function is to develop a positive case for Christianity as a belief system that should be accepted. Philosophically, this means drawing out the logical implications of the Christian worldview so that they can be clearly seen and contrasted with alternate worldviews.

The second function is defense. This function is closest to the NT and early Christian use of the word apologia, defending Christianity against the plethora of attacks made against it in every generation by critics of varying belief systems. This function involves clarifying the Christian position in light of misunderstandings and misrepresentations; answering objections, criticisms, or questions from non-Christians; and in general clearing away any intellectual difficulties that nonbelievers claim stand in the way of their coming to faith.

The third function is refutation of opposing beliefs. This function focuses on answering the arguments non-Christians give in support of their own beliefs. Most apologists agree that refutation cannot stand alone, since proving a non-Christian religion or philosophy to be false does not prove that Christianity is true. Nevertheless, it is an essential function of apologetics.

The fourth function is persuasion. By this we do not mean merely convincing people that Christianity is true, but persuading them to apply its truth to their life. This function focuses on bringing non-Christians to the point of commitment. The apologist’s intent is not merely to win an intellectual argument, but to persuade people to commit their lives and eternal futures into the trust of the Son of God who died for them.

HOW APOLOGETICS CHANGED MY LIFE!

by Lee Strobel

Author, The Case for Christ and The Case for the Real Jesus

Skepticism is part of my DNA. That's probably why I ended up combining the study of law and journalism to become the legal editor of The Chicago Tribune—a career in which I relentlessly pursued hard facts in my investigations. And that's undoubtedly why I was later attracted to a thorough examination of the evidence—whether it proved to be positive or negative—as a way to probe the legitimacy of the Christian faith.

A spiritual cynic, I became an atheist in high school. To me the mere concept of an all-loving, all-knowing, all-powerful creator of the universe was so absurd on the surface that it didn't even warrant serious consideration. I believed that God didn't create people, but that people created God out of their fear of death and their desire to live forever in a utopia they called heaven.

I married an agnostic named Leslie. Several years later she came to me with the worst news I thought I could ever get: She had decided to become a follower of Jesus. My initial thought was that she was going to turn into an irrational holy roller who would waste all of her time serving the poor in a soup kitchen somewhere. Divorce, I figured, was inevitable.

Then something amazing occurred. During the ensuing months, I began to see positive changes in her character, her values, and the way she related to me and to the children. The transformation was winsome and attractive. So one day when she invited me to go to church with her, I decided to comply.

The pastor gave a talk called “Basic Christianity” in which he clearly spelled out the essentials of the faith. Did he shake me out of my atheism that day? No, not by a long shot. Still, I concluded that if what he was saying was true, it would have huge implications for my life.

That's when I decided to apply my experience as a journalist to investigating whether there is any credibility to Christianity or any other faith system. I resolved to keep an open mind and follow the evidence wherever it pointed—even if it took me to some uncomfortable conclusions. In a sense, I was checking out the biggest story of my career.

At first, I thought my investigation would be short-lived. In my opinion, having “faith” meant you believed something even though you knew in your heart that it couldn't be true. I anticipated that I would very quickly uncover facts that would devastate Christianity. Yet as I devoured books by atheists and Christians, interviewed scientists and theologians, and studied archaeology, ancient history, and world religions, I was stunned to find that Christianity's factual foundation was a lot firmer than I had once believed.

Much of my investigation focused on science, where more recent discoveries have only further cemented the conclusions that I drew in those studies. For instance, cosmologists now agree that the universe and time itself came into existence at some point in the finite past. The logic is inexorable: Whatever begins to exist has a cause, the universe began to exist, and therefore the universe has a cause. It makes sense that this cause must be immaterial, timeless, powerful, and intelligent.

What's more, physicists have discovered over the last 50 years that many of the laws and constants of the universe—such as the force of gravity and the cosmological constant—are finely tuned to an incomprehensible precision in order for life to exist. This exactitude is so incredible that it defies the explanation of mere chance.

The existence of biological information in DNA also points toward a Creator. Each of our cells contains the precise assembly instructions for every protein out of which our bodies are made, all spelled out in a four-letter chemical alphabet. Nature can produce patterns, but whenever we see information—whether it's in a book or a computer program—we know there's intelligence behind it. Furthermore, scientists are finding complex biological machines on the cellular level that defy a Darwinian explanation and instead are better explained as the work of an Intelligent Designer.

To my great astonishment, I became convinced by the evidence that science supports the belief in a Creator who looks suspiciously like the God of the Bible. Spurred on by my discoveries, I then turned my attention to history.

I found that Jesus, and Jesus alone, fulfilled ancient messianic prophecies against all mathematical odds. I concluded that the New Testament is rooted in eyewitness testimony and that it passes the tests that historians routinely use to determine reliability. I learned that the Bible has been passed down through the ages with remarkable fidelity.

However, the pivotal issue for me was the resurrection of Jesus. Anyone can claim to be the Son of God, as Jesus clearly did. The question was whether Jesus could back up that assertion by miraculously returning from the dead.

One by one, the facts built a convincing and compelling case. Jesus' death by crucifixion is as certain as anything in the ancient world. The accounts of His resurrection are too early to be the product of legendary development. Even the enemies of Jesus conceded that His tomb was empty on Easter morning. And the eyewitness encounters with the risen Jesus cannot be explained away as mere hallucinations or wishful thinking.

All of this just scratches the surface of what I uncovered in my nearly two-year investigation. Frankly, I was completely surprised by the depth and breadth of the case for Christianity. And as someone trained in journalism and law, I felt I had no choice but to respond to the facts.

So on November 8, 1981, I took a step of faith in the same direction that the evidence was pointing—which is utterly rational to do—and became a follower of Jesus. And just like the experience of my wife, over time my character, values, and priorities began to change—for the good.

For me, apologetics proved to be the turning point of my life and eternity. I'm thankful for the scholars who so passionately and effectively defend the truth of Christianity—and today my life's goal is to do my part in helping others get answers to the questions that are blocking them in their spiritual journey toward Christ.

CHRIST: THE FULFILLMENT OF PROPHECY

by D. James Kennedy

Some time ago I had the opportunity to speak to a man who had no belief whatsoever in the Scriptures as any sort of divine revelation from God. He was a writer who was articulate and well-educated. While he was well-read, he was completely ignorant of any evidences for the truthfulness of the Christian faith and the Scriptures which reveal it. He said the Bible was simply a book written by men, just like any other book. I said, "That's very interesting. I would like to read some statements to you about someone and have you tell me, assuredly, without question, about whom I am reading."

He agreed and I began to read:

- "Those who hate me without cause are more numerous than the hairs of my head" (Ps 69:4).
- "The kings of the earth take their stand and the rulers conspire together against the LORD and His Anointed One" (Ps 2:2).
- "Even my friend in whom I trusted, one who ate my bread, has lifted up his heel against me" (Ps 41:9).
- "Strike the shepherd, and the sheep will be scattered" (Zch 13:7).
- "Then I said to them, 'If it seems right to you, give me my wages; but if not, keep them.' So they weighed my wages, 30 pieces of silver. 'Throw it to the potter,' the LORD said to me—this magnificent price I was valued by them. So I took the 30 pieces of silver and threw it into the house of the LORD, to the potter" (Zch 11:12-13).
- "They are striking the judge of Israel on the cheek with a rod" (Mc 5:1).
- "I gave My back to those who beat Me, and My cheeks to those who tore out My beard. I did not hide My face from scorn and spitting" (Is 50:6).
- "They pierced my hands and my feet" (Ps 22:16).
- "My God, my God, why have You forsaken me?" (Ps 22:1).
- "Everyone who sees me mocks me; they sneer and shake their heads: 'He relies on the LORD; let Him rescue him; let the LORD deliver him, since He takes pleasure in him'" (Ps 22:7-8).
- "They gave me gall for my food, and for my thirst they gave me vinegar to drink" (Ps 69:21).
- "I am poured out like water, and all my bones are disjoined; my heart is like wax, melting within me" (Ps 22:14).
- "Yet He Himself bore our sicknesses, and He carried our pains; but we in turn regarded Him stricken, struck down by God, and afflicted" (Is 53:4).
- "He was oppressed and afflicted, yet He did not open His mouth. Like a lamb led to the slaughter and like a sheep silent before her shearers, He did not open His mouth" (Is 53:7).

- “They divided my garments among themselves, and they cast lots for my clothing” (Ps 22:18).
- “He submitted Himself to death” (Is 53:12).
- “He bore the sin of many and interceded for the rebels” (Is 53:12).
- “You may not break any of its bones” (Ex 12:46).
- “He protects all his bones; not one of them is broken” (Ps 34:20).
- “They will look at Me whom they pierced” (Zch 12:10).
- “They made His grave with the wicked, and with a rich man at His death, although He had done no violence and had not spoken deceitfully” (Is 53:9).
- “For You will not abandon me to Sheol; You will not allow Your Faithful One to see the Pit” (Ps 16:10).
- “You ascended to the heights, taking away captives; You received gifts from people, even from the rebellious, so that the LORD God might live there” (Ps 68:18).
- “The LORD declared to my Lord: ‘Sit at My right hand until I make Your enemies Your footstool’ ” (Ps 110:1).

I said to him, “About whom did I read?”

He replied, “Well, you obviously read of the life and ministry and suffering and death and resurrection of Jesus of Nazareth.”

I said, “Is there any question in your mind about that?”

He answered, “No, that could refer to no one else.”

I replied, “Well then, I would want you to understand that all of the Scriptures I just read to you are taken from the Old Testament, which was completed some four hundred years before Jesus was born. No critic, no atheist, no agnostic has ever once claimed that any one of those writings was written after His birth. In fact, they were translated from Hebrew into Greek in Alexandria some 150 years before He was born. If this is merely a book written by men, would you please explain to me how these words were written?”

He said, “I haven’t the faintest idea.” He was completely nonplussed. He had never heard those things before in his life. Indeed they cannot be explained by any purely humanistic presuppositions.

It is noteworthy that in no other religious writings in the world do we find any specific predictive prophecies like we find in the Scripture. You will find no predictive prophecies whatsoever in the writings of Buddha, Confucius, Mohammed, Lao-Tse, or Hinduism. Yet in the Scripture there are well over two thousand prophecies, most of which have already been fulfilled.

They are so specific in nature that they burn all the bridges behind them. If they are not fulfilled, it leaves no room for excuse. How can these be explained? Of all the attacks that have ever been made upon the Scripture, there has never been one book written by a skeptic to disprove the prophecies of the Scripture. Though the Bible has been attacked at every other place, the one place where God rests His inspiration is that the things He foretells come infallibly to pass.

The Bible prophecies are altogether unexpected! I know of no one ever prophesying that any other human being would rise from the dead and ascend into heaven. That is exceedingly improbable. The chance of it happening by coincidence is incalculable. No, the Bible is not merely a book written by men; it is a book written by God through men, and the heart of its prophetic message is Jesus Christ.

WRITING HISTORY—THEN AND NOW

by Kirk Lowery

Is the Bible “history”? Did the ancient biblical authors write “history” as we moderns understand it? These questions are essential elements of the debate about the trustworthiness and authority of the Bible. In recent years, the usefulness of the Bible for writing the history of the ancient Near East has come under attack as it has not been since the nineteenth century. And this attack is rooted in the intellectual winds of our time. Since the 1970s, people have been questioning whether science or history can tell us anything more than the ideology, politics, and biases of the scientist or historian, either individually or collectively. It is part of the so-called “postmodern” debate about the nature of “knowledge.” Many postmodernists assert that the meaning of any particular biblical text (or any other literary text, for that matter) cannot be separated from the worldview and ideology of the reader. They deny that the original intention of the author can be recovered.

In order to evaluate the usefulness of the Bible for history and its trustworthiness as a source of both information and judgment on people and events, we must remember that there are two separate points of view—the ancient and the modern. Are we talking about modern ideas of history or ancient ones? Were the biblical writers attempting to write history as we understand it? If they were not attempting to write a modern history, just what were they trying to do?

The word history is normally understood in two senses: (1) what actually happened in the past, or (2) the telling (or writing) about what happened in the past. The first sense is objective (although some deny even this); the second necessarily filters those events through the personality of the historian. While the modern historian begins with a chronology and facts, the historian’s evaluation hardly stops there. He reconstructs facts and events, fitting them together into a tapestry of telling a story. He evaluates his sources for their value and validity, much as a lawyer probes the credibility of a witness. Indeed, the historian is more like a prosecutor than a scientist in his method of work. After that examination, he makes conclusions about people and events, much like a judge or jury. The basic concern is that the Bible asserts certain facts or that certain events happened. Did they happen and in the way the Bible presents them? The Bible also makes judgments on people’s actions, attitudes and deeds. Can we trust its judgment on events we cannot access?

Where did all this radical skepticism come from? There has always been skepticism about the Bible. Marcion (c. A.D. 85–160), for example, rejected just about all the New Testament except for Paul’s writings and a highly edited Gospel of Luke. But modern (and postmodern) views of the Bible are rooted in the period known as the Enlightenment in the seventeenth century. This was a time when thoughtful persons began to distinguish between knowledge and superstition by using empirical methods. They struggled against state church authorities in their pursuit of truth. They pursued the original texts of not only the Bible but of the classics of Greek and Roman philosophy and literature. Their struggle polarized them from not just the contemporary church authorities, but galvanized them to regard any religious text as suspect. The seventeenth century was a time dedicated to the discovery of what was true and of what was superstition or chicanery. In that respect, the skepticism was healthy. Because many chose the cloak of religious authority to pander their intellectual wares, skepticism was a very powerful defense against this abuse. And a healthy skepticism is still useful, for superstition (in pursuit of money or adherents) is still used today against the unwary—that is, against those who uncritically trust whatever they are told. And it is important to remember that not everyone at that time embraced the “scientific” method accompanied by radical unbelief. Many of these early “scientists” were trained clergy, most notably Isaac Newton.

The modernist approach to writing history includes establishing events and a chronology, distinguishing between primary (original witness to the events) and secondary (dependent upon another) sources, and arranging those facts in some sort of a narrative. The modernist historian believes there is an objective reality in the past that can be accessed and known today. Critical scholars of the nineteenth century focused upon supposed “contradictions” and “errors” of fact to be found in the Bible. During the first half of the twentieth century, archaeological discoveries supported the presentation of fact found in many places of the Bible that previously had been challenged. At the end of World War II, scholars held the Bible to be much more trustworthy than they had believed at the beginning of the century.

In the past 50 years, the focus has changed. Once preoccupied with “contradictions” in the Bible, and “errors” of fact, now the emphasis is upon how the reader responds to the message of the text. One’s understanding of the text is inevitably filtered through the previously existing biases of the reader. The original meaning of the text intended by the author is not accessible to the modern reader; indeed, “Truth” is not knowable. This brings us to the late 1980s and early 1990s when a new movement of historians arose to challenge the conclusions of their older colleagues; they have come to be known as the “Minimalists.”

The controversy is all about historiography, the art of writing history. It is an art, not a science. One cannot repeat the “facts” of history in the same way that a scientist can reproduce the same events again and again in an experiment. But writing history is not simply telling a story. It is about the trustworthiness of the sources which one uses for telling that story. Are the sources that the historian uses to “prove” his point credible? The historian is much like the lawyer who constructs a tale about a crime (or lack of a crime), and uses witnesses and evidence to support his point of view and conclusion. And then it is the framework (often a story, but it could be a table of demographic facts) that relates all the events to one another. This involves selecting which facts will be included and which will be set aside as not relevant to the point being made.

The Minimalists assert that the Israel as depicted in the Hebrew Bible never existed, except in the minds of the Persian and Hellenistic writers who created the patriarchal narratives and the stories of the monarchy out of whole cloth. They were novelists in the modern sense who wrote fiction. Unless there is independent verification by “extra-biblical sources,” they reject the Hebrew Bible’s usefulness as a witness to the events written about. The biblical text is held to a higher standard of verification than are “extra-biblical” sources.

They believe that “unwritten” archaeological remains are more reliable than written documents, because they are “real,” whereas the message contained in documents is created by humans with ideologies, misperceptions, incomplete information, etc. Immanuel Kant (1724–1804), an Enlightenment philosopher, said that reality—the thing in itself—cannot be truly known. The Minimalists explicitly cite Kant as one reason they rate the biblical text so low for knowledge of the past. However, while archaeological remains tell us what the material world was like and the context and constraints under which the people of the past lived, they cannot tell us what decisions people made or explain why people made the choices they did.

They insist that any assertion by an ancient text must be verified by an independent source. But insistence on a strict verification principle would leave us in the dark about almost everything. In point of fact, no one lives this way. We constantly make decisions based upon insufficient verification and make the “likely” choice. Better is the principle of “innocent until proven guilty,” that a text is given the benefit of the doubt until and unless grounds for suspecting it are discovered.

How does one answer the Minimalist? Let’s take the problem of the conquest of Canaan. Archaeological evidence is lacking for the Israelite conquest and occupation in the Iron Age. The Minimalists conclude it never happened, and certainly not as presented in the book of Joshua. Kenneth Kitchen, well-known and respected Egyptologist, is famous for his dictum: “The absence of evidence is not the evidence of absence.” Also, the biblical text helps explain it: Joshua 24:13 says, “I [the Lord] gave you a land you did not labor for, and cities you did not build, though you live in them; you are eating from vineyards and olive groves you did not plant.” In other words, the Canaanite material culture—cities, farms, vineyards, and orchards—was not universally destroyed by the Israelites. Apparently, total destruction was the exception rather than the rule.

How should we evaluate these ancient texts? We should allow the ancient writers to speak in the manner that they wish. We should try to understand the ancient writers before posing questions of them that is outside of both their intention and their worldview. We should “translate” the message of the ancients from the ancient context to the modern. Finally, we must embrace humility: We do not have all the data; we do not have complete or even certain understanding to answer all our questions. Let us make a virtue of necessity and take what the ancient writers give and be content with that.

So what were the biblical writers doing, what did they expect to accomplish, and how ought the modern reader attempt to understand their literary output? The books of Kings and Chronicles, along with the other “historical” books of the Hebrew Bible, are not books written by modern historians for modern readers. Their literary nature is much different. For one thing, their purpose is didactic or polemic; that is, the authors are attempting to convince their readers about moral and spiritual principles. Their stories are intended to support this purpose and their various propositions. Second, their commitment to truth does not aspire to modern standards of reporting. What they valued as important and unimportant does not translate easily to third millennium A.D. values. For example, the recording of genealogies strikes many modern readers as irrelevant to the story. But it was critical to how these ancient peoples conceived of their identity. Genealogies may have had the function of establishing chronology or the framework for the story being told. It establishes precedence, relationship, and identity.

Allowance must be made for paraphrase, abbreviation, explanation, omission, rearrangement, and other techniques used by the ancient author that might offend modern principles of historiography. This is not to say that the ancients did not write history. To the contrary, they often show sensitivity to the events and corroborating witnesses to those events. But they also did not make a distinction between the writer’s judgment or evaluation of events and the events themselves. They did not have precision—or, at least, modern notions of precision—in mind when they wrote. That does not mean the authors were not trying to tell a story that corresponds to real events! In order to understand the ancient texts, one must mentally and emotionally become an ancient and enter into their world. The process is very similar to watching a film where one must grant the filmmaker the premise of the film and even suspend belief in how the world should work before the message of the filmmaker can be perceived. The difference with the ancient writers is that we have much more work to do before we can enter into their world. Only then have we earned the right to form an opinion.

The ancient writer made choices: subject matter (events needing telling), point of view (theological purpose), and aesthetics (creative choices). These writers selected their material, glossed over less relevant events, simplified the story to meet space constraints and only included detail that illuminated the significance of the events as the writer understood them. This is true of modern professional historians as much as of ancient story tellers.

How, then, should we understand the intentions of the biblical writers? The first historians (that we have evidence of) were the Sumerians, for whom history was a matter of personal experience, not the analysis of sources or principles of interpretation. Later, Mesopotamian rulers desired to interpret the present or future in light of the past. Events on earth are controlled by the gods; hence, their decrees have a prominent place in their myths and legends. Indeed, that may have been the cultural function of the myths and legends. The earliest historiographers in the modern sense of the word were Manetho (third century B.C., Egypt) and Herodotus (Histories, c. 440 B.C.) and later, Aristotle (384-322 B.C., Natural History of Animals). The biblical writers were something in between: The view of these ancient Hebrew writers is that history has a planned goal. History is not the result of forces or great men, but moves forward to an end planned by God. Their purpose in writing history was didactic: to teach the reader about how God acts in human affairs, what are His purposes and the consequences of obedience and disobedience to that purpose.

NUMBERS IN THE BIBLE

by Kirk Lowery

The modern reader of the Bible—especially of the Old Testament—often finds its use of numbers strange. The ancient world did not use numbers for every aspect of life. Their technology did not require many places past the decimal point of precision, or even a decimal point at all. The Bible has been closely read and interpreted by many cultures through more than four millennia. So the modern reader reads these ancient texts through the lens of all this history of interpretation. How others in the past have interpreted the numbers of the Bible influences a reader's understanding. How ought the numbers found in the Bible to be understood? They are to be understood in the same way that any other part of the text is understood: by how they are used and by keeping in mind both the textual context in which numbers occur and also the cultural context of how numbers were used by those ancient societies with which Israel lived and interacted.

Assyria, Egypt, Greece, and Rome used the decimal system for numbers. That is, numbers were expressed in base 10. ("Number" refers to the mathematical entity of quantity. "Numeral" refers to the symbol used to represent a number.) Sumerians and ancient Babylonians used the sexagesimal system, base 60, which is not unfamiliar to us since we use it every day—our system of timekeeping and navigation uses the sexagesimal system: 60 seconds to one minute, 60 minutes to one hour; 360 degrees to a circle subdivided into 60 minutes/degree and 60 seconds/minute. The ancient Israelites used the decimal system, as did their immediate neighbors in Canaan. For the most part, the major inscriptions of early Israel write out the numbers by words—"ten" rather than "10"—as is also true of the Old Testament itself. There is no instance of symbols being used, but all numbers are written out as words. The earliest (c. 140 B.C.) use of the Hebrew alphabet for numerals is to be found on Maccabean coins.

How did the biblical writers use numbers? They used them to count things and people. They used them for weights, measures, and time. They were familiar with arithmetic: addition (Gn 5:3-31; Nm 1:20-46), subtraction (Gn 18:26ff), and multiplication (Lv 25:8; Nm 3:46ff). Arithmetic processes are not mentioned in the New Testament. The frequent use of fractions shows a basic understanding of division: half (Ex 24:6); one fourth (Neh 9:3; Rv 6:8); one fifth (Gn 47:24); a tenth (Nm 18:26). Numbers are important in Daniel, Ezekiel, and Revelation. In summary, the biblical writers used numbers literally, rhetorically, and symbolically. They are never used mystically. Each use is addressed in turn below.

When the Bible uses numbers in the ordinary way, do they mean what they apparently mean? Some interpreters suppose that since the biblical writers were "pre-scientific," the numbers are not to be taken seriously. This supposition is flawed, however, for many non-scientific cultures record numbers that can be taken perfectly seriously (such as the astronomical observations of the Babylonians or the administrative records of the ancient Egyptians). The use of numbers is very culture-specific: Some languages have only the numbers "one, two, many," because they do not need greater precision than that. Modern society is permeated with numbers for every conceivable aspect of life. The ancient world was not that way. The ancients did not give a unique number to their citizens, did not number their roads, etc. But regardless of the level of technological development, every society has to deal with numbers in a real way to function. For some, the system may be simple, for others, very complex. Ancient Israel was no exception: Tolls and taxes were recorded, censuses were taken.

The biblical writers often used round numbers, a fact that should be noted in questions of reliability and trustworthiness of the biblical record. For example, we find "a hundred" (and "100") used as a round number (Gn 26:12; Lv 26:8; 2 Sm 24:3; Ec 8:12; Mt 19:29), as well as “a thousand” (Dt 1:11; 7:9). The word “about” often precedes rounded numbers: “about 3,000 men” (Ex 32:28). On the other hand, numbers which could be interpreted as rounded numbers are often intended as actual amounts: “1,000 pieces of silver” (Gn 20:16). In general, one should assume a number is not rounded, unless there is reason to believe otherwise. Smaller numbers are less likely to be rounded than larger ones.

Much ink has been spilled debating the meaning of large numbers in the Bible. There are the large, indefinite numbers, and these do not present an interpretive problem. The highest recorded numbers are one million (2 Ch 14:9), ten thousand times ten thousand (Dn 7:10), thousands of thousands (Rv 5:11), and 200 million (Rv 9:16), the highest number recorded.

The long life spans of the pre-flood patriarchs have been compared to the Sumerian king list, whose life spans are recorded in the tens of thousands of years. The Sumerian kings’ life spans have been called “mythical,” so why not the biblical patriarchs’ ages? After all, everyone knows humans rarely live beyond 100 years, never mind 500 or 1,000. The actual fact is that we don’t know. The Sumerian king list records life spans on an order of magnitude greater than the biblical names. If both reflect a tradition about antediluvian times, what they may both be saying is that those ancient people lived an extraordinarily long time. Some have suggested that environmental conditions could explain it; others suggest mankind’s closer proximity to its original sinless estate explains it. We just don’t know how to explain the apparently impossible life spans. What we have is a witness (the Bible) that has proved trustworthy too often to dismiss.

The Bible records the number of men capable of bearing arms at the time of the exodus to be 603,550 (Nm 1:46). From this, it has been calculated that the entire population leaving Egypt would be about two million. Could such a number survive in the wilderness? The answer is no. Neither could a hundredth of that many survive on their own. It required God’s provision because that part of the world would have been simply unable to support large numbers of nomads, especially without modern farming methods and technology. It required God to actively intervene in Israel’s physical history in order for them to leave Egypt and subsequently survive. That is the point of the Exodus narrative.

There have been various attempts to reduce the real numbers of the exodus by understanding the Hebrew term for “thousand” (eleph) as “captain” or “family, clan.” There is evidence for this use of the term in Nm 1:16; Jdg 6:15; 1 Sm 10:19; and Mc 5:2. But in the census lists of the book of Numbers, the numbers of the tribes is calculated in terms of thousands, hundreds, and fifties. Gad, for example, numbered 45,650 (Nm 1:25). And the total given to Israel’s army (Nm 1:46) can only be arrived at if we calculate using eleph as meaning “thousand.” Difficult to explain or not, the text is clear as to its intended meaning.

Numbers are also used in the Bible for rhetorical effect. They are used for contrast in poetic parallelism: “As they celebrated, the women sang: Saul has killed his thousands, but David his tens of thousands” (1 Sm 18:7). Perhaps the most common is to use the formula  $x \dots x + 1$  to express progression, intensification, completion, or some sort of climax: “The LORD says: I will not relent from punishing Israel for three crimes, even four . . .” (Am 2:6). Amos used the phrase in a string of condemnations of the sins of the surrounding lands. By using the same phrase for Israel and Judah, he was saying “you are no better than they,” and so had a stronger impact upon his audience. The  $x \dots x + 1$  formula is also used in the NT (e.g., Mt 18:20). Perhaps the most popular interpretation of numbers in the Bible is their symbolic meaning. The numbers 1, 3, 5, 7, 10, 12, and 40 among others have been assigned various meanings such as “unity,” “perfection,” “completion,” and “generation.” Where do these interpretations come from? The surprising fact is that only one number in the entire Bible is explicitly said to be symbolic: “Here is wisdom: The one who has understanding must calculate the number of the beast, because it is the number of a man. His number is 666” (Rv 13:18).

Nowhere else are we told that numbers are used symbolically in any way. Any other symbolism for a number must be inferred from the biblical text itself by demonstrating a frequent association of a particular number with a particular concept. The only candidate for such an association is the number 7. And its usage is so diverse (seven days of creation; Jacob's seven years of service for Rachel; seven-fold curse of Cain; praising God seven times a day as in Ps 119:164) that it is hard to pin down a consistent meaning, but "completeness" or "perfection" appear to be the intended symbolism most of the time.

Where do all the other traditionally associated meanings and instances of symbolism come from? Modern lists of symbolic meanings of the biblical use of numbers most closely follow the system of meanings proposed by the sixth century B.C. Greek mathematician and philosopher, Pythagoras. Famous for his "Pythagorean Theorem," he also founded a religious cult with the belief that the "real" world was the realm of numbers and that those numbers explain why the physical world is the way it is. He speculated on the mystic and symbolic properties of numbers, which are the early origins of number theory. His ideas were picked up by the Gnostics in the apostolic and post-apostolic eras. Even the early church fathers were influenced by this approach to biblical interpretation, although not universally. Irenaeus (c. A.D. 140–200) classified it with other heresies: "Nor should they seek to prosecute inquiries respecting God by means of numbers, syllables, and letters. . . . For system does not spring out of numbers, but numbers from a system; nor does God derive His being from things made, but things made from God. For all things originate from one and the same God" (Against Heresies, Bk II:25:1). This is a direct refutation of Pythagorean metaphysics.

It is a small step from looking for symbolic meaning in numbers to seeking hidden meaning in numbers. After Alexander the Great conquered Palestine, Greek philosophies influenced Jewish thinking. From Pythagorean influence sprang Jewish Gematria, the system of interpretation that says there is hidden, intended meaning in the numeric values of a word. Since the Greeks had no separate writing system to express numerals, the ancients used Greek letters instead. Words could be broken up into letters, and mathematical operations could be done on the numeric values of those letters. Those numeric values were given mystical meanings loosely based upon Pythagorean numeric metaphysics described above. The Jews applied these procedures to the words of the Hebrew Bible using the letters of the Hebrew alphabet for numbers and claimed to discover hidden meaning and messages from God intended for the faithful. The church fathers were attracted to this form of interpretation of the Bible because of its apparent value in proving the inspiration and truth of the scriptures. In this way, Gematria passed into Christian circles and is still practiced today by many.

There is no historical or archaeological evidence of any culture using letters for numerals before the Greeks. The human authors of the Old Testament would have had no cultural model or literary form to suggest to them that they write a message in code. There is no hint in the Bible that there is any message encoded in the letters of the text. There is no procedure or mathematical operation common to the time of the writers of the Bible that the writers could conceivably expect a reader to know to use to discover the encoded meaning. We must conclude that the only way intelligible results can be obtained this way is by starting with the message one wishes to find! Then, using mathematical deduction, one proceeds to create the steps needed to get to that message from the numeric values of the biblical text, just like one would attempt to prove a theorem in number theory.

God's message of salvation for mankind was intended to be intelligible to everyone, of all ages and from all cultures. Certainly numbers in the Bible are sometimes difficult to understand, and there are "mysteries" about the future that are deliberately couched in ambiguous or symbolic wording. But at no time—with the one exception in Revelation noted above—is the reader exhorted to resort to mathematics. God does not speak to us in "code."

THE CHRONOLOGY OF THE KINGS OF ISRAEL AND JUDAH

by Kirk Lowery

Whether it is a simple story or a complex history, a key element is time. It establishes cause and effect, act and consequence. The books of Kings are not exempt from the need to relate one event to another in time. The author traces the action of kings and rulers throughout time by recording the beginning, end, and duration of one reign after another. Modern readers naturally want to relate the chronology of the books of Kings to the dating systems we use today so we can relate the events narrated there to each other and to contemporaneous events in the lands surrounding ancient Israel and Judah in order to recover the original context of those events.

The books of Kings synchronize the reigns of the northern and southern kingdoms of the divided monarchy as well as proving the number of years a king reigned. But there is a very significant problem. These numbers and the synchronomies appear to be in constant contradiction with one another. It appears difficult, if not impossible, to create a chronology that accounts for all these numbers and agrees with established chronologies of the ancient Near East. These conflicts of numbers have led many to conclude that the books of Kings cannot be faithful witnesses to the history of Israel. If the writer got the numbers wrong, what else did he get wrong?

Here is an example of one problem: Often the synchronomy given for the beginning of a reign does not correlate with the total number of years given for that reign. First Kings 15:25 says the reign of Nadab of Israel begins in the second year of Asa of Judah. First Kings 15:28 says Nadab died in the third year of Asa; that is, he reigned for one year. But 1 Kings 15:25 says he reigned for two years. This is one category of conflict. A second category of conflict is concerning the year a king is supposed to have begun his reign. Second Kings 3:1 says Joram began to reign in Israel in the eighteenth year of Jehoshaphat of Judah. But 2 Kings 1:17 says he began to reign in the second year of Jehoram the son of Jehoshaphat. The sum of regnal years for Israel and Judah is a third source of discrepancy. The total number of years for the kings of Israel from Jehu through Pekahiah is 114 years and 7 months. For the same period of time in Judah (from Athaliah through Azariah) the total comes to 128 years, a 14-year discrepancy. When we compare the sum of the regnal years for Israel as compared to the same period for Assyria, we find Israel's kings reigned 12 years longer than the Assyrian kings. And Judah's kings reigned longer by 25 years! Since the numbers do not match up, we must conclude that either someone made an error or the numbers mean something different than we suppose.

In 1951 Edwin Thiele published The Mysterious Numbers of the Hebrew Kings in which he presented solutions to the problems outlined above. His discoveries and principles used to harmonize the regnal years of Israel and Judah with an absolute chronology are summarized here.

In the northern kingdom, Israel, the regnal year was calculated from the month of Nisan in the spring, but in Judah, the regnal year began in the month of Tishri in the autumn. Both of these systems overlap the January new year of modern calendars. It must also be kept in mind that both calendar systems are lunar rather than the solar calendar used today; that is, each month consisted of exactly 30 days following the phases of the moon. An important consequence of all this is that a regnal year in Israel begins in the spring and will overlap parts of two regnal years in Judah which begin in the autumn. If a king of Judah came to the throne just before January, his accession year would synchronize with, for example, the third regnal year of a king in Israel. However, if the Judean king came to the throne six months later in the following summer, his accession year would synchronize with the fourth year of the Israelite king.

A second principle used to resolve numeric conflicts is to understand that the method of calculating the regnal years was different in the two kingdoms. Is the first year of a king to include a partial year up to the next new year, or is the first year of a king's reign to be calculated from the following new year's beginning? In the ancient Near East, some countries followed the former method and others the latter. The former method is called "accession year" dating, and the partial year is not counted; it could be called "Year Zero." The latter method is called "non-accession year" dating and counts any partial year as "Year One." This means that nations using the non-accession year dating system are always one year ahead of those that use accession year dating. And for every new king, the years increase by one in absolute time. For non-accession year dating, one must subtract one year for every king, in order to keep in sync with absolute chronology.

Judah used the accession-year system for Rehoboam through Jehoshaphat; then the non-accession-year system was employed from Jehoram to Joash. Beginning with the next ruler, Amaziah, Judah returned to the accession-year system until the destruction of Jerusalem. In Israel, the non-accession-year system only was used throughout its history; that is, from Jeroboam to Jehoahaz. For example, the total number of official years of reign for the Judean kings Rehoboam through Jehoshaphat are 79; the total number of regnal years for the same period in Israel (Jeroboam through Ahaziah) is 86. But when we subtract one year for each of the seven kings of Israel because of Israel's use of the non-accession-year system, the final sum is 79 years, which agrees with the Judean record.

A further source of confusion is how the regnal years are reported. Since each nation had its own method of reporting (accession year or non-accession-year), it reported the numbers of the other kingdom according to its own method. Thus, Rehoboam had a 17-year reign according to Judah's accession-year recording system, but Israel's non-accession-year system reckoned 18 years for Rehoboam. First Kings 15:25 says Nadab's rule over Israel began in the second year of Asa of Judah. Since Israel used a non-accession-year system, the second year of Asa would be the first year according to Judean accession-year dating. Depending upon which source the author was using, the Historical Record of Israel's Kings (1 Kg 14:19) or the Historical Record of Judah's Kings (1 Kg 14:29), the calculation of the regnal years and the synchronization between two kings must take these differences into account.

A fourth principle used to resolve regnal year numeric conflicts is to recognize that some reigns overlap (especially in Israel) and some kings were coregents (especially in Judah). Sometimes these overlappings and coregencies are mentioned explicitly in the text (e.g., 1 Kg 16:21-23) in a form called "dual dating." More often, the overlapping reigns must be deduced and reconstructed. In all, nine overlapping reigns have been identified, six for Judah and three for Israel.

How is the relative chronology of the Hebrew kings correlated with contemporary historical events? Lists of Assyrian kings record an eclipse which astronomical calculations determine to have occurred on June 15, 763 B.C. This allows us to fix the absolute date of most of the Assyrian kings and hence the various events of their reigns from their court records. In the sixth year of Shalmaneser III, the Assyrians fought a coalition of Aramean kings (now modern Syria) called "the Battle of Qarqar" in 853 B.C., and among the names of the kings listed is Ahab of Israel. (This event is not recorded in the Bible.) In the eighteenth year of Shalmaneser III, in 841 B.C., Assyrian records show that Shalmaneser received tribute from Jehu, king of Israel. There are 12 years between the Battle of Qarqar and the receipt of Jehu's tribute and also 12 years between the death of Ahab and the ascension of Jehu (1 Kg 22:51). Thus, Ahab died in 853 B.C. and Jehu ascended the throne in 841 B.C. This allows for further calculations of absolute dates for many other kings of Israel and Judah. Another synchronization from Assyrian records is the year 701 B.C. when Sennacherib of Assyria besieged Jerusalem during the fourteenth year of Hezekiah's reign (2 Kg 18:13). From the Battle of Qarqar in 853 B.C. to Sennacherib's campaign against Hezekiah in 701 B.C. is a span of 152 years, according to Assyrian chronology. According to the properly calculated years of Israelite and Judean kings from the death of Ahab to the fourteenth year of Hezekiah is also 152 years, proving the synchronization and method of reckoning regnal years is correct.

The history of biblical studies in the twentieth century has shown again and again that major "problems" of the biblical record have been the result of modern ignorance of the ancient world. The resolution of the apparent conflicts of the chronology of the books of Kings shows the reliability and trustworthiness of the biblical record to the history of the ancient Near East.

See the chart of kings in the section of charts and maps at the back of the Bible. This chart is an absolute chronology of the kings of Israel and Judah, taking into account the beginning of regnal years, overlapping reigns, coregencies, dual datings, and accession- and non-accession-year dating systems.

The Creation

1† In the beginning God created the heavens and the earth. <sup>A</sup>

TWISTED SCRIPTURE

Genesis 1:1-2

The creation story has been interpreted in various ways. Some Christians believe a time gap exists between these verses, with verse 1 referring to God's initial creative act and verse 2 describing a world plunged into chaos and darkness, possibly through the expulsion of Satan from heaven. Only later in the chapter does God choose to create human beings (v. 27). According to this gap theory, millions of years could have passed between verses 1 and 2.

Using similar logic, those followers of the New Age movement who believe in the existence of the lost continent of Atlantis place the rise and fall of the ancient civilization between verses 1-2. Edgar Cayce, known as the "sleeping prophet," taught that Atlantis existed 10 million years ago and was inhabited by spirit beings. After a cataclysmic destruction ("chaos and darkness"), the spirits of the inhabitants eventually took up residence in the bodies of Adam and Eve and the others who populated God's new creation (v. 27). Thus all earthlings originally resided in Atlantis.

<sup>2</sup> Now the earth was <sup>B</sup> formless and empty, darkness covered the surface of the watery depths, and the Spirit of God was hovering over the surface of the waters. <sup>3</sup> Then God said, "Let there be light," and there was light.

<sup>4</sup> God saw that the light was good, and God separated the light from the darkness. <sup>5</sup> God called the light "day," and He called the darkness "night." Evening came and then morning: the first day.

<sup>6</sup> Then God said, "Let there be an expanse between the waters, separating water from water." <sup>7</sup> So God made the expanse and separated the water under the expanse from the water above the expanse. And it was so. <sup>8</sup> God called the expanse "sky." <sup>C</sup> Evening came and then morning: the second day.

land “earth,” and He called the gathering of the water “seas.” And God saw that it was good. <sup>11</sup> Then God said, “Let the earth produce vegetation: seed-bearing plants and fruit trees on the earth bearing fruit with seed in it according to their kinds.” And it was so. <sup>12</sup> The earth produced vegetation: seed-bearing plants according to their kinds and trees bearing fruit with seed in it according to their kinds. And God saw that it was good.

<sup>14†</sup> Then God said, “Let there be lights in the expanse of the sky to separate the day from the night. They will serve as signs for festivals <sup>D</sup> and for days and years. <sup>15</sup> They will be lights in the expanse of the sky to provide light on the earth.” And it was so. <sup>16</sup> God made the two great lights — the greater light to have dominion over the day and the lesser light to have dominion over the night — as well as the stars. <sup>17</sup> God placed them in the expanse of the sky to provide light on the earth, <sup>18</sup> to dominate the day and the night, and to separate light from darkness. And God saw that it was good. <sup>19</sup> Evening came and then morning: the fourth day.

<sup>24</sup> Then God said, “Let the earth produce living creatures according to their kinds: livestock, creatures that crawl, and the wildlife of the earth according to their kinds.” And it was so. <sup>25</sup> So God made the wildlife of the earth according to their kinds, the livestock according to their kinds, and creatures that crawl on the ground according to their kinds. And God saw that it was good.

<sup>26†</sup> Then God said, “Let Us make man in Our image, according to Our likeness. They will rule the fish of the sea, the birds of the sky, the livestock, all the earth, and the creatures that crawl <sup>G</sup> on the earth.”

He created him in the image of God;
He created them male and female.

TWISTED SCRIPTURE

Genesis 1:27

Modern-day vampires trace their origins to this verse and the mythical figure of Lilith, who was supposedly created before Eve. The legend of Lilith derives from a theory that Genesis has two creation accounts (this verse and 2:7,20-22). The two stories allow for two different women. Lilith does not appear in the Bible (apart from a debatable reference comparing her to a screech owl in the Hb text of Is 34:14). Some rabbinic commentators, however, refer to Lilith as the first created woman, who refused to submit to Adam and fled from the garden. Eve was then created to be Adam's helper. After their expulsion from the garden, Adam reunited for a time with Lilith before finally returning to Eve. Lilith bore Adam a number of children, who became the demons of the Bible. According to kabbalistic legend, after Adam's reconciliation with Eve, Lilith took the title Queen of the Demons and became a murderer of infants and young boys, whom she turned into vampires.

<sup>28</sup> God blessed them, and God said to them, “Be fruitful, multiply, fill the earth, and subdue it. Rule the fish of the sea, the birds of the sky, and every creature that crawls <sup>H</sup> on the earth.” <sup>29</sup> God also said, “Look, I have given you every seed-bearing plant on the surface of the entire earth and every tree whose fruit contains seed. This food will be for you, <sup>30</sup> for all the wildlife of the earth, for every bird of the sky, and for every creature that crawls on the earth — everything having the breath of life in it. I have given every green plant for food.” And it was so.<sup>31</sup> God saw all that He had made, and it was very good. Evening came and then morning: the sixth day.

GENESIS

2 So the heavens and the earth and everything in them <sup>A</sup> were completed.
2† By the seventh day God completed His work that He had done, and He rested <sup>B</sup> on the seventh day from all His work that He had done. <sup>3</sup> God blessed the seventh day and declared it holy, for on it He rested from His work of creation. <sup>C</sup>

Man and Woman in the Garden

4† These are the records of the heavens and the earth, concerning their creation at the time <sup>D</sup> that the LORD God made the earth and the heavens.
5 No shrub of the field had yet grown on the land, <sup>E</sup> and no plant of the field had yet sprouted, for the LORD God had not made it rain on the land, and there was no man to work the ground. <sup>6</sup> But water would come out of the ground and water the entire surface of the land. <sup>7†</sup> Then the LORD God formed the man out of the dust from the ground and breathed the breath of life into his nostrils, and the man became a living being.

TWISTED SCRIPTURE

Genesis 2:7

A ccording to modern-day psychics, this "breath of life" enables humans to exhibit supernatural abilities. Most people, however, do not know how to tap into this power. Such a bizarre conclusion cannot be derived from the text. A better interpretation is that the "breath of life" is simply the animating force of the body.

<sup>8</sup> The LORD God planted a garden in Eden, in the east, and there He placed the man He had formed. <sup>9</sup> The LORD God caused to grow out of the ground every tree pleasing in appearance and good for food, including the tree of life in the middle of the garden, as well as the tree of the knowledge of good and evil.

This one, at last, is bone of my bone and flesh of my flesh;
this one will be called “woman,” for she was taken from man.

GENESIS

The Temptation and the Fall

3 Now the serpent was the most cunning of all the wild animals that the LORD God had made. He said to the woman, “Did God really say, ‘You can’t eat from any tree in the garden’?”

<sup>2</sup> The woman said to the serpent, “We may eat the fruit from the trees in the garden. <sup>3</sup> But about the fruit of the tree in the middle of the garden, God said, ‘You must not eat it or touch it, or you will die.’”

<sup>4†</sup> “No! You will not die,” the serpent said to the woman. <sup>5</sup> “In fact, God knows that when <sup>A</sup> you eat it your eyes will be opened and you will be like God, <sup>B</sup> knowing good and evil.” <sup>6</sup> Then the woman saw that the tree was good for food and delightful to look at, and that it was desirable for obtaining wisdom. So she took some of its fruit and ate it; she also gave some to her husband, who was with her, and he ate it. <sup>7</sup> Then the eyes of both of them were opened, and they knew they were naked; so they sewed fig leaves together and made loincloths for themselves.

TWISTED SCRIPTURE

Genesis 3:5

Mormons believe humans can reach godhood. This verse clearly shows that the idea originated with the serpent and is contrary to God's revelation (2:17).

Sin's Consequences

<sup>8†</sup> Then the man and his wife heard the sound of the LORD God walking in the garden at the time of the evening breeze, <sup>C</sup> and they hid themselves from the LORD God among the trees of the garden. <sup>9†</sup> So the LORD God called out to the man and said to him, “Where are you?”

<sup>10</sup> And he said, “I heard You <sup>D</sup> in the garden and I was afraid because I was naked, so I hid.”

<sup>11</sup> Then He asked, “Who told you that you were naked? Did you eat from the tree that I commanded you not to eat from? ”

<sup>12</sup> Then the man replied, “The woman You gave to be with me — she gave me some fruit from the tree, and I ate.”

<sup>13</sup> So the LORD God asked the woman, “What is this you have done? ”

And the woman said, “It was the serpent. He deceived me, and I ate.”

<sup>14†</sup> Then the LORD God said to the serpent:

Because you have done this,
you are cursed more than any livestock and more than any wild animal.

You will move on your belly and eat dust all the days of your life.

<sup>15†</sup> I will put hostility between you and the woman, and between your •seed and her seed.

He will strike your head, and you will strike his heel.

<sup>16†</sup> He said to the woman:

TWISTED SCRIPTURE

Genesis 3:15

Many Pentecostal Oneness sects use this verse to promote the serpent seed theory. William Branham, a faith healing evangelist of the 1940s, taught that Eve's sin in the garden was an illicit sexual affair with the serpent, resulting in her pregnancy. The serpent's seed was Cain and his descendants. Scripture is clear that the first sin was not sexual but rather consisted of Adam's disobedience to God's command not to eat from the tree of the knowledge of good and evil (2:16-17).

I will intensify your labor pains;
you will bear children in anguish.
Your desire will be for your husband, yet he will rule over you.

<sup>17</sup> And He said to Adam, “Because you listened to your wife’s voice and ate from the tree about which I commanded you, ‘Do not eat from it’:

The ground is cursed because of you.
You will eat from it by means of painful labor <sup>E</sup> all the days of your life.

<sup>18</sup> It will produce thorns and thistles for you, and you will eat the plants of the field.

until you return to the ground, since you were taken from it.
For you are dust,
and you will return to dust.”

<sup>22†</sup> The LORD God said, “Since man has become like one of Us, knowing good and evil, he must not reach out, take from the tree of life, eat, and live forever.” <sup>23</sup> So the LORD God sent him away from the garden of Eden to work the ground from which he was taken. <sup>24</sup> He drove man out and stationed the •cherubim and the flaming, whirling sword east of the garden of Eden to guard the way to the tree of life.

GENESIS

Cain Murders Abel

<sup>4</sup> Adam was intimate with his wife Eve, and she conceived and gave birth to Cain. She said, “I have had a male child with the LORD’s help.” <sup>A</sup>

<sup>2</sup> Then she also gave birth to his brother Abel. Now Abel became a shepherd of flocks, but Cain worked the ground. <sup>3</sup> In the course of time Cain presented some of the land’s produce as an offering to the LORD.

<sup>4†</sup> And Abel also presented an offering — some of the firstborn of his flock and their fat portions. The LORD had regard for Abel and his offering, <sup>5</sup> but He did not have regard for Cain and his offering. Cain was furious, and he looked despondent. <sup>B</sup>

<sup>8</sup> Cain said to his brother Abel, “Let’s go out to the field.” And while they were in the field, Cain attacked his brother Abel and killed him.

<sup>9</sup> Then the LORD said to Cain, “Where is your brother Abel? ”

“I don’t know,” he replied. “Am I my brother’s guardian? ”

<sup>10</sup> Then He said, “What have you done? Your brother’s blood cries out to Me from the ground! <sup>11</sup> So now you are cursed, alienated, from the ground that opened its mouth to receive your brother’s blood you have shed. <sup>D</sup>

<sup>12†</sup> If you work the ground, it will never again give you its yield. You will be a restless wanderer on the earth.”

<sup>14</sup> Since You are banishing me today from the soil, and I must hide myself from Your presence and become a restless wanderer on the earth, whoever finds me will kill me.”

<sup>15†</sup> Then the LORD replied to him, “In that case, whoever kills Cain will suffer vengeance seven times over.” <sup>F</sup> And He placed a mark on Cain so that whoever found him would not kill him.<sup>16</sup> Then Cain went out from the LORD's presence and lived in the land of Nod, east of Eden.

The Line of Cain

<sup>17†</sup> Cain was intimate with his wife, and she conceived and gave birth to Enoch. Then Cain became the builder of a city, and he named the city Enoch after his son.<sup>18</sup> Irad was born to Enoch, Irad fathered Mehujael, Mehujael fathered Methushael, and Methushael fathered Lamech.

<sup>19†</sup> Lamech took two wives for himself, one named Adah and the other named Zillah.<sup>20</sup> Adah bore Jabal; he was the father of the nomadic herdsmen. <sup>G</sup><sup>21</sup> His brother was named Jubal; he was the father of all who play the lyre and the flute.<sup>22</sup> Zillah bore Tubal-cain, who made all kinds of bronze and iron tools. Tubal-cain's sister was Naamah.

TWISTED SCRIPTURE

Genesis 4:19

Mormons cite this verse and their own scriptures (Doctrines and Covenants, section 132) in order to justify polygamy. Polygamy, however, came into existence only after the fall in the garden. The creation mandate directs that a man shall be joined to one wife (2:24). Other verses that teach monogamy include Pr 5:18-19; Mal 2:14-15; Mk 10:2-8; 1 Co 7:2,10; 1 Tm 3:2,12; and Ti 1:6. While there are examples of polygamy in the OT (2 Sm 5:13; 1 Kg 11:3), they did not receive God's approval. Instead God, in His mercy, issued laws to protect the many wives and children of polygamists.

Adah and Zillah, hear my voice;
wives of Lamech, pay attention to my words.
For I killed a man for wounding me, a young man for striking me.

then for Lamech it will be seventy-seven times!

<sup>25</sup> Adam was intimate with his wife again, and she gave birth to a son and named him Seth, for she said, “God has given me another child in place of Abel, since Cain killed him.” <sup>26</sup> A son was born to Seth also, and he named him Enosh. At that time people began to call on the name of •Yahweh.

GENESIS

The Line of Seth

5 These are the family <sup>A</sup> records of the descendants of Adam. On the day that God created man, <sup>B</sup> He made him in the likeness of God; <sup>2</sup> He created them male and female. When they were created, He blessed them and called them man. <sup>C</sup>

<sup>3</sup> Adam was 130 years old when he fathered a son in his likeness, according to his image, and named him Seth. <sup>4</sup> Adam lived 800 years after the birth of Seth, and he fathered other sons and daughters. <sup>5</sup> So Adam's life lasted 930 years; then he died.

<sup>6</sup> Seth was 105 years old when he fathered Enosh. <sup>7</sup> Seth lived 807 years after the birth of Enosh, and he fathered other sons and daughters. <sup>8</sup> So Seth's life lasted 912 years; then he died.

<sup>9</sup> Enosh was 90 years old when he fathered Kenan. <sup>10</sup> Enosh lived 815 years after the birth of Kenan, and he fathered other sons and daughters. <sup>11</sup> So Enosh's life lasted 905 years; then he died.

<sup>12</sup> Kenan was 70 years old when he fathered Mahalalel. <sup>13</sup> Kenan lived 840 years after the birth of Mahalalel, and he fathered other sons and daughters. <sup>14</sup> So Kenan's life lasted 910 years; then he died.

<sup>15</sup> Mahalalel was 65 years old when he fathered Jared. <sup>16</sup> Mahalalel lived 830 years after the birth of Jared, and he fathered other sons and daughters. <sup>17</sup> So Mahalalel's life lasted 895 years; then he died.

<sup>18</sup> Jared was 162 years old when he fathered Enoch. <sup>19</sup> Jared lived 800 years after the birth of Enoch, and he fathered other sons and daughters. <sup>20</sup> So Jared's life lasted 962 years; then he died.

<sup>21</sup> Enoch was 65 years old when he fathered Methuselah. <sup>22</sup> And after the birth of Methuselah, Enoch walked with God 300 years and fathered other sons and daughters. <sup>23</sup> So Enoch's life lasted 365 years. <sup>24†</sup> Enoch walked with God; then he was not there because God took him.

<sup>26</sup> Methuselah lived 782 years after the birth of Lamech, and he fathered other sons and daughters. <sup>27</sup> So Methuselah's life lasted 969 years; then he died.

Sons of God and Daughters of Men

6 When mankind began to multiply on the earth and daughters were born to them, <sup>2†</sup> the sons of God saw that the daughters of mankind were beautiful, and they took any they chose as wives <sup>A</sup> for themselves. <sup>3</sup> And the LORD said, “My Spirit will not remain <sup>B</sup> with <sup>C</sup> mankind forever, because they are corrupt. <sup>D</sup> Their days will be 120 years.” <sup>4</sup> The Nephilim were on the earth both in those days and afterward, when the sons of God came to the daughters of mankind, who bore children to them. They were the powerful men of old, the famous men.

Judgment Decreed

<sup>5</sup> When the LORD saw that man’s wickedness was widespread on the earth and that every scheme his mind thought of was nothing but evil all the time, <sup>6†</sup> the LORD regretted that He had made man on the earth, and He was grieved in His heart. <sup>7</sup> Then the LORD said, “I will wipe off from the face of the earth mankind, whom I created, together with the animals, creatures that crawl, and birds of the sky — for I regret that I made them.” <sup>8</sup> Noah, however, found favor in the sight of the LORD.

God Warns Noah

<sup>11</sup> Now the earth was corrupt in God’s sight, and the earth was filled with wickedness. <sup>E</sup> <sup>12</sup> God saw how corrupt the earth was, for every creature had corrupted its way on the earth. <sup>13</sup> Then God said to Noah, “I have decided to put an end to every creature, for the earth is filled with wickedness <sup>F</sup> because of them; therefore I am going to destroy them along with the earth.

roof. You are to put a door in the side of the ark. Make it with lower, middle, and upper decks.

<sup>17†</sup> “Understand that I am bringing a flood — floodwaters on the earth to destroy every creature under heaven with the breath of life in it. Everything on earth will die. <sup>18</sup> But I will establish My covenant with you, and you will enter the ark with your sons, your wife, and your sons’ wives. <sup>19</sup> You are also to bring into the ark two of all the living creatures, male and female, to keep them alive with you. <sup>20</sup> Two of everything — from the birds according to their kinds, from the livestock according to their kinds, and from the animals that crawl on the ground according to their kinds — will come to you so that you can keep them alive. <sup>21</sup> Take with you every kind of food that is eaten; gather it as food for you and for them.” <sup>22</sup> And Noah did this. He did everything that God had commanded him.

Entering the Ark

7 Then the LORD said to Noah, “Enter the ark, you and all your household, for I have seen that you alone are righteous before Me in this generation. <sup>2</sup> You are to take with you seven pairs, a male and its female, of all the •clean animals, and two of the animals that are not clean, a male and its female, <sup>3</sup> and seven pairs, male and female, of the birds of the sky — in order to keep •offspring alive on the face of the whole earth. <sup>4†</sup> Seven days from now I will make it rain on the earth 40 days and 40 nights, and I will wipe off from the face of the earth every living thing I have made.” <sup>5</sup> And Noah did everything that the LORD commanded him.

The Flood

<sup>11</sup> In the six hundredth year of Noah’s life, in the second month, on the seventeenth day of the month, on that day all the sources of the watery depths burst open, the floodgates of the sky were opened, <sup>12†</sup> and the rain fell on the earth 40 days and 40 nights. <sup>13†</sup> On that same day Noah along with his sons Shem, Ham, and Japheth, Noah’s wife, and his three sons’ wives entered the ark with him. <sup>14</sup> They entered it with all the wildlife according to their kinds, all livestock according to their kinds, the creatures that crawl on the earth according to their kinds, all birds, every fowl, and everything with wings according to their kinds. <sup>15</sup> Two of all flesh that has the breath of life in it entered the ark with Noah. <sup>16</sup> Those that entered, male and female of all flesh, entered just as God had commanded him. Then the LORD shut him in.

water. <sup>19</sup> Then the waters surged even higher on the earth, and all the high mountains under the whole sky were covered. <sup>20†</sup> The mountains were covered as the waters surged above them more than 20 feet. <sup>A 21</sup> Every creature perished — those that crawl on the earth, birds, livestock, wildlife, and those that swarm <sup>B</sup> on the earth, as well as all mankind. <sup>22</sup> Everything with the breath of the spirit of life in its nostrils — everything on dry land died. <sup>23</sup> He wiped out every living thing that was on the surface of the ground, from mankind to livestock, to creatures that crawl, to the birds of the sky, and they were wiped off the earth. Only Noah was left, and those that were with him in the ark. <sup>24</sup> And the waters surged on the earth 150 days.

GENESIS

The Flood Recedes

8 God remembered Noah, as well as all the wildlife and all the livestock that were with him in the ark. God caused a wind <sup>A</sup> to pass over the earth, and the water began to subside. <sup>2</sup> The sources of the watery depths and the floodgates of the sky were closed, and the rain from the sky stopped. <sup>3</sup> The water steadily receded from the earth, and by the end of 150 days the waters had decreased significantly. <sup>4</sup> The ark came to rest in the seventh month, on the seventeenth day of the month, on the mountains of Ararat.

<sup>5</sup> The waters continued to recede until the tenth month; in the tenth month, on the first day of the month, the tops of the mountains were visible. <sup>6</sup> After 40 days Noah opened the window of the ark that he had made, <sup>7</sup> and he sent out a raven. It went back and forth until the waters had dried up from the earth. <sup>8</sup> Then he sent out a dove to see whether the water on the earth's surface had gone down, <sup>9</sup> but the dove found no resting place for her foot. She returned to him in the ark because water covered the surface of the whole earth. He reached out and brought her into the ark to himself. <sup>10</sup> So Noah waited seven more days and sent out the dove from the ark again. <sup>11</sup> When the dove came to him at evening, there was a plucked olive leaf in her beak. So Noah knew that the water on the earth's surface had gone down. <sup>12</sup> After he had waited another seven days, he sent out the dove, but she did not return to him again. <sup>13†</sup> In the six hundred and first year, in the first month, on the first day of the month, the water that had covered the earth was dried up. Then Noah removed the ark's cover and saw that the surface of the ground was drying. <sup>14</sup> By the twenty-seventh day of the second month, the earth was dry.

The LORD's Promise

<sup>15</sup> Then God spoke to Noah, <sup>16</sup> "Come out of the ark, you, your wife, your sons, and your sons' wives with you. <sup>17</sup> Bring out all the living creatures <sup>B</sup> that are with you — birds, livestock, those that crawl on the ground — and they will spread over the earth and be fruitful and multiply on the earth." <sup>18</sup> So Noah, along with his sons, his wife, and his sons' wives, came out. <sup>19</sup> All wildlife, all livestock, every bird, and every creature that crawls on the earth came out of the ark by their groups.

<sup>20</sup> Then Noah built an altar to the LORD. He took some of every kind of •clean animal and every kind of clean bird and offered •burnt offerings on the altar. <sup>21†</sup> When the LORD smelled the pleasing aroma, He said to Himself, “I will never again curse the ground because of man, even though man’s inclination is evil from his youth. And I will never again strike down every living thing as I have done.

seedtime and harvest, cold and heat, summer and winter, and day and night will not cease.”

GENESIS

God's Covenant with Noah

9 God blessed Noah and his sons and said to them, “Be fruitful and multiply and fill the earth. <sup>2†</sup> The fear and terror of you will be in every living creature on the earth, every bird of the sky, every creature that crawls on the ground, and all the fish of the sea. They are placed under your authority. <sup>A</sup> <sup>3</sup> Every living creature will be food for you; as I gave the green plants, I have given you everything. <sup>4†</sup> However, you must not eat meat with its lifeblood in it. <sup>5</sup> I will require the life of every animal and every man for your life and your blood. I will require the life of each man’s brother for a man’s life.

his blood will be shed by man, for God made man in His image.

<sup>8</sup> Then God said to Noah and his sons with him, <sup>9</sup> “Understand that I am confirming My covenant with you and your descendants after you, <sup>10</sup> and with every living creature that is with you — birds, livestock, and all wildlife of the earth that are with you — all the animals of the earth that came out of the ark. <sup>11</sup> I confirm My covenant with you that never again will every creature be wiped out by the waters of a flood; there will never again be a flood to destroy the earth.”

<sup>12†</sup> And God said, “This is the sign of the covenant I am making between Me and you and every living creature with you, a covenant for all future generations: <sup>13</sup> I have placed My bow in the clouds, and it will be a sign of the covenant between Me and the earth. <sup>14</sup> Whenever I form clouds over the earth and the bow appears in the clouds, <sup>15</sup> I will remember My covenant between Me and you and all the living creatures: <sup>B</sup> water will never again become a flood to destroy every creature. <sup>16</sup> The bow will be in the clouds, and I will look at it and remember the everlasting covenant between God and all the living creatures on <sup>C</sup> earth.” <sup>17</sup> God said to Noah, “This is the sign of the covenant that I have confirmed between Me and every creature on earth.”

Prophecies about Noah's Family

<sup>18</sup> Noah's sons who came out of the ark were Shem, Ham, and Japheth. Ham was the father of Canaan. <sup>19</sup> These three were Noah's sons, and from them the whole earth was populated.

Canaan will be cursed.
He will be the lowest of slaves to his brothers.

<sup>26</sup> He also said:

Praise the LORD, the God of Shem;
Canaan will be his slave.
<sup>27</sup> God will extend Japheth;
he will dwell in the tents of Shem;
Canaan will be his slave.

<sup>28</sup> Now Noah lived 350 years after the flood. <sup>29</sup> So Noah's life lasted 950 years; then he died.

The Table of Nations

10 These are the family records of Noah's sons, Shem, Ham, and Japheth. They also had sons after the flood.

11 At one time the whole earth had the same language and vocabulary.<sup>A</sup>
2 As people<sup>B</sup> migrated from the east,<sup>C</sup> they found a valley in the land of •Shinar and settled there.<sup>3</sup> They said to each other, “Come, let us make oven-fired bricks.” They used brick for stone and asphalt for mortar.<sup>4</sup> And they said, “Come, let us build ourselves a city and a tower with its top in the sky. Let us make a name for ourselves; otherwise, we will be scattered over the face of the whole earth.”

5 Then the LORD came down to look over the city and the tower that the •men were building.<sup>6</sup> The LORD said, “If they have begun to do this as one people all having the same language, then nothing they plan to do will be impossible for them.<sup>7†</sup> Come, let Us go down there and confuse<sup>D</sup> their language<sup>E</sup> so that they will not understand one another’s speech.”<sup>F</sup><sup>8</sup> So from there the LORD scattered them over the face of the whole earth, and they stopped building the city.<sup>9</sup> Therefore its name is called Babylon, for there the LORD confused the language of the whole earth, and from there the LORD scattered them over the face of the whole earth.

From Shem to Abram

10† These are the family records of Shem. Shem lived 100 years and fathered Arpachshad two years after the flood.<sup>11</sup> After he fathered Arpachshad, Shem lived 500 years and fathered other sons and daughters.<sup>12</sup> Arpachshad lived 35 years and fathered Shelah.<sup>13</sup> After he fathered Shelah, Arpachshad lived 403 years and fathered other sons and daughters.<sup>14</sup> Shelah lived 30 years and fathered Eber.<sup>15</sup> After he fathered Eber, Shelah lived 403 years and fathered other sons and daughters.<sup>16</sup> Eber lived 34 years and fathered Peleg.<sup>17</sup> After he fathered Peleg, Eber lived 430 years and fathered other sons and daughters.<sup>18</sup> Peleg lived 30 years and fathered Reu.<sup>19</sup> After he fathered Reu, Peleg lived 209 years and fathered other sons and daughters.<sup>20</sup> Reu lived 32 years and fathered Serug.<sup>21</sup> After he fathered Serug, Reu lived 207 years and fathered other sons and daughters.<sup>22</sup> Serug lived 30 years and fathered Nahor.<sup>23</sup> After he fathered Nahor, Serug lived 200 years and fathered other sons and daughters.<sup>24</sup> Nahor lived 29 years and fathered Terah. <sup>25</sup> After he fathered Terah, Nahor lived 119 years and fathered other sons and daughters. <sup>26†</sup> Terah lived 70 years and fathered Abram, Nahor, and Haran.

<sup>31</sup> Terah took his son Abram, his grandson Lot (Haran's son), and his daughter-in-law Sarai, his son Abram's wife, and they set out together from Ur of the Chaldeans to go to the land of Canaan. But when they came to Haran, they settled there. <sup>32</sup> Terah lived 205 years and died in Haran.

GENESIS

The Call of Abram

12 The LORD said to Abram:

Go out from your land,
your relatives,
and your father's house to the land that I will show you.

<sup>2†</sup> I will make you into a great nation,
I will bless you,
I will make your name great,
and you will be a blessing. <sup>A</sup>,

<sup>3†</sup> I will bless those who bless you,
I will curse those who treat you with contempt, and all the peoples <sup>B</sup> on earth will be blessed <sup>C</sup> through you. <sup>D</sup>

<sup>4</sup> So Abram went, as the LORD had told him, and Lot went with him. Abram was 75 years old when he left Haran. <sup>5†</sup> He took his wife Sarai, his nephew Lot, all the possessions they had accumulated, and the people he had acquired in Haran, and they set out for the land of Canaan. When they came to the land of Canaan, <sup>6†</sup> Abram passed through the land to the site of Shechem, at the oak of Moreh. At that time the Canaanites were in the land. <sup>7</sup> Then the LORD appeared to Abram and said, "I will give this land to your •offspring." So he built an altar there to the LORD who had appeared to him. <sup>8</sup> From there he moved on to the hill country east of Bethel and pitched his tent, with Bethel on the west and Ai on the east. He built an altar to •Yahweh there, and he called on the name of Yahweh. <sup>9</sup> Then Abram journeyed by stages to the •Negev.

Abram in Egypt

TWISTED SCRIPTURE

Genesis 12:10-20

Mormons claim that while Abraham was in Egypt he wrote The Book of Abraham, one of the Mormon sacred scriptures, which had been lost until it fell into the hands of Joseph Smith in 1835. After Smith allegedly translated the papyrus into English, it passed through several hands before landing at the New York Metropolitan Museum of Art. Egyptologists immediately identified it as a portion of the Egyptian Book of the Dead, dealing with funeral customs and worship of the various Egyptian gods. Smith's identification of the manuscript and his translation were completely wrong. To this day Mormons refuse to accept the scholarly evaluation and cling to Smith's erroneous claims.

<sup>10†</sup> There was a famine in the land, so Abram went down to Egypt to live there for a while because the famine in the land was severe. <sup>11</sup> When he was about to enter Egypt, he said to his wife Sarai, “Look, I know what a beautiful woman you are. <sup>12</sup> When the Egyptians see you, they will say, ‘This is his wife.’ They will kill me but let you live. <sup>13</sup> Please say you’re my sister so it will go well for me because of you, and my life will be spared on your account.” <sup>14</sup> When Abram entered Egypt, the Egyptians saw that the woman was very beautiful. <sup>15</sup> Pharaoh’s officials saw her and praised her to Pharaoh, so the woman was taken to Pharaoh’s household. <sup>16</sup> He treated Abram well because of her, and Abram acquired flocks and herds, male and female donkeys, male and female slaves, and camels.

<sup>17</sup> But the LORD struck Pharaoh and his household with severe plagues because of Abram’s wife Sarai. <sup>18</sup> So Pharaoh sent for Abram and said, “What have you done to me? Why didn’t you tell me she was your wife? <sup>19</sup> Why did you say, ‘She’s my sister,’ so that I took her as my wife? Now, here is your wife. Take her and go! ” <sup>20</sup> Then Pharaoh gave his men orders about him, and they sent him away with his wife and all he had.

GENESIS

Abram and Lot Separate

13 Then Abram went up from Egypt to the •Negev — he, his wife, and all he had, and Lot with him. <sup>2</sup> Abram was very rich <sup>A</sup> in livestock, silver, and gold. <sup>3</sup> He went by stages from the Negev to Bethel, to the place between Bethel and Ai where his tent had formerly been, <sup>4</sup> to the site where he had built the altar. And Abram called on the name of •Yahweh there.

<sup>5</sup> Now Lot, who was traveling with Abram, also had flocks, herds, and tents. <sup>6</sup> But the land was unable to support them as long as they stayed together, for they had so many possessions that they could not stay together, <sup>7†</sup> and there was quarreling between the herdsmen of Abram’s livestock and the herdsmen of Lot’s livestock. At that time the Canaanites and the Perizzites were living in the land.

<sup>8</sup> Then Abram said to Lot, “Please, let’s not have quarreling between you and me, or between your herdsmen and my herdsmen, since we are relatives. <sup>B</sup> <sup>9</sup> Isn’t the whole land before you? Separate from me: if you go to the left, I will go to the right; if you go to the right, I will go to the left.”

<sup>10</sup> Lot looked out and saw that the entire Jordan Valley as far as <sup>C</sup> Zoar was well watered everywhere like the LORD’s garden and the land of Egypt. This was before the LORD destroyed Sodom and Gomorrah. <sup>11</sup> So Lot chose the entire Jordan Valley for himself. Then Lot journeyed eastward, and they separated from each other. <sup>12</sup> Abram lived in the land of Canaan, but Lot lived in the cities of the valley and set up his tent near Sodom. <sup>13</sup> Now the men of Sodom were evil, sinning greatly <sup>D</sup> against the LORD.

<sup>14</sup> After Lot had separated from him, the LORD said to Abram, “Look from the place where you are. Look north and south, east and west, <sup>15</sup> for I will give you and your •offspring forever all the land that you see. <sup>16</sup> I will make your offspring like the dust of the earth, so that if anyone could count the dust of the earth, then your offspring could be counted. <sup>17</sup> Get up and walk around the land, through its length and width, for I will give it to you.”

<sup>18</sup> So Abram moved his tent and went to live near the oaks of Mamre at Hebron, where he built an altar to the LORD.

<sup>13</sup> One of the survivors came and told Abram the Hebrew, who lived near the oaks belonging to Mamre the Amorite, the brother of Eshcol and the brother of Aner. They were bound by a treaty with<sup>B</sup> Abram.<sup>14†</sup> When Abram heard that his relative had been taken prisoner, he assembled his 318 trained men, born in his household, and they went in pursuit as far as Dan. <sup>15</sup> And he and his servants deployed against them by night, attacked them, and pursued them as far as Hobah to the north of Damascus. <sup>16</sup> He brought back all the goods and also his relative Lot and his goods, as well as the women and the other people.

Melchizedek's Blessing

<sup>17</sup> After Abram returned from defeating Chedorlaomer and the kings who were with him, the king of Sodom went out to meet him in the Valley of Shaveh (that is, the King's Valley). <sup>18</sup> Then Melchizedek, king of Salem, brought out bread and wine; he was a priest to God •Most High. <sup>19</sup> He blessed him and said:

Abram is blessed by God Most High,
Creator <sup>C</sup> of heaven and earth,
who has handed over your enemies to you.

And Abram gave him a tenth of everything.

<sup>21</sup> Then the king of Sodom said to Abram, “Give me the people, but take the possessions for yourself.”

<sup>22</sup> But Abram said to the king of Sodom, “I have raised my hand in an oath to •Yahweh, God Most High, Creator of heaven and earth, <sup>23</sup> that I will not take a thread or sandal strap or anything that belongs to you, so you can never say, ‘I made Abram rich.’ <sup>24</sup> I will take nothing <sup>E</sup> except what the servants have eaten. But as for the share of the men who came with me — Aner, Eshcol, and Mamre — they can take their share.”

The Abrahamic Covenant

15 After these events, the word of the LORD came to Abram in a vision:

Do not be afraid, Abram.
I am your shield;
your reward will be very great.

<sup>2†</sup> But Abram said, “Lord GOD, what can You give me, since I am childless and the heir of my house is Eliezer of Damascus?” <sup>A</sup> <sup>3</sup> Abram continued, “Look, You have given me no •offspring, so a slave born in <sup>B</sup> my house will be my heir.”

<sup>4†</sup> Now the word of the LORD came to him: “This one will not be your heir; instead, one who comes from your own body <sup>C</sup> will be your heir.” <sup>5</sup> He took him outside and said, “Look at the sky and count the stars, if you are able to count them.” Then He said to him, “Your offspring will be that numerous.”

<sup>7†</sup> He also said to him, “I am •Yahweh who brought you from Ur of the Chaldeans to give you this land to possess.”

<sup>8†</sup> But he said, “Lord GOD, how can I know that I will possess it?”

<sup>9</sup> He said to him, “Bring Me a three-year-old cow, a three-year-old female goat, a three-year-old ram, a turtledove, and a young pigeon.”

<sup>10</sup> So he brought all these to Him, split them down the middle, and laid the pieces opposite each other, but he did not cut up the birds. <sup>11</sup> Birds of prey came down on the carcasses, but Abram drove them away. <sup>12</sup> As the sun was setting, a deep sleep fell on Abram, and suddenly great terror and darkness descended on him.

<sup>13†</sup> Then the LORD said to Abram, “Know this for certain: Your offspring will be foreigners in a land that does not belong to them; they will be enslaved and oppressed <sup>D</sup> 400 years. <sup>14</sup> However, I will judge the nation they serve, and afterward they will go out with many possessions. <sup>15</sup> But you will go to your fathers in peace and be buried at a ripe old age. <sup>16</sup> In the fourth generation they will return here, for the iniquity of the Amorites has not yet reached its full measure.” <sup>E</sup>

Hagar and Ishmael

16† Abram's wife Sarai had not borne any children for him, but she owned an Egyptian slave named Hagar.<sup>2</sup> Sarai said to Abram, "Since the LORD has prevented me from bearing children, go to my slave; perhaps through her I can build a family." And Abram agreed to what Sarai said.<sup>A</sup>
<sup>3</sup> So Abram's wife Sarai took Hagar, her Egyptian slave, and gave her to her husband Abram as a wife for him. This happened after Abram had lived in the land of Canaan 10 years.<sup>4</sup> He slept with<sup>B</sup> Hagar, and she became pregnant. When she realized that she was pregnant, she treated her mistress with contempt.<sup>5</sup> Then Sarai said to Abram, "You are responsible for my suffering!<sup>C</sup> I put my slave in your arms,<sup>D</sup> and ever since she saw that she was pregnant, she has treated me with contempt. May the LORD judge between me and you."

<sup>7†</sup> The Angel of the LORD found her by a spring of water in the wilderness, the spring on the way to Shur.<sup>8</sup> He said, "Hagar, slave of Sarai, where have you come from and where are you going?"

She replied, "I'm running away from my mistress Sarai."

<sup>9</sup> Then the Angel of the LORD said to her, "You must go back to your mistress and submit to her mistreatment."<sup>E</sup><sup>10</sup> The Angel of the LORD also said to her, "I will greatly multiply your •offspring, and they will be too many to count."

<sup>11†</sup> Then the Angel of the LORD said to her:

You have conceived and will have a son.
You will name him Ishmael, for the LORD has heard your cry of affliction.

<sup>12†</sup> This man will be like a wild donkey.
His hand will be against everyone, and everyone's hand will be against him;

he will live at odds with <sup>F</sup> all his brothers.

<sup>13</sup> So she called the LORD who spoke to her: The God Who Sees, <sup>G</sup> for she said, “In this place, have I actually seen the One who sees me?” <sup>H</sup>

<sup>15</sup> So Hagar gave birth to Abram’s son, and Abram gave the name Ishmael to the son Hagar had. <sup>16</sup> Abram was 86 years old when Hagar bore Ishmael to him.

Covenant Circumcision

17 † When Abram was 99 years old, the LORD appeared to him, saying, “I am •God Almighty. Live in My presence and be blameless. <sup>2</sup> I will establish My covenant between Me and you, and I will multiply you greatly.”

<sup>3</sup> Then Abram fell facedown and God spoke with him: <sup>4</sup> “As for Me, My covenant is with you: you will become the father of many nations. <sup>5†</sup> Your name will no longer be Abram, but your name will be Abraham, for I will make you the father of many nations. <sup>6</sup> I will make you extremely fruitful and will make nations and kings come from you. <sup>7</sup> I will keep My covenant between Me and you, and your future •offspring throughout their generations, as an everlasting covenant to be your God and the God of your offspring after you. <sup>8</sup> And to you and your future offspring I will give the land where you are residing — all the land of Canaan — as an eternal possession, and I will be their God.”

<sup>9†</sup> God also said to Abraham, “As for you, you and your offspring after you throughout their generations are to keep My covenant. <sup>10</sup> This is My covenant, which you are to keep, between Me and you and your offspring after you: Every one of your males must be circumcised. <sup>11</sup> You must circumcise the flesh of your foreskin to serve as a sign of the covenant between Me and you. <sup>12</sup> Throughout your generations, every male among you at eight days old is to be circumcised. This includes a slave born in your house and one purchased with money from any foreigner. The one who is not your offspring, <sup>13</sup> a slave born in your house, as well as one purchased with money, must be circumcised. My covenant will be marked in your flesh as an everlasting covenant. <sup>14</sup> If any male is not circumcised in the flesh of his foreskin, that man will be cut off from his people; he has broken My covenant.”

<sup>15</sup> God said to Abraham, “As for your wife Sarai, do not call her Sarai, for Sarah will be her name. <sup>16</sup> I will bless her; indeed, I will give you a son by her. I will bless her, and she will produce nations; kings of peoples will come from her.”

<sup>17†</sup> Abraham fell facedown. Then he laughed and said to himself, “Can a child be born to a hundred-year-old man? Can Sarah, a ninety-year-old woman, give birth?” <sup>18†</sup> So Abraham said to God, “If only Ishmael were acceptable to You!”<sup>A</sup>

<sup>19</sup> But God said, “No. Your wife Sarah will bear you a son, and you will name him Isaac. I will confirm My covenant with him as an everlasting covenant for his future offspring. <sup>20</sup> As for Ishmael, I have heard you. I will certainly bless him; I will make him fruitful and will multiply him greatly. He will father 12 tribal leaders, and I will make him into a great nation. <sup>21</sup> But I will confirm My covenant with Isaac, whom Sarah will bear to you at this time next year.” <sup>22</sup> When He finished talking with him, God withdrew<sup>B</sup> from Abraham.

<sup>23</sup> Then Abraham took his son Ishmael and all the slaves born in his house or purchased with his money — every male among the members of Abraham’s household — and he circumcised the flesh of their foreskin on that very day, just as God had said to him. <sup>24</sup> Abraham was 99 years old when the flesh of his foreskin was circumcised, <sup>25</sup> and his son Ishmael was 13 years old when the flesh of his foreskin was circumcised. <sup>26</sup> On that same day Abraham and his son Ishmael were circumcised. <sup>27</sup> And all the men of his household — both slaves born in his house and those purchased with money from a foreigner — were circumcised with him.

Abraham's Three Visitors

18 † Then the LORD appeared to Abraham at the oaks of Mamre while he was sitting in the entrance of his tent during the heat of the day. <sup>2</sup> He looked up, and he saw three men standing near him. When he saw them, he ran from the entrance of the tent to meet them and bowed to the ground. <sup>3</sup> Then he said, “My lord, <sup>A</sup> if I have found favor in your sight, please do not go on past your servant. <sup>4</sup> Let a little water be brought, that you may wash your feet and rest yourselves under the tree. <sup>5</sup> I will bring a bit of bread so that you may strengthen yourselves. <sup>B</sup> This is why you have passed your servant’s way. Later, you can continue on.”

“Yes,” they replied, “do as you have said.”

Sarah Laughs

<sup>9†</sup> “Where is your wife Sarah?” they asked him.

“There, in the tent,” he answered.

<sup>10</sup> The LORD said, “I will certainly come back to you in about a year’s time, and your wife Sarah will have a son!” Now Sarah was listening at the entrance of the tent behind him.

<sup>11</sup> Abraham and Sarah were old and getting on in years. <sup>F</sup> Sarah had passed the age of childbearing. <sup>G</sup> <sup>12</sup> So she laughed to herself: “After I have become shriveled up and my lord is old, will I have delight?”

<sup>13</sup> But the LORD asked Abraham, “Why did Sarah laugh, saying, ‘Can I really have a baby when I’m old?’” <sup>14</sup> Is anything impossible for the LORD?

At the appointed time I will come back to you, and in about a year she will have a son.”

But He replied, “No, you did laugh.”

Abraham’s Plea for Sodom

<sup>16</sup> The men got up from there and looked out over Sodom, and Abraham was walking with them to see them off. <sup>17</sup> Then the LORD said, “Should I hide what I am about to do from Abraham? <sup>18</sup> Abraham is to become a great and powerful nation, and all the nations of the earth will be blessed through him. <sup>19</sup> For I have chosen <sup>H</sup> him so that he will command his children and his house after him to keep the way of the LORD by doing what is right and just. This is how the LORD will fulfill to Abraham what He promised him.” <sup>20†</sup> Then the LORD said, “The outcry against Sodom and Gomorrah is immense, and their sin is extremely serious. <sup>21</sup> I will go down to see if what they have done justifies the cry that has come up to Me. If not, I will find out.”

<sup>22</sup> The men turned from there and went toward Sodom while Abraham remained standing before the LORD. <sup>23†</sup> Abraham stepped forward and said, “Will You really sweep away the righteous with the wicked? <sup>24</sup> What if there are 50 righteous people in the city? Will You really sweep it away instead of sparing the place for the sake of the 50 righteous people who are in it? <sup>25</sup> You could not possibly do such a thing: to kill the righteous with the wicked, treating the righteous and the wicked alike. You could not possibly do that! Won’t the Judge of all the earth do what is just? ”

<sup>27</sup> Then Abraham answered, “Since I have ventured to speak to the Lord — even though I am dust and ashes — <sup>28</sup> suppose the 50 righteous lack five. Will you destroy the whole city for lack of five? ”

He replied, "I will not destroy it if I find 45 there."

He answered, "I will not do it on account of 40."

<sup>30</sup> Then he said, "Let the Lord not be angry, and I will speak further. Suppose 30 are found there? "

He answered, "I will not do it if I find 30 there."

<sup>31</sup> Then he said, "Since I have ventured to speak to the Lord, suppose 20 are found there? "

He replied, "I will not destroy it on account of 20."

<sup>32</sup> Then he said, "Let the Lord not be angry, and I will speak one more time. Suppose 10 are found there? "

He answered, "I will not destroy it on account of 10." <sup>33</sup> When the LORD had finished speaking with Abraham, He departed, and Abraham returned to his place.

The Destruction of Sodom and Gomorrah

19 The two angels entered Sodom in the evening as Lot was sitting at Sodom's •gate. When Lot saw them, he got up to meet them. He bowed with his face to the ground <sup>2</sup> and said, "My lords, turn aside to your servant's house, wash your feet, and spend the night. Then you can get up early and go on your way."

"No," they said. "We would rather spend the night in the square." <sup>3</sup> But he urged them so strongly that they followed him and went into his house. He prepared a feast and baked unleavened bread for them, and they ate.

<sup>4†</sup> Before they went to bed, the men of the city of Sodom, both young and old, the whole population, surrounded the house. <sup>5</sup> They called out to Lot and said, "Where are the men who came to you tonight? Send them out to us so we can have sex with them! "

<sup>9</sup> "Get out of the way! " they said, adding, "This one came here as a foreigner, but he's acting like a judge! Now we'll do more harm to you than to them." They put pressure on Lot and came up to break down the door. <sup>10</sup> But the angels <sup>B</sup> reached out, brought Lot into the house with them, and shut the door. <sup>11†</sup> They struck the men who were at the entrance of the house, both young and old, with a blinding light so that they were unable to find the entrance.

<sup>14</sup> So Lot went out and spoke to his sons-in-law, who were going to marry <sup>D</sup> his daughters. “Get up,” he said. “Get out of this place, for the LORD is about to destroy the city!” But his sons-in-law thought he was joking.

<sup>15</sup> At daybreak the angels urged Lot on: “Get up! Take your wife and your two daughters who are here, or you will be swept away in the punishment <sup>E</sup> of the city.” <sup>16</sup> But he hesitated. Because of the LORD’s compassion for him, the men grabbed his hand, his wife’s hand, and the hands of his two daughters. Then they brought him out and left him outside the city.

<sup>17</sup> As soon as the angels got them outside, one of them said, “Run for your lives! Don’t look back and don’t stop anywhere on the plain! Run to the mountains, or you will be swept away!”

<sup>21</sup> And he said to him, “All right, <sup>G</sup> I’ll grant your request <sup>H</sup> about this matter too and will not demolish the town you mentioned. <sup>22</sup> Hurry up! Run there, for I cannot do anything until you get there.” Therefore the name of the city is Zoar.

<sup>27</sup> Early in the morning Abraham went to the place where he had stood before the LORD. <sup>28</sup> He looked down toward Sodom and Gomorrah and all the land of the plain, and he saw that smoke was going up from the land like the smoke of a furnace.<sup>29</sup> So it was, when God destroyed the cities of the plain, He remembered Abraham and brought Lot out of the middle of the upheaval when He demolished the cities where Lot had lived.

The Origin of Moab and Ammon

<sup>30†</sup> Lot departed from Zoar and lived in the mountains along with his two daughters, because he was afraid to live in Zoar. Instead, he and his two daughters lived in a cave.<sup>31</sup> Then the firstborn said to the younger, “Our father is old, and there is no man in the land to sleep with us as is the custom of all the land.<sup>32</sup> Come, let’s get our father to drink wine so that we can sleep with him and preserve our father’s line.”<sup>33</sup> So they got their father to drink wine that night, and the firstborn came and slept with her father; he did not know when she lay down or when she got up.

<sup>34</sup> The next day the firstborn said to the younger, “Look, I slept with my father last night. Let’s get him to drink wine again tonight so you can go sleep with him and we can preserve our father’s line.”<sup>35</sup> That night they again got their father to drink wine, and the younger went and slept with him; he did not know when she lay down or when she got up.

<sup>36</sup> So both of Lot’s daughters became pregnant by their father.<sup>37</sup> The firstborn gave birth to a son and named him Moab. He is the father of the Moabites of today.<sup>38</sup> The younger also gave birth to a son, and she named him Ben-ammi. He is the father of the Ammonites of today.

Sarah Rescued from Abimelech

20 † From there Abraham traveled to the region of the •Negev and settled between Kadesh and Shur. While he lived in Gerar, <sup>2</sup> Abraham said about his wife Sarah, “She is my sister.” So Abimelech king of Gerar had Sarah brought to him.

<sup>3</sup> But God came to Abimelech in a dream by night and said to him, “You are about to die because of the woman you have taken, for she is a married woman.” <sup>A</sup>

<sup>4</sup> Now Abimelech had not approached her, so he said, “Lord, would You destroy a nation even though it is innocent? <sup>5</sup> Didn’t he himself say to me, ‘She is my sister’? And she herself said, ‘He is my brother.’ I did this with a clear conscience <sup>B</sup> and •clean <sup>C</sup> hands.”

<sup>6</sup> Then God said to him in the dream, “Yes, I know that you did this with a clear conscience. <sup>D</sup> I have also kept you from sinning against Me. Therefore I have not let you touch her. <sup>7</sup> Now return the man’s wife, for he is a prophet, and he will pray for you and you will live. But if you do not return her, know that you will certainly die, you and all who are yours.”

<sup>9</sup> Then Abimelech called Abraham in and said to him, “What have you done to us? How did I sin against you that you have brought such enormous •guilt on me and on my kingdom? You have done things to me that should never be done.” <sup>10</sup> Abimelech also said to Abraham, “What did you intend when you did this thing? ”

<sup>11</sup> Abraham replied, “I thought, ‘There is absolutely no •fear of God in this place. They will kill me because of my wife.’ <sup>12</sup> Besides, she really is my sister, the daughter of my father though not the daughter of my mother, and she became my wife. <sup>13</sup> So when God had me wander from my father’s house, I said to her: Show your loyalty to me wherever we go and say about me: ‘He’s my brother.’ ”

<sup>14</sup> Then Abimelech took sheep and cattle and male and female slaves, gave them to Abraham, and returned his wife Sarah to him. <sup>15</sup> Abimelech said, “Look, my land is before you. Settle wherever you want.” <sup>F</sup> <sup>16</sup> And he said to Sarah, “Look, I am giving your brother 1,000 pieces of silver. It is a verification of your honor <sup>G</sup> to all who are with you. You are fully vindicated.”

<sup>17†</sup> Then Abraham prayed to God, and God healed Abimelech, his wife, and his female slaves so that they could bear children, <sup>18</sup> for the LORD had completely closed all the wombs in Abimelech’s household on account of Sarah, Abraham’s wife.

The Birth of Isaac

21 † The LORD came to Sarah as He had said, and the LORD did for Sarah what He had promised. <sup>2</sup> Sarah became pregnant and bore a son to Abraham in his old age, at the appointed time God had told him.

<sup>3</sup> Abraham named his son who was born to him — the one Sarah bore to him — Isaac. <sup>4</sup> When his son Isaac was eight days old, Abraham circumcised him, as God had commanded him. <sup>5</sup> Abraham was 100 years old when his son Isaac was born to him.

<sup>6</sup> Sarah said, “God has made me laugh, and everyone who hears will laugh with me.” <sup>7</sup> She also said, “Who would have told Abraham that Sarah would nurse children? Yet I have borne a son for him in his old age.”

Hagar and Ishmael Sent Away

<sup>17</sup> God heard the voice of the boy, and the <sup>C</sup> angel of God called to Hagar from heaven and said to her, “What’s wrong, Hagar? Don’t be afraid, for God has heard the voice of the boy from the place where he is. <sup>18</sup> Get up, help the boy up, and support him, for I will make him a great nation.”

<sup>19</sup> Then God opened her eyes, and she saw a well of water. So she went and filled the waterskin and gave the boy a drink. <sup>20</sup> God was with the boy, and he grew; he settled in the wilderness and became an archer. <sup>21</sup> He settled in the Wilderness of Paran, and his mother got a wife for him from the land of Egypt.

Abraham's Covenant with Abimelech

<sup>22†</sup> At that time Abimelech, accompanied by Phicol the commander of his army, said to Abraham, “God is with you in everything you do. <sup>23</sup> Swear to me by God here and now, that you will not break an agreement with me or with my children and descendants. As I have been loyal to you, so you will be loyal to me and to the country where you are a foreign resident.”

<sup>24</sup> And Abraham said, “I swear it.” <sup>25</sup> But Abraham complained to Abimelech because of the water well that Abimelech's servants had seized.

<sup>26</sup> Abimelech replied, “I don't know who did this thing. You didn't report anything to me, so I hadn't heard about it until today.”

<sup>30</sup> He replied, “You are to accept the seven ewe lambs from my hand so that this act <sup>D</sup> will serve as my witness that I dug this well.” <sup>31</sup> Therefore that place was called Beer-sheba because it was there that the two of them swore an oath. <sup>32</sup> After they had made a covenant at Beer-sheba, Abimelech and Phicol, the commander of his army, left and returned to the land of the Philistines.

<sup>33</sup> Abraham planted a tamarisk tree in Beer-sheba, and there he called on the name of •Yahweh, the Everlasting God. <sup>34</sup> And Abraham lived as a foreigner in the land of the Philistines for many days.

The Sacrifice of Isaac

22 After these things God tested Abraham and said to him, “Abraham! ”

“Here I am,” he answered.

<sup>2†</sup> “Take your son,” He said, “your only son Isaac, whom you love, go to the land of Moriah, and offer him there as a •burnt offering on one of the mountains I will tell you about.”

<sup>3</sup> So Abraham got up early in the morning, saddled his donkey, and took with him two of his young men and his son Isaac. He split wood for a burnt offering and set out to go to the place God had told him about. <sup>4</sup> On the third day Abraham looked up and saw the place in the distance. <sup>5</sup> Then Abraham said to his young men, “Stay here with the donkey. The boy and I will go over there to worship; then we’ll come back to you.” <sup>6</sup> Abraham took the wood for the burnt offering and laid it on his son Isaac. In his hand he took the fire and the sacrificial knife, and the two of them walked on together.

And he replied, “Here I am, my son.”

Isaac said, “The fire and the wood are here, but where is the lamb for the burnt offering? ”

<sup>8</sup> Abraham answered, “God Himself will provide <sup>A</sup> the lamb for the burnt offering, my son.” Then the two of them walked on together.

<sup>9</sup> When they arrived at the place that God had told him about, Abraham built the altar there and arranged the wood. He bound his son Isaac <sup>B</sup> and placed him on the altar on top of the wood. <sup>10</sup> Then Abraham reached out and took the knife to slaughter his son.

<sup>11</sup> But the Angel of the LORD called to him from heaven and said, “Abraham, Abraham! ”

He replied, “Here I am.”

<sup>12†</sup> Then He said, “Do not lay a hand on the boy or do anything to him. For now I know that you •fear God, since you have not withheld your only son from Me.” <sup>13</sup> Abraham looked up and saw a ram caught in the thicket by its horns. So Abraham went and took the ram and offered it as a burnt offering in place of his son. <sup>14</sup> And Abraham named that place The LORD Will Provide, <sup>C</sup> so today it is said: “It will be provided <sup>D</sup> on the LORD’s mountain.”

<sup>15†</sup> Then the Angel of the LORD called to Abraham a second time from heaven <sup>16</sup> and said, “By Myself I have sworn,” this is the LORD’s declaration: “Because you have done this thing and have not withheld your only son, <sup>17</sup> I will indeed bless you and make your •offspring as numerous as the stars of the sky and the sand on the seashore. Your offspring will possess the gates of their enemies. <sup>18</sup> And all the nations of the earth will be blessed <sup>E</sup> by your offspring because you have obeyed My command.”

Rebekah’s Family

Sarah's Burial

23 † Now Sarah lived 127 years; these were all the years of her life.

<sup>7</sup> Then Abraham rose and bowed down to the Hittites, the people of the land. <sup>8</sup> He said to them, “If you are willing for me to bury my dead, listen to me and ask Ephron son of Zohar on my behalf <sup>9</sup> to give me the cave of Machpelah that belongs to him; it is at the end of his field. Let him give it to me in your presence, for the full price, as a burial place.”

<sup>12</sup> Abraham bowed down to the people of the land <sup>13</sup> and said to Ephron in the presence <sup>I</sup> of the people of the land, “Please listen to me. Let me pay the price of the field. Accept it from me, and let me bury my dead there.”

A Wife for Isaac

24 Abraham was now old, getting on in years, <sup>A</sup>, and the LORD had blessed him in everything. <sup>2†</sup> Abraham said to his servant, the elder of his household who managed all he owned, “Place your hand under my thigh, <sup>3</sup> and I will have you swear by the LORD, God of heaven and God of earth, that you will not take a wife for my son from the daughters of the Canaanites among whom I live, <sup>4</sup> but will go to my land and my family to take a wife for my son Isaac.”

<sup>5†</sup> The servant said to him, “Suppose the woman is unwilling to follow me to this land? Should I have your son go back to the land you came from?”

<sup>6</sup> Abraham answered him, “Make sure that you don’t take my son back there. <sup>7</sup> The LORD, the God of heaven, who took me from my father’s house and from my native land, who spoke to me and swore to me, ‘I will give this land to your •offspring’ — He will send His angel before you, and you can take a wife for my son from there. <sup>8</sup> If the woman is unwilling to follow you, then you are free from this oath to me, but don’t let my son go back there.” <sup>9</sup> So the servant placed his hand under his master Abraham’s thigh and swore an oath to him concerning this matter.

<sup>10†</sup> The servant took 10 of his master’s camels and departed with all kinds of his master’s goods in hand. Then he set out for Nahor’s town Aram-naharaim. <sup>11</sup> He made the camels kneel beside a well of water outside the town at evening. This was the time when the women went out to draw water.

the spring where the daughters of the men of the town are coming out to draw water. <sup>14</sup> Let the girl to whom I say, ‘Please lower your water jug so that I may drink,’ and who responds, ‘Drink, and I’ll water your camels also’ — let her be the one You have appointed for Your servant Isaac. By this I will know that You have shown kindness to my master.”

<sup>22</sup> After the camels had finished drinking, the man took a gold ring weighing half a •shekel, and for her wrists two bracelets weighing 10 shekels of gold. <sup>23</sup> “Whose daughter are you? ” he asked. “Please tell me, is there room in your father’s house for us to spend the night? ”

<sup>24</sup> She answered him, “I am the daughter of Bethuel son of Milcah, whom she bore to Nahor.” <sup>25</sup> She also said to him, “We have plenty of straw and feed and a place to spend the night.”

<sup>26</sup> Then the man bowed down, worshiped the LORD, <sup>27</sup> and said, “Praise the LORD, the God of my master Abraham, who has not withheld His kindness and faithfulness from my master. As for me, the LORD has led me on the journey to the house of my master’s relatives.”

<sup>29</sup> Now Rebekah had a brother named Laban, and Laban ran out to the man at the spring. <sup>30</sup> As soon as he had seen the ring and the bracelets on his sister's wrists, and when he had heard his sister Rebekah's words — "The man said this to me!" — he went to the man. He was standing there by the camels at the spring.

<sup>31</sup> Laban said, "Come, you who are blessed by the LORD. Why are you standing out here? I have prepared the house and a place for the camels."

<sup>32</sup> So the man came to the house, and the camels were unloaded. Straw and feed were given to the camels, and water was brought to wash his feet and the feet of the men with him.

<sup>33</sup> A meal was set before him, but he said, "I will not eat until I have said what I have to say."

So Laban said, "Please speak."

<sup>34</sup> "I am Abraham's servant," he said. <sup>35</sup> "The LORD has greatly blessed my master, and he has become rich. He has given him sheep and cattle, silver and gold, male and female slaves, and camels and donkeys. <sup>36</sup> Sarah, my master's wife, bore a son to my master in her old age, and he has given him everything he owns. <sup>37</sup> My master put me under this oath: 'You will not take a wife for my son from the daughters of the Canaanites in whose land I live <sup>38</sup> but will go to my father's household and to my family to take a wife for my son.' <sup>39</sup> But I said to my master, 'Suppose the woman will not come back with me?' <sup>40</sup> He said to me, 'The LORD before whom I have walked will send His angel with you and make your journey a success, and you will take a wife for my son from my family and from my father's household. <sup>41</sup> Then you will be free from my oath if you go to my family and they do not give her to you — you will be free from my oath.'

<sup>42</sup> "Today when I came to the spring, I prayed: LORD, God of my master Abraham, if only You will make my journey successful! <sup>43</sup> I am standing here at a spring. Let the virgin who comes out to draw water, and I say to her: Please let me drink a little water from your jug, <sup>44</sup> and who responds to me, ‘Drink, and I’ll draw water for your camels also’ — let her be the woman the LORD has appointed for my master’s son.

<sup>45</sup> “Before I had finished praying silently, there was Rebekah coming with her jug on her shoulder, and she went down to the spring and drew water. So I said to her: Please let me have a drink. <sup>46</sup> She quickly lowered her jug from her shoulder and said, ‘Drink, and I’ll water your camels also.’ So I drank, and she also watered the camels. <sup>47</sup> Then I asked her: Whose daughter are you? She responded, ‘The daughter of Bethuel son of Nahor, whom Milcah bore to him.’ So I put the ring on her nose and the bracelets on her wrists. <sup>48</sup> Then I bowed down, worshiped the LORD, and praised the LORD, the God of my master Abraham, who guided me on the right way to take the granddaughter of my master’s brother for his son. <sup>49</sup> Now, if you are going to show kindness and faithfulness to my master, tell me; if not, tell me, and I will go elsewhere.” <sup>C</sup>

<sup>52</sup> When Abraham’s servant heard their words, he bowed to the ground before the LORD. <sup>53</sup> Then he brought out objects of silver and gold, and garments, and gave them to Rebekah. He also gave precious gifts to her brother and her mother. <sup>54</sup> Then he and the men with him ate and drank and spent the night.

When they got up in the morning, he said, “Send me to my master.”

<sup>56</sup> But he responded to them, “Do not delay me, since the LORD has made my journey a success. Send me away so that I may go to my master.”

She replied, “I will go.” <sup>59</sup> So they sent away their sister Rebekah with the one who had nursed and raised her, <sup>H</sup> and Abraham’s servant and his men.

Our sister, may you become thousands upon ten thousands.
May your offspring possess the gates of their <sup>I</sup> enemies.

The servant answered, “It is my master.” So she took her veil and covered herself. <sup>66</sup> Then the servant told Isaac everything he had done.

Abraham's Other Wife and Sons

25 † Now Abraham had taken another wife, whose name was Keturah,
Shuah. <sup>3</sup> Jokshan fathered Sheba and Dedan. Dedan's sons were the Asshurim, Letushim, and Leummim. <sup>4</sup> And Midian's sons were Ephah, Epher, Hanoch, Abida, and Eldaah. All these were sons of Keturah.
to the sons of his concubines, but while he was still alive he sent them eastward, away from his son Isaac, to the land of the East.

Abraham's Death

<sup>7</sup> This is the length of Abraham's life: <sup>A</sup> 175 years. <sup>8</sup> He took his last breath and died at a ripe old age, old and contented, and he was gathered to his people. <sup>9</sup> His sons Isaac and Ishmael buried him in the cave of Machpelah near Mamre, in the field of Ephron son of Zohar the Hittite.
<sup>10</sup> This was the field that Abraham bought from the Hittites. Abraham was buried there with his wife Sarah. <sup>11</sup> After Abraham's death, God blessed his son Isaac, who lived near Beer-lahai-roi.

Ishmael's Family Records

Hagar the Egyptian, Sarah's slave, bore to Abraham. <sup>13</sup> These are the names of Ishmael's sons; their names according to the family records are:
Nebaioth, Ishmael's firstborn, then Kedar, Adbeel, Mibsam, <sup>14</sup> Mishma, Dumah, Massa, <sup>15</sup> Hadad, Tema, Jetur, Naphish, and Kedemah. <sup>16</sup> These are Ishmael's sons, and these are their names by their villages and encampments: 12 leaders <sup>B</sup>, of their clans. <sup>C</sup> <sup>17</sup> This is the length <sup>D</sup> of Ishmael's life: 137 years. He took his last breath and died, and was gathered to his people. <sup>18</sup> And they settled from Havilah to Shur, which is opposite Egypt as you go toward Asshur. He lived in opposition to <sup>E</sup> all his brothers.

The Birth of Jacob and Esau

Two nations are in your womb;
two people will come from you and be separated.
One people will be stronger than the other,
and the older will serve the younger.

Esau Sells His Birthright

<sup>29</sup> Once when Jacob was cooking a stew, Esau came in from the field exhausted. <sup>30</sup> He said to Jacob, “Let me eat some of that red stuff, because I’m exhausted.” That is why he was also named Edom.

<sup>33</sup> Jacob said, “Swear to me first.” So he swore to Jacob and sold his birthright to him. <sup>34</sup> Then Jacob gave bread and lentil stew to Esau; he ate, drank, got up, and went away. So Esau despised his birthright.

The Promise Reaffirmed to Isaac

26† There was another famine in the land in addition to the one that had occurred in Abraham's time. And Isaac went to Abimelech, king of the Philistines, at Gerar. <sup>2</sup> The LORD appeared to him and said, "Do not go down to Egypt. Live in the land that I tell you about; <sup>3</sup> stay in this land as a foreigner, and I will be with you and bless you. For I will give all these lands to you and your •offspring, and I will confirm the oath that I swore to your father Abraham. <sup>4</sup> I will make your offspring as numerous as the stars of the sky, I will give your offspring all these lands, and all the nations of the earth will be blessed <sup>A</sup> by your offspring, <sup>5</sup> because Abraham listened to My voice and kept My mandate, My commands, My statutes, and My instructions." <sup>6</sup> So Isaac settled in Gerar.

Isaac's Deception

<sup>7</sup> When the men of the place asked about his wife, he said, "She is my sister," for he was afraid to say "my wife," thinking, "The men of the place will kill me on account of Rebekah, for she is a beautiful woman." <sup>8</sup> When Isaac had been there for some time, Abimelech king of the Philistines looked down from the window and was surprised to see <sup>B</sup> Isaac caressing his wife Rebekah.

<sup>9</sup> Abimelech sent for Isaac and said, "So she is really your wife! How could you say, 'She is my sister'?"

Isaac answered him, "Because I thought I might die on account of her."

<sup>10</sup> Then Abimelech said, "What is this you've done to us? One of the people could easily have slept with your wife, and you would have brought •guilt on us." <sup>11</sup> So Abimelech warned all the people with these words: "Whoever harms this man or his wife will certainly die."

Conflicts over Wells

<sup>12†</sup> Isaac sowed seed in that land, and in that year he reaped <sup>C</sup> a hundred times what was sown. The LORD blessed him, <sup>13</sup> and the man became rich and kept getting richer until he was very wealthy. <sup>14</sup> He had flocks of sheep, herds of cattle, and many slaves, and the Philistines were envious of him.

<sup>18</sup> Isaac reopened the water wells that had been dug in the days of his father Abraham and that the Philistines had stopped up after Abraham died. He gave them the same names his father had given them. <sup>19</sup> Then Isaac's slaves dug in the valley and found a well of spring <sup>E</sup> water there. <sup>20</sup> But the herdsmen of Gerar quarreled with Isaac's herdsmen and said, "The water is ours!" So he named the well Quarrel <sup>F</sup> because they quarreled with him.

<sup>21</sup> Then they dug another well and quarreled over that one also, so he named it Hostility. <sup>G</sup> <sup>22</sup> He moved from there and dug another, and they did not quarrel over it. He named it Open Spaces <sup>H</sup> and said, "For now the LORD has made room for us, and we will be fruitful in the land."

The LORD Appears to Isaac

<sup>23</sup> From there he went up to Beer-sheba, <sup>24</sup> and the LORD appeared to him that night and said, "I am the God of your father Abraham. Do not be afraid, for I am with you. I will bless you and multiply your offspring because of My servant Abraham."

<sup>25</sup> So he built an altar there, called on the name of •Yahweh, and pitched his tent there. Isaac's slaves also dug a well there.

Covenant with Abimelech

<sup>26</sup> Now Abimelech came to him from Gerar with Ahuzzath his adviser and Phicol the commander of his army. <sup>27</sup> Isaac said to them, "Why have you come to me? You hated me and sent me away from you."

<sup>28</sup> They replied, "We have clearly seen how the LORD has been with you. We think there should be an oath between two parties — between us and you. Let us make a covenant with you: <sup>29</sup> You will not harm us, just as we have not harmed you but have only done what was good to you, sending you away in peace. You are now blessed by the LORD.”

Esau’s Wives

GENESIS

The Stolen Blessing

27 † When Isaac was old and his eyes were so weak that he could not see, he called his older son Esau and said to him, “My son.”

And he answered, “Here I am.”

<sup>2</sup> He said, “Look, I am old and do not know the day of my death. <sup>3</sup> Take your hunting gear, your quiver and bow, and go out in the field to hunt some game for me. <sup>4</sup> Then make me a delicious meal that I love and bring it to me to eat, so that I can bless you before I die.”

<sup>5</sup> Now Rebekah was listening to what Isaac said to his son Esau. So while Esau went to the field to hunt some game to bring in, <sup>6</sup> Rebekah said to her son Jacob, “Listen! I heard your father talking with your brother Esau. He said, <sup>7</sup> ‘Bring me the game and make a delicious meal for me to eat so that I can bless you in the LORD’s presence before I die.’ <sup>8</sup> Now obey every order I give you, my son. <sup>9</sup> Go to the flock and bring me two choice young goats, and I will make them into a delicious meal for your father — the kind he loves. <sup>10</sup> Then take it to your father to eat so that he may bless you before he dies.”

<sup>14</sup> So he went and got the goats and brought them to his mother, and his mother made the delicious food his father loved. <sup>15</sup> Then Rebekah took the best clothes of her older son Esau, which were in the house, and had her younger son Jacob wear them. <sup>16</sup> She put the skins of the young goats on his hands and the smooth part of his neck. <sup>17</sup> Then she handed the delicious food and the bread she had made to her son Jacob.

And he answered, “Here I am. Who are you, my son? ”

<sup>19</sup> Jacob replied to his father, “I am Esau, your firstborn. I have done as you told me. Please sit up and eat some of my game so that you may bless me.”

<sup>20</sup> But Isaac said to his son, “How did you ever find it so quickly, my son? ”

He replied, “Because the LORD your God worked it out for me.”

<sup>21</sup> Then Isaac said to Jacob, “Please come closer so I can touch you, my son. Are you really my son Esau or not? ”

<sup>22</sup> So Jacob came closer to his father Isaac. When he touched him, he said, “The voice is the voice of Jacob, but the hands are the hands of Esau.”

And he replied, “I am.”

<sup>25</sup> Then he said, “Serve me, and let me eat some of my son’s game so that I can bless you.” Jacob brought it to him, and he ate; he brought him wine, and he drank.

<sup>26</sup> Then his father Isaac said to him, “Please come closer and kiss me, my son.” <sup>27</sup> So he came closer and kissed him. When Isaac smelled <sup>A</sup> his clothes, he blessed him and said:

Ah, the smell of my son is like the smell of a field that the LORD has blessed.

<sup>28</sup> May God give to you — from the dew of the sky and from the richness of the land — an abundance of grain and new wine.

<sup>29</sup> May peoples serve you and nations bow down to you.
Be master over your brothers;
may your mother's sons bow down to you.
Those who curse you will be cursed,
and those who bless you will be blessed.

<sup>30†</sup> As soon as Isaac had finished blessing Jacob and Jacob had left the presence of his father Isaac, his brother Esau arrived from the hunt. <sup>31</sup> He had also made some delicious food and brought it to his father. Then he said to his father, "Let my father get up and eat some of his son's game, so that you may bless me."

He answered, "I am Esau your firstborn son."

<sup>33</sup> Isaac began to tremble uncontrollably. "Who was it then," he said, "who hunted game and brought it to me? I ate it all before you came in, and I blessed him. Indeed, he will be blessed! "

<sup>34</sup> When Esau heard his father's words, he cried out with a loud and bitter cry and said to his father, "Bless me too, my father! "

<sup>36</sup> So he said, "Isn't he rightly named Jacob? For he has cheated me twice now. He took my birthright, and look, now he has taken my blessing." Then he asked, "Haven't you saved a blessing for me? "

<sup>37</sup> But Isaac answered Esau: "Look, I have made him a master over you, have given him all of his relatives as his servants, and have sustained him with grain and new wine. What then can I do for you, my son? "

<sup>38</sup> Esau said to his father, “Do you only have one blessing, my father? Bless me too, my father! ” And Esau wept loudly. <sup>B</sup>

Look, your dwelling place will be away from the richness of the land, away from the dew of the sky above.

and you will serve your brother.

But when you rebel, <sup>C</sup> you will break his yoke from your neck.

Esau’s Anger

<sup>41</sup> Esau held a grudge against Jacob because of the blessing his father had given him. And Esau determined in his heart: “The days of mourning for my father are approaching; then I will kill my brother Jacob.”

<sup>42</sup> When the words of her older son Esau were reported to Rebekah, she summoned her younger son Jacob and said to him, “Listen, your brother Esau is consoling himself by planning to kill you. <sup>43</sup> So now, my son, listen to me. Flee at once to my brother Laban in Haran, <sup>44</sup> and stay with him for a few days until your brother’s anger subsides — <sup>45</sup> until your brother’s rage turns away from you and he forgets what you have done to him. Then I will send for you and bring you back from there. Why should I lose you both in one day? ”

GENESIS

Jacob's Departure

28 Isaac summoned Jacob, blessed him, and commanded him: “Don’t take a wife from the Canaanite women. <sup>2</sup> Go at once to Paddan-aram, to the house of Bethuel, your mother’s father. Marry one of the daughters of Laban, your mother’s brother. <sup>3</sup> May •God Almighty bless you and make you fruitful and multiply you so that you become an assembly of peoples. <sup>4</sup> May God give you and your •offspring the blessing of Abraham so that you may possess the land where you live as a foreigner, the land God gave to Abraham.” <sup>5</sup> So Isaac sent Jacob to Paddan-aram, to Laban son of Bethuel the Aramean, the brother of Rebekah, the mother of Jacob and Esau.

<sup>6†</sup> Esau noticed that Isaac blessed Jacob and sent him to Paddan-aram to get a wife there. When he blessed him, Isaac commanded Jacob, “Do not marry a Canaanite woman.” <sup>7</sup> And Jacob listened to his father and mother and went to Paddan-aram. <sup>8</sup> Esau realized that his father Isaac disapproved of the Canaanite women, <sup>9</sup> so Esau went to Ishmael and married, in addition to his other wives, Mahalath daughter of Ishmael, Abraham’s son. She was the sister of Nebaioth.

Jacob at Bethel

<sup>10†</sup> Jacob left Beer-sheba and went toward Haran. <sup>11</sup> He reached a certain place and spent the night there because the sun had set. He took one of the stones from the place, put it there at his head, and lay down in that place. <sup>12</sup> And he dreamed: A stairway was set on the ground with its top reaching heaven, and God’s angels were going up and down on it. <sup>13</sup> •Yahweh was standing there beside him, <sup>A</sup> saying, “I am Yahweh, the God of your father Abraham and the God of Isaac. I will give you and your offspring the land that you are now sleeping on. <sup>14</sup> Your offspring will be like the dust of the earth, and you will spread out toward the west, the east, the north, and the south. All the peoples on earth will be blessed through you and your offspring. <sup>15</sup> Look, I am with you and will watch over you wherever you go. I will bring you back to this land, for I will not leave you until I have done what I have promised you.”

<sup>16</sup> When Jacob awoke from his sleep, he said, “Surely the LORD is in this place, and I did not know it.” <sup>17</sup> He was afraid and said, “What an awesome place this is! This is none other than the house of God. This is the gate of heaven.”

<sup>18</sup> Early in the morning Jacob took the stone that was near his head and set it up as a marker. He poured oil on top of it <sup>19</sup> and named the place Bethel, though previously the city was named Luz. <sup>20</sup> Then Jacob made a vow: “If God will be with me and watch over me on this journey, if He provides me with food to eat and clothing to wear, <sup>21</sup> and if I return safely to my father’s house, then the LORD will be my God. <sup>22</sup> This stone that I have set up as a marker will be God’s house, and I will give to You a tenth of all that You give me.”

Jacob Meets Rachel

29 † Jacob resumed his journey <sup>A</sup> and went to the eastern country. <sup>B</sup> <sup>2</sup> He looked and saw a well in a field. Three flocks of sheep were lying there beside it because the sheep were watered from this well. A large stone covered the opening of the well. <sup>3</sup> When all the flocks were gathered there, the shepherds would roll the stone from the opening of the well and water the sheep. The stone was then placed back on the well's opening.

"We're from Haran," they answered.

They answered, "We know him."

"Yes," they said, "and here is his daughter Rachel, coming with his sheep."

<sup>8</sup> But they replied, "We can't until all the flocks have been gathered and the stone is rolled from the well's opening. Then we will water the sheep."

Jacob Deceived

<sup>13†</sup> When Laban heard the news about his sister's son Jacob, he ran to meet him, hugged him, and kissed him. Then he took him to his house, and Jacob told him all that had happened.

After Jacob had stayed with him a month, <sup>15</sup> Laban said to him, “Just because you’re my relative, should you work for me for nothing? Tell me what your wages should be.”

<sup>25</sup> When morning came, there was Leah! So he said to Laban, “What is this you have done to me? Wasn’t it for Rachel that I worked for you? Why have you deceived me? ”

<sup>26</sup> Laban answered, “It is not the custom in this place to give the younger daughter in marriage before the firstborn. <sup>27</sup> Complete this week of wedding celebration, and we will also give you this younger one in return for working yet another seven years for me.”

<sup>28</sup> And Jacob did just that. He finished the week of celebration, and Laban gave him his daughter Rachel as his wife. <sup>29</sup> And Laban gave his slave Bilhah to his daughter Rachel as her slave. <sup>30</sup> Jacob slept with Rachel also, and indeed, he loved Rachel more than Leah. And he worked for Laban another seven years.

Jacob's Sons

<sup>31†</sup> When the LORD saw that Leah was unloved, He opened her womb; but Rachel was unable to conceive. <sup>32</sup> Leah conceived, gave birth to a son, and named him Reuben, for she said, “The LORD has seen my affliction; surely my husband will love me now.”

<sup>33</sup> She conceived again, gave birth to a son, and said, “The LORD heard that I am unloved and has given me this son also.” So she named him Simeon.

<sup>34</sup> She conceived again, gave birth to a son, and said, “At last, my husband will become attached to me because I have borne three sons for him.” Therefore he was named Levi.

<sup>35</sup> And she conceived again, gave birth to a son, and said, “This time I will praise the LORD.” Therefore she named him Judah. Then Leah stopped having children.

GENESIS

30 When Rachel saw that she was not bearing Jacob any children, she envied her sister. “Give me sons, or I will die!” she said to Jacob.

<sup>2</sup> Jacob became angry with Rachel and said, “Am I in God’s place, who has withheld children <sup>A</sup> from you?”

<sup>5</sup> Bilhah conceived and bore Jacob a son. <sup>6</sup> Rachel said, “God has vindicated me; yes, He has heard me and given me a son,” and she named him Dan.

<sup>9</sup> When Leah saw that she had stopped having children, she took her slave Zilpah and gave her to Jacob as a wife. <sup>10</sup> Leah’s slave Zilpah bore Jacob a son. <sup>11</sup> Then Leah said, “What good fortune!” and she named him Gad.

<sup>12</sup> When Leah’s slave Zilpah bore Jacob a second son, <sup>13</sup> Leah said, “I am happy that the women call me happy,” so she named him Asher.

<sup>15</sup> But Leah replied to her, “Isn’t it enough that you have taken my husband? Now you also want to take my son’s mandrakes? ”

“Well,” Rachel said, “you can sleep with him tonight in exchange for your son’s mandrakes.”

<sup>16</sup> When Jacob came in from the field that evening, Leah went out to meet him and said, “You must come with me, for I have hired you with my son’s mandrakes.” So Jacob slept with her that night.

<sup>18</sup> Leah said, “God has rewarded me for giving my slave to my husband,” and she named him Issachar.

<sup>19</sup> Then Leah conceived again and bore Jacob a sixth son. <sup>20</sup> “God has given me a good gift,” Leah said. “This time my husband will honor me because I have borne six sons for him,” and she named him Zebulun.

<sup>22</sup> Then God remembered Rachel. He listened to her and opened her womb. <sup>23</sup> She conceived and bore a son, and said, “God has taken away my shame.” <sup>24</sup> She named him Joseph: “May the LORD add another son to me.”

Jacob’s Flocks Multiply

<sup>25†</sup> After Rachel gave birth to Joseph, Jacob said to Laban, “Send me on my way so that I can return to my homeland. <sup>26</sup> Give me my wives and my children that I have worked for, and let me go. You know how hard I have worked for you.”

<sup>27</sup> But Laban said to him, “If I have found favor in your sight, stay. I have learned by •divination that the LORD has blessed me because of you.”

<sup>29</sup> So Jacob said to him, “You know what I have done for you and your herds. <sup>30</sup> For you had very little before I came, but now your wealth has increased. The LORD has blessed you because of me. And now, when will I also do something for my own family? ”

And Jacob said, “You don’t need to give me anything. If you do this one thing for me, I will continue to shepherd and keep your flock. <sup>32</sup> Let me go through all your sheep today and remove every sheep that is speckled or spotted, every dark-colored sheep among the lambs, and the spotted and speckled among the female goats. Such will be my wages. <sup>33</sup> In the future when you come to check on my wages, my honesty will testify for me. If I have any female goats that are not speckled or spotted, or any lambs that are not black, they will be considered stolen.”

<sup>35</sup> That day Laban removed the streaked and spotted male goats and all the speckled and spotted female goats — every one that had any white on it — and every dark-colored one among the lambs, and he placed his sons in charge of them. <sup>36</sup> He put a three-day journey between himself and Jacob. Jacob, meanwhile, was shepherding the rest of Laban’s flock.

out the branches. So it turned out that the weak sheep belonged to Laban and the stronger ones to Jacob. <sup>43</sup> And the man became very rich. <sup>D</sup> He had many flocks, male and female slaves, and camels and donkeys.

Jacob Separates from Laban

31 † Now Jacob heard what Laban's sons were saying: "Jacob has taken all that was our father's and has built this wealth from what belonged to our father." <sup>2</sup> And Jacob saw from Laban's face that his attitude toward him was not the same.

<sup>3</sup> Then the LORD said to him, "Go back to the land of your fathers and to your family, and I will be with you."

<sup>4†</sup> Jacob had Rachel and Leah called to the field where his flocks were. <sup>5</sup> He said to them, "I can see from your father's face that his attitude toward me is not the same, but the God of my father has been with me. <sup>6</sup> You know that I've worked hard <sup>A</sup> for your father <sup>7</sup> and that he has cheated me and changed my wages 10 times. But God has not let him harm me. <sup>8</sup> If he said, 'The spotted sheep will be your wages,' then all the sheep were born spotted. If he said, 'The streaked sheep will be your wages,' then all the sheep were born streaked. <sup>9</sup> God has taken away your father's herds and given them to me.

<sup>10</sup> "When the flocks were breeding, I saw in a dream that the streaked, spotted, and speckled males were mating with the females. <sup>11</sup> In that dream the Angel of God said to me, 'Jacob!' and I said, 'Here I am.' <sup>12</sup> And He said, 'Look up and see: all the males that are mating with the flocks are streaked, spotted, and speckled, for I have seen all that Laban has been doing to you. <sup>13</sup> I am the God of Bethel, where you poured oil on the stone marker and made a solemn vow to Me. Get up, leave this land, and return to your native land.' "

<sup>14</sup> Then Rachel and Leah answered him, "Do we have any portion or inheritance in our father's household? <sup>15</sup> Are we not regarded by him as outsiders? For he has sold us and has certainly spent our money. <sup>16</sup> In fact, all the wealth that God has taken away from our father belongs to us and to our children. So do whatever God has said to you."

he drove his herds to go to the land of his father Isaac in Canaan. <sup>19†</sup> When Laban had gone to shear his sheep, Rachel stole her father's household idols. <sup>20</sup> And Jacob deceived <sup>B</sup> Laban the Aramean, not telling him that he was fleeing. <sup>21</sup> He fled with all his possessions, crossed the Euphrates, and headed for <sup>C</sup> the hill country of Gilead.

Laban Overtakes Jacob

<sup>22</sup> On the third day Laban was told that Jacob had fled. <sup>23</sup> So he took his relatives with him, pursued Jacob for seven days, and overtook him at Mount Gilead. <sup>24</sup> But God came to Laban the Aramean in a dream at night. "Watch yourself!" God warned him. "Don't say anything to Jacob, either good or bad."

<sup>25</sup> When Laban overtook Jacob, Jacob had pitched his tent in the hill country, and Laban and his brothers also pitched their tents in the hill country of Gilead. <sup>26</sup> Then Laban said to Jacob, "What have you done? You have deceived me and taken my daughters away like prisoners of war! <sup>27</sup> Why did you secretly flee from me, deceive me, and not tell me? I would have sent you away with joy and singing, with tambourines and lyres, <sup>28</sup> but you didn't even let me kiss my grandchildren and my daughters. You have acted foolishly. <sup>29</sup> I could do you great harm, but last night the God of your father said to me: 'Watch yourself. Don't say anything to Jacob, either good or bad.' <sup>30†</sup> Now you have gone off because you long for your father — but why have you stolen my gods?"

<sup>31</sup> Jacob answered, "I was afraid, for I thought you would take your daughters from me by force. <sup>32</sup> If you find your gods with anyone here, he will not live! Before our relatives, point out anything that is yours and take it." Jacob did not know that Rachel had stolen the idols.

<sup>33</sup> So Laban went into Jacob's tent, then Leah's tent, and then the tents of the two female slaves, but he found nothing. Then he left Leah's tent and entered Rachel's. <sup>34</sup> Now Rachel had taken Laban's household idols, put them in the saddlebag of the camel, and sat on them. Laban searched the whole tent but found nothing.

<sup>35</sup> She said to her father, “Sir, don’t be angry that I cannot stand up in your presence; I am having my period.” So Laban searched, but could not find the household idols.

Jacob’s Covenant with Laban

<sup>36</sup> Then Jacob became incensed and brought charges against Laban. “What is my crime?” he said to Laban. “What is my sin, that you have pursued me? <sup>37</sup> You’ve searched all my possessions! Have you found anything of yours? Put it here before my relatives and yours, and let them decide between the two of us. <sup>38</sup> I’ve been with you these 20 years. Your ewes and female goats have not miscarried, and I have not eaten the rams from your flock. <sup>39</sup> I did not bring you any of the flock torn by wild beasts; I myself bore the loss. You demanded payment from me for what was stolen by day or by night. <sup>40</sup> There I was — the heat consumed me by day and the frost by night, and sleep fled from my eyes. <sup>41</sup> For 20 years I have worked in your household — 14 years for your two daughters and six years for your flocks — and you have changed my wages 10 times! <sup>42</sup> If the God of my father, the God of Abraham, the Fear of Isaac, had not been with me, certainly now you would have sent me off empty-handed. But God has seen my affliction and my hard work, <sup>D</sup> and He issued His verdict last night.”

<sup>48</sup> Then Laban said, “This mound is a witness between you and me today.” Therefore the place was called Galeed <sup>49</sup> and also Mizpah, for he said, “May the LORD watch between you and me when we are out of each other’s sight. <sup>50</sup> If you mistreat my daughters or take other wives, though no one is with us, understand that God will be a witness between you and me.” <sup>51</sup> Laban also said to Jacob, “Look at this mound and the marker I have set up between you and me. <sup>52</sup> This mound is a witness and the marker is a witness that I will not pass beyond this mound to you, and you will not pass beyond this mound and this marker to do me harm. <sup>53</sup> The God of Abraham, and the gods of Nahor — the gods of their father — will judge between us.” And Jacob swore by the Fear of his father Isaac. <sup>54</sup> Then Jacob offered a sacrifice on the mountain and invited his relatives to eat a meal. So they ate a meal and spent the night on the mountain. <sup>55</sup> Laban got up early in the morning, kissed his grandchildren and daughters, and blessed them. Then Laban left to return home.

Preparing to Meet Esau

32 † Jacob went on his way, and God's angels met him. <sup>2</sup> When he saw them, Jacob said, "This is God's camp." So he called that place Mahanaim.

<sup>6</sup> When the messengers returned to Jacob, they said, "We went to your brother Esau; he is coming to meet you — and he has 400 men with him." <sup>7</sup> Jacob was greatly afraid and distressed; he divided the people with him into two camps, along with the flocks, cattle, and camels. <sup>8</sup> He thought, "If Esau comes to one camp and attacks it, the remaining one can escape."

<sup>9</sup> Then Jacob said, "God of my father Abraham and God of my father Isaac, the LORD who said to me, 'Go back to your land and to your family, and I will cause you to prosper,' <sup>10</sup> I am unworthy of all the kindness and faithfulness You have shown Your servant. Indeed, I crossed over this Jordan with my staff, and now I have become two camps. <sup>11</sup> Please rescue me from the hand of my brother Esau, for I am afraid of him; otherwise, he may come and attack me, the mothers, and their children. <sup>12</sup> You have said, 'I will cause you to prosper, and I will make your •offspring like the sand of the sea, which cannot be counted.' "

<sup>17</sup> And he told the first one: “When my brother Esau meets you and asks, ‘Who do you belong to? Where are you going? And whose animals are these ahead of you?’ <sup>18</sup> then tell him, ‘They belong to your servant Jacob. They are a gift sent to my lord Esau. And look, he is behind us.’ ”

<sup>19</sup> He also told the second one, the third, and everyone who was walking behind the animals, “Say the same thing to Esau when you find him. <sup>20</sup> You are also to say, ‘Look, your servant Jacob is right behind us.’ ” For he thought, “I want to appease Esau with the gift that is going ahead of me. After that, I can face him, and perhaps he will forgive me.”

Jacob Wrestles with God

<sup>24†</sup> Jacob was left alone, and a man wrestled with him until daybreak. <sup>25</sup> When the man saw that He could not defeat him, He struck Jacob’s hip socket as they wrestled and dislocated his hip. <sup>26</sup> Then He said to Jacob, “Let Me go, for it is daybreak.”

But Jacob said, “I will not let You go unless You bless me.”

<sup>27</sup> “What is your name?” the man asked.

<sup>28</sup> “Your name will no longer be Jacob,” He said. “It will be Israel because you have struggled with God and with men and have prevailed.”

<sup>29</sup> Then Jacob asked Him, “Please tell me Your name.”

But He answered, “Why do you ask My name?” And He blessed him there.

<sup>30</sup> Jacob then named the place Peniel, “For I have seen God face to face,” he said, “and I have been delivered.” <sup>31</sup> The sun shone on him as he passed by Peniel <sup>A</sup>, — limping because of his hip. <sup>32†</sup> That is why, to this day, the Israelites don’t eat the thigh muscle that is at the hip socket: because He struck Jacob’s hip socket at the thigh muscle. <sup>B</sup>

Jacob Meets Esau

33 † Now Jacob looked up and saw Esau coming toward him with 400 men. So he divided the children among Leah, Rachel, and the two female slaves. <sup>2</sup> He put the female slaves and their children first, Leah and her children next, and Rachel and Joseph last. <sup>3</sup> He himself went on ahead and bowed to the ground seven times until he approached his brother.

<sup>4</sup> But Esau ran to meet him, hugged him, threw his arms around him, and kissed him. Then they wept. <sup>5</sup> When Esau looked up and saw the women and children, he asked, “Who are these with you? ”

He answered, “The children God has graciously given your servant.” <sup>6</sup> Then the female slaves and their children approached him and bowed down. <sup>7</sup> Leah and her children also approached and bowed down, and then Joseph and Rachel approached and bowed down.

“To find favor with you, my lord,” he answered.

<sup>10</sup> But Jacob said, “No, please! If I have found favor with you, take this gift from my hand. For indeed, I have seen your face, and it is like seeing God’s face, since you have accepted me. <sup>11</sup> Please take my present that was brought to you, because God has been gracious to me and I have everything I need.” So Jacob urged him until he accepted.

<sup>13</sup> Jacob replied, “My lord knows that the children are weak, and I have nursing sheep and cattle. If they are driven hard for one day, the whole herd will die. <sup>14</sup> Let my lord go ahead of his servant. I will continue on slowly, at a pace suited to the livestock and the children, until I come to my lord at Seir.”

But he replied, “Why do that? Please indulge me, <sup>B</sup> my lord.”

<sup>16</sup> That day Esau started on his way back to Seir, <sup>17</sup> but Jacob went on to Succoth. He built a house for himself and stalls for his livestock; that is why the place was called Succoth.

GENESIS

Dinah Defiled

34 † Dinah, Leah's daughter whom she bore to Jacob, went out to see some of the young women of the area. <sup>2</sup> When Shechem son of Hamor the Hivite, a prince of the region, saw her, he took her and raped her. <sup>3†</sup> He became infatuated with Dinah, daughter of Jacob. He loved the young girl and spoke tenderly to her. <sup>A</sup> <sup>4</sup> "Get me this girl as a wife," he told his father Hamor.

<sup>5</sup> Jacob heard that Shechem had defiled his daughter Dinah, but since his sons were with his livestock in the field, he remained silent until they returned. <sup>6</sup> Meanwhile, Shechem's father Hamor came to speak with Jacob. <sup>7</sup> Jacob's sons returned from the field when they heard about the incident and were deeply grieved and angry. For Shechem had committed an outrage against Israel by raping Jacob's daughter, and such a thing should not be done.

<sup>11</sup> Then Shechem said to Dinah's father and brothers, "Grant me this favor, <sup>B</sup> and I'll give you whatever you say. <sup>12</sup> Demand of me a high compensation <sup>C</sup> and gift; I'll give you whatever you ask me. Just give the girl to be my wife! "

<sup>21</sup> "These men are peaceful toward us," they said. "Let them live in our land and move about in it, for indeed, the region is large enough for them. Let us take their daughters as our wives and give our daughters to them.

<sup>22</sup> But the men will agree to live with us and be one people only on this condition: if all our men are circumcised as they are. <sup>23</sup> Won't their livestock, their possessions, and all their animals become ours? Only let us agree with them, and they will live with us."

<sup>30</sup> Then Jacob said to Simeon and Levi, "You have brought trouble on me, making me odious to the inhabitants of the land, the Canaanites and the Perizzites. We are few in number; if they unite against me and attack me, I and my household will be destroyed."

GENESIS

Return to Bethel

35 † God said to Jacob, “Get up! Go to Bethel and settle there. Build an altar there to the God who appeared to you when you fled from your brother Esau.”

<sup>2</sup> So Jacob said to his family and all who were with him, “Get rid of the foreign gods that are among you. Purify yourselves and change your clothes. <sup>3</sup> We must get up and go to Bethel. I will build an altar there to the God who answered me in my day of distress. He has been with me everywhere I have gone.”

<sup>4</sup> Then they gave Jacob all their foreign gods and their earrings, and Jacob hid them under the oak near Shechem. <sup>5</sup> When they set out, a terror from God came over the cities around them, and they did not pursue Jacob’s sons. <sup>6</sup> So Jacob and all who were with him came to Luz (that is, Bethel ) in the land of Canaan. <sup>7</sup> Jacob built an altar there and called the place God of Bethel <sup>A</sup> because it was there that God had revealed Himself to him when he was fleeing from his brother.

<sup>9†</sup> God appeared to Jacob again after he returned from Paddan-aram, and He blessed him. <sup>10</sup> God said to him:

Your name is Jacob;
you will no longer be named Jacob, but your name will be Israel.

So He named him Israel. <sup>11</sup> God also said to him:

I am •God Almighty.
Be fruitful and multiply.
A nation, indeed an assembly of nations, will come from you,
and kings will descend from you. <sup>D</sup>

<sup>12</sup> I will give to you the land that I gave to Abraham and Isaac.

And I will give the land to your future descendants.

<sup>14</sup> Jacob set up a marker at the place where He had spoken to him — a stone marker. He poured a drink offering on it and anointed it with oil.

Rachel's Death

<sup>16†</sup> They set out from Bethel. When they were still some distance from Ephrath, Rachel began to give birth, and her labor was difficult. <sup>17</sup> During her difficult labor, the midwife said to her, “Don’t be afraid, for you have another son.” <sup>18</sup> With her last breath — for she was dying — she named him Ben-oni, but his father called him Benjamin. <sup>19</sup> So Rachel died and was buried on the way to Ephrath (that is, Bethlehem ). <sup>20</sup> Jacob set up a marker on her grave; it is the marker at Rachel’s grave to this day.

Israel's Sons

Jacob had 12 sons:

<sup>23</sup> Leah’s sons were Reuben (Jacob’s firstborn), Simeon, Levi, Judah, Issachar, and Zebulun.

Joseph and Benjamin.

were Dan and Naphtali.

These are the sons of Jacob, who were born to him in Paddan-aram.

Isaac's Death

<sup>27†</sup> Jacob came to his father Isaac at Mamre in Kiriath-arba (that is, Hebron ), where Abraham and Isaac had stayed. <sup>28</sup> Isaac lived 180 years. <sup>29</sup> He took his last breath and died, and was gathered to his people, old and full of days. His sons Esau and Jacob buried him.

<sup>6†</sup> Esau took his wives, sons, daughters, and all the people of his household, as well as his herds, all his livestock, and all the property he had acquired in Canaan; he went to a land away from his brother Jacob. <sup>7</sup> For their possessions were too many for them to live together, and because of their herds, the land where they stayed could not support them. <sup>8</sup> So Esau (that is, Edom) lived in the mountains of Seir.

Eliphaz son of Esau's wife Adah, and Reuel son of Esau's wife Basemath.

<sup>11</sup> The sons of Eliphaz were Teman, Omar, Zepho, Gatam, and Kenaz.

<sup>12</sup> Timna, a concubine of Esau's son Eliphaz, bore Amalek to Eliphaz.
These were the sons of Esau's wife Adah.

Nahath, Zerah, Shammah, and Mizzah.
These were the sons of Esau's wife Basemath.

daughter of Anah and granddaughter of Zibeon:
She bore Jeush, Jalam, and Korah to Edom.

the sons of Eliphaz, Esau's firstborn:
Chiefs Teman, Omar, Zepho, Kenaz,

<sup>16</sup> Korah, Gatam, and Amalek.
These are the chiefs of Eliphaz
in the land of Edom.
These are the sons of Adah.

<sup>17</sup> These are the sons of Reuel, Esau's son:
Chiefs Nahath, Zerah, Shammah, and Mizzah.
These are the chiefs of Reuel
in the land of Edom.
These are the sons of Esau's wife Basemath.

Chiefs Jeush, Jalam, and Korah.
These are the chiefs of Esau's wife Oholibamah daughter of Anah.

and these are their chiefs.

Seir's Family

<sup>20</sup> These are the sons of Seir the Horite, the inhabitants of the land:
Lotan, Shobal, Zibeon, Anah,

<sup>21</sup> Dishon, Ezer, and Dishan.

These are the chiefs of the Horites,
the sons of Seir, in the land of Edom.

<sup>22</sup> The sons of Lotan were Hori and Heman.

Alvan, Manahath, Ebal, Shepho, and Onam.

This was the Anah who found the hot springs in the wilderness while he was pasturing the donkeys of his father Zibeon.

Bilhan, Zaavan, and Akan.

These are the chiefs of the Horites,
according to their divisions, in the land of Seir.

Rulers of Edom

<sup>31</sup> These are the kings who ruled in the land of Edom before any king ruled over the Israelites:

the name of his city was Dinhabah.

He defeated Midian in the field of Moab;
the name of his city was Avith.

place.

His city was Pau, and his wife's name was Mehetabel daughter of Matred daughter of Me-zahab.

<sup>40</sup> These are the names of Esau's chiefs, according to their families and their localities, by their names:

Chiefs Timna, Alvah, Jetheth,

These are Edom's chiefs, according to their settlements in the land they possessed.

Esau <sup>A</sup> was father of the Edomites.

Joseph's Dreams

37 † Jacob lived in the land where his father had stayed, the land of Canaan. 2† These are the family records of Jacob.

At 17 years of age, Joseph tended sheep with his brothers. The young man was working with the sons of Bilhah and Zilpah, his father's wives, and he brought a bad report about them to their father.

3 Now Israel loved Joseph more than his other sons because Joseph was a son born to him in his old age, and he made a robe of many colors <sup>A</sup> for him. 4 When his brothers saw that their father loved him more than all his brothers, they hated him and could not bring themselves to speak peaceably to him.

5† Then Joseph had a dream. When he told it to his brothers, they hated him even more. 6 He said to them, "Listen to this dream I had: 7 There we were, binding sheaves of grain in the field. Suddenly my sheaf stood up, and your sheaves gathered around it and bowed down to my sheaf."

8 "Are you really going to reign over us?" his brothers asked him. "Are you really going to rule us?" So they hated him even more because of his dream and what he had said.

9 Then he had another dream and told it to his brothers. "Look," he said, "I had another dream, and this time the sun, moon, and 11 stars were bowing down to me."

10 He told his father and brothers, but his father rebuked him. "What kind of dream is this that you have had?" he said. "Are your mother and brothers and I going to come and bow down to the ground before you?"

11 His brothers were jealous of him, but his father kept the matter in mind.

Joseph Sold into Slavery

12† His brothers had gone to pasture their father's flocks at Shechem.

13 Israel said to Joseph, "Your brothers, you know, are pasturing the flocks at Shechem. Get ready. I'm sending you to them."

“I’m ready,” Joseph replied.

<sup>14</sup> Then Israel said to him, “Go and see how your brothers and the flocks are doing, and bring word back to me.” So he sent him from the Valley of Hebron, and he went to Shechem.

<sup>15†</sup> A man found him there, wandering in the field, and asked him, “What are you looking for? ”

<sup>17</sup> “They’ve moved on from here,” the man said. “I heard them say, ‘Let’s go to Dothan.’ ” So Joseph set out after his brothers and found them at Dothan.

<sup>23</sup> When Joseph came to his brothers, they stripped off his robe, the robe of many colors that he had on. <sup>24†</sup> Then they took him and threw him into the pit. The pit was empty; there was no water in it.

<sup>25†</sup> Then they sat down to eat a meal. They looked up, and there was a caravan of Ishmaelites coming from Gilead. Their camels were carrying aromatic gum, balsam, and resin, going down to Egypt.

<sup>26</sup> Then Judah said to his brothers, “What do we gain if we kill our brother and cover up his blood? <sup>27</sup> Come, let’s sell him to the Ishmaelites and not lay a hand on him, for he is our brother, our own flesh,” and they agreed. <sup>28</sup> When Midianite traders passed by, his brothers pulled Joseph out of the pit and sold him for 20 pieces of silver to the Ishmaelites, who took Joseph to Egypt.

<sup>29</sup> When Reuben returned to the pit and saw that Joseph was not there, he tore his clothes. <sup>30</sup> He went back to his brothers and said, “The boy is gone! What am I going to do? ” <sup>31</sup> So they took Joseph’s robe, slaughtered a young goat, and dipped the robe in its blood. <sup>32</sup> They sent the robe of many colors to their father and said, “We found this. Examine it. Is it your son’s robe or not? ”

<sup>33</sup> His father recognized it. “It is my son’s robe,” he said. “A vicious animal has devoured him. Joseph has been torn to pieces! ” <sup>34</sup> Then Jacob tore his clothes, put •sackcloth around his waist, and mourned for his son many days. <sup>35+</sup> All his sons and daughters tried to comfort him, but he refused to be comforted. “No,” he said. “I will go down to •Sheol to my son, mourning.” And his father wept for him.

Judah and Tamar

<sup>6</sup> Judah got a wife for Er, his firstborn, and her name was Tamar. <sup>7</sup> Now Er, Judah's firstborn, was evil in the LORD's sight, and the LORD put him to death. <sup>8†</sup> Then Judah said to Onan, "Sleep with your brother's wife. Perform your duty as her brother-in-law and produce •offspring for your brother." <sup>9</sup> But Onan knew that the offspring would not be his, so whenever he slept with his brother's wife, he released his semen on the ground so that he would not produce offspring for his brother. <sup>10</sup> What he did was evil in the LORD's sight, so He put him to death also.

<sup>11†</sup> Then Judah said to his daughter-in-law Tamar, "Remain a widow in your father's house until my son Shelah grows up." For he thought, "He might die too, like his brother." So Tamar went to live in her father's house.

<sup>16</sup> He went over to her and said, "Come, let me sleep with you," for he did not know that she was his daughter-in-law.

She said, "What will you give me for sleeping with me? "

<sup>17</sup> "I will send you a young goat from my flock," he replied.

But she said, “Only if you leave something with me until you send it.”

She answered, “Your signet ring, your cord, and the staff in your hand.” So he gave them to her and slept with her, and she got pregnant by him.

“There has been no cult prostitute here,” they answered.

<sup>22</sup> So the Adullamite returned to Judah, saying, “I couldn’t find her, and furthermore, the men of the place said, ‘There has been no cult prostitute here.’ ”

<sup>23</sup> Judah replied, “Let her keep the items for herself; otherwise we will become a laughingstock. After all, I did send this young goat, but you couldn’t find her.”

<sup>24</sup> About three months later Judah was told, “Your daughter-in-law, Tamar, has been acting like a prostitute, and now she is pregnant.”

“Bring her out! ” Judah said. “Let her be burned to death! ”

<sup>25</sup> As she was being brought out, she sent her father-in-law this message: “I am pregnant by the man to whom these items belong.” And she added, “Examine them. Whose signet ring, cord, and staff are these? ”

<sup>26</sup> Judah recognized them and said, “She is more in the right <sup>D</sup> than I, since I did not give her to my son Shelah.” And he did not know her intimately again.

Joseph in Potiphar's House

39 † Now Joseph had been taken to Egypt. An Egyptian named Potiphar, an officer of Pharaoh and the captain of the guard, bought him from the Ishmaelites who had brought him there. <sup>2</sup> The LORD was with Joseph, and he became a successful man, serving <sup>A</sup> in the household of his Egyptian master. <sup>3</sup> When his master saw that the LORD was with him and that the LORD made everything he did successful, <sup>4</sup> Joseph found favor in his master's sight and became his personal attendant. Potiphar also put him in charge of his household and placed all that he owned under his authority. <sup>B</sup> <sup>5</sup> From the time that he put him in charge of his household and of all that he owned, the LORD blessed the Egyptian's house because of Joseph. The LORD's blessing was on all that he owned, in his house and in his fields. <sup>6†</sup> He left all that he owned under Joseph's authority; <sup>C</sup> he did not concern himself with anything except the food he ate.

Now Joseph was well-built and handsome. <sup>7</sup> After some time <sup>D</sup> his master's wife looked longingly at Joseph and said, "Sleep with me."

<sup>19</sup> When his master heard the story his wife told him — "These are the things your slave did to me" — he was furious <sup>20</sup> and had him thrown into prison, where the king's prisoners were confined. So Joseph was there in prison.

Joseph in Prison

<sup>21</sup> But the LORD was with Joseph and extended kindness to him. He granted him favor in the eyes of the prison warden. <sup>22</sup> The warden put all the prisoners who were in the prison under Joseph's authority, <sup>K</sup> and he was responsible for everything that was done there. <sup>23</sup> The warden did not bother with anything under Joseph's authority, <sup>L</sup> because the LORD was with him, and the LORD made everything that he did successful.

Joseph Interprets Two Prisoners' Dreams

40 † After this, the Egyptian king's cupbearer and baker offended their master, the king of Egypt. <sup>2</sup> Pharaoh was angry with his two officers, the chief cupbearer and the chief baker, <sup>3</sup> and put them in custody in the house of the captain of the guard in the prison where Joseph was confined. <sup>4</sup> The captain of the guard assigned Joseph to them, and he became their personal attendant. And they were in custody for some time. <sup>A</sup>

<sup>5†</sup> The Egyptian king's cupbearer and baker, who were confined in the prison, each had a dream. Both had a dream on the same night, and each dream had its own meaning. <sup>6</sup> When Joseph came to them in the morning, he saw that they looked distraught. <sup>7</sup> So he asked Pharaoh's officers who were in custody with him in his master's house, "Why do you look so sad today?"

<sup>8</sup> "We had dreams," they said to him, "but there is no one to interpret them."

Then Joseph said to them, "Don't interpretations belong to God? Tell me your dreams."

<sup>9†</sup> So the chief cupbearer told his dream to Joseph: "In my dream there was a vine in front of me. <sup>10</sup> On the vine were three branches. As soon as it budded, its blossoms came out and its clusters ripened into grapes. <sup>11</sup> Pharaoh's cup was in my hand, and I took the grapes, squeezed them into Pharaoh's cup, and placed the cup in Pharaoh's hand."

<sup>12</sup> "This is its interpretation," Joseph said to him. "The three branches are three days. <sup>13</sup> In just three days Pharaoh will lift up your head and restore you to your position. You will put Pharaoh's cup in his hand the way you used to when you were his cupbearer. <sup>14</sup> But when all goes well for you, remember that I was with you. Please show kindness to me by mentioning me to Pharaoh, and get me out of this prison. <sup>15</sup> For I was kidnapped from the land of the Hebrews, and even here I have done nothing that they should put me in the dungeon."

<sup>16</sup> When the chief baker saw that the interpretation was positive, he said to Joseph, “I also had a dream. Three baskets of white bread were on my head. <sup>17</sup> In the top basket were all sorts of baked goods for Pharaoh, but the birds were eating them out of the basket on my head.”

Joseph Interprets Pharaoh's Dreams

41 † Two years later Pharaoh had a dream: He was standing beside the Nile, <sup>2</sup> when seven healthy-looking, well-fed cows came up from the Nile and began to graze among the reeds. <sup>3</sup> After them, seven other cows, sickly and thin, came up from the Nile and stood beside those cows along the bank of the Nile. <sup>4</sup> The sickly, thin cows ate the healthy, well-fed cows. Then Pharaoh woke up. <sup>5</sup> He fell asleep and dreamed a second time: Seven heads of grain, plump and ripe, came up on one stalk. <sup>6</sup> After them, seven heads of grain, thin and scorched by the east wind, sprouted up. <sup>7</sup> The thin heads of grain swallowed up the seven plump, ripe ones. Then Pharaoh woke up, and it was only a dream.

<sup>8</sup> When morning came, he was troubled, so he summoned all the magicians of Egypt and all its wise men. Pharaoh told them his dreams, but no one could interpret them for him.

<sup>9†</sup> Then the chief cupbearer said to Pharaoh, “Today I remember my faults. <sup>10</sup> Pharaoh had been angry with his servants, and he put me and the chief baker in the custody of the captain of the guard. <sup>11</sup> He and I had dreams on the same night; each dream had its own meaning. <sup>12</sup> Now a young Hebrew, a slave of the captain of the guards, was with us there. We told him our dreams, he interpreted our dreams for us, and each had its own interpretation. <sup>13</sup> It turned out just the way he interpreted them to us: I was restored to my position, and the other man was hanged.”

<sup>15</sup> Pharaoh said to Joseph, “I have had a dream, and no one can interpret it. But I have heard it said about you that you can hear a dream and interpret it.”

<sup>17†</sup> So Pharaoh said to Joseph: “In my dream I was standing on the bank of the Nile, <sup>18</sup> when seven well-fed, healthy-looking cows came up from the Nile and began to graze among the reeds. <sup>19</sup> After them, seven other cows — ugly, very sickly, and thin — came up. I’ve never seen such ugly ones as these in all the land of Egypt. <sup>20</sup> Then the thin, ugly cows ate the first seven well-fed cows. <sup>21</sup> When they had devoured them, you could not tell that they had devoured them; their appearance was as bad as it had been before. Then I woke up. <sup>22</sup> In my dream I had also seen seven heads of grain, plump and ripe, coming up on one stalk. <sup>23</sup> After them, seven heads of grain — withered, thin, and scorched by the east wind — sprouted up. <sup>24</sup> The thin heads of grain swallowed the seven plump ones. I told this to the magicians, but no one can tell me what it means.”

<sup>25</sup> Then Joseph said to Pharaoh, “Pharaoh’s dreams mean the same thing. God has revealed to Pharaoh what He is about to do. <sup>26</sup> The seven good cows are seven years, and the seven ripe heads are seven years. The dreams mean the same thing. <sup>27</sup> The seven thin, ugly cows that came up after them are seven years, and the seven worthless, scorched heads of grain are seven years of famine.

in the cities, so they may preserve it as food. <sup>36</sup> The food will be a reserve for the land during the seven years of famine that will take place in the land of Egypt. Then the country will not be wiped out by the famine.”

Joseph Exalted

<sup>37†</sup> The proposal pleased Pharaoh and all his servants. <sup>38†</sup> Then Pharaoh said to his servants, “Can we find anyone like this, a man who has God’s spirit <sup>C</sup> in him? ” <sup>39</sup> So Pharaoh said to Joseph, “Since God has made all this known to you, there is no one as intelligent and wise as you are. <sup>40†</sup> You will be over my house, and all my people will obey your commands. <sup>D</sup>, Only with regard to the throne will I be greater than you.” <sup>41</sup> Pharaoh also said to Joseph, “See, I am placing you over all the land of Egypt.”

<sup>42</sup> Pharaoh removed his signet ring from his hand and put it on Joseph’s hand, clothed him with fine linen garments, and placed a gold chain around his neck. <sup>43</sup> He had Joseph ride in his second chariot, and servants called out before him, “Abrek!” So he placed him over all the land of Egypt.

Joseph’s Administration

<sup>46</sup> Joseph was 30 years old when he entered the service of Pharaoh king of Egypt. Joseph left Pharaoh’s presence and traveled throughout the land of Egypt.

<sup>53†</sup> Then the seven years of abundance in the land of Egypt came to an end, <sup>54</sup> and the seven years of famine began, just as Joseph had said. There was famine in every country, but throughout the land of Egypt there was food. <sup>55</sup> Extreme hunger came to all the land of Egypt, and the people cried out to Pharaoh for food. Pharaoh told all Egypt, “Go to Joseph and do whatever he tells you.” <sup>56</sup> Because the famine had spread across the whole country, Joseph opened up all the storehouses and sold grain to the Egyptians, for the famine was severe in the land of Egypt. <sup>57</sup> Every nation came to Joseph in Egypt to buy grain, for the famine was severe in every land.

Joseph's Brothers in Egypt

42 When Jacob learned that there was grain in Egypt, he said to his sons, “Why do you keep looking at each other? <sup>2</sup> Listen,” he went on, “I have heard there is grain in Egypt. Go down there and buy some for us so that we will live and not die.” <sup>3</sup> So 10 of Joseph’s brothers went down to buy grain from Egypt. <sup>4†</sup> But Jacob did not send Joseph’s brother Benjamin with his brothers, for he thought, “Something might happen to him.”

<sup>5</sup> The sons of Israel were among those who came to buy grain, for the famine was in the land of Canaan. <sup>6</sup> Joseph was in charge of the country; he sold grain to all its people. His brothers came and bowed down before him with their faces to the ground. <sup>7†</sup> When Joseph saw his brothers, he recognized them, but he treated them like strangers and spoke harshly to them.

“Where do you come from? ” he asked.

“From the land of Canaan to buy food,” they replied.

<sup>8</sup> Although Joseph recognized his brothers, they did not recognize him. <sup>9</sup> Joseph remembered his dreams about them and said to them, “You are spies. You have come to see the weakness <sup>A</sup> of the land.”

<sup>10</sup> “No, my lord. Your servants have come to buy food,” they said. <sup>11</sup> “We are all sons of one man. We are honest; your servants are not spies.”

<sup>14</sup> Then Joseph said to them, “I have spoken: <sup>C</sup> ‘You are spies!’ <sup>15</sup> This is how you will be tested: As surely as Pharaoh lives, you will not leave this place unless your youngest brother comes here. <sup>16</sup> Send one from among you to get your brother. The rest of you will be imprisoned so that your words can be tested to see if they are true. If they are not, then as surely as Pharaoh lives, you are spies! ” <sup>17</sup> So Joseph imprisoned them together for three days.

<sup>18</sup> On the third day Joseph said to them, “I •fear God — do this and you will live. <sup>19</sup> If you are honest, let one of you <sup>D</sup> be confined to the guardhouse, while the rest of you go and take grain to relieve the hunger of your households. <sup>20†</sup> Bring your youngest brother to me so that your words can be confirmed; then you won’t die.” And they consented to this.

<sup>21†</sup> Then they said to each other, “Obviously, we are being punished for what we did to our brother. We saw his deep distress when he pleaded with us, but we would not listen. That is why this trouble has come to us.”

<sup>22</sup> But Reuben replied: “Didn’t I tell you not to harm the boy? But you wouldn’t listen. Now we must account for his blood! ” <sup>E</sup>

<sup>23</sup> They did not realize that Joseph understood them, since there was an interpreter between them. <sup>24</sup> He turned away from them and wept. Then he turned back and spoke to them. He took Simeon from them and had him bound before their eyes. <sup>25†</sup> Joseph then gave orders to fill their containers with grain, return each man’s money to his sack, and give them provisions for their journey. This order was carried out. <sup>26</sup> They loaded the grain on their donkeys and left there.

The Brothers Return Home

<sup>29</sup> When they reached their father Jacob in the land of Canaan, they told him all that had happened to them: <sup>30</sup> “The man who is the lord of the country spoke harshly to us and accused us of spying on the country. <sup>31</sup> But we told him: We are honest and not spies. <sup>32</sup> We were 12 brothers, sons of the same <sup>F</sup> father. One is no longer living, and the youngest is now <sup>G</sup> with our father in the land of Canaan. <sup>33</sup> The man who is the lord of the country said to us, ‘This is how I will know if you are honest: Leave one brother with me, take food to relieve the hunger of your households, and go.

<sup>34</sup> Bring back your youngest brother to me, and I will know that you are not spies but honest men. I will then give your brother back to you, and you can trade in the country.’ ”

<sup>35</sup> As they began emptying their sacks, there in each man’s sack was his bag of money! When they and their father saw their bags of money, they were afraid.

<sup>36</sup> Their father Jacob said to them, “You have deprived me of my sons. Joseph is gone and Simeon is gone. Now you want to take Benjamin. Everything happens to me! ”

<sup>37</sup> Then Reuben said to his father, “You can kill my two sons if I don’t bring him back to you. Put him in my care, <sup>H</sup> and I will return him to you.”

<sup>38</sup> But Jacob answered, “My son will not go down with you, for his brother is dead and he alone is left. If anything happens to him on your journey, you will bring my gray hairs down to •Sheol in sorrow.”

Decision to Return to Egypt

43 † Now the famine in the land was severe. <sup>2</sup> When they had used up the grain they had brought back from Egypt, their father said to them, “Go back and buy us some food.”

<sup>3</sup> But Judah said to him, “The man specifically warned us: ‘You will not see me again unless your brother is with you.’” <sup>4</sup> If you will send our brother with us, we will go down and buy food for you. <sup>5</sup> But if you will not send him, we will not go, for the man said to us, ‘You will not see me again unless your brother is with you.’”

<sup>7</sup> They answered, “The man kept asking about us and our family: ‘Is your father still alive? Do you have another brother?’” And we answered him accordingly. How could we know that he would say, ‘Bring your brother here’?”

<sup>8</sup> Then Judah said to his father Israel, “Send the boy with me. We will be on our way so that we may live and not die — neither we, nor you, nor our children. <sup>9</sup> I will be responsible for him. You can hold me personally accountable! <sup>A</sup> If I do not bring him back to you and set him before you, I will be •guilty before you forever. <sup>10</sup> If we had not wasted time, we could have come back twice by now.”

<sup>11</sup> Then their father Israel said to them, “If it must be so, then do this: Put some of the best products of the land in your packs and take them down to the man as a gift — some balsam and some honey, aromatic gum and resin, pistachios and almonds. <sup>12</sup> Take twice as much money with you. Return the money that was returned to you in the top of your bags. Perhaps it was a mistake. <sup>13</sup> Take your brother also, and go back at once to the man. <sup>14</sup> May •God Almighty cause the man to be merciful to you so that he will release your other brother and Benjamin to you. As for me, if I am deprived of my sons, then I am deprived.”

The Return to Egypt

<sup>15†</sup> The men took this gift, double the amount of money, and Benjamin. They made their way down to Egypt and stood before Joseph.

<sup>16</sup> When Joseph saw Benjamin with them, he said to his steward, <sup>B</sup> “Take the men to my house. Slaughter an animal and prepare it, for they will eat with me at noon.” <sup>17</sup> The man did as Joseph had said and brought them to Joseph’s house.

<sup>18</sup> But the men were afraid because they were taken to Joseph’s house. They said, “We have been brought here because of the money that was returned in our bags the first time. They intend to overpower us, seize us, make us slaves, and take our donkeys.” <sup>19</sup> So they approached Joseph’s steward <sup>C</sup> and spoke to him at the doorway of the house.

<sup>20</sup> They said, “Sir, we really did come down here the first time only to buy food. <sup>21</sup> When we came to the place where we lodged for the night and opened our bags of grain, each one’s money was at the top of his bag! It was the full amount of our money, and we have brought it back with us. <sup>22</sup> We have brought additional money with us to buy food. We don’t know who put our money in the bags.”

<sup>23</sup> Then the steward said, “May you be well. Don’t be afraid. Your God and the God of your father must have put treasure in your bags. I received your money.” Then he brought Simeon out to them. <sup>24</sup> The steward brought the men into Joseph’s house, gave them water to wash their feet, and got feed for their donkeys. <sup>25</sup> Since the men had heard that they were going to eat a meal there, they prepared their gift for Joseph’s arrival at noon. <sup>26</sup> When Joseph came home, they brought him the gift they had carried into the house, and they bowed to the ground before him.

<sup>27</sup> He asked if they were well, and he said, “How is your elderly father that you told me about? Is he still alive? ”

<sup>28</sup> They answered, “Your servant our father is well. He is still alive.” And they bowed down to honor him.

<sup>29</sup> When he looked up and saw his brother Benjamin, his mother’s son, he asked, “Is this your youngest brother that you told me about? ” Then he said, “May God be gracious to you, my son.” <sup>30</sup> Joseph hurried out because he was overcome with emotion for his brother, and he was about to weep. He went into an inner room to weep. <sup>31</sup> Then he washed his face and came out. Regaining his composure, he said, “Serve the meal.”

<sup>32</sup> They served him by himself, his brothers by themselves, and the Egyptians who were eating with him by themselves, because Egyptians could not eat with Hebrews, since that is abhorrent to them. <sup>33</sup> They were seated before him in order by age, from the firstborn to the youngest. The men looked at each other in astonishment. <sup>34†</sup> Portions were served to them from Joseph’s table, and Benjamin’s portion was five times larger than any of theirs. They drank, and they got drunk with Joseph.

Joseph's Final Test

44 † Then Joseph commanded his steward: “Fill the men’s bags with as much food as they can carry, and put each one’s money at the top of his bag. <sup>2</sup> Put my cup, the silver one, at the top of the youngest one’s bag, along with his grain money.” So he did as Joseph told him.

<sup>3</sup> At morning light, the men were sent off with their donkeys. <sup>4</sup> They had not gone very far from the city when Joseph said to his steward, “Get up. Pursue the men, and when you overtake them, say to them, ‘Why have you repaid evil for good? <sup>5†</sup> Isn’t this the cup that my master drinks from and uses for •divination? What you have done is wrong! ’ ”

<sup>6</sup> When he overtook them, he said these words to them. <sup>7</sup> They said to him, “Why does my lord say these things? Your servants could not possibly do such a thing. <sup>8</sup> We even brought back to you from the land of Canaan the money we found at the top of our bags. How could we steal gold and silver from your master’s house? <sup>9</sup> If any of us is <sup>A</sup> found to have it, he must die, and we also will become my lord’s slaves.”

<sup>10</sup> The steward replied, “What you have said is right, but only the one who is found to have it will be my slave, and the rest of you will be blameless.”

<sup>11</sup> So each one quickly lowered his sack to the ground and opened it. <sup>12</sup> The steward searched, beginning with the oldest and ending with the youngest, and the cup was found in Benjamin’s sack. <sup>13</sup> Then they tore their clothes, and each one loaded his donkey and returned to the city.

<sup>14</sup> When Judah and his brothers reached Joseph’s house, he was still there. They fell to the ground before him. <sup>15</sup> “What is this you have done? ” Joseph said to them. “Didn’t you know that a man like me could uncover the truth by divination? ”

<sup>16</sup> “What can we say to my lord? ” Judah replied. “How can we plead? How can we justify ourselves? God has exposed your servants’ iniquity. We are now my lord’s slaves — both we and the one in whose possession the cup was found.”

<sup>17</sup> Then Joseph said, “I swear that I will not do this. The man in whose possession the cup was found will be my slave. The rest of you can go in peace to your father.”

Judah’s Plea for Benjamin

<sup>18</sup> But Judah approached him and said, “Sir, please let your servant speak personally to my lord. <sup>B</sup> Do not be angry with your servant, for you are like Pharaoh. <sup>19</sup> My lord asked his servants, ‘Do you have a father or a brother?’ <sup>20</sup> and we answered my lord, ‘We have an elderly father and a younger brother, the child of his old age. The boy’s brother is dead. He is the only one of his mother’s sons left, and his father loves him.’ <sup>21</sup> Then you said to your servants, ‘Bring him to me so that I can see him.’ <sup>22</sup> But we said to my lord, ‘The boy cannot leave his father. If he were to leave, his father would die.’ <sup>23</sup> Then you said to your servants, ‘If your younger brother does not come down with you, you will not see me again.’

<sup>24</sup> “This is what happened when we went back to your servant my father: We reported your words to him. <sup>25</sup> But our father said, ‘Go again, and buy us some food.’ <sup>26</sup> We told him, ‘We cannot go down unless our younger brother goes with us. So if our younger brother isn’t with us, we cannot see the man.’ <sup>27</sup> Your servant my father said to us, ‘You know that my wife bore me two sons. <sup>28</sup> One left — I said that he must have been torn to pieces — and I have never seen him again. <sup>29</sup> If you also take this one from me and anything happens to him, you will bring my gray hairs down to •Sheol in sorrow.’

<sup>30</sup> “So if I come to your servant my father and the boy is not with us — his life is wrapped up with the boy’s life — <sup>31</sup> when he sees that the boy is not with us, he will die. Then your servants will have brought the gray hairs of your servant our father down to Sheol in sorrow. <sup>32</sup> Your servant became accountable to my father for the boy, saying, ‘If I do not return him to you, I will always bear the •guilt for sinning against you, my father.’ <sup>33</sup> Now please let your servant remain here as my lord’s slave, in place of the boy. Let him go back with his brothers. <sup>34</sup> For how can I go back to my father without the boy? I could not bear to see the grief that would overwhelm my father.”

Joseph Reveals His Identity

45 Joseph could no longer keep his composure in front of all his attendants, <sup>A</sup> so he called out, “Send everyone away from me!” No one was with him when he revealed his identity to his brothers. <sup>2</sup> But he wept so loudly that the Egyptians heard it, and also Pharaoh’s household heard it. <sup>3</sup> Joseph said to his brothers, “I am Joseph! Is my father still living?” But they could not answer him because they were terrified in his presence.

<sup>4†</sup> Then Joseph said to his brothers, “Please, come near me,” and they came near. “I am Joseph, your brother,” he said, “the one you sold into Egypt. <sup>5</sup> And now don’t be worried or angry with yourselves for selling me here, because God sent me ahead of you to preserve life. <sup>6†</sup> For the famine has been in the land these two years, and there will be five more years without plowing or harvesting. <sup>7</sup> God sent me ahead of you to establish you as a remnant within the land and to keep you alive by a great deliverance. <sup>B</sup> <sup>8†</sup> Therefore it was not you who sent me here, but God. He has made me a father to Pharaoh, lord of his entire household, and ruler over all the land of Egypt.

<sup>9</sup> “Return quickly to my father and say to him, ‘This is what your son Joseph says: “God has made me lord of all Egypt. Come down to me without delay. <sup>10</sup> You can settle in the land of Goshen and be near me — you, your children, and grandchildren, your sheep, cattle, and all you have. <sup>11</sup> There I will sustain you, for there will be five more years of famine. Otherwise, you, your household, and everything you have will become destitute.”’ <sup>12</sup> Look! Your eyes and my brother Benjamin’s eyes can see that it is I, Joseph, who am <sup>C</sup> speaking to you. <sup>13</sup> Tell my father about all my glory in Egypt and about all you have seen. And bring my father here quickly.”

The Return for Jacob

<sup>16</sup> When the news reached Pharaoh's palace, "Joseph's brothers have come," Pharaoh and his servants were pleased. <sup>17</sup> Pharaoh said to Joseph, "Tell your brothers, 'Do this: Load your animals and go on back to the land of Canaan. <sup>18</sup> Get your father and your families, and come back to me. I will give you the best of the land of Egypt, and you can eat from the richness of the land.' <sup>19</sup> You are also commanded, 'Do this: Take wagons from the land of Egypt for your young children and your wives and bring your father here. <sup>20</sup> Do not be concerned about your belongings, for the best of all the land of Egypt is yours.' "

<sup>21</sup> The sons of Israel did this. Joseph gave them wagons as Pharaoh had commanded, and he gave them provisions for the journey. <sup>22</sup> He gave each of the brothers changes of clothes, but he gave Benjamin 300 pieces of silver and five changes of clothes. <sup>23</sup> He sent his father the following: 10 donkeys carrying the best products of Egypt and 10 female donkeys carrying grain, food, and provisions for his father on the journey. <sup>24</sup> So Joseph sent his brothers on their way, and as they were leaving, he said to them, "Don't argue on the way."

<sup>25</sup> So they went up from Egypt and came to their father Jacob in the land of Canaan. <sup>26</sup> They said, "Joseph is still alive, and he is ruler over all the land of Egypt! " Jacob was stunned, <sup>E</sup> for he did not believe them. <sup>27</sup> But when they told Jacob all that Joseph had said to them, and when he saw the wagons that Joseph had sent to transport him, the spirit of their father Jacob revived.

<sup>28†</sup> Then Israel said, "Enough! My son Joseph is still alive. I will go to see him before I die."

Jacob Leaves for Egypt

46 Israel set out with all that he had and came to Beer-sheba, and he offered sacrifices to the God of his father Isaac. <sup>2</sup> That night God spoke to Israel in a vision: “Jacob, Jacob!” He said.

And Jacob replied, “Here I am.”

<sup>3</sup> God said, “I am God, the God of your father. Do not be afraid to go down to Egypt, for I will make you into a great nation there. <sup>4</sup> I will go down with you to Egypt, and I will also bring you back. Joseph will put his hands on your eyes.”

<sup>5</sup> Jacob left Beer-sheba. The sons of Israel took their father Jacob in the wagons Pharaoh had sent to carry him, along with their children and their wives. <sup>6</sup> They also took their cattle and possessions they had acquired in the land of Canaan. Then Jacob and all his children went with him to Egypt. <sup>7</sup> His sons and grandsons, his daughters and granddaughters, indeed all his •offspring, he brought with him to Egypt.

Jacob's Family

<sup>8†</sup> These are the names of the Israelites, Jacob and his sons, who went to Egypt:

Jacob's firstborn: Reuben.

<sup>12</sup> Judah's sons: Er, Onan, Shelah, Perez, and Zerah; but Er and Onan died in the land of Canaan.

Perez's sons: Hezron and Hamul.

- <sup>16</sup> Gad's sons: Ziphion, Haggi, Shuni, Ezbon, Eri, Arodi, and Areli.
- <sup>17</sup> Asher's sons: Imnah, Ishvah, Ishvi, Beriah, and their sister Serah. Beriah's sons were Heber and Malchiel.
- <sup>18</sup> These were the sons of Zilpah — whom Laban gave to his daughter Leah — that she bore to Jacob: 16 persons.
- <sup>19</sup> The sons of Jacob's wife Rachel: Joseph and Benjamin.
- <sup>20</sup> Manasseh and Ephraim were born to Joseph in the land of Egypt. They were born to him by Asenath daughter of Potiphera, a priest at On. <sup>B</sup>
- <sup>21</sup> Benjamin's sons: Bela, Becher, Ashbel, Gera, Naaman, Ehi, Rosh, Muppim, Huppim, and Ard.
- <sup>22</sup> These were Rachel's sons who were born to Jacob: 14 persons.
- <sup>23</sup> Dan's son: Hushim.
- <sup>24</sup> Naphtali's sons: Jahzeel, Guni, Jezer, and Shillem.
- <sup>25</sup> These were the sons of Bilhah, whom Laban gave to his daughter Rachel. She bore to Jacob: seven persons.
- <sup>26</sup> The total number of persons belonging to Jacob — his direct descendants, <sup>C</sup> not including the wives of Jacob's sons — who came to Egypt: 66.
- <sup>27</sup> And Joseph's sons who were born to him in Egypt: two persons. All those of Jacob's household who had come to Egypt: 70 persons.

Jacob Arrives in Egypt

<sup>28†</sup> Now Jacob had sent Judah ahead of him to Joseph to prepare for his arrival <sup>D</sup> at Goshen. When they came to the land of Goshen, <sup>29</sup> Joseph hitched the horses to his chariot and went up to Goshen to meet his father Israel. Joseph presented himself to him, threw his arms around him, and wept for a long time.

<sup>30</sup> Then Israel said to Joseph, "At last I can die, now that I have seen your face and know you are still alive! "

<sup>31</sup> Joseph said to his brothers and to his father's household, "I will go up and inform Pharaoh, telling him: My brothers and my father's household, who were in the land of Canaan, have come to me. <sup>32</sup> The men are shepherds; they also raise livestock. They have brought their sheep and cattle and all that they have.<sup>33</sup> When Pharaoh addresses you and asks, ‘What is your occupation?’<sup>34</sup> you are to say, ‘Your servants, both we and our fathers, have raised livestock<sup>E</sup> from our youth until now.’ Then you will be allowed to settle in the land of Goshen, since all shepherds are abhorrent to Egyptians.”

GENESIS

Pharaoh Welcomes Jacob

47 So Joseph went and informed Pharaoh: “My father and my brothers, with their sheep and cattle and all that they own, have come from the land of Canaan and are now in the land of Goshen.”

And they said to Pharaoh, “Your servants, both we and our fathers, are shepherds.” <sup>4</sup> Then they said to Pharaoh, “We have come to live in the land for a while because there is no grazing land for your servants’ sheep, since the famine in the land of Canaan has been severe. So now, please let your servants settle in the land of Goshen.”

<sup>5</sup> Then Pharaoh said to Joseph, “Now that your father and brothers have come to you, <sup>6†</sup> the land of Egypt is open before you; settle your father and brothers in the best part of the land. They can live in the land of Goshen. If you know of any capable men among them, put them in charge of my livestock.”

<sup>7†</sup> Joseph then brought his father Jacob and presented him before Pharaoh, and Jacob blessed Pharaoh. <sup>8†</sup> Then Pharaoh said to Jacob, “How many years have you lived? ” <sup>A</sup>

<sup>9</sup> Jacob said to Pharaoh, “My pilgrimage has lasted 130 years. My years have been few and hard, and they have not surpassed the years of my fathers during their pilgrimages.” <sup>10</sup> So Jacob blessed Pharaoh and departed from Pharaoh’s presence.

<sup>11</sup> Then Joseph settled his father and brothers in the land of Egypt and gave them property in the best part of the land, the land of Rameses, as Pharaoh had commanded. <sup>12†</sup> And Joseph provided his father, his brothers, and all his father’s household with food for their dependents.

The Land Becomes Pharaoh’s

<sup>13†</sup> But there was no food in that entire region, for the famine was very severe. The land of Egypt and the land of Canaan were exhausted by the famine. <sup>14</sup> Joseph collected all the money to be found in the land of Egypt and the land of Canaan in exchange for the grain they were purchasing, and he brought the money to Pharaoh's palace. <sup>15</sup> When the money from the land of Egypt and the land of Canaan was gone, all the Egyptians came to Joseph and said, "Give us food. Why should we die here in front of you? The money is gone! "

<sup>16</sup> But Joseph said, "Give me your livestock. Since the money is gone, I will give you food in exchange for your livestock." <sup>17</sup> So they brought their livestock to Joseph, and he gave them food in exchange for the horses, the herds of sheep, the herds of cattle, and the donkeys. That year he provided them with food in exchange for all their livestock.

<sup>23</sup> Then Joseph said to the people, "Understand today that I have acquired you and your land for Pharaoh. Here is seed for you. Sow it in the land.

<sup>24</sup> At harvest, you are to give a fifth of it to Pharaoh, and four-fifths will be yours as seed for the field and as food for yourselves, your households, and your dependents."

<sup>25</sup> And they said, “You have saved our lives. We have found favor in our lord’s eyes and will be Pharaoh’s slaves.” <sup>26</sup> So Joseph made it a law, still in effect today in the land of Egypt, that a fifth of the produce belongs to Pharaoh. Only the priests’ land does not belong to Pharaoh.

Israel Settles in Goshen

<sup>27</sup> Israel settled in the land of Egypt, in the region of Goshen. They acquired property in it and became fruitful and very numerous. <sup>28</sup> Now Jacob lived in the land of Egypt 17 years, and his life span was 147 years. <sup>29†</sup> When the time drew near for him to die, he called his son Joseph and said to him, “If I have found favor in your eyes, put your hand under my thigh and promise me that you will deal with me in kindness and faithfulness. Do not bury me in Egypt. <sup>30</sup> When I rest with my fathers, carry me away from Egypt and bury me in their burial place.”

Joseph answered, “I will do what you have asked.”

<sup>31</sup> And Jacob said, “Swear to me.” So Joseph swore to him. Then Israel bowed in thanks at the head of his bed. <sup>C</sup>

Jacob Blesses Ephraim and Manasseh

48 † Some time after this, Joseph was told, “Your father is weaker.” So he set out with his two sons, Manasseh and Ephraim. <sup>2</sup> When Jacob was told, “Your son Joseph has come to you,” Israel summoned his strength and sat up in bed.

<sup>3†</sup> Jacob said to Joseph, “•God Almighty appeared to me at Luz in the land of Canaan and blessed me. <sup>4</sup> He said to me, ‘I will make you fruitful and numerous; I will make many nations come from you, and I will give this land as an eternal possession to your future descendants.’ <sup>5</sup> Your two sons born to you in the land of Egypt before I came to you in Egypt are now mine. Ephraim and Manasseh belong to me just as Reuben and Simeon do. <sup>6</sup> Children born to you after them will be yours and will be recorded under the names of their brothers with regard to their inheritance. <sup>7</sup> When I was returning from Paddan, to my sorrow Rachel died along the way, some distance from Ephrath in the land of Canaan. I buried her there along the way to Ephrath,” (that is, Bethlehem).

So Jacob said, “Bring them to me and I will bless them.” <sup>10</sup> Now his eyesight was poor because of old age; he could hardly <sup>A</sup> see. Joseph brought them to him, and he kissed and embraced them. <sup>11†</sup> Israel said to Joseph, “I never expected to see your face again, but now God has even let me see your •offspring.” <sup>12</sup> Then Joseph took them from his father’s knees and bowed with his face to the ground.

Ephraim’s Greater Blessing

Manasseh's head, although Manasseh was the firstborn. <sup>15</sup> Then he blessed Joseph and said:

The God before whom my fathers Abraham and Isaac walked, the God who has been my shepherd all my life to this day, <sup>16</sup> the Angel who has redeemed me from all harm — may He bless these boys.

And may they be called by my name and the names of my fathers Abraham and Isaac, and may they grow to be numerous within the land.

<sup>19</sup> But his father refused and said, "I know, my son, I know! He too will become a tribe, <sup>C</sup> and he too will be great; nevertheless, his younger brother will be greater than he, and his offspring will become a populous nation." <sup>D</sup>

The nation Israel will invoke blessings by you, saying,
"May God make you like Ephraim and Manasseh," putting Ephraim before Manasseh.

<sup>21</sup> Then Israel said to Joseph, "Look, I am about to die, but God will be with you and will bring you back to the land of your fathers. <sup>22†</sup> Over and above what I am giving your brothers, I am giving you the one mountain slope <sup>E</sup> that I took from the hand of the Amorites with my sword and bow."

Jacob's Last Words

49 † Then Jacob called his sons and said, “Gather around, and I will tell you what will happen to you in the days to come. <sup>A</sup>

listen to your father Israel:

<sup>3†</sup> Reuben, you are my firstborn, my strength and the firstfruits of my virility, excelling in prominence, excelling in power.

<sup>4</sup> Turbulent as water, you will no longer excel, because you got into your father’s bed and you defiled it — he got into my bed.

<sup>5</sup> Simeon and Levi are brothers; their knives are vicious weapons.

may I never join their assembly.
For in their anger they kill men, and on a whim they hamstring oxen.

<sup>7</sup> Their anger is cursed, for it is strong,
and their fury, for it is cruel!
I will disperse them throughout Jacob and scatter them throughout Israel.

<sup>8†</sup> Judah, your brothers will praise you.
Your hand will be on the necks of your enemies;
your father’s sons will bow down to you.

my son, you return from the kill.
He crouches; he lies down like a lion or a lioness — who dares to rouse him?

<sup>10</sup> The scepter will not depart from Judah or the staff from between his feet until He whose right it is comes <sup>B</sup> and the obedience of the peoples belongs to Him.

and the colt of his donkey to the choice vine.

He washes his clothes in wine and his robes in the blood of grapes.

<sup>12</sup> His eyes are darker than wine, and his teeth are whiter than milk.

<sup>13</sup> Zebulun will live by the seashore and will be a harbor for ships, and his territory will be next to Sidon.

<sup>14</sup> Issachar is a strong donkey lying down between the saddlebags. <sup>C</sup>

<sup>15</sup> He saw that his resting place was good and that the land was pleasant, so he leaned his shoulder to bear a load and became a forced laborer.

<sup>16†</sup> Dan will judge his people as one of the tribes of Israel.

<sup>17</sup> He will be a snake by the road,
a viper beside the path, that bites the horses' heels
so that its rider falls backward.

<sup>18</sup> I wait for Your salvation, LORD.

but he will attack their heels.

<sup>20</sup> Asher's food will be rich, and he will produce royal delicacies.

that bears beautiful fawns.

<sup>22†</sup> Joseph is a fruitful vine, a fruitful vine beside a spring;
its branches <sup>D</sup> climb over the wall. <sup>E</sup>

shot at him, and were hostile toward him.

and his strong <sup>F</sup> arms were made agile by the hands of the Mighty One of Jacob, by the name of the Shepherd, the Rock of Israel, <sup>25</sup> by the God of your father who helps you, and by the •Almighty who blesses you with blessings of the heavens above, blessings of the deep that lies below, and blessings of the breasts and the womb.
<sup>26</sup> The blessings of your father excel the blessings of my ancestors <sup>G</sup> and <sup>H</sup> the bounty of the eternal hills. <sup>I</sup> May they rest on the head of Joseph,
on the crown of the prince of his brothers.

In the morning he devours the prey, and in the evening he divides the plunder.”

<sup>28</sup> These are the tribes of Israel, 12 in all, and this was what their father said to them. He blessed them, and he blessed each one with a suitable blessing.

Jacob's Burial Instructions

<sup>29†</sup> Then he commanded them: “I am about to be gathered to my people. Bury me with my fathers in the cave in the field of Ephron the Hittite.

Jacob's Burial

50 † Then Joseph, leaning over his father's face, wept and kissed him.
<sup>2</sup> He commanded his servants who were physicians to embalm his father. So they embalmed Israel. <sup>3</sup> They took 40 days to complete this, for embalming takes that long, and the Egyptians mourned for him 70 days.

<sup>4†</sup> When the days of mourning were over, Joseph said to Pharaoh's household, "If I have found favor with you, please tell <sup>A</sup> Pharaoh that <sup>5</sup> my father made me take an oath, saying, 'I am about to die. You must bury me there in the tomb that I made for myself in the land of Canaan.' Now let me go and bury my father. Then I will return."

<sup>12</sup> So Jacob's sons did for him what he had commanded them. <sup>13</sup> They carried him to the land of Canaan and buried him in the cave at Machpelah in the field near Mamre, which Abraham had purchased as a burial site from Ephron the Hittite. <sup>14</sup> After Joseph buried his father, he returned to Egypt with his brothers and all who had gone with him to bury his father.

Joseph's Kindness

<sup>15†</sup> When Joseph's brothers saw that their father was dead, they said to one another, "If Joseph is holding a grudge against us, he will certainly repay us for all the suffering we caused him."

<sup>16</sup> So they sent this message to Joseph, “Before he died your father gave a command: <sup>17</sup> ‘Say this to Joseph: Please forgive your brothers’ transgression and their sin — the suffering they caused you.’ Therefore, please forgive the transgression of the servants of the God of your father.” Joseph wept when their message came to him. <sup>18</sup> Then his brothers also came to him, bowed down before him, and said, “We are your slaves! ”

<sup>19</sup> But Joseph said to them, “Don’t be afraid. Am I in the place of God? <sup>20</sup> You planned evil against me; God planned it for good to bring about the present result — the survival of many people. <sup>21</sup> Therefore don’t be afraid. I will take care of you and your little ones.” And he comforted them and spoke kindly to them. <sup>B</sup>

Joseph’s Death

<sup>22†</sup> Joseph and his father’s household remained in Egypt. Joseph lived 110 years. <sup>23</sup> He saw Ephraim’s sons to the third generation; the sons of Manasseh’s son Machir were recognized by <sup>C</sup> Joseph.

<sup>24</sup> Joseph said to his brothers, “I am about to die, but God will certainly come to your aid and bring you up from this land to the land He promised Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob.” <sup>25</sup> So Joseph made the sons of Israel take an oath: “When God comes to your aid, you are to carry my bones up from here.”

EXODUS

Israel Oppressed in Egypt

1 These are the names of the sons of Israel who came to Egypt with Jacob; each came with his family:

<sup>6</sup> Then Joseph and all his brothers and all that generation died. <sup>7†</sup> But the Israelites were fruitful, increased rapidly, multiplied, and became extremely numerous so that the land was filled with them.

<sup>8†</sup> A new king, who had not known Joseph, came to power in Egypt. <sup>9</sup> He said to his people, "Look, the Israelite people are more numerous and powerful than we are. <sup>10</sup> Let us deal shrewdly with them; otherwise they will multiply further, and if war breaks out, they may join our enemies, fight against us, and leave the country." <sup>11†</sup> So the Egyptians assigned taskmasters over the Israelites to oppress them with forced labor. They built Pithom and Rameses as supply cities for Pharaoh. <sup>12</sup> But the more they oppressed them, the more they multiplied and spread so that the Egyptians came to dread <sup>B</sup> the Israelites. <sup>13</sup> They worked the Israelites ruthlessly <sup>14</sup> and made their lives bitter with difficult labor in brick and mortar and in all kinds of fieldwork. They ruthlessly imposed all this work on them.

<sup>20</sup> So God was good to the midwives, and the people multiplied and became very numerous. <sup>21</sup> Since the midwives feared God, He gave them families. <sup>22</sup> Pharaoh then commanded all his people: “You must throw every son born to the Hebrews into the Nile, but let every daughter live.”

EXODUS

Moses' Birth and Adoption

2 Now a man from the family of Levi married a Levite woman. <sup>2</sup> The woman became pregnant and gave birth to a son; when she saw that he was beautiful, <sup>A</sup> she hid him for three months. <sup>3</sup> But when she could no longer hide him, she got a papyrus basket for him and coated it with asphalt and pitch. She placed the child in it and set it among the reeds by the bank of the Nile. <sup>4</sup> Then his sister stood at a distance in order to see what would happen to him.

<sup>8</sup> "Go," Pharaoh's daughter told her. So the girl went and called the boy's mother. <sup>9</sup> Then Pharaoh's daughter said to her, "Take this child and nurse him for me, and I will pay your wages." So the woman took the boy and nursed him. <sup>10†</sup> When the child grew older, she brought him to Pharaoh's daughter, and he became her son. She named him Moses, "Because," she said, "I drew him out of the water."

Moses in Midian

<sup>14†</sup> "Who made you a leader and judge over us? " the man replied. "Are you planning to kill me as you killed the Egyptian? "

Then Moses became afraid and thought: What I did is certainly known.
<sup>15</sup> When Pharaoh heard about this, he tried to kill Moses. But Moses fled from Pharaoh and went to live in the land of Midian, and sat down by a well.

<sup>16</sup> Now the priest of Midian had seven daughters. They came to draw water and filled the troughs to water their father's flock. <sup>17</sup> Then some shepherds arrived and drove them away, but Moses came to their rescue and watered their flock. <sup>18</sup> When they returned to their father Reuel he asked, "Why have you come back so quickly today?"

<sup>21</sup> Moses agreed to stay with the man, and he gave his daughter Zipporah to Moses in marriage. <sup>22</sup> She gave birth to a son whom he named Gershom, for he said, "I have been a foreigner in a foreign land."

<sup>23</sup> After a long time, the king of Egypt died. The Israelites groaned because of their difficult labor, and they cried out; and their cry for help ascended to God because of the difficult labor. <sup>24</sup> So God heard their groaning, and He remembered His covenant with Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob. <sup>25</sup> God saw the Israelites, and He took notice.

EXODUS

Moses and the Burning Bush

3 † Meanwhile, Moses was shepherding the flock of his father-in-law Jethro, the priest of Midian. He led the flock to the far side of the wilderness and came to Horeb, the mountain of God. <sup>2†</sup> Then the Angel of the LORD appeared to him in a flame of fire within a bush. As Moses looked, he saw that the bush was on fire but was not consumed. <sup>3</sup> So Moses thought: I must go over and look at this remarkable sight. Why isn't the bush burning up?

<sup>4</sup> When the LORD saw that he had gone over to look, God called out to him from the bush, "Moses, Moses! "

"Here I am," he answered.

<sup>5</sup> "Do not come closer," He said. "Remove the sandals from your feet, for the place where you are standing is holy ground." <sup>6†</sup> Then He continued, "I am the God of your father, the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob." Moses hid his face because he was afraid to look at God.

<sup>7</sup> Then the LORD said, "I have observed the misery of My people in Egypt, and have heard them crying out because of their oppressors, and I know about their sufferings. <sup>8†</sup> I have come down to rescue them from the power of the Egyptians and to bring them from that land to a good and spacious land, a land flowing with milk and honey — the territory of the Canaanites, Hittites, Amorites, Perizzites, Hivites, and Jebusites. <sup>9</sup> The Israelites' cry for help has come to Me, and I have also seen the way the Egyptians are oppressing them. <sup>10</sup> Therefore, go. I am sending you to Pharaoh so that you may lead My people, the Israelites, out of Egypt."

<sup>11</sup> But Moses asked God, "Who am I that I should go to Pharaoh and that I should bring the Israelites out of Egypt? "

<sup>12</sup> He answered, “I will certainly be with you, and this will be the sign to you that I have sent you: when you bring the people out of Egypt, you will all worship <sup>A</sup> God at this mountain.”

<sup>13</sup> Then Moses asked God, “If I go to the Israelites and say to them: The God of your fathers has sent me to you, and they ask me, ‘What is His name?’ what should I tell them?”

<sup>14†</sup> God replied to Moses, “I AM WHO I AM. <sup>B</sup>, This is what you are to say to the Israelites: I AM has sent me to you.” <sup>15</sup> God also said to Moses, “Say this to the Israelites: •Yahweh, the God of your fathers, the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob, has sent me to you. This is My name forever; this is how I am to be remembered in every generation.

TWISTED SCRIPTURE

Exodus 3:14

U sing the terminology of this verse, many Theosophy-based sects such as the Saint Germain Foundation and the Church Universal and Triumphant teach that through a series of secret disciplines humans can attain I AM consciousness or experience their oneness with God (pantheism). Exodus 3:14 actually teaches a distinction between God and humans. God alone is the eternal, self-existing one. Humans are created beings. While we may have a relationship with God, we never attain godhood ourselves.

<sup>16</sup> “Go and assemble the elders of Israel and say to them: Yahweh, the God of your fathers, the God of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob, has appeared to me and said: I have paid close attention to you and to what has been done to you in Egypt. <sup>17</sup> And I have promised you that I will bring you up from the misery of Egypt to the land of the Canaanites, Hittites, Amorites, Perizzites, Hivites, and Jebusites — a land flowing with milk and honey.

<sup>18</sup> They will listen to what you say. Then you, along with the elders of Israel, must go to the king of Egypt and say to him: Yahweh, the God of the Hebrews, has met with us. Now please let us go on a three-day trip into the wilderness so that we may sacrifice to Yahweh our God.

<sup>19</sup> “However, I know that the king of Egypt will not allow you to go, unless he is forced by a strong hand. <sup>20</sup> I will stretch out My hand and strike Egypt with all My miracles that I will perform in it. After that, he will let you go. <sup>21</sup> And I will give these people such favor in the sight of the Egyptians that when you go, you will not go empty-handed. <sup>22†</sup> Each woman will ask her neighbor and any woman staying in her house for silver and gold jewelry, and clothing, and you will put them on your sons and daughters. So you will plunder the Egyptians.”

Miraculous Signs for Moses

4 Then Moses answered, “What if they won’t believe me and will not obey me but say, ‘The LORD did not appear to you?’ ”

2 The LORD asked him, “What is that in your hand? ”

“A staff,” he replied.

3† Then He said, “Throw it on the ground.” He threw it on the ground, and it became a snake. Moses ran from it, 4 but the LORD told him, “Stretch out your hand and grab it by the tail.” So he stretched out his hand and caught it, and it became a staff in his hand. 5 “This will take place,” He continued, “so they will believe that •Yahweh, the God of their fathers, the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob, has appeared to you.”

6 In addition the LORD said to him, “Put your hand inside your cloak.” So he put his hand inside his cloak, and when he took it out, his hand was diseased, white as snow. 7 Then He said, “Put your hand back inside your cloak.” He put his hand back inside his cloak, and when he took it out, A it had again become like the rest of his skin. 8 “If they will not believe you and will not respond to the evidence of the first sign, they may believe the evidence of the second sign. 9 And if they don’t believe even these two signs or listen to what you say, take some water from the Nile and pour it on the dry ground. The water you take from the Nile will become blood on the ground.”

10 But Moses replied to the LORD, “Please, Lord, I have never been eloquent — either in the past or recently or since You have been speaking to Your servant — because I am slow and hesitant in speech.” B

11† Yahweh said to him, “Who made the human mouth? Who makes him mute or deaf, seeing or blind? Is it not I, Yahweh? 12 Now go! I will help C you speak and I will teach you what to say.”

13 Moses said, “Please, Lord, send someone else.” D

<sup>14</sup> Then the LORD's anger burned against Moses, and He said, "Isn't Aaron the Levite your brother? I know that he can speak well. And also, he is on his way now to meet you. He will rejoice when he sees you. <sup>15</sup> You will speak with him and tell him what to say. I will help <sup>E</sup> both you and him to speak and will teach you both what to do. <sup>16</sup> He will speak to the people for you. He will be your spokesman, and you will serve as God to him. <sup>17</sup> And take this staff in your hand that you will perform the signs with."

Moses' Return to Egypt

<sup>18</sup> Then Moses went back to his father-in-law Jethro and said to him, "Please let me return to my relatives in Egypt and see if they are still living."

Jethro said to Moses, "Go in peace."

<sup>19</sup> Now in Midian the LORD told Moses, "Return to Egypt, for all the men who wanted to kill you are dead." <sup>20</sup> So Moses took his wife and sons, put them on a donkey, and returned to the land of Egypt. And Moses took God's staff in his hand.

<sup>21†</sup> The LORD instructed Moses, "When you go back to Egypt, make sure you do all the wonders before Pharaoh that I have put within your power. But I will harden his heart <sup>F</sup> so that he won't let the people go. <sup>22</sup> Then you will say to Pharaoh: This is what Yahweh says: Israel is My firstborn son.

<sup>23</sup> I told you: Let My son go so that he may worship Me, but you refused to let him go. Now I will kill your firstborn son! "

<sup>24†</sup> On the trip, at an overnight campsite, it happened that the LORD confronted him and sought to put him to death. <sup>25</sup> So Zipporah took a flint, cut off her son's foreskin, and threw it at Moses' feet. Then she said, "You are a bridegroom of blood to me! " <sup>26</sup> So He let him alone. At that time she said, "You are a bridegroom of blood," referring to the circumcision.

Reunion of Moses and Aaron

<sup>27</sup> Now the LORD had said to Aaron, “Go and meet Moses in the wilderness.” So he went and met him at the mountain of God and kissed him. <sup>28</sup> Moses told Aaron everything the LORD had sent him to say, and about all the signs He had commanded him to do. <sup>29</sup> Then Moses and Aaron went and assembled all the elders of the Israelites. <sup>30</sup> Aaron repeated everything the LORD had said to Moses and performed the signs before the people. <sup>31</sup> The people believed, and when they heard that the LORD had paid attention to them and that He had seen their misery, they bowed down and worshiped.

EXODUS

Moses Confronts Pharaoh

5 † Later, Moses and Aaron went in and said to Pharaoh, “This is what •Yahweh, the God of Israel, says: Let My people go, so that they may hold a festival for Me in the wilderness.”

2 But Pharaoh responded, “Who is Yahweh that I should obey Him by letting Israel go? I do not know anything about Yahweh, and besides, I will not let Israel go.”

3 Then they answered, “The God of the Hebrews has met with us. Please let us go on a three-day trip into the wilderness so that we may sacrifice to Yahweh our God, or else He may strike us with plague or sword.”

4 The king of Egypt said to them, “Moses and Aaron, why are you causing the people to neglect their work? Get to your work! ” 5 Pharaoh also said, “Look, the people of the land are so numerous, and you would stop them from working.”

Further Oppression of Israel

6 That day Pharaoh commanded the overseers of the people as well as their foremen: 7† “Don’t continue to supply the people with straw for making bricks, as before. They must go and gather straw for themselves. 8 But require the same quota of bricks from them as they were making before; do not reduce it. For they are slackers — that is why they are crying out, ‘Let us go and sacrifice to our God.’ 9 Impose heavier work on the men. Then they will be occupied with it and not pay attention to deceptive words.”

10 So the overseers and foremen of the people went out and said to them, “This is what Pharaoh says: ‘I am not giving you straw. 11 Go get straw yourselves wherever you can find it, but there will be no reduction at all in your workload.’ ” 12 So the people scattered throughout the land of Egypt to gather stubble for straw. 13 The overseers insisted, “Finish your assigned work each day, just as you did when straw was provided.” 14 Then the Israelite foremen, whom Pharaoh’s slave drivers had set over the people, were beaten and asked, “Why haven’t you finished making your prescribed number of bricks yesterday or today, as you did before? ”

<sup>15</sup> So the Israelite foremen went in and cried for help to Pharaoh: “Why are you treating your servants this way? <sup>16</sup> No straw has been given to your servants, yet they say to us, ‘Make bricks!’ Look, your servants are being beaten, but it is your own people who are at fault.”

<sup>17</sup> But he said, “You are slackers. Slackers! That is why you are saying, ‘Let us go sacrifice to the LORD.’ <sup>18</sup> Now get to work. No straw will be given to you, but you must produce the same quantity of bricks.”

<sup>19</sup> The Israelite foremen saw that they were in trouble when they were told, “You cannot reduce your daily quota of bricks.” <sup>20</sup> When they left Pharaoh, they confronted Moses and Aaron, who stood waiting to meet them.

<sup>21</sup> “May the LORD take note of you and judge,” they said to them, “because you have made us reek in front of Pharaoh and his officials — putting a sword in their hand to kill us! ”

<sup>22</sup> So Moses went back to the LORD and asked, “Lord, why have You caused trouble for this people? And why did You ever send me? <sup>23</sup> Ever since I went in to Pharaoh to speak in Your name he has caused trouble for this people, and You haven’t delivered Your people at all.”

EXODUS

6 But the LORD replied to Moses, “Now you are going to see what I will do to Pharaoh: he will let them go because of My strong hand; he will drive them out of his land because of My strong hand.”

God Promises Freedom

<sup>2</sup> Then God spoke to Moses, telling him, “I am •Yahweh. <sup>3†</sup> I appeared to Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob as •God Almighty, but I did not reveal My name Yahweh to them. <sup>4</sup> I also established My covenant with them to give them the land of Canaan, the land they lived in as foreigners. <sup>5</sup> Furthermore, I have heard the groaning of the Israelites, whom the Egyptians are forcing to work as slaves, and I have remembered My covenant.

<sup>6</sup> “Therefore tell the Israelites: I am Yahweh, and I will deliver you from the forced labor of the Egyptians and free you from slavery to them. I will redeem you with an outstretched arm and great acts of judgment. <sup>7</sup> I will take you as My people, and I will be your God. You will know that I am Yahweh your God, who delivered you from the forced labor of the Egyptians. <sup>8</sup> I will bring you to the land that I swore <sup>A</sup> to give to Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob, and I will give it to you as a possession. I am Yahweh.”

<sup>12</sup> But Moses said in the LORD’s presence: “If the Israelites will not listen to me, then how will Pharaoh listen to me, since I am such a poor speaker?” <sup>B</sup> <sup>13</sup> Then the LORD spoke to Moses and Aaron and gave them commands concerning both the Israelites and Pharaoh king of Egypt to bring the Israelites out of the land of Egypt.

Genealogy of Moses and Aaron

The sons of Reuben, the firstborn of Israel:
Hanoch and Pallu, Hezron and Carmi.
These are the clans of Reuben.

Jemuel, Jamin, Ohad, Jachin,
Zohar, and Shaul, the son of a Canaanite woman.
These are the clans of Simeon.

according to their genealogy:
Gershon, Kohath, and Merari.
Levi lived 137 years.

Libni and Shimei, by their clans.

Amram, Izhar, Hebron, and Uzziel.
Kohath lived 133 years.

Mahli and Mushi.
These are the clans of the Levites
according to their genealogy.

<sup>20</sup> Amram married his father's sister Jochebed, and she bore him Aaron and Moses.
Amram lived 137 years.

Korah, Nepheg, and Zichri.

Mishael, Elzaphan, and Sithri.

daughter of Amminadab and sister of Nahshon.
She bore him Nadab and Abihu, Eleazar and Ithamar.

Assir, Elkanah, and Abiasaph.
These are the clans of the Korahites.

These are the heads of the Levite families by their clans.

<sup>26</sup> It was this Aaron and Moses whom the LORD told, "Bring the Israelites out of the land of Egypt according to their divisions." <sup>27</sup> Moses and Aaron were the ones who spoke to Pharaoh king of Egypt in order to bring the Israelites out of Egypt.

Moses and Aaron before Pharaoh

<sup>28</sup> On the day the LORD spoke to Moses in the land of Egypt, <sup>29</sup> He said to him, "I am Yahweh; tell Pharaoh king of Egypt everything I am telling you."

<sup>30</sup> But Moses replied in the LORD's presence, "Since I am such a poor speaker, <sup>C</sup> how will Pharaoh listen to me? "

EXODUS

7 The LORD answered Moses, “See, I have made you like God to Pharaoh, and Aaron your brother will be your prophet. <sup>2</sup> You must say whatever I command you; then Aaron your brother must declare it to Pharaoh so that he will let the Israelites go from his land. <sup>3†</sup> But I will harden Pharaoh’s heart and multiply My signs and wonders in the land of Egypt. <sup>4</sup> Pharaoh will not listen to you, but I will put My hand on Egypt and bring the divisions of My people the Israelites out of the land of Egypt by great acts of judgment. <sup>5</sup> The Egyptians will know that I am •Yahweh when I stretch out My hand against Egypt, and bring out the Israelites from among them.”

<sup>6</sup> So Moses and Aaron did this; they did just as the LORD commanded them. <sup>7</sup> Moses was 80 years old and Aaron 83 when they spoke to Pharaoh.

<sup>8</sup> The LORD said to Moses and Aaron, <sup>9†</sup> “When Pharaoh tells you, ‘Perform a miracle,’ tell Aaron, ‘Take your staff and throw it down before Pharaoh. It will become a serpent.’ ” <sup>10</sup> So Moses and Aaron went in to Pharaoh and did just as the LORD had commanded. Aaron threw down his staff before Pharaoh and his officials, and it became a serpent. <sup>11</sup> But then Pharaoh called the wise men and sorcerers — the magicians of Egypt, and they also did the same thing by their occult practices. <sup>12</sup> Each one threw down his staff, and it became a serpent. But Aaron’s staff swallowed their staffs. <sup>13</sup> However, Pharaoh’s heart hardened, and he did not listen to them, as the LORD had said.

The First Plague: Water Turned to Blood

<sup>14</sup> Then the LORD said to Moses, “Pharaoh’s heart is hard: he refuses to let the people go. <sup>15</sup> Go to Pharaoh in the morning. When you see him walking out to the water, stand ready to meet him by the bank of the Nile. Take in your hand the staff that turned into a snake. <sup>16</sup> Tell him: Yahweh, the God of the Hebrews, has sent me to tell you: Let My people go, so that they may worship <sup>A</sup> Me in the wilderness, but so far you have not listened. <sup>17</sup> This is what Yahweh says: Here is how you will know that I am Yahweh. Watch. I will strike the water in the Nile with the staff in my hand, and it will turn to blood. <sup>18</sup> The fish in the Nile will die, the river will stink, and the Egyptians will be unable to drink water from it.”

<sup>19</sup> So the LORD said to Moses, “Tell Aaron: Take your staff and stretch out your hand over the waters of Egypt — over their rivers, canals, ponds, and all their water reservoirs — and they will become blood. There will be blood throughout the land of Egypt, even in wooden and stone containers.”

<sup>20†</sup> Moses and Aaron did just as the LORD had commanded; in the sight of Pharaoh and his officials, he raised the staff and struck the water in the Nile, and all the water in the Nile was turned to blood. <sup>21</sup> The fish in the Nile died, and the river smelled so bad the Egyptians could not drink water from it. There was blood throughout the land of Egypt.

<sup>22†</sup> But the magicians of Egypt did the same thing by their occult practices. So Pharaoh’s heart hardened, and he would not listen to them, as the LORD had said. <sup>23</sup> Pharaoh turned around, went into his palace, and didn’t even take this to heart. <sup>24</sup> All the Egyptians dug around the Nile for water to drink because they could not drink the water from the river.

Chapter 8 The Second Plague: Frogs

<sup>1</sup>Then the LORD said to Moses, “Go in to Pharaoh and tell him: This is what •Yahweh says: Let My people go, so that they may worship Me. <sup>2</sup> But if you refuse to let them go, then I will plague all your territory with frogs.

<sup>3</sup> The Nile will swarm with frogs; they will come up and go into your palace, into your bedroom and on your bed, into the houses of your officials and your people, and into your ovens and kneading bowls. <sup>4</sup> The frogs will come up on you, your people, and all your officials.”

<sup>5</sup> The LORD then said to Moses, “Tell Aaron: Stretch out your hand with your staff over the rivers, canals, and ponds, and cause the frogs to come up onto the land of Egypt.” <sup>6</sup> When Aaron stretched out his hand over the waters of Egypt, the frogs came up and covered the land of Egypt. <sup>7†</sup> But the magicians did the same thing by their occult practices and brought frogs up onto the land of Egypt.

<sup>8</sup> Pharaoh summoned Moses and Aaron and said, “Ask Yahweh to remove the frogs from me and my people. Then I will let the people go and they can sacrifice to Yahweh.”

<sup>9</sup> Moses said to Pharaoh, “You make the choice rather than me. When should I ask on behalf of you, your officials, and your people, that the frogs be taken away from you and your houses, and remain only in the Nile?”

Moses replied, “As you have said, so you may know there is no one like Yahweh our God, <sup>11</sup> the frogs will go away from you, your houses, your officials, and your people. The frogs will remain only in the Nile.” <sup>12</sup> After Moses and Aaron went out from Pharaoh, Moses cried out to the LORD for help concerning the frogs that He had brought against <sup>A</sup> Pharaoh. <sup>13</sup> The LORD did as Moses had said: the frogs in the houses, courtyards, and fields died. <sup>14</sup> They piled them in countless heaps, and there was a terrible odor in the land. <sup>15</sup> But when Pharaoh saw there was relief, he hardened his heart and would not listen to them, as the LORD had said.

The Third Plague: Gnats

<sup>16</sup> Then the LORD said to Moses, “Tell Aaron: Stretch out your staff and strike the dust of the earth, and it will become gnats throughout the land of Egypt.” <sup>17</sup> And they did this. Aaron stretched out his hand with his staff, and when he struck the dust of the earth, gnats were on man and beast. All the dust of the earth became gnats throughout the land of Egypt. <sup>18</sup> The magicians tried to produce gnats using their occult practices, but they could not. The gnats remained on man and beast.

<sup>19</sup> “This is the finger of God,” the magicians said to Pharaoh. But Pharaoh’s heart hardened, and he would not listen to them, as the LORD had said.

The Fourth Plague: Swarms of Flies

<sup>20</sup> The LORD said to Moses, “Get up early in the morning and present yourself to Pharaoh when you see him going out to the water. Tell him: This is what Yahweh says: Let My people go, so that they may worship <sup>B</sup> Me. <sup>21</sup> But if you will not let My people go, then I will send swarms of flies <sup>C</sup> against you, your officials, your people, and your houses. The Egyptians’ houses will swarm with flies, and so will the land where they live. <sup>D</sup> <sup>22</sup> But on that day I will give special treatment to the land of Goshen, where My people are living; no flies will be there. This way you will know that I, Yahweh, am in the land. <sup>23</sup> I will make a distinction between My people and your people. This sign will take place tomorrow.”

<sup>24</sup> And the LORD did this. Thick swarms of flies went into Pharaoh’s palace and his officials’ houses. Throughout Egypt the land was ruined because of the swarms of flies. <sup>25</sup> Then Pharaoh summoned Moses and Aaron and said, “Go sacrifice to your God within the country.”

<sup>26†</sup> But Moses said, “It would not be right <sup>E</sup> to do that, because what we will sacrifice to the LORD our God is detestable to the Egyptians. If we sacrifice what the Egyptians detest in front of them, won’t they stone us?
<sup>27</sup> We must go a distance of three days into the wilderness and sacrifice to the LORD our God as He instructs us.”

<sup>28</sup> Pharaoh responded, “I will let you go and sacrifice to the LORD your God in the wilderness, but don’t go very far. Make an appeal for me.”

<sup>29</sup> “As soon as I leave you,” Moses said, “I will appeal to the LORD, and tomorrow the swarms of flies will depart from Pharaoh, his officials, and his people. But Pharaoh must not act deceptively again by refusing to let the people go and sacrifice to the LORD.” <sup>30</sup> Then Moses left Pharaoh’s presence and appealed to the LORD. <sup>31</sup> The LORD did as Moses had said: He removed the swarms of flies from Pharaoh, his officials, and his people; not one was left. <sup>32</sup> But Pharaoh hardened his heart this time also and did not let the people go.

EXODUS

The Fifth Plague: Death of Livestock

9 Then the LORD said to Moses, “Go in to Pharaoh and say to him: This is what •Yahweh, the God of the Hebrews, says: Let My people go, so that they may worship Me. <sup>2</sup> But if you refuse to let them go and keep holding them, <sup>3</sup> then the LORD’s hand will bring a severe plague against your livestock in the field — the horses, donkeys, camels, herds, and flocks. <sup>4</sup> But the LORD will make a distinction between the livestock of Israel and the livestock of Egypt, so that nothing of all that the Israelites own will die.” <sup>5</sup> And the LORD set a time, saying, “Tomorrow the LORD will do this thing in the land.” <sup>6†</sup> The LORD did this the next day. All the Egyptian livestock died, but none among the Israelite livestock died. <sup>7†</sup> Pharaoh sent messengers who saw that not a single one of the Israelite livestock was dead. But Pharaoh’s heart was hardened, and he did not let the people go.

The Sixth Plague: Boils

<sup>8</sup> Then the LORD said to Moses and Aaron, “Take handfuls of furnace soot, and Moses is to throw it toward heaven in the sight of Pharaoh. <sup>9†</sup> It will become fine dust over the entire land of Egypt. It will become festering boils on man and beast throughout the land of Egypt.” <sup>10</sup> So they took furnace soot and stood before Pharaoh. Moses threw it toward heaven, and it became festering boils on man and beast. <sup>11</sup> The magicians could not stand before Moses because of the boils, for the boils were on the magicians as well as on all the Egyptians. <sup>12</sup> But the LORD hardened Pharaoh’s heart and he did not listen to them, as the LORD had told Moses.

The Seventh Plague: Hail

<sup>13</sup> Then the LORD said to Moses, “Get up early in the morning and present yourself to Pharaoh. Tell him: This is what Yahweh, the God of the Hebrews says: Let My people go, so that they may worship Me. <sup>14</sup> Otherwise, I am going to send all My plagues against you, <sup>A</sup> your officials, and your people. Then you will know there is no one like Me in all the earth. <sup>15</sup> By now I could have stretched out My hand and struck you and your people with a plague, and you would have been obliterated from the earth. <sup>16</sup> However, I have let you live for this purpose: to show you My power and to make My name known in all the earth. <sup>17</sup> You are still acting arrogantly against <sup>B</sup> My people by not letting them go. <sup>18</sup> Tomorrow at this time I will rain down the worst hail that has ever occurred in Egypt from the day it was founded until now. <sup>19</sup> Therefore give orders to bring your livestock and all that you have in the field into shelters. Every person and animal that is in the field and not brought inside will die when the hail falls on them.” <sup>20</sup> Those among Pharaoh’s officials who •feared the word of the LORD made their servants and livestock flee to shelters, <sup>21</sup> but those who didn’t take the LORD’s word seriously left their servants and livestock in the field.

<sup>22</sup> Then the LORD said to Moses, “Stretch out your hand toward heaven and let there be hail throughout the land of Egypt — on man and beast and every plant of the field in the land of Egypt.” <sup>23</sup> So Moses stretched out his staff toward heaven, and the LORD sent thunder and hail. Lightning struck the earth, and the LORD rained hail on the land of Egypt. <sup>24</sup> The hail, with lightning flashing through it, was so severe that nothing like it had occurred in the land of Egypt since it had become a nation. <sup>25†</sup> Throughout the land of Egypt, the hail struck down everything in the field, both man and beast. The hail beat down every plant of the field and shattered every tree in the field. <sup>26</sup> The only place it didn’t hail was in the land of Goshen where the Israelites were.

<sup>27</sup> Pharaoh sent for Moses and Aaron. “I have sinned this time,” he said to them. “Yahweh is the Righteous One, and I and my people are the •guilty ones. <sup>28</sup> Make an appeal to Yahweh. There has been enough of God’s thunder and hail. I will let you go; you don’t need to stay any longer.”

<sup>29</sup> Moses said to him, “When I have left the city, I will extend my hands to Yahweh. The thunder will cease, and there will be no more hail, so that you may know the earth belongs to Yahweh. <sup>30</sup> But as for you and your officials, I know that you still do not fear Yahweh our God.”

<sup>31</sup> The flax and the barley were destroyed because the barley was ripe <sup>C</sup> and the flax was budding, <sup>32</sup> but the wheat and the spelt were not destroyed since they are later crops. <sup>D</sup>

<sup>33</sup> Moses went out from Pharaoh and the city, and extended his hands to the LORD. Then the thunder and hail ceased, and rain no longer poured down on the land. <sup>34</sup> When Pharaoh saw that the rain, hail, and thunder had ceased, he sinned again and hardened his heart, he and his officials. <sup>35</sup> So Pharaoh's heart hardened, and he did not let the Israelites go, as the LORD had said through Moses.

EXODUS

The Eighth Plague: Locusts

10† Then the LORD said to Moses, “Go to Pharaoh, for I have hardened his heart and the hearts of his officials so that I may do these miraculous signs of Mine among them, <sup>A</sup>, <sup>2</sup> and so that you may tell <sup>B</sup> your son and grandson how severely I dealt with the Egyptians and performed miraculous signs among them, and you will know that I am •Yahweh.”

<sup>3</sup> So Moses and Aaron went in to Pharaoh and told him, “This is what Yahweh, the God of the Hebrews, says: How long will you refuse to humble yourself before Me? Let My people go, that they may worship Me. <sup>4</sup> But if you refuse to let My people go, then tomorrow I will bring locusts into your territory. <sup>5</sup> They will cover the surface of the land so that no one will be able to see the land. They will eat the remainder left to you that escaped the hail; they will eat every tree you have growing in the fields. <sup>6</sup> They will fill your houses, all your officials’ houses, and the houses of all the Egyptians — something your fathers and ancestors never saw since the time they occupied the land until today.” Then he turned and left Pharaoh’s presence.

<sup>7</sup> Pharaoh’s officials asked him, “How long must this man be a snare to us? Let the men go, so that they may worship Yahweh their God. Don’t you realize yet that Egypt is devastated? ”

<sup>8</sup> So Moses and Aaron were brought back to Pharaoh. “Go, worship Yahweh your God,” Pharaoh said. “But exactly who will be going? ”

<sup>9</sup> Moses replied, “We will go with our young and our old; we will go with our sons and daughters and with our flocks and herds because we must hold Yahweh’s festival.”

<sup>10</sup> He said to them, “May Yahweh be with you if I ever let you and your families go! Look out — you are planning evil. <sup>11</sup> No, only the men may go and worship Yahweh, for that is what you have been asking for.” And they were driven from Pharaoh’s presence.

<sup>12</sup> The LORD then said to Moses, “Stretch out your hand over the land of Egypt and the locusts will come up over it and eat every plant in the land, everything that the hail left.”<sup>13</sup> So Moses stretched out his staff over the land of Egypt, and the LORD sent an east wind over the land all that day and through the night. By morning the east wind had brought in the locusts.

<sup>14</sup> The locusts went up over the entire land of Egypt and settled on the whole territory of Egypt. Never before had there been such a large number of locusts, and there never will be again.<sup>15</sup> They covered the surface of the whole land so that the land was black, and they consumed all the plants on the ground and all the fruit on the trees that the hail had left. Nothing green was left on the trees or the plants in the field throughout the land of Egypt.

<sup>16</sup> Pharaoh urgently sent for Moses and Aaron and said, “I have sinned against Yahweh your God and against you.<sup>17</sup> Please forgive my sin once more and make an appeal to Yahweh your God, so that He will take this death away from me.”<sup>18</sup> Moses left Pharaoh’s presence and appealed to the LORD.<sup>19†</sup> Then the LORD changed the wind to a strong west <sup>C</sup> wind, and it carried off the locusts and blew them into the •Red Sea. Not a single locust was left in all the territory of Egypt.<sup>20</sup> But the LORD hardened Pharaoh’s heart, and he did not let the Israelites go.

The Ninth Plague: Darkness

<sup>21</sup> Then the LORD said to Moses, “Stretch out your hand toward heaven, and there will be darkness over the land of Egypt, a darkness that can be felt.”<sup>22</sup> So Moses stretched out his hand toward heaven, and there was thick darkness throughout the land of Egypt for three days.<sup>23</sup> One person could not see another, and for three days they did not move from where they were. Yet all the Israelites had light where they lived.

<sup>24</sup> Pharaoh summoned Moses and said, “Go, worship Yahweh. Even your families may go with you; only your flocks and herds must stay behind.”

<sup>25</sup> Moses responded, “You must also let us have <sup>D</sup> sacrifices and •burnt offerings to prepare for Yahweh our God.<sup>26</sup> Even our livestock must go with us; not a hoof will be left behind because we will take some of them to worship Yahweh our God. We will not know what we will use to worship Yahweh until we get there.”

<sup>27</sup> But the LORD hardened Pharaoh's heart, and he was unwilling to let them go. <sup>28</sup> Pharaoh said to him, "Leave me! Make sure you never see my face again, for on the day you see my face, you will die."

<sup>29</sup> "As you have said," Moses replied, "I will never see your face again."

The Tenth Plague: Death of the Firstborn

11 The LORD said <sup>A</sup> to Moses, “I will bring one more plague on Pharaoh and on Egypt. After that, he will let you go from here. When he lets you go, <sup>B</sup> he will drive you out of here. <sup>2</sup> Now announce to the people that both men and women should ask their neighbors for silver and gold jewelry.” <sup>3†</sup> The LORD gave <sup>C</sup> the people favor in the sight of the Egyptians. And the man Moses was highly regarded <sup>D</sup> in the land of Egypt by <sup>E</sup> Pharaoh’s officials and the people.

<sup>4</sup> So Moses said, “This is what •Yahweh says: ‘About midnight I will go throughout Egypt, <sup>5</sup> and every firstborn male in the land of Egypt will die, from the firstborn of Pharaoh who sits on his throne to the firstborn of the servant girl who is behind the millstones, as well as every firstborn of the livestock. <sup>6</sup> Then there will be a great cry of anguish through all the land of Egypt such as never was before, or ever will be again. <sup>7</sup> But against all the Israelites, whether man or beast, not even a dog will snarl, <sup>F</sup> so that you may know that Yahweh makes a distinction between Egypt and Israel. <sup>8</sup> All these officials of yours will come down to me and bow before me, saying: Leave, you and all the people who follow you. <sup>G</sup> After that, I will leave.’ ” And he left Pharaoh’s presence in fierce anger.

<sup>9</sup> The LORD said to Moses, “Pharaoh will not listen to you, so that My wonders may be multiplied in the land of Egypt.” <sup>10†</sup> Moses and Aaron did all these wonders before Pharaoh, but the LORD hardened Pharaoh’s heart, and he would not let the Israelites go out of his land.

Instructions for the Passover

12 The LORD said to Moses and Aaron in the land of Egypt: <sup>2</sup> “This month is to be the beginning of months for you; it is the first month of your year. <sup>3†</sup> Tell the whole community of Israel that on the tenth day of this month they must each select an animal of the flock according to their fathers’ households, one animal per household. <sup>4</sup> If the household is too small for a whole animal, that person and the neighbor nearest his house are to select one based on the combined number of people; you should apportion the animal according to what each person <sup>A</sup> will eat. <sup>5†</sup> You must have an unblemished animal, a year-old male; you may take it from either the sheep or the goats. <sup>6</sup> You are to keep it until the fourteenth day of this month; then the whole assembly of the community of Israel will slaughter the animals at twilight. <sup>7†</sup> They must take some of the blood and put it on the two doorposts and the lintel of the houses where they eat them. <sup>8</sup> They are to eat the meat that night; they should eat it, roasted over the fire along with unleavened bread and bitter herbs. <sup>9</sup> Do not eat any of it raw or cooked in boiling <sup>B</sup> water, but only roasted over fire — its head as well as its legs and inner organs. <sup>10</sup> Do not let any of it remain until morning; you must burn up any part of it that does remain before morning. <sup>11</sup> Here is how you must eat it: you must be dressed for travel, <sup>C</sup> your sandals on your feet, and your staff in your hand. You are to eat it in a hurry; it is the LORD’s •Passover.

<sup>12†</sup> “I will pass through the land of Egypt on that night and strike every firstborn male in the land of Egypt, both man and beast. I am •Yahweh; I will execute judgments against all the gods of Egypt. <sup>13†</sup> The blood on the houses where you are staying will be a distinguishing mark for you; when I see the blood, I will pass over you. No plague will be among you to destroy you when I strike the land of Egypt.

<sup>14</sup> “This day is to be a memorial for you, and you must celebrate it as a festival to the LORD. You are to celebrate it throughout your generations as a permanent statute. <sup>15</sup> You must eat unleavened bread for seven days. On the first day you must remove yeast from your houses. Whoever eats what is leavened from the first day through the seventh day must be cut off from Israel. <sup>16</sup> You are to hold a sacred assembly on the first day and another sacred assembly on the seventh day. No work may be done on those days except for preparing what people need to eat — you may do only that.

<sup>17</sup> “You are to observe the Festival of •Unleavened Bread because on this very day I brought your divisions out of the land of Egypt. You must observe this day throughout your generations as a permanent statute. <sup>18</sup> You are to eat unleavened bread in the first month, from the evening of the fourteenth day of the month until the evening of the twenty-first day.

<sup>21</sup> Then Moses summoned all the elders of Israel and said to them, “Go, select an animal from the flock according to your families, and slaughter the Passover animal. <sup>22</sup> Take a cluster of hyssop, dip it in the blood that is in the basin, and brush the lintel and the two doorposts with some of the blood in the basin. None of you may go out the door of his house until morning.

<sup>23</sup> When the LORD passes through to strike Egypt and sees the blood on the lintel and the two doorposts, He will pass over the door and not let the destroyer enter your houses to strike you.

<sup>24</sup> “Keep this command permanently as a statute for you and your descendants. <sup>25</sup> When you enter the land that the LORD will give you as He promised, you are to observe this ritual. <sup>26</sup> When your children ask you, ‘What does this ritual mean to you?’ <sup>27</sup> you are to reply, ‘It is the Passover sacrifice to the LORD, for He passed over the houses of the Israelites in Egypt when He struck the Egyptians and spared our homes.’ ” So the people bowed down and worshiped. <sup>28</sup> Then the Israelites went and did this; they did just as the LORD had commanded Moses and Aaron.

The Exodus

<sup>29</sup> Now at midnight the LORD struck every firstborn male in the land of Egypt, from the firstborn of Pharaoh who sat on his throne to the firstborn of the prisoner who was in the dungeon, and every firstborn of the livestock. <sup>30</sup> During the night Pharaoh got up, he along with all his officials and all the Egyptians, and there was a loud wailing throughout Egypt because there wasn't a house without someone dead. <sup>31†</sup> He summoned Moses and Aaron during the night and said, "Get up, leave my people, both you and the Israelites, and go, worship Yahweh as you have asked. <sup>32</sup> Take even your flocks and your herds as you asked and leave, and also bless me."

<sup>33</sup> Now the Egyptians pressured the people in order to send them quickly out of the country, for they said, "We're all going to die!" <sup>34</sup> So the people took their dough before it was leavened, with their kneading bowls wrapped up in their clothes on their shoulders.

<sup>35†</sup> The Israelites acted on Moses' word and asked the Egyptians for silver and gold jewelry and for clothing. <sup>36</sup> And the LORD gave the people such favor in the Egyptians' sight that they gave them what they requested. In this way they plundered the Egyptians.

<sup>37†</sup> The Israelites traveled from Rameses to Succoth, about 600,000 soldiers on foot, besides their families. <sup>38</sup> An ethnically diverse crowd also went up with them, along with a huge number of livestock, both flocks and herds. <sup>39</sup> The people baked the dough they had brought out of Egypt into unleavened loaves, since it had no yeast; for when they had been driven out of Egypt they could not delay and had not prepared any provisions for themselves.

<sup>40†</sup> The time that the Israelites lived in Egypt was 430 years. <sup>41</sup> At the end of 430 years, on that same day, all the LORD's divisions went out from the land of Egypt. <sup>42</sup> It was a night of vigil in honor of the LORD, because He would bring them out of the land of Egypt. This same night is in honor of the LORD, a night vigil for all the Israelites throughout their generations.

Passover Instruction

<sup>43†</sup> The LORD said to Moses and Aaron, "This is the statute of the Passover: no foreigner may eat it. <sup>44</sup> But any slave a man has purchased may eat it, after you have circumcised him. <sup>45</sup> A temporary resident or hired hand may not eat the Passover. <sup>46</sup> It is to be eaten in one house. You may not take any of the meat outside the house, and you may not break any of its bones. <sup>47</sup> The whole community of Israel must celebrate <sup>E</sup> it. <sup>48</sup> If a foreigner resides with you and wants to celebrate the LORD's Passover, every male in his household must be circumcised, and then he may participate; <sup>F</sup> he will become like a native of the land. But no uncircumcised person may eat it. <sup>49</sup> The same law will apply to both the native and the foreigner who resides among you."

<sup>50</sup> Then all the Israelites did this; they did just as the LORD had commanded Moses and Aaron. <sup>51</sup> On that same day the LORD brought the Israelites out of the land of Egypt according to their divisions.

EXODUS

13 The LORD spoke to Moses: <sup>2</sup> “Consecrate every firstborn male to Me, the firstborn from every womb among the Israelites, both man and domestic animal; it is Mine.”

<sup>3</sup> Then Moses said to the people, “Remember this day when you came out of Egypt, out of the place of slavery, for the LORD brought you out of here by the strength of His hand. Nothing leavened may be eaten. <sup>4</sup> Today, in the month of Abib, you are leaving. <sup>5</sup> When the LORD brings you into the land of the Canaanites, Hittites, Amorites, Hivites, and Jebusites, which He swore to your fathers that He would give you, a land flowing with milk and honey, you must carry out this ritual in this month. <sup>6</sup> For seven days you must eat unleavened bread, and on the seventh day there is to be a festival to the LORD. <sup>7</sup> Unleavened bread is to be eaten for those seven days. Nothing leavened may be found among you, and no yeast may be found among you in all your territory. <sup>8</sup> On that day explain to your son, ‘This is because of what the LORD did for me when I came out of Egypt.’ <sup>9</sup> Let it serve as a sign for you on your hand and as a reminder on your forehead, <sup>A</sup> so that the LORD’s instruction may be in your mouth; for the LORD brought you out of Egypt with a strong hand. <sup>10</sup> Keep this statute at its appointed time from year to year.

<sup>11</sup> “When the LORD brings you into the land of the Canaanites, as He swore to you and your fathers, and gives it to you, <sup>12†</sup> you are to present to the LORD every firstborn male of the womb. All firstborn offspring of the livestock you own that are males will be the LORD’s. <sup>13</sup> You must redeem every firstborn of a donkey with a flock animal, but if you do not redeem it, break its neck. However, you must redeem every firstborn among your sons.

<sup>14</sup> “In the future, when your son asks you, ‘What does this mean?’ say to him, ‘By the strength of His hand the LORD brought us out of Egypt, out of the place of slavery. <sup>15</sup> When Pharaoh stubbornly refused to let us go, the LORD killed every firstborn male in the land of Egypt, from the firstborn of man to the firstborn of livestock. That is why I sacrifice to the LORD all the firstborn of the womb that are males, but I redeem all the firstborn of my sons.’ <sup>16</sup> So let it be a sign on your hand and a symbol <sup>B</sup> on your forehead, for the LORD brought us out of Egypt by the strength of His hand.”

The Route of the Exodus

<sup>17</sup> When Pharaoh let the people go, God did not lead them along the road to the land of the Philistines, even though it was nearby; for God said, “The people will change their minds and return to Egypt if they face war.” <sup>18†</sup> So He led the people around toward the •Red Sea along the road of the wilderness. And the Israelites left the land of Egypt in battle formation.

<sup>19</sup> Moses took the bones of Joseph with him, because Joseph had made the Israelites swear a solemn oath, saying, “God will certainly come to your aid; then you must take my bones with you from this place.”

<sup>20</sup> They set out from Succoth and camped at Etham on the edge of the wilderness. <sup>21†</sup> The LORD went ahead of them in a pillar of cloud to lead them on their way during the day and in a pillar of fire to give them light at night, so that they could travel day or night. <sup>22</sup> The pillar of cloud by day and the pillar of fire by night never left its place in front of the people.

EXODUS

14 Then the LORD spoke to Moses: <sup>2</sup> “Tell the Israelites to turn back and camp in front of Pi-hahiroth, between Migdol and the sea; you must camp in front of Baal-zephon, facing it by the sea. <sup>3</sup> Pharaoh will say of the Israelites: They are wandering around the land in confusion; the wilderness has boxed them in. <sup>4†</sup> I will harden Pharaoh’s heart so that he will pursue them. Then I will receive glory by means of Pharaoh and all his army, and the Egyptians will know that I am •Yahweh.” So the Israelites did this.

The Egyptian Pursuit

<sup>5</sup> When the king of Egypt was told that the people had fled, Pharaoh and his officials changed their minds about the people and said: “What have we done? We have released Israel from serving us.” <sup>6</sup> So he got his chariot ready and took his troops <sup>A</sup> with him; <sup>7</sup> he took 600 of the best chariots and all the rest of the chariots of Egypt, with officers in each one. <sup>8</sup> The LORD hardened the heart of Pharaoh king of Egypt, and he pursued the Israelites, who were going out triumphantly. <sup>B</sup>, <sup>9†</sup> The Egyptians — all Pharaoh’s horses and chariots, his horsemen, <sup>C</sup> and his army — chased after them and caught up with them as they camped by the sea beside Pi-hahiroth, in front of Baal-zephon.

<sup>10</sup> As Pharaoh approached, the Israelites looked up and saw the Egyptians coming after them. Then the Israelites were terrified and cried out to the LORD for help. <sup>11</sup> They said to Moses: “Is it because there are no graves in Egypt that you took us to die in the wilderness? What have you done to us by bringing us out of Egypt? <sup>12</sup> Isn’t this what we told you in Egypt: Leave us alone so that we may serve the Egyptians? It would have been better for us to serve the Egyptians than to die in the wilderness.”

<sup>13</sup> But Moses said to the people, “Don’t be afraid. Stand firm and see the LORD’s salvation He will provide for you today; for the Egyptians you see today, you will never see again. <sup>14</sup> The LORD will fight for you; you must be quiet.”

Escape through the Red Sea

<sup>15</sup> The LORD said to Moses, “Why are you crying out to Me? Tell the Israelites to break camp. <sup>16†</sup> As for you, lift up your staff, stretch out your hand over the sea, and divide it so that the Israelites can go through the sea on dry ground. <sup>17</sup> I am going to harden the hearts of the Egyptians so that they will go in after them, and I will receive glory by means of Pharaoh, all his army, and his chariots and horsemen. <sup>18</sup> The Egyptians will know that I am Yahweh when I receive glory through Pharaoh, his chariots, and his horsemen.”

<sup>21†</sup> Then Moses stretched out his hand over the sea. The LORD drove the sea back with a powerful east wind all that night and turned the sea into dry land. So the waters were divided, <sup>22</sup> and the Israelites went through the sea on dry ground, with the waters like a wall to them on their right and their left.

<sup>26</sup> Then the LORD said to Moses, “Stretch out your hand over the sea so that the waters may come back on the Egyptians, on their chariots and horsemen.” <sup>27</sup> So Moses stretched out his hand over the sea, and at daybreak the sea returned to its normal depth. While the Egyptians were trying to escape from it, the LORD threw them into the sea. <sup>28</sup> The waters came back and covered the chariots and horsemen, the entire army of Pharaoh, that had gone after them into the sea. None of them survived.

EXODUS

Israel's Song

15 Then Moses and the Israelites sang this song to the LORD. They said:

I will sing to the LORD,
for He is highly exalted;
He has thrown the horse
and its rider into the sea.

He has become my salvation.
This is my God, and I will praise Him, my father's God, and I will exalt Him.

and his army into the sea;
the elite of his officers were drowned in the •Red Sea.

they sank to the depths like a stone.

LORD, Your right hand shattered the enemy.

by Your great majesty.
You unleashed Your burning wrath;
it consumed them like stubble.

the currents stood firm like a dam.
The watery depths congealed in the heart of the sea.

<sup>9</sup> The enemy said:
"I will pursue, I will overtake,
I will divide the spoil.
My desire will be gratified at their expense.
I will draw my sword;
my hand will destroy <sup>B</sup> them."

<sup>10</sup> But You blew with Your breath, and the sea covered them.

They sank like lead in the mighty waters.

<sup>11†</sup> LORD, who is like You among the gods?
Who is like You, glorious in holiness, revered with praises, performing wonders?

and the earth swallowed them.

<sup>13</sup> You will lead the people
You have redeemed with Your faithful love;
You will guide them to Your holy dwelling with Your strength.

<sup>14</sup> When the peoples hear, they will shudder;
anguish will seize the inhabitants of Philistia.

<sup>15</sup> Then the chiefs of Edom will be terrified; trembling will seize the leaders of Moab;
the inhabitants of Canaan will panic;

<sup>16</sup> and terror and dread will fall on them.

They will be as still <sup>C</sup> as a stone because of Your powerful arm until Your people pass by, LORD, until the people whom You purchased <sup>D</sup> pass by.

<sup>17</sup> You will bring them in and plant them on the mountain of Your possession; LORD, You have prepared the place for Your dwelling;
Lord, Your hands have established the sanctuary.

<sup>18</sup> The LORD will reign forever and ever!

women followed her with their tambourines and danced. <sup>21</sup> Miriam sang to them:

Sing to the LORD,
for He is highly exalted;
He has thrown the horse
and its rider into the sea.

Water Provided

<sup>22</sup> Then Moses led Israel on from the Red Sea, and they went out to the Wilderness of Shur. They journeyed for three days in the wilderness without finding water. <sup>23</sup> They came to Marah, but they could not drink the water at Marah because it was bitter — that is why it was named Marah. <sup>24</sup> The people grumbled to Moses, “What are we going to drink?” <sup>25</sup> So he cried out to the LORD, and the LORD showed him a tree. When he threw it into the water, the water became drinkable.

He made a statute and ordinance for them at Marah and He tested them there. <sup>26</sup> He said, “If you will carefully obey the LORD your God, do what is right in His eyes, pay attention to His commands, and keep all His statutes, I will not inflict any illnesses on you that I inflicted on the Egyptians. For I am Yahweh who heals you.”

<sup>27</sup> Then they came to Elim, where there were 12 springs of water and 70 date palms, and they camped there by the waters.

EXODUS

Manna and Quail Provided

16 The entire Israelite community departed from Elim and came to the Wilderness of Sin, which is between Elim and Sinai, on the fifteenth day of the second month after they had left the land of Egypt. <sup>2</sup> The entire Israelite community grumbled against Moses and Aaron in the wilderness. <sup>3</sup> The Israelites said to them, “If only we had died by the LORD’s hand in the land of Egypt, when we sat by pots of meat and ate all the bread we wanted. Instead, you brought us into this wilderness to make this whole assembly die of hunger! ”

<sup>4</sup> Then the LORD said to Moses, “I am going to rain bread from heaven for you. The people are to go out each day and gather enough for that day. This way I will test them to see whether or not they will follow My instructions. <sup>5</sup> On the sixth day, when they prepare what they bring in, it will be twice as much as they gather on other days.” <sup>A</sup>

<sup>6</sup> So Moses and Aaron said to all the Israelites: “This evening you will know that it was the LORD who brought you out of the land of Egypt; <sup>7</sup> in the morning you will see the LORD’s glory because He has heard your complaints about Him. For who are we that you complain about us? ”

<sup>8</sup> Moses continued, “The LORD will give you meat to eat this evening and more than enough bread in the morning, for He has heard the complaints that you are raising against Him. Who are we? Your complaints are not against us but against the LORD.”

<sup>9</sup> Then Moses told Aaron, “Say to the entire Israelite community, ‘Come before the LORD, for He has heard your complaints.’ ” <sup>10</sup> As Aaron was speaking to the entire Israelite community, they turned toward the wilderness, and there in a cloud the LORD’s glory appeared.

<sup>11</sup> The LORD spoke to Moses, <sup>12</sup> “I have heard the complaints of the Israelites. Tell them: At twilight you will eat meat, and in the morning you will eat bread until you are full. Then you will know that I am •Yahweh your God.”

<sup>13</sup> So at evening quail came and covered the camp. In the morning there was a layer of dew all around the camp. <sup>14</sup> When the layer of dew evaporated, there were fine flakes on the desert surface, as fine as frost on the ground.<sup>15</sup> When the Israelites saw it, they asked one another, “What is it?” because they didn’t know what it was.

Moses told them, “It is the bread the LORD has given you to eat.<sup>16†</sup> This is what the LORD has commanded: ‘Gather as much of it as each person needs to eat. You may take two quarts<sup>B</sup> per individual, according to the number of people each of you has in his tent.’ ”

<sup>24</sup> So they set it aside until morning as Moses commanded, and it didn’t smell or have any maggots in it.<sup>25</sup> “Eat it today,” Moses said, “because today is a Sabbath to the LORD. Today you won’t find any in the field.<sup>26</sup> For six days you may gather it, but on the seventh day, the Sabbath, there will be none.”

<sup>27</sup> Yet on the seventh day some of the people went out to gather, but they did not find any.<sup>28</sup> Then the LORD said to Moses, “How long will you refuse to keep My commands and instructions?<sup>29</sup> Understand that the LORD has given you the Sabbath; therefore on the sixth day He will give you two days' worth of bread. Each of you stay where you are; no one is to leave his place on the seventh day.”<sup>30</sup> So the people rested on the seventh day.

<sup>32</sup> Moses said, “This is what the LORD has commanded: ‘Two quarts<sup>E</sup> of it are to be preserved throughout your generations, so that they may see the bread I fed you in the wilderness when I brought you out of the land of Egypt.’ ”

<sup>35</sup> The Israelites ate manna for 40 years, until they came to an inhabited land. They ate manna until they reached the border of the land of Canaan.

EXODUS

Water from the Rock

17 The entire Israelite community left the Wilderness of Sin, moving from one place to the next according to the LORD's command. They camped at Rephidim, but there was no water for the people to drink. <sup>2</sup> So the people complained to Moses, "Give us water to drink."

"Why are you complaining to me?" Moses replied to them. "Why are you testing the LORD?"

<sup>3</sup> But the people thirsted there for water, and grumbled against Moses. They said, "Why did you ever bring us out of Egypt to kill us and our children and our livestock with thirst?"

<sup>4</sup> Then Moses cried out to the LORD, "What should I do with these people? In a little while they will stone me!"

<sup>5†</sup> The LORD answered Moses, "Go on ahead of the people and take some of the elders of Israel with you. Take the staff you struck the Nile with in your hand and go. <sup>6</sup> I am going to stand there in front of you on the rock at Horeb; when you hit the rock, water will come out of it and the people will drink." Moses did this in the sight of the elders of Israel. <sup>7</sup> He named the place Massah and Meribah because the Israelites complained, and because they tested the LORD, saying, "Is the LORD among us or not?"

The Amalekites Attack

<sup>8</sup> At Rephidim, Amalek came and fought against Israel. <sup>9</sup> Moses said to Joshua, "Select some men for us and go fight against Amalek. Tomorrow I will stand on the hilltop with God's staff in my hand."

<sup>10</sup> Joshua did as Moses had told him, and fought against Amalek, while Moses, Aaron, and Hur went up to the top of the hill. <sup>11</sup> While Moses held up his hand, Israel prevailed, but whenever he put his hand down, Amalek prevailed. <sup>12</sup> When Moses' hands grew heavy, they took a stone and put it under him, and he sat down on it. Then Aaron and Hur supported his hands, one on one side and one on the other so that his hands remained steady until the sun went down. <sup>13</sup> So Joshua defeated Amalek and his army <sup>A</sup> with the sword.

<sup>14†</sup> The LORD then said to Moses, “Write this down on a scroll as a reminder and recite it to Joshua: I will completely blot out the memory of Amalek under heaven.”

<sup>16</sup> He said, “Indeed, my hand is lifted up toward <sup>C</sup> the LORD’s throne. The LORD will be at war with Amalek from generation to generation.”

EXODUS

Jethro's Visit

18 Moses' father-in-law Jethro, the priest of Midian, heard about everything that God had done for Moses and His people Israel, and how the LORD had brought Israel out of Egypt.

<sup>2</sup> Now Jethro, Moses' father-in-law, had taken in Zipporah, Moses' wife, after he had sent her back, <sup>3</sup> along with her two sons, one of whom was named Gershom (because Moses had said, "I have been a foreigner in a foreign land") <sup>4</sup> and the other Eliezer (because he had said, "The God of my father was my helper and delivered me from Pharaoh's sword").

<sup>5†</sup> Moses' father-in-law Jethro, along with Moses' wife and sons, came to him in the wilderness where he was camped at the mountain of God. <sup>6</sup> He sent word to Moses, "I, your father-in-law Jethro, am coming to you with your wife and her two sons."

<sup>7</sup> So Moses went out to meet his father-in-law, bowed down, and then kissed him. They asked each other how they had been <sup>A</sup> and went into the tent. <sup>8</sup> Moses recounted to his father-in-law all that the LORD had done to Pharaoh and the Egyptians for Israel's sake, all the hardships that confronted them on the way, and how the LORD delivered them.

<sup>12</sup> Then Jethro, Moses' father-in-law, brought a •burnt offering and sacrifices to God, and Aaron came with all the elders of Israel to eat a meal with Moses' father-in-law in God's presence.

<sup>13</sup> The next day Moses sat down to judge the people, and they stood around Moses from morning until evening. <sup>14</sup> When Moses' father-in-law saw everything he was doing for them he asked, "What is this thing you're doing for the people? Why are you alone sitting as judge, while all the people stand around you from morning until evening? ”

<sup>15</sup> Moses replied to his father-in-law, “Because the people come to me to inquire of God. <sup>16</sup> Whenever they have a dispute, it comes to me, and I make a decision between one man and another. I teach them God’s statutes and laws.”

<sup>17</sup> “What you’re doing is not good,” Moses’ father-in-law said to him. <sup>18</sup> “You will certainly wear out both yourself and these people who are with you, because the task is too heavy for you. You can’t do it alone. <sup>19</sup> Now listen to me; I will give you some advice, and God be with you. You be the one to represent the people before God and bring their cases to Him. <sup>20</sup> Instruct them about the statutes and laws, and teach them the way to live and what they must do. <sup>21</sup> But you should select from all the people able men, God-fearing, trustworthy, and hating bribes. Place them over the people as commanders of thousands, hundreds, fifties, and tens. <sup>22</sup> They should judge the people at all times. Then they can bring you every important case but judge every minor case themselves. In this way you will lighten your load, <sup>C</sup> and they will bear it with you. <sup>23</sup> If you do this, and God so directs you, you will be able to endure, and also all these people will be able to go home satisfied.” <sup>D</sup>

<sup>24</sup> Moses listened to his father-in-law and did everything he said. <sup>25</sup> So Moses chose able men from all Israel and made them leaders over the people as commanders of thousands, hundreds, fifties, and tens. <sup>26</sup> They judged the people at all times; they would bring the hard cases to Moses, but they would judge every minor case themselves.

Israel at Sinai

19† In the third month, on the same day of the month that the Israelites had left the land of Egypt, they entered the Wilderness of Sinai.

2† After they departed from Rephidim, they entered the Wilderness of Sinai and camped in the wilderness, and Israel camped there in front of the mountain.

3 Moses went up the mountain to God, and the LORD called to him from the mountain: “This is what you must say to the house of Jacob, and explain to the Israelites: 4 ‘You have seen what I did to the Egyptians and how I carried you on eagles’ wings and brought you to Me. 5 Now if you will listen to Me and carefully keep My covenant, you will be My own possession out of all the peoples, although all the earth is Mine, 6 and you will be My kingdom of priests and My holy nation.’ These are the words that you are to say to the Israelites.”

7 After Moses came back, he summoned the elders of the people and set before them all these words that the LORD had commanded him. 8 Then all the people responded together, “We will do all that the LORD has spoken.” So Moses brought the people’s words back to the LORD.

9 The LORD said to Moses, “I am going to come to you in a dense cloud, so that the people will hear when I speak with you and will always believe you.” Then Moses reported the people’s words to the LORD. 10 And the LORD told Moses, “Go to the people and consecrate them today and tomorrow. They must wash their clothes 11† and be prepared by the third day, for on the third day the LORD will come down on Mount Sinai in the sight of all the people. 12 Put boundaries for the people all around the mountain and say: Be careful that you don’t go up on the mountain or touch its base. Anyone who touches the mountain will be put to death. 13 No hand may touch him; instead he will be stoned or shot with arrows. No animal or man will live. When the ram’s horn sounds a long blast, they may go up the mountain.”

14 Then Moses came down from the mountain to the people and consecrated them, and they washed their clothes. 15 He said to the people, “Be prepared by the third day. Do not have sexual relations with women.”

<sup>16</sup> On the third day, when morning came, there was thunder and lightning, a thick cloud on the mountain, and a loud trumpet sound, so that all the people in the camp shuddered. <sup>17</sup> Then Moses brought the people out of the camp to meet God, and they stood at the foot of the mountain.

<sup>18</sup> Mount Sinai was completely enveloped in smoke because the LORD came down on it in fire. Its smoke went up like the smoke of a furnace, and the whole mountain shook violently. <sup>19</sup> As the sound of the trumpet grew louder and louder, Moses spoke and God answered him in the thunder.

<sup>20</sup> The LORD came down on Mount Sinai at the top of the mountain. Then the LORD summoned Moses to the top of the mountain, and he went up.

<sup>21</sup> The LORD directed Moses, “Go down and warn the people not to break through to see the LORD; otherwise many of them will die. <sup>22†</sup> Even the priests who come near the LORD must purify themselves or the LORD will break out in anger against them.”

<sup>23</sup> But Moses responded to the LORD, “The people cannot come up Mount Sinai, since You warned us: Put a boundary around the mountain and consider it holy.” <sup>24</sup> And the LORD replied to him, “Go down and come back with Aaron. But the priests and the people must not break through to come up to the LORD, or He will break out in anger against them.” <sup>25</sup> So Moses went down to the people and told them.

The Ten Commandments

20 † Then God spoke all these words:

<sup>2</sup> I am the LORD your God, who brought you out of the land of Egypt, out of the place of slavery.

<sup>5†</sup> You must not bow down to them or worship them; for I, the LORD your God, am a jealous God, punishing the children for the fathers' sin, to the third and fourth generations of those who hate Me, <sup>6</sup> but showing faithful love to a thousand generations of those who love Me and keep My commands.

<sup>8†</sup> Remember the Sabbath day, to keep it holy: <sup>9</sup> You are to labor six days and do all your work, <sup>10</sup> but the seventh day is a Sabbath to the LORD your God. You must not do any work — you, your son or daughter, your male or female slave, your livestock, or the foreigner who is within your gates. <sup>11</sup> For the LORD made the heavens and the earth, the sea, and everything in them in six days; then He rested on the seventh day. Therefore the LORD blessed the Sabbath day and declared it holy.

<sup>12†</sup> Honor your father and your mother so that you may have a long life in the land that the LORD your God is giving you.

<sup>17†</sup> Do not covet your neighbor's house. Do not covet your neighbor's wife, his male or female slave, his ox or donkey, or anything that belongs to your neighbor.

The People's Reaction

<sup>18</sup> All the people witnessed <sup>A</sup> the thunder and lightning, the sound of the trumpet, and the mountain surrounded by smoke. When the people saw it they trembled and stood at a distance. <sup>19</sup> “You speak to us, and we will listen,” they said to Moses, “but don’t let God speak to us, or we will die.”

<sup>20</sup> Moses responded to the people, “Don’t be afraid, for God has come to test you, so that you will •fear Him and will not <sup>B</sup> sin.” <sup>21</sup> And the people remained standing at a distance as Moses approached the thick darkness where God was.

Moses Receives Additional Laws

<sup>22</sup> Then the LORD told Moses, “This is what you are to say to the Israelites: You have seen that I have spoken to you from heaven. <sup>23</sup> You must not make gods of silver to rival Me; you must not make gods of gold for yourselves. <sup>C</sup>

<sup>24†</sup> “You must make an earthen altar for Me and sacrifice on it your •burnt offerings and •fellowship offerings, your sheep and goats, as well as your cattle. I will come to you and bless you in every place where I cause My name to be remembered. <sup>25</sup> If you make a stone altar for Me, you must not build it out of cut stones. If you use your chisel on it, you will defile it. <sup>26†</sup> You must not go up to My altar on steps, so that your nakedness is not exposed on it.

21 “These are the ordinances that you must set before them:

Laws about Slaves

<sup>2†</sup> “When you buy a Hebrew slave, he is to serve for six years; then in the seventh he is to leave as a free man <sup>A</sup> without paying anything. <sup>3</sup> If he arrives alone, he is to leave alone; if he arrives with <sup>B</sup> a wife, his wife is to leave with him. <sup>4</sup> If his master gives him a wife and she bears him sons or daughters, the wife and her children belong to her master, and the man must leave alone.

<sup>5</sup> “But if the slave declares: ‘I love my master, my wife, and my children; I do not want to leave as a free man,’ <sup>6</sup> his master is to bring him to the judges <sup>C</sup> and then bring him to the door or doorpost. His master must pierce his ear with an awl, and he will serve his master for life.

<sup>7†</sup> “When a man sells his daughter as a slave, <sup>D</sup> she is not to leave as the male slaves do. <sup>8</sup> If she is displeasing to her master, who chose her for himself, then he must let her be redeemed. He has no right to sell her to foreigners because he has acted treacherously toward her. <sup>9</sup> Or if he chooses her for his son, he must deal with her according to the customary treatment of daughters. <sup>10†</sup> If he takes an additional wife, he must not reduce the food, clothing, or marital rights of the first wife. <sup>11</sup> And if he does not do these three things for her, she may leave free of charge, without any exchange of money.

Laws about Personal Injury

<sup>12</sup> “Whoever strikes a person so that he dies must be put to death. <sup>13</sup> But if he didn’t intend any harm, <sup>E</sup> and yet God caused it to happen by his hand, I will appoint a place for you where he may flee. <sup>14</sup> If a person schemes and willfully <sup>F</sup> acts against his neighbor to murder him, you must take him from My altar to be put to death.

<sup>18</sup> “When men quarrel and one strikes the other with a stone or his fist, and the injured man does not die but is confined to bed, <sup>19</sup> if he can later get up and walk around outside leaning on his staff, then the one who struck him will be exempt from punishment. Nevertheless, he must pay for his lost work time <sup>G</sup> and provide for his complete recovery.

<sup>22</sup> “When men get in a fight and hit a pregnant woman so that her children are born prematurely but there is no injury, the one who hit her must be fined as the woman’s husband demands from him, and he must pay according to judicial assessment. <sup>23†</sup> If there is an injury, then you must give life for life, <sup>24</sup> eye for eye, tooth for tooth, hand for hand, foot for foot, <sup>25</sup> burn for burn, bruise for bruise, wound for wound.

<sup>26</sup> “When a man strikes the eye of his male or female slave and destroys it, he must let the slave go free in compensation for his eye. <sup>27</sup> If he knocks out the tooth of his male or female slave, he must let the slave go free in compensation for his tooth.

dealt with according to this same law. <sup>32</sup> If the ox gores a male or female slave, he must give 30 •shekels of silver to the slave's master, and the ox must be stoned.

<sup>35</sup> “When a man's ox injures his neighbor's ox and it dies, they must sell the live ox and divide its proceeds; they must also divide the dead animal. <sup>36</sup> If, however, it is known that the ox was in the habit of goring, yet its owner has not restrained it, he must compensate fully, ox for ox; the dead animal will become his.

Chapter 22 Laws about Theft

<sup>1</sup>“When a man steals an ox or a sheep and butchers it or sells it, he must repay five cattle for the ox or four sheep for the sheep. <sup>2</sup> If a thief is caught in the act of breaking in, and he is beaten to death, no one is •guilty of bloodshed. <sup>3</sup> But if this happens after sunrise, <sup>A</sup> there is guilt of bloodshed. A thief must make full restitution. If he is unable, he is to be sold because of his theft. <sup>4</sup> If what was stolen — whether ox, donkey, or sheep — is actually found alive in his possession, he must repay double.

Laws about Crop Protection

<sup>5</sup> “When a man lets a field or vineyard be grazed in, and then allows his animals to go and graze in someone else’s field, he must repay with the best of his own field or vineyard.

<sup>6</sup> “When a fire gets out of control, spreads to thornbushes, and consumes stacks of cut grain, standing grain, or a field, the one who started the fire must make full restitution for what was burned.

Laws about Personal Property

<sup>7</sup> “When a man gives his neighbor money or goods to keep, but they are stolen from that person’s house, the thief, if caught, must repay double. <sup>8</sup> If the thief is not caught, the owner of the house must present himself to the judges <sup>B</sup> to determine whether or not he has taken his neighbor’s property. <sup>9</sup> In any case of wrongdoing involving an ox, a donkey, a sheep, a garment, or anything else lost, and someone claims, ‘That’s mine,’ <sup>C</sup> the case between the two parties is to come before the judges. <sup>D</sup> The one the judges condemn <sup>E</sup> must repay double to his neighbor.

<sup>10</sup> “When a man gives his neighbor a donkey, an ox, a sheep, or any other animal to care for, but it dies, is injured, or is stolen, while no one is watching, <sup>11</sup> there must be an oath before the LORD between the two of them to determine whether or not he has taken his neighbor’s property. Its owner must accept the oath, and the other man does not have to make restitution.

<sup>12</sup> But if, in fact, the animal was stolen from his custody, he must make restitution to its owner. <sup>13</sup> If it was actually torn apart by a wild animal, he is to bring it as evidence; he does not have to make restitution for the torn carcass.

<sup>14</sup> “When a man borrows an animal from his neighbor, and it is injured or dies while its owner is not there with it, the man must make full restitution.

<sup>15</sup> If its owner is there with it, the man does not have to make restitution. If it was rented, the loss is covered by <sup>F</sup> its rental price.

Laws about Seduction

<sup>16</sup> “If a man seduces a virgin who is not engaged, and he has sexual relations with her, he must certainly pay the bridal price for her to be his wife. <sup>17</sup> If her father absolutely refuses to give her to him, he must pay an amount in silver equal to the bridal price for virgins.

Capital Offenses

<sup>18</sup> “You must not allow a sorceress to live.

Laws Protecting the Vulnerable

<sup>21</sup> “You must not exploit a foreign resident or oppress him, since you were foreigners in the land of Egypt.

<sup>22</sup> “You must not mistreat any widow or fatherless child. <sup>23</sup> If you do mistreat them, they will no doubt cry to Me, and I will certainly hear their cry. <sup>24</sup> My anger will burn, and I will kill you with the sword; then your wives will be widows and your children fatherless.

<sup>25†</sup> “If you lend money to My people, to the poor person among you, you must not be like a moneylender to him; you must not charge him interest.

<sup>26</sup> “If you ever take your neighbor’s cloak as collateral, return it to him before sunset. <sup>27</sup> For it is his only covering; it is the clothing for his body. <sup>G</sup> What will he sleep in? And if he cries out to Me, I will listen because I am compassionate.

Respect for God

<sup>28</sup> “You must not blaspheme God <sup>H</sup> or curse a leader among your people.

<sup>29†</sup> “You must not hold back offerings from your harvest or your vats. Give Me the firstborn of your sons. <sup>30</sup> Do the same with your cattle and your flock. Let them stay with their mothers for seven days, but on the eighth day you are to give them to Me.

<sup>31</sup> “Be My holy people. You must not eat the meat of a mauled animal found in the field; throw it to the dogs.

EXODUS

Laws about Honesty and Justice

23 “You must not spread a false report. Do not join <sup>A</sup> the wicked to be a malicious witness.

<sup>5</sup> “If you see the donkey of someone who hates you lying helpless under its load, and you want to refrain from helping it, you must help with it. <sup>B</sup>

<sup>6</sup> “You must not deny justice to a poor person among you in his lawsuit. <sup>7†</sup> Stay far away from a false accusation. Do not kill the innocent and the just, because I will not justify the •guilty. <sup>8</sup> You must not take a bribe, for a bribe blinds the clear-sighted and corrupts the words <sup>C</sup> of the righteous. <sup>9</sup> You must not oppress a foreign resident; you yourselves know how it feels to be a foreigner because you were foreigners in the land of Egypt.

Sabbaths and Festivals

<sup>10†</sup> “Sow your land for six years and gather its produce. <sup>11</sup> But during the seventh year you are to let it rest and leave it uncultivated, so that the poor among your people may eat from it and the wild animals may consume what they leave. Do the same with your vineyard and your olive grove.

<sup>12</sup> “Do your work for six days but rest on the seventh day so that your ox and your donkey may rest, and the son of your female slave as well as the foreign resident may be refreshed.

<sup>13</sup> “Pay strict attention to everything I have said to you. You must not invoke the names of other gods; they must not be heard on your lips. <sup>D</sup>

<sup>14</sup> “Celebrate a festival in My honor three times a year. <sup>15</sup> Observe the Festival of •Unleavened Bread. As I commanded you, you are to eat unleavened bread for seven days at the appointed time in the month of Abib, because you came out of Egypt in that month. No one is to appear before Me empty-handed. <sup>16</sup> Also observe the Festival of Harvest with the •firstfruits of your produce from what you sow in the field, and observe the Festival of Ingathering at the end of the year, when you gather your produce <sup>E</sup> from the field. <sup>17</sup> Three times a year all your males are to appear before the Lord GOD.

<sup>18</sup> “You must not offer the blood of My sacrifices with anything leavened. The fat of My festival offering must not remain until morning.

<sup>19</sup> “Bring the best of the firstfruits of your land to the house of the LORD your God.

“You must not boil a young goat in its mother’s milk.

Promises and Warnings

<sup>20†</sup> “I am going to send an angel before you to protect you on the way and bring you to the place I have prepared. <sup>21</sup> Be attentive to him and listen to his voice. Do not defy <sup>F</sup> him, because he will not forgive your acts of rebellion, for My name is in him. <sup>22</sup> But if you will carefully obey him and do everything I say, then I will be an enemy to your enemies and a foe to your foes. <sup>23</sup> For My angel will go before you and bring you to the land of the Amorites, Hittites, Perizzites, Canaanites, Hivites, and Jebusites, and I will wipe them out. <sup>24</sup> You must not bow down to their gods or worship them. Do not imitate their practices. Instead, demolish them and smash their sacred pillars to pieces. <sup>25</sup> Worship the LORD your God, and He will bless your bread and your water. I will remove illnesses from you. <sup>26</sup> No woman will miscarry or be childless in your land. I will give you the full number of your days.

<sup>27</sup> “I will cause the people ahead of you to feel terror <sup>G</sup> and throw into confusion all the nations you come to. I will make all your enemies turn their backs to you in retreat. <sup>28</sup> I will send the hornet <sup>H</sup>, in front of you, and it will drive the Hivites, Canaanites, and Hittites away from you. <sup>29</sup> I will not drive them out ahead of you in a single year; otherwise, the land would become desolate, and wild animals would multiply against you. <sup>30</sup> I will drive them out little by little ahead of you until you have become numerous <sup>I</sup> and take possession of the land. <sup>31</sup> I will set your borders from the •Red Sea to the Mediterranean Sea, <sup>J</sup> and from the wilderness to the Euphrates River. <sup>K</sup> For I will place the inhabitants of the land under your control, and you will drive them out ahead of you. <sup>32</sup> You must not make a covenant with them or their gods. <sup>33</sup> They must not remain in your land, or else they will make you sin against Me. If you worship their gods, it will be a snare for you.”

The Covenant Ceremony

24 Then He said to Moses, “Go up to the LORD, you and Aaron, Nadab, and Abihu, and 70 of Israel’s elders, and bow in worship at a distance. <sup>2</sup> Moses alone is to approach the LORD, but the others are not to approach, and the people are not to go up with him.”

<sup>3</sup> Moses came and told the people all the commands of the LORD and all the ordinances. Then all the people responded with a single voice, “We will do everything that the LORD has commanded.” <sup>4</sup> And Moses wrote down all the words of the LORD. He rose early the next morning and set up an altar and 12 pillars for the 12 tribes of Israel at the base of the mountain. <sup>5</sup> Then he sent out young Israelite men, and they offered •burnt offerings and sacrificed bulls as •fellowship offerings to the LORD. <sup>6</sup> Moses took half the blood and set it in basins; the other half of the blood he sprinkled on the altar. <sup>7</sup> He then took the covenant scroll and read it aloud to the people. They responded, “We will do and obey everything that the LORD has commanded.”

<sup>8</sup> Moses took the blood, sprinkled it on the people, and said, “This is the blood of the covenant that the LORD has made with you concerning all these words.”

<sup>12</sup> The LORD said to Moses, “Come up to Me on the mountain and stay there so that I may give you the stone tablets with the law and commandments I have written for their instruction.”

the seventh day He called to Moses from the cloud. <sup>17</sup> The appearance of the LORD's glory to the Israelites was like a consuming fire on the mountaintop. <sup>18</sup> Moses entered the cloud as he went up the mountain, and he remained on the mountain 40 days and 40 nights.

Offerings to Build the Tabernacle

25 The LORD spoke to Moses: <sup>2</sup> “Tell the Israelites to take an offering for Me. You are to take My offering from everyone who is willing to give. <sup>3†</sup> This is the offering you are to receive from them: gold, silver, and bronze; <sup>4</sup> blue, purple, and scarlet yarn; fine linen and goat hair; <sup>5</sup> ram skins dyed red and manatee skins; <sup>A</sup> acacia wood; <sup>6</sup> oil for the light; spices for the anointing oil and for the fragrant incense; <sup>7</sup> and onyx <sup>B</sup> along with other gemstones for mounting on the •ephod and breastpiece. <sup>C</sup> <sup>8</sup> “They are to make a sanctuary for Me so that I may dwell among them. <sup>9</sup> You must make it according to all that I show you — the pattern of the tabernacle as well as the pattern of all its furnishings.

The Ark

<sup>10†</sup> “They are to make an ark of acacia wood, 45 inches long, 27 inches wide, and 27 inches high. <sup>D</sup> <sup>11</sup> Overlay it with pure gold; overlay it both inside and out. Also make a gold molding all around it. <sup>12</sup> Cast four gold rings for it and place them on its four feet, two rings on one side and two rings on the other side. <sup>13</sup> Make poles of acacia wood and overlay them with gold. <sup>14</sup> Insert the poles into the rings on the sides of the ark in order to carry the ark with them. <sup>15†</sup> The poles are to remain in the rings of the ark; they must not be removed from it. <sup>16</sup> Put the tablets of the •testimony that I will give you into the ark. <sup>17</sup> Make a •mercy seat of pure gold, 45 inches long and 27 inches wide. <sup>E</sup> <sup>18†</sup> Make two •cherubim of gold; make them of hammered work at the two ends of the mercy seat. <sup>19</sup> Make one cherub at one end and one cherub at the other end. At its two ends, make the cherubim of one piece with the mercy seat. <sup>20</sup> The cherubim are to have wings spread out above, covering the mercy seat with their wings, and are to face one another. The faces of the cherubim should be toward the mercy seat. <sup>21</sup> Set the mercy seat on top of the ark and put the testimony that I will give you into the ark. <sup>22</sup> I will meet with you there above the mercy seat, between the two cherubim that are over the ark of the testimony; I will speak with you from there about all that I command you regarding the Israelites.

The Table

The Lampstand

<sup>31</sup> “You are to make a lampstand out of pure, hammered gold. It is to be made of one piece: its base and shaft, its ornamental cups, and its calyxes and petals. <sup>32</sup> Six branches are to extend from its sides, three branches of the lampstand from one side and three branches of the lampstand from the other side. <sup>33</sup> There are to be three cups shaped like almond blossoms, each with a calyx and petals, on the first branch, and three cups shaped like almond blossoms, each with a calyx and petals, on the next branch. It is to be this way for the six branches that extend from the lampstand. <sup>34</sup> There are to be four cups shaped like almond blossoms on the lampstand shaft along with its calyxes and petals. <sup>35</sup> For the six branches that extend from the lampstand, a calyx must be under the first pair of branches from it, a calyx under the second pair of branches from it, and a calyx under the third pair of branches from it. <sup>36</sup> Their calyxes and branches are to be of one piece. <sup>H</sup> All of it is to be a single hammered piece of pure gold.

EXODUS

The Tabernacle

26 “You are to construct the tabernacle itself with 10 curtains. You must make them of finely spun linen, and blue, purple, and scarlet yarn, with a design of •cherubim worked into them.<sup>2</sup> The length of each curtain should be 42 feet,<sup>A</sup> and the width of each curtain six feet;<sup>B</sup> all the curtains are to have the same measurements.<sup>3</sup> Five of the curtains should be joined together, and the other five curtains joined together.<sup>4</sup> Make loops of blue yarn on the edge of the last curtain<sup>C</sup> in the first set, and do the same on the edge of the outermost curtain in the second set.<sup>5</sup> Make 50 loops on the one curtain and make 50 loops on the edge of the curtain in the second set, so that the loops line up together.<sup>6</sup> Also make 50 gold clasps and join the curtains together with the clasps, so that the tabernacle may be a single unit.

and two bases under the next plank for its two tenons; <sup>20</sup> 20 planks for the second side of the tabernacle, the north side, <sup>21</sup> along with their 40 silver bases, two bases under the first plank and two bases under each plank; <sup>22</sup> and make six planks for the west side of the tabernacle. <sup>23</sup> Make two additional planks for the two back corners of the tabernacle. <sup>24</sup> They are to be paired at the bottom, and joined together <sup>L</sup> at the top in a single ring. So it should be for both of them; they will serve as the two corners. <sup>25</sup> There are to be eight planks with their silver bases: 16 bases; two bases under the first plank and two bases under each plank.

<sup>36</sup> “For the entrance to the tent you are to make a screen embroidered with blue, purple, and scarlet yarn, and finely spun linen. <sup>37</sup> Make five posts of acacia wood for the screen and overlay them with gold; their hooks are to be gold, and you are to cast five bronze bases for them.

EXODUS

The Altar of Burnt Offering

27 “You are to construct the altar of acacia wood. The altar must be square, 7 1/2 feet long, and 7 1/2 feet wide; <sup>A</sup> it must be 4 1/2 feet high. <sup>B</sup> <sup>2</sup> Make horns for it on its four corners; the horns are to be of one piece. <sup>C</sup> Overlay it with bronze. <sup>3</sup> Make its pots for removing ashes, and its shovels, basins, meat forks, and firepans; make all its utensils of bronze. <sup>4</sup> Construct a grate for it of bronze mesh, and make four bronze rings on the mesh at its four corners. <sup>5</sup> Set it below, under the altar’s ledge, so that the mesh comes halfway up <sup>D</sup> the altar. <sup>6</sup> Then make poles for the altar, poles of acacia wood, and overlay them with bronze. <sup>7</sup> The poles are to be inserted into the rings so that the poles are on two sides of the altar when it is carried. <sup>8</sup> Construct the altar with boards so that it is hollow. They are to make it just as it was shown to you on the mountain.

The Courtyard

<sup>9</sup> “You are to make the courtyard for the tabernacle. Make the hangings on the south of the courtyard out of finely spun linen, 150 feet <sup>E</sup> long on that side. <sup>10</sup> There are to be 20 posts and 20 bronze bases. The hooks and bands <sup>F</sup> of the posts must be silver. <sup>11</sup> Then make the hangings on the north side 150 feet <sup>G</sup> long. There are to be 20 posts and 20 bronze bases. The hooks and bands <sup>H</sup> of the posts must be silver. <sup>12</sup> Make the hangings of the courtyard on the west side 75 feet <sup>I</sup> long, including their 10 posts and 10 bases. <sup>13</sup> Make the hangings of the courtyard on the east side toward the sunrise 75 feet. <sup>J</sup> <sup>14</sup> Make the hangings on one side of the gate 22 1/2 feet, <sup>K</sup> including their three posts and their three bases. <sup>15</sup> And make the hangings on the other side 22 1/2 feet, <sup>L</sup> including their three posts and their three bases. <sup>16</sup> The gate of the courtyard is to have a thirty-foot <sup>M</sup> screen embroidered with blue, purple, and scarlet yarn, and finely spun linen. It is to have four posts including their four bases.

<sup>17</sup> “All the posts around the courtyard are to be banded with silver and have silver hooks and bronze bases. <sup>18</sup> The length of the courtyard is to be 150 feet, the width 75 feet at each end, and the height 7 1/2 feet, <sup>N</sup> all of it made of finely spun linen. The bases of the posts must be bronze. <sup>19</sup> All the tools of the tabernacle for every use and all its tent pegs as well as all the tent pegs of the courtyard are to be made of bronze.

The Lampstand Oil

<sup>20</sup> “You are to command the Israelites to bring you pure oil from crushed olives for the light, in order to keep the lamp burning continually. <sup>21</sup> In the tent of meeting outside the veil that is in front of the •testimony, Aaron and his sons are to tend the lamp from evening until morning before the LORD. This is to be a permanent statute for the Israelites throughout their generations.

EXODUS

The Priestly Garments

28 “Have your brother Aaron, with his sons, come to you from the Israelites to serve Me as priest — Aaron, his sons Nadab and Abihu, Eleazar and Ithamar. <sup>2</sup> Make holy garments for your brother Aaron, for glory and beauty. <sup>3</sup> You are to instruct all the skilled craftsmen, <sup>A</sup>, whom I have filled with a spirit of wisdom, to make Aaron’s garments for consecrating him to serve Me as priest. <sup>4</sup> These are the garments that they must make: a breastpiece, an •ephod, a robe, a specially woven tunic, <sup>B</sup> a turban, and a sash. They are to make holy garments for your brother Aaron and his sons so that they may serve Me as priests. <sup>5</sup> They should use <sup>C</sup> gold; blue, purple, and scarlet yarn; and fine linen.

The Ephod

<sup>9</sup> “Take two onyx stones and engrave on them the names of Israel’s sons: <sup>10</sup> six of their names on the first stone and the remaining six names on the second stone, in the order of their birth. <sup>11</sup> Engrave the two stones with the names of Israel’s sons as a gem cutter engraves a seal. Mount them, surrounded with gold filigree settings. <sup>12</sup> Fasten both stones on the shoulder pieces of the ephod as memorial stones for the Israelites. Aaron will carry their names on his two shoulders before the LORD as a reminder. <sup>13</sup> Fashion gold filigree settings <sup>14</sup> and two chains of pure gold; you will make them of braided cord work, and attach the cord chains to the settings.

The Breastpiece

<sup>15</sup> “You are to make an embroidered breastpiece for making decisions. Make it with the same workmanship as the ephod; make it of gold, of blue, purple, and scarlet yarn, and of finely spun linen. <sup>16</sup> It must be square and folded double, nine inches long and nine inches wide. <sup>F 17</sup> Place a setting of gemstones on it, four rows of stones:

The first row should be a row of carnelian, topaz, and emerald; <sup>G</sup>
<sup>19</sup> the third row,
a jacinth, <sup>K</sup> an agate, and an amethyst; <sup>20</sup> and the fourth row,
a beryl, an onyx, and a jasper.

They should be adorned with gold filigree in their settings. <sup>21</sup> The 12 stones are to correspond to the names of Israel's sons. Each stone must be engraved like a seal, with one of the names of the 12 tribes.

<sup>22</sup> "You are to make braided chains of pure gold cord work for the breastpiece. <sup>23</sup> Fashion two gold rings for the breastpiece and attach them to its two corners. <sup>24</sup> Then attach the two gold cords to the two gold rings at the corners of the breastpiece. <sup>25</sup> Attach the other ends of the two cords to the two filigree settings, and in this way attach them to the ephod's shoulder pieces in the front. <sup>26</sup> Make two other gold rings and put them at the two other corners of the breastpiece on the edge that is next to the inner border of the ephod. <sup>27</sup> Make two more gold rings and attach them to the bottom of the ephod's two shoulder pieces on its front, close to its seam, and above the ephod's woven waistband. <sup>28</sup> The craftsmen are to tie the breastpiece from its rings to the rings of the ephod with a cord of blue yarn, so that the breastpiece is above the ephod's waistband and does not come loose from the ephod.

<sup>29</sup> "Whenever he enters the sanctuary, Aaron is to carry the names of Israel's sons over his heart on the breastpiece for decisions, as a continual reminder before the LORD. <sup>30</sup> Place the •Urim and Thummim in the breastpiece for decisions, so that they will also be over Aaron's heart whenever he comes before the LORD. Aaron will continually carry the means of decisions for the Israelites over his heart before the LORD.

The Robe

<sup>31</sup> “You are to make the robe of the ephod entirely of blue yarn. <sup>32</sup> There should be an opening at its top in the center of it. Around the opening, there should be a woven collar with an opening like that of body armor <sup>L</sup> so that it does not tear. <sup>33</sup> Make pomegranates of blue, purple, and scarlet yarn on its lower hem and all around it. Put gold bells between them all the way around, <sup>34</sup> so that gold bells and pomegranates alternate around the lower hem of the robe. <sup>35</sup> The robe must be worn by Aaron whenever he ministers, and its sound will be heard when he enters the sanctuary before the LORD and when he exits, so that he does not die.

The Turban

<sup>36</sup> “You are to make a pure gold medallion and engrave it, like the engraving of a seal:

HOLY TO THE LORD.

<sup>37</sup> Fasten it to a cord of blue yarn so it can be placed on the turban; the medallion is to be on the front of the turban. <sup>38</sup> It will be on Aaron’s forehead so that Aaron may bear the •guilt connected with the holy offerings that the Israelites consecrate as all their holy gifts. It is always to be on his forehead, so that they may find acceptance with the LORD.

Other Priestly Garments

waist <sup>N</sup> to the thighs. <sup>43</sup> These must be worn by Aaron and his sons whenever they enter the tent of meeting or approach the altar to minister in the sanctuary area, so that they do not incur guilt and die. This is to be a permanent statute for Aaron and for his future descendants.

EXODUS

Instructions about Consecration

29 “This is what you are to do for them to consecrate them to serve Me as priests. Take a young bull and two unblemished rams,<sup>2</sup> with unleavened bread, unleavened cakes mixed with oil, and unleavened wafers coated with oil. Make them out of fine wheat flour,<sup>3</sup> put them in a basket, and bring them in the basket, along with the bull and two rams.<sup>4</sup> Bring Aaron and his sons to the entrance to the tent of meeting and wash them with water.<sup>5</sup> Then take the garments and clothe Aaron with the tunic, the robe for the •ephod, the ephod itself, and the breastpiece; fasten the ephod on him with its woven waistband.<sup>6</sup> Put the turban on his head and place the holy diadem on the turban.<sup>7</sup> Take the anointing oil, pour it on his head, and anoint him.<sup>8</sup> You must also bring his sons, clothe them with tunics.<sup>9</sup> Tie the sashes on Aaron and his sons and fasten headbands on them. The priesthood is to be theirs by a permanent statute. This is the way you will ordain Aaron and <sup>A</sup> his sons.

their right hands, and on the big toes of their right feet. Sprinkle the remaining blood on all sides of the altar.<sup>21</sup> Take some of the blood that is on the altar and some of the anointing oil, and sprinkle them on Aaron and his garments, as well as on his sons and their garments. In this way, he and his garments will become holy, as well as his sons and their garments.

<sup>26</sup> “Take the breast from the ram of Aaron’s ordination and wave it as a presentation offering before the LORD; it is to be your portion.<sup>27</sup> Consecrate for Aaron and his sons the breast of the presentation offering that is waved and the thigh of the contribution that is lifted up from the ram of ordination.<sup>28</sup> This will belong to Aaron and his sons as a regular portion from the Israelites, for it is a contribution. It will be the Israelites’ contribution from their •fellowship sacrifices, their contribution to the LORD.

<sup>29</sup> “The holy garments that belong to Aaron are to belong to his sons after him, so that they can be anointed and ordained <sup>C</sup> in them.<sup>30</sup> Any priest who is one of his sons and who succeeds him and enters the tent of meeting to minister in the sanctuary must wear them for seven days.

<sup>31</sup> “You are to take the ram of ordination and boil its flesh in a holy place.<sup>32</sup> Aaron and his sons are to eat the meat of the ram and the bread that is in the basket at the entrance to the tent of meeting.<sup>33</sup> They must eat those things by which •atonement was made at the time of their ordination <sup>D</sup> and consecration. An unauthorized person must not eat them, for these things are holy. <sup>34</sup> If any of the meat of ordination or any of the bread is left until morning, burn up what is left over. It must not be eaten because it is holy.

EXODUS

The Incense Altar

30 “You are to make an altar for the burning of incense; make it of acacia wood. <sup>2</sup> It must be square, 18 inches long and 18 inches wide; <sup>A</sup> it must be 36 inches high. <sup>B</sup> Its horns must be of one piece. <sup>C</sup> <sup>3</sup> Overlay its top, all around its sides, and its horns with pure gold; make a gold molding all around it. <sup>4</sup> Make two gold rings for it under the molding on two of its sides; put these on opposite sides of it to be holders for the poles to carry it with. <sup>5</sup> Make the poles of acacia wood and overlay them with gold.

<sup>6</sup> “You are to place the altar in front of the veil by the ark of the •testimony — in front of the •mercy seat that is over the testimony — where I will meet with you. <sup>7</sup> Aaron must burn fragrant incense on it; he must burn it every morning when he tends the lamps. <sup>8</sup> When Aaron sets up the lamps at twilight, he must burn incense. There is to be an incense offering before the LORD throughout your generations. <sup>9</sup> You must not offer unauthorized incense on it, or a •burnt or •grain offering; you are not to pour a •drink offering on it.

The Atonement Money

<sup>11</sup> The LORD spoke to Moses: <sup>12</sup> “When you take a census of the Israelites to register them, each of the men must pay a ransom for himself to the LORD as they are registered. Then no plague will come on them as they are registered. <sup>13</sup> Everyone who is registered must pay half a •shekel according to the sanctuary shekel (20 gerahs to the shekel). This half shekel is a contribution to the LORD. <sup>14</sup> Each man who is registered, 20 years old or more, must give this contribution to the LORD. <sup>15</sup> The wealthy may not give more and the poor may not give less than half a shekel when giving the contribution to the LORD to atone for <sup>G</sup> your lives. <sup>16</sup> Take the atonement money <sup>H</sup> from the Israelites and use it for the service of the tent of meeting.

It will serve as a reminder for the Israelites before the LORD to atone for<sup>I</sup> your lives.”

The Bronze Basin

The Anointing Oil

<sup>31</sup> “Tell the Israelites: This will be My holy anointing oil throughout your generations. <sup>32</sup> It must not be used for ordinary anointing on a person’s body, and you must not make anything like it using its formula. It is holy, and it must be holy to you. <sup>33</sup> Anyone who blends something like it or puts some of it on an unauthorized person must be cut off from his people.”

The Sacred Incense

<sup>34</sup> The LORD said to Moses: “Take fragrant spices: stacte, onycha, and galbanum; the spices and pure frankincense are to be in equal measures.

<sup>35</sup> Prepare expertly blended incense from these; it is to be seasoned with salt, pure and holy. <sup>36</sup> Grind some of it into a fine powder and put some in front of the testimony in the tent of meeting, where I will meet with you. It must be especially holy to you. <sup>37</sup> As for the incense you are making, you must not make any for yourselves using its formula. It is to be regarded by you as sacred to the LORD. <sup>38</sup> Anyone who makes something like it to smell its fragrance must be cut off from his people.”

EXODUS

God's Provision of the Skilled Workers

31 The LORD also spoke to Moses: <sup>2</sup> “Look, I have appointed by name Bezalel son of Uri, son of Hur, of the tribe of Judah. <sup>3</sup> I have filled him with God’s Spirit, with wisdom, understanding, and ability in every craft <sup>4</sup> to design artistic works in gold, silver, and bronze, <sup>5</sup> to cut gemstones for mounting, and to carve wood for work in every craft. <sup>6</sup> I have also selected Oholiab son of Ahisamach, of the tribe of Dan, to be with him. I have placed wisdom within every skilled craftsman <sup>A</sup> in order to make all that I have commanded you: <sup>7</sup> the tent of meeting, the ark of the •testimony, the •mercy seat that is on top of it, and all the other furnishings of the tent — <sup>8</sup> the table with its utensils, the pure gold lampstand with all its utensils, the altar of incense, <sup>9</sup> the altar of •burnt offering with all its utensils, the basin with its stand — <sup>10</sup> the specially woven <sup>B</sup> garments, both the holy garments for Aaron the priest and the garments for his sons to serve as priests, <sup>11</sup> the anointing oil, and the fragrant incense for the sanctuary. They must make them according to all that I have commanded you.”

Observing the Sabbath

<sup>12</sup> The LORD said to Moses: <sup>13</sup> “Tell the Israelites: You must observe My Sabbaths, for it is a sign between Me and you throughout your generations, so that you will know that I am •Yahweh who sets you apart. <sup>14†</sup> Observe the Sabbath, for it is holy to you. Whoever profanes it must be put to death. If anyone does work on it, that person must be cut off from his people. <sup>15</sup> Work may be done for six days, but on the seventh day there must be a Sabbath of complete rest, dedicated to the LORD. Anyone who does work on the Sabbath day must be put to death. <sup>16</sup> The Israelites must observe the Sabbath, celebrating it throughout their generations as a perpetual covenant. <sup>17</sup> It is a sign forever between Me and the Israelites, for in six days the LORD made the heavens and the earth, but on the seventh day He rested and was refreshed.”

Exodus 31:12-17

According to the Seventh-day Adventists and other sabbatarian sects, the fourth commandment is an eternal decree to be obeyed by all throughout the ages. Since the Sabbath is Saturday, the sabbatarians deduce that Christians should be worshipping on the seventh day of the week, not the first. This passage, however, was not addressed to the church but to the children of Israel. Being under the new covenant, Christians are freed from the law of Moses (Rm 6:14; 14:5; Gl 3:24). The primitive church worshiped on the first day of the week (Ac 20:7; 1 Co 16:1-2), commemorating the resurrection of the Lord Jesus Christ.

The Two Stone Tablets

<sup>18†</sup> When He finished speaking with Moses on Mount Sinai, He gave him the two tablets of the testimony, stone tablets inscribed by the finger of God.

EXODUS

The Gold Calf

32 When the people saw that Moses delayed in coming down from the mountain, they gathered around Aaron and said to him, “Come, make us a god <sup>A</sup> who will go before us because this Moses, the man who brought us up from the land of Egypt — we don’t know what has happened to him! ”

<sup>2</sup> Then Aaron replied to them, “Take off the gold rings that are on the ears of your wives, your sons, and your daughters and bring them to me.”

<sup>3</sup> So all the people took off the gold rings that were on their ears and brought them to Aaron. <sup>4</sup> He took the gold from their hands, fashioned it with an engraving tool, and made it into an image of a calf.

Then they said, “Israel, this is your God, <sup>B</sup> who brought you up from the land of Egypt! ”

<sup>5</sup> When Aaron saw this, he built an altar before it; then he made an announcement: “There will be a festival to the LORD tomorrow.” <sup>6</sup> Early the next morning they arose, offered •burnt offerings, and presented •fellowship offerings. The people sat down to eat and drink, then got up to play.

<sup>7</sup> The LORD spoke to Moses: “Go down at once! For your people you brought up from the land of Egypt have acted corruptly. <sup>8</sup> They have quickly turned from the way I commanded them; they have made for themselves an image of a calf. They have bowed down to it, sacrificed to it, and said, ‘Israel, this is your God, <sup>C</sup> who brought you up from the land of Egypt.’ ” <sup>9</sup> The LORD also said to Moses: “I have seen this people, and they are indeed a stiff-necked people. <sup>10</sup> Now leave Me alone, so that My anger can burn against them and I can destroy them. Then I will make you into a great nation.”

<sup>11</sup> But Moses interceded with the LORD his God: “LORD, why does Your anger burn against Your people You brought out of the land of Egypt with great power and a strong hand? <sup>12</sup> Why should the Egyptians say, ‘He brought them out with an evil intent to kill them in the mountains and wipe them off the face of the earth’? Turn from Your great anger and relent concerning this disaster planned for Your people. <sup>13</sup> Remember Your servants Abraham, Isaac, and Israel — You swore to them by Your very self and declared, ‘I will make your •offspring as numerous as the stars of the sky and will give your offspring all this land that I have promised, and they will inherit it forever.’ ” <sup>14†</sup> So the LORD relented concerning the disaster He said He would bring on His people.

<sup>15</sup> Then Moses turned and went down the mountain with the two tablets of the •testimony in his hands. They were inscribed on both sides — inscribed front and back. <sup>16</sup> The tablets were the work of God, and the writing was God’s writing, engraved on the tablets.

<sup>17</sup> When Joshua heard the sound of the people as they shouted, he said to Moses, “There is a sound of war in the camp.”

It’s not the sound of a victory cry and not the sound of a cry of defeat;
I hear the sound of singing!

<sup>19</sup> As he approached the camp and saw the calf and the dancing, Moses became enraged and threw the tablets out of his hands, smashing them at the base of the mountain. <sup>20</sup> Then he took the calf they had made, burned it up, and ground it to powder. He scattered the powder over the surface of the water and forced the Israelites to drink the water.

<sup>21</sup> Then Moses asked Aaron, “What did these people do to you that you have led them into such a grave sin? ”

<sup>22</sup> “Don’t be enraged, my lord,” Aaron replied. “You yourself know that the people are intent on evil. <sup>23</sup> They said to me, ‘Make us a god <sup>D</sup> who will go before us because this Moses, the man who brought us up from the land of Egypt — we don’t know what has happened to him! ’ <sup>24</sup> So I said to them, ‘Whoever has gold, take it off,’ and they gave it to me. When I threw it into the fire, out came this calf! ”

<sup>28</sup> The Levites did as Moses commanded, and about 3,000 men fell dead that day among the people. <sup>29</sup> Afterward Moses said, "Today you have been dedicated to the LORD, since each man went against his son and his brother. Therefore you have brought a blessing on yourselves today."

<sup>30</sup> The following day Moses said to the people, "You have committed a grave sin. Now I will go up to the LORD; perhaps I will be able to atone for your sin."

<sup>31</sup> So Moses returned to the LORD and said, "Oh, these people have committed a grave sin; they have made a god of gold for themselves. <sup>32†</sup> Now if You would only forgive their sin. But if not, please erase me from the book You have written."

<sup>33</sup> The LORD replied to Moses: "I will erase whoever has sinned against Me from My book. <sup>34</sup> Now go, lead the people to the place I told you about; see, My angel will go before you. But on the day I settle accounts, I will hold them accountable for their sin." <sup>35</sup> And the LORD inflicted a plague on the people for what they did with the calf Aaron had made.

EXODUS

The Tent Outside the Camp

33 The LORD spoke to Moses: “Go, leave here, you and the people you brought up from the land of Egypt, to the land I promised to Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob, saying: I will give it to your •offspring.<sup>2</sup> I will send an angel ahead of you and will drive out the Canaanites, Amorites, Hittites, Perizzites, Hivites, and Jebusites.<sup>3</sup> Go up to a land flowing with milk and honey. But I will not go with you because you are a stiff-necked people; otherwise, I might destroy you on the way.”<sup>4</sup> When the people heard this bad news, they mourned and didn’t put on their jewelry.

<sup>5</sup> For the LORD said to Moses: “Tell the Israelites: You are a stiff-necked people. If I went with you for a single moment, I would destroy you. Now take off your jewelry, and I will decide what to do with you.”<sup>6</sup> So the Israelites remained stripped of their jewelry from Mount Horeb onward.

<sup>7</sup> Now Moses took a tent and set it up outside the camp, far away from the camp; he called it the tent of meeting. Anyone who wanted to consult the LORD would go to the tent of meeting that was outside the camp.

<sup>8</sup> Whenever Moses went out to the tent, all the people would stand up, each one at the door of his tent, and they would watch Moses until he entered the tent.<sup>9</sup> When Moses entered the tent, the pillar of cloud would come down and remain at the entrance to the tent, and the LORD would speak with Moses.<sup>10</sup> As all the people saw the pillar of cloud remaining at the entrance to the tent, they would stand up, then bow in worship, each one at the door of his tent.<sup>11†</sup> The LORD spoke with Moses face to face, just as a man speaks with his friend. Then Moses would return to the camp, but his assistant, the young man Joshua son of Nun, would not leave the inside of the tent.

The LORD’s Glory

<sup>12</sup> Moses said to the LORD, “Look, You have told me, ‘Lead this people up,’ but You have not let me know whom You will send with me. You said, ‘I know you by name, and you have also found favor in My sight.’<sup>13</sup> Now if I have indeed found favor in Your sight, please teach me Your ways, and I will know You and find favor in Your sight. Now consider that this nation is Your people.”

<sup>14</sup> Then He replied, “My presence will go with you, and I will give you rest.”

<sup>15</sup> “If Your presence does not go,” Moses responded to Him, “don’t make us go up from here. <sup>16</sup> How will it be known that I and Your people have found favor in Your sight unless You go with us? I and Your people will be distinguished by this from all the other people on the face of the earth.”

<sup>17</sup> The LORD answered Moses, “I will do this very thing you have asked, for you have found favor in My sight, and I know you by name.”

<sup>19</sup> He said, “I will cause all My goodness to pass in front of you, and I will proclaim the name •Yahweh before you. I will be gracious to whom I will be gracious, and I will have compassion on whom I will have compassion.” <sup>20</sup> But He answered, “You cannot see My face, for no one can see Me and live.” <sup>21</sup> The LORD said, “Here is a place near Me. You are to stand on the rock, <sup>22</sup> and when My glory passes by, I will put you in the crevice of the rock and cover you with My hand until I have passed by. <sup>23</sup> Then I will take My hand away, and you will see My back, but My face will not be seen.”

EXODUS

New Stone Tablets

34 The LORD said to Moses, “Cut two stone tablets like the first ones, and I will write on them the words that were on the first tablets, which you broke. <sup>2</sup> Be prepared by morning. Come up Mount Sinai in the morning and stand before Me on the mountaintop. <sup>3</sup> No one may go up with you; in fact, no one must be seen anywhere on the mountain. Even the flocks and herds are not to graze in front of that mountain.”

<sup>4</sup> Moses cut two stone tablets like the first ones. He got up early in the morning, and taking the two stone tablets in his hand, he climbed Mount Sinai, just as the LORD had commanded him.

Yahweh — Yahweh is a compassionate and gracious God, slow to anger and rich in faithful love and truth, <sup>7</sup> maintaining faithful love to a thousand generations, forgiving wrongdoing, rebellion, and sin. But He will not leave the •guilty unpunished, bringing the consequences of the fathers’ wrongdoing on the children and grandchildren to the third and fourth generation.

<sup>8</sup> Moses immediately bowed down to the ground and worshiped. <sup>9</sup> Then he said, “My Lord, if I have indeed found favor in Your sight, my Lord, please go with us. Even though this is a stiff-necked people, forgive our wrongdoing and sin, and accept us as Your own possession.”

Covenant Obligations

<sup>10</sup> And the LORD responded: “Look, I am making a covenant. I will perform wonders in the presence of all your people <sup>A</sup> that have never been done <sup>B</sup> in all the earth or in any nation. All the people you live among will see the LORD’s work, for what I am doing with you is awe-inspiring.

<sup>11</sup> Observe what I command you today. I am going to drive out before you the Amorites, Canaanites, Hittites, Perizzites, Hivites, and Jebusites. <sup>12</sup> Be careful not to make a treaty with the inhabitants of the land that you are going to enter; otherwise, they will become a snare among you. <sup>13</sup> Instead, you must tear down their altars, smash their sacred pillars, and chop down their •Asherah poles. <sup>14†</sup> You are never to bow down to another god because Yahweh, being jealous by nature, <sup>C</sup> is a jealous God.

<sup>15</sup> “Do not make a treaty with the inhabitants of the land, or else when they prostitute themselves with their gods and sacrifice to their gods, they will invite you, and you will eat their sacrifices. <sup>16</sup> Then you will take some of their daughters as brides for your sons. Their daughters will prostitute themselves with their gods and cause your sons to prostitute themselves with their gods.

<sup>18</sup> “Observe the Festival of •Unleavened Bread. You are to eat unleavened bread for seven days at the appointed time in the month of Abib as I commanded you. For you came out of Egypt in the month of Abib.

<sup>19</sup> “The firstborn male from every womb belongs to Me, including all your male livestock, the firstborn of cattle or sheep. <sup>20</sup> You must redeem the firstborn of a donkey with a sheep, but if you do not redeem it, break its neck. You must redeem all the firstborn of your sons. No one is to appear before Me empty-handed.

<sup>27</sup> The LORD also said to Moses, “Write down these words, for I have made a covenant with you and with Israel based on these words.”

<sup>28</sup> Moses was there with the LORD 40 days and 40 nights; he did not eat bread or drink water. He wrote the Ten Commandments, the words of the covenant, on the tablets.

Moses’ Radiant Face

<sup>29†</sup> As Moses descended from Mount Sinai — with the two tablets of the •testimony in his hands as he descended the mountain — he did not realize that the skin of his face shone as a result of his speaking with the LORD. <sup>F</sup>, <sup>30</sup> When Aaron and all the Israelites saw Moses, the skin of his face shone! They were afraid to come near him. <sup>31</sup> But Moses called out to them, so Aaron and all the leaders of the community returned to him, and Moses spoke to them. <sup>32</sup> Afterward all the Israelites came near, and he commanded them to do everything the LORD had told him on Mount Sinai. <sup>33</sup> When Moses had finished speaking with them, he put a veil over his face. <sup>34</sup> But whenever Moses went before the LORD to speak with Him, he would remove the veil until he came out. After he came out, he would tell the Israelites what he had been commanded, <sup>35</sup> and the Israelites would see that Moses’ face <sup>G</sup> was radiant. Then Moses would put the veil over his face again until he went to speak with the LORD.

EXODUS

The Sabbath Command

35 Moses assembled the entire Israelite community and said to them, “These are the things that the LORD has commanded you to do: <sup>2†</sup> For six days work is to be done, but on the seventh day you are to have a holy day, a Sabbath of complete rest to the LORD. Anyone who does work on it must be executed. <sup>3</sup> Do not light a fire in any of your homes on the Sabbath day.”

Building the Tabernacle

<sup>4</sup> Then Moses said to the entire Israelite community, “This is what the LORD has commanded: <sup>5</sup> Take up an offering among you for the LORD. Let everyone whose heart is willing bring this as the LORD’s offering: gold, silver, and bronze; <sup>6</sup> blue, purple, and scarlet yarn; fine linen and goat hair; <sup>7</sup> ram skins dyed red and manatee skins; <sup>A</sup> acacia wood; <sup>8</sup> oil for the light; spices for the anointing oil and for the fragrant incense; <sup>9</sup> and onyx with gemstones to mount on the •ephod and breastpiece.

services, and for the holy garments. <sup>22</sup> Both men and women came; all who had willing hearts brought brooches, earrings, rings, necklaces, and all kinds of gold jewelry — everyone who waved a presentation offering of gold to the LORD. <sup>23</sup> Everyone who had in his possession blue, purple, or scarlet yarn, fine linen or goat hair, ram skins dyed red or manatee skins, <sup>D</sup> brought them. <sup>24</sup> Everyone making an offering of silver or bronze brought it as a contribution to the LORD. Everyone who possessed acacia wood useful for any task in the work brought it. <sup>25</sup> Every skilled <sup>E</sup> woman spun yarn with her hands and brought it: blue, purple, and scarlet yarn, and fine linen. <sup>26</sup> And all the women whose hearts were moved spun the goat hair by virtue of their skill. <sup>27</sup> The leaders brought onyx and gemstones to mount on the ephod and breastpiece, <sup>28</sup> as well as the spice and oil for the light, for the anointing oil, and for the fragrant incense. <sup>29</sup> So the Israelites brought a freewill offering to the LORD, all the men and women whose hearts prompted them to bring something for all the work that the LORD, through Moses, had commanded to be done.

Bezalel and Oholiab

<sup>30</sup> Moses then said to the Israelites: “Look, the LORD has appointed by name Bezalel son of Uri, son of Hur, of the tribe of Judah. <sup>31</sup> He has filled him with God’s Spirit, with wisdom, understanding, and ability in every kind of craft <sup>32</sup> to design artistic works in gold, silver, and bronze, <sup>33</sup> to cut gemstones for mounting, and to carve wood for work in every kind of artistic craft. <sup>34</sup> He has also given both him and Oholiab son of Ahisamach, of the tribe of Dan, the ability to teach others. <sup>35</sup> He has filled them with skill <sup>F</sup> to do all the work of a gem cutter; a designer; an embroiderer in blue, purple, and scarlet yarn and fine linen; and a weaver. They can do every kind of craft and design artistic designs.

EXODUS

36 Bezalel, Oholiab, and all the skilled <sup>A</sup> people are to work based on everything the LORD has commanded. The LORD has given them wisdom and understanding to know how to do all the work of constructing the sanctuary.”

<sup>2</sup> So Moses summoned Bezalel, Oholiab, and every skilled <sup>B</sup> person in whose heart the LORD had placed wisdom, everyone whose heart moved him, to come to the work and do it. <sup>3</sup> They took from Moses’ presence all the contributions that the Israelites had brought for the task of making the sanctuary. Meanwhile, the people continued to bring freewill offerings morning after morning.

<sup>4</sup> Then all the craftsmen who were doing all the work for the sanctuary came one by one from the work they were doing <sup>5</sup> and said to Moses, “The people are bringing more than is needed for the construction of the work the LORD commanded to be done.”

<sup>6</sup> After Moses gave an order, they sent a proclamation throughout the camp: “Let no man or woman make anything else as an offering for the sanctuary.” So the people stopped. <sup>7</sup> The materials were sufficient for them to do all the work. There was more than enough.

Building the Tabernacle

<sup>8</sup> All the skilled craftsmen <sup>C</sup> among those doing the work made the tabernacle with 10 curtains. Bezalel made them of finely spun linen, as well as blue, purple, and scarlet yarn, with a design of •cherubim worked into them. <sup>9</sup> The length of each curtain was 42 feet, <sup>D</sup> and the width of each curtain six feet; <sup>E</sup> all the curtains had the same measurements. <sup>10</sup> He joined five of the curtains to each other, and the other five curtains he joined to each other. <sup>11</sup> He made loops of blue yarn on the edge of the last curtain in the first set and did the same on the edge of the outermost curtain in the second set. <sup>12</sup> He made 50 loops on the one curtain and 50 loops on the edge of the curtain in the second set, so that the loops lined up with each other. <sup>13</sup> He also made 50 gold clasps and joined the curtains to each other, so that the tabernacle became a single unit.

<sup>35</sup> Then he made the veil with blue, purple, and scarlet yarn, and finely spun linen. He made it with a design of cherubim worked into it. <sup>36</sup> He made four posts of acacia wood for it and overlaid them with gold; their hooks were of gold. And he cast four silver bases for the posts.

<sup>37</sup> He made a screen embroidered with blue, purple, and scarlet yarn, and finely spun linen for the entrance to the tent, <sup>38</sup> together with its five posts and their hooks. He overlaid the tops of the posts and their bands with gold, but their five bases were bronze.

EXODUS

Making the Ark

37 † Bezalel made the ark of acacia wood, 45 inches long, 27 inches wide, and 27 inches high. <sup>A</sup> <sup>2</sup> He overlaid it with pure gold inside and out and made a gold molding all around it. <sup>3</sup> He cast four gold rings for it, for its four feet, two rings on one side and two rings on the other side. <sup>4</sup> He made poles of acacia wood and overlaid them with gold. <sup>5</sup> He inserted the poles into the rings on the sides of the ark for carrying the ark.

Making the Table

Making the Lampstand

<sup>17</sup> Then he made the lampstand out of pure hammered gold. He made it all of one piece: its base and shaft, its ornamental cups, and its calyxes and petals. <sup>18</sup> Six branches extended from its sides, three branches of the lampstand from one side and three branches of the lampstand from the other side. <sup>19</sup> There were three cups shaped like almond blossoms, each with a calyx and petals, on the first branch, and three cups shaped like almond blossoms, each with a calyx and petals, on the next branch. It was this way for the six branches that extended from the lampstand.<sup>20</sup> On the lampstand shaft there were four cups shaped like almond blossoms with its calyxes and petals.<sup>21</sup> For the six branches that extended from it, a calyx was under the first pair of branches from it, a calyx under the second pair of branches from it, and a calyx under the third pair of branches from it.<sup>22</sup> Their calyxes and branches were of one piece.<sup>E</sup> All of it was a single hammered piece of pure gold.<sup>23</sup> He also made its seven lamps, snuffers, and firepans of pure gold.<sup>24</sup> He made it and all its utensils of 75 pounds<sup>F</sup> of pure gold.

Making the Altar of Incense

<sup>25</sup> He made the altar of incense out of acacia wood. It was square, 18 inches long and 18 inches wide; it was 36 inches high.<sup>G</sup> Its horns were of one piece.<sup>H</sup><sup>26</sup> He overlaid it, its top, all around its sides, and its horns with pure gold. Then he made a gold molding all around it.<sup>27</sup> He made two gold rings for it under the molding on two of its sides; he put these on opposite sides of it to be holders for the poles to carry it with.<sup>28</sup> He made the poles of acacia wood and overlaid them with gold.

<sup>29</sup> He also made the holy anointing oil and the pure, fragrant, and expertly blended incense.

EXODUS

Making the Altar of Burnt Offering

38 Bezalel constructed the altar of •burnt offering from acacia wood. It was square, 7 1/2 feet long and 7 1/2 feet wide, <sup>A</sup> and was 4 1/2 feet <sup>B</sup> high. <sup>2</sup> He made horns for it on its four corners; the horns were of one piece. <sup>C</sup> Then he overlaid it with bronze.

Making the Bronze Basin

<sup>8</sup> He made the bronze basin and its stand from the bronze mirrors of the women who served at the entrance to the tent of meeting.

Making the Courtyard

<sup>9</sup> Then he made the courtyard. The hangings on the south side of the courtyard were of finely spun linen, 150 feet in length, <sup>E</sup> <sup>10</sup> including their 20 posts and 20 bronze bases. The hooks and bands <sup>F</sup> of the posts were silver. <sup>11</sup> The hangings on the north side were also 150 feet in length, <sup>G</sup> including their 20 posts and 20 bronze bases. The hooks and bands <sup>H</sup> of the posts were silver. <sup>12</sup> The hangings on the west side were 75 feet in length, <sup>I</sup> including their 10 posts and 10 bases. The hooks and bands of the posts were silver. <sup>13</sup> The hangings on the east toward the sunrise were also 75 feet in length. <sup>J</sup> <sup>14</sup> The hangings on one side of the gate were 22 1/2 feet, <sup>K</sup> including their three posts and three bases. <sup>15</sup> It was the same for the other side. The hangings were 22 1/2 feet, <sup>L</sup> including their three posts and three bases on both sides of the courtyard gate. <sup>16</sup> All the hangings around the courtyard were of finely spun linen. <sup>17</sup> The bases for the posts were bronze;

the hooks and bands <sup>M</sup> of the posts were silver; and the plating for the tops of the posts was silver. All the posts of the courtyard were banded with silver.

Inventory of Materials

altar and its bronze grate, all the utensils for the altar, <sup>31</sup> the bases for the surrounding courtyard, the bases for the gate of the courtyard, all the tent pegs for the tabernacle, and all the tent pegs for the surrounding courtyard.

EXODUS

Making the Priestly Garments

39 They made specially woven <sup>A</sup> garments for ministry in the sanctuary, and the holy garments for Aaron from the blue, purple, and scarlet yarn, just as the LORD had commanded Moses.

Making the Ephod

<sup>6</sup> Then they mounted the onyx stones surrounded with gold filigree settings, engraved with the names of Israel's sons as a gem cutter engraves a seal. <sup>7</sup> He fastened them on the shoulder pieces of the ephod as memorial stones for the Israelites, just as the LORD had commanded Moses.

Making the Breastpiece

<sup>8</sup> He also made the embroidered breastpiece with the same workmanship as the ephod of gold, of blue, purple, and scarlet yarn, and of finely spun linen. <sup>9</sup> They made the breastpiece square and folded double, nine inches long and nine inches wide. <sup>B</sup> <sup>10</sup> They mounted four rows of gemstones on it. The first row was a row of carnelian, topaz, and emerald; <sup>C</sup> <sup>11</sup> the second row, a turquoise, <sup>D</sup> a sapphire, <sup>E</sup> and a diamond; <sup>F</sup> <sup>12</sup> the third row, a jacinth, <sup>G</sup> an agate, and an amethyst; <sup>13</sup> and the fourth row, a beryl, an onyx, and a jasper. They were surrounded with gold filigree in their settings.

<sup>16</sup> They also fashioned two gold filigree settings and two gold rings and attached the two rings to its two corners. <sup>17</sup> Then they attached the two gold cords to the two gold rings on the corners of the breastpiece. <sup>18</sup> They attached the other ends of the two cords to the two filigree settings and, in this way, attached them to the ephod's shoulder pieces in front. <sup>19</sup> They made two other gold rings and put them at the two other corners of the breastpiece on the edge that is next to the inner border of the ephod. <sup>20</sup> They made two more gold rings and attached them to the bottom of the ephod's two shoulder pieces on its front, close to its seam, above the ephod's woven waistband. <sup>21</sup> Then they tied the breastpiece from its rings to the rings of the ephod with a cord of blue yarn, so that the breastpiece was above the ephod's waistband and did not come loose from the ephod. They did just as the LORD had commanded Moses.

Making the Robe

The Other Priestly Garments

<sup>27</sup> They made the tunics of fine woven linen for Aaron and his sons. <sup>28</sup> They also made the turban and the ornate headbands <sup>J</sup> of fine linen, the undergarments, <sup>29</sup> and the sash of finely spun linen of embroidered blue, purple, and scarlet yarn. They did just as the LORD had commanded Moses.

Making the Holy Diadem

<sup>30</sup> They also made a medallion, the holy diadem, out of pure gold and wrote on it an inscription like the engraving on a seal:

HOLY TO THE LORD.

<sup>31</sup> Then they attached a cord of blue yarn to it in order to mount it on the turban, just as the LORD had commanded Moses.

Moses' Inspection of the Tabernacle

<sup>32</sup> So all the work for the tabernacle, the tent of meeting, was finished. The Israelites did everything just as the LORD had commanded Moses.

EXODUS

Setting up the Tabernacle

40 The LORD spoke to Moses: <sup>2</sup> “You are to set up the tabernacle, the tent of meeting, on the first day of the first month. <sup>A</sup>, <sup>3</sup> Put the ark of the •testimony there and screen off the ark with the veil. <sup>4</sup> Then bring in the table and lay out its arrangement; also bring in the lampstand and set up its lamps. <sup>5</sup> Place the gold altar for incense in front of the ark of the testimony. Put up the screen for the entrance to the tabernacle. <sup>6</sup> Position the altar of burnt offering in front of the entrance to the tabernacle, the tent of meeting. <sup>7</sup> Place the basin between the tent of meeting and the altar, and put water in it. <sup>8</sup> Assemble the surrounding courtyard and hang the screen for the gate of the courtyard.

<sup>9</sup> “Take the anointing oil and anoint the tabernacle and everything in it; consecrate it along with all its furnishings so that it will be holy. <sup>10</sup> Anoint the altar of burnt offering and all its utensils; consecrate the altar so that it will be especially holy. <sup>11</sup> Anoint the basin and its stand and consecrate it.

<sup>20†</sup> Moses took the testimony and placed it in the ark, and attached the poles to the ark. He set the •mercy seat on top of the ark. <sup>21</sup> He brought the ark into the tabernacle, put up the veil for the screen, and screened off the ark of the testimony, just as the LORD had commanded him.

<sup>30</sup> He set the basin between the tent of meeting and the altar and put water in it for washing. <sup>31</sup> Moses, Aaron, and his sons washed their hands and feet from it. <sup>32</sup> They washed whenever they came to the tent of meeting and approached the altar, just as the LORD had commanded Moses.

<sup>33</sup> Next Moses set up the surrounding courtyard for the tabernacle and the altar and hung a screen for the gate of the courtyard. So Moses finished the work.

The LORD's Glory

<sup>34</sup> The cloud covered the tent of meeting, and the glory of the LORD filled the tabernacle. <sup>35</sup> Moses was unable to enter the tent of meeting because the cloud rested on it, and the glory of the LORD filled the tabernacle.

The Burnt Offering

1 †Then the LORD summoned Moses and spoke to him from the tent of meeting: 2† “Speak to the Israelites and tell them: When any of you brings an offering to the LORD from the livestock, you <sup>A</sup> may bring your offering from the herd or the flock.

3† “If his gift is a •burnt offering from the herd, he is to bring an unblemished male. He must bring it to the entrance to the tent of meeting so that he <sup>B</sup> may be accepted by the LORD. 4† He is to lay his hand on the head of the burnt offering so it can be accepted on his behalf to make •atonement for him. 5† He is to slaughter the bull before the LORD; Aaron’s sons the priests are to present the blood and sprinkle it on all sides of the altar that is at the entrance to the tent of meeting. 6† Then he must skin the burnt offering and cut it into pieces. <sup>C</sup> 7 The sons of Aaron the priest will prepare a fire on the altar and arrange wood on the fire. 8 Aaron’s sons the priests are to arrange the pieces, the head, and the suet on top of the burning wood on the altar. 9† The offerer must wash its entrails and shanks with water. Then the priest will burn all of it on the altar as a burnt offering, a fire offering of a pleasing aroma to the LORD.

10 “But if his gift for a burnt offering is from the flock, from sheep or goats, he is to present an unblemished male. 11 He will slaughter it on the north side of the altar before the LORD. Aaron’s sons the priests will sprinkle its blood against the altar on all sides. 12 He will cut the animal into pieces <sup>D</sup> with its head and its suet, and the priest will arrange them on top of the burning wood on the altar. 13 But he is to wash the entrails and shanks with water. The priest will then present all of it and burn it on the altar; it is a burnt offering, a fire offering of a pleasing aroma to the LORD.

14† “If his gift to the LORD is a burnt offering of birds, he is to present his offering from the turtledoves or young pigeons. <sup>E</sup>, 15† Then the priest must bring it to the altar, and must twist off its head and burn it on the altar; its blood should be drained at the side of the altar. 16 He will remove its digestive tract, <sup>F</sup> cutting off the tail feathers, and throw it on the east side of the altar at the place for ashes. 17† He will tear it open by its wings without dividing the bird. Then the priest is to burn it on the altar on top of the burning wood. It is a burnt offering, a fire offering of a pleasing aroma to the LORD.

LEVITICUS

The Grain Offering

2 “When anyone presents a •grain offering as a gift to the LORD, his gift must consist of fine flour. He is to pour olive oil on it, put frankincense on it, <sup>2</sup> and bring it to Aaron’s sons the priests. The priest will take a handful of fine flour and oil from it, along with all its frankincense, and will burn this memorial portion of it on the altar, a fire offering of a pleasing aroma to the LORD. <sup>3</sup> But the rest of the grain offering will belong to Aaron and his sons; it is the holiest part of the fire offerings to the LORD.

<sup>11†</sup> “No grain offering that you present to the LORD is to be made with yeast, for you are not to burn any yeast or honey as a fire offering to the LORD. <sup>12</sup> You may present them to the LORD as an offering of •firstfruits, but they are not to be offered on the altar as a pleasing aroma. <sup>13†</sup> You are to season each of your grain offerings with salt; you must not omit from your grain offering the salt of the covenant with your God. You are to present salt with each of your offerings.

<sup>14</sup> “If you present a grain offering of firstfruits to the LORD, you must present fresh heads of grain, crushed kernels, roasted on the fire, for your grain offering of firstfruits. <sup>15</sup> You are to put oil and frankincense on it; it is a grain offering. <sup>16</sup> The priest will then burn some of its crushed kernels and oil with all its frankincense as a fire offering to the LORD.

LEVITICUS

The Fellowship Offering

3 †“If his offering is a •fellowship sacrifice, and he is presenting an animal from the herd, whether male or female, he must present one without blemish before the LORD. <sup>2</sup> He is to lay his hand on the head of his offering and slaughter it at the entrance to the tent of meeting. Then Aaron’s sons the priests will sprinkle the blood on all sides of the altar. <sup>3†</sup> He will present part of the fellowship sacrifice as a fire offering to the LORD: the fat surrounding the entrails, all the fat that is on the entrails, <sup>4†</sup> and the two kidneys with the fat on them at the loins; he will also remove the fatty lobe of the liver with the kidneys. <sup>5</sup> Aaron’s sons will burn it on the altar along with the •burnt offering that is on the burning wood, a fire offering of a pleasing aroma to the LORD.

<sup>6</sup> “If his offering as a fellowship sacrifice to the LORD is from the flock, he must present a male or female without blemish. <sup>7</sup> If he is presenting a lamb for his offering, he is to present it before the LORD. <sup>8</sup> He must lay his hand on the head of his offering, then slaughter it before the tent of meeting. Aaron’s sons will sprinkle its blood on all sides of the altar. <sup>9</sup> He will then present part of the fellowship sacrifice as a fire offering to the LORD consisting of its fat and the entire fat tail, which he is to remove close to the backbone. He will also remove the fat surrounding the entrails, all the fat on the entrails, <sup>10</sup> the two kidneys with the fat on them at the loins, and the fatty lobe of the liver above the kidneys. <sup>11</sup> Then the priest will burn the food on the altar, as a fire offering to the LORD.

“All fat belongs to the LORD. <sup>17</sup> This is a permanent statute throughout your generations, wherever you live: you must not eat any fat or any blood.”

LEVITICUS

The Sin Offering

4 Then the LORD spoke to Moses: <sup>2†</sup> “Tell the Israelites: When someone sins unintentionally against any of the LORD’s commands and does anything prohibited by them —

<sup>3</sup> “If the anointed priest sins, bringing •guilt on the people, he is to present to the LORD a young, unblemished bull as a •sin<sup>A</sup> offering for the sin he has committed. <sup>4</sup> He must bring the bull to the entrance to the tent of meeting before the LORD, lay his hand on the bull’s head, and slaughter it before the LORD. <sup>5</sup> The anointed priest must then take some of the bull’s blood and bring it into the tent of meeting. <sup>6</sup> The priest is to dip his finger in the blood and sprinkle some of it seven times before the LORD in front of the veil of the sanctuary. <sup>7†</sup> The priest must apply some of the blood to the horns of the altar of fragrant incense that is before the LORD in the tent of meeting. He must pour out the rest of the bull’s blood at the base of the altar of burnt offering that is at the entrance to the tent of meeting. <sup>8</sup> He is to remove all the fat from the bull of the sin offering: the fat surrounding the entrails, all the fat that is on the entrails, <sup>9</sup> and the two kidneys with the fat on them at the loins. He will also remove the fatty lobe of the liver with the kidneys, <sup>10</sup> just as the fat is removed from the ox of the •fellowship sacrifice. The priest is to burn them on the altar of burnt offering. <sup>11</sup> But the hide of the bull and all its flesh, with its head and shanks, and its entrails and dung — <sup>12†</sup> all the rest of the bull — he must bring to a ceremonially •clean place outside the camp to the ash heap, and must burn it on a wood fire. It is to be burned at the ash heap.

<sup>13†</sup> “Now if the whole community of Israel errs, and the matter escapes the notice of the assembly, so that they violate any of the LORD’s commands and incur guilt by doing what is prohibited, <sup>14</sup> then the assembly must present a young bull as a sin offering. When the sin they have committed in regard to the command becomes known, they are to bring it before the tent of meeting. <sup>15</sup> The elders of the community are to lay their hands on the bull’s head before the LORD and it is to be slaughtered before the LORD. <sup>16</sup> The anointed priest will bring some of the bull’s blood into the tent of meeting. <sup>17</sup> The priest is to dip his finger in the blood and sprinkle it seven times before the LORD in front of the veil. <sup>18</sup> He is to apply some of the blood to the horns of the altar that is before the LORD in the tent of meeting. He must pour out the rest of the blood at the base of the altar of burnt offering that is at the entrance to the tent of meeting.<sup>19</sup> He is to remove all the fat from it and burn it on the altar.<sup>20</sup> He is to offer this bull just as he did with the bull in the sin offering; he will offer it the same way. So the priest will make •atonement on their behalf, and they will be forgiven.<sup>21</sup> Then he will bring the bull outside the camp and burn it just as he burned the first bull. It is the sin offering for the assembly.

<sup>22</sup> “When a leader <sup>B</sup>, sins and unintentionally violates any of the commands of the LORD his God by doing what is prohibited, and incurs guilt,<sup>23</sup> or someone informs him about the sin he has committed, he is to bring an unblemished male goat as his offering.<sup>24</sup> He is to lay his hand on the head of the goat and slaughter it at the place where the •burnt offering is slaughtered before the LORD. It is a sin offering.<sup>25</sup> Then the priest must take some of the blood from the sin offering with his finger and apply it to the horns of the altar of burnt offering. The rest of its blood he must pour out at the base of the altar of burnt offering.<sup>26</sup> He must burn all its fat on the altar, like the fat of the fellowship sacrifice. In this way the priest will make atonement on his behalf for that person’s sin, and he will be forgiven.

<sup>27</sup> “Now if any of the common people <sup>C</sup> sins unintentionally by violating one of the LORD’s commands, does what is prohibited, and incurs guilt,<sup>28</sup> or if someone informs him about the sin he has committed, then he is to bring an unblemished female goat as his offering for the sin that he has committed.<sup>29</sup> He is to lay his hand on the head of the sin offering and slaughter it at the place of the burnt offering.<sup>30</sup> Then the priest must take some of its blood with his finger and apply it to the horns of the altar of burnt offering. He must pour out the rest of its blood at the base of the altar.<sup>31</sup> He is to remove all its fat just as the fat is removed from the fellowship sacrifice. The priest is to burn it on the altar as a pleasing aroma to the LORD. In this way the priest will make atonement on his behalf, and he will be forgiven.

<sup>32</sup> “Or if the offering that he brings as a sin offering is a lamb, he is to bring an unblemished female. <sup>33</sup> He is to lay his hand on the head of the sin offering and slaughter it as a sin offering at the place where the burnt offering is slaughtered. <sup>34</sup> Then the priest must take some of the blood of the sin offering with his finger and apply it to the horns of the altar of burnt offering. He must pour out the rest of its blood at the base of the altar. <sup>35</sup> He is to remove all its fat just as the fat of the lamb is removed from the fellowship sacrifice. The priest will burn it on the altar along with the fire offerings to the LORD. In this way the priest will make atonement on his behalf for the sin he has committed, and he will be forgiven.

Cases Requiring Sin Offerings

5 “When someone sins in any of these ways:

If he has seen, heard, or known about something he has witnessed, and did not respond to a public call to testify, he is responsible for his sin.

<sup>2</sup> Or if someone touches anything •unclean — a carcass of an unclean wild animal, or unclean livestock, or an unclean swarming creature — without being aware of it, he is unclean and •guilty.

<sup>3</sup> Or if he touches human uncleanness — any uncleanness by which one can become defiled — without being aware of it, but later recognizes it, he is guilty.

<sup>4</sup> Or if someone swears rashly to do what is good or evil — concerning anything a person may speak rashly in an oath — without being aware of it, but later recognizes it, he incurs guilt in such an instance. <sup>A</sup>

<sup>5†</sup> If someone incurs guilt in one of these cases, he is to confess he has committed that sin. <sup>6</sup> He must bring his restitution for the sin he has committed to the LORD: a female lamb or goat from the flock as a •sin offering. In this way the priest will make •atonement on his behalf for his sin.

<sup>7</sup> “But if he cannot afford an animal from the flock, then he may bring to the LORD two turtledoves or two young pigeons as restitution for his sin — one as a sin offering and the other as a •burnt offering. <sup>8</sup> He is to bring them to the priest, who will first present the one for the sin offering. He must twist its head at the back of the neck without severing it. <sup>9</sup> Then he will sprinkle some of the blood of the sin offering on the side of the altar, while the rest of the blood is to be drained out at the base of the altar; it is a sin offering. <sup>10†</sup> He must prepare the second bird as a burnt offering according to the regulation. In this way the priest will make atonement on his behalf for the sin he has committed, and he will be forgiven.

The Restitution Offering

<sup>14</sup> Then the LORD spoke to Moses: <sup>15†</sup> “If someone offends by sinning unintentionally in regard to any of the LORD’s holy things, he must bring his •restitution offering to the LORD: an unblemished ram from the flock (based on your assessment of its value in silver •shekels, according to the sanctuary shekel ) as a restitution offering. <sup>16</sup> He must make restitution for his sin regarding any holy thing, adding a fifth of its value to it, and give it to the priest. Then the priest will make atonement on his behalf with the ram of the restitution offering, and he will be forgiven.

<sup>17</sup> “If someone sins and without knowing it violates any of the LORD’s commands concerning anything prohibited, he bears the consequences of his guilt. <sup>18</sup> He must bring an unblemished ram from the flock according to your assessment of its value as a restitution offering to the priest. Then the priest will make atonement on his behalf for the error he has committed unintentionally, and he will be forgiven. <sup>19</sup> It is a restitution offering; he is indeed guilty before the LORD.”

LEVITICUS

6 <sup>1</sup>The LORD spoke to Moses: <sup>2</sup> “When someone sins and offends the LORD by deceiving his neighbor in regard to a deposit, a security, <sup>A</sup> or a robbery; or defrauds his neighbor; <sup>3</sup> or finds something lost and lies about it; or swears falsely about any of the sinful things a person may do — <sup>4†</sup> once he has sinned and acknowledged his •guilt — he must return what he stole or defrauded, or the deposit entrusted to him, or the lost item he found, <sup>5</sup> or anything else about which he swore falsely. He must make full restitution for it and add a fifth of its value to it. He is to pay it to its owner on the day he acknowledges his guilt. <sup>6</sup> Then he must bring his •restitution offering to the LORD: an unblemished ram from the flock according to your assessment of its value as a restitution offering to the priest. <sup>7</sup> In this way the priest will make •atonement on his behalf before the LORD, and he will be forgiven for anything he may have done to incur guilt.”

The Burnt Offering

<sup>8</sup> The LORD spoke to Moses: <sup>9</sup> “Command Aaron and his sons: This is the law of the •burnt offering; the burnt offering itself must remain on the altar’s hearth all night until morning, while the fire of the altar is kept burning on it. <sup>10†</sup> The priest is to put on his linen robe and linen undergarments. <sup>B</sup>, He is to remove the ashes of the burnt offering the fire has consumed on the altar, and place them beside the altar. <sup>11</sup> Then he must take off his garments, put on other clothes, and bring the ashes outside the camp to a ceremonially •clean place. <sup>12†</sup> The fire on the altar is to be kept burning; it must not go out. Every morning the priest will burn wood on the fire. He is to arrange the burnt offering on the fire and burn the fat portions from the •fellowship offerings on it. <sup>13</sup> Fire must be kept burning on the altar continually; it must not go out.

The Grain Offering

<sup>14</sup> “Now this is the law of the •grain offering: Aaron’s sons will present it before the LORD in front of the altar. <sup>15</sup> The priest is to remove a handful of fine flour and olive oil from the grain offering, with all the frankincense that is on the offering, and burn its memorial portion on the altar as a pleasing aroma to the LORD. <sup>16</sup> Aaron and his sons may eat the rest of it. It is to be eaten in the form of unleavened bread in a holy place; they are to eat it in the courtyard of the tent of meeting. <sup>17</sup> It must not be baked with yeast; I have assigned it as their portion from My fire offerings. It is especially holy, like the •sin offering and the restitution offering. <sup>18</sup> Any male among Aaron's descendants may eat it. It is a permanent portion <sup>C</sup> throughout your generations from the fire offerings to the LORD. Anything that touches the offerings will become holy."

<sup>19</sup> The LORD spoke to Moses: <sup>20</sup> "This is the offering that Aaron and his sons must present to the LORD on the day that he is anointed: two quarts <sup>D</sup> of fine flour as a regular grain offering, half of it in the morning and half in the evening. <sup>21</sup> It is to be prepared with oil on a griddle; you are to bring it well-kneaded. You must present it as a grain offering of baked pieces, <sup>E</sup> a pleasing aroma to the LORD. <sup>22†</sup> The priest, who is one of Aaron's sons and will be anointed to take his place, is to prepare it. It must be completely burned as a permanent portion for the LORD. <sup>23</sup> Every grain offering for a priest will be a whole burnt offering; it is not to be eaten."

The Sin Offering

<sup>24</sup> The LORD spoke to Moses: <sup>25</sup> "Tell Aaron and his sons: This is the law of the sin offering. The sin offering is most holy and must be slaughtered before the LORD at the place where the burnt offering is slaughtered. <sup>26</sup> The priest who offers it as a sin offering is to eat it. It must be eaten in a holy place, in the courtyard of the tent of meeting. <sup>27</sup> Anything that touches its flesh will become holy, and if any of its blood spatters on a garment, then you must wash that garment <sup>F</sup> in a holy place. <sup>28</sup> A clay pot in which the sin offering is boiled must be broken; if it is boiled in a bronze vessel, it must be scoured and rinsed with water. <sup>29</sup> Any male among the priests may eat it; it is especially holy. <sup>30</sup> But no sin offering may be eaten if its blood has been brought into the tent of meeting to make atonement in the holy place; it must be burned up.

LEVITICUS

The Restitution Offering

7 “Now this is the law of the •restitution offering; it is especially holy. <sup>2</sup> The restitution offering must be slaughtered at the place where the •burnt offering is slaughtered, and the priest is to sprinkle its blood on all sides of the altar. <sup>3</sup> The offerer must present all the fat from it: the fat tail, the fat surrounding the entrails, <sup>4</sup> and the two kidneys with the fat on them at the loins; he will also remove the fatty lobe of the liver with the kidneys. <sup>5</sup> The priest will burn them on the altar as a fire offering to the LORD; it is a restitution offering. <sup>6</sup> Any male among the priests may eat it. It is to be eaten in a holy place; it is especially holy.

<sup>7</sup> “The restitution offering is like the •sin offering; the law is the same for both. It belongs to the priest who makes •atonement with it. <sup>8</sup> As for the priest who presents someone’s burnt offering, the hide of the burnt offering he has presented belongs to him; it is the priest’s. <sup>9</sup> Any •grain offering that is baked in an oven or prepared in a pan or on a griddle belongs to the priest who presents it; it is his. <sup>10</sup> But any grain offering, whether dry or mixed with oil, belongs equally <sup>A</sup> to all of Aaron’s sons.

The Fellowship Sacrifice

<sup>11</sup> “Now this is the law of the •fellowship sacrifice that someone may present to the LORD: <sup>12</sup> If he presents it for thanksgiving, in addition to the thanksgiving sacrifice, he is to present unleavened cakes mixed with olive oil, unleavened wafers coated with oil, and well-kneaded cakes of fine flour mixed with oil. <sup>13</sup> He is to present as his offering cakes of leavened bread with his thanksgiving sacrifice of fellowship. <sup>14</sup> From the cakes he must present one portion of each offering as a contribution to the LORD. It will belong to the priest who sprinkles the blood of the fellowship offering; it is his. <sup>15</sup> The meat of his thanksgiving sacrifice of fellowship must be eaten on the day he offers it; he may not leave any of it until morning.

<sup>16</sup> “If the sacrifice he offers is a vow or a freewill offering, it is to be eaten on the day he presents his sacrifice, and what is left over may be eaten on the next day. <sup>17</sup> But what remains of the sacrificial meat by the third day must be burned up. <sup>18</sup> If any of the meat of his fellowship sacrifice is eaten on the third day, it will not be accepted. It will not be credited to the one who presents it; it is repulsive. The person who eats any of it will be responsible for his sin.<sup>B</sup>

Fat and Blood Prohibited

The Portion for the Priests

<sup>28</sup> The LORD spoke to Moses:<sup>29</sup> “Tell the Israelites: The one who presents a fellowship sacrifice to the LORD must bring an offering to the LORD from his sacrifice.<sup>30</sup> His own hands will bring the fire offerings to the LORD. He will bring the fat together with the breast. The breast is to be waved as a presentation offering before the LORD.<sup>31†</sup> The priest is to burn the fat on the altar, but the breast belongs to Aaron and his sons.<sup>32</sup> You are to give the right thigh to the priest as a contribution from your fellowship sacrifices.<sup>33</sup> The son of Aaron who presents the blood of the fellowship offering and the fat will have the right thigh as a portion.<sup>34†</sup> I have taken from the Israelites the breast of the presentation offering and the thigh of the contribution from their fellowship sacrifices, and have assigned them to Aaron the priest and his sons as a permanent portion <sup>E</sup> from the Israelites.”

Ordination of Aaron and His Sons

8 †The LORD spoke to Moses: <sup>2</sup> “Take Aaron, his sons with him, the garments, the anointing oil, the bull of the •sin <sup>A</sup> offering, the two rams, and the basket of unleavened bread, <sup>3</sup> and assemble the whole community at the entrance to the tent of meeting.” <sup>4</sup> So Moses did as the LORD commanded him, and the community assembled at the entrance to the tent of meeting. <sup>5</sup> Moses said to them, “This is what the LORD has commanded to be done.”

<sup>30</sup> Then Moses took some of the anointing oil and some of the blood that was on the altar and sprinkled them on Aaron and his garments, as well as on his sons and their garments. In this way he consecrated Aaron and his garments, as well as his sons and their garments.

<sup>31</sup> Moses said to Aaron and his sons, "Boil the meat at the entrance to the tent of meeting and eat it there with the bread that is in the basket for the ordination offering as I commanded: Aaron and his sons are to eat it.

<sup>32</sup> You must burn up what remains of the meat and bread. <sup>33</sup> You must not go outside the entrance to the tent of meeting for seven days, until the time your days of ordination are completed, because it will take seven days to ordain you. <sup>F</sup> <sup>34</sup> The LORD commanded what has been done today in order to make atonement for you. <sup>35</sup> You must remain at the entrance to the tent of meeting day and night for seven days and keep the LORD's charge so that you will not die, for this is what I was commanded." <sup>36</sup> So Aaron and his sons did everything the LORD had commanded through Moses.

LEVITICUS

The Priestly Ministry Inaugurated

9 On the eighth day Moses summoned Aaron, his sons, and the elders of Israel. <sup>2†</sup> He said to Aaron, “Take a young bull for a •sin<sup>A</sup> offering and a ram for a •burnt offering, both without blemish, and present them before the LORD. <sup>3</sup> And tell the Israelites: Take a male goat for a sin offering; a calf and a lamb, male yearlings without blemish, for a burnt offering; <sup>4</sup> an ox and a ram for a •fellowship offering to sacrifice before the LORD; and a •grain offering mixed with oil. For today the LORD is going to appear to you.”

<sup>8</sup> So Aaron approached the altar and slaughtered the calf as a sin offering for himself. <sup>9</sup> Aaron’s sons brought the blood to him, and he dipped his finger in the blood and applied it to the horns of the altar. He poured out the blood at the base of the altar. <sup>10</sup> He burned the fat, the kidneys, and the fatty lobe of the liver from the sin offering on the altar, as the LORD had commanded Moses. <sup>11</sup> He burned up the flesh and the hide outside the camp.

<sup>12</sup> Then he slaughtered the burnt offering. Aaron’s sons brought him the blood, and he sprinkled it on all sides of the altar. <sup>13</sup> They brought him the burnt offering piece by piece, along with the head, and he burned them on the altar. <sup>14</sup> He washed the entrails and the shanks and burned them with the burnt offering on the altar.

<sup>15</sup> Aaron presented the people’s offering. He took the male goat for the people’s sin offering, slaughtered it, and made a sin offering with it as he did before. <sup>16</sup> He presented the burnt offering and sacrificed it according to the regulation. <sup>17</sup> Next he presented the grain offering, took a handful of it, and burned it on the altar in addition to the morning burnt offering.

<sup>18</sup> Finally, he slaughtered the ox and the ram as the people's fellowship sacrifice. Aaron's sons brought him the blood, and he sprinkled it on all sides of the altar. <sup>19</sup> They also brought the fat portions from the ox and the ram — the fat tail, the fat surrounding the entrails, the kidneys, and the fatty lobe of the liver — <sup>20</sup> and placed these on the breasts. Aaron burned the fat portions on the altar, <sup>21</sup> but he waved the breasts and the right thigh as a presentation offering before the LORD, as Moses had commanded.

<sup>22</sup> Aaron lifted up his hands toward the people and blessed them. He came down after sacrificing the sin offering, the burnt offering, and the fellowship offering. <sup>23</sup> Moses and Aaron then entered the tent of meeting. When they came out, they blessed the people, and the glory of the LORD appeared to all the people. <sup>24†</sup> Fire came from the LORD and consumed the burnt offering and the fat portions on the altar. And when all the people saw it, they shouted and fell facedown on the ground.

LEVITICUS

Nadab and Abihu

10 † Aaron's sons Nadab and Abihu each took his own firepan, put fire in it, placed incense on it, and presented unauthorized fire before the LORD, which He had not commanded them to do. <sup>2</sup> Then fire came from the LORD and burned them to death before the LORD. <sup>3</sup> So Moses said to Aaron, "This is what the LORD meant when He said:

I will show My holiness <sup>A</sup> to those who are near Me, and I will reveal My glory <sup>B</sup> before all the people."

But Aaron remained silent.

<sup>4</sup> Moses summoned Mishael and Elzaphan, sons of Aaron's uncle Uzziel, and said to them, "Come here and carry your relatives away from the front of the sanctuary to a place outside the camp." <sup>5</sup> So they came forward and carried them in their tunics outside the camp, as Moses had said.

<sup>6</sup> Then Moses said to Aaron and his sons Eleazar and Ithamar, "Do not let your hair hang loose and do not tear your garments, or else you will die, and the LORD will become angry with the whole community. However, your brothers, the whole house of Israel, may mourn over that tragedy when the LORD sent the fire. <sup>7</sup> You must not go outside the entrance to the tent of meeting or you will die, for the LORD's anointing oil is on you." So they did as Moses said.

Regulations for Priests

<sup>8</sup> The LORD spoke to Aaron: <sup>9</sup> "You and your sons are not to drink wine or beer when you enter the tent of meeting, or else you will die; this is a permanent statute throughout your generations. <sup>10</sup> You must distinguish between the holy and the common, and the •clean and the •unclean, <sup>11</sup> and teach the Israelites all the statutes that the LORD has given to them through Moses."

<sup>16</sup> Later, Moses inquired about the male goat of the •sin offering, but it had already been burned up. He was angry with Eleazar and Ithamar, Aaron’s surviving sons, and asked, <sup>17</sup> “Why didn’t you eat the sin offering in the sanctuary area? For it is especially holy, and He has assigned it to you to take away the •guilt of the community and make •atonement for them before the LORD. <sup>18</sup> Since its blood was not brought inside the sanctuary, you should have eaten it in the sanctuary area, as I commanded.”

<sup>19</sup> But Aaron replied to Moses, “See, today they presented their sin offering and their •burnt offering before the LORD. Since these things have happened to me, if I had eaten the sin offering today, would it have been acceptable in the LORD’s sight? ” <sup>20</sup> When Moses heard this, it was acceptable to him. <sup>D</sup>

Clean and Unclean Land Animals

11 †The LORD spoke to Moses and Aaron: <sup>2</sup> “Tell the Israelites: You may eat all these kinds of land animals. <sup>3</sup> You may eat any animal with divided hooves and that chews the cud. <sup>4</sup> But among the ones that chew the cud or have divided hooves you are not to eat these:

the camel, though it chews the cud, does not have divided hooves — it is •unclean for you;

<sup>5</sup> the hyrax, though it chews the cud,
does not have hooves — it is unclean for you;

<sup>6</sup> the hare, though it chews the cud,
does not have hooves — it is unclean for you;

<sup>7</sup> the pig, though it has divided hooves, does not chew the cud — it is unclean for you.

Clean and Unclean Aquatic Animals

<sup>9</sup> “This is what you may eat from all that is in the water: You may eat everything in the water that has fins and scales, whether in the seas or streams. <sup>10</sup> But these are to be detestable to you: everything in the seas or streams that does not have fins and scales among all the swarming things and other living creatures in the water. <sup>11</sup> They are to remain detestable to you; you must not eat any of their meat, and you must detest their carcasses. <sup>12</sup> Everything in the water that does not have fins and scales will be detestable to you.

Unclean Birds

the eagle, <sup>A</sup>, the bearded <sup>B</sup> vulture, the black vulture, <sup>C</sup> <sup>14</sup> the kite, <sup>D</sup> any kind of falcon, <sup>E</sup>

the short-eared owl, <sup>G</sup> the gull, <sup>H</sup>
any kind of hawk,
<sup>17</sup> the little <sup>I</sup> owl, the cormorant, <sup>J</sup> the long-eared owl, <sup>K</sup>
the osprey, <sup>N</sup> <sup>19</sup> the stork, <sup>O</sup> any kind of heron, <sup>P</sup>
the hoopoe, and the bat.

Clean and Unclean Flying Insects

<sup>20</sup> “All winged insects that walk on all fours are to be detestable to you.
<sup>21</sup> But you may eat these kinds of all the winged insects that walk on all fours: those that have jointed legs above their feet for hopping on the ground. <sup>22</sup> You may eat these:

any kind of locust, katydid, cricket, and grasshopper.

<sup>23</sup> All other winged insects that have four feet are to be detestable to you.

Purification after Touching Dead Animals

be unclean until evening, <sup>25</sup> and whoever carries any of their carcasses must wash his clothes and will be unclean until evening. <sup>26</sup> All animals that have hooves but do not have a divided hoof and do not chew the cud are unclean for you. Whoever touches them becomes unclean. <sup>27</sup> All the four-footed animals that walk on their paws are unclean for you. Whoever touches their carcasses will be unclean until evening, <sup>28</sup> and anyone who carries their carcasses must wash his clothes and will be unclean until evening. They are unclean for you.

<sup>29</sup> “These creatures that swarm on the ground are unclean for you:

the weasel, <sup>Q</sup> the mouse, any kind of large lizard, <sup>R</sup> <sup>30</sup> the gecko, the monitor lizard, <sup>S</sup>
and the chameleon. <sup>V</sup>

<sup>31</sup> These are unclean for you among all the swarming creatures. Whoever touches them when they are dead will be unclean until evening. <sup>32</sup> When any one of them dies and falls on anything it becomes unclean — any item of wood, clothing, leather, •sackcloth, or any implement used for work. It is to be rinsed with water and will remain unclean until evening; then it will be •clean. <sup>33</sup> If any of them falls into any clay pot, everything in it will become unclean; you must break it. <sup>34</sup> Any edible food coming into contact with that unclean water will become unclean, and any drinkable liquid in any container will become unclean. <sup>35</sup> Anything one of their carcasses falls on will become unclean. If it is an oven or stove, it must be smashed; it is unclean and will remain unclean for you. <sup>36</sup> A spring or cistern containing water will remain clean, but someone who touches a carcass in it will become unclean. <sup>37</sup> If one of their carcasses falls on any seed that is to be sown, it is clean; <sup>38</sup> but if water has been put on the seed and one of their carcasses falls on it, it is unclean for you.

<sup>39</sup> “If one of the animals that you use for food dies, anyone who touches its carcass will be unclean until evening. <sup>40</sup> Anyone who eats some of its carcass must wash his clothes and will be unclean until evening. Anyone who carries its carcass must wash his clothes and will be unclean until evening.

Unclean Swarming Creatures

<sup>41</sup> “All the creatures that swarm on the earth are detestable; they must not be eaten. <sup>42</sup> Do not eat any of the creatures that swarm on the earth, anything that moves on its belly or walks on all fours or on many feet, <sup>W</sup> for they are detestable. <sup>43</sup> Do not become contaminated by any creature that swarms; do not become unclean or defiled by them. <sup>44</sup> For I am •Yahweh your God, so you must consecrate yourselves and be holy because I am holy. You must not defile yourselves by any swarming creature that crawls on the ground. <sup>45</sup> For I am Yahweh, who brought you up from the land of Egypt to be your God, so you must be holy because I am holy.

<sup>46</sup> “This is the law concerning animals, birds, all living creatures that move in the water, and all creatures that swarm on the ground, <sup>47†</sup> in order to distinguish between the unclean and the clean, between the animals that may be eaten and those that may not be eaten.”

Purification after Childbirth

12 †The LORD spoke to Moses: <sup>2</sup> “Tell the Israelites: When a woman becomes pregnant and gives birth to a male child, she will be •unclean seven days, as she is during the days of her menstrual impurity.

<sup>3†</sup> The flesh of his foreskin must be circumcised on the eighth day. <sup>4†</sup> She will continue in purification from her bleeding for 33 days. She must not touch any holy thing or go into the sanctuary until completing her days of purification. <sup>5</sup> But if she gives birth to a female child, she will be unclean for two weeks as she is during her menstrual impurity. She will continue in purification from her bleeding for 66 days.

<sup>8†</sup> But if she doesn't have sufficient means <sup>B</sup>, for a sheep, she may take two turtledoves or two young pigeons, one for a burnt offering and the other for a sin <sup>C</sup> offering. Then the priest will make atonement on her behalf, and she will be clean.”

Skin Diseases

13 †The LORD spoke to Moses and Aaron: <sup>2</sup> “When a person has a swelling, <sup>A</sup> scab, <sup>B</sup> or spot on the skin of his body, and it becomes a disease on the skin of his body, he is to be brought to Aaron the priest or to one of his sons, the priests. <sup>3</sup> The priest will examine the infection on the skin of his body. If the hair in the infection has turned white and the infection appears to be deeper than the skin of his body, it is a skin disease. After the priest examines him, he must pronounce him •unclean. <sup>4</sup> But if the spot on the skin of his body is white and does not appear to be deeper than the skin, and the hair in it has not turned white, the priest must quarantine the infected person for seven days. <sup>5</sup> The priest will then reexamine him on the seventh day. If he sees that the infection remains unchanged and has not spread on the skin, the priest must quarantine him for another seven days. <sup>6</sup> The priest will examine him again on the seventh day. If the infection has faded and has not spread on the skin, the priest is to pronounce him •clean; it is a scab. The person is to wash his clothes and will become clean. <sup>7</sup> But if the scab spreads further on his skin after he has presented himself to the priest for his cleansing, he must present himself again to the priest. <sup>8</sup> The priest will examine him, and if the scab has spread on the skin, then the priest must pronounce him unclean; he has a skin disease.

the priest must quarantine the person who has the scaly outbreak for another seven days.<sup>34</sup> The priest will examine the scaly outbreak on the seventh day, and if it has not spread on the skin and does not appear to be deeper than the skin, the priest is to pronounce the person clean. He is to wash his clothes, and he will be clean.<sup>35</sup> But if the scaly outbreak spreads further on the skin after his cleansing,<sup>36</sup> the priest is to examine the person. If the scaly outbreak has spread on the skin, the priest does not need to look for yellow hair; the person is unclean.<sup>37</sup> But if as far as he can see, the scaly outbreak remains unchanged and black hair has grown in it, then it has healed; he is clean. The priest is to pronounce the person clean.

<sup>42</sup> But if there is a reddish-white infection on the bald head or forehead, it is a skin disease breaking out on his head or forehead.<sup>43</sup> The priest is to examine him, and if the swelling of the infection on his bald head or forehead is reddish-white, like the appearance of a skin disease on his body,

<sup>45†</sup> “The person afflicted with an infectious skin disease is to have his clothes torn and his hair hanging loose, and he must cover his mouth and cry out, ‘Unclean, unclean!’<sup>46†</sup> He will remain unclean as long as he has the infection; he is unclean. He must live alone in a place outside the camp.

Contaminated Fabrics

<sup>47</sup> “If a fabric is contaminated with mildew — in wool or linen fabric, <sup>48†</sup> in the warp or woof of linen or wool, or in leather or anything made of leather —<sup>49</sup> and if the contamination is green or red in the fabric, the leather, the warp, the woof, or any leather article, it is a mildew contamination and is to be shown to the priest.<sup>50</sup> The priest is to examine the contamination and quarantine the contaminated fabric for seven days.<sup>51</sup> The priest is to reexamine the contamination on the seventh day. If it has spread in the fabric, the warp, the woof, or the leather, regardless of how it is used, the contamination is harmful mildew; it is unclean.<sup>52</sup> He is to burn the fabric, the warp or woof in wool or linen, or any leather article, which is contaminated. Since it is harmful mildew it must be burned up.

<sup>53</sup> “When the priest examines it, if the contamination has not spread in the fabric, the warp or woof, or any leather article,<sup>54</sup> the priest is to order whatever is contaminated to be washed and quarantined for another seven days.<sup>55</sup> After it has been washed, the priest is to reexamine the contamination. If the appearance of the contaminated article has not changed, it is unclean. Even though the contamination has not spread, you must burn up the fabric. It is a fungus <sup>G</sup> on the front or back of the fabric.

<sup>56</sup> “If the priest examines it, and the contamination has faded after it has been washed, he must cut the contaminated section out of the fabric, the leather, or the warp or woof.<sup>57</sup> But if it reappears in the fabric, the warp or woof, or any leather article, it has broken out again. You must burn up whatever is contaminated.<sup>58</sup> But if the contamination disappears from the fabric, the warp or woof, or any leather article, which have been washed, it is to be washed again, and it will be clean.

<sup>59</sup> “This is the law concerning a mildew contamination in wool or linen fabric, warp or woof, or any leather article, in order to pronounce it clean or unclean.”

Cleansing of Skin Diseases

14 The LORD spoke to Moses: <sup>2</sup> “This is the law concerning the person afflicted with a skin disease on the day of his cleansing. He is to be brought to the priest, <sup>3</sup> who will go outside the camp and examine him. If the skin disease has disappeared from the afflicted person, <sup>A</sup> <sup>4</sup> the priest will order that two live •clean birds, cedar wood, scarlet yarn, and hyssop be brought for the one who is to be cleansed. <sup>5</sup> Then the priest will order that one of the birds be slaughtered over fresh water in a clay pot. <sup>6</sup> He is to take the live bird together with the cedar wood, scarlet yarn, and hyssop, and dip them all into the blood of the bird that was slaughtered over the fresh water. <sup>7</sup> He will then sprinkle the blood seven times on the one who is to be cleansed from the skin disease. He is to pronounce him clean and release the live bird over the open countryside. <sup>8</sup> The one who is to be cleansed must wash his clothes, shave off all his hair, and bathe with water; he is clean. Afterward he may enter the camp, but he must remain outside his tent for seven days. <sup>9</sup> He is to shave off all his hair again on the seventh day: his head, his beard, his eyebrows, and the rest of his hair. He is to wash his clothes and bathe himself with water; he is clean.

of the oil with his finger seven times before the LORD.<sup>17</sup> From the oil remaining in his palm the priest will put some on the lobe of the right ear of the one to be cleansed, on the thumb of his right hand, and on the big toe of his right foot, on top of the blood of the restitution offering.<sup>18</sup> What is left of the oil in the priest's palm he is to put on the head of the one to be cleansed. In this way the priest will make •atonement for him before the LORD.<sup>19</sup> The priest must sacrifice the sin offering and make atonement for the one to be cleansed from his uncleanness. Afterward he will slaughter the burnt offering.<sup>20</sup> The priest is to offer the burnt offering and the grain offering on the altar. The priest will make atonement for him, and he will be clean.

<sup>21</sup> “But if he is poor and cannot afford these,<sup>F</sup> he is to take one male lamb for a restitution offering to be waved in order to make atonement for him, along with two quarts<sup>G</sup> of fine flour mixed with olive oil for a grain offering, one-third of a quart<sup>H</sup> of olive oil,<sup>22</sup> and two turtledoves or two young pigeons, whatever he can afford,<sup>I</sup> one to be a sin offering and the other a burnt offering.<sup>23</sup> On the eighth day he is to bring these things for his cleansing to the priest at the entrance to the tent of meeting before the LORD.<sup>24</sup> The priest will take the male lamb for the restitution offering and the one-third quart<sup>J</sup> of olive oil, and wave them as a presentation offering before the LORD.<sup>25</sup> After he slaughters the male lamb for the restitution offering, the priest is to take some of the blood of the restitution offering and put it on the right earlobe of the one to be cleansed, on the thumb of his right hand, and on the big toe of his right foot.<sup>26</sup> Then the priest will pour some of the oil into his left palm.<sup>27</sup> With his right finger the priest will sprinkle some of the oil in his left palm seven times before the LORD.<sup>28</sup> The priest will also put some of the oil in his palm on the right earlobe of the one to be cleansed, on the thumb of his right hand, and on the big toe of his right foot, on the same place as the blood of the restitution offering.<sup>29</sup> What is left of the oil in the priest's palm he is to put on the head of the one to be cleansed to make atonement for him before the LORD.<sup>30</sup> He must then sacrifice one type of what he can afford,<sup>K</sup> either the turtledoves or young pigeons,<sup>31</sup> one as a sin offering and the other as a burnt offering, sacrificing what he can afford together with the grain offering. In this way the priest will make atonement before the LORD for the one to be cleansed.<sup>32</sup> This is the law for someone who has <sup>M</sup> a skin disease and cannot afford <sup>N</sup> the cost of his cleansing.”

Cleansing of Contaminated Objects

<sup>33†</sup> The LORD spoke to Moses and Aaron:<sup>34</sup> “When you enter the land of Canaan that I am giving you as a possession, and I place a mildew contamination in a house in the land you possess, <sup>O</sup><sup>35</sup> the owner of the house is to come and tell the priest: Something like mildew contamination has appeared <sup>P</sup> in my house.<sup>36</sup> The priest must order them to clear the house before he enters to examine the contamination, so that nothing in the house becomes •unclean. Afterward the priest will come to examine the house.<sup>37</sup> He will examine it, and if the contamination in the walls of the house consists of green or red indentations <sup>Q</sup> that appear to be beneath the surface of the wall,<sup>38</sup> the priest is to go outside the house to its doorway and quarantine the house for seven days.<sup>39</sup> The priest is to return on the seventh day and examine it. If the contamination has spread on the walls of the house,<sup>40</sup> the priest must order that the stones with the contamination be pulled out and thrown into an unclean place outside the city.<sup>41</sup> He is to have the inside of the house completely scraped, and the plaster <sup>R</sup> that is scraped off must be dumped in an unclean place outside the city.<sup>42</sup> Then they must take different stones to replace the former ones and take additional plaster <sup>S</sup> to replaster the house.

<sup>43</sup> “If the contamination reappears in the house after the stones have been pulled out, and after the house has been scraped and replastered,<sup>44</sup> the priest must come and examine it. If the contamination has spread in the house, it is harmful mildew; the house is unclean.<sup>45</sup> It must be torn down with its stones, its beams, and all its plaster, and taken outside the city to an unclean place.<sup>46</sup> Whoever enters the house during any of the days the priest quarantines it will be unclean until evening.<sup>47</sup> Whoever lies down in the house is to wash his clothes, and whoever eats in it is to wash his clothes.

<sup>48</sup> “But when the priest comes and examines it, if the contamination has not spread in the house after it was replastered, he is to pronounce the house clean because the contamination has disappeared. <sup>T</sup> <sup>49</sup> He is to take two birds, cedar wood, scarlet yarn, and hyssop to purify the house, <sup>50</sup> and he is to slaughter one of the birds over a clay pot containing fresh water. <sup>51</sup> He will take the cedar wood, the hyssop, the scarlet yarn, and the live bird, dip them in the blood of the slaughtered bird and the fresh water, and sprinkle the house seven times. <sup>52</sup> He will purify the house with the blood of the bird, the fresh water, the live bird, the cedar wood, the hyssop, and the scarlet yarn. <sup>53</sup> Then he is to release the live bird into the open countryside outside the city. In this way he will make atonement for the house, and it will be clean.

Bodily Discharges

15 †The LORD spoke to Moses and Aaron: <sup>2</sup> “Speak to the Israelites and tell them: When any man has a discharge from his body, he is •unclean. <sup>3</sup> This is uncleanness of his discharge: Whether his body secretes the discharge or retains it, he is unclean. All the days that his body secretes or retains anything because of his discharge, he is unclean. <sup>4</sup> Any bed the man with the discharge lies on will be unclean, and any furniture he sits on will be unclean. <sup>5</sup> Anyone who touches his bed is to wash his clothes and bathe with water, and he will remain unclean until evening. <sup>6</sup> Whoever sits on furniture that the man with the discharge was sitting on is to wash his clothes and bathe with water, and he will remain unclean until evening. <sup>7</sup> Whoever touches the body of the man with a discharge is to wash his clothes and bathe with water, and he will remain unclean until evening. <sup>8</sup> If the man with the discharge spits on anyone who is •clean, he is to wash his clothes and bathe with water, and he will remain unclean until evening. <sup>9</sup> Any saddle the man with the discharge rides on will be unclean. <sup>10</sup> Whoever touches anything that was under him will be unclean until evening, and whoever carries such things is to wash his clothes and bathe with water, and he will remain unclean until evening. <sup>11</sup> If the man with the discharge touches anyone without first rinsing his hands in water, the person who was touched is to wash his clothes and bathe with water, and he will remain unclean until evening. <sup>12</sup> Any clay pot that the man with the discharge touches must be broken, while any wooden utensil must be rinsed with water.

<sup>13</sup> “When the man with the discharge has been cured of it, he is to count seven days for his cleansing, wash his clothes, and bathe his body in fresh water; he will be clean. <sup>14</sup> He must take two turtledoves or two young pigeons on the eighth day, come before the LORD at the entrance to the tent of meeting, and give them to the priest. <sup>15</sup> The priest is to sacrifice them, one as a •sin offering and the other as a •burnt offering. In this way the priest will make •atonement for him before the LORD because of his discharge.

<sup>16</sup> “When a man has an emission of semen, he is to bathe himself completely with water, and he will remain unclean until evening. <sup>17</sup> Any clothing or leather on which there is an emission of semen must be washed with water, and it will remain unclean until evening. <sup>18†</sup> If a man sleeps with a woman and has an emission of semen, both of them are to bathe with water, and they will remain unclean until evening.

<sup>19†</sup> “When a woman has a discharge, and it consists of blood from her body, she will be unclean because of her menstruation for seven days. Everyone who touches her will be unclean until evening. <sup>20</sup> Anything she lies on during her menstruation will become unclean, and anything she sits on will become unclean. <sup>21</sup> Everyone who touches her bed is to wash his clothes and bathe with water, and he will remain unclean until evening. <sup>22</sup> Everyone who touches any furniture she was sitting on is to wash his clothes and bathe with water, and he will remain unclean until evening. <sup>23</sup> If discharge is on the bed or the furniture she was sitting on, when he touches it he will be unclean until evening. <sup>24</sup> If a man sleeps with her, and blood from her menstruation gets on him, he will be unclean for seven days, and every bed he lies on will become unclean.

<sup>25</sup> “When a woman has a discharge of her blood for many days, though it is not the time of her menstruation, or if she has a discharge beyond her period, she will be unclean all the days of her unclean discharge, as she is during the days of her menstruation. <sup>26</sup> Any bed she lies on during the days of her discharge will be like her bed during menstrual impurity; any furniture she sits on will be unclean as in her menstrual period. <sup>27</sup> Everyone who touches them will be unclean; he must wash his clothes and bathe with water, and he will remain unclean until evening. <sup>28</sup> When she is cured of her discharge, she is to count seven days, and after that she will be clean. <sup>29</sup> On the eighth day she must take two turtledoves or two young pigeons and bring them to the priest at the entrance to the tent of meeting. <sup>30</sup> The priest is to sacrifice one as a sin offering and the other as a burnt offering. In this way the priest will make atonement for her before the LORD because of her unclean discharge.

<sup>31</sup> “You must keep the Israelites from their uncleanness, so that they do not die by defiling My tabernacle that is among them. <sup>32†</sup> This is the law for someone with a discharge: a man who has an emission of semen, becoming unclean by it; <sup>33</sup> a woman who is in her menstrual period; anyone who has a discharge, whether male or female; and a man who sleeps with an unclean woman.”

The Day of Atonement

16 The LORD spoke to Moses after the death of two of Aaron's sons when they approached the presence of the LORD and died. <sup>2†</sup> The LORD said to Moses: "Tell your brother Aaron that he may not come whenever he wants into the holy place behind the veil in front of the •mercy seat on the ark or else he will die, because I appear in the cloud above the mercy seat.

<sup>3</sup> "Aaron is to enter the most holy place in this way: with a young bull for a •sin offering and a ram for a •burnt offering. <sup>4</sup> He is to wear a holy linen tunic, and linen undergarments are to be on his body. He must tie a linen sash around him and wrap his head with a linen turban. These are holy garments; he must bathe his body with water before he wears them. <sup>5</sup> He is to take from the Israelite community two male goats for a sin offering and one ram for a burnt offering.

TWISTED SCRIPTURE

Leviticus 16:4-10

The Seventh-Day Adventist Church views this passage as pointing to Satan as the end-time scapegoat who takes away the sins of God's people. This will occur during the millennium when Satan is sentenced to roam the desolate earth while the saints are in heaven. This doctrine makes Christ and Satan co-redeemers. While Christ pays for the believer's sins, Satan is the sin bearer who is punished for them. The Scriptures clearly teach that Jesus alone both makes atonement for sin and removes the sin as far as the east is from the west (Ps 103:12).

<sup>6</sup> "Aaron will present the bull for his sin offering and make •atonement for himself and his household. <sup>7</sup> Next he will take the two goats and place them before the LORD at the entrance to the tent of meeting. <sup>8†</sup> After Aaron casts lots for the two goats, one lot for the LORD and the other for azazel, <sup>9</sup> he is to present the goat chosen by lot for the LORD and sacrifice it as a sin offering. <sup>10</sup> But the goat chosen by lot for azazel is to be presented alive before the LORD to make purification with it by sending it into the wilderness for azazel.

<sup>15</sup> “When he slaughters the male goat for the people’s sin offering and brings its blood inside the veil, he must do the same with its blood as he did with the bull’s blood: he is to sprinkle it against the mercy seat and in front of it. <sup>16</sup> He will purify the most holy place in this way for all their sins because of the Israelites’ impurities and rebellious acts. He will do the same for the tent of meeting that remains among them, because it is surrounded by their impurities. <sup>17</sup> No one may be in the tent of meeting from the time he enters to make atonement in the most holy place until he leaves after he has made atonement for himself, his household, and the whole assembly of Israel. <sup>18</sup> Then he will go out to the altar that is before the LORD and make atonement for it. He is to take some of the bull’s blood and some of the goat’s blood and put it on the horns on all sides of the altar. <sup>19</sup> He is to sprinkle some of the blood on it with his finger seven times to cleanse and set it apart from the Israelites’ impurities.

<sup>23</sup> “Then Aaron is to enter the tent of meeting, take off the linen garments he wore when he entered the most holy place, and leave them there. <sup>24</sup> He will bathe his body with water in a holy place and put on his clothes. Then he must go out and sacrifice his burnt offering and the people’s burnt offering; he will make atonement for himself and for the people. <sup>25</sup> He is to burn the fat of the sin offering on the altar. <sup>26</sup> The man who released the goat for azazel is to wash his clothes and bathe his body with water; afterward he may reenter the camp. <sup>27</sup> The bull for the sin offering and the goat for the sin offering, whose blood was brought into the most holy place to make atonement, must be brought outside the camp and their hide, flesh, and dung burned up. <sup>28</sup> The one who burns them is to wash his clothes and bathe himself with water; afterward he may reenter the camp.

<sup>29†</sup> “This is to be a permanent statute for you: In the seventh month, on the tenth day of the month you are to practice self-denial and do no work, both the native and the foreigner who resides among you. <sup>30</sup> Atonement will be made for you on this day to cleanse you, and you will be •clean from all your sins before the LORD. <sup>31</sup> It is a Sabbath of complete rest for you, and you must practice self-denial; it is a permanent statute. <sup>32</sup> The priest who is anointed and ordained <sup>B</sup> to serve as high priest in place of his father will make atonement. He will put on the linen garments, the holy garments, <sup>33</sup> and purify the most holy place. He will purify the tent of meeting and the altar and will make atonement for the priests and all the people of the assembly. <sup>34</sup> This is to be a permanent statute for you, to make atonement for the Israelites once a year because of all their sins.” And all this was done as the LORD commanded Moses.

Forbidden Sacrifices

17 †The LORD spoke to Moses: <sup>2</sup> “Speak to Aaron, his sons, and all the Israelites and tell them: This is what the LORD has commanded:

<sup>3</sup> Anyone from the house of Israel who slaughters an ox, sheep, or goat in the camp, or slaughters it outside the camp, <sup>4†</sup> instead of bringing it to the entrance to the tent of meeting to present it as an offering to the LORD before His tabernacle — that person will be considered •guilty. <sup>A</sup>, He has shed blood and must be cut off from his people. <sup>5</sup> This is so the Israelites will bring to the LORD the sacrifices they have been offering in the open country. They are to bring them to the priest at the entrance to the tent of meeting and offer them as •fellowship sacrifices to the LORD. <sup>6</sup> The priest will then sprinkle the blood on the LORD’s altar at the entrance to the tent of meeting and burn the fat as a pleasing aroma to the LORD. <sup>7</sup> They must no longer offer their sacrifices to the goat-demons that they have prostituted themselves with. This will be a permanent statute for them throughout their generations.

<sup>8</sup> “Say to them: Anyone from the house of Israel or from the foreigners who live among them who offers a •burnt offering or a sacrifice <sup>9</sup> but does not bring it to the entrance to the tent of meeting to sacrifice it to the LORD, that person must be cut off from his people.

Eating Blood and Carcasses Prohibited

<sup>10</sup> “Anyone from the house of Israel or from the foreigners who live among them who eats any blood, I will turn <sup>B</sup> against that person who eats blood and cut him off from his people. <sup>11†</sup> For the life of a creature is in the blood, and I have appointed it to you to make •atonement on the altar for <sup>C</sup> your lives, since it is the lifeblood that makes atonement. <sup>12</sup> Therefore I say to the Israelites: None of you and no foreigner who lives among you may eat blood.

U sing this passage about eating blood, the Watchtower Bible and Tract Society (Jehovah's Witnesses) forbids members from receiving blood through the mouth or veins. Hence, they allow no blood transfusions, even in life-or-death situations.

<sup>13</sup> “Any Israelite or foreigner living among them, who hunts down a wild animal or bird that may be eaten must drain its blood and cover it with dirt.

<sup>15</sup> “Every person, whether the native or the foreigner, who eats an animal that died a natural death or was mauled by wild beasts is to wash his clothes and bathe with water, and he will remain •unclean until evening; then he will be •clean. <sup>16</sup> But if he does not wash his clothes and bathe himself, he will bear his punishment.”

Prohibited Pagan Practices

18 †•Yahweh spoke to Moses: <sup>2</sup> “Speak to the Israelites and tell them: I am Yahweh your God. <sup>3†</sup> Do not follow the practices of the land of Egypt, where you used to live, or follow the practices of the land of Canaan, where I am bringing you. You must not follow their customs. <sup>4†</sup> You are to practice My ordinances and you are to keep My statutes by following them; I am Yahweh your God. <sup>5</sup> Keep My statutes and ordinances; a person will live if he does them. I am Yahweh.

<sup>6</sup> “You are not to come near any close relative <sup>A</sup> for sexual intercourse; I am Yahweh. <sup>7</sup> You are not to shame your father by having sex with your mother. She is your mother; you must not have sexual intercourse with her. <sup>8†</sup> You are not to have sex with your father’s wife; it will shame your father. <sup>9†</sup> You are not to have sexual intercourse with your sister, either your father’s daughter or your mother’s, whether born at home or born elsewhere. You are not to have sex with her. <sup>10</sup> You are not to have sexual intercourse with your son’s daughter or your daughter’s daughter, because it will shame your family. <sup>B</sup> <sup>11</sup> You are not to have sexual intercourse with your father’s wife’s daughter, who is adopted by <sup>C</sup> your father; she is your sister. <sup>12</sup> You are not to have sexual intercourse with your father’s sister; she is your father’s close relative. <sup>13</sup> You are not to have sexual intercourse with your mother’s sister, for she is your mother’s close relative. <sup>14</sup> You are not to shame your father’s brother by coming near his wife to have sexual intercourse; she is your aunt. <sup>15</sup> You are not to have sexual intercourse with your daughter-in-law. She is your son’s wife; you are not to have sex with her. <sup>16</sup> You are not to have sexual intercourse with your brother’s wife; it will shame your brother. <sup>17</sup> You are not to have sexual intercourse with a woman and her daughter. You are not to marry her son’s daughter or her daughter’s daughter and have sex with her. They are close relatives; it is depraved. <sup>18</sup> You are not to marry a woman as a rival to her sister and have sexual intercourse with her during her sister’s lifetime.

<sup>24†</sup> “Do not defile yourselves by any of these practices, for the nations I am driving out before you have defiled themselves by all these things. <sup>25</sup> The land has become defiled, so I am punishing it for its sin, and the land will vomit out its inhabitants. <sup>26</sup> But you are to keep My statutes and ordinances. You must not commit any of these detestable things — not the native or the foreigner who lives among you. <sup>27</sup> For the men who were in the land prior to you have committed all these detestable things, and the land has become defiled. <sup>28</sup> If you defile the land, it will vomit you out as it has vomited out the nations that were before you. <sup>29</sup> Any person who does any of these detestable practices must be cut off from his people. <sup>30</sup> You must keep My instruction to not do any of the detestable customs that were practiced before you, so that you do not defile yourselves by them; I am Yahweh your God.”

<sup>5</sup> “When you offer a •fellowship sacrifice to the LORD, sacrifice it so that you may be accepted. <sup>6</sup> It is to be eaten on the day you sacrifice it or on the next day, but what remains on the third day must be burned up. <sup>7</sup> If any is eaten on the third day, it is a repulsive thing; it will not be accepted.

<sup>8</sup> Anyone who eats it will bear his punishment, for he has profaned what is holy to the LORD. That person must be cut off from his people.

<sup>10</sup> If a man commits adultery with a married woman — if he commits adultery with his neighbor’s wife — both the adulterer and the adulteress must be put to death. <sup>11</sup> If a man sleeps with his father’s wife, he has shamed his father. Both of them must be put to death; their blood is on their own hands. <sup>I</sup> <sup>12</sup> If a man sleeps with his daughter-in-law, both of them must be put to death. They have acted perversely; their blood is on their own hands. <sup>J</sup> <sup>13</sup> If a man sleeps with a man as with a woman, they have both committed a detestable thing. They must be put to death; their blood is on their own hands. <sup>K</sup> <sup>14</sup> If a man marries a woman and her mother, it is depraved. Both he and they must be burned with fire, so that there will be no depravity among you. <sup>15</sup> If a man has sexual intercourse with <sup>L</sup> an animal, he must be put to death; you are also to kill the animal. <sup>16</sup> If a woman comes near any animal and mates with it, you are to kill the woman and the animal. The Holiness of the Priests

21 The LORD said to Moses: “Speak to Aaron’s sons, the priests, and tell them: A priest is not to make himself ceremonially •unclean for a dead person among his relatives, <sup>2</sup> except for his immediate family: his mother, father, son, daughter, or brother. <sup>3</sup> He may make himself unclean for his young unmarried sister in his immediate family. <sup>4</sup> He is not to make himself unclean for those related to him by marriage <sup>A</sup> and so defile himself.

<sup>5</sup> “Priests may not make bald spots on their heads, shave the edge of their beards, or make gashes on their bodies. <sup>6</sup> They are to be holy to their God and not profane the name of their God. For they present the fire offerings to •Yahweh, the food of their God, and they must be holy. <sup>7</sup> They are not to marry a woman defiled by prostitution. <sup>B</sup> They are not to marry one divorced by her husband, for the priest is holy to his God. <sup>8</sup> You are to consider him holy since he presents the food of your God. He will be holy to you because I, Yahweh who sets you apart, am holy. <sup>9</sup> If a priest’s daughter defiles herself by promiscuity, <sup>C</sup> she defiles her father; she must be burned up.

Physical Defects and Priests

<sup>16</sup> The LORD spoke to Moses: <sup>17</sup> “Tell Aaron: None of your descendants throughout your generations who has a physical defect is to come near to present the food of his God. <sup>18</sup> No man who has any defect is to come near: no man who is blind, lame, facially disfigured, or deformed; <sup>19</sup> no man who has a broken foot or hand, <sup>20</sup> or who is a hunchback or a dwarf, <sup>G</sup> or who has an eye defect, a festering rash, scabs, or a crushed testicle. <sup>21</sup> No descendant of Aaron the priest who has a defect is to come near to present the fire offerings to the LORD. He has a defect and is not to come near to present the food of his God. <sup>22</sup> He may eat the food of his God from what is especially holy as well as from what is holy. <sup>23</sup> But because he has a defect, he must not go near the curtain or approach the altar. He is not to desecrate My sanctuaries, for I am Yahweh who sets them apart.” <sup>24</sup> Moses said this to Aaron and his sons and to all the Israelites.

Priests and Their Food

22 The LORD spoke to Moses: <sup>2</sup> “Tell Aaron and his sons to deal respectfully with the holy offerings of the Israelites that they have consecrated to Me, so they do not profane My holy name; I am •Yahweh. <sup>3</sup> Say to them: If any man from any of your descendants throughout your generations is in a state of uncleanness yet approaches the holy offerings that the Israelites consecrate to the LORD, that person will be cut off from My presence; I am Yahweh. <sup>4</sup> No man of Aaron’s descendants who has a skin disease <sup>A</sup> or a discharge is to eat from the holy offerings until he is •clean. Whoever touches anything made •unclean by a dead person or by a man who has an emission of semen, <sup>5</sup> or whoever touches any swarming creature that makes him unclean or any person who makes him unclean — whatever his uncleanness — <sup>6</sup> the man who touches any of these will remain unclean until evening and is not to eat from the holy offerings unless he has bathed his body with water. <sup>7</sup> When the sun has set, he will become clean, and then he may eat from the holy offerings, for that is his food. <sup>8</sup> He must not eat an animal that died naturally or was mauled by wild beasts, <sup>B</sup>, making himself unclean by it; I am Yahweh. <sup>9</sup> They must keep My instruction, or they will be •guilty and die because they profane it; I am Yahweh who sets them apart.

<sup>10</sup> “No one outside a priest’s family <sup>C</sup>, is to eat the holy offering. A foreigner staying with a priest or a hired hand is not to eat the holy offering. <sup>11</sup> But if a priest purchases someone with his money, that person may eat it, and those born in his house may eat his food. <sup>12</sup> If the priest’s daughter is married to a man outside a priest’s family, <sup>D</sup> she is not to eat from the holy contributions. <sup>E</sup> <sup>13</sup> But if the priest’s daughter becomes widowed or divorced, has no children, and returns to her father’s house as in her youth, she may share her father’s food. But no outsider may share it. <sup>14</sup> If anyone eats a holy offering in error, he must add a fifth to its value and give the holy offering to the priest. <sup>15</sup> The priests must not profane the holy offerings the Israelites give to the LORD <sup>16</sup> by letting the people eat their holy offerings and having them bear the penalty of restitution. For I am Yahweh who sets them apart.”

Acceptable Sacrifices

<sup>21</sup> “When a man presents a •fellowship sacrifice to the LORD to fulfill a vow or as a freewill offering from the herd or flock, it has to be unblemished to be acceptable; there must be no defect in it. <sup>22†</sup> You are not to present any animal to the LORD that is blind, injured, maimed, or has a running sore, festering rash, or scabs; you may not put any of them on the altar as a fire offering to the LORD. <sup>23</sup> You may sacrifice as a freewill offering any animal from the herd or flock that has an elongated or stunted limb, but it is not acceptable as a vow offering. <sup>24</sup> You are not to present to the LORD anything that has bruised, crushed, torn, or severed testicles; you must not sacrifice them in your land. <sup>25</sup> Neither you nor <sup>F</sup> a foreigner are to present food to your God from any of these animals. They will not be accepted for you because they are deformed and have a defect.”

<sup>26</sup> The LORD spoke to Moses: <sup>27</sup> “When an ox, sheep, or goat is born, it must remain with <sup>G</sup> its mother for seven days; from the eighth day on, it will be acceptable as a gift, a fire offering to the LORD. <sup>28</sup> But you are not to slaughter an animal from the herd or flock on the same day as its young. <sup>29</sup> When you sacrifice a thank offering to the LORD, sacrifice it so that you may be accepted. <sup>30</sup> It is to be eaten on the same day. Do not let any of it remain until morning; I am Yahweh.

<sup>31</sup> “You are to keep My commands and do them; I am Yahweh. <sup>32</sup> You must not profane My holy name; I must be treated as holy among the Israelites. I am Yahweh who sets you apart, <sup>33</sup> the One who brought you out of the land of Egypt to be your God; I am Yahweh.”

Holy Days

23 The LORD spoke to Moses: <sup>2</sup> “Speak to the Israelites and tell them: These are My appointed times, the times of the LORD that you will proclaim as sacred assemblies.

<sup>3†</sup> “Work may be done for six days, but on the seventh day there must be a Sabbath of complete rest, a sacred assembly. You are not to do any work; it is a Sabbath to the LORD wherever you live.

<sup>9</sup> The LORD spoke to Moses: <sup>10</sup> “Speak to the Israelites and tell them: When you enter the land I am giving you and reap its harvest, you are to bring the first sheaf of your harvest to the priest. <sup>11</sup> He will wave the sheaf before the LORD so that you may be accepted; the priest is to wave it on the day after the Sabbath. <sup>12</sup> On the day you wave the sheaf, you are to offer a year-old male lamb <sup>A</sup> without blemish as a •burnt offering to the LORD. <sup>13</sup> Its •grain offering is to be four quarts <sup>B</sup> of fine flour mixed with oil as a fire offering to the LORD, a pleasing aroma, and its •drink offering will be one quart <sup>C</sup> of wine. <sup>14</sup> You must not eat bread, roasted grain, or any new grain until this very day, and until you have brought the offering to your God. This is to be a permanent statute throughout your generations wherever you live.

of bread from your settlements as a presentation offering, each of them made from four quarts <sup>F</sup> of fine flour, baked with yeast, as •firstfruits to the LORD. <sup>18</sup> You are to present with the bread seven unblemished male lambs a year old, one young bull, and two rams. They will be a burnt offering to the LORD, with their grain offerings and drink offerings, a fire offering of a pleasing aroma to the LORD. <sup>19</sup> You are also to prepare one male goat as a •sin offering, and two male lambs a year old as a •fellowship sacrifice. <sup>20</sup> The priest will wave the lambs with the bread of firstfruits as a presentation offering before the LORD; the bread and the two lambs will be holy to the LORD for the priest. <sup>21</sup> On that same day you are to make a proclamation and hold a sacred assembly. You are not to do any daily work. This is to be a permanent statute wherever you live throughout your generations. <sup>22</sup> When you reap the harvest of your land, you are not to reap all the way to the edge of your field or gather the gleanings of your harvest. Leave them for the poor and the foreign resident; I am •Yahweh your God.”

<sup>26</sup> The LORD again spoke to Moses: <sup>27</sup> “The tenth day of this seventh month is the Day of •Atonement. You are to hold a sacred assembly and practice self-denial; you are to present a fire offering to the LORD. <sup>28</sup> On this particular day you are not to do any work, for it is a Day of Atonement to make atonement for yourselves before the LORD your God. <sup>29</sup> If any person does not practice self-denial on this particular day, he must be cut off from his people. <sup>30</sup> I will destroy among his people anyone who does any work on this same day. <sup>31</sup> You are not to do any work. This is a permanent statute throughout your generations wherever you live. <sup>32</sup> It will be a Sabbath of complete rest for you, and you must practice self-denial. You are to observe your Sabbath from the evening of the ninth day of the month until the following evening.”

<sup>39</sup> “You are to celebrate the LORD’s festival on the fifteenth day of the seventh month for seven days after you have gathered the produce of the land. There will be complete rest on the first day and complete rest on the eighth day. <sup>40</sup> On the first day you are to take the product of majestic trees — palm fronds, boughs of leafy trees, and willows of the brook — and rejoice before the LORD your God for seven days. <sup>41</sup> You are to celebrate it as a festival to the LORD seven days each year. This is a permanent statute for you throughout your generations; you must celebrate it in the seventh month. <sup>42</sup> You are to live in booths for seven days. All the native-born of Israel must live in booths, <sup>43</sup> so that your generations may know that I made the Israelites live in booths when I brought them out of the land of Egypt; I am Yahweh your God.” <sup>44</sup> So Moses declared the LORD’s appointed times to the Israelites.

24 The LORD spoke to Moses: <sup>2</sup> “Command the Israelites to bring you pure oil from crushed olives for the light, in order to keep the lamp burning continually. <sup>3</sup> Aaron is to tend it continually from evening until morning before the LORD outside the veil of the •testimony in the tent of meeting. This is a permanent statute throughout your generations. <sup>4</sup> He must continually tend the lamps on the pure gold lampstand in the LORD’s presence.

A Case of Blasphemy

<sup>10†</sup> Now the son of an Israelite mother and an Egyptian father was <sup>B</sup> among the Israelites. A fight broke out in the camp between the Israelite woman’s son and an Israelite man. <sup>11</sup> Her son cursed and blasphemed the Name, and they brought him to Moses. (His mother’s name was Shelomith, a daughter of Dibri of the tribe of Dan. ) <sup>12</sup> They put him in custody until the LORD’s decision could be made clear to them.

<sup>13†</sup> Then the LORD spoke to Moses: <sup>14</sup> “Bring the one who has cursed to the outside of the camp and have all who heard him lay their hands on his head; then have the whole community stone him. <sup>15</sup> And tell the Israelites: If anyone curses his God, he will bear the consequences of his sin. <sup>16</sup> Whoever blasphemes the name of •Yahweh is to be put to death; the whole community must stone him. If he blasphemes the Name, he is to be put to death, whether the foreign resident or the native.

<sup>23</sup> After Moses spoke to the Israelites, they brought the one who had cursed to the outside of the camp and stoned him. So the Israelites did as the LORD had commanded Moses.

Sabbath Years and Jubilee

25 The LORD spoke to Moses on Mount Sinai: <sup>2</sup> “Speak to the Israelites and tell them: When you enter the land I am giving you, the land will observe a Sabbath to the LORD. <sup>3</sup> You may sow your field for six years, and you may prune your vineyard and gather its produce for six years. <sup>4†</sup> But there will be a Sabbath of complete rest for the land in the seventh year, a Sabbath to the LORD: you are not to sow your field or prune your vineyard. <sup>5</sup> You are not to reap what grows by itself from your crop, or harvest the grapes of your untended vines. It must be a year of complete rest for the land. <sup>6</sup> Whatever the land produces during the Sabbath year can be food for you — for yourself, your male or female slave, and the hired hand or foreigner who stays with you. <sup>7</sup> All of its growth may serve as food for your livestock and the wild animals in your land.

<sup>8</sup> “You are to count seven sabbatical years, seven times seven years, so that the time period of the seven sabbatical years amounts to 49. <sup>9</sup> Then you are to sound a trumpet loudly in the seventh month, on the tenth day of the month; you will sound it throughout your land on the Day of •Atonement. <sup>10†</sup> You are to consecrate the fiftieth year and proclaim freedom in the land for all its inhabitants. It will be your Jubilee, when each of you is to return to his property and each of you to his clan. <sup>11</sup> The fiftieth year will be your Jubilee; you are not to sow, reap what grows by itself, or harvest its untended vines. <sup>12</sup> It is to be holy to you because it is the Jubilee; you may only eat its produce directly from the field.

<sup>18</sup> “You are to keep My statutes and ordinances and carefully observe them, so that you may live securely in the land. <sup>19</sup> Then the land will yield its fruit, so that you can eat, be satisfied, and live securely in the land. <sup>20</sup> If you wonder: ‘What will we eat in the seventh year if we don’t sow or gather our produce?’ <sup>21</sup> I will appoint My blessing for you in the sixth year, so that it will produce a crop sufficient for three years. <sup>22</sup> When you sow in the eighth year, you will be eating from the previous harvest. You will be eating this until the ninth year when its harvest comes in.

<sup>35</sup> “If your brother becomes destitute and cannot sustain himself among <sup>D</sup> you, you are to support him as a foreigner or temporary resident, so that he can continue to live among you. <sup>36</sup> Do not profit or take interest from him, but fear your God and let your brother live among you. <sup>37</sup> You are not to lend him your silver with interest or sell him your food for profit. <sup>38</sup> I am Yahweh your God, who brought you out of the land of Egypt to give you the land of Canaan and to be your God.

<sup>39†</sup> “If your brother among you becomes destitute and sells himself to you, you must not force him to do slave labor. <sup>40</sup> Let him stay with you as a hired hand or temporary resident; he may work for you until the Year of Jubilee. <sup>41</sup> Then he and his children are to be released from you, and he may return to his clan and his ancestral property. <sup>42</sup> They are not to be sold as slaves, <sup>E</sup> because they are My slaves that I brought out of the land of Egypt. <sup>43</sup> You are not to rule over them harshly but fear your God. <sup>44</sup> Your male and female slaves are to be from the nations around you; you may purchase male and female slaves. <sup>45</sup> You may also purchase them from the foreigners staying with you, or from their families living among you — those born in your land. These may become your property. <sup>46</sup> You may leave them to your sons after you to inherit as property; you can make them slaves for life. But concerning your brothers, the Israelites, you must not rule over one another harshly.

the price of his redemption in proportion to his remaining years.<sup>53</sup> He will stay with him like a man hired year by year. A foreign owner is not to rule over him harshly in your sight.<sup>54</sup> If he is not redeemed in any of these ways, he and his children are to be released at the Year of Jubilee.<sup>55</sup> For the Israelites are My slaves. They are My slaves that I brought out of the land of Egypt; I am Yahweh your God.

Covenant Blessings and Discipline

26 “Do not make idols for yourselves, set up a carved image or sacred pillar for yourselves, or place a sculpted stone in your land to bow down to it, for I am •Yahweh your God. <sup>2</sup> You must keep My Sabbaths and revere My sanctuary; I am Yahweh.

<sup>3</sup> “If you follow My statutes and faithfully observe My commands, <sup>4</sup> I will give you rain at the right time, and the land will yield its produce, and the trees of the field will bear their fruit. <sup>5</sup> Your threshing will continue until grape harvest, and the grape harvest will continue until sowing time; you will have plenty of food to eat and live securely in your land. <sup>6</sup> I will give peace to the land, and you will lie down with nothing to frighten you. I will remove dangerous animals from the land, and no sword will pass through your land. <sup>7</sup> You will pursue your enemies, and they will fall before you by the sword. <sup>8</sup> Five of you will pursue 100, and 100 of you will pursue 10,000; your enemies will fall before you by the sword.

<sup>9</sup> “I will turn to you, make you fruitful and multiply you, and confirm My covenant with you. <sup>10</sup> You will eat the old grain of the previous year and will clear out the old to make room for the new. <sup>11</sup> I will place My residence <sup>A</sup> among you, and I will not reject you. <sup>12</sup> I will walk among you and be your God, and you will be My people. <sup>13</sup> I am Yahweh your God, who brought you out of the land of Egypt, so that you would no longer be their slaves. I broke the bars of your yoke and enabled you to live in freedom. <sup>B</sup>

<sup>14†</sup> “But if you do not obey Me and observe all these commands — <sup>15</sup> if you reject My statutes and despise My ordinances, and do not observe all My commands — and break My covenant, <sup>16</sup> then I will do this to you: I will bring terror on you — wasting disease and fever that will cause your eyes to fail and your life to ebb away. You will sow your seed in vain because your enemies will eat it. <sup>17</sup> I will turn <sup>C</sup> against you, so that you will be defeated by your enemies. Those who hate you will rule over you, and you will flee even though no one is pursuing you.

<sup>18</sup> “But if after these things you will not obey Me, I will proceed to discipline you seven times for your sins. <sup>19</sup> I will break down your strong pride. I will make your sky like iron and your land like bronze, <sup>20</sup> and your strength will be used up for nothing. Your land will not yield its produce, and the trees of the land will not bear their fruit.

<sup>21†</sup> “If you act with hostility toward Me and are unwilling to obey Me, I will multiply your plagues seven times for your sins. <sup>22</sup> I will send wild animals against you that will deprive you of your children, ravage your livestock, and reduce your numbers until your roads are deserted.

<sup>23</sup> “If in spite of these things you do not accept My discipline, but act with hostility toward Me, <sup>24</sup> then I will act with hostility toward you; I also will strike you seven times for your sins. <sup>25</sup> I will bring a sword against you to execute the vengeance of the covenant. Though you withdraw into your cities, I will send a pestilence among you, and you will be delivered into enemy hands. <sup>26</sup> When I cut off your supply of bread, 10 women will bake your bread in a single oven and ration out your bread by weight, so that you will eat but not be satisfied.

<sup>27</sup> “And if in spite of this you do not obey Me but act with hostility toward Me, <sup>28</sup> I will act with furious hostility toward you; I will also discipline you seven times for your sins. <sup>29</sup> You will eat the flesh of your sons; you will eat the flesh of your daughters. <sup>30</sup> I will destroy your •high places, cut down your incense altars, and heap your dead bodies on the lifeless bodies of your idols; I will reject you. <sup>31</sup> I will reduce your cities to ruins and devastate your sanctuaries. I will not smell the pleasing aroma of your sacrifices. <sup>32</sup> I also will devastate the land, so that your enemies who come to live there will be appalled by it. <sup>33</sup> But I will scatter you among the nations, and I will draw a sword to chase after you. So your land will become desolate, and your cities will become ruins.

<sup>34</sup> “Then the land will make up for its Sabbath years during the time it lies desolate, while you are in the land of your enemies. At that time the land will rest and make up for its Sabbaths. <sup>35</sup> As long as it lies desolate, it will have the rest it did not have during your Sabbaths when you lived there.

<sup>36</sup> “I will put anxiety in the hearts of those of you who survive in the lands of their enemies. The sound of a wind-driven leaf will put them to flight, and they will flee as one flees from a sword, and fall though no one is pursuing them. <sup>37</sup> They will stumble over one another as if fleeing from a sword though no one is pursuing them. You will not be able to stand against your enemies. <sup>38</sup> You will perish among the nations; the land of your enemies will devour you. <sup>39</sup> Those <sup>D</sup> who survive in the lands of your enemies will waste away because of their sin; they will also waste away because of their fathers’ sins along with theirs.

<sup>40</sup> “But if they will confess their sin and the sin of their fathers — their unfaithfulness that they practiced against Me, and how they acted with hostility toward Me, <sup>41</sup> and I acted with hostility toward them and brought them into the land of their enemies — and if their uncircumcised hearts will be humbled, and if they will pay the penalty for their sin, <sup>42</sup> then I will remember My covenant with Jacob. I will also remember My covenant with Isaac and My covenant with Abraham, and I will remember the land. <sup>43</sup> For the land abandoned by them will make up for its Sabbaths by lying desolate without the people, while they pay the penalty for their sin, because they rejected My ordinances and abhorred My statutes. <sup>44</sup> Yet in spite of this, while they are in the land of their enemies, I will not reject or abhor them so as to destroy them and break My covenant with them, since I am Yahweh their God. <sup>45</sup> For their sake I will remember the covenant with their fathers, whom I brought out of the land of Egypt in the sight of the nations to be their God; I am Yahweh.”

Funding the Sanctuary

27 †The LORD spoke to Moses: <sup>2</sup> “Speak to the Israelites and tell them: When someone makes a special vow to the LORD that involves the assessment of people, <sup>3</sup> if the assessment concerns a male from 20 to 60 years old, your assessment is 50 silver •shekels measured by the standard sanctuary shekel. <sup>4</sup> If the person is a female, your assessment is 30 shekels. <sup>5</sup> If the person is from five to 20 years old, your assessment for a male is 20 shekels and for a female 10 shekels. <sup>6</sup> If the person is from one month to five years old, your assessment for a male is five silver shekels, and for a female your assessment is three shekels of silver. <sup>7</sup> If the person is 60 years or more, your assessment is 15 shekels for a male and 10 shekels for a female. <sup>8</sup> But if one is too poor to pay the assessment, he must present the person before the priest and the priest will set a value for him. The priest will set a value for him according to what the one making the vow can afford.

<sup>9</sup> “If the vow involves one of the animals that may be brought as an offering to the LORD, any of these he gives to the LORD will be holy. <sup>10</sup> He may not replace it or make a substitution for it, either good for bad, or bad for good. But if he does substitute one animal for another, both that animal and its substitute will be holy.

<sup>11</sup> “If the vow involves any of the •unclean animals that may not be brought as an offering to the LORD, the animal must be presented before the priest. <sup>12</sup> The priest will set its value, whether high or low; the price will be set as the priest makes the assessment for you. <sup>13</sup> If the one who brought it decides to redeem it, he must add a fifth to the <sup>A</sup> assessed value.

<sup>14</sup> “When a man consecrates his house as holy to the LORD, the priest will assess its value, whether high or low. The price will stand just as the priest assesses it. <sup>15</sup> But if the one who consecrated his house redeems it, he must add a fifth to the <sup>B</sup> assessed value, and it will be his.

he consecrates his field during the Year of Jubilee, the price will stand according to your assessment.<sup>18</sup> But if he consecrates his field after the Jubilee, the priest will calculate the price for him in proportion to the years left until the next Year of Jubilee, so that your assessment will be reduced.<sup>19</sup> If the one who consecrated the field decides to redeem it, he must add a fifth to the <sup>E</sup> assessed value, and the field will transfer back to him.<sup>20</sup> But if he does not redeem the field or if he has sold it to another man, it is no longer redeemable.<sup>21</sup> When the field is released in the Jubilee, it will be holy to the LORD like a field permanently set apart; it becomes the priest's property.

<sup>22</sup> “If a person consecrates to the LORD a field he has purchased that is not part of his inherited landholding,<sup>23</sup> then the priest will calculate for him the amount of the <sup>F</sup> assessment up to the Year of Jubilee, and the person will pay the assessed value on that day as a holy offering to the LORD.<sup>24</sup> In the Year of Jubilee the field will return to the one he bought it from, the original owner.<sup>25</sup> All your assessed values will be measured by the standard sanctuary shekel, 20 gerahs to the shekel.

<sup>26</sup> “But no one can consecrate a firstborn of the livestock, whether an animal from the herd or flock, to the LORD, because a firstborn already belongs to the LORD.<sup>27</sup> If it is one of the unclean livestock, it must be ransomed according to your assessment by adding a fifth of its value to it. If it is not redeemed, it can be sold according to your assessment.

<sup>28</sup> “Nothing that a man permanently sets apart to the LORD from all he owns, whether a person, an animal, or his inherited landholding, can be sold or redeemed; everything set apart is especially holy to the LORD.<sup>29</sup> No person who has been set apart for destruction is to be ransomed; he must be put to death.

be holy to the LORD. <sup>33</sup> He is not to inspect whether it is good or bad, and he is not to make a substitution for it. But if he does make a substitution, both the animal and its substitute will be holy; they cannot be redeemed.”

The Census of Israel

1 †The LORD spoke to Moses in the tent of meeting in the Wilderness of Sinai, on the first day of the second month of the second year after Israel's departure from the land of Egypt: <sup>2†</sup> "Take a census of the entire Israelite community by their clans and their ancestral houses, counting the names of every male one by one. <sup>3</sup> You and Aaron are to register those who are 20 years old or more by their military divisions — everyone who can serve in Israel's army. <sup>A</sup> <sup>4</sup> A man from each tribe is to be with you, each one the head of his ancestral house. <sup>5†</sup> These are the names of the men who are to assist you:

Elizur son of Shedeur from Reuben;

Elishama son of Ammihud from Ephraim,

Gamaliel son of Pedahzur from Manasseh;

<sup>22</sup> The descendants of Simeon: according to their family records by their clans and their ancestral houses, those registered counting one by one the names of every male 20 years old or more, everyone who could serve in the army, <sup>23</sup> those registered for the tribe of Simeon numbered 59,300.

<sup>24</sup> The descendants of Gad: according to their family records by their clans and their ancestral houses, counting the names of those 20 years old or more, everyone who could serve in the army, <sup>25</sup> those registered for the tribe of Gad numbered 45,650.

<sup>26</sup> The descendants of Judah: according to their family records by their clans and their ancestral houses, counting the names of those 20 years old or more, everyone who could serve in the army, <sup>27</sup> those registered for the tribe of Judah numbered 74,600.

<sup>28</sup> The descendants of Issachar: according to their family records by their clans and their ancestral houses, counting the names of those 20 years old or more, everyone who could serve in the army, <sup>29</sup> those registered for the tribe of Issachar numbered 54,400.

The descendants of Ephraim: according to their family records by their clans and their ancestral houses, counting the names of those 20 years old or more, everyone who could serve in the army, <sup>33</sup> those registered for the tribe of Ephraim numbered 40,500.

<sup>34</sup> The descendants of Manasseh: according to their family records by their clans and their ancestral houses, counting the names of those 20 years old or more, everyone who could serve in the army, <sup>35</sup> those registered for the tribe of Manasseh numbered 32,200.

<sup>36</sup> The descendants of Benjamin: according to their family records by their clans and their ancestral houses, counting the names of those 20 years old or more, everyone who could serve in the army, <sup>37</sup> those registered for the tribe of Benjamin numbered 35,400.

<sup>38</sup> The descendants of Dan: according to their family records by their clans and their ancestral houses, counting the names of those 20 years old or more, everyone who could serve in the army, <sup>39</sup> those registered for the tribe of Dan numbered 62,700.

<sup>40</sup> The descendants of Asher: according to their family records by their clans and their ancestral houses, counting the names of those 20 years old or more, everyone who could serve in the army, <sup>41</sup> those registered for the tribe of Asher numbered 41,500.

<sup>42</sup> The descendants of Naphtali: according to their family records by their clans and their ancestral houses, counting the names of those 20 years old or more, everyone who could serve in the army, <sup>43</sup> those registered for the tribe of Naphtali numbered 53,400.

<sup>44†</sup> These are the men Moses and Aaron registered, with the assistance of the 12 leaders of Israel; each represented his ancestral house. <sup>45</sup> So all the Israelites 20 years old or more, everyone who could serve in Israel's army, were registered by their ancestral houses. <sup>46</sup> All those registered numbered 603,550.

Duties of the Levites

tribe of Levi with the other Israelites. <sup>50</sup> Appoint the Levites over the tabernacle of the •testimony, all its furnishings, and everything in it. They are to transport the tabernacle and all its articles, take care of it, and camp around it. <sup>51†</sup> Whenever the tabernacle is to move, the Levites are to take it down, and whenever it is to stop at a campsite, the Levites are to set it up. Any unauthorized person who comes near it must be put to death.

2 †The LORD spoke to Moses and Aaron: 2 “The Israelites are to camp under their respective banners beside the flags of their ancestral houses. They are to camp around the tent of meeting at a distance from it:

3 Judah’s military divisions will camp on the east side toward the sunrise under their banner. The leader of the descendants of Judah is Nahshon son of Amminadab. 4 His military division numbers 74,600. 5 The tribe of Issachar will camp next to it. The leader of the Issacharites is Nethanel son of Zuar. 6 His military division numbers 54,400. 7 The tribe of Zebulun will be next. The leader of the Zebulunites is Eliab son of Helon. 8 His military division numbers 57,400. 9† The total number in their military divisions who belong to Judah’s encampment is 186,400; they will move out first.

10 Reuben’s military divisions will camp on the south side under their banner. The leader of the Reubenites is Elizur son of Shedeur. 11 His military division numbers 46,500. 12 The tribe of Simeon will camp next to it. The leader of the Simeonites is Shelumiel son of Zurishaddai. 13 His military division numbers 59,300. 14 The tribe of Gad will be next. The leader of the Gadites is Eliasaph son of Deuel. 15 His military division numbers 45,650. 16 The total number in their military divisions who belong to Reuben’s encampment is 151,450; they will move out second.

17† The tent of meeting is to move out with the Levites’ camp, which is in the middle of the camps. They are to move out just as they camp, each in his place, <sup>A</sup> with their banners.

18 Ephraim’s military divisions will camp on the west side under their banner. The leader of the Ephraimites is Elishama son of Ammihud. 19 His military division numbers 40,500. 20 The tribe of Manasseh will be next to it. The leader of the Manassites is Gamaliel son of Pedahzur. 21 His military division numbers 32,200. 22 The tribe of Benjamin will be next. The leader of the Benjaminites is Abidan son of Gideoni. 23 His military division numbers 35,400. <sup>24</sup> The total in their military divisions who belong to Ephraim's encampment number 108,100; they will move out third.

Aaron's Sons and the Levites

3 † These are the family records of Aaron and Moses at the time the LORD spoke with Moses on Mount Sinai. <sup>2</sup> These are the names of Aaron's sons: Nadab, the firstborn, and Abihu, Eleazar, and Ithamar. <sup>3</sup> These are the names of Aaron's sons, the anointed priests, who were ordained to serve as priests. <sup>4</sup> But Nadab and Abihu died in the LORD's presence when they presented unauthorized fire before the LORD in the Wilderness of Sinai, and they had no sons. So Eleazar and Ithamar served as priests under the direction of Aaron their father.

<sup>11</sup> † The LORD spoke to Moses: <sup>12</sup> "See, I have taken the Levites from the Israelites in place of every firstborn Israelite from the womb. The Levites belong to Me, <sup>13</sup> because every firstborn belongs to Me. At the time I struck down every firstborn in the land of Egypt, I consecrated every firstborn in Israel to Myself, both man and animal. They are Mine; I am •Yahweh."

The Levitical Census

<sup>14</sup> The LORD spoke to Moses in the Wilderness of Sinai: <sup>15</sup> "Register the Levites by their ancestral houses and their clans. You are to register every male one month old or more." <sup>16</sup> So Moses registered them in obedience to the LORD as he had been commanded:

Libni and Shimei. <sup>19</sup> Kohath's sons by their clans were Amram, Izhar, Hebron, and Uzziel. <sup>20</sup> Merari's sons by their clans were Mahli and Mushi. These were the Levite clans by their ancestral houses.

to these, <sup>37</sup> in addition to the posts of the surrounding courtyard with their bases, tent pegs, and ropes.

<sup>38</sup> Moses, Aaron, and his sons, who performed the duties of <sup>F</sup> the sanctuary as a service on behalf of the Israelites, camped in front of the tabernacle on the east, in front of the tent of meeting toward the sunrise. Any unauthorized person who came near it was to be put to death.

Redemption of the Firstborn

<sup>40†</sup> The LORD told Moses: "Register every firstborn male of the Israelites one month old or more, and list their names. <sup>41</sup> You are to take the Levites for Me — I am Yahweh — in place of every firstborn among the Israelites, and the Levites' cattle in place of every firstborn among the Israelites' cattle." <sup>42</sup> So Moses registered every firstborn among the Israelites, as the LORD commanded him. <sup>43</sup> The total number of the firstborn males one month old or more listed by name was 22,273.

4 †The LORD spoke to Moses and Aaron: 2 “Among the Levites, take a census of the Kohathites by their clans and their ancestral houses, 3 men from 30 years old to 50 years old — everyone who is qualified <sup>A</sup> to do work at the tent of meeting.

4 “The service of the Kohathites at the tent of meeting concerns the most holy objects. 5 Whenever the camp is about to move on, Aaron and his sons are to go in, take down the screening veil, and cover the ark of the •testimony with it. 6 They are to place over this a covering made of manatee skin, <sup>B</sup> spread a solid blue cloth on top, and insert its poles.

7 “They are to spread a blue cloth over the table of the Presence and place the plates and cups on it, as well as the bowls and pitchers for the •drink offering. The regular bread offering is to be on it. 8 They are to spread a scarlet cloth over them, cover them with a covering made of manatee skin, <sup>C</sup> and insert the poles in the table.

9 “They are to take a blue cloth and cover the lampstand used for light, with its lamps, snuffers, and firepans, as well as its jars of oil by which they service it. 10 Then they must place it with all its utensils inside a covering made of manatee skin <sup>D</sup> and put them on the carrying frame.

11 “They are to spread a blue cloth over the gold altar, cover it with a covering made of manatee skin, <sup>E</sup> and insert its poles. 12 They are to take all the serving utensils they use in the sanctuary, place them in a blue cloth, cover them with a covering made of manatee skin, <sup>F</sup> and put them on a carrying frame.

13 “They are to remove the ashes from the bronze altar, spread a purple cloth over it, <sup>14</sup> and place all the equipment on it that they use in serving: the firepans, meat forks, shovels, and basins — all the equipment of the altar. They are to spread a covering made of manatee skin <sup>G</sup> over it and insert its poles.

<sup>15</sup> “Aaron and his sons are to finish covering the holy objects and all their equipment whenever the camp is to move on. The Kohathites will come and carry them, but they are not to touch the holy objects or they will die. These are the transportation duties of the Kohathites regarding the tent of meeting.

<sup>16</sup> “Eleazar, son of Aaron the priest, has oversight of the lamp oil, the fragrant incense, the daily •grain offering, and the anointing oil. He has oversight of the entire tabernacle and everything in it, the holy objects and their utensils.” <sup>H</sup>

<sup>17</sup> Then the LORD spoke to Moses and Aaron: <sup>18</sup> “Do not allow the Kohathite tribal clans to be wiped out from the Levites. <sup>19</sup> Do this for them so that they may live and not die when they come near the most holy objects: Aaron and his sons are to go in and assign each man his task and transportation duty. <sup>20</sup> The Kohathites are not to go in and look at the holy objects, even for a moment, <sup>I</sup> or they will die.”

Duties of the Gershonites

<sup>27</sup> “All the service of the Gershonites, all their transportation duties and all their other work, is to be done at the command of Aaron and his sons; you are to assign to them all that they are responsible to carry. <sup>28</sup> This is the service of the Gershonite clans at the tent of meeting, and their duties will be under the direction of Ithamar son of Aaron the priest.

Duties of the Merarites

<sup>29</sup> “As for the Merarites, you are to register them by their clans and their ancestral houses. <sup>30</sup> Register men from 30 years old to 50 years old, everyone who is qualified to do the work of the tent of meeting. <sup>31</sup> This is what they are responsible to carry as the whole of their service at the tent of meeting: the supports of the tabernacle, with its crossbars, posts, and bases, <sup>32</sup> the posts of the surrounding courtyard with their bases, tent pegs, and ropes, including all their equipment and all the work related to them. You are to assign by name the items that they are responsible to carry. <sup>33</sup> This is the service of the Merarite clans regarding all their work at the tent of meeting, under the direction of Ithamar son of Aaron the priest.”

Census of the Levites

clans numbered 3,200.<sup>45</sup> These were the registered men of the Merarite clans; Moses and Aaron registered them at the LORD's command through Moses.

<sup>46</sup> Moses, Aaron, and the leaders of Israel registered all the Levites by their clans and their ancestral houses,<sup>47</sup> from 30 years old to 50 years old, everyone who was qualified to do the work of serving at the tent of meeting and transporting it.<sup>48</sup> Their registered men numbered 8,580.<sup>49</sup> At the LORD's command they were registered under the direction of Moses, each one according to his work and transportation duty, and his assignment was as the LORD commanded Moses.

Isolation of the Unclean

5 †The LORD instructed Moses: 2 “Command the Israelites to send away anyone from the camp who is afflicted with a skin disease, anyone who has a bodily discharge, or anyone who is defiled because of a corpse. 3 You must send away both male or female; send them outside the camp, so that they will not defile their camps where I dwell among them.” 4 The Israelites did this, sending them outside the camp. The Israelites did as the LORD instructed Moses.

Compensation for Wrongdoing

5† The LORD spoke to Moses: 6 “Tell the Israelites: When a man or woman commits any sin against another, that person acts unfaithfully toward the LORD and is •guilty. 7 The person is to confess the sin he has committed. He is to pay full compensation, add a fifth of its value to it, and give it to the individual he has wronged. 8 But if that individual has no relative to receive compensation, the compensation goes to the LORD for the priest, along with the •atonement ram by which the priest will make atonement for the guilty person. 9 Every holy contribution the Israelites present to the priest will be his. 10 Each one’s holy contribution is his to give; what each one gives to the priest will be his.”

The Jealousy Ritual

11† The LORD spoke to Moses: 12 “Speak to the Israelites and tell them: If any man’s wife goes astray, is unfaithful to him, 13 and sleeps with another, <sup>A</sup> but it is concealed from her husband, and she is undetected, even though she has defiled herself, since there is no witness against her, and she wasn’t caught in the act; 14 and if a feeling of jealousy comes over the husband and he becomes jealous because of his wife who has defiled herself — or if a feeling of jealousy comes over him and he becomes jealous of her though she has not defiled herself — 15 then the man is to bring his wife to the priest. He is also to bring an offering for her of two quarts <sup>B</sup> of barley flour. He is not to pour oil over it or put frankincense on it because it is a •grain offering of jealousy, a grain offering for remembrance that brings sin to mind.

<sup>17</sup> Then the priest is to take holy water in a clay bowl, and take some of the dust from the tabernacle floor and put it in the water. <sup>18</sup> After the priest has the woman stand before the LORD, he is to let down her hair <sup>C</sup> and place in her hands the grain offering for remembrance, which is the grain offering of jealousy. The priest is to hold the bitter water that brings a curse. <sup>19†</sup> The priest will require the woman to take an oath and will say to her, ‘If no man has slept with you, if you have not gone astray and become defiled while under your husband’s authority, be unaffected by this bitter water that brings a curse. <sup>20</sup> But if you have gone astray while under your husband’s authority, if you have defiled yourself and a man other than your husband has slept with you’ — <sup>21</sup> at this point the priest must make the woman take the oath with the sworn curse, and he is to say to her — ‘May the LORD make you into an object of your people’s cursing and swearing when He makes your thigh shrivel and your belly swell. <sup>D</sup> <sup>22</sup> May this water that brings a curse enter your stomach, causing your belly to swell and your thigh to shrivel.’

<sup>23†</sup> “Then the priest is to write these curses on a scroll and wash them off into the bitter water. <sup>24</sup> He will require the woman to drink the bitter water that brings a curse, and it will enter her and cause bitter suffering. <sup>25</sup> The priest is to take the grain offering of jealousy from the woman’s hand, wave the offering before the LORD, and bring it to the altar. <sup>26</sup> The priest is to take a handful of the grain offering as a memorial portion and burn it on the altar. Then he will require the woman to drink the water.

<sup>27</sup> “When he makes her drink the water, if she has defiled herself and been unfaithful to her husband, the water that brings a curse will enter her and cause bitter suffering; her belly will swell, and her thigh will shrivel. She will become a curse among her people. <sup>28</sup> But if the woman has not defiled herself and is pure, she will be unaffected and will be able to conceive children.

<sup>29†</sup> “This is the law regarding jealousy when a wife goes astray and defiles herself while under her husband’s authority,<sup>30</sup> or when a feeling of jealousy comes over a husband and he becomes jealous of his wife. He is to have the woman stand before the LORD, and the priest will apply this entire ritual to her.<sup>31</sup> The husband will be free of guilt, but that woman will bear the consequences of her guilt.”

The Nazirite Vow

6 †The LORD instructed Moses: <sup>2</sup> “Speak to the Israelites and tell them: When a man or woman makes a special vow, a Nazirite vow, to consecrate himself to <sup>A</sup> the LORD, <sup>3†</sup> he is to abstain from wine and beer. He must not drink vinegar made from wine or from beer. He must not drink any grape juice or eat fresh grapes or raisins. <sup>4</sup> He is not to eat anything produced by the grapevine, from seeds to skin, <sup>B</sup> during his vow.

<sup>5†</sup> “You must not cut his hair <sup>C</sup> throughout the time of his vow of consecration. He must be holy until the time is completed during which he consecrates himself to the LORD; he is to let the hair of his head grow long. <sup>6</sup> He must not go near a dead body during the time he consecrates himself to the LORD. <sup>7</sup> He is not to defile himself for his father or mother, or his brother or sister, when they die, because the hair consecrated to his God is on his head. <sup>8</sup> He is holy to the LORD during the time of consecration.

<sup>11</sup> The priest is to offer one as a •sin offering and the other as a •burnt offering to make •atonement on behalf of the Nazirite, since he sinned because of the corpse. On that day he must consecrate <sup>D</sup> his head again.

<sup>12</sup> He is to rededicate his time of consecration to the LORD and to bring a year-old male lamb as a •restitution offering. But do not count the previous period, because his consecrated hair became defiled.

<sup>16</sup> “The priest is to present these before the LORD and sacrifice the Nazirite’s sin offering and burnt offering. <sup>17</sup> He will also offer the ram as a fellowship sacrifice to the LORD, together with the basket of unleavened bread. Then the priest will offer the accompanying grain offering and drink offering.

<sup>21†</sup> “This is the ritual of the Nazirite who vows his offering to the LORD for his consecration, in addition to whatever else he can afford; he must fulfill whatever vow he makes in keeping with the ritual for his consecration.”

The Priestly Blessing

<sup>22†</sup> The LORD spoke to Moses: <sup>23</sup> “Tell Aaron and his sons how you are to bless the Israelites. Say to them:

<sup>24</sup> May •Yahweh bless you and protect you;

and be gracious to you;

and give you peace. <sup>F</sup>

Offerings from the Leaders

7 † On the day Moses finished setting up the tabernacle, he anointed and consecrated it and all its furnishings, along with the altar and all its utensils. After he anointed and consecrated these things, <sup>2</sup> the leaders of Israel, the heads of their ancestral houses, presented an offering. They were the tribal leaders who supervised the registration. <sup>3</sup> They brought as their offering before the LORD six covered carts and 12 oxen, a cart from every two leaders and an ox from each one, and presented them in front of the tabernacle.

<sup>4</sup> The LORD said to Moses, <sup>5</sup> “Accept these from them to be used in the work of the tent of meeting, and give this offering to the Levites, to each division according to their service.”

and five male lambs a year old, for the •fellowship sacrifice. This was the offering of Nahshon son of Amminadab.

fellowship sacrifice. This was the offering of Elizur son of Shedeur.

fellowship sacrifice. This was the offering of Elishama son of Ammihud.

fellowship sacrifice. This was the offering of Ahiezer son of Ammishaddai.

livestock for the fellowship sacrifice totaled 24 bulls, 60 rams, 60 male breeding goats, and 60 male lambs a year old. This was the dedication gift for the altar after it was anointed.

<sup>89†</sup> When Moses entered the tent of meeting to speak with the LORD, he heard the voice speaking to him from above the •mercy seat that was on the ark of the •testimony, from between the two •cherubim. He spoke to him that way.

The Lighting in the Tabernacle

8 †The LORD spoke to Moses: <sup>2</sup> “Speak to Aaron and tell him: When you set up the lamps, the seven lamps are to give light in front of the lampstand.” <sup>3</sup> So Aaron did this; he set up its lamps to give light in front of the lampstand just as the LORD had commanded Moses. <sup>4</sup> This is the way the lampstand was made: it was a hammered work of gold, hammered from its base to its flower petals. The lampstand was made according to the pattern the LORD had shown Moses.

Consecration of the Levites

<sup>5†</sup> The LORD spoke to Moses: <sup>6</sup> “Take the Levites from among the Israelites and ceremonially cleanse them. <sup>7</sup> This is what you must do to them for their purification: Sprinkle them with the purification water. Have them shave their entire bodies and wash their clothes, and so purify themselves.

<sup>8†</sup> “They are to take a young bull and its •grain offering of fine flour mixed with oil, and you are to take a second young bull for a •sin offering. <sup>9</sup> Bring the Levites before the tent of meeting and assemble the entire Israelite community. <sup>10</sup> Then present the Levites before the LORD, and have the Israelites lay their hands on them. <sup>11</sup> Aaron is to present the Levites before the LORD as a presentation offering from the Israelites, so that they may perform the LORD’S work. <sup>12</sup> Next the Levites are to lay their hands on the heads of the bulls. Sacrifice one as a sin offering and the other as a •burnt offering to the LORD, to make •atonement for the Levites.

<sup>13†</sup> “You are to have the Levites stand before Aaron and his sons, and you are to present them before the LORD as a presentation offering. <sup>14</sup> In this way you are to separate the Levites from the rest of the Israelites so that the Levites will belong to Me. <sup>15†</sup> After that the Levites may come to serve at the tent of meeting, once you have ceremonially cleansed them and presented them as a presentation offering. <sup>16</sup> For they have been exclusively assigned to Me from the Israelites. I have taken them for Myself in place of all who come first from the womb, every Israelite firstborn. <sup>17</sup> For every firstborn among the Israelites is Mine, both man and animal. I consecrated them to Myself on the day I struck down every firstborn in the land of Egypt. <sup>18</sup> But I have taken the Levites in place of every firstborn among the Israelites. <sup>19</sup> From the Israelites, I have given the Levites exclusively to Aaron and his sons to perform the work for the Israelites at the tent of meeting and to make atonement on their behalf, so that no plague will come against the Israelites when they approach the sanctuary.”

The Second Passover

9 † In the first month of the second year after their departure from the land of Egypt, the LORD told Moses in the Wilderness of Sinai: <sup>2</sup> “The Israelites are to observe the •Passover at its appointed time. <sup>3</sup> You must observe it at its appointed time on the fourteenth day of this month at twilight; you are to observe it according to all its statutes and ordinances.” <sup>4</sup> So Moses told the Israelites to observe the Passover, <sup>5</sup> and they observed it in the first month on the fourteenth day at twilight in the Wilderness of Sinai. The Israelites did everything as the LORD had commanded Moses.

<sup>6†</sup> But there were some men who were •unclean because of a human corpse, so they could not observe the Passover on that day. These men came before Moses and Aaron the same day <sup>7</sup> and said to him, “We are unclean because of a human corpse. Why should we be excluded from presenting the LORD’s offering at its appointed time with the other Israelites?”

<sup>9</sup> Then the LORD spoke to Moses: <sup>10</sup> “Tell the Israelites: When any one of you or your descendants is unclean because of a corpse or is on a distant journey, he may still observe the Passover to the LORD. <sup>11</sup> Such people are to observe it in the second month, on the fourteenth day at twilight. They are to eat the animal with unleavened bread and bitter herbs; <sup>12</sup> they may not leave any of it until morning or break any of its bones. They must observe the Passover according to all its statutes.

<sup>13</sup> “But the man who is ceremonially •clean, is not on a journey, and yet fails to observe the Passover is to be cut off from his people, because he did not present the LORD’s offering at its appointed time. That man will bear the consequences of his sin.

<sup>14†</sup> “If a foreigner resides with you and wants to observe the Passover to the LORD, he is to do so according to the Passover statute and its ordinances. You are to apply the same statute to both the foreign resident and the native of the land.”

Guidance by the Cloud

<sup>15†</sup> On the day the tabernacle was set up, the cloud covered the tabernacle, the tent of the •testimony, and it appeared like fire above the tabernacle from evening until morning. <sup>16</sup> It remained that way continuously: the cloud would cover it, appearing like fire at night.

<sup>20</sup> Sometimes the cloud remained over the tabernacle for only a few days. They would camp at the LORD's command and set out at the LORD's command. <sup>21</sup> Sometimes the cloud remained only from evening until morning; when the cloud lifted in the morning, they set out. Or if it remained a day and a night, they moved out when the cloud lifted.

<sup>22</sup> Whether it was two days, a month, or longer, <sup>A</sup> the Israelites camped and did not set out as long as the cloud stayed over the tabernacle. But when it was lifted, they set out. <sup>23</sup> They camped at the LORD's command, and they set out at the LORD's command. They carried out the LORD's requirement according to His command through Moses.

Two Silver Trumpets

10 †The LORD spoke to Moses: <sup>2</sup> “Make two trumpets of hammered silver to summon the community and have the camps set out. <sup>3</sup> When both are sounded in long blasts, the entire community is to gather before you at the entrance to the tent of meeting. <sup>4</sup> However, if one is sounded, only the leaders, the heads of Israel’s clans, are to gather before you.

<sup>5</sup> “When you sound short blasts, the camps pitched on the east are to set out. <sup>6</sup> When you sound short blasts a second time, the camps pitched on the south are to set out. Short blasts are to be sounded for them to set out. <sup>7</sup> When calling the assembly together, you are to sound long blasts, not short ones. <sup>8</sup> The sons of Aaron, the priests, are to sound the trumpets. Your use of these is a permanent statute throughout your generations.

<sup>9</sup> “When you enter into battle in your land against an adversary who is attacking you, sound short blasts on the trumpets, and you will be remembered before the LORD your God and be delivered from your enemies. <sup>10</sup> You are to sound the trumpets over your •burnt offerings and your •fellowship sacrifices and on your joyous occasions, your appointed festivals, and the beginning of each of your months. They will serve as a reminder for you before your God: I am •Yahweh your God.”

From Sinai to Paran

tabernacle was then taken down, and the Gershonites and the Merarites set out, transporting the tabernacle.

<sup>29†</sup> Moses said to Hobab, son of Moses' father-in-law <sup>A</sup> Reuel the Midianite: "We're setting out for the place the LORD promised: 'I will give it to you.' Come with us, and we will treat you well, for the LORD has promised good things to Israel."

<sup>30</sup> But he replied to him, "I don't want to go. Instead, I will go to my own land and my relatives."

<sup>31</sup> "Please don't leave us," Moses said, "since you know where we should camp in the wilderness, and you can serve as our eyes. <sup>32</sup> If you come with us, whatever good the LORD does for us we will do for you."

<sup>33†</sup> They set out from the mountain of the LORD on a three-day journey with the ark of the LORD's covenant traveling ahead of them for those three days to seek a resting place for them. <sup>34</sup> Meanwhile, the cloud of the LORD was over them by day when they set out from the camp.

Arise, LORD!
Let Your enemies be scattered, and those who hate You flee from Your presence.

<sup>36</sup> When it came to rest, he would say:

Return, LORD,
to the countless thousands of Israel.

Complaints about Hardship

11 † Now the people began complaining openly before <sup>A</sup> the LORD about hardship. When the LORD heard, His anger burned, and fire from the LORD blazed among them and consumed the outskirts of the camp. <sup>2</sup> Then the people cried out to Moses, and he prayed to the LORD, and the fire died down. <sup>3</sup> So that place was named Taberah, because the LORD's fire had blazed among them.

Complaints about Food

<sup>4</sup>† Contemptible people <sup>B</sup> among them had a strong craving for other food. The Israelites cried again and said, “Who will feed us meat? <sup>5</sup> We remember the free fish we ate in Egypt, along with the cucumbers, melons, leeks, onions, and garlic. <sup>6</sup> But now our appetite is gone; <sup>C</sup> there's nothing to look at but this manna! ”

<sup>7</sup> The manna resembled coriander seed, and its appearance was like that of bdellium. <sup>8</sup> The people walked around and gathered it. They ground it on a pair of grinding stones or crushed it in a mortar, then boiled it in a cooking pot and shaped it into cakes. It tasted like a pastry cooked with the finest oil. <sup>9</sup> When the dew fell on the camp at night, the manna would fall with it.

<sup>10</sup>† Moses heard the people, family after family, crying at the entrance of their tents. The LORD was very angry; Moses was also provoked. <sup>D</sup> <sup>11</sup> So Moses asked the LORD, “Why have You brought such trouble on Your servant? Why are You angry with me, and why do You burden me with all these people? <sup>12</sup> Did I conceive all these people? Did I give them birth so You should tell me, ‘Carry them at your breast, as a nursing woman carries a baby,’ to the land that You swore to give their fathers? <sup>13</sup> Where can I get meat to give all these people? For they are crying to me: ‘Give us meat to eat!’ <sup>14</sup> I can't carry all these people by myself. They are too much for me. <sup>15</sup> If You are going to treat me like this, please kill me right now. If You are pleased with me, don't let me see my misery anymore.”

Seventy Elders Anointed

<sup>16†</sup> The LORD answered Moses, “Bring Me 70 men from Israel known to you as elders and officers of the people. Take them to the tent of meeting and have them stand there with you. <sup>17</sup> Then I will come down and speak with you there. I will take some of the Spirit who is on you and put the Spirit on them. They will help you bear the burden of the people, so that you do not have to bear it by yourself.

<sup>18</sup> “Tell the people: Purify yourselves in readiness for tomorrow, and you will eat meat because you cried before the LORD: ‘Who will feed us meat? We really had it good in Egypt.’ The LORD will give you meat and you will eat. <sup>19</sup> You will eat, not for one day, or two days, or five days, or 10 days, or 20 days, <sup>20</sup> but for a whole month — until it comes out of your nostrils and becomes nauseating to you — because you have rejected the LORD who is among you, and cried to Him: ‘Why did we ever leave Egypt?’ ”

<sup>21</sup> But Moses replied, “I’m in the middle of a people with 600,000 foot soldiers, yet You say, ‘I will give them meat, and they will eat for a month.’ <sup>22</sup> If flocks and herds were slaughtered for them, would they have enough? Or if all the fish in the sea were caught for them, would they have enough?”

<sup>23</sup> The LORD answered Moses, “Is the LORD’s power limited? <sup>E</sup> You will see whether or not what I have promised will happen to you.”

<sup>24</sup> Moses went out and told the people the words of the LORD. He brought 70 men from the elders of the people and had them stand around the tent.

<sup>25</sup> Then the LORD descended in the cloud and spoke to him. He took some of the Spirit that was on Moses and placed the Spirit on the 70 elders. As the Spirit rested on them, they prophesied, but they never did it again.

<sup>26</sup> Two men had remained in the camp, one named Eldad and the other Medad; the Spirit rested on them — they were among those listed, but had not gone out to the tent — and they prophesied in the camp. <sup>27</sup> A young man ran and reported to Moses, “Eldad and Medad are prophesying in the camp.”

<sup>29†</sup> But Moses asked him, “Are you jealous on my account? If only all the LORD’s people were prophets and the LORD would place His Spirit on them!” <sup>30</sup> Then Moses returned to the camp along with the elders of Israel.

Quail in the Camp

<sup>31†</sup> A wind sent by the LORD came up and blew quail in from the sea; it dropped them at the camp all around, three feet <sup>F</sup> off <sup>G</sup> the ground, about a day’s journey in every direction. <sup>32</sup> The people were up all that day and night and all the next day gathering the quail — the one who took the least gathered 50 bushels <sup>H</sup> — and they spread them out all around the camp.

<sup>33</sup> While the meat was still between their teeth, before it was chewed, the LORD’s anger burned against the people, and the LORD struck them with a very severe plague. <sup>34</sup> So they named that place Kibroth-hattaavah, because there they buried the people who had craved the meat.

Miriam and Aaron Rebel

12† Miriam and Aaron criticized Moses because of the •Cushite woman he married (for he had married a Cushite woman).<sup>2†</sup> They said, “Does the LORD speak only through Moses? Does He not also speak through us?” And the LORD heard it.<sup>3</sup> Moses was a very humble man, more so than any man on the face of the earth.

<sup>4</sup> Suddenly the LORD said to Moses, Aaron, and Miriam, “You three come out to the tent of meeting.” So the three of them went out.<sup>5</sup> Then the LORD descended in a pillar of cloud, stood at the entrance to the tent, and summoned Aaron and Miriam. When the two of them came forward,<sup>6</sup> He said:

“Listen to what I say:

If there is a prophet among you from the LORD,
I make Myself known to him in a vision;
I speak with him in a dream.

<sup>7†</sup> Not so with My servant Moses;
he is faithful in <sup>A</sup> all My household.

openly, and not in riddles;
he sees the form of the LORD.

So why were you not afraid to speak against My servant Moses?”<sup>9†</sup> The LORD’s anger burned against them, and He left.

<sup>10</sup> As the cloud moved away from the tent, Miriam’s skin suddenly became diseased, as white as snow. When Aaron turned toward her, he saw that she was diseased<sup>11</sup> and said to Moses, “My lord, please don’t hold against us this sin we have so foolishly committed.<sup>12</sup> Please don’t let her be like a dead baby whose flesh is half eaten away when he comes out of his mother’s womb.”

the camp for seven days; after that she may be brought back in.”<sup>15</sup> So Miriam was confined outside the camp for seven days, and the people did not move on until Miriam was brought back in.<sup>16†</sup> After that, the people set out from Hazeroth and camped in the Wilderness of Paran.

Scouting Out Canaan

13† The LORD spoke to Moses:<sup>2</sup> “Send men to scout out the land of Canaan I am giving to the Israelites. Send one man who is a leader among them from each of their ancestral tribes.”<sup>3†</sup> Moses sent them from the Wilderness of Paran at the LORD’s command. All the men were leaders in Israel.<sup>4†</sup> These were their names:

Shammua son of Zaccur from the tribe of Reuben;

<sup>17†</sup> When Moses sent them to scout out the land of Canaan, he told them, “Go up this way to the •Negev, then go up into the hill country.<sup>18</sup> See what the land is like, and whether the people who live there are strong or weak, few or many.<sup>19</sup> Is the land they live in good or bad? Are the cities they live in encampments or fortifications?<sup>20</sup> Is the land fertile or unproductive? Are there trees in it or not? Be courageous. Bring back some fruit from the land.” It was the season for the first ripe grapes.

<sup>21†</sup> So they went up and scouted out the land from the Wilderness of Zin as far as Rehob near the entrance to Hamath.<sup>A 22†</sup> They went up through the Negev and came to Hebron, where Ahiman, Sheshai, and Talmi, the descendants of Anak, were living. Hebron was built seven years before Zoan in Egypt.<sup>23</sup> When they came to the Valley of Eshcol, they cut down a branch with a single cluster of grapes, which was carried on a pole by two men. They also took some pomegranates and figs.<sup>24</sup> That place was called the Valley of Eshcol because of the cluster of grapes the Israelites cut there.<sup>25†</sup> At the end of 40 days they returned from scouting out the land.

Report about Canaan

<sup>26†</sup> The men went back to Moses, Aaron, and the entire Israelite community in the Wilderness of Paran at Kadesh. They brought back a report for them and the whole community, and they showed them the fruit of the land.<sup>27</sup> They reported to Moses: “We went into the land where you sent us. Indeed it is flowing with milk and honey, and here is some of its fruit.<sup>28†</sup> However, the people living in the land are strong, and the cities are large and fortified. We also saw the descendants of Anak there.<sup>29</sup> The Amalekites are living in the land of the Negev; the Hittites, Jebusites, and Amorites live in the hill country; and the Canaanites live by the sea and along the Jordan.”

<sup>30†</sup> Then Caleb quieted the people in the presence of Moses and said, “We must go up and take possession of the land because we can certainly conquer it! ”

<sup>31</sup> But the men who had gone up with him responded, “We can’t go up against the people because they are stronger than we are! ”<sup>32</sup> So they gave a negative report to the Israelites about the land they had scouted: “The land we passed through to explore is one that devours its inhabitants, and all the people we saw in it are men of great size.<sup>33</sup> We even saw the Nephilim there — the descendants of Anak come from the Nephilim! To ourselves we seemed like grasshoppers, and we must have seemed the same to them.”

Israel's Refusal to Enter Canaan

14† Then the whole community broke into loud cries, and the people wept that night. <sup>2</sup> All the Israelites complained about Moses and Aaron, and the whole community told them, “If only we had died in the land of Egypt, or if only we had died in this wilderness! <sup>3</sup> Why is the LORD bringing us into this land to die by the sword? Our wives and little children will become plunder. Wouldn’t it be better for us to go back to Egypt?” <sup>4</sup> So they said to one another, “Let’s appoint a leader and go back to Egypt.”

<sup>5†</sup> Then Moses and Aaron fell down with their faces to the ground in front of the whole assembly of the Israelite community. <sup>6</sup> Joshua son of Nun and Caleb son of Jephunneh, who were among those who scouted out the land, tore their clothes <sup>7</sup> and said to the entire Israelite community: “The land we passed through and explored is an extremely good land. <sup>8</sup> If the LORD is pleased with us, He will bring us into this land, a land flowing with milk and honey, and give it to us. <sup>9</sup> Only don’t rebel against the LORD, and don’t be afraid of the people of the land, for we will devour them. Their protection has been removed from them, and the LORD is with us. Don’t be afraid of them!”

<sup>10†</sup> While the whole community threatened to stone them, the glory of the LORD appeared to all the Israelites at the tent of meeting.

God’s Judgment of Israel’s Rebellion

<sup>11</sup> The LORD said to Moses, “How long will these people despise Me? How long will they not trust in Me despite all the signs I have performed among them? <sup>12</sup> I will strike them with a plague and destroy them. Then I will make you into a greater and mightier nation than they are.”

<sup>13</sup> But Moses replied to the LORD, “The Egyptians will hear about it, for by Your strength You brought up this people from them. <sup>14†</sup> They will tell it to the inhabitants of this land. They have heard that You, LORD, are among these people, how You, LORD, are seen face to face, how Your cloud stands over them, and how You go before them in a pillar of cloud by day and in a pillar of fire by night. <sup>15</sup> If You kill this people with a single blow, <sup>A</sup> the nations that have heard of Your fame will declare, <sup>16</sup> ‘Since the LORD wasn’t able to bring this people into the land He swore to give them, He has slaughtered them in the wilderness.’

<sup>17</sup> “So now, may my Lord’s power be magnified just as You have spoken:
<sup>18†</sup> The LORD is slow to anger and rich in faithful love, forgiving wrongdoing and rebellion. But He will not leave the •guilty unpunished, bringing the consequences of the fathers’ wrongdoing on the children to the third and fourth generation. <sup>19</sup> Please pardon the wrongdoing of this people, in keeping with the greatness of Your faithful love, just as You have forgiven them from Egypt until now.”

<sup>20†</sup> The LORD responded, “I have pardoned them as you requested. <sup>21</sup> Yet as surely as I live and as the whole earth is filled with the LORD’s glory, <sup>22</sup> none of the men who have seen My glory and the signs I performed in Egypt and in the wilderness, and have tested Me these 10 times and did not obey Me, <sup>23</sup> will ever see the land I swore to give their fathers. None of those who have despised Me will see it. <sup>24</sup> But since My servant Caleb has a different spirit and has followed Me completely, I will bring him into the land where he has gone, and his descendants will inherit it. <sup>25</sup> Since the Amalekites and Canaanites are living in the lowlands, <sup>B</sup> turn back tomorrow and head for the wilderness in the direction of the •Red Sea.”

<sup>26</sup> Then the LORD spoke to Moses and Aaron: <sup>27</sup> “How long must I endure this evil community that keeps complaining about Me? I have heard the Israelites’ complaints that they make against Me. <sup>28</sup> Tell them: As surely as I live,” this is the LORD’s declaration, “I will do to you exactly as I heard you say. <sup>29</sup> Your corpses will fall in this wilderness — all of you who were registered in the census, the entire number of you 20 years old or more — because you have complained about Me. <sup>30</sup> I swear that none of you will enter the land I promised <sup>C</sup> to settle you in, except Caleb son of Jephunneh and Joshua son of Nun. <sup>31</sup> I will bring your children whom you said would become plunder into the land you rejected, and they will enjoy it. <sup>32</sup> But as for you, your corpses will fall in this wilderness. <sup>33</sup> Your children will be shepherds in the wilderness for 40 years and bear the penalty for your acts of unfaithfulness until all your corpses lie scattered in the wilderness. <sup>34</sup> You will bear the consequences of your sins 40 years based on the number of the 40 days that you scouted the land, a year for each day. <sup>D</sup>, You will know My displeasure. <sup>E</sup> <sup>35</sup> I, •Yahweh, have spoken. I swear that I will do this to the entire evil community that has conspired against Me. They will come to an end in the wilderness, and there they will die.”

<sup>36</sup> So the men Moses sent to scout out the land, and who returned and incited the entire community to complain about him by spreading a negative report about the land — <sup>37</sup> those men who spread the negative report about the land were struck down by the LORD. <sup>38</sup> Only Joshua son of Nun and Caleb son of Jephunneh remained alive of those men who went to scout out the land.

Israel Routed

<sup>39†</sup> When Moses reported these words to all the Israelites, the people were overcome with grief. <sup>40</sup> They got up early the next morning and went up the ridge of the hill country, saying, “Let’s go to the place the LORD promised, for we were wrong.”

<sup>41</sup> But Moses responded, “Why are you going against the LORD’s command? It won’t succeed. <sup>42</sup> Don’t go, because the LORD is not among you and you will be defeated by your enemies. <sup>43</sup> The Amalekites and Canaanites are right in front of you, and you will fall by the sword. The LORD won’t be with you, since you have turned from following Him.”

<sup>44</sup> But they dared to go up the ridge of the hill country, even though the ark of the LORD’s covenant and Moses did not leave the camp. <sup>45</sup> Then the Amalekites and Canaanites who lived in that part of the hill country came down, attacked them, and routed them as far as Hormah.

Laws About Offerings

15 †The LORD instructed Moses: <sup>2</sup> “Speak to the Israelites and tell them: When you enter the land I am giving you to settle in, <sup>3</sup> and you make a fire offering to the LORD from the herd or flock — either a •burnt offering or a sacrifice, to fulfill a vow, or as a freewill offering, or at your appointed festivals — to produce a pleasing aroma for the LORD, <sup>4</sup> the one presenting his offering to the LORD must also present a •grain offering of two quarts <sup>A</sup> of fine flour mixed with a quart <sup>B</sup> of oil. <sup>5</sup> Prepare a quart <sup>C</sup> of wine as a •drink offering with the burnt offering or sacrifice of each lamb.

<sup>8</sup> “If you prepare a young bull as a burnt offering or as a sacrifice, to fulfill a vow, or as a •fellowship offering to the LORD, <sup>9</sup> a grain offering of six quarts <sup>G</sup> of fine flour mixed with two quarts <sup>H</sup> of oil must be presented with the bull. <sup>10</sup> Also present two quarts <sup>I</sup> of wine as a drink offering. It is a fire offering of pleasing aroma to the LORD. <sup>11</sup> This is to be done for each ox, ram, lamb, or goat. <sup>12</sup> This is how you must prepare each of them, no matter how many.

<sup>13</sup> “Every Israelite is to prepare these things in this way when he presents a fire offering as a pleasing aroma to the LORD. <sup>14</sup> When a foreigner resides with you or someone else is among you and wants to prepare a fire offering as a pleasing aroma to the LORD, he is to do exactly as you do throughout your generations. <sup>15</sup> The assembly is to have the same statute for both you and the foreign resident as a permanent statute throughout your generations. You and the foreigner will be alike before the LORD. <sup>16</sup> The same law and the same ordinance will apply to both you and the foreigner who resides with you.”

to offer a loaf from your first batch of dough as a contribution; offer it just like a contribution from the threshing floor. <sup>21</sup> Throughout your generations, you are to give the LORD a contribution from the first batch of your dough.

<sup>22†</sup> “When you sin unintentionally and do not obey all these commands that the LORD spoke to Moses — <sup>23</sup> all that the LORD has commanded you through Moses, from the day the LORD issued the commands and onward throughout your generations — <sup>24</sup> and if it was done unintentionally without the community’s awareness, the entire community is to prepare one young bull for a burnt offering as a pleasing aroma to the LORD, with its grain offering and drink offering according to the regulation, and one male goat as a •sin offering. <sup>25</sup> The priest must then make •atonement for the entire Israelite community so that they may be forgiven, for the sin was unintentional. They are to bring their offering, one made by fire to the LORD, and their sin offering before the LORD for their unintentional sin. <sup>26</sup> The entire Israelite community and the foreigner who resides among them will be forgiven, since it happened to all the people unintentionally.

<sup>27</sup> “If one person sins unintentionally, he is to present a year-old female goat as a sin offering. <sup>28</sup> The priest must then make atonement before the LORD on behalf of the person who acts in error sinning unintentionally, and when he makes atonement for him, he will be forgiven. <sup>29</sup> You are to have the same law for the person who acts in error, whether he is an Israelite or a foreigner who lives among you.

<sup>30</sup> “But the person who acts defiantly, <sup>J</sup> whether native or foreign resident, blasphemes the LORD. That person is to be cut off from his people. <sup>31</sup> He will certainly be cut off, because he has despised the LORD’s word and broken His command; his •guilt remains on him.”

Sabbath Violation

placed him in custody because it had not been decided what should be done to him. <sup>35</sup> Then the LORD told Moses, “The man is to be put to death. The entire community is to stone him outside the camp.” <sup>36</sup> So the entire community brought him outside the camp and stoned him to death, as the LORD had commanded Moses.

Tassels for Remembrance

<sup>37†</sup> The LORD said to Moses, <sup>38</sup> “Speak to the Israelites and tell them that throughout their generations they are to make tassels for the corners of their garments, and put a blue cord on the tassel at each corner. <sup>39</sup> These will serve as tassels for you to look at, so that you may remember all the LORD’s commands and obey them and not become unfaithful by following your own heart and your own eyes. <sup>40</sup> This way you will remember and obey all My commands and be holy to your God. <sup>41</sup> I am •Yahweh your God who brought you out of the land of Egypt to be your God; I am Yahweh your God.”

Korah Incites Rebellion

16 † Now Korah son of Izhar, son of Kohath, son of Levi, with Dathan and Abiram, sons of Eliab, and On son of Peleth, sons of Reuben, took <sup>2</sup> 250 prominent Israelite men who were leaders of the community and representatives in the assembly, and they rebelled against Moses. <sup>3</sup> They came together against Moses and Aaron and told them, “You have gone too far! <sup>A</sup> Everyone in the entire community is holy, and the LORD is among them. Why then do you exalt yourselves above the LORD’s assembly?”

<sup>4</sup> When Moses heard this, he fell facedown. <sup>5</sup> Then he said to Korah and all his followers, “Tomorrow morning the LORD will reveal who belongs to Him, who is set apart, and the one He will let come near Him. He will let the one He chooses come near Him. <sup>6</sup> Korah, you and all your followers are to do this: take firepans, and tomorrow <sup>7</sup> place fire in them and put incense on them before the LORD. Then the man the LORD chooses will be the one who is set apart. It is you Levites who have gone too far!” <sup>B</sup>

<sup>8</sup> Moses also told Korah, “Now listen, Levites! <sup>9</sup> Isn’t it enough for you that the God of Israel has separated you from the Israelite community to bring you near to Himself, to perform the work at the LORD’s tabernacle, and to stand before the community to minister to them? <sup>10</sup> He has brought you near, and all your fellow Levites who are with you, but you are seeking the priesthood as well. <sup>11</sup> Therefore, it is you and all your followers who have conspired against the LORD! As for Aaron, who is he <sup>C</sup> that you should complain about him?”

<sup>12†</sup> Moses sent for Dathan and Abiram, the sons of Eliab, but they said, “We will not come! <sup>13</sup> Is it not enough that you brought us up from a land flowing with milk and honey to kill us in the wilderness? Do you also have to appoint yourself as ruler over us? <sup>14</sup> Furthermore, you didn’t bring us to a land flowing with milk and honey or give us an inheritance of fields and vineyards. Will you gouge out the eyes of these men? We will not come!”

<sup>15</sup> Then Moses became angry and said to the LORD, “Don’t respect their offering. I have not taken one donkey from them or mistreated a single one of them.” <sup>16</sup> So Moses told Korah, “You and all your followers are to appear before the LORD tomorrow — you, they, and Aaron. <sup>17</sup> Each of you is to take his firepan, place incense on it, and present his firepan before the LORD — 250 firepans. You and Aaron are each to present your firepan also.”

<sup>25</sup> Moses got up and went to Dathan and Abiram, and the elders of Israel followed him. <sup>26</sup> He warned the community, “Get away now from the tents of these wicked men. Don’t touch anything that belongs to them, or you will be swept away because of all their sins.” <sup>27</sup> So they got away from the dwellings of Korah, Dathan, and Abiram. Meanwhile, Dathan and Abiram came out and stood at the entrance of their tents with their wives, children, and infants.

<sup>28</sup> Then Moses said, “This is how you will know that the LORD sent me to do all these things and that it was not of my own will: <sup>29</sup> If these men die naturally as all people would, and suffer the fate of all, then the LORD has not sent me. <sup>30</sup> But if the LORD brings about something unprecedented, and the ground opens its mouth and swallows them along with all that belongs to them so that they go down alive into •Sheol, then you will know that these men have despised the LORD.”

<sup>31</sup> Just as he finished speaking all these words, the ground beneath them split open. <sup>32</sup> The earth opened its mouth and swallowed them and their households, all Korah's people, and all their possessions. <sup>33</sup> They went down alive into Sheol with all that belonged to them. The earth closed over them, and they vanished from the assembly. <sup>34</sup> At their cries, all the people of Israel who were around them fled because they thought, "The earth may swallow us too!" <sup>35</sup> Fire also came out from the LORD and consumed the 250 men who were presenting the incense.

<sup>39</sup> So Eleazar the priest took the bronze firepans that those who were burned had presented, and they were hammered into plating for the altar, <sup>40</sup> just as the LORD commanded him through Moses. It was to be a reminder for the Israelites that no unauthorized person outside the lineage of Aaron should approach to offer incense before the LORD and become like Korah and his followers.

<sup>41†</sup> The next day the entire Israelite community complained about Moses and Aaron, saying, "You have killed the LORD's people!" <sup>42</sup> When the community assembled against them, Moses and Aaron turned toward the tent of meeting, and suddenly the cloud covered it, and the LORD's glory appeared.

<sup>43</sup> Moses and Aaron went to the front of the tent of meeting, <sup>44</sup> and the LORD said to Moses, <sup>45</sup> "Get away from this community so that I may consume them instantly." But they fell facedown.

<sup>46</sup> Then Moses told Aaron, "Take your firepan, place fire from the altar in it, and add incense. Go quickly to the community and make •atonement for them, because wrath has come from the LORD; the plague has begun.”<sup>47</sup> So Aaron took his firepan as Moses had ordered, ran into the middle of the assembly, and saw that the plague had begun among the people. After he added incense, he made atonement for the people.<sup>48</sup> He stood between the dead and the living, and the plague was halted.<sup>49</sup> But those who died from the plague numbered 14,700, in addition to those who died because of the Korah incident.<sup>50</sup> Aaron then returned to Moses at the entrance to the tent of meeting, since the plague had been halted.

Chapter 17 Aaron's Staff Chosen

<sup>6</sup> So Moses spoke to the Israelites, and each of their leaders gave him a staff, one for each of the leaders of their ancestral houses, 12 staffs in all. Aaron’s staff was among them. <sup>7</sup> Moses placed the staffs before the LORD in the tent of the testimony.

<sup>8</sup> The next day Moses entered the tent of the testimony and saw that Aaron’s staff, representing the house of Levi, had sprouted, formed buds, blossomed, and produced almonds! <sup>9</sup> Moses then brought out all the staffs from the LORD’s presence to all the Israelites. They saw them, and each man took his own staff. <sup>10</sup> The LORD told Moses, “Put Aaron’s staff back in front of the testimony to be kept as a sign for the rebels, so that you may put an end to their complaints before Me, or else they will die.” <sup>11</sup> So Moses did as the LORD commanded him.

<sup>12</sup> Then the Israelites declared to Moses, “Look, we’re perishing! We’re lost; we’re all lost! <sup>13</sup> Anyone who comes near the LORD’s tabernacle will die. Will we all perish?”

Provision for the Priesthood

18 †The LORD said to Aaron, “You, your sons, and your ancestral house will be responsible for sin against the sanctuary. You and your sons will be responsible for sin involving your priesthood. <sup>2</sup> But also bring your relatives with you from the tribe of Levi, your ancestral tribe, so they may join you and assist you and your sons in front of the tent of the •testimony. <sup>3</sup> They are to perform duties for you and for the whole tent. They must not come near the sanctuary equipment or the altar; otherwise, both they and you will die. <sup>4</sup> They are to join you and guard the tent of meeting, doing all the work at the tent, but no unauthorized person may come near you.

<sup>5</sup> “You are to guard the sanctuary and the altar so that wrath may not fall on the Israelites again. <sup>6</sup> Look, I have selected your fellow Levites from the Israelites as a gift for you, assigned by the LORD to work at the tent of meeting. <sup>7</sup> But you and your sons will carry out your priestly responsibilities for everything concerning the altar and for what is inside the veil, and you will do that work. I am giving you the work of the priesthood as a gift, <sup>A</sup> but an unauthorized person who comes near the sanctuary will be put to death.”

Support for the Priests and Levites

<sup>8†</sup> Then the LORD spoke to Aaron, “Look, I have put you in charge of the contributions brought to Me. As for all the holy offerings of the Israelites, I have given them to you and your sons as a portion and a permanent statute. <sup>9</sup> A portion of the holiest offerings kept from the fire will be yours; every one of their offerings that they give Me, whether the •grain offering, •sin offering, or •restitution offering will be most holy for you and your sons. <sup>10</sup> You are to eat it as a most holy offering. <sup>B</sup> Every male may eat it; it is to be holy to you.

<sup>11</sup> “The contribution of their gifts also belongs to you. I have given all the Israelites’ presentation offerings to you and to your sons and daughters as a permanent statute. Every ceremonially •clean person in your house may eat it. <sup>12</sup> I am giving you all the best of the fresh olive oil, new wine, and grain, which the Israelites give to the LORD as their •firstfruits. <sup>13</sup> The firstfruits of all that is in their land, which they bring to the LORD, belong to you. Every clean person in your house may eat them.

<sup>14</sup> “Everything in Israel that is permanently dedicated to the LORD belongs to you. <sup>15</sup> The firstborn of every living thing, man or animal, presented to the LORD belongs to you. But you must certainly redeem the firstborn of man, and redeem the firstborn of an •unclean animal. <sup>16</sup> You will pay the redemption price for a month-old male according to your assessment: five •shekels of silver by the standard sanctuary shekel, which is 20 gerahs.

<sup>17</sup> “However, you must not redeem the firstborn of an ox, a sheep, or a goat; they are holy. You are to sprinkle their blood on the altar and burn their fat as a fire offering for a pleasing aroma to the LORD. <sup>18</sup> But their meat belongs to you. It belongs to you like the breast of the presentation offering and the right thigh.

<sup>19</sup> “I give to you and to your sons and daughters all the holy contributions that the Israelites present to the LORD as a permanent statute. It is a permanent covenant of salt before the LORD for you as well as your •offspring.”

<sup>20</sup> The LORD told Aaron, “You will not have an inheritance in their land; there will be no portion among them for you. I am your portion and your inheritance among the Israelites.

<sup>25</sup> The LORD instructed Moses, <sup>26</sup> “Speak to the Levites and tell them: When you receive from the Israelites the tenth that I have given you as your inheritance, you must present part of it as an offering to the LORD — a tenth of the tenth. <sup>27</sup> Your offering will be credited to you as if it were your grain from the threshing floor or the full harvest from the winepress. <sup>28</sup> You are to present an offering to the LORD from every tenth you receive from the Israelites. Give some of it to Aaron the priest as an offering to the LORD. <sup>29</sup> You must present the entire offering due the LORD from all your gifts. The best part of the tenth is to be consecrated.

<sup>30</sup> “Tell them further: Once you have presented the best part of the tenth, and it is credited to you Levites as the produce of the threshing floor or the winepress, <sup>31</sup> then you and your household may eat it anywhere. It is your wage in return for your work at the tent of meeting. <sup>32</sup> You will not incur guilt because of it once you have presented the best part of it, but you must not defile the Israelites’ holy offerings, so that you will not die.”

Purification Ritual

19† The LORD spoke to Moses and Aaron,<sup>2</sup> “This is the legal statute that the LORD has commanded: Instruct the Israelites to bring you an unblemished red cow that has no defect and has never been yoked.<sup>3</sup> Give it to Eleazar the priest, and he will have it brought outside the camp and slaughtered in his presence.<sup>4</sup> Eleazar the priest is to take some of its blood with his finger and sprinkle it seven times toward the front of the tent of meeting.<sup>5</sup> The cow must be burned in his sight. Its hide, flesh, and blood, are to be burned along with its dung.<sup>6†</sup> The priest is to take cedar wood, hyssop, and crimson yarn, and throw them onto the fire where the cow is burning.<sup>7†</sup> Then the priest must wash his clothes and bathe his body in water; after that he may enter the camp, but he will remain ceremonially •unclean until evening.<sup>8</sup> The one who burned the cow must also wash his clothes and bathe his body in water, and he will remain unclean until evening.

<sup>11†</sup> “The person who touches any human corpse will be unclean for seven days.<sup>12</sup> He is to purify himself with the water<sup>A</sup> on the third day and the seventh day; then he will be clean. But if he does not purify himself on the third and seventh days, he will not be clean.<sup>13</sup> Anyone who touches a body of a person who has died, and does not purify himself, defiles the tabernacle of the LORD. That person will be cut off from Israel. He remains unclean because the water for impurity has not been sprinkled on him, and his uncleanness is still on him.

<sup>14†</sup> “This is the law when a person dies in a tent: everyone who enters the tent and everyone who is already in the tent will be unclean for seven days,
<sup>15</sup> and any open container without a lid tied on it is unclean. <sup>16</sup> Anyone in the open field who touches a person who has been killed by the sword or has died, or who even touches a human bone, or a grave, will be unclean for seven days. <sup>17</sup> For the purification of the unclean person, they are to take some of the ashes of the burnt sin offering, put them in a jar, and add fresh water to them. <sup>18</sup> A person who is clean is to take hyssop, dip it in the water, and sprinkle the tent, all the furnishings, and the people who were there. He is also to sprinkle the one who touched a bone, a grave, a corpse, or a person who had been killed.

<sup>19</sup> “The one who is clean is to sprinkle the unclean person on the third day and the seventh day. After he purifies the unclean person on the seventh day, the one being purified must wash his clothes and bathe in water, and he will be clean by evening. <sup>20</sup> But a person who is unclean and does not purify himself, that person will be cut off from the assembly because he has defiled the sanctuary of the LORD. The water for impurity has not been sprinkled on him; he is unclean. <sup>21</sup> This is a permanent statute for them. The person who sprinkles the water for impurity is to wash his clothes, and whoever touches the water for impurity will be unclean until evening. <sup>22</sup> Anything the unclean person touches will become unclean, and anyone who touches it will be unclean until evening.”

20† The entire Israelite community entered the Wilderness of Zin in the first month, and they<sup>A</sup> settled in Kadesh. Miriam died and was buried there.

<sup>2†</sup> There was no water for the community, so they assembled against Moses and Aaron. <sup>3</sup> The people quarreled with Moses and said, “If only we had perished when our brothers perished before the LORD. <sup>4</sup> Why have you brought the LORD’s assembly into this wilderness for us and our livestock to die here? <sup>5</sup> Why have you led us up from Egypt to bring us to this evil place? It’s not a place of grain, figs, vines, and pomegranates, and there is no water to drink! ”

<sup>6</sup> Then Moses and Aaron went from the presence of the assembly to the doorway of the tent of meeting. They fell down with their faces to the ground, and the glory of the LORD appeared to them. <sup>7</sup> The LORD spoke to Moses, <sup>8</sup> “Take the staff and assemble the community. You and your brother Aaron are to speak to the rock while they watch, and it will yield its water. You will bring out water for them from the rock and provide drink for the community and their livestock.”

<sup>9</sup> So Moses took the staff from the LORD’s presence just as He had commanded him. <sup>10</sup> Moses and Aaron summoned the assembly in front of the rock, and Moses said to them, “Listen, you rebels! Must we bring water out of this rock for you? ” <sup>11</sup> Then Moses raised his hand and struck the rock twice with his staff, so that a great amount of water gushed out, and the community and their livestock drank.

<sup>12</sup> But the LORD said to Moses and Aaron, “Because you did not trust Me to show My holiness in the sight of the Israelites, you will not bring this assembly into the land I have given them.” <sup>13</sup> These are the waters of Meribah, where the Israelites quarreled with the LORD, and He showed His holiness to them.

Edom Denies Passage

<sup>14†</sup> Moses sent messengers from Kadesh to the king of Edom, “This is what your brother Israel says, ‘You know all the hardships that have overtaken us. <sup>15</sup> Our fathers went down to Egypt, and we lived in Egypt many years, but the Egyptians treated us and our fathers badly. <sup>16</sup> When we cried out to the LORD, He heard our voice, sent an angel, <sup>B</sup> and brought us out of Egypt. Now look, we are in Kadesh, a city on the border of your territory. <sup>17</sup> Please let us travel through your land. We won’t travel through any field or vineyard, or drink any well water. We will travel the King’s Highway; we won’t turn to the right or the left until we have traveled through your territory.’ ”

<sup>18</sup> But Edom answered him, “You must not travel through our land, or we will come out and confront you with the sword.”

<sup>19</sup> “We will go on the main road,” the Israelites replied to them, “and if we or our herds drink your water, we will pay its price. There will be no problem; only let us travel through on foot.”

<sup>20</sup> Yet Edom insisted, “You must not travel through.” And they came out to confront them with a large force of heavily-armed people. <sup>C</sup> <sup>21</sup> Edom refused to allow Israel to travel through their territory, and Israel turned away from them.

Aaron’s Death

<sup>27</sup> So Moses did as the LORD commanded, and they climbed Mount Hor in the sight of the whole community. <sup>28</sup> After Moses removed Aaron's garments and put them on his son Eleazar, Aaron died there on top of the mountain. Then Moses and Eleazar came down from the mountain. <sup>29</sup> When the whole community saw that Aaron had passed away, the entire house of Israel mourned for him 30 days.

Canaanite King Defeated

21 †When the Canaanite king of Arad, who lived in the •Negev, heard that Israel was coming on the Atharim road, he fought against Israel and captured some prisoners. <sup>2</sup> Then Israel made a vow to the LORD, “If You will deliver this people into our hands, we will •completely destroy their cities.” <sup>3</sup> The LORD listened to Israel’s request, the Canaanites were defeated, and Israel completely destroyed them and their cities. So they named the place Hormah.

The Bronze Snake

<sup>4†</sup> Then they set out from Mount Hor by way of the •Red Sea to bypass the land of Edom, but the people <sup>A</sup> became impatient because of the journey. <sup>5</sup> The people spoke against God and Moses: “Why have you led us up from Egypt to die in the wilderness? There is no bread or water, and we detest this wretched food! ” <sup>6</sup> Then the LORD sent poisonous snakes among the people, and they bit them so that many Israelites died.

<sup>7</sup> The people then came to Moses and said, “We have sinned by speaking against the LORD and against you. Intercede with the LORD so that He will take the snakes away from us.” And Moses interceded for the people.

<sup>8</sup> Then the LORD said to Moses, “Make a snake image and mount it on a pole. When anyone who is bitten looks at it, he will recover.” <sup>9</sup> So Moses made a bronze snake and mounted it on a pole. Whenever someone was bitten, and he looked at the bronze snake, he recovered.

Journey around Moab

<sup>10†</sup> The Israelites set out and camped at Oboth. <sup>11</sup> They set out from Oboth and camped at Iye-abarim in the wilderness that borders Moab on the east. <sup>12</sup> From there they went and camped at Zered Valley. <sup>13</sup> They set out from there and camped on the other side of the Arnon River, in the wilderness that extends from the Amorite border, because the Arnon was the Moabite border between Moab and the Amorites. <sup>14</sup> Therefore it is stated in the Book of the LORD’s Wars:

Waheb in Suphah
and the ravines of the Arnon, <sup>15</sup> even the slopes of the ravines that extend to the site of Ar and lie along the border of Moab.

<sup>16</sup> From there they went to Beer, the well the LORD told Moses about, “Gather the people so I may give them water.” <sup>17</sup> Then Israel sang this song:

Spring up, well — sing to it!
<sup>18</sup> The princes dug the well;
the nobles of the people hollowed it out with a scepter and with their staffs.

They went from the wilderness to Mattanah, <sup>19</sup> from Mattanah to Nahaliel, from Nahaliel to Bamoth, <sup>20</sup> from Bamoth to the valley in the territory of Moab near the Pisgah highlands that overlook the wasteland. <sup>C</sup>

Amorite Kings Defeated

<sup>21†</sup> Israel sent messengers to say to Sihon king of the Amorites: <sup>22</sup> “Let us travel through your land. We won’t go into the fields or vineyards. We won’t drink any well water. We will travel the King’s Highway until we have traveled through your territory.” <sup>23</sup> But Sihon would not let Israel travel through his territory. Instead, he gathered his whole army and went out to confront Israel in the wilderness. When he came to Jahaz, he fought against Israel. <sup>24</sup> Israel struck him with the sword and took possession of his land from the Arnon to the Jabbok, but only up to the Ammonite border, because it was fortified.

<sup>25</sup> Israel took all the cities and lived in all these Amorite cities, including Heshbon and all its villages. <sup>26</sup> Heshbon was the city of Sihon king of the Amorites, who had fought against the former king of Moab and had taken control of all his land as far as the Arnon. <sup>27†</sup> Therefore the poets <sup>E</sup> say:

Come to Heshbon, let it be rebuilt;

let the city of Sihon be restored. <sup>F</sup>

<sup>28</sup> For fire came out of Heshbon, a flame from the city of Sihon.

It consumed Ar of Moab,
the lords of Arnon's heights.

<sup>29</sup> Woe to you, Moab!

You have been destroyed, people of Chemosh!

He gave up his sons as refugees, and his daughters into captivity to Sihon the Amorite king.

<sup>30</sup> We threw them down;

Heshbon has been destroyed as far as Dibon.

We caused desolation as far as Nophah, which reaches as far as Medeba.

Israel captured its villages and drove out the Amorites who were there.

<sup>33</sup> Then they turned and went up the road to Bashan, and Og king of Bashan came out against them with his whole army to do battle at Edrei.

<sup>34</sup> But the LORD said to Moses, "Do not fear him, for I have handed him over to you along with his whole army and his land. Do to him as you did to Sihon king of the Amorites, who lived in Heshbon." <sup>35</sup> So they struck him, his sons, and his whole army until no one was left, <sup>G</sup> and they took possession of his land.

Balak Hires Balaam

22 † The Israelites traveled on and camped in the plains of Moab near the Jordan across from Jericho. <sup>2†</sup> Now Balak son of Zippor saw all that Israel had done to the Amorites. <sup>3</sup> Moab was terrified of the people because they were numerous, and Moab dreaded the Israelites. <sup>4</sup> So the Moabites said to the elders of Midian, “This horde will devour everything around us like an ox eats up the green plants in the field.”

Since Balak son of Zippor was Moab’s king at that time, <sup>5</sup> he sent messengers to Balaam son of Beor at Pethor, which is by the Euphrates in the land of his people. Balak said to him: “Look, a people has come out of Egypt; they cover the surface of the land and are living right across from me. <sup>6</sup> Please come and put a curse on these people for me because they are more powerful than I am. I may be able to defeat them and drive them out of the land, for I know that those you bless are blessed and those you curse are cursed.”

<sup>7</sup> The elders of Moab and Midian departed with fees for •divination in hand. They came to Balaam and reported Balak’s words to him. <sup>8</sup> He said to them, “Spend the night here, and I will give you the answer the LORD tells me.” So the officials of Moab stayed with Balaam.

<sup>10</sup> Balaam replied to God, “Balak son of Zippor, king of Moab, sent this message to me: <sup>11</sup> ‘Look, a people has come out of Egypt, and they cover the surface of the land. Now come and put a curse on them for me. I may be able to fight against them and drive them away.’ ”

<sup>12</sup> Then God said to Balaam, “You are not to go with them. You are not to curse this people, for they are blessed.”

<sup>13</sup> So Balaam got up the next morning and said to Balak’s officials, “Go back to your land, because the LORD has refused to let me go with you.”

<sup>15†</sup> Balak sent officials again who were more numerous and higher in rank than the others. <sup>16</sup> They came to Balaam and said to him, “This is what Balak son of Zippor says: ‘Let nothing keep you from coming to me, <sup>17</sup> for I will greatly honor you and do whatever you ask me. So please come and put a curse on these people for me! ’ ”

<sup>18</sup> But Balaam responded to the servants of Balak, “If Balak were to give me his house full of silver and gold, I could not go against the command of the LORD my God to do anything small or great. <sup>19</sup> Please stay here overnight as the others did, so that I may find out what else the LORD has to tell me.”

<sup>20</sup> God came to Balaam at night and said to him, “Since these men have come to summon you, get up and go with them, but you must only do what I tell you.” <sup>21</sup> When he got up in the morning, Balaam saddled his donkey and went with the officials of Moab.

Balaam’s Donkey and the Angel

<sup>22†</sup> But God was incensed that Balaam was going, and the Angel of the LORD took His stand on the path to oppose him. Balaam was riding his donkey, and his two servants were with him. <sup>23</sup> When the donkey saw the Angel of the LORD standing on the path with a drawn sword in His hand, she turned off the path and went into the field. So Balaam hit her to return her to the path. <sup>24</sup> Then the Angel of the LORD stood in a narrow passage between the vineyards, with a stone wall on either side. <sup>25</sup> The donkey saw the Angel of the LORD and pressed herself against the wall, squeezing Balaam’s foot against it. So he hit her once again. <sup>26</sup> The Angel of the LORD went ahead and stood in a narrow place where there was no room to turn to the right or the left. <sup>27</sup> When the donkey saw the Angel of the LORD, she crouched down under Balaam. So he became furious and beat the donkey with his stick.

<sup>28</sup> Then the LORD opened the donkey’s mouth, and she asked Balaam, “What have I done to you that you have beaten me these three times? ”

<sup>29</sup> Balaam answered the donkey, “You made me look like a fool. If I had a sword in my hand, I’d kill you now! ”

<sup>30</sup> But the donkey said, “Am I not the donkey you’ve ridden all your life until today? Have I ever treated you this way before? ”

“No,” he replied.

<sup>31</sup> Then the LORD opened Balaam’s eyes, and he saw the Angel of the LORD standing in the path with a drawn sword in His hand. Balaam knelt and bowed with his face to the ground. <sup>32</sup> The Angel of the LORD asked him, “Why have you beaten your donkey these three times? Look, I came out to oppose you, because what you are doing is evil in My sight. <sup>33</sup> The donkey saw Me and turned away from Me these three times. If she had not turned away from Me, I would have killed you by now and let her live.”

<sup>34</sup> Balaam said to the Angel of the LORD, “I have sinned, for I did not know that You were standing in the path to confront me. And now, if it is evil in Your sight, I will go back.”

<sup>35</sup> Then the Angel of the LORD said to Balaam, “Go with the men, but you are to say only what I tell you.” So Balaam went with Balak’s officials.

<sup>37</sup> Balak asked Balaam, “Did I not send you an urgent summons? Why didn’t you come to me? Am I really not able to reward you? ”

<sup>38</sup> Balaam said to him, “Look, I have come to you, but can I say anything I want? I must speak only the message God puts in my mouth.” <sup>39</sup> So Balaam went with Balak, and they came to Kiriath-huzoth. <sup>40</sup> Balak sacrificed cattle and sheep, and sent for Balaam and the officials who were with him.

<sup>41†</sup> In the morning, Balak took Balaam and brought him to Bamoth-baal. From there he saw the outskirts of the people’s camp.

Balaam's Oracles

23 Then Balaam said to Balak, “Build me seven altars here and prepare seven bulls and seven rams for me.”<sup>2</sup> So Balak did as Balaam directed, and they offered a bull and a ram on each altar.<sup>3</sup> Balaam said to Balak, “Stay here by your •burnt offering while I am gone. Maybe the LORD will meet with me. I will tell you whatever He reveals to me.” So he went to a barren hill.

<sup>4</sup> God met with him and Balaam said to Him, “I have arranged seven altars and offered a bull and a ram on each altar.”<sup>5</sup> Then the LORD put a message in Balaam’s mouth and said, “Return to Balak and say what I tell you.”

<sup>6</sup> So he returned to Balak, who was standing there by his burnt offering with all the officials of Moab.

Balaam’s First Oracle

<sup>7</sup> Balaam proclaimed his poem:

Balak brought me from Aram;
the king of Moab, from the eastern mountains:
“Come, put a curse on Jacob for me;
come, denounce Israel! ”

<sup>8</sup> How can I curse someone God has not cursed?
How can I denounce someone the LORD has not denounced?

<sup>9</sup> I see them from the top of rocky cliffs, and I watch them from the hills.
There is a people living alone;
it does not consider itself among the nations.

<sup>10</sup> Who has counted the dust of Jacob or numbered the dust clouds <sup>A</sup> of Israel?
Let me die the death of the upright;
let the end of my life be like theirs.

<sup>11†</sup> “What have you done to me? ” Balak asked Balaam. “I brought you to curse my enemies, but look, you have only blessed them! ”

<sup>12</sup> He answered, “Shouldn’t I say exactly what the LORD puts in my mouth? ”

Balaam’s Second Oracle

<sup>13</sup> Then Balak said to him, “Please come with me to another place where you can see them. You will only see the outskirts of their camp; you won’t see all of them. From there, put a curse on them for me.” <sup>14†</sup> So Balak took him to Lookout Field <sup>B</sup> on top of Pisgah, built seven altars, and offered a bull and a ram on each altar.

<sup>15</sup> Balaam said to Balak, “Stay here by your burnt offering while I seek the LORD over there.”

<sup>16</sup> The LORD met with Balaam and put a message in his mouth. Then He said, “Return to Balak and say what I tell you.”

<sup>17</sup> So he returned to Balak, who was standing there by his burnt offering with the officials of Moab. Balak asked him, “What did the LORD say? ”

Balak, get up and listen;
son of Zippor, pay attention to what I say!

<sup>19</sup> God is not a man who lies, or a son of man who changes His mind.

Does He speak and not act, or promise and not fulfill?

<sup>20</sup> I have indeed received a command to bless;
since He has blessed, I cannot change it.

He sees no trouble for Israel. <sup>C</sup>

The LORD their God is with them, and there is rejoicing over the King among them.

<sup>22</sup> God brought them out of Egypt;
He is like the horns of a wild ox for them. <sup>D</sup>,

and no •divination against Israel.

It will now be said about Jacob and Israel,
“What great things God has done! ”

They rouse themselves like a lion.
They will not lie down until they devour the prey and drink the blood of the slain.

<sup>26</sup> But Balaam answered him, “Didn’t I tell you: Whatever the LORD says, I must do? ”

Balaam’s Third Oracle

<sup>27†</sup> Again Balak said to Balaam, “Please come. I will take you to another place. Maybe it will be agreeable to God that you can put a curse on them for me there.” <sup>28</sup> So Balak took Balaam to the top of Peor, which overlooks the wasteland. <sup>E</sup>

bulls and seven rams for me.” <sup>30</sup> So Balak did as Balaam said and offered a bull and a ram on each altar.

NUMBERS

24 Since Balaam saw that it pleased the LORD to bless Israel, he did not go to seek omens as on previous occasions, but turned <sup>A</sup> toward the wilderness. <sup>2</sup> When Balaam looked up and saw Israel encamped tribe by tribe, the Spirit of God came on him, <sup>3</sup> and he proclaimed his poem:

The •oracle of Balaam son of Beor,
the oracle of the man whose eyes are opened,
<sup>4</sup> the oracle of one who hears the sayings of God,
who sees a vision from the •Almighty,
who falls into a trance with his eyes uncovered:

<sup>5</sup> How beautiful are your tents, Jacob, your dwellings, Israel.

like gardens beside a stream, like aloes the LORD has planted, like cedars beside the water.

<sup>7</sup> Water will flow from his buckets, and his seed will be by abundant water.
His king will be greater than Agag, and his kingdom will be exalted.

<sup>8</sup> God brought him out of Egypt;
He is like <sup>C</sup> the horns of a wild ox for them.
He will feed on enemy nations and gnaw their bones;
he will strike them with his arrows.

<sup>9</sup> He crouches, he lies down like a lion or a lioness — who dares to rouse him?
Those who bless you will be blessed, and those who curse you will be cursed.

<sup>10†</sup> Then Balak became furious with Balaam, struck his hands together, and said to him, “I summoned you to put a curse on my enemies, but instead, you have blessed them these three times. <sup>11</sup> Now go to your home! I said I would reward you richly, but look, the LORD has denied you a reward.”

<sup>12</sup> Balaam answered Balak, “Didn’t I previously tell the messengers you sent me: <sup>13</sup> If Balak were to give me his house full of silver and gold, I could not go against the LORD’s command, to do anything good or bad of my own will? I will say whatever the LORD says. <sup>14</sup> Now I am going back to my people, but first, let me warn you what these people will do to your people in the future.”

Balaam’s Fourth Oracle

<sup>15†</sup> Then he proclaimed his poem:

The oracle of Balaam son of Beor,
the oracle of the man whose eyes are opened;
<sup>16</sup> the oracle of one who hears the sayings of God and has knowledge from the •Most High,
who sees a vision from the Almighty,
who falls into a trance with his eyes uncovered:

I perceive him, <sup>E</sup> but not near.

A star will come from Jacob, and a scepter will arise from Israel.

He will smash the forehead <sup>F</sup> of Moab and strike down all the Shethites. <sup>G</sup>

Seir will become a possession of its enemies, but Israel will be triumphant.

<sup>19</sup> One who comes from Jacob will rule;
he will destroy the city’s survivors.

Amalek was first among the nations, but his future is destruction.

Your dwelling place is enduring;
your nest is set in the cliffs.

<sup>22</sup> Kain will be destroyed when Asshur takes you captive.

Ah, who can live when God does this?

<sup>24</sup> Ships will come from the coast of Kittim;
they will afflict Asshur and Eber, but they too will come to destruction.

<sup>25†</sup> Balaam then arose and went back to his homeland, and Balak also went his way.

Israel Worships Baal

25 †While Israel was staying in the Acacia Grove, <sup>A</sup>, the people began to have sexual relations with the women of Moab. <sup>2</sup> The women invited them to the sacrifices for their gods, and the people ate and bowed in worship to their gods. <sup>3</sup> So Israel aligned itself with •Baal of Peor, and the LORD's anger burned against Israel. <sup>4</sup> The LORD said to Moses, "Take all the leaders of the people and execute <sup>B</sup> them in broad daylight before the LORD so that His burning anger may turn away from Israel."

Phinehas Intervenes

<sup>6</sup> An Israelite man came bringing a Midianite woman to his relatives in the sight of Moses and the whole Israelite community while they were weeping at the entrance to the tent of meeting. <sup>7</sup> When Phinehas son of Eleazar, son of Aaron the priest, saw this, he got up from the assembly, took a spear in his hand, <sup>8</sup> followed the Israelite man into the tent, and drove it through both the Israelite man and the woman — through her belly. Then the plague on the Israelites was stopped, <sup>9</sup> but those who died in the plague numbered 24,000.

<sup>10</sup> The LORD spoke to Moses, <sup>11</sup> "Phinehas son of Eleazar, son of Aaron the priest, has turned back My wrath from the Israelites because he was zealous among them with My zeal, <sup>C</sup>, so that I did not destroy the Israelites in My zeal. <sup>12</sup> Therefore declare: I grant him My covenant of peace. <sup>13</sup> It will be a covenant of perpetual priesthood for him and his future descendants, because he was zealous for his God and made •atonement for the Israelites."

<sup>14</sup> The name of the slain Israelite man, who was struck dead with the Midianite woman, was Zimri son of Salu, the leader of a Simeonite ancestral house. <sup>15</sup> The name of the slain Midianite woman was Cozbi, the daughter of Zur, a tribal head of an ancestral house in Midian.

Vengeance against the Midianites

<sup>18</sup> For they attacked you with the treachery that they used against you in the Peor incident. They did the same in the case involving their sister Cozbi, daughter of the Midianite leader who was killed the day the plague came at Peor.”

The Second Census

26 †After the plague, the LORD said to Moses and Eleazar son of Aaron the priest, <sup>2</sup> “Take a census of the entire Israelite community by their ancestral houses of those 20 years old or more who can serve in Israel’s army.”

<sup>3</sup> So Moses and Eleazar the priest said to them in the plains of Moab by the Jordan across from Jericho, <sup>4†</sup> “Take a census of those 20 years old or more, as the LORD had commanded Moses and the Israelites who came out of the land of Egypt.”

Reuben’s descendants:

the Hanochite clan from Hanoch;

the Palluite clan from Pallu;

the Carmite clan from Carmi.

(It was Dathan and Abiram, chosen by the community, who fought against Moses and Aaron; they and Korah’s followers fought against the LORD. <sup>10</sup> The earth opened its mouth and swallowed them with Korah, when his followers died and the fire consumed 250 men. They serve as a warning sign. <sup>11</sup> The sons of Korah, however, did not die.)

the Nemuelite clan from Nemuel;

the Jaminite clan from Jamin;

the Jachinite clan from Jachin;

the Shaulite clan from Shaul.

the Zephonite clan from Zephon;

the Haggite clan from Haggi;

Kohath was the ancestor of Amram. <sup>59</sup> The name of Amram’s wife was Jochebed, a descendant of Levi, born to Levi in Egypt. She bore to Amram: Aaron, Moses, and their sister Miriam. <sup>60</sup> Nadab, Abihu, Eleazar, and Ithamar were born to Aaron, <sup>61</sup> but Nadab and Abihu died when they presented unauthorized fire before the LORD. <sup>62</sup> Those registered were 23,000, every male one month old or more; they were not registered among the other Israelites, because no inheritance was given to them among the Israelites.

<sup>63†</sup> These were the ones registered by Moses and Eleazar the priest when they registered the Israelites on the plains of Moab by the Jordan across from Jericho. <sup>64</sup> But among them there was not one of those who had been registered by Moses and Aaron the priest when they registered the Israelites in the Wilderness of Sinai. <sup>65</sup> For the LORD had said to them that they would all die in the wilderness. None of them was left except Caleb son of Jephunneh and Joshua son of Nun.

A Case of Daughters' Inheritance

27† The daughters of Zelophehad approached; Zelophehad was the son of Hopher, son of Gilead, son of Machir, son of Manasseh from the clans of Manasseh, the son of Joseph. These were the names of his daughters: Mahlah, Noah, Hoglah, Milcah, and Tirzah.<sup>2</sup> They stood before Moses, Eleazar the priest, the leaders, and the entire community at the entrance to the tent of meeting and said,<sup>3</sup> “Our father died in the wilderness, but he was not among Korah’s followers, who gathered together against the LORD. Instead, he died because of his own sin, and he had no sons.<sup>4</sup> Why should the name of our father be taken away from his clan? Since he had no son, give us property among our father’s brothers.”

Joshua Commissioned to Succeed Moses

<sup>12†</sup> Then the LORD said to Moses, “Go up this mountain of the Abarim range and see the land that I have given the Israelites.<sup>13</sup> After you have seen it, you will also be gathered to your people, as Aaron your brother was.<sup>14</sup> When the community quarreled in the Wilderness of Zin, both of you rebelled against My command to show My holiness in their sight at the waters.” Those were the waters of Meribah of Kadesh in the Wilderness of Zin.

<sup>15</sup> So Moses appealed to the LORD,<sup>16</sup> “May the LORD, the God of the spirits of all flesh, appoint a man over the community<sup>17</sup> who will go out before them and come back in before them, and who will bring them out and bring them in, so that the LORD's community won't be like sheep without a shepherd."

<sup>18</sup> The LORD replied to Moses, "Take Joshua son of Nun, a man who has the Spirit in him, and lay your hands on him. <sup>19</sup> Have him stand before Eleazar the priest and the whole community, and commission him in their sight. <sup>20</sup> Confer some of your authority on him so that the entire Israelite community will obey him. <sup>21</sup> He will stand before Eleazar who will consult the LORD for him with the decision of the •Urim. He and all the Israelites with him, even the entire community, will go out and come back in at his command."

<sup>22</sup> Moses did as the LORD commanded him. He took Joshua, had him stand before Eleazar the priest and the entire community, <sup>23</sup> laid his hands on him, and commissioned him, as the LORD had spoken through Moses.

Prescribed Offerings

28 † The LORD spoke to Moses, <sup>2</sup> “Command the Israelites and say to them: Be sure to present to Me at its appointed time My offering and My food as My fire offering, a pleasing aroma to Me. <sup>3</sup> And say to them: This is the fire offering you are to present to the LORD:

Daily Offerings

Sabbath Offerings

<sup>9†</sup> “On the Sabbath day present two unblemished year-old male lambs, four quarts <sup>D</sup> of fine flour mixed with oil as a grain offering, and its drink offering. <sup>10</sup> It is the burnt offering for every Sabbath, in addition to the regular burnt offering and its drink offering.

Monthly Offerings

each male lamb. This is the monthly burnt offering for all the months of the year. <sup>15</sup> And one male goat is to be offered as a •sin offering to the LORD, in addition to the regular burnt offering with its drink offering.

Offerings for Passover

<sup>16†</sup> “The •Passover to the LORD comes in the first month, on the fourteenth day of the month. <sup>17</sup> On the fifteenth day of this month there will be a festival; unleavened bread is to be eaten for seven days. <sup>18</sup> On the first day there is to be a sacred assembly; you are not to do any daily work.

Offerings for the Festival of Weeks

<sup>26†</sup> “On the day of •firstfruits, you are to hold a sacred assembly when you present an offering of new grain to the LORD at your Festival of Weeks; you are not to do any daily work. <sup>27</sup> Present a burnt offering for a pleasing aroma to the LORD: two young bulls, one ram, and seven male lambs a year old, <sup>28</sup> with their grain offering of fine flour mixed with oil, six quarts <sup>N</sup> with each bull, four quarts <sup>O</sup> with the ram, <sup>29</sup> and two quarts <sup>P</sup> with each of the seven lambs, <sup>30</sup> and one male goat to make atonement for yourselves.

Festival of Trumpets Offerings

29† “You are to hold a sacred assembly in the seventh month, on the first day of the month, and you are not to do any daily work. This will be a day of joyful shouting<sup>A</sup> for you. <sup>2</sup> Offer a •burnt offering as a pleasing aroma to the LORD: one young bull, one ram, seven male lambs a year old — all unblemished — <sup>3</sup> with their •grain offering of fine flour mixed with oil, six quarts<sup>B</sup> with the bull, four quarts<sup>C</sup> with the ram, <sup>4</sup> and two quarts<sup>D</sup> with each of the seven male lambs. <sup>5</sup> Also offer one male goat as a •sin offering to make •atonement for yourselves. <sup>6</sup> These are in addition to the monthly and regular burnt offerings with their prescribed grain offerings and •drink offerings. They are a pleasing aroma, a fire offering to the LORD.

Offerings for the Day of Atonement

<sup>7†</sup> “You are to hold a sacred assembly on the tenth day of this seventh month and practice self-denial; you must not do any work. <sup>8</sup> Present a burnt offering to the LORD, a pleasing aroma: one young bull, one ram, and seven male lambs a year old. All your animals are to be unblemished. <sup>9</sup> Their grain offering is to be of fine flour mixed with oil, six quarts<sup>E</sup> with the bull, four quarts<sup>F</sup> with the ram, <sup>10</sup> and two quarts<sup>G</sup> with each of the seven lambs. <sup>11</sup> Offer one male goat for a sin offering. The regular burnt offering with its grain offering and drink offerings are in addition to the sin offering of atonement.

Offerings for the Festival of Booths

<sup>12†</sup> “You are to hold a sacred assembly on the fifteenth day of the seventh month; you must not do any daily work. You are to celebrate a seven-day festival for the LORD. <sup>13</sup> Present a burnt offering, a fire offering as a pleasing aroma to the LORD: 13 young bulls, two rams, and 14 male lambs a year old. They are to be unblemished. <sup>14</sup> Their grain offering is to be of fine flour mixed with oil, six quarts<sup>H</sup> with each of the 13 bulls, four quarts<sup>I</sup> with each of the two rams, <sup>15</sup> and two quarts<sup>J</sup> with each of the 14 lambs. <sup>16</sup> Also offer one male goat as a sin offering. These are in addition to the regular burnt offering with its grain and drink offerings.

<sup>19</sup> Also offer one male goat as a sin offering. These are in addition to the regular burnt offering with its grain and drink offerings.

<sup>39†</sup> “You must offer these to the LORD at your appointed times in addition to your vow and freewill offerings, whether burnt, grain, drink, or •fellowship offerings.” <sup>40†</sup> So Moses told the Israelites everything the LORD had commanded him.

Regulations about Vows

30 † Moses told the leaders of the Israelite tribes, “This is what the LORD has commanded: <sup>2</sup> When a man makes a vow to the LORD or swears an oath to put himself under an obligation, he must not break his word; he must do whatever he has promised.

<sup>3</sup> “When a woman in her father’s house during her youth makes a vow to the LORD or puts herself under an obligation, <sup>4</sup> and her father hears about her vow or the obligation she put herself under, and he says nothing to her, all her vows and every obligation she put herself under are binding. <sup>5</sup> But if her father prohibits her on the day he hears about it, none of her vows and none of the obligations she put herself under are binding. The LORD will absolve her because her father has prohibited her.

<sup>10</sup> “If a woman in her husband’s house has made a vow or put herself under an obligation with an oath, <sup>11</sup> and her husband hears about it, says nothing to her, and does not prohibit her, all her vows are binding, and every obligation she put herself under is binding. <sup>12</sup> But if her husband cancels them on the day he hears about it, nothing that came from her lips, whether her vows or her obligation, is binding. Her husband has canceled them, and the LORD will absolve her. <sup>13</sup> Her husband may confirm or cancel any vow or any sworn obligation to deny herself. <sup>14</sup> If her husband says nothing at all to her from day to day, he confirms all her vows and obligations, which are binding. He has confirmed them because he said nothing to her when he heard about them. <sup>15</sup> But if he cancels them after he hears about them, he will be responsible for her commitment.” <sup>A</sup>

War with Midian

31 † The LORD spoke to Moses, <sup>2</sup> “Execute vengeance for the Israelites against the Midianites. After that, you will be gathered to your people.”

<sup>7</sup> They waged war against Midian, as the LORD had commanded Moses, and killed every male. <sup>8†</sup> Along with the others slain by them, they killed the Midianite kings — Evi, Rekem, Zur, Hur, and Reba, the five kings of Midian. They also killed Balaam son of Beor with the sword. <sup>9</sup> The Israelites took the Midianite women and their children captive, and they plundered all their cattle, flocks, and property. <sup>10</sup> Then they burned all the cities where the Midianites lived, as well as all their encampments, <sup>11</sup> and took away all the spoils of war and the captives, both man and beast. <sup>12</sup> They brought the prisoners, animals, and spoils of war to Moses, Eleazar the priest, and the Israelite community at the camp on the plains of Moab by the Jordan across from Jericho.

<sup>19</sup> “You are to remain outside the camp for seven days. All of you and your prisoners who have killed a person or touched the dead are to purify yourselves on the third day and the seventh day. <sup>20</sup> Also purify everything: garments, leather goods, things made of goat hair, and every article of wood.”

<sup>21</sup> Then Eleazar the priest said to the soldiers who had gone to battle, “This is the legal statute the LORD commanded Moses: <sup>22</sup> Only the gold, silver, bronze, iron, tin, and lead — <sup>23</sup> everything that can withstand fire — you are to pass through fire, and it will be •clean. It must still be purified with the purification water. Anything that cannot withstand fire, pass through the water. <sup>24</sup> On the seventh day wash your clothes, and you will be clean. After that you may enter the camp.”

675,000 sheep and goats,

337,500 sheep and goats,

<sup>37</sup> and the tribute to the LORD was 675 from the sheep and goats;

<sup>38</sup> from the 36,000 cattle,
the tribute to the LORD was 72;

<sup>39</sup> from the 30,500 donkeys,
the tribute to the LORD was 61;

<sup>40</sup> and from the 16,000 people, the tribute to the LORD was 32 people.

<sup>41</sup> Moses gave the tribute to Eleazar the priest as a contribution for the LORD, as the LORD had commanded Moses.

337,500 sheep and goats,

<sup>47</sup> Moses took one out of every 50, selected from the people and the livestock of the Israelites' half. He gave them to the Levites who perform the duties of the LORD's tabernacle, as the LORD had commanded him.

<sup>48†</sup> The officers who were over the thousands of the army, the commanders of thousands and of hundreds, approached Moses <sup>49</sup> and told him, "Your servants have taken a census of the fighting men under our command, and not one of us is missing. <sup>50</sup> So we have presented to the LORD an offering of the gold articles each man found — armlets, bracelets, rings, earrings, and necklaces — to make •atonement for ourselves before the LORD."

<sup>53</sup> Each of the soldiers had taken plunder for himself. <sup>54</sup> Moses and Eleazar the priest received the gold from the commanders of thousands and of hundreds and brought it into the tent of meeting as a memorial for the Israelites before the LORD.

Transjordan Settlements

32 † The Reubenites and Gadites had a very large number of livestock. When they surveyed the lands of Jazer and Gilead, they saw that the region was a good one for livestock. <sup>2</sup> So the Gadites and Reubenites came to Moses, Eleazar the priest, and the leaders of the community and said: <sup>3</sup> “The territory of Ataroth, Dibon, Jazer, Nimrah, Heshbon, Elealeh, Sebam, Nebo, and Beon, <sup>4</sup> which the LORD struck down before the community of Israel, is good land for livestock, and your servants own livestock.” <sup>5</sup> They said, “If we have found favor in your sight, let this land be given to your servants as a possession. Don’t make us cross the Jordan.”

<sup>16†</sup> Then they approached him and said, “We want to build sheepfolds here for our livestock and cities for our dependents. <sup>17</sup> But we will arm ourselves and be ready to go ahead of the Israelites until we have brought them into their place. Meanwhile, our dependents will remain in the fortified cities because of the inhabitants of the land. <sup>18</sup> We will not return to our homes until each of the Israelites has taken possession of his inheritance. <sup>19</sup> Yet we will not have an inheritance with them across the Jordan and beyond, because our inheritance will be across the Jordan to the east.”

<sup>28†</sup> So Moses gave orders about them to Eleazar the priest, Joshua son of Nun, and the family leaders of the Israelite tribes. <sup>29</sup> Moses told them, “If the Gadites and Reubenites cross the Jordan with you, every man in battle formation before the LORD, and the land is subdued before you, you are to give them the land of Gilead as a possession. <sup>30</sup> But if they don’t go across with you in battle formation, they must accept land in Canaan with you.”

<sup>31</sup> The Gadites and Reubenites replied, “What the LORD has spoken to your servants is what we will do. <sup>32</sup> We will cross over in battle formation before the LORD into the land of Canaan, but we will keep our hereditary possession across the Jordan.”

<sup>33†</sup> So Moses gave them — the Gadites, Reubenites, and half the tribe of Manasseh son of Joseph — the kingdom of Sihon king of the Amorites and the kingdom of Og king of Bashan, the land including its cities with the territories surrounding them. <sup>34</sup> The Gadites rebuilt Dibon, Ataroth, Aroer, <sup>35</sup> Atroth-shopan, Jazer, Jogbehah, <sup>36</sup> Beth-nimrah, and Beth-haran as fortified cities, and built sheepfolds. <sup>37</sup> The Reubenites rebuilt Heshbon, Elealeh, Kiriathaim, <sup>38</sup> as well as Nebo and Baal-meon (whose names were changed), and Sibmah. They gave names to the cities they rebuilt.

<sup>39†</sup> The descendants of Machir son of Manasseh went to Gilead, captured it, and drove out the Amorites who were there. <sup>40</sup> So Moses gave Gilead to the clan of Machir son of Manasseh, and they settled in it. <sup>41</sup> Jair, a descendant of Manasseh, went and captured their villages, which he renamed Jair's Villages. <sup>B</sup> <sup>42</sup> Nobah went and captured Kenath with its villages and called it Nobah after his own name.

Wilderness Travels Reviewed

33 † These were the stages of the Israelites' journey when they went out of the land of Egypt by their military divisions under the leadership of Moses and Aaron. <sup>2</sup> At the LORD's command, Moses wrote down the starting points for the stages of their journey; these are the stages listed by their starting points:

<sup>3†</sup> They departed from Rameses in the first month, on the fifteenth day of the month. On the day after the •Passover the Israelites went out triumphantly <sup>A</sup>, in the sight of all the Egyptians. <sup>4</sup> Meanwhile, the Egyptians were burying every firstborn male the LORD had struck down among them, for the LORD had executed judgment against their gods.

<sup>8</sup> They departed from Pi-hahiroth and crossed through the middle of the sea into the wilderness. They took a three-day journey into the Wilderness of Etham and camped at Marah.

<sup>9</sup> They departed from Marah and came to Elim. There were 12 springs of water and 70 date palms at Elim, so they camped there.

- <sup>20</sup> They departed from Rimmon-perez and camped at Libnah.
- <sup>21</sup> They departed from Libnah and camped at Rissah.
- <sup>22</sup> They departed from Rissah and camped at Kehelathah.
- <sup>23</sup> They departed from Kehelathah and camped at Mount Shepher.
- <sup>24</sup> They departed from Mount Shepher and camped at Haradah.
- <sup>25</sup> They departed from Haradah and camped at Makheloth.
- <sup>26</sup> They departed from Makheloth and camped at Tahath.
- <sup>27</sup> They departed from Tahath and camped at Terah.
- <sup>28</sup> They departed from Terah and camped at Mithkah.
- <sup>29</sup> They departed from Mithkah and camped at Hashmonah.
- <sup>30</sup> They departed from Hashmonah and camped at Moseroth.
- <sup>31</sup> They departed from Moseroth and camped at Bene-jaakan.
- <sup>32</sup> They departed from Bene-jaakan and camped at Hor-haggidgad.
- <sup>33</sup> They departed from Hor-haggidgad and camped at Jotbathah.
- <sup>34</sup> They departed from Jotbathah and camped at Abronah.
- <sup>35</sup> They departed from Abronah and camped at Ezion-geber.
- <sup>36</sup> They departed from Ezion-geber and camped in the Wilderness of Zin (that is, Kadesh).
- <sup>37</sup> They departed from Kadesh and camped at Mount Hor on the edge of the land of Edom. <sup>38</sup> At the LORD's command, Aaron the priest climbed Mount Hor and died there on the first day of the fifth month in the fortieth year after the Israelites went out of the land of Egypt. <sup>39</sup> Aaron was 123 years old when he died on Mount Hor. <sup>40</sup> At that time the Canaanite king of Arad, who lived in the •Negev in the land of Canaan, heard the Israelites were coming.
- <sup>41</sup> They departed from Mount Hor and camped at Zalmonah.
- <sup>42</sup> They departed from Zalmonah and camped at Punon.
- <sup>43</sup> They departed from Punon and camped at Oboth.
- <sup>44</sup> They departed from Oboth and camped at Iye-abarim on the border of Moab.
- <sup>45</sup> They departed from Iyim and camped at Dibon-gad.
- <sup>46</sup> They departed from Dibon-gad and camped at Almon-diblathaim.
- <sup>47</sup> They departed from Almon-diblathaim and camped in the Abarim range facing Nebo.

Instructions for Occupying Canaan

NUMBERS

Boundaries of the Promised Land

34 †The LORD spoke to Moses, <sup>2</sup> “Command the Israelites and say to them: When you enter the land of Canaan, it will be allotted to you as an inheritance <sup>A</sup> with these borders:

<sup>6</sup> Your western border will be the coastline of the Mediterranean Sea; this will be your western border.

<sup>10</sup> For your eastern border, draw a line from Hazar-enan to Shepham. <sup>11</sup> The border will go down from Shepham to Riblah east of Ain. It will continue down and reach the eastern slope of the Sea of Chinnereth. <sup>12</sup> Then the border will go down to the Jordan and end at the Dead Sea. This will be your land defined by its borders on all sides.”

<sup>13</sup> So Moses commanded the Israelites, “This is the land you are to receive by lot as an inheritance, which the LORD commanded to be given to the nine and a half tribes. <sup>14</sup> For the tribe of the Reubenites and the tribe of the Gadites have received their inheritance according to their ancestral houses, and half the tribe of Manasseh has received its inheritance. <sup>15</sup> The two and a half tribes have received their inheritance across the Jordan from Jericho, eastward toward the sunrise.”

Leaders for Distributing the Land

<sup>16†</sup> The LORD spoke to Moses, <sup>17</sup> “These are the names of the men who are to distribute the land as an inheritance for you: Eleazar the priest and Joshua son of Nun. <sup>18</sup> Take one leader from each tribe to distribute the land.

Caleb son of Jephunneh from the tribe of Judah;

Hanniel son of Ephod, a leader from the tribe of Manasseh,

35 †The LORD again spoke to Moses in the plains of Moab by the Jordan across from Jericho: <sup>2</sup> “Command the Israelites to give cities out of their hereditary property for the Levites to live in and pastureland around the cities. <sup>3</sup> The cities will be for them to live in, and their pasturelands will be for their herds, flocks, and all their other animals. <sup>4†</sup> The pasturelands of the cities you are to give the Levites will extend from the city wall 500 yards <sup>A</sup> on every side. <sup>5</sup> Measure 1,000 yards <sup>B</sup> outside the city for the east side, 1,000 yards <sup>C</sup> for the south side, 1,000 yards <sup>D</sup> for the west side, and 1,000 yards <sup>E</sup> for the north side, with the city in the center. This will belong to them as pasturelands for the cities.

<sup>6</sup> “The cities you give the Levites will include six cities of refuge, which you must provide so that the one who kills someone may flee there; in addition to these, give 42 other cities. <sup>7</sup> The total number of cities you give the Levites will be 48, along with their pasturelands. <sup>8</sup> Of the cities that you give from the Israelites’ territory, you should take more from a larger tribe and less from a smaller one. Each tribe is to give some of its cities to the Levites in proportion to the inheritance it receives.”

Cities of Refuge

<sup>9†</sup> The LORD said to Moses, <sup>10</sup> “Speak to the Israelites and tell them: When you cross the Jordan into the land of Canaan, <sup>11</sup> designate cities to serve as cities of refuge for you, so that a person who kills someone unintentionally may flee there. <sup>12</sup> You will have the cities as a refuge from the avenger, so that the one who kills someone will not die until he stands trial before the assembly. <sup>13</sup> The cities you select will be your six cities of refuge. <sup>14</sup> Select three cities across the Jordan and three cities in the land of Canaan to be cities of refuge. <sup>15†</sup> These six cities will serve as a refuge for the Israelites and for the foreigner or temporary resident among them, so that anyone who kills a person unintentionally may flee there.

<sup>16</sup> “If anyone strikes a person with an iron object and death results, he is a murderer; the murderer must be put to death. <sup>17</sup> If a man has in his hand a stone capable of causing death and strikes another person and he dies, the murderer must be put to death. <sup>18</sup> If a man has in his hand a wooden object capable of causing death and strikes another person and he dies, the murderer must be put to death. <sup>19</sup> The avenger of blood himself is to kill the murderer; when he finds him, he is to kill him. <sup>20</sup> Likewise, if anyone in hatred pushes a person or throws an object at him with malicious intent and he dies, <sup>21</sup> or if in hostility he strikes him with his hand and he dies, the one who struck him must be put to death; he is a murderer. The avenger of blood is to kill the murderer when he finds him.

<sup>30†</sup> “If anyone kills a person, the murderer is to be put to death based on the word of witnesses. But no one is to be put to death based on the testimony of one witness. <sup>31</sup> You are not to accept a ransom for the life of a murderer who is guilty of killing someone; he must be put to death.

<sup>32†</sup> Neither should you accept a ransom for the person who flees to his city of refuge, allowing him to return and live in the land before the death of the high priest.

<sup>33</sup> “Do not defile the land where you are, for bloodshed defiles the land, and there can be no •atonement for the land because of the blood that is shed on it, except by the blood of the person who shed it. <sup>34</sup> Do not make the land •unclean where you live and where I reside; for I, •Yahweh, reside among the Israelites.”

The Inheritance of Zelophehad's Daughters

36 †The family leaders from the clan of the descendants of Gilead — the son of Machir, son of Manasseh — who were from the clans of the sons of Joseph, approached and addressed Moses and the leaders who were over the Israelite families. <sup>2</sup> They said, “•Yahweh commanded my lord to give the land as an inheritance by lot to the Israelites. My lord was further commanded by Yahweh to give our brother Zelophehad’s inheritance to his daughters. <sup>3†</sup> If they marry any of the men from the other Israelite tribes, their inheritance will be taken away from our fathers’ inheritance and added to that of the tribe into which they marry. Therefore, part of our allotted inheritance would be taken away. <sup>4</sup> When the Jubilee comes for the Israelites, their inheritance will be added to that of the tribe into which they marry, and their inheritance will be taken away from the inheritance of our ancestral tribe.”

<sup>13†</sup> These are the commands and ordinances the LORD commanded the Israelites through Moses in the plains of Moab by the Jordan across from Jericho.

DEUTERONOMY

Introduction

1 †These are the words Moses spoke to all Israel across the Jordan in the wilderness, in the •Arabah opposite Suph, between Paran and Tophel, Laban, Hazeroth, and Di-zahab. <sup>2</sup> It is an eleven-day journey from Horeb to Kadesh-barnea by way of Mount Seir. <sup>3</sup> In the fortieth year, in the eleventh month, on the first of the month, Moses told the Israelites everything the LORD had commanded him to say to them. <sup>4</sup> This was after he had defeated Sihon king of the Amorites, who lived in Heshbon, and Og king of Bashan, who lived in Ashtaroth, at Edrei. <sup>5</sup>† Across the Jordan in the land of Moab, Moses began to explain this law, saying:

Departure from Horeb

<sup>6</sup>† “The LORD our God spoke to us at Horeb: ‘You have stayed at this mountain long enough. <sup>7</sup> Resume your journey and go to the hill country of the Amorites and their neighbors in the Arabah, the hill country, the Judean foothills, <sup>A</sup> the •Negev and the sea coast — to the land of the Canaanites and to Lebanon as far as the Euphrates River. <sup>B</sup> <sup>8</sup> See, I have set the land before you. Enter and take possession of the land the LORD swore to give to your fathers Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob and their future descendants.’

Leaders for the Tribes

<sup>9</sup> “I said to you at that time: I can’t bear the responsibility for you on my own. <sup>10</sup>† The LORD your God has so multiplied you that today you are as numerous as the stars of the sky. <sup>11</sup> May •Yahweh, the God of your fathers, increase you a thousand times more, and bless you as He promised you. <sup>12</sup> But how can I bear your troubles, burdens, and disputes by myself? <sup>13</sup> Appoint for yourselves wise, understanding, and respected men from each of your tribes, and I will make them your leaders.

<sup>15</sup> “So I took the leaders of your tribes, wise and respected men, and set them over you as leaders: officials for thousands, hundreds, fifties, and tens, and officers for your tribes. <sup>16</sup> I commanded your judges at that time: Hear the cases between your brothers, and judge rightly between a man and his brother or a foreign resident. <sup>17</sup> Do not show partiality when deciding a case; listen to small and great alike. Do not be intimidated by anyone, for judgment belongs to God. Bring me any case too difficult for you, and I will hear it. <sup>18</sup> At that time I commanded you about all the things you were to do.

Israel's Disobedience at Kadesh-barnea

<sup>19</sup> “We then set out from Horeb and went across all the great and terrible wilderness you saw on the way to the hill country of the Amorites, just as the LORD our God had commanded us. When we reached Kadesh-barnea, <sup>20</sup> I said to you: You have reached the hill country of the Amorites, which the LORD our God is giving us. <sup>21</sup> See, the LORD your God has set the land before you. Go up and take possession of it as Yahweh, the God of your fathers, has told you. Do not be afraid or discouraged.

<sup>22</sup> “Then all of you approached me and said, ‘Let’s send men ahead of us, so that they may explore the land for us and bring us back a report about the route we should go up and the cities we will come to.’ <sup>23</sup> The plan seemed good to me, so I selected 12 men from among you, one man for each tribe. <sup>24</sup> They left and went up into the hill country and came to the Valley of Eshcol, scouting the land. <sup>25</sup> They took some of the fruit from the land in their hands, carried it down to us, and brought us back a report: ‘The land the LORD our God is giving us is good.’

<sup>26</sup> “But you were not willing to go up, rebelling against the command of the LORD your God. <sup>27</sup> You grumbled in your tents and said, ‘The LORD brought us out of the land of Egypt to deliver us into the hands of the Amorites so they would destroy us, because He hated us. <sup>28†</sup> Where can we go? Our brothers have discouraged us, saying: The people are larger and taller than we are; the cities are large, fortified to the heavens. We also saw the descendants of the Anakim there.’

<sup>29</sup> “So I said to you: Don’t be terrified or afraid of them! <sup>30†</sup> The LORD your God who goes before you will fight for you, just as you saw Him do for you in Egypt. <sup>31</sup> And you saw in the wilderness how the LORD your God carried you as a man carries his son all along the way you traveled until you reached this place. <sup>32</sup> But in spite of this you did not trust the LORD your God, <sup>33</sup> who went before you on the journey to seek out a place for you to camp. He went in the fire by night and in the cloud by day to guide you on the road you were to travel.

<sup>37†</sup> “The LORD was angry with me also because of you and said: ‘You will not enter there either. <sup>38</sup> Joshua son of Nun, who attends you, will enter it. Encourage him, for he will enable Israel to inherit it. <sup>39</sup> Your little children, whom you said would be plunder, your sons who <sup>D</sup> don’t know good from evil, will enter there. I will give them the land, and they will take possession of it. <sup>40</sup> But you are to turn back and head for the wilderness by way of the •Red Sea.’

<sup>41</sup> “You answered me, ‘We have sinned against the LORD. We will go up and fight just as the LORD our God commanded us.’ Then each of you put on his weapons of war and thought it would be easy to go up into the hill country.

<sup>42</sup> “But the LORD said to me, ‘Tell them: Don’t go up and fight, for I am not with you to keep you from being defeated by your enemies.’ <sup>43</sup> So I spoke to you, but you didn’t listen. You rebelled against the LORD’s command and defiantly went up into the hill country. <sup>44</sup> Then the Amorites who lived there came out against you and chased you like a swarm of bees. They routed you from Seir as far as Hormah. <sup>45</sup> When you returned, you wept before the LORD, but He didn’t listen to your requests or pay attention to you. <sup>46</sup> For this reason you stayed in Kadesh as long as you did. <sup>E</sup>

DEUTERONOMY

Journey past Seir

2 “Then we turned back and headed for the wilderness by way of the •Red Sea, as the LORD had told me, and we traveled around the hill country of Seir for many days. 2 The LORD then said to me, 3 ‘You’ve been traveling around this hill country long enough; turn north. 4 Command the people: You are about to travel through the territory of your brothers, the descendants of Esau, who live in Seir. They will be afraid of you, so you must be very careful. 5 Don’t fight with them, for I will not give you any of their land, not even an inch of it, <sup>A</sup> because I have given Esau the hill country of Seir as his possession. 6 You may purchase food from them with silver, so that you may eat, and buy water from them to drink. 7 For the LORD your God has blessed you in all the work of your hands. He has watched over your journey through this immense wilderness. The LORD your God has been with you this past 40 years, and you have lacked nothing.’

Journey past Moab

8 “So we bypassed our brothers, the descendants of Esau, who live in Seir. We turned away from the •Arabah road and from Elath and Ezion-geber. We traveled along the road to the Wilderness of Moab. 9 The LORD said to me, ‘Show no hostility toward Moab, and do not provoke them to battle, for I will not give you any of their land as a possession, since I have given Ar as a possession to the descendants of Lot.’ ”

10 The Emim, a great and numerous people as tall as the Anakim, had previously lived there. 11 They were also regarded as Rephaim, like the Anakim, though the Moabites called them Emim. 12† The Horites had previously lived in Seir, but the descendants of Esau drove them out, destroying them completely <sup>B</sup> and settling in their place, just as Israel did in the land of its possession the LORD gave them.

13 “The LORD said, ‘Now get up and cross the Zered Valley.’ So we crossed the Zered Valley. 14 The time we spent traveling from Kadesh-barnea until we crossed the Zered Valley was 38 years until the entire generation of fighting men had perished from the camp, as the LORD had sworn to them. <sup>15</sup> Indeed, the LORD's hand was against them, to eliminate them from the camp until they had all perished.

Journey past Ammon

<sup>16</sup> “When all the fighting men had died among the people, <sup>17</sup> the LORD spoke to me, <sup>18</sup> ‘Today you are going to cross the border of Moab at Ar. <sup>19</sup> When you get close to the Ammonites, don't show any hostility to them or fight with them, for I will not give you any of the Ammonites' land as a possession; I have given it as a possession to the descendants of Lot.’ ”

<sup>20</sup> This too used to be regarded as the land of the Rephaim. The Rephaim lived there previously, though the Ammonites called them Zamzummim, <sup>21†</sup> a great and numerous people, tall as the Anakim. The LORD destroyed the Rephaim at the advance of the Ammonites, so that they drove them out and settled in their place. <sup>22</sup> This was just as He had done for the descendants of Esau who lived in Seir, when He destroyed the Horites before them; they drove them out and have lived in their place until now. <sup>23</sup> The Caphtorim, who came from Caphtor, destroyed the Avvim, who lived in villages as far as Gaza, and settled in their place.

Defeat of Sihon the Amorite

<sup>24</sup> “The LORD also said, ‘Get up, move out, and cross the Arnon Valley. See, I have handed Sihon the Amorite, king of Heshbon, and his land over to you. Begin to take possession of it; engage him in battle. <sup>25</sup> Today I will begin to put the fear and dread of you on the peoples everywhere under heaven. They will hear the report about you, tremble, and be in anguish because of you.’

<sup>26</sup> “So I sent messengers with an offer of peace to Sihon king of Heshbon from the Wilderness of Kedemoth, saying, <sup>27</sup> ‘Let us travel through your land; we will keep strictly to the highway. We will not turn to the right or the left. <sup>28</sup> You can sell us food in exchange for silver so we may eat, and give us water for silver so we may drink. Only let us travel through on foot, <sup>29</sup> just as the descendants of Esau who live in Seir did for us, and the Moabites who live in Ar, until we cross the Jordan into the land the LORD our God is giving us.’<sup>30†</sup> But Sihon king of Heshbon would not let us travel through his land, for the LORD your God had made his spirit stubborn and his heart obstinate in order to hand him over to you, as has now taken place.

<sup>31</sup> “Then the LORD said to me, ‘See, I have begun to give Sihon and his land to you. Begin to take possession of it.’<sup>32</sup> So Sihon and his whole army came out against us for battle at Jahaz.<sup>33</sup> The LORD our God handed him over to us, and we defeated him, his sons, and his whole army.<sup>34†</sup> At that time we captured all his cities and •completely destroyed the people of every city, including the women and children. We left no survivors.<sup>35</sup> We took only the livestock and the spoil from the cities we captured as plunder for ourselves.<sup>36</sup> There was no city that was inaccessible to <sup>C</sup> us, from Aroer on the rim of the Arnon Valley, along with the city in the valley, even as far as Gilead. The LORD our God gave everything to us.<sup>37</sup> But you did not go near the Ammonites’ land, all along the bank of the Jabbok River, the cities of the hill country, or any place that the LORD our God had forbidden.

DEUTERONOMY

Defeat of Og of Bashan

3 “Then we turned and went up the road to Bashan, and Og king of Bashan came out against us with his whole army to do battle at Edrei.
<sup>2</sup> But the LORD said to me, ‘Do not fear him, for I have handed him over to you along with his whole army and his land. Do to him as you did to Sihon king of the Amorites, who lived in Heshbon.’<sup>3</sup> So the LORD our God also handed over Og king of Bashan and his whole army to us. We struck him until there was no survivor left.<sup>4</sup> We captured all his cities at that time. There wasn’t a city that we didn’t take from them: 60 cities, the entire region of Argob, the kingdom of Og in Bashan.<sup>5</sup> All these were fortified with high walls, gates, and bars, besides a large number of rural villages.<sup>6</sup> We •completely destroyed them, as we had done to Sihon king of Heshbon, destroying the men, women, and children of every city.<sup>7</sup> But we took all the livestock and the spoil from the cities as plunder for ourselves.

The Land of the Transjordan Tribes

<sup>8</sup> “At that time we took the land from the two Amorite kings across the Jordan, from the Arnon Valley as far as Mount Hermon,<sup>9</sup> which the Sidonians call Sirion, but the Amorites call Senir,<sup>10</sup> all the cities of the plateau, Gilead, and Bashan as far as Salecah and Edrei, cities of Og’s kingdom in Bashan.<sup>11†</sup> (Only Og king of Bashan was left of the remnant of the Rephaim. His bed was made of iron.<sup>A</sup> Isn’t it in Rabbah of the Ammonites? It is 13 feet six inches long and six feet wide by a standard measure.<sup>B</sup>)

<sup>12</sup> “At that time we took possession of this land. I gave to the Reubenites and Gadites the area extending from Aroer by the Arnon Valley, and half the hill country of Gilead along with its cities.<sup>13</sup> I gave to half the tribe of Manasseh the rest of Gilead and all Bashan, the kingdom of Og. The entire region of Argob, the whole territory of Bashan, used to be called the land of the Rephaim.<sup>14†</sup> Jair, a descendant of Manasseh, took over the entire region of Argob as far as the border of the Geshurites and Maacathites. He called Bashan by his own name, Jair’s Villages,<sup>C</sup> as it is today.<sup>15</sup> I gave Gilead to Machir,<sup>16</sup> and I gave to the Reubenites and Gadites the area extending from Gilead to the Arnon Valley (the middle of the valley was the border) and up to the Jabbok River, the border of the Ammonites.<sup>17</sup> The •Arabah and Jordan are also borders from Chinnereth as far as the Sea of the Arabah, the Dead Sea, under the slopes of Pisgah on the east.

<sup>18</sup> “I commanded you at that time: The LORD your God has given you this land to possess. All your fighting men will cross over in battle formation ahead of your brothers the Israelites.<sup>19</sup> But your wives, young children, and livestock — I know that you have a lot of livestock — will remain in the cities I have given you<sup>20</sup> until the LORD gives rest to your brothers as He has to you, and they also take possession of the land the LORD your God is giving them across the Jordan. Then each of you may return to his possession that I have given you.

The Transfer of Israel’s Leadership

<sup>21</sup> “I commanded Joshua at that time: Your own eyes have seen everything the LORD your God has done to these two kings. The LORD will do the same to all the kingdoms you are about to enter.<sup>22</sup> Don’t be afraid of them, for the LORD your God fights for you.

<sup>23</sup> “At that time I begged the LORD:<sup>24</sup> Lord GOD, You have begun to show Your greatness and power to Your servant, for what god is there in heaven or on earth who can perform deeds and mighty acts like Yours?<sup>25</sup> Please let me cross over and see the beautiful land on the other side of the Jordan, that good hill country and Lebanon.

<sup>26†</sup> “But the LORD was angry with me on account of you and would not listen to me. The LORD said to me, ‘That’s enough! Do not speak to Me again about this matter.<sup>27</sup> Go to the top of Pisgah and look to the west, north, south, and east, and see it with your own eyes, for you will not cross this Jordan.<sup>28</sup> But commission Joshua and encourage and strengthen him, for he will cross over ahead of the people and enable them to inherit this land that you will see.’<sup>29</sup> So we stayed in the valley facing Beth-peor.

DEUTERONOMY

Call to Obedience

4 “Now, Israel, listen to the statutes and ordinances I am teaching you to follow, so that you may live, enter, and take possession of the land •Yahweh, the God of your fathers, is giving you. <sup>2†</sup> You must not add anything to what I command you or take anything away from it, so that you may keep the commands of the LORD your God I am giving you. <sup>3</sup> Your eyes have seen what the LORD did at Baal-peor, for the LORD your God destroyed every one of you who followed •Baal of Peor. <sup>4</sup> But you who have remained faithful <sup>A</sup> to the LORD your God are all alive today. <sup>5</sup> Look, I have taught you statutes and ordinances as the LORD my God has commanded me, so that you may follow them in the land you are entering to possess. <sup>6</sup> Carefully follow them, for this will show your wisdom and understanding in the eyes of the peoples. When they hear about all these statutes, they will say, ‘This great nation is indeed a wise and understanding people.’ <sup>7</sup> For what great nation is there that has a god near to it as the LORD our God is to us whenever we call to Him? <sup>8</sup> And what great nation has righteous statutes and ordinances like this entire law I set before you today?

<sup>9</sup> “Only be on your guard and diligently watch yourselves, so that you don’t forget the things your eyes have seen and so that they don’t slip from your mind as long as you live. Teach them to your children and your grandchildren. <sup>10</sup> The day you stood before the LORD your God at Horeb, the LORD said to me, ‘Assemble the people before Me, and I will let them hear My words, so that they may learn to •fear Me all the days they live on the earth and may instruct their children.’ <sup>11†</sup> You came near and stood at the base of the mountain, a mountain blazing with fire into the heavens and enveloped in a dense, black cloud. <sup>12</sup> Then the LORD spoke to you from the fire. You kept hearing the sound of the words, but didn’t see a form; there was only a voice. <sup>13</sup> He declared His covenant to you. He commanded you to follow the Ten Commandments, which He wrote on two stone tablets. <sup>14</sup> At that time the LORD commanded me to teach you statutes and ordinances for you to follow in the land you are about to cross into and possess.

Worshiping the True God

<sup>15</sup> “For your own good, be extremely careful — because you did not see any form on the day the LORD spoke to you out of the fire at Horeb — <sup>16</sup> not to act corruptly and make an idol for yourselves in the shape of any figure: a male or female form, <sup>17</sup> or the form of any beast on the earth, any winged creature that flies in the sky, <sup>18</sup> any creature that crawls on the ground, or any fish in the waters under the earth. <sup>19†</sup> When you look to the heavens and see the sun, moon, and stars — all the array of heaven — do not be led astray to bow down and worship them. The LORD your God has provided them for all people everywhere under heaven. <sup>20†</sup> But the LORD selected you and brought you out of Egypt’s iron furnace to be a people for His inheritance, as you are today.

<sup>21</sup> “The LORD was angry with me on your account. He swore that I would not cross the Jordan and enter the good land the LORD your God is giving you as an inheritance. <sup>22</sup> I won’t be crossing the Jordan because I am going to die in this land. But you are about to cross over and take possession of this good land. <sup>23</sup> Be careful not to forget the covenant of the LORD your God that He made with you, and make an idol for yourselves in the shape of anything He has forbidden you. <sup>24†</sup> For the LORD your God is a consuming fire, a jealous God.

<sup>25</sup> “When you have children and grandchildren and have been in the land a long time, and if you act corruptly, make an idol in the form of anything, and do what is evil in the sight of the LORD your God, provoking Him to anger, <sup>26†</sup> I call heaven and earth as witnesses against you today that you will quickly perish from the land you are about to cross the Jordan to possess. You will not live long there, but you will certainly be destroyed. <sup>27</sup> The LORD will scatter you among the peoples, and you will be reduced to a few survivors <sup>B</sup> among the nations where the LORD your God will drive you. <sup>28†</sup> There you will worship man-made gods of wood and stone, which cannot see, hear, eat, or smell. <sup>29</sup> But from there, you will search for the LORD your God, and you will find Him when you seek Him with all your heart and all your soul. <sup>30</sup> When you are in distress and all these things have happened to you, you will return to the LORD your God in later days and obey Him. <sup>31</sup> He will not leave you, destroy you, or forget the covenant with your fathers that He swore to them by oath, because the LORD your God is a compassionate God.

<sup>32</sup> “Indeed, ask about the earlier days that preceded you, from the day God created man on the earth and from one end of the heavens to the other: Has anything like this great event ever happened, or has anything like it been heard of? <sup>33</sup> Has a people heard God’s voice speaking from the fire as you have, and lived? <sup>34†</sup> Or has a god attempted to go and take a nation as his own out of another nation, by trials, signs, wonders, and war, by a strong hand and an outstretched arm, by great terrors, as the LORD your God did for you in Egypt before your eyes? <sup>35</sup> You were shown these things so that you would know that the LORD is God; there is no other besides Him. <sup>36</sup> He let you hear His voice from heaven to instruct you. He showed you His great fire on earth, and you heard His words from the fire. <sup>37</sup> Because He loved your fathers, He chose their descendants after them and brought you out of Egypt by His presence and great power, <sup>38</sup> to drive out before you nations greater and stronger than you and to bring you in and give you their land as an inheritance, as is now taking place. <sup>39</sup> Today, recognize and keep in mind that the LORD is God in heaven above and on earth below; there is no other. <sup>40</sup> Keep His statutes and commands, which I am giving you today, so that you and your children after you may prosper and so that you may live long in the land the LORD your God is giving you for all time.”

Cities of Refuge

<sup>41†</sup> Then Moses set apart three cities across the Jordan to the east. <sup>42</sup> Someone could flee there who committed manslaughter, killing his neighbor accidentally without previously hating him. He could flee to one of these cities and stay alive: <sup>43</sup> Bezer in the wilderness on the plateau land, belonging to the Reubenites; Ramoth in Gilead, belonging to the Gadites; or Golan in Bashan, belonging to the Manassites.

Introduction to the Law

<sup>44</sup> This is the law Moses gave the Israelites. <sup>45</sup> These are the decrees, statutes, and ordinances Moses proclaimed to them after they came out of Egypt, <sup>46</sup> across the Jordan in the valley facing Beth-peor in the land of Sihon king of the Amorites. He lived in Heshbon, and Moses and the Israelites defeated him after they came out of Egypt. <sup>47</sup> They took possession of his land and the land of Og king of Bashan, the two Amorite kings who were across the Jordan to the east, <sup>48</sup> from Aroer on the rim of the Arnon Valley as far as Mount Sion (that is, Hermon) <sup>49</sup> and all the •Arabah on the east side of the Jordan as far as the Dead Sea below the slopes of Pisgah.

DEUTERONOMY

The Ten Commandments

5 Moses summoned all Israel and said to them, “Israel, listen to the statutes and ordinances I am proclaiming as you hear them today. Learn and follow them carefully. <sup>2†</sup> The LORD our God made a covenant with us at Horeb. <sup>3</sup> He did not make this covenant with our fathers, but with all of us who are alive here today. <sup>4</sup> The LORD spoke to you face to face from the fire on the mountain. <sup>5</sup> At that time I was standing between the LORD and you to report the word of the LORD to you, because you were afraid of the fire and did not go up the mountain. And He said:

<sup>7</sup> Do not have other gods besides Me.

<sup>8</sup> Do not make an idol for yourself in the shape of anything in the heavens above or on the earth below or in the waters under the earth. <sup>9†</sup> You must not bow down to them or worship them, because I, the LORD your God, am a jealous God, punishing the children for the fathers’ sin to the third and fourth generations of those who hate Me, <sup>10</sup> but showing faithful love to a thousand generations of those who love Me and keep My commands.

<sup>12</sup> Be careful to remember the Sabbath day, to keep it holy as the LORD your God has commanded you. <sup>13</sup> You are to labor six days and do all your work, <sup>14†</sup> but the seventh day is a Sabbath to the LORD your God. You must not do any work — you, your son or daughter, your male or female slave, your ox or donkey, any of your livestock, or the foreigner who lives within your gates, so that your male and female slaves may rest as you do. <sup>15</sup> Remember that you were a slave in the land of Egypt, and the LORD your God brought you out of there with a strong hand and an outstretched arm. That is why the LORD your God has commanded you to keep the Sabbath day.

<sup>16</sup> Honor your father and your mother, as the LORD your God has commanded you, so that you may live long and so that you may prosper in the land the LORD your God is giving you.

<sup>21</sup> Do not covet your neighbor's wife or desire your neighbor's house, his field, his male or female slave, his ox or donkey, or anything that belongs to your neighbor.

The People's Response

<sup>22†</sup> “The LORD spoke these commands in a loud voice to your entire assembly from the fire, cloud, and thick darkness on the mountain; He added nothing more. He wrote them on two stone tablets and gave them to me. <sup>23</sup> All of you approached me with your tribal leaders and elders when you heard the voice from the darkness and while the mountain was blazing with fire. <sup>24</sup> You said, ‘Look, the LORD our God has shown us His glory and greatness, and we have heard His voice from the fire. Today we have seen that God speaks with a person, yet he still lives. <sup>25</sup> But now, why should we die? This great fire will consume us and we will die if we hear the voice of the LORD our God any longer. <sup>26</sup> For who out of all mankind has heard the voice of the living God speaking from the fire, as we have, and lived? <sup>27</sup> Go near and listen to everything the LORD our God says. Then you can tell us everything the LORD our God tells you; we will listen and obey.’

<sup>28</sup> “The LORD heard your <sup>A</sup> words when you spoke to me. He said to me, ‘I have heard the words that these people have spoken to you. Everything they have said is right. <sup>29</sup> If only they had such a heart to •fear Me and keep all My commands always, so that they and their children will prosper forever. <sup>30</sup> Go and tell them: Return to your tents. <sup>31</sup> But you stand here with Me, and I will tell you every command — the statutes and ordinances — you are to teach them, so that they may follow them in the land I am giving them to possess.’

LORD your God has commanded you, so that you may live, prosper, and have a long life in the land you will possess.

DEUTERONOMY

The Greatest Commandment

6 “This is the command — the statutes and ordinances — the LORD your God has instructed me to teach you, so that you may follow them in the land you are about to enter and possess. <sup>2</sup> Do this so that you may •fear the LORD your God all the days of your life by keeping all His statutes and commands I am giving you, your son, and your grandson, and so that you may have a long life. <sup>3</sup> Listen, Israel, and be careful to follow them, so that you may prosper and multiply greatly, because •Yahweh, the God of your fathers, has promised you a land flowing with milk and honey.

<sup>4†</sup> “Listen, Israel: The LORD our God, the LORD is One. <sup>A</sup>, <sup>5</sup> Love the LORD your God with all your heart, with all your soul, and with all your strength. <sup>6</sup> These words that I am giving you today are to be in your heart. <sup>7†</sup> Repeat them to your children. Talk about them when you sit in your house and when you walk along the road, when you lie down and when you get up. <sup>8</sup> Bind them as a sign on your hand and let them be a symbol <sup>B</sup> on your forehead. <sup>C</sup> <sup>9</sup> Write them on the doorposts of your house and on your gates.

Remembering God through Obedience

<sup>10†</sup> “When the LORD your God brings you into the land He swore to your fathers Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob that He would give you — a land with large and beautiful cities that you did not build, <sup>11</sup> houses full of every good thing that you did not fill them with, wells dug that you did not dig, and vineyards and olive groves that you did not plant — and when you eat and are satisfied, <sup>12</sup> be careful not to forget the LORD who brought you out of the land of Egypt, out of the place of slavery. <sup>13</sup> Fear Yahweh your God, worship Him, and take your oaths in His name. <sup>14</sup> Do not follow other gods, the gods of the peoples around you, <sup>15†</sup> for the LORD your God, who is among you, is a jealous God. Otherwise, the LORD your God will become angry with you and wipe you off the face of the earth. <sup>16†</sup> Do not test the LORD your God as you tested Him at Massah. <sup>17</sup> Carefully observe the commands of the LORD your God, the decrees and statutes He has commanded you. <sup>18</sup> Do what is right and good in the LORD’s sight, so that you may prosper and so that you may enter and possess the good land the LORD your God swore to give your fathers, <sup>19</sup> by driving out all your enemies before you, as the LORD has said.

<sup>20</sup> “When your son asks you in the future, ‘What is the meaning of the decrees, statutes, and ordinances, which the LORD our God has commanded you?’ <sup>21</sup> tell him, ‘We were slaves of Pharaoh in Egypt, but the LORD brought us out of Egypt with a strong hand. <sup>22</sup> Before our eyes the LORD inflicted great and devastating signs and wonders on Egypt, on Pharaoh, and on all his household, <sup>23</sup> but He brought us from there in order to lead us in and give us the land that He swore to our fathers. <sup>24</sup> The LORD commanded us to follow all these statutes and to fear the LORD our God for our prosperity always and for our preservation, as it is today.

<sup>25</sup> Righteousness will be ours if we are careful to follow every one of these commands before the LORD our God, as He has commanded us.’

DEUTERONOMY

Israel to Destroy Idolatrous Nations

7 “When the LORD your God brings you into the land you are entering to possess, and He drives out many nations before you — the Hittites, Girgashites, Amorites, Canaanites, Perizzites, Hivites and Jebusites, seven nations more numerous and powerful than you — <sup>2†</sup> and when the LORD your God delivers them over to you and you defeat them, you must •completely destroy them. Make no treaty with them and show them no mercy. <sup>3</sup> Do not intermarry with them. Do not give your daughters to their sons or take their daughters for your sons, <sup>4</sup> because they will turn your sons away from Me to worship other gods. Then the LORD’s anger will burn against you, and He will swiftly destroy you. <sup>5</sup> Instead, this is what you are to do to them: tear down their altars, smash their sacred pillars, cut down their •Asherah poles, and burn up their carved images. <sup>6†</sup> For you are a holy people belonging to the LORD your God. The LORD your God has chosen you to be His own possession out of all the peoples on the face of the earth.

<sup>7†</sup> “The LORD was devoted to you and chose you, not because you were more numerous than all peoples, for you were the fewest of all peoples. <sup>8</sup> But because the LORD loved you and kept the oath He swore to your fathers, He brought you out with a strong hand and redeemed you from the place of slavery, from the power of Pharaoh king of Egypt. <sup>9</sup> Know that •Yahweh your God is God, the faithful God who keeps His gracious covenant loyalty for a thousand generations with those who love Him and keep His commands. <sup>10</sup> But He directly pays back <sup>A</sup> and destroys those who hate Him. He will not hesitate to directly pay back <sup>B</sup> the one who hates Him. <sup>11</sup> So keep the command — the statutes and ordinances — that I am giving you to follow today.

<sup>12</sup> “If you listen to and are careful to keep these ordinances, the LORD your God will keep His covenant loyalty with you, as He swore to your fathers. <sup>13</sup> He will love you, bless you, and multiply you. He will bless your descendants, <sup>C</sup>, and the produce of your land — your grain, new wine, and oil — the young of your herds, and the newborn of your flocks, in the land He swore to your fathers that He would give you. <sup>14</sup> You will be blessed above all peoples; there will be no infertile male or female among you or your livestock. <sup>15</sup> The LORD will remove all sickness from you; He will not put on you all the terrible diseases of Egypt that you know about, but He will inflict them on all who hate you. <sup>16†</sup> You must destroy all the peoples the LORD your God is delivering over to you and not look on them with pity. Do not worship their gods, for that will be a snare to you.

<sup>17</sup> “If you say to yourself, ‘These nations are greater than I; how can I drive them out?’ <sup>18</sup> do not be afraid of them. Be sure to remember what the LORD your God did to Pharaoh and all Egypt: <sup>19</sup> the great trials that you saw, the signs and wonders, the strong hand and outstretched arm, by which the LORD your God brought you out. The LORD your God will do the same to all the peoples you fear. <sup>20†</sup> The LORD your God will also send the hornet against them until all the survivors and those hiding from you perish.

<sup>21</sup> Don’t be terrified of them, for the LORD your God, a great and awesome God, is among you. <sup>22</sup> The LORD your God will drive out these nations before you little by little. You will not be able to destroy them all at once; otherwise, the wild animals will become too numerous for you. <sup>23</sup> The LORD your God will give them over to you and throw them into great confusion until they are destroyed. <sup>24</sup> He will hand their kings over to you, and you will wipe out their names under heaven. No one will be able to stand against you; you will annihilate them. <sup>25</sup> You must burn up the carved images of their gods. Don’t covet the silver and gold on the images and take it for yourself, or else you will be ensnared by it, for it is abhorrent to the LORD your God. <sup>26</sup> You must not bring any abhorrent thing into your house, or you will be •set apart for destruction like it. You are to utterly detest and abhor it, because it is set apart for destruction.

DEUTERONOMY

Remember the LORD

8 “You must carefully follow every command I am giving you today, so that you may live and increase, and may enter and take possession of the land the LORD swore to your fathers. <sup>2</sup> Remember that the LORD your God led you on the entire journey these 40 years in the wilderness, so that He might humble you and test you to know what was in your heart, whether or not you would keep His commands. <sup>3†</sup> He humbled you by letting you go hungry; then He gave you manna to eat, which you and your fathers had not known, so that you might learn that man does not live on bread alone but on every word that comes from the mouth of the LORD. <sup>4</sup> Your clothing did not wear out, and your feet did not swell these 40 years. <sup>5</sup> Keep in mind that the LORD your God has been disciplining you just as a man disciplines his son. <sup>6</sup> So keep the commands of the LORD your God by walking in His ways and •fearing Him. <sup>7</sup> For the LORD your God is bringing you into a good land, a land with streams of water, springs, and deep water sources, flowing in both valleys and hills; <sup>8</sup> a land of wheat, barley, vines, figs, and pomegranates; a land of olive oil and honey; <sup>9</sup> a land where you will eat food without shortage, where you will lack nothing; a land whose rocks are iron and from whose hills you will mine copper. <sup>10</sup> When you eat and are full, you will praise the LORD your God for the good land He has given you.

<sup>11</sup> “Be careful that you don’t forget the LORD your God by failing to keep His command — the ordinances and statutes — I am giving you today. <sup>12</sup> When you eat and are full, and build beautiful houses to live in, <sup>13</sup> and your herds and flocks grow large, and your silver and gold multiply, and everything else you have increases, <sup>14</sup> be careful that your heart doesn’t become proud and you forget the LORD your God who brought you out of the land of Egypt, out of the place of slavery. <sup>15†</sup> He led you through the great and terrible wilderness with its poisonous <sup>A</sup> snakes and scorpions, a thirsty land where there was no water. He brought water out of the flint-like rock for you. <sup>16</sup> He fed you in the wilderness with manna that your fathers had not known, in order to humble and test you, so that in the end He might cause you to prosper. <sup>17</sup> You may say to yourself, ‘My power and my own ability have gained this wealth for me,’ <sup>18</sup> but remember that the LORD your God gives you the power to gain wealth, in order to confirm His covenant

He swore to your fathers, as it is today. <sup>19†</sup> If you ever forget the LORD your God and go after other gods to worship and bow down to them, I testify against you today that you will perish. <sup>20</sup> Like the nations the LORD is about to destroy before you, you will perish if you do not obey the LORD your God.

DEUTERONOMY

Warning against Self-Righteousness

9† “Listen, Israel: Today you are about to cross the Jordan to go and drive out nations greater and stronger than you, with large cities fortified to the heavens. <sup>2</sup> The people are strong and tall, the descendants of the Anakim. You know about them and you have heard it said about them, ‘Who can stand up to the sons of Anak?’ <sup>3</sup> But understand that today the LORD your God will cross over ahead of you as a consuming fire; He will devastate and subdue them before you. You will drive them out and destroy them swiftly, as the LORD has told you. <sup>4</sup> When the LORD your God drives them out before you, do not say to yourself, ‘The LORD brought me in to take possession of this land because of my righteousness.’ Instead, the LORD will drive out these nations before you because of their wickedness. <sup>5</sup> You are not going to take possession of their land because of your righteousness or your integrity. Instead, the LORD your God will drive out these nations before you because of their wickedness, in order to keep the promise He swore to your fathers, Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob. <sup>6</sup> Understand that the LORD your God is not giving you this good land to possess because of your righteousness, for you are a stiff-necked people.

Israel’s Rebellion and Moses’ Intercession

<sup>7</sup> “Remember and do not forget how you provoked the LORD your God in the wilderness. You have been rebelling against the LORD from the day you left the land of Egypt until you reached this place. <sup>8†</sup> You provoked the LORD at Horeb, and He was angry enough with you to destroy you. <sup>9</sup> When I went up the mountain to receive the stone tablets, the tablets of the covenant the LORD made with you, I stayed on the mountain 40 days and 40 nights. I did not eat bread or drink water. <sup>10†</sup> On the day of the assembly the LORD gave me the two stone tablets, inscribed by God’s finger. The exact words were on them, which the LORD spoke to you from the fire on the mountain. <sup>11</sup> The LORD gave me the two stone tablets, the tablets of the covenant, at the end of the 40 days and 40 nights.

<sup>12</sup> “The LORD said to me, ‘Get up and go down immediately from here. For your people whom you brought out of Egypt have acted corruptly. They have quickly turned from the way that I commanded them; they have made a cast image for themselves.’ <sup>13</sup> The LORD also said to me, ‘I have seen this people, and indeed, they are a stiff-necked people. <sup>14†</sup> Leave Me alone, and I will destroy them and blot out their name under heaven. Then I will make you into a nation stronger and more numerous than they.’

<sup>15</sup> “So I went back down the mountain, while it was blazing with fire, and the two tablets of the covenant were in my hands. <sup>16</sup> I saw how you had sinned against the LORD your God; you had made a calf image for yourselves. You had quickly turned from the way the LORD had commanded for you. <sup>17</sup> So I took hold of the two tablets and threw them from my hands, shattering them before your eyes. <sup>18†</sup> Then I fell down like the first time in the presence of the LORD for 40 days and 40 nights; I did not eat bread or drink water because of all the sin you committed, doing what was evil in the LORD’s sight and provoking Him to anger. <sup>19</sup> I was afraid of the fierce anger the LORD had directed against you, because He was about to destroy you. But again the LORD listened to me on that occasion. <sup>20</sup> The LORD was angry enough with Aaron to destroy him. But I prayed for Aaron at that time also. <sup>21</sup> I took the sinful calf you had made, burned it up, and crushed it, thoroughly grinding it to powder as fine as dust. Then I threw it into the stream that came down from the mountain.

<sup>22</sup> “You continued to provoke the LORD at Taberah, Massah, and Kibroth-hattaavah. <sup>23</sup> When the LORD sent you from Kadesh-barnea, He said, ‘Go up and possess the land I have given you’; you rebelled against the command of the LORD your God. You did not believe or obey Him. <sup>24</sup> You have been rebelling against the LORD ever since I have known you.

<sup>25</sup> “I fell down in the presence of the LORD 40 days and 40 nights because the LORD had threatened to destroy you. <sup>26</sup> I prayed to the LORD:

Lord GOD, do not annihilate Your people, Your inheritance, whom You redeemed through Your greatness and brought out of Egypt with a strong hand. <sup>27</sup> Remember Your servants Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob. Disregard this people’s stubbornness, and their wickedness and sin. <sup>28</sup> Otherwise, those in the land you brought us from will say, 'Because the LORD wasn't able to bring them into the land He had promised them, and because He hated them, He brought them out to kill them in the wilderness.' <sup>29</sup> But they are Your people, Your inheritance, whom You brought out by Your great power and outstretched arm.

DEUTERONOMY

The Covenant Renewed

10 “The LORD said to me at that time, ‘Cut two stone tablets like the first ones and come to Me on the mountain and make a wooden ark. <sup>2</sup> I will write on the tablets the words that were on the first tablets you broke, and you are to place them in the ark.’ <sup>3</sup> So I made an ark of acacia wood, cut two stone tablets like the first ones, and climbed the mountain with the two tablets in my hand. <sup>4†</sup> Then on the day of the assembly, the LORD wrote on the tablets what had been written previously, the Ten Commandments that He had spoken to you on the mountain from the fire. The LORD gave them to me, <sup>5</sup> and I went back down the mountain and placed the tablets in the ark I had made. And they have remained there, as the LORD commanded me.”

<sup>8</sup> “At that time the LORD set apart the tribe of Levi to carry the ark of the LORD’s covenant, to stand before •Yahweh to serve Him, and to pronounce blessings in His name, as it is today. <sup>9</sup> For this reason, Levi does not have a portion or inheritance like his brothers; the LORD is his inheritance, as the LORD your God told him.

<sup>10</sup> “I stayed on the mountain 40 days and 40 nights like the first time. The LORD also listened to me on this occasion; He agreed not to annihilate you. <sup>11</sup> Then the LORD said to me, ‘Get up. Continue your journey ahead of the people, so that they may enter and possess the land I swore to give their fathers.’

What God Requires

<sup>12</sup> “And now, Israel, what does the LORD your God ask of you except to •fear the LORD your God by walking in all His ways, to love Him, and to worship the LORD your God with all your heart and all your soul? <sup>13</sup> Keep the LORD’s commands and statutes I am giving you today, for your own good. <sup>14</sup> The heavens, indeed the highest heavens, belong to the LORD your God, as does the earth and everything in it. <sup>15†</sup> Yet the LORD was devoted to your fathers and loved them. He chose their descendants after them — He chose you out of all the peoples, as it is today. <sup>16</sup> Therefore, circumcise your hearts and don't be stiff-necked any longer. <sup>17</sup> For the LORD your God is the God of gods and Lord of lords, the great, mighty, and awesome God, showing no partiality and taking no bribe. <sup>18</sup> He executes justice for the fatherless and the widow, and loves the foreigner, giving him food and clothing. <sup>19</sup> You also must love the foreigner, since you were foreigners in the land of Egypt. <sup>20</sup> You are to fear Yahweh your God and worship Him. Remain faithful <sup>B</sup> to Him and take oaths in His name. <sup>21</sup> He is your praise and He is your God, who has done for you these great and awesome works your eyes have seen. <sup>22†</sup> Your fathers went down to Egypt, 70 people in all, and now the LORD your God has made you as numerous as the stars of the sky.

DEUTERONOMY

Remember and Obey

11 “Therefore, love the LORD your God and always keep His mandate and His statutes, ordinances, and commands. <sup>2</sup> You must understand today that it is not your children who experienced or saw the discipline of the LORD your God:

His greatness, strong hand, and outstretched arm; <sup>3</sup> His signs and the works He did in Egypt to Pharaoh king of Egypt and all his land; <sup>4</sup> what He did to Egypt’s army, its horses and chariots, when He made the waters of the •Red Sea flow over them as they pursued you, and He destroyed them completely; <sup>A 5</sup> what He did to you in the wilderness until you reached this place; <sup>6†</sup> and what He did to Dathan and Abiram, the sons of Eliab the Reubenite, when in the middle of the whole Israelite camp the earth opened its mouth and swallowed them, their households, their tents, and every living thing with them.

<sup>8</sup> “Keep every command I am giving you today, so that you may have the strength to cross into and possess the land you are to inherit, <sup>9†</sup> and so that you may live long in the land the LORD swore to your fathers to give them and their descendants, a land flowing with milk and honey. <sup>10</sup> For the land you are entering to possess is not like the land of Egypt, from which you have come, where you sowed your seed and irrigated by hand <sup>B</sup> as in a vegetable garden. <sup>11</sup> But the land you are entering to possess is a land of mountains and valleys, watered by rain from the sky. <sup>12</sup> It is a land the LORD your God cares for. He is always watching over it from the beginning to the end of the year.

<sup>13</sup> “If you carefully obey my commands I am giving you today, to love the LORD your God and worship Him with all your heart and all your soul, <sup>14</sup> I will provide rain for your land in the proper time, the autumn and spring rains, and you will harvest your grain, new wine, and oil. <sup>15</sup> I will provide grass in your fields for your livestock. You will eat and be satisfied. <sup>16</sup> Be careful that you are not enticed to turn aside, worship, and bow down to other gods. <sup>17</sup> Then the LORD's anger will burn against you. He will close the sky, and there will be no rain; the land will not yield its produce, and you will perish quickly from the good land the LORD is giving you.

<sup>18</sup> “Imprint these words of mine on your hearts and minds, bind them as a sign on your hands, and let them be a symbol <sup>C</sup> on your foreheads. <sup>D</sup>
<sup>19†</sup> Teach them to your children, talking about them when you sit in your house and when you walk along the road, when you lie down and when you get up. <sup>20</sup> Write them on the doorposts of your house and on your gates, <sup>21</sup> so that as long as the heavens are above the earth, your days and those of your children may be many in the land the LORD swore to give your fathers.
<sup>22</sup> For if you carefully observe every one of these commands I am giving you to follow — to love the LORD your God, walk in all His ways, and remain faithful <sup>E</sup> to Him — <sup>23</sup> the LORD will drive out all these nations before you, and you will drive out nations greater and stronger than you are.
<sup>24†</sup> Every place the sole of your foot treads will be yours. Your territory will extend from the wilderness to Lebanon and from the Euphrates River to the Mediterranean Sea. <sup>25</sup> No one will be able to stand against you; the LORD your God will put fear and dread of you in all the land where you set foot, as He has promised you.

A Blessing and a Curse

<sup>26†</sup> “Look, today I set before you a blessing and a curse: <sup>27</sup> there will be a blessing, if you obey the commands of the LORD your God I am giving you today, <sup>28</sup> and a curse, if you do not obey the commands of the LORD your God and you turn aside from the path I command you today by following other gods you have not known. <sup>29</sup> When the LORD your God brings you into the land you are entering to possess, you are to proclaim the blessing at Mount Gerizim and the curse at Mount Ebal. <sup>30†</sup> Aren't these mountains across the Jordan, beyond the western road in the land of the Canaanites, who live in the •Arabah, opposite Gilgal, near the oaks of Moreh? <sup>31</sup> For you are about to cross the Jordan to enter and take possession of the land the LORD your God is giving you. When you possess it and settle in it, <sup>32</sup> be careful to follow all the statutes and ordinances I set before you today.

DEUTERONOMY

The Chosen Place of Worship

12 “Be careful to follow these statutes and ordinances in the land that •Yahweh, the God of your fathers, has given you to possess all the days you live on the earth. <sup>2†</sup> Destroy completely all the places where the nations that you are driving out worship their gods — on the high mountains, on the hills, and under every green tree. <sup>3</sup> Tear down their altars, smash their sacred pillars, burn up their •Asherah poles, cut down the carved images of their gods, and wipe out their names from every <sup>A</sup> place. <sup>4</sup> Don’t worship the LORD your God this way. <sup>5†</sup> Instead, you must turn to the place Yahweh your God chooses from all your tribes to put His name for His dwelling and go there. <sup>6</sup> You are to bring there your •burnt offerings and sacrifices, your tenths and personal contributions, <sup>B</sup> your vow offerings and freewill offerings, and the firstborn of your herds and flocks. <sup>7</sup> You will eat there in the presence of the LORD your God and rejoice with your household in everything you do, <sup>C</sup> because the LORD your God has blessed you.

<sup>8</sup> “You are not to do as we are doing here today; everyone is doing whatever seems right in his own eyes. <sup>9</sup> Indeed, you have not yet come into the resting place and the inheritance the LORD your God is giving you. <sup>10†</sup> When you cross the Jordan and live in the land the LORD your God is giving you to inherit, and He gives you rest from all the enemies around you and you live in security, <sup>11</sup> then Yahweh your God will choose the place to have His name dwell. Bring there everything I command you: your burnt offerings, sacrifices, offerings of the tenth, personal contributions, <sup>D</sup> and all your choice offerings you vow to the LORD. <sup>12</sup> You will rejoice before the LORD your God — you, your sons and daughters, your male and female slaves, and the Levite who is within your gates, since he has no portion or inheritance among you. <sup>13</sup> Be careful not to offer your burnt offerings in all the sacred places you see. <sup>14</sup> You must offer your burnt offerings only in the place the LORD chooses in one of your tribes, and there you must do everything I command you.

Slaughtering Animals to Eat

<sup>15</sup> “But whenever you want, you may slaughter and eat meat within any of your gates, according to the blessing the LORD your God has given you. Those who are •clean or •unclean may eat it, as they would a gazelle or deer, <sup>16†</sup> but you must not eat the blood; pour it on the ground like water. <sup>17</sup> Within your gates you may not eat: the tenth of your grain, new wine, or oil; the firstborn of your herd or flock; any of your vow offerings that you pledge; your freewill offerings; or your personal contributions. <sup>E</sup> <sup>18</sup> You must eat them in the presence of the LORD your God at the place the LORD your God chooses — you, your son and daughter, your male and female slave, and the Levite who is within your gates. Rejoice before the LORD your God in everything you do, <sup>F</sup> <sup>19</sup> and be careful not to neglect the Levite, as long as you live in your land.

<sup>20</sup> “When the LORD your God enlarges your territory as He has promised you, and you say, ‘I want to eat meat’ because you have a strong desire to eat meat, you may eat it whenever you want. <sup>21</sup> If the place where Yahweh your God chooses to put His name is too far from you, you may slaughter any of your herd or flock He has given you, as I have commanded you, and you may eat it within your gates whenever you want. <sup>22</sup> Indeed, you may eat it as the gazelle and deer are eaten; both the clean and the unclean may eat it. <sup>23</sup> But don’t eat the blood, since the blood is the life, and you must not eat the life with the meat. <sup>24</sup> Do not eat blood; pour it on the ground like water. <sup>25</sup> Do not eat it, so that you and your children after you will prosper, because you will be doing what is right in the LORD’s sight.

<sup>26</sup> “But you are to take the holy offerings you have and your vow offerings and go to the place the LORD chooses. <sup>27</sup> Present the meat and blood of your burnt offerings on the altar of the LORD your God. The blood of your other sacrifices is to be poured out beside the altar of the LORD your God, but you may eat the meat. <sup>28</sup> Be careful to obey all these things I command you, so that you and your children after you may prosper forever, because you will be doing what is good and right in the sight of the LORD your God.

<sup>29†</sup> “When the LORD your God annihilates the nations before you, which you are entering to take possession of, and you drive them out and live in their land, <sup>30</sup> be careful not to be ensnared by their ways after they have been destroyed before you. Do not inquire about their gods, asking, ‘How did these nations worship their gods? I’ll also do the same.’ <sup>31</sup> You must not do the same to the LORD your God, because they practice every detestable thing, which the LORD hates, for their gods. They even burn their sons and daughters in the fire to their gods. <sup>32</sup> You must be careful to do everything I command you; do not add anything to it or take anything away from it.

DEUTERONOMY

The False Prophet

13 “If a prophet or someone who has dreams arises among you and proclaims a sign or wonder to you, <sup>2†</sup> and that sign or wonder he has promised you comes about, but he says, ‘Let us follow other gods,’ which you have not known, ‘and let us worship them,’ <sup>3</sup> do not listen to that prophet’s words or to that dreamer. For the LORD your God is testing you to know whether you love the LORD your God with all your heart and all your soul. <sup>4</sup> You must follow the LORD your God and •fear Him. You must keep His commands and listen to His voice; you must worship Him and remain faithful <sup>A</sup> to Him. <sup>5†</sup> That prophet or dreamer must be put to death, because he has urged rebellion against the LORD your God who brought you out of the land of Egypt and redeemed you from the place of slavery, to turn you from the way the LORD your God has commanded you to walk. You must purge the evil from you.

Don’t Tolerate Idolatry

<sup>6</sup> “If your brother, the son of your mother, or your son or daughter, or the wife you embrace, or your closest friend secretly entices you, saying, ‘Let us go and worship other gods’ — which neither you nor your fathers have known, <sup>7</sup> any of the gods of the peoples around you, near you or far from you, from one end of the earth to the other — <sup>8</sup> you must not yield to him or listen to him. Show him no pity, <sup>B</sup> and do not spare him or shield him. <sup>9</sup> Instead, you must kill him. Your hand is to be the first against him to put him to death, and then the hands of all the people. <sup>10</sup> Stone him to death for trying to turn you away from the LORD your God who brought you out of the land of Egypt, out of the place of slavery. <sup>11</sup> All Israel will hear and be afraid, and they will no longer do anything evil like this among you.

<sup>12</sup> “If you hear it said about one of your cities the LORD your God is giving you to live in, <sup>13</sup> that •wicked men have sprung up among you, led the inhabitants of their city astray, and said, ‘Let us go and worship other gods,’ which you have not known, <sup>14</sup> you are to inquire, investigate, and interrogate thoroughly. If the report turns out to be true that this detestable thing has happened among you, <sup>15†</sup> you must strike down the inhabitants of that city with the sword. •Completely destroy everyone in it as well as its livestock with the sword. <sup>16</sup> You are to gather all its spoil in the middle of the city square and completely burn up the city and all its spoil for the LORD your God. The city must remain a mound of ruins forever; it is not to be rebuilt. <sup>17</sup> Nothing •set apart for destruction is to remain in your hand, so that the LORD will turn from His burning anger and grant you mercy, show you compassion, and multiply you as He swore to your fathers. <sup>18</sup> This will occur if you obey the LORD your God, keeping all His commands I am giving you today, doing what is right in the sight of the LORD your God.

DEUTERONOMY

Forbidden Practices

14 “You are sons of the LORD your God; do not cut yourselves or make a bald spot on your head <sup>A</sup> on behalf of the dead, <sup>2</sup> for you are a holy people belonging to the LORD your God. The LORD has chosen you to be His own possession out of all the peoples on the face of the earth.

Clean and Unclean Foods

<sup>3</sup> “You must not eat any detestable thing. <sup>4</sup> These are the animals you may eat:

the ox, the sheep, the goat, <sup>5</sup> the deer, the gazelle, the roe deer, the wild goat, the ibex, the antelope, and the mountain sheep.

<sup>6</sup> You may eat any animal that has hooves divided in two and chews the cud. <sup>7</sup> But among the ones that chew the cud or have divided hooves, you are not to eat these:

the camel, the hare, and the hyrax, though they chew the cud, they do not have hooves —
they are •unclean for you;
<sup>8</sup> and the pig, though it has hooves, it does not chew the cud — it is unclean for you.

You must not eat their meat or touch their carcasses.

<sup>9</sup> “You may eat everything from the water that has fins and scales, <sup>10</sup> but you may not eat anything that does not have fins and scales — it is unclean for you.

<sup>11</sup> “You may eat every •clean bird, <sup>12</sup> but these are the ones you may not eat:

the eagle, the bearded vulture, the black vulture, <sup>13</sup> the kite,
any kind of falcon,
<sup>14</sup> every kind of raven, <sup>15</sup> the ostrich, the short-eared owl, the gull,
any kind of hawk,
<sup>16</sup> the little owl, the long-eared owl, the white owl, <sup>17</sup> the desert owl, the osprey, the cormorant, <sup>18†</sup> the stork, any kind of heron,
the hoopoe, and the bat.

<sup>19</sup> All winged insects are unclean for you; they may not be eaten. <sup>20</sup> But you may eat every clean flying creature.

<sup>21†</sup> “You are not to eat any carcass; you may give it to a temporary resident living within your gates, and he may eat it, or you may sell it to a foreigner. For you are a holy people belonging to the LORD your God. You must not boil a young goat in its mother’s milk.

A Tenth for the LORD

<sup>22</sup> “Each year you are to set aside a tenth of all the produce grown in your fields. <sup>23</sup> You are to eat a tenth of your grain, new wine, and oil, and the firstborn of your herd and flock, in the presence of •Yahweh your God at the place where He chooses to have His name dwell, so that you will always learn to •fear the LORD your God. <sup>24</sup> But if the distance is too great for you to carry it, since the place where Yahweh your God chooses to put His name is too far away from you and since the LORD your God has blessed you, <sup>25</sup> then exchange it for money, take the money in your hand, and go to the place the LORD your God chooses. <sup>26</sup> You may spend the money on anything you want: cattle, sheep, wine, beer, or anything you desire. You are to feast there in the presence of the LORD your God and rejoice with your family. <sup>27</sup> Do not neglect the Levite within your gates, since he has no portion or inheritance among you.

<sup>28</sup> “At the end of every three years, bring a tenth of all your produce for that year and store it within your gates. <sup>29</sup> Then the Levite, who has no portion or inheritance among you, the foreigner, the fatherless, and the widow within your gates may come, eat, and be satisfied. And the LORD your God will bless you in all the work of your hands that you do.

DEUTERONOMY

Debts Canceled

15 “At the end of every seven years you must cancel debts. <sup>2</sup> This is how to cancel debt: Every creditor <sup>A</sup> is to cancel what he has lent his neighbor. He is not to collect anything from his neighbor or brother, because the LORD’s release of debts has been proclaimed. <sup>3†</sup> You may collect something from a foreigner, but you must forgive whatever your brother owes you.

<sup>4†</sup> “There will be no poor among you, however, because the LORD is certain to bless you in the land the LORD your God is giving you to possess as an inheritance — <sup>5</sup> if only you obey the LORD your God and are careful to follow every one of these commands I am giving you today. <sup>6</sup> When the LORD your God blesses you as He has promised you, you will lend to many nations but not borrow; you will rule over many nations, but they will not rule over you.

Lending to the Poor

<sup>7</sup> “If there is a poor person among you, one of your brothers within any of your gates in the land the LORD your God is giving you, you must not be hardhearted or tightfisted toward your poor brother. <sup>8</sup> Instead, you are to open your hand to him and freely loan him enough for whatever need he has. <sup>9</sup> Be careful that there isn’t this wicked thought in your heart, ‘The seventh year, the year of canceling debts, is near,’ and you are stingy toward your poor brother and give him nothing. He will cry out to the LORD against you, and you will be •guilty. <sup>10</sup> Give to him, and don’t have a stingy heart <sup>B</sup> when you give, and because of this the LORD your God will bless you in all your work and in everything you do. <sup>C</sup> <sup>11</sup> For there will never cease to be poor people in the land; that is why I am commanding you, ‘You must willingly open your hand to your afflicted and poor brother in your land.’

Release of Slaves

<sup>12†</sup> “If your fellow Hebrew, a man or woman, is sold to you and serves you six years, you must set him free in the seventh year. <sup>13</sup> When you set him free, do not send him away empty-handed. <sup>14</sup> Give generously to him from your flock, your threshing floor, and your winepress. You are to give him whatever the LORD your God has blessed you with. <sup>15</sup> Remember that you were a slave in the land of Egypt and the LORD your God redeemed you; that is why I am giving you this command today. <sup>16</sup> But if your slave says to you, ‘I don’t want to leave you,’ because he loves you and your family, and is well off with you, <sup>17†</sup> take an awl and pierce through his ear into the door, and he will become your slave for life. Also treat your female slave the same way. <sup>18</sup> Do not regard it as a hardship <sup>D</sup> when you set him free, because he worked for you six years — worth twice the wages of a hired hand. Then the LORD your God will bless you in everything you do.

Consecration of Firstborn Animals

<sup>19</sup> “You must consecrate to the LORD your God every firstborn male produced by your herd and flock. You are not to put the firstborn of your oxen to work or shear the firstborn of your flock. <sup>20</sup> Each year you and your family are to eat it before the LORD your God in the place the LORD chooses. <sup>21</sup> But if there is a defect in the animal, if it is lame or blind or has any serious defect, you must not sacrifice it to the LORD your God. <sup>22</sup> Eat it within your gates; both the •unclean person and the •clean may eat it, as though it were a gazelle or deer. <sup>23</sup> But you must not eat its blood; pour it on the ground like water.

DEUTERONOMY

The Festival of Passover

16 “Observe the month of Abib and celebrate the •Passover to the LORD your God, because the LORD your God brought you out of Egypt by night in the month of Abib. <sup>2</sup> Sacrifice to •Yahweh your God a Passover animal from the herd or flock in the place where the LORD chooses to have His name dwell. <sup>3†</sup> You must not eat leavened bread with it. For seven days you are to eat unleavened bread with it, the bread of hardship — because you left the land of Egypt in a hurry — so that you may remember for the rest of your life the day you left the land of Egypt. <sup>4</sup> No yeast is to be found anywhere in your territory for seven days, and none of the meat you sacrifice in the evening of the first day is to remain until morning. <sup>5</sup> You are not to sacrifice the Passover animal in any of the towns the LORD your God is giving you. <sup>6</sup> You must only sacrifice the Passover animal at the place where Yahweh your God chooses to have His name dwell. Do this in the evening as the sun sets at the same time of day you departed from Egypt. <sup>7</sup> You are to cook and eat it in the place the LORD your God chooses, and you are to return to your tents in the morning. <sup>8</sup> You must eat unleavened bread for six days. On the seventh day there is to be a solemn assembly to the LORD your God, and you must not do any work.

The Festival of Weeks

<sup>9</sup> “You are to count seven weeks, counting the weeks from the time the sickle is first put to the standing grain. <sup>10</sup> You are to celebrate the Festival of Weeks to the LORD your God with a freewill offering that you give in proportion to how the LORD your God has blessed you. <sup>11</sup> Rejoice before Yahweh your God in the place where He chooses to have His name dwell — you, your son and daughter, your male and female slave, the Levite within your gates, as well as the foreigner, the fatherless, and the widow among you. <sup>12</sup> Remember that you were slaves in Egypt; carefully follow these statutes.

The Festival of Booths

<sup>13</sup> “You are to celebrate the Festival of Booths for seven days when you have gathered in everything from your threshing floor and winepress. <sup>14</sup> Rejoice during your festival — you, your son and daughter, your male and female slave, as well as the Levite, the foreigner, the fatherless, and the widow within your gates. <sup>15</sup> You are to hold a seven-day festival for the LORD your God in the place He chooses, because the LORD your God will bless you in all your produce and in all the work of your hands, and you will have abundant joy.

<sup>16†</sup> “All your males are to appear three times a year before the LORD your God in the place He chooses: at the Festival of •Unleavened Bread, the Festival of Weeks, and the Festival of Booths. No one is to appear before the LORD empty-handed. <sup>17</sup> Everyone must appear with a gift suited to his means, according to the blessing the LORD your God has given you.

Appointing Judges and Officials

<sup>18</sup> “Appoint judges and officials for your tribes in all your towns the LORD your God is giving you. They are to judge the people with righteous judgment. <sup>19</sup> Do not deny justice or show partiality to anyone. Do not accept a bribe, for it blinds the eyes of the wise and twists the words of the righteous. <sup>20</sup> Pursue justice and justice alone, so that you will live and possess the land the LORD your God is giving you.

Forbidden Worship

<sup>21</sup> “Do not set up an •Asherah of any kind of wood next to the altar you will build for the LORD your God, <sup>22†</sup> and do not set up a sacred pillar; the LORD your God hates them.

DEUTERONOMY

17 “You must not sacrifice to the LORD your God an ox or sheep with a defect or any serious flaw, for that is detestable to the LORD your God.

The Judicial Procedure for Idolatry

<sup>2</sup> “If a man or woman among you in one of your towns that the LORD your God will give you is discovered doing evil in the sight of the LORD your God and violating His covenant <sup>3</sup> and has gone to worship other gods by bowing down to the sun, moon, or all the stars in the sky — which I have forbidden — <sup>4</sup> and if you are told or hear about it, you must investigate it thoroughly. If the report turns out to be true that this detestable thing has happened in Israel, <sup>5†</sup> you must bring out to your •gates that man or woman who has done this evil thing and stone them to death. <sup>6</sup> The one condemned to die is to be executed on the testimony of two or three witnesses. No one is to be executed on the testimony of a single witness. <sup>7</sup> The witnesses’ hands are to be the first in putting him to death, and after that, the hands of all the people. You must purge the evil from you.

Difficult Cases

<sup>8</sup> “If a case is too difficult for you — concerning bloodshed, lawsuits, or assaults — cases disputed at your gates, you must go up to the place the LORD your God chooses. <sup>9</sup> You are to go to the Levitical priests and to the judge who presides at that time. Ask, and they will give you a verdict in the case. <sup>10</sup> You must abide by the verdict they give you at the place the LORD chooses. Be careful to do exactly as they instruct you. <sup>11</sup> You must abide by the instruction they give you and the verdict they announce to you. Do not turn to the right or the left from the decision they declare to you. <sup>12</sup> The person who acts arrogantly, refusing to listen either to the priest who stands there serving the LORD your God or to the judge, must die. You must purge the evil from Israel. <sup>13</sup> Then all the people will hear about it, be afraid, and no longer behave arrogantly.

Appointing a King

<sup>14</sup> “When you enter the land the LORD your God is giving you, take possession of it, live in it, and say, ‘I will set a king over me like all the nations around me,’ <sup>15†</sup> you are to appoint over you the king the LORD your God chooses. Appoint a king from your brothers. You are not to set a foreigner over you, or one who is not of your people. <sup>16†</sup> However, he must not acquire many horses for himself or send the people back to Egypt to acquire many horses, for the LORD has told you, ‘You are never to go back that way again.’ <sup>17</sup> He must not acquire many wives for himself so that his heart won’t go astray. He must not acquire very large amounts of silver and gold for himself. <sup>18</sup> When he is seated on his royal throne, he is to write a copy of this instruction for himself on a scroll in the presence of the Levitical priests. <sup>19</sup> It is to remain with him, and he is to read from it all the days of his life, so that he may learn to •fear the LORD his God, to observe all the words of this instruction, and to do these statutes. <sup>20</sup> Then his heart will not be exalted above his countrymen, he will not turn from this command to the right or the left, and he and his sons will continue ruling many years <sup>A</sup> over Israel.

DEUTERONOMY

Provisions for the Levites

18 “The Levitical priests, the whole tribe of Levi, will have no portion or inheritance with Israel. They will eat the LORD’s fire offerings; that is their inheritance. <sup>2†</sup> Although Levi has no inheritance among his brothers, the LORD is his inheritance, as He promised him. <sup>3</sup> This is the priests’ share from the people who offer a sacrifice, whether it is an ox, a sheep, or a goat; the priests are to be given the shoulder, jaws, and stomach. <sup>4</sup> You are to give him the •firstfruits of your grain, new wine, and oil, and the first sheared wool of your flock. <sup>5</sup> For •Yahweh your God has chosen him and his sons from all your tribes to stand and minister in His name from now on. <sup>B</sup> <sup>6</sup> When a Levite leaves one of your towns where he lives in Israel and wants to go to the place the LORD chooses, <sup>7</sup> he may serve in the name of Yahweh his God like all his fellow Levites who minister there in the presence of the LORD. <sup>8</sup> They will eat equal portions besides what he has received from the sale of the family estate. <sup>C</sup>

Occult Practices versus Prophetic Revelation

<sup>9†</sup> “When you enter the land the LORD your God is giving you, do not imitate the detestable customs of those nations. <sup>10</sup> No one among you is to make his son or daughter pass through the fire, practice •divination, tell fortunes, interpret omens, practice sorcery, <sup>11</sup> cast spells, consult a medium or a familiar spirit, or inquire of the dead. <sup>12</sup> Everyone who does these things is detestable to the LORD, and the LORD your God is driving out the nations before you because of these detestable things. <sup>13</sup> You must be blameless before the LORD your God. <sup>14</sup> Though these nations you are about to drive out listen to fortune-tellers and diviners, the LORD your God has not permitted you to do this.

TWISTED SCRIPTURE

Deuteronomy 18:10-12

One of the earliest exhortations to the people of God about the dangers of occult involvement, this passage lists nine kinds of religious practices to avoid: (1) making a child sacrifice to false gods; (2) predicting the future or seeking hidden treasures through the aid of divining rods, pendulums, and other occult means; (3) guiding one's affairs by the stars; (4) using Ouija boards, crystals, etc.; (5) practicing sorcery; (6) placing oneself into a trance or attempting to alter one's state of consciousness; (7) attending séances; (8) mixing potions; and (9) becoming a spiritualist medium, or one who attempts to communicate with the dead. Persons involved in occultism do not entrust their lives, present or future, to God but rather seek to rule their affairs through forbidden means.

Deuteronomy 18:18

Some Muslims believe this verse refers to the coming of Muhammad. But in Ac 7:37 Stephen unequivocally identifies Jesus as the fulfillment of this prophecy.

<sup>15</sup> “The LORD your God will raise up for you a prophet like me from among your own brothers. You must listen to him. <sup>16</sup> This is what you requested from the LORD your God at Horeb on the day of the assembly when you said, ‘Let us not continue to hear the voice of the LORD our God or see this great fire any longer, so that we will not die!’ <sup>17</sup> Then the LORD said to me, ‘They have spoken well. <sup>18</sup> I will raise up for them a prophet like you from among their brothers. I will put My words in his mouth, and he will tell them everything I command him. <sup>19</sup> I will hold accountable whoever does not listen to My words that he speaks in My name. <sup>20†</sup> But the prophet who dares to speak a message in My name that I have not commanded him to speak, or who speaks in the name of other gods — that prophet must die.’ <sup>21</sup> You may say to yourself, ‘How can we recognize a message the LORD has not spoken?’ <sup>22†</sup> When a prophet speaks in the LORD’s name, and the message does not come true or is not fulfilled, that is a message the LORD has not spoken. The prophet has spoken it presumptuously. Do not be afraid of him.

DEUTERONOMY

19 †“When the LORD your God annihilates the nations whose land He is giving you, so that you drive them out and live in their cities and houses, <sup>2</sup> you are to set apart three cities for yourselves within the land the LORD your God is giving you to possess. <sup>3</sup> You are to determine the distances <sup>A</sup> and divide the land the LORD your God is granting you as an inheritance into three regions, so that anyone who commits manslaughter can flee to these cities. <sup>B</sup>

<sup>4</sup> “Here is the law concerning a case of someone who kills a person and flees there to save his life, having killed his neighbor accidentally without previously hating him: <sup>5</sup> If he goes into the forest with his neighbor to cut timber, and his hand swings the ax to chop down a tree, but the blade flies off the handle and strikes his neighbor so that he dies, that person may flee to one of these cities and live. <sup>6†</sup> Otherwise, the avenger of blood in the heat of his anger <sup>C</sup> might pursue the one who committed manslaughter, overtake him because the distance is great, and strike him dead. Yet he did not deserve to die, <sup>D</sup> since he did not previously hate his neighbor. <sup>7</sup> This is why I am commanding you to set apart three cities for yourselves. <sup>8</sup> If the LORD your God enlarges your territory as He swore to your fathers, and gives you all the land He promised to give them — <sup>9†</sup> provided you keep every one of these commands I am giving you today and follow them, loving the LORD your God and walking in His ways at all times — you are to add three more cities to these three. <sup>10</sup> In this way, innocent blood will not be shed, and you will not become •guilty of bloodshed in the land the LORD your God is giving you as an inheritance. <sup>11</sup> But if someone hates his neighbor, lies in ambush for him, attacks him, and strikes him fatally, and flees to one of these cities, <sup>12</sup> the elders of his city must send for him, take him from there, and hand him over to the avenger of blood and he will die. <sup>13†</sup> You must not look on him with pity but purge from Israel the guilt of shedding innocent blood, and you will prosper.

Boundary Markers

<sup>14</sup> “You must not move your neighbor’s boundary marker, established at the start in the inheritance you will receive in the land the LORD your God is giving you to possess.

Witnesses in Court

<sup>15</sup> “One witness cannot establish any wrongdoing or sin against a person, whatever that person has done. A fact must be established by the testimony of two or three witnesses.

<sup>16</sup> “If a malicious witness testifies against someone accusing him of a crime, <sup>17</sup> the two people in the dispute must stand in the presence of the LORD before the priests and judges in authority at that time. <sup>18</sup> The judges are to make a careful investigation, and if the witness turns out to be a liar who has falsely accused his brother, <sup>19</sup> you must do to him as he intended to do to his brother. You must purge the evil from you. <sup>20</sup> Then everyone else will hear and be afraid, and they will never again do anything evil like this among you. <sup>21†</sup> You must not show pity: life for life, eye for eye, tooth for tooth, hand for hand, and foot for foot.

DEUTERONOMY

Rules for War

20 †“When you go out to war against your enemies and see horses, chariots, and an army larger than yours, do not be afraid of them, for the LORD your God, who brought you out of the land of Egypt, is with you. <sup>2</sup> When you are about to engage in battle, the priest is to come forward and address the army. <sup>3</sup> He is to say to them: ‘Listen, Israel: Today you are about to engage in battle with your enemies. Do not be cowardly. Do not be afraid, alarmed, or terrified because of them. <sup>4</sup> For the LORD your God is the One who goes with you to fight for you against your enemies to give you victory.’

<sup>5†</sup> “The officers are to address the army, ‘Has any man built a new house and not dedicated it? Let him leave and return home. Otherwise, he may die in battle and another man dedicate it. <sup>6</sup> Has any man planted a vineyard and not begun to enjoy its fruit? <sup>A</sup> Let him leave and return home. Otherwise he may die in battle and another man enjoy its fruit. <sup>B</sup> <sup>7</sup> Has any man become •engaged to a woman and not married her? Let him leave and return home. Otherwise he may die in battle and another man marry her.’ <sup>8</sup> The officers will continue to address the army and say, ‘Is there any man who is afraid or cowardly? Let him leave and return home, so that his brothers’ hearts won’t melt like his own.’ <sup>9</sup> When the officers have finished addressing the army, they will appoint military commanders to lead it.

<sup>10</sup> “When you approach a city to fight against it, you must make an offer of peace. <sup>11†</sup> If it accepts your offer of peace and opens its gates to you, all the people found in it will become forced laborers for you and serve you. <sup>12</sup> However, if it does not make peace with you but wages war against you, lay siege to it. <sup>13</sup> When the LORD your God hands it over to you, you must strike down all its males with the sword. <sup>14</sup> But you may take the women, children, animals, and whatever else is in the city — all its spoil — as plunder. You may enjoy the spoil of your enemies that the LORD your God has given you. <sup>15</sup> This is how you are to treat all the cities that are far away from you and are not among the cities of these nations. <sup>16†</sup> However, you must not let any living thing survive among the cities of these people the LORD your God is giving you as an inheritance. <sup>17</sup> You must •completely destroy them — the Hittite, Amorite, Canaanite, Perizzite, Hivite, and Jebusite — as the LORD your God has commanded you, <sup>18</sup> so that they won't teach you to do all the detestable things they do for their gods, and you sin against the LORD your God.

<sup>19†</sup> “When you lay siege to a city for a long time, fighting against it in order to capture it, you must not destroy its trees by putting an ax to them, because you can get food from them. You must not cut them down. Are trees of the field human, to come under siege by you? <sup>20</sup> But you may destroy the trees that you know do not produce food. You may cut them down to build siege works against the city that is waging war against you, until it falls.

DEUTERONOMY

Unsolved Murders

21 “If a murder victim is found lying in a field in the land the LORD your God is giving you to possess, and it is not known who killed him,<sup>2</sup> your elders and judges must come out and measure the distance from the victim to the nearby cities.<sup>3†</sup> The elders of the city nearest to the victim are to get a young cow that has not been yoked or used for work.<sup>4</sup> The elders of that city will bring the cow down to a continually flowing stream, to a place not tilled or sown, and they will break its neck there by the stream.<sup>5</sup> Then the priests, the sons of Levi, will come forward, for •Yahweh your God has chosen them to serve Him and pronounce blessings in His name, and they are to give a ruling in <sup>A</sup> every dispute and case of assault.<sup>6</sup> All the elders of the city nearest to the victim will wash their hands by the stream over the young cow whose neck has been broken.<sup>7</sup> They will declare, ‘Our hands did not shed this blood; our eyes did not see it.’<sup>8</sup> LORD, forgive Your people Israel You redeemed, and do not hold the shedding of innocent blood against them.’ Then they will be absolved of responsibility for bloodshed.<sup>9</sup> You must purge from yourselves the •guilt of shedding innocent blood, for you will be doing what is right in the LORD’s sight.

Fair Treatment of Captured Women

<sup>10</sup> “When you go to war against your enemies and the LORD your God hands them over to you and you take some of them prisoner, and <sup>11†</sup> if you see a beautiful woman among the captives, desire her, and want to take her as your wife,<sup>12</sup> you are to bring her into your house. She must shave her head, trim her nails,<sup>13</sup> remove the clothes she was wearing when she was taken prisoner, live in your house, and mourn for her father and mother a full month. After that, you may have sexual relations with her and be her husband, and she will be your wife.<sup>14</sup> Then if you are not satisfied with her, you are to let her go where she wants, but you must not sell her for money or treat her as merchandise, <sup>B</sup> because you have humiliated her.

The Right of the Firstborn

<sup>15†</sup> “If a man has two wives, one loved and the other unloved, and both the loved and the unloved bear him sons, and if the unloved wife has the firstborn son, <sup>16†</sup> when that man gives what he has to his sons as an inheritance, he is not to show favoritism to the son of the loved wife as his firstborn over the firstborn of the unloved wife. <sup>17†</sup> He must acknowledge the firstborn, the son of the unloved wife, by giving him two shares <sup>C</sup> of his estate, for he is the firstfruits of his virility; he has the rights of the firstborn.

A Rebellious Son

<sup>18</sup> “If a man has a stubborn and rebellious son who does not obey his father or mother and doesn’t listen to them even after they discipline him, <sup>19</sup> his father and mother must take hold of him and bring him to the elders of his city, to the •gate of his hometown. <sup>20</sup> They will say to the elders of his city, ‘This son of ours is stubborn and rebellious; he doesn’t obey us. He’s a glutton and a drunkard.’ <sup>21†</sup> Then all the men of his city will stone him to death. You must purge the evil from you, and all Israel will hear and be afraid.

Display of Executed People

<sup>22</sup> “If anyone is found guilty of an offense deserving the death penalty and is executed, and you hang his body on a tree, <sup>23†</sup> you are not to leave his corpse on the tree overnight but are to bury him that day, for anyone hung on a tree is under God’s curse. You must not defile the land the LORD your God is giving you as an inheritance.

DEUTERONOMY

Caring for Your Brother's Property

22 †“If you see your brother’s ox or sheep straying, you must not ignore it; make sure you return it to your brother. <sup>2</sup> If your brother does not live near you or you don’t know him, you are to bring the animal to your home to remain with you until your brother comes looking for it; then you can return it to him. <sup>3</sup> Do the same for his donkey, his garment, or anything your brother has lost and you have found. You must not ignore it. <sup>4</sup> If you see your brother’s donkey or ox fallen down on the road, you must not ignore it; you must help him lift it up.

Preserving Natural Distinctions

<sup>5†</sup> “A woman is not to wear male clothing, and a man is not to put on a woman’s garment, for everyone who does these things is detestable to the LORD your God.

<sup>6</sup> “If you come across a bird’s nest with chicks or eggs, either in a tree or on the ground along the road, and the mother is sitting on the chicks or eggs, you must not take the mother along with the young. <sup>7</sup> You may take the young for yourself, but be sure to let the mother go free, so that you may prosper and live long. <sup>8</sup> If you build a new house, make a railing around your roof, so that you don’t bring bloodguilt on your house if someone falls from it. <sup>9†</sup> Do not plant your vineyard with two types of seed; otherwise, the entire harvest, both the crop you plant and the produce of the vineyard, will be defiled. <sup>10</sup> Do not plow with an ox and a donkey together. <sup>11</sup> Do not wear clothes made of both wool and linen. <sup>12</sup> Make tassels on the four corners of the outer garment you wear.

Violations of Proper Sexual Conduct

<sup>13</sup> “If a man marries a woman, has sexual relations with her, and comes to hate her, <sup>14</sup> and accuses her of shameful conduct, and gives her a bad name, saying, ‘I married this woman and was intimate with her, but I didn’t find any evidence of her virginity,’ <sup>15</sup> the young woman’s father and mother will take the evidence of her virginity and bring it to the city elders at the •gate. <sup>16</sup> The young woman’s father will say to the elders, ‘I gave my daughter to this man as a wife, but he hates her. <sup>17</sup> He has accused her of shameful conduct, saying: “I didn’t find any evidence of your daughter’s virginity,” but here is the evidence of my daughter’s virginity.’ They will spread out the cloth before the city elders. <sup>18</sup> Then the elders of that city will take the man and punish him. <sup>19</sup> They will also fine him 100 silver shekels and give them to the young woman’s father, because that man gave an Israelite virgin a bad name. She will remain his wife; he cannot divorce her as long as he lives. <sup>20</sup> But if this accusation is true and no evidence of the young woman’s virginity is found, <sup>21†</sup> they will bring the woman to the door of her father’s house, and the men of her city will stone her to death. For she has committed an outrage in Israel by being promiscuous in her father’s house. You must purge the evil from you.

<sup>22</sup> “If a man is discovered having sexual relations with another man’s wife, both the man who had sex with the woman and the woman must die. You must purge the evil from Israel. <sup>23</sup> If there is a young woman who is a virgin •engaged to a man, and another man encounters her in the city and has sex with her, <sup>24</sup> you must take the two of them out to the gate of that city and stone them to death — the young woman because she did not cry out in the city and the man because he has violated his neighbor’s fiancée. You must purge the evil from you. <sup>25†</sup> But if the man encounters an engaged woman in the open country, and he seizes and rapes her, only the man who raped her must die. <sup>26</sup> Do nothing to the young woman, because she is not •guilty of an offense deserving death. This case is just like one in which a man attacks his neighbor and murders him. <sup>27</sup> When he found her in the field, the engaged woman cried out, but there was no one to rescue her. <sup>28</sup> If a man encounters a young woman, a virgin who is not engaged, takes hold of her and rapes her, and they are discovered, <sup>29</sup> the man who raped her must give the young woman’s father 50 silver shekels, and she must become his wife because he violated her. He cannot divorce her as long as he lives.

<sup>30†</sup> “A man is not to marry his father’s wife; he must not violate his father’s marriage bed. ,

DEUTERONOMY

Exclusion and Inclusion

23 †“No man whose testicles have been crushed <sup>A</sup> or whose penis has been cut off may enter the LORD’s assembly. <sup>2†</sup> No one of illegitimate birth may enter the LORD’s assembly; none of his descendants, even to the tenth generation, may enter the LORD’s assembly. <sup>3†</sup> No Ammonite or Moabite may enter the LORD’s assembly; none of their descendants, even to the tenth generation, may ever enter the LORD’s assembly. <sup>4</sup> This is because they did not meet you with food and water on the journey after you came out of Egypt, and because Balaam son of Beor from Pethor in Aram-naharaim was hired to curse you. <sup>5</sup> Yet the LORD your God would not listen to Balaam, but He turned the curse into a blessing for you because the LORD your God loves you. <sup>6</sup> Never seek their peace or prosperity as long as you live. <sup>7†</sup> Do not despise an Edomite, because he is your brother. Do not despise an Egyptian, because you were a foreign resident in his land. <sup>8</sup> The children born to them in the third generation may enter the LORD’s assembly.

Cleanliness of the Camp

<sup>9</sup> “When you are encamped against your enemies, be careful to avoid anything offensive. <sup>10</sup> If there is a man among you who is •unclean because of a bodily emission during the night, he must go outside the camp; he may not come anywhere inside the camp. <sup>11</sup> When evening approaches, he must wash with water, and when the sun sets he may come inside the camp. <sup>12</sup> You must have a place outside the camp and go there to relieve yourself. <sup>13†</sup> You must have a digging tool in your equipment; when you relieve yourself, dig a hole with it and cover up your excrement. <sup>14</sup> For the LORD your God walks throughout your camp to protect you and deliver your enemies to you; so your encampments must be holy. He must not see anything improper among you or He will turn away from you.

Fugitive Slaves

<sup>15†</sup> “Do not return a slave to his master when he has escaped from his master to you. <sup>16</sup> Let him live among you wherever he wants within your gates. Do not mistreat him.

Cult Prostitution Forbidden

<sup>17†</sup> “No Israelite woman is to be a cult prostitute, and no Israelite man is to be a cult prostitute. <sup>18</sup> Do not bring a female prostitute’s wages or a male prostitute’s <sup>B</sup> earnings into the house of the LORD your God to fulfill any vow, because both are detestable to the LORD your God.

Interest on Loans

<sup>19</sup> “Do not charge your brother interest on money, food, or anything that can earn interest. <sup>20†</sup> You may charge a foreigner interest, but you must not charge your brother interest, so that the LORD your God may bless you in everything you do <sup>C</sup> in the land you are entering to possess.

Keeping Vows

<sup>21</sup> “If you make a vow to the LORD your God, do not be slow to keep it, because He will require it of you, and it will be counted against you as sin. <sup>22</sup> But if you refrain from making a vow, it will not be counted against you as sin. <sup>23</sup> Be careful to do whatever comes from your lips, because you have freely vowed what you promised <sup>D</sup> to the LORD your God.

Neighbor’s Crops

<sup>24†</sup> “When you enter your neighbor’s vineyard, you may eat as many grapes as you want until you are full, but you must not put any in your container. <sup>25</sup> When you enter your neighbor’s standing grain, you may pluck heads of grain with your hand, but you must not put a sickle to your neighbor’s grain.

DEUTERONOMY

Marriage and Divorce Laws

24 †“If a man marries a woman, but she becomes displeasing to him because he finds something improper about her, he may write her a divorce certificate, hand it to her, and send her away from his house. <sup>2</sup> If after leaving his house she goes and becomes another man’s wife, <sup>3</sup> and the second man hates her, writes her a divorce certificate, hands it to her, and sends her away from his house or if he <sup>A</sup> dies, <sup>4</sup> the first husband who sent her away may not marry her again after she has been defiled, because that would be detestable to the LORD. You must not bring •guilt on the land the LORD your God is giving you as an inheritance.

<sup>5</sup> “When a man takes a bride, he must not go out with the army or be liable for any duty. He is free to stay at home for one year, so that he can bring joy to the wife he has married.

Safeguarding Life

<sup>6†</sup> “Do not take a pair of millstones or an upper millstone as security for a debt, because that is like taking a life as security.

<sup>7</sup> “If a man is discovered kidnapping one of his Israelite brothers, whether he treats him as a slave or sells him, the kidnapper must die. You must purge the evil from you.

<sup>8</sup> “Be careful in a case of infectious skin disease, following carefully everything the Levitical priests instruct you to do. Be careful to do as I have commanded them. <sup>9†</sup> Remember what the LORD your God did to Miriam on the journey after you left Egypt.

Consideration for People in Need

<sup>10</sup> “When you make a loan of any kind to your neighbor, do not enter his house to collect what he offers as security. <sup>11</sup> You must stand outside while the man you are making the loan to brings the security out to you. <sup>12</sup> If he is a poor man, you must not sleep in the garment he has given as security. <sup>13</sup> Be sure to return it <sup>B</sup> to him at sunset. Then he will sleep in it and bless you, and this will be counted as righteousness to you before the LORD your God.

<sup>16†</sup> “Fathers are not to be put to death for their children or children for their fathers; each person will be put to death for his own sin. <sup>17</sup> Do not deny justice to a foreigner or fatherless child, and do not take a widow’s garment as security. <sup>18</sup> Remember that you were a slave in Egypt, and the LORD your God redeemed you from there. Therefore I am commanding you to do this.

<sup>19†</sup> “When you reap the harvest in your field, and you forget a sheaf in the field, do not go back to get it. It is to be left for the foreigner, the fatherless, and the widow, so that the LORD your God may bless you in all the work of your hands. <sup>20</sup> When you knock down the fruit from your olive tree, you must not go over the branches again. What remains will be for the foreigner, the fatherless, and the widow. <sup>21</sup> When you gather the grapes of your vineyard, you must not glean what is left. What remains will be for the foreigner, the fatherless, and the widow. <sup>22</sup> Remember that you were a slave in the land of Egypt. Therefore I am commanding you to do this.

DEUTERONOMY

Fairness and Mercy

25 “If there is a dispute between men, they are to go to court, and the judges will hear their case. They will clear the innocent and condemn the •guilty.<sup>2†</sup> If the guilty party deserves to be flogged, the judge will make him lie down and be flogged in his presence with the number of lashes appropriate for his crime.<sup>3†</sup> He may be flogged with 40 lashes, but no more. Otherwise, if he is flogged with more lashes than these, your brother will be degraded in your sight.

Preserving the Family Line

<sup>5†</sup> “When brothers live on the same property <sup>A</sup> and one of them dies without a son, the wife of the dead man may not marry a stranger outside the family. Her brother-in-law is to take her as his wife, have sexual relations with her, and perform the duty of a brother-in-law for her.<sup>6</sup> The first son she bears will carry on the name of the dead brother, so his name will not be blotted out from Israel.<sup>7</sup> But if the man doesn’t want to marry his sister-in-law, she must go to the elders at the city •gate and say, ‘My brother-in-law refuses to preserve his brother’s name in Israel. He isn’t willing to perform the duty of a brother-in-law for me.’<sup>8</sup> The elders of his city will summon him and speak with him. If he persists and says, ‘I don’t want to marry her,’<sup>9†</sup> then his sister-in-law will go up to him in the sight of the elders, remove his sandal from his foot, and spit in his face. Then she will declare, ‘This is what is done to a man who will not build up his brother’s house.’<sup>10</sup> And his family name in Israel will be called ‘The house of the man whose sandal was removed.’

<sup>11</sup> “If two men are fighting with each other, and the wife of one steps in to rescue her husband from the one striking him, and she puts out her hand and grabs his genitals,<sup>12†</sup> you are to cut off her hand. You must not show pity.

Honest Weights and Measures

<sup>13</sup> “You must not have two different weights <sup>B</sup> in your bag, one heavy and one light. <sup>14</sup> You must not have two differing dry measures in your house, a larger and a smaller. <sup>15</sup> You must have a full and honest weight, a full and honest dry measure, so that you may live long in the land the LORD your God is giving you. <sup>16†</sup> For everyone who does such things and acts unfairly is detestable to the LORD your God.

Revenge on the Amalekites

<sup>17†</sup> “Remember what the Amalekites did to you on the journey after you left Egypt. <sup>18</sup> They met you along the way and attacked all your stragglers from behind when you were tired and weary. They did not •fear God. <sup>19</sup> When the LORD your God gives you rest from all the enemies around you in the land the LORD your God is giving you to possess as an inheritance, blot out the memory of Amalek under heaven. Do not forget.

DEUTERONOMY

Giving the Firstfruits

26 †“When you enter the land the LORD your God is giving you as an inheritance, and you take possession of it and live in it, <sup>2</sup> you must take some of the first of all the land’s produce that you harvest from the land •Yahweh your God is giving you and put it in a container. Then go to the place where the LORD your God chooses to have His name dwell.

<sup>3</sup> When you come before the priest who is serving at that time, you must say to him, ‘Today I acknowledge to the LORD your God that I have entered the land the LORD swore to our fathers to give us.’

<sup>4</sup> “Then the priest will take the container from your hand and place it before the altar of the LORD your God. <sup>5†</sup> You are to respond by saying in the presence of the LORD your God:

My father was a wandering Aramean. He went down to Egypt with a few people and lived there. There he became a great, powerful, and populous nation. <sup>6</sup> But the Egyptians mistreated and afflicted us, and forced us to do hard labor. <sup>7</sup> So we called out to Yahweh, the God of our fathers, and the LORD heard our cry and saw our misery, hardship, and oppression. <sup>8</sup> Then the LORD brought us out of Egypt with a strong hand and an outstretched arm, with terrifying power, and with signs and wonders. <sup>9</sup> He led us to this place and gave us this land, a land flowing with milk and honey. <sup>10</sup> I have now brought the first of the land’s produce that You, LORD, have given me.

You will then place the container before the LORD your God and bow down to Him. <sup>11</sup> You, the Levite, and the foreign resident among you will rejoice in all the good things the LORD your God has given you and your household.

The Tenth in the Third Year

<sup>12†</sup> “When you have finished paying all the tenth of your produce in the third year, the year of the tenth, you are to give it to the Levite, the foreigner, the fatherless, and the widow, so that they may eat in your towns and be satisfied. <sup>13</sup> Then you will say in the presence of the LORD your God:

I have taken the consecrated portion out of my house; I have also given it to the Levite, the foreigner, the fatherless, and the widow, according to all the commands You gave me. I have not violated or forgotten Your commands. <sup>14</sup> I have not eaten any of it while •unclean, or offered any of it for the dead. I have obeyed the LORD my God; I have done all You commanded me. <sup>15</sup> Look down from Your holy dwelling, from heaven, and bless Your people Israel and the land You have given us as You swore to our fathers, a land flowing with milk and honey.

Covenant Summary

<sup>16</sup> “The LORD your God is commanding you this day to follow these statutes and ordinances. You must be careful to follow them with all your heart and all your soul. <sup>17</sup> Today you have affirmed that the LORD is your God and that you will walk in His ways, keep His statutes, commands, and ordinances, and obey Him. <sup>18</sup> And today the LORD has affirmed that you are His special people as He promised you, that you are to keep all His commands, <sup>19†</sup> that He will elevate you to praise, fame, and glory above all the nations He has made, and that you will be a holy people to the LORD your God as He promised.”

DEUTERONOMY

The Law Written on Stones

27 Moses and the elders of Israel commanded the people, “Keep every command I am giving you today. <sup>2†</sup> At the time you cross the Jordan into the land the LORD your God is giving you, you must set up large stones and cover them with plaster. <sup>3†</sup> Write all the words of this law on the stones after you cross to enter the land the LORD your God is giving you, a land flowing with milk and honey, as •Yahweh, the God of your fathers, has promised you. <sup>4†</sup> When you have crossed the Jordan, you are to set up these stones on Mount Ebal, as I am commanding you today, and you are to cover them with plaster. <sup>5†</sup> Build an altar of stones there to the LORD your God — you must not use any iron tool on them. <sup>6</sup> Use uncut stones to build the altar of the LORD your God and offer •burnt offerings to the LORD your God on it. <sup>7</sup> There you are to sacrifice •fellowship offerings, eat, and rejoice in the presence of the LORD your God. <sup>8</sup> Write clearly all the words of this law on the plastered stones.”

The Covenant Curses

<sup>9†</sup> Moses and the Levitical priests spoke to all Israel, “Be silent, Israel, and listen! This day you have become the people of the LORD your God. <sup>10</sup> Obey the LORD your God and follow His commands and statutes I am giving you today.”

<sup>11</sup> On that day Moses commanded the people, <sup>12†</sup> “When you have crossed the Jordan, these tribes will stand on Mount Gerizim to bless the people: Simeon, Levi, Judah, Issachar, Joseph, and Benjamin. <sup>13</sup> And these tribes will stand on Mount Ebal to deliver the curse: Reuben, Gad, Asher, Zebulun, Dan, and Naphtali. <sup>14</sup> The Levites will proclaim in a loud voice to every Israelite:

<sup>15†</sup> ‘The person who makes a carved idol or cast image, which is detestable to the LORD, the work of a craftsman, and sets it up in secret is cursed.’

And all the people will reply, ‘•Amen!’

<sup>16†</sup> ‘The one who dishonors his father or mother is cursed.’

And all the people will say, 'Amen! '

And all the people will say, 'Amen! '

And all the people will say, 'Amen! '

<sup>19</sup> 'The one who denies justice to a foreigner, a fatherless child, or a widow is cursed.'

And all the people will say, 'Amen! '

<sup>20†</sup> 'The one who sleeps with his father's wife is cursed, for he has violated his father's marriage bed.' <sup>A</sup>

And all the people will say, 'Amen! '

<sup>22</sup> 'The one who sleeps with his sister, whether his father's daughter or his mother's daughter is cursed.'

And all the people will say, 'Amen! '

And all the people will say, 'Amen! '

<sup>25</sup> 'The one who accepts a bribe to kill an innocent person is cursed.'

And all the people will say, 'Amen! '

<sup>26</sup> 'Anyone who does not put the words of this law into practice is cursed.'

And all the people will say, 'Amen! '

DEUTERONOMY

Blessings for Obedience

28 †“Now if you faithfully obey the LORD your God and are careful to follow all His commands I am giving you today, the LORD your God will put you far above all the nations of the earth. <sup>2</sup> All these blessings will come and overtake you, because you obey the LORD your God:

<sup>3</sup> You will be blessed in the city and blessed in the country.

<sup>4</sup> Your descendants <sup>A</sup> will be blessed,
and your land’s produce,
and the offspring of your livestock, including the young of your herds and the newborn of your flocks.

<sup>5</sup> Your basket and kneading bowl will be blessed.

<sup>6</sup> You will be blessed when you come in and blessed when you go out.

<sup>7</sup> “The LORD will cause the enemies who rise up against you to be defeated before you. They will march out against you from one direction but flee from you in seven directions. <sup>8</sup> The LORD will grant you a blessing on your storehouses and on everything you do; <sup>B</sup> He will bless you in the land the LORD your God is giving you. <sup>9</sup> The LORD will establish you as His holy people, as He swore to you, if you obey the commands of the LORD your God and walk in His ways. <sup>10</sup> Then all the peoples of the earth will see that you are called by •Yahweh’s name, and they will stand in awe of you.

<sup>11</sup> The LORD will make you prosper abundantly with children, <sup>C</sup> the offspring of your livestock, and your land’s produce in the land the LORD swore to your fathers to give you. <sup>12†</sup> The LORD will open for you His abundant storehouse, the sky, to give your land rain in its season and to bless all the work of your hands. You will lend to many nations, but you will not borrow. <sup>13</sup> The LORD will make you the head and not the tail; you will only move upward and never downward if you listen to the LORD your God’s commands I am giving you today and are careful to follow them.

Curses for Disobedience

<sup>15†</sup> “But if you do not obey the LORD your God by carefully following all His commands and statutes I am giving you today, all these curses will come and overtake you:

<sup>16</sup> You will be cursed in the city and cursed in the country.

<sup>17</sup> Your basket and kneading bowl will be cursed.

and your land’s produce,
the young of your herds,
and the newborn of your flocks.

<sup>19†</sup> You will be cursed when you come in and cursed when you go out.

<sup>20†</sup> The LORD will send against you curses, confusion, and rebuke in everything you do <sup>E</sup> until you are destroyed and quickly perish, because of the wickedness of your actions in abandoning Me. <sup>21</sup> The LORD will make pestilence cling to you until He has exterminated you from the land you are entering to possess. <sup>22</sup> The LORD will afflict you with wasting disease, fever, inflammation, burning heat, drought, <sup>F</sup> blight, and mildew; these will pursue you until you perish. <sup>23†</sup> The sky above you will be bronze, and the earth beneath you iron. <sup>24</sup> The LORD will turn the rain of your land into falling <sup>G</sup> dust; it will descend on you from the sky until you are destroyed. <sup>25</sup> The LORD will cause you to be defeated before your enemies. You will march out against them from one direction but flee from them in seven directions. You will be an object of horror to all the kingdoms of the earth. <sup>26†</sup> Your corpses will be food for all the birds of the sky and the wild animals of the land, with no one to scare them away.

<sup>27</sup> “The LORD will afflict you with the boils of Egypt, tumors, a festering rash, and scabies, from which you cannot be cured. <sup>28</sup> The LORD will afflict you with madness, blindness, and mental confusion, <sup>29</sup> so that at noon you will grope as a blind man gropes in the dark. You will not be successful in anything you do. You will only be oppressed and robbed continually, and no one will help you. <sup>30†</sup> You will become •engaged to a woman, but another man will rape her. You will build a house but not live in it. You will plant a vineyard but not enjoy its fruit. <sup>31</sup> Your ox will be slaughtered before your eyes, but you will not eat any of it. Your donkey will be taken away from you and not returned to you. Your flock will be given to your enemies, and no one will help you. <sup>32</sup> Your sons and daughters will be given to another people, while your eyes grow weary looking for them every day. But you will be powerless to do anything. <sup>H</sup> <sup>33</sup> A people you don't know will eat your land's produce and everything you have labored for. You will only be oppressed and crushed continually. <sup>34</sup> You will be driven mad by what you see. <sup>35</sup> The LORD will afflict you with painful and incurable boils on your knees and thighs — from the sole of your foot to the top of your head.

<sup>36†</sup> “The LORD will bring you and your king that you have appointed to a nation neither you nor your fathers have known, and there you will worship other gods, of wood and stone. <sup>37</sup> You will become an object of horror, scorn, and ridicule among all the peoples where the LORD will drive you.

<sup>38</sup> “You will sow much seed in the field but harvest little, because locusts will devour it. <sup>39</sup> You will plant and cultivate vineyards but not drink the wine or gather the grapes, because worms will eat them. <sup>40</sup> You will have olive trees throughout your territory but not anoint yourself with oil, because your olives will drop off. <sup>41</sup> You will father sons and daughters, but they will not remain yours, because they will be taken prisoner. <sup>42</sup> Whirring insects will take possession of all your trees and your land's produce. <sup>43</sup> The foreign resident among you will rise higher and higher above you, while you sink lower and lower. <sup>44</sup> He will lend to you, but you won't lend to him. He will be the head, and you will be the tail.

<sup>45</sup> “All these curses will come, pursue, and overtake you until you are destroyed, since you did not obey the LORD your God and keep the commands and statutes He gave you. <sup>46†</sup> These curses will be a sign and a wonder against you and your descendants forever. <sup>47</sup> Because you didn't serve the LORD your God with joy and a cheerful heart, even though you had an abundance of everything, <sup>48</sup> you will serve your enemies the LORD will send against you, in famine, thirst, nakedness, and a lack of everything. He will place an iron yoke on your neck until He has destroyed you. <sup>49</sup> The LORD will bring a nation from far away, from the ends of the earth, to swoop down on you like an eagle, a nation whose language you don't understand, <sup>50</sup> a ruthless nation, <sup>I</sup> showing no respect for the old and not sparing the young. <sup>51</sup> They will eat the offspring of your livestock and your land's produce until you are destroyed. They will leave you no grain, new wine, oil, young of your herds, or newborn of your flocks until they cause you to perish. <sup>52</sup> They will besiege you within all your gates until your high and fortified walls, that you trust in, come down throughout your land. They will besiege you within all your gates throughout the land the LORD your God has given you.

<sup>58</sup> “If you are not careful to obey all the words of this law, which are written in this scroll, by •fearing this glorious and awesome name — Yahweh, your God — <sup>59</sup> He will bring extraordinary plagues on you and your descendants, severe and lasting plagues, and terrible and chronic sicknesses. <sup>60</sup> He will afflict you again with all the diseases of Egypt, which you dreaded, and they will cling to you. <sup>61</sup> The LORD will also afflict you with every sickness and plague not recorded in the book of this law, until you are destroyed. <sup>62†</sup> Though you were as numerous as the stars of the sky, you will be left with only a few people, because you did not obey the LORD your God. <sup>63</sup> Just as the LORD was glad to cause you to prosper and to multiply you, so He will also be glad to cause you to perish and to destroy you. You will be deported from the land you are entering to possess. <sup>64†</sup> Then the LORD will scatter you among all peoples from one end of the earth to the other, and there you will worship other gods, of wood and stone, which neither you nor your fathers have known. <sup>65</sup> You will find no peace among those nations, and there will be no resting place for the sole of your foot. There the LORD will give you a trembling heart, failing eyes, and a despondent spirit. <sup>66</sup> Your life will hang in doubt before you. You will be in dread night and day, never certain of survival. <sup>67</sup> In the morning you will say, ‘If only it were evening!’ and in the evening you will say, ‘If only it were morning!’ — because of the dread you will have in your heart and because of what you will see. <sup>68†</sup> The LORD will take you back in ships to Egypt by a route that I said you would never see again. There you will sell yourselves to your enemies as male and female slaves, but no one will buy you.”

DEUTERONOMY

Chapter 29 Renewing the Covenant

<sup>1</sup>These are the words of the covenant the LORD commanded Moses to make with the Israelites in the land of Moab, in addition to the covenant He had made with them at Horeb. <sup>2</sup> Moses summoned all Israel and said to them, “You have seen with your own eyes everything the LORD did in Egypt to Pharaoh, to all his officials, and to his entire land. <sup>3</sup> You saw with your own eyes the great trials and those great signs and wonders. <sup>4†</sup> Yet to this day the LORD has not given you a mind to understand, eyes to see, or ears to hear. <sup>5</sup> I led you 40 years in the wilderness; your clothes and the sandals on your feet did not wear out; <sup>6</sup> you did not eat bread or drink wine or beer — so that you might know that I am •Yahweh your God. <sup>7†</sup> When you reached this place, Sihon king of Heshbon and Og king of Bashan came out against us in battle, but we defeated them. <sup>8</sup> We took their land and gave it as an inheritance to the Reubenites, the Gadites, and half the tribe of Manasseh. <sup>9</sup> Therefore, observe the words of this covenant and follow them, so that you will succeed in everything you do.

<sup>10</sup> “All of you are standing today before the LORD your God — your leaders, tribes, elders, officials, all the men of Israel, <sup>11</sup> your children, your wives, and the foreigners in your camps who cut your wood and draw your water — <sup>12</sup> so that you may enter into the covenant of the LORD your God, which He is making with you today, so that you may enter into His oath <sup>13†</sup> and so that He may establish you today as His people and He may be your God as He promised you and as He swore to your fathers Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob. <sup>14</sup> I am making this covenant and this oath not only with you, <sup>15†</sup> but also with those who are standing here with us today in the presence of the LORD our God and with those who are not here today.

Abandoning the Covenant

<sup>16</sup> “Indeed, you know how we lived in the land of Egypt and passed through the nations where you traveled. <sup>17</sup> You saw their detestable images and idols made of wood, stone, silver, and gold, which were among them.

<sup>18</sup> Be sure there is no man, woman, clan, or tribe among you today whose heart turns away from the LORD our God to go and worship the gods of those nations. Be sure there is no root among you bearing poisonous and bitter fruit. <sup>19</sup> When someone hears the words of this oath, he may consider himself exempt, <sup>A</sup> thinking, ‘I will have peace even though I follow my own stubborn heart.’ This will lead to the destruction of the well-watered land as well as the dry land. <sup>20†</sup> The LORD will not be willing to forgive him. Instead, His anger and jealousy will burn against that person, and every curse written in this scroll will descend on him. The LORD will blot out his name under heaven, <sup>21</sup> and single him out for harm from all the tribes of Israel, according to all the curses of the covenant written in this book of the law.

<sup>22</sup> “Future generations of your children who follow you and the foreigner who comes from a distant country will see the plagues of the land and the sicknesses the LORD has inflicted on it. <sup>23</sup> All its soil will be a burning waste of sulfur and salt, unsown, producing nothing, with no plant growing on it, just like the fall of Sodom and Gomorrah, Admah and Zeboiim, which the LORD demolished in His fierce anger. <sup>24</sup> All the nations will ask, ‘Why has the LORD done this to this land? Why this great outburst of anger?’ <sup>25</sup> Then people will answer, ‘It is because they abandoned the covenant of Yahweh, the God of their fathers, which He had made with them when He brought them out of the land of Egypt. <sup>26</sup> They began to worship other gods, bowing down to gods they had not known — gods that the LORD had not permitted them to worship. <sup>27</sup> Therefore the LORD’s anger burned against this land, and He brought every curse written in this book on it. <sup>28†</sup> The LORD uprooted them from their land in His anger, rage, and great wrath, and threw them into another land where they are today.’ <sup>29</sup> The hidden things belong to the LORD our God, but the revealed things belong to us and our children forever, so that we may follow all the words of this law.

DEUTERONOMY

Returning to the LORD

30 “When all these things happen to you — the blessings and curses I have set before you — and you come to your senses while you are in all the nations where the LORD your God has driven you,<sup>2</sup> and you and your children return to the LORD your God and obey Him with all your heart and all your soul by doing<sup>A</sup> everything I am giving you today,<sup>3</sup> then He will restore your fortunes,<sup>B</sup> have compassion on you, and gather you again from all the peoples where the LORD your God has scattered you.<sup>4</sup> Even if your exiles are at the ends of the earth,<sup>C</sup> He will gather you and bring you back from there.<sup>5</sup> The LORD your God will bring you into the land your fathers possessed, and you will take possession of it. He will cause you to prosper and multiply you more than He did your fathers.<sup>6†</sup> The LORD your God will circumcise your heart and the hearts of your descendants, and you will love Him with all your heart and all your soul so that you will live.<sup>7</sup> The LORD your God will put all these curses on your enemies who hate and persecute you.<sup>8</sup> Then you will again obey Him and follow all His commands I am giving you today.<sup>9</sup> The LORD your God will make you prosper abundantly in all the work of your hands with children,<sup>D</sup> the offspring of your livestock, and your land’s produce. Indeed, the LORD will again delight in your prosperity, as He delighted in that of your fathers,<sup>10</sup> when you obey the LORD your God by keeping His commands and statutes that are written in this book of the law and return to Him with all your heart and all your soul.

Choose Life

<sup>11</sup> “This command that I give you today is certainly not too difficult or beyond your reach.<sup>12</sup> It is not in heaven so that you have to ask, ‘Who will go up to heaven, get it for us, and proclaim it to us so that we may follow it?’<sup>13</sup> And it is not across the sea so that you have to ask, ‘Who will cross the sea, get it for us, and proclaim it to us so that we may follow it?’<sup>14</sup> But the message is very near you, in your mouth and in your heart, so that you may follow it.<sup>15</sup> See, today I have set before you life and prosperity, death and adversity.<sup>16</sup> For I am commanding you today to love the LORD your God, to walk in His ways, and to keep His commands, statutes, and ordinances, so that you may live and multiply, and the LORD your God may bless you in the land you are entering to possess. <sup>17</sup> But if your heart turns away and you do not listen and you are led astray to bow down to other gods and worship them, <sup>18</sup> I tell you today that you will certainly perish and will not live long in the land you are entering to possess across the Jordan. <sup>19†</sup> I call heaven and earth as witnesses against you today that I have set before you life and death, blessing and curse. Choose life so that you and your descendants may live, <sup>20</sup> love the LORD your God, obey Him, and remain faithful <sup>E</sup> to Him. For He is your life, and He will prolong your life in the land the LORD swore to give to your fathers Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob.”

DEUTERONOMY

Joshua Takes Moses' Place

31 Then Moses continued to speak these words to all Israel, <sup>2†</sup> saying, “I am now 120 years old; I can no longer act as your leader. <sup>A</sup> The LORD has told me, ‘You will not cross this Jordan.’ <sup>3</sup> The LORD your God is the One who will cross ahead of you. He will destroy these nations before you, and you will drive them out. Joshua is the one who will cross ahead of you, as the LORD has said. <sup>4</sup> The LORD will deal with them as He did Sihon and Og, the kings of the Amorites, and their land when He destroyed them. <sup>5</sup> The LORD will deliver them over to you, and you must do to them exactly as I have commanded you. <sup>6</sup> Be strong and courageous; don’t be terrified or afraid of them. For it is the LORD your God who goes with you; He will not leave you or forsake you.”

<sup>7</sup> Moses then summoned Joshua and said to him in the sight of all Israel, “Be strong and courageous, for you will go with this people into the land the LORD swore to give to their fathers. You will enable them to take possession of it. <sup>8</sup> The LORD is the One who will go before you. He will be with you; He will not leave you or forsake you. Do not be afraid or discouraged.”

<sup>9†</sup> Moses wrote down this law and gave it to the priests, the sons of Levi, who carried the ark of the LORD’s covenant, and to all the elders of Israel. <sup>10</sup> Moses commanded them, “At the end of every seven years, at the appointed time in the year of debt cancellation, during the Festival of Booths, <sup>11†</sup> when all Israel assembles <sup>B</sup> in the presence of the LORD your God at the place He chooses, you are to read this law aloud before all Israel. <sup>12</sup> Gather the people — men, women, children, and foreigners living within your gates — so that they may listen and learn to •fear the LORD your God and be careful to follow all the words of this law. <sup>13</sup> Then their children who do not know the law will listen and learn to fear the LORD your God as long as you live in the land you are crossing the Jordan to possess.”

<sup>14</sup> The LORD said to Moses, “The time of your death is now approaching. Call Joshua and present yourselves at the tent of meeting so that I may commission him.” When Moses and Joshua went and presented themselves at the tent of meeting, <sup>15†</sup> the LORD appeared at the tent in a pillar of cloud, and the cloud stood at the entrance to the tent.

<sup>16</sup> The LORD said to Moses, “You are about to rest with your fathers, and these people will soon commit adultery with the foreign gods of the land they are entering. They will abandon Me and break the covenant I have made with them. <sup>17</sup> My anger will burn against them on that day; I will abandon them and hide My face from them so that they will become easy prey. <sup>C</sup> Many troubles and afflictions will come to them. On that day they will say, ‘Haven’t these troubles come to us because our God is no longer with us?’ <sup>18</sup> I will certainly hide My face on that day because of all the evil they have done by turning to other gods. <sup>19</sup> Therefore write down this song for yourselves and teach it to the Israelites; have them recite it, <sup>D</sup> so that this song may be a witness for Me against the Israelites. <sup>20</sup> When I bring them into the land I swore to give their fathers, a land flowing with milk and honey, they will eat their fill and prosper. <sup>E</sup> They will turn to other gods and worship them, despising Me and breaking My covenant. <sup>21</sup> And when many troubles and afflictions come to them, this song will testify against them, because <sup>F</sup> their descendants will not have forgotten it. For I know what they are prone to do, <sup>G</sup> even before I bring them into the land I swore to give them.” <sup>22</sup> So Moses wrote down this song on that day and taught it to the Israelites.

<sup>23</sup> The LORD commissioned Joshua son of Nun, “Be strong and courageous, for you will bring the Israelites into the land I swore to them, and I will be with you.”

Moses Warns the People

will you rebel after I am dead! <sup>28†</sup> Assemble all your tribal elders and officers before me so that I may speak these words directly to them and call heaven and earth as witnesses against them. <sup>29</sup> For I know that after my death you will become completely corrupt and turn from the path I have commanded you. Disaster will come to you in the future, because you will do what is evil in the LORD's sight, infuriating Him with what your hands have made.” <sup>30</sup> Then Moses recited aloud every single word <sup>1</sup> of this song to the entire assembly of Israel:

DEUTERONOMY

Song of Moses

32 †Pay attention, heavens, and I will speak;
listen, earth, to the words of my mouth.

<sup>2</sup> Let my teaching fall like rain and my word settle like dew, like gentle rain on new grass and showers on tender plants.

<sup>3</sup> For I will proclaim •Yahweh's name.
Declare the greatness of our God!

all His ways are entirely just.
A faithful God, without prejudice,
He is righteous and true.

this is their defect <sup>A</sup> — they are not His children but a devious and crooked generation.

<sup>6</sup> Is this how you repay the LORD,
you foolish and senseless people?
Isn't He your Father and Creator?
Didn't He make you and sustain you?

<sup>7</sup> Remember the days of old;
consider the years long past.
Ask your father, and he will tell you, your elders, and they will teach you.

<sup>8†</sup> When the •Most High gave the nations their inheritance <sup>B</sup> and divided the •human race,
He set the boundaries of the peoples according to the number of the people of Israel.

<sup>9</sup> But the LORD's portion is His people, Jacob, His own inheritance.

<sup>10†</sup> He found him in a desolate land, in a barren, howling wilderness;
He surrounded him, cared for him, and protected him as the pupil of His eye.

and hovers over His young;
He spreads His wings, catches him, and lifts him up on His pinions.

<sup>12†</sup> The LORD alone led him, with no help from a foreign god. <sup>D</sup>

and eat the produce of the field.

He nourished him with honey from the rock and oil from flint-like rock,

<sup>14</sup> cream from the herd and milk from the flock, with the fat of lambs, rams from Bashan, and goats, with the choicest grains of wheat;

you drank wine from the finest grapes. <sup>E</sup>

you became fat, bloated, and gorged.

He abandoned the God who made him and scorned the Rock of his salvation.

<sup>16†</sup> They provoked His jealousy with foreign gods;
they enraged Him with detestable practices.

<sup>17</sup> They sacrificed to demons, not God, to gods they had not known,
new gods that had just arrived, which your fathers did not fear.

<sup>18</sup> You ignored the Rock who gave you birth;
you forgot the God who gave birth to you.

<sup>19</sup> When the LORD saw this, He despised them, provoked to anger by His sons and daughters.

<sup>20</sup> He said: “I will hide My face from them;
I will see what will become of them, for they are a perverse generation — unfaithful children.

<sup>21</sup> They have provoked My jealousy with their so-called gods; <sup>F</sup>

they have enraged Me with their worthless idols.
So I will provoke their jealousy with an inferior people; <sup>G</sup>

I will enrage them with a foolish nation.

<sup>22†</sup> For fire has been kindled because of My anger and burns to the depths of •Sheol;
it devours the land and its produce, and scorches the foundations of the mountains.

<sup>23</sup> “I will pile disasters on them;
I will use up My arrows against them.

<sup>24</sup> They will be weak from hunger, ravaged by pestilence and bitter plague;
I will unleash on them wild beasts with fangs, as well as venomous snakes that slither in the dust.

<sup>25</sup> Outside, the sword will take their children, and inside, there will be terror;
the young man and the young woman will be killed,
the infant and the gray-haired man.

<sup>26†</sup> “I would have said: I will cut them to pieces and blot out the memory of them from mankind,

<sup>27</sup> if I had not feared insult from the enemy, or feared that these foes might misunderstand and say: ‘Our own hand has prevailed;
it wasn’t the LORD who did all this.’ ”

<sup>28</sup> Israel is a nation lacking sense with no understanding at all. <sup>H</sup>

<sup>29</sup> If only they were wise, they would figure it out;
they would understand their fate.

<sup>30†</sup> How could one man pursue a thousand,
or two put ten thousand to flight, unless their Rock had sold them, unless the LORD had given them up?

<sup>31</sup> But their “rock” is not like our Rock;
even our enemies concede.

<sup>32</sup> For their vine is from the vine of Sodom and from the fields of Gomorrah.

Their grapes are poisonous;
their clusters are bitter.

<sup>33</sup> Their wine is serpents' venom,
the deadly poison of cobras.

<sup>34</sup> "Is it not stored up with Me, sealed up in My vaults?

<sup>35</sup> Vengeance belongs to Me; I will repay.
In time their foot will slip, for their day of disaster is near,
and their doom is coming quickly."

<sup>36</sup> The LORD will indeed vindicate His people and have compassion on His servants when He sees that their strength is gone and no one is left — slave or free.

<sup>37†</sup> He will say: "Where are their gods, the 'rock' they found refuge in?"

<sup>38</sup> Who ate the fat of their sacrifices and drank the wine of their •drink offerings?
Let them rise up and help you;
let it be a shelter for you.

<sup>39</sup> See now that I alone am He;
there is no God but Me.

I bring death and I give life;
I wound and I heal.

No one can rescue anyone from My hand.

<sup>40†</sup> I raise My hand to heaven and declare:
As surely as I live forever,

<sup>41</sup> when I sharpen My flashing sword, and My hand takes hold of judgment,
I will take vengeance on My adversaries and repay those who hate Me.

<sup>42</sup> I will make My arrows drunk with blood while My sword devours flesh — the blood of the slain and the captives, the heads of the enemy leaders.”<sup>1</sup>

for He will avenge the blood of His servants.
He will take vengeance on His adversaries;
He will purify His land and His people.

<sup>44†</sup> Moses came with Joshua son of Nun and recited all the words of this song in the presence of the people. <sup>45</sup> After Moses finished reciting all these words to all Israel, <sup>46</sup> he said to them, “Take to heart all these words I am giving as a warning to you today, so that you may command your children to carefully follow all the words of this law. <sup>47</sup> For they are not meaningless words to you but they are your life, and by them you will live long in the land you are crossing the Jordan to possess.”

Moses’ Impending Death

<sup>48</sup> On that same day the LORD spoke to Moses, <sup>49</sup> “Go up Mount Nebo in the Abarim range in the land of Moab, across from Jericho, and view the land of Canaan I am giving the Israelites as a possession. <sup>50</sup> Then you will die on the mountain that you go up, and you will be gathered to your people, just as your brother Aaron died on Mount Hor and was gathered to his people. <sup>51†</sup> For both of you broke faith with Me among the Israelites at the waters of Meribath-kadesh in the Wilderness of Zin by failing to treat Me as holy in their presence. <sup>52</sup> Although from a distance you will view the land that I am giving the Israelites, you will not go there.”

DEUTERONOMY

Moses' Blessings

33 †This is the blessing that Moses, the man of God, gave the Israelites before his death. <sup>2†</sup> He said:

The LORD came from Sinai and appeared to them from Seir;
He shone on them from Mount Paran and came with ten thousand holy ones, with lightning <sup>A</sup> from His right hand <sup>B</sup> for them.

All Your <sup>D</sup> holy ones are in Your hand, and they assemble <sup>E</sup> at Your feet.
Each receives Your words.

<sup>4</sup> Moses gave us instruction,
a possession for the assembly of Jacob.

<sup>5</sup> So He became King in Jeshurun when the leaders of the people gathered with the tribes of Israel.

<sup>6†</sup> Let Reuben live and not die though his people become few.

<sup>7</sup> He said this about Judah:

LORD, hear Judah's cry and bring him to his people.
He fights for his cause <sup>F</sup> with his own hands, but may You be a help against his foes.

<sup>8</sup> He said about Levi:

Your •Thummim and Urim belong to Your faithful one;
You tested him at Massah and contended with him at the waters of Meribah.

<sup>9†</sup> He said about his father and mother,
"I do not regard them."
He disregarded his brothers and didn't acknowledge his sons, for they kept Your word and maintained Your covenant.

<sup>10</sup> They will teach Your ordinances to Jacob and Your instruction to Israel;
they will set incense before You and whole •burnt offerings on Your altar.

<sup>11</sup> LORD, bless his possessions, <sup>G</sup> and accept the work of his hands.
Smash the loins of his adversaries and enemies, so that they cannot rise again.

<sup>12</sup> He said about Benjamin:

The LORD's beloved rests <sup>H</sup> securely on Him.
He shields him all day long, and he rests on His shoulders. <sup>I</sup>

<sup>13</sup> He said about Joseph:

May his land be blessed by the LORD with the dew of heaven's bounty and the watery depths that lie beneath; <sup>14</sup> with the bountiful harvest from the sun and the abundant yield of the seasons;
<sup>15</sup> with the best products of the ancient mountains and the bounty of the eternal hills;
<sup>16†</sup> with the choice gifts of the land and everything in it;
and with the favor of Him who appeared <sup>J</sup> in the burning bush.
May these rest on the head of Joseph,
on the crown of the prince of his brothers.
<sup>17†</sup> His firstborn bull has splendor, and horns like <sup>K</sup> those of a wild ox;
he gores all the peoples with them to the ends of the earth.

Such are the ten thousands of Ephraim, and such are the thousands of Manasseh.

<sup>18</sup> He said about Zebulun:

Rejoice, Zebulun, in your journeys, and Issachar, in your tents.

<sup>19†</sup> They summon the peoples to a mountain;
there they offer acceptable sacrifices.
For they draw from the wealth of the seas and the hidden treasures of the sand.

<sup>20</sup> He said about Gad:

The one who enlarges Gad's territory will be blessed.

He lies down like a lion and tears off an arm or even a head.

<sup>21†</sup> He chose the best part for himself, because a ruler's portion was assigned there for him.
He came with the leaders of the people;
he carried out the LORD's justice and His ordinances for Israel.

<sup>22</sup> He said about Dan:

Dan is a young lion, leaping out of Bashan.

<sup>23</sup> He said about Naphtali:

Naphtali, enjoying approval, full of the LORD's blessing, take possession to the west and the south.

<sup>24</sup> He said about Asher:

May Asher be the most blessed of the sons; may he be the most favored among his brothers and dip his foot in olive oil.

<sup>25</sup> May the bolts of your gate be iron and bronze, and your strength last as long as you live.

<sup>26†</sup> There is none like the God of Jeshurun, who rides the heavens to your aid,
the clouds in His majesty.

<sup>27</sup> The God of old is your dwelling place, and underneath are the everlasting arms.
He drives out the enemy before you and commands, "Destroy!"

<sup>28</sup> So Israel dwells securely;
Jacob lives untroubled in a land of grain and new wine;
even his skies drip with dew.

<sup>29†</sup> How happy you are, Israel!
Who is like you,
a people saved by the LORD?
He is the shield that protects you,
the sword you boast in.
Your enemies will cringe before you, and you will tread on their backs. <sup>L</sup>

DEUTERONOMY

Moses' Death

34† Then Moses went up from the plains of Moab to Mount Nebo, to the top of Pisgah, which faces Jericho, and the LORD showed him all the land: Gilead as far as Dan,<sup>2</sup> all of Naphtali, the land of Ephraim and Manasseh, all the land of Judah as far as the Mediterranean<sup>A</sup> Sea,<sup>3</sup> the •Negev, and the region from the Valley of Jericho, the City of Palms, as far as Zoar.<sup>4</sup> The LORD then said to him, “This is the land I promised Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob, ‘I will give it to your descendants.’ I have let you see it with your own eyes, but you will not cross into it.”

<sup>5†</sup> So Moses the servant of the LORD died there in the land of Moab, as the LORD had said.<sup>6†</sup> He buried him<sup>B</sup> in the valley in the land of Moab facing Beth-peor, and no one to this day knows where his grave is.

<sup>7†</sup> Moses was 120 years old when he died; his eyes were not weak, and his vitality had not left him.<sup>8</sup> The Israelites wept for Moses in the plains of Moab 30 days. Then the days of weeping and mourning for Moses came to an end.

<sup>9</sup> Joshua son of Nun was filled with the spirit of wisdom because Moses had laid his hands on him. So the Israelites obeyed him and did as the LORD had commanded Moses.<sup>10†</sup> No prophet has arisen again in Israel like Moses, whom the LORD knew face to face.<sup>11</sup> He was unparalleled for all the signs and wonders the LORD sent him to do against the land of Egypt — to Pharaoh, to all his officials, and to all his land,<sup>12</sup> and for all the mighty acts of power and terrifying deeds that Moses performed in the sight of all Israel.

JOSHUA

Encouragement of Joshua

1 †After the death of Moses the LORD’s servant, the LORD spoke to Joshua son of Nun, who had served Moses: <sup>2†</sup> “Moses My servant is dead. Now you and all the people prepare to cross over the Jordan to the land I am giving the Israelites. <sup>3†</sup> I have given you every place where the sole of your foot treads, just as I promised Moses. <sup>4</sup> Your territory will be from the wilderness and Lebanon to the great Euphrates River — all the land of the Hittites — and west to the Mediterranean Sea. <sup>A</sup> <sup>5</sup> No one will be able to stand against you as long as you live. I will be with you, just as I was with Moses. I will not leave you or forsake you.

<sup>6†</sup> “Be strong and courageous, for you will distribute the land I swore to their fathers to give them as an inheritance. <sup>7</sup> Above all, be strong and very courageous to carefully observe the whole instruction My servant Moses commanded you. Do not turn from it to the right or the left, so that you will have success wherever you go. <sup>8</sup> This book of instruction must not depart from your mouth; you are to recite <sup>B</sup> it day and night so that you may carefully observe everything written in it. For then you will prosper and succeed in whatever you do. <sup>9</sup> Haven’t I commanded you: be strong and courageous? Do not be afraid or discouraged, for the LORD your God is with you wherever you go.”

Joshua Prepares the People

<sup>10†</sup> Then Joshua commanded the officers of the people: <sup>11</sup> “Go through the camp and tell the people, ‘Get provisions ready for yourselves, for within three days you will be crossing the Jordan to go in and take possession of the land the LORD your God is giving you to inherit.’ ”

<sup>12†</sup> Joshua said to the Reubenites, the Gadites, and half the tribe of Manasseh: <sup>13</sup> “Remember what Moses the LORD’s servant commanded you when he said, ‘The LORD your God will give you rest, and He will give you this land.’ <sup>14</sup> Your wives, young children, and livestock may remain in the land Moses gave you on this side of the Jordan. But your fighting men must cross over in battle formation <sup>C</sup> ahead of your brothers and help them <sup>15</sup> until the LORD gives your brothers rest, as He has given you, and they too possess the land the LORD your God is giving them. You may then return to the land of your inheritance and take possession of what Moses the LORD's servant gave you on the east side of the Jordan."

<sup>16</sup> They answered Joshua, "Everything you have commanded us we will do, and everywhere you send us we will go. <sup>17</sup> We will obey you, just as we obeyed Moses in everything. And may the LORD your God be with you, as He was with Moses. <sup>18</sup> Anyone who rebels against your order and does not obey your words in all that you command him, will be put to death. Above all, be strong and courageous! "

JOSHUA

Spies Sent to Jericho

2 † Joshua son of Nun secretly sent two men as spies from the Acacia Grove, <sup>A</sup> saying, “Go and scout the land, especially Jericho.” So they left, and they came to the house of a woman, a prostitute named Rahab, and stayed there.

<sup>2†</sup> The king of Jericho was told, “Look, some of the Israelite men have come here tonight to investigate the land.” <sup>3</sup> Then the king of Jericho sent word to Rahab and said, “Bring out the men who came to you and entered your house, for they came to investigate the entire land.”

<sup>4</sup> But the woman had taken the two men and hidden them. So she said, “Yes, the men did come to me, but I didn’t know where they were from. <sup>5</sup> At nightfall, when the gate was about to close, the men went out, and I don’t know where they were going. Chase after them quickly, and you can catch up with them! ” <sup>6</sup> But she had taken them up to the roof and hidden them among the stalks of flax that she had arranged on the roof. <sup>7</sup> The men pursued them along the road to the fords of the Jordan, and as soon as they left to pursue them, the gate was shut.

The Promise to Rahab

<sup>8†</sup> Before the men fell asleep, she went up on the roof <sup>9</sup> and said to them, “I know that the LORD has given you this land and that the terror of you has fallen on us, and everyone who lives in the land is panicking because of you. <sup>B</sup> <sup>10</sup> For we have heard how the LORD dried up the waters of the •Red Sea before you when you came out of Egypt, and what you did to Sihon and Og, the two Amorite kings you •completely destroyed across the Jordan. <sup>11</sup> When we heard this, we lost heart, and everyone’s courage failed <sup>C</sup> because of you, for the LORD your God is God in heaven above and on earth below. <sup>12</sup> Now please swear to me by the LORD that you will also show kindness to my family, because I showed kindness to you. <sup>D</sup> Give me a sure sign <sup>E</sup> <sup>13</sup> that you will spare the lives of my father, mother, brothers, sisters, and all who belong to them, and save us from death.”

<sup>14</sup> The men answered her, “We will give our lives for yours. If you don’t report our mission, we will show kindness and faithfulness to you when the LORD gives us the land.”

<sup>15†</sup> Then she let them down by a rope through the window, since she lived in a house that was built into the wall of the city. <sup>16</sup> “Go to the hill country so that the men pursuing you won’t find you,” she said to them. “Hide yourselves there for three days until they return; afterward, go on your way.”

<sup>17</sup> The men said to her, “We will be free from this oath you made us swear, <sup>18</sup> unless, when we enter the land, you tie this scarlet cord to the window through which you let us down. Bring your father, mother, brothers, and all your father’s family into your house. <sup>19</sup> If anyone goes out the doors of your house, his blood will be on his own head, and we will be innocent. But if anyone with you in the house should be harmed, <sup>F</sup> his blood will be on our heads. <sup>20</sup> And if you report our mission, we are free from the oath you made us swear.”

<sup>22</sup> So the two men went into the hill country and stayed there three days until the pursuers had returned. They searched all along the way, but did not find them. <sup>23</sup> Then the men returned, came down from the hill country, and crossed the Jordan. They went to Joshua son of Nun and reported everything that had happened to them. <sup>24</sup> They told Joshua, “The LORD has handed over the entire land to us. Everyone who lives in the land is also panicking because of us.” <sup>G</sup>

Crossing the Jordan

3 † Joshua started early the next morning and left the Acacia Grove <sup>A</sup> with all the Israelites. They went as far as the Jordan and stayed there before crossing. <sup>2</sup> After three days the officers went through the camp <sup>3</sup> and commanded the people: “When you see the ark of the covenant of the LORD your God carried by the Levitical priests, you must break camp and follow it. <sup>4</sup> But keep a distance of about 1,000 yards <sup>B</sup> between yourselves and the ark. Don’t go near it, so that you can see the way to go, for you haven’t traveled this way before.” <sup>C</sup>

<sup>5</sup> Joshua told the people, “Consecrate yourselves, because the LORD will do wonders among you tomorrow.” <sup>6</sup> Then he said to the priests, “Take the ark of the covenant and go on ahead of the people.” So they carried the ark of the covenant and went ahead of them.

<sup>7</sup> † The LORD spoke to Joshua: “Today I will begin to exalt you in the sight of all Israel, so they will know that I will be with you just as I was with Moses. <sup>8</sup> Command the priests carrying the ark of the covenant: When you reach the edge of the waters, <sup>D</sup> stand in the Jordan.”

<sup>9</sup> † Then Joshua told the Israelites, “Come closer and listen to the words of the LORD your God.” <sup>10</sup> † He said: “You will know that the living God is among you and that He will certainly dispossess before you the Canaanites, Hittites, Hivites, Perizzites, Girgashites, Amorites, and Jebusites <sup>11</sup> when the ark of the covenant of the Lord of all the earth goes ahead of you into the Jordan. <sup>12</sup> Now choose 12 men from the tribes of Israel, one man for each tribe. <sup>13</sup> When the feet <sup>E</sup> of the priests who carry the ark of the LORD, the Lord of all the earth, come to rest in the Jordan’s waters, its waters will be cut off. The water flowing downstream will stand up in a mass.”

<sup>14</sup> † When the people broke camp to cross the Jordan, the priests carried the ark of the covenant ahead of the people. <sup>15</sup> Now the Jordan overflows its banks throughout the harvest season. But as soon as the priests carrying the ark reached the Jordan, their feet touched the water at its edge <sup>16</sup> and the water flowing downstream stood still, rising up in a mass that extended as far as Adam, a city next to Zarethan. The water flowing downstream into the Sea of the •Arabah (the Dead Sea) was completely cut off, and the people crossed opposite Jericho.<sup>17</sup> The priests carrying the ark of the LORD's covenant stood firmly on dry ground in the middle of the Jordan, while all Israel crossed on dry ground until the entire nation had finished crossing the Jordan.

JOSHUA

The Memorial Stones

4 After the entire nation had finished crossing the Jordan, the LORD spoke to Joshua: <sup>2</sup> “Choose 12 men from the people, one man for each tribe, <sup>3</sup> and command them: Take 12 stones from this place in the middle of the Jordan where the priests <sup>A</sup> are standing, carry them with you, and set them down at the place where you spend the night.”

<sup>4†</sup> So Joshua summoned the 12 men he had selected from the Israelites, one man for each tribe, <sup>5</sup> and said to them, “Go across to the ark of the LORD your God in the middle of the Jordan. Each of you lift a stone onto his shoulder, one for each <sup>B</sup> of the Israelite tribes, <sup>6</sup> so that this will be a sign among you. In the future, when your children ask you, ‘What do these stones mean to you?’ <sup>7</sup> you should tell them, ‘The waters of the Jordan were cut off in front of the ark of the LORD’s covenant. When it crossed the Jordan, the Jordan’s waters were cut off.’ Therefore these stones will always be a memorial for the Israelites.”

<sup>10</sup> The priests carrying the ark continued standing in the middle of the Jordan until everything was completed that the LORD had commanded Joshua to tell the people, in keeping with all that Moses had commanded Joshua. The people hurried across, <sup>11</sup> and after everyone had finished crossing, the priests with the ark of the LORD crossed in the sight of the people. <sup>12</sup> The Reubenites, Gadites, and half the tribe of Manasseh went in battle formation in front of the Israelites, as Moses had instructed them. <sup>13</sup> About 40,000 equipped for war crossed to the plains of Jericho in the LORD’s presence.

<sup>14</sup> On that day the LORD exalted Joshua in the sight of all Israel, and they revered him throughout his life, as they had revered Moses. <sup>15</sup> The LORD told Joshua, <sup>16</sup> “Command the priests who carry the ark of the •testimony to come up from the Jordan.”

<sup>19</sup> The people came up from the Jordan on the tenth day of the first month, and camped at Gilgal on the eastern limits of Jericho. <sup>20</sup> Then Joshua set up in Gilgal the 12 stones they had taken from the Jordan, <sup>21</sup> and he said to the Israelites, “In the future, when your children ask their fathers, ‘What is the meaning of these stones?’ <sup>22</sup> you should tell your children, ‘Israel crossed the Jordan on dry ground.’ <sup>23</sup> For the LORD your God dried up the waters of the Jordan before you until you had crossed over, just as the LORD your God did to the •Red Sea, which He dried up before us until we had crossed over. <sup>24</sup> This is so that all the people of the earth may know that the LORD’s hand is mighty, and so that you may always •fear the LORD your God.”

Circumcision of the Israelites

5 †When all the Amorite kings across the Jordan to the west and all the Canaanite kings near the sea heard how the LORD had dried up the waters of the Jordan before the Israelites until they had crossed over, they lost heart and their courage failed <sup>A</sup> because of the Israelites.

<sup>2†</sup> At that time the LORD said to Joshua, “Make flint knives and circumcise the Israelite men again.” <sup>3</sup> So Joshua made flint knives and circumcised the Israelite men at Gibeath-haaraloth. <sup>B</sup> <sup>4</sup> This is the reason Joshua circumcised them: All the people who came out of Egypt who were males — all the men of war — had died in the wilderness along the way after they had come out of Egypt. <sup>5</sup> Though all the people who came out were circumcised, none of the people born in the wilderness along the way were circumcised after they had come out of Egypt. <sup>6</sup> For the Israelites wandered in the wilderness 40 years until all the nation’s men of war who came out of Egypt had died off because they did not obey the LORD. So the LORD vowed never to let them see the land He had sworn to their fathers to give us, a land flowing with milk and honey. <sup>7</sup> Joshua raised up their sons in their place; it was these he circumcised. They were still uncircumcised, since they had not been circumcised along the way. <sup>8</sup> After the entire nation had been circumcised, they stayed where they were in the camp until they recovered. <sup>9</sup> The LORD then said to Joshua, “Today I have rolled away the disgrace of Egypt from you.” Therefore, that place is called Gilgal to this day.

Food from the Land

<sup>10</sup> While the Israelites camped at Gilgal on the plains of Jericho, they kept the •Passover on the evening of the fourteenth day of the month.

<sup>11</sup> The day after Passover they ate unleavened bread and roasted grain from the produce of the land. <sup>12</sup> And the day after they ate from the produce of the land, the manna ceased. Since there was no more manna for the Israelites, they ate from the crops of the land of Canaan that year.

Commander of the LORD’s Army

<sup>13†</sup> When Joshua was near Jericho, he looked up and saw a man standing in front of him with a drawn sword in His hand. Joshua approached Him and asked, “Are You for us or for our enemies? ”

<sup>14</sup> “Neither,” He replied. “I have now come as commander of the LORD’s army.”

Then Joshua bowed with his face to the ground in worship and asked Him, “What does my Lord want to say to His servant? ”

<sup>15</sup> The commander of the LORD’s army said to Joshua, “Remove the sandals from your feet, for the place where you are standing is holy.” And Joshua did so.

JOSHUA

The Conquest of Jericho

6 † Now Jericho was strongly fortified because of the Israelites — no one leaving or entering. <sup>2†</sup> The LORD said to Joshua, “Look, I have handed Jericho, its king, and its fighting men over to you. <sup>3</sup> March around the city with all the men of war, circling the city one time. Do this for six days. <sup>4</sup> Have seven priests carry seven ram’s-horn trumpets in front of the ark. But on the seventh day, march around the city seven times, while the priests blow the trumpets. <sup>5</sup> When there is a prolonged blast of the horn and you hear its sound, have all the people give a mighty shout. Then the city wall will collapse, and the people will advance, each man straight ahead.”

<sup>6</sup> So Joshua son of Nun summoned the priests and said to them, “Take up the ark of the covenant and have seven priests carry seven trumpets in front of the ark of the LORD.” <sup>7</sup> He said to the people, “Move forward, march around the city, and have the armed troops go ahead of the ark of the LORD.”

<sup>8</sup> After Joshua had spoken to the people, seven priests carrying seven trumpets before the LORD moved forward and blew the trumpets; the ark of the LORD’s covenant followed them. <sup>9</sup> While the trumpets were blowing, the armed troops went in front of the priests who blew the trumpets, and the rear guard went behind the ark. <sup>10</sup> But Joshua had commanded the people: “Do not shout or let your voice be heard. Don’t let one word come out of your mouth until the time I say, ‘Shout!’ Then you are to shout.” <sup>11</sup> So the ark of the LORD was carried around the city, circling it once. They returned to the camp and spent the night there. <sup>A</sup>

<sup>12</sup> Joshua got up early the next morning. The priests took the ark of the LORD, <sup>13</sup> and the seven priests carrying seven trumpets marched in front of the ark of the LORD. While the trumpets were blowing, the armed troops went in front of them, and the rear guard went behind the ark of the LORD. <sup>14</sup> On the second day they marched around the city once and returned to the camp. They did this for six days.

<sup>15</sup> Early on the seventh day, they started at dawn and marched around the city seven times in the same way. That was the only day they marched around the city seven times. <sup>16†</sup> After the seventh time, the priests blew the trumpets, and Joshua said to the people, “Shout! For the LORD has given you the city. <sup>17†</sup> But the city and everything in it are •set apart to the LORD for destruction. Only Rahab the prostitute and everyone with her in the house will live, because she hid the men <sup>B</sup> we sent. <sup>18</sup> But keep yourselves from the things set apart, or you will be set apart for destruction. If you take any of those things, you will set apart the camp of Israel for destruction and bring disaster on it. <sup>19</sup> For all the silver and gold, and the articles of bronze and iron, are dedicated to the LORD and must go into the LORD’s treasury.”

<sup>20†</sup> So the people shouted, and the trumpets sounded. When they heard the blast of the trumpet, the people gave a great shout, and the wall collapsed. The people advanced into the city, each man straight ahead, and they captured the city. <sup>21</sup> They •completely destroyed everything in the city with the sword — every man and woman, both young and old, and every ox, sheep, and donkey.

Rahab and Her Family Spared

<sup>22†</sup> Joshua said to the two men who had scouted the land, “Go to the prostitute’s house and bring the woman out of there, and all who are with her, just as you promised her.” <sup>23</sup> So the young men who had scouted went in and brought out Rahab and her father, mother, brothers, and all who belonged to her. They brought out her whole family and settled them outside the camp of Israel.

<sup>24</sup> They burned up the city and everything in it, but they put the silver and gold and the articles of bronze and iron into the treasury of the LORD’s house. <sup>25</sup> However, Joshua spared Rahab the prostitute, her father’s household, and all who belonged to her, because she hid the men Joshua had sent to spy on Jericho, and she lives in Israel to this day.

The man who undertakes the rebuilding of this city, Jericho, is cursed before the LORD.
He will lay its foundation at the cost of his firstborn;
he will set up its gates at the cost of his youngest.

<sup>27</sup> And the LORD was with Joshua, and his fame spread throughout the land.

Defeat at Ai

7 † The Israelites, however, were unfaithful regarding the things •set apart for destruction. Achan son of Carmi, son of Zabdi, son of Zerah, of the tribe of Judah, took some of what was set apart, and the LORD’s anger burned against the Israelites.

2† Joshua sent men from Jericho to Ai, which is near Beth-aven, east of Bethel, and told them, “Go up and scout the land.” So the men went up and scouted Ai.

3 After returning to Joshua they reported to him, “Don’t send all the people, but send about 2,000 or 3,000 <sup>A</sup> men to attack Ai. Since the people of Ai are so few, don’t wear out all our people there.” 4 So about 3,000 men <sup>B</sup> went up there, but they fled from the men of Ai. 5 The men of Ai struck down about 36 of them and chased them from outside the gate to the quarries, <sup>C</sup> striking them down on the descent. As a result, the people’s hearts melted and became like water.

6† Then Joshua tore his clothes and fell before the ark of the LORD with his face to the ground until evening, as did the elders of Israel; they all put dust on their heads. 7 “Oh, Lord GOD,” Joshua said, “why did You ever bring these people across the Jordan to hand us over to the Amorites for our destruction? If only we had been content to remain on the other side of the Jordan! 8 What can I say, Lord, now that Israel has turned its back and run from its enemies? 9 When the Canaanites and all who live in the land hear about this, they will surround us and wipe out our name from the earth. Then what will You do about Your great name? ”

10† The LORD then said to Joshua, “Stand up! Why are you on the ground? <sup>D</sup> 11 Israel has sinned. They have violated My covenant that I appointed for them. They have taken some of what was set apart. They have stolen, deceived, and put the things with their own belongings. 12 This is why the Israelites cannot stand against their enemies. They will turn their backs and run from their enemies, because they have been set apart for destruction. I will no longer be with you unless you remove from you what is set apart.

<sup>13</sup> “Go and consecrate the people. Tell them to consecrate themselves for tomorrow, for this is what the LORD, the God of Israel, says: There are things that are set apart among you, Israel. You will not be able to stand against your enemies until you remove what is set apart. <sup>14</sup> In the morning you must present yourselves tribe by tribe. The tribe the LORD selects is to come forward clan by clan. The clan the LORD selects is to come forward family by family. The family the LORD selects is to come forward man by man. <sup>15</sup> The one who is caught with the things set apart must be burned, <sup>E</sup> along with everything he has, because he has violated the LORD’s covenant and committed an outrage in Israel.”

Achan Judged

<sup>16†</sup> Joshua got up early the next morning. He had Israel come forward tribe by tribe, and the tribe of Judah was selected. <sup>17</sup> He had the clans of Judah come forward, and the Zerahite clan was selected. He had the Zerahite clan come forward by heads of families, <sup>F</sup> and Zabdi was selected. <sup>18</sup> He then had Zabdi’s family come forward man by man, and Achan son of Carmi, son of Zabdi, son of Zerah, of the tribe of Judah, was selected.

<sup>19</sup> So Joshua said to Achan, “My son, give glory to the LORD, the God of Israel, and make a confession to Him. <sup>G</sup> I urge you, tell me what you have done. Don’t hide anything from me.”

<sup>20</sup> Achan replied to Joshua, “It is true. I have sinned against the LORD, the God of Israel. This is what I did: <sup>21</sup> When I saw among the spoils a beautiful cloak from Babylon, <sup>H</sup> 200 silver •shekels, and a bar of gold weighing 50 shekels, I coveted them and took them. You can see for yourself. They are concealed in the ground inside my tent, with the money under the cloak.” <sup>22</sup> So Joshua sent messengers who ran to the tent, and there was the cloak, concealed in his tent, with the money underneath. <sup>23</sup> They took the things from inside the tent, brought them to Joshua and all the Israelites, and spread them out in the LORD’s presence.

<sup>24†</sup> Then Joshua and all Israel with him took Achan son of Zerah, the silver, the cloak, and the bar of gold, his sons and daughters, his ox, donkey, and sheep, his tent, and all that he had, and brought them up to the Valley of Achor. <sup>25</sup> Joshua said, “Why have you troubled us? Today the LORD will trouble you! ” So all Israel stoned them <sup>I</sup> to death. They burned their bodies, <sup>J</sup> threw stones on them, <sup>26</sup> and raised over him a large pile of rocks that remains to this day. Then the LORD turned from His burning anger. Therefore that place is called the Valley of Achor <sup>K</sup> to this day.

JOSHUA

Conquest of Ai

8 †The LORD said to Joshua, “Do not be afraid or discouraged. Take the whole military force with you and go attack Ai. Look, I have handed over to you the king of Ai, his people, city, and land. <sup>2</sup> Treat Ai and its king as you did Jericho and its king; you may plunder its spoil and livestock for yourselves. Set an ambush behind the city.”

<sup>3</sup> So Joshua and the whole military force set out to attack Ai. Joshua selected 30,000 fighting men and sent them out at night. <sup>4</sup> He commanded them: “Pay attention. Lie in ambush behind the city, not too far from it, and all of you be ready. <sup>5</sup> Then I and all the people who are with me will approach the city. When they come out against us as they did the first time, we will flee from them. <sup>6</sup> They will come after us until we have drawn them away from the city, for they will say, ‘They are fleeing from us as before.’ While we are fleeing from them, <sup>7</sup> you are to come out of your ambush and seize the city, for the LORD your God has handed it over to you. <sup>8</sup> After taking the city, set it on fire. Follow the LORD’s command — see that you do as I have ordered you.” <sup>9</sup> So Joshua sent them out, and they went to the ambush site and waited between Bethel and Ai, to the west of Ai. But he spent that night with the troops.

<sup>10</sup> Joshua started early the next morning and mobilized them. Then he and the elders of Israel led the troops up to Ai. <sup>11</sup> All those <sup>A</sup> who were with him went up and approached the city, arriving opposite Ai, and camped to the north of it, with a valley between them and the city. <sup>12</sup> Now Joshua had taken about 5,000 men and set them in ambush between Bethel and Ai, to the west of the city. <sup>13</sup> The military force was stationed in this way: the main <sup>B</sup> camp to the north of the city and its rear guard to the west of the city. And that night Joshua went into the valley.

<sup>14</sup> When the king of Ai saw the Israelites, the men of the city hurried and went out early in the morning so that he and all his people could engage Israel in battle at a suitable place facing the •Arabah. But he did not know there was an ambush waiting for him behind the city. <sup>15</sup> Joshua and all Israel pretended to be beaten back by them and fled toward the wilderness. <sup>16</sup> Then all the troops of Ai were summoned to pursue them, and they pursued Joshua and were drawn away from the city.<sup>17</sup> Not a man was left in Ai or Bethel who did not go out after Israel, leaving the city exposed while they pursued Israel.

<sup>18</sup> Then the LORD said to Joshua, “Hold out the sword in your hand toward Ai, for I will hand the city over to you.” So Joshua held out his sword toward it.<sup>19</sup> When he held out his hand, the men in ambush rose quickly from their position. They ran, entered the city, captured it, and immediately set it on fire.

<sup>20</sup> The men of Ai turned and looked back, and smoke from the city was rising to the sky! They could not escape in any direction, and the troops who had fled to the wilderness now became the pursuers.<sup>21</sup> When Joshua and all Israel saw that the men in ambush had captured the city and that smoke was rising from it, they turned back and struck down the men of Ai.<sup>22</sup> Then men in ambush came out of the city against them, and the men of Ai were trapped between the Israelite forces, some on one side and some on the other. They struck them down until no survivor or fugitive remained,<sup>23</sup> but they captured the king of Ai alive and brought him to Joshua.

<sup>24</sup> When Israel had finished killing everyone living in Ai who had pursued them into the open country, and when every last one of them had fallen by the sword, all Israel returned to Ai and struck it down with the sword.<sup>25</sup> The total of those who fell that day, both men and women, was 12,000 — all the people of Ai.<sup>26</sup> Joshua did not draw back his hand that was holding the sword until all the inhabitants of Ai were •completely destroyed.<sup>27</sup> Israel plundered only the cattle and spoil of that city for themselves, according to the LORD’s command that He had given Joshua.

Renewed Commitment to the Law

<sup>30</sup> At that time Joshua built an altar on Mount Ebal to the LORD, the God of Israel, <sup>31</sup> just as Moses the LORD's servant had commanded the Israelites. He built it according to what is written in the book of the law of Moses: an altar of uncut stones on which no iron tool has been used. Then they offered •burnt offerings to the LORD and sacrificed •fellowship offerings on it. <sup>32</sup> There on the stones, Joshua copied the law of Moses, which he had written in the presence of the Israelites. <sup>33</sup> All Israel, foreigner and citizen alike, with their elders, officers, and judges, stood on either side of the ark of the LORD's covenant facing the Levitical priests who carried it. As Moses the LORD's servant had commanded earlier, half of them were in front of Mount Gerizim and half in front of Mount Ebal, to bless the people of Israel. <sup>34</sup> Afterward, Joshua read aloud all the words of the law — the blessings as well as the curses — according to all that is written in the book of the law. <sup>35</sup> There was not a word of all that Moses had commanded that Joshua did not read before the entire assembly of Israel, including the women, the little children, and the foreigners who were with them.

Deception by Gibeon

9 † When all the kings heard about Jericho and Ai, those who were west of the Jordan in the hill country, in the Judean foothills, <sup>A</sup> and all along the coast of the Mediterranean Sea toward Lebanon — the Hittites, Amorites, Canaanites, Perizzites, Hivites, and Jebusites — <sup>2</sup> they formed a unified alliance to fight against Joshua and Israel.

<sup>7</sup> The men of Israel replied to the Hivites, “Perhaps you live among us. How can we make a treaty with you? ”

<sup>8</sup> They said to Joshua, “We are your servants.”

Then Joshua asked them, “Who are you and where do you come from? ”

<sup>9</sup> They replied to him, “Your servants have come from a far away land because of the reputation of the LORD your God. For we have heard of His fame, and all that He did in Egypt, <sup>10</sup> and all that He did to the two Amorite kings beyond the Jordan — Sihon king of Heshbon and Og king of Bashan, who was in Ashtaroth. <sup>11</sup> So our elders and all the inhabitants of our land told us, ‘Take provisions with you for the journey; go and meet them and say, ‘We are your servants. Please make a treaty with us.’ ’ <sup>12</sup> This bread of ours was warm when we took it from our houses as food on the day we left to come to you. But take a look, it is now dry and crumbly. <sup>13</sup> These wineskins were new when we filled them, but look, they are cracked. And these clothes and sandals of ours are worn out from the extremely long journey.” <sup>14</sup> Then the men of Israel took some of their provisions, but did not seek the LORD’s counsel. <sup>15</sup> So Joshua established peace with them and made a treaty to let them live, and the leaders of the community swore an oath to them.

Gibeon's Deception Discovered

<sup>16</sup> Three days after making the treaty with them, they heard that the Gibeonites were their neighbors, living among them. <sup>17</sup> So the Israelites set out and reached the Gibeonite cities on the third day. Now their cities were Gibeon, Chephirah, Beeroth, and Kiriath-jearim. <sup>18</sup> But the Israelites did not attack them, because the leaders of the community had sworn an oath to them by the LORD, the God of Israel. Then the whole community grumbled against the leaders.

<sup>19</sup> All the leaders answered them, “We have sworn an oath to them by the LORD, the God of Israel, and now we cannot touch them. <sup>20</sup> This is how we will treat them: we will let them live, so that no wrath will fall on us because of the oath we swore to them.” <sup>21</sup> They also said, “Let them live.” So the Gibeonites became woodcutters and water carriers for the whole community, as the leaders had promised them.

<sup>22</sup> Joshua summoned the Gibeonites and said to them, “Why did you deceive us by telling us you live far away from us, when in fact you live among us? <sup>23</sup> Therefore you are cursed and will always be slaves — woodcutters and water carriers for the house of my God.”

<sup>24</sup> The Gibeonites answered him, “It was clearly communicated to your servants that the LORD your God had commanded His servant Moses to give you all the land and to destroy all the inhabitants of the land before you. We greatly feared for our lives because of you, and that is why we did this.

<sup>26</sup> This is what Joshua did to them: he delivered them from the hands of the Israelites, and they did not kill them. <sup>27</sup> On that day he made them woodcutters and water carriers — as they are today — for the community and for the LORD's altar at the place He would choose.

The Day the Sun Stood Still

10 †Now Adoni-zedek king of Jerusalem heard that Joshua had captured Ai and •completely destroyed it, treating Ai and its king as he had Jericho and its king, and that the inhabitants of Gibeon had made peace with Israel and were living among them. <sup>2</sup> So Adoni-zedek and his people were greatly alarmed because Gibeon was a large city like one of the royal cities; it was larger than Ai, and all its men were warriors. <sup>3</sup> Therefore Adoni-zedek king of Jerusalem sent word to Hoham king of Hebron, Piram king of Jarmuth, Japhia king of Lachish, and Debir king of Eglon, saying, <sup>4</sup> “Come up and help me. We will attack Gibeon, because they have made peace with Joshua and the Israelites.” <sup>5</sup> So the five Amorite kings — the kings of Jerusalem, Hebron, Jarmuth, Lachish, and Eglon — joined forces, advanced with all their armies, besieged Gibeon, and fought against it.

<sup>8</sup> The LORD said to Joshua, “Do not be afraid of them, for I have handed them over to you. Not one of them will be able to stand against you.”

<sup>12†</sup> On the day the LORD gave the Amorites over to the Israelites, Joshua spoke to the LORD in the presence of Israel:

“Sun, stand still over Gibeon, and moon, over the Valley of Aijalon.”

<sup>13</sup> And the sun stood still and the moon stopped until the nation took vengeance on its enemies.

Isn't this written in the Book of Jashar? <sup>B</sup>

So the sun stopped in the middle of the sky and delayed its setting almost a full day.

<sup>14</sup> There has been no day like it before or since, when the LORD listened to the voice of a man, because the LORD fought for Israel. <sup>15</sup> Then Joshua and all Israel with him returned to the camp at Gilgal.

Execution of the Five Kings

<sup>16†</sup> Now the five defeated kings had fled and hidden themselves in the cave at Makkedah. <sup>17</sup> It was reported to Joshua: "The five kings have been found; they are hiding in the cave at Makkedah."

<sup>18</sup> Joshua said, "Roll large stones against the mouth of the cave, and station men by it to guard the kings. <sup>19</sup> But as for the rest of you, don't stay there. Pursue your enemies and attack them from behind. Don't let them enter their cities, for the LORD your God has handed them over to you."

<sup>20</sup> So Joshua and the Israelites finished inflicting a terrible slaughter on them until they were destroyed, although a few survivors ran away to the fortified cities. <sup>21</sup> The people returned safely to Joshua in the camp at Makkedah. And no one dared to threaten <sup>C</sup> the Israelites.

<sup>22</sup> Then Joshua said, "Open the mouth of the cave, and bring those five kings to me out of there." <sup>23</sup> That is what they did. They brought the five kings of Jerusalem, Hebron, Jarmuth, Lachish, and Eglon to Joshua out of the cave. <sup>24</sup> When they had brought the kings to him, Joshua summoned all the men of Israel and said to the military commanders who had accompanied him, "Come here and put your feet on the necks of these kings." So the commanders came forward and put their feet on their necks.

Conquest of Southern Cities

<sup>28†</sup> On that day Joshua captured Makkedah and struck it down with the sword, including its king. He completely destroyed it and everyone in it, leaving no survivors. So he treated the king of Makkedah as he had the king of Jericho.

<sup>29</sup> Joshua and all Israel with him crossed from Makkedah to Libnah and fought against Libnah. <sup>30</sup> The LORD also handed it and its king over to Israel. He struck it down, putting everyone in it to the sword, and left no survivors in it. He treated Libnah’s king as he had the king of Jericho.

<sup>31</sup> From Libnah, Joshua and all Israel with him crossed to Lachish. They laid siege to it and attacked it. <sup>32</sup> The LORD handed Lachish over to Israel, and Joshua captured it on the second day. He struck it down, putting everyone in it to the sword, just as he had done to Libnah. <sup>33</sup> At that time Horam king of Gezer went to help Lachish, but Joshua struck him down along with his people, leaving no survivors in it.

<sup>34</sup> Then Joshua crossed from Lachish to Eglon and all Israel with him. They laid siege to it and attacked it. <sup>35</sup> On that day they captured it and struck it down, putting everyone in it to the sword. He completely destroyed it that day, just as he had done to Lachish.

<sup>36</sup> Next, Joshua and all Israel with him went up from Eglon to Hebron and attacked it. <sup>37</sup> They captured it and struck down its king, all its villages, and everyone in it with the sword. He left no survivors, just as he had done at Eglon. He completely destroyed Hebron and everyone in it.

<sup>38</sup> Finally, Joshua turned toward Debir and attacked it. And all Israel was with him. <sup>39</sup> He captured it — its king and all its villages. They struck them down with the sword and completely destroyed everyone in it, leaving no survivors. He treated Debir and its king as he had treated Hebron and as he had treated Libnah and its king.

<sup>40</sup> So Joshua conquered the whole region — the hill country, the •Negev, the Judean foothills, <sup>G</sup> and the slopes — with all their kings, leaving no survivors. He completely destroyed every living being, as the LORD, the God of Israel, had commanded. <sup>41</sup> Joshua conquered everyone from Kadesh-barnea to Gaza, and all the land of Goshen as far as Gibeon. <sup>42</sup> Joshua captured all these kings and their land in one campaign, <sup>H</sup> because the LORD, the God of Israel, fought for Israel. <sup>43</sup> Then Joshua returned with all Israel to the camp at Gilgal.

JOSHUA

Conquest of Northern Cities

11 †When Jabin king of Hazor heard this news, he sent a message to:

Jobab king of Madon,
the kings of Shimron and Achshaph, 2 and the kings of the north in the hill country, the •Arabah south of Chinnereth, the Judean foothills, <sup>A</sup> and the Slopes of Dor <sup>B</sup> to the west, 3 the Canaanites in the east and west,
the Amorites, Hittites, Perizzites, and Jebusites in the hill country, and the Hivites at the foot of Hermon in the land of Mizpah.

4 They went out with all their armies — a multitude as numerous as the sand on the seashore — along with a vast number of horses and chariots.

5 All these kings joined forces; they came together and camped at the waters of Merom to attack Israel.

6 The LORD said to Joshua, “Do not be afraid of them, for at this time tomorrow I will cause all of them to be killed before Israel. You are to hamstring their horses and burn up their chariots.” <sup>7</sup> So Joshua and his whole military force surprised them at the waters of Merom and attacked them. <sup>8</sup> The LORD handed them over to Israel, and they struck them down, pursuing them as far as Great Sidon and Misrephoth-maim, and to the east as far as the Valley of Mizpeh. They struck them down, leaving no survivors. <sup>9</sup> Joshua treated them as the LORD had told him; he hamstrung their horses and burned up their chariots.

<sup>10</sup> At that time Joshua turned back, captured Hazor, and struck down its king with the sword, because Hazor had formerly been the leader of all these kingdoms. <sup>11</sup> They struck down everyone in it with the sword, •completely destroying them; he left no one alive. Then he burned down Hazor.

<sup>12</sup> Joshua captured all these kings and their cities and struck them down with the sword. He completely destroyed them, as Moses the LORD's servant had commanded. <sup>13</sup> However, Israel did not burn any of the cities that stood on their mounds except Hazor, which Joshua burned. <sup>14</sup> The Israelites plundered all the spoils and cattle of these cities for themselves. But they struck down every person with the sword until they had annihilated them, leaving no one alive. <sup>15</sup> Just as the LORD had commanded His servant Moses, Moses commanded Joshua. That is what Joshua did, leaving nothing undone of all that the LORD had commanded Moses.

Summary of Conquests

<sup>23</sup> So Joshua took the entire land, in keeping with all that the LORD had told Moses. Joshua then gave it as an inheritance to Israel according to their tribal allotments. After this, the land had rest from war.

Territory East of the Jordan

12 †The Israelites struck down the following kings of the land and took possession of their land beyond the Jordan to the east and from the Arnon Valley to Mount Hermon, including all the •Arabah eastward:

<sup>6</sup> Moses the LORD's servant and the Israelites struck them down. And Moses the LORD's servant gave their land as an inheritance to the Reubenites, Gadites, and half the tribe of Manasseh.

Territory West of the Jordan

<sup>7†</sup> Joshua and the Israelites struck down the following kings of the land beyond the Jordan to the west, from Baal-gad in the Valley of Lebanon to Mount Halak, which ascends toward Seir (Joshua gave their land as an inheritance to the tribes of Israel according to their allotments: <sup>8</sup> the hill country, the Judean foothills, <sup>B</sup> the Arabah, the slopes, the desert, and the •Negev of the Hittites, Amorites, Canaanites, Perizzites, Hivites, and Jebusites):

Unconquered Lands

13 †Joshua was now old, getting on in years, and the LORD said to him, “You have become old, getting on in years, but a great deal of the land remains to be possessed. <sup>2</sup> This is the land that remains:

All the districts of the Philistines and the Geshurites: <sup>3</sup> from the Shihor east of Egypt to the border of Ekron on the north (considered to be Canaanite territory) — the five Philistine rulers of Gaza, Ashdod, Ashkelon, Gath, and Ekron, as well as the Avvites <sup>4</sup> in the south; all the land of the Canaanites: from Arah of the Sidonians to Aphek and as far as the border of the Amorites; <sup>5</sup> the land of the Gebalites; and all Lebanon east from Baal-gad below Mount Hermon to the entrance of Hamath <sup>A</sup> — <sup>6</sup> all the inhabitants of the hill country from Lebanon to Misrephoth-maim, all the Sidonians.

I will drive them out before the Israelites, only distribute the land as an inheritance for Israel, as I have commanded you. <sup>7</sup> Therefore, divide this land as an inheritance to the nine tribes and half the tribe of Manasseh.”

The Inheritance East of the Jordan

<sup>8</sup> With the other half of the tribe, the Reubenites and Gadites had received the inheritance Moses gave them beyond the Jordan to the east, just as Moses the LORD’s servant had given them:

<sup>9</sup> From Aroer on the rim of the Arnon Valley, along with the city in the middle of the valley, all the Medeba plateau as far as Dibon, <sup>10</sup> and all the cities of Sihon king of the Amorites, who reigned in Heshbon, to the border of the Ammonites; <sup>11</sup> also Gilead and the territory of the Geshurites and Maacathites, all Mount Hermon, and all Bashan to Salecah — <sup>12</sup> the whole kingdom of Og in Bashan, who reigned in Ashtaroth and Edrei; he was one of the remaining Rephaim.

Moses struck them down and drove them out, <sup>13</sup> but the Israelites did not drive out the Geshurites and Maacathites. So Geshur and Maacath live in Israel to this day.

<sup>14</sup> He did not give any inheritance to the tribe of Levi. This was its inheritance, just as He had promised: the offerings made by fire to the LORD, the God of Israel.

Reuben's Inheritance

From Aroer on the rim of the Arnon Valley, along with the city in the middle of the valley, to the whole plateau as far as Medeba, <sup>17</sup> with Heshbon and all its cities on the plateau — Dibon, Bamoth-baal, Beth-baal-meon, <sup>18</sup> Jahaz, Kedemoth, Mephaath, <sup>19</sup> Kiriathaim, Sibmah, Zereth-shahar on the hill in the valley, <sup>20</sup> Beth-peor, the slopes of Pisgah, and Beth-jeshimoth — <sup>21</sup> all the cities of the plateau, and all the kingdom of Sihon king of the Amorites, who reigned in Heshbon. Moses had killed him and the chiefs of Midian — Evi, Rekem, Zur, Hur, and Reba — the princes of Sihon who lived in the land. <sup>22</sup> Along with those the Israelites put to death, they also killed the diviner, Balaam son of Beor, with the sword.

Gad's Inheritance

Jazer and all the cities of Gilead, and half the land of the Ammonites to Aroer, near Rabbah; <sup>26</sup> from Heshbon to Ramath-mizpeh and Betonim, and from Mahanaim to the border of Debir; <sup>B</sup> <sup>27</sup> in the valley: Beth-haram, Beth-nimrah, Succoth, and Zaphon — the rest of the kingdom of Sihon king of Heshbon. Their land also included the Jordan and its territory as far as the edge of the Sea of Chinnereth on the east side of the Jordan. <sup>C</sup>

East Manasseh's Inheritance

<sup>29</sup> And to half the tribe of Manasseh, that is, to half the tribe of Manasseh's descendants by their clans, Moses gave <sup>30</sup> this as their territory:

From Mahanaim through all Bashan — all the kingdom of Og king of Bashan, including all of Jair's Villages <sup>D</sup> that are in Bashan — 60 cities. <sup>31</sup> But half of Gilead, and Og's royal cities in Bashan — Ashtaroth and Edrei — are for the descendants of Machir son of Manasseh, that is, half the descendants of Machir by their clans.

<sup>32</sup> These were the portions Moses gave them on the plains of Moab beyond the Jordan east of Jericho. <sup>33</sup> But Moses did not give a portion to the tribe of Levi. The LORD, the God of Israel, was their inheritance, just as He had promised them.

JOSHUA

Israel's Inheritance in Canaan

14 †The Israelites received these portions that Eleazar the priest, Joshua son of Nun, and the heads of the families of the Israelite tribes gave them in the land of Canaan. <sup>2</sup> Their inheritance was by lot as the LORD commanded through Moses for the nine and a half tribes, <sup>3</sup> because Moses had given the inheritance to the two and a half tribes beyond the Jordan. But he gave no inheritance among them to the Levites. <sup>4</sup> The descendants of Joseph became two tribes, Manasseh and Ephraim. No portion of the land was given to the Levites except cities to live in, along with pasturelands for their cattle and livestock. <sup>5</sup> So the Israelites did as the LORD commanded Moses, and they divided the land.

Caleb's Inheritance

<sup>6†</sup> The descendants of Judah approached Joshua at Gilgal, and Caleb son of Jephunneh the Kenizzite said to him, “You know what the LORD promised Moses the man of God at Kadesh-barnea about you and me. <sup>7</sup> I was 40 years old when Moses the LORD’s servant sent me from Kadesh-barnea to scout the land, and I brought back an honest report. <sup>8</sup> My brothers who went with me caused the people’s hearts to melt with fear, but I remained loyal to the LORD my God. <sup>9</sup> On that day Moses promised me: ‘The land where you have set foot will be an inheritance for you and your descendants forever, because you have remained loyal to the LORD my God.’

<sup>10</sup> “As you see, the LORD has kept me alive these 45 years as He promised, since the LORD spoke this word to Moses while Israel was journeying in the wilderness. Here I am today, 85 years old. <sup>11</sup> I am still as strong today as I was the day Moses sent me out. My strength for battle and for daily tasks <sup>A</sup> is now as it was then. <sup>12</sup> Now give me this hill country the LORD promised me on that day, because you heard then that the Anakim are there, as well as large fortified cities. Perhaps the LORD will be with me and I will drive them out as the LORD promised.”

Kenizzite as an inheritance to this day, because he remained loyal to the LORD, the God of Israel. <sup>15</sup> Hebron's name used to be Kiriath-arba; Arba was the greatest man among the Anakim. After this, the land had rest from war.

JOSHUA

Judah's Inheritance

15 †Now the allotment for the tribe of the descendants of Judah by their clans was in the southernmost region, south to the Wilderness of Zin and over to the border of Edom.

The border on the north side was from the bay of the sea at the mouth of the Jordan. <sup>6</sup> It ascended to Beth-hoglah, proceeded north of Beth-arabah, and ascended to the Stone of Bohan son of Reuben. <sup>7</sup> Then the border ascended to Debir from the Valley of Achor, turning north to the Gilgal that is opposite the Ascent of Adummim, which is south of the ravine. The border proceeded to the waters of En-shemesh and ended at En-rogel. <sup>8</sup> From there the border ascended the Valley of Hinnom to the southern Jebusite slope (that is, Jerusalem) and ascended to the top of the hill that faces the Valley of Hinnom on the west, at the northern end of the Valley of Rephaim. <sup>9</sup> From the top of the hill the border curved to the spring of the Waters of Nephtoah, went to the cities of Mount Ephron, and then curved to Baalah (that is, Kiriath-jearim).

<sup>10</sup> The border turned westward from Baalah to Mount Seir, went to the northern slope of Mount Jearim (that is, Chesalon), descended to Beth-shemesh, and proceeded to Timnah. <sup>11</sup> Then the border reached to the slope north of Ekron, curved to Shikkeron, proceeded to Mount Baalah, went to Jabneel, and ended at the Mediterranean Sea.

This was the boundary of the descendants of Judah around their clans.

Caleb and Othniel

<sup>13</sup> He gave Caleb son of Jephunneh the following portion among the descendants of Judah based on the LORD's instruction to Joshua: Kiriath-arba (that is, Hebron; Arba was the father of Anak). <sup>14</sup> Caleb drove out from there the three sons of Anak: Sheshai, Ahiman, and Talmai, descendants of Anak. <sup>15</sup> From there he marched against the inhabitants of Debir whose name used to be Kiriath-sepher, <sup>16</sup> and Caleb said, "I will give my daughter Achsah as a wife to the one who strikes down and captures Kiriath-sepher." <sup>17</sup> So Othniel son of Caleb's brother, Kenaz, captured it, and Caleb gave his daughter Achsah to him as a wife. <sup>18</sup> When she arrived, she persuaded Othniel to ask her father for a field. As she got off her donkey, Caleb asked her, "What do you want?" <sup>19</sup> She replied, "Give me a blessing. Since you have given me land in the •Negev, give me the springs of water also." So he gave her the upper and lower springs.

Judah's Cities

<sup>63†</sup> But the descendants of Judah could not drive out the Jebusites who lived in Jerusalem. So the Jebusites live in Jerusalem among the descendants of Judah to this day.

JOSHUA

Joseph's Inheritance

16 †The allotment for the descendants of Joseph went from the Jordan at Jericho to the waters of Jericho on the east, through the wilderness ascending from Jericho into the hill country of Bethel. <sup>2</sup> From Bethel it went to Luz and proceeded to the border of the Archites by Ataroth. <sup>3</sup> It then descended westward to the border of the Japhletites as far as the border of lower Beth-horon, then to Gezer, and ended at the Mediterranean Sea. <sup>4</sup> So Ephraim and Manasseh, the sons of Joseph, received their inheritance.

Ephraim's Inheritance

The border of their inheritance went from Ataroth-addar on the east of Upper Beth-horon. <sup>6</sup> In the north the border went westward from Michmethath; it turned eastward from Taanath-shiloh and passed it east of Janoah. <sup>7</sup> From Janoah it descended to Ataroth and Naarah, and then reached Jericho and went to the Jordan.

This was the inheritance of the tribe of the descendants of Ephraim by their clans, together with <sup>9</sup> the cities set apart for the descendants of Ephraim within the inheritance of the descendants of Manasseh — all these cities with their villages. <sup>10†</sup> But, they did not drive out the Canaanites who lived in Gezer. So the Canaanites live in Ephraim to this day, but they are forced laborers.

JOSHUA

West Manasseh's Inheritance

17 This was the allotment for the tribe of Manasseh as Joseph's firstborn. Gilead and Bashan came to Machir, the firstborn of Manasseh and the father of Gilead, who was a man of war. <sup>2</sup> So the allotment was for the rest of Manasseh's descendants by their clans, for the sons of Abiezer, Helek, Asriel, Shechem, Hopher, and Shemida. These are the male descendants of Manasseh son of Joseph, by their clans.

<sup>3†</sup> Now Zelophehad son of Hopher, son of Gilead, son of Machir, son of Manasseh, had no sons, only daughters. These are the names of his daughters: Mahlah, Noah, Hoglah, Milcah, and Tirzah. <sup>4</sup> They came before Eleazar the priest, Joshua son of Nun, and the leaders, saying, "The LORD commanded Moses to give us an inheritance among our male relatives." <sup>A</sup> So they gave them an inheritance among their father's brothers, in keeping with the LORD's instruction. <sup>5</sup> As a result, 10 tracts fell to Manasseh, besides the land of Gilead and Bashan, which are beyond the Jordan, <sup>6</sup> because Manasseh's daughters received an inheritance among his sons. The land of Gilead belonged to the rest of Manasseh's sons.

<sup>7</sup> The border of Manasseh went from Asher to Michmethath near Shechem. It then went southward toward the inhabitants of Entappuah. <sup>8</sup> The region of Tappuah belonged to Manasseh, but Tappuah itself on Manasseh's border belonged to the descendants of Ephraim. <sup>9</sup> From there the border descended to the Brook of Kanah; south of the brook, cities belonged to Ephraim among Manasseh's cities. Manasseh's border was on the north side of the brook and ended at the Mediterranean Sea. <sup>10</sup> Ephraim's territory was to the south and Manasseh's to the north, with the Sea as its border. They reached Asher on the north and Issachar on the east. <sup>11</sup> Within Issachar and Asher, Manasseh had Beth-shean with its towns, Ibleam with its towns, and the inhabitants of Dor with its towns; the inhabitants of En-dor with its towns, the inhabitants of Taanach with its towns, and the inhabitants of Megiddo with its towns — the three cities of Naphath.

<sup>12†</sup> The descendants of Manasseh could not possess these cities, because the Canaanites were determined to stay in this land. <sup>13</sup> However, when the Israelites grew stronger, they imposed forced labor on the Canaanites but did not drive them out completely.

Joseph's Additional Inheritance

<sup>14</sup> Joseph's descendants said to Joshua, "Why did you give us only one tribal allotment <sup>B</sup> as an inheritance? We have many people, because the LORD has been blessing us greatly."

<sup>15</sup> "If you have so many people," Joshua replied to them, "go to the forest and clear an area for yourselves there in the land of the Perizzites and the Rephaim, because Ephraim's hill country is too small for you."

<sup>16</sup> But the descendants of Joseph said, "The hill country is not enough for us, and all the Canaanites who inhabit the valley area have iron chariots, both at Beth-shean with its towns and in the Jezreel Valley."

<sup>17</sup> So Joshua replied to Joseph's family (that is, Ephraim and Manasseh), "You have many people and great strength. You will not have just one allotment, <sup>18</sup> because the hill country will be yours also. It is a forest; clear it and its outlying areas will be yours. You can also drive out the Canaanites, even though they have iron chariots and are strong."

Land Distribution at Shiloh

18 †The entire Israelite community assembled at Shiloh where it set up the tent of meeting there; the land had been subdued by them.

<sup>2†</sup> Seven tribes among the Israelites were left who had not divided up their inheritance. <sup>3†</sup> So Joshua said to the Israelites, “How long will you delay going out to take possession of the land that the LORD, the God of your fathers, gave you? <sup>4†</sup> Appoint for yourselves three men from each tribe, and I will send them out. They are to go and survey the land, write a description of it for the purpose of their inheritance, and return to me. <sup>5</sup> Then they are to divide it into seven portions. Judah is to remain in its territory in the south and Joseph’s family in their territory in the north. <sup>6†</sup> When you have written a description of the seven portions of land and brought it to me, I will cast lots for you here in the presence of the LORD our God. <sup>7</sup> But the Levites among you do not get a portion, because their inheritance is the priesthood of the LORD. Gad, Reuben, and half the tribe of Manasseh have taken their inheritance beyond the Jordan to the east, which Moses the LORD’s servant gave them.”

<sup>8</sup> As the men prepared to go, Joshua commanded them <sup>A</sup> to write down a description of the land, saying, “Go and survey the land, write a description of it, and return to me. I will then cast lots for you here in Shiloh in the presence of the LORD.” <sup>9</sup> So the men left, went through the land, and described it by towns in a document of seven sections. They returned to Joshua at the camp in Shiloh. <sup>10</sup> Joshua cast lots for them at Shiloh in the presence of the LORD where he distributed the land to the Israelites according to their divisions.

Benjamin’s Inheritance

(that is, Bethel); it then went down by Ataroth-addar, over the hill south of Lower Beth-horon.

This was the inheritance of Benjamin's descendants, by their clans, according to its surrounding borders.

Benjamin's Cities

Jericho, Beth-hoglah, Emek-keziz, <sup>22</sup> Beth-arabah, Zemaraim, Bethel, <sup>23</sup> Avvim, Parah, Ophrah, <sup>24</sup> Chephar-ammoni, Ophni, and Geba — 12 cities, with their villages; <sup>25</sup> Gibeon, Ramah, Beeroth, <sup>26</sup> Mizpeh, Chephirah, Mozah, <sup>27</sup> Rekem, Irpeel, Taralah, <sup>28</sup> Zela, Haeleph, Jebus<sup>D</sup> (that is, Jerusalem), Gibeah, and Kiriath — 14 cities, with their villages.

This was the inheritance for Benjamin's descendants by their clans.

JOSHUA

Simeon's Inheritance

19 †The second lot came out for Simeon, for the tribe of his descendants by their clans, but their inheritance was within the portion of Judah's descendants. <sup>2</sup> Their inheritance included:

Beer-sheba (or Sheba ), Moladah, <sup>3</sup> Hazar-shual, Balah, Ezem, <sup>4</sup> Eltolad, Bethul, Hormah, <sup>5</sup> Ziklag, Beth-marcaboth, Hazar-susah, <sup>6</sup> Beth-lebaoth, and Sharuhem — 13 cities, with their villages; <sup>7</sup> Ain, Rimmon, Ether, and Ashan — four cities, with their villages; <sup>8</sup> and all the villages surrounding these cities as far as Baalath-beer (Ramah of the south <sup>A</sup>).

This was the inheritance of the tribe of Simeon's descendants by their clans. <sup>9</sup> The inheritance of Simeon's descendants was within the territory of Judah's descendants, because the share for Judah's descendants was too large for them. So Simeon's descendants received an inheritance within Judah's portion.

Zebulun's Inheritance

The territory of their inheritance stretched as far as Sarid; <sup>11</sup> their border went up westward to Maralah, reached Dabbesheth, and met the brook east of Jokneam. <sup>12</sup> From Sarid, it turned east toward the sunrise along the border of Chisloth-tabor, went to Daberath, and went up to Japhia. <sup>13</sup> From there, it went east toward the sunrise to Gath-hepher and to Eth-kazin; it extended to Rimmon, curving around to Neah. <sup>14</sup> The border then circled around Neah on the north to Hannathon and ended at the Valley of Iphtah-el, <sup>15</sup> along with Kattath, Nahalal, Shimron, Idalah, and Bethlehem — 12 cities, with their villages.

Issachar's Inheritance

Asher's Inheritance

Naphtali's Inheritance

Lakkum, and ended at the Jordan. <sup>34</sup> To the west, the boundary turned to Aznoth-tabor and went from there to Hukkok, reaching Zebulun on the south, Asher on the west, and Judah at the Jordan on the east. <sup>35</sup> The fortified cities were Ziddim, Zer, Hammath, Rakkath, Chinnereth, <sup>36</sup> Adamah, Ramah, Hazor, <sup>37</sup> Kedesh, Edrei, En-hazor, <sup>38</sup> Iron, Migdal-el, Horem, Beth-anath, and Beth-shemesh — 19 cities, with their villages.

Dan's Inheritance

Joshua's Inheritance

<sup>49†</sup> When they had finished distributing the land into its territories, the Israelites gave Joshua son of Nun an inheritance among them. <sup>50</sup> By the LORD's command, they gave him the city Timnath-serah in the hill country of Ephraim, which he requested. He rebuilt the city and lived in it.

<sup>51†</sup> These were the portions that Eleazar the priest, Joshua son of Nun, and the heads of the families distributed to the Israelite tribes by lot at Shiloh in the LORD's presence at the entrance to the tent of meeting. So they finished dividing up the land.

JOSHUA

Cities of Refuge

20 †Then the LORD spoke to Joshua, <sup>2</sup> “Tell the Israelites: Select your cities of refuge, as I instructed you through Moses, <sup>3†</sup> so that a person who kills someone unintentionally or accidentally may flee there. These will be your refuge from the avenger of blood. <sup>4</sup> When someone flees to one of these cities, stands at the entrance of the city •gate, and states his case before <sup>A</sup> the elders of that city, they are to bring him into the city and give him a place to live among them. <sup>5</sup> And if the avenger of blood pursues him, they must not hand the one who committed manslaughter over to him, for he killed his neighbor accidentally and did not hate him beforehand. <sup>6</sup> He is to stay in that city until he stands trial before the assembly and until the death of the high priest serving at that time. Then the one who committed manslaughter may return home to his own city from which he fled.”

<sup>7</sup> So they designated Kedesh in the hill country of Naphtali in Galilee, Shechem in the hill country of Ephraim, and Kiriath-arba (that is, Hebron) in the hill country of Judah. <sup>8</sup> Across the Jordan east of Jericho, they selected Bezer on the wilderness plateau from Reuben’s tribe, Ramoth in Gilead from Gad’s tribe, and Golan in Bashan from Manasseh’s tribe.

<sup>9</sup> These are the cities appointed for all the Israelites and foreigners among them, so that anyone who kills a person unintentionally may flee there and not die at the hand of the avenger of blood until he stands before the assembly.

Cities of the Levites

21 †The heads of the Levite families approached Eleazar the priest, Joshua son of Nun, and the heads of the families of the Israelite tribes. <sup>2</sup> At Shiloh, in the land of Canaan, they told them, “The LORD commanded through Moses that we be given cities to live in, with their pasturelands for our livestock.” <sup>3†</sup> So the Israelites, by the LORD’s command, gave the Levites these cities with their pasturelands from their inheritance.

<sup>4†</sup> The lot came out for the Kohathite clans: The Levites who were the descendants of Aaron the priest received 13 cities by lot from the tribes of Judah, Simeon, and Benjamin. <sup>5</sup> The remaining descendants of Kohath received 10 cities by lot from the clans of the tribes of Ephraim, Dan, and half the tribe of Manasseh.

Cities of Aaron’s Descendants

Hebron, the city of refuge for the one who commits manslaughter, with its pasturelands, Libnah with its pasturelands, <sup>14</sup> Jattir with its pasturelands, Eshtemoa with its pasturelands, <sup>15</sup> Holon with its pasturelands, Debir with its pasturelands, <sup>16</sup> Ain with its pasturelands, Juttah with its pasturelands, and Beth-shemesh with its pasturelands — nine cities from these two tribes.

Gibeon with its pasturelands, Geba with its pasturelands, <sup>18</sup> Anathoth with its pasturelands, and Almon with its pasturelands — four cities. <sup>19</sup> All 13 cities with their pasturelands were for the priests, the descendants of Aaron.

Cities of Kohath's Other Descendants

<sup>20</sup> The allotted cities to the remaining clans of Kohath's descendants, who were Levites, came from the tribe of Ephraim. <sup>21</sup> The Israelites gave them:

Shechem, the city of refuge for the one who commits manslaughter, with its pasturelands in the hill country of Ephraim, Gezer with its pasturelands, <sup>22</sup> Kibzaim with its pasturelands, and Beth-horon with its pasturelands — four cities.

Elteke with its pasturelands, Gibbethon with its pasturelands, <sup>24</sup> Aijalon with its pasturelands, and Gath-rimmon with its pasturelands — four cities.

Taanach with its pasturelands and Gath-rimmon <sup>A</sup> with its pasturelands — two cities.

<sup>26</sup> All 10 cities with their pasturelands were for the clans of Kohath's other descendants.

Cities of Gershon's Descendants

<sup>27</sup> From half the tribe of Manasseh, they gave to the descendants of Gershon, who were one of the Levite clans:

Golan, the city of refuge for the one who commits manslaughter, with its pasturelands in Bashan, and Beeshterah with its pasturelands — two cities.

Kishion with its pasturelands, Daberath with its pasturelands, <sup>29</sup> Jarmuth with its pasturelands, and En-gannim with its pasturelands — four cities.

Mishal with its pasturelands, Abdon with its pasturelands,

Kedesh in Galilee, the city of refuge for the one who commits manslaughter, with its pasturelands, Hammoth-dor with its pasturelands, and Kartan with its pasturelands — three cities.

Cities of Merari's Descendants

<sup>34</sup> From the tribe of Zebulun, they gave to the clans of the descendants of Merari, who were the remaining Levites:

Jokneam with its pasturelands, Kartah with its pasturelands,

<sup>37</sup> Kedemoth with its pasturelands, and Mephaath with its pasturelands — four cities.

Ramoth in Gilead, the city of refuge for the one who commits manslaughter, with its pasturelands, Mahanaim with its pasturelands, <sup>39</sup> Heshbon with its pasturelands, and Jazer with its pasturelands — four cities in all. <sup>40</sup> All 12 cities were allotted to the clans of Merari's descendants, the remaining Levite clans.

<sup>41</sup> Within the Israelite possession there were 48 cities in all with their pasturelands for the Levites. <sup>42</sup> Each of these cities had its own surrounding pasturelands; this was true for all the cities.

The LORD's Promises Fulfilled

<sup>43†</sup> So the LORD gave Israel all the land He had sworn to give their fathers, and they took possession of it and settled there. <sup>44</sup> The LORD gave them rest on every side according to all He had sworn to their fathers. None of their enemies were able to stand against them, for the LORD handed over all their enemies to them. <sup>45</sup> None of the good promises the LORD had made to the house of Israel failed. Everything was fulfilled.

Eastern Tribes Return Home

22 Joshua summoned the Reubenites, Gadites, and half the tribe of Manasseh<sup>2</sup> and told them, “You have done everything Moses the LORD’s servant commanded you and have obeyed me in everything I commanded you.<sup>3</sup> You have not deserted your brothers even once this whole time but have carried out the requirement of the command of the LORD your God.<sup>4</sup> Now that He has given your brothers rest, just as He promised them, return to your homes in your own land that Moses the LORD’s servant gave you across the Jordan.<sup>5</sup> Only carefully obey the command and instruction that Moses the LORD’s servant gave you: to love the LORD your God, walk in all His ways, keep His commands, remain faithful<sup>A</sup> to Him, and serve Him with all your heart and all your soul.”

Eastern Tribes Build an Altar

<sup>11</sup> Then the Israelites heard it said, “Look, the Reubenites, Gadites, and half the tribe of Manasseh have built an altar on the frontier of the land of Canaan at the region of<sup>D</sup> the Jordan, on the Israelite side.”<sup>12†</sup> When the Israelites heard this, the entire Israelite community assembled at Shiloh to go to war against them.

Explanation of the Altar

<sup>13</sup> The Israelites sent Phinehas son of Eleazar the priest to the Reubenites, Gadites, and half the tribe of Manasseh, in the land of Gilead. <sup>14</sup> They sent 10 leaders with him — one family leader for each tribe of Israel. All of them were heads of their families among the clans of Israel. <sup>15</sup> They went to the Reubenites, Gadites, and half the tribe of Manasseh, in the land of Gilead, and told them, <sup>16†</sup> “This is what the LORD’s entire community says: ‘What is this treachery you have committed today against the God of Israel by turning away from the LORD and building an altar for yourselves, so that you are in rebellion against the LORD today? <sup>17</sup> Wasn’t the sin of Peor, which brought a plague on the LORD’s community, enough for us, so that we have not cleansed ourselves from it even to this day, <sup>18</sup> and now, you would turn away from the LORD? If you rebel against the LORD today, tomorrow He will be angry with the entire community of Israel. <sup>19</sup> But if the land you possess is defiled, cross over to the land the LORD possesses where the LORD’s tabernacle stands, and take possession of it among us. But don’t rebel against the LORD or against us by building for yourselves an altar other than the altar of the LORD our God. <sup>20</sup> Wasn’t Achan son of Zerah unfaithful regarding what was •set apart for destruction, bringing wrath on the entire community of Israel? He was not the only one who perished because of his sin.’ ”

<sup>21</sup> The Reubenites, Gadites, and half the tribe of Manasseh answered the leaders of the Israelite clans, <sup>22</sup> “•Yahweh is the God of gods! Yahweh is the God of gods! <sup>E</sup> He knows, and may Israel also know. Do not spare us today, if it was in rebellion or treachery against the LORD <sup>23</sup> that we have built for ourselves an altar to turn away from Him. May the LORD Himself hold us accountable if we intended to offer •burnt offerings and •grain offerings on it, or to sacrifice •fellowship offerings on it. <sup>24</sup> We actually did this from a specific concern that in the future your descendants might say to our descendants, ‘What relationship do you have with the LORD, the God of Israel? <sup>25</sup> For the LORD has made the Jordan a border between us and you descendants of Reuben and Gad. You have no share in the LORD! ’ So your descendants may cause our descendants to stop fearing the LORD.

<sup>26</sup> “Therefore we said: Let us take action and build an altar for ourselves, but not for burnt offering or sacrifice. <sup>27</sup> Instead, it is to be a witness between us and you, and between the generations after us, so that we may carry out the worship of the LORD in His presence with our burnt offerings, sacrifices, and fellowship offerings. Then in the future, your descendants will not be able to say to our descendants, ‘You have no share in the LORD!’ <sup>28</sup> We thought that if they said this to us or to our generations in the future, we would reply: Look at the replica of the LORD’s altar that our fathers made, not for burnt offering or sacrifice, but as a witness between us and you. <sup>29</sup> We would never rebel against the LORD or turn away from Him today by building an altar for burnt offering, grain offering, or sacrifice, other than the altar of the LORD our God, which is in front of His tabernacle.”

Conflict Resolved

<sup>30</sup> When Phinehas the priest and the community leaders, the heads of Israel’s clans who were with him, heard what the descendants of Reuben, Gad, and Manasseh had to say, they were pleased. <sup>31</sup> Phinehas son of Eleazar the priest said to the descendants of Reuben, Gad, and Manasseh, “Today we know that the LORD is among us, because you have not committed this treachery against Him. As a result, you have delivered the Israelites from the LORD’s power.”

<sup>32</sup> Then Phinehas son of Eleazar the priest and the leaders returned from the Reubenites and Gadites in the land of Gilead to the Israelites in the land of Canaan and brought back a report to them. <sup>33†</sup> The Israelites were pleased with the report, and they praised God. They spoke no more about going to war against them to ravage the land where the Reubenites and Gadites lived. <sup>34</sup> So the Reubenites and Gadites named the altar: It is a witness between us that the LORD is God.

JOSHUA

Joshua's Farewell Address

23 †A long time after the LORD had given Israel rest from all the enemies around them, Joshua was old, getting on in years. <sup>2</sup> So Joshua summoned all Israel, including its elders, leaders, judges, and officers, and said to them, “I am old, getting on in years, <sup>3†</sup> and you have seen for yourselves everything the LORD your God did to all these nations on your account, because it was the LORD your God who was fighting for you.

<sup>4</sup> See, I have allotted these remaining nations to you as an inheritance for your tribes, including all the nations I have destroyed, from the Jordan westward to the Mediterranean Sea. <sup>5</sup> The LORD your God will force them back on your account and drive them out before you so that you can take possession of their land, as the LORD your God promised you.

<sup>6</sup> “Be very strong and continue obeying all that is written in the book of the law of Moses, so that you do not turn from it to the right or left <sup>7</sup> and so that you do not associate with these nations remaining among you. Do not call on the names of their gods or make an oath to them; do not worship them or bow down to them. <sup>8</sup> Instead, remain faithful to the LORD your God, as you have done to this day.

<sup>14†</sup> “I am now going the way of all the earth, and you know with all your heart and all your soul that none of the good promises the LORD your God made to you has failed. Everything was fulfilled for you; not one promise has failed. <sup>15†</sup> Since every good thing the LORD your God promised you has come about, so He will bring on you every bad thing until He has annihilated you from this good land the LORD your God has given you. <sup>16</sup> If you break the covenant of the LORD your God, which He commanded you, and go and worship other gods, and bow down to them, the LORD's anger will burn against you, and you will quickly disappear from this good land He has given you.”

Review of Israel's History

24 †Joshua assembled all the tribes of Israel at Shechem and summoned Israel's elders, leaders, judges, and officers, and they presented themselves before God. <sup>2†</sup> Joshua said to all the people, "This is what the LORD, the God of Israel, says: 'Long ago your ancestors, including Terah, the father of Abraham and Nahor, lived beyond the Euphrates River and worshiped other gods. <sup>3</sup> But I took your father Abraham from the region beyond the Euphrates River, led him throughout the land of Canaan, and multiplied his descendants. I gave him Isaac, <sup>4</sup> and to Isaac I gave Jacob and Esau. I gave the hill country of Seir to Esau as a possession, but Jacob and his sons went down to Egypt.

<sup>5</sup> " 'Then I sent Moses and Aaron; I plagues Egypt by what I did there and afterward I brought you out. <sup>6</sup> When I brought your fathers out of Egypt and you reached the •Red Sea, the Egyptians pursued your fathers with chariots and horsemen as far as the sea. <sup>7</sup> Your fathers cried out to the LORD, so He put darkness between you and the Egyptians, and brought the sea over them, engulfing them. Your own eyes saw what I did to Egypt. After that, you lived in the wilderness a long time.

<sup>8</sup> " 'Later, I brought you to the land of the Amorites who lived beyond the Jordan. They fought against you, but I handed them over to you. You possessed their land, and I annihilated them before you. <sup>9</sup> Balak son of Zippor, king of Moab, set out to fight against Israel. He sent for Balaam son of Beor to curse you, <sup>10</sup> but I would not listen to Balaam. Instead, he repeatedly blessed you, and I delivered you from his hand.

<sup>11</sup> " 'You then crossed the Jordan and came to Jericho. The people of Jericho — as well as the Amorites, Perizzites, Canaanites, Hittites, Girgashites, Hivites, and Jebusites — fought against you, but I handed them over to you. <sup>12</sup> I sent the hornet <sup>A</sup> ahead of you, and it drove out the two Amorite kings before you. It was not by your sword or bow. <sup>13</sup> I gave you a land you did not labor for, and cities you did not build, though you live in them; you are eating from vineyards and olive groves you did not plant.'

The Covenant Renewal

<sup>14†</sup> “Therefore, •fear the LORD and worship Him in sincerity and truth. Get rid of the gods your fathers worshiped beyond the Euphrates River and in Egypt, and worship •Yahweh. <sup>15†</sup> But if it doesn’t please you to worship Yahweh, choose for yourselves today the one you will worship: the gods your fathers worshiped beyond the Euphrates River or the gods of the Amorites in whose land you are living. As for me and my family, we will worship Yahweh.”

<sup>16†</sup> The people replied, “We will certainly not abandon the LORD to worship other gods! <sup>17</sup> For the LORD our God brought us and our fathers out of the land of Egypt, out of the place of slavery, and performed these great signs before our eyes. He also protected us all along the way we went and among all the peoples whose lands we traveled through. <sup>18</sup> The LORD drove out before us all the peoples, including the Amorites who lived in the land. We too will worship the LORD, because He is our God.”

<sup>19†</sup> But Joshua told the people, “You will not be able to worship Yahweh, because He is a holy God. He is a jealous God; He will not remove your transgressions and sins. <sup>20</sup> If you abandon the LORD and worship foreign gods, He will turn against you, harm you, and completely destroy you, after He has been good to you.”

<sup>22</sup> Joshua then told the people, “You are witnesses against yourselves that you yourselves have chosen to worship Yahweh.”

“We are witnesses,” they said.

<sup>23</sup> “Then get rid of the foreign gods that are among you and offer your hearts to the LORD, the God of Israel.”

<sup>24</sup> So the people said to Joshua, “We will worship the LORD our God and obey Him.”

<sup>25</sup> On that day Joshua made a covenant for the people at Shechem and established a statute and ordinance for them. <sup>26</sup> Joshua recorded these things in the book of the law of God; he also took a large stone and set it up there under the oak next to the sanctuary of the LORD. <sup>27</sup> And Joshua said to all the people, “You see this stone — it will be a witness against us, for it has heard all the words the LORD said to us, and it will be a witness against you, so that you will not deny your God.” <sup>28</sup> Then Joshua sent the people away, each to his own inheritance.

Burial of Three Leaders

<sup>32</sup> Joseph’s bones, which the Israelites had brought up from Egypt, were buried at Shechem in the parcel of land Jacob had purchased from the sons of Hamor, Shechem’s father, for 100 qesitahs. It was an inheritance for Joseph’s descendants.

<sup>33</sup> And Eleazar son of Aaron died, and they buried him at Gibeah, which had been given to his son Phinehas in the hill country of Ephraim.

Judah's Leadership against the Canaanites

1 † After the death of Joshua, the Israelites inquired of the LORD, “Who will be the first to fight for us against the Canaanites?”

2 † The LORD answered, “Judah is to go. I have handed the land over to him.”

3 Judah said to his brother Simeon, “Come with me to my territory, and let us fight against the Canaanites. I will also go with you to your territory.” So Simeon went with him.

4 When Judah attacked, the LORD handed the Canaanites and Perizzites over to them. They struck down 10,000 men in Bezek. 5 They found Adoni-bezek in Bezek, fought against him, and struck down the Canaanites and Perizzites.

6 When Adoni-bezek fled, they pursued him, seized him, and cut off his thumbs and big toes. 7 † Adoni-bezek said, “Seventy kings with their thumbs and big toes cut off used to pick up scraps <sup>A</sup> under my table. God has repaid me for what I have done.” They brought him to Jerusalem, and he died there.

8 The men of Judah fought against Jerusalem and captured it. They put the city to the sword and set it on fire. 9 Afterward, the men of Judah marched down to fight against the Canaanites who were living in the hill country, the •Negev, and the Judean foothills. <sup>B</sup> 10 Judah also marched against the Canaanites who were living in Hebron (Hebron was formerly named Kiriath-arba ). They struck down Sheshai, Ahiman, and Talmai. 11 † From there they marched against the residents of Debir (Debir was formerly named Kiriath-sepher).

12 Caleb said, “Whoever strikes down and captures Kiriath-sepher, I will give my daughter Achsah to him as a wife.” 13 So Othniel son of Kenaz, Caleb’s youngest brother, captured it, and Caleb gave his daughter Achsah to him as his wife.

<sup>14</sup> When she arrived, she persuaded Othniel to ask her father for a field. As she got off her donkey, Caleb asked her, “What do you want?” <sup>15</sup> She answered him, “Give me a blessing. Since you have given me land in the Negev, give me springs of water also.” So Caleb gave her both the upper and lower springs.

<sup>16</sup> The descendants of the Kenite, Moses’ father-in-law, had gone up with the men of Judah from the City of Palms to the Wilderness of Judah, which was in the Negev of Arad. They went to live among the people.

<sup>17</sup> Judah went with his brother Simeon, struck the Canaanites who were living in Zephath, and •completely destroyed the town. So they named the town Hormah. <sup>18</sup> Judah captured Gaza and its territory, Ashkelon and its territory, and Ekron and its territory. <sup>19†</sup> The LORD was with Judah and enabled them to take possession of the hill country, but they could not drive out the people who were living in the valley because those people had iron chariots.

<sup>20</sup> Judah gave Hebron to Caleb, just as Moses had promised. Then Caleb drove out the three sons of Anak who lived there.

Benjamin’s Failure

<sup>21†</sup> At the same time the Benjaminites did not drive out the Jebusites who were living in Jerusalem. The Jebusites have lived among the Benjaminites in Jerusalem to this day.

Success of the House of Joseph

<sup>22</sup> The house of Joseph also attacked Bethel, and the LORD was with them. <sup>23</sup> They sent spies to Bethel (the town was formerly named Luz ). <sup>24</sup> The spies saw a man coming out of the town and said to him, “Please show us how to get into town, and we will treat you well.” <sup>25</sup> When he showed them the way into the town, they put the town to the sword but released the man and his entire family. <sup>26</sup> Then the man went to the land of the Hittites, built a town, and named it Luz. That is its name to this day.

Failure of the Other Tribes

<sup>27</sup> At that time Manasseh failed to take possession of Beth-shean and its villages, or Taanach and its villages, or the residents of Dor and its villages, or the residents of Ibleam and its villages, or the residents of Megiddo and its villages; the Canaanites refused to leave this land.

<sup>28</sup> When Israel became stronger, they made the Canaanites serve as forced labor but never drove them out completely.

<sup>29</sup> At that time Ephraim failed to drive out the Canaanites who were living in Gezer, so the Canaanites have lived among them in Gezer.

<sup>30</sup> Zebulun failed to drive out the residents of Kitron or the residents of Nahalol, so the Canaanites lived among them and served as forced labor.

<sup>31</sup> Asher failed to drive out the residents of Acco or of Sidon, or Ahlab, Achzib, Helbah, Aphik, or Rehob. <sup>32</sup> The Asherites lived among the Canaanites who were living in the land, because they failed to drive them out.

<sup>33</sup> Naphtali did not drive out the residents of Beth-shemesh or the residents of Beth-anath. They lived among the Canaanites who were living in the land, but the residents of Beth-shemesh and Beth-anath served as their forced labor.

<sup>34</sup> The Amorites forced the Danites into the hill country and did not allow them to go down into the valley. <sup>35</sup> The Amorites refused to leave <sup>C</sup> Har-heres, Aijalon, and Shaalbim. When the house of Joseph got the upper hand, <sup>D</sup> the Amorites were made to serve as forced labor. <sup>36</sup> The territory of the Amorites extended from the Ascent of Akrabbim, that is from Sela upward.

JUDGES

Pattern of Sin and Judgment

2 †The Angel of the LORD went up from Gilgal to Bochim and said, “I brought you out of Egypt and led you into the land I had promised to your fathers. I also said: I will never break My covenant with you. 2 You are not to make a covenant with the people who are living in this land, and you are to tear down their altars. But you have not obeyed Me. What is this you have done? 3 Therefore, I now say: I will not drive out these people before you. They will be thorns in your sides, and their gods will be a trap for you.” 4 When the Angel of the LORD had spoken these words to all the Israelites, the people wept loudly. 5 So they named that place Bochim <sup>B</sup> and offered sacrifices there to the LORD.

Joshua's Death

6† Joshua sent the people away, and the Israelites went to take possession of the land, each to his own inheritance. 7 The people worshiped the LORD throughout Joshua's lifetime and during the lifetimes of the elders who outlived <sup>C</sup> Joshua. They had seen all the LORD's great works He had done for Israel.

8 Joshua son of Nun, the servant of the LORD, died at the age of 110. 9 They buried him in the territory of his inheritance, in Timnath-heres, in the hill country of Ephraim, north of Mount Gaash. 10 That whole generation was also gathered to their ancestors. After them another generation rose up who did not know the LORD or the works He had done for Israel.

11 The Israelites did what was evil in the LORD's sight. They worshiped the •Baals <sup>12</sup> and abandoned the LORD, the God of their fathers, who had brought them out of Egypt. They went after other gods from the surrounding peoples and bowed down to them. They infuriated the LORD, <sup>13</sup> for they abandoned Him and worshiped Baal and the •Ashtoreths.

14† The LORD's anger burned against Israel, and He handed them over to marauders who raided them. He sold them to <sup>D</sup> the enemies around them, and they could no longer resist their enemies. <sup>15</sup> Whenever the Israelites went out, the LORD <sup>E</sup> was against them and brought disaster on them, just as He had promised and sworn to them. So they suffered greatly.

<sup>16</sup> The LORD raised up judges, who saved them from the power of their marauders, <sup>17†</sup> but they did not listen to their judges. Instead, they prostituted themselves with other gods, bowing down to them. They quickly turned from the way of their fathers, who had walked in obedience to the LORD's commands. They did not do as their fathers did. <sup>18</sup> Whenever the LORD raised up a judge for the Israelites, the LORD was with him and saved the people from the power of their enemies while the judge was still alive. <sup>F</sup> The LORD was moved to pity whenever they groaned because of those who were oppressing and afflicting them. <sup>19</sup> Whenever the judge died, the Israelites would act even more corruptly than their fathers, going after other gods to worship and bow down to them. They did not turn from their evil practices or their obstinate ways.

<sup>20</sup> The LORD's anger burned against Israel, and He declared, "Because this nation has violated My covenant that I made with their fathers and disobeyed Me, <sup>21</sup> I will no longer drive out before them any of the nations Joshua left when he died. <sup>22†</sup> I did this to test Israel and to see whether they would keep the LORD's way by walking in it, as their fathers had." <sup>23</sup> The LORD left these nations and did not drive them out immediately. He did not hand them over to Joshua.

The LORD Tests Israel

3 † These are the nations the LORD left in order to test Israel, since the Israelites had fought none of these in <sup>A</sup> any of the wars with Canaan. <sup>2</sup> This was to teach the future generations of the Israelites how to fight in battle, especially those who had not fought before. <sup>B</sup> <sup>3</sup> These nations included: the five rulers of the Philistines and all of the Canaanites, the Sidonians, and the Hivites who lived in the Lebanese mountains from Mount Baal-hermon as far as the entrance to Hamath. <sup>C</sup> <sup>4</sup> The LORD left them to test Israel, to determine if they would keep the LORD's commands He had given their fathers through <sup>D</sup> Moses. <sup>5</sup> † But they settled among the Canaanites, Hittites, Amorites, Perizzites, Hivites, and Jebusites. <sup>6</sup> The Israelites took their daughters as wives for themselves, gave their own daughters to their sons, and worshiped their gods.

Othniel, the First Judge

<sup>7</sup> The Israelites did what was evil in the LORD's sight; they forgot the LORD their God and worshiped the •Baals and the •Asherahs. <sup>8</sup> † The LORD's anger burned against Israel, and He sold them to <sup>E</sup> Cushan-rishathaim <sup>F</sup> king of Aram-naharaim, and the Israelites served him eight years.

<sup>9</sup> The Israelites cried out to the LORD. So the LORD raised up Othniel son of Kenaz, Caleb's youngest brother as a deliverer to save the Israelites. <sup>10</sup> † The Spirit of the LORD came on him, and he judged Israel. Othniel went out to battle, and the LORD handed over Cushan-rishathaim king of Aram to him, so that Othniel overpowered him. <sup>11</sup> Then the land was peaceful 40 years, and Othniel son of Kenaz died.

Ehud

<sup>12</sup> † The Israelites again did what was evil in the LORD's sight. He gave Eglon king of Moab power over Israel, because they had done what was evil in the LORD's sight. <sup>13</sup> After Eglon convinced the Ammonites and the Amalekites to join forces with him, he attacked and defeated Israel and took possession of the City of Palms. <sup>14</sup> The Israelites served Eglon king of Moab 18 years.

<sup>24</sup> Ehud was gone when Eglon’s servants came in. They looked and found the doors of the upstairs room locked and thought he was relieving himself <sup>H</sup> in the cool room. <sup>25</sup> The servants waited until they became worried and saw that he had still not opened the doors of the upstairs room. So they took the key and opened the doors — and there was their lord lying dead on the floor!

<sup>26</sup> Ehud escaped while the servants waited. He crossed over the Jordan near the carved images and reached Seirah. <sup>27</sup> After he arrived, he sounded the ram’s horn throughout the hill country of Ephraim. The Israelites came down with him from the hill country, and he became their leader. <sup>28</sup> He told them, “Follow me, because the LORD has handed over your enemies, the Moabites, to you.” So they followed him, captured the fords of the Jordan leading to Moab, and did not allow anyone to cross over. <sup>29†</sup> At that time they struck down about 10,000 Moabites, all strong and able-bodied men.

Not one of them escaped.<sup>30</sup> Moab became subject to Israel that day, and the land was peaceful 80 years.

Shamgar

<sup>31</sup> After Ehud, Shamgar son of Anath became judge. He delivered Israel by striking down 600 Philistines with an oxgoad.

JUDGES

Deborah and Barak

4 The Israelites again did what was evil in the sight of the LORD after Ehud had died. <sup>2†</sup> So the LORD sold them into the hand of Jabin king of Canaan, who reigned in Hazor. The commander of his forces was Sisera who lived in Harosheth of the Nations. <sup>A 3†</sup> Then the Israelites cried out to the LORD, because Jabin had 900 iron chariots, and he harshly oppressed them 20 years.

<sup>4</sup> Deborah, a woman who was a prophetess and the wife of Lappidoth, was judging Israel at that time. <sup>5</sup> It was her custom to sit under the palm tree of Deborah between Ramah and Bethel in the hill country of Ephraim, and the Israelites went up to her for judgment.

<sup>6†</sup> She summoned Barak son of Abinoam from Kedesh in Naphtali and said to him, “Hasn’t the LORD, the God of Israel, commanded you: ‘Go, deploy the troops on Mount Tabor, and take with you 10,000 men from the Naphtalites and Zebulunites? <sup>7</sup> Then I will lure Sisera commander of Jabin’s forces, his chariots, and his army at the •Wadi Kishon to fight against you, and I will hand him over to you.’ ”

<sup>8</sup> Barak said to her, “If you will go with me, I will go. But if you will not go with me, I will not go.”

<sup>9</sup> “I will go with you,” she said, “but you will receive no honor on the road you are about to take, because the LORD will sell Sisera into a woman’s hand.” So Deborah got up and went with Barak to Kedesh. <sup>10</sup> Barak summoned Zebulun and Naphtali to Kedesh; 10,000 men followed him, and Deborah also went with him.

<sup>11†</sup> Now Heber the Kenite had moved away from the Kenites, the sons of Hobab, Moses’ father-in-law, and pitched his tent beside the oak tree of Zaananim, which was near Kedesh.

LORD has handed Sisera over to you. Hasn't the LORD gone before you? ” So Barak came down from Mount Tabor with 10,000 men following him.

<sup>17</sup> Meanwhile, Sisera had fled on foot to the tent of Jael, the wife of Heber the Kenite, because there was peace between Jabin king of Hazor and the family of Heber the Kenite. <sup>18</sup> Jael went out to greet Sisera and said to him, “Come in, my lord. Come in with me. Don't be afraid.” So he went into her tent, and she covered him with a rug. <sup>19</sup> He said to her, “Please give me a little water to drink for I am thirsty.” She opened a container of milk, gave him a drink, and covered him again. <sup>20</sup> Then he said to her, “Stand at the entrance to the tent. If a man comes and asks you, ‘Is there a man here?’ say, ‘No.’ ” <sup>21</sup> While he was sleeping from exhaustion, Heber's wife Jael took a tent peg, grabbed a hammer, and went silently to Sisera. She hammered the peg into his temple and drove it into the ground, and he died.

<sup>22</sup> When Barak arrived in pursuit of Sisera, Jael went out to greet him and said to him, “Come and I will show you the man you are looking for.” So he went in with her, and there was Sisera lying dead with a tent peg through his temple!

Deborah's Song

5 † On that day Deborah and Barak son of Abinoam sang:

2 When the leaders lead <sup>A</sup> in Israel, when the people volunteer,
praise the LORD.

3 Listen, kings! Pay attention, princes!
I will sing to the LORD;
I will sing praise to the LORD God of Israel.

4 LORD, when You came from Seir, when You marched from the fields of Edom,
the earth trembled,
the heavens poured rain,
and the clouds poured water.

5 The mountains melted before the LORD, even Sinai <sup>B</sup> before the LORD, the God of Israel.

6 In the days of Shamgar son of Anath, in the days of Jael,
the main ways were deserted because travelers kept to the side roads.

7 Villages were deserted, <sup>C</sup> they were deserted in Israel, until I, Deborah, <sup>D</sup> arose, a mother in Israel.

8† Israel chose new gods,
then war was in the gates.
Not a shield or spear was seen among 40,000 in Israel.

9 My heart is with the leaders of Israel, with the volunteers of the people.
Praise the LORD!

10 You who ride on white <sup>E</sup> donkeys, who sit on saddle blankets,
and who travel on the road, give praise!

11 Let them tell the righteous acts of the LORD, the righteous deeds of His warriors in Israel, with the voices of the singers at the watering places. <sup>F</sup>

Then the LORD's people went down to the gates.

<sup>12</sup> "Awake! Awake, Deborah!

Awake! Awake, sing a song!

Arise, Barak,

and take hold of your captives,

son of Abinoam! "

<sup>13</sup> The survivors came down to the nobles;

the LORD's people came down to me with the warriors.

Benjamin came with your people after you.

The leaders came down from Machir, and those who carry a marshal's staff came from Zebulun.

Issachar was with Barak.

They set out at his heels in the valley.

There was great searching of heart

among the clans of Reuben.

<sup>16</sup> Why did you sit among the sheepfolds listening to the playing of pipes for the flocks?

There was great searching of heart

among the clans of Reuben.

Dan, why did you linger at the ships?

Asher remained at the seashore and stayed in his harbors.

<sup>18</sup> Zebulun was a people risking their lives,

Naphtali also, on the heights of the battlefield.

Then the kings of Canaan fought at Taanach by the waters of Megiddo, but they took no spoil of silver.

<sup>20†</sup> The stars fought from the heavens;

the stars fought with Sisera from their courses.

the ancient river, the river Kishon.

March on, my soul, in strength!

<sup>22</sup> The horses' hooves then hammered — the galloping, galloping of his stallions.

<sup>23</sup> “Curse Meroz,” says the Angel of the LORD, “Bitterly curse her inhabitants, for they did not come to help the LORD, to help the LORD against the mighty warriors.”

<sup>24</sup> Jael is most blessed of women, the wife of Heber the Kenite;
she is most blessed among tent-dwelling women.

<sup>25</sup> He asked for water; she gave him milk.
She brought him curdled milk in a majestic bowl.

<sup>26</sup> She reached for a tent peg, her right hand, for a workman's mallet.
Then she hammered Sisera — she crushed his head;
she shattered and pierced his temple.

<sup>27</sup> He collapsed, he fell, he lay down at <sup>G</sup> her feet;
he collapsed, he fell at her feet;
where he collapsed, there he fell — dead.

<sup>28</sup> Sisera's mother looked through the window;
she peered through the lattice, crying out:
“Why is his chariot so long in coming?
Why don't I hear the hoofbeats of his horses? ” <sup>H</sup>

<sup>29</sup> Her wisest princesses answer her; she even answers herself: <sup>I</sup>

<sup>30</sup> “Are they not finding and dividing the spoil — a girl or two for each warrior, the spoil of colored garments for Sisera, the spoil of an embroidered garment or two for my neck? ” <sup>J</sup>

<sup>31</sup> LORD, may all your enemies perish as Sisera did. <sup>K</sup>
But may those who love Him be like the rising of the sun in its strength.

And the land was peaceful 40 years.

Midian Oppresses Israel

6 The Israelites did what was evil in the sight of the LORD. So the LORD handed them over to Midian seven years, <sup>2</sup> and they oppressed Israel. Because of Midian, the Israelites made hiding places for themselves in the mountains, caves, and strongholds. <sup>3</sup> Whenever the Israelites planted crops, the Midianites, Amalekites, and the Qedemites came and attacked them. <sup>4</sup> They encamped against them and destroyed the produce of the land, even as far as Gaza. They left nothing for Israel to eat, as well as no sheep, ox or donkey. <sup>5†</sup> For the Midianites came with their cattle and their tents like a great swarm of locusts. They and their camels were without number, and they entered the land to waste it. <sup>6</sup> So Israel became poverty-stricken because of Midian, and the Israelites cried out to the LORD.

<sup>7</sup> When the Israelites cried out to Him because of Midian, <sup>8†</sup> the LORD sent a prophet to them. He said to them, “This is what the LORD God of Israel says: ‘I brought you out of Egypt and out of the place of slavery. <sup>9</sup> I delivered you from the power of Egypt and the power of all who oppressed you. I drove them out before you and gave you their land. <sup>10</sup> I said to you: I am •Yahweh your God. Do not fear the gods of the Amorites whose land you live in. But you did not obey Me.’ ”

The LORD Calls Gideon

<sup>11</sup> The Angel <sup>A</sup> of the LORD came, and He <sup>B</sup> sat under the oak that was in Ophrah, which belonged to Joash, the Abiezrite. His son Gideon was threshing wheat in the wine vat in order to hide it from the Midianites.

<sup>12†</sup> Then the Angel of the LORD appeared to him and said: “The LORD is with you, mighty warrior.”

<sup>13</sup> Gideon said to Him, “Please Sir, <sup>C</sup> if the LORD is with us, why has all this happened? <sup>D</sup> And where are all His wonders that our fathers told us about? They said, ‘Hasn’t the LORD brought us out of Egypt?’ But now the LORD has abandoned us and handed us over to Midian.”

<sup>14</sup> The LORD turned to him and said, “Go in the strength you have and deliver Israel from the power of Midian. Am I not sending you? ”

<sup>15</sup> He said to Him, “Please, Lord, how can I deliver Israel? Look, my family is the weakest in Manasseh, and I am the youngest in my father’s house.”

<sup>16</sup> “But I will be with you,” the LORD said to him. “You will strike Midian down as if it were one man.”

<sup>17†</sup> Then he said to Him, “If I have found favor in Your sight, give me a sign that You are speaking with me. <sup>18</sup> Please do not leave this place until I return to You. Let me bring my gift and set it before You.”

And He said, “I will stay until you return.”

<sup>19</sup> So Gideon went and prepared a young goat and unleavened bread from a half bushel <sup>E</sup> of flour. He placed the meat in a basket and the broth in a pot. He brought them out and offered them to Him under the oak.

<sup>20</sup> The Angel of God said to him, “Take the meat with the unleavened bread, put it on this stone, and pour the broth on it.” And he did so.

<sup>21</sup> The Angel of the LORD extended the tip of the staff that was in His hand and touched the meat and the unleavened bread. Fire came up from the rock and consumed the meat and the unleavened bread. Then the Angel of the LORD vanished from his sight.

<sup>22†</sup> When Gideon realized that He was the Angel of the LORD, he said, “Oh no, Lord GOD! I have seen the Angel of the LORD face to face! ”

<sup>23</sup> But the LORD said to him, “Peace to you. Don’t be afraid, for you will not die.” <sup>24</sup> So Gideon built an altar to the LORD there and called it Yahweh Shalom. It is in Ophrah of the Abiezrites until today.

Gideon Tears Down a Baal Altar

<sup>25†</sup> On that very night the LORD said to him, “Take your father’s young bull and a second bull seven years old. Then tear down the altar of •Baal that belongs to your father and cut down the •Asherah pole beside it.

<sup>26</sup> Build a well-constructed altar to the LORD your God on the top of this rock. Take the second bull and offer it as a •burnt offering with the wood of the Asherah pole you cut down.” <sup>27</sup> So Gideon took 10 of his male servants and did as the LORD had told him. But because he was too afraid of his father’s household and the men of the city to do it in the daytime, he did it at night.

<sup>28</sup> When the men of the city got up in the morning, they found Baal’s altar torn down, the Asherah pole beside it cut down, and the second bull offered up on the altar that had been built. <sup>29</sup> They said to each other, “Who did this? ” After they made a thorough investigation, they said, “Gideon son of Joash did it.”

<sup>30</sup> Then the men of the city said to Joash, “Bring out your son. He must die, because he tore down Baal’s altar and cut down the Asherah pole beside it.”

<sup>31</sup> But Joash said to all who stood against him, “Would you plead Baal’s case for him? Would you save him? Whoever pleads his case will be put to death by morning! If he is a god, let him plead his own case because someone tore down his altar.” <sup>32</sup> That day, Gideon’s father called him Jerubbaal, saying, “Let Baal plead his case with him,” because he tore down his altar.

The Sign of the Fleece

<sup>34</sup> The Spirit of the LORD took control of <sup>F</sup> Gideon, and he blew the ram’s horn and the Abiezrites rallied behind him. <sup>35</sup> He sent messengers throughout all of Manasseh, who rallied behind him. He also sent messengers throughout Asher, Zebulun, and Naphtali, who also came to meet him.

<sup>36†</sup> Then Gideon said to God, “If You will deliver Israel by my hand, as You said, <sup>37</sup> I will put a fleece of wool here on the threshing floor. If dew is only on the fleece, and all the ground is dry, I will know that You will deliver Israel by my strength, as You said.” <sup>38</sup> And that is what happened. When he got up early in the morning, he squeezed the fleece and wrung dew out of it, filling a bowl with water.

<sup>39</sup> Gideon then said to God, “Don’t be angry with me; let me speak one more time. Please allow me to make one more test with the fleece. Let it remain dry, and the dew be all over the ground.” <sup>40</sup> That night God did as Gideon requested: only the fleece was dry, and dew was all over the ground.

God Selects Gideon's Army

7 Jerubbaal (that is, Gideon) and everyone who was with him, got up early and camped beside the spring of Harod. The camp of Midian was north of them, below the hill of Moreh, in the valley. <sup>2</sup> The LORD said to Gideon, “You have too many people for Me to hand the Midianites over to you, <sup>A</sup> or else Israel might brag: <sup>B</sup> ‘I did it myself.’ <sup>3</sup> Now announce in the presence of the people: ‘Whoever is fearful and trembling may turn back and leave Mount Gilead.’” So 22,000 of the people turned back, but 10,000 remained.

<sup>4</sup> Then the LORD said to Gideon, “There are still too many people. Take them down to the water, and I will test them for you there. If I say to you, ‘This one can go with you,’ he can go. But if I say about anyone, ‘This one cannot go with you,’ he cannot go.” <sup>5†</sup> So he brought the people down to the water, and the LORD said to Gideon, “Separate everyone who laps water with his tongue like a dog. Do the same with everyone who kneels to drink.” <sup>6</sup> The number of those who lapped with their hands to their mouths was 300 men, and all the rest of the people knelt to drink water. <sup>7</sup> The LORD said to Gideon, “I will deliver you with the 300 men who lapped and hand the Midianites over to you. But everyone else is to go home.” <sup>8</sup> So Gideon sent all the Israelites to their tents but kept the 300, who took <sup>C</sup> the people’s provisions and their trumpets. The camp of Midian was below him in the valley.

Gideon Spies on the Midianite Camp

<sup>9†</sup> That night the LORD said to him, “Get up and go into the camp, for I have given it into your hand. <sup>10†</sup> But if you are afraid to go to the camp, go with Purah your servant. <sup>11</sup> Listen to what they say, and then you will be strengthened to go to the camp.” So he went with Purah his servant to the outpost of the troops <sup>D</sup> who were in the camp.

<sup>12†</sup> Now the Midianites, Amalekites, and all the Qedemites had settled down in the valley like a swarm of locusts, and their camels were as innumerable as the sand on the seashore. <sup>13</sup> When Gideon arrived, there was a man telling his friend about a dream. He said, “Listen, I had a dream: a loaf of barley bread came tumbling into the Midianite camp, struck a tent, and it fell. The loaf turned the tent upside down so that it collapsed.”

<sup>14</sup> His friend answered: “This is nothing less than the sword of Gideon son of Joash, the Israelite. God has handed the entire Midianite camp over to him.”

Gideon Attacks the Midianites

<sup>15</sup> When Gideon heard the account of the dream and its interpretation, he bowed in worship. He returned to Israel’s camp and said, “Get up, for the LORD has handed the Midianite camp over to you.” <sup>16</sup> Then he divided the 300 men into three companies and gave each of the men a trumpet in one hand and an empty pitcher with a torch inside it in the other.

<sup>17</sup> “Watch me,” he said, <sup>E</sup> “and do the same. When I come to the outpost of the camp, do as I do. <sup>18</sup> When I and everyone with me blow our trumpets, you are also to blow your trumpets all around the camp. Then you will say, ‘For •Yahweh and for Gideon!’ ”

<sup>19</sup> Gideon and the 100 men who were with him went to the outpost of the camp at the beginning of the middle watch after the sentries had been stationed. They blew their trumpets and broke the pitchers that were in their hands. <sup>20</sup> The three companies blew their trumpets and shattered their pitchers. They held their torches in their left hands, their trumpets <sup>F</sup> in their right hands, and shouted, “A sword for Yahweh and for Gideon!” <sup>21†</sup> Each Israelite took his position around the camp, and the entire Midianite army fled, and cried out as they ran. <sup>22</sup> When Gideon’s men blew their 300 trumpets, the LORD set the swords of each man in the army against each other. They fled to Beth-shittah in the direction of Zererah as far as the border of Abel-meholah near Tabbath. <sup>23</sup> Then the men of Israel were called from Naphtali, Asher, and Manasseh, and they pursued the Midianites.

The Men of Ephraim Join the Battle

<sup>24</sup> Gideon sent messengers throughout the hill country of Ephraim with this message: “Come down to intercept the Midianites and take control of the watercourses ahead of them as far as Beth-barah and the Jordan.” So all the men of Ephraim were called out, and they took control of the watercourses as far as Beth-barah and the Jordan. <sup>25</sup> They captured Oreb and Zeeb, the two princes of Midian; they killed Oreb at the rock of Oreb and Zeeb at the winepress of Zeeb, while they were pursuing the Midianites. They brought the heads of Oreb and Zeeb to Gideon across the Jordan.

8 †The men of Ephraim said to him, “Why have you done this to us, not calling us when you went to fight against the Midianites?” And they argued with him violently.

2 So he said to them, “What have I done now compared to you? Is not the gleaning of Ephraim better than the vintage of Abiezer? 3 God handed over to you Oreb and Zeeb, the two princes of Midian. What was I able to do compared to you?” When he said this, their anger against him subsided.

Gideon Pursues the Kings of Midian

4 Gideon and the 300 men came to the Jordan and crossed it. They were exhausted but still in pursuit. 5 † He said to the men of Succoth, “Please give some loaves of bread to the people who are following me, A because they are exhausted, for I am pursuing Zebah and Zalmunna, the kings of Midian.”

6 But the princes of Succoth asked, “Are B Zebah and Zalmunna now in your hands that we should give bread to your army?”

7 Gideon replied, “Very well, when the LORD has handed Zebah and Zalmunna over to me, I will trample C your flesh on thorns and briars from the wilderness!” 8 He went from there to Penuel and asked the same thing from them. The men of Penuel answered just as the men of Succoth had answered. 9 He also told the men of Penuel, “When I return in peace, I will tear down this tower!”

10 † Now Zebah and Zalmunna were in Karkor, and with them was their army of about 15,000 men, who were all those left of the entire army of the Qedemites. Those who had been killed were 120,000 warriors. D 11 Gideon traveled on the caravan route E east of Nobah and Jogbehah and attacked their army while the army was unsuspecting. 12 Zebah and Zalmunna fled, and he pursued them. He captured these two kings of Midian and routed the entire army.

<sup>14</sup> He captured a youth from the men of Succoth and interrogated him. The youth wrote down for him the names of the 77 princes and elders of Succoth. <sup>15</sup> Then he went to the men of Succoth and said, “Here are Zebah and Zalmunna. You taunted me about them, saying, ‘Are <sup>F</sup> Zebah and Zalmunna now in your power that we should give bread to your exhausted men?’” <sup>16</sup> So he took the elders of the city, and he took some thorns and briars from the wilderness, and he disciplined the men of Succoth with them. <sup>17</sup> He also tore down the tower of Penuel and killed the men of the city.

“They were like you,” they said. “Each resembled the son of a king.”

<sup>19</sup> So he said, “They were my brothers, the sons of my mother! As the LORD lives, if you had let them live, I would not kill you.” <sup>20</sup> Then he said to Jether, his firstborn, “Get up and kill them.” The youth did not draw his sword, for he was afraid because he was still a youth.

<sup>21</sup> Zebah and Zalmunna said, “Get up and kill us yourself, for a man is judged by his strength.” So Gideon got up, killed Zebah and Zalmunna, and took the crescent ornaments that were on the necks of their camels.

Gideon’s Legacy

<sup>22</sup> Then the Israelites said to Gideon, “Rule over us, you as well as your sons and your grandsons, for you delivered us from the power of Midian.”

<sup>23</sup> But Gideon said to them, “I will not rule over you, and my son will not rule over you; the LORD will rule over you.” <sup>24</sup> Then he said to them, “Let me make a request of you: Everyone give me an earring from his plunder.” Now the enemy had gold earrings because they were Ishmaelites.

<sup>25</sup> They said, “We agree to give them.” So they spread out a mantle, and everyone threw an earring from his plunder on it. <sup>26†</sup> The weight of the gold earrings he requested was about 43 pounds <sup>G</sup> of gold, in addition to the crescent ornaments and ear pendants, the purple garments on the kings of Midian, and the chains on the necks of their camels. <sup>27†</sup> Gideon made an ephod from all this and put it in Ophrah, his hometown. Then all Israel prostituted themselves with it there, and it became a snare to Gideon and his household.

<sup>29</sup> Jerubbaal (that is, Gideon) son of Joash went back to live at his house.

<sup>31</sup> His concubine who was in Shechem also bore him a son, and he named him Abimelech. <sup>32</sup> Then Gideon son of Joash died at a ripe old age and was buried in the tomb of his father Joash in Ophrah of the Abiezrites.

<sup>33</sup> When Gideon died, the Israelites turned and prostituted themselves with the •Baals and made Baal-berith <sup>I</sup> their god. <sup>34</sup> The Israelites did not remember the LORD their God who had delivered them from the power of the enemies around them. <sup>35</sup> They did not show kindness to the house of Jerubbaal (that is, Gideon) for all the good he had done for Israel.

Abimelech Becomes King

9 Abimelech son of Jerubbaal went to his mother's brothers at Shechem and spoke to them and to all his maternal grandfather's clan, saying,
2 "Please speak in the presence of all the lords of Shechem, 'Is it better for you that 70 men, all the sons of Jerubbaal, rule over you or that one man rule over you?' Remember that I am your own flesh and blood." <sup>A</sup>

3 His mother's relatives spoke all these words about him in the presence of all the lords of Shechem, and they were favorable to Abimelech, for they said, "He is our brother." <sup>4</sup> So they gave him 70 pieces of silver from the temple of Baal-berith. <sup>B</sup> Abimelech hired worthless and reckless men with this money, and they followed him. <sup>5†</sup> He went to his father's house in Ophrah and killed his 70 brothers, the sons of Jerubbaal, on top of a large stone. But Jotham, the youngest son of Jerubbaal, survived, because he hid himself. <sup>6</sup> Then all the lords of Shechem and of Beth-millo gathered together and proceeded to make Abimelech king at the oak of the pillar in Shechem.

Jotham's Parable

7 When they told Jotham, he climbed to the top of Mount Gerizim, raised his voice, and called to them:

Listen to me, lords of Shechem, and may God listen to you:

<sup>8</sup> The trees set out to anoint a king over themselves.
They said to the olive tree, "Reign over us."

<sup>9</sup> But the olive tree said to them,
"Should I stop giving my oil that honors both God and man, and rule <sup>C</sup> over the trees?"

<sup>10</sup> Then the trees said to the fig tree,
"Come and reign over us."

<sup>11</sup> But the fig tree said to them,
"Should I stop giving my sweetness and my good fruit, and rule <sup>D</sup> over trees? ”

<sup>12</sup> Later, the trees said to the grapevine,
“Come and reign over us.”

<sup>13†</sup> But the grapevine said to them, “Should I stop giving my wine that cheers both God and man, and rule <sup>E</sup> over trees? ”

<sup>14</sup> Finally, all the trees said to the bramble,
“Come and reign over us.”

<sup>15</sup> The bramble said to the trees,
“If you really are anointing me as king over you,
come and find refuge in my shade.
But if not,
may fire come out from the bramble and consume the cedars of Lebanon.”

<sup>16</sup> “Now if you have acted faithfully and honestly in making Abimelech king, if you have done well by Jerubbaal and his family, and if you have rewarded him appropriately for what he did — <sup>17</sup> for my father fought for you, risked his life, and delivered you from the hand of Midian, <sup>18</sup> and now you have attacked my father’s house today, killed his 70 sons on top of a large stone, and made Abimelech, the son of his slave, king over the lords of Shechem ‘because he is your brother’ — <sup>19</sup> if then you have acted faithfully and honestly with Jerubbaal and his house this day, rejoice in Abimelech and may he also rejoice in you. <sup>20</sup> But if not, may fire come from Abimelech and consume the lords of Shechem and Beth-millo, and may fire come from the lords of Shechem and Beth-millo and consume Abimelech.” <sup>21</sup> Then Jotham fled, escaping to Beer, and lived there because of his brother Abimelech.

Abimelech’s Punishment

<sup>22</sup> When Abimelech had ruled over Israel three years, <sup>23†</sup> God sent an evil spirit between Abimelech and the lords of Shechem. They treated Abimelech deceitfully, <sup>24</sup> so that the crime against the 70 sons of Jerubbaal might come to justice and their blood would be avenged on their brother Abimelech, who killed them, and on the lords of Shechem, who had helped him kill his brothers. <sup>25</sup> The lords of Shechem rebelled against him by putting people on the tops of the mountains to ambush and rob everyone who passed by them on the road. So this was reported to Abimelech.

<sup>26</sup> Gaal son of Ebed came with his brothers and crossed into Shechem, and the lords of Shechem trusted him. <sup>27</sup> So they went out to the countryside and harvested grapes from their vineyards. They trampled the grapes and held a celebration. Then they went to the house of their god, and as they ate and drank, they cursed Abimelech. <sup>28</sup> Gaal son of Ebed said, “Who is Abimelech and who is Shechem that we should serve him? Isn’t he the son of Jerubbaal, and isn’t Zebul his officer? You are to serve the men of Hamor, the father of Shechem. Why should we serve Abimelech? <sup>29</sup> If only these people were in my power, I would remove Abimelech.” So he said to Abimelech, “Gather your army and come out.”

<sup>30</sup> When Zebul, the ruler of the city, heard the words of Gaal son of Ebed, he was angry. <sup>31</sup> So he sent messengers secretly to Abimelech, saying, “Look, Gaal son of Ebed, with his brothers, have come to Shechem and are turning the city against you. <sup>F</sup> <sup>32</sup> Now tonight, you and the people with you are to come wait in ambush in the countryside. <sup>33</sup> Then get up early, and at sunrise charge the city. When he and the people who are with him come out against you, do to him whatever you can.” <sup>G</sup> <sup>34</sup> So Abimelech and all the people with him got up at night and waited in ambush for Shechem in four units.

<sup>37</sup> Then Gaal spoke again, “Look, people are coming down from the central part of the land, and one unit is coming from the direction of the Diviners’ Oak.” <sup>38</sup> Zebul replied, <sup>H</sup> “Where is your mouthing off now? You said, ‘Who is Abimelech that we should serve him?’ Aren’t these the people you despised? Now go and fight them!”

<sup>42</sup> The next day when the people went into the countryside, this was reported to Abimelech. <sup>43</sup> He took the people, divided them into three companies, and waited in ambush in the countryside. He looked, and the people were coming out of the city, so he arose against them and struck them down. <sup>44</sup> Then Abimelech and the units that were with him rushed forward and took their stand at the entrance of the city gate. The other two units rushed against all who were in the countryside and struck them down. <sup>45</sup> So Abimelech fought against the city that entire day, captured it, and killed the people who were in it. Then he tore down the city and sowed it with salt.

<sup>51</sup> There was a strong tower inside the city, and all the men, women, and lords of the city fled there. They locked themselves in and went up to the roof of the tower. <sup>52</sup> When Abimelech came to attack the tower, he approached its entrance to set it on fire. <sup>53</sup> But a woman threw the upper portion of a millstone on Abimelech's head and fractured his skull. <sup>54</sup> He quickly called his armor-bearer and said to him, "Draw your sword and kill me, or they'll say about me, 'A woman killed him.'" So his armor-bearer thrust him through, and he died. <sup>55</sup> When the Israelites saw that Abimelech was dead, they all went home.

<sup>56†</sup> In this way, God turned back on Abimelech the evil that he had done against his father, by killing his 70 brothers. <sup>57</sup> And God also returned all the evil of the men of Shechem on their heads. So the curse of Jotham son of Jerubbaal came on them.

Tola and Jair

10 After Abimelech, Tola son of Puah, son of Dodo became judge and began to deliver Israel. He was from Issachar and lived in Shamir in the hill country of Ephraim. <sup>2</sup> Tola judged Israel 23 years and when he died, was buried in Shamir.

<sup>3</sup> After him came Jair the Gileadite, who judged Israel 22 years. <sup>4</sup> He had 30 sons who rode on 30 donkeys. They had 30 towns in Gilead, which are called Jair's Villages <sup>A</sup> to this day. <sup>5</sup> When Jair died, he was buried in Kamon.

Israel's Rebellion and Repentance

<sup>6</sup> Then the Israelites again did what was evil in the sight of the LORD. They worshiped the •Baals and the •Ashtoreths, the gods of Aram, Sidon, and Moab, and the gods of the Ammonites and the Philistines. They abandoned •Yahweh and did not worship Him. <sup>7†</sup> So the LORD's anger burned against Israel, and He sold them to <sup>B</sup> the Philistines and the Ammonites. <sup>8</sup> They shattered and crushed the Israelites that year, and for 18 years they did the same to all the Israelites who were on the other side of the Jordan in the land of the Amorites in Gilead. <sup>9</sup> The Ammonites also crossed the Jordan to fight against Judah, Benjamin, and the house of Ephraim. Israel was greatly oppressed, <sup>10†</sup> so they cried out to the LORD, saying, "We have sinned against You. We have abandoned our God and worshiped the Baals."

<sup>11</sup> The LORD said to the Israelites, "When the Egyptians, Amorites, Ammonites, Philistines, <sup>12</sup> Sidonians, Amalekites, and Maonites oppressed you, and you cried out to Me, did I not deliver you from their power? <sup>13</sup> But you have abandoned Me and worshiped other gods. Therefore, I will not deliver you again. <sup>14</sup> Go and cry out to the gods you have chosen. Let them deliver you in the time of your oppression."

<sup>15</sup> But the Israelites said, "We have sinned. Deal with us as You see fit; <sup>C</sup> only deliver us today!" <sup>16</sup> So they got rid of the foreign gods among them and worshiped the LORD, and He became weary of Israel's misery.

<sup>17</sup> The Ammonites were called together, and they camped in Gilead. So the Israelites assembled and camped at Mizpah. <sup>18</sup> The rulers <sup>D</sup> of Gilead said to one another, “Which man will lead the fight against the Ammonites? He will be the leader of all the inhabitants of Gilead.”

11 †Jephthah the Gileadite was a great warrior, but he was the son of a prostitute, and Gilead was his father. <sup>2</sup> Gilead's wife bore him sons, and when they grew up, they drove Jephthah out and said to him, "You will have no inheritance in our father's house, because you are the son of another woman." <sup>3</sup> So Jephthah fled from his brothers and lived in the land of Tob. Then some lawless men joined Jephthah and traveled with him.

<sup>4</sup> Some time later, the Ammonites fought against Israel. <sup>5</sup> When the Ammonites made war with Israel, the elders of Gilead went to get Jephthah from the land of Tob. <sup>6</sup> They said to him, "Come, be our commander, and let's fight against the Ammonites."

<sup>7</sup> Jephthah replied to the elders of Gilead, "Didn't you hate me and drive me from my father's house? Why then have you come to me now when you're in trouble? "

<sup>8</sup> They answered Jephthah, "Since that's true, we now turn to you. Come with us, fight the Ammonites, and you will become leader of all the inhabitants of Gilead."

<sup>9</sup> So Jephthah said to them, "If you are bringing me back to fight the Ammonites and the LORD gives them to me, I will be your leader."

<sup>10</sup> The elders of Gilead said to Jephthah, "The LORD is our witness if we don't do as you say." <sup>11</sup> So Jephthah went with the elders of Gilead. The people put him over themselves as leader and commander, and Jephthah repeated all his terms in the presence of the LORD at Mizpah.

Jephthah Rejects Ammonite Claims

<sup>12</sup> Jephthah sent messengers to the king of the Ammonites, saying, "What do you have against me that you have come to fight against me in my land? "

<sup>13</sup> The king of the Ammonites said to Jephthah's messengers, "When Israel came from Egypt, they seized my land from the Arnon to the Jabbok and the Jordan. Now restore it peaceably.”

<sup>14</sup> Jephthah again sent messengers to the king of the Ammonites <sup>15</sup> to tell him, “This is what Jephthah says: Israel did not take away the land of Moab or the land of the Ammonites. <sup>16</sup> But when they came from Egypt, Israel traveled through the wilderness to the •Red Sea and came to Kadesh.

<sup>17</sup> Israel sent messengers to the king of Edom, saying, ‘Please let us travel through your land,’ but the king of Edom would not listen. They also sent messengers to the king of Moab, but he refused. So Israel stayed in Kadesh.

<sup>18</sup> “Then they traveled through the wilderness and around the lands of Edom and Moab. They came to the east side of the land of Moab and camped on the other side of the Arnon but did not enter into the territory of Moab, for the Arnon was the boundary of Moab.

<sup>19</sup> “Then Israel sent messengers to Sihon king of the Amorites, king of Heshbon. Israel said to him, ‘Please let us travel through your land to our country,’ <sup>20</sup> but Sihon would not trust Israel to pass through his territory. Instead, Sihon gathered all his people, camped at Jahaz, and fought with Israel. <sup>21</sup> Then the LORD God of Israel handed over Sihon and all his people to Israel, and they defeated them. So Israel took possession of the entire land of the Amorites who lived in that country. <sup>22</sup> They took possession of all the territory of the Amorites from the Arnon to the Jabbok and from the wilderness to the Jordan.

<sup>23</sup> “The LORD God of Israel has now driven out the Amorites before His people Israel, and will you now force us out? <sup>24†</sup> Isn’t it true that you may possess whatever your god Chemosh drives out for you, and we may possess everything the LORD our God drives out before us? <sup>25</sup> Now are you any better than Balak son of Zippor, king of Moab? Did he ever contend with Israel or fight against them? <sup>26</sup> While Israel lived 300 years in Heshbon and its villages, in Aroer and its villages, and in all the cities that are on the banks of the Arnon, why didn't you take them back at that time? <sup>27</sup> I have not sinned against you, but you have wronged me by fighting against me. Let the LORD who is the Judge decide today between the Israelites and the Ammonites." <sup>28</sup> But the king of the Ammonites would not listen to Jephthah's message that he sent him.

Jephthah's Vow and Sacrifice

<sup>29†</sup> The Spirit of the LORD came on Jephthah, who traveled through Gilead and Manasseh, and then through Mizpah of Gilead. He crossed over to the Ammonites from Mizpah of Gilead. <sup>30</sup> Jephthah made this vow to the LORD: "If You will hand over the Ammonites to me, <sup>31</sup> whatever comes out of the doors of my house to greet me when I return in peace from the Ammonites will belong to the LORD, and I will offer it as a •burnt offering."

<sup>32</sup> Jephthah crossed over to the Ammonites to fight against them, and the LORD handed them over to him. <sup>33</sup> He defeated 20 of their cities with a great slaughter from Aroer all the way to the entrance of Minnith and to Abel-keramim. So the Ammonites were subdued before the Israelites.

<sup>34†</sup> When Jephthah went to his home in Mizpah, there was his daughter, coming out to meet him with tambourines and dancing! She was his only child; he had no other son or daughter besides her. <sup>35</sup> When he saw her, he tore his clothes and said, "No! Not my daughter! You have devastated me! You have brought great misery on me. <sup>A</sup> I have given my word to the LORD and cannot take it back."

<sup>36</sup> Then she said to him, "My father, you have given your word to the LORD. Do to me as you have said, for the LORD brought vengeance on your enemies, the Ammonites." <sup>37</sup> She also said to her father, "Let me do this one thing: Let me wander two months through the mountains with my friends and mourn my virginity."

<sup>38</sup> “Go,” he said. And he sent her away two months. So she left with her friends and mourned her virginity as she wandered through the mountains.

<sup>39</sup> At the end of two months, she returned to her father, and he kept the vow he had made about her. And she had never been intimate with a man. Now it became a custom in Israel <sup>40</sup> that four days each year the young women of Israel would commemorate the daughter of Jephthah the Gileadite.

Conflict with Ephraim

12 The men of Ephraim were called together and crossed the Jordan to Zaphon. They said to Jephthah, “Why have you crossed over to fight against the Ammonites but didn’t call us to go with you? We will burn your house down with you in it! ”

<sup>2</sup> Then Jephthah said to them, “My people and I had a serious conflict with the Ammonites. So I called for you, but you didn’t deliver me from their power. <sup>3</sup> When I saw that you weren’t going to deliver me, I took my life in my own hands and crossed over to the Ammonites, and the LORD handed them over to me. Why then have you come <sup>A</sup> today to fight against me? ”

<sup>4</sup> Then Jephthah gathered all of the men of Gilead. They fought and defeated Ephraim, because Ephraim had said, “You Gileadites are Ephraimite fugitives in the territories of Ephraim and Manasseh.” <sup>5</sup> The Gileadites captured the fords of the Jordan leading to Ephraim. Whenever a fugitive from Ephraim said, “Let me cross over,” the Gileadites asked him, “Are you an Ephraimite? ” If he answered, “No,” <sup>6†</sup> they told him, “Please say Shibboleth.” If he said, “Sibboleth,” because he could not pronounce it correctly, they seized him and killed him at the fords of the Jordan. At that time 42,000 from Ephraim died.

<sup>7</sup> Jephthah judged Israel six years, and when he died, he was buried in one of the cities of Gilead.

Ibzan, Elon, and Abdon

<sup>8</sup> Ibzan, who was from Bethlehem, judged Israel after Jephthah <sup>9</sup> and had 30 sons. He gave his 30 daughters in marriage to men outside the tribe and brought back 30 wives for his sons from outside the tribe. Ibzan judged Israel seven years, <sup>10</sup> and when he died, he was buried in Bethlehem.

<sup>11</sup> Elon, who was from Zebulun, judged Israel after Ibzan. He judged Israel 10 years, <sup>12</sup> and when he died, he was buried in Aijalon in the land of Zebulun.

<sup>13</sup> After Elon, Abdon son of Hillel, who was from Pirathon, judged Israel. <sup>14</sup> He had 40 sons and 30 grandsons, who rode on 70 donkeys. Abdon judged Israel eight years, <sup>15</sup> and when he died, he was buried in Pirathon in the land of Ephraim, in the hill country of the Amalekites.

Birth of Samson, the Last Judge

13 †The Israelites again did what was evil in the LORD's sight, so the LORD handed them over to the Philistines 40 years. <sup>2†</sup> There was a certain man from Zorah, from the family of Dan, whose name was Manoah; his wife was unable to conceive and had no children. <sup>3</sup> The Angel of the LORD appeared to the woman and said to her, "It is true that you are unable to conceive and have no children, but you will conceive and give birth to a son. <sup>4†</sup> Now please be careful not to drink wine or beer, or to eat anything •unclean; <sup>5†</sup> for indeed, you will conceive and give birth to a son. You must never cut his hair, <sup>A</sup> because the boy will be a Nazirite to God from birth, and he will begin to save Israel from the power of the Philistines."

<sup>6</sup> Then the woman went and told her husband, "A man of God came to me. He looked like the awe-inspiring Angel of God. I didn't ask Him where He came from, and He didn't tell me His name. <sup>7</sup> He said to me, 'You will conceive and give birth to a son. Therefore, do not drink wine or beer, and do not eat anything unclean, because the boy will be a Nazirite to God from birth until the day of his death.' "

<sup>8</sup> Manoah prayed to the LORD and said, "Please Lord, let the man of God you sent come again to us and teach us what we should do for the boy who will be born."

<sup>9</sup> God listened to <sup>B</sup> Manoah, and the Angel of God came again to the woman. She was sitting in the field, and her husband Manoah was not with her. <sup>10</sup> The woman ran quickly to her husband and told him, "The man who came to me today has just come back! "

<sup>11</sup> So Manoah got up and followed his wife. When he came to the man, he asked, "Are You the man who spoke to my wife? "

"I am," He said.

<sup>12</sup> Then Manoah asked, "When Your words come true, what will the boy's responsibilities and mission <sup>C</sup> be? "

<sup>13</sup> The Angel of the LORD answered Manoah, “Your wife needs to do everything I told her. <sup>14</sup> She must not eat anything that comes from the grapevine or drink wine or beer. And she must not eat anything unclean. Your wife must do everything I have commanded her.”

<sup>16</sup> The Angel of the LORD said to him, “If I stay, I won’t eat your food. But if you want to prepare a •burnt offering, offer it to the LORD.” For Manoah did not know He was the Angel of the LORD.

<sup>17</sup> Then Manoah said to Him, “What is Your name, so that we may honor You when Your words come true? ”

<sup>18</sup> “Why do you ask My name,” the Angel of the LORD asked him, “since it is wonderful.”

<sup>19</sup> Manoah took a young goat and a •grain offering and offered them on a rock to the LORD, and He did a wonderful thing while Manoah and his wife were watching. <sup>20</sup> When the flame went up from the altar to the sky, the Angel of the LORD went up in its flame. When Manoah and his wife saw this, they fell facedown on the ground. <sup>21</sup> The Angel of the LORD did not appear again to Manoah and his wife. Then Manoah realized that it was the Angel of the LORD.

<sup>22†</sup> “We’re going to die,” he said to his wife, “because we have seen God! ”

<sup>23</sup> But his wife said to him, “If the LORD had intended to kill us, He wouldn’t have accepted the burnt offering and the grain offering from us, and He would not have shown us all these things or spoken to us now like this.”

<sup>24†</sup> So the woman gave birth to a son and named him Samson. The boy grew, and the LORD blessed him. <sup>25</sup> Then the Spirit of the LORD began to direct him in the Camp of Dan, <sup>D</sup> between Zorah and Eshtaol.

Samson's Riddle

14† Samson went down to Timnah and saw a young Philistine woman there.<sup>2</sup> He went back and told his father and his mother: “I have seen a young Philistine woman in Timnah. Now get her for me as a wife.”

<sup>3</sup> But his father and mother said to him, “Can’t you find<sup>A</sup> a young woman among your relatives or among any of our people? Must you go to the uncircumcised Philistines for a wife?”

But Samson told his father, “Get her for me, because I want her.”<sup>B</sup>
<sup>4</sup> Now his father and mother did not know this was from the LORD, who was seeking an occasion against the Philistines. At that time, the Philistines were ruling over Israel.

<sup>8</sup> After some time, when he returned to get her, he left the road to see the lion’s carcass, and there was a swarm of bees with honey in the carcass.
<sup>9</sup> He scooped some honey into his hands and ate it as he went along. When he returned to his father and mother, he gave some to them and they ate it. But he did not tell them that he had scooped the honey from the lion’s carcass.

<sup>10</sup> His father went to visit the woman, and Samson prepared a feast there, as young men were accustomed to do.<sup>11</sup> When the Philistines saw him, they brought 30 men to accompany him.

<sup>12†</sup> “Let me tell you a riddle,” Samson said to them. “If you can explain it to me during the seven days of the feast and figure it out, I will give you 30 linen garments and 30 changes of clothes.<sup>13</sup> But if you can’t explain it to me, you must give me 30 linen garments and 30 changes of clothes.”

<sup>14</sup> So he said to them:

Out of the eater came something to eat, and out of the strong came something sweet.

After three days, they were unable to explain the riddle. <sup>15</sup> On the fourth day they said to Samson’s wife, “Persuade your husband to explain the riddle to us, or we will burn you and your father’s household to death. Did you invite us here to rob us? ”

<sup>16</sup> So Samson’s wife came to him, weeping, and said, “You hate me and don’t love me! You told my people the riddle, but haven’t explained it to me.”

“Look,” he said, <sup>F</sup> “I haven’t even explained it to my father or mother, so why should I explain it to you? ”

<sup>17</sup> She wept the whole seven days of the feast, and at last, on the seventh day, he explained it to her, because she had nagged him so much. Then she explained it to her people. <sup>18</sup> On the seventh day, before sunset, the men of the city said to him:

What is sweeter than honey?
What is stronger than a lion?

So he said to them:

If you hadn’t plowed with my young cow, you wouldn’t know my riddle now!

<sup>19†</sup> The Spirit of the LORD took control of him, and he went down to Ashkelon and killed 30 of their men. He stripped them and gave their clothes to those who had explained the riddle. In a rage, Samson returned to his father’s house, <sup>20</sup> and his wife was given to one of the men who had accompanied him.

Samson's Revenge

15 † Later on, during the wheat harvest, Samson took a young goat as a gift and visited his wife. “I want to go to my wife in her room,” he said. But her father would not let him enter.

2 “I was sure you hated her,” her father said, “so I gave her to one of the men who accompanied you. Isn’t her younger sister more beautiful than she is? Why not take her instead? ”

3† Samson said to them, “This time I won’t be responsible when I harm the Philistines.” 4 So he went out and caught 300 foxes. He took torches, turned the foxes tail-to-tail, and put a torch between each pair of tails. 5 Then he ignited the torches and released the foxes into the standing grain of the Philistines. He burned up the piles of grain and the standing grain as well as the vineyards and olive groves.

6 Then the Philistines asked, “Who did this? ”

They were told, “It was Samson, the Timnite’s son-in-law, because he has taken Samson’s wife and given her to another man.” So the Philistines went to her and her father and burned them to death.

7 Then Samson told them, “Because you did this, I swear that I won’t rest until I have taken vengeance on you.” 8 He tore them limb from limb <sup>A</sup> with a great slaughter, and he went down and stayed in the cave at the rock of Etam.

9 The Philistines went up, camped in Judah, and raided Lehi. 10† So the men of Judah said, “Why have you attacked us? ”

They replied, “We have come to arrest Samson and pay him back for what he did to us.”

11 Then 3,000 men of Judah went to the cave at the rock of Etam, and they asked Samson, “Don’t you realize that the Philistines rule over us? What have you done to us? ”

“I have done to them what they did to me,” he answered. <sup>B</sup>

<sup>12</sup> They said to him, “We’ve come to arrest you and hand you over to the Philistines.”

Then Samson told them, “Swear to me that you yourselves won’t kill me.”

<sup>13</sup> “No,” they said, <sup>C</sup> “we won’t kill you, but we will tie you up securely and hand you over to them.” So they tied him up with two new ropes and led him away from the rock.

<sup>14</sup> When he came to Lehi, the Philistines came to meet him shouting. The Spirit of the LORD took control of <sup>D</sup> him, and the ropes that were on his arms became like burnt flax and his bonds fell off his wrists. <sup>15</sup> He found a fresh jawbone of a donkey, reached out his hand, took it, and killed 1,000 men with it. <sup>16</sup> Then Samson said:

With the jawbone of a donkey
I have piled them in a heap.
With the jawbone of a donkey
I have killed 1,000 men.

<sup>17</sup> When he finished speaking, he threw away the jawbone and named that place Ramath-lehi. <sup>18</sup> He became very thirsty and called out to the LORD: “You have accomplished this great victory through <sup>E</sup> Your servant. Must I now die of thirst and fall into the hands of the uncircumcised?” <sup>19†</sup> So God split a hollow place in the ground at Lehi, and water came out of it. After Samson drank, his strength returned, and he revived. That is why he named it En-hakkore, which is in Lehi to this day. <sup>20</sup> And he judged Israel 20 years in the days of the Philistines.

Samson and Delilah

16† Samson went to Gaza, where he saw a prostitute and went to bed with her. <sup>2</sup> When the Gazites heard that Samson was there, they surrounded the place and waited in ambush for him all that night at the city gate. While they were waiting quietly, <sup>A</sup> they said, “Let us wait until dawn; then we will kill him.” <sup>3†</sup> But Samson stayed in bed until midnight when he got up, took hold of the doors of the city gate along with the two gateposts, and pulled them out, bar and all. He put them on his shoulders and took them to the top of the mountain overlooking Hebron.

<sup>4</sup> Some time later, he fell in love with a woman named Delilah, who lived in the Sorek Valley. <sup>5</sup> The Philistine leaders went to her and said, “Persuade him to tell you <sup>B</sup> where his great strength comes from, so we can overpower him, tie him up, and make him helpless. Each of us will then give you 1,100 pieces of silver.”

<sup>6†</sup> So Delilah said to Samson, “Please tell me, where does your great strength come from? How could someone tie you up and make you helpless? ”

<sup>7</sup> Samson told her, “If they tie me up with seven fresh bowstrings that have not been dried, I will become weak and be like any other man.”

<sup>8</sup> The Philistine leaders brought her seven fresh bowstrings that had not been dried, and she tied him up with them. <sup>9</sup> While the men in ambush were waiting in her room, she called out to him, “Samson, the Philistines are here! ” <sup>C</sup> But he snapped the bowstrings as a strand of yarn snaps when it touches fire. The secret of his strength remained unknown.

<sup>10</sup> Then Delilah said to Samson, “You have mocked me and told me lies! Won’t you please tell me how you can be tied up? ” her room, he snapped the ropes off his arms like a thread.

<sup>11</sup> He told her, “If they tie me up with new ropes that have never been used, I will become weak and be like any other man.”

<sup>13</sup> Then Delilah said to Samson, “You have mocked me all along and told me lies! Tell me how you can be tied up.”

He told her, “If you weave the seven braids on my head with the web of a loom — ”

<sup>14</sup> She fastened the braids with a pin and called to him, “Samson, the Philistines are here! ” <sup>E</sup> He awoke from his sleep and pulled out the pin, with the loom and the web.

<sup>15</sup> “How can you say, ‘I love you,’ ” she told him, “when your heart is not with me? This is the third time you have mocked me and not told me what makes your strength so great! ”

<sup>16</sup> Because she nagged him day after day and pleaded with him until she wore him out, <sup>F</sup> <sup>17†</sup> he told her the whole truth and said to her, “My hair has never been cut, <sup>G</sup> because I am a Nazirite to God from birth. If I am shaved, my strength will leave me, and I will become weak and be like any other man.”

<sup>18</sup> When Delilah realized that he had told her the whole truth, she sent this message to the Philistine leaders: “Come one more time, for he has told me the whole truth.” The Philistine leaders came to her and brought the money with them.

<sup>19</sup> Then she let him fall asleep on her lap and called a man to shave off the seven braids on his head. In this way, she made him helpless, and his strength left him. <sup>20</sup> Then she cried, “Samson, the Philistines are here! ” <sup>H</sup> When he awoke from his sleep, he said, “I will escape as I did before and shake myself free.” But he did not know that the LORD had left him.

Samson's Defeat and Death

<sup>21</sup> The Philistines seized him and gouged out his eyes. They brought him down to Gaza and bound him with bronze shackles, and he was forced to grind grain in the prison. <sup>22</sup> But his hair began to grow back after it had been shaved.

<sup>23</sup> Now the Philistine leaders gathered together to offer a great sacrifice to their god Dagon. They rejoiced and said:

Our god has handed over our enemy Samson to us.

<sup>24</sup> When the people saw him, they praised their god and said:

Our god has handed over to us our enemy who destroyed our land and who multiplied our dead.

<sup>25</sup> When they were drunk, <sup>1</sup> they said, “Bring Samson here to entertain us.” So they brought Samson from prison, and he entertained them. They had him stand between the pillars.

<sup>26</sup> Samson said to the young man who was leading him by the hand, “Lead me where I can feel the pillars supporting the temple, so I can lean against them.” <sup>27†</sup> The temple was full of men and women; all the leaders of the Philistines were there, and about 3,000 men and women were on the roof watching Samson entertain them. <sup>28</sup> He called out to the LORD: “LORD GOD, please remember me. Strengthen me, God, just once more. With one act of vengeance, let me pay back the Philistines for my two eyes.”

<sup>30</sup> Samson said, “Let me die with the Philistines.” He pushed with all his might, and the temple fell on the leaders and all the people in it. And the dead he killed at his death were more than those he had killed in his life.

<sup>31</sup> Then his brothers and his father’s family came down, carried him back, and buried him between Zorah and Eshtaol in the tomb of his father Manoah. So he judged Israel 20 years.

Micah's Priest

17 There was a man from the hill country of Ephraim named Micah.
2† He said to his mother, “The 1,100 pieces of silver taken from you, and that I heard you utter a curse about — here, I have the silver with me. I took it. So now I return it to you.”

Then his mother said, “My son, you are blessed by the LORD! ”

3† He returned the 1,100 pieces of silver to his mother, and his mother said, “I personally consecrate the silver to the LORD for my son’s benefit to make a carved image overlaid with silver.” A 4 So he returned the silver to his mother, and she took five pounds of silver and gave it to a silversmith. He made it into a carved image overlaid with silver, B and it was in Micah’s house.

5 This man Micah had a shrine, and he made an •ephod and household idols, and installed one of his sons to be his priest. 6† In those days there was no king in Israel; everyone did whatever he wanted. C

7 There was a young man, a Levite from Bethlehem in Judah, who resided within the clan of Judah. 8 The man left the town of Bethlehem in Judah to settle wherever he could find a place. On his way he came to Micah’s home in the hill country of Ephraim.

9 “Where do you come from? ” Micah asked him.

He answered him, “I am a Levite from Bethlehem in Judah, and I’m going to settle wherever I can find a place.”

10 Micah replied, D “Stay with me and be my father and priest, and I will give you four ounces of silver a year, along with your clothing and provisions.” So the Levite went in 11 and agreed to stay with the man, and the young man became like one of his sons. 12 Micah consecrated the Levite, and the young man became his priest and lived in Micah’s house. 13 Then Micah said, “Now I know that the LORD will be good to me, because a Levite has become my priest.”

Dan's Invasion and Idolatry

18 †In those days, there was no king in Israel, and the Danite tribe was looking for territory to occupy. Up to that time no territory had been captured by them among the tribes of Israel. <sup>2</sup> So the Danites sent out five brave men from all their clans, from Zorah and Eshtaol, to scout out the land and explore it. They told them, “Go and explore the land.”

They came to the hill country of Ephraim as far as the home of Micah and spent the night there. <sup>3</sup> While they were near Micah’s home, they recognized the speech of the young Levite. So they went over to him and asked, “Who brought you here? What are you doing in this place? What is keeping you here? ” <sup>4</sup> He told them what Micah had done for him and that he had hired him as his priest.

<sup>5†</sup> Then they said to him, “Please inquire of God so we will know if we will have a successful journey.”

<sup>7</sup> The five men left and came to Laish. They saw that the people who were there were living securely, in the same way as the Sidonians, quiet and unsuspecting. There was nothing lacking <sup>A</sup> in the land and no oppressive ruler. They were far from the Sidonians, having no alliance with anyone.

<sup>9</sup> They answered, “Come on, let’s go up against them, for we have seen the land, and it is very good. Why wait? Don’t hesitate to go and invade and take possession of the land! <sup>10</sup> When you get there, you will come to an unsuspecting people and a spacious land, for God has handed it over to you. It is a place where nothing on earth is lacking.” <sup>11</sup> Six hundred Danites departed from Zorah and Eshtaol armed with weapons of war. <sup>12</sup> They went up and camped at Kiriath-jearim in Judah. This is why the place is called the Camp of Dan <sup>B</sup> to this day; it is west of Kiriath-jearim. <sup>13</sup> From there they traveled to the hill country of Ephraim and arrived at Micah’s house.

<sup>14</sup> The five men who had gone to scout out the land of Laish told their brothers, “Did you know that there are an •ephod, household gods, and a carved image overlaid with silver <sup>C</sup> in these houses? Now think about what you should do.” <sup>15</sup> So they detoured there and went to the house of the young Levite at the home of Micah and greeted him. <sup>16</sup> The 600 Danite men were standing by the entrance of the gate, armed with their weapons of war. <sup>17</sup> Then the five men who had gone to scout out the land went in and took the carved image overlaid with silver, <sup>D</sup> the ephod, and the household idols, while the priest was standing by the entrance of the gate with the 600 men armed with weapons of war.

<sup>19</sup> They told him, “Be quiet. Keep your mouth shut. <sup>F</sup> Come with us and be a father and a priest to us. Is it better for you to be a priest for the house of one person or for you to be a priest for a tribe and family in Israel? ”

<sup>20</sup> So the priest was pleased and took his ephod, household idols, and carved image, and went with the people. <sup>21</sup> They prepared to leave, putting their small children, livestock, and possessions in front of them.

<sup>22</sup> After they were some distance from Micah’s house, the men who were in the houses near it mobilized and caught up with the Danites. <sup>23</sup> They called to the Danites, who turned to face them, and said to Micah, “What’s the matter with you that you mobilized the men? ”

<sup>24</sup> He said, “You took the gods I had made and the priest, and went away. What do I have left? How can you say to me, ‘What’s the matter with you? ’ ”

<sup>25</sup> The Danites said to him, “Don’t raise your voice against us, or angry men will attack you, and you and your family will lose your lives.” <sup>26</sup> The Danites went on their way, and Micah turned to go back home, because he saw that they were stronger than he was.

<sup>27</sup> After they had taken the gods Micah had made and the priest that belonged to him, they went to Laish, to a quiet and unsuspecting people. They killed them with their swords and burned down the city. <sup>28</sup> There was no one to rescue them because it was far from Sidon and they had no alliance with anyone. It was in a valley that belonged to Beth-rehob. They rebuilt the city and lived in it. <sup>29</sup> They named the city Dan, after the name of their ancestor Dan, who was born to Israel. The city was formerly named Laish.

<sup>30†</sup> The Danites set up the carved image for themselves. Jonathan son of Gershom, son of Moses, and his sons were priests for the Danite tribe until the time of the exile from the land. <sup>31</sup> So they set up for themselves Micah's carved image that he had made, and it was there as long as the house of God was in Shiloh.

Outrage in Benjamin

19 †In those days, when there was no king in Israel, a Levite living in a remote part of the hill country of Ephraim acquired a woman from Bethlehem in Judah as his concubine. <sup>2†</sup> But she was unfaithful to him and left him for her father's house in Bethlehem in Judah. She was there for a period of four months. <sup>3</sup> Then her husband got up and went after her to speak kindly to her <sup>A</sup> and bring her back. He had his servant with him and a pair of donkeys. So she brought him to her father's house, and when the girl's father saw him, he gladly welcomed him. <sup>4</sup> His father-in-law, the girl's father, detained him, and he stayed with him for three days. They ate, drank, and spent the nights there.

<sup>5</sup> On the fourth day, they got up early in the morning and prepared to go, but the girl's father said to his son-in-law, "Have something to eat to keep up your strength and then you can go." <sup>6</sup> So they sat down and the two of them ate and drank together. Then the girl's father said to the man, "Please agree to stay overnight and enjoy yourself." <sup>7</sup> The man got up to go, but his father-in-law persuaded him, so he stayed and spent the night there again. <sup>8</sup> He got up early in the morning of the fifth day to leave, but the girl's father said to him, "Please keep up your strength." So they waited until late afternoon and the two of them ate. <sup>9</sup> The man got up to go with his concubine and his servant, when his father-in-law, the girl's father, said to him, "Look, night is coming. Please spend the night. See, the day is almost over. Spend the night here, enjoy yourself, then you can get up early tomorrow for your journey and go home."

<sup>10</sup> But the man was unwilling to spend the night. He got up, departed, and arrived opposite Jebus (that is, Jerusalem). The man had his two saddled donkeys and his concubine with him. <sup>11</sup> When they were near Jebus and the day was almost gone, the servant said to his master, "Please, why not <sup>B</sup> let us stop at this Jebusite city and spend the night here? "

<sup>12</sup> But his master replied to him, "We will not stop at a foreign city where there are no Israelites. Let's move on to Gibeah." <sup>13</sup> "Come on," he said, <sup>C</sup> "let's try to reach one of these places and spend the night in Gibeah or Ramah." <sup>14</sup> So they continued on their journey, and the sun set as they neared Gibeah in Benjamin. <sup>15</sup> They stopped <sup>D</sup> to go in and spend the night in Gibeah. The Levite went in and sat down in the city square, but no one took them into their home to spend the night.

<sup>16</sup> In the evening, an old man came in from his work in the field. He was from the hill country of Ephraim but was residing in Gibeah, and the men of that place were Benjaminites. <sup>17</sup> When he looked up and saw the traveler in the city square, the old man asked, “Where are you going, and where do you come from?”

<sup>18</sup> He answered him, “We’re traveling from Bethlehem in Judah to the remote hill country of Ephraim, where I am from. I went to Bethlehem in Judah, and now I’m going to the house of the LORD. No one has taken me into his home, <sup>19</sup> although we have both straw and feed for our donkeys, and bread and wine for me, your female servant, and the young man with your servant. There is nothing we lack.”

<sup>27</sup> When her master got up in the morning, opened the doors of the house, and went out to leave on his journey, there was the woman, his concubine, collapsed near the doorway of the house with her hands on the threshold.

<sup>28</sup> “Get up,” he told her. “Let’s go.” But there was no response. So the man put her on his donkey and set out for home.

<sup>29</sup> When he entered his house, he picked up a knife, took hold of his concubine, cut her into 12 pieces, limb by limb, and then sent her throughout the territory of Israel. <sup>30</sup> Everyone who saw it said, “Nothing like this has ever happened or has been seen since the day the Israelites came out of the land of Egypt to this day. Think it over, discuss it, and speak up! ”

War against Benjamin

20 All the Israelites from Dan to Beer-sheba and from the land of Gilead came out, and the community assembled as one body before the LORD at Mizpah. <sup>2</sup> The leaders of all the people and of all the tribes of Israel presented themselves in the assembly of God's people: 400,000 armed foot soldiers. <sup>3</sup> The Benjaminites heard that the Israelites had gone up to Mizpah.

The Israelites asked, "Tell us, how did this outrage occur?"

<sup>4</sup> The Levite, the husband of the murdered woman, answered: "I went to Gibeah in Benjamin with my concubine to spend the night. <sup>5</sup> Citizens of Gibeah ganged up on me and surrounded the house at night. They intended to kill me, but they raped my concubine, and she died. <sup>6</sup> Then I took my concubine and cut her in pieces, and sent her throughout Israel's territory, because they committed a horrible shame in Israel. <sup>7</sup> Look, all of you are Israelites. Give your judgment and verdict here and now."

<sup>8</sup> Then all the people stood united and said, "None of us will go to his tent or return to his house. <sup>9</sup> Now this is what we will do to Gibeah: we will go against it by lot. <sup>10</sup> We will take 10 men out of every 100 from all the tribes of Israel, and 100 out of every 1,000, and 1,000 out of every 10,000 to get provisions for the people when they go to Gibeah in Benjamin to punish them for all the horror they did in Israel."

<sup>11</sup> So all the men of Israel gathered united against the city. <sup>12</sup> Then the tribes of Israel sent men throughout the tribe of Benjamin, saying, "What is this outrage that has occurred among you? <sup>13</sup> Hand over the perverted men in Gibeah so we can put them to death and eradicate evil from Israel." But the Benjaminites would not obey their fellow Israelites. <sup>14</sup> Instead, the Benjaminites gathered together from their cities to Gibeah to go out and fight against the Israelites. <sup>15</sup> On that day the Benjaminites rallied 26,000 armed men from their cities, besides 700 choice men rallied by the inhabitants of Gibeah. <sup>16†</sup> There were 700 choice men who were left-handed among all these people; all could sling a stone at a hair and not miss.

<sup>17</sup> The Israelites, apart from Benjamin, rallied 400,000 armed men, every one an experienced warrior. <sup>18</sup> They set out, went to Bethel, and inquired of God. The Israelites asked, “Who is to go first to fight for us against the Benjaminites? ”

And the LORD answered, “Judah will be first.”

And the LORD answered: “Fight against them.”

<sup>24</sup> On the second day the Israelites advanced against the Benjaminites. <sup>25</sup> That same day the Benjaminites came out from Gibeah to meet them and slaughtered an additional 18,000 Israelites on the field; all were armed men.

<sup>26</sup> The whole Israelite army went to Bethel where they wept and sat before the LORD. They fasted that day until evening and offered •burnt offerings and •fellowship offerings to the LORD. <sup>27</sup> Then the Israelites inquired of the LORD. In those days, the ark of the covenant of God was there, <sup>28</sup> and Phinehas son of Eleazar, son of Aaron, was serving before it. The Israelites asked: “Should we again fight against our brothers the Benjaminites or should we stop? ”

The LORD answered: “Fight, because I will hand them over to you tomorrow.” <sup>29</sup> So Israel set up an ambush around Gibeah. <sup>30</sup> On the third day the Israelites fought against the Benjaminites and took their battle positions against Gibeah as before. <sup>31</sup> Then the Benjaminites came out against the people and were drawn away from the city. They began to attack the people as before, killing about 30 men of Israel on the highways, one of which goes up to Bethel and the other to Gibeah through the open country.<sup>32</sup> The Benjaminites said, “We are defeating them as before.”

But the Israelites said, “Let’s flee and draw them away from the city to the highways.”<sup>33</sup> So all the men of Israel got up from their places and took their battle positions at Baal-tamar, while the Israelites in ambush charged out of their places west of Geba.<sup>34</sup> Then 10,000 choice men from all Israel made a frontal assault against Gibeah, and the battle was fierce, but the Benjaminites did not know that disaster was about to strike them.<sup>35</sup> The LORD defeated Benjamin in the presence of Israel, and on that day the Israelites slaughtered 25,100 men of Benjamin; all were armed men.<sup>36</sup> Then the Benjaminites realized they had been defeated.

The men of Israel had retreated before Benjamin, because they were confident in the ambush they had set against Gibeah.<sup>37</sup> The men in ambush had rushed quickly against Gibeah; they advanced and put the whole city to the sword.<sup>38</sup> The men of Israel had a prearranged signal with the men in ambush: when they sent up a great cloud of smoke from the city,<sup>39</sup> the men of Israel would return to the battle. When Benjamin had begun to strike them down, killing about 30 men of Israel, they said, “They’re defeated before us, just as they were in the first battle.”<sup>40</sup> But when the column of smoke began to go up from the city, Benjamin looked behind them, and the whole city was going up in smoke.<sup>A</sup><sup>41</sup> Then the men of Israel returned, and the men of Benjamin were terrified when they realized that disaster had struck them.<sup>42</sup> They retreated before the men of Israel toward the wilderness, but the battle overtook them, and those who came out of the cities slaughtered those between them.<sup>43</sup> They surrounded the Benjaminites, pursued them, and easily overtook them near Gibeah toward the east.<sup>44</sup> There were 18,000 men who died from Benjamin; all were warriors.<sup>45</sup> Then Benjamin turned and fled toward the wilderness to the rock of Rimmon, and Israel killed 5,000 men on the highways. They overtook them at Gidom and struck 2,000 more dead.

<sup>46†</sup> All the Benjaminites who died that day were 25,000 armed men; all were warriors.<sup>47</sup> But 600 men escaped into the wilderness to the rock of Rimmon and stayed there four months. <sup>48</sup> The men of Israel turned back against the other Benjaminites and killed them with their swords — the entire city, the animals, and everything that remained. They also burned down all the cities that remained.

Brides for Benjamin

21 †The men of Israel had sworn an oath at Mizpah: “None of us will give his daughter to a Benjaminite in marriage.” <sup>2</sup> So the people went to Bethel and sat there before God until evening. They wept loudly and bitterly, <sup>3</sup> and cried out, “Why, LORD God of Israel, has it occurred <sup>A</sup> that one tribe is missing in Israel today? ” <sup>4</sup> The next day the people got up early, built an altar there, and offered •burnt offerings and •fellowship offerings. <sup>5</sup> The Israelites asked, “Who of all the tribes of Israel didn’t come to the LORD with the assembly? ” For a great oath had been taken that anyone who had not come to the LORD at Mizpah would certainly be put to death.

<sup>6</sup> But the Israelites had compassion on their brothers, the Benjaminites, and said, “Today a tribe has been cut off from Israel. <sup>7</sup> What should we do about wives for the survivors? We’ve sworn to the LORD not to give them any of our daughters as wives.” <sup>8</sup> They asked, “Which city among the tribes of Israel didn’t come to the LORD at Mizpah? ” It turned out that no one from Jabesh-gilead had come to the camp and the assembly. <sup>9</sup> For when the people were counted, no one was there from the inhabitants of Jabesh-gilead.

<sup>13</sup> The whole congregation sent a message of peace to the Benjaminites who were at the rock of Rimmon. <sup>14</sup> Benjamin returned at that time, and Israel gave them the women they had kept alive from Jabesh-gilead. But there were not enough for them.

<sup>15</sup> The people had compassion on Benjamin, because the LORD had made this gap in the tribes of Israel. <sup>16</sup> The elders of the congregation said, “What should we do about wives for those who are left, since the women of Benjamin have been destroyed? ” <sup>17</sup> They said, “There must be heirs for the survivors of Benjamin, so that a tribe of Israel will not be wiped out. <sup>18</sup> But we can’t give them our daughters as wives.” For the Israelites had sworn, “Anyone who gives a wife to a Benjaminite is cursed.” <sup>19</sup> They also said, “Look, there’s an annual festival to the LORD in Shiloh, which is north of Bethel, east of the highway that goes up from Bethel to Shechem, and south of Lebonah.”

<sup>20</sup> Then they commanded the Benjaminites: “Go and hide in the vineyards. <sup>21</sup> Watch, and when you see the young women of Shiloh come out to perform the dances, each of you leave the vineyards and catch a wife for yourself from the young women of Shiloh, and go to the land of Benjamin. <sup>22</sup> When their fathers or brothers come to us and protest, we will tell them, ‘Show favor to them, since we did not get enough wives for each of them in the battle. You didn’t actually give the women to them, so <sup>C</sup> you are not •guilty of breaking your oath.’ ”

<sup>23</sup> The Benjaminites did this and took the number of women they needed from the dancers they caught. They went back to their own inheritance, rebuilt their cities, and lived in them. <sup>24</sup> At that time, each of the Israelites returned from there to his own tribe and family. Each returned from there to his own inheritance.

<sup>25</sup> In those days there was no king in Israel; everyone did whatever he wanted. <sup>D</sup>

Naomi's Family in Moab

Ruth's Loyalty to Naomi

<sup>6</sup> She and her daughters-in-law prepared to leave the land of Moab, because she had heard in Moab that the LORD had paid attention to His people's need by providing them food. <sup>7</sup> She left the place where she had been living, accompanied by her two daughters-in-law, and traveled along the road leading back to the land of Judah.

<sup>8</sup> She said to them, "Each of you go back to your mother's home. May the LORD show faithful love to you as you have shown to the dead and to me. <sup>9</sup> May the LORD enable each of you to find security in the house of your new husband." She kissed them, and they wept loudly.

<sup>10</sup> "No," they said to her. "We will go with you to your people."

<sup>11</sup> But Naomi replied, "Return home, my daughters. Why do you want to go with me? Am I able to have any more sons <sup>B</sup> who could become your husbands? <sup>12</sup> Return home, my daughters. Go on, for I am too old to have another husband. Even if I thought there was still hope for me to have a husband tonight and to bear sons, <sup>13</sup> would you be willing to wait for them to grow up? Would you restrain yourselves from remarrying? <sup>C</sup> No, my daughters, my life is much too bitter for you to share, <sup>D</sup> because the LORD's hand has turned against me." <sup>14</sup> Again they wept loudly, and Orpah kissed her mother-in-law, but Ruth clung to her. <sup>15</sup> Naomi said, "Look, your sister-in-law has gone back to her people and to her god. <sup>E</sup> Follow your sister-in-law.”

Do not persuade me to leave you or go back and not follow you.
For wherever you go, I will go,
and wherever you live, I will live;
your people will be my people, and your God will be my God.

<sup>17</sup> Where you die, I will die, and there I will be buried.
May •Yahweh punish me,
and do so severely,
if anything but death separates you and me.

<sup>19</sup> The two of them traveled until they came to Bethlehem. When they entered Bethlehem, the whole town was excited about their arrival <sup>F</sup> and the local women exclaimed, “Can this be Naomi? ”

<sup>20†</sup> “Don’t call me Naomi. Call me Mara,” she answered, <sup>G</sup> “for the •Almighty has made me very bitter. <sup>21</sup> I went away full, but the LORD has brought me back empty. Why do you call me Naomi, since the LORD has pronounced judgment on me, and the Almighty has afflicted me? ”

RUTH

Ruth and Boaz Meet

2 Now Naomi had a relative on her husband's side named Boaz. He was a prominent man of noble character from Elimelech's family.

<sup>2</sup> Ruth the Moabite asked Naomi, "Will you let me go into the fields and gather fallen grain behind someone who allows me to?"

Naomi answered her, "Go ahead, my daughter." <sup>3</sup> So Ruth left and entered the field to gather grain behind the harvesters. She happened to be in the portion of land belonging to Boaz, who was from Elimelech's family.

<sup>4</sup> Later, when Boaz arrived from Bethlehem, he said to the harvesters, "The LORD be with you."

"The LORD bless you," they replied.

<sup>6</sup> The servant answered, "She is the young Moabite woman who returned with Naomi from the land of Moab. <sup>7</sup> She asked, 'Will you let me gather fallen grain among the bundles behind the harvesters?' She came and has remained from early morning until now, except that she rested a little in the shelter."

<sup>8</sup> Then Boaz said to Ruth, "Listen, my daughter. <sup>A</sup> Don't go and gather grain in another field, and don't leave this one, but stay here close to my female servants. <sup>9</sup> See which field they are harvesting, and follow them. Haven't I ordered the young men not to touch you? When you are thirsty, go and drink from the jars the young men have filled."

<sup>10†</sup> She bowed with her face to the ground and said to him, "Why are you so kind to notice me, although I am a foreigner?"

<sup>11</sup> Boaz answered her, "Everything you have done for your mother-in-law since your husband's death has been fully reported to me: how you left your father and mother and the land of your birth, and how you came to a people you didn't previously know. <sup>12</sup> May the LORD reward you for what you have done, and may you receive a full reward from the LORD God of Israel, under whose wings you have come for refuge.”

<sup>13</sup> “My lord,” she said, “you have been so kind to me, for you have comforted and encouraged <sup>B</sup> your slave, although I am not like one of your female servants.”

<sup>14</sup> At mealtime Boaz told her, “Come over here and have some bread and dip it in the vinegar sauce.” So she sat beside the harvesters, and he offered her roasted grain. She ate and was satisfied and had some left over.

<sup>18</sup> She picked up the grain and went into the town, where her mother-in-law saw what she had gleaned. Then she brought out what she had left over from her meal and gave it to her.

<sup>19</sup> Then her mother-in-law said to her, “Where did you gather barley today, and where did you work? May the LORD bless the man who noticed you.”

Ruth told her mother-in-law about the men she had worked with and said, “The name of the man I worked with today is Boaz.”

<sup>20</sup> Then Naomi said to her daughter-in-law, “May he be blessed by the LORD, who has not forsaken his <sup>D</sup> kindness to the living or the dead.” Naomi continued, “The man is a close relative. He is one of our •family redeemers.”

<sup>21</sup> Ruth the Moabitess said, “He also told me, ‘Stay with my young men until they have finished all of my harvest.’ ”

<sup>22</sup> So Naomi said to her daughter-in-law Ruth, “My daughter, it is good for you to work <sup>E</sup> with his female servants, so that nothing will happen to you in another field.” <sup>23</sup> Ruth stayed close to Boaz’s female servants and gathered grain until the barley and the wheat harvests were finished. And she lived with her mother-in-law.

RUTH

Ruth's Appeal to Boaz

3 † Ruth's mother-in-law Naomi said to her, "My daughter, shouldn't I find security for you, so that you will be taken care of?" <sup>2</sup> Now isn't Boaz our relative? Haven't you been working with his female servants? This evening he will be winnowing barley on the threshing floor. <sup>3</sup> Wash, put on perfumed oil, and wear your best clothes. Go down to the threshing floor, but don't let the man know you are there until he has finished eating and drinking. <sup>4</sup> When he lies down, notice the place where he's lying, go in and uncover his feet, and lie down. Then he will explain to you what you should do."

<sup>5</sup> So Ruth said to her, "I will do everything you say." <sup>6</sup> She went down to the threshing floor and did everything her mother-in-law had instructed her. <sup>7</sup> After Boaz ate, drank, and was in good spirits, <sup>A</sup> he went to lie down at the end of the pile of barley. Then she went in secretly, uncovered his feet, and lay down.

<sup>8</sup> At midnight, Boaz was startled, turned over, and there lying at his feet was a woman! <sup>9†</sup> So he asked, "Who are you? "

"I am Ruth, your slave," she replied. "Spread your cloak <sup>B</sup> over me, for you are a •family redeemer."

<sup>10</sup> Then he said, "May the LORD bless you, my daughter. You have shown more kindness now than before, <sup>C</sup> because you have not pursued younger men, whether rich or poor. <sup>11</sup> Now don't be afraid, my daughter. I will do for you whatever you say, since all the people in my town <sup>D</sup> know that you are a woman of noble character. <sup>12</sup> Yes, it is true that I am a family redeemer, but there is a redeemer closer than I am. <sup>13†</sup> Stay here tonight, and in the morning, if he wants to redeem you, that's good. Let him redeem you. But if he doesn't want to redeem you, as the LORD lives, I will. Now lie down until morning."

<sup>14</sup> So she lay down at his feet until morning but got up while it was still dark. <sup>E</sup> Then Boaz said, "Don't let it be known that a woman came to the threshing floor." <sup>15</sup> And he told Ruth, "Bring the shawl you're wearing and hold it out.” When she held it out, he shoveled six measures of barley into her shawl, and she went into the town.

<sup>16</sup> She went to her mother-in-law, Naomi, who asked her, “How did it go, <sup>F</sup> my daughter? ”

Then Ruth told her everything the man had done for her. <sup>17</sup> She said, “He gave me these six measures of barley, because he said, ‘Don’t go back to your mother-in-law empty-handed.’ ”

<sup>18</sup> Naomi said, “My daughter, wait until you find out how things go, for he won’t rest unless he resolves this today.”

RUTH

Ruth and Boaz Marry

4 Boaz went to the •gate of the town and sat down there. Soon the •family redeemer Boaz had spoken about came by. Boaz called him by name and said, “Come <sup>A</sup> over here and sit down.” So he went over and sat down. <sup>2</sup> Then Boaz took 10 men of the town’s elders and said, “Sit here.” And they sat down. <sup>3</sup> He said to the redeemer, “Naomi, who has returned from the land of Moab, is selling a piece of land that belonged to our brother Elimelech. <sup>4</sup> I thought I should inform you: <sup>B</sup> Buy it back in the presence of those seated here and in the presence of the elders of my people. If you want to redeem it, do so. But if you do not want to redeem it, tell me so that I will know, because there isn’t anyone other than you to redeem it, and I am next after you.”

“I want to redeem it,” he answered.

<sup>5</sup> Then Boaz said, “On the day you buy the land from Naomi, you will also acquire Ruth the Moabitess, the wife of the deceased man, to perpetuate the man’s name on his property.”

<sup>6</sup> The redeemer replied, “I can’t redeem it myself, or I will ruin my own inheritance. Take my right of redemption, because I can’t redeem it.”

<sup>7</sup> At an earlier period in Israel, a man removed his sandal and gave it to the other party in order to make any matter legally binding concerning the right of redemption or the exchange of property. This was the method of legally binding a transaction in Israel.

<sup>8</sup> So the redeemer removed his sandal and said to Boaz, “Buy back the property yourself.”

<sup>9</sup> Boaz said to the elders and all the people, “You are witnesses today that I am buying from Naomi everything that belonged to Elimelech, Chilion, and Mahlon. <sup>10†</sup> I will also acquire Ruth the Moabitess, Mahlon’s widow, as my wife, to perpetuate the deceased man’s name on his property, so that his name will not disappear among his relatives or from the gate of his home. You are witnesses today.”

<sup>11</sup> The elders and all the people who were at the gate said, “We are witnesses. May the LORD make the woman who is entering your house like Rachel and Leah, who together built the house of Israel. May you be powerful in Ephrathah and famous in Bethlehem. <sup>12</sup> May your house become like the house of Perez, the son Tamar bore to Judah, because of the offspring the LORD will give you by this young woman.”

<sup>13†</sup> Boaz took Ruth and she became his wife. When he was intimate with her, the LORD enabled her to conceive, and she gave birth to a son. <sup>14</sup> Then the women said to Naomi, “Praise the LORD, who has not left you without a family redeemer today. May his name become well known in Israel. <sup>15</sup> He will renew your life and sustain you in your old age. Indeed, your daughter-in-law, who loves you and is better to you than seven sons, has given birth to him.” <sup>16</sup> Naomi took the child, placed him on her lap, and took care of him. <sup>17†</sup> The neighbor women said, “A son has been born to Naomi,” and they named him Obed. He was the father of Jesse, the father of David.

David’s Genealogy from Judah’s Son

Perez fathered Hezron.

who fathered Amminadab.

<sup>20</sup> Amminadab fathered Nahshon, who fathered Salmon.

<sup>21</sup> Salmon fathered Boaz, who fathered Obed.

<sup>22</sup> And Obed fathered Jesse, who fathered David.

1 SAMUEL

Hannah's Vow

1 †There was a man from Ramathaim-zophim in <sup>A</sup> the hill country of Ephraim. His name was Elkanah son of Jeroham, son of Elihu, son of Tohu, son of Zuph, an Ephraimite. <sup>2†</sup> He had two wives, the first named Hannah and the second Peninnah. Peninnah had children, but Hannah was childless. <sup>3</sup> This man would go up from his town every year to worship and to sacrifice to the LORD of •Hosts at Shiloh, where Eli's two sons, Hophni and Phinehas, were the LORD's priests.

<sup>7</sup> Whenever she went up to the LORD's house, her rival taunted her in this way every year. Hannah wept and would not eat. <sup>8</sup> "Hannah, why are you crying?" her husband Elkanah asked. "Why won't you eat? Why are you troubled? Am I not better to you than 10 sons?"

<sup>15</sup> "No, my lord," Hannah replied. "I am a woman with a broken heart. I haven't had any wine or beer; I've been pouring out my heart before the LORD. <sup>16</sup> Don't think of me as a wicked woman; I've been praying from the depth of my anguish and resentment."

<sup>17</sup> Eli responded, “Go in peace, and may the God of Israel grant the petition you’ve requested from Him.”

<sup>18</sup> “May your servant find favor with you,” she replied. Then Hannah went on her way; she ate and no longer looked despondent. <sup>F</sup>

Samuel’s Birth and Dedication

<sup>19</sup> The next morning Elkanah and Hannah got up early to bow in worship before the LORD. Afterward, they returned home to Ramah. Then Elkanah was intimate with his wife Hannah, and the LORD remembered her. <sup>20</sup> After some time, <sup>G</sup> Hannah conceived and gave birth to a son. She named him Samuel, because she said, “I requested him from the LORD.”

<sup>21</sup> When Elkanah and all his household went up to make the annual sacrifice and his vow offering to the LORD, <sup>22</sup> Hannah did not go and explained to her husband, “After the child is weaned, I’ll take him to appear in the LORD’s presence and to stay there permanently.”

<sup>23</sup> Her husband Elkanah replied, “Do what you think is best, <sup>H</sup>, and stay here until you’ve weaned him. May the LORD confirm your word.” So Hannah stayed there and nursed her son until she weaned him. <sup>24†</sup> When she had weaned him, she took him with her to Shiloh, as well as a three-year-old bull, half a bushel <sup>I</sup> of flour, and a jar of wine. Though the boy was still young, <sup>J</sup> she took him to the LORD’s house at Shiloh. <sup>25</sup> Then they slaughtered the bull and brought the boy to Eli.

<sup>26</sup> “Please, my lord,” she said, “as sure as you live, my lord, I am the woman who stood here beside you praying to the LORD. <sup>27</sup> I prayed for this boy, and since the LORD gave me what I asked Him for, <sup>28</sup> I now give the boy to the LORD. For as long as he lives, he is given to the LORD.” Then he bowed in worship to the LORD there.

1 SAMUEL

Hannah's Triumphant Prayer

2 † Hannah prayed:

My heart rejoices in the LORD;
my •horn is lifted up by the LORD.
My mouth boasts over my enemies, because I rejoice in Your salvation.

<sup>2</sup> There is no one holy like the LORD.
There is no one besides You!
And there is no rock like our God.

<sup>3</sup> Do not boast so proudly, or let arrogant words come out of your mouth,
for the LORD is a God of knowledge, and actions are weighed by Him.

<sup>4</sup> The bows of the warriors are broken, but the feeble are clothed with strength.

<sup>5</sup> Those who are full hire themselves out for food, but those who are starving hunger no more.
The woman who is childless gives birth to seven,
but the woman with many sons pines away.

<sup>6</sup> The LORD brings death and gives life;
He sends some to •Sheol, and He raises others up.

<sup>7</sup> The LORD brings poverty and gives wealth;
He humbles and He exalts.

<sup>8</sup> He raises the poor from the dust and lifts the needy from the garbage pile.
He seats them with noblemen and gives them a throne of honor.
For the foundations of the earth are the LORD's;
He has set the world on them.

<sup>9</sup> He guards the steps <sup>A</sup> of His faithful ones, but the wicked perish in darkness, for a man does not prevail by his own strength.

<sup>10</sup> Those who oppose the LORD will be shattered;
He will thunder in the heavens against them.
The LORD will judge the ends of the earth.
He will give power to His king;

He will lift up the horn of His anointed.

<sup>11</sup> Elkanah went home to Ramah, but the boy served the LORD in the presence of Eli the priest.

Eli's Family Judged

<sup>12</sup> Eli's sons were •wicked men; they had no regard for the LORD <sup>13</sup> or for the priests' share of the sacrifices from the people. When any man offered a sacrifice, the priest's servant would come with a three-pronged meat fork while the meat was boiling <sup>14</sup> and plunge it into the container or kettle or cauldron or cooking pot. The priest would claim for himself whatever the meat fork brought up. This is the way they treated all the Israelites who came there to Shiloh. <sup>15</sup> Even before the fat was burned, the priest's servant would come and say to the man who was sacrificing, "Give the priest some meat to roast, because he won't accept boiled meat from you — only raw." <sup>16</sup> If that man said to him, "The fat must be burned first; then you can take whatever you want for yourself," the servant would reply, "No, I insist that you hand it over right now. If you don't, I'll take it by force!" <sup>17</sup> So the servants' sin was very severe in the presence of the LORD, because they treated the LORD's offering with contempt.

<sup>21</sup> The LORD paid attention to Hannah's need, and she conceived and gave birth to three sons and two daughters. Meanwhile, the boy Samuel grew up in the presence of the LORD.

<sup>22</sup> Now Eli was very old. He heard about everything his sons were doing to all Israel and how they were sleeping with the women who served at the entrance to the tent of meeting. <sup>23†</sup> He said to them, "Why are you doing these things? I have heard about your evil actions from all these people.

<sup>24</sup> No, my sons, the report I hear from the LORD's people is not good. <sup>25†</sup> If a man sins against another man, God can intercede for him, but if a man sins against the LORD, who can intercede for him? ” But they would not listen to their father, since the LORD intended to kill them. <sup>26</sup> By contrast, the boy Samuel grew in stature and in favor with the LORD and with men.

<sup>27</sup> A man of God came to Eli and said to him, “This is what the LORD says: ‘Didn't I reveal Myself to your ancestral house when it was in Egypt and belonged to Pharaoh's palace? <sup>28</sup> Out of all the tribes of Israel, I selected your house <sup>B</sup> to be priests, to offer sacrifices on My altar, to burn incense, and to wear an •ephod in My presence. I also gave your house all the Israelite fire offerings. <sup>29</sup> Why, then, do all of you despise My sacrifices and offerings that I require at the place of worship? You have honored your sons more than Me, by making yourselves fat with the best part of all of the offerings of My people Israel.’

<sup>30</sup> “Therefore, this is the declaration of the LORD, the God of Israel:

‘Although I said your family and your ancestral house would walk before Me forever, the LORD now says, “No longer! ”
I will honor those who honor Me, but those who despise Me will be disgraced.

<sup>31</sup> “ ‘Look, the days are coming when I will cut off your strength and the strength of your ancestral family, so that none in your family will reach old age. <sup>32</sup> You will see distress in the place of worship, in spite of all that is good in Israel, and no one in your family will ever again reach old age.

<sup>33</sup> Any man from your family I do not cut off from My altar will bring grief <sup>C</sup> and sadness to you. All your descendants will die violently. <sup>34</sup> This will be the sign that will come to you concerning your two sons Hophni and Phinehas: both of them will die on the same day.

<sup>35</sup> “ ‘Then I will raise up a faithful priest for Myself. He will do whatever is in My heart and mind. I will establish a lasting dynasty for him, and he will walk before My anointed one for all time. <sup>36</sup> Anyone who is left in your family will come and bow down to him for a piece of silver or a loaf of bread. He will say: Please appoint me to some priestly office so I can have a piece of bread to eat.’ ”

1 SAMUEL

Samuel's Call

3 The boy Samuel served the LORD in Eli's presence. In those days the word of the LORD was rare and prophetic visions were not widespread.

<sup>3</sup> Before the lamp of God had gone out, Samuel was lying down in the tabernacle of the LORD, where the ark of God was located.

<sup>4</sup> Then the LORD called Samuel, and he answered, "Here I am." <sup>5</sup> He ran to Eli and said, "Here I am; you called me."

"I didn't call," Eli replied. "Go back and lie down." So he went and lay down.

<sup>6</sup> Once again the LORD called, "Samuel! "

Samuel got up, went to Eli, and said, "Here I am; you called me."

"I didn't call, my son," he replied. "Go back and lie down."

<sup>7</sup> Now Samuel had not yet experienced the LORD, because the word of the LORD had not yet been revealed to him. <sup>8</sup> Once again, for the third time, the LORD called Samuel. He got up, went to Eli, and said, "Here I am; you called me."

Then Eli understood that the LORD was calling the boy. <sup>9</sup> He told Samuel, "Go and lie down. If He calls you, say, 'Speak, LORD, for Your servant is listening.'" So Samuel went and lay down in his place.

<sup>10</sup> The LORD came, stood there, and called as before, "Samuel, Samuel! "

Samuel responded, "Speak, for Your servant is listening."

<sup>11</sup> The LORD said to Samuel, "I am about to do something in Israel that everyone who hears about it will shudder. <sup>12</sup> On that day I will carry out against Eli everything I said about his family, from beginning to end. <sup>13</sup> I told him that I am going to judge his family forever because of the iniquity he knows about: his sons are defiling the sanctuary, and he has not stopped them. <sup>14</sup> Therefore, I have sworn to Eli's family: The iniquity of Eli's family will never be wiped out by either sacrifice or offering."

<sup>15</sup> Samuel lay down until the morning; then he opened the doors of the LORD's house. He was afraid to tell Eli the vision, <sup>16</sup> but Eli called him and said, "Samuel, my son."

"Here I am," answered Samuel.

<sup>17</sup> "What was the message He gave you?" Eli asked. "Don't hide it from me. May God punish you and do so severely if you hide anything from me that He told you." <sup>18</sup> So Samuel told him everything and did not hide anything from him. Eli responded, "He is the LORD. He will do what He thinks is good." <sup>A</sup>

<sup>19</sup> Samuel grew, and the LORD was with him, and He fulfilled everything Samuel prophesied. <sup>B</sup>, <sup>20</sup> All Israel from Dan to Beer-sheba knew that Samuel was a confirmed prophet of the LORD. <sup>21†</sup> The LORD continued to appear in Shiloh, because there He revealed Himself to Samuel by His word.

1 SAMUEL

4† And Samuel's words came to all Israel.

The Ark Captured by the Philistines

Israel went out to meet the Philistines in battle and camped at Ebenezer while the Philistines camped at Aphek. <sup>2</sup> The Philistines lined up in battle formation against Israel, and as the battle intensified, Israel was defeated by the Philistines, who struck down about 4,000 men on the battlefield.

<sup>3†</sup> When the troops returned to the camp, the elders of Israel asked, “Why did the LORD let us be defeated today by the Philistines? Let's bring the ark of the LORD's covenant from Shiloh. Then it <sup>A</sup> will go with us and save us from the hand of our enemies.” <sup>4</sup> So the people sent men to Shiloh to bring back the ark of the covenant of the LORD of •Hosts, who dwells between the •cherubim. Eli's two sons, Hophni and Phinehas, were there with the ark of the covenant of God. <sup>5</sup> When the ark of the covenant of the LORD entered the camp, all the Israelites raised such a loud shout that the ground shook.

<sup>6</sup> The Philistines heard the sound of the war cry and asked, “What's this loud shout in the Hebrews' camp?” When the Philistines discovered that the ark of the LORD had entered the camp, <sup>7</sup> they panicked. “The gods have entered their camp!” they said. “Woe to us, nothing like this has happened before. <sup>B</sup> <sup>8†</sup> Woe to us, who will rescue us from the hand of these magnificent gods? These are the gods that slaughtered the Egyptians with all kinds of plagues in the wilderness. <sup>9</sup> Show some courage and be men, Philistines! Otherwise, you'll serve the Hebrews just as they served you. Now be men and fight!”

<sup>10</sup> So the Philistines fought, and Israel was defeated, and each man fled to his tent. The slaughter was severe — 30,000 of the Israelite foot soldiers fell. <sup>11</sup> The ark of God was captured, and Eli's two sons, Hophni and Phinehas, died.

Eli's Death and Ichabod's Birth

<sup>12</sup> That same day, a Benjaminite man ran from the battle and came to Shiloh. His clothes were torn, and there was dirt on his head. <sup>13</sup> When he arrived, there was Eli sitting on his chair beside the road watching, because he was anxious about the ark of God. When the man entered the city to give a report, the entire city cried out.

<sup>16</sup> The man said to Eli, “I’m the one who came from the battle. I fled from there today.”

“What happened, my son?” Eli asked.

<sup>17</sup> The messenger answered, “Israel has fled from the Philistines, and also there was a great slaughter among the people. Your two sons, Hophni and Phinehas, are both dead, and the ark of God has been captured.” <sup>18</sup> When he mentioned the ark of God, Eli fell backward off the chair by the city gate, and since he was old and heavy, his neck broke and he died. Eli had judged Israel 40 years.

<sup>19</sup> Eli’s daughter-in-law, the wife of Phinehas, was pregnant and about to give birth. When she heard the news about the capture of God’s ark and the deaths of her father-in-law and her husband, she collapsed and gave birth because her labor pains came on her. <sup>20</sup> As she was dying, the women taking care of her said, “Don’t be afraid. You’ve given birth to a son!” But she did not respond or pay attention. <sup>21</sup> She named the boy Ichabod, saying, “The glory has departed from Israel,” referring to the capture of the ark of God and to the deaths of her father-in-law and her husband. <sup>22</sup> “The glory has departed from Israel,” she said, “because the ark of God has been captured.”

1 SAMUEL

The Ark in Philistine Hands

5 After the Philistines had captured the ark of God, they took it from Ebenezer to Ashdod, <sup>2</sup> brought it into the temple of Dagon and placed it next to his statue. <sup>A 3</sup> When the people of Ashdod got up early the next morning, there was Dagon, fallen with his face to the ground before the ark of the LORD. So they took Dagon and returned him to his place. <sup>4</sup> But when they got up early the next morning, there was Dagon, fallen with his face to the ground before the ark of the LORD. This time, both Dagon's head and the palms of his hands were broken off and lying on the threshold. Only Dagon's torso remained. <sup>5</sup> That is why, to this day, the priests of Dagon and everyone who enters the temple of Dagon in Ashdod do not step on Dagon's threshold.

<sup>6†</sup> The LORD's hand was heavy on the people of Ashdod, terrorizing and afflicting the people of Ashdod and its territory with tumors. , <sup>7</sup> When the men of Ashdod saw what was happening, they said, "The ark of Israel's God must not stay here with us, because His hand is strongly against us and our god Dagon." <sup>8</sup> So they called all the Philistine rulers together and asked, "What should we do with the ark of Israel's God? "

"The ark of Israel's God should be moved to Gath," they replied. So the men of Ashdod moved the ark. <sup>9</sup> After they had moved it, the LORD's hand was against the city of Gath, causing a great panic. He afflicted the men of the city, from the youngest to the oldest, with an outbreak of tumors.

<sup>10</sup> The Gittites then sent the ark of God to Ekron, but when it got there, the Ekronites cried out, "They've moved the ark of Israel's God to us to kill us and our people! "

<sup>11</sup> The Ekronites called all the Philistine rulers together. They said, "Send the ark of Israel's God away. It must return to its place so it won't kill us and our people! " For the fear of death pervaded the city; God's hand was oppressing them. <sup>12</sup> The men who did not die were afflicted with tumors, and the outcry of the city went up to heaven.

1 SAMUEL

The Return of the Ark

6 When the ark of the LORD had been in the land of the Philistines for seven months,<sup>2</sup> the Philistines summoned the priests and the diviners and pleaded, “What should we do with the ark of the LORD? Tell us how we can send it back to its place.”

<sup>3</sup> They replied, “If you send the ark of Israel’s God away, you must not send it without an offering. You must send back a restitution offering to Him, and you will be healed. Then the reason His hand hasn’t been removed from you will be revealed.”

And they answered, “Five gold tumors and five gold mice corresponding to the number of Philistine rulers, since there was one plague for both you and your rulers.<sup>5</sup> Make images of your tumors and of your mice that are destroying the land. Give glory to Israel’s God, and perhaps He will stop oppressing you,<sup>A</sup> your gods, and your land.<sup>6†</sup> Why harden your hearts as the Egyptians and Pharaoh hardened theirs? When He afflicted them, didn’t they send Israel away, and Israel left?”

<sup>10</sup> The men did this: They took two milk cows, hitched them to the cart, and confined their calves in the pen.<sup>11</sup> Then they put the ark of the LORD on the cart, along with the box containing the gold mice and the images of their tumors.<sup>12</sup> The cows went straight up the road to Beth-shemesh. They stayed on that one highway, lowing as they went; they never strayed to the right or to the left. The Philistine rulers were walking behind them to the territory of Beth-shemesh.

<sup>13</sup> The people of Beth-shemesh were harvesting wheat in the valley, and when they looked up and saw the ark, they were overjoyed to see it. <sup>14</sup> The cart came to the field of Joshua of Beth-shemesh and stopped there near a large rock. The people of the city chopped up the cart and offered the cows as a •burnt offering to the LORD. <sup>15</sup> The Levites removed the ark of the LORD, along with the box containing the gold objects, and placed them on the large rock. That day the men of Beth-shemesh offered burnt offerings and made sacrifices to the LORD. <sup>16</sup> When the five Philistine rulers observed this, they returned to Ekron that same day.

<sup>17</sup> As a restitution offering to the LORD, the Philistines had sent back one gold tumor for each city: Ashdod, Gaza, Ashkelon, Gath, and Ekron.

<sup>18</sup> The number of gold mice also corresponded to the number of Philistine cities of the five rulers, the fortified cities and the outlying villages. The large rock on which the ark of the LORD was placed is in the field of Joshua of Beth-shemesh to this day.

<sup>19†</sup> God struck down the men of Beth-shemesh because they looked inside the ark of the LORD. He struck down 70 men out of 50,000 men. The people mourned because the LORD struck them with a great slaughter. <sup>20</sup> The men of Beth-shemesh asked, “Who is able to stand in the presence of this holy LORD God? Who should the ark go to from here? ”

<sup>21</sup> They sent messengers to the residents of Kiriath-jearim, saying, “The Philistines have returned the ark of the LORD. Come down and get it.” <sup>B</sup>

1 SAMUEL

7 So the men of Kiriath-jearim came for the ark of the LORD and took it to Abinadab's house on the hill. They consecrated his son Eleazar to take care of it.

Victory at Mizpah

<sup>2</sup> Time went by until 20 years had passed since the ark had been taken to Kiriath-jearim. Then the whole house of Israel began to seek the LORD.

<sup>3</sup> Samuel told them, "If you are returning to the LORD with all your heart, get rid of the foreign gods and the •Ashtoreths that are among you, dedicate yourselves to <sup>A</sup> the LORD, and worship only Him. Then He will rescue you from the hand of the Philistines." <sup>4</sup> So the Israelites removed the •Baals and the Ashtoreths and only worshiped the LORD.

<sup>5</sup> Samuel said, "Gather all Israel at Mizpah, and I will pray to the LORD on your behalf." <sup>6</sup> When they gathered at Mizpah, they drew water and poured it out in the LORD's presence. They fasted that day, and there they confessed, "We have sinned against the LORD." And Samuel judged the Israelites at Mizpah.

<sup>7</sup> When the Philistines heard that the Israelites had gathered at Mizpah, their rulers marched up toward Israel. When the Israelites heard about it, they were afraid because of the Philistines. <sup>8</sup> The Israelites said to Samuel, "Don't stop crying out to the LORD our God for us, so that He will save us from the hand of the Philistines."

<sup>9</sup> Then Samuel took a young lamb and offered it as a whole •burnt offering to the LORD. He cried out to the LORD on behalf of Israel, and the LORD answered him. <sup>10†</sup> Samuel was offering the burnt offering as the Philistines drew near to fight against Israel. The LORD thundered loudly against the Philistines that day and threw them into such confusion that they fled before Israel. <sup>11</sup> Then the men of Israel charged out of Mizpah and pursued the Philistines striking them down all the way to a place below Beth-car.

<sup>12†</sup> Afterward, Samuel took a stone and set it upright between Mizpah and Shen. He named it Ebenezer, explaining, “The LORD has helped us to this point.” <sup>13†</sup> So the Philistines were subdued and did not invade Israel’s territory again. The LORD’s hand was against the Philistines all of Samuel’s life. <sup>14</sup> The cities from Ekron to Gath, which they had taken from Israel, were restored; Israel even rescued their surrounding territories from Philistine control. There was also peace between Israel and the Amorites.

<sup>15†</sup> Samuel judged Israel throughout his life. <sup>16</sup> Every year he would go on a circuit to Bethel, Gilgal, and Mizpah and would judge Israel at all these locations. <sup>17</sup> Then he would return to Ramah because his home was there, he judged Israel there, and he built an altar to the LORD there.

1 SAMUEL

Israel's Demand for a King

8 When Samuel grew old, he appointed his sons as judges over Israel.
2† His firstborn son's name was Joel and his second was Abijah. They were judges in Beer-sheba. 3 However, his sons did not walk in his ways — they turned toward dishonest gain, took bribes, and perverted justice.

4 So all the elders of Israel gathered together and went to Samuel at Ramah. 5† They said to him, “Look, you are old, and your sons do not follow your example. Therefore, appoint a king to judge us the same as all the other nations have.”

6 When they said, “Give us a king to judge us,” Samuel considered their demand sinful, so he prayed to the LORD. 7 But the LORD told him, “Listen to the people and everything they say to you. They have not rejected you; they have rejected Me as their king. 8 They are doing the same thing to you that they have done to Me, since the day I brought them out of Egypt until this day, abandoning Me and worshiping other gods. 9 Listen to them, but you must solemnly warn them and tell them about the rights of the king who will rule over them.”

10 Samuel told all the LORD's words to the people who were asking him for a king. 11 He said, “These are the rights of the king who will rule over you: He will take your sons and put them to his use in his chariots, on his horses, or running in front of his chariots. 12 He can appoint them for his use as commanders of thousands or commanders of fifties, to plow his ground or reap his harvest, or to make his weapons of war or the equipment for his chariots. 13 He can take your daughters to become perfumers, cooks, and bakers. 14 He can take your best fields, vineyards, and olive orchards and give them to his servants. 15 He can take a tenth of your grain and your vineyards and give them to his officials and servants. 16 He can take your male servants, your female servants, your best young men, and your donkeys and use them for his work. 17 He can take a tenth of your flocks, and you yourselves can become his servants. 18 When that day comes, you will cry out because of the king you've chosen for yourselves, but the LORD won't answer you on that day.”

<sup>19</sup> The people refused to listen to Samuel. “No! ” they said. “We must have a king over us. <sup>20</sup> Then we’ll be like all the other nations: our king will judge us, go out before us, and fight our battles.”

Then Samuel told the men of Israel, “Each of you, go back to your city.”

1 SAMUEL

Saul Anointed King

9 † There was an influential man of Benjamin named Kish son of Abiel, son of Zeror, son of Becorath, son of Aphiah, son of a Benjaminite. <sup>2</sup> He had a son named Saul, an impressive young man. There was no one more impressive among the Israelites than he. He stood a head taller than anyone else. <sup>A</sup>

<sup>3</sup> One day the donkeys of Saul's father Kish wandered off. Kish said to his son Saul, "Take one of the attendants with you and go look for the donkeys." <sup>4</sup> Saul and his attendant went through the hill country of Ephraim and then through the region of Shalishah, but they didn't find them. They went through the region of Shaalim — nothing. Then they went through the Benjaminite region but still didn't find them.

<sup>5</sup> When they came to the land of Zuph, Saul said to the attendant who was with him, "Come on, let's go back, or my father will stop worrying about the donkeys and start worrying about us."

<sup>6</sup> "Look," the attendant said, "there's a man of God in this city who is highly respected; everything he says is sure to come true. Let's go there now. Maybe he'll tell us which way we should go."

<sup>7</sup> "Suppose we do go," Saul said to his attendant, "what do we take the man? The food from our packs is gone, and there's no gift to take to the man of God. What do we have? "

<sup>8</sup> The attendant answered Saul: "Here, I have a piece <sup>B</sup> of silver. I'll give it to the man of God, and he will tell us our way."

<sup>9</sup> Formerly in Israel, a man who was going to inquire of God would say, "Come, let's go to the seer," for the prophet of today was formerly called the seer.

<sup>10</sup> "Good," Saul replied to his attendant. "Come on, let's go." So they went to the city where the man of God was. <sup>11</sup> As they were climbing the hill to the city, they found some young women coming out to draw water and asked, "Is the seer here? "

<sup>12</sup> The women answered, “Yes, he is ahead of you. Hurry, he just now came to the city, because there’s a sacrifice for the people at the •high place today. <sup>13</sup> If you go quickly, you can catch up with him before he goes to the high place to eat. The people won’t eat until he comes because he must bless the sacrifice; after that, the guests can eat. Go up immediately — you can find him now.” <sup>14</sup> So they went up toward the city.

Saul and his attendant were entering the city when they saw Samuel coming toward them on his way to the high place. <sup>15†</sup> Now the day before Saul’s arrival, the LORD had informed Samuel, <sup>C</sup>, <sup>16</sup> “At this time tomorrow I will send you a man from the land of Benjamin. Anoint him ruler over My people Israel. He will save them from the hand of the Philistines because I have seen the affliction of My people, for their cry has come to Me.” <sup>17†</sup> When Samuel saw Saul, the LORD told him, “Here is the man I told you about; he will rule over My people.”

<sup>18</sup> Saul approached Samuel in the gate area and asked, “Would you please tell me where the seer’s house is? ”

<sup>19</sup> “I am the seer,” Samuel answered. <sup>D</sup> “Go up ahead of me to the high place and eat with me today. When I send you off in the morning, I’ll tell you everything that’s in your heart. <sup>20</sup> As for the donkeys that wandered away from you three days ago, don’t worry about them because they’ve been found. And who does all Israel desire but you and all your father’s family? ”

<sup>21</sup> Saul responded, “Am I not a Benjaminite from the smallest of Israel’s tribes and isn’t my clan the least important of all the clans of the Benjaminite tribe? So why have you said something like this to me? ”

<sup>22</sup> Samuel took Saul and his attendant, brought them to the banquet hall, and gave them a place at the head of the 30 or so men who had been invited. <sup>23</sup> Then Samuel said to the cook, “Get the portion of meat that I gave you and told you to set aside.”

<sup>24</sup> The cook picked up the thigh and what was attached to it and set it before Saul. Then Samuel said, “Notice that the reserved piece is set before you. Eat it because it was saved for you for this solemn event at the time I said, ‘I’ve invited the people.’” So Saul ate with Samuel that day.

<sup>25</sup> Afterward, they went down from the high place to the city, and Samuel spoke with Saul on the roof.

<sup>26</sup> They got up early, and just before dawn, Samuel called to Saul on the roof, “Get up, and I’ll send you on your way!” Saul got up, and both he and Samuel went outside. <sup>27</sup> As they were going down to the edge of the city, Samuel said to Saul, “Tell the attendant to go on ahead of us, but you stay for a while, and I’ll reveal the word of God to you.” So the attendant went on.

1 SAMUEL

10 Samuel took the flask of oil, poured it out on Saul's head, kissed him, and said, "Hasn't the LORD anointed you ruler over His inheritance? <sup>2</sup> Today when you leave me, you'll find two men at Rachel's Grave at Zelzah in the land of Benjamin. They will say to you, 'The donkeys you went looking for have been found, and now your father has stopped being concerned about the donkeys and is worried about you, asking: What should I do about my son?'

<sup>3</sup> "You will proceed from there until you come to the oak of Tabor. Three men going up to God at Bethel will meet you there, one bringing three goats, one bringing three loaves of bread, and one bringing a skin of wine. <sup>4</sup> They will ask how you are and give you two loaves of bread, which you will accept from them.

<sup>5†</sup> "After that you will come to the Hill of God <sup>A</sup>, where there are Philistine garrisons. <sup>B</sup> When you arrive at the city, you will meet a group of prophets coming down from the •high place prophesying. They will be preceded by harps, tambourines, flutes, and lyres. <sup>6</sup> The Spirit of the LORD will control you, you will prophesy with them, and you will be transformed into a different person. <sup>7</sup> When these signs have happened to you, do whatever your circumstances require <sup>C</sup> because God is with you. <sup>8†</sup> Afterward, go ahead of me to Gilgal. I will come to you to offer •burnt offerings and to sacrifice •fellowship offerings. Wait seven days until I come to you and show you what to do."

<sup>9</sup> When Saul turned around <sup>D</sup> to leave Samuel, God changed his heart, <sup>E</sup> and all the signs came about that day. <sup>10</sup> When Saul and his attendant arrived at Gibeah, a group of prophets met him. Then the Spirit of God took control of him, and he prophesied along with them.

<sup>11†</sup> Everyone who knew him previously and saw him prophesy with the prophets asked each other, "What has happened to the son of Kish? Is Saul also among the prophets? "

<sup>12</sup> Then a man who was from there asked, "And who is their father? "

As a result, “Is Saul also among the prophets?” became a popular saying.
<sup>13</sup> Then Saul finished prophesying and went to the high place.

“To look for the donkeys,” Saul answered. “When we saw they weren’t there, we went to Samuel.”

<sup>15</sup> “Tell me,” Saul’s uncle asked, “what did Samuel say to you?”

<sup>16</sup> Saul told him, “He assured us the donkeys had been found.” However, Saul did not tell him what Samuel had said about the matter of kingship.

Saul Received as King

<sup>17†</sup> Samuel summoned the people to the LORD at Mizpah <sup>18</sup> and said to the Israelites, “This is what the LORD, the God of Israel, says: ‘I brought Israel out of Egypt, and I rescued you from the power of the Egyptians and all the kingdoms that were oppressing you.’ <sup>19†</sup> But today you have rejected your God, who saves you from all your troubles and afflictions. You said to Him, ‘You must set a king over us.’ Now therefore present yourselves before the LORD by your tribes and clans.”

<sup>20</sup> Samuel had all the tribes of Israel come forward, and the tribe of Benjamin was selected. <sup>21</sup> Then he had the tribe of Benjamin come forward by its clans, and the Matrite clan was selected. Finally, Saul son of Kish was selected. But when they searched for him, they could not find him.

<sup>22</sup> They again inquired of the LORD, “Has the man come here yet?”

The LORD replied, “There he is, hidden among the supplies.”

<sup>23</sup> They ran and got him from there. When he stood among the people, he stood a head taller than anyone else. <sup>F</sup> <sup>24</sup> Samuel said to all the people, “Do you see the one the LORD has chosen? There is no one like him among the entire population.”

And all the people shouted, “Long live the king!”

<sup>25†</sup> Samuel proclaimed to the people the rights of kingship. He wrote them on a scroll, which he placed in the presence of the LORD. Then Samuel sent all the people away, each to his home.

<sup>26</sup> Saul also went to his home in Gibeah, and brave men whose hearts God had touched went with him. <sup>27†</sup> But some •wicked men said, “How can this guy save us?” They despised him and did not bring him a gift, but Saul said nothing.

1 SAMUEL

Saul's Deliverance of Jabesh-gilead

11 Nahash the Ammonite came up and laid siege to Jabesh-gilead. All the men of Jabesh said to him, “Make a treaty with us, and we will serve you.”

<sup>2</sup> Nahash the Ammonite replied, “I’ll make one with you on this condition: that I gouge out everyone’s right eye and humiliate all Israel.”

<sup>3</sup> “Don’t do anything to us for seven days,” the elders of Jabesh said to him, “and let us send messengers throughout the territory of Israel. If no one saves us, we will surrender to you.”

<sup>4</sup> When the messengers came to Gibeah, Saul’s hometown, and told the terms to <sup>A</sup> the people, all wept aloud. <sup>5</sup> Just then Saul was coming in from the field behind his oxen. “What’s the matter with the people? Why are they weeping?” Saul inquired, and they repeated to him the words of the men from Jabesh.

<sup>6</sup> When Saul heard these words, the Spirit of God suddenly took control of him, and his anger burned furiously. <sup>7</sup> He took a team of oxen, cut them in pieces, and sent them throughout the land of Israel by messengers who said, “This is what will be done to the ox of anyone who doesn’t march behind Saul and Samuel.” As a result, the terror of the LORD fell on the people, and they went out united.

<sup>8†</sup> Saul counted them at Bezek. There were 300,000 Israelites and 30,000 men from Judah. <sup>9</sup> He told the messengers who had come, “Tell this to the men of Jabesh-gilead: ‘Deliverance will be yours tomorrow by the time the sun is hot.’” So the messengers told the men of Jabesh, and they rejoiced.

<sup>10</sup> Then the men of Jabesh said to Nahash, “Tomorrow we will come out, and you can do whatever you want <sup>B</sup> to us.”

<sup>11</sup> The next day Saul organized the troops into three divisions. During the morning watch, they invaded the Ammonite camp and slaughtered them until the heat of the day. There were survivors, but they were so scattered that no two of them were left together.

Saul's Confirmation as King

<sup>12</sup> Afterward, the people said to Samuel, "Who said that Saul should not reign over us? Give us those men so we can kill them! "

<sup>13</sup> But Saul ordered, "No one will be executed this day, for today the LORD has provided deliverance in Israel."

<sup>14†</sup> Then Samuel said to the people, "Come, let's go to Gilgal, so we can renew the kingship there." <sup>15</sup> So all the people went to Gilgal, and there in the LORD's presence they made Saul king. There they sacrificed •fellowship offerings in the LORD's presence, and Saul and all the men of Israel greatly rejoiced.

1 SAMUEL

Samuel's Final Public Speech

12 Then Samuel said to all Israel, “I have carefully listened to everything you said to me and placed a king over you. <sup>2†</sup> Now you can see that the king is leading you. As for me, I’m old and gray, and my sons are here with you. I have led you from my youth until today. <sup>3</sup> Here I am. Bring charges against me before the LORD and His anointed: Whose ox or donkey have I taken? Whom have I wronged or mistreated? From whose hand have I taken a bribe to overlook something? , I will return it to you.”

<sup>4</sup> “You haven’t wronged us, you haven’t mistreated us, and you haven’t taken anything from anyone’s hand,” they responded.

<sup>5</sup> He said to them, “The LORD is a witness against you, and His anointed is a witness today that you haven’t found anything in my hand.”

“He is a witness,” they said.

<sup>6</sup> Then Samuel said to the people, “The LORD, who appointed Moses and Aaron and who brought your ancestors up from the land of Egypt, is a witness. <sup>7</sup> Now present yourselves, so I may confront you before the LORD about all the righteous acts He has done for you and your ancestors.

<sup>8</sup> “When Jacob went to Egypt, your ancestors cried out to the LORD, and He sent them Moses and Aaron, who led your ancestors out of Egypt and settled them in this place. <sup>9</sup> But they forgot the LORD their God, so He handed them over to Sisera commander of the army of Hazor, to the Philistines, and to the king of Moab. These enemies fought against them. <sup>10</sup> Then they cried out to the LORD and said, ‘We have sinned, for we abandoned the LORD and worshiped the •Baals and the •Ashtoreths. Now deliver us from the power of our enemies, and we will serve You.’ <sup>11†</sup> So the LORD sent Jerubbaal, Barak, Jephthah, and Samuel. He rescued you from the power of the enemies around you, and you lived securely. <sup>12</sup> But when you saw that Nahash king of the Ammonites was coming against you, you said to me, ‘No, we must have a king rule over us’ — even though the LORD your God is your king.

<sup>13</sup> “Now here is the king you’ve chosen, the one you requested. Look, this is the king the LORD has placed over you. <sup>14</sup> If you •fear the LORD, worship and obey Him, and if you don’t rebel against the LORD’s command, then both you and the king who rules over you will follow the LORD your God. <sup>15</sup> However, if you disobey the LORD and rebel against His command, the LORD’s hand will be against you and against your ancestors.

<sup>16</sup> “Now, therefore, present yourselves and see this great thing that the LORD will do before your eyes. <sup>17†</sup> Isn’t the wheat harvest today? I will call on the LORD and He will send thunder and rain, so that you will know and see what a great evil you committed in the LORD’s sight by requesting a king for yourselves.” <sup>18</sup> Samuel called on the LORD, and on that day the LORD sent thunder and rain. As a result, all the people greatly feared the LORD and Samuel.

<sup>19</sup> They pleaded with Samuel, “Pray to the LORD your God for your servants, so we won’t die! For we have added to all our sins the evil of requesting a king for ourselves.”

<sup>20</sup> Samuel replied, “Don’t be afraid. Even though you have committed all this evil, don’t turn away from following the LORD. Instead, worship the LORD with all your heart. <sup>21</sup> Don’t turn away to follow worthless things that can’t profit or deliver you; they are worthless. <sup>22</sup> The LORD will not abandon His people, because of His great name and because He has determined to make you His own people.

<sup>23</sup> “As for me, I vow that I will not sin against the LORD by ceasing to pray for you. I will teach you the good and right way. <sup>24</sup> Above all, fear the LORD and worship Him faithfully with all your heart; consider the great things He has done for you. <sup>25</sup> However, if you continue to do what is evil, both you and your king will be swept away.”

1 SAMUEL

Saul's Failure

13 † Saul was 30 years old when he became king, and he reigned 42 years over Israel. <sup>2</sup> He chose 3,000 men from Israel for himself: 2,000 were with Saul at Michmash and in Bethel's hill country, and 1,000 were with Jonathan in Gibeah of Benjamin. He sent the rest of the troops away, each to his own tent.

<sup>3</sup> Jonathan attacked the Philistine garrison <sup>A</sup>, that was in Geba, and the Philistines heard about it. So Saul blew the ram's horn throughout the land saying, "Let the Hebrews hear!" <sup>4</sup> And all Israel heard the news, "Saul has attacked the Philistine garrison, <sup>B</sup> and Israel is now repulsive to the Philistines." Then the troops were summoned to join Saul at Gilgal.

<sup>5†</sup> The Philistines also gathered to fight against Israel: 3,000 chariots, 6,000 horsemen, and troops as numerous as the sand on the seashore. They went up and camped at Michmash, east of Beth-aven.

<sup>6</sup> The men of Israel saw that they were in trouble because the troops were in a difficult situation. They hid in caves, thickets, among rocks, and in holes and cisterns. <sup>7</sup> Some Hebrews even crossed the Jordan to the land of Gad and Gilead.

Saul, however, was still at Gilgal, and all his troops were gripped with fear. <sup>8†</sup> He waited seven days for the appointed time that Samuel had set, but Samuel didn't come to Gilgal, and the troops were deserting him. <sup>9</sup> So Saul said, "Bring me the •burnt offering and the •fellowship offerings." Then he offered the burnt offering.

<sup>10</sup> Just as he finished offering the burnt offering, Samuel arrived. So Saul went out to greet him, <sup>11</sup> and Samuel asked, "What have you done?"

Saul answered, "When I saw that the troops were deserting me and you didn't come within the appointed days and the Philistines were gathering at Michmash, <sup>12</sup> I thought: The Philistines will now descend on me at Gilgal, and I haven't sought the LORD's favor. So I forced myself to offer the burnt offering."

<sup>13†</sup> Samuel said to Saul, “You have been foolish. You have not kept the command which the LORD your God gave you. It was at this time that the LORD would have permanently established your reign over Israel, <sup>14</sup> but now your reign will not endure. The LORD has found a man loyal to Him, <sup>C</sup> and the LORD has appointed him as ruler over His people, because you have not done what the LORD commanded.” <sup>15</sup> Then Samuel went from Gilgal to Gibeah in Benjamin. Saul registered the troops who were with him, about 600 men.

<sup>16</sup> Saul, his son Jonathan, and the troops who were with them were staying in Geba of Benjamin, and the Philistines were camped at Michmash. <sup>17</sup> Raiding parties went out from the Philistine camp in three divisions. One division headed toward the Ophrah road leading to the land of Shual. <sup>18</sup> The next division headed toward the Beth-horon road, and the last division headed down the border road that looks out over the Valley of Zeboim toward the wilderness.

<sup>19</sup> No blacksmith could be found in all the land of Israel, because the Philistines had said, “Otherwise, the Hebrews will make swords or spears.” <sup>20</sup> So all the Israelites went to the Philistines to sharpen their plows, mattocks, axes, and sickles. <sup>21</sup> The price was two-thirds of a •shekel <sup>D</sup> for plows and mattocks, and one-third of a shekel for pitchforks and axes, and for putting a point on an oxgoad. <sup>22</sup> So on the day of battle not a sword or spear could be found in the hand of any of the troops who were with Saul and Jonathan; only Saul and his son Jonathan had weapons.

Jonathan’s Victory over the Philistines

1 SAMUEL

14 That same day Saul's son Jonathan said to the attendant who carried his weapons, "Come on, let's cross over to the Philistine garrison on the other side." However, he did not tell his father.

<sup>2</sup> Saul was staying under the pomegranate tree in Migron on the outskirts of Gibeah. The troops with him numbered about 600. <sup>3†</sup> Ahijah, who was wearing an •ephod, was also there. He was the son of Ahitub, the brother of Ichabod son of Phinehas, son of Eli the LORD's priest at Shiloh. But the troops did not know that Jonathan had left.

<sup>8</sup> "All right," Jonathan replied, "we'll cross over to the men and then let them see us. <sup>9</sup> If they say, 'Wait until we reach you,' then we will stay where we are and not go up to them. <sup>10</sup> But if they say, 'Come on up,' then we'll go up, because the LORD has handed them over to us — that will be our sign."

<sup>11</sup> They let themselves be seen by the Philistine garrison, and the Philistines said, "Look, the Hebrews are coming out of the holes where they've been hiding!" <sup>12</sup> The men of the garrison called to Jonathan and his armor-bearer. "Come on up, and we'll teach you a lesson!" they said.

"Follow me," Jonathan told his armor-bearer, "for the LORD has handed them over to Israel." <sup>13</sup> Jonathan climbed up using his hands and feet, with his armor-bearer behind him. Jonathan cut them down, and his armor-bearer followed and finished them off. <sup>14</sup> In that first assault Jonathan and his armor-bearer struck down about 20 men in a half-acre field.

A Defeat for the Philistines

<sup>15†</sup> Terror spread through the Philistine camp and the open fields to all the troops. Even the garrison and the raiding parties were terrified. The earth shook, and terror spread from God. <sup>B</sup> <sup>16</sup> When Saul's watchmen in Gibeah of Benjamin looked, they saw the panicking troops scattering in every direction. <sup>17</sup> So Saul said to the troops with him, "Call the roll and determine who has left us." They called the roll and saw that Jonathan and his armor-bearer were gone.

<sup>18</sup> Saul told Ahijah, "Bring the ark of God," for it was with the Israelites at that time. <sup>19</sup> While Saul spoke to the priest, the panic in the Philistine camp increased in intensity. So Saul said to the priest, "Stop what you're doing." <sup>C</sup>

<sup>20</sup> Saul and all the troops with him assembled and marched to the battle, and there, the Philistines were fighting against each other in great confusion! <sup>21</sup> There were Hebrews from the area who had gone earlier into the camp to join the Philistines, but even they joined the Israelites who were with Saul and Jonathan. <sup>22</sup> When all the Israelite men who had been hiding in the hill country of Ephraim heard that the Philistines were fleeing, they also joined Saul and Jonathan in the battle. <sup>23</sup> So the LORD saved Israel that day.

Saul's Rash Oath

The battle extended beyond Beth-aven, <sup>24</sup> and the men of Israel were worn out that day, for Saul had placed the troops under an oath: "The man who eats food before evening, before I have taken vengeance on my enemies is cursed." So none of the troops tasted any food.

<sup>25</sup> Everyone <sup>D</sup> went into the forest, and there was honey on the ground. <sup>26</sup> When the troops entered the forest, they saw the flow of honey, but none of them ate any of it <sup>E</sup> because they feared the oath. <sup>27</sup> However, Jonathan had not heard his father make the troops swear the oath. He reached out with the end of the staff he was carrying and dipped it into the honeycomb. When he ate the honey, <sup>F</sup> he had renewed energy. <sup>28</sup> Then, one of the troops said, “Your father made the troops solemnly swear, ‘The man who eats food today is cursed,’ and the troops are exhausted.”

Saul said, “You have been unfaithful. Roll a large stone over here at once.” <sup>34</sup> He then said, “Go among the troops and say to them, ‘Each man must bring me his ox or his sheep. Do the slaughtering here and then you can eat. Don’t sin against the LORD by eating meat with the blood in it.’ ” So every one of the troops brought his ox that night and slaughtered it there. <sup>35</sup> Then Saul built an altar to the LORD; it was the first time he had built an altar to the LORD.

<sup>36</sup> Saul said, “Let’s go down after the Philistines tonight and plunder them until morning. Don’t let even one remain! ”

“Do whatever you want,” <sup>G</sup> the troops replied.

But the priest said, “We must consult God here.”

<sup>37</sup> So Saul inquired of God, “Should I go after the Philistines? Will You hand them over to Israel? ” But God did not answer him that day.

<sup>38</sup> Saul said, “All you leaders of the troops, come here. Let us investigate how this sin has occurred today. <sup>39</sup> As surely as the LORD lives who saves Israel, even if it is because of my son Jonathan, he must die! ” Not one of the troops answered him.

<sup>40</sup> So he said to all Israel, “You will be on one side, and I and my son Jonathan will be on the other side.”

And the troops replied, “Do whatever you want.” <sup>H</sup>

<sup>41</sup> So Saul said to the LORD, “God of Israel, give us the right decision.” Jonathan and Saul were selected, and the troops were cleared of the charge.

<sup>42</sup> Then Saul said, “Cast the lot between me and my son Jonathan,” and Jonathan was selected. <sup>43</sup> Saul commanded him, “Tell me what you did.”

Jonathan told him, “I tasted a little honey with the end of the staff I was carrying. I am ready to die! ”

<sup>44</sup> Saul declared to him, “May God punish me and do so severely if you do not die, Jonathan! ”

<sup>45</sup> But the people said to Saul, “Must Jonathan die, who accomplished such a great deliverance for Israel? No, as the LORD lives, not a hair of his head will fall to the ground, for he worked with God’s help today.” So the people redeemed Jonathan, and he did not die. <sup>46</sup> Then Saul gave up the pursuit of the Philistines, and the Philistines returned to their own territory.

Summary of Saul’s Kingship

<sup>47</sup> When Saul assumed the kingship over Israel, he fought against all his enemies in every direction: against Moab, the Ammonites, Edom, the kings of Zobah, and the Philistines. Wherever he turned, he caused havoc. <sup>48</sup> He fought bravely, defeated the Amalekites, and delivered Israel from the hand of those who plundered them.

<sup>49†</sup> Saul's sons were Jonathan, Ishvi, and Malchishua. The names of his two daughters were: Merab, his firstborn, and Michal, the younger. <sup>50</sup> The name of Saul's wife was Ahinoam daughter of Ahimaaz. The name of the commander of his army was Abner son of Saul's uncle Ner. <sup>51†</sup> Saul's father was Kish. Abner's father was Ner son of Abiel.

<sup>52</sup> The conflict with the Philistines was fierce all of Saul's days, so whenever Saul noticed any strong or brave man, he enlisted him.

1 SAMUEL

Saul Rejected as King

15 Samuel told Saul, “The LORD sent me to anoint you as king over His people Israel. Now, listen to the words of the LORD. <sup>2</sup> This is what the LORD of •Hosts says: ‘I witnessed what the Amalekites did to the Israelites when they opposed them along the way as they were coming out of Egypt. <sup>3†</sup> Now go and attack the Amalekites and •completely destroy everything they have. Do not spare them. Kill men and women, children and infants, oxen and sheep, camels and donkeys.’ ”

<sup>4</sup> Then Saul summoned the troops and counted them at Telaim: 200,000 foot soldiers and 10,000 men from Judah. <sup>5</sup> Saul came to the city of Amalek and set up an ambush in the •wadi. <sup>6</sup> He warned the Kenites, “Since you showed kindness to all the Israelites when they came out of Egypt, go on and leave! Get away from the Amalekites, or I’ll sweep you away with them.” So the Kenites withdrew from the Amalekites.

<sup>7†</sup> Then Saul struck down the Amalekites from Havilah all the way to Shur, which is next to Egypt. <sup>8†</sup> He captured Agag king of Amalek alive, but he completely destroyed all the rest of the people with the sword. <sup>9</sup> Saul and the troops spared Agag, and the best of the sheep, cattle, and choice animals, <sup>A</sup> as well as the young rams and the best of everything else. They were not willing to destroy them, but they did destroy all the worthless and unwanted things.

<sup>10</sup> Then the word of the LORD came to Samuel, <sup>11†</sup> “I regret that I made Saul king, for he has turned away from following Me and has not carried out My instructions.” So Samuel became angry and cried out to the LORD all night.

<sup>12</sup> Early in the morning Samuel got up to confront Saul, but it was reported to Samuel, “Saul went to Carmel where he set up a monument for himself. Then he turned around and went down to Gilgal.” <sup>13</sup> When Samuel came to him, Saul said, “May the LORD bless you. I have carried out the LORD’s instructions.”

<sup>15</sup> Saul answered, “The troops brought them from the Amalekites and spared the best sheep and cattle in order to offer a sacrifice to the LORD your God, but the rest we destroyed.”

<sup>16</sup> “Stop!” exclaimed Samuel. “Let me tell you what the LORD said to me last night.”

“Tell me,” he replied.

<sup>17</sup> Samuel continued, “Although you once considered yourself unimportant, have you not become the leader of the tribes of Israel? The LORD anointed you king over Israel <sup>18†</sup> and then sent you on a mission and said: ‘Go and completely destroy the sinful Amalekites. Fight against them until you have annihilated them.’ <sup>19</sup> So why didn’t you obey the LORD? Why did you rush on the plunder and do what was evil in the LORD’s sight?”

<sup>20</sup> “But I did obey the LORD!” Saul answered. <sup>C</sup> “I went on the mission the LORD gave me: I brought back Agag, king of Amalek, and I completely destroyed the Amalekites. <sup>21</sup> The troops took sheep and cattle from the plunder — the best of what was •set apart for destruction — to sacrifice to the LORD your God at Gilgal.”

<sup>22†</sup> Then Samuel said:

Does the LORD take pleasure in •burnt offerings and sacrifices as much as in obeying the LORD?

Look: to obey is better than sacrifice, to pay attention is better than the fat of rams.

<sup>23</sup> For rebellion is like the sin of •divination, and defiance is like wickedness and idolatry.
Because you have rejected the word of the LORD,
He has rejected you as king.

<sup>24</sup> Saul answered Samuel, “I have sinned. I have transgressed the LORD’s command and your words. Because I was afraid of the people, I obeyed them. <sup>25</sup> Now therefore, please forgive my sin and return with me so I can worship the LORD.”

<sup>26</sup> Samuel replied to Saul, “I will not return with you. Because you rejected the word of the LORD, the LORD has rejected you from being king over Israel.” <sup>27</sup> When Samuel turned to go, Saul grabbed the hem of his robe, and it tore. <sup>28</sup> Samuel said to him, “The LORD has torn the kingship of Israel away from you today and has given it to your neighbor who is better than you. <sup>29†</sup> Furthermore, the Eternal One of Israel does not lie or change His mind, for He is not man who changes his mind.”

<sup>30</sup> Saul said, “I have sinned. Please honor me now before the elders of my people and before Israel. Come back with me so I can bow in worship to the LORD your God.” <sup>31</sup> Then Samuel went back, following Saul, and Saul bowed down to the LORD.

Agag came to him trembling, <sup>D</sup> for he thought, “Certainly the bitterness of death has come.”

As your sword has made women childless, so your mother will be childless among women.

Then he hacked Agag to pieces before the LORD at Gilgal.

<sup>34</sup> Samuel went to Ramah, and Saul went up to his home in Gibeah of Saul. <sup>35†</sup> Even to the day of his death, Samuel never again visited Saul. Samuel mourned for Saul, and the LORD regretted He had made Saul king over Israel.

1 SAMUEL

Samuel Anoints David

16 The LORD said to Samuel, “How long are you going to mourn for Saul, since I have rejected him as king over Israel? Fill your horn with oil and go. I am sending you to Jesse of Bethlehem because I have selected a king from his sons.”

<sup>2†</sup> Samuel asked, “How can I go? Saul will hear about it and kill me! ”

The LORD answered, “Take a young cow with you and say, ‘I have come to sacrifice to the LORD.’ <sup>3</sup> Then invite Jesse to the sacrifice, and I will let you know what you are to do. You are to anoint for Me the one I indicate to you.”

<sup>4</sup> Samuel did what the LORD directed and went to Bethlehem. When the elders of the town met him, they trembled <sup>A</sup> and asked, “Do you come in peace? ”

<sup>5</sup> “In peace,” he replied. “I’ve come to sacrifice to the LORD. Consecrate yourselves and come with me to the sacrifice.” Then he consecrated Jesse and his sons and invited them to the sacrifice. <sup>6†</sup> When they arrived, Samuel saw Eliab and said, “Certainly the LORD’s anointed one is here before Him.”

<sup>7</sup> But the LORD said to Samuel, “Do not look at his appearance or his stature, because I have rejected him. Man does not see what the LORD sees, for man sees what is visible, <sup>B</sup> but the LORD sees the heart.”

<sup>8</sup> Jesse called Abinadab and presented him to Samuel. “The LORD hasn’t chosen this one either,” Samuel said. <sup>9</sup> Then Jesse presented Shammah, but Samuel said, “The LORD hasn’t chosen this one either.” <sup>10</sup> After Jesse presented seven of his sons to him, Samuel told Jesse, “The LORD hasn’t chosen any of these.” <sup>11</sup> Samuel asked him, “Are these all the sons you have? ”

“There is still the youngest,” he answered, “but right now he’s tending the sheep.” Samuel told Jesse, “Send for him. We won’t sit down to eat until he gets here.”<sup>12</sup> So Jesse sent for him. He had beautiful eyes and a healthy, <sup>C</sup> handsome appearance.

Then the LORD said, “Anoint him, for he is the one.”<sup>13</sup> So Samuel took the horn of oil, anointed him in the presence of his brothers, and the Spirit of the LORD took control of David from that day forward. Then Samuel set out and went to Ramah.

David in Saul’s Court

<sup>14†</sup> Now the Spirit of the LORD had left Saul, and an evil spirit sent from the LORD began to torment him,<sup>15</sup> so Saul’s servants said to him, “You see that an evil spirit from God is tormenting you.”<sup>16</sup> Let our lord command your servants here in your presence to look for someone who knows how to play the lyre. Whenever the evil spirit from God troubles you, that person can play the lyre, and you will feel better.”

<sup>17</sup> Then Saul commanded his servants, “Find me someone who plays well and bring him to me.”

<sup>18</sup> One of the young men answered, “I have seen a son of Jesse of Bethlehem who knows how to play the lyre. He is also a valiant man, a warrior, eloquent, handsome, and the LORD is with him.”

<sup>19</sup> Then Saul dispatched messengers to Jesse and said, “Send me your son David, who is with the sheep.”<sup>20</sup> So Jesse took a donkey loaded with bread, a skin of wine, and one young goat and sent them by his son David to Saul.<sup>21†</sup> When David came to Saul and entered his service, Saul admired him greatly, and David became his armor-bearer.<sup>22</sup> Then Saul sent word to

Jesse: “Let David remain in my service, for I am pleased with him.”

<sup>23†</sup> Whenever the spirit from God troubled Saul, David would pick up his lyre and play, and Saul would then be relieved, feel better, and the evil spirit would leave him.

1 SAMUEL

David versus Goliath

17 The Philistines gathered their forces for war at Socoh in Judah and camped between Socoh and Azekah in Ephes-dammim. <sup>2</sup> Saul and the men of Israel gathered and camped in the Valley of Elah; then they lined up in battle formation to face the Philistines.

<sup>8</sup> He stood and shouted to the Israelite battle formations: "Why do you come out to line up in battle formation?" He asked them, "Am I not a Philistine and are you not servants of Saul? Choose one of your men and have him come down against me. <sup>9</sup> If he wins in a fight against me and kills me, we will be your servants. But if I win against him and kill him, then you will be our servants and serve us." <sup>10</sup> Then the Philistine said, "I defy the ranks of Israel today. Send me a man so we can fight each other!"

<sup>11</sup> When Saul and all Israel heard these words from the Philistine, they lost their courage and were terrified.

<sup>12†</sup> Now David was the son of the Ephrathite from Bethlehem of Judah named Jesse. Jesse had eight sons and during Saul's reign was already an old man. <sup>13</sup> Jesse's three oldest sons had followed Saul to the war, and their names were Eliab, the firstborn, Abinadab, the next, and Shammah, the third, <sup>14</sup> and David was the youngest. The three oldest had followed Saul, <sup>15</sup> but David kept going back and forth from Saul to tend his father's flock in Bethlehem.

brothers and hurry to their camp. <sup>18</sup> Also take these 10 portions of cheese to the field commander. <sup>F</sup> Check on the welfare of your brothers and bring a confirmation from them. <sup>19</sup> They are with Saul and all the men of Israel in the Valley of Elah fighting with the Philistines.”

<sup>20</sup> So David got up early in the morning, left the flock with someone to keep it, loaded up, and set out as Jesse had instructed him.

He arrived at the perimeter of the camp as the army was marching out to its battle formation shouting their battle cry. <sup>21</sup> Israel and the Philistines lined up in battle formation facing each other. <sup>22</sup> David left his supplies in the care of the quartermaster and ran to the battle line. When he arrived, he asked his brothers how they were. <sup>23</sup> While he was speaking with them, suddenly the champion named Goliath, the Philistine from Gath, came forward from the Philistine battle line and shouted his usual words, which David heard. <sup>24</sup> When all the Israelite men saw Goliath, they retreated from him terrified.

<sup>25</sup> Previously, an Israelite man had declared: “Do you see this man who keeps coming out? He comes to defy Israel. The king will make the man who kills him very rich and will give him his daughter. The king will also make the household of that man’s father exempt from paying taxes in Israel.”

<sup>26</sup> David spoke to the men who were standing with him: “What will be done for the man who kills that Philistine and removes this disgrace from Israel? Just who is this uncircumcised Philistine that he should defy the armies of the living God? ”

<sup>27</sup> The people told him about the offer, concluding, “That is what will be done for the man who kills him.”

<sup>28</sup> David’s oldest brother Eliab listened as he spoke to the men, and became angry with him. “Why did you come down here? ” he asked. “Who did you leave those few sheep with in the wilderness? I know your arrogance and your evil heart — you came down to see the battle! ”

<sup>30</sup> Then he turned from those beside him to others in front of him and asked about the offer. The people gave him the same answer as before.

<sup>31</sup> What David said was overheard and reported to Saul, so he had David brought to him. <sup>32</sup> David said to Saul, “Don’t let anyone be discouraged by <sup>G</sup> him; your servant will go and fight this Philistine!”

<sup>34</sup> David answered Saul: “Your servant has been tending his father’s sheep. Whenever a lion or a bear came and carried off a lamb from the flock, <sup>35</sup> I went after it, struck it down, and rescued the lamb from its mouth. If it reared up against me, I would grab it by its fur, strike it down, and kill it. <sup>36</sup> Your servant has killed lions and bears; this uncircumcised Philistine will be like one of them, for he has defied the armies of the living God.” <sup>37</sup> Then David said, “The LORD who rescued me from the paw of the lion and the paw of the bear will rescue me from the hand of this Philistine.”

Saul said to David, “Go, and may the LORD be with you.”

<sup>38</sup> Then Saul had his own military clothes put on David. He put a bronze helmet on David’s head and had him put on armor. <sup>39</sup> David strapped his sword on over the military clothes and tried to walk, but he was not used to them. “I can’t walk in these,” David said to Saul, “I’m not used to them.” So David took them off. <sup>40</sup> Instead, he took his staff in his hand and chose five smooth stones from the •wadi and put them in the pouch, in his shepherd’s bag. Then, with his sling in his hand, he approached the Philistine.

<sup>41</sup> The Philistine came closer and closer to David, with the shield-bearer in front of him. <sup>42</sup> When the Philistine looked and saw David, he despised him because he was just a youth, healthy <sup>H</sup> and handsome. <sup>43</sup> He said to David, “Am I a dog that you come against me with sticks?” Then he cursed David by his gods. <sup>44</sup> “Come here,” the Philistine called to David, “and I’ll give your flesh to the birds of the sky and the wild beasts!”

<sup>45</sup> David said to the Philistine: “You come against me with a dagger, spear, and sword, but I come against you in the name of •Yahweh of •Hosts, the God of Israel’s armies — you have defied Him. <sup>46</sup> Today, the LORD will hand you over to me. Today, I’ll strike you down, cut your head off, and give the corpses of the Philistine camp to the birds of the sky and the creatures of the earth. Then all the world will know that Israel has a God, <sup>47</sup> and this whole assembly will know that it is not by sword or by spear that the LORD saves, for the battle is the LORD’s. He will hand you over to us.”

<sup>48</sup> When the Philistine started forward to attack him, David ran quickly to the battle line to meet the Philistine. <sup>49</sup> David put his hand in the bag, took out a stone, slung it, and hit the Philistine on his forehead. The stone sank into his forehead, and he fell on his face to the ground. <sup>50†</sup> David defeated the Philistine with a sling and a stone. Even though David had no sword, he struck down the Philistine and killed him. <sup>51</sup> David ran and stood over him. He grabbed the Philistine’s sword, pulled it from its sheath, and used it to kill him. Then he cut off his head. When the Philistines saw that their hero was dead, they ran. <sup>52</sup> The men of Israel and Judah rallied, shouting their battle cry, and chased the Philistines to the entrance of the valley and to the gates of Ekron. Philistine bodies were strewn all along the Shaaraim road to Gath and Ekron.

“My king, as surely as you live, I don’t know,” Abner replied.

<sup>57</sup> When David returned from killing the Philistine, Abner took him and brought him before Saul with the Philistine’s head still in his hand. <sup>58</sup> Saul said to him, “Whose son are you, young man? ”

“The son of your servant Jesse of Bethlehem,” David answered.

1 SAMUEL

David's Success

18 † When David had finished speaking with Saul, Jonathan committed himself to David, and loved him as much as he loved himself. <sup>2</sup> Saul kept David with him from that day on and did not let him return to his father's house.

<sup>3</sup> Jonathan made a covenant with David because he loved him as much as himself. <sup>4</sup> Then Jonathan removed the robe he was wearing and gave it to David, along with his military tunic, his sword, his bow, and his belt.

<sup>5</sup> David marched out with the army and was successful in everything Saul sent him to do. Saul put him in command of the soldiers, which pleased all the people and Saul's servants as well.

<sup>6</sup> As the troops were coming back, when David was returning from killing the Philistine, the women came out from all the cities of Israel to meet King Saul, singing and dancing with tambourines, with shouts of joy, and with three-stringed instruments. <sup>7</sup> As they celebrated, the women sang:

Saul has killed his thousands,
but David his tens of thousands.

<sup>8</sup> Saul was furious and resented this song. <sup>A</sup> "They credited tens of thousands to David," he complained, "but they only credited me with thousands. What more can he have but the kingdom?" <sup>9</sup> So Saul watched David jealously from that day forward.

Saul Attempts to Kill David

<sup>10</sup>† The next day an evil spirit sent from God took control of Saul, and he began to rave <sup>B</sup> inside the palace. David was playing the lyre as usual, but Saul was holding a spear, <sup>11</sup> and he threw it, thinking, "I'll pin David to the wall." But David got away from him twice.

all his activities because the LORD was with him. <sup>15</sup> When Saul observed that David was very successful, he dreaded him. <sup>16</sup> But all Israel and Judah loved David because he was leading their troops. <sup>17</sup> Saul told David, “Here is my oldest daughter Merab. I’ll give her to you as a wife, if you will be a warrior for me and fight the LORD’s battles.” But Saul was thinking, “My hand doesn’t need to be against him; let the hand of the Philistines be against him.”

<sup>18</sup> Then David responded, “Who am I, and what is my family or my father’s clan in Israel that I should become the king’s son-in-law? ”

<sup>19†</sup> When it was time to give Saul’s daughter Merab to David, she was given to Adriel the Meholathite as a wife.

David’s Marriage to Michal

<sup>20</sup> Now Saul’s daughter Michal loved David, and when it was reported to Saul, it pleased him. <sup>C 21</sup> “I’ll give her to him,” Saul thought. “She’ll be a trap for him, and the hand of the Philistines will be against him.” So Saul said to David a second time, “You can now be my son-in-law.”

<sup>22</sup> Saul then ordered his servants, “Speak to David in private and tell him, ‘Look, the king is pleased with you, and all his servants love you. Therefore, you should become the king’s son-in-law.’ ”

<sup>23</sup> Saul’s servants reported these words directly to David, <sup>D</sup> but he replied, “Is it trivial in your sight to become the king’s son-in-law? I am a poor man who is common.”

<sup>26</sup> When the servants reported these terms to David, he was pleased <sup>E</sup> to become the king's son-in-law. Before the wedding day arrived, <sup>F 27†</sup> David and his men went out and killed 200 Philistines. He brought their foreskins and presented them as full payment to the king to become his son-in-law. Then Saul gave his daughter Michal to David as his wife. <sup>28</sup> Saul realized that the LORD was with David and that his daughter Michal loved him, <sup>29</sup> and he became even more afraid of David. As a result, Saul was David's enemy from then on.

<sup>30</sup> Every time the Philistine commanders came out to fight, David was more successful than all of Saul's officers. So his name became well known.

1 SAMUEL

David Delivered from Saul

19† Saul ordered his son Jonathan and all his servants to kill David. But Saul's son Jonathan liked David very much, <sup>2</sup> so he told him: "My father Saul intends to kill you. Be on your guard in the morning and hide in a secret place and stay there. <sup>3</sup> I'll go out and stand beside my father in the field where you are and talk to him about you. When I see what he says, I'll tell you."

<sup>4</sup> Jonathan spoke well of David to his father Saul. He said to him: "The king should not sin against his servant David. He hasn't sinned against you; in fact, his actions have been a great advantage to you. <sup>5</sup> He took his life in his hands when he struck down the Philistine, and the LORD brought about a great victory for all Israel. You saw it and rejoiced, so why would you sin against innocent blood by killing David for no reason? "

<sup>6</sup> Saul listened to Jonathan's advice and swore an oath: "As surely as the LORD lives, David will not be killed." <sup>7</sup> So Jonathan summoned David and told him all these words. Then Jonathan brought David to Saul, and he served him as he did before.

<sup>8</sup> When war broke out again, David went out and fought against the Philistines. He defeated them with such a great force that they fled from him.

<sup>9†</sup> Now an evil spirit sent from the LORD came on Saul as he was sitting in his palace holding a spear. David was playing the lyre, <sup>10</sup> and Saul tried to pin David to the wall with the spear. As the spear struck the wall, David eluded Saul, ran away, and escaped that night. <sup>11</sup> Saul sent agents to David's house to watch for him and kill him in the morning. But his wife Michal warned David, "If you don't escape tonight, you will be dead tomorrow! "

<sup>12</sup> So she lowered David from the window, and he fled and escaped.

<sup>13†</sup> Then Michal took the household idol and put it on the bed, placed some goat hair on its head, and covered it with a garment. <sup>14</sup> When Saul sent agents to seize David, Michal said, "He's sick."

<sup>15</sup> Saul sent the agents back to see David and said, “Bring him on his bed so I can kill him.” <sup>16</sup> When the messengers arrived, to their surprise, the household idol was on the bed with some goat hair on its head.

<sup>17</sup> Saul asked Michal, “Why did you deceive me like this? You sent my enemy away, and he has escaped! ”

She answered him, “He said to me, ‘Let me go! Why should I kill you? ’ ”

<sup>18</sup> So David fled and escaped and went to Samuel at Ramah and told him everything Saul had done to him. Then he and Samuel left and stayed at Naioth.

<sup>19†</sup> When it was reported to Saul that David was at Naioth in Ramah, <sup>20</sup> he sent agents to seize David. However, when they saw the group of prophets prophesying with Samuel leading them, the Spirit of God came on Saul’s agents, and they also started prophesying. <sup>21</sup> When they reported to Saul, he sent other agents, and they also began prophesying. So Saul tried again and sent a third group of agents, and even they began prophesying. <sup>22</sup> Then Saul himself went to Ramah. He came to the large cistern at Secu, looked around, and asked, “Where are Samuel and David? ”

“At Naioth in Ramah,” someone said.

<sup>23†</sup> So he went to Naioth in Ramah. The Spirit of God also came on him, and as he walked along, he prophesied until he entered Naioth in Ramah. <sup>24†</sup> Saul then removed his clothes and also prophesied before Samuel; he collapsed and lay naked all that day and all that night. That is why they say, “Is Saul also among the prophets? ”

1 SAMUEL

Jonathan Protects David

20 David fled from Naioth in Ramah and came to Jonathan and asked, “What have I done? What did I do wrong? How have I sinned against your father so that he wants to take my life? ”

<sup>2</sup> Jonathan said to him, “No, you won’t die. Listen, my father doesn’t do anything, great or small, without telling me. <sup>A</sup> So why would he hide this matter from me? This can’t be true.”

<sup>3</sup> But David said, “Your father certainly knows that you have come to look favorably on me. He has said, ‘Jonathan must not know of this, or else he will be grieved.’ ” David also swore, “As surely as the LORD lives and as you yourself live, there is but a step between me and death.”

<sup>4</sup> Jonathan said to David, “Whatever you say, I will do for you.”

<sup>5</sup> So David told him, “Look, tomorrow is the New Moon, and I’m supposed to sit down and eat with the king. Instead, let me go, and I’ll hide in the field until the third night. <sup>6†</sup> If your father misses me at all, say, ‘David urgently requested my permission to quickly go to his town Bethlehem for an annual sacrifice there involving the whole clan.’ <sup>7</sup> If he says, ‘Good,’ then your servant is safe, but if he becomes angry, you will know he has evil intentions. <sup>8</sup> Deal faithfully with your servant, for you have brought me into a covenant with you before the LORD. If I have done anything wrong, then kill me yourself; why take me to your father? ”

<sup>9</sup> “No! ” Jonathan responded. “If I ever find out my father has evil intentions against you, wouldn’t I tell you about it? ”

<sup>10</sup> So David asked Jonathan, “Who will tell me if your father answers you harshly? ”

<sup>11</sup> He answered David, “Come on, let’s go out to the field.” So both of them went out to the field. <sup>12</sup> “By the LORD, the God of Israel, I will sound out my father by this time tomorrow or the next day. If I find out that he is favorable toward you, will I not send for you and tell you? <sup>B</sup> <sup>13</sup> If my father intends to bring evil on you, may God punish Jonathan and do so severely if I do not tell you <sup>C</sup> and send you away so you may go in peace. May the LORD be with you, just as He was with my father. <sup>14</sup> If I continue to live, treat me with the LORD's faithful love, but if I die, <sup>15</sup> don't ever withdraw your faithful love from my household — not even when the LORD cuts off every one of David's enemies from the face of the earth." <sup>16</sup> Then Jonathan made a covenant with the house of David, saying, "May the LORD hold David's enemies accountable." <sup>D</sup>, <sup>17†</sup> Jonathan once again swore to David in his love for him, because he loved him as he loved himself.

<sup>18</sup> Then Jonathan said to him, "Tomorrow is the New Moon; you'll be missed because your seat will be empty. <sup>19</sup> The following day hurry down and go to the place where you hid on the day this incident began and stay beside the rock Ezel. <sup>20</sup> I will shoot three arrows beside it as if I'm aiming at a target. <sup>21</sup> Then I will send the young man and say, 'Go and find the arrows!' Now, if I expressly say to the young man, 'Look, the arrows are on this side of you — get them,' then come, because as the LORD lives, it is safe for you and there is no problem. <sup>22</sup> But if I say this to the youth: 'Look, the arrows are beyond you!' then go, for the LORD is sending you away. <sup>23</sup> As for the matter you and I have spoken about, the LORD will be a witness between you and me forever." <sup>24</sup> So David hid in the field.

At the New Moon, the king sat down to eat the meal. <sup>25</sup> He sat at his usual place on the seat by the wall. Jonathan sat facing him and Abner took his place beside Saul, but David's place was empty. <sup>26</sup> Saul did not say anything that day because he thought, "Something unexpected has happened; he must be ceremonially •unclean — yes, that's it, he is unclean."

<sup>27</sup> However, the day after the New Moon, the second day, David's place was still empty, and Saul asked his son Jonathan, "Why didn't Jesse's son come to the meal either yesterday or today? "

<sup>28†</sup> Jonathan answered, "David asked for my permission to go to Bethlehem. <sup>29</sup> He said, 'Please let me go because our clan is holding a sacrifice in the town, and my brother has told me to be there. So now, if you are pleased with me, let me go so I can see my brothers.’ That’s why he didn’t come to the king’s table.”

<sup>30</sup> Then Saul became angry with Jonathan and shouted, “You son of a perverse and rebellious woman! Don’t I know that you are siding with Jesse’s son to your own shame and to the disgrace of your mother? <sup>E</sup>

<sup>31</sup> Every day Jesse’s son lives on earth you and your kingship are not secure. Now send for him and bring him to me — he deserves to die.”

<sup>32</sup> Jonathan answered his father back: “Why is he to be killed? What has he done? ”

<sup>33</sup> Then Saul threw his spear at Jonathan to kill him, so he knew that his father was determined to kill David. <sup>34</sup> He got up from the table in fierce anger and did not eat any food that second day of the New Moon, for he was grieved because of his father’s shameful behavior toward David.

<sup>35</sup> In the morning Jonathan went out to the field for the appointed meeting with David. A small young man was with him. <sup>36</sup> He said to the young man, “Run and find the arrows I’m shooting.” As the young man ran, Jonathan shot an arrow beyond him. <sup>37</sup> He came to the location of the arrow that Jonathan had shot, but Jonathan called to him and said, “The arrow is beyond you, isn’t it? ” <sup>38</sup> Then Jonathan called to him, “Hurry up and don’t stop! ” Jonathan’s young man picked up the arrow and returned to his master. <sup>39</sup> He did not know anything; only Jonathan and David knew the arrangement. <sup>40</sup> Then Jonathan gave his equipment to the young man who was with him and said, “Go, take it back to the city.”

<sup>41</sup> When the young man had gone, David got up from the south side of the stone Ezel, fell with his face to the ground, and bowed three times. Then he and Jonathan kissed each other and wept with each other, though David wept more.

<sup>42</sup> Jonathan then said to David, “Go in the assurance the two of us pledged in the name of the LORD when we said: The LORD will be a witness between you and me and between my offspring and your offspring forever.” Then David left, and Jonathan went into the city.

1 SAMUEL

David Flees to Nob

21 †David went to Ahimelech the priest at Nob. Ahimelech was afraid to meet David, so he said to him, “Why are you alone and no one is with you?”

2† David answered Ahimelech the priest, “The king gave me a mission, but he told me, ‘Don’t let anyone know anything about the mission I’m sending you on or what I have ordered you to do.’ I have stationed my young men at a certain place. 3 Now what do you have on hand? Give me five loaves of bread or whatever can be found.”

4 The priest told him, “There is no ordinary bread on hand. However, there is consecrated bread, but the young men may eat it only if they have kept themselves from women.”

5 David answered him, “I swear that women are being kept from us, as always when I go out to battle. The young men’s bodies <sup>A</sup> are consecrated even on an ordinary mission, so of course their bodies are consecrated today.” 6 So the priest gave him the consecrated bread, for there was no bread there except the •bread of the Presence that had been removed from the presence of the LORD. When the bread was removed, it had been replaced with warm bread.

7 One of Saul’s servants, detained before the LORD, was there that day. His name was Doeg the Edomite, chief of Saul’s shepherds.

8 David said to Ahimelech, “Do you have a spear or sword on hand? I didn’t even bring my sword or my weapons since the king’s mission was urgent.”

9 The priest replied, “The sword of Goliath the Philistine, whom you killed in the Valley of Elah, is here, wrapped in a cloth behind the •ephod. If you want to take it for yourself, then take it, for there isn’t another one here.”

“There’s none like it!” David said. “Give it to me.”

David Flees to Gath

<sup>10</sup> David fled that day from Saul's presence and went to King Achish of Gath. <sup>11</sup> But Achish's servants said to him, "Isn't this David, the king of the land? Don't they sing about him during their dances:

Saul has killed his thousands,
but David his tens of thousands? "

<sup>14</sup> "Look! You can see the man is crazy," Achish said to his servants. "Why did you bring him to me? <sup>15</sup> Do I have such a shortage of crazy people that you brought this one to act crazy around me? Is this one going to come into my house? "

1 SAMUEL

Saul's Increasing Paranoia

22 So David left Gath and took refuge in the cave of Adullam. When David's brothers and his father's whole family heard, they went down and joined him there.<sup>2</sup> In addition, every man who was desperate, in debt, or discontented rallied around him, and he became their leader. About 400 men were with him.

<sup>3</sup> From there David went to Mizpeh of Moab where he said to the king of Moab, "Please let my father and mother stay with you until I know what God will do for me."<sup>4</sup> So he left them in the care of the king of Moab, and they stayed with him the whole time David was in the stronghold.

<sup>5</sup> Then the prophet Gad said to David, "Don't stay in the stronghold. Leave and return to the land of Judah." So David left and went to the forest of Hereth.

<sup>6</sup> Saul heard that David and his men had been discovered. At that time Saul was in Gibeah, sitting under the tamarisk tree at the •high place. His spear was in his hand, and all his servants were standing around him.<sup>7</sup> Saul said to his servants, "Listen, men of Benjamin: Is Jesse's son going to give all of you fields and vineyards? Do you think he'll make all of you commanders of thousands and commanders of hundreds?"<sup>8</sup> That's why all of you have conspired against me! Nobody tells me<sup>A</sup> when my own son makes a covenant with Jesse's son. None of you cares about me or tells me<sup>B</sup> that my son has stirred up my own servant to wait in ambush for me, as is the case today."

<sup>9</sup> Then Doeg the Edomite, who was in charge of Saul's servants, answered: "I saw Jesse's son come to Ahimelech son of Ahitub at Nob.

<sup>10</sup> Ahimelech inquired of the LORD for him and gave him provisions. He also gave him the sword of Goliath the Philistine."

Slaughter of the Priests

<sup>11</sup> The king sent messengers to summon Ahimelech the priest, son of Ahitub, and his father's whole family, who were priests in Nob. All of them came to the king.<sup>12</sup> Then Saul said, "Listen, son of Ahitub! "

“I’m at your service, my lord,” he said.

<sup>13</sup> Saul asked him, “Why did you and Jesse’s son conspire against me? You gave him bread and a sword and inquired of God for him, so he could rise up against me and wait in ambush, as is the case today.”

<sup>14</sup> Ahimelech replied to the king: “Who among all your servants is as faithful as David? He is the king’s son-in-law, captain of your bodyguard, and honored in your house. <sup>15</sup> Was today the first time I inquired of God for him? Of course not! Please don’t let the king make an accusation against your servant or any of my father’s household, for your servant didn’t have any idea <sup>C</sup> about all this.”

<sup>16</sup> But the king said, “You will die, Ahimelech — you and your father’s whole family! ”

<sup>17</sup> Then the king ordered the guards standing by him, “Turn and kill the priests of the LORD because they sided with David. For they knew he was fleeing, but they didn’t tell me.” <sup>D</sup> But the king’s servants would not lift a hand to execute the priests of the LORD.

<sup>18†</sup> So the king said to Doeg, “Go and execute the priests! ” So Doeg the Edomite went and executed the priests himself. On that day, he killed 85 men who wore linen •ephods. <sup>19</sup> He also struck down Nob, the city of the priests, with the sword — both men and women, children and infants, oxen, donkeys, and sheep.

<sup>20†</sup> However, one of the sons of Ahimelech son of Ahitub escaped. His name was Abiathar, and he fled to David. <sup>21</sup> Abiathar told David that Saul had killed the priests of the LORD. <sup>22</sup> Then David said to Abiathar, “I knew that Doeg the Edomite was there that day and that he was sure to report to Saul. I myself am responsible for the lives of everyone in your father’s family. <sup>23</sup> Stay with me. Don’t be afraid, for the one who wants to take my life wants to take your life. You will be safe with me.”

1 SAMUEL

Deliverance at Keilah

23 †It was reported to David: “Look, the Philistines are fighting against Keilah and raiding the threshing floors.”

The LORD answered David, “Launch an attack against the Philistines and rescue Keilah.”

<sup>3</sup> But David’s men said to him, “Look, we’re afraid here in Judah; how much more if we go to Keilah against the Philistine forces! ”

<sup>4</sup> Once again, David inquired of the LORD, and the LORD answered him: “Go at once to Keilah, for I will hand the Philistines over to you.” <sup>5</sup> Then David and his men went to Keilah, fought against the Philistines, drove their livestock away, and inflicted heavy losses on them. So David rescued the inhabitants of Keilah. <sup>6</sup> Abiathar son of Ahimelech fled to David at Keilah, and he brought an •ephod with him.

<sup>7</sup> When it was reported to Saul that David had gone to Keilah, he said, “God has handed him over to me, for he has trapped himself by entering a town with barred gates.” <sup>8</sup> Then Saul summoned all the troops to go to war at Keilah and besiege David and his men.

<sup>9</sup> When David learned that Saul was plotting evil against him, he said to Abiathar the priest, “Bring the ephod.”

<sup>10</sup> Then David said, “LORD God of Israel, Your servant has heard that Saul intends to come to Keilah and destroy the town because of me. <sup>11</sup> Will the citizens of Keilah hand me over to him? Will Saul come down as Your servant has heard? LORD God of Israel, please tell Your servant.”

The LORD answered, “He will come down.”

<sup>12</sup> Then David asked, “Will the citizens of Keilah hand me and my men over to Saul? ”

“They will,” the LORD responded.

<sup>13†</sup> So David and his men, numbering about 600, left Keilah at once and moved from place to place. When it was reported to Saul that David had escaped from Keilah, he called off the expedition. <sup>14</sup> David then stayed in the wilderness strongholds and in the hill country of the Wilderness of Ziph. Saul searched for him every day, but God did not hand David over to him.

A Renewed Covenant

<sup>15</sup> David was in the Wilderness of Ziph in Horesh when he saw that Saul had come out to take his life. <sup>16</sup> Then Saul’s son Jonathan came to David in Horesh and encouraged him in his faith in God, <sup>17</sup> saying, “Don’t be afraid, for my father Saul will never lay a hand on you. You yourself will be king over Israel, and I’ll be your second-in-command. Even my father Saul knows it is true.” <sup>18</sup> Then the two of them made a covenant in the LORD’s presence. Afterward, David remained in Horesh, while Jonathan went home.

David’s Narrow Escape

<sup>19</sup> Some Ziphites came up to Saul at Gibeah and said, “David is <sup>A</sup> hiding among us in the strongholds in Horesh on the hill of Hachilah south of Jeshimon. <sup>20</sup> Now, whenever the king wants to come down, let him come down. Our part will be to hand him over to the king.”

<sup>21</sup> “May you be blessed by the LORD,” replied Saul, “for you have taken pity on me. <sup>22</sup> Go and check again. Investigate and watch carefully where he goes <sup>B</sup> and who has seen him there; they tell me he is extremely cunning. <sup>23</sup> Look and find out all the places where he hides. Then come back to me with accurate information, and I’ll go with you. If it turns out he really is in the region, I’ll search for him among all the clans <sup>C</sup> of Judah.” <sup>24</sup> So they went to Ziph ahead of Saul.

Now David and his men were in the wilderness near Maon in the •Arabah south of Jeshimon,<sup>25</sup> and Saul and his men went to look for him. When David was told about it, he went down to the rock and stayed in the Wilderness of Maon. Saul heard of this and pursued David there.

<sup>26</sup> Saul went along one side of the mountain and David and his men went along the other side. Even though David was hurrying to get away from Saul, Saul and his men were closing in on David and his men to capture them. <sup>27</sup> Then a messenger came to Saul saying, “Come quickly, because the Philistines have raided the land!” <sup>28</sup> So Saul broke off his pursuit of David and went to engage the Philistines. Therefore, that place was named the Rock of Separation. <sup>29</sup> From there David went up and stayed in the strongholds of En-gedi.

1 SAMUEL

David Spares Saul

24 When Saul returned from pursuing the Philistines, he was told, “David is in the wilderness near En-gedi.”<sup>2</sup> So Saul took 3,000 of Israel’s choice men and went to look for David and his men in front of the Rocks of the Wild Goats.<sup>3</sup> When Saul came to the sheep pens along the road, a cave was there, and he went in to relieve himself.<sup>A</sup> David and his men were staying in the back of the cave,<sup>4</sup> so they said to him, “Look, this is the day the LORD told you about: ‘I will hand your enemy over to you so you can do to him whatever you desire.’” Then David got up and secretly cut off the corner of Saul’s robe.

<sup>5†</sup> Afterward, David’s conscience bothered<sup>B</sup> him because he had cut off the corner of Saul’s robe.<sup>6</sup> He said to his men, “I swear before the LORD: I would never do such a thing to my lord, the LORD’s anointed. I will never lift my hand against him, since he is the LORD’s anointed.”<sup>7</sup> With these words David persuaded<sup>C</sup> his men, and he did not let them rise up against Saul.

Then Saul left the cave and went on his way.<sup>8</sup> After that, David got up, went out of the cave, and called to Saul, “My lord the king!” When Saul looked behind him, David bowed to the ground in homage.<sup>9</sup> David said to Saul, “Why do you listen to the words of people who say, ‘Look, David intends to harm you’?”<sup>10</sup> You can see with your own eyes that the LORD handed you over to me today in the cave. Someone advised me to kill you, but I took pity on you and said: I won’t lift my hand against my lord, since he is the LORD’s anointed.<sup>11</sup> See, my father! Look at the corner of your robe in my hand, for I cut it off, but I didn’t kill you. Look and recognize that there is no evil or rebellion in me. I haven’t sinned against you even though you are hunting me down to take my life.

<sup>12</sup> “May the LORD judge between you and me, and may the LORD take vengeance on you for me, but my hand will never be against you.<sup>13</sup> As the old proverb says, ‘Wickedness comes from wicked people.’ My hand will never be against you.<sup>14</sup> Who has the king of Israel come after? What are you chasing after? A dead dog? A flea?<sup>15</sup> May the LORD be judge and decide between you and me. May He take notice and plead my case and deliver <sup>E</sup> me from you.”

<sup>16</sup> When David finished saying these things to him, Saul replied, “Is that your voice, David my son?” Then Saul wept aloud <sup>17</sup> and said to David, “You are more righteous than I, for you have done what is good to me though I have done what is evil to you. <sup>18</sup> You yourself have told me today what good you did for me: when the LORD handed me over to you, you didn’t kill me. <sup>19</sup> When a man finds his enemy, does he let him go unharmed? <sup>F</sup> May the LORD repay you with good for what you’ve done for me today.

<sup>20</sup> “Now I know for certain you will be king, and the kingdom of Israel will be established <sup>G</sup> in your hand. <sup>21†</sup> Therefore swear to me by the LORD that you will not cut off my descendants or wipe out my name from my father’s family.” <sup>22</sup> So David swore to Saul. Then Saul went back home, and David and his men went up to the stronghold.

1 SAMUEL

David, Nabal, and Abigail

25 †Samuel died, and all Israel assembled to mourn for him, and they buried him by his home in Ramah. David then went down to the Wilderness of Paran.

<sup>2</sup> A man in Maon had a business in Carmel; he was a very rich man with 3,000 sheep and 1,000 goats and was shearing his sheep in Carmel. <sup>3</sup> The man's name was Nabal, and his wife's name, Abigail. The woman was intelligent and beautiful, but the man, a Calebite, was harsh and evil in his dealings.

<sup>9</sup> David's young men went and said all these things to Nabal on David's behalf, <sup>E</sup> and they waited. <sup>10</sup> Nabal asked them, "Who is David? Who is Jesse's son? Many slaves these days are running away from their masters. <sup>11</sup> Am I supposed to take my bread, my water, and my meat that I butchered for my shearers and give them to these men? I don't know where they are from."

<sup>12</sup> David's men retraced their steps. When they returned to him, they reported all these words. <sup>13</sup> He said to his men, "All of you, put on your swords!" So David and all his men put on their swords. About 400 men followed David while 200 stayed with the supplies.

yelled at them. <sup>15</sup> The men treated us well. When we were in the field, we weren't harassed and nothing of ours was missing the whole time we were living among them. <sup>16</sup> They were a wall around us, both day and night, the entire time we were herding the sheep. <sup>17</sup> Now consider carefully what you must do, because there is certain to be trouble for our master and his entire family. He is such a worthless fool nobody can talk to him! ”

<sup>18</sup> Abigail hurried, taking 200 loaves of bread, two skins of wine, five butchered sheep, a bushel <sup>F</sup> of roasted grain, 100 clusters of raisins, and 200 cakes of pressed figs, and loaded them on donkeys. <sup>19</sup> Then she said to her male servants, “Go ahead of me. I will be right behind you.” But she did not tell her husband Nabal.

<sup>20</sup> As she rode the donkey down a mountain pass hidden from view, she saw David and his men coming toward her and met them. <sup>21</sup> David had just said, “I guarded everything that belonged to this man in the wilderness for nothing. He was not missing anything, yet he paid me back evil for good. <sup>22</sup> May God punish me and do so severely if I let any of his men <sup>G</sup> survive until morning.”

<sup>23</sup> When Abigail saw David, she quickly got off the donkey and fell with her face to the ground in front of David. <sup>24</sup> She fell at his feet and said, “The •guilt is mine, my lord, but please let your servant speak to you directly. Listen to the words of your servant. <sup>25</sup> My lord should pay no attention to this worthless man Nabal, for he lives up to his name: <sup>H</sup> His name is Nabal, and stupidity is all he knows. <sup>I</sup> I, your servant, didn't see my lord's young men whom you sent. <sup>26</sup> Now my lord, as surely as the LORD lives and as you yourself live, it is the LORD who kept you from participating in bloodshed and avenging yourself by your own hand. May your enemies and those who want trouble for my lord be like Nabal. <sup>27</sup> Accept this gift your servant has brought to my lord, and let it be given to the young men who follow my lord. <sup>28</sup> Please forgive your servant's offense, for the LORD is certain to make a lasting dynasty for my lord because he fights the LORD's battles. Throughout your life, may evil <sup>J</sup> not be found in you.

<sup>29</sup> “When someone pursues you and attempts to take your life, my lord’s life will be tucked safely in the place <sup>K</sup> where the LORD your God protects the living. However, He will fling away your enemies’ lives like stones from a sling. <sup>30</sup> When the LORD does for my lord all the good He promised and appoints you ruler over Israel, <sup>31</sup> there will not be remorse or a troubled conscience for my lord because of needless bloodshed or my lord’s revenge. And when the LORD does good things for my lord, may you remember me your servant.”

<sup>32</sup> Then David said to Abigail, “Praise to the LORD God of Israel, who sent you to meet me today! <sup>33</sup> Your discernment is blessed, and you are blessed. Today you kept me from participating in bloodshed and avenging myself by my own hand. <sup>34</sup> Otherwise, as surely as the LORD God of Israel lives, who prevented me from harming you, if you had not come quickly to meet me, Nabal wouldn’t have had any men <sup>L</sup> left by morning light.” <sup>35</sup> Then David accepted what she had brought him and said, “Go home in peace. See, I have heard what you said and have granted your request.”

<sup>36</sup> Then Abigail went to Nabal, and there he was in his house, holding a feast fit for a king. Nabal was in a good mood <sup>M</sup> and very drunk, so she didn’t say anything <sup>N</sup> to him until morning light.

<sup>39</sup> When David heard that Nabal was dead, he said, “Praise the LORD who championed my cause against Nabal’s insults and restrained His servant from doing evil. The LORD brought Nabal’s evil deeds back on his own head.”

Then David sent messengers to speak to Abigail about marrying him. <sup>40</sup> When David’s servants came to Abigail at Carmel, they said to her, “David sent us to bring you to him as a wife.”

<sup>41</sup> She stood up, then bowed her face to the ground and said, “Here I am, your servant, to wash the feet of my lord’s servants.” <sup>42</sup> Then Abigail got up quickly, and with her five female servants accompanying her, rode on the donkey following David’s messengers. And so she became his wife.

<sup>43†</sup> David also married Ahinoam of Jezreel, and the two of them became his wives. <sup>44†</sup> But Saul gave his daughter Michal, David’s wife, to Palti son of Laish, who was from Gallim.

1 SAMUEL

David Again Spares Saul

26 Then the Ziphites came to Saul at Gibeah saying, “David is hiding on the hill of Hachilah opposite Jeshimon.”<sup>2</sup> So Saul, accompanied by 3,000 of the choice men of Israel, went to the Wilderness of Ziph to search for David there.<sup>3</sup> Saul camped beside the road at the hill of Hachilah opposite Jeshimon. David was living in the wilderness and discovered Saul had come there after him.<sup>4</sup> So David sent out spies and knew for certain that Saul had come.<sup>5</sup> Immediately, David went to the place where Saul had camped. He saw the place where Saul and Abner son of Ner, the general of his army, were lying down. Saul was lying inside the inner circle of the camp with the troops camped around him.<sup>6</sup> Then David asked Ahimelech the Hittite and Joab’s brother Abishai son of Zeruiah, “Who will go with me into the camp to Saul?”

“I’ll go with you,” answered Abishai.

<sup>7</sup> That night, David and Abishai came to the troops, and Saul was lying there asleep in the inner circle of the camp with his spear stuck in the ground by his head. Abner and the troops were lying around him.<sup>8</sup> Then Abishai said to David, “Today God has handed your enemy over to you. Let me thrust the spear through him into the ground just once. I won’t have to strike him twice!”

<sup>9</sup> But David said to Abishai, “Don’t destroy him, for who can lift a hand against the LORD’s anointed and be blameless?”<sup>10</sup> David added, “As the LORD lives, the LORD will certainly strike him down: either his day will come and he will die, or he will go into battle and perish.<sup>11</sup> However, because of the LORD, I will never lift my hand against the LORD’s anointed. Instead, take the spear and the water jug by his head, and let’s go.”

<sup>12</sup> So David took the spear and the water jug by Saul’s head, and they went their way. No one saw them, no one knew, and no one woke up; they all remained asleep because a deep sleep from the LORD came over them.<sup>13</sup> David crossed to the other side and stood on top of the mountain at a distance; there was a considerable space between them.<sup>14</sup> Then David shouted to the troops and to Abner son of Ner: “Aren’t you going to answer, Abner?”

“Who are you who calls to the king?” Abner asked.

<sup>15</sup> David called to Abner, “You’re a man, aren’t you? Who in Israel is your equal? So why didn’t you protect your lord the king when one of the people came to destroy him? <sup>16</sup> What you have done is not good. As the LORD lives, all of you deserve to die since you didn’t protect your lord, the LORD’s anointed. Now look around; where are the king’s spear and water jug that were by his head?”

“It is my voice, my lord and king,” David said. <sup>18</sup> Then he continued, “Why is my lord pursuing his servant? What have I done? What evil is in my hand? <sup>19</sup> Now, may my lord the king please hear the words of his servant: If it is the LORD who has incited you against me, then may He accept an offering. But if it is people, may they be cursed in the presence of the LORD, for today they have driven me away from sharing in the inheritance of the LORD saying, ‘Go and worship other gods.’ <sup>20</sup> So don’t let my blood fall to the ground far from the LORD’s presence, for the king of Israel has come out to search for a flea, like one who pursues a partridge in the mountains.”

<sup>21</sup> Saul responded, “I have sinned. Come back, my son David, I will never harm you again because today you considered my life precious. I have been a fool! I’ve committed a grave error.”

<sup>22</sup> David answered, “Here is the king’s spear; have one of the young men come over and get it. <sup>23</sup> May the LORD repay every man for his righteousness and his loyalty. I wasn’t willing to lift my hand against the LORD’s anointed, even though the LORD handed you over to me today.

<sup>24</sup> Just as I considered your life valuable today, so may the LORD consider my life valuable and rescue me from all trouble.”

<sup>25</sup> Saul said to him, “You are blessed, my son David. You will certainly do great things and will also prevail.” Then David went on his way, and Saul returned home.

1 SAMUEL

David Flees to Ziklag

27 David said to himself, “One of these days I’ll be swept away by Saul. There is nothing better for me than to escape immediately to the land of the Philistines. Then Saul will stop searching for me everywhere in Israel, and I’ll escape from him.”<sup>2</sup> So David set out with his 600 men and went to Achish son of Maach, the king of Gath.<sup>3</sup> David and his men stayed with Achish in Gath. Each man had his family with him, and David had his two wives: Ahinoam of Jezreel and Abigail of Carmel, Nabal’s widow.<sup>4</sup> When it was reported to Saul that David had fled to Gath, he no longer searched for him.

<sup>5</sup> Now David said to Achish, “If I have found favor with you, let me be given a place in one of the outlying towns, so I can live there. Why should your servant live in the royal city with you?”<sup>6</sup> That day Achish gave Ziklag to him, and it still belongs to the kings of Judah today.<sup>7†</sup> The time that David stayed in the Philistine territory amounted to a year and four months.

<sup>8†</sup> David and his men went up and raided the Geshurites, the Girzites, and the Amalekites. From ancient times they had been the inhabitants of the region through Shur as far as the land of Egypt.<sup>9†</sup> Whenever David attacked the land, he did not leave a single person alive, either man or woman, but he took flocks, herds, donkeys, camels, and clothing. Then he came back to Achish,<sup>10†</sup> who inquired, “Where did you raid today?”

David replied, “The south country of Judah,” “The south country of the Jerahmeelites,” or “Against the south country of the Kenites.”

<sup>11</sup> David did not let a man or woman live to be brought to Gath, for he said, “Or they will inform on us and say, ‘This is what David did.’” This was David’s custom during the whole time he stayed in the Philistine territory.<sup>12†</sup> So Achish trusted David, thinking, “Since he has made himself detestable to his people Israel, he will be my servant forever.”

1 SAMUEL

Saul and the Medium

28† At that time, the Philistines brought their military units together into one army to fight against Israel. So Achish said to David, “You know, of course, that you and your men must march out in the army with me.”

So Achish said to David, “Very well, I will appoint you as my permanent bodyguard.”

<sup>3</sup> By this time Samuel had died, and all Israel had mourned for him and buried him in Ramah, his city, and Saul had removed the mediums and spiritists from the land. <sup>4</sup> The Philistines came together and camped at Shunem. So Saul gathered all Israel, and they camped at Gilboa. <sup>5</sup> When Saul saw the Philistine camp, he was afraid and trembled violently. <sup>6†</sup> He inquired of the LORD, but the LORD did not answer him in dreams or by the •Urim or by the prophets. <sup>7</sup> Saul then said to his servants, “Find me a woman who is a medium, so I can go and consult her.”

TWISTED SCRIPTURE

1 Samuel 28:5-20

Many channelers and trance mediums cite this passage as evidence that communication with the dead is possible. Even if such an argument could be made, biblical law strictly forbids contacting spiritualist mediums (see Lv 19:31; 20:27; Dt 18:10-12; Is 8:19). Despite these injunctions, King Saul asked the medium of Endor to conjure up the spirit of Samuel, the dead prophet. Whether she actually succeeded or not is debatable. Saul's actions were costly: "Saul died for his unfaithfulness to the Lord because he did not keep the LORD's word. He even consulted a medium for guidance, but he did not inquire of the LORD. So the LORD put him to death and turned the kingdom over to David son of Jesse" (1 Ch 10:13-14).

His servants replied, “There is a woman at En-dor who is a medium.”

<sup>8†</sup> Saul disguised himself by putting on different clothes and set out with two of his men. They came to the woman at night, and Saul said, “Consult a spirit for me. Bring up for me the one I tell you.”

<sup>9</sup> But the woman said to him, “You surely know what Saul has done, how he has killed the mediums and spiritists in the land. Why are you setting a trap for me to get me killed? ”

<sup>10</sup> Then Saul swore to her by the LORD: “As surely as the LORD lives, nothing bad will happen to you because of this.”

<sup>11</sup> “Who is it that you want me to bring up for you? ” the woman asked.

“Bring up Samuel for me,” he answered.

<sup>12</sup> When the woman saw Samuel, she screamed, and then she asked Saul, “Why did you deceive me? You are Saul! ”

<sup>13</sup> But the king said to her, “Don’t be afraid. What do you see? ”

“I see a spirit form <sup>A</sup> coming up out of the earth,” the woman answered.

“An old man is coming up,” she replied. “He’s wearing a robe.” Then Saul knew that it was Samuel, and he bowed his face to the ground and paid homage.

<sup>15</sup> “Why have you disturbed me by bringing me up? ” Samuel asked Saul.

“I’m in serious trouble,” replied Saul. “The Philistines are fighting against me and God has turned away from me. He doesn’t answer me anymore, either through the prophets or in dreams. So I’ve called on you to tell me what I should do.”

<sup>16</sup> Samuel answered, “Since the LORD has turned away from you and has become your enemy, why are you asking me? <sup>17</sup> The LORD has done exactly what He said through me: The LORD has torn the kingship out of your hand and given it to your neighbor David. <sup>18</sup> You did not obey the LORD and did not carry out His burning anger against Amalek; therefore the LORD has done this to you today. <sup>19†</sup> The LORD will also hand Israel over to the Philistines along with you. Tomorrow you and your sons will be with me, and the LORD will hand Israel’s army over to the Philistines.”

<sup>20</sup> Immediately, Saul fell flat on the ground. He was terrified by Samuel’s words and was also weak because he hadn’t had any food all day and all night. <sup>21</sup> The woman came over to Saul, and she saw that he was terrified and said to him, “Look, your servant has obeyed you. I took my life in my hands and did what you told me to do. <sup>22</sup> Now please listen to your servant. Let me set some food in front of you. Eat and it will give you strength so you can go on your way.”

<sup>23</sup> He refused, saying, “I won’t eat,” but when his servants and the woman urged him, he listened to them. He got up off the ground and sat on the bed.

<sup>24</sup> The woman had a fattened calf at her house, and she quickly slaughtered it. She also took flour, kneaded it, and baked unleavened bread. <sup>25</sup> She served it to Saul and his servants, and they ate. Afterward, they got up and left that night.

1 SAMUEL

Philistines Reject David

29 The Philistines brought all their military units together at Aphek while Israel was camped by the spring in Jezreel. <sup>2</sup> As the Philistine leaders were passing in review with their units of hundreds and thousands, David and his men were passing in review behind them with Achish. <sup>3</sup> Then the Philistine commanders asked, “What are these Hebrews doing here? ”

Achish answered the Philistine commanders, “That is David, servant of King Saul of Israel. He has been with me a considerable period of time. <sup>A</sup> From the day he defected until today, I’ve found no fault with him.”

<sup>4</sup> The Philistine commanders, however, were enraged with Achish and told him, “Send that man back and let him return to the place you assigned him. He must not go down with us into battle only to become our adversary during the battle. What better way could he regain his master’s favor than with the heads of our men? <sup>5</sup> Isn’t this the David they sing about during their dances:

Saul has killed his thousands,
but David his tens of thousands? ”

<sup>6†</sup> So Achish summoned David and told him, “As the LORD lives, you are an honorable man. I think it is good <sup>B</sup> to have you working <sup>C</sup> with me in the camp, because I have found no fault in you from the day you came to me until today. But the leaders don’t think you are reliable. <sup>7</sup> Now go back quietly and you won’t be doing anything the Philistine leaders think is wrong.”

<sup>8</sup> “But what have I done? ” David replied to Achish. “From the first day I was with you until today, what have you found against your servant to keep me from going along to fight against the enemies of my lord the king? ”

<sup>9</sup> Achish answered David, “I’m convinced that you are as reliable as the Angel of God. But the Philistine commanders have said, ‘He must not go into battle with us.’ <sup>10</sup> So get up early in the morning, you and your masters' servants who came with you. When you've all gotten up early, go as soon as it's light." <sup>11</sup> So David and his men got up early in the morning to return to the land of the Philistines. And the Philistines went up to Jezreel.

1 SAMUEL

David's Defeat of the Amalekites

30 David and his men arrived in Ziklag on the third day. The Amalekites had raided the •Negev and attacked and burned down Ziklag.<sup>2</sup> They also had kidnapped the women and everyone in it from the youngest to the oldest. They had killed no one but had carried them off as they went on their way.

<sup>7</sup> David said to Abiathar the priest, son of Ahimelech, "Bring me the •ephod." So Abiathar brought it to him,<sup>8</sup> and David asked the LORD: "Should I pursue these raiders? Will I overtake them? "

The LORD replied to him, "Pursue them, for you will certainly overtake them and rescue the people."

<sup>9</sup> David and the 600 men with him went as far as the •Wadi Besor, where 200 men who were to remain behind would stop.<sup>10</sup> They stopped because they were too exhausted to cross the Wadi Besor. David and 400 of the men continued in pursuit.

<sup>11</sup> They found an Egyptian in the open country and brought him to David. They gave him some bread to eat and water to drink.<sup>12</sup> Then they gave him some pressed figs and two clusters of raisins. After he ate he revived, for he hadn't eaten food or drunk water for three days and three nights.

<sup>13</sup> Then David said to him, "Who do you belong to? Where are you from? "

“I’m an Egyptian, the slave of an Amalekite man,” he said. “My master abandoned me when I got sick three days ago.<sup>14</sup> We raided the south country of the Cherethites, the territory of Judah, and the south country of Caleb, and we burned down Ziklag.”

<sup>15</sup> David then asked him, “Will you lead me to these raiders? ”

He said, “Swear to me by God that you won’t kill me or turn me over to my master, and I will lead you to them.”

<sup>16</sup> So he led him, and there were the Amalekites, spread out over the entire area, eating, drinking, and celebrating because of the great amount of plunder they had taken from the land of the Philistines and the land of Judah.<sup>17</sup> David slaughtered them from twilight until the evening of the next day. None of them escaped, except 400 young men who got on camels and fled.

<sup>18</sup> David recovered everything the Amalekites had taken; he also rescued his two wives.<sup>19</sup> Nothing of theirs was missing from the youngest to the oldest, including the sons and daughters, of all the plunder the Amalekites had taken. David got everything back.<sup>20</sup> He took all the sheep and cattle, which were driven ahead of the other livestock, and the people shouted, “This is David’s plunder! ”

<sup>21</sup> When David came to the 200 men who had been too exhausted to go with him and had been left at the Wadi Besor, they came out to meet him and to meet the troops with him. When David approached the men, he greeted them,<sup>22</sup> but all the corrupt and •worthless men among those who had gone with David argued, “Because they didn’t go with us, we will not give any of the plunder we recovered to them except for each man’s wife and children. They may take them and go.”

<sup>23</sup> But David said, “My brothers, you must not do this with what the LORD has given us. He protected us and handed over to us the raiders who came against us.<sup>24</sup> Who can agree to your proposal? The share of the one who goes into battle is to be the same as the share of the one who remains with the supplies. They will share equally.”<sup>25</sup> And it has been so from that day forward. David established this policy as a law and an ordinance for Israel and it continues to this very day.

<sup>26</sup> When David came to Ziklag, he sent some of the plunder to his friends, the elders of Judah, saying, “Here is a gift for you from the plunder of the LORD’s enemies.”<sup>27</sup> He sent gifts to those in Bethel, in Ramoth of the Negev, and in Jattir;<sup>28</sup> to those in Aroer, in Siphmoth, and in Eshtemoa;<sup>29</sup> to those in Racal, in the towns of the Jerahmeelites, and in the towns of the Kenites;<sup>30</sup> to those in Hormah, in Bor-ashan, and in Athach;<sup>31</sup> to those in Hebron, and to those in all the places where David and his men had roamed.

The Death of Saul and His Sons

31 The Philistines fought against Israel, and Israel's men fled from them. Many were killed on Mount Gilboa. <sup>2</sup> The Philistines overtook Saul and his sons and killed his sons, Jonathan, Abinadab, and Malchishua.

<sup>3†</sup> When the battle intensified against Saul, the archers caught up with him and severely wounded him. <sup>4†</sup> Then Saul said to his armor-bearer, "Draw your sword and run me through with it, or these uncircumcised men will come and run me through and torture me." But his armor-bearer would not do it because he was terrified. Then Saul took his sword and fell on it.

<sup>5</sup> When his armor-bearer saw that Saul was dead, he also fell on his own sword and died with him. <sup>6</sup> So on that day, Saul died together with his three sons, his armor-bearer, and all his men.

<sup>7</sup> When the men of Israel on the other side of the valley and on the other side of the Jordan saw that Israel's men had run away and that Saul and his sons were dead, they abandoned the cities and fled. So the Philistines came and settled in them.

<sup>8</sup> The next day when the Philistines came to strip the dead, they found Saul and his three sons dead on Mount Gilboa. <sup>9</sup> They cut off Saul's head, stripped off his armor, and sent messengers throughout the land of the Philistines to spread the good news in the temples of their idols and among the people. <sup>10</sup> Then they put his armor in the temple of the •Ashtoreths and hung his body on the wall of Beth-shan.

<sup>11</sup> When the residents of Jabesh-gilead heard what the Philistines had done to Saul, <sup>12</sup> all their brave men set out, journeyed all night, and retrieved the body of Saul and the bodies of his sons from the wall of Beth-shan. When they arrived at Jabesh, they burned the bodies there.

<sup>13</sup> Afterward, they took their bones and buried them under the tamarisk tree in Jabesh and fasted seven days.

2 SAMUEL

Responses to Saul's Death

1 After the death of Saul, David returned from defeating the Amalekites and stayed at Ziklag two days. 2 On the third day a man with torn clothes and dust on his head came from Saul's camp. When he came to David, he fell to the ground and paid homage.

3 David asked him, "Where have you come from? "

He replied to him, "I've escaped from the Israelite camp."

4 "What was the outcome? Tell me," David asked him.

"The troops fled from the battle," he answered. "Many of the troops have fallen and are dead. Also, Saul and his son Jonathan are dead."

5 David asked the young man who had brought him the report, "How do you know Saul and his son Jonathan are dead? "

6† "I happened to be on Mount Gilboa," he replied, "and there was Saul, leaning on his spear. At that very moment the chariots and the cavalry were closing in on him. 7 When he turned around and saw me, he called out to me, so I answered: I'm at your service. 8† He asked me, 'Who are you?' I told him: I'm an Amalekite. 9 Then he begged me, 'Stand over me and kill me, for I'm mortally wounded, but my life still lingers.' 10 So I stood over him and killed him because I knew that after he had fallen he couldn't survive. I took the crown that was on his head and the armband that was on his arm, and I've brought them here to my lord."

11 Then David took hold of his clothes and tore them, and all the men with him did the same. 12 They mourned, wept, and fasted until the evening for those who died by the sword — for Saul, his son Jonathan, the LORD's people, and the house of Israel.

13 David inquired of the young man who had brought him the report, "Where are you from? "

"I'm the son of a foreigner," he said. "I'm an Amalekite."

<sup>14</sup> David questioned him, “How is it that you were not afraid to lift your hand to destroy the LORD’s anointed?” <sup>15</sup> Then David summoned one of his servants and said, “Come here and kill him!” The servant struck him, and he died. <sup>16</sup> For David had said to the Amalekite, “Your blood is on your own head because your own mouth testified against you by saying, ‘I killed the LORD’s anointed.’”

How the mighty have fallen!

<sup>20</sup> Do not tell it in Gath, don’t announce it in the marketplaces of Ashkelon, or the daughters of the Philistines will rejoice, and the daughters of the uncircumcised will gloat.

<sup>21</sup> Mountains of Gilboa, let no dew or rain be on you,
or fields of offerings,
for there the shield of the mighty was defiled —
the shield of Saul, no longer anointed with oil.

<sup>22</sup> Jonathan’s bow never retreated, Saul’s sword never returned unstained, <sup>B</sup> from the blood of the slain, from the bodies of the mighty.

<sup>23</sup> Saul and Jonathan, loved and delightful,
they were not parted in life or in death.
They were swifter than eagles, stronger than lions.

<sup>24</sup> Daughters of Israel, weep for Saul, who clothed you in scarlet, with luxurious things, who decked your garments with gold ornaments.

<sup>25</sup> How the mighty have fallen in the thick of battle!
Jonathan lies slain on your heights.

<sup>26†</sup> I grieve for you, Jonathan, my brother.

You were such a friend to me.

Your love for me was more wonderful than the love of women.

<sup>27</sup> How the mighty have fallen and the weapons of war have perished!

2 SAMUEL

David, King of Judah

2 Some time later, David inquired of the LORD: “Should I go to one of the towns of Judah?”

The LORD answered him, “Go.”

Then David asked, “Where should I go?”

“To Hebron,” the LORD replied.

<sup>2†</sup> So David went there with his two wives, Ahinoam the Jezreelite and Abigail, the widow of Nabal the Carmelite. <sup>3</sup> In addition, David brought the men who were with him, each one with his household, and they settled in the towns near Hebron. <sup>4</sup> Then the men of Judah came, and there they anointed David king over the house of Judah. They told David: “It was the men of Jabesh-gilead who buried Saul.”

<sup>5</sup> David sent messengers to the men of Jabesh-gilead and said to them, “The LORD bless you, because you have shown this kindness to Saul your lord when you buried him. <sup>6</sup> Now, may the LORD show kindness and faithfulness to you, and I will also show the same goodness to you because you have done this deed. <sup>7</sup> Therefore, be strong and courageous, for though Saul your lord is dead, the house of Judah has anointed me king over them.”

<sup>8†</sup> Abner son of Ner, commander of Saul’s army, took Saul’s son Ish-bosheth and moved him to Mahanaim. <sup>9</sup> He made him king over Gilead, Asher, Jezreel, Ephraim, Benjamin — over all Israel. <sup>10</sup> Saul’s son Ish-bosheth was 40 years old when he began his reign over Israel; he ruled for two years. The house of Judah, however, followed David. <sup>11</sup> The length of time that David was king in Hebron over the house of Judah was seven years and six months.

<sup>12</sup> Abner son of Ner and soldiers of Ish-bosheth son of Saul marched out from Mahanaim to Gibeon. <sup>13</sup> So Joab son of Zeruah and David’s soldiers marched out and met them by the pool of Gibeon. The two groups took up positions on opposite sides of the pool.

<sup>14</sup> Then Abner said to Joab, “Let’s have the young men get up and compete in front of us.”

“Let them get up,” Joab replied.

<sup>15</sup> So they got up and were counted off — 12 for Benjamin and Ish-bosheth son of Saul, and 12 from David’s soldiers. <sup>16</sup> Then each man grabbed his opponent by the head and thrust his sword into his opponent’s side so that they all died together. So this place, which is in Gibeon, is named Field of Blades. <sup>A</sup>

<sup>17</sup> The battle that day was extremely fierce, and Abner and the men of Israel were defeated by David’s soldiers. <sup>18</sup> The three sons of Zeruah were there: Joab, Abishai, and Asahel. Asahel was a fast runner, like one of the wild gazelles. <sup>19</sup> He chased Abner and did not turn to the right or the left in his pursuit of him. <sup>20</sup> Abner glanced back and said, “Is that you, Asahel?”

“Yes it is,” Asahel replied.

<sup>21</sup> Abner said to him, “Turn to your right or left, seize one of the young soldiers, and take whatever you can get from him.” But Asahel would not stop chasing him. <sup>22</sup> Once again, Abner warned Asahel, “Stop chasing me. Why should I strike you to the ground? How could I ever look your brother Joab in the face?”

<sup>23</sup> But Asahel refused to turn away, so Abner hit him in the stomach with the end of his spear. The spear went through his body, and he fell and died right there. When all who came to the place where Asahel had fallen and died, they stopped, <sup>24</sup> but Joab and Abishai pursued Abner. By sunset, they had gone as far as the hill of Ammah, which is opposite Giah on the way to the wilderness of Gibeon.

<sup>25</sup> The Benjaminites rallied to Abner; they formed a single unit and took their stand on top of a hill. <sup>26</sup> Then Abner called out to Joab: “Must the sword devour forever? Don’t you realize this will only end in bitterness? How long before you tell the troops to stop pursuing their brothers?”

<sup>27</sup> “As God lives,” Joab replied, “if you had not spoken up, the troops wouldn’t have stopped pursuing their brothers until morning.” <sup>28</sup> Then Joab blew the ram’s horn, and all the troops stopped; they no longer pursued Israel or continued to fight. <sup>29</sup> So Abner and his men marched through the •Arabah all that night. They crossed the Jordan, marched all morning, <sup>B</sup> and arrived at Mahanaim.

<sup>30</sup> When Joab had turned back from pursuing Abner, he gathered all the troops. In addition to Asahel, 19 of David’s soldiers were missing, <sup>31</sup> but they had killed 360 of the Benjaminites and Abner’s men. <sup>32</sup> Afterward, they carried Asahel to his father’s tomb in Bethlehem and buried him. Then Joab and his men marched all night and reached Hebron at dawn.

Civil War

3 The war between the house of Saul and the house of David was long and drawn out, with David growing stronger and the house of Saul becoming weaker.

<sup>2†</sup> Sons were born to David in Hebron:

his firstborn was Amnon,
by Ahinoam the Jezreelite;
<sup>3†</sup> his second was Chileab, by Abigail, the widow of Nabal the Carmelite;
the third was Absalom, son of Maacah the daughter of King Talmai of Geshur; <sup>4</sup> the fourth was Adonijah, son of Haggith;
the fifth was Shephatiah,
son of Abital;
<sup>5</sup> the sixth was Ithream, by David's wife Eglah.

These were born to David in Hebron.

<sup>6</sup> During the war between the house of Saul and the house of David, Abner kept acquiring more power in the house of Saul. <sup>7</sup> Now Saul had a concubine whose name was Rizpah daughter of Aiah, and Ish-bosheth questioned Abner, "Why did you sleep with my father's concubine?"

<sup>8</sup> Abner was very angry about Ish-bosheth's accusation. "Am I a dog's head who belongs to Judah?" he asked. "All this time I've been loyal to the house of your father Saul, to his brothers, and to his friends and haven't handed you over to David, but now you accuse me of wrongdoing with this woman!" <sup>9</sup> May God punish Abner and do so severely if I don't do for David what the LORD swore to him: <sup>10</sup> to transfer the kingdom from the house of Saul and establish the throne of David over Israel and Judah from Dan to Beer-sheba." <sup>11</sup> Ish-bosheth could not answer Abner because he was afraid of him.

<sup>12</sup> Abner sent messengers as his representatives to say to David, “Whose land is it? Make your covenant with me, and you can be certain I am on your side to hand all Israel over to you.”

<sup>13</sup> David replied, “Good, I will make a covenant with you. However, there’s one thing I require of you: Do not appear before me unless you bring Saul’s daughter Michal here when you come to see me.”

<sup>14†</sup> Then David sent messengers to say to Ish-bosheth son of Saul, “Give me back my wife, Michal. I was •engaged to her for the price of 100 Philistine foreskins.”

<sup>15</sup> So Ish-bosheth sent someone to take her away from her husband, Paltiel son of Laish. <sup>16</sup> Her husband followed her, weeping all the way to Bahurim. Abner said to him, “Go back.” So he went back.

The Assassination of Abner

<sup>17</sup> Abner conferred with the elders of Israel: “In the past you wanted David to be king over you. <sup>18</sup> Now take action, because the LORD has spoken concerning David: ‘Through My servant David I will save My people Israel from the power of the Philistines and the power of all Israel’s enemies.’ ”

<sup>19</sup> Abner also informed the Benjaminites and went to Hebron to inform David about all that was agreed on by Israel and the whole house of Benjamin. <sup>20</sup> When Abner and 20 men came to David at Hebron, David held a banquet for him and his men.

<sup>21</sup> Abner said to David, “Let me now go and I will gather all Israel to my lord the king. They will make a covenant with you, and you will rule over all you desire.” So David dismissed Abner, and he went in peace.

<sup>22</sup> Just then David’s soldiers and Joab returned from a raid and brought a large amount of plundered goods with them. Abner was not with David in Hebron because David had dismissed him, and he had gone in peace.

<sup>23</sup> When Joab and all his army arrived, Joab was informed, “Abner son of Ner came to see the king, the king dismissed him, and he went in peace.”

<sup>24</sup> Joab went to the king and said, “What have you done? Look here, Abner came to you. Why did you dismiss him? Now he’s getting away.

<sup>28</sup> David heard about it later and said: “I and my kingdom are forever innocent before the LORD concerning the blood of Abner son of Ner. <sup>29</sup> May it hang over Joab’s head and his father’s whole house, and may the house of Joab never be without someone who has a discharge or a skin disease, or a man who can only work a spindle, or someone who falls by the sword or starves.” <sup>30</sup> Joab and his brother Abishai killed Abner because he had put their brother Asahel to death in the battle at Gibeon.

Should Abner die as a fool dies?

<sup>34</sup> Your hands were not bound, your feet not placed in bronze shackles.
You fell like one who falls victim to criminals.

And all the people wept over him even more.

<sup>35†</sup> Then they came to urge David to eat bread while it was still day, but David took an oath: “May God punish me and do so severely if I taste bread or anything else before sunset! ” <sup>36</sup> All the people took note of this, and it pleased them. In fact, everything the king did pleased them. <sup>37</sup> On that day all the troops and all Israel were convinced that the king had no part in the killing of Abner son of Ner.

<sup>38</sup> Then the king said to his soldiers, “You must know that a great leader has fallen in Israel today. <sup>39</sup> As for me, even though I am the anointed king, I have little power today. These men, the sons of Zeruiah, are too fierce for me. May the LORD repay the evildoer according to his evil! ”

2 SAMUEL

The Assassination of Ish-bosheth

4 When Saul's son Ish-bosheth heard that Abner had died in Hebron, his courage failed, and all Israel was dismayed. <sup>2</sup> Saul's son had two men who were leaders of raiding parties: one named Baanah and the other Rechab, sons of Rimmon the Beerothite of the Benjaminites. Beeroth is also considered part of Benjamin, <sup>3</sup> and the Beerothites fled to Gittaim and still live there as foreigners to this very day.

<sup>4</sup> Saul's son Jonathan had a son whose feet were crippled. He was five years old when the report about Saul and Jonathan came from Jezreel. The one who had nursed him <sup>A</sup> picked him up and fled, but as she was hurrying to flee, he fell and became lame. His name was Mephibosheth.

<sup>5</sup> Rechab and Baanah, the sons of Rimmon the Beerothite, set out and arrived at Ish-bosheth's house during the heat of the day while the king was taking his midday nap. <sup>6†</sup> They entered the interior of the house as if to get wheat and stabbed him in the stomach. Then Rechab and his brother Baanah escaped. <sup>7</sup> They had entered the house while Ish-bosheth was lying on his bed in his bedroom and stabbed and killed him. Then they beheaded him, took his head, and traveled by way of the •Arabah all night. <sup>8</sup> They brought Ish-bosheth's head to David at Hebron and said to the king, "Here's the head of Ish-bosheth son of Saul, your enemy who intended to take your life. Today the LORD has granted vengeance to my lord the king against Saul and his offspring."

<sup>9</sup> But David answered Rechab and his brother Baanah, sons of Rimmon the Beerothite, "As the LORD lives, the One who has redeemed my life from every distress, <sup>10</sup> when the person told me, 'Look, Saul is dead,' he thought he was a bearer of good news, but I seized him and put him to death at Ziklag. That was my reward to him for his news! <sup>11</sup> How much more when wicked men kill a righteous man in his own house on his own bed! So now, should I not require his blood from your hands and wipe you off the earth?"

<sup>12</sup> So David gave orders to the young men, and they killed Rechab and Baanah. They cut off their hands and feet and hung their bodies by the pool in Hebron, but they took Ish-bosheth's head and buried it in Abner's tomb in Hebron.

2 SAMUEL

David, King of Israel

5 All the tribes of Israel came to David at Hebron and said, “Here we are, your own flesh and blood. <sup>A</sup> <sup>2</sup> Even while Saul was king over us, you were the one who led us out to battle and brought us back. The LORD also said to you, ‘You will shepherd My people Israel and be ruler over Israel.’ ”

<sup>3</sup> So all the elders of Israel came to the king at Hebron. King David made a covenant with them at Hebron in the LORD’s presence, and they anointed David king over Israel.

<sup>4</sup> David was 30 years old when he began his reign; he reigned 40 years. <sup>5</sup> In Hebron he reigned over Judah seven years and six months, and in Jerusalem he reigned 33 years over all Israel and Judah.

<sup>6†</sup> The king and his men marched to Jerusalem against the Jebusites who inhabited the land. The Jebusites had said to David: “You will never get in here. Even the blind and lame can repel you,” thinking, “David can’t get in here.”

<sup>7</sup> Yet David did capture the stronghold of •Zion, that is, the city of David. <sup>8†</sup> He said that day, “Whoever attacks the Jebusites must go through the water shaft to reach the lame and the blind who are despised by David.” For this reason it is said, “The blind and the lame will never enter the house.” <sup>B</sup>

<sup>9</sup> David took up residence in the stronghold, which he named the city of David. He built it up all the way around from the supporting terraces inward. <sup>10</sup> David became more and more powerful, and the LORD God of •Hosts was with him. <sup>11</sup> King Hiram of Tyre sent envoys to David; he also sent cedar logs, carpenters, and stonemasons, and they built a palace for David. <sup>12</sup> Then David knew that the LORD had established him as king over Israel and had exalted his kingdom for the sake of His people Israel.

<sup>13</sup> After he arrived from Hebron, David took more concubines and wives from Jerusalem, and more sons and daughters were born to him. <sup>14†</sup> These are the names of those born to him in Jerusalem: Shammua, Shobab,

<sup>17</sup> When the Philistines heard that David had been anointed king over Israel, they all went in search of David, but he heard about it and went down to the stronghold. <sup>18</sup> So the Philistines came and spread out in the Valley of Rephaim.

<sup>19</sup> Then David inquired of the LORD: “Should I go to war against the Philistines? Will you hand them over to me?”

The LORD replied to David, “Go, for I will certainly hand the Philistines over to you.”

<sup>20</sup> So David went to Baal-perazim and defeated them there and said, “Like a bursting flood, the LORD has burst out against my enemies before me.” Therefore, he named that place the Lord Bursts Out. <sup>C 21†</sup> The Philistines abandoned their idols there, and David and his men carried them off.

2 SAMUEL

David Moves the Ark

6 † David again assembled all the choice men in Israel, 30,000. <sup>2</sup> He and all his troops set out to bring the ark of God from Baale-judah. The ark is called by the Name, the name of •Yahweh of •Hosts who dwells between the •cherubim. <sup>3</sup> They set the ark of God on a new cart and transported it from Abinadab's house, which was on the hill. Uzzah and Ahio, <sup>A</sup> sons of Abinadab, were guiding the cart <sup>4</sup> and brought it with the ark of God from Abinadab's house on the hill. Ahio walked in front of the ark. <sup>5†</sup> David and the whole house of Israel were celebrating before the LORD with all kinds of fir wood instruments, lyres, harps, tambourines, sistrums, and cymbals.

<sup>6†</sup> When they came to Nacon's threshing floor, Uzzah reached out to the ark of God and took hold of it because the oxen had stumbled. <sup>7</sup> Then the LORD's anger burned against Uzzah, and God struck him dead on the spot for his irreverence, and he died there next to the ark of God. <sup>8</sup> David was angry because of the LORD's outburst against Uzzah, so he named that place an Outburst Against Uzzah, <sup>B</sup> as it is today. <sup>9</sup> David feared the LORD that day and said, "How can the ark of the LORD ever come to me?" <sup>10†</sup> So he was not willing to move the ark of the LORD to the city of David; instead, he took it to the house of Obed-edom the Gittite. <sup>11</sup> The ark of the LORD remained in his house three months, and the LORD blessed Obed-edom and his whole family.

<sup>12</sup> It was reported to King David: "The LORD has blessed Obed-edom's family and all that belongs to him because of the ark of God." So David went and had the ark of God brought up from Obed-edom's house to the city of David with rejoicing. <sup>13</sup> When those carrying the ark of the LORD advanced six steps, he sacrificed an ox and a fattened calf. <sup>14†</sup> David was dancing <sup>C</sup> with all his might before the LORD wearing a linen •ephod. <sup>15</sup> He and the whole house of Israel were bringing up the ark of the LORD with shouts and the sound of the ram's horn. <sup>16</sup> As the ark of the LORD was entering the city of David, Saul's daughter Michal looked down from the window and saw King David leaping and dancing before the LORD, and she despised him in her heart.

<sup>17</sup> They brought the ark of the LORD and set it in its place inside the tent David had set up for it. Then David offered •burnt offerings and •fellowship offerings in the LORD's presence. <sup>18</sup> When David had finished offering the burnt offering and the fellowship offerings, he blessed the people in the name of Yahweh of Hosts. <sup>19</sup> Then he distributed a loaf of bread, a date cake, and a raisin cake to each one in the entire Israelite community, both men and women. Then all the people left, each to his own home.

<sup>20†</sup> When David returned home to bless his household, Saul's daughter Michal came out to meet him. "How the king of Israel honored himself today!" she said. "He exposed himself today in the sight of the slave girls of his subjects like a vulgar person would expose himself."

<sup>21</sup> David replied to Michal, "I was dancing before the LORD who chose me over your father and his whole family to appoint me ruler over the LORD's people Israel. I will celebrate before the LORD, <sup>22</sup> and I will humble myself even more and humiliate myself. I will be honored by the slave girls you spoke about." <sup>23†</sup> And Saul's daughter Michal had no child to the day of her death.

2 SAMUEL

The LORD's Covenant with David

7 When the king had settled into his palace and the LORD had given him rest on every side from all his enemies, <sup>2</sup> the king said to Nathan the prophet, “Look, I am living in a cedar house while the ark of God sits inside tent curtains.”

<sup>3</sup> So Nathan told the king, “Go and do all that is on your heart, for the LORD is with you.”

<sup>4</sup> But that night the word of the LORD came to Nathan: <sup>5</sup> “Go to My servant David and say, ‘This is what the LORD says: Are you to build a house for Me to live in? <sup>6</sup> From the time I brought the Israelites out of Egypt until today I have not lived in a house; instead, I have been moving around with a tent as My dwelling. <sup>7</sup> In all My journeys with all the Israelites, have I ever asked anyone among the tribes of Israel, whom I commanded to shepherd My people Israel: Why haven’t you built Me a house of cedar?’

<sup>8</sup> “Now this is what you are to say to My servant David: ‘This is what the LORD of •Hosts says: I took you from the pasture and from following the sheep to be ruler over My people Israel. <sup>9</sup> I have been with you wherever you have gone, and I have destroyed all your enemies before you. I will make a name for you like that of the greatest in the land. <sup>10</sup> I will establish a place for My people Israel and plant them, so that they may live there and not be disturbed again. Evildoers will not afflict them as they have done <sup>11</sup> ever since the day I ordered judges to be over My people Israel. I will give you rest from all your enemies.

“The LORD declares to you: The LORD Himself will make a house for you. <sup>12</sup> When your time comes and you rest with your fathers, I will raise up after you your descendant, who will come from your body, and I will establish his kingdom. <sup>13</sup> He will build a house for My name, and I will establish the throne of his kingdom forever. <sup>14</sup> I will be a father to him, and he will be a son to Me. When he does wrong, I will discipline him with a human rod and with blows from others. <sup>15</sup> But My faithful love will never leave him as I removed it from Saul; I removed him from your way.

<sup>16†</sup> Your house and kingdom will endure before Me forever, and your throne will be established forever.’ ”

<sup>17</sup> Nathan spoke all these words and this entire vision to David.

David's Prayer of Thanksgiving

<sup>18</sup> Then King David went in, sat in the LORD's presence, and said,

Who am I, Lord GOD, and what is my house that You have brought me this far? <sup>19</sup> What You have done so far <sup>A</sup> was a little thing to You, Lord GOD, for You have also spoken about Your servant's house in the distant future. And this is a revelation <sup>B</sup> for mankind, Lord GOD. <sup>20</sup> What more can David say to You? You know Your servant, Lord GOD. <sup>21</sup> Because of Your word and according to Your will, You have revealed all these great things to Your servant.

<sup>22</sup> This is why You are great, Lord GOD. There is no one like You, and there is no God besides You, as all we have heard confirms.

<sup>23</sup> And who is like Your people Israel? God came to one nation on earth in order to redeem a people for Himself, to make a name for Himself, and to perform for them great and awesome acts, driving out nations and their gods before Your people You redeemed for Yourself from Egypt. <sup>24</sup> You established Your people Israel to be Your own people forever, and You, LORD, have become their God.

<sup>25</sup> Now, LORD God, fulfill the promise forever that You have made to Your servant and his house. Do as You have promised, <sup>26</sup> so that Your name will be exalted forever, when it is said, “The LORD of Hosts is God over Israel.” The house of Your servant David will be established before You <sup>27</sup> since You, LORD of Hosts, God of Israel, have revealed this to Your servant when You said, “I will build a house for you.” Therefore, Your servant has found the courage to pray this prayer to You. <sup>28</sup> Lord GOD, You are God; Your words are true, and You have promised this grace to Your servant. <sup>29</sup> Now, please bless Your servant's house so that it will continue before You forever. For You, Lord GOD, have spoken, and with Your blessing Your servant's house will be blessed forever.

2 SAMUEL

David's Victories

8† After this, David defeated the Philistines, subdued them, and took Metheg-ammah <sup>A</sup> from Philistine control. <sup>2</sup> He also defeated the Moabites, and after making them lie down on the ground, he measured them off with a cord. He measured every two cord lengths of those to be put to death and one length of those to be kept alive. So the Moabites became David's subjects and brought tribute.

<sup>3</sup> David also defeated Hadadezer son of Rehob, king of Zobah, who went to restore his control at the Euphrates River. <sup>4†</sup> David captured 1,700 horsemen and 20,000 foot soldiers from him, and he hamstringed all the horses and kept 100 chariots. <sup>B</sup>

<sup>5</sup> When the Arameans of Damascus came to assist King Hadadezer of Zobah, David struck down 22,000 Aramean men. <sup>6</sup> Then he placed garrisons in Aram of Damascus, and the Arameans became David's subjects and brought tribute. The LORD made David victorious wherever he went.

<sup>9</sup> When King Toi of Hamath heard that David had defeated the entire army of Hadadezer, <sup>10</sup> he sent his son Joram to King David to greet him and to congratulate him because David had fought against Hadadezer and defeated him, for Toi and Hadadezer had fought many wars. Joram had items of silver, gold, and bronze with him. <sup>11</sup> King David also dedicated these to the LORD, along with the silver and gold he had dedicated from all the nations he had subdued — <sup>12</sup> from Edom, Moab, the Ammonites, the Philistines, the Amalekites, and the spoil of Hadadezer son of Rehob, king of Zobah.

<sup>13†</sup> David made a reputation for himself when he returned from striking down 18,000 Edomites in the Valley of Salt. <sup>14</sup> He placed garrisons throughout Edom, and all the Edomites were subject to David. The LORD made David victorious wherever he went.

Jehoshaphat son of Ahilud was court historian;

<sup>17†</sup> Zadok son of Ahitub
and Ahimelech son of Abiathar were priests;
Seraiah was court secretary;

<sup>18</sup> Benaiah son of Jehoiada was over the Cherethites and the Pelethites;
and David's sons were chief officials.

2 SAMUEL

David's Kindness to Mephibosheth

9 David asked, “Is there anyone remaining from Saul’s family I can show kindness to because of Jonathan?” <sup>2</sup> There was a servant of Saul’s family named Ziba. They summoned him to David, and the king said to him, “Are you Ziba?”

“I am your servant,” he replied.

Ziba said to the king, “There is still Jonathan’s son who was injured in both feet.”

Ziba answered the king, “You’ll find him in Lo-debar at the house of Machir son of Ammiel.” <sup>5</sup> So King David had him brought from the house of Machir son of Ammiel in Lo-debar.

<sup>6</sup> Mephibosheth son of Jonathan son of Saul came to David, bowed down to the ground and paid homage. David said, “Mephibosheth!”

“I am your servant,” he replied.

<sup>7</sup> “Don’t be afraid,” David said to him, “since I intend to show you kindness because of your father Jonathan. I will restore to you all your grandfather Saul’s fields, and you will always eat meals at my table.”

<sup>8</sup> Mephibosheth bowed down and said, “What is your servant that you take an interest in a dead dog like me?”

<sup>9</sup> Then the king summoned Saul’s attendant Ziba and said to him, “I have given to your master’s grandson all that belonged to Saul and his family.

<sup>10</sup> You, your sons, and your servants are to work the ground for him, and you are to bring in the crops so your master’s grandson will have food to eat. But Mephibosheth, your master’s grandson, is always to eat at my table.” Now Ziba had 15 sons and 20 servants.

<sup>11</sup> Ziba said to the king, “Your servant will do all my lord the king commands.”

So Mephibosheth ate at David’s table just like one of the king’s sons.
<sup>12</sup> Mephibosheth had a young son whose name was Mica. All those living in Ziba’s house were Mephibosheth’s servants. <sup>13</sup> However, Mephibosheth lived in Jerusalem because he always ate at the king’s table. His feet had been injured.

2 SAMUEL

War with the Ammonites

10 Some time later the king of the Ammonites died, and his son Hanun became king in his place. <sup>2</sup> Then David said, “I’ll show kindness to Hanun son of Nahash, just as his father showed kindness to me.”

So David sent his emissaries to console Hanun concerning his father. However, when they arrived in the land of the Ammonites, <sup>3</sup> the Ammonite leaders said to Hanun their lord, “Just because David has sent men with condolences for you, do you really believe he’s showing respect for your father? Instead, hasn’t David sent his emissaries in order to scout out the city, spy on it, and demolish it? ” <sup>4</sup> So Hanun took David’s emissaries, shaved off half their beards, cut their clothes in half at the hips, and sent them away.

<sup>5</sup> When this was reported to David, he sent someone to meet them, since they were deeply humiliated. The king said, “Stay in Jericho until your beards grow back; then return.”

<sup>6</sup> When the Ammonites realized they had become repulsive to David, they hired 20,000 foot soldiers from the Arameans of Beth-rehob and Zobah, 1,000 men from the king of Maacah, and 12,000 men from Tob.

<sup>7</sup> David heard about it and sent Joab and all the fighting men. <sup>8</sup> The Ammonites marched out and lined up in battle formation at the entrance to the city gate while the Arameans of Zobah and Rehob and the men of Tob and Maacah were in the field by themselves. <sup>9</sup> When Joab saw that there was a battle line in front of him and another behind him, he chose some men out of all the elite troops of Israel and lined up in battle formation to engage the Arameans. <sup>10</sup> He placed the rest of the forces under the command of his brother Abishai who lined up in battle formation to engage the Ammonites.

<sup>11</sup> “If the Arameans are too strong for me,” Joab said, “then you will be my help. However, if the Ammonites are too strong for you, I’ll come to help you. <sup>12</sup> Be strong! We must prove ourselves strong for our people and for the cities of our God. May the LORD’s will be done.” <sup>A</sup>

<sup>13</sup> Joab and his troops advanced to fight against the Arameans, and they fled before him. <sup>14</sup> When the Ammonites saw that the Arameans had fled, they too fled before Abishai and entered the city. So Joab withdrew from the attack against the Ammonites and went to Jerusalem.

<sup>15</sup> When the Arameans saw that they had been defeated by Israel, they regrouped. <sup>16</sup> Hadadezer sent messengers to bring the Arameans who were across the Euphrates River, and they came to Helam with Shobach, commander of Hadadezer's army, leading them.

<sup>17</sup> When this was reported to David, he gathered all Israel, crossed the Jordan, and went to Helam. Then the Arameans lined up in formation to engage David in battle and fought against him. <sup>18†</sup> But the Arameans fled before Israel, and David killed 700 of those chariots and 40,000 foot soldiers. He also struck down Shobach commander of their army, who died there. <sup>19</sup> When all the kings who were Hadadezer's subjects saw that they had been defeated by Israel, they made peace with Israel and became their subjects. After this, the Arameans were afraid to ever help the Ammonites again.

2 SAMUEL

David's Adultery with Bathsheba

11 In the spring when kings march out to war, David sent Joab with his officers and all Israel. They destroyed the Ammonites and besieged Rabbah, but David remained in Jerusalem.

<sup>6</sup> David sent orders to Joab: “Send me Uriah the Hittite.” So Joab sent Uriah to David. <sup>7</sup> When Uriah came to him, David asked how Joab and the troops were doing and how the war was going. <sup>8†</sup> Then he said to Uriah, “Go down to your house and wash your feet.” So Uriah left the palace, and a gift from the king followed him. <sup>9</sup> But Uriah slept at the door of the palace with all his master’s servants; he did not go down to his house.

<sup>10</sup> When it was reported to David, “Uriah didn’t go home,” David questioned Uriah, “Haven’t you just come from a journey? Why didn’t you go home? ”

How can I enter my house to eat and drink and sleep with my wife? As surely as you live and by your life, I will not do this! ”

<sup>12</sup> “Stay here today also,” David said to Uriah, “and tomorrow I will send you back.” So Uriah stayed in Jerusalem that day and the next. <sup>13</sup> Then David invited Uriah to eat and drink with him, and David got him drunk. He went out in the evening to lie down on his cot with his master’s servants, but he did not go home.

Uriah’s Death Arranged

<sup>14</sup> The next morning David wrote a letter to Joab and sent it with Uriah. <sup>15</sup> In the letter he wrote:

Put Uriah at the front of the fiercest fighting, then withdraw from him so that he is struck down and dies.

<sup>16</sup> When Joab was besieging the city, he put Uriah in the place where he knew the best enemy soldiers were. <sup>17</sup> Then the men of the city came out and attacked Joab, and some of the men from David’s soldiers fell in battle; Uriah the Hittite also died.

<sup>18</sup> Joab sent someone to report to David all the details of the battle. <sup>19</sup> He commanded the messenger, “When you’ve finished telling the king all the details of the battle — <sup>20</sup> if the king’s anger gets stirred up and he asks you, ‘Why did you get so close to the city to fight? Didn’t you realize they would shoot from the top of the wall?’ <sup>21†</sup> At Thebez, who struck Abimelech son of Jerubbesheth? Didn’t a woman drop an upper millstone on him from the top of the wall so that he died? Why did you get so close to the wall?’ — then say, ‘Your servant Uriah the Hittite is dead also.’ ” <sup>22</sup> Then the messenger left.

When he arrived, he reported to David all that Joab had sent him to tell. <sup>23</sup> The messenger reported to David, “The men gained the advantage over us and came out against us in the field, but we counterattacked right up to the entrance of the gate. <sup>24</sup> However, the archers shot down on your soldiers from the top of the wall, and some of the king's soldiers died. Your servant Uriah the Hittite is also dead.”

<sup>25</sup> David told the messenger, “Say this to Joab: ‘Don’t let this matter upset you because the sword devours all alike. Intensify your fight against the city and demolish it.’ Encourage him.”

<sup>26</sup> When Uriah’s wife heard that her husband Uriah had died, she mourned for him. <sup>B</sup> <sup>27</sup> When the time of mourning ended, David had her brought to his house. She became his wife and bore him a son. However, the LORD considered what David had done to be evil.

2 SAMUEL

Nathan's Parable and David's Repentance

12 So the LORD sent Nathan to David. When he arrived, he said to him:

There were two men in a certain city, one rich and the other poor.

<sup>2</sup> The rich man had a large number of sheep and cattle, <sup>3</sup> but the poor man had nothing except one small ewe lamb that he had bought. He raised it, and it grew up, living with him and his children. It shared his meager food and drank from his cup; it slept in his arms, and it was like a daughter to him. <sup>4</sup> Now a traveler came to the rich man, but the rich man could not bring himself to take one of his own sheep or cattle to prepare for the traveler who had come to him. Instead, he took the poor man's lamb and prepared it for his guest. <sup>A</sup>

<sup>5</sup> David was infuriated with the man and said to Nathan: "As the LORD lives, the man who did this deserves to die! <sup>6</sup> Because he has done this thing and shown no pity, he must pay four lambs for that lamb."

<sup>7</sup> Nathan replied to David, "You are the man! This is what the LORD God of Israel says: 'I anointed you king over Israel, and I delivered you from the hand of Saul. <sup>8</sup> I gave your master's house to you and your master's wives into your arms, <sup>B</sup> and I gave you the house of Israel and Judah, and if that was not enough, I would have given you even more. <sup>9</sup> Why then have you despised the command of the LORD by doing what I consider evil? You struck down Uriah the Hittite with the sword and took his wife as your own wife — you murdered him with the Ammonite's sword. <sup>10</sup> Now therefore, the sword will never leave your house because you despised Me and took the wife of Uriah the Hittite to be your own wife.'

Then Nathan replied to David, “The LORD has taken away your sin; you will not die. <sup>14†</sup> However, because you treated the LORD with such contempt in this matter, the son born to you will die.” <sup>15</sup> Then Nathan went home.

The Death of Bathsheba’s Son

The LORD struck the baby that Uriah’s wife had borne to David, and he became ill. <sup>16</sup> David pleaded with God for the boy. He fasted, went home, and spent the night lying on the ground. <sup>17</sup> The elders of his house stood beside him to get him up from the ground, but he was unwilling and would not eat anything with them.

<sup>18</sup> On the seventh day the baby died. But David’s servants were afraid to tell him the baby was dead. They said, “Look, while the baby was alive, we spoke to him, and he wouldn’t listen to us. So how can we tell him the baby is dead? He may do something desperate.”

<sup>19</sup> When David saw that his servants were whispering to each other, he guessed that the baby was dead. So he asked his servants, “Is the baby dead? ”

“He is dead,” they replied.

<sup>20</sup> Then David got up from the ground. He washed, anointed himself, changed his clothes, went to the LORD’s house, and worshiped. Then he went home and requested something to eat. So they served him food, and he ate.

<sup>21</sup> His servants asked him, “What did you just do? While the baby was alive, you fasted and wept, but when he died, you got up and ate food.”

<sup>22</sup> He answered, “While the baby was alive, I fasted and wept because I thought, ‘Who knows? The LORD may be gracious to me and let him live.’ <sup>23</sup> But now that he is dead, why should I fast? Can I bring him back again? I’ll go to him, but he will never return to me.”

The Birth of Solomon

<sup>24</sup> Then David comforted his wife Bathsheba; he went and slept with her. She gave birth to a son and named him Solomon. The LORD loved him, <sup>25</sup> and He sent a message through Nathan the prophet, who named <sup>F</sup> him Jedidiah, because of the LORD.

Capture of the City of Rabbah

<sup>26</sup> Joab fought against Rabbah of the Ammonites and captured the royal fortress. <sup>27</sup> Then Joab sent messengers to David to say, “I have fought against Rabbah and have also captured the water supply. <sup>28</sup> Now therefore, assemble the rest of the troops, lay siege to the city, and capture it. Otherwise I will be the one to capture the city, and it will be named after me.” <sup>29</sup> So David assembled all the troops and went to Rabbah; he fought against it and captured it. <sup>30</sup> He took the crown from the head of their king, and it was placed on David’s head. The crown weighed 75 pounds <sup>G</sup> of gold, and it had a precious stone in it. In addition, David took away a large quantity of plunder from the city. <sup>31†</sup> He removed the people who were in the city and put them to work with saws, iron picks, and iron axes, and to labor at brickmaking. He did the same to all the Ammonite cities. Then he and all his troops returned to Jerusalem.

2 SAMUEL

Amnon Rapes Tamar

13 Some time passed. David's son Absalom had a beautiful sister named Tamar, and David's son Amnon was infatuated with her. <sup>2</sup> Amnon was frustrated to the point of making himself sick over his sister Tamar because she was a virgin, but it seemed impossible to do anything to her. <sup>3</sup> Amnon had a friend named Jonadab, a son of David's brother Shimeah. Jonadab was a very shrewd man, <sup>4</sup> and he asked Amnon, "Why are you, the king's son, so miserable every morning? Won't you tell me?"

Amnon replied, "I'm in love with Tamar, my brother Absalom's sister."

<sup>5</sup> Jonadab said to him, "Lie down on your bed and pretend you're sick. When your father comes to see you, say to him, 'Please let my sister Tamar come and give me something to eat. Let her prepare food in my presence so I can watch and eat from her hand.'"

<sup>6</sup> So Amnon lay down and pretended to be sick. When the king came to see him, Amnon said to him, "Please let my sister Tamar come and make a couple of cakes in my presence so I can eat from her hand."

<sup>7</sup> David sent word to Tamar at the palace: "Please go to your brother Amnon's house and prepare a meal for him."

<sup>8</sup> Then Tamar went to his house while Amnon was lying down. She took dough, kneaded it, made cakes in his presence, and baked them. <sup>9</sup> She brought the pan and set it down in front of him, but he refused to eat. Amnon said, "Everyone leave me!" And everyone left him. <sup>10</sup> "Bring the meal to the bedroom," Amnon told Tamar, "so I can eat from your hand." Tamar took the cakes she had made and went to her brother Amnon's bedroom. <sup>11</sup> When she brought them to him to eat, he grabbed her and said, <sup>A</sup> "Come sleep with me, my sister!"

<sup>12</sup> "Don't, my brother!" she cried. "Don't humiliate me, for such a thing should never be done in Israel. Don't do this horrible thing!" <sup>13</sup> Where could I ever go with my disgrace? And you — you would be like one of the immoral men in Israel! Please, speak to the king, for he won't keep me from you.”<sup>14</sup> But he refused to listen to her, and because he was stronger than she was, he raped her.

<sup>15</sup> After this, Amnon hated Tamar with such intensity that the hatred he hated her with was greater than the love he had loved her with. “Get out of here!” he said.

<sup>16</sup> “No,” she cried, <sup>B</sup> “sending me away is much worse than the great wrong you’ve already done to me!” But he refused to listen to her.

<sup>20</sup> Her brother Absalom said to her: “Has your brother Amnon been with you? Be quiet for now, my sister. He is your brother. Don’t take this thing to heart.” So Tamar lived as a desolate woman in the house of her brother Absalom.

Absalom Murders Amnon

<sup>22</sup> Absalom didn’t say anything to Amnon, either good or bad, because he hated Amnon since he disgraced his sister Tamar.

<sup>23</sup> Two years later, Absalom’s sheepshearers were at Baal-hazor near Ephraim, and Absalom invited all the king’s sons.<sup>24</sup> Then he went to the king and said, “Your servant has just hired sheepshearers. Will the king and his servants please come with your servant?”

<sup>25</sup> The king replied to Absalom, “No, my son, we should not all go, or we would be a burden to you.” Although Absalom urged him, he wasn’t willing to go, though he did bless him.

<sup>26</sup> “If not,” Absalom said, “please let my brother Amnon go with us.”

The king asked him, “Why should he go with you? ” <sup>27</sup> But Absalom urged him, so he sent Amnon and all the king’s sons.

<sup>28</sup> Now Absalom commanded his young men, “Watch Amnon until he is in a good mood from the wine. When I order you to strike Amnon, then kill him. Don’t be afraid. Am I not the one who has commanded you? Be strong and courageous! ” <sup>29</sup> So Absalom’s young men did to Amnon just as Absalom had commanded. Then all the rest of the king’s sons got up, and each fled on his mule.

<sup>30</sup> While they were on the way, a report reached David: “Absalom struck down all the king’s sons; not even one of them survived! ” <sup>31</sup> In response the king stood up, tore his clothes, and lay down on the ground, and all his servants stood by with their clothes torn.

<sup>32</sup> But Jonadab, son of David’s brother Shimeah, spoke up: “My lord must not think they have killed all the young men, the king’s sons, because only Amnon is dead. In fact, Absalom has planned this <sup>D</sup> ever since the day Amnon disgraced his sister Tamar. <sup>33</sup> So now, my lord the king, don’t take seriously the report that says all the king’s sons are dead. Only Amnon is dead.”

<sup>34</sup> Meanwhile, Absalom had fled. When the young man who was standing watch looked up, there were many people coming from the road west of him from the side of the mountain. <sup>35</sup> Jonadab said to the king, “Look, the king’s sons have come! It’s exactly like your servant said.” <sup>36</sup> Just as he finished speaking, the king’s sons entered and wept loudly. Then the king and all his servants also wept bitterly.

<sup>37</sup> Now Absalom fled and went to Talmai son of Ammihud, king of Geshur. And David mourned for his son every day. <sup>38</sup> Absalom had fled and gone to Geshur where he stayed three years. <sup>39</sup> Then King David longed to go to Absalom, for David had finished grieving over Amnon’s death.

2 SAMUEL

Absalom Restored to David

14 Joab son of Zeruiah observed that the king's mind was on Absalom.
2 So Joab sent someone to Tekoa to bring a clever woman from there. He told her, "Pretend to be in mourning: dress in mourning clothes and don't put on any oil. Act like a woman who has been mourning for the dead for a long time. 3 Go to the king and speak these words to him." Then Joab told her exactly what to say.

4 When the woman from Tekoa came to the king, she fell with her face to the ground in homage and said, "Help me, my king! "

5 "What's the matter? " the king asked her.

"To tell the truth, I am a widow; my husband died," she said. 6 "Your servant had two sons. They were fighting in the field with no one to separate them, and one struck the other and killed him. 7 Now the whole clan has risen up against your servant and said, 'Hand over the one who killed his brother so we may put him to death for the life of the brother he murdered. We will destroy the heir! ' They would extinguish my one remaining ember by not preserving my husband's name or posterity on earth."

8 The king told the woman, "Go home. I will issue a command on your behalf."

9 Then the woman of Tekoa said to the king, "My lord the king, may any blame be on me and my father's house, and may the king and his throne be innocent."

10 "Whoever speaks to you," the king said, "bring him to me. He will not trouble you again! "

11 She replied, "Please, may the king invoke the LORD your God, so that the avenger of blood will not increase the loss, and they will not eliminate my son! "

"As the LORD lives," he vowed, "not a hair of your son will fall to the ground."

<sup>12</sup> Then the woman said, “Please, may your servant speak a word to my lord the king? ”

“Speak,” he replied.

<sup>13</sup> The woman asked, “Why have you devised something similar against the people of God? When the king spoke as he did about this matter, he has pronounced his own •guilt. The king has not brought back his own banished one. <sup>14</sup> We will certainly die and be like water poured out on the ground, which can’t be recovered. But God would not take away a life; He would devise plans so that the one banished from Him does not remain banished.

<sup>15</sup> “Now therefore, I’ve come to present this matter to my lord the king because the people have made me afraid. Your servant thought: I must speak to the king. Perhaps the king will grant his servant’s request. <sup>16</sup> The king will surely listen in order to rescue his servant from the hand of this man who would eliminate both me and my son from God’s inheritance. <sup>17</sup> Your servant thought: May the word of my lord the king bring relief, for my lord the king is able to discern the good and the bad like the Angel of God. May the LORD your God be with you.”

<sup>18</sup> Then the king answered the woman, “I’m going to ask you something; don’t conceal it from me! ”

“Let my lord the king speak,” the woman replied.

The woman answered. “As you live, my lord the king, no one can turn to the right or left from all my lord the king says. Yes, your servant Joab is the one who gave orders to me; he told your servant exactly what to say. <sup>20</sup> Joab your servant has done this to address the issue indirectly, <sup>B</sup> but my lord has wisdom like the wisdom of the Angel of God, knowing everything on earth.”

<sup>21</sup> Then the king said to Joab, “I hereby grant this request. Go, bring back the young man Absalom.”

<sup>22</sup> Joab fell with his face to the ground in homage and praised the king. “Today,” Joab said, “your servant knows I have found favor with you, my lord the king, because the king has granted the request of your servant.”

<sup>23</sup> So Joab got up, went to Geshur, and brought Absalom to Jerusalem. <sup>24</sup> However, the king added, “He may return to his house, but he may not see my face.” So Absalom returned to his house, but he did not see the king. <sup>C</sup>

<sup>25</sup> No man in all Israel was as handsome and highly praised as Absalom. From the sole of his foot to the top of his head, he did not have a single flaw. <sup>26†</sup> When he shaved his head — he shaved it every year because his hair got so heavy for him that he had to shave it off — he would weigh the hair from his head and it would be five pounds <sup>D</sup> according to the royal standard.

<sup>27†</sup> Three sons were born to Absalom, and a daughter named Tamar, who was a beautiful woman. <sup>28</sup> Absalom resided in Jerusalem two years but never saw the king. <sup>29</sup> Then Absalom sent for Joab in order to send him to the king, but Joab was unwilling to come. So he sent again, a second time, but he still wouldn’t come. <sup>30</sup> Then Absalom said to his servants, “See, Joab has a field right next to mine, and he has barley there. Go and set fire to it!” So Absalom’s servants set the field on fire.

<sup>31</sup> Then Joab came to Absalom’s house and demanded, “Why did your servants set my field on fire?”

<sup>32</sup> “Look,” Absalom explained to Joab, “I sent for you and said, ‘Come here. I want to send you to the king to ask: Why have I come back from Geshur? I’d be better off if I were still there.’ So now, let me see the king. If I am guilty, let him kill me.”

<sup>33</sup> Joab went to the king and told him. So David summoned Absalom, who came to the king and bowed down with his face to the ground before him. Then the king kissed Absalom.

2 SAMUEL

Absalom's Revolt

15 After this, Absalom got himself a chariot, horses, and 50 men to run before him. <sup>2</sup> He would get up early and stand beside the road leading to the city •gate. Whenever anyone had a grievance to bring before the king for settlement, Absalom called out to him and asked, “What city are you from?” If he replied, “Your servant is from one of the tribes of Israel,” <sup>3</sup> Absalom said to him, “Look, your claims are good and right, but the king does not have anyone to listen to you.” <sup>4</sup> He added, “If only someone would appoint me judge in the land. Then anyone who had a grievance or dispute could come to me, and I would make sure he received justice.” <sup>5</sup> When a person approached to bow down to him, Absalom reached out his hand, took hold of him, and kissed him. <sup>6</sup> Absalom did this to all the Israelites who came to the king for a settlement. So Absalom stole the hearts of the men of Israel.

<sup>7†</sup> When four years had passed, Absalom said to the king, “Please let me go to Hebron to fulfill a vow I made to the LORD. <sup>8</sup> For your servant made a vow when I lived in Geshur of Aram, saying: If the LORD really brings me back to Jerusalem, I will worship the LORD in Hebron.”

<sup>9</sup> “Go in peace,” the king said to him. So he went to Hebron.

<sup>10</sup> Then Absalom sent messengers throughout the tribes of Israel with this message: “When you hear the sound of the ram’s horn, you are to say, ‘Absalom has become king in Hebron!’ ”

<sup>11</sup> Two hundred men from Jerusalem went with Absalom. They had been invited and were going innocently, for they knew nothing about the whole matter. <sup>12</sup> While he was offering the sacrifices, Absalom sent for David’s adviser Ahithophel the Gilonite, from his city of Giloh. So the conspiracy grew strong, and the people supporting Absalom continued to increase.

<sup>13</sup> Then an informer came to David and reported, “The hearts of the men of Israel are with Absalom.”

<sup>14</sup> David said to all the servants with him in Jerusalem, “Get up. We have to flee, or we will not escape from Absalom! Leave quickly, or he will soon overtake us, heap disaster on us, and strike the city with the edge of the sword.”

<sup>15</sup> The king’s servants said to him, “Whatever my lord the king decides, we are your servants.” <sup>16</sup> Then the king set out, and his entire household followed him. But he left behind 10 concubines to take care of the palace.

<sup>17</sup> So the king set out, and all the people followed him. They stopped at the last house <sup>18</sup> while all his servants marched past him. Then all the Cherethites, the Pelethites, and the Gittites — 600 men who came with him from Gath — marched past the king.

<sup>19</sup> The king said to Ittai the Gittite, “Why are you also going with us? Go back and stay with the new king since you’re both a foreigner and an exile from your homeland. <sup>20</sup> Besides, you only arrived yesterday; should I make you wander around with us today while I go wherever I can? Go back and take your brothers with you. May the LORD show you kindness and faithfulness.”

<sup>21</sup> But in response, Ittai vowed to the king, “As the LORD lives and as my lord the king lives, wherever my lord the king is, whether it means life or death, your servant will be there! ”

<sup>22</sup> “March on,” David replied to Ittai. So Ittai the Gittite marched past with all his men and the children who were with him. <sup>23</sup> Everyone in the countryside was weeping loudly while all the people were marching past. As the king was crossing the Kidron Valley, all the people were marching past on the road that leads to the desert.

<sup>24</sup> Zadok was also there, and all the Levites with him were carrying the ark of the covenant of God. They set the ark of God down, and Abiathar offered sacrifices <sup>A</sup> until the people had finished marching past. <sup>25</sup> Then the king instructed Zadok, “Return the ark of God to the city. If I find favor in the LORD’s eyes, He will bring me back and allow me to see both it and its dwelling place. <sup>26</sup> However, if He should say, ‘I do not delight in you,’ then here I am — He can do with me whatever pleases Him.” <sup>B</sup>

<sup>30</sup> David was climbing the slope of the Mount of Olives, weeping as he ascended. His head was covered, and he was walking barefoot. Each of the people with him covered their heads and went up, weeping as they ascended.

“LORD,” David pleaded, “please turn the counsel of Ahithophel into foolishness! ”

<sup>32</sup> When David came to the summit where he used to worship God, Hushai the Archite was there to meet him with his robe torn and dust on his head. <sup>33</sup> David said to him, “If you go away with me, you’ll be a burden to me, <sup>34</sup> but if you return to the city and tell Absalom, ‘I will be your servant, my king! Previously, I was your father’s servant, but now I will be your servant,’ then you can counteract Ahithophel’s counsel for me. <sup>35</sup> Won’t Zadok and Abiathar the priests be there with you? Report everything you hear from the king’s palace to Zadok and Abiathar the priests. <sup>36</sup> Take note: their two sons, Zadok’s son Ahimaaz and Abiathar’s son Jonathan, are there with them. Send me everything you hear through them.” <sup>37</sup> So Hushai, David’s personal adviser, entered Jerusalem just as Absalom was entering the city.

2 SAMUEL

Ziba Helps David

16 When David had gone a little beyond the summit, Ziba, Mephibosheth's servant, was right there to meet him. He had a pair of saddled donkeys loaded with 200 loaves of bread, 100 clusters of raisins, 100 bunches of summer fruit, and a skin of wine. <sup>2</sup> The king said to Ziba, "Why do you have these?"

Ziba answered, "The donkeys are for the king's household to ride, the bread and summer fruit are for the young men to eat, and the wine is for those to drink who become exhausted in the desert."

"Why, he's staying in Jerusalem," Ziba replied to the king, "for he said, 'Today, the house of Israel will restore my grandfather's kingdom to me.'"

<sup>4</sup> The king said to Ziba, "All that belongs to Mephibosheth is now yours!"

"I bow before you," Ziba said. "May you look favorably on me, my lord the king!"

Shimei Curses David

<sup>5</sup> When King David got to Bahurim, a man belonging to the family of the house of Saul was just coming out. His name was Shimei son of Gera, and he was yelling curses as he approached. <sup>6</sup> He threw stones at David and at all the royal <sup>A</sup> servants, the people and the warriors on David's right and left. <sup>7</sup> Shimei said as he cursed: "Get out, get out, you worthless murderer! <sup>8</sup> The LORD has paid you back for all the blood of the house of Saul in whose place you became king, and the LORD has handed the kingdom over to your son Absalom. Look, you are in trouble because you're a murderer!"

<sup>9</sup> Then Abishai son of Zeruiah said to the king, "Why should this dead dog curse my lord the king? Let me go over and cut his head off!"

<sup>10</sup> The king replied, "Sons of Zeruiah, do we agree on anything? He curses me this way because the LORD told him, 'Curse David!' Therefore, who can say, ‘Why did you do that?’ ” <sup>11</sup> Then David said to Abishai and all his servants, “Look, my own son, my own flesh and blood, <sup>B</sup> intends to take my life — how much more now this Benjaminite! Leave him alone and let him curse me; the LORD has told him to. <sup>12</sup> Perhaps the LORD will see my affliction and restore goodness to me instead of Shimei’s curses today.” <sup>13</sup> So David and his men proceeded along the road as Shimei was going along the ridge of the hill opposite him. As Shimei went, he cursed David, and threw stones and dirt at him. <sup>14</sup> Finally, the king and all the people with him arrived exhausted, so they rested there.

Absalom’s Advisers

<sup>15</sup> Now Absalom and all the Israelites came to Jerusalem. Ahithophel was also with him. <sup>16</sup> When David’s friend Hushai the Archite came to Absalom, Hushai said to Absalom, “Long live the king! Long live the king!”

<sup>17</sup> “Is this your loyalty to your friend?” Absalom asked Hushai. “Why didn’t you go with your friend?”

<sup>18</sup> “Not at all,” Hushai answered Absalom. “I am on the side of the one that the LORD, the people, and all the men of Israel have chosen. I will stay with him. <sup>19</sup> Furthermore, whom will I serve if not his son? As I served in your father’s presence, I will also serve in yours.”

<sup>20</sup> Then Absalom said to Ahithophel, “Give me your advice. What should we do?”

<sup>21</sup> Ahithophel replied to Absalom, “Sleep with your father’s concubines he left to take care of the palace. When all Israel hears that you have become repulsive to your father, everyone with you will be encouraged.”

<sup>22</sup> So they pitched a tent for Absalom on the roof, and he slept with his father’s concubines in the sight of all Israel.

<sup>23</sup> Now the advice Ahithophel gave in those days was like someone asking about a word from God — such was the regard that both David and Absalom had for Ahithophel's advice.

2 SAMUEL

17 Ahithophel said to Absalom, “Let me choose 12,000 men, and I will set out in pursuit of David tonight. <sup>2</sup> I will attack him while he is weak and weary, throw him into a panic, and all the people with him will scatter. I will strike down only the king <sup>3</sup> and bring all the people back to you. When everyone returns except the man you’re seeking, all the people will be at peace.” <sup>4</sup> This proposal seemed good to Absalom and all the elders of Israel.

<sup>5</sup> Then Absalom said, “Summon Hushai the Archite also. Let’s hear what he has to say as well.”

<sup>6</sup> So Hushai came to Absalom, and Absalom told him: “Ahithophel offered this proposal. Should we carry out his proposal? If not, what do you say? ”

<sup>7</sup> Hushai replied to Absalom, “The advice Ahithophel has given this time is not good.” <sup>8</sup> Hushai continued, “You know your father and his men. They are warriors and are desperate like a wild bear robbed of her cubs. Your father is an experienced soldier who won’t spend the night with the people. <sup>9</sup> He’s probably already hiding in one of the caves <sup>A</sup> or some other place. If some of our troops fall <sup>B</sup> first, someone is sure to hear and say, ‘There’s been a slaughter among the people who follow Absalom.’ <sup>10</sup> Then, even a brave man with the heart of a lion will melt because all Israel knows that your father and the valiant men with him are warriors. <sup>11</sup> Instead, I advise that all Israel from Dan to Beer-sheba — as numerous as the sand by the sea — be gathered to you and that you personally go into battle. <sup>12</sup> Then we will attack David wherever we find him, and we will descend on him like dew on the ground. Not even one will be left of all the men with him. <sup>13</sup> If he retreats to some city, all Israel will bring ropes to that city, and we will drag its stones into the valley until not even a pebble can be found there.” <sup>14</sup> Since the LORD had decreed that Ahithophel’s good advice be undermined in order to bring about Absalom’s ruin, Absalom and all the men of Israel said, “The advice of Hushai the Archite is better than Ahithophel’s advice.”

David Informed of Absalom's Plans

<sup>17</sup> Jonathan and Ahimaaz were staying at En-rogel, where a servant girl would come and pass along information to them. They in turn would go and inform King David, because they dared not be seen entering the city.

<sup>18†</sup> However, a young man did see them and informed Absalom. So the two left quickly and came to the house of a man in Bahurim. He had a well in his courtyard, and they climbed down into it. <sup>19</sup> Then his wife took the cover, placed it over the mouth of the well, and scattered grain on it so nobody would know anything.

<sup>20</sup> Absalom’s servants came to the woman at the house and asked, “Where are Ahimaaz and Jonathan? ”

“They passed by toward the water,” <sup>E</sup> the woman replied to them. The men searched but did not find them, so they returned to Jerusalem.

<sup>21</sup> After they had gone, Ahimaaz and Jonathan climbed out of the well and went and informed King David. They told him, “Get up and immediately ford the river, for Ahithophel has given this advice against you.” <sup>22</sup> So David and all the people with him got up and crossed the Jordan. By daybreak, there was no one who had not crossed the Jordan.

<sup>23</sup> When Ahithophel realized that his advice had not been followed, he saddled his donkey and set out for his house in his hometown. He set his affairs in order <sup>F</sup> and hanged himself. So he died and was buried in his father’s tomb.

the Israelite; Ithra had married Abigail daughter of Nahash. Abigail was a sister to Zeruah, Joab's mother.<sup>26</sup> And Israel and Absalom camped in the land of Gilead.<sup>27</sup> When David came to Mahanaim, Shobi son of Nahash from Rabbah of the Ammonites, Machir son of Ammiel from Lo-debar, and Barzillai the Gileadite from Rogelim<sup>28</sup> brought beds, basins, and pottery items. They also brought wheat, barley, flour, roasted grain, beans, lentils,<sup>29</sup> honey, curds, sheep, and cheese <sup>H</sup> from the herd for David and the people with him to eat. They had reasoned, "The people must be hungry, exhausted, and thirsty in the desert."

2 SAMUEL

Absalom's Defeat

18 David reviewed his troops and appointed commanders of hundreds and of thousands over them.<sup>2</sup> He then sent out the troops, a third under Joab, a third under Joab's brother Abishai son of Zeruiah, and a third under Ittai the Gittite. The king said to the troops, "I will also march out with you."

<sup>3</sup> "You must not go!" the people pleaded. "If we have to flee, they will not pay any attention to us. Even if half of us die, they will not pay any attention to us because you are worth 10,000 of us. Therefore, it is better if you support us from the city."

<sup>4</sup> "I will do whatever you think is best," the king replied to them. So he stood beside the gate while all the troops marched out by hundreds and thousands.<sup>5</sup> The king commanded Joab, Abishai, and Ittai, "Treat the young man Absalom gently for my sake." All the people heard the king's orders to all the commanders about Absalom.

<sup>6†</sup> Then David's forces marched into the field to engage Israel in battle, which took place in the forest of Ephraim.<sup>7</sup> The people of Israel were defeated by David's soldiers, and the slaughter there was vast that day — 20,000 casualties.<sup>8</sup> The battle spread over the entire region, and that day the forest claimed more people than the sword.

Absalom's Death

<sup>9†</sup> Absalom was riding on his mule when he happened to meet David's soldiers. When the mule went under the tangled branches of a large oak tree, Absalom's head was caught fast in the tree. The mule under him kept going, so he was suspended in midair.<sup>A 10</sup> One of the men saw him and informed Joab. He said, "I just saw Absalom hanging in an oak tree!"

<sup>11</sup> "You just saw him!" Joab exclaimed.<sup>B</sup> "Why didn't you strike him to the ground right there? I would have given you 10 silver pieces and a belt!"

<sup>12</sup> The man replied to Joab, “Even if I had the weight of 1,000 pieces of silver in my hand, I would not raise my hand against the king’s son. For we heard the king command you, Abishai, and Ittai, ‘Protect the young man Absalom for me.’ <sup>13</sup> If I had jeopardized my own life — and nothing is hidden from the king — you would have abandoned me.”

<sup>14</sup> Joab said, “I’m not going to waste time with you! ” He then took three spears in his hand and thrust them into Absalom’s heart while he was still alive in the oak tree, <sup>15</sup> and 10 young men who were Joab’s armor-bearers surrounded Absalom, struck him, and killed him.

<sup>16</sup> Afterward, Joab blew the ram’s horn, and the troops broke off their pursuit of Israel because Joab restrained them. <sup>17</sup> They took Absalom, threw him into a large pit in the forest, and piled a huge mound of stones over him. And all Israel fled, each to his tent.

<sup>18†</sup> When he was alive, Absalom had set up a pillar for himself in the King’s Valley, for he had said, “I have no son to preserve the memory of my name.” So he gave the pillar his name. It is still called Absalom’s Monument today.

<sup>19</sup> Ahimaaz son of Zadok said, “Please let me run and tell the king the good news that the LORD has delivered him from his enemies.”

<sup>20</sup> Joab replied to him, “You are not the man to take good news today. You may do it another day, but today you aren’t taking good news, because the king’s son is dead.” <sup>21</sup> Joab then said to the •Cushite, “Go tell the king what you have seen.” The Cushite bowed to Joab and took off running.

<sup>22</sup> However, Ahimaaz son of Zadok persisted and said to Joab, “No matter what, please let me also run behind the Cushite! ”

Joab replied, “My son, why do you want to run since you won’t get a reward? ”

“Then run! ” Joab said to him. So Ahimaaz ran by way of the plain and outran the Cushite.

<sup>24</sup> David was sitting between the two gates when the watchman went up to the roof of the gate and over to the wall. The watchman looked out and saw a man running alone. <sup>25</sup> He called out and told the king.

The king said, “If he’s alone, he bears good news.”

As the first runner came closer, <sup>26</sup> the watchman saw another man running. He called out to the gatekeeper, “Look! Another man is running alone! ”

“This one is also bringing good news,” said the king.

<sup>27</sup> The watchman said, “The way the first man runs looks to me like the way Ahimaaz son of Zadok runs.”

“This is a good man; he comes with good news,” the king commented.

Ahimaaz replied, “When Joab sent the king’s servant and your servant, I saw a big disturbance, but I don’t know what it was.”

<sup>30</sup> The king said, “Move aside and stand here.” So he stood to one side.

<sup>31</sup> Just then the Cushite came and said, “May my lord the king hear the good news: today the LORD has delivered you from all those rising up against you! ”

The Cushite replied, “May what has become of the young man happen to the enemies of my lord the king and to all who rise up against you with evil intent.”

<sup>33</sup> The king was deeply moved and went up to the gate chamber and wept. As he walked, he cried, “My son Absalom! My son, my son Absalom! If only I had died instead of you, Absalom, my son, my son! ”

2 SAMUEL

David's Kingdom Restored

19 It was reported to Joab, “The king is weeping. He’s mourning over Absalom.”<sup>2</sup> That day’s victory was turned into mourning for all the troops because on that day the troops heard, “The king is grieving over his son.”<sup>3</sup> So they returned to the city quietly that day like people come in when they are humiliated after fleeing in battle.<sup>4</sup> But the king hid his face and cried out at the top of his voice, “My son Absalom! Absalom, my son, my son! ”

<sup>5</sup> Then Joab went into the house to the king and said, “Today you have shamed all your soldiers — those who rescued your life and the lives of your sons and daughters, your wives, and your concubines.<sup>6</sup> You love your enemies and hate those who love you! Today you have made it clear that the commanders and soldiers mean nothing to you. In fact, today I know that if Absalom were alive and all of us were dead, it would be fine with you! <sup>A</sup>

<sup>7</sup> “Now get up! Go out and encourage <sup>B</sup> your soldiers, for I swear by the LORD that if you don’t go out, not a man will remain with you tonight. This will be worse for you than all the trouble that has come to you from your youth until now! ”

<sup>8</sup> So the king got up and sat in the •gate, and all the people were told: “Look, the king is sitting in the gate.” Then they all came into the king’s presence.

Meanwhile, each Israelite had fled to his tent. <sup>9</sup> All the people among all the tribes of Israel were arguing: “The king delivered us from the grasp of our enemies, and he rescued us from the grasp of the Philistines, but now he has fled from the land because of Absalom. <sup>10</sup> But Absalom, the man we anointed over us, has died in battle. So why do you say nothing about restoring the king? ”

<sup>11</sup> King David sent word to the priests, Zadok and Abiathar: “Say to the elders of Judah, ‘Why should you be the last to restore the king to his palace? The talk of all Israel has reached the king at his house. <sup>12</sup> You are my brothers, my flesh and blood. So why should you be the last to restore the king? ’ <sup>13</sup> And tell Amasa, ‘Aren’t you my flesh and blood? May God punish me and do so severely if you don't become commander of the army from now on instead of Joab! ' ”

<sup>14</sup> So he won over <sup>C</sup> all the men of Judah, and they sent word to the king: “Come back, you and all your servants.” <sup>15</sup> Then the king returned. When he arrived at the Jordan, Judah came to Gilgal to meet the king and escort him across the Jordan.

<sup>16</sup> Shimei son of Gera, a Benjaminite from Bahurim, hurried down with the men of Judah to meet King David. <sup>17</sup> There were 1,000 men from Benjamin with him. Ziba, an attendant from the house of Saul, with his 15 sons and 20 servants also rushed down to the Jordan ahead of the king. <sup>18</sup> They forded the Jordan to bring the king's household across and do whatever the king desired. <sup>D</sup>

When Shimei son of Gera crossed the Jordan, he fell down before the king <sup>19</sup> and said to him, “My lord, don't hold me •guilty, and don't remember your servant's wrongdoing on the day my lord the king left Jerusalem. May the king not take it to heart. <sup>20†</sup> For your servant knows that I have sinned. But look! Today I am the first one of the entire house of Joseph to come down to meet my lord the king.”

<sup>21</sup> Abishai son of Zeruiah asked, “Shouldn't Shimei be put to death for this, because he cursed the LORD's anointed? ”

<sup>22</sup> David answered, “Sons of Zeruiah, do we agree on anything? Have you become my adversary today? Should any man be killed in Israel today? Am I not aware that today I'm king over Israel? ” <sup>23†</sup> So the king said to Shimei, “You will not die.” Then the king gave him his oath.

<sup>24</sup> Mephibosheth, Saul's grandson, also went down to meet the king. He had not taken care of his feet, trimmed his mustache, or washed his clothes from the day the king left until the day he returned safely. <sup>25</sup> When he came from Jerusalem to meet the king, the king asked him, “Mephibosheth, why didn't you come with me? ”

<sup>26</sup> “My lord the king,” he replied, “my servant Ziba betrayed me. Actually your servant said: ‘I’ll saddle the donkey for myself so that I may ride it and go with the king’ — for your servant is lame. <sup>27</sup> Ziba slandered your servant to my lord the king. But my lord the king is like the Angel of God, so do whatever you think best. <sup>E</sup> <sup>28</sup> For my grandfather’s entire family deserves death from my lord the king, but you set your servant among those who eat at your table. So what further right do I have to keep on making appeals to the king? ”

<sup>29</sup> The king said to him, “Why keep on speaking about these matters of yours? I hereby declare: you and Ziba are to divide the land.”

<sup>30</sup> Mephibosheth said to the king, “Instead, since my lord the king has come to his palace safely, let Ziba take it all! ”

<sup>31</sup> Barzillai the Gileadite had come down from Rogelim and accompanied the king to the Jordan River to see him off at the Jordan.

<sup>32</sup> Barzillai was a very old man — 80 years old — and since he was a very wealthy man, he had provided for the needs of the king while he stayed in Mahanaim.

<sup>33</sup> The king said to Barzillai, “Cross over with me, and I’ll provide for you at my side in Jerusalem.”

<sup>34</sup> Barzillai replied to the king, “How many years of my life are left that I should go up to Jerusalem with the king? <sup>35</sup> I’m now 80 years old. Can I discern what is pleasant and what is not? Can your servant taste what he eats or drinks? Can I still hear the voice of male and female singers? Why should your servant be an added burden to my lord the king? <sup>36</sup> Since your servant is only going with the king a little way across the Jordan, why should the king repay me with such a reward? <sup>37</sup> Please let your servant return so that I may die in my own city near the tomb of my father and mother. But here is your servant Chimham: let him cross over with my lord the king. Do for him what seems good to you.” <sup>F</sup>

<sup>38</sup> The king replied, “Chimham will cross over with me, and I will do for him what seems good to you, <sup>G</sup> and whatever you desire from me I will do for you.” <sup>39</sup> So all the people crossed the Jordan, and then the king crossed. The king kissed Barzillai and blessed him, and Barzillai returned to his home.

<sup>40</sup> The king went on to Gilgal, and Chimham went with him. All the troops of Judah and half of Israel’s escorted the king. <sup>41</sup> Suddenly, all the men of Israel came to the king. They asked him, “Why did our brothers, the men of Judah, take you away secretly and transport the king and his household across the Jordan, along with all of David’s men? ”

<sup>42</sup> All the men of Judah responded to the men of Israel, “Because the king is our relative. Why does this make you angry? Have we ever eaten anything of the king’s or been honored at all? ”

<sup>43†</sup> The men of Israel answered the men of Judah: “We have 10 shares in the king, so we have a greater claim to David than you. Why then do you despise us? Weren’t we the first to speak of restoring our king? ” But the words of the men of Judah were harsher than those of the men of Israel.

2 SAMUEL

Sheba's Revolt

20 Now a •wicked man, a Benjaminite named Sheba son of Bichri, happened to be there. He blew the ram's horn and shouted:

We have no portion in David,
no inheritance in Jesse's son.
Each man to his tent, Israel!

<sup>2</sup> So all the men of Israel deserted David and followed Sheba son of Bichri, but the men of Judah from the Jordan all the way to Jerusalem remained loyal to their king.

<sup>3</sup> When David came to his palace in Jerusalem, he took the 10 concubines he had left to take care of the palace and placed them under guard. He provided for them, but he was not intimate with them. They were confined until the day of their death, living as widows.

<sup>4</sup> The king said to Amasa, "Summon the men of Judah to me within three days and be here yourself." <sup>5</sup> Amasa went to summon Judah, but he took longer than the time allotted him. <sup>6</sup> So David said to Abishai, "Sheba son of Bichri will do more harm to us than Absalom. Take your lord's soldiers and pursue him, or he will find fortified cities and elude us." <sup>A</sup> writhing in his blood in the middle of the highway, and the man had seen that all the people stopped. So he moved Amasa from the highway to the field and threw a garment over him because he realized that all those who encountered Amasa were stopping. <sup>13</sup> When he was removed from the highway, all the men passed by and followed Joab to pursue Sheba son of Bichri.

<sup>9</sup> Joab asked Amasa, "Are you well, my brother?" Then with his right hand Joab grabbed Amasa by the beard to kiss him. <sup>10</sup> Amasa was not on guard against the sword in Joab's hand, and Joab stabbed him in the stomach with it and spilled his intestines out on the ground. Joab did not stab him again for Amasa was dead. Joab and his brother Abishai pursued Sheba son of Bichri.

<sup>14†</sup> Sheba passed through all the tribes of Israel to Abel of Beth-maacah. All the Berites came together and followed him. <sup>15</sup> Joab's troops came and besieged Sheba in Abel of Beth-maacah. They built an assault ramp against the outer wall of the city. While all the troops with Joab were battering the wall to make it collapse, <sup>16</sup> a wise woman called out from the city, "Listen! Listen! Please tell Joab to come here and let me speak with him."

<sup>17</sup> When he had come near her, the woman asked, "Are you Joab?"

"I am," he replied.

"Listen to the words of your servant," she said to him.

He answered, "I'm listening."

<sup>18</sup> She said, "In the past they used to say, 'Seek counsel in Abel,' and that's how they settled disputes. <sup>19</sup> I am a peaceful person, one of the faithful in Israel, but you're trying to destroy a city that is like a mother in Israel. Why would you devour the LORD's inheritance?"

<sup>20</sup> Joab protested: "Never! I do not want to destroy! <sup>21</sup> That is not my intention. There is a man named Sheba son of Bichri, from the hill country of Ephraim, who has rebelled against King David. Deliver this one man, and I will withdraw from the city."

The woman replied to Joab, "All right. His head will be thrown over the wall to you." <sup>22</sup> The woman went to all the people with her wise counsel, and they cut off the head of Sheba son of Bichri and threw it to Joab. So he blew the ram's horn, and they dispersed from the city, each to his own tent. Joab returned to the king in Jerusalem.

<sup>23†</sup> Joab commanded the whole army of Israel; Benaiah son of Jehoiada was over the Cherethites and Pelethites; <sup>24</sup> Adoram was in charge of forced labor; Jehoshaphat son of Ahilud was court historian; <sup>25</sup> Sheva was court secretary; Zadok and Abiathar were priests; <sup>26</sup> and in addition, Ira the Jairite was David's priest.

2 SAMUEL

Justice for the Gibeonites

21 During David's reign there was a famine for three successive years, so David inquired of the LORD. The LORD answered, "It is because of the blood shed by Saul and his family when he killed the Gibeonites."

<sup>2†</sup> The Gibeonites were not Israelites but rather a remnant of the Amorites. The Israelites had taken an oath concerning them, but Saul had tried to kill them in his zeal for the Israelites and Judah. So David summoned the Gibeonites and spoke to them. <sup>3</sup> He asked the Gibeonites, "What should I do for you? How can I make atonement so that you will bring a blessing on <sup>A</sup> the LORD's inheritance? "

<sup>4</sup> The Gibeonites said to him, "We are not asking for money from <sup>B</sup> Saul or his family, and we cannot put anyone to death in Israel."

"Whatever you say, I will do for you," he said.

<sup>5</sup> They replied to the king, "As for the man who annihilated us and plotted to destroy us so we would not exist within the whole territory of Israel, <sup>6</sup> let seven of his male descendants be handed over to us so we may hang <sup>C</sup> them in the presence of the LORD at Gibeah of Saul, the LORD's chosen."

The king answered, "I will hand them over."

<sup>7</sup> David spared Mephibosheth, the son of Saul's son Jonathan, because of the oath of the LORD that was between David and Jonathan, Saul's son.

<sup>8†</sup> But the king took Armoni and Mephibosheth, who were the two sons whom Rizpah daughter of Aiah had borne to Saul, and the five sons whom Merab daughter of Saul had borne to Adriel son of Barzillai the Meholathite <sup>9</sup> and handed them over to the Gibeonites. They hanged <sup>D</sup> them on the hill in the presence of the LORD; the seven of them died together. They were executed in the first days of the harvest at the beginning of the barley harvest.

The Burial of Saul's Family

<sup>10</sup> Rizpah, Aiah's daughter, took •sackcloth and spread it out for herself on the rock from the beginning of the harvest until the rain poured down from heaven on the bodies. She kept the birds of the sky from them by day and the wild animals by night.

<sup>11</sup> When it was reported to David what Saul's concubine Rizpah, daughter of Aiah, had done, <sup>12</sup> he went and got the bones of Saul and his son Jonathan from the leaders of Jabesh-gilead. They had stolen them from the public square of Beth-shan where the Philistines had hung the bodies the day the Philistines killed Saul at Gilboa. <sup>13</sup> David had the bones brought from there. They gathered up the bones of Saul's family who had been hung <sup>E</sup> <sup>14</sup> and buried the bones of Saul and his son Jonathan at Zela in the land of Benjamin in the tomb of Saul's father Kish. They did everything the king commanded. After this, God answered prayer for the land.

The Philistine Giants

<sup>19†</sup> Once again there was a battle with the Philistines at Gob, and Elhanan son of Jaare-oregim the Bethlehemite killed Goliath the Gittite. The shaft of his spear was like a weaver's beam.

<sup>20</sup> At Gath there was still another battle. A huge man was there with six fingers on each hand and six toes on each foot — 24 in all. He, too, was descended from the giant. <sup>I</sup> <sup>21</sup> When he taunted Israel, Jonathan, son of David's brother Shimei, killed him.

<sup>22</sup> These four were descended from the giant <sup>J</sup> in Gath and were killed by David and his soldiers.

2 SAMUEL

David's Song of Thanksgiving

22 David spoke the words of this song to the LORD on the day the LORD rescued him from the hand of all his enemies and from the hand of Saul. <sup>2†</sup> He said:

The LORD is my rock, my fortress, and my deliverer, <sup>3</sup> my God, my mountain where I seek refuge.

My shield, the •horn of my salvation, my stronghold, my refuge, and my Savior, You save me from violence.

<sup>4</sup> I called to the LORD, who is worthy of praise, and I was saved from my enemies.

<sup>7</sup> I called to the LORD in my distress; I called to my God.

From His temple He heard my voice, and my cry for help reached His ears.

<sup>8</sup> Then the earth shook and quaked; the foundations of the heavens trembled; they shook because He burned with anger.

<sup>15</sup> He shot arrows and scattered them;
He hurled lightning bolts and routed them.

<sup>16</sup> The depths of the sea became visible, the foundations of the world were exposed at the rebuke of the LORD, at the blast of the breath of His nostrils.

<sup>17</sup> He reached down from heaven and took hold of me;
He pulled me out of deep waters.

<sup>18</sup> He rescued me from my powerful enemy and from those who hated me, for they were too strong for me.

<sup>19</sup> They confronted me in the day of my distress, but the LORD was my support.

<sup>20</sup> He brought me out to a spacious place;
He rescued me because He delighted in me.

<sup>21</sup> The LORD rewarded me
according to my righteousness;
He repaid me
according to the cleanness of my hands.

<sup>22</sup> For I have kept the ways of the LORD and have not turned from my God to wickedness.

<sup>23</sup> Indeed, I have kept all His ordinances in mind <sup>C</sup> and have not disregarded His statutes.

<sup>24</sup> I was blameless before Him and kept myself from sinning.

<sup>25</sup> So the LORD repaid me
according to my righteousness,
according to my cleanness in His sight.

<sup>26</sup> With the faithful
You prove Yourself faithful; with the blameless man
You prove Yourself blameless;

<sup>27</sup> with the pure

You prove Yourself pure, but with the crooked
You prove Yourself shrewd.

<sup>28</sup> You rescue an afflicted people, but Your eyes are set against the proud —
You humble them.

<sup>29</sup> LORD, You are my lamp;
the LORD illuminates my darkness.

<sup>30</sup> With You I can attack a barrier, <sup>D</sup> and with my God I can leap over a wall.

<sup>31</sup> God — His way is perfect;
the word of the LORD is pure.
He is a shield to all who take refuge in Him.

<sup>32</sup> For who is God besides the LORD?
And who is a rock? Only our God.

<sup>33</sup> God is my strong refuge;
He makes my way perfect.

<sup>34</sup> He makes my feet like the feet of a deer and sets me securely on the heights. <sup>E</sup>

<sup>35</sup> He trains my hands for war;
my arms can bend a bow of bronze.

<sup>36</sup> You have given me the shield of Your salvation;
Your help exalts me.

<sup>37</sup> You widen a place beneath me for my steps, and my ankles do not give way.

<sup>38</sup> I pursue my enemies and destroy them;
I do not turn back until they are wiped out.

<sup>39</sup> I wipe them out and crush them, and they do not rise;
they fall beneath my feet.

<sup>40</sup> You have clothed me with strength for battle;
You subdue my adversaries beneath me.

<sup>41</sup> You have made my enemies retreat before me; <sup>F</sup>
I annihilate those who hate me.

<sup>42</sup> They look, but there is no one to save them — they look to the LORD, but He does not answer them.

<sup>43</sup> I pulverize them like dust of the earth;
I crush them and trample them like mud in the streets.

<sup>44</sup> You have freed me from the feuds among my people;
You have appointed me the head of nations;
a people I had not known serve me.

<sup>45</sup> Foreigners submit to me grudgingly;
as soon as they hear, they obey me.

<sup>46</sup> Foreigners lose heart and come trembling from their fortifications.

<sup>47</sup> The LORD lives — may my rock be praised!
God, the rock of my salvation, is exalted.

<sup>48</sup> God — He gives me vengeance and casts down peoples under me.

<sup>49</sup> He frees me from my enemies.
You exalt me above my adversaries;
You rescue me from violent men.

<sup>50</sup> Therefore I will praise You, LORD, among the nations;
I will sing about Your name.

<sup>51</sup> He is a tower of salvation for His king;
He shows loyalty to His anointed, to David and his descendants forever.

2 SAMUEL

David's Last Words

23 These are the last words of David:

The declaration of David son of Jesse, the declaration of the man raised on high, <sup>A</sup>
the one anointed by the God of Jacob, the favorite singer of Israel:

<sup>2</sup> The Spirit of the LORD spoke through me,
His word was on my tongue.

<sup>3</sup> The God of Israel spoke;
the Rock of Israel said to me,
“The one who rules the people with justice, who rules in the •fear of God,

<sup>4</sup> is like the morning light when the sun rises on a cloudless morning, the glisten of rain on sprouting grass.”

<sup>5</sup> Is it not true my house is with God?
For He has established an everlasting covenant with me, ordered and secured in every detail.

Will He not bring about my whole salvation and my every desire?

<sup>6</sup> But all the wicked are like thorns raked aside; they can never be picked up by hand.

<sup>7</sup> The man who touches them must be armed with iron and the shaft of a spear.
They will be completely burned up on the spot.

Exploits of David's Warriors

Josheb-basshebeth the Tahchemonite was chief of the officers. He wielded his spear against 800 men that he killed at one time.

<sup>9</sup> After him, Eleazar son of Dodo son of an Ahohite was among the three warriors with David when they defied the Philistines. The men of Israel retreated in the place they had gathered for battle, <sup>10</sup> but Eleazar stood his ground and attacked the Philistines until his hand was tired and stuck to his sword. The LORD brought about a great victory that day. Then the troops came back to him, but only to plunder the dead.

<sup>11</sup> After him was Shammah son of Agee the Hararite. The Philistines had assembled in formation where there was a field full of lentils. The troops fled from the Philistines, <sup>12</sup> but Shammah took his stand in the middle of the field, defended it, and struck down the Philistines. So the LORD brought about a great victory.

<sup>13</sup> Three of the 30 leading warriors went down at harvest time and came to David at the cave of Adullam, while a company of Philistines was camping in the Valley of Rephaim. <sup>14</sup> At that time David was in the stronghold, and a Philistine garrison was at Bethlehem. <sup>15</sup> David was extremely thirsty <sup>B</sup> and said, “If only someone would bring me water to drink from the well at the city gate of Bethlehem!” <sup>16</sup> So three of the warriors broke through the Philistine camp and drew water from the well at the gate of Bethlehem. They brought it back to David, but he refused to drink it. Instead, he poured it out to the LORD. <sup>17</sup> David said, “LORD, I would never do such a thing! Is this not the blood of men who risked their lives?” So he refused to drink it. Such were the exploits of the three warriors.

<sup>18</sup> Abishai, Joab’s brother and son of Zeruah, was leader of the Three. He raised his spear against 300 men and killed them, gaining a reputation among the Three. <sup>19</sup> Was he not more honored than the Three? He became their commander even though he did not become one of the Three.

<sup>20†</sup> Benaiah son of Jehoiada was the son of a brave man from Kabzeel, a man of many exploits. Benaiah killed two sons of Ariel <sup>C</sup> of Moab, and he went down into a pit on a snowy day and killed a lion. <sup>21</sup> He also killed an Egyptian, a huge man. Even though the Egyptian had a spear in his hand, Benaiah went down to him with a club, snatched the spear out of the Egyptian’s hand, and then killed him with his own spear. <sup>22</sup> These were the exploits of Benaiah son of Jehoiada, who had a reputation among the three warriors. <sup>23</sup> He was the most honored of the Thirty, but he did not become one of the Three. David put him in charge of his bodyguard.

<sup>24</sup> Among the Thirty were:

Joab's brother Asahel,

Elhanan son of Dodo of Bethlehem,

<sup>25</sup> Shammah the Harodite,

Elika the Harodite,

<sup>26</sup> Helez the Paltite,

Ira son of Ikkesh the Tekoite,

<sup>27</sup> Abiezer the Anathothite,

Mebunnai the Hushathite,

<sup>28</sup> Zalmon the Ahohite,

Maharai the Netophathite,

<sup>29</sup> Heleb son of Baanah the Netophahite,

Ittai son of Ribai from Gibeah of the Benjaminites,

<sup>30</sup> Benaiah the Pirathonite,

Azmaveth the Barhumite,

<sup>32</sup> Eliahba the Shaalbonite, the sons of Jashen,

Jonathan son of <sup>33</sup> Shammah the Hararite,

Ahiam son of Sharar the Hararite,

<sup>34</sup> Eliphelet son of Ahasbai son of the Maacathite, Eliam son of Ahithophel the Gilonite,

<sup>35</sup> Hezro the Carmelite,

Paarai the Arbite,

<sup>36</sup> Igal son of Nathan from Zobah,

Bani the Gadite,

<sup>37</sup> Zelek the Ammonite,

Naharai the Beerothite, the armor-bearer for Joab son of Zeruiah,

<sup>38</sup> Ira the Ithrite,

Gareb the Ithrite,
<sup>39</sup> and Uriah the Hittite.

There were 37 in all.

2 SAMUEL

David's Military Census

24 †The LORD's anger burned against Israel again, and He stirred up David against them to say: "Go, count the people of Israel and Judah."

<sup>2</sup> So the king said to Joab, the commander of his army, "Go through all the tribes of Israel from Dan to Beer-sheba and register the troops so I can know their number."

<sup>3</sup> Joab replied to the king, "May the LORD your God multiply the troops 100 times more than they are — while my lord the king looks on! But why does my lord the king want to do this? "

<sup>4</sup> Yet the king's order prevailed over Joab and the commanders of the army. So Joab and the commanders of the army left the king's presence to register the troops of Israel.

<sup>5</sup> They crossed the Jordan and camped in Aroer, south of the town in the middle of the valley, and then proceeded toward Gad and Jazer. <sup>6</sup> They went to Gilead and to the land of the Hittites and continued on to Dan-jaan and around to Sidon. <sup>7</sup> They went to the fortress of Tyre and all the cities of the Hivites and Canaanites. Afterward, they went to the •Negev of Judah at Beer-sheba.

<sup>8</sup> When they had gone through the whole land, they returned to Jerusalem at the end of nine months and 20 days. <sup>9†</sup> Joab gave the king the total of the registration of the troops. There were 800,000 fighting men from Israel and 500,000 men from Judah.

<sup>10</sup> David's conscience troubled him after he had taken a census of the troops. He said to the LORD, "I have sinned greatly in what I've done. Now, LORD, because I've been very foolish, please take away Your servant's •guilt."

David's Punishment

<sup>11</sup> When David got up in the morning, a revelation from the LORD had come to the prophet Gad, David's seer: <sup>12</sup> "Go and say to David, 'This is what the LORD says: I am offering you three choices. Choose one of them, and I will do it to you.'"

<sup>13</sup> So Gad went to David, told him the choices, and asked him, "Do you want three years of famine to come on your land, to flee from your foes three months while they pursue you, or to have a plague in your land three days? Now, think it over and decide what answer I should take back to the One who sent me."

<sup>14</sup> David answered Gad, "I have great anxiety. Please, let us fall into the LORD's hands because His mercies are great, but don't let me fall into human hands."

<sup>15</sup> So the LORD sent a plague on Israel from that morning until the appointed time, and from Dan to Beer-sheba 70,000 men died. <sup>16</sup> Then the angel extended his hand toward Jerusalem to destroy it, but the LORD relented concerning the destruction and said to the angel who was destroying the people, "Enough, withdraw your hand now!" The angel of the LORD was then at the threshing floor of Araunah the Jebusite.

<sup>17</sup> When David saw the angel striking the people, he said to the LORD, "Look, I am the one who has sinned; I am the one who has done wrong. But these sheep, what have they done? Please, let Your hand be against me and my father's family."

David's Altar

<sup>18</sup> Gad came to David that day and said to him, "Go up and set up an altar to the LORD on the threshing floor of Araunah the Jebusite." <sup>19</sup> David went up in obedience to Gad's command, just as the LORD had commanded.

<sup>20</sup> Araunah looked down and saw the king and his servants coming toward him, so he went out and bowed to the king with his face to the ground.

<sup>21</sup> Araunah said, "Why has my lord the king come to his servant?"

David replied, “To buy the threshing floor from you in order to build an altar to the LORD, so the plague on the people may be halted.”

<sup>22</sup> Araunah said to David, “My lord the king may take whatever he wants <sup>A</sup> and offer it. Here are the oxen for a •burnt offering and the threshing sledges and ox yokes for the wood. <sup>23</sup> My king, Araunah gives everything here to the king.” Then he said to the king, “May the LORD your God accept you.”

<sup>24†</sup> The king answered Araunah, “No, I insist on buying it from you for a price, for I will not offer to the LORD my God burnt offerings that cost me nothing.” David bought the threshing floor and the oxen for 20 ounces <sup>B</sup> of silver. <sup>25</sup> He built an altar to the LORD there and offered burnt offerings and •fellowship offerings. Then the LORD answered prayer on behalf of the land, and the plague on Israel ended.

1 KINGS

David's Last Days

1 Now King David was old and getting on in years. Although they covered him with bedclothes, he could not get warm. <sup>2†</sup> So his servants said to him: “Let us <sup>A</sup> search for a young virgin for my lord the king. She is to attend the king and be his caregiver. She is to lie by your side so that my lord the king will get warm.” <sup>3</sup> They searched for a beautiful girl throughout the territory of Israel; they found Abishag the Shunammite and brought her to the king. <sup>4</sup> The girl was of unsurpassed beauty, and she became the king’s caregiver. She served him, but he was not intimate with <sup>B</sup> her.

Adonijah’s Bid for Power

<sup>5†</sup> Adonijah son of Haggith kept exalting himself, saying, “I will be king!” He prepared chariots, cavalry, and 50 men to run ahead of him. <sup>6†</sup> But his father had never once reprimanded <sup>C</sup>, him by saying, “Why do you act this way?” In addition, he was quite handsome and was born after Absalom. <sup>7</sup> He conspired <sup>D</sup> with Joab son of Zeruiah and with Abiathar the priest. They supported Adonijah, <sup>8†</sup> but Zadok the priest, Benaiah son of Jehoiada, Nathan the prophet, Shimei, Rei, and David’s warriors did not side with Adonijah.

<sup>9†</sup> Adonijah sacrificed sheep, oxen, and fattened cattle near the stone of Zoheleth, which is next to En-rogel. He invited all his royal brothers and all the men of Judah, the servants of the king, <sup>10</sup> but he did not invite Nathan the prophet, Benaiah, the warriors, or his brother Solomon.

Nathan’s and Bathsheba’s Appeals

<sup>11</sup> Then Nathan said to Bathsheba, Solomon’s mother, “Have you not heard that Adonijah son of Haggith has become king and our lord David does not know it? <sup>12</sup> Now please come and let me advise you. Save your life and the life of your son Solomon. <sup>13†</sup> Go, approach King David and say to him, ‘My lord the king, did you not swear to your servant: Your son Solomon is to become king after me, and he is the one who is to sit on my throne? So why has Adonijah become king?’ <sup>14</sup> At that moment, while you are still there speaking with the king, I'll come in after you and confirm your words.”

<sup>15</sup> So Bathsheba went to the king in his bedroom. Since the king was very old, Abishag the Shunammite was serving him. <sup>16</sup> Bathsheba bowed down and paid homage to the king, and he asked, “What do you want? ”

<sup>17</sup> She replied, “My lord, you swore to your servant by the LORD your God, ‘Your son Solomon is to become king after me, and he is the one who is to sit on my throne.’ <sup>18</sup> Now look, Adonijah has become king. And, my lord the king, you didn’t know it. <sup>19</sup> He has lavishly sacrificed oxen, fattened cattle, and sheep. He invited all the king’s sons, Abiathar the priest, and Joab the commander of the army, but he did not invite your servant Solomon. <sup>20</sup> Now, my lord the king, the eyes of all Israel are on you to tell them who will sit on the throne of my lord the king after him. <sup>21</sup> Otherwise, when my lord the king rests with his fathers, I and my son Solomon will be regarded as criminals.”

<sup>22</sup> At that moment, while she was still speaking with the king, Nathan the prophet arrived, <sup>23†</sup> and it was announced to the king, “Nathan the prophet is here.” He came into the king’s presence and bowed to him with his face to the ground.

<sup>24</sup> “My lord the king,” Nathan said, “did you say, ‘Adonijah is to become king after me, and he is the one who is to sit on my throne’? <sup>25</sup> For today he went down and lavishly sacrificed oxen, fattened cattle, and sheep. He invited all the sons of the king, the commanders of the army, and Abiathar the priest. And look! They’re eating and drinking in his presence, and they’re saying, ‘Long live King Adonijah!’ <sup>26</sup> But he did not invite me — me, your servant — or Zadok the priest or Benaiah son of Jehoiada or your servant Solomon. <sup>27†</sup> I’m certain my lord the king would not have let this happen without letting your servant know who will sit on my lord the king’s throne after him.”

Solomon Confirmed King

<sup>28</sup> King David responded by saying, “Call in Bathsheba for me.” So she came into the king’s presence and stood before him. <sup>29</sup> The king swore an oath and said, “As the LORD lives, who has redeemed my life from every difficulty, <sup>30</sup> just as I swore to you by the LORD God of Israel: Your son Solomon is to become king after me, and he is the one who is to sit on my throne in my place, that is exactly what I will do this very day.”

<sup>31</sup> Bathsheba bowed with her face to the ground, paying homage to the king, and said, “May my lord King David live forever! ”

<sup>32</sup> King David then said, “Call in Zadok the priest, Nathan the prophet, and Benaiah son of Jehoiada for me.” So they came into the king’s presence. <sup>33†</sup> The king said to them, “Take my servants with you, have my son Solomon ride on my own mule, and take him down to Gihon. <sup>34</sup> There, Zadok the priest and Nathan the prophet are to anoint him as king over Israel. You are to blow the ram’s horn and say, ‘Long live King Solomon!’ <sup>35†</sup> You are to come up after him, and he is to come in and sit on my throne. He is the one who is to become king in my place; he is the one I have commanded to be ruler over Israel and Judah.”

<sup>36</sup> “•Amen,” Benaiah son of Jehoiada replied to the king. “May the LORD, the God of my lord the king, so affirm it. <sup>37</sup> Just as the LORD was with my lord the king, so may He be with Solomon and make his throne greater than the throne of my lord King David.”

<sup>38†</sup> Then Zadok the priest, Nathan the prophet, Benaiah son of Jehoiada, the Cherethites, and the Pelethites went down, had Solomon ride on King David’s mule, and took him to Gihon. <sup>39</sup> Zadok the priest took the horn of oil from the tabernacle and anointed Solomon. Then they blew the ram’s horn, and all the people proclaimed, “Long live King Solomon!” <sup>40</sup> All the people followed him, playing flutes and rejoicing with such a great joy that the earth split open from the sound.

Adonijah Hears of Solomon’s Coronation

<sup>41†</sup> Adonijah and all the invited guests who were with him heard the noise as they finished eating. Joab heard the sound of the ram's horn and said, "Why is the town in such an uproar?" <sup>42†</sup> He was still speaking when Jonathan son of Abiathar the priest, suddenly arrived. Adonijah said, "Come in, for you are an excellent man, and you must be bringing good news."

<sup>43</sup> "Unfortunately not," Jonathan answered him. "Our lord King David has made Solomon king. <sup>44</sup> And with Solomon, the king has sent Zadok the priest, Nathan the prophet, Benaiah son of Jehoiada, the Cherethites, and the Pelethites, and they have had him ride on the king's mule. <sup>45†</sup> Zadok the priest and Nathan the prophet have anointed him king in Gihon. They have gone from there rejoicing. The town has been in an uproar; that's the noise you heard. <sup>46</sup> Solomon has even taken his seat on the royal throne.

<sup>47</sup> "The king's servants have also gone to congratulate our lord King David, saying, 'May your God make the name of Solomon more well known than your name, and may He make his throne greater than your throne.' Then the king bowed in worship on his bed. <sup>48</sup> And the king went on to say this: 'May the LORD God of Israel be praised! Today He has provided one to sit on my throne, and I am a witness.' " <sup>E</sup>

<sup>49†</sup> Then all of Adonijah's guests got up trembling and went their separate ways. <sup>50†</sup> Adonijah was afraid of Solomon, so he got up and went to take hold of the horns of the altar.

<sup>51</sup> It was reported to Solomon: "Look, Adonijah fears King Solomon, and he has taken hold of the horns of the altar, saying, 'Let King Solomon first swear to me that he will not kill his servant with the sword.' "

<sup>52†</sup> Then Solomon said, "If he is a man of character, not a single hair of his will fall to the ground, but if evil is found in him, he dies." <sup>53</sup> So King Solomon sent for him, and they took him down from the altar. He came and paid homage to King Solomon, and Solomon said to him, "Go to your home."

1 KINGS

David's Dying Instructions to Solomon

2 As the time approached for David to die, he instructed his son Solomon,<sup>2</sup> “As for me, I am going the way of all of the earth. Be strong and be courageous like a man,<sup>3†</sup> and keep your obligation to the LORD your God to walk in His ways and to keep His statutes, commands, ordinances, and decrees. This is written in the law of Moses, so that you will have success in everything you do and wherever you turn,<sup>4</sup> and so that the LORD will carry out His promise that He made to me: ‘If your sons are careful to walk faithfully before Me with their whole mind and heart, you will never fail to have a man on the throne of Israel.’

<sup>5</sup> “You also know what Joab son of Zeruiah did to me and what he did to the two commanders of Israel’s army, Abner son of Ner and Amasa son of Jether. He murdered them in a time of peace to avenge blood shed in war. He spilled that blood on his own waistband and on the sandals of his feet.<sup>6†</sup> Act according to your wisdom, and do not let his gray head descend to •Sheol in peace.

<sup>7†</sup> “Show loyalty to the sons of Barzillai the Gileadite and let them be among those who eat at your table because they supported me when I fled from your brother Absalom.

<sup>8†</sup> “Keep an eye on Shimei son of Gera, the Benjaminite from Bahurim who is with you. He uttered malicious curses against me the day I went to Mahanaim. But he came down to meet me at the Jordan River, and I swore to him by the LORD: ‘I will never kill you with the sword.’<sup>9†</sup> So don’t let him go unpunished, for you are a wise man. You know how to deal with him to bring his gray head down to Sheol with blood.”

Adonijah’s Foolish Request

<sup>13</sup> Now Adonijah son of Haggith came to Bathsheba, Solomon's mother. She asked, "Do you come peacefully?"

"Peacefully," he replied, <sup>14</sup> and then asked, "May I talk with you?" <sup>A</sup>

"Go ahead," she answered.

<sup>15</sup> "You know the kingship was mine," he said. "All Israel expected me to be king, but then the kingship was turned over to my brother, for the LORD gave it to him. <sup>16†</sup> So now I have just one request of you; don't turn me down." <sup>B</sup>

She said to him, "Go on."

<sup>17</sup> He replied, "Please speak to King Solomon since he won't turn you down. Let him give me Abishag the Shunammite as a wife."

<sup>18</sup> "Very well," Bathsheba replied. "I will speak to the king for you."

<sup>19</sup> So Bathsheba went to King Solomon to speak to him about Adonijah. The king stood up to greet her, bowed to her, sat down on his throne, and had a throne placed for the king's mother. So she sat down at his right hand.

<sup>20</sup> Then she said, "I have just one small request of you. Don't turn me down."

"Go ahead and ask, mother," the king replied, "for I won't turn you down."

<sup>21</sup> So she said, "Let Abishag the Shunammite be given to your brother Adonijah as a wife."

<sup>22†</sup> King Solomon answered his mother, "Why are you requesting Abishag the Shunammite for Adonijah? Since he is my elder brother, you might as well ask the kingship for him, for Abiathar the priest, and for Joab son of Zeruiah." <sup>23</sup> Then Solomon took an oath by the LORD: "May God punish me and do so severely if Adonijah has not made this request at the cost of his life. <sup>24</sup> And now, as the LORD lives, the One who established me, seated me on the throne of my father David, and made me a dynasty as He promised — I swear Adonijah will be put to death today! ” <sup>25</sup> Then King Solomon gave the order to Benaiah son of Jehoiada, who struck down Adonijah, and he died.

Abiathar’s Banishment

<sup>26</sup> The king said to Abiathar the priest, “Go to your fields in Anathoth. Even though you deserve to die, I will not put you to death today, since you carried the ark of the Lord GOD in the presence of my father David and you suffered through all that my father suffered.” <sup>27†</sup> So Solomon banished Abiathar from being the LORD’s priest, and it fulfilled the LORD’s prophecy He had spoken at Shiloh against Eli’s family.

Joab’s Execution

<sup>28†</sup> The news reached Joab. Since he had supported Adonijah but not Absalom, Joab fled to the LORD’s tabernacle and took hold of the horns of the altar.

<sup>29</sup> It was reported to King Solomon: “Joab has fled to the LORD’s tabernacle and is now beside the altar.” Then Solomon sent Benaiah son of Jehoiada and told him, “Go and strike him down! ”

<sup>30</sup> So Benaiah went to the tabernacle and said to Joab, “This is what the king says: ‘Come out! ’ ”

But Joab said, “No, for I will die here.”

So Benaiah took a message back to the king, “This is what Joab said, and this is how he answered me.”

<sup>31</sup> The king said to him, “Do just as he says. Strike him down and bury him in order to remove from me and from my father’s house the blood that Joab shed without just cause. <sup>32</sup> The LORD will bring back his own blood on his head because he struck down two men more righteous and better than he, without my father David's knowledge. With his sword, Joab murdered Abner son of Ner, commander of Israel's army, and Amasa son of Jether, commander of Judah's army. <sup>33</sup> Their blood will come back on Joab's head and on the head of his descendants forever, but for David, his descendants, his dynasty, and his throne, there will be peace from the LORD forever."

<sup>34†</sup> Benaiah son of Jehoiada went up, struck down Joab, and put him to death. He was buried at his house in the wilderness. <sup>35</sup> Then the king appointed Benaiah son of Jehoiada in Joab's place over the army, and he appointed Zadok the priest in Abiathar's place.

Shimei's Banishment and Execution

<sup>36</sup> Then the king summoned Shimei and said to him, "Build a house for yourself in Jerusalem and live there, but don't leave there and go anywhere else. <sup>37†</sup> On the day you do leave and cross the Kidron Valley, know for sure that you will certainly die. Your blood will be on your own head."

<sup>38</sup> Shimei said to the king, "The sentence is fair; your servant will do as my lord the king has spoken." And Shimei lived in Jerusalem for a long time.

<sup>39†</sup> But then, at the end of three years, two of Shimei's slaves ran away to Achish son of Maacah, king of Gath. Shimei was informed, "Look, your slaves are in Gath." <sup>40</sup> So Shimei saddled his donkey and set out to Achish at Gath to search for his slaves. He went and brought them back from Gath.

<sup>41</sup> It was reported to Solomon that Shimei had gone from Jerusalem to Gath and had returned. <sup>42</sup> So the king summoned Shimei and said to him, "Didn't I make you swear by the LORD and warn you, saying, 'On the day you leave and go anywhere else, know for sure that you will certainly die'? And you said to me, 'The sentence is fair; I will obey.'" <sup>43</sup> So why have you not kept the LORD's oath and the command that I gave you? " <sup>44</sup> The king also said, "You yourself know all the evil that you did to my father David. Therefore, the LORD has brought back your evil on your head, <sup>45</sup> but King Solomon will be blessed, and David's throne will remain established before the LORD forever.”

<sup>46†</sup> Then the king commanded Benaiah son of Jehoiada, and he went out and struck Shimei down, and he died. So the kingdom was established in Solomon's hand.

The LORD Appears to Solomon

3† Solomon made an alliance <sup>A</sup> with Pharaoh king of Egypt by marrying Pharaoh's daughter. Solomon brought her to live in the city of David until he finished building his palace, the LORD's temple, and the wall surrounding Jerusalem. <sup>2†</sup> However, the people were sacrificing on the •high places, because until that time a temple for the LORD's name had not been built. <sup>3†</sup> Solomon loved the LORD by walking in the statutes of his father David, but he also sacrificed and burned incense on the high places.

<sup>4†</sup> The king went to Gibeon to sacrifice there because it was the most famous high place. He offered 1,000 •burnt offerings on that altar. <sup>5</sup> At Gibeon the LORD appeared to Solomon in a dream at night. God said, "Ask. What should I give you? "

<sup>6</sup> And Solomon replied, "You have shown great and faithful love to Your servant, my father David, because he walked before You in faithfulness, righteousness, and <sup>B</sup> integrity. You have continued this great and faithful love for him by giving him a son to sit on his throne, as it is today.

<sup>7†</sup> "LORD my God, You have now made Your servant king in my father David's place. Yet I am just a youth with no experience in leadership. <sup>C</sup>, <sup>8</sup> Your servant is among Your people You have chosen, a <sup>D</sup> people too numerous to be numbered or counted. <sup>9</sup> So give Your servant an obedient heart to judge Your people and to discern between good and evil. For who is able to judge this great people of Yours? "

<sup>10</sup> Now it pleased the Lord that Solomon had requested this. <sup>11†</sup> So God said to him, "Because you have requested this and did not ask for long life <sup>E</sup> or riches for yourself, or the death <sup>F</sup> of your enemies, but you asked discernment for yourself to understand justice, <sup>12</sup> I will therefore do what you have asked. I will give you a wise and understanding heart, so that there has never been anyone like you before and never will be again. <sup>13</sup> In addition, I will give you what you did not ask for: both riches and honor, so that no man in any kingdom will be your equal during your entire life. <sup>14</sup> If you walk in My ways and keep My statutes and commands just as your father David did, I will give you a long life."

<sup>15</sup> Then Solomon woke up and realized it had been a dream. He went to Jerusalem, stood before the ark of the Lord's covenant, and offered burnt offerings and •fellowship offerings. Then he held a feast for all his servants.

Solomon's Wisdom

<sup>16†</sup> Then two women who were prostitutes came to the king and stood before him. <sup>17</sup> One woman said, "Please my lord, this woman and I live in the same house, and I had a baby while she was in the house. <sup>18†</sup> On the third day after I gave birth, she also had a baby and we were alone. No one else <sup>G</sup> was with us in the house; just the two of us were there. <sup>19</sup> During the night this woman's son died because she lay on him. <sup>20</sup> She got up in the middle of the night and took my son from my side while your servant was asleep. She laid him at her breast, and she put her dead son in my arms.

<sup>21</sup> When I got up in the morning to nurse my son, I discovered he was dead. That morning, when I looked closely at him I realized that he was not the son I gave birth to."

<sup>22</sup> "No," the other woman said. "My son is the living one; your son is the dead one."

The first woman said, "No, your son is the dead one; my son is the living one." So they argued before the king.

<sup>23</sup> The king replied, "This woman says, 'This is my son who is alive, and your son is dead,' but that woman says, 'No, your son is dead, and my son is alive.' " <sup>24</sup> The king continued, "Bring me a sword." So they brought the sword to the king. <sup>25</sup> Solomon said, "Cut the living boy in two and give half to one and half to the other."

<sup>26</sup> The woman whose son was alive spoke to the king because she felt great compassion <sup>H</sup> for her son. "My lord, give her the living baby," she said, "but please don't have him killed! "

But the other one said, "He will not be mine or yours. Cut him in two! "

<sup>27</sup> The king responded, “Give the living baby to the first woman, and don’t kill him. She is his mother.” <sup>28</sup> All Israel heard about the judgment the king had given, and they stood in awe of the king because they saw that God’s wisdom was in him to carry out justice.

Solomon's Officials

4 King Solomon ruled over Israel, <sup>2†</sup> and these were his officials:

Azariah son of Zadok, priest;

<sup>3</sup> Elihoreph and Ahijah the sons of Shisha, secretaries;
Jehoshaphat son of Ahilud, court historian;

<sup>4†</sup> Benaiah son of Jehoiada, in charge of the army;
Zadok and Abiathar, priests;

<sup>5</sup> Azariah son of Nathan, in charge of the deputies;
Zabud son of Nathan, a priest and adviser to the king;

<sup>6</sup> Ahishar, in charge of the palace;
and Adoniram son of Abda, in charge of forced labor.

<sup>7†</sup> Solomon had 12 deputies for all Israel. They provided food for the king and his household; each one made provision for one month out of the year. <sup>8†</sup> These were their names:

Ben-hur, in the hill country of Ephraim;

<sup>12†</sup> Baana son of Ahilud, in Taanach, Megiddo, and all Beth-shean which is beside Zarethan below Jezreel, from Beth-shean to Abel-meholah, as far as the other side of Jokmeam;

<sup>13†</sup> Ben-geber, in Ramoth-gilead (he had the villages of Jair son of Manasseh, which are in Gilead, and he had the region of Argob, which is in Bashan, 60 great cities with walls and bronze bars);

<sup>16†</sup> Baana son of Hushai, in Asher and Bealoth;

<sup>19†</sup> Geber son of Uri, in the land of Gilead, the country of Sihon king of the Amorites and of Og king of Bashan.

There was one deputy in the land of Judah.

Solomon's Provisions

<sup>20</sup> Judah and Israel were as numerous as the sand by the sea; they were eating, drinking, and rejoicing. <sup>21</sup> <sup>A</sup> Solomon ruled over all the kingdoms from the Euphrates River to the land of the Philistines and as far as the border of Egypt. They offered tribute and served Solomon all the days of his life.

<sup>22</sup> Solomon's provisions for one day were 150 bushels <sup>B</sup> of fine flour and 300 bushels <sup>C</sup> of meal, <sup>23</sup> 10 fattened oxen, 20 range oxen, and 100 sheep, besides deer, gazelles, roebucks, and pen-fed poultry, <sup>D</sup>, <sup>24†</sup> for he had dominion over everything west of the Euphrates from Tiphseh to Gaza and over all the kings west of the Euphrates. He had peace on all his surrounding borders. <sup>25</sup> Throughout Solomon's reign, Judah and Israel lived in safety from Dan to Beer-sheba, each man under his own vine and his own fig tree. <sup>26†</sup> Solomon had 40,000 stalls of horses for his chariots, and 12,000 horsemen. <sup>27</sup> Each of those deputies for a month in turn provided food for King Solomon and for everyone who came to King Solomon's table. They neglected nothing. <sup>28</sup> Each man brought the barley and the straw for the chariot teams and the other horses to the required place according to his assignment. <sup>E</sup>

Solomon's Wisdom and Literary Gifts

<sup>29</sup> God gave Solomon wisdom, very great insight, and understanding as vast as the sand on the seashore. <sup>30</sup> Solomon's wisdom was greater than the wisdom of all the people of the East, greater than all the wisdom of Egypt. <sup>31</sup> He was wiser than anyone — wiser than Ethan the Ezrahite, and Heman, Calcol, and Darda, sons of Mahol. His reputation extended to all the surrounding nations.

<sup>33</sup> He described trees, from the cedar in Lebanon to the hyssop growing out of the wall. He also taught about animals, birds, reptiles, and fish. <sup>34</sup> People came from everywhere, sent by every king on earth who had heard of his wisdom, to listen to Solomon's wisdom.

Chapter 5 Hiram's Building Materials

<sup>1</sup>Hiram king of Tyre sent his servants to Solomon when he heard that he had been anointed king in his father's place, for Hiram had always been friends with David.

<sup>2</sup> Solomon sent this message to Hiram: <sup>3</sup> "You know my father David was not able to build a temple for the name of •Yahweh his God. This was because of the warfare all around him until the LORD put his enemies under his feet. <sup>4</sup> The LORD my God has now given me rest all around; there is no enemy or crisis. <sup>5</sup> So I plan to build a temple for the name of Yahweh my God, according to what the LORD promised my father David: 'I will put your son on your throne in your place, and he will build the temple for My name.'

<sup>6†</sup> "Therefore, command that cedars from Lebanon be cut down for me. My servants will be with your servants, and I will pay your servants' wages according to whatever you say, for you know that not a man among us knows how to cut timber like the Sidonians."

<sup>7</sup> When Hiram heard Solomon's words, he greatly rejoiced and said, "May the LORD be praised today! He has given David a wise son to be over this great people! " <sup>8</sup> Then Hiram sent a reply to Solomon, saying, "I have heard your message; I will do everything you want regarding the cedar and cypress timber. <sup>9</sup> My servants will bring the logs down from Lebanon to the sea, and I will make them into rafts to go by sea to the place you indicate. I will break them apart there, and you can take them away. You then can meet my needs by providing my household with food."

<sup>12</sup> The LORD gave Solomon wisdom, as He had promised him. There was peace between Hiram and Solomon, and the two of them made a treaty.

Solomon's Work Force

<sup>13†</sup> Then King Solomon drafted forced laborers from all Israel; the labor force numbered 30,000 men. <sup>14†</sup> He sent 10,000 to Lebanon each month in shifts; one month they were in Lebanon, two months they were at home. Adoniram was in charge of the forced labor. <sup>15†</sup> Solomon had 70,000 porters and 80,000 stonecutters in the mountains, <sup>16</sup> not including his 3,300 deputies in charge of the work. They ruled over the people doing the work. <sup>17</sup> The king commanded them to quarry large, costly stones to lay the foundation of the temple with dressed stones. <sup>18</sup> So Solomon's builders and Hiram's builders, along with the Gebalites, quarried the stone and prepared the timber and stone for the temple's construction.

Building the Temple

6 † Solomon began to build the temple for the LORD in the four hundred eightieth year after the Israelites came out of the land of Egypt, in the fourth year of his reign over Israel, in the second month, in the month of Ziv. <sup>2</sup> The temple that King Solomon built for the LORD was 90 feet <sup>A</sup> long, 30 feet <sup>B</sup> wide, and 45 feet <sup>C</sup> high. <sup>3</sup> The portico in front of the temple sanctuary was 30 feet <sup>D</sup> long extending across the temple's width, and 15 feet deep <sup>E</sup> in front of the temple. <sup>4</sup> He also made windows with beveled frames <sup>F</sup> for the temple.

<sup>5</sup> He then built a chambered structure <sup>G</sup> along the temple wall, encircling the walls of the temple, that is, the sanctuary and the inner sanctuary. And he made side chambers <sup>H</sup> all around. <sup>6</sup> The lowest chamber was 7 1/2 feet <sup>I</sup> wide, the middle was nine feet <sup>J</sup> wide, and the third was 10 1/2 feet <sup>K</sup> wide. He also provided offset ledges for the temple all around the outside so that nothing would be inserted into the temple walls. <sup>7</sup> The temple's construction used finished stones cut at the quarry so that no hammer, chisel, or any iron tool was heard in the temple while it was being built.

<sup>8</sup> The door for the lowest side chamber was on the right side of the temple. They went up a stairway <sup>L</sup> to the middle chamber, and from the middle to the third. <sup>9</sup> When he finished building the temple, he paneled it with boards and planks of cedar. <sup>10</sup> He built the chambers along the entire temple, joined to the temple with cedar beams; each story was 7 1/2 feet <sup>M</sup> high.

<sup>11</sup> The word of the LORD came to Solomon: <sup>12</sup> “As for this temple you are building — if you walk in My statutes, observe My ordinances, and keep all My commands by walking in them, I will fulfill My promise to you, which I made to your father David. <sup>13</sup> I will live among the Israelites and not abandon My people Israel.”

<sup>14†</sup> When Solomon finished building the temple, <sup>15</sup> he paneled the interior temple walls with cedar boards; from the temple floor to the surface of the ceiling he overlaid the interior with wood. He also overlaid the floor with cypress boards. <sup>16</sup> Then he lined 30 feet <sup>N</sup> of the rear of the temple with cedar boards from the floor to the surface of the ceiling, and he built the interior as an inner sanctuary, the most holy place. <sup>17</sup> The temple, that is, the sanctuary in front of the most holy place, <sup>O</sup> was 60 feet <sup>P</sup> long.

<sup>18†</sup> The cedar paneling inside the temple was carved with ornamental gourds and flower blossoms. Everything was cedar; not a stone could be seen.

<sup>19</sup> He prepared the inner sanctuary inside the temple to put the ark of the LORD's covenant there. <sup>20</sup> The interior of the sanctuary was 30 feet <sup>Q</sup> long, 30 feet <sup>R</sup> wide, and 30 feet <sup>S</sup> high; he overlaid it with pure gold. He also overlaid the cedar altar. <sup>21†</sup> Next, Solomon overlaid the interior of the temple with pure gold, and he hung <sup>T</sup> gold chains across the front of the inner sanctuary and overlaid it with gold. <sup>22</sup> So he added the gold overlay to the entire temple until everything was completely finished, including the entire altar that belongs to the inner sanctuary.

<sup>23</sup> In the inner sanctuary he made two •cherubim 15 feet <sup>U</sup> high out of olive wood. <sup>24</sup> One wing of the first cherub was 7 1/2 feet long, <sup>V</sup> and the other wing was 7 1/2 feet long. The wingspan was 15 feet <sup>W</sup> from tip to tip. <sup>25</sup> The second cherub also was 15 feet; <sup>X</sup> both cherubim had the same size and shape. <sup>26</sup> The first cherub's height was 15 feet <sup>Y</sup> and so was the second cherub's. <sup>27</sup> Then he put the cherubim inside the inner temple. Since their wings were spread out, the first one's wing touched one wall while the second cherub's wing touched the other <sup>Z</sup> wall, and in the middle of the temple their wings were touching wing to wing. <sup>28</sup> He also overlaid the cherubim with gold.

<sup>29</sup> He carved all the surrounding temple walls with carved engravings — cherubim, palm trees and flower blossoms — in both the inner and outer sanctuaries. <sup>30</sup> He overlaid the temple floor with gold in both the inner and outer sanctuaries.

<sup>31</sup> For the entrance of the inner sanctuary, he made olive wood doors. The pillars of the doorposts were five-sided. <sup>A</sup> <sup>32</sup> The two doors were made of olive wood. He carved cherubim, palm trees, and flower blossoms on them and overlaid them with gold, hammering gold over the cherubim and palm trees. <sup>33</sup> In the same way, he made four-sided <sup>B</sup> olive wood doorposts for the sanctuary entrance. <sup>34</sup> The two doors were made of cypress wood; the first door had two folding sides, and the second door had two folding panels. <sup>35</sup> He carved cherubim, palm trees, and flower blossoms on them and overlaid them with gold applied evenly over the carving. <sup>36</sup> He built the inner courtyard with three rows of dressed stone and a row of trimmed cedar beams.

<sup>37†</sup> The foundation of the LORD's temple was laid in Solomon's fourth year in the month of Ziv. <sup>38†</sup> In his eleventh year in the eighth month, in the month of Bul, the temple was completed in every detail and according to every specification. So he built it in seven years.

Solomon's Palace Complex

7† Solomon completed his entire palace complex after 13 years of construction. <sup>2†</sup> He built the House of the Forest of Lebanon. It was 150 feet <sup>A</sup> long, 75 feet <sup>B</sup> wide, and 45 feet <sup>C</sup> high on four rows of cedar pillars, with cedar beams on top of the pillars. <sup>3</sup> It was paneled above with cedar at the top of the chambers that rested on 45 pillars, 15 per row. <sup>4</sup> There were three rows of window frames, facing each other <sup>D</sup> in three tiers. <sup>E</sup>, <sup>5</sup> All the doors and doorposts had rectangular frames, the openings facing each other <sup>F</sup> in three tiers. <sup>G</sup> <sup>6</sup> He made the hall of pillars 75 feet <sup>H</sup> long and 45 feet <sup>I</sup> wide. A portico was in front of the pillars, and a canopy with pillars <sup>J</sup> was in front of them. <sup>7</sup> He made the Hall of the Throne where he would judge — the Hall of Judgment. It was paneled with cedar from the floor to the rafters. <sup>8</sup> Solomon's own palace where he would live, in the other courtyard behind the hall, was of similar construction. And he made a house like this hall for Pharaoh's daughter, his wife. <sup>K</sup>

<sup>9</sup> All of these buildings were of costly stones, cut to size and sawed with saws on the inner and outer surfaces, from foundation to coping and from the outside to the great courtyard. <sup>10</sup> The foundation was made of large, costly stones 12 and 15 feet <sup>L</sup> long. <sup>11</sup> Above were also costly stones, cut to size, as well as cedar wood. <sup>12</sup> Around the great courtyard, as well as the inner courtyard of the LORD's temple and the portico of the temple, were three rows of dressed stone and a row of trimmed cedar beams.

<sup>13†</sup> King Solomon had Hiram brought from Tyre. <sup>14†</sup> He was a widow's son from the tribe of Naphtali, and his father was a man of Tyre, a bronze craftsman. Hiram had great skill, understanding, and knowledge to do every kind of bronze work. So he came to King Solomon and carried out all his work.

The Bronze Pillars

<sup>15</sup> He cast two hollow bronze pillars: each 27 feet <sup>M</sup> high and 18 feet <sup>N</sup> in circumference. <sup>16</sup> He also made two capitals of cast bronze to set on top of the pillars; 7 1/2 feet <sup>O</sup> was the height of the first capital, and 7 1/2 feet <sup>P</sup> was also the height of the second capital. <sup>17</sup> The capitals on top of the pillars had gratings of latticework, wreaths <sup>Q</sup> made of chainwork — seven for the first capital and seven for the second.

The Reservoir

<sup>23†</sup> He made the cast metal reservoir, <sup>T</sup>, 15 feet <sup>U</sup> from brim to brim, perfectly round. It was 7 1/2 feet <sup>V</sup> high and 45 feet <sup>W</sup> in circumference. <sup>24</sup> Ornamental gourds encircled it below the brim, 10 every half yard, <sup>X</sup> completely encircling the reservoir. The gourds were cast in two rows when the reservoir was cast. <sup>25</sup> It stood on 12 oxen, three facing north, three facing west, three facing south, and three facing east. The reservoir was on top of them and all their hindquarters were toward the center. <sup>26</sup> The reservoir was three inches <sup>Y</sup> thick, and its rim was fashioned like the brim of a cup or of a lily blossom. It held 11,000 gallons. <sup>Z</sup>

The Bronze Water Carts

top was 18 inches <sup>F</sup> wide. The opening was round, made as a pedestal 27 inches <sup>G</sup> wide. On it were carvings, but their frames were square, not round. <sup>32</sup> There were four wheels under the frames, and the wheel axles were part of the water cart; each wheel was 27 inches <sup>H</sup> tall. <sup>33</sup> The wheels' design was similar to that of chariot wheels: their axles, rims, spokes, and hubs were all of cast metal. <sup>34</sup> Four supports were at the four corners of each water cart; each support was one piece with the water cart. <sup>35</sup> At the top of the cart was a band nine inches <sup>I</sup> high encircling it; also, at the top of the cart, its braces and its frames were one piece with it. <sup>36</sup> He engraved cherubim, lions, and palm trees on the plates of its braces and on its frames, wherever each had space, with encircling wreaths. <sup>37</sup> In this way he made the 10 water carts using the same casting, dimensions, and shape for all of them.

Bronze Basins and Other Utensils

Completion of the Bronze Works

So Hiram finished all the work that he was doing for King Solomon on the LORD's temple: <sup>41</sup> two pillars; bowls for the capitals that were on top of the two pillars; the two gratings for covering both bowls of the capitals that were on top of the pillars; <sup>42</sup> the 400 pomegranates for the two gratings (two rows of pomegranates for each grating covering both capitals' bowls on top of the pillars ); <sup>43</sup> the 10 water carts; the 10 basins on the water carts; <sup>44†</sup> the reservoir; the 12 oxen underneath the reservoir; <sup>45</sup> and the pots, shovels, and sprinkling basins. All the utensils that Hiram made for King Solomon at the LORD's temple were made of burnished bronze.

Succoth and Zarethan. <sup>47†</sup> Solomon left all the utensils unweighed because there were so many; the weight of the bronze was not determined.

Completion of the Gold Furnishings

<sup>51</sup> So all the work King Solomon did in the LORD's temple was completed. Then Solomon brought in the consecrated things of his father David — the silver, the gold, and the utensils — and put them in the treasuries of the LORD's temple.

Solomon's Dedication of the Temple

8 At that time Solomon assembled the elders of Israel, all the tribal heads and the ancestral leaders of the Israelites before him at Jerusalem in order to bring the ark of the LORD's covenant from the city of David, that is •Zion. <sup>2†</sup> So all the men of Israel were assembled in the presence of King Solomon in the seventh month, the month of Ethanim, at the festival.

<sup>3</sup> All the elders of Israel came, and the priests picked up the ark. <sup>4</sup> The priests and the Levites brought the ark of the LORD, the tent of meeting, and the holy utensils that were in the tent. <sup>5</sup> King Solomon and the entire congregation of Israel, who had gathered around him and were with him in front of the ark, were sacrificing sheep and cattle that could not be counted or numbered, because there were so many. <sup>6</sup> The priests brought the ark of the LORD's covenant to its place, into the inner sanctuary of the temple, to the most holy place beneath the wings of the •cherubim. <sup>7†</sup> For the cherubim were spreading their wings over the place of the ark, so that the cherubim covered the ark and its poles from above. <sup>8†</sup> The poles were so long that their ends were seen from the holy place in front of the inner sanctuary, but they were not seen from outside the sanctuary; they are there to this day. <sup>9†</sup> Nothing was in the ark except the two stone tablets that Moses had put there at Horeb, where the LORD made a covenant with the Israelites when they came out of the land of Egypt.

<sup>10</sup> When the priests came out of the holy place, the cloud filled the LORD's temple, <sup>11†</sup> and because of the cloud, the priests were not able to continue ministering, for the glory of the LORD filled the temple.

<sup>12</sup> Then Solomon said:

The LORD said that He would dwell in thick darkness.

<sup>13</sup> I have indeed built an exalted temple for You, a place for Your dwelling forever.

<sup>14</sup> The king turned around and blessed the entire congregation of Israel while they were standing. <sup>15</sup> He said:

May the LORD God of Israel be praised!

He spoke directly to my father David,
and He has fulfilled the promise by His power.
He said,

<sup>16</sup> “Since the day I brought My people Israel out of Egypt, I have not chosen a city to build a temple in among any of the tribes of Israel,
so that My name would be there.

But I have chosen David to rule My people Israel.”

<sup>17</sup> It was in the desire of my father David to build a temple for the name of •Yahweh, the God of Israel.

<sup>18</sup> But the LORD said to my father David,
“Since it was your desire to build a temple for My name,
you have done well to have this desire.

<sup>19</sup> Yet you are not the one to build it; instead, your son, your own offspring, will build it for My name.”

<sup>20</sup> The LORD has fulfilled what He promised.

I have taken the place of my father David, and I sit on the throne of Israel, as the LORD promised.
I have built the temple for the name of Yahweh, the God of Israel.

<sup>21</sup> I have provided a place there for the ark, where the LORD’s covenant is that He made with our ancestors when He brought them out of the land of Egypt.

Solomon’s Prayer

<sup>22</sup> Then Solomon stood before the altar of the LORD in front of the entire congregation of Israel and spread out his hands toward heaven. <sup>23†</sup> He said:

LORD God of Israel,
there is no God like You
in heaven above or on earth below, keeping the gracious covenant with Your servants who walk before You
with their whole heart.

<sup>24</sup> You have kept what You promised to Your servant, my father David.
You spoke directly to him
and You fulfilled Your promise by Your power
as it is today.

<sup>25</sup> Therefore, LORD God of Israel, keep what You promised
to Your servant, my father David:
You will never fail to have a man
to sit before Me on the throne of Israel, if only your sons guard their walk before Me
as you have walked before Me.

<sup>26</sup> Now LORD God of Israel, please confirm what You promised to Your servant, my father David.

<sup>27</sup> But will God indeed live on earth?
Even heaven, the highest heaven, cannot contain You,
much less this temple I have built.

<sup>28</sup> Listen <sup>A</sup> to Your servant's prayer and his petition, LORD my God,
so that You may hear the cry and the prayer that Your servant prays before You today,

<sup>29</sup> so that Your eyes may watch over this temple night and day, toward the place where You said:
My name will be there,
and so that You may hear the prayer that Your servant prays toward this place.

<sup>30</sup> Hear the petition of Your servant and Your people Israel,
which they pray toward this place.
May You hear in Your dwelling place in heaven.
May You hear and forgive.

<sup>31†</sup> When a man sins against his neighbor and is forced to take an oath, <sup>B</sup>, and he comes to take an oath
before Your altar in this temple,

<sup>32†</sup> may You hear in heaven and act.
May You judge Your servants,
condemning the wicked man by bringing what he has done on his own head and providing justice for the righteous
by rewarding him according to his righteousness.

<sup>33†</sup> When Your people Israel are defeated before an enemy, because they have sinned against You,
and they return to You and praise Your name,
and they pray and plead with You for mercy in this temple,

<sup>34</sup> may You hear in heaven
and forgive the sin of Your people Israel.
May You restore them to the land
You gave their ancestors.

<sup>35</sup> When the skies are shut and there is no rain, because they have sinned against You,
and they pray toward this place
and praise Your name,
and they turn from their sins
because You are afflicting them,

<sup>36</sup> may You hear in heaven and forgive the sin of Your servants
and Your people Israel,
so that You may teach them the good way
they should walk in.

May You send rain on Your land
that You gave Your people for an inheritance.

<sup>37</sup> When there is famine on the earth,
when there is pestilence,
when there is blight, mildew, locust, or grasshopper,
when their enemy besieges them in the region of their fortified cities, <sup>C</sup>
when there is any plague or illness,

<sup>38</sup> whatever prayer or petition anyone from Your people Israel might have — each man knowing his own afflictions <sup>D</sup>, and spreading out his hands toward this temple —

<sup>39</sup> may You hear in heaven, Your dwelling place, and may You forgive, act, and repay the man,
according to all his ways, since You know his heart,
for You alone know every human heart,

<sup>40</sup> so that they may •fear You all the days they live on the land
You gave our ancestors.

<sup>41†</sup> Even for the foreigner who is not of Your people Israel but has come from a distant land
because of Your name —

<sup>42†</sup> for they will hear of Your great name, mighty hand, and outstretched arm, and will come and pray toward this temple —

<sup>43</sup> may You hear in heaven, Your dwelling place, and do according to all the foreigner asks You for.
Then all the people on earth will know Your name, to fear You as Your people Israel do and know that this temple I have built is called by Your name.

<sup>44</sup> When Your people go out to fight against their enemies, wherever You send them,
and they pray to Yahweh
in the direction of the city You have chosen and the temple I have built for Your name,

<sup>45</sup> may You hear their prayer and petition in heaven and uphold their cause.

<sup>46</sup> When they sin against You — for there is no one who does not sin —
and You are angry with them
and hand them over to the enemy, and their captors deport them to the enemy's country — whether distant or nearby —

<sup>47</sup> and when they come to their senses <sup>E</sup> in the land where they were deported

and repent and petition You in their captors' land:

“We have sinned and done wrong;
we have been wicked,”

<sup>48</sup> and when they return to You with their whole mind and heart in the land of their enemies who took them captive, and when they pray to You in the direction of their land that You gave their ancestors,
the city You have chosen,
and the temple I have built for Your name,

<sup>49</sup> may You hear in heaven, Your dwelling place, their prayer and petition and uphold their cause.

<sup>50</sup> May You forgive Your people who sinned against You and all their rebellions <sup>F</sup> against You, and may You give them compassion in the eyes of their captors, so that they may be compassionate to them.

<sup>51†</sup> For they are Your people and Your inheritance;
You brought them out of Egypt, out of the middle of an iron furnace.

<sup>52</sup> May Your eyes be open to Your servant's petition and to the petition of Your people Israel, listening to them whenever they call to You.

<sup>53</sup> For You, Lord GOD, have set them apart as Your inheritance from all the people on earth, as You spoke through Your servant Moses when You brought their ancestors out of Egypt.

Solomon's Blessing

<sup>54</sup> When Solomon finished praying this entire prayer and petition to the LORD, he got up from kneeling before the altar of the LORD, with his hands spread out toward heaven, <sup>55</sup> and he stood and blessed the whole congregation of Israel with a loud voice: <sup>56</sup> “May the LORD be praised! He has given rest to His people Israel according to all He has said. Not one of all the good promises He made through His servant Moses has failed.

<sup>57</sup> May the LORD our God be with us as He was with our ancestors. May He not abandon us or leave us <sup>58</sup> so that He causes us to be devoted <sup>G</sup> to Him, to walk in all His ways, and to keep His commands, statutes, and ordinances, which He commanded our ancestors. <sup>59</sup> May my words I have made my petition with before the LORD be near the LORD our God day and night, so that He may uphold His servant's cause and the cause of His people Israel, as each day requires, <sup>60</sup> and so that all the peoples of the earth may know that Yahweh is God. There is no other! <sup>61</sup> Let your heart be completely devoted to the LORD our God to walk in His statutes and to keep His commands, as it is today.”

<sup>62</sup> The king and all Israel with him were offering sacrifices in the LORD's presence. <sup>63†</sup> Solomon offered a sacrifice of •fellowship offerings to the LORD: 22,000 cattle and 120,000 sheep. In this manner the king and all the Israelites dedicated the LORD's temple.

<sup>64†</sup> On the same day, the king consecrated the middle of the courtyard that was in front of the LORD's temple because that was where he offered the •burnt offering, the •grain offering, and the fat of the fellowship offerings since the bronze altar before the LORD was too small to accommodate the burnt offerings, the grain offerings, and the fat of the fellowship offerings.

The LORD's Response

9 When Solomon finished building the temple of the LORD, the royal palace, and all that Solomon desired to do, <sup>2</sup> the LORD appeared to Solomon a second time just as He had appeared to him at Gibeon. <sup>3</sup> The LORD said to him:

I have heard your prayer and petition you have made before Me. I have consecrated this temple you have built, to put My name there forever; My eyes and My heart will be there at all times.

<sup>4</sup> As for you, if you walk before Me as your father David walked, with a heart of integrity and in what is right, doing everything I have commanded you, and if you keep My statutes and ordinances, <sup>5</sup> I will establish your royal throne over Israel forever, as I promised your father David: You will never fail to have a man on the throne of Israel.

<sup>6</sup> If you or your sons turn away from following Me and do not keep My commands — My statutes that I have set before you — and if you go and serve other gods and worship them, <sup>7</sup> I will cut off Israel from the land I gave them, and I will reject <sup>A</sup> the temple I have sanctified for My name. Israel will become an object of scorn and ridicule among all the peoples. <sup>8†</sup> Though this temple is now exalted, everyone who passes by will be appalled and will mock. <sup>B</sup> They will say: Why did the LORD do this to this land and this temple? <sup>9</sup> Then they will say: Because they abandoned the LORD their God who brought their ancestors out of the land of Egypt. They clung to other gods and worshiped and served them. Because of this, the LORD brought all this ruin on them.

King Hiram's 20 Towns

him, but he was not pleased with them. <sup>13†</sup> So he said, “What are these towns you’ve given me, my brother?” So he called them the Land of Cabul, as they are still called today. <sup>14</sup> Now Hiram had sent the king 9,000 pounds <sup>C</sup> of gold.

Solomon’s Forced Labor

<sup>15†</sup> This is the account of the forced labor that King Solomon had imposed to build the LORD’s temple, his own palace, the supporting terraces, the wall of Jerusalem, and Hazor, Megiddo, and Gezer. <sup>16</sup> Pharaoh king of Egypt had attacked and captured Gezer. He then burned it down, killed the Canaanites who lived in the city, and gave it as a dowry to his daughter, Solomon’s wife. <sup>17</sup> Then Solomon rebuilt Gezer, Lower Beth-horon, <sup>18</sup> Baalath, Tamar in the Wilderness of Judah, <sup>19</sup> all the storage cities that belonged to Solomon, the chariot cities, the cavalry cities, and whatever Solomon desired to build in Jerusalem, Lebanon, or anywhere else in the land of his dominion.

<sup>20</sup> As for all the peoples who remained of the Amorites, Hittites, Perizzites, Hivites, and Jebusites, who were not Israelites — <sup>21†</sup> their descendants who remained in the land after them, those whom the Israelites were unable to •completely destroy — Solomon imposed forced labor on them; it is this way until today. <sup>22†</sup> But Solomon did not consign the Israelites to slavery; they were soldiers, his servants, his commanders, his captains, and commanders of his chariots and his cavalry. <sup>23</sup> These were the deputies who were over Solomon’s work: 550 who ruled over the people doing the work.

Solomon’s Other Activities

<sup>24</sup> Pharaoh’s daughter moved from the city of David to the house that Solomon had built for her; he then built the terraces.

<sup>25</sup> Three times a year Solomon offered •burnt offerings and •fellowship offerings on the altar he had built for the LORD, and he burned incense with them in the LORD’s presence. So he completed the temple.

1 KINGS

The Queen of Sheba

10 The queen of Sheba heard about Solomon's fame connected with the name of •Yahweh and came to test him with difficult questions. <sup>2</sup> She came to Jerusalem with a very large entourage, with camels bearing spices, gold in great abundance, and precious stones. She came to Solomon and spoke to him about everything that was on her mind. <sup>3</sup> So Solomon answered all her questions; nothing was too difficult for the king to explain to her. <sup>4</sup> When the queen of Sheba observed all of Solomon's wisdom, the palace he had built, <sup>5</sup> the food at his table, his servants' residence, his attendants' service and their attire, his cupbearers, and the •burnt offerings he offered at the LORD's temple, it took her breath away.

<sup>6</sup> She said to the king, "The report I heard in my own country about your words and about your wisdom is true. <sup>7</sup> But I didn't believe the reports until I came and saw with my own eyes. Indeed, I was not even told half. Your wisdom and prosperity far exceed the report I heard. <sup>8</sup> How happy are your men. How happy are these servants of yours, who always stand in your presence hearing your wisdom. <sup>9</sup> May Yahweh your God be praised! He delighted in you and put you on the throne of Israel, because of the LORD's eternal love for Israel. He has made you king to carry out justice and righteousness."

<sup>11†</sup> In addition, Hiram's fleet that carried gold from Ophir brought from Ophir a large quantity of almug wood and precious stones. <sup>12</sup> The king made the almug wood into steps for the LORD's temple and the king's palace and into lyres and harps for the singers. Never before had such almug wood come, and the like has not been seen again even to this very day.

<sup>13</sup> King Solomon gave the queen of Sheba her every desire — whatever she asked — besides what he had given her out of his royal bounty. Then she, along with her servants, returned to her own country.

Solomon's Wealth

<sup>15</sup> besides what came from merchants, traders' merchandise, and all the Arabian kings and governors of the land.

of gold went into each shield. <sup>17</sup> He made 300 small shields of hammered gold; about four pounds <sup>D</sup> of gold went into each shield. The king put them in the House of the Forest of Lebanon.

<sup>18</sup> The king also made a large ivory throne and overlaid it with fine gold.
<sup>19</sup> The throne had six steps; there was a rounded top at the back of the throne, armrests on either side of the seat, and two lions standing beside the armrests. <sup>20</sup> Twelve lions were standing there on the six steps, one at each end. Nothing like it had ever been made in any other kingdom.

<sup>21</sup> All of King Solomon's drinking cups were gold, and all the utensils of the House of the Forest of Lebanon were pure gold. There was no silver, since it was considered as nothing in Solomon's time, <sup>22</sup> for the king had ships of Tarshish at sea with Hiram's fleet, and once every three years the ships of Tarshish would arrive bearing gold, silver, ivory, apes, and peacocks. <sup>E</sup>

<sup>26†</sup> Solomon accumulated 1,400 chariots and 12,000 horsemen and stationed them in the chariot cities and with the king in Jerusalem. <sup>27†</sup> The king made silver as common in Jerusalem as stones, and he made cedar as abundant as sycamore in the Judean foothills. <sup>28†</sup> Solomon's horses were imported from Egypt and Kue. The king's traders bought them from Kue at the going price. <sup>29</sup> A chariot was imported from Egypt for 15 pounds <sup>H</sup> of silver, and a horse for about four pounds. <sup>I</sup> In the same way, they exported them to all the kings of the Hittites and to the kings of Aram through their agents.

1 KINGS

Solomon's Unfaithfulness to God

11 † King Solomon loved many foreign women in addition to Pharaoh's daughter: Moabite, Ammonite, Edomite, Sidonian, and Hittite women <sup>2†</sup> from the nations that the LORD had told the Israelites about, "Do not intermarry with them, and they must not intermarry with you, because they will turn you away from Me to their gods." Solomon was deeply attached to these women and loved them. <sup>3</sup> He had 700 wives who were princesses and 300 concubines, and they turned his heart away from the LORD.

<sup>4</sup> When Solomon was old, his wives seduced him to follow other gods. He was not completely devoted to •Yahweh his God, as his father David had been. <sup>5†</sup> Solomon followed •Ashtoreth, the goddess of the Sidonians, and •Milcom, the detestable idol of the Ammonites. <sup>6†</sup> Solomon did what was evil in the LORD's sight, and unlike his father David, he did not completely follow Yahweh.

<sup>7</sup> At that time, Solomon built a •high place for Chemosh, the detestable idol of Moab, and for Milcom, <sup>A</sup> the detestable idol of the Ammonites, on the hill across from Jerusalem. <sup>8</sup> He did the same for all his foreign wives, who were burning incense and offering sacrifices to their gods.

<sup>9</sup> The LORD was angry with Solomon, because his heart had turned away from Yahweh, the God of Israel, who had appeared to him twice. <sup>10</sup> He had commanded him about this, so that he would not follow other gods, but Solomon did not do what the LORD had commanded.

<sup>11†</sup> Then the LORD said to Solomon, "Since you have done this <sup>B</sup> and did not keep My covenant and My statutes, which I commanded you, I will tear the kingdom away from you and give it to your servant. <sup>12</sup> However, I will not do it during your lifetime because of your father David; I will tear it out of your son's hand. <sup>13</sup> Yet I will not tear the entire kingdom away from him. I will give one tribe to your son because of my servant David and because of Jerusalem that I chose."

Solomon's Enemies

<sup>14</sup> So the LORD raised up Hadad the Edomite as an enemy against Solomon. He was of the royal family in Edom. <sup>15</sup> Earlier, when David was in Edom, Joab, the commander of the army, had gone to bury the dead and had struck down every male in Edom. <sup>16</sup> For Joab and all Israel had remained there six months, until he had killed every male in Edom. <sup>17</sup> Hadad fled to Egypt, along with some Edomites from his father's servants. At the time Hadad was a small boy. <sup>18</sup> Hadad and his men set out from Midian and went to Paran. They took men with them from Paran and went to Egypt, to Pharaoh king of Egypt, who gave Hadad a house, ordered that he be given food, and gave him land. <sup>19</sup> Pharaoh liked Hadad so much that he gave him a wife, the sister of his own wife, Queen Tahpenes. <sup>20†</sup> Tahpenes' sister gave birth to Hadad's son Genubath. Tahpenes herself weaned him in Pharaoh's palace, and Genubath lived there along with Pharaoh's sons.

<sup>21</sup> When Hadad heard in Egypt that David rested with his fathers and that Joab, the commander of the army, was dead, Hadad said to Pharaoh, "Let me leave, so I can go to my own country."

<sup>22</sup> But Pharaoh asked him, "What do you lack here with me for you to want to go back to your own country?"

"Nothing," he replied, "but please let me leave."

<sup>26</sup> Now Solomon's servant, Jeroboam son of Nebat, was an Ephraimite from Zeredah. His widowed mother's name was Zeruah. Jeroboam rebelled against Solomon, <sup>27</sup> and this is the reason he rebelled against the king: Solomon had built the supporting terraces and repaired the opening in the wall of the city of his father David. <sup>28†</sup> Now the man Jeroboam was capable, and Solomon noticed the young man because he was getting things done. So he appointed him over the entire labor force of the house of Joseph.

<sup>29</sup> During that time, the prophet Ahijah the Shilonite met Jeroboam on the road as Jeroboam came out of Jerusalem. Now Ahijah had wrapped himself with a new cloak, and the two of them were alone in the open field. <sup>30†</sup> Then Ahijah took hold of the new cloak he had on, tore it into 12 pieces, <sup>31</sup> and said to Jeroboam, “Take 10 pieces for yourself, for this is what the LORD God of Israel says: ‘I am about to tear the kingdom out of Solomon’s hand. I will give you 10 tribes, <sup>32</sup> but one tribe will remain his because of my servant David and because of Jerusalem, the city I chose out of all the tribes of Israel. <sup>33</sup> For they have abandoned Me; they have bowed the knee to Ashtoreth, the goddess of the Sidonians, to Chemosh, the god of Moab, and to Milcom, the god of the Ammonites. They have not walked in My ways to do what is right in My eyes and to carry out My statutes and My judgments as his father David did.

<sup>34†</sup> “ ‘However, I will not take the whole kingdom from his hand but will let him be ruler all the days of his life because of My servant David, whom I chose and who kept My commands and My statutes. <sup>35</sup> I will take 10 tribes of the kingdom from his son’s hand and give them to you. <sup>36</sup> I will give one tribe to his son, so that My servant David will always have a lamp before Me in Jerusalem, the city I chose for Myself to put My name there. <sup>37</sup> I will appoint you, and you will reign as king over all you want, and you will be king over Israel.

<sup>38</sup> “ ‘After that, if you obey all I command you, walk in My ways, and do what is right in My sight in order to keep My statutes and My commands as My servant David did, I will be with you. I will build you a lasting dynasty just as I built for David, and I will give you Israel. <sup>39</sup> I will humble David’s descendants, because of their unfaithfulness, but not forever.’ ”

<sup>40</sup> Therefore, Solomon tried to kill Jeroboam, but he fled to Egypt, to Shishak king of Egypt, where he remained until Solomon’s death.

Solomon's Death

1 KINGS

The Kingdom Divided

12 Then Rehoboam went to Shechem, for all Israel had gone to Shechem to make him king. <sup>2</sup> When Jeroboam son of Nebat heard about it, for he was still in Egypt where he had fled from King Solomon's presence, Jeroboam stayed in Egypt. <sup>3</sup> They summoned him, and Jeroboam and the whole assembly of Israel came and spoke to Rehoboam: <sup>4†</sup> "Your father made our yoke difficult. You, therefore, lighten your father's harsh service and the heavy yoke he put on us, and we will serve you."

<sup>5</sup> Rehoboam replied, "Go home for three days and then return to me." So the people left. <sup>6</sup> Then King Rehoboam consulted with the elders who had served his father Solomon when he was alive, asking, "How do you advise me to respond to these people?"

<sup>7</sup> They replied, "Today if you will be a servant to these people and serve them, and if you respond to them by speaking kind words to them, they will be your servants forever."

<sup>8</sup> But he rejected the advice of the elders who had advised him and consulted with the young men who had grown up with him and served him. <sup>9</sup> He asked them, "What message do you advise that we send back to these people who said to me, 'Lighten the yoke your father put on us'?"

<sup>10</sup> Then the young men who had grown up with him told him, "This is what you should say to these people who said to you, 'Your father made our yoke heavy, but you, make it lighter on us!' This is what you should tell them: 'My little finger is thicker than my father's loins! <sup>11</sup> Although my father burdened you with a heavy yoke, I will add to your yoke; my father disciplined you with whips, but I will discipline you with barbed whips.' " <sup>A</sup>

<sup>12</sup> So Jeroboam and all the people came to Rehoboam on the third day, as the king had ordered: "Return to me on the third day." <sup>13</sup> Then the king answered the people harshly. He rejected the advice the elders had given him <sup>14</sup> and spoke to them according to the young men's advice: "My father made your yoke heavy, but I will add to your yoke; my father disciplined you with whips, but I will discipline you with barbed whips.”<sup>B</sup>

<sup>15</sup> The king did not listen to the people, because this turn of events came from the LORD to carry out His word, which the LORD had spoken through Ahijah the Shilonite to Jeroboam son of Nebat. <sup>16</sup> When all Israel saw that the king had not listened to them, the people answered him:

What portion do we have in David?
We have no inheritance in the son of Jesse.
Israel, return to your tents;
David, now look after your own house!

So Israel went to their tents,<sup>17</sup> but Rehoboam reigned over the Israelites living in the cities of Judah.

<sup>18†</sup> Then King Rehoboam sent Adoram, who was in charge of forced labor, but all Israel stoned him to death. King Rehoboam managed to get into the chariot and flee to Jerusalem. <sup>19</sup> Israel is in rebellion against the house of David until today.

Rehoboam in Jerusalem

<sup>20</sup> When all Israel heard that Jeroboam had come back, they summoned him to the assembly and made him king over all Israel. No one followed the house of David except the tribe of Judah alone. <sup>21</sup> When Rehoboam arrived in Jerusalem, he mobilized 180,000 choice warriors from the entire house of Judah and the tribe of Benjamin to fight against the house of Israel to restore the kingdom to Rehoboam son of Solomon. <sup>22</sup> But a revelation from God came to Shemaiah, the man of God: <sup>23</sup> “Say to Rehoboam son of Solomon, king of Judah, to the whole house of Judah and Benjamin, and to the rest of the people, <sup>24</sup> ‘This is what the LORD says: You are not to march up and fight against your brothers, the Israelites. Each of you must return home, for I have done this.’ ”

So they listened to what the LORD said and went back as He had told them.

Jeroboam's Idolatry

<sup>25</sup> Jeroboam built Shechem in the hill country of Ephraim and lived there. From there he went out and built Penuel. <sup>26</sup> Jeroboam said to himself, "The way things are going now, the kingdom might return to the house of David. <sup>27</sup> If these people regularly go to offer sacrifices in the LORD's temple in Jerusalem, the heart of these people will return to their lord, Rehoboam king of Judah. They will murder me and go back to the king of Judah." <sup>28†</sup> So the king sought advice.

Then he made two golden calves, and he said to the people, "Going to Jerusalem is too difficult for you. Israel, here is your God <sup>C</sup> who brought you out of the land of Egypt." <sup>29†</sup> He set up one in Bethel, and put the other in Dan. <sup>30</sup> This led to sin; the people walked in procession before one of the calves all the way to Dan.

<sup>31</sup> Jeroboam also built shrines on the •high places and set up priests from every class of people who were not Levites. <sup>32</sup> Jeroboam made a festival in the eighth month on the fifteenth day of the month, like the festival in Judah. He offered sacrifices on the altar; he made this offering in Bethel to sacrifice to the calves he had set up. He also stationed the priests in Bethel for the high places he had set up. <sup>33</sup> He offered sacrifices on <sup>D</sup> the altar he had set up in Bethel on the fifteenth day of the eighth month. He chose this month on his own. He made a festival for the Israelites, offered sacrifices on the altar, and burned incense.

1 KINGS

Judgment on Jeroboam

13 A man of God came from Judah to Bethel by a revelation from the LORD while Jeroboam was standing beside the altar to burn incense.

<sup>2</sup> The man of God cried out against the altar by a revelation from the LORD: “Altar, altar, this is what the LORD says, ‘A son will be born to the house of David, named Josiah, and he will sacrifice on you the priests of the •high places who are burning incense on you. Human bones will be burned on you.’ ” <sup>3</sup> He gave a sign that day. He said, “This is the sign that the LORD has spoken: ‘The altar will now be ripped apart, and the ashes that are on it will be poured out.’ ”

<sup>4</sup> When the king heard the word that the man of God had cried out against the altar at Bethel, Jeroboam stretched out his hand from the altar and said, “Arrest him! ” But the hand he stretched out against him withered, and he could not pull it back to himself. <sup>5</sup> The altar was ripped apart, and the ashes poured from the altar, according to the sign that the man of God had given by the word of the LORD.

<sup>6</sup> Then the king responded to the man of God, “Plead for the favor of the LORD your God and pray for me so that my hand may be restored to me.” So the man of God pleaded for the favor of the LORD, and the king’s hand was restored to him and became as it had been at first.

<sup>7</sup> Then the king declared to the man of God, “Come home with me, refresh yourself, and I’ll give you a reward.”

<sup>8</sup> But the man of God replied, “If you were to give me half your house, I still wouldn’t go with you, and I wouldn’t eat bread or drink water in this place, <sup>9</sup> for this is what I was commanded by the word of the LORD: ‘You must not eat bread or drink water or go back the way you came.’ ” <sup>10</sup> So he went another way; he did not go back by the way he had come to Bethel.

The Old Prophet and the Man of God

<sup>11</sup> Now a certain old prophet was living in Bethel. His son came and told him all the deeds that the man of God had done that day in Bethel. His sons also told their father the words that he had spoken to the king. <sup>12</sup> Then their father said to them, “Which way did he go?” His sons had seen the way taken by the man of God who had come from Judah.<sup>13</sup> Then he said to his sons, “Saddle the donkey for me.” So they saddled the donkey for him, and he got on it.<sup>14</sup> He followed the man of God and found him sitting under an oak tree. He asked him, “Are you the man of God who came from Judah?”

“I am,” he said.

<sup>15</sup> Then he said to him, “Come home with me and eat bread.”

<sup>16</sup> But he answered, “I cannot go back with you, eat bread, or drink water with you in this place,<sup>17</sup> for a message came to me by the word of the LORD: ‘You must not eat bread or drink water there or go back by the way you came.’”

<sup>18†</sup> He said to him, “I am also a prophet like you. An angel spoke to me by the word of the LORD: ‘Bring him back with you to your house so that he may eat bread and drink water.’” The old prophet deceived him,<sup>19</sup> and the man of God went back with him, ate bread in his house, and drank water.

<sup>20</sup> While they were sitting at the table, the word of the LORD came to the prophet who had brought him back,<sup>21</sup> and the prophet cried out to the man of God who had come from Judah, “This is what the LORD says: ‘Because you rebelled against the command of the LORD and did not keep the command that the LORD your God commanded you —<sup>22</sup> but you went back and ate bread and drank water in the place that He said to you, “Do not eat bread and do not drink water” — your corpse will never reach the grave of your fathers.’”

<sup>23</sup> So after he had eaten bread and after he had drunk, the old prophet saddled the donkey for the prophet he had brought back.<sup>24</sup> When he left, a lion attacked <sup>A</sup> him along the way and killed him. His corpse was thrown on the road, and the donkey was standing beside it; the lion was standing beside the corpse too.

<sup>25</sup> There were men passing by who saw the corpse thrown on the road and the lion standing beside it, and they went and spoke about it in the city where the old prophet lived. <sup>26</sup> When the prophet who had brought him back from his way heard about it, he said, “He is the man of God who disobeyed the command of the LORD. The LORD has given him to the lion, and it has mauled and killed him, according to the word of the LORD that He spoke to him.”

<sup>27</sup> Then the old prophet instructed his sons, “Saddle the donkey for me.” They saddled it, <sup>28</sup> and he went and found the corpse of the man of God thrown on the road with the donkey and the lion standing beside the corpse. The lion had not eaten the corpse or mauled the donkey. <sup>29</sup> So the prophet lifted the corpse of the man of God and laid it on the donkey and brought it back. The old prophet came into the city to mourn and bury him. <sup>30†</sup> Then he laid the corpse in his own grave, and they mourned over him: “Oh, my brother! ”

<sup>31</sup> After he had buried him, he said to his sons, “When I die, you must bury me in the grave where the man of God is buried; lay my bones beside his bones, <sup>32</sup> for the word that he cried out by a revelation from the LORD against the altar in Bethel and against all the shrines of the high places in the cities of Samaria is certain to happen.”

<sup>33†</sup> After all this Jeroboam did not repent of his evil way but again set up priests for the high places from every class of people. He ordained whoever so desired it, and they became priests of the high places. <sup>34</sup> This was the sin that caused the house of Jeroboam to be wiped out and annihilated from the face of the earth.

1 KINGS

Disaster on the House of Jeroboam

14 At that time Abijah son of Jeroboam became sick. <sup>2</sup> Jeroboam said to his wife, “Go disguise yourself, so they won’t know that you’re Jeroboam’s wife, and go to Shiloh. Ahijah the prophet is there; it was he who told about me becoming king over this people. <sup>3</sup> Take with you 10 loaves of bread, some cakes, and a jar of honey, and go to him. He will tell you what will happen to the boy.”

<sup>4</sup> Jeroboam’s wife did that: she went to Shiloh and arrived at Ahijah’s house. Ahijah could not see; his gaze was fixed <sup>A</sup> due to his age. <sup>5</sup> But the LORD had said to Ahijah, “Jeroboam’s wife is coming soon to ask you about her son, for he is sick. You are to say such and such to her. When she arrives, she will be disguised.”

<sup>6</sup> When Ahijah heard the sound of her feet entering the door, he said, “Come in, wife of Jeroboam! Why are you disguised? I have bad news for you. <sup>7</sup> Go tell Jeroboam, ‘This is what the LORD God of Israel says: I raised you up from among the people, appointed you ruler over My people Israel, <sup>8</sup> tore the kingdom away from the house of David, and gave it to you. But you were not like My servant David, who kept My commands and followed Me with all of his heart, doing only what is right in My eyes. <sup>9</sup> You behaved more wickedly than all who were before you. In order to provoke Me, you have proceeded to make for yourself other gods and cast images, but you have flung Me behind your back. <sup>10</sup> Because of all this, I am about to bring disaster on the house of Jeroboam:

I will eliminate all of Jeroboam’s males, <sup>B</sup> both slave and free, <sup>C</sup> in Israel;

I will sweep away the house of Jeroboam as one sweeps away dung until it is all gone!

<sup>11</sup> Anyone who belongs to Jeroboam and dies in the city, the dogs will eat,
and anyone who dies in the field,
the birds of the sky will eat,
for the LORD has said it! ’

<sup>12</sup> “As for you, get up and go to your house. When your feet enter the city, the boy will die. <sup>13</sup> All Israel will mourn for him and bury him. He alone out of Jeroboam’s house will be put in the family tomb, because out of the house of Jeroboam the LORD God of Israel found something good only in him. <sup>14†</sup> The LORD will raise up for Himself a king over Israel, who will eliminate the house of Jeroboam. This is the day, yes, <sup>D</sup> even today! <sup>15</sup> For the LORD will strike Israel and the people will shake as a reed shakes in water. He will uproot Israel from this good soil that He gave to their ancestors. He will scatter them beyond the Euphrates because they made their •Asherah poles, provoking the LORD. <sup>16</sup> He will give up Israel because of Jeroboam’s sins that he committed and caused Israel to commit.”

<sup>17</sup> Then Jeroboam’s wife got up and left and went to Tirzah. As she was crossing the threshold of the house, the boy died. <sup>18</sup> He was buried, and all Israel mourned for him, according to the word of the LORD He had spoken through His servant Ahijah the prophet.

<sup>19</sup> As for the rest of the events of Jeroboam’s reign, how he waged war and how he reigned, note that they are written in the Historical Record of Israel’s Kings. <sup>20</sup> The length of Jeroboam’s reign was 22 years. He rested with his fathers, and his son Nadab became king in his place.

Judah’s King Rehoboam

<sup>21</sup> Now Rehoboam, Solomon’s son, reigned in Judah. Rehoboam was 41 years old when he became king; he reigned 17 years in Jerusalem, the city where •Yahweh had chosen from all the tribes of Israel to put His name. Rehoboam’s mother’s name was Naamah the Ammonite.

<sup>22†</sup> Judah did what was evil in the LORD’s eyes. They provoked Him to jealous anger more than all that their ancestors had done with the sins they committed. <sup>23†</sup> They also built for themselves •high places, sacred pillars, and Asherah poles on every high hill and under every green tree; <sup>24</sup> there were even male cult prostitutes in the land. They imitated all the detestable practices of the nations the LORD had dispossessed before the Israelites.

1 KINGS

Judah's King Abijam

15 † In the eighteenth year of Israel's King Jeroboam son of Nebat, Abijam became king over Judah <sup>2†</sup> and reigned three years in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Maacah daughter of Abishalom.

<sup>3</sup> Abijam walked in all the sins his father before him had committed, and he was not completely devoted to the LORD his God as his ancestor David had been. <sup>4</sup> But because of David, the LORD his God gave him a lamp in Jerusalem to raise up his son after him and to establish Jerusalem. <sup>5</sup> For David did what was right in the LORD's eyes, and he did not turn aside from anything He had commanded him all the days of his life, except in the matter of Uriah the Hittite.

<sup>6</sup> There had been war between Rehoboam and Jeroboam all the days of Rehoboam's life. <sup>7</sup> The rest of the events of Abijam's reign, along with all his accomplishments, are written in the Historical Record of Judah's Kings. There was also war between Abijam and Jeroboam. <sup>8</sup> Abijam rested with his fathers and was buried in the city of David. His son Asa became king in his place.

Judah's King Asa

<sup>16</sup> There was war between Asa and Baasha king of Israel throughout their reigns. <sup>17†</sup> Israel's King Baasha went to war against Judah. He built Ramah in order to deny anyone access to Judah's King Asa. <sup>18</sup> So Asa withdrew all the silver and gold that remained in the treasuries of the LORD's temple and the treasuries of the royal palace and put it into the hands of his servants. Then King Asa sent them to Ben-hadad son of Tabrimmon son of Hezion king of Aram who lived in Damascus, saying, <sup>19</sup> "There is a treaty between me and you, between my father and your father. Look, I have sent you a gift of silver and gold. Go and break your treaty with Baasha king of Israel so that he will withdraw from me."

<sup>23</sup> The rest of all the events of Asa's reign, along with all his might, all his accomplishments, and the cities he built, are written in the Historical Record of Judah's Kings. But in his old age he developed a disease in his feet. <sup>24</sup> Then Asa rested with his fathers and was buried in the city of his ancestor David. His son Jehoshaphat became king in his place.

Israel's King Nadab

<sup>25†</sup> Nadab son of Jeroboam became king over Israel in the second year of Judah's King Asa; he reigned over Israel two years. <sup>26†</sup> Nadab did what was evil in the LORD's sight and followed the example of his father and the sin he had caused Israel to commit.

<sup>27†</sup> Then Baasha son of Ahijah of the house of Issachar conspired against Nadab, and Baasha struck him down at Gibbethon of the Philistines while Nadab and all Israel were besieging Gibbethon. <sup>28†</sup> In the third year of Judah's King Asa, Baasha killed Nadab and reigned in his place.

<sup>29†</sup> When Baasha became king, he struck down the entire house of Jeroboam. He did not leave Jeroboam any survivors but <sup>C</sup> destroyed his family according to the word of the LORD He had spoken through His servant Ahijah the Shilonite. <sup>30</sup> This was because Jeroboam had provoked <sup>D</sup> the LORD God of Israel by the sins he had committed and had caused Israel to commit.

<sup>31</sup> The rest of the events of Nadab's reign, along with all his accomplishments, are written in the Historical Record of Israel's Kings. <sup>32</sup> There was war between Asa and Baasha king of Israel throughout their reigns.

Israel's King Baasha

<sup>33†</sup> In the third year of Judah's King Asa, Baasha son of Ahijah became king over all Israel and reigned in Tirzah 24 years. <sup>34†</sup> He did what was evil in the LORD's sight and followed the example of Jeroboam and the sin he had caused Israel to commit.

1 KINGS

16 Now the word of the LORD came to Jehu son of Hanani against Baasha: <sup>2</sup> “Because I raised you up from the dust and made you ruler over My people Israel, but you have walked in the way of Jeroboam and have caused My people Israel to sin, provoking Me with their sins, <sup>3</sup> take note: I will sweep away Baasha and his house, and I will make your house like the house of Jeroboam son of Nebat:

<sup>4</sup> Anyone who belongs to Baasha and dies in the city, the dogs will eat, and anyone who is his and dies in the field, the birds of the sky will eat.”

Israel’s King Elah

<sup>8†</sup> In the twenty-sixth year of Judah’s King Asa, Elah son of Baasha became king over Israel and reigned in Tirzah two years.

<sup>9</sup> His servant Zimri, commander of half his chariots, conspired against him while Elah was in Tirzah getting drunk in the house of Arza, who was in charge of the household at Tirzah. <sup>10†</sup> In the twenty-seventh year of Judah’s King Asa, Zimri went in, struck Elah down, killing him. Then Zimri became king in his place.

<sup>11†</sup> When he became king, as soon as he was seated on his throne, Zimri struck down the entire house of Baasha. He did not leave a single male, <sup>A</sup>, including his kinsmen and his friends. <sup>12</sup> So Zimri destroyed the entire house of Baasha, according to the word of the LORD He had spoken against Baasha through Jehu the prophet. <sup>13†</sup> This happened because of all the sins of Baasha and those of his son Elah, which they committed and caused Israel to commit, provoking the LORD God of Israel with their worthless idols.

<sup>14</sup> The rest of the events of Elah's reign, along with all his accomplishments, are written in the Historical Record of Israel's Kings.

Israel's King Zimri

<sup>15†</sup> In the twenty-seventh year of Judah's King Asa, Zimri became king for seven days in Tirzah. Now the troops were encamped against Gibbethon of the Philistines. <sup>16</sup> When these troops heard that Zimri had not only conspired but had also struck down the king, then all Israel made Omri, the army commander, king over Israel that very day in the camp. <sup>17</sup> Omri along with all Israel marched up from Gibbethon and besieged Tirzah. <sup>18</sup> When Zimri saw that the city was captured, he entered the citadel of the royal palace and burned it down over himself. He died <sup>19</sup> because of the sin he committed by doing what was evil in the LORD's sight and by following the example of Jeroboam and the sin he caused Israel to commit.

<sup>20</sup> The rest of the events of Zimri's reign, along with the conspiracy that he instigated, are written in the Historical Record of Israel's Kings. <sup>21†</sup> At that time the people of Israel were divided: half the people followed Tibni son of Ginath, to make him king, and half followed Omri. <sup>22</sup> However, the people who followed Omri proved stronger than those who followed Tibni son of Ginath. So Tibni died and Omri became king.

Israel's King Omri

<sup>23†</sup> In the thirty-first year of Judah's King Asa, Omri became king over Israel and reigned 12 years. He reigned six years in Tirzah, <sup>24†</sup> then he bought the hill of Samaria from Shemer for 150 pounds <sup>B</sup> of silver, and he built up the hill. He named the city he built Samaria based on the name Shemer, the owner of the hill.

<sup>25†</sup> Omri did what was evil in the LORD's sight; he did more evil than all who were before him. <sup>26</sup> He followed the example of Jeroboam son of Nebat and in his sins that he caused Israel to commit, provoking the LORD God of Israel with their worthless idols. <sup>27†</sup> The rest of the events of Omri's reign, along with his accomplishments and the might he exercised, are written in the Historical Record of Israel's Kings. <sup>28</sup> Omri rested with his fathers and was buried in Samaria. His son Ahab became king in his place.

Israel's King Ahab

<sup>29†</sup> Ahab son of Omri became king over Israel in the thirty-eighth year of Judah's King Asa; Ahab son of Omri reigned over Israel in Samaria 22 years. <sup>30†</sup> But Ahab son of Omri did what was evil in the LORD's sight more than all who were before him. <sup>31</sup> Then, as if following the sin of Jeroboam son of Nebat were a trivial matter, he married Jezebel, the daughter of Ethbaal king of the Sidonians, and then proceeded to serve •Baal and worship him. <sup>32</sup> He set up an altar for Baal in the temple of Baal that he had built in Samaria. <sup>33</sup> Ahab also made an •Asherah pole. Ahab did more to provoke the LORD God of Israel than all the kings of Israel who were before him.

<sup>34†</sup> During his reign, Hiel the Bethelite built Jericho. At the cost of Abiram his firstborn, he laid its foundation, and at the cost of Segub his youngest, he set up its gates, according to the word of the LORD He had spoken through Joshua son of Nun.

1 KINGS

Elijah Announces Famine

17 †Now Elijah the Tishbite, from the Gilead settlers, said to Ahab, “As the LORD God of Israel lives, I stand before Him, and there will be no dew or rain during these years except by my command!”

<sup>2</sup> Then a revelation from the LORD came to him: <sup>3†</sup> “Leave here, turn eastward, and hide yourself at the •Wadi Cherith where it enters the Jordan. <sup>4</sup> You are to drink from the wadi. I have commanded the ravens to provide for you there.”

Elijah and the Widow

<sup>8</sup> Then the word of the LORD came to him: <sup>9†</sup> “Get up, go to Zarephath that belongs to Sidon and stay there. Look, I have commanded a woman who is a widow to provide for you there.” <sup>10</sup> So Elijah got up and went to Zarephath. When he arrived at the city gate, there was a widow woman gathering wood. Elijah called to her and said, “Please bring me a little water in a cup and let me drink.” <sup>11</sup> As she went to get it, he called to her and said, “Please bring me a piece of bread in your hand.”

<sup>12</sup> But she said, “As the LORD your God lives, I don’t have anything baked — only a handful of flour in the jar and a bit of oil in the jug. Just now, I am gathering a couple of sticks in order to go prepare it for myself and my son so we can eat it and die.”

<sup>13</sup> Then Elijah said to her, “Don’t be afraid; go and do as you have said. But first make me a small loaf from it and bring it out to me. Afterward, you may make some for yourself and your son, <sup>14</sup> for this is what the LORD God of Israel says, ‘The flour jar will not become empty and the oil jug will not run dry until the day the LORD sends rain on the surface of the land.’”

<sup>15</sup> So she proceeded to do according to the word of Elijah. Then the woman, Elijah, and her household ate for many days. <sup>16</sup> The flour jar did not become empty, and the oil jug did not run dry, according to the word of the LORD He had spoken through <sup>A</sup> Elijah.

The Widow's Son Raised

<sup>17</sup> After this, the son of the woman who owned the house became ill. His illness became very severe until no breath remained in him. <sup>18†</sup> She said to Elijah, “Man of God, what do we have in common? Have you come to remind me of my •guilt and to kill my son?”

<sup>19</sup> But Elijah said to her, “Give me your son.” So he took him from her arms, brought him up to the upper room where he was staying, and laid him on his own bed. <sup>20</sup> Then he cried out to the LORD and said, “My LORD God, have You also brought tragedy on the widow I am staying with by killing her son?” <sup>21</sup> Then he stretched himself out over the boy three times. He cried out to the LORD and said, “My LORD God, please let this boy's life return to him!”

<sup>22</sup> So the LORD listened to Elijah's voice, and the boy's life returned to him, and he lived. <sup>23</sup> Then Elijah took the boy, brought him down from the upper room into the house, and gave him to his mother. Elijah said, “Look, your son is alive.”

<sup>24</sup> Then the woman said to Elijah, “Now I know you are a man of God and the LORD's word from your mouth is true.”

1 KINGS

Elijah's Message to Ahab

18 After a long time, the word of the LORD came to Elijah in the third year: “Go and present yourself to Ahab. I will send rain on the surface of the land.”<sup>2</sup> So Elijah went to present himself to Ahab.

The famine was severe in Samaria.<sup>3</sup> Ahab called for Obadiah, who was in charge of the palace. Obadiah was a man who greatly •feared the LORD<sup>4†</sup> and took 100 prophets and hid them, 50 men to a cave, and provided them with food and water when Jezebel slaughtered the LORD’s prophets.<sup>5†</sup> Ahab said to Obadiah, “Go throughout the land to every spring of water and to every •wadi. Perhaps we’ll find grass so we can keep the horses and mules alive and not have to destroy any cattle.”<sup>6</sup> They divided the land between them in order to cover it. Ahab went one way by himself, and Obadiah went the other way by himself.

<sup>7</sup> While Obadiah was walking along the road, Elijah suddenly met him. When Obadiah recognized him, he fell with his face to the ground and said, “Is it you, my lord Elijah? ”

<sup>9</sup> But Obadiah said, “What sin have I committed, that you are handing your servant over to Ahab to put me to death?<sup>10</sup> As the LORD your God lives, there is no nation or kingdom where my lord has not sent someone to search for you. When they said, ‘He is not here,’ he made that kingdom or nation swear they had not found you.

<sup>11</sup> “Now you say, ‘Go tell your lord, “Elijah is here! ” ’<sup>12</sup> But when I leave you, the Spirit of the LORD may carry you off to some place I don’t know. Then when I go report to Ahab and he doesn’t find you, he will kill me. But I, your servant, have feared the LORD from my youth.<sup>13</sup> Wasn’t it reported to my lord what I did when Jezebel slaughtered the LORD’s prophets? I hid 100 of the prophets of the LORD, 50 men to a cave, and I provided them with food and water.<sup>14</sup> Now you say, ‘Go tell your lord, “Elijah is here! ” ’ He will kill me! ”

<sup>15†</sup> Then Elijah said, “As the LORD of •Hosts lives, before whom I stand, today I will present myself to Ahab.”

<sup>16</sup> Obadiah went to meet Ahab and told him. Then Ahab went to meet Elijah. <sup>17</sup> When Ahab saw Elijah, Ahab said to him, “Is that you, you destroyer of Israel? ”

<sup>18</sup> He replied, “I have not destroyed Israel, but you and your father’s house have, because you have abandoned the LORD’s commands and followed the •Baals. <sup>19</sup> Now summon all Israel to meet me at Mount Carmel, along with the 450 prophets of Baal and the 400 prophets of •Asherah who eat at Jezebel’s table.”

Elijah at Mount Carmel

<sup>20</sup> So Ahab summoned all the Israelites and gathered the prophets at Mount Carmel. <sup>21†</sup> Then Elijah approached all the people and said, “How long will you hesitate between two opinions? If •Yahweh is God, follow Him. But if Baal, follow him.” But the people didn’t answer him a word.

<sup>22</sup> Then Elijah said to the people, “I am the only remaining prophet of the LORD, but Baal’s prophets are 450 men. <sup>23</sup> Let two bulls be given to us. They are to choose one bull for themselves, cut it in pieces, and place it on the wood but not light the fire. I will prepare the other bull and place it on the wood but not light the fire. <sup>24</sup> Then you call on the name of your god, and I will call on the name of Yahweh. The God who answers with fire, He is God.”

All the people answered, “That sounds good.”

<sup>25</sup> Then Elijah said to the prophets of Baal, “Since you are so numerous, choose for yourselves one bull and prepare it first. Then call on the name of your god but don’t light the fire.”

<sup>26†</sup> So they took the bull that he gave them, prepared it, and called on the name of Baal from morning until noon, saying, “Baal, answer us! ” But there was no sound; no one answered. Then they danced, hobbling around the altar they had made.

<sup>27</sup> At noon Elijah mocked them. He said, “Shout loudly, for he’s a god! Maybe he’s thinking it over; maybe he has wandered away; <sup>A</sup> or maybe he’s on the road. Perhaps he’s sleeping and will wake up!” <sup>28</sup> They shouted loudly, and cut themselves with knives and spears, according to their custom, until blood gushed over them. <sup>29</sup> All afternoon they kept on raving until the offering of the evening sacrifice, but there was no sound; no one answered, no one paid attention.

<sup>30</sup> Then Elijah said to all the people, “Come near me.” So all the people approached him. Then he repaired the LORD’s altar that had been torn down: <sup>31</sup> Elijah took 12 stones — according to the number of the tribes of the sons of Jacob, to whom the word of the LORD had come, saying, “Israel will be your name” — <sup>32</sup> and he built an altar with the stones in the name of Yahweh. Then he made a trench around the altar large enough to hold about four gallons. <sup>33†</sup> Next, he arranged the wood, cut up the bull, and placed it on the wood. He said, “Fill four water pots with water and pour it on the offering to be burned and on the wood.” <sup>34</sup> Then he said, “A second time!” and they did it a second time. And then he said, “A third time!” and they did it a third time. <sup>35</sup> So the water ran all around the altar; he even filled the trench with water.

<sup>36</sup> At the time for offering the evening sacrifice, Elijah the prophet approached the altar and said, “Yahweh, God of Abraham, Isaac, and Israel, today let it be known that You are God in Israel and I am Your servant, and that at Your word I have done all these things. <sup>37</sup> Answer me, LORD! Answer me so that this people will know that You, Yahweh, are God and that You have turned their hearts back.”

<sup>38</sup> Then Yahweh’s fire fell and consumed the •burnt offering, the wood, the stones, and the dust, and it licked up the water that was in the trench. <sup>39</sup> When all the people saw it, they fell facedown and said, “Yahweh, He is God! Yahweh, He is God!”

<sup>40†</sup> Then Elijah ordered them, “Seize the prophets of Baal! Do not let even one of them escape.” So they seized them, and Elijah brought them down to the Wadi Kishon and slaughtered them there. <sup>41</sup> Elijah said to Ahab, “Go up, eat and drink, for there is the sound of a rainstorm.”

<sup>42</sup> So Ahab went to eat and drink, but Elijah went up to the summit of Carmel. He bowed down on the ground and put his face between his knees. <sup>43</sup> Then he said to his servant, “Go up and look toward the sea.”

So he went up, looked, and said, “There’s nothing.”

Seven times Elijah said, “Go back.”

<sup>44</sup> On the seventh time, he reported, “There’s a cloud as small as a man’s hand coming from the sea.”

Then Elijah said, “Go and tell Ahab, ‘Get your chariot ready and go down so the rain doesn’t stop you.’ ”

<sup>45</sup> In a little while, the sky grew dark with clouds and wind, and there was a downpour. So Ahab got in his chariot and went to Jezreel. <sup>46</sup> The power of the LORD was on Elijah, and he tucked his mantle under his belt and ran ahead of Ahab to the entrance of Jezreel.

Elijah's Journey to Horeb

19 Ahab told Jezebel everything that Elijah had done and how he had killed all the prophets with the sword. <sup>2</sup> So Jezebel sent a messenger to Elijah, saying, “May the gods punish me and do so severely if I don’t make your life like the life of one of them by this time tomorrow!”

What Does The Bible Teach About Angels? ⇒

<sup>3</sup> Then Elijah became afraid and immediately ran for his life. When he came to Beer-sheba that belonged to Judah, he left his servant there, <sup>4</sup> but he went on a day’s journey into the wilderness. He sat down under a broom tree and prayed that he might die. He said, “I have had enough! LORD, take my life, for I’m no better than my fathers.” <sup>5</sup> Then he lay down and slept under the broom tree.

Suddenly, an angel touched him. The angel told him, “Get up and eat.” <sup>6</sup> Then he looked, and there at his head was a loaf of bread baked over hot stones, and a jug of water. So he ate and drank and lay down again. <sup>7</sup> Then the angel of the LORD returned for a second time and touched him. He said, “Get up and eat, or the journey will be too much for you.” <sup>8</sup> So he got up, ate, and drank. Then on the strength from that food, he walked 40 days and 40 nights to Horeb, the mountain of God. <sup>9</sup> He entered a cave there and spent the night.

Elijah’s Encounter with the LORD

Then the word of the LORD came to him, and He said to him, “What are you doing here, Elijah?”

<sup>10†</sup> He replied, “I have been very zealous for the LORD God of •Hosts, but the Israelites have abandoned Your covenant, torn down Your altars, and killed Your prophets with the sword. I alone am left, and they are looking for me to take my life.”

<sup>11</sup> Then He said, “Go out and stand on the mountain in the LORD’s presence.”

At that moment, the LORD passed by. A great and mighty wind was tearing at the mountains and was shattering cliffs before the LORD, but the LORD was not in the wind. After the wind there was an earthquake, but the LORD was not in the earthquake. <sup>12</sup> After the earthquake there was a fire, but the LORD was not in the fire. And after the fire there was a voice, a soft whisper. <sup>13</sup> When Elijah heard it, he wrapped his face in his mantle and went out and stood at the entrance of the cave.

Suddenly, a voice came to him and said, “What are you doing here, Elijah?”

<sup>14</sup> “I have been very zealous for the LORD God of Hosts,” he replied, “but the Israelites have abandoned Your covenant, torn down Your altars, and killed Your prophets with the sword. I alone am left, and they’re looking for me to take my life.”

<sup>15†</sup> Then the LORD said to him, “Go and return by the way you came to the Wilderness of Damascus. When you arrive, you are to anoint Hazael as king over Aram. <sup>16</sup> You are to anoint Jehu son of Nimshi as king over Israel and Elisha son of Shaphat from Abel-meholah as prophet in your place. <sup>17</sup> Then Jehu will put to death whoever escapes the sword of Hazael, and Elisha will put to death whoever escapes the sword of Jehu. <sup>18</sup> But I will leave 7,000 in Israel — every knee that has not bowed to •Baal and every mouth that has not kissed him.”

Elisha’s Appointment as Elijah’s Successor

<sup>19</sup> Elijah left there and found Elisha son of Shaphat as he was plowing. Twelve teams of oxen were in front of him, and he was with the twelfth team. Elijah walked by him and threw his mantle over him. <sup>20</sup> Elisha left the oxen, ran to follow Elijah, and said, “Please let me kiss my father and mother, and then I will follow you.”

“Go on back,” he replied, “for what have I done to you? ”

<sup>21†</sup> So he turned back from following him, took the team of oxen, and slaughtered them. With the oxen’s wooden yoke and plow, he cooked the meat and gave it to the people, and they ate. Then he left, followed Elijah, and served him.

Victory over Ben-hadad

20† Now Ben-hadad king of Aram assembled his entire army. Thirty-two kings, along with horses and chariots, were with him. He marched up, besieged Samaria, and fought against it.<sup>2</sup> He sent messengers into the city to Ahab king of Israel and said to him, “This is what Ben-hadad says:<sup>3</sup> ‘Your silver and your gold are mine! And your best wives and children are mine as well!’”

<sup>4</sup> Then the king of Israel answered, “Just as you say, my lord the king: I am yours, along with all that I have.”

<sup>5</sup> The messengers then returned and said, “This is what Ben-hadad says: ‘I have sent messengers to you, saying: You are to give me your silver, your gold, your wives, and your children.<sup>6</sup> But at this time tomorrow I will send my servants to you, and they will search your palace and your servants’ houses. They will lay their hands on and take away whatever is precious to you.’”

<sup>7</sup> Then the king of Israel called for all the elders of the land and said, “Think it over and you will see that this one is only looking for trouble, for he demanded my wives, my children, my silver, and my gold, and I didn’t turn him down.”

<sup>8</sup> All the elders and all the people said to him, “Don’t listen or agree.”

<sup>9</sup> So he said to Ben-hadad’s messengers, “Say to my lord the king, ‘Everything you demanded of your servant the first time, I will do, but this thing I cannot do.’” So the messengers left and took word back to him.

<sup>10</sup> Then Ben-hadad sent messengers to him and said, “May the gods punish me and do so severely if Samaria’s dust amounts to a handful for each of the people who follow me.”

<sup>11†</sup> The king of Israel answered, “Say this: ‘Don’t let the one who puts on his armor boast like the one who takes it off.’”

<sup>12†</sup> When Ben-hadad heard this response, while he and the kings were drinking in the tents, he said to his servants, “Take your positions.” So they took their positions against the city.

<sup>13</sup> A prophet came to Ahab king of Israel and said, “This is what •Yahweh says: ‘Do you see this entire great army? Watch, I am handing it over to you today so that you may know that I am the LORD.’ ”

And the prophet said, “This is what the LORD says: ‘By the young men of the provincial leaders.’ ”

Then he asked, “Who is to start the battle? ”

He said, “You.”

<sup>15</sup> So Ahab counted the young men of the provincial leaders, and there were 232. After them he counted all the Israelite troops: 7,000. <sup>16</sup> They marched out at noon while Ben-hadad and the 32 kings who were helping him were getting drunk in the tents. <sup>17</sup> The young men of the provincial leaders marched out first. Then Ben-hadad sent out scouts, and they reported to him, saying, “Men are marching out of Samaria.”

<sup>18</sup> So he said, “If they have marched out in peace, take them alive, and if they have marched out for battle, take them alive.”

<sup>22†</sup> The prophet approached the king of Israel and said to him, “Go and strengthen yourself, then consider what you should do, for in the spring the king of Aram will march against you.”

<sup>23</sup> Now the king of Aram's servants said to him, "Their gods are gods of the hill country. That's why they were stronger than we were. Instead, we should fight with them on the plain; then we will certainly be stronger than they will be." <sup>24</sup> Also do this: remove each king from his position and appoint captains in their place. <sup>25</sup> Raise another army for yourself like the army you lost — horse for horse, chariot for chariot — and let's fight with them on the plain; and we will certainly be stronger than they will be." The king listened to them and did so.

<sup>26</sup> In the spring, Ben-hadad mobilized the Arameans and went up to Aphek to battle Israel. <sup>27</sup> The Israelites mobilized, gathered supplies, and went to fight them. The Israelites camped in front of them like two little flocks of goats, while the Arameans filled the landscape.

<sup>28</sup> Then the man of God approached and said to the king of Israel, "This is what the LORD says: 'Because the Arameans have said: Yahweh is a god of the mountains and not a god of the valleys, I will hand over all this great army to you. Then you will know that I am the LORD.' "

<sup>29</sup> They camped opposite each other for seven days. On the seventh day, the battle took place, and the Israelites struck down the Arameans — 100,000 foot soldiers in one day. <sup>30</sup> The ones who remained fled into the city of Aphek, and the wall fell on those 27,000 remaining men.

Ben-hadad also fled and went into an inner room in the city. <sup>31</sup> His servants said to him, "Consider this: we have heard that the kings of the house of Israel are merciful kings. So let's put sackcloth around our waists and ropes around our heads, and let's go out to the king of Israel. Perhaps he will spare your life."

<sup>32</sup> So they dressed with sackcloth around their waists and ropes around their heads, went to the king of Israel, and said, "Your servant Ben-hadad says, 'Please spare my life.' "

So he said, "Is he still alive? He is my brother."

<sup>33</sup> Now the men were looking for a sign of hope, so they quickly picked up on this and responded, “Yes, it is your brother Ben-hadad.”

Then he said, “Go and bring him.”

So Ben-hadad came out to him, and Ahab had him come up into the chariot. <sup>34</sup> Then Ben-hadad said to him, “I restore to you the cities that my father took from your father, and you may set up marketplaces for yourself in Damascus, like my father set up in Samaria.”

Ahab responded, “On the basis of this treaty, I release you.” So he made a treaty with him and released him.

Ahab Rebuked by the LORD

<sup>35</sup> One of the sons of the prophets said to his fellow prophet by the word of the LORD, “Strike me!” But the man refused to strike him.

<sup>36</sup> He told him, “Because you did not listen to the voice of the LORD, mark my words: When you leave me, a lion will kill you.” When he left him, a lion attacked and killed him.

<sup>37</sup> The prophet found another man and said to him, “Strike me!” So the man struck him, inflicting a wound. <sup>38</sup> Then the prophet went and waited for the king on the road. He disguised himself with a bandage over his eyes. <sup>39</sup> As the king was passing by, he cried out to the king and said, “Your servant marched out into the middle of the battle. Suddenly, a man turned aside and brought someone to me and said, ‘Guard this man! If he is ever missing, it will be your life in place of his life, or you will weigh out 75 pounds <sup>A</sup> of silver.’ <sup>40</sup> But while your servant was busy here and there, he disappeared.”

The king of Israel said to him, “That will be your sentence; you yourself have decided it.”

<sup>41</sup> He quickly removed the bandage from his eyes. The king of Israel recognized that he was one of the prophets. <sup>42</sup> The prophet said to him,

“This is what the LORD says: ‘Because you released from your hand the man I had •set apart for destruction, it will be your life in place of his life and your people in place of his people.’ ”<sup>43</sup> The king of Israel left for home resentful and angry, and he entered Samaria.

Ahab and Naboth's Vineyard

21 Some time passed after these events. Naboth the Jezreelite had a vineyard; it was in Jezreel next to the palace of Ahab king of Samaria. <sup>2</sup> So Ahab spoke to Naboth, saying, “Give me your vineyard so I can have it for a vegetable garden, since it is right next to my palace. I will give you a better vineyard in its place, or if you prefer, I will give you its value in silver.”

<sup>3</sup> But Naboth said to Ahab, “I will never give my fathers’ inheritance to you.”

<sup>4</sup> So Ahab went to his palace resentful and angry, because of what Naboth the Jezreelite had told him. He had said, “I will not give you my fathers’ inheritance.” He lay down on his bed, turned his face away, and didn’t eat any food.

<sup>5</sup> Then his wife Jezebel came to him and said to him, “Why are you so upset that you refuse to eat? ”

<sup>6</sup> “Because I spoke to Naboth the Jezreelite,” he replied. “I told him: Give me your vineyard for silver, or if you wish, I will give you a vineyard in its place. But he said, ‘I won’t give you my vineyard! ’ ”

<sup>7</sup> Then his wife Jezebel said to him, “Now, exercise your royal power over Israel. Get up, eat some food, and be happy. For I will give you the vineyard of Naboth the Jezreelite.” <sup>8</sup> So she wrote letters in Ahab’s name and sealed them with his seal. She sent the letters to the elders and nobles who lived with Naboth in his city. <sup>9</sup> In the letters, she wrote:

Proclaim a fast and seat Naboth at the head of the people.

<sup>10†</sup> Then seat two •wicked men opposite him and have them testify against him, saying, “You have cursed God and the king! ” Then take him out and stone him to death.

<sup>11</sup> The men of his city, the elders and nobles who lived in his city, did as Jezebel had commanded them, as was written in the letters she had sent them. <sup>12</sup> They proclaimed a fast and seated Naboth at the head of the people. <sup>13</sup> The two wicked men came in and sat opposite him. Then the wicked men testified against Naboth in the presence of the people, saying, “Naboth has cursed God and the king!” So they took him outside the city and stoned him to death with stones. <sup>14</sup> Then they sent word to Jezebel, “Naboth has been stoned to death.”

<sup>15</sup> When Jezebel heard that Naboth had been stoned to death, she said to Ahab, “Get up and take possession of the vineyard of Naboth the Jezreelite who refused to give it to you for silver, since Naboth isn’t alive, but dead.”

<sup>16</sup> When Ahab heard that Naboth was dead, he got up to go down to the vineyard of Naboth the Jezreelite to take possession of it.

The LORD’s Judgment on Ahab

<sup>17</sup> Then the word of the LORD came to Elijah the Tishbite: <sup>18</sup> “Get up and go to meet Ahab king of Israel, who is in Samaria. You’ll find him in Naboth’s vineyard, where he has gone to take possession of it. <sup>19</sup> Tell him, ‘This is what the LORD says: Have you murdered and also taken possession?’ Then tell him, ‘This is what the LORD says: In the place where the dogs licked Naboth’s blood, the dogs will also lick your blood!’”

<sup>20†</sup> Ahab said to Elijah, “So, you have caught me, my enemy.”

He replied, “I have caught you because you devoted yourself to do what is evil in the LORD’s sight. <sup>21†</sup> This is what the LORD says: ‘I am about to bring disaster on you and will sweep away your descendants:

I will eliminate all of Ahab’s males, <sup>A</sup> both slave and free, in Israel;

<sup>22</sup> I will make your house like the house of Jeroboam son of Nebat and like the house of Baasha son of Ahijah, because you have provoked My anger and caused Israel to sin. <sup>23</sup> The LORD also speaks of Jezebel: The dogs will eat Jezebel in the plot of land at Jezreel:

<sup>24</sup> He who belongs to Ahab and dies in the city, the dogs will eat, and he who dies in the field, the birds of the sky will eat.’ ”

<sup>25†</sup> Still, there was no one like Ahab, who devoted himself to do what was evil in the LORD’s sight, because his wife Jezebel incited him. <sup>26</sup> He committed the most detestable acts by going after idols as the Amorites had, whom the LORD had dispossessed before the Israelites.

<sup>27</sup> When Ahab heard these words, he tore his clothes, put •sackcloth over his body, and fasted. He lay down in sackcloth and walked around subdued. <sup>28</sup> Then the word of the LORD came to Elijah the Tishbite:

<sup>29</sup> “Have you seen how Ahab has humbled himself before Me? I will not bring the disaster during his lifetime, because he has humbled himself before Me. I will bring the disaster on his house during his son’s lifetime.”

1 KINGS

Jehoshaphat's Alliance with Ahab

22 There was a lull of three years without war between Aram and Israel.
<sup>2</sup> However, in the third year, Jehoshaphat king of Judah went to visit the king of Israel. <sup>3</sup> The king of Israel had said to his servants, “Don’t you know that Ramoth-gilead is ours, but we have failed to take it from the hand of the king of Aram?” <sup>4†</sup> So he asked Jehoshaphat, “Will you go with me to fight Ramoth-gilead?”

Jehoshaphat replied to the king of Israel, “I am as you are, my people as your people, my horses as your horses.” <sup>5</sup> But Jehoshaphat said to the king of Israel, “First, please ask what the LORD’s will is.”

<sup>6</sup> So the king of Israel gathered the prophets, about 400 men, and asked them, “Should I go against Ramoth-gilead for war or should I refrain?”

They replied, “March up, and the Lord will hand it over to the king.”

<sup>8</sup> The king of Israel said to Jehoshaphat, “There is still one man who can ask Yahweh, but I hate him because he never prophesies good about me, but only disaster. He is Micaiah son of Imlah.”

“The king shouldn’t say that!” Jehoshaphat replied.

<sup>9</sup> So the king of Israel called an officer and said, “Hurry and get Micaiah son of Imlah!”

<sup>10</sup> Now the king of Israel and Jehoshaphat king of Judah, clothed in royal attire, were each sitting on his own throne. They were on the threshing floor at the entrance to Samaria’s •gate, and all the prophets were prophesying in front of them. <sup>11</sup> Then Zedekiah son of Chenaanah made iron horns and said, “This is what the LORD says: ‘You will gore the Arameans with these until they are finished off.’” <sup>12</sup> And all the prophets were prophesying the same: “March up to Ramoth-gilead and succeed, for the LORD will hand it over to the king.”

Micaiah's Message of Defeat

<sup>13</sup> The messenger who went to call Micaiah instructed him, "Look, the words of the prophets are unanimously favorable for the king. So let your words be like theirs, and speak favorably."

<sup>14</sup> But Micaiah said, "As the LORD lives, I will say whatever the LORD says to me."

<sup>15</sup> So he went to the king, and the king asked him, "Micaiah, should we go to Ramoth-gilead for war, or should we refrain? "

Micaiah told him, "March up and succeed. Yahweh will hand it over to the king."

<sup>16</sup> But the king said to him, "How many times must I make you swear not to tell me anything but the truth in the name of Yahweh? "

<sup>17</sup> So Micaiah said:

I saw all Israel scattered on the hills
like sheep without a shepherd.
And the LORD said,
"They have no master;
let everyone return home in peace."

<sup>18</sup> So the king of Israel said to Jehoshaphat, "Didn't I tell you he never prophesies good about me, but only disaster? "

<sup>19</sup> Then Micaiah said, "Therefore, hear the word of the LORD: I saw the LORD sitting on His throne, and the whole heavenly •host was standing by Him at His right hand and at His left hand. <sup>20</sup> And the LORD said, 'Who will entice Ahab to march up and fall at Ramoth-gilead?' So one was saying this and another was saying that.

<sup>21†</sup> "Then a spirit came forward, stood before the LORD, and said, 'I will entice him.'

“He said, ‘I will go and become a lying spirit in the mouth of all his prophets.’ ”

“Then He said, ‘You will certainly entice him and prevail. Go and do that.’ ”

<sup>23†</sup> “You see, the LORD has put a lying spirit into the mouth of all these prophets of yours, and the LORD has pronounced disaster against you.”

<sup>24</sup> Then Zedekiah son of Chenaanah came up, hit Micaiah in the face, and demanded, “Did <sup>A</sup> the Spirit of the LORD leave me to speak to you? ”

<sup>25</sup> Micaiah replied, “You will soon see when you go to hide yourself in an inner chamber on that day.”

<sup>26</sup> Then the king of Israel ordered, “Take Micaiah and return him to Amon, the governor of the city, and to Joash, the king’s son, <sup>27</sup> and say, ‘This is what the king says: Put this guy in prison and feed him only bread and water <sup>B</sup> until I come back safely.’ ”

<sup>28†</sup> But Micaiah said, “If you ever return safely, the LORD has not spoken through me.” Then he said, “Listen, all you people! ”

Ahab’s Death

<sup>29</sup> Then the king of Israel and Judah’s King Jehoshaphat went up to Ramoth-gilead. <sup>30</sup> But the king of Israel said to Jehoshaphat, “I will disguise myself and go into battle, but you wear your royal attire.” So the king of Israel disguised himself and went into battle.

<sup>31</sup> Now the king of Aram had ordered his 32 chariot commanders, “Do not fight with anyone at all except the king of Israel.”

<sup>32</sup> When the chariot commanders saw Jehoshaphat, they shouted, “He must be the king of Israel! ” So they turned to fight against him, but Jehoshaphat cried out. <sup>33</sup> When the chariot commanders saw that he was not the king of Israel, they turned back from pursuing him.

<sup>34†</sup> But a man drew his bow without taking special aim and struck the king of Israel through the joints of his armor. So he said to his charioteer, “Turn around and take me out of the battle, for I am badly wounded! ”

<sup>35</sup> The battle raged throughout that day, and the king was propped up in his chariot facing the Arameans. He died that evening, and blood from his wound flowed into the bottom of the chariot. <sup>36</sup> Then the cry rang out in the army as the sun set, declaring:

Each man to his own city, and each man to his own land!

<sup>37</sup> So the king died and was brought to Samaria. They buried the king in Samaria. <sup>38</sup> Then someone washed the chariot at the pool of Samaria. The dogs licked up his blood, and the prostitutes bathed in it, according to the word of the LORD that He had spoken.

Judah’s King Jehoshaphat

<sup>41†</sup> Jehoshaphat son of Asa became king over Judah in the fourth year of Israel’s King Ahab. <sup>42†</sup> Jehoshaphat was 35 years old when he became king; he reigned 25 years in Jerusalem. His mother’s name was Azubah daughter of Shilhi. <sup>43†</sup> He walked in all the ways of his father Asa; he did not turn away from them but did what was right in the LORD’s sight. However, the •high places were not taken away; the people still sacrificed and burned incense on the high places. <sup>44</sup> Jehoshaphat also made peace with the king of Israel.

<sup>45</sup> The rest of the events of Jehoshaphat's reign, along with the might he exercised and how he waged war, are written in the Historical Record of Judah's Kings. <sup>46</sup> He removed from the land the rest of the male cult prostitutes who were left from the days of his father Asa. <sup>47</sup> There was no king in Edom; a deputy served as king. <sup>48†</sup> Jehoshaphat made ships of Tarshish to go to Ophir for gold, but they did not go because the ships were wrecked at Ezion-geber. <sup>49</sup> At that time, Ahaziah son of Ahab said to Jehoshaphat, "Let my servants go with your servants in the ships," but Jehoshaphat was not willing. <sup>50</sup> Jehoshaphat rested with his fathers and was buried with them in the city of his ancestor David. His son Jehoram became king in his place.

Israel's King Ahaziah

<sup>51†</sup> Ahaziah son of Ahab became king over Israel in Samaria in the seventeenth year of Judah's King Jehoshaphat and reigned over Israel two years. <sup>52†</sup> He did what was evil in the LORD's sight. He walked in the way of his father, in the way of his mother, and in the way of Jeroboam son of Nebat, who had caused Israel to sin. <sup>53</sup> He served •Baal and worshiped him. He provoked the LORD God of Israel just as his father had done.

2 KINGS

Ahaziah's Sickness and Death

1 After the death of Ahab, Moab rebelled against Israel. <sup>2†</sup> Ahaziah had fallen through the latticed window of his upper room in Samaria and was injured. So he sent messengers instructing them: “Go inquire of Baal-zebub, the god of Ekron, if I will recover from this injury.”

<sup>3</sup> But the angel of the LORD said to Elijah the Tishbite, “Go and meet the messengers of the king of Samaria and ask them, ‘Is it because there is no God in Israel that you are going to inquire of Baal-zebub, the god of Ekron?’ <sup>4</sup> Therefore, this is what the LORD says: ‘You will not get up from your sickbed — you will certainly die.’ ” Then Elijah left.

<sup>5†</sup> The messengers returned to the king, who asked them, “Why have you come back? ”

<sup>6</sup> They replied, “A man came to meet us and said, ‘Go back to the king who sent you and declare to him: This is what the LORD says: Is it because there is no God in Israel that you’re sending these men to inquire of Baal-zebub, the god of Ekron? Therefore, you will not get up from your sickbed — you will certainly die.’ ”

<sup>7</sup> The king asked them, “What sort of man came up to meet you and spoke those words to you? ”

<sup>8</sup> They replied, “A hairy man with a leather belt around his waist.”

He said, “It’s Elijah the Tishbite.”

<sup>9</sup> So King Ahaziah sent a captain of 50 with his 50 men to Elijah. When the captain went up to him, he was sitting on top of the hill. He announced, “Man of God, the king declares, ‘Come down!’ ”

<sup>10</sup> Elijah responded to the captain of the 50, “If I am a man of God, may fire come down from heaven and consume you and your 50 men.” Then fire came down from heaven and consumed him and his 50 men.

<sup>11</sup> So the king sent another captain of 50 with his 50 men to Elijah. He took in the situation <sup>A</sup> and announced, “Man of God, this is what the king says: ‘Come down immediately! ’ ”

<sup>12</sup> Elijah responded, “If I am a man of God, may fire come down from heaven and consume you and your 50 men.” So a divine fire <sup>B</sup> came down from heaven and consumed him and his 50 men.

<sup>13</sup> Then the king sent a third captain of 50 with his 50 men. The third captain of 50 went up and fell on his knees in front of Elijah and begged him, “Man of God, please let my life and the lives of these 50 servants of yours be precious in your sight. <sup>14</sup> Already fire has come down from heaven and consumed the first two captains of 50 with their fifties, but this time let my life be precious in your sight.”

<sup>15</sup> The angel of the LORD said to Elijah, “Go down with him. Don’t be afraid of him.” So he got up and went down with him to the king.

<sup>16†</sup> Then Elijah said to King Ahaziah, “This is what the LORD says: ‘Because you have sent messengers to inquire of Baal-zebub, the god of Ekron — is it because there is no God in Israel for you to inquire of His will? You will not get up from your sickbed — you will certainly die.’ ”

<sup>17†</sup> Ahaziah died according to the word of the LORD that Elijah had spoken. Since he had no son, Joram <sup>C</sup> became king in his place. This happened in the second year of Judah’s King Jehoram son of Jehoshaphat. <sup>18</sup> The rest of the events of Ahaziah’s reign, along with his accomplishments, are written in the Historical Record of Israel’s Kings.

2 KINGS

Elijah in the Whirlwind

2† The time had come for the LORD to take Elijah up to heaven in a whirlwind. Elijah and Elisha were traveling from Gilgal, <sup>2</sup> and Elijah said to Elisha, “Stay here; the LORD is sending me on to Bethel.”

But Elisha replied, “As the LORD lives and as you yourself live, I will not leave you.” So they went down to Bethel.

<sup>3</sup> Then the sons of the prophets who were at Bethel came out to Elisha and said, “Do you know that the LORD will take your master away from you today?”

He said, “Yes, I know. Be quiet.”

<sup>4</sup> Elijah said to him, “Elisha, stay here; the LORD is sending me to Jericho.”

But Elisha said, “As the LORD lives and as you yourself live, I will not leave you.” So they went to Jericho.

<sup>5†</sup> Then the sons of the prophets who were in Jericho came up to Elisha and said, “Do you know that the LORD will take your master away from you today?”

He said, “Yes, I know. Be quiet.”

But Elisha said, “As the LORD lives and as you yourself live, I will not leave you.” So the two of them went on.

<sup>7</sup> Fifty men from the sons of the prophets came and stood facing them from a distance while the two of them stood by the Jordan. <sup>8</sup> Elijah took his mantle, rolled it up, and struck the waters, which parted to the right and left. Then the two of them crossed over on dry ground. <sup>9†</sup> After they had crossed over, Elijah said to Elisha, “Tell me what I can do for you before I am taken from you.”

So Elisha answered, “Please, let me inherit two shares of your spirit.”

<sup>10</sup> Elijah replied, “You have asked for something difficult. If you see me being taken from you, you will have it. If not, you won’t.”

<sup>11</sup> As they continued walking and talking, a chariot of fire with horses of fire suddenly appeared and separated the two of them. Then Elijah went up into heaven in the whirlwind. <sup>12†</sup> As Elisha watched, he kept crying out, “My father, my father, the chariots and horsemen of Israel!” Then he never saw Elijah again. He took hold of his own clothes and tore them into two pieces.

Elisha Succeeds Elijah

<sup>13</sup> Elisha picked up the mantle that had fallen off Elijah and went back and stood on the bank of the Jordan. <sup>14</sup> Then he took the mantle Elijah had dropped and struck the waters. “Where is the LORD God of Elijah?” he asked. He struck the waters himself, and they parted to the right and the left, and Elisha crossed over.

<sup>15</sup> When the sons of the prophets from Jericho who were facing him saw him, they said, “The spirit of Elijah rests on Elisha.” They came to meet him and bowed down to the ground in front of him.

<sup>16</sup> Then the sons of the prophets said to Elisha, “Since there are 50 strong men here with your servants, please let them go and search for your master. Maybe the Spirit of the LORD has carried him away and put him on one of the mountains or into one of the valleys.”

He answered, “Don’t send them.”

<sup>17</sup> However, they urged him to the point of embarrassment, so he said, “Send them.” They sent 50 men, who looked for three days but did not find him. <sup>18</sup> When they returned to him in Jericho where he was staying, he said to them, “Didn’t I tell you not to go?”

<sup>19</sup> Then the men of the city said to Elisha, “Even though our lord can see that the city’s location is good, the water is bad and the land unfruitful.”

After they had brought him one, <sup>21†</sup> Elisha went out to the spring of water, threw salt in it, and said, “This is what the LORD says: ‘I have healed this water. No longer will death or unfruitfulness result from it.’ ”

<sup>22</sup> Therefore, the water remains healthy to this very day according to the word that Elisha spoke.

<sup>23†</sup> From there Elisha went up to Bethel. As he was walking up the path, some small boys came out of the city and harassed him, chanting, “Go up, baldy! Go up, baldy! ” <sup>24†</sup> He turned around, looked at them, and cursed them in the name of the LORD. Then two female bears came out of the woods and mauled 42 of the children. <sup>25</sup> From there Elisha went to Mount Carmel, and then he returned to Samaria.

2 KINGS

Israel's King Joram

3 † Joram son of Ahab became king over Israel in Samaria during the eighteenth year of Judah's King Jehoshaphat and reigned 12 years.
<sup>2†</sup> He did what was evil in the LORD's sight, but not like his father and mother, for he removed the sacred pillar of •Baal his father had made.
<sup>3</sup> Nevertheless, Joram clung to the sins that Jeroboam son of Nebat had caused Israel to commit. He did not turn away from them.

Moab's Rebellion against Israel

<sup>4</sup> King Mesha of Moab was a sheep breeder. He used to pay the king of Israel 100,000 lambs and the wool of 100,000 rams, <sup>5</sup> but when Ahab died, the king of Moab rebelled against the king of Israel. <sup>6</sup> So King Joram marched out from Samaria at that time and mobilized all Israel. <sup>7</sup> Then he sent a message to King Jehoshaphat of Judah: "The king of Moab has rebelled against me. Will you go with me to fight against Moab?"

Jehoshaphat said, "I will go. I am as you are, my people as your people, my horses as your horses." <sup>8†</sup> Then he asked, "Which route should we take?"

Joram replied, "The route of the Wilderness of Edom."

<sup>9</sup> So the king of Israel, the king of Judah, and the king of Edom set out. After they had traveled their indirect route for seven days, they had no water for the army or their animals.

<sup>10</sup> Then the king of Israel said, "Oh no, the LORD has summoned three kings, only to hand them over to Moab."

<sup>11</sup> But Jehoshaphat said, "Isn't there a prophet of the LORD here? Let's inquire of •Yahweh through him."

One of the servants of the king of Israel answered, "Elisha son of Shaphat, who used to pour water on Elijah's hands, is here."

<sup>12</sup> Jehoshaphat affirmed, “The LORD’s words are with him.” So the king of Israel and Jehoshaphat and the king of Edom went to him.

<sup>13</sup> However, Elisha said to King Joram of Israel, “We have nothing in common. Go to the prophets of your father and your mother! ”

But the king of Israel replied, “No, because it is the LORD who has summoned these three kings to hand them over to Moab.”

<sup>14</sup> Elisha responded, “As the LORD of •Hosts lives, I stand before Him. If I did not have respect for King Jehoshaphat of Judah, I would not look at you; I wouldn’t take notice of you. <sup>15†</sup> Now, bring me a musician.”

While the musician played, the LORD’s hand came on Elisha. <sup>16</sup> Then he said, “This is what the LORD says: ‘Dig ditch after ditch in this •wadi.’

<sup>17</sup> For the LORD says, ‘You will not see wind or rain, but the wadi will be filled with water, and you will drink — you and your cattle and your animals.’ <sup>18</sup> This is easy in the LORD’s sight. He will also hand Moab over to you. <sup>19</sup> Then you must attack every fortified city and every choice city. You must cut down every good tree and stop up every spring of water. You must ruin every good piece of land with stones.”

<sup>20</sup> About the time for the •grain offering the next morning, water suddenly came from the direction of Edom and filled the land.

<sup>21</sup> All Moab had heard that the kings had come up to fight against them. So all who could bear arms, from the youngest to the oldest, were summoned and took their stand at the border. <sup>22†</sup> When they got up early in the morning, the sun was shining on the water, and the Moabites saw that the water across from them was red like blood. <sup>23</sup> “This is blood! ” they exclaimed. “The kings have clashed swords and killed each other. So, to the spoil, Moab! ”

<sup>24</sup> However, when the Moabites came to Israel’s camp, the Israelites attacked them, and they fled from them. So Israel went into the land and struck down the Moabites. <sup>25</sup> They destroyed the cities, and each of them threw stones to cover every good piece of land. They stopped up every spring of water and cut down every good tree. In the end, only the buildings of Kir-hareseth were left. Then men with slings surrounded the city and attacked it.

<sup>26</sup> When the king of Moab saw that the battle was too fierce for him, he took 700 swordsmen with him to try to break through to the king of Edom, but they could not do it. <sup>27†</sup> So he took his firstborn son, who was to become king in his place, and offered him as a •burnt offering on the city wall. Great wrath was on the Israelites, and they withdrew from him and returned to their land.

2 KINGS

The Widow's Oil Multiplied

4 One of the wives of the sons of the prophets cried out to Elisha, “Your servant, my husband, has died. You know that your servant •feared the LORD. Now the creditor is coming to take my two children as his slaves.”

<sup>2</sup> Elisha asked her, “What can I do for you? Tell me, what do you have in the house?”

She said, “Your servant has nothing in the house except a jar of oil.”

<sup>3</sup> Then he said, “Go and borrow empty containers from everyone — from all your neighbors. Do not get just a few. <sup>4</sup> Then go in and shut the door behind you and your sons, and pour oil into all these containers. Set the full ones to one side.” <sup>5</sup> So she left.

After she had shut the door behind her and her sons, they kept bringing her containers, and she kept pouring. <sup>6</sup> When they were full, she said to her son, “Bring me another container.”

But he replied, “There aren’t any more.” Then the oil stopped.

<sup>7</sup> She went and told the man of God, and he said, “Go sell the oil and pay your debt; you and your sons can live on the rest.”

The Shunammite Woman’s Hospitality

<sup>8</sup> One day Elisha went to Shunem. A prominent woman who lived there persuaded him to eat some food. So whenever he passed by, he stopped there to eat. <sup>9</sup> Then she said to her husband, “I know that the one who often passes by here is a holy man of God, <sup>10</sup> so let’s make a small room upstairs and put a bed, a table, a chair, and a lamp there for him. Whenever he comes, he can stay there.”

The Shunammite Woman’s Son

<sup>11</sup> One day he came there and stopped and went to the room upstairs to lie down. <sup>12†</sup> He ordered his attendant Gehazi, “Call this Shunammite woman.” So he called her and she stood before him.

<sup>13</sup> Then he said to Gehazi, “Say to her, ‘Look, you’ve gone to all this trouble for us. What can we do for you? Can we speak on your behalf to the king or to the commander of the army?’”

She answered, “I am living among my own people.”

<sup>14</sup> So he asked, “Then what should be done for her?”

Gehazi answered, “Well, she has no son, and her husband is old.”

<sup>15</sup> “Call her,” Elisha said. So Gehazi called her, and she stood in the doorway. <sup>16</sup> Elisha said, “At this time next year you will have a son in your arms.”

Then she said, “No, my lord. Man of God, do not deceive your servant.”

<sup>17</sup> The woman conceived and gave birth to a son at the same time the following year, as Elisha had promised her.

The Shunammite’s Son Raised

<sup>18</sup> The child grew and one day went out to his father and the harvesters.

<sup>19</sup> Suddenly he complained to his father, “My head! My head!”

His father told his servant, “Carry him to his mother.” <sup>20</sup> So he picked him up and took him to his mother. The child sat on her lap until noon and then died. <sup>21</sup> Then she went up and laid him on the bed of the man of God, shut him in, and left.

<sup>22</sup> She summoned her husband and said, “Please send me one of the servants and one of the donkeys, so I can hurry to the man of God and then come back.”

<sup>23</sup> But he said, “Why go to him today? It’s not a New Moon or a Sabbath.”

She replied, “Everything is all right.”

<sup>24</sup> Then she saddled the donkey and said to her servant, “Hurry, don’t slow the pace for me unless I tell you.” <sup>25</sup> So she set out and went to the man of God at Mount Carmel.

When the man of God saw her at a distance, he said to his attendant Gehazi, “Look, there’s the Shunammite woman. <sup>26</sup> Run out to meet her and ask, ‘Are you all right? Is your husband all right? Is your son all right?’ ”

And she answered, “Everything’s all right.”

<sup>27</sup> When she came up to the man of God at the mountain, she clung to his feet. Gehazi came to push her away, but the man of God said, “Leave her alone — she is in severe anguish, and the LORD has hidden it from me. He hasn’t told me.”

<sup>28</sup> Then she said, “Did I ask my lord for a son? Didn’t I say, ‘Do not deceive me?’ ”

<sup>29</sup> So Elisha said to Gehazi, “Tuck your mantle under your belt, take my staff with you, and go. If you meet anyone, don’t stop to greet him, and if a man greets you, don’t answer him. Then place my staff on the boy’s face.”

<sup>30</sup> The boy’s mother said to Elisha, “As the LORD lives and as you yourself live, I will not leave you.” So he got up and followed her.

<sup>31</sup> Gehazi went ahead of them and placed the staff on the boy’s face, but there was no sound or sign of life, so he went back to meet Elisha and told him, “The boy didn’t wake up.”

<sup>32</sup> When Elisha got to the house, he discovered the boy lying dead on his bed. <sup>33</sup> So he went in, closed the door behind the two of them, and prayed to the LORD. <sup>34</sup> Then he went up and lay on the boy: he put mouth to mouth, eye to eye, hand to hand. While he bent down over him, the boy’s flesh became warm. <sup>35</sup> Elisha got up, went into the house, and paced back and forth. Then he went up and bent down over him again. The boy sneezed seven times and opened his eyes.

<sup>36</sup> Elisha called Gehazi and said, “Call the Shunammite woman.” He called her and she came. Then Elisha said, “Pick up your son.” <sup>37</sup> She came, fell at his feet, and bowed to the ground; she picked up her son and left.

The Deadly Stew

<sup>38†</sup> When Elisha returned to Gilgal, there was a famine in the land. The sons of the prophets were sitting at his feet. <sup>A</sup> He said to his attendant, “Put on the large pot and make stew for the sons of the prophets.”

<sup>39†</sup> One went out to the field to gather herbs and found a wild vine from which he gathered as many wild gourds as his garment would hold. Then he came back and cut them up into the pot of stew, but they were unaware of what they were.

<sup>40</sup> They served some for the men to eat, but when they ate the stew they cried out, “There’s death in the pot, man of God! ” And they were unable to eat it.

<sup>41</sup> Then Elisha said, “Get some meal.” He threw it into the pot and said, “Serve it for the people to eat.” And there was nothing bad in the pot.

The Multiplied Bread

<sup>42†</sup> A man from Baal-shalishah came to the man of God with his sack full of 20 loaves of barley bread from the first bread of the harvest. Elisha said, “Give it to the people to eat.”

<sup>43</sup> But Elisha’s attendant asked, “What? Am I to set 20 loaves before 100 men? ”

“Give it to the people to eat,” Elisha said, “for this is what the LORD says: ‘They will eat, and they will have some left over.’ ” <sup>44</sup> So he gave it to them, and as the LORD had promised, they ate and had some left over.

2 KINGS

Naaman's Disease Healed

5 †Naaman, commander of the army for the king of Aram, was a great man in his master's sight <sup>A</sup> and highly regarded because through him, the LORD had given victory to Aram. The man was a brave warrior, but he had a skin disease.

<sup>2</sup> Aram had gone on raids and brought back from the land of Israel a young girl who served Naaman's wife. <sup>3</sup> She said to her mistress, "If only my master would go to <sup>B</sup> the prophet who is in Samaria, he would cure him of his skin disease."

<sup>4</sup> So Naaman went and told his master what the girl from the land of Israel had said. <sup>5</sup> Therefore, the king of Aram said, "Go and I will send a letter with you to the king of Israel."

So he went and took with him 750 pounds <sup>C</sup> of silver, 150 pounds <sup>D</sup> of gold, and 10 changes of clothes. <sup>6</sup> He brought the letter to the king of Israel, and it read:

When this letter comes to you, note that I have sent you my servant Naaman for you to cure him of his skin disease.

<sup>7†</sup> When the king of Israel read the letter, he tore his clothes and asked, "Am I God, killing and giving life that this man expects me to cure a man of his skin disease? Think it over and you will see that he is only picking a fight with <sup>E</sup> me."

<sup>8</sup> When Elisha the man of God heard that the king of Israel tore his clothes, he sent a message to the king, "Why have you torn your clothes? Have him come to me, and he will know there is a prophet in Israel." <sup>9</sup> So Naaman came with his horses and chariots and stood at the door of Elisha's house.

<sup>10†</sup> Then Elisha sent him a messenger, who said, "Go wash seven times in the Jordan and your flesh will be restored and you will be •clean."

<sup>11</sup> But Naaman got angry and left, saying, “I was telling myself: He will surely come out, stand and call on the name of •Yahweh his God, and will wave his hand over the spot and cure the skin disease. <sup>12†</sup> Aren’t Abana and Pharpar, the rivers of Damascus, better than all the waters of Israel? Could I not wash in them and be clean?” So he turned and left in a rage.

<sup>13</sup> But his servants approached and said to him, “My father, if the prophet had told you to do some great thing, would you not have done it? How much more should you do it when he tells you, ‘Wash and be clean’?”

<sup>14</sup> So Naaman went down and dipped himself in the Jordan seven times, according to the command of the man of God. Then his skin was restored and became like the skin of a small boy, and he was clean.

<sup>15</sup> Then Naaman and his whole company went back to the man of God, stood before him, and declared, “I know there’s no God in the whole world except in Israel. Therefore, please accept a gift from your servant.”

<sup>16</sup> But Elisha said, “As the LORD lives, I stand before Him. I will not accept it.” Naaman urged him to accept it, but he refused.

<sup>17</sup> Naaman responded, “If not, please let your servant be given as much soil as a pair of mules can carry, for your servant will no longer offer a •burnt offering or a sacrifice to any other god but Yahweh. <sup>18</sup> However, in a particular matter may the LORD pardon your servant: When my master, the king of Aram, goes into the temple of Rimmon to worship and I, as his right-hand man, <sup>F</sup> bow in the temple of Rimmon — when I bow in the temple of Rimmon, may the LORD pardon your servant in this matter.”

<sup>19</sup> So he said to him, “Go in peace.”

Gehazi’s Greed Punished

After Naaman had traveled a short distance from Elisha, <sup>20</sup> Gehazi, the attendant of Elisha the man of God, thought: My master has let this Aramean Naaman off lightly by not accepting from him what he brought. As the LORD lives, I will run after him and get something from him.

<sup>21</sup> So Gehazi pursued Naaman. When Naaman saw someone running after him, he got down from the chariot to meet him and asked, “Is everything all right? ”

<sup>22</sup> Gehazi said, “It’s all right. My master has sent me to say, ‘I have just now discovered that two young men from the sons of the prophets have come to me from the hill country of Ephraim. Please give them 75 pounds <sup>G</sup> of silver and two changes of clothes.’ ”

<sup>23</sup> But Naaman insisted, “Please, accept 150 pounds.” <sup>H</sup> He urged Gehazi and then packed 150 pounds <sup>I</sup> of silver in two bags with two changes of clothes. Naaman gave them to two of his young men who carried them ahead of Gehazi. <sup>24</sup> When Gehazi came to the hill, <sup>J</sup> he took the gifts from them and stored them in the house. Then he dismissed the men, and they left.

<sup>25</sup> Gehazi came and stood by his master. “Where did you go, Gehazi? ” Elisha asked him.

“Your servant didn’t go anywhere,” he replied.

<sup>26</sup> But Elisha questioned him, “Wasn’t my spirit there <sup>K</sup> when the man got down from his chariot to meet you? Is it a time to accept money and clothes, olive orchards and vineyards, sheep and oxen, and male and female slaves? <sup>27</sup> Therefore, Naaman’s skin disease will cling to you and your descendants forever.” So Gehazi went out from his presence diseased — white as snow.

2 KINGS

The Floating Ax Head

6 The sons of the prophets said to Elisha, “Please notice that the place where we live under your supervision <sup>A</sup> is too small for us. <sup>2</sup> Please let us go to the Jordan where we can each get a log and can build ourselves a place to live there.”

“Go,” he said.

<sup>3</sup> Then one said, “Please come with your servants.”

“I’ll come,” he answered.

<sup>4</sup> So he went with them, and when they came to the Jordan, they cut down trees. <sup>5</sup> As one of them was cutting down a tree, the iron ax head fell into the water, and he cried out, “Oh, my master, it was borrowed! ”

<sup>6</sup> Then the man of God asked, “Where did it fall? ”

When he showed him the place, the man of God cut a stick, threw it there, and made the iron float. <sup>7</sup> Then he said, “Pick it up.” So he reached out and took it.

The Aramean War

<sup>8†</sup> When the king of Aram was waging war against Israel, he conferred with his servants, “My camp will be at such and such a place.”

<sup>9</sup> But the man of God sent word to the king of Israel: “Be careful passing by this place, for the Arameans are going down there.” <sup>10</sup> Consequently, the king of Israel sent word to the place the man of God had told him about. The man of God repeatedly <sup>B</sup> warned the king, so the king would be on his guard.

<sup>11</sup> The king of Aram was enraged because of this matter, and he called his servants and demanded of them, “Tell me, which one of us is for the king of Israel? ”

<sup>12</sup> One of his servants said, “No one, my lord the king. Elisha, the prophet in Israel, tells the king of Israel even the words you speak in your bedroom.”

<sup>13†</sup> So the king said, “Go and see where he is, so I can send men to capture him.”

When he was told, “Elisha is in Dothan,” <sup>14†</sup> he sent horses, chariots, and a massive army there. They went by night and surrounded the city.

<sup>15</sup> When the servant of the man of God got up early and went out, he discovered an army with horses and chariots surrounding the city. So he asked Elisha, “Oh, my master, what are we to do? ”

<sup>16</sup> Elisha said, “Don’t be afraid, for those who are with us outnumber those who are with them.”

<sup>17†</sup> Then Elisha prayed, “LORD, please open his eyes and let him see.” So the LORD opened the servant’s eyes. He looked and saw that the mountain was covered with horses and chariots of fire all around Elisha.

<sup>18</sup> When the Arameans came against him, Elisha prayed to the LORD, “Please strike this nation with blindness.” So He struck them with blindness, according to Elisha’s word. <sup>19</sup> Then Elisha said to them, “This is not the way, and this is not the city. Follow me, and I will take you to the man you’re looking for.” And he led them to Samaria. <sup>20</sup> When they entered Samaria, Elisha said, “LORD, open these men’s eyes and let them see.” So the LORD opened their eyes. They looked and discovered they were in Samaria.

<sup>21</sup> When the king of Israel saw them, he said to Elisha, “My father, should I kill them? I will kill them.”

<sup>22</sup> Elisha replied, “Don’t kill them. Do you kill those you have captured with your sword or your bow? Set food and water in front of them so they can eat and drink and go to their master.”

<sup>23</sup> So he prepared a great feast for them. When they had eaten and drunk, he sent them away, and they went to their master. The Aramean raiders did not come into Israel's land again.

<sup>26†</sup> As the king of Israel was passing by on the wall, a woman cried out to him, "My lord the king, help! "

<sup>27</sup> He answered, "If the LORD doesn't help you, where can I get help for you? From the threshing floor or the winepress? " <sup>28</sup> Then the king asked her, "What's the matter? "

She said, "This woman said to me, 'Give up your son, and we will eat him today. Then we will eat my son tomorrow.' <sup>29</sup> So we boiled my son and ate him, and I said to her the next day, 'Give up your son, and we will eat him,' but she has hidden her son."

<sup>30</sup> When the king heard the woman's words, he tore his clothes. Then, as he was passing by on the wall, the people saw that there was •sackcloth under his clothes next to his skin. <sup>31</sup> He announced, "May God punish me and do so severely if the head of Elisha son of Shaphat remains on his shoulders today."

<sup>32</sup> Elisha was sitting in his house, and the elders were sitting with him. The king sent a man ahead of him, but before the messenger got to him, Elisha said to the elders, "Do you see how this murderer has sent someone to cut off my head? Look, when the messenger comes, shut the door to keep him out. Isn't the sound of his master's feet behind him? "

<sup>33†</sup> While Elisha was still speaking with them, the messenger came down to him. Then he said, "This disaster is from the LORD. Why should I wait for the LORD any longer? ”

2 KINGS

Aram Defeated

7 †Elisha replied, “Hear the word of the LORD! This is what the LORD says: ‘About this time tomorrow at the gate of Samaria, six quarts <sup>A</sup> of fine meal will sell for a •shekel and 12 quarts <sup>B</sup> of barley will sell for a shekel.’ ”

<sup>2†</sup> Then the captain, the king’s right-hand man, responded to the man of God, “Look, even if the LORD were to make windows in heaven, could this really happen? ”

Elisha announced, “You will in fact see it with your own eyes, but you won’t eat any of it.”

<sup>3</sup> Four men with a skin disease were at the entrance to the gate. They said to each other, “Why just sit here until we die? <sup>4</sup> If we say, ‘Let’s go into the city,’ we will die there because the famine is in the city, but if we sit here, we will also die. So now, come on. Let’s go to the Arameans’ camp. If they let us live, we will live; if they kill us, we will die.”

<sup>5</sup> So the diseased men got up at twilight to go to the Arameans’ camp. When they came to the camp’s edge, they discovered that there was not a single man there, <sup>6</sup> for the Lord had caused the Aramean camp to hear the sound of chariots, horses, and a great army. The Arameans had said to each other, “The king of Israel must have hired the kings of the Hittites and the kings of Egypt to attack us.” <sup>7</sup> So they had gotten up and fled at twilight, abandoning their tents, horses, and donkeys. The camp was intact, and they had fled for their lives.

<sup>8</sup> When these men came to the edge of the camp, they went into a tent to eat and drink. Then they picked up the silver, gold, and clothing and went off and hid them. They came back and entered another tent, picked things up, and hid them. <sup>9</sup> Then they said to each other, “We’re not doing what is right. Today is a day of good news. If we are silent and wait until morning light, our sin will catch up with us. Let’s go tell the king’s household.”

<sup>10</sup> The diseased men went and called to the city’s gatekeepers and told them, “We went to the Aramean camp and no one was there — no human sounds. There was nothing but tethered horses and donkeys, and the tents were intact.”<sup>11</sup> The gatekeepers called out, and the news was reported to the king’s household.

<sup>12</sup> So the king got up in the night and said to his servants, “Let me tell you what the Arameans have done to us. They know we are starving, so they have left the camp to hide in the open country, thinking, ‘When they come out of the city, we will take them alive and go into the city.’ ”

<sup>14</sup> The messengers took two chariots with horses, and the king sent them after the Aramean army, saying, “Go and see.”<sup>15</sup> So they followed them as far as the Jordan. They saw that the whole way was littered with clothes and equipment the Arameans had thrown off in their haste. The messengers returned and told the king.<sup>16</sup> Then the people went out and plundered the Aramean camp.

It was then that six quarts<sup>C</sup> of fine meal sold for a shekel and 12 quarts<sup>D</sup> of barley sold for a shekel, according to the word of the LORD.

<sup>17</sup> The king had appointed the captain, his right-hand man, to be in charge of the gate, but the people trampled him in the gateway. He died, just as the man of God had predicted when the king came to him.<sup>18</sup> When the man of God had said to the king, “About this time tomorrow 12 quarts<sup>E</sup> of barley will sell for a shekel and six quarts<sup>F</sup> of fine meal will sell for a shekel at the gate of Samaria,”<sup>19</sup> this captain had answered the man of God, “Look, even if the LORD were to make windows in heaven, could this really happen? ” Elisha had said, “You will in fact see it with your own eyes, but you won’t eat any of it.”<sup>20</sup> This is what happened to him: the people trampled him in the gateway, and he died.

2 KINGS

The Shunammite's Land Restored

8 Elisha said to the woman whose son he had restored to life, “Get ready, you and your household, and go and live as a foreigner wherever you can. For the LORD has announced a seven-year famine, and it has already come to the land.”

<sup>2</sup> So the woman got ready and did what the man of God said. She and her household lived as foreigners in the land of the Philistines for seven years.

<sup>3†</sup> When the woman returned from the land of the Philistines at the end of seven years, she went to appeal to the king for her house and field.

<sup>4†</sup> The king had been speaking to Gehazi, the attendant of the man of God, saying, “Tell me all the great things Elisha has done.”

<sup>5</sup> While he was telling the king how Elisha restored the dead son to life, the woman whose son he had restored to life came to appeal to the king for her house and field. So Gehazi said, “My lord the king, this is the woman and this is the son Elisha restored to life.”

<sup>6</sup> When the king asked the woman, she told him the story. So the king appointed a court official for her, saying, “Restore all that was hers, along with all the income from the field from the day she left the country until now.”

Aram's King Hazael

<sup>7†</sup> Elisha came to Damascus while Ben-hadad king of Aram was sick, and the king was told, “The man of God has come here.” <sup>8</sup> So the king said to Hazael, “Take a gift with you and go meet the man of God. Inquire of the LORD through him, ‘Will I recover from this sickness?’”

<sup>9†</sup> Hazael went to meet Elisha, taking with him a gift: 40 camel-loads of all kinds of goods from Damascus. When he came and stood before him, he said, “Your son, Ben-hadad king of Aram, has sent me to ask you, ‘Will I recover from this sickness?’”

<sup>10†</sup> Elisha told him, “Go say to him, ‘You are sure to recover.’ But the LORD has shown me that he is sure to die.” <sup>11†</sup> Then Elisha stared steadily at him until Hazael was ashamed.

The man of God wept, <sup>12†</sup> and Hazael asked, “Why is my lord weeping? ”

He replied, “Because I know the evil you will do to the people of Israel. You will set their fortresses on fire. You will kill their young men with the sword. You will dash their little ones to pieces. You will rip open their pregnant women.”

<sup>13†</sup> Hazael said, “How could your servant, a mere dog, do this monstrous thing? ”

Elisha answered, “The LORD has shown me that you will be king over Aram.”

<sup>14</sup> Hazael left Elisha and went to his master, who asked him, “What did Elisha say to you? ”

He responded, “He told me you are sure to recover.” <sup>15†</sup> The next day Hazael took a heavy cloth, dipped it in water, and spread it over the king’s face. Ben-hadad died, and Hazael reigned instead of him.

Judah’s King Jehoram

<sup>16†</sup> In the fifth year of Israel’s King Joram son of Ahab, Jehoram son of Jehoshaphat became king of Judah, replacing his father. <sup>A</sup>, <sup>17†</sup> He was 32 years old when he became king and reigned eight years in Jerusalem.

<sup>18†</sup> He walked in the way of the kings of Israel, as the house of Ahab had done, for Ahab’s daughter was his wife. He did what was evil in the LORD’s sight. <sup>19†</sup> The LORD was unwilling to destroy Judah because of His servant David, since He had promised to give a lamp to David and his sons forever.

<sup>20†</sup> During Jehoram’s reign, Edom rebelled against Judah’s control and appointed their own king. <sup>21</sup> So Jehoram crossed over to Zair with all his chariots. Then at night he set out to attack the Edomites who had surrounded him and the chariot commanders, but his troops fled to their tents. <sup>22†</sup> So Edom is still in rebellion against Judah's control today. Libnah also rebelled at that time.

<sup>23</sup> The rest of the events of Jehoram's reign, along with all his accomplishments, are written in the Historical Record of Judah's Kings.

<sup>24</sup> Jehoram rested with his fathers and was buried with his fathers in the city of David, and his son Ahaziah became king in his place.

Judah's King Ahaziah

<sup>25†</sup> In the twelfth year of Israel's King Joram son of Ahab, Ahaziah son of Jehoram became king of Judah. <sup>26†</sup> Ahaziah was 22 years old when he became king and reigned one year in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Athaliah, granddaughter of Israel's King Omri. <sup>27†</sup> He walked in the way of the house of Ahab and did what was evil in the LORD's sight like the house of Ahab, for he was a son-in-law to Ahab's family.

<sup>28</sup> Ahaziah went with Joram son of Ahab to fight against Hazael king of Aram in Ramoth-gilead, and the Arameans wounded Joram. <sup>29</sup> So King Joram returned to Jezreel to recover from the wounds that the Arameans had inflicted on him in Ramoth-gilead <sup>B</sup> when he fought against Aram's King Hazael. Then Judah's King Ahaziah son of Jehoram went down to Jezreel to visit Joram son of Ahab since Joram was ill.

2 KINGS

Jehu Anointed as Israel's King

9 †The prophet Elisha called one of the sons of the prophets and said, “Tuck your mantle under your belt, take this flask of oil with you, and go to Ramoth-gilead. 2† When you get there, look for Jehu son of Jehoshaphat, son of Nimshi. Go in, get him away from his colleagues, and take him to an inner room. 3† Then, take the flask of oil, pour it on his head, and say, ‘This is what the LORD says: “I anoint you king over Israel.” ’ Open the door and escape. Don’t wait.” 4 So the young prophet went to Ramoth-gilead.

5† When he arrived, the army commanders were sitting there, so he said, “I have a message for you, commander.”

Jehu asked, “For which one of us? ”

He answered, “For you, commander.”

6 So Jehu got up and went into the house. The young prophet poured the oil on his head and said, “This is what the LORD God of Israel says: ‘I anoint you king over the LORD’s people, Israel. 7 You are to strike down the house of your master Ahab so that I may avenge the blood shed by the hand of Jezebel — the blood of My servants the prophets and of all the servants of the LORD. 8 The whole house of Ahab will perish, and I will eliminate all of Ahab’s males, <sup>A</sup> both slave and free, in Israel. 9 I will make the house of Ahab like the house of Jeroboam son of Nebat and like the house of Baasha son of Ahijah. 10 The dogs will eat Jezebel in the plot of land at Jezreel — no one will bury her.’ ” Then the young prophet opened the door and escaped.

11 When Jehu came out to his master’s servants, they asked, “Is everything all right? Why did this crazy person come to you? ”

Then he said to them, “You know the sort and their ranting.”

12 But they replied, “That’s a lie! Tell us! ”

So Jehu said, “He talked to me about this and that and said, ‘This is what the LORD says: I anoint you king over Israel.’ ”

<sup>14</sup> Then Jehu son of Jehoshaphat, son of Nimshi, conspired against Joram. Joram and all Israel had been at Ramoth-gilead on guard against Hazael king of Aram. <sup>15</sup> But King Joram had returned to Jezreel to recover from the wounds that the Arameans had inflicted on him when he fought against Aram’s King Hazael. Jehu said, “If you commanders wish to make me king, then don’t let anyone escape from the city to go tell about it in Jezreel.”

Jehu Kills Joram and Ahaziah

<sup>16</sup> Jehu got into his chariot and went to Jezreel since Joram was laid up there and Ahaziah king of Judah had gone down to visit Joram. <sup>17</sup> Now the watchman was standing on the tower in Jezreel. He saw Jehu’s troops approaching and shouted, “I see troops! ”

Joram responded, “Choose a rider and send him to meet them and have him ask, ‘Do you come in peace?’ ”

<sup>18</sup> So a horseman went to meet Jehu and said, “This is what the king asks: ‘Do you come in peace?’ ”

Jehu replied, “What do you have to do with peace? <sup>C</sup> Fall in behind me.”

The watchman reported, “The messenger reached them but hasn’t started back.”

<sup>19</sup> So he sent out a second horseman, who went to them and said, “This is what the king asks: ‘Do you come in peace?’ ”

Jehu answered, “What do you have to do with peace? <sup>D</sup> Fall in behind me.”

<sup>20</sup> Again the watchman reported, “He reached them but hasn’t started back. Also, the driving is like that of Jehu son of Nimshi — he drives like a madman.”

<sup>21</sup> “Harness!” Joram shouted, and they harnessed his chariot. Then Joram king of Israel and Ahaziah king of Judah set out, each in his own chariot, and met Jehu at the plot of land of Naboth the Jezreelite. <sup>22†</sup> When Joram saw Jehu he asked, “Do you come in peace, Jehu?”

He answered, “What peace can there be as long as there is so much prostitution and witchcraft from your mother Jezebel?”

<sup>24</sup> Then Jehu drew his bow and shot Joram between the shoulders. The arrow went through his heart, and he slumped down in his chariot. <sup>25</sup> Jehu said to Bidkar his aide, “Pick him up and throw him on the plot of ground belonging to Naboth the Jezreelite. For remember when you and I were riding side by side behind his father Ahab, and the LORD uttered this •oracle against him: <sup>26</sup> ‘As surely as I saw the blood of Naboth and the blood of his sons yesterday’ — this is the LORD’s declaration — ‘so will I repay you on this plot of land’ — this is the LORD’s declaration. So now, according to the word of the LORD, pick him up and throw him on the plot of land.”

<sup>27</sup> When King Ahaziah of Judah saw what was happening, he fled up the road toward Beth-haggan. Jehu pursued him, shouting, “Shoot him too!” So they shot him in his chariot at Gur Pass near Ibleam, but he fled to Megiddo and died there. <sup>28</sup> Then his servants carried him to Jerusalem in a chariot and buried him in his fathers’ tomb in the city of David. <sup>29†</sup> It was in the eleventh year of Joram son of Ahab that Ahaziah had become king over Judah.

Jehu Kills Jezebel

<sup>30</sup> When Jehu came to Jezreel, Jezebel heard about it, so she painted her eyes, adorned her head, and looked down from the window. <sup>31†</sup> As Jehu entered the gate, she said, “Do you come in peace, Zimri, killer of your master? ”

<sup>32</sup> He looked up toward the window and said, “Who is on my side? Who? ” Two or three eunuchs looked down at him, <sup>33</sup> and he said, “Throw her down! ” So they threw her down, and some of her blood splattered on the wall and on the horses, and Jehu rode over her.

<sup>34</sup> Then he went in, ate and drank, and said, “Take care of this cursed woman and bury her, since she’s a king’s daughter.” <sup>35</sup> But when they went out to bury her, they did not find anything but her skull, her feet, and the palms of her hands. <sup>36†</sup> So they went back and told him, and he said, “This fulfills the LORD’s word that He spoke through His servant Elijah the Tishbite: ‘In the plot of land at Jezreel, the dogs will eat Jezebel’s flesh. <sup>37</sup> Jezebel’s corpse will be like manure on the surface of the field in the plot of land at Jezreel so that no one will be able to say: This is Jezebel.’ ”

2 KINGS

Jehu Kills the House of Ahab

10 Since Ahab had 70 sons in Samaria, Jehu wrote letters and sent them to Samaria to the rulers of Jezreel, to the elders, and to the guardians of Ahab's sons, saying:

<sup>2</sup> When this letter arrives, since your master's sons are with you and you have chariots, horses, a fortified city, and weaponry, <sup>3</sup> select the most qualified <sup>A</sup> of your master's sons, set him on his father's throne, and fight for your master's house.

<sup>4</sup> However, they were terrified and reasoned, "Look, two kings couldn't stand against him; how can we?"

<sup>5</sup> So the overseer of the palace, the overseer of the city, the elders, and the guardians sent a message to Jehu: "We are your servants, and we will do whatever you tell us. We will not make anyone king. Do whatever you think is right." <sup>B</sup>

<sup>6</sup> Then Jehu wrote them a second letter, saying:

If you are on my side, and if you will obey me, bring me the heads of your master's sons at this time tomorrow at Jezreel.

All 70 of the king's sons were being cared for by the city's prominent men. <sup>7</sup> When the letter came to them, they took the king's sons and slaughtered all 70, put their heads in baskets, and sent them to Jehu at Jezreel. <sup>8</sup> When the messenger came and told him, "They have brought the heads of the king's sons," the king said, "Pile them in two heaps at the entrance of the gate until morning."

<sup>9</sup> The next morning when he went out and stood at the gate, he said to all the people, "You are innocent. It was I who conspired against my master and killed him. But who struck down all these?" <sup>10</sup> Know, then, that not a word the LORD spoke against the house of Ahab will fail, for the LORD has done what He promised through His servant Elijah." <sup>11†</sup> So Jehu killed all who remained of the house of Ahab in Jezreel — all his great men, close friends, and priests — leaving him no survivors.

<sup>12</sup> Then he set out and went on his way to Samaria. On the way, while he was at Beth-eked of the Shepherds, <sup>13</sup> Jehu met the relatives of Ahaziah king of Judah and asked, “Who are you? ”

They answered, “We’re Ahaziah’s relatives. We’ve come down to greet the king’s sons and the queen mother’s sons.”

<sup>14</sup> Then Jehu ordered, “Take them alive.” So they took them alive and then slaughtered them at the pit of Beth-eked — 42 men. He didn’t spare any of them.

<sup>15</sup> When he left there, he found Jehonadab son of Rechab coming to meet him. He greeted him and then asked, “Is your heart one with mine? ” <sup>C</sup>

“It is,” Jehonadab replied.

Jehu said, “If it is, give me your hand.”

So he gave him his hand, and Jehu pulled him up into the chariot with him. <sup>16</sup> Then he said, “Come with me and see my zeal for the LORD! ” So he let him ride with him in his chariot. <sup>17</sup> When Jehu came to Samaria, he struck down all who remained from the house of Ahab in Samaria until he had annihilated his house, according to the word of the LORD spoken to Elijah.

Jehu Kills the Baal Worshipers

<sup>18</sup> Then Jehu brought all the people together and said to them, “Ahab served •Baal a little, but Jehu will serve him a lot. <sup>19</sup> Now, therefore, summon to me all the prophets of Baal, all his servants, and all his priests. None must be missing, for I have a great sacrifice for Baal. Whoever is missing will not live.” However, Jehu was acting deceptively in order to destroy the servants of Baal. <sup>20</sup> Jehu commanded, “Consecrate a solemn assembly for Baal.” So they called one.

<sup>21</sup> Then Jehu sent messengers throughout all Israel, and all the servants of Baal came; there was not a man left who did not come. They entered the temple of Baal, and it was filled from one end to the other.<sup>22</sup> Then he said to the custodian of the wardrobe, “Bring out the garments for all the servants of Baal.” So he brought out their garments.

<sup>23</sup> Then Jehu and Jehonadab son of Rechab entered the temple of Baal, and Jehu said to the servants of Baal, “Look carefully to see that there are no servants of the LORD here among you — only servants of Baal.”<sup>24</sup> Then they went in to offer sacrifices and •burnt offerings.

Now Jehu had stationed 80 men outside, and he warned them, “Whoever allows any of the men I am delivering into your hands to escape will forfeit his life for theirs.”<sup>25</sup> When he finished offering the burnt offering, Jehu said to the guards and officers, “Go in and kill them. Don’t let anyone out.” So they struck them down with the sword. Then the guards and officers threw the bodies out and went into the inner room of the temple of Baal.<sup>26</sup> They brought out the pillars of the temple of Baal and burned them<sup>27</sup> and tore down the pillar of Baal. Then they tore down the temple of Baal and made it a latrine — which it is to this day.

Evaluation of Jehu’s Reign

<sup>28</sup> Jehu eliminated Baal worship from Israel,<sup>29</sup> but he did not turn away from the sins that Jeroboam son of Nebat had caused Israel to commit — worshiping the gold calves that were in Bethel and Dan.

<sup>30</sup> Nevertheless, the LORD said to Jehu, “Because you have done well in carrying out what is right in My sight and have done to the house of Ahab all that was in My heart, four generations of your sons will sit on the throne of Israel.”

<sup>31†</sup> Yet Jehu was not careful to follow the instruction of the LORD God of Israel with all his heart. He did not turn from the sins that Jeroboam had caused Israel to commit.

<sup>32</sup> In those days the LORD began to reduce the size of Israel. Hazael defeated the Israelites throughout their territory:<sup>33†</sup> from the Jordan eastward, all the land of Gilead — the Gadites, the Reubenites, and the Manassites — from Aroer which is by the Arnon Valley through Gilead to Bashan. <sup>D</sup>

2 KINGS

Athaliah Usurps the Throne

11 †When Athaliah, Ahaziah's mother, saw that her son was dead, she proceeded to annihilate all the royal heirs. <sup>2†</sup> Jehosheba, who was King Jehoram's daughter and Ahaziah's sister, secretly rescued Joash son of Ahaziah from the king's sons who were being killed and put him and the one who nursed him in a bedroom. So he was hidden from Athaliah and was not killed. <sup>3</sup> Joash was in hiding with Jehosheba in the LORD's temple six years while Athaliah ruled over the land.

Athaliah Overthrown

<sup>4†</sup> Then in the seventh year, Jehoiada sent messengers and brought in the commanders of hundreds, the Carites, and the guards. He had them come to him in the LORD's temple, where he made a covenant with them and put them under oath. He showed them the king's son <sup>5</sup> and commanded them, "This is what you are to do: a third of you who come on duty on the Sabbath are to provide protection for the king's palace. <sup>6†</sup> A third are to be at the Sur gate and a third at the gate behind the guards. You are to take turns providing protection for the palace." <sup>A</sup>

<sup>7</sup> "Your two divisions that go off duty on the Sabbath are to provide protection for the LORD's temple. <sup>8</sup> You must completely surround the king with weapons in hand. Anyone who approaches the ranks is to be put to death. You must be with the king in all his daily tasks." <sup>B</sup>

<sup>9</sup> So the commanders of hundreds did everything Jehoiada the priest commanded. They each brought their men — those coming on duty on the Sabbath and those going off duty — and went to Jehoiada the priest. <sup>10</sup> The priest gave to the commanders of hundreds King David's spears and shields that were in the LORD's temple. <sup>11</sup> Then the guards stood with their weapons in hand surrounding the king — from the right side of the temple to the left side, by the altar and by the temple.

<sup>12</sup> He brought out the king's son, put the crown on him, gave him the •testimony, <sup>C</sup> and made him king. They anointed him and clapped their hands and cried, "Long live the king! "

<sup>13</sup> When Athaliah heard the noise from the guard and the crowd, she went out to the people at the LORD's temple. <sup>14</sup> As she looked, there was the king standing by the pillar according to the custom. The commanders and the trumpeters were by the king, and all the people of the land were rejoicing and blowing trumpets. Athaliah tore her clothes and screamed "Treason! Treason!"

<sup>15</sup> Then Jehoiada the priest ordered the commanders of hundreds in charge of the army, "Take her out between the ranks, and put to death by the sword anyone who follows her," for the priest had said, "She is not to be put to death in the LORD's temple." <sup>16</sup> So they arrested her, and she went through the horse entrance to the king's palace, where she was put to death.

Jehoiada's Reforms

<sup>17</sup> Then Jehoiada made a covenant between the LORD, the king, and the people that they would be the LORD's people and another covenant between the king and the people. <sup>18†</sup> So all the people of the land went to the temple of •Baal and tore it down. They broke its altars and images into pieces, and they killed Mattan, the priest of Baal, at the altars.

Then Jehoiada the priest appointed guards for the LORD's temple. <sup>19†</sup> He took the commanders of hundreds, the Carites, the guards, and all the people of the land, and they brought the king from the LORD's temple. They entered the king's palace by way of the guards' gate. Then Joash sat on the throne of the kings. <sup>20†</sup> All the people of the land rejoiced, and the city was quiet, for they had put Athaliah to death by the sword in the king's palace.

Judah's King Joash

<sup>21</sup> Joash was seven years old when he became king.

2 KINGS

12 † In the seventh year of Jehu, Joash became king and reigned 40 years in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Zibiah, who was from Beersheba. <sup>2†</sup> Throughout the time Jehoiada the priest instructed him, Joash did what was right in the LORD's sight. <sup>3</sup> Yet the •high places were not taken away; the people continued sacrificing and burning incense on the high places.

Repairing the Temple

<sup>4</sup> Then Joash said to the priests, "All the dedicated money brought to the LORD's temple, census money, money from vows, and all money voluntarily given for the LORD's temple, <sup>5</sup> each priest is to take from his assessor <sup>A</sup> and repair whatever damage to the temple is found." <sup>B</sup>

<sup>6</sup> But by the twenty-third year of the reign of King Joash, the priests had not repaired the damage <sup>C</sup> to the temple. <sup>7</sup> So King Joash called Jehoiada the priest and the other priests and said, "Why haven't you repaired the temple's damage? Since you haven't, don't take any money from your assessors; instead, hand it over for the repair of the temple." <sup>8</sup> So the priests agreed they would not take money from the people and they would not repair the temple's damage.

<sup>9</sup> Then Jehoiada the priest took a chest, bored a hole in its lid, and set it beside the altar on the right side as one enters the LORD's temple; in it the priests who guarded the threshold put all the money brought into the LORD's temple. <sup>10</sup> Whenever they saw there was a large amount of money in the chest, the king's secretary and the high priest would go to the LORD's temple and count the money found there and tie it up in bags. <sup>11</sup> Then they would put the counted money into the hands of those doing the work — those who oversaw the LORD's temple. They in turn would pay it out to those working on the LORD's temple — the carpenters, the builders, <sup>12</sup> the masons, and the stonecutters — and would use it to buy timber and quarried stone to repair the damage to the LORD's temple and for all spending for temple repairs.

<sup>13</sup> However, no silver bowls, wick trimmers, sprinkling basins, trumpets, or any articles of gold or silver were made for the LORD's temple from the money brought into the temple. <sup>14</sup> Instead, it was given to those doing the work, and they repaired the LORD's temple with it. <sup>15</sup> No accounting was required from the men who received the money to pay those doing the work, since they worked with integrity. <sup>16</sup> The money from the •restitution offering and the •sin offering was not brought to the LORD's temple since it belonged to the priests.

Aramean Invasion of Judah

<sup>17</sup> At that time Hazael king of Aram marched up and fought against Gath and captured it. Then he planned to attack Jerusalem. <sup>18</sup> So King Joash of Judah took all the consecrated items that his ancestors — Judah's kings Jehoshaphat, Jehoram, and Ahaziah — had consecrated, along with his own consecrated items and all the gold found in the treasuries of the LORD's temple and in the king's palace, and he sent them to Hazael king of Aram. Then Hazael withdrew from Jerusalem.

Joash Assassinated

2 KINGS

Israel's King Jehoahaz

13 †In the twenty-third year of Judah's King Joash son of Ahaziah, Jehoahaz son of Jehu became king over Israel in Samaria and reigned 17 years. <sup>2</sup> He did what was evil in the LORD's sight and followed the sins that Jeroboam son of Nebat had caused Israel to commit; he did not turn away from them. <sup>3</sup> So the LORD's anger burned against Israel, and He surrendered them to the power of Hazael king of Aram and his son Benhadad during their reigns.

<sup>4</sup> Then Jehoahaz sought the LORD's favor, and the LORD heard him, for He saw the oppression the king of Aram inflicted on Israel. <sup>5†</sup> Therefore, the LORD gave Israel a deliverer, and they escaped from the power of the Arameans. Then the people of Israel dwelt in their tents as before, <sup>6</sup> but they didn't turn away from the sins that the house of Jeroboam had caused Israel to commit. Jehoahaz walked in them, and the •Asherah pole also remained standing in Samaria. <sup>7</sup> Jehoahaz did not have an army left, except for 50 horsemen, 10 chariots, and 10,000 foot soldiers, because the king of Aram had destroyed them, making them like dust at threshing.

Israel's King Jehoash

<sup>10†</sup> In the thirty-seventh year of Judah's King Joash, Jehoash son of Jehoahaz became king over Israel in Samaria and reigned 16 years. <sup>11</sup> He did what was evil in the LORD's sight. He did not turn away from all the sins that Jeroboam son of Nebat had caused Israel to commit, but he walked in them.

<sup>12</sup> The rest of the events of Jehoash's reign, along with all his accomplishments and the power he had to wage war against Judah's King Amaziah, are written in the Historical Record of Israel's Kings. <sup>13</sup> Jehoash rested with his fathers, and Jeroboam sat on his throne. Jehoash was buried in Samaria with the kings of Israel.

Elisha's Death

<sup>14†</sup> When Elisha became sick with the illness that he died from, Jehoash king of Israel went down and wept over him and said, “My father, my father, the chariots and horsemen of Israel! ”

<sup>15</sup> Elisha responded, “Take a bow and arrows.” So he got a bow and arrows. <sup>16</sup> Then Elisha said to the king of Israel, “Put your hand on the bow.” So the king put his hand on it, and Elisha put his hands on the king’s hands. <sup>17</sup> Elisha said, “Open the east window.” So he opened it. Elisha said, “Shoot! ” So he shot. Then Elisha said, “The LORD’s arrow of victory, yes, the arrow of victory over Aram. You are to strike down the Arameans in Aphek until you have put an end to them.”

<sup>18</sup> Then Elisha said, “Take the arrows! ” So he took them. Then Elisha said to the king of Israel, “Strike the ground! ” So he struck the ground three times and stopped. <sup>19</sup> The man of God was angry with him and said, “You should have struck the ground five or six times. Then you would have struck down Aram until you had put an end to them, but now you will only strike down Aram three times.” <sup>20</sup> Then Elisha died and was buried.

Now Moabite raiders used to come into the land in the spring of the year. <sup>21</sup> Once, as the Israelites were burying a man, suddenly they saw a raiding party, so they threw the man into Elisha’s tomb. When he touched Elisha’s bones, the man revived and stood up!

God's Mercy on Israel

<sup>22</sup> Hazael king of Aram oppressed Israel throughout the reign of Jehoahaz, <sup>23</sup> but the LORD was gracious to them, had compassion on them, and turned toward them because of His covenant with Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob. He was not willing to destroy them. Even now He has not banished them from His presence.

<sup>24</sup> King Hazael of Aram died, and his son Ben-hadad became king in his place. <sup>25</sup> Then Jehoash son of Jehoahaz took back from Ben-hadad son of Hazael the cities that Hazael had taken in war from Jehoash's father Jehoahaz. Jehoash defeated Ben-hadad three times and recovered the cities of Israel.

2 KINGS

Judah's King Amaziah

14† In the second year of Israel's King Jehoash<sup>A</sup>, son of Jehoahaz,<sup>B</sup> Amaziah son of Joash became king of Judah.<sup>2†</sup> He was 25 years old when he became king and reigned 29 years in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Jehoaddan and was from Jerusalem.<sup>3†</sup> He did what was right in the LORD's sight, but not like his ancestor David. He did everything his father Joash had done.<sup>4</sup> Yet the •high places were not taken away, and the people continued sacrificing and burning incense on the high places.

<sup>5</sup> As soon as the kingdom was firmly in his grasp, Amaziah killed his servants who had murdered his father the king.<sup>6</sup> However, he did not put the children of the murderers to death, as it is written in the book of the law of Moses where the LORD commanded, "Fathers must not be put to death because of children, and children must not be put to death because of fathers; instead, each one will be put to death for his own sin."

<sup>7†</sup> Amaziah killed 10,000 Edomites in the Valley of Salt. He took Sela in battle and called it Joktheel, which is its name to this very day.<sup>8</sup> Amaziah then sent messengers to Jehoash son of Jehoahaz, son of Jehu, king of Israel, saying, "Come, let us meet face to face."

<sup>9</sup> King Jehoash of Israel sent word to Amaziah king of Judah, saying, "The thistle that was in Lebanon once sent a message to the cedar that was in Lebanon, saying, 'Give your daughter to my son as a wife.' Then a wild animal that was in Lebanon passed by and trampled the thistle."<sup>10</sup> You have indeed defeated Edom, and you have become overconfident. Enjoy your glory and stay at home. Why should you stir up such trouble that you fall — you and Judah with you?"

<sup>11</sup> But Amaziah would not listen, so King Jehoash of Israel advanced. He and King Amaziah of Judah faced off at Beth-shemesh that belongs to Judah.<sup>12</sup> Judah was routed before Israel, and everyone fled to his own tent.<sup>13</sup> King Jehoash of Israel captured Judah's King Amaziah son of Joash,<sup>C</sup> son of Ahaziah, at Beth-shemesh. Then Jehoash went to Jerusalem and broke down 200 yards<sup>D</sup> of Jerusalem's wall from the Ephraim Gate to the Corner Gate.<sup>14</sup> He took all the gold and silver, all the articles found in the LORD's temple and in the treasuries of the king's palace, and some hostages. Then he returned to Samaria.

Jehoash's Death

<sup>15</sup> The rest of the events of Jehoash's reign, along with his accomplishments, his might, and how he waged war against Amaziah king of Judah, are written in the Historical Record of Israel's Kings. <sup>16</sup> Jehoash rested with his fathers, and he was buried in Samaria with the kings of Israel. His son Jeroboam became king in his place.

Amaziah's Death

<sup>17</sup> Judah's King Amaziah son of Joash lived 15 years after the death of Israel's King Jehoash son of Jehoahaz. <sup>18</sup> The rest of the events of Amaziah's reign are written in the Historical Record of Judah's Kings. <sup>19</sup> A conspiracy was formed against him in Jerusalem, and he fled to Lachish. However, men were sent after him to Lachish, and they put him to death there. <sup>20</sup> They carried him back on horses, and he was buried in Jerusalem with his fathers in the city of David.

<sup>21</sup> Then all the people of Judah took Azariah, who was 16 years old, and made him king in place of his father Amaziah. <sup>22</sup> He rebuilt Elath and restored it to Judah after Amaziah the king rested with his fathers.

Israel's King Jeroboam

<sup>23†</sup> In the fifteenth year of Judah's King Amaziah son of Joash, Jeroboam son of Jehoash <sup>E</sup> became king of Israel in Samaria and reigned 41 years. <sup>24</sup> He did what was evil in the LORD's sight. He did not turn away from all the sins Jeroboam son of Nebat had caused Israel to commit.

<sup>25†</sup> He restored Israel's border from Lebo-hamath as far as the Sea of the •Arabah, according to the word the LORD, the God of Israel, had spoken through His servant, the prophet Jonah son of Amittai from Gath-hepher.

<sup>26</sup> For the LORD saw that the affliction of Israel was very bitter. There was no one to help Israel, neither bond nor free.<sup>27</sup> However, the LORD had not said He would blot out the name of Israel under heaven, so He delivered them by the hand of Jeroboam son of Jehoash.<sup>F</sup>

<sup>28</sup> The rest of the events of Jeroboam's reign — along with all his accomplishments, the power he had to wage war, and how he recovered for Israel Damascus and Hamath, which had belonged to Judah<sup>G</sup> — are written in the Historical Record of Israel's Kings.<sup>29</sup> Jeroboam rested with his fathers, the kings of Israel. His son Zechariah became king in his place.

2 KINGS

Judah's King Azariah

15 †In the twenty-seventh year of Israel's King Jeroboam, Azariah son of Amaziah became king of Judah. <sup>2†</sup> He was 16 years old when he became king and reigned 52 years in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Jecoliah, who was from Jerusalem. <sup>3</sup> Azariah did what was right in the LORD's sight just as his father Amaziah had done. <sup>4</sup> Yet the •high places were not taken away; the people continued sacrificing and burning incense on the high places.

<sup>5†</sup> The LORD afflicted the king, and he had a serious skin disease until the day of his death. He lived in a separate house, <sup>A</sup> while Jotham, the king's son, was over the household governing the people of the land.

Israel's King Zechariah

<sup>8†</sup> In the thirty-eighth year of Judah's King Azariah, Zechariah son of Jeroboam became king over Israel in Samaria for six months. <sup>9</sup> He did what was evil in the LORD's sight as his fathers had done. He did not turn away from the sins Jeroboam son of Nebat had caused Israel to commit.

<sup>10</sup> Shallum son of Jabesh conspired against Zechariah. He struck him down publicly, killed him, and became king in his place. <sup>11</sup> As for the rest of the events of Zechariah's reign, they are written in the Historical Record of Israel's Kings. <sup>12</sup> The word of the LORD that He spoke to Jehu was, "Four generations of your sons will sit on the throne of Israel," and it was so.

Israel's King Shallum

<sup>13†</sup> In the thirty-ninth year of Judah's King Uzziah, Shallum son of Jabesh became king; he reigned in Samaria a full month. <sup>14</sup> Then Menahem son of Gadi came up from Tirzah to Samaria and struck down Shallum son of Jabesh there. He killed him and became king in his place. <sup>15</sup> As for the rest of the events of Shallum's reign, along with the conspiracy that he formed, they are written in the Historical Record of Israel's Kings.

Israel's King Menahem

<sup>16</sup> At that time, starting from Tirzah, Menahem attacked Tiphsah, all who were in it, and its territory. Because they wouldn't surrender, he attacked it and ripped open all the pregnant women.

<sup>17†</sup> In the thirty-ninth year of Judah's King Azariah, Menahem son of Gadi became king over Israel and reigned 10 years in Samaria. <sup>18</sup> He did what was evil in the LORD's sight. Throughout his reign, he did not turn away from the sins Jeroboam son of Nebat had caused Israel to commit.

Israel's King Pekahiah

<sup>23†</sup> In the fiftieth year of Judah's King Azariah, Pekahiah son of Menahem became king over Israel in Samaria and reigned two years. <sup>24</sup> He did what was evil in the LORD's sight and did not turn away from the sins Jeroboam son of Nebat had caused Israel to commit.

<sup>25†</sup> Then his officer, Pekah son of Remaliah, conspired against him and struck him down in Samaria at the citadel of the king's palace — as well as Argob and Arieh. <sup>D</sup> There were 50 Gileadite men with Pekah. He killed Pekahiah and became king in his place.

<sup>26</sup> As for the rest of the events of Pekahiah's reign, along with all his accomplishments, they are written in the Historical Record of Israel's Kings.

Israel's King Pekah

<sup>27†</sup> In the fifty-second year of Judah's King Azariah, Pekah son of Remaliah became king over Israel in Samaria and reigned 20 years. <sup>28</sup> He did what was evil in the LORD's sight. He did not turn away from the sins Jeroboam son of Nebat had caused Israel to commit.

<sup>29†</sup> In the days of Pekah king of Israel, Tiglath-pileser king of Assyria came and captured Ijon, Abel-beth-maacah, Janoah, Kedesh, Hazor, Gilead, and Galilee — all the land of Naphtali — and deported the people to Assyria.

<sup>30†</sup> Then Hoshea son of Elah organized a conspiracy against Pekah son of Remaliah. He attacked him, killed him, and became king in his place in the twentieth year of Jotham son of Uzziah.

<sup>31</sup> As for the rest of the events of Pekah's reign, along with all his accomplishments, they are written in the Historical Record of Israel's Kings.

Judah's King Jotham

<sup>32†</sup> In the second year of Israel's King Pekah son of Remaliah, Jotham son of Uzziah became king of Judah. <sup>33†</sup> He was 25 years old when he became king and reigned 16 years in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Jerusha daughter of Zadok. <sup>34</sup> He did what was right in the LORD's sight just as his father Uzziah had done. <sup>35†</sup> Yet the high places were not taken away; the people continued sacrificing and burning incense on the high places.

Jotham built the Upper Gate of the LORD's temple. <sup>36</sup> The rest of the events of Jotham's reign, along with all his accomplishments, they are written in the Historical Record of Judah's Kings. <sup>37†</sup> In those days the LORD began sending Rezin king of Aram and Pekah son of Remaliah against Judah. <sup>38</sup> Jotham rested with his fathers and was buried with his fathers in the city of his ancestor David. His son Ahaz became king in his place.

2 KINGS

Judah's King Ahaz

16 †In the seventeenth year of Pekah son of Remaliah, Ahaz son of Jotham became king of Judah. <sup>2†</sup> Ahaz was 20 years old when he became king and reigned 16 years in Jerusalem. He did not do what was right in the sight of the LORD his God like his ancestor David <sup>3†</sup> but walked in the way of the kings of Israel. He even made his son pass through the fire, imitating the detestable practices of the nations the LORD had dispossessed before the Israelites. <sup>4†</sup> He sacrificed and burned incense on the •high places, on the hills, and under every green tree.

<sup>5†</sup> Then Aram's King Rezin and Israel's King Pekah son of Remaliah came to wage war against Jerusalem. They besieged Ahaz but were not able to conquer him. <sup>6</sup> At that time Rezin king of Aram recovered Elath for Aram and expelled the Judahites from Elath. Then the Arameans came to Elath, and they live there until today.

<sup>7†</sup> So Ahaz sent messengers to Tiglath-pileser king of Assyria, saying, "I am your servant and your son. March up and save me from the power of the king of Aram and of the king of Israel, who are rising up against me." <sup>8</sup> Ahaz also took the silver and gold found in the LORD's temple and in the treasuries of the king's palace and sent them to the king of Assyria as a gift. <sup>9†</sup> So the king of Assyria listened to him and marched up to Damascus and captured it. He deported its people to Kir but put Rezin to death.

Ahaz's Idolatry

<sup>10†</sup> King Ahaz went to Damascus to meet Tiglath-pileser king of Assyria. When he saw the altar that was in Damascus, King Ahaz sent a model of the altar and complete plans for its construction to Uriah the priest. <sup>11</sup> Uriah built the altar according to all the instructions King Ahaz sent from Damascus. Therefore, by the time King Ahaz came back from Damascus, Uriah the priest had completed it. <sup>12†</sup> When the king came back from Damascus, he saw the altar. Then he approached the altar and ascended it. <sup>13</sup> He offered his •burnt offering and his •grain offering, poured out his drink offering, and sprinkled the blood of his •fellowship offerings on the altar. <sup>14</sup> He took the bronze altar that was before the LORD in front of the temple between his altar and the LORD's temple, and put it on the north side of his altar.

<sup>15</sup> Then King Ahaz commanded Uriah the priest, "Offer on the great altar the morning burnt offering, the evening grain offering, and the king's burnt offering and his grain offering. Also offer the burnt offering of all the people of the land, their grain offering, and their drink offerings. Sprinkle on the altar all the blood of the burnt offering and all the blood of sacrifice. The bronze altar will be for me to seek guidance." <sup>A</sup> <sup>16</sup> Uriah the priest did everything King Ahaz commanded.

Ahaz's Death

<sup>20</sup> Ahaz rested with his fathers and was buried with his fathers in the city of David, and his son Hezekiah became king in his place.

2 KINGS

Israel's King Hoshea

17 † In the twelfth year of Judah's King Ahaz, Hoshea son of Elah became king over Israel in Samaria and reigned nine years. <sup>2</sup> He did what was evil in the LORD's sight, but not like the kings of Israel who preceded him.

<sup>3</sup> Shalmaneser king of Assyria attacked him, and Hoshea became his vassal and paid him tribute money. <sup>4†</sup> But the king of Assyria discovered Hoshea's conspiracy. He had sent envoys to So king of Egypt and had not paid tribute money to the king of Assyria as in previous years. <sup>A</sup> Therefore the king of Assyria arrested him and put him in prison. <sup>5</sup> Then the king of Assyria invaded the whole land, marched up to Samaria, and besieged it for three years.

The Fall of Samaria

<sup>6</sup> In the ninth year of Hoshea, the king of Assyria captured Samaria. He deported the Israelites to Assyria and settled them in Halah and by the Habor, Gozan's river, and in the cities of the Medes.

Why Israel Fell

<sup>7†</sup> This disaster happened because the people of Israel had sinned against the LORD their God who had brought them out of the land of Egypt from the power of Pharaoh king of Egypt and because they had worshiped <sup>B</sup> other gods. <sup>8</sup> They had lived according to the customs of the nations that the LORD had dispossessed before the Israelites and the customs the kings of Israel had introduced. <sup>9</sup> The Israelites secretly did what was not right <sup>C</sup> against the LORD their God. They built •high places in all their towns from watchtower to fortified city. <sup>10</sup> They set up for themselves sacred pillars and •Asherah poles on every high hill and under every green tree. <sup>11</sup> They burned incense on all the high places just like those nations that the LORD had driven out before them. They did evil things, provoking the LORD. <sup>12</sup> They served idols, although the LORD had told them, "You must not do this." <sup>13</sup> Still, the LORD warned Israel and Judah through every prophet and every seer, saying, "Turn from your evil ways and keep My commands and statutes according to all the law I commanded your ancestors and sent to you through My servants the prophets.”

<sup>14</sup> But they would not listen. Instead they became obstinate like <sup>D</sup> their ancestors who did not believe the LORD their God. <sup>15</sup> They rejected His statutes and His covenant He had made with their ancestors and the decrees He had given them. They pursued worthless idols and became worthless themselves, following the surrounding nations the LORD had commanded them not to imitate.

<sup>16</sup> They abandoned all the commands of the LORD their God. They made cast images for themselves, two calves, and an Asherah pole. They worshiped the whole heavenly •host and served •Baal. <sup>17</sup> They made their sons and daughters pass through the fire and practiced •divination and interpreted omens. They devoted themselves to do what was evil in the LORD's sight and provoked Him.

<sup>18</sup> Therefore, the LORD was very angry with Israel, and He removed them from His presence. Only the tribe of Judah remained. <sup>19</sup> Even Judah did not keep the commands of the LORD their God but lived according to the customs Israel had introduced. <sup>20</sup> So the LORD rejected all the descendants of Israel, afflicted them, and handed them over to plunderers until He had banished them from His presence.

Summary of Israel's History

<sup>21</sup> When the LORD tore Israel from the house of David, Israel made Jeroboam son of Nebat king. Then Jeroboam led Israel away from following the LORD and caused them to commit great sin. <sup>22</sup> The Israelites persisted in all the sins that Jeroboam committed and did not turn away from them. <sup>23</sup> Finally, the LORD removed Israel from His presence just as He had declared through all His servants the prophets. So Israel has been exiled to Assyria from their homeland until today.

Foreign Refugees in Israel

<sup>24</sup> Then the king of Assyria brought people from Babylon, Cuthah, Avva, Hamath, and Sepharvaim and settled them in place of the Israelites in the cities of Samaria. The settlers took possession of Samaria and lived in its cities. <sup>25</sup> When they first lived there, they did not •fear •Yahweh. So the LORD sent lions among them, which killed some of them. <sup>26</sup> The settlers spoke to the king of Assyria, saying, “The nations that you have deported and placed in the cities of Samaria do not know the requirements of the God of the land. Therefore He has sent lions among them that are killing them because the people don’t know the requirements of the God of the land.”

<sup>27</sup> Then the king of Assyria issued a command: “Send back one of the priests you deported. Have him go and live there so he can teach them the requirements of the God of the land.” <sup>28</sup> So one of the priests they had deported came and lived in Bethel, and he began to teach them how they should fear Yahweh.

<sup>29</sup> But the people of each nation were still making their own gods in the cities where they lived and putting them in the shrines of the high places that the people of Samaria had made. <sup>30</sup> The men of Babylon made Succoth-benoth, the men of Cuth made Nergal, the men of Hamath made Ashima, <sup>31</sup> the Avvites made Nibhaz and Tartak, and the Sepharvites burned their children in the fire to Adrammelech and Anammelech, the gods of the Sepharvaim. <sup>32</sup> They feared the LORD, but they also appointed from their number priests to serve them in the shrines of the high places. <sup>33</sup> They feared the LORD, but they also worshiped their own gods according to the custom of the nations where they had been deported from.

<sup>34</sup> They are still practicing the former customs to this day. None of them fear the LORD or observe their statutes and ordinances, the law and commandments the LORD commanded the descendants of Jacob. He had renamed him Israel. <sup>35</sup> The LORD made a covenant with them and commanded them, “Do not fear other gods; do not bow down to them; do not serve them; do not sacrifice to them. <sup>36</sup> Instead fear the LORD, who brought you from the land of Egypt with great power and an outstretched arm. You are to bow down to Him, and you are to sacrifice to Him. <sup>37</sup> You are to be careful always to observe the statutes, the ordinances, the law, and the commandments He wrote for you; do not fear other gods. <sup>38</sup> Do not forget the covenant that I have made with you. Do not fear other gods, <sup>39</sup> but fear the LORD your God, and He will deliver you from the hand of all your enemies.”

2 KINGS

Judah's King Hezekiah

18 †In the third year of Israel's King Hoshea son of Elah, Hezekiah son of Ahaz became king of Judah. <sup>2†</sup> He was 25 years old when he became king and reigned 29 years in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Abi daughter of Zechariah. <sup>3†</sup> He did what was right in the LORD's sight just as his ancestor David had done. <sup>4†</sup> He removed the •high places, shattered the sacred pillars, and cut down the •Asherah poles. He broke into pieces the bronze snake that Moses made, for the Israelites burned incense to it up to that time. He called it Nehushtan.

<sup>5</sup> Hezekiah trusted in the LORD God of Israel; not one of the kings of Judah was like him, either before him or after him. <sup>6</sup> He remained faithful to •Yahweh and did not turn from following Him but kept the commands the LORD had commanded Moses.

<sup>7</sup> The LORD was with him, and wherever he went he prospered. He rebelled against the king of Assyria and did not serve him. <sup>8</sup> He defeated the Philistines as far as Gaza and its borders, from watchtower to fortified city.

Review of Israel's Fall

<sup>9</sup> In the fourth year of King Hezekiah, which was the seventh year of Israel's King Hoshea son of Elah, Shalmaneser king of Assyria marched against Samaria and besieged it. <sup>10†</sup> The Assyrians captured it at the end of three years. In the sixth year of Hezekiah, which was the ninth year of Israel's King Hoshea, Samaria was captured. <sup>11</sup> The king of Assyria deported the Israelites to Assyria and put them in Halah and by the Habor, Gozan's river, and in the cities of the Medes, <sup>12</sup> because they did not listen to the voice of the LORD their God but violated His covenant — all He had commanded Moses the servant of the LORD. They did not listen, and they did not obey.

Sennacherib's Invasion

king of Judah sent word to the king of Assyria at Lachish, saying, “I have done wrong; withdraw from me. Whatever you demand from me, I will pay.” The king of Assyria demanded 11 tons <sup>A</sup> of silver and one ton <sup>B</sup> of gold from King Hezekiah of Judah. <sup>15</sup> So Hezekiah gave him all the silver found in the LORD’s temple and in the treasuries of the king’s palace.

<sup>16</sup> At that time Hezekiah stripped the gold from the doors of the LORD’s sanctuary and from the doorposts he had overlaid and gave it to the king of Assyria.

<sup>17†</sup> Then the king of Assyria sent the Tartan, the Rab-saris, and the •Rabshakeh, along with a massive army, from Lachish to King Hezekiah at Jerusalem. They advanced and came to Jerusalem, and they took their position by the aqueduct of the upper pool, which is by the highway to the Fuller’s Field. <sup>18</sup> Then they called for the king, but Eliakim son of Hilkiyah, who was in charge of the palace, Shebna the court secretary, and Joah son of Asaph, the court historian, came out to them.

The Rabshakeh’s Speech

<sup>19</sup> Then the Rabshakeh said to them, “Tell Hezekiah this is what the great king, the king of Assyria, says: ‘What are you relying on? <sup>C</sup> <sup>20</sup> You think mere words are strategy and strength for war. What are you now relying on so that you have rebelled against me? <sup>21</sup> Look, you are now trusting in Egypt, that splintered reed of a staff that will enter and pierce the hand of anyone who leans on it. This is how Pharaoh king of Egypt is to all who trust in him. <sup>22</sup> Suppose you say to me: We trust in the LORD our God. Isn’t He the One whose high places and altars Hezekiah has removed, saying to Judah and to Jerusalem: You must worship at this altar in Jerusalem?’

<sup>23</sup> “So now make a bargain with my master the king of Assyria. I’ll give you 2,000 horses if you’re able to supply riders for them! <sup>24</sup> How then can you drive back a single officer among the least of my master’s servants and trust in Egypt for chariots and for horsemen? <sup>25</sup> Have I attacked this place to destroy it without the LORD's approval? The LORD said to me, 'Attack this land and destroy it.' "

<sup>26†</sup> Then Eliakim son of Hilkiyah, Shebna, and Joah said to the Rabshakeh, "Please speak to your servants in Aramaic, since we understand it. Don't speak with us in Hebrew <sup>D</sup> within earshot of the people on the wall."

<sup>27</sup> But the Rabshakeh said to them, "Has my master sent me only to your master and to you to speak these words? Hasn't he also sent me to the men who sit on the wall, destined with you to eat their own excrement and drink their own urine? "

<sup>31</sup> "Don't listen to Hezekiah, for this is what the king of Assyria says: 'Make peace <sup>F</sup> with me and surrender to me. Then every one of you may eat from his own vine and his own fig tree, and every one may drink water from his own cistern <sup>32</sup> until I come and take you away to a land like your own land — a land of grain and new wine, a land of bread and vineyards, a land of olive trees and honey — so that you may live and not die. But don't listen to Hezekiah when he misleads you, saying: The LORD will deliver us. <sup>33</sup> Has any of the gods of the nations ever delivered his land from the power of the king of Assyria? <sup>34</sup> Where are the gods of Hamath and Arpad? Where are the gods of Sepharvaim, Hena, and Ivvah? Have they delivered Samaria from my hand? <sup>35</sup> Who among all the gods of the lands has delivered his land from my power? So will the LORD deliver Jerusalem? ' "

<sup>36</sup> But the people kept silent; they didn't say anything, for the king's command was, "Don't answer him." <sup>37</sup> Then Eliakim son of Hilkiyah, who was in charge of the palace, Shebna the court secretary, and Joah son of Asaph, the court historian, came to Hezekiah with their clothes torn and reported to him the words of the Rabshakeh.

2 KINGS

Hezekiah Seeks Isaiah's Counsel

19 When King Hezekiah heard their report, he tore his clothes, covered himself with •sackcloth, and went into the LORD's temple. <sup>2</sup> Then he sent Eliakim, who was in charge of the palace, Shebna the court secretary, and the leading priests, who were wearing sackcloth, to the prophet Isaiah son of Amoz. <sup>3</sup> They said to him, "This is what Hezekiah says: 'Today is a day of distress, rebuke, and disgrace, for children have come to the point of birth, but there is no strength to deliver them. <sup>4</sup> Perhaps •Yahweh your God will hear all the words of the •Rabshakeh, whom his master the king of Assyria sent to mock the living God, and will rebuke him for the words that Yahweh your God has heard. Therefore, offer a prayer for the surviving remnant.' "

<sup>5</sup> So the servants of King Hezekiah went to Isaiah, <sup>6</sup> who said to them, "Tell your master this, 'The LORD says: Don't be afraid because of the words you have heard, that the king of Assyria's attendants have blasphemed Me with. <sup>7</sup> I am about to put a spirit in him, and he will hear a rumor and return to his own land where I will cause him to fall by the sword.' "

Sennacherib's Departing Threat

<sup>8</sup> When the Rabshakeh heard that the king of Assyria had left Lachish, he returned and found him fighting against Libnah. <sup>9</sup> The king had heard this about Tirhakah king of •Cush: "Look, he has set out to fight against you." So he again sent messengers to Hezekiah, saying, <sup>10</sup> "Say this to Hezekiah king of Judah: 'Don't let your God, whom you trust, deceive you by promising that Jerusalem will not be handed over to the king of Assyria. <sup>11</sup> Look, you have heard what the kings of Assyria have done to all the countries: they •completely destroyed them. Will you be rescued? <sup>12</sup> Did the gods of the nations that my predecessors destroyed rescue them — nations such as Gozan, Haran, Rezeph, and the Edenites in Telassar? <sup>13</sup> Where is the king of Hamath, the king of Arpad, the king of the city of Sepharvaim, Hena, or Ivvah? ' "

Hezekiah's Prayer

<sup>14</sup> Hezekiah took the letter from the hand of the messengers, read it, then went up to the LORD's temple, and spread it out before the LORD.

<sup>15</sup> Then Hezekiah prayed before the LORD:

LORD God of Israel who is enthroned above the •cherubim, You are God — You alone — of all the kingdoms of the earth. You made the heavens and the earth. <sup>16</sup> Listen closely, LORD, and hear; open Your eyes, LORD, and see. Hear the words that Sennacherib has sent to mock the living God. <sup>17</sup> LORD, it is true that the kings of Assyria have devastated the nations and their lands. <sup>18</sup> They have thrown their gods into the fire, for they were not gods but made by human hands — wood and stone. So they have destroyed them. <sup>19</sup> Now, LORD our God, please save us from his hand so that all the kingdoms of the earth may know that You are the LORD God — You alone.

God's Answer through Isaiah

<sup>20</sup> Then Isaiah son of Amoz sent a message to Hezekiah: “The LORD, the God of Israel says: ‘I have heard your prayer to Me about Sennacherib king of Assyria.’ <sup>21</sup> This is the word the LORD has spoken against him:

Virgin Daughter •Zion

despises you and scorns you:

Daughter Jerusalem

shakes her head behind your back. <sup>A</sup>,

<sup>22</sup> Who is it you mocked and blasphemed?

Against whom have you raised your voice and lifted your eyes in pride?

Against the Holy One of Israel!

<sup>23</sup> You have mocked the Lord through <sup>B</sup> your messengers.

You have said:

With my many chariots

I have gone up to the heights of the mountains, to the far recesses of Lebanon.

I cut down its tallest cedars, its choice cypress trees.

I came to its farthest outpost, its densest forest.

<sup>24†</sup> I dug wells, and I drank foreign waters.
I dried up all the streams of Egypt with the soles of my feet.

<sup>25</sup> Have you not heard?
I designed it long ago;
I planned it in days gone by.
I have now brought it to pass, and you have crushed fortified cities into piles of rubble.

<sup>26</sup> Their inhabitants have become powerless, dismayed, and ashamed.
They are plants of the field,
tender grass,
grass on the rooftops,
blasted by the east wind.

<sup>27</sup> But I know your sitting down, your going out and your coming in,
and your raging against Me.

<sup>28†</sup> Because your raging against Me and your arrogance have reached My ears,
I will put My hook in your nose and My bit in your mouth;
I will make you go back
the way you came.

<sup>29</sup> “This will be the sign for you: This year you will eat what grows on its own, and in the second year what grows from that. But in the third year sow and reap, plant vineyards and eat their fruit. <sup>30</sup> The surviving remnant of the house of Israel will again take root downward and bear fruit upward.

<sup>31</sup> For a remnant will go out from Jerusalem and survivors, from Mount Zion. The zeal of the LORD of •Hosts will accomplish this.

<sup>32</sup> Therefore, this is what the LORD says about the king of Assyria:
He will not enter this city or shoot an arrow there or come before it with a shield or build up an assault ramp against it.

<sup>33</sup> He will go back on the road that he came and he will not enter this city.

This is the LORD's declaration.

<sup>34</sup> I will defend this city and rescue it for My sake and for the sake of My servant David.”

Defeat and Death of Sennacherib

<sup>35</sup> That night the angel of the LORD went out and struck down 185,000 in the camp of the Assyrians. When the people got up the next morning — there were all the dead bodies! <sup>36</sup> So Sennacherib king of Assyria broke camp and left. He returned home and lived in Nineveh.

<sup>37</sup> One day, while he was worshiping in the temple of his god Nisroch, his sons Adrammelech and Sharezer struck him down with the sword and escaped to the land of Ararat. Then his son Esar-haddon became king in his place.

2 KINGS

Hezekiah's Illness and Recovery

20 † In those days Hezekiah became terminally ill. The prophet Isaiah son of Amoz came and said to him, “This is what the LORD says: ‘Put your affairs in order, <sup>A</sup> for you are about to die; you will not recover.’ ”

<sup>3</sup> “Please LORD, remember how I have walked before You faithfully and wholeheartedly and have done what pleases You.” <sup>B</sup> And Hezekiah wept bitterly.

<sup>4</sup> Isaiah had not yet gone out of the inner courtyard when the word of the LORD came to him: <sup>5</sup> “Go back and tell Hezekiah, the leader of My people, ‘This is what the LORD God of your ancestor David says: I have heard your prayer; I have seen your tears. Look, I will heal you. On the third day from now you will go up to the LORD’s temple. <sup>6</sup> I will add 15 years to your life. I will deliver you and this city from the hand of the king of Assyria. I will defend this city for My sake and for the sake of My servant David.’ ”

<sup>7</sup> Then Isaiah said, “Bring a lump of pressed figs.” So they brought it and applied it to his infected skin, and he recovered.

<sup>8</sup> Hezekiah had asked Isaiah, “What is the sign that the LORD will heal me and that I will go up to the LORD’s temple on the third day? ”

<sup>9†</sup> Isaiah said, “This is the sign to you from the LORD that He will do what He has promised: Should the shadow go ahead 10 steps or go back 10 steps? ”

<sup>10</sup> Then Hezekiah answered, “It’s easy for the shadow to lengthen 10 steps. No, let the shadow go back 10 steps.” <sup>11</sup> So Isaiah the prophet called out to the LORD, and He brought the shadow <sup>C</sup> back the 10 steps it had descended on Ahaz’s stairway.

Hezekiah’s Folly

<sup>12†</sup> At that time Merodach-baladan son of Baladan, king of Babylon, sent letters and a gift to Hezekiah since he heard that he had been sick.

<sup>13</sup> Hezekiah gave them a hearing and showed them his whole treasure house — the silver, the gold, the spices, and the precious oil — and his armory, and everything that was found in his treasuries. There was nothing in his palace and in all his realm that Hezekiah did not show them.

<sup>14</sup> Then the prophet Isaiah came to King Hezekiah and asked him, “Where did these men come from and what did they say to you?”

Hezekiah replied, “They came from a distant country, from Babylon.”

Hezekiah answered, “They have seen everything in my palace. There isn’t anything in my treasuries that I didn’t show them.”

<sup>16</sup> Then Isaiah said to Hezekiah, “Hear the word of the LORD: <sup>17</sup> ‘The time will certainly come when everything in your palace and all that your fathers have stored up until this day will be carried off to Babylon; nothing will be left,’ says the LORD. <sup>18</sup> ‘Some of your descendants who come from you will be taken away, and they will become eunuchs <sup>D</sup> in the palace of the king of Babylon.’ ”

<sup>19</sup> Then Hezekiah said to Isaiah, “The word of the LORD that you have spoken is good,” for he thought: Why not, if there will be peace and security during my lifetime?

Hezekiah’s Death

<sup>20</sup> The rest of the events of Hezekiah’s reign, along with all his might and how he made the pool and the tunnel and brought water into the city, are written in the Historical Record of Judah’s Kings. <sup>21</sup> Hezekiah rested with his fathers, and his son Manasseh became king in his place.

2 KINGS

Judah's King Manasseh

21 †Manasseh was 12 years old when he became king and reigned 55 years in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Hephzibah. <sup>2</sup> He did what was evil in the LORD's sight, imitating the detestable practices of the nations that the LORD had dispossessed before the Israelites. <sup>3†</sup> He rebuilt the •high places that his father Hezekiah had destroyed and reestablished the altars for •Baal. He made an •Asherah, as King Ahab of Israel had done; he also worshiped the whole heavenly •host and served them. <sup>4</sup> He built altars in the LORD's temple, where the LORD had said, "Jerusalem is where I will put My name." <sup>5†</sup> He built altars to the whole heavenly host in both courtyards of the LORD's temple. <sup>6†</sup> He made his son pass through the fire, practiced witchcraft and •divination, and consulted mediums and spiritists. He did a great amount of evil in the LORD's sight, provoking Him.

<sup>7</sup> Manasseh set up the carved image of Asherah, which he made, in the temple that the LORD had spoken about to David and his son Solomon, "I will establish My name forever in this temple and in Jerusalem, which I have chosen out of all the tribes of Israel. <sup>8</sup> I will never again cause the feet of the Israelites to wander from the land I gave to their ancestors if only they will be careful to do all I have commanded them — the whole law that My servant Moses commanded them." <sup>9</sup> But they did not listen; Manasseh caused them to stray so that they did greater evil than the nations the LORD had destroyed before the Israelites.

<sup>10</sup> The LORD spoke through His servants the prophets, saying, <sup>11</sup> "Since Manasseh king of Judah has committed all these detestable things — greater evil than the Amorites who preceded him had done — and by means of his idols has also caused Judah to sin, <sup>12</sup> this is what the LORD God of Israel says: 'I am about to bring such disaster on Jerusalem and Judah that everyone who hears about it will shudder. <sup>13†</sup> I will stretch over Jerusalem the measuring line used on Samaria and the mason's level used on the house of Ahab, and I will wipe Jerusalem •clean as one wipes a bowl — wiping it and turning it upside down. <sup>14</sup> I will abandon the remnant of My inheritance and hand them over to their enemies. They will become plunder and spoil to all their enemies, <sup>15</sup> because they have done what is evil in My sight and have provoked Me from the day their ancestors came out of Egypt until today.’ ”

<sup>16†</sup> Manasseh also shed so much innocent blood that he filled Jerusalem with it from one end to another. This was in addition to his sin that he caused Judah to commit. Consequently, they did what was evil in the LORD’s sight.

Manasseh’s Death

<sup>17†</sup> The rest of the events of Manasseh’s reign, along with all his accomplishments and the sin that he committed, are written in the Historical Record of Judah’s Kings. <sup>18</sup> Manasseh rested with his fathers and was buried in the garden of his own house, the garden of Uzza. His son Amon became king in his place.

Judah’s King Amon

<sup>19†</sup> Amon was 22 years old when he became king and reigned two years in Jerusalem. His mother’s name was Meshullemeth daughter of Haruz; she was from Jotbah. <sup>20</sup> He did what was evil in the LORD’s sight as his father Manasseh had done. <sup>21</sup> He walked in all the ways his father had walked; he served the idols his father had served, and he worshiped them. <sup>22</sup> He abandoned the LORD God of his ancestors and did not walk in the way of the LORD.

<sup>25</sup> The rest of the events of Amon’s reign, along with his accomplishments, are written in the Historical Record of Judah’s Kings. <sup>26</sup> He was buried in his tomb in the garden of Uzza, and his son Josiah became king in his place.

2 KINGS

Judah's King Josiah

22 †Josiah was eight years old when he became king and reigned 31 years in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Jedidah the daughter of Adaiah; she was from Bozkath. <sup>2†</sup> He did what was right in the LORD's sight and walked in all the ways of his ancestor David; he did not turn to the right or the left.

Josiah Repairs the Temple

<sup>3</sup> In the eighteenth year of King Josiah, the king sent the court secretary Shaphan son of Azaliah, son of Meshullam, to the LORD's temple, saying, <sup>4</sup> "Go up to Hilkiah the high priest so that he may total up the money brought into the LORD's temple — the money the doorkeepers have collected from the people. <sup>5</sup> It is to be put into the hands of those doing the work — those who oversee the LORD's temple. They in turn are to give it to the workmen in the LORD's temple to repair the damage. <sup>6</sup> They are to give it to the carpenters, builders, and masons to buy timber and quarried stone to repair the temple. <sup>7</sup> But no accounting is to be required from them for the money put into their hands since they work with integrity."

The Book of the Law Found

<sup>8†</sup> Hilkiyah the high priest told Shaphan the court secretary, “I have found the book of the law in the LORD’s temple,” and he gave the book to Shaphan, who read it.

<sup>9</sup> Then Shaphan the court secretary went to the king and reported, <sup>A</sup> “Your servants have emptied out the money that was found in the temple and have put it into the hand of those doing the work — those who oversee the LORD’s temple.” <sup>10</sup> Then Shaphan the court secretary told the king, “Hilkiyah the priest has given me a book,” and Shaphan read it in the presence of the king.

<sup>11</sup> When the king heard the words of the book of the law, he tore his clothes. <sup>12</sup> Then he commanded Hilkiyah the priest, Ahikam son of Shaphan, Achbor son of Micaiah, Shaphan the court secretary, and the king’s servant Asaiah: <sup>13</sup> “Go and inquire of the LORD for me, the people, and all Judah about the instruction in this book that has been found. For great is the LORD’s wrath that is kindled against us because our ancestors have not obeyed the words of this book in order to do everything written about us.”

Huldah’s Prophecy of Judgment

<sup>14</sup> So Hilkiyah the priest, Ahikam, Achbor, Shaphan, and Asaiah went to the prophetess Huldah, wife of Shallum son of Tikvah, son of Harhas, keeper of the wardrobe. She lived in Jerusalem in the Second District. They spoke with her.

<sup>15</sup> She said to them, “This is what the LORD God of Israel says, ‘Say to the man who sent you to Me: <sup>16</sup> This is what the LORD says: I am about to bring disaster on this place and on its inhabitants, fulfilling all the words of the book that the king of Judah has read, <sup>17</sup> because they have abandoned Me and burned incense to other gods in order to provoke Me with all the work of their hands. My wrath will be kindled against this place, and it will not be quenched. <sup>18</sup> Say this to the king of Judah who sent you to inquire of the LORD: This is what the LORD God of Israel says: As for the words that you heard, <sup>19</sup> because your heart was tender and you humbled yourself before the LORD when you heard what I spoke against this place and against its inhabitants, that they would become a desolation and a curse, and because you have torn your clothes and wept before Me, I Myself have heard you — this is the LORD's declaration — <sup>20†</sup> therefore, I will indeed gather you to your fathers, and you will be gathered to your grave in peace. Your eyes will not see all the disaster that I am bringing on this place.' ”

Then they reported <sup>B</sup> to the king.

2 KINGS

Covenant Renewal

23 So the king sent messengers, and they gathered all the elders of Jerusalem and Judah to him. <sup>2</sup> Then the king went to the LORD's temple with all the men of Judah and all the inhabitants of Jerusalem, as well as the priests and the prophets — all the people from the youngest to the oldest. As they listened, he read all the words of the book of the covenant that had been found in the LORD's temple. <sup>3</sup> Next, the king stood by the pillar <sup>A</sup>, and made a covenant in the presence of the LORD to follow the LORD and to keep His commands, His decrees, and His statutes with all his mind and with all his heart, and to carry out the words of this covenant that were written in this book; all the people agreed to <sup>B</sup> the covenant.

Josiah's Reforms

<sup>4</sup> Then the king commanded Hilkiah the high priest and the priests of the second rank and the doorkeepers to bring out of the LORD's temple all the articles made for •Baal, •Asherah, and the whole heavenly •host. He burned them outside Jerusalem in the fields of the Kidron and carried their ashes to Bethel. <sup>5</sup> Then he did away with the idolatrous priests the kings of Judah had appointed to burn incense at the •high places in the cities of Judah and in the areas surrounding Jerusalem. They had burned incense to Baal, and to the sun, moon, constellations, and the whole heavenly host. <sup>6</sup> He brought out the Asherah pole from the LORD's temple to the Kidron Valley outside Jerusalem. He burned it at the Kidron Valley, beat it to dust, and threw its dust on the graves of the common people. <sup>C</sup>, <sup>7†</sup> He also tore down the houses of the male cult prostitutes that were in the LORD's temple, in which the women were weaving tapestries <sup>D</sup> for Asherah.

<sup>8†</sup> Then Josiah brought all the priests from the cities of Judah, and he defiled the high places from Geba to Beer-sheba, where the priests had burned incense. He tore down the high places of the gates at the entrance of the gate of Joshua the governor of the city (on the left at the city gate).

<sup>9†</sup> The priests of the high places, however, did not come up to the altar of the LORD in Jerusalem; instead, they ate unleavened bread with their fellow priests.

<sup>10</sup> He defiled •Topheth, which is in the Valley of Hinnom, so that no one could make his son or daughter pass through the fire to •Molech. <sup>11</sup> He did away with the horses that the kings of Judah had dedicated to the sun. They had been at the entrance of the LORD's temple in the precincts by the chamber of Nathan-melech the court official, and he burned up the chariots of the sun.

<sup>12†</sup> The king tore down the altars that were on the roof — Ahaz's upper chamber that the kings of Judah had made — and the altars that Manasseh had made in the two courtyards of the LORD's temple. Then he smashed them there and threw their dust into the Kidron Valley. <sup>13†</sup> The king also defiled the high places that were across from Jerusalem, to the south of the Mount of Destruction, which King Solomon of Israel had built for •Ashtoreth, the detestable idol of the Sidonians; for Chemosh, the detestable idol of Moab; and for •Milcom, the abomination of the Ammonites. <sup>14</sup> He broke the sacred pillars into pieces, cut down the Asherah poles, then filled their places with human bones.

<sup>15†</sup> He even tore down the altar at Bethel and the high place that Jeroboam son of Nebat, who caused Israel to sin, had made. Then he burned the high place, crushed it to dust, and burned the Asherah. <sup>16</sup> As Josiah turned, he saw the tombs there on the mountain. He sent someone to take the bones out of the tombs, and he burned them on the altar. He defiled it according to the word of the LORD proclaimed by the man of God who proclaimed these things. <sup>17</sup> Then he said, "What is this monument I see?"

The men of the city told him, "It is the tomb of the man of God who came from Judah and proclaimed these things that you have done to the altar at Bethel."

<sup>18</sup> So he said, "Let him rest. Don't let anyone disturb his bones." So they left his bones undisturbed with the bones of the prophet who came from Samaria.

<sup>19†</sup> Josiah also removed all the shrines of the high places that were in the cities of Samaria, which the kings of Israel had made to provoke the LORD.

Josiah did the same things to them that he had done at Bethel. <sup>20</sup> He slaughtered on the altars all the priests of the high places who were there, and he burned human bones on the altars. Then he returned to Jerusalem.

Passover Observed

<sup>21</sup> The king commanded all the people, “Keep the •Passover of the LORD your God as written in the book of the covenant.” <sup>22</sup> No such Passover had ever been kept from the time of the judges who judged Israel through the entire time of the kings of Israel and Judah. <sup>23</sup> But in the eighteenth year of King Josiah, this Passover was observed to the LORD in Jerusalem.

Further Zeal for the LORD

<sup>24</sup> In addition, Josiah removed the mediums, the spiritists, household idols, images, and all the detestable things that were seen in the land of Judah and in Jerusalem. He did this in order to carry out the words of the law that were written in the book that Hilkiah the priest found in the LORD’s temple. <sup>25†</sup> Before him there was no king like him who turned to the LORD with all his mind and with all his heart and with all his strength according to all the law of Moses, and no one like him arose after him.

<sup>26</sup> In spite of all that, the LORD did not turn from the fury of His great burning anger, which burned against Judah because of all that Manasseh had provoked Him with. <sup>27</sup> For the LORD had said, “I will also remove Judah from My sight just as I have removed Israel. I will reject this city Jerusalem, that I have chosen, and the temple about which I said, ‘My name will be there.’ ”

Josiah’s Death

<sup>28</sup> The rest of the events of Josiah’s reign, along with all his accomplishments, are written in the Historical Record of Judah’s Kings. <sup>29†</sup> During his reign, Pharaoh Neco king of Egypt marched up to help the king of Assyria at the Euphrates River. King Josiah went to confront him, and at Megiddo when Neco saw him he killed him. <sup>30</sup> From Megiddo his servants carried his dead body in a chariot, brought him into Jerusalem, and buried him in his own tomb. Then the common people <sup>E</sup> took Jehoahaz son of Josiah, anointed him, and made him king in place of his father.

Judah's King Jehoahaz

<sup>31†</sup> Jehoahaz was 23 years old when he became king and reigned three months in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Hamutal daughter of Jeremiah, from Libnah. <sup>32</sup> He did what was evil in the LORD's sight just as his ancestors had done. <sup>33</sup> Pharaoh Neco imprisoned him at Riblah in the land of Hamath to keep him from reigning in Jerusalem, and he imposed on the land a fine of 7,500 pounds <sup>F</sup> of silver and 75 pounds <sup>G</sup> of gold.

Judah's King Jehoiakim

<sup>34</sup> Then Pharaoh Neco made Eliakim son of Josiah king in place of his father Josiah and changed Eliakim's name to Jehoiakim. But Neco took Jehoahaz and went to Egypt, and he died there. <sup>35</sup> So Jehoiakim gave the silver and the gold to Pharaoh, but at Pharaoh's command he taxed the land to give the money. He exacted the silver and the gold from the common people, <sup>H</sup> each man according to his assessment, to give it to Pharaoh Neco.

<sup>36†</sup> Jehoiakim was 25 years old when he became king and reigned 11 years in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Zebidah daughter of Pedaiah, from Rumah. <sup>37</sup> He did what was evil in the LORD's sight just as his ancestors had done.

2 KINGS

Jehoiakim's Rebellion and Death

24 During Jehoiakim's reign, Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon attacked. Jehoiakim became his vassal for three years, and then he turned and rebelled against him. <sup>2</sup> The LORD sent Chaldean, Aramean, Moabite, and Ammonite raiders against Jehoiakim. He sent them against Judah to destroy it, according to the word of the LORD He had spoken through His servants the prophets. <sup>3</sup> Indeed, this happened to Judah at the LORD's command to remove them from His sight. It was because of the sins of Manasseh, according to all he had done, <sup>4</sup> and also because of all the innocent blood he had shed. He had filled Jerusalem with innocent blood, and the LORD would not forgive.

<sup>7</sup> Now the king of Egypt did not march out of his land again, for the king of Babylon took everything that belonged to the king of Egypt, from the Brook of Egypt to the Euphrates River.

Judah's King Jehoiachin

<sup>8†</sup> Jehoiachin was 18 years old when he became king and reigned three months in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Nehushta daughter of Elnathan, from Jerusalem. <sup>9</sup> He did what was evil in the LORD's sight as his father had done.

Deportations to Babylon

<sup>10</sup> At that time the servants of Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon marched up to Jerusalem, and the city came under siege. <sup>11</sup> Then King Nebuchadnezzar of Babylon came to the city while his servants were besieging it. <sup>12†</sup> Jehoiachin king of Judah, along with his mother, his servants, his commanders, and his officials, surrendered to the king of Babylon.

So the king of Babylon took him captive in the eighth year of his reign.
<sup>13</sup> He also carried off from there all the treasures of the LORD's temple and the treasures of the king's palace, and he cut into pieces all the gold articles that Solomon king of Israel had made for the LORD's sanctuary, just as God had predicted. <sup>14</sup> Then he deported all Jerusalem and all the commanders and all the fighting men, 10,000 captives, and all the craftsmen and metalsmiths. Except for the poorest people of the land, no one remained.

<sup>15</sup> Nebuchadnezzar deported Jehoiachin to Babylon. Also, he took the king's mother, the king's wives, his officials, and the leading men of the land into exile from Jerusalem to Babylon. <sup>16</sup> The king of Babylon also brought captive into Babylon all 7,000 fighting men and 1,000 craftsmen and metalsmiths — all strong and fit for war. <sup>17</sup> Then the king of Babylon made Mattaniah, Jehoiachin's <sup>A</sup> uncle, king in his place and changed his name to Zedekiah.

Judah's King Zedekiah

<sup>18†</sup> Zedekiah was 21 years old when he became king and reigned 11 years in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Hamutal daughter of Jeremiah, from Libnah. <sup>19</sup> Zedekiah did what was evil in the LORD's sight just as Jehoiakim had done. <sup>20</sup> Because of the LORD's anger, it came to the point in Jerusalem and Judah that He finally banished them from His presence. Then, Zedekiah rebelled against the king of Babylon.

2 KINGS

Nebuchadnezzar's Siege of Jerusalem

25 In the ninth year of Zedekiah's reign, on the tenth day of the tenth month, King Nebuchadnezzar of Babylon advanced against Jerusalem with his entire army. They laid siege to the city and built a siege wall against it all around. <sup>2</sup> The city was under siege until King Zedekiah's eleventh year.

<sup>3†</sup> By the ninth day of the fourth month the famine was so severe in the city that the people of the land had no food. <sup>4</sup> Then the city was broken into, and all the warriors fled by night by way of the gate between the two walls near the king's garden, even though the Chaldeans surrounded the city. As the king made his way along the route to the •Arabah, <sup>5</sup> the Chaldean army pursued him and overtook him in the plains of Jericho. Zedekiah's entire army was scattered from him. <sup>6</sup> The Chaldeans seized the king and brought him up to the king of Babylon at Riblah, and they passed sentence on him. <sup>7</sup> They slaughtered Zedekiah's sons before his eyes. Finally, the king of Babylon blinded Zedekiah, bound him in bronze chains, and took him to Babylon.

Jerusalem Destroyed

<sup>8†</sup> On the seventh day of the fifth month, which was the nineteenth year of Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon, Nebuzaradan, the commander of the guards, a servant of the king of Babylon, entered Jerusalem. <sup>9</sup> He burned the LORD's temple, the king's palace, and all the houses of Jerusalem; he burned down all the great houses. <sup>10</sup> The whole Chaldean army with the commander of the guards tore down the walls surrounding Jerusalem. <sup>11</sup> Nebuzaradan, the commander of the guards, deported the rest of the people who were left in the city, the deserters who had defected to the king of Babylon, and the rest of the population. <sup>12</sup> But the commander of the guards left some of the poorest of the land to be vinedressers and farmers.

<sup>13</sup> Now the Chaldeans broke into pieces the bronze pillars of the LORD's temple, the water carts, and the bronze reservoir, which were in the LORD's temple, and carried the bronze to Babylon. <sup>14</sup> They also took the pots, the shovels, the wick trimmers, the dishes, and all the bronze articles used in temple service. <sup>15</sup> The commander of the guards took away the firepans and the sprinkling basins — whatever was gold or silver.

<sup>16</sup> As for the two pillars, the one reservoir, and the water carts that Solomon had made for the LORD's temple, the weight of the bronze of all these articles was beyond measure. <sup>17</sup> One pillar was 27 feet <sup>A</sup> tall and had a bronze capital on top of it. The capital, encircled by a grating and pomegranates of bronze, stood five feet <sup>B</sup> high. The second pillar was the same, with its own grating.

<sup>18</sup> The commander of the guards also took away Seraiah the chief priest, Zephaniah the priest of the second rank, and the three doorkeepers. <sup>19</sup> He took a court official who had been appointed over the warriors from the city; five trusted royal aides <sup>C</sup>, found in the city; the secretary of the commander of the army, who enlisted the people of the land for military duty; and 60 men from the common people <sup>D</sup> who were found within the city. <sup>20</sup> Nebuzaradan, the commander of the guards, took them and brought them to the king of Babylon at Riblah. <sup>21</sup> The king of Babylon put them to death at Riblah in the land of Hamath. So Judah went into exile from its land.

Gedaliah Made Governor

<sup>22†</sup> Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon appointed Gedaliah son of Ahikam, son of Shaphan, over the rest of the people he left in the land of Judah. <sup>23</sup> When all the commanders of the armies — they and their men — heard that the king of Babylon had appointed Gedaliah, they came to Gedaliah at Mizpah. The commanders included Ishmael son of Nethaniah, Johanan son of Kareah, Seraiah son of Tanhumeth the Netophathite, and Jaazaniah son of the Maacathite — they and their men. <sup>24</sup> Gedaliah swore an oath to them and their men, assuring them, “Don't be afraid of the servants of the Chaldeans. Live in the land and serve the king of Babylon, and it will go well for you.”

<sup>25</sup> In the seventh month, however, Ishmael son of Nethaniah, son of Elishama, of the royal family, came with 10 men and struck down Gedaliah, and he died. Also, they killed the Judeans and the Chaldeans who were with him at Mizpah. <sup>26</sup> Then all the people, from the youngest to the oldest, and the commanders of the army, left and went to Egypt, for they were afraid of the Chaldeans.

Jehoiachin Pardoned

<sup>27†</sup> On the twenty-seventh day of the twelfth month of the thirty-seventh year of the exile of Judah's King Jehoiachin, in the year Evil-merodach became king of Babylon, he pardoned King Jehoiachin of Judah and released him from prison. <sup>28</sup> He spoke kindly to him and set his throne over the thrones of the kings who were with him in Babylon. <sup>29</sup> So Jehoiachin changed his prison clothes, and he dined regularly in the presence of the king of Babylon for the rest of his life. <sup>30†</sup> As for his allowance, a regular allowance was given to him by the king, a portion for each day, for the rest of his life.

Raama's sons: Sheba and Dedan.

<sup>10</sup> †Cush fathered Nimrod, who was the first to become a great warrior on earth.

<sup>18</sup> Arpachshad fathered Shelah, and Shelah fathered Eber. <sup>19</sup> Two sons were born to Eber. One of them was named Peleg because the earth was divided during his lifetime, and the name of his brother was Joktan.

<sup>27</sup> and Abram (that is, Abraham).

Abraham's Descendants

<sup>29†</sup> These are their family records: Nebaioth, Ishmael's firstborn, Kedar, Adbeel, Mibsam, <sup>30</sup> Mishma, Dumah, Massa, Hadad, Tema, <sup>31</sup> Jetur, Naphish, and Kedemah.
These were Ishmael's sons.

Jokshan's sons: Sheba and Dedan.

<sup>33</sup> Midian's sons: Ephah, Epher, Hanoch, Abida, and Eldaah.
All of these were Keturah's sons.

<sup>34†</sup> Abraham fathered Isaac.
Isaac's sons: Esau and Israel.

The Edomites

Zibeon's sons: Aiah and Anah.

<sup>41</sup> Anah's son: Dishon.

Dishon's sons: Hamran, Eshban, Ithran, and Cheran.

Dishan's sons: Uz and Aran.

<sup>43†</sup> These were the kings who ruled in the land of Edom before any king ruled over the Israelites: Bela son of Beor. Bela's town was named Dinhabah. <sup>44</sup> When Bela died, Jobab son of Zerah from Bozrah ruled in his place. <sup>45</sup> When Jobab died, Husham from the land of the Temanites ruled in his place. <sup>46</sup> When Husham died, Hadad son of Bedad, who defeated Midian in the country of Moab, ruled in his place. Hadad's town was named Avith. <sup>47</sup> When Hadad died, Samlah from Masrekah ruled in his place. <sup>48</sup> When Samlah died, Shaul from Rehoboth on the Euphrates River ruled in his place. <sup>49</sup> When Shaul died, Baal-hanan son of Achbor ruled in his place. <sup>50</sup> When Baal-hanan died, Hadad ruled in his place. Hadad's city was named Pai, and his wife's name was Mehetabel daughter of Matred, daughter of Me-zahab. <sup>51†</sup> Then Hadad died.

These were Edom's chiefs.

1 CHRONICLES

Israel's Sons

2 †These were Israel's sons:
Reuben, Simeon, Levi,
Judah, Issachar, Zebulun,
2 Dan, Joseph, Benjamin,
Naphtali, Gad, and Asher.

Judah's Descendants

3† Judah's sons: Er, Onan, and Shelah. These three were born to him by Bath-shua the Canaanite woman. Er, Judah's firstborn, was evil in the LORD's sight, so He put him to death. 4 Judah's daughter-in-law Tamar bore Perez and Zerah to him. Judah had five sons in all.

5 Perez's sons: Hezron and Hamul.

6† Zerah's sons: Zimri, Ethan, Heman, Calcol, and Dara — five in all.

7 Carmi's son: Achar, who brought trouble on Israel when he was unfaithful by taking the things •set apart for destruction.

8 Ethan's son: Azariah.

9† Hezron's sons, who were born to him: Jerahmeel, Ram, and Chelubai.

10† Ram fathered Amminadab, and Amminadab fathered Nahshon, a leader of Judah's descendants.

11 Nahshon fathered Salma, and Salma fathered Boaz.

12 Boaz fathered Obed, and Obed fathered Jesse.

13 Jesse fathered Eliab, his firstborn; Abinadab was born second, Shimea third, 14 Nethanel fourth, Raddai fifth, 15† Ozem sixth, and David seventh. 16 Their sisters were Zeruihah and Abigail. Zeruihah's three sons: Abishai, Joab, and Asahel. 17 Amasa's mother was Abigail, and his father was Jether the Ishmaelite.

18† Caleb son of Hezron had children by his wife Azubah and by Jerioth. These were Azubah's sons: Jeshur, Shobab, and Ardon.

19 When Azubah died, Caleb married Ephrath, and she bore Hur to him. 20† Hur fathered Uri, and Uri fathered Bezalel. 21† After this, Hezron slept with the daughter of Machir the father of Gilead. Hezron had married her when he was 60 years old, and she bore Segub to him.<sup>22</sup> Segub fathered Jair, who possessed 23 towns in the land of Gilead.<sup>23</sup> But Geshur and Aram captured<sup>A</sup> Jair's Villages<sup>B</sup> along with Kenath and its villages — 60 towns. All these were the sons of Machir father of Gilead.<sup>24</sup> After Hezron's death in Caleb-ephrahah, his wife Abijah bore Ashhur to him. He was the father of Tekoa.

Shammai's sons: Nadab and Abishur.<sup>29</sup> Abishur's wife was named Abihail, who bore Ahban and Molid to him.

Ishi's son: Sheshan.

Sheshan's descendant: Ahlai.

<sup>34</sup> Sheshan had no sons, only daughters, but he did have an Egyptian servant whose name was Jarha.<sup>35</sup> Sheshan gave his daughter in marriage to his servant Jarha, and she bore Attai to him.

<sup>49†</sup> She was also the mother of Shaaph, Madmannah's father, and of Sheva, the father of Machbenah and Gibeon. Caleb's daughter was Achsah.

<sup>50†</sup> These were Caleb's descendants.

The sons of Hur, Ephrathah's firstborn:

Shobal fathered Kiriath-jearim;

<sup>54†</sup> Salma's sons: Bethlehem, the Netophathites, Atroth-beth-joab, and half of the Manahathites, the Zorites, <sup>55†</sup> and the families of scribes who lived in Jabez — the Tirathites, Shimeathites, and Sucathites. These are the Kenites who came from Hammath, the father of Rechab's family.

1 CHRONICLES

David's Descendants

3 † These were David's sons who were born to him in Hebron:
Amnon was the firstborn, by Ahinoam of Jezreel;
Daniel was born second, by Abigail of Carmel;
2 † Absalom son of Maacah, daughter of King Talmai of Geshur, was third;
Adonijah son of Haggith was fourth;
3 Shephatiah, by Abital, was fifth;
and Ithream, by David's wife Eglah, was sixth.
4 Six sons were born to David in Hebron, where he ruled seven years and six months, and he ruled in Jerusalem 33 years.
5 † These sons were born to him in Jerusalem:
Shimea, Shobab, Nathan, and Solomon. These four were born to him by Bath-shua daughter of Ammiel.
6 David's other sons: Ibhar, Elishua, <sup>A</sup> Eliphelet, <sup>7</sup> Nogah, Nepheg, Japhia, <sup>8</sup> Elishama, Eliada, and Eliphelet — nine sons.
9 These were all David's sons, with their sister Tamar, in addition to the sons by his concubines.

Judah's Kings

10 Solomon's son was Rehoboam; his son was Abijah, his son Asa, his son Jehoshaphat, 11 † his son Jehoram, <sup>B</sup>, his son Ahaziah, his son Joash,
12 † his son Amaziah, his son Azariah, his son Jotham, <sup>13</sup> his son Ahaz, his son Hezekiah, his son Manasseh,
14 his son Amon, and his son Josiah.
15 † Josiah's sons:
Johanan was the firstborn, Jehoiakim second,
Zedekiah third, and Shallum fourth.
16 † Jehoiakim's sons: his sons Jeconiah and Zedekiah.

David's Line After the Exile

his sons Shealtiel, <sup>18</sup> Malchiram, Pedaiah, Shenazzar, Jekamiah, Hoshama, and Nedabiah.

Zerubbabel's sons: Meshullam and Hananiah, with their sister Shelomith; <sup>20</sup> and five others — Hashubah, Ohel, Berechiah, Hasadiah, and Jushabhesed.

Shemaiah's sons: Hattush, Igal, Bariah, Neariah, and Shaphat — six.

1 CHRONICLES

Judah's Descendants

4 Judah's sons: Perez, Hezron, Carmi, Hur, and Shobal.

<sup>2†</sup> Reaiah son of Shobal fathered Jahath, and Jahath fathered Ahumai and Lahad.

These were the families of the Zorathites.

These were the sons of Hur, Ephrathah's firstborn and the father of Bethlehem:

<sup>9†</sup> Jabez was more honorable than his brothers. His mother named him Jabez and said, "I gave birth to him in pain."

<sup>10†</sup> Jabez called out to the God of Israel: "If only You would bless me, extend my border, let Your hand be with me, and keep me from harm, so that I will not cause any pain." And God granted his request.

Othniel's sons: Hathath and Meonothai.

and Seraiah fathered Joab, the ancestor of those in the Valley of Craftsmen, <sup>C</sup> for they were craftsmen.

<sup>15†</sup> The sons of Caleb son of Jephunneh: Iru, Elah, and Naam.

Elah's son: Kenaz.

gave birth to Miriam, Shammai, and Ishbah the father of Eshtemoa.

<sup>18</sup> These were the sons of Pharaoh's daughter Bithiah; Mered had married her. His Judean wife gave birth to Jered the father of Gedor, Heber the father of Soco, and Jekuthiel the father of Zanoah. <sup>19</sup> The sons of Hodiah's wife, the sister of Naham: the father of Keilah the Garmite and the father of Eshtemoa the Maacathite.

Ishi's sons: Zoheth and Ben-zoheth.

Simeon's Descendants

<sup>37</sup> and Ziza son of Shiphi, son of Allon, son of Jedaiah, son of Shimri, son of Shemaiah —

<sup>38</sup> these mentioned by name were leaders in their families. Their ancestral houses increased greatly. <sup>39†</sup> They went to the entrance of Gedor, to the east side of the valley to seek pasture for their flocks. <sup>40</sup> They found rich, good pasture, and the land was broad, peaceful, and quiet, for some Hamites had lived there previously.

<sup>41†</sup> These who were recorded by name came in the days of King Hezekiah of Judah, attacked the Hamites' tents and the Meunites who were found there, and •set them apart for destruction, as they are today. Then they settled in their place because there was pasture for their flocks.

<sup>42†</sup> Now 500 men from these sons of Simeon went with Pelatiah, Neariah, Rephaiah, and Uzziel, the sons of Ishi, as their leaders to Mount Seir.

<sup>43†</sup> They struck down the remnant of the Amalekites who had escaped, and they still live there today.

1 CHRONICLES

Reuben's Descendants

5 † These were the sons of Reuben the firstborn of Israel. He was the firstborn, but his birthright was given to the sons of Joseph son of Israel, because Reuben defiled his father's bed. He is not listed in the genealogy according to birthright. 2† Although Judah became strong among his brothers and a ruler came from him, the birthright was given to Joseph.

3 The sons of Reuben, Israel's firstborn:
Hanoch, Pallu, Hezron, and Carmi.

4 Joel's sons: his son Shemaiah, his son Gog, his son Shimei,

5 his son Micah, his son Reaiah, his son Baal, 6† and his son Beerah.

Beerah was a leader of the Reubenites, and Tiglath-pileser king of Assyria took him into exile. 7† His relatives by their families as they are recorded in their genealogy:

Jeiel the chief, Zechariah,
8† and Bela son of Azaz, son of Shema, son of Joel.

They settled in Aroer as far as Nebo and Baal-meon. 9 They also settled in the east as far as the edge of the desert that extends to the Euphrates River, because their herds had increased in the land of Gilead. 10† During Saul's reign they waged war against the Hagrites, who were defeated by their power. And they lived in their tents throughout the region east of Gilead.

Gad's Descendants

11 The sons of Gad lived next to them in the land of Bashan as far as Salecah:

12 Joel the chief, Shapham the second in command, Janai, and Shaphat in Bashan.

<sup>14†</sup> These were the sons of Abihail son of Huri, son of Jaroah, son of Gilead, son of Michael, son of Jeshishai, son of Jahdo, son of Buz.

<sup>15</sup> Ahi son of Abdiel, son of Guni, was head of their ancestral houses.

<sup>16†</sup> They lived in Gilead, in Bashan and its towns, and throughout the pasturelands of Sharon. <sup>17†</sup> All of them were registered in the genealogies during the reigns of Judah's King Jotham and Israel's King Jeroboam.

<sup>18†</sup> The sons of Reuben and Gad and half the tribe of Manasseh had 44,760 warriors who could serve in the army — men who carried shield and sword, drew the bow, and were trained for war. <sup>19</sup> They waged war against the Hagarites, Jetur, Naphish, and Nodab. <sup>20†</sup> They received help against these enemies because they cried out to God in battle, and the Hagarites and all their allies were handed over to them. He granted their request because they trusted in Him. <sup>21</sup> They captured the Hagarites' livestock — 50,000 of their camels, 250,000 sheep, and 2,000 donkeys — as well as 100,000 people. <sup>22</sup> Many of the Hagarites were killed because it was God's battle. And they lived there in the Hagarites' place until the exile.

Half the Tribe of Manasseh

<sup>23</sup> The sons of half the tribe of Manasseh settled in the land from Bashan to Baal-hermon (that is, Senir or Mount Hermon); they were numerous.

<sup>24</sup> These were the heads of their ancestral houses: Ephraim, Ishi, Eliel, Azriel, Jeremiah, Hodaviah, and Jahdiel. They were brave warriors, famous men, and heads of their ancestral houses. <sup>25†</sup> But they were unfaithful to the God of their ancestors. They prostituted themselves with the gods of the nations <sup>A</sup> God had destroyed before them. <sup>26†</sup> So the God of Israel put it into the mind of Pul (that is, Tiglath-pileser) king of Assyria to take the Reubenites, Gadites, and half the tribe of Manasseh into exile. He took them to Halah, Habor, Hara, and Gozan's river, where they are until today.

<sup>29</sup> Merari's sons: Mahli, his son Libni, his son Shimei, his son Uzzah,

<sup>30</sup> his son Shimea, his son Haggiah, and his son Asaiah.

The Musicians

<sup>31†</sup> These are the men David put in charge of the music in the LORD's temple after the ark came to rest there. <sup>32</sup> They ministered with song in front of the tabernacle, the tent of meeting, until Solomon built the LORD's temple in Jerusalem, and they performed their task according to the regulations given to them. <sup>33</sup> These are the men who served with their sons.

From the Kohathites: Heman the singer, son of Joel, son of Samuel,

<sup>34</sup> son of Elkanah, son of Jeroham, son of Eliel, son of Toah, <sup>35</sup> son of Zuph, son of Elkanah, son of Mahath, son of Amasai, <sup>36</sup> son of Elkanah, son of Joel, son of Azariah, son of Zephaniah, <sup>37</sup> son of Tahath, son of Assir, son of Ebiasaph, son of Korah, <sup>38</sup> son of Izhar, son of Kohath, son of Levi, son of Israel.

<sup>39</sup> Heman's relative was •Asaph, who stood at his right hand:
Asaph son of Berechiah, son of Shimea, <sup>40</sup> son of Michael, son of Baaseiah, son of Malchijah, <sup>41</sup> son of Ethni, son of Zerah, son of Adaiah, <sup>42</sup> son of Ethan, son of Zimmah, son of Shimei, <sup>43</sup> son of Jahath, son of Gershom, son of Levi.

<sup>44</sup> On the left, their relatives were Merari's sons:
Ethan son of Kishi, son of Abdi, son of Malluch, <sup>45</sup> son of Hashabiah, son of Amaziah, son of Hilkiah, <sup>46</sup> son of Amzi, son of Bani, son of Shemer, <sup>47</sup> son of Mahli, son of Mushi, son of Merari, son of Levi.

Aaron's Descendants

<sup>48</sup> Their relatives, the Levites, were assigned to all the service of the tabernacle, God's temple. <sup>49</sup> But Aaron and his sons did all the work of the most holy place. They presented the offerings on the altar of •burnt offerings and on the altar of incense to make atonement for Israel according to all that Moses the servant of God had commanded.

<sup>50†</sup> These are Aaron's sons: his son Eleazar, his son Phinehas, his son Abishua, <sup>51</sup> his son Bukki, his son Uzzi, his son Zerahiah, <sup>52</sup> his son Meraioth, his son Amariah, his son Ahitub,
<sup>53</sup> his son Zadok, and his son Ahimaaz.

The Settlements of the Levites

<sup>54</sup> These were the places assigned to Aaron's sons from the Kohathite family for their settlements in their territory, because the first lot was for them. <sup>55</sup> They were given Hebron in the land of Judah and its surrounding pasturelands, <sup>56</sup> but the fields and villages around the city were given to Caleb son of Jephunneh. <sup>57</sup> Aaron's sons were given:

Hebron (a city of refuge), Libnah and its pasturelands, Jattir, Eshtemoa and its pasturelands, <sup>58</sup> Hilen and its pasturelands, Debir and its pasturelands, <sup>59</sup> Ashan and its pasturelands, and Beth-shemesh and its pasturelands. <sup>60</sup> From the tribe of Benjamin they were given Geba and its pasturelands, Alemeth and its pasturelands, and Anathoth and its pasturelands. They had 13 towns in all among their families.

<sup>61</sup> To the rest of the Kohathites, 10 towns from half the tribe of Manasseh were assigned by lot.

<sup>62</sup> The Gershomites were assigned 13 towns from the tribes of Issachar, Asher, Naphtali, and Manasseh in Bashan according to their families.

<sup>63</sup> The Merarites were assigned by lot 12 towns from the tribes of Reuben, Gad, and Zebulun according to their families. <sup>64</sup> So the Israelites gave these towns and their pasturelands to the Levites. <sup>65</sup> They assigned by lot the towns named above from the tribes of the Judahites, Simeonites, and Benjaminites.

<sup>66†</sup> Some of the families of the Kohathites were given towns from the tribe of Ephraim for their territory:

<sup>67</sup> Shechem (a city of refuge) with its pasturelands in the hill country of Ephraim, Gezer and its pasturelands, <sup>68</sup> Jokmeam and its pasturelands, Beth-horon and its pasturelands, <sup>69</sup> Aijalon and its pasturelands, and Gath-rimmon and its pasturelands. <sup>70</sup> From half the tribe of Manasseh, Aner and its pasturelands, and Bileam and its pasturelands were given to the rest of the families of the Kohathites.

Golan in Bashan and its pasturelands, and Ashtaroth and its pasturelands from the families of half the tribe of Manasseh.

<sup>72</sup> From the tribe of Issachar they received Kedesh and its pasturelands, Daberath and its pasturelands, <sup>73</sup> Ramoth and its pasturelands, and Anem and its pasturelands. <sup>74</sup> From the tribe of Asher they received Mashal and its pasturelands, Abdon and its pasturelands, <sup>75</sup> Hukok and its pasturelands, and Rehob and its pasturelands. <sup>76</sup> From the tribe of Naphtali they received Kedesh in Galilee and its pasturelands, Hammon and its pasturelands, and Kiriathaim and its pasturelands.

From the tribe of Zebulun they received Rimmono and its pasturelands and Tabor and its pasturelands. <sup>78</sup> From the tribe of Reuben across the Jordan at Jericho, to the east of the Jordan, they received Bezer in the desert and its pasturelands, Jahzah and its pasturelands, <sup>79</sup> Kedemoth and its pasturelands, and Mephaath and its pasturelands. <sup>80</sup> From the tribe of Gad they received Ramoth in Gilead and its pasturelands, Mahanaim and its pasturelands, <sup>81</sup> Heshbon and its pasturelands, and Jazer and its pasturelands.

1 CHRONICLES

Issachar's Descendants

7† Issachar's sons: Tola, Puah, Jashub, and Shimron — four.

2† Tola's sons: Uzzi, Rephaiah, Jeriel, Jahmai, Ibsam, and Shemuel, the heads of their ancestral houses. During David's reign, 22,600 descendants of Tola were recorded as warriors in their genealogies.

3 Uzzi's son: Izrahiah.

Izrahiah's sons: Michael, Obadiah, Joel, Isshiah. All five of them were chiefs. 4 Along with them, they had 36,000 troops for battle according to the genealogical records of their ancestral houses, for they had many wives and children. 5 Their tribesmen who were warriors belonging to all the families of Issachar totaled 87,000 in their genealogies.

Benjamin's Descendants

6† Three of Benjamin's sons: Bela, Becher, and Jediael.

7† Bela's sons: Ezbon, Uzzi, Uzziel, Jerimoth, and Iri — five. They were warriors and heads of their ancestral houses; 22,034 were listed in their genealogies.

8 Becher's sons: Zemirah, Joash, Eliezer, Elioenai, Omri, Jeremoth, Abijah, Anathoth, and Alemeth; all these were Becher's sons. 9 Their genealogies were recorded according to the heads of their ancestral houses — 20,200 warriors.

10 Jediael's son: Bilhan.

Bilhan's sons: Jeush, Benjamin, Ehud, Chenaanah, Zethan, Tarshish, and Ahishahar. 11 All these sons of Jediael listed by heads of families were warriors; there were 17,200 who could serve in the army. 12 Shuppim and Huppim were sons of Ir, and the Hushim were the sons of Aher.

Naphtali's Descendants

13† Naphtali's sons: Jahziel, Guni, Jezer, and Shallum — Bilhah's sons.

Manasseh's Descendants

<sup>14†</sup> Manasseh's sons through his Aramean concubine: Asriel and Machir the father of Gilead. <sup>15</sup> Machir took wives from Huppim and Shuppim. The name of his sister was Maacah. Another descendant was named Zelophehad, but he had only daughters.

<sup>16</sup> Machir's wife Maacah gave birth to a son, and she named him Peresh. His brother was named Sheresh, and his sons were Ulam and Rekem.

Ephraim's Descendants

<sup>20</sup> Ephraim's sons: Shuthelah, and his son Bered, his son Tahath, his son Eleadah, his son Tahath, <sup>21</sup> his son Zabad, his son Shuthelah, also Ezer, and Elead.

The men of Gath, born in the land, killed them because they went down to raid their cattle. <sup>22</sup> Their father Ephraim mourned a long time, and his relatives <sup>A</sup> came to comfort him. <sup>23</sup> He slept with his wife, and she conceived and gave birth to a son. So he named him Beriah, because there had been misfortune in his home. <sup>24</sup> His daughter was Sheerah, who built Lower and Upper Beth-horon and Uzen-sheerah,

<sup>28</sup> Their holdings and settlements were Bethel and its villages; Naaran to the east, Gezer and its villages to the west, and Shechem and its villages as far as Ayyah and its villages, <sup>29</sup> and along the borders of the sons of Manasseh, Beth-shean and its villages, Taanach and its villages, Megiddo and its villages, and Dor and its villages. The sons of Joseph son of Israel lived in these towns.

Asher's Descendants

<sup>40</sup> All these were Asher's sons. They were the heads of their ancestral houses, chosen men, warriors, and chiefs among the leaders. The number of men listed in their genealogies for military service was 26,000.

Benjamin's Descendants

8† Benjamin fathered Bela, his firstborn; Ashbel was born second, Aharah third,<sup>2</sup> Nohah fourth, and Rapha fifth.

<sup>6</sup> These were Ehud's sons, who were the heads of the families living in Geba and who were deported to Manahath:<sup>7</sup> Naaman, Ahijah, and Gera. Gera deported them and was the father of Uzza and Ahihud.

<sup>8†</sup> Shahraraim had sons in the country of Moab after he had divorced his wives Hushim and Baara.<sup>9†</sup> His sons by his wife Hodesh: Jobab, Zibia, Mesha, Malcam,<sup>10</sup> Jeuz, Sachia, and Mirmah. These were his sons, heads of families.<sup>11</sup> He also had sons by Hushim: Abitub and Elpaal.

<sup>40</sup> Ulam's sons were warriors and archers. <sup>A</sup> They had many sons and grandsons — 150 of them.

All these were among Benjamin's sons.

After the Exile

9† All Israel was registered in the genealogies that are written in the Book of the Kings of Israel. But Judah was exiled to Babylon because of their unfaithfulness. 2† The first to live in their towns on their own property again were Israelites, priests, Levites, and temple servants.

3 These people from the descendants of Judah, Benjamin, Ephraim, and Manasseh settled in Jerusalem:

4 Uthai son of Ammihud, son of Omri, son of Imri, son of Bani, a descendant<sup>A</sup> of Perez son of Judah;

5 from the Shilonites:

Asaiah the firstborn and his sons;

6 and from the sons of Zerah:

Jeuel and 690 of their relatives.

7 The Benjaminites: Sallu son of Meshullam, son of Hodaviah, son of Hassenuah;

8 Ibneiah son of Jeroham;

Elah son of Uzzi, son of Michri;

Meshullam son of Shephatiah, son of Reuel, son of Ibnijah;

9 and 956 of their relatives according to their genealogical records. All these men were heads of their ancestral houses.

10 The priests: Jedaiah; Jehoiarib; Jachin;

11 Azariah son of Hilkiah, son of Meshullam, son of Zadok, son of Meraioth, son of Ahitub, the chief official of God's temple;

12 Adaiah son of Jeroham, son of Pashhur, son of Malchijah;

Maasai son of Adiel, son of Jahzerah, son of Meshullam, son of Meshillemith, son of Immer;

13 and 1,760 of their relatives, the heads of households. They were capable men employed in the ministry of God's temple.

14 The Levites: Shemaiah son of Hasshub, son of Azrikam, son of Hashabiah of the Merarites;

15 Bakbakkar, Heresh, Galal, and Mattaniah, son of Mica, son of Zichri, son of •Asaph;

<sup>16</sup> Obadiah son of Shemaiah, son of Galal, son of Jeduthun; and Berechiah son of Asa, son of Elkanah who lived in the villages of the Netophathites.

Shallum was their chief; <sup>18</sup> he was previously stationed at the King's Gate on the east side. These were the gatekeepers from the camp of the Levites.

<sup>19</sup> Shallum son of Kore, son of Ebiasaph, son of Korah and his relatives from his ancestral household, the Korahites, were assigned to guard the thresholds of the tent. Their ancestors had been assigned to the LORD's camp as guardians of the entrance. <sup>20†</sup> In earlier times Phinehas son of Eleazar had been their leader, and the LORD was with him. <sup>21</sup> Zechariah son of Meshelemiah was the gatekeeper at the entrance to the tent of meeting.

<sup>22</sup> The total number of those chosen to be gatekeepers at the thresholds was 212. They were registered by genealogy in their villages. David and Samuel the seer had appointed them to their trusted positions. <sup>23</sup> So they and their sons were assigned to the gates of the LORD's temple, which had been the tent-temple. <sup>24</sup> The gatekeepers were on the four sides: east, west, north, and south. <sup>25</sup> Their relatives came from their villages at fixed times to be with them seven days, <sup>26†</sup> but the four chief gatekeepers, who were Levites, were entrusted with the rooms and the treasuries of God's temple. <sup>27</sup> They spent the night in the vicinity of God's temple, because they had guard duty and were in charge of opening it every morning.

<sup>28</sup> Some of them were in charge of the utensils used in worship. They would count them when they brought them in and when they took them out. <sup>29</sup> Others were put in charge of the furnishings and all the utensils of the sanctuary, as well as the fine flour, wine, oil, incense, and spices. <sup>30</sup> Some of the priests' sons mixed the spices. <sup>31</sup> A Levite called Mattithiah, the firstborn of Shallum the Korahite, was entrusted with baking the bread. <sup>B</sup>

<sup>32</sup> Some of the Kohathites' relatives were responsible for preparing the rows of the •bread of the Presence every Sabbath.

<sup>33</sup> The singers, the heads of the Levite families, stayed in the temple chambers and were exempt from other tasks because they were on duty day and night. <sup>34</sup> These were the heads of the Levite families, chiefs according to their genealogies, and lived in Jerusalem.

Saul's Family

Jarah fathered Alemeth, Azmaveth, and Zimri;

Zimri fathered Moza.

<sup>43</sup> Moza fathered Binea.

His son was Rephaiah, his son Elasa, and his son Azel.

<sup>44</sup> Azel had six sons, and these were their names: Azrikam, Bocheru, Ishmael, Sheariah, Obadiah, and Hanan. These were Azel's sons.

The Deaths of Saul and His Sons

10 †The Philistines fought against Israel, and Israel's men fled from them and were killed on Mount Gilboa. <sup>2</sup> The Philistines pursued Saul and his sons and killed Saul's sons Jonathan, Abinadab, and Malchishua. <sup>3</sup> When the battle intensified against Saul, the archers found him and severely wounded him. <sup>4†</sup> Then Saul said to his armor-bearer, "Draw your sword and run me through with it, or these uncircumcised men will come and torture me!" But his armor-bearer wouldn't do it because he was terrified. Then Saul took his sword and fell on it. <sup>5</sup> When his armor-bearer saw that Saul was dead, he also fell on his own sword and died. <sup>6†</sup> So Saul and his three sons died — his whole house died together.

<sup>7</sup> When all the men of Israel in the valley saw that the army had fled and that Saul and his sons were dead, they abandoned their cities and fled. So the Philistines came and settled in them.

<sup>8</sup> The next day when the Philistines came to strip the slain, they found Saul and his sons dead on Mount Gilboa. <sup>9</sup> They stripped Saul, cut off his head, took his armor, and sent messengers throughout the land of the Philistines to spread the good news to their idols and their people. <sup>10</sup> Then they put his armor in the temple of their gods and hung his skull in the temple of Dagon.

<sup>11</sup> When all Jabesh-gilead heard of everything the Philistines had done to Saul, <sup>12</sup> all their brave men set out and retrieved the body of Saul and the bodies of his sons and brought them to Jabesh. They buried their bones under the oak <sup>A</sup> in Jabesh and fasted seven days.

<sup>13†</sup> Saul died for his unfaithfulness to the LORD because he did not keep the LORD's word. He even consulted a medium for guidance, <sup>14</sup> but he did not inquire of the LORD. So the LORD put him to death and turned the kingdom over to David son of Jesse.

David's Anointing as King

11 † All Israel came together to David at Hebron and said, “Here we are, your own flesh and blood. <sup>A</sup> <sup>2</sup> Even when Saul was king, you led us out to battle and brought us back. The LORD your God also said to you, ‘You will shepherd My people Israel and be ruler over My people Israel.’ ”

<sup>3</sup> So all the elders of Israel came to the king at Hebron. David made a covenant with them at Hebron in the LORD’s presence, and they anointed David king over Israel, in keeping with the LORD’s word through Samuel.

David’s Capture of Jerusalem

<sup>4</sup>† David and all Israel marched to Jerusalem (that is, Jebus ); the Jebusites who inhabited the land were there. <sup>5</sup> The inhabitants of Jebus said to David, “You will never get in here.” Yet David did capture the stronghold of •Zion, that is, the city of David.

<sup>6</sup> David said, “Whoever is the first to kill a Jebusite will become chief commander.” Joab son of Zeruah went up first, so he became the chief.

<sup>7</sup>† Then David took up residence in the stronghold; therefore, it was called the city of David. <sup>8</sup>† He built up the city all the way around, from the supporting terraces to the surrounding parts, and Joab restored the rest of the city. <sup>9</sup>† David steadily grew more powerful, and the LORD of •Hosts was with him.

Exploits of David’s Warriors

<sup>10</sup>† The following were the chiefs of David’s warriors who, together with all Israel, strongly supported him in his reign to make him king according to the LORD’s word about Israel. <sup>11</sup> This is the list of David’s warriors:

Jashobeam son of Hachmoni was chief of the Thirty; he wielded his spear against 300 and killed them at one time.

<sup>12</sup>† After him, Eleazar son of Dodo the Ahohite was one of the three warriors. <sup>13</sup> He was with David at Pas-dammim when the Philistines had gathered there for battle. There was a portion of a field full of barley, where the troops had fled from the Philistines. <sup>14</sup> But Eleazar and David <sup>B</sup> took their stand in the middle of the field and defended it. They killed the Philistines, and the LORD gave them a great victory.

<sup>15†</sup> Three of the 30 chief men went down to David, to the rock at the cave of Adullam, while the Philistine army was encamped in the Valley of Rephaim. <sup>16</sup> At that time David was in the stronghold, and a Philistine garrison was at Bethlehem. <sup>17</sup> David was extremely thirsty <sup>C</sup> and said, “If only someone would bring me water to drink from the well at the city gate of Bethlehem!” <sup>18</sup> So the Three broke through the Philistine camp and drew water from the well at the gate of Bethlehem. They brought it back to David, but he refused to drink it. Instead, he poured it out to the LORD. <sup>19†</sup> David said, “I would never do such a thing in the presence of God! How can I drink the blood of these men who risked their lives?” For they brought it at the risk of their lives. So he would not drink it. Such were the exploits of the three warriors.

<sup>20</sup> Abishai, Joab’s brother, was the leader of the Three. He raised his spear against 300 men and killed them, gaining a reputation among the Three. <sup>21†</sup> He was more honored than the Three and became their commander even though he did not become one of the Three.

<sup>22</sup> Benaiah son of Jehoiada was the son of a brave man <sup>D</sup> from Kabzeel, a man of many exploits. Benaiah killed two sons of Ariel of Moab, <sup>E</sup> and he went down into a pit on a snowy day and killed a lion. <sup>23</sup> He also killed an Egyptian who was seven and a half feet tall. <sup>F</sup> Even though the Egyptian had a spear in his hand like a weaver’s beam, Benaiah went down to him with a club, snatched the spear out of the Egyptian’s hand, and then killed him with his own spear. <sup>24</sup> These were the exploits of Benaiah son of Jehoiada, who had a reputation among the three warriors. <sup>25</sup> He was the most honored of the Thirty, but he did not become one of the Three. David put him in charge of his bodyguard.

Joab's brother Asahel,
Elhanan son of Dodo of Bethlehem,
<sup>27</sup> Shammoth the Harorite, Helez the Pelonite,
<sup>28</sup> Ira son of Ikkesh the Tekoite, Abiezer the Anathothite,
<sup>29</sup> Sibbecai the Hushathite, Ilai the Ahohite,
<sup>30</sup> Maharai the Netophathite,
Heled son of Baanah the Netophathite,
<sup>31</sup> Ithai son of Ribai from Gibeah of the Benjaminites, Benaiah the Pirathonite,
<sup>32</sup> Hurai from the •wadis of Gaash, Abiel the Arbathite,
<sup>33</sup> Azmaveth the Baharumite,
Eliabba the Shaalbonite,
<sup>34</sup> the sons of Hashem the Gizonite, Jonathan son of Shagee the Hararite,
<sup>35</sup> Ahiam son of Sachar the Hararite, Eliphal son of Ur,
<sup>36</sup> Hopher the Mecherathite,
Ahijah the Pelonite,
<sup>37</sup> Hezro the Carmelite,
Naarai son of Ezbai,
<sup>38</sup> Joel the brother of Nathan,
Mibhar son of Hagri,
<sup>39</sup> Zelek the Ammonite,
Naharai the Beerothite, the armor-bearer for Joab son of Zeruiah,
<sup>40</sup> Ira the Ithrite,
Gareb the Ithrite,
<sup>41</sup> Uriah the Hittite,
Zabad son of Ahlai,
<sup>42†</sup> Adina son of Shiza the Reubenite, chief of the Reubenites, and 30 with him,

<sup>43</sup> Hanan son of Maacah, Joshaphat the Mithnite,
<sup>44</sup> Uzzia the Ashterathite,
Shama and Jeiel the sons of Hotham the Aroerite, <sup>45</sup> Jediel son of Shimri and his brother Joha the Tizite, <sup>46</sup> Eliel the Mahavite,
Jeribai and Joshaviah, the sons of Elnaam, Ithmah the Moabite,
<sup>47</sup> Eliel, Obed, and Jaasiel the Mezobaite.

1 CHRONICLES

David's First Supporters

12† The following were the men who came to David at Ziklag while he was still banned from the presence of Saul son of Kish. They were among the warriors who helped him in battle. <sup>2</sup> They were archers who could use either the right or left hand, both to sling stones and shoot arrows from a bow. They were Saul's relatives from Benjamin:

<sup>3†</sup> Their chief was Ahiezer son of Shemaah the Gibeathite.

Then there was his brother Joash;
Jeziel and Pelet sons of Azmaveth;
Beracah, Jehu the Anathothite;

<sup>4</sup> Ishmaiah the Gibeonite, a warrior among the Thirty and a leader over the Thirty;

Jeremiah, Jahaziel, Johanan, Jozabad the Gederathite;

<sup>8</sup> Some Gadites defected to David at his stronghold in the desert. They were fighting men, trained for battle, expert with shield and spear. Their faces were like the faces of lions, and they were as swift as gazelles on the mountains.

<sup>14</sup> These Gadites were army commanders; the least of them was a match for a hundred, and the greatest of them for a thousand. <sup>15†</sup> These are the men who crossed the Jordan in the first month when it was overflowing all its banks, and put to flight all those in the valleys to the east and to the west.

<sup>16†</sup> Other Benjaminites and men from Judah also went to David at the stronghold. <sup>17</sup> David went out to meet them and said to them, “If you have come in peace to help me, my heart will be united with you, but if you have come to betray me to my enemies even though my hands have done no wrong, may the God of our ancestors look on it and judge.”

<sup>18†</sup> Then the Spirit took control of <sup>A</sup> Amasai, chief of the Thirty, and he said:

We are yours, David,
we are with you, son of Jesse!
Peace, peace to you,
and peace to him who helps you,
for your God helps you.

So David received them and made them leaders of his troops.

<sup>19</sup> Some Manassites defected to David when he went with the Philistines to fight against Saul. However, they did not help the Philistines because the Philistine rulers sent David away after a discussion. They said, “It will be our heads if he defects to his master Saul.” <sup>20†</sup> When David went to Ziklag, some men from Manasseh defected to him: Adnah, Jozabad, Jediael, Michael, Jozabad, Elihu, and Zillethai, chiefs of thousands in Manasseh. <sup>21</sup> They helped David against the raiders, for they were all brave warriors and commanders in the army. <sup>22†</sup> At that time, men came day after day to help David until there was a great army, like an army of God. <sup>B</sup>

David's Soldiers in Hebron

<sup>23†</sup> The numbers of the armed troops who came to David at Hebron to turn Saul's kingdom over to him, according to the LORD's word, were as follows:

<sup>29</sup> From the Benjaminites, the relatives of Saul: 3,000 (up to that time the majority of the Benjaminites maintained their allegiance to the house of Saul).

<sup>31</sup> From half the tribe of Manasseh: 18,000 designated by name to come and make David king.

<sup>32</sup> From the Issacharites, who understood the times and knew what Israel should do: 200 chiefs with all their relatives under their command.

<sup>38</sup> All these warriors, lined up in battle formation, came to Hebron fully determined to make David king over all Israel. All the rest of Israel was also of one mind to make David king. <sup>39</sup> They spent three days there eating and drinking with David, for their relatives had provided for them. <sup>40</sup> In addition, their neighbors from as far away as Issachar, Zebulun, and Naphtali came and brought food on donkeys, camels, mules, and oxen — abundant provisions of flour, fig cakes, raisins, wine and oil, oxen, and sheep. Indeed, there was joy in Israel.

1 CHRONICLES

David and the Ark

13 †David consulted with all his leaders, the commanders of hundreds and of thousands. 2† Then he said to the whole assembly of Israel, “If it seems good to you, and if this is from the LORD our God, let us spread out and send the message to the rest of our relatives in all the districts of Israel, including the priests and Levites in their cities with pasturelands, that they should gather together with us. 3† Then let us bring back the ark of our God, for we did not inquire of Him in Saul’s days.” 4 Since the proposal seemed right to all the people, the whole assembly agreed to do it.

5 So David assembled all Israel, from the Shihor of Egypt to the entrance of Hamath, <sup>A</sup>, to bring the ark of God from Kiriath-jearim. 6† David and all Israel went to Baalah (that is, Kiriath-jearim that belongs to Judah) to take the ark of God from there, which is called by the name of the LORD who dwells between the •cherubim. 7 At Abinadab’s house they set the ark of God on a new cart. Uzzah and Ahio <sup>B</sup> were guiding the cart.

8 David and all Israel were celebrating with all their might before God with songs and with lyres, harps, tambourines, cymbals, and trumpets. 9 When they came to Chidon’s threshing floor, Uzzah reached out to hold the ark because the oxen had stumbled. 10 Then the LORD’s anger burned against Uzzah, and He struck him dead because he had reached out to the ark. So he died there in the presence of God.

11† David was angry because of the LORD’s outburst against Uzzah, so he named that place Outburst Against Uzzah, <sup>C</sup> as it is still named today. 12 David feared God that day and said, “How can I ever bring the ark of God to me?” 13† So David did not move the ark of God home <sup>D</sup> to the city of David; instead, he took it to the house of Obed-edom the Gittite. 14 The ark of God remained with Obed-edom’s family in his house for three months, and the LORD blessed his family and all that he had.

1 CHRONICLES

God's Blessing on David

14 King Hiram of Tyre sent envoys to David, along with cedar logs, stonemasons, and carpenters to build a palace for him. <sup>2</sup> Then David knew that the LORD had established him as king over Israel and that his kingdom had been exalted for the sake of His people Israel.

<sup>8†</sup> When the Philistines heard that David had been anointed king over all Israel, they all went in search of David; when David heard of this, he went out to face them. <sup>9</sup> Now the Philistines had come and raided in the Valley of Rephaim, <sup>10†</sup> so David inquired of God, “Should I go to war against the Philistines? Will You hand them over to me? ”

The LORD replied, “Go, and I will hand them over to you.”

<sup>11</sup> So the Israelites went up to Baal-perazim, and David defeated the Philistines there. Then David said, “Like a bursting flood, God has used me to burst out against my enemies.” Therefore, they named that place the Lord Bursts Out. <sup>A 12†</sup> The Philistines abandoned their idols there, and David ordered that they be burned in the fire.

<sup>13</sup> Once again the Philistines raided in the valley. <sup>14</sup> So David again inquired of God, and God answered him, “Do not pursue them directly. Circle around them and attack them opposite the balsam trees. <sup>15†</sup> When you hear the sound of marching in the tops of the balsam trees, then march out to battle, for God will have marched out ahead of you to attack the camp of the Philistines.” <sup>16</sup> So David did exactly as God commanded him, and they struck down the Philistine army from Gibeon to Gezer. <sup>17</sup> Then David’s fame spread throughout the lands, and the LORD caused all the nations to be terrified of him.

1 CHRONICLES

The Ark Comes to Jerusalem

15 David built houses for himself in the city of David, and he prepared a place for the ark of God and pitched a tent for it. <sup>2†</sup> Then David said, “No one but the Levites may carry the ark of God, because the LORD has chosen them to carry the ark of the LORD and to minister before Him forever.”

<sup>3</sup> David assembled all Israel at Jerusalem to bring the ark of the LORD to the place he had prepared for it. <sup>4</sup> Then he gathered together the descendants of Aaron and the Levites:

<sup>11</sup> David summoned the priests Zadok and Abiathar and the Levites Uriel, Asaiah, Joel, Shemaiah, Eliel, and Amminadab. <sup>12</sup> He said to them, “You are the heads of the Levite families. You and your relatives must consecrate yourselves so that you may bring the ark of the LORD God of Israel to the place I have prepared for it. <sup>13</sup> For the LORD our God burst out in anger against us because you Levites were not with us the first time, for we didn’t inquire of Him about the proper procedures.” <sup>14</sup> So the priests and the Levites consecrated themselves to bring up the ark of the LORD God of Israel. <sup>15†</sup> Then the Levites carried the ark of God the way Moses had commanded according to the word of the LORD: on their shoulders with the poles.

<sup>16</sup> Then David told the leaders of the Levites to appoint their relatives as singers and to have them raise their voices with joy accompanied by musical instruments — harps, lyres, and cymbals. <sup>17†</sup> So the Levites appointed Heman son of Joel; from his relatives, Asaph son of Berechiah; and from their relatives the Merarites, Ethan son of Kushaiah. <sup>18</sup> With them were their relatives second in rank: Zechariah, Jaaziel, Shemiramoth, Jehiel, Unni, Eliab, Benaiah, Maaseiah, Mattithiah, Eliphelehu, Mikneiah, and the gatekeepers Obed-edom and Jeiel. <sup>19</sup> The singers Heman, Asaph, and Ethan were to sound the bronze cymbals; <sup>20</sup> Zechariah, Aziel, Shemiramoth, Jehiel, Unni, Eliab, Maaseiah, and Benaiah were to play harps according to Alamoth; <sup>21</sup> and Mattithiah, Eliphelehu, Mikneiah, Obed-edom, Jeiel, and Azariah were to lead the music with lyres according to the •Sheminith. <sup>22</sup> Chenaniah, the leader of the Levites in music, was to direct the music because he was skillful. <sup>23</sup> Berechiah and Elkanah were to be gatekeepers for the ark. <sup>24</sup> The priests, Shebaniah, Joshaphat, Nethanel, Amasai, Zechariah, Benaiah, and Eliezer, were to blow trumpets before the ark of God. Obed-edom and Jehiah were also to be gatekeepers for the ark.

<sup>25</sup> David, the elders of Israel, and the commanders of thousands went with rejoicing to bring the ark of the covenant of the LORD from the house of Obed-edom. <sup>26</sup> While the Levites were carrying the ark of the covenant of the LORD, with God's help, they sacrificed seven bulls and seven rams.

<sup>27</sup> Now David was dressed in a robe of fine linen, as were all the Levites who were carrying the ark, as well as the singers and Chenaniah, the music leader of the singers. David also wore a linen •ephod. <sup>28†</sup> So all Israel brought up the ark of the covenant of the LORD with shouts, the sound of the ram's horn, trumpets, and cymbals, and the playing of harps and lyres. <sup>29†</sup> As the ark of the covenant of the LORD was entering the city of David, Saul's daughter Michal looked down from the window and saw King David dancing <sup>A</sup> and celebrating, and she despised him in her heart.

1 CHRONICLES

16 They brought the ark of God and placed it inside the tent David had pitched for it. Then they offered •burnt offerings and •fellowship offerings in God’s presence. <sup>2</sup> When David had finished offering the burnt offerings and the fellowship offerings, he blessed the people in the name of •Yahweh. <sup>3</sup> Then he distributed to each and every Israelite, both men and women, a loaf of bread, a date cake, and a raisin cake.

<sup>4</sup> David appointed some of the Levites to be ministers before the ark of the LORD, to celebrate the LORD God of Israel, and to give thanks and praise to Him. <sup>5</sup> •Asaph was the chief and Zechariah was second to him. Jeiel, Shemiramoth, Jehiel, Mattithiah, Eliab, Benaiah, Obed-edom, and Jeiel played the harps and lyres, while Asaph sounded the cymbals <sup>6</sup> and the priests Benaiah and Jahaziel blew the trumpets regularly before the ark of the covenant of God.

David’s Psalm of Thanksgiving

<sup>7</sup> On that day David decreed for the first time that thanks be given to the LORD by Asaph and his relatives:

<sup>8</sup> Give thanks to Yahweh; call on His name;
proclaim His deeds among the peoples.

<sup>9</sup> Sing to Him; sing praise to Him;
tell about all His wonderful works!

<sup>10</sup> Honor His holy name;
let the hearts of those who seek Yahweh rejoice.

<sup>11</sup> Search for the LORD and for His strength; seek His face always.

<sup>12</sup> Remember the wonderful works He has done,
His wonders, and the judgments He has pronounced, <sup>A</sup>

<sup>13</sup> you offspring of Israel His servant,
Jacob’s descendants — His chosen ones.

<sup>14†</sup> He is the LORD our God;
His judgments govern the whole earth.

<sup>15</sup> Remember His covenant forever —

the promise He ordained for a thousand generations,

<sup>16</sup> the covenant He made with Abraham, swore <sup>B</sup> to Isaac,

<sup>17</sup> and confirmed to Jacob as a decree, and to Israel as an everlasting covenant:

<sup>18</sup> “I will give the land of Canaan to you as your inherited portion.”

<sup>19</sup> When they were few in number, very few indeed, and temporary residents in Canaan

<sup>20</sup> wandering from nation to nation and from one kingdom to another,

<sup>21</sup> He allowed no one to oppress them;
He rebuked kings on their behalf:

<sup>22</sup> “Do not touch My anointed ones or harm My prophets.”

<sup>23</sup> Sing to the LORD, all the earth.
Proclaim His salvation from day to day.

<sup>24</sup> Declare His glory among the nations,
His wonderful works among all peoples.

<sup>25</sup> For the LORD is great and highly praised;
He is feared above all gods.

<sup>26</sup> For all the gods of the peoples are idols, but the LORD made the heavens.

<sup>27</sup> Splendor and majesty are before Him; strength and joy are in His place.

<sup>28</sup> Ascribe to the LORD, families of the peoples, ascribe to the LORD glory and strength.

<sup>29</sup> Ascribe to Yahweh the glory of His name;
bring an offering and come before Him.
Worship the LORD in the splendor of His holiness;

<sup>30</sup> tremble before Him, all the earth.

The world is firmly established;
it cannot be shaken.

<sup>31</sup> Let the heavens be glad and the earth rejoice, and let them say among the nations, “The LORD is King! ”

<sup>32</sup> Let the sea and everything in it resound; let the fields and all that is in them exult.

<sup>33</sup> Then the trees of the forest will shout for joy before the LORD, for He is coming to judge the earth.

<sup>34</sup> Give thanks to the LORD, for He is good;
His faithful love endures forever.

<sup>35†</sup> And say: “Save us, God of our salvation; gather us and rescue us from the nations so that we may give thanks to Your holy name and rejoice in Your praise.

<sup>36</sup> May Yahweh, the God of Israel, be praised from everlasting to everlasting.”

Then all the people said, “•Amen” and “Praise the LORD.”

<sup>37</sup> So David left Asaph and his relatives there before the ark of the LORD’s covenant to minister regularly before the ark according to the daily requirements. <sup>38</sup> He assigned Obed-edom and his 68 relatives. Obed-edom son of Jeduthun and Hosah were to be gatekeepers. <sup>39†</sup> David left Zadok the priest and his fellow priests before the tabernacle of the LORD at the •high place in Gibeon <sup>40</sup> to offer burnt offerings regularly, morning and evening, to the LORD on the altar of burnt offerings and to do everything that was written in the law of the LORD, which He had commanded Israel to keep. <sup>41</sup> With them were Heman, Jeduthun, and the rest who were chosen and designated by name to give thanks to the LORD — for His faithful love endures forever. <sup>42</sup> Heman and Jeduthun had with them trumpets and cymbals to play and musical instruments of God. Jeduthun’s sons were at the gate.

The LORD's Covenant with David

17 †When David had settled into his palace, he said to Nathan the prophet, “Look! I am living in a cedar house while the ark of the LORD’s covenant is under tent curtains.”

2 So Nathan told David, “Do all that is on your heart, for God is with you.”

3 But that night the word of God came to Nathan: 4 “Go to David My servant and say, ‘This is what the LORD says: You are not the one to build Me a house to dwell in. 5 From the time I brought Israel out of Egypt until today I have not lived in a house; instead, I have moved from tent to tent and from tabernacle to tabernacle. 6† In all My travels throughout Israel, have I ever spoken a word to even one of the judges of Israel, whom I commanded to shepherd My people, asking: Why haven’t you built Me a house of cedar?’

7† “Now this is what you will say to My servant David: ‘This is what the LORD of •Hosts says: I took you from the pasture and from following the sheep to be ruler over My people Israel. 8 I have been with you wherever you have gone, and I have destroyed all your enemies before you. I will make a name for you like that of the greatest in the land. 9 I will establish a place for My people Israel and plant them, so that they may live there and not be disturbed again. Evildoers will not continue to oppress them as they formerly have 10 ever since the day I ordered judges to be over My people Israel. I will also subdue all your enemies.

“ ‘Furthermore, I declare to you that the LORD Himself will build a house for you. 11 When your time comes to be with your fathers, I will raise up after you your descendant, who is one of your own sons, and I will establish his kingdom. 12† He will build a house for Me, and I will establish his throne forever. 13 I will be a father to him, and he will be a son to Me. I will not take away My faithful love from him as I took it from the one who was before you. 14† I will appoint him over My house and My kingdom forever, and his throne will be established forever.’ ”

15 Nathan reported all these words and this entire vision to David.

David's Prayer of Thanksgiving

<sup>16</sup> Then King David went in, sat in the LORD's presence, and said,

Who am I, LORD God, and what is my house that You have brought me this far? <sup>17</sup> This was a little thing to You, <sup>A</sup> God, for You have spoken about Your servant's house in the distant future. You regard me as a man of distinction, <sup>B</sup> LORD God. <sup>18</sup> What more can David say to You for honoring Your servant? You know Your servant. <sup>19</sup> LORD, You have done all this greatness, making known all these great promises because of Your servant and according to Your will. <sup>20</sup> LORD, there is no one like You, and there is no God besides You, as all we have heard confirms. <sup>21</sup> And who is like Your people Israel? God, You came to one nation on earth to redeem a people for Yourself, to make a name for Yourself through great and awesome works by driving out nations before Your people You redeemed from Egypt. <sup>22</sup> You made Your people Israel Your own people forever, and You, LORD, have become their God.

<sup>23</sup> Now, LORD, let the word that You have spoken concerning Your servant and his house be confirmed forever, and do as You have promised. <sup>24</sup> Let Your name be confirmed and magnified forever in the saying, “•Yahweh of Hosts, the God of Israel, is God over Israel.” May the house of Your servant David be established before You. <sup>25</sup> Since You, my God, have revealed to <sup>C</sup> Your servant that You will build him a house, Your servant has found courage to pray in Your presence. <sup>26</sup> Yahweh, You indeed are God, and You have promised this good thing to Your servant. <sup>27</sup> So now, You have been pleased to bless Your servant's house that it may continue before You forever. For You, LORD, have blessed it, and it is blessed forever.

David's Military Campaigns

18 †After this, David defeated the Philistines, subdued them, and took Gath and its villages from Philistine control. <sup>2</sup> He also defeated the Moabites, and they became David's subjects and brought tribute.

<sup>3</sup> David also defeated King Hadadezer of Zobah at Hamath when he went to establish his control at the Euphrates River. <sup>4</sup> David captured 1,000 chariots, 7,000 horsemen, and 20,000 foot soldiers from him, hamstringing all the horses, and kept 100 chariots. <sup>A</sup>

<sup>5</sup> When the Arameans of Damascus came to assist King Hadadezer of Zobah, David struck down 22,000 Aramean men. <sup>6†</sup> Then he placed garrisons in Aram of Damascus, and the Arameans became David's subjects and brought tribute. The LORD made David victorious wherever he went.

<sup>7</sup> David took the gold shields carried by Hadadezer's officers and brought them to Jerusalem. <sup>8</sup> From Tibhath and Cun, Hadadezer's cities, David also took huge quantities of bronze, from which Solomon made the bronze reservoir, the pillars, and the bronze articles.

<sup>9</sup> When King Tou of Hamath heard that David had defeated the entire army of King Hadadezer of Zobah, <sup>10</sup> he sent his son Hadoram to King David to greet him and to congratulate him because David had fought against Hadadezer and defeated him, for Tou and Hadadezer had fought many wars. Hadoram brought all kinds of gold, silver, and bronze items. <sup>11†</sup> King David also dedicated these to the LORD, along with the silver and gold he had carried off from all the nations — from Edom, Moab, the Ammonites, the Philistines, and the Amalekites.

<sup>12†</sup> Abishai son of Zeruah struck down 18,000 Edomites in the Valley of Salt. <sup>13</sup> He put garrisons in Edom, and all the Edomites were subject to David. The LORD made David victorious wherever he went.

<sup>14</sup> So David reigned over all Israel, administering justice and righteousness for all his people.

<sup>15</sup> Joab son of Zeruiah was over the army;
Jehoshaphat son of Ahilud was court historian;

<sup>16</sup> Zadok son of Ahitub
and Ahimelech son of Abiathar were priests;
Shavsha was court secretary;

<sup>17†</sup> Benaiah son of Jehoiada was over the Cherethites and the Pelethites;
and David's sons were the chief officials at the king's side.

1 CHRONICLES

War with the Ammonites

19 Some time later, King Nahash of the Ammonites died, and his son became king in his place. <sup>2</sup> Then David said, “I’ll show kindness to Hanun son of Nahash, because his father showed kindness to me.”

So David sent messengers to console him concerning his father. However, when David’s emissaries arrived in the land of the Ammonites to console him, <sup>3</sup> the Ammonite leaders said to Hanun, “Just because David has sent men with condolences for you, do you really believe he’s showing respect for your father? Instead, hasn’t David sent his emissaries in order to scout out, overthrow, and spy on the land? ” <sup>4</sup> So Hanun took David’s emissaries, shaved them, cut their clothes in half at the hips, and sent them away.

<sup>5</sup> It was reported to David about his men, so he sent messengers to meet them, since the men were deeply humiliated. The king said, “Stay in Jericho until your beards grow back; then return.”

<sup>6</sup> When the Ammonites realized they had made themselves repulsive to David, Hanun and the Ammonites sent 38 tons <sup>A</sup> of silver to hire chariots and horsemen from Aram-naharaim, Aram-maacah, and Zobah. <sup>7†</sup> They hired 32,000 chariots and the king of Maacah with his army, who came and camped near Medeba. The Ammonites also came together from their cities for the battle.

<sup>8</sup> David heard about this and sent Joab and the entire army of warriors. <sup>9</sup> The Ammonites marched out and lined up in battle formation at the entrance of the city while the kings who had come were in the field by themselves. <sup>10</sup> When Joab saw that there was a battle line in front of him and another behind him, he chose some men out of all the elite troops <sup>B</sup> of Israel and lined up in battle formation to engage the Arameans. <sup>11</sup> He placed the rest of the forces under the command of his brother Abishai, and they lined up in battle formation to engage the Ammonites.

<sup>12</sup> “If the Arameans are too strong for me,” Joab said, “then you’ll be my help. However, if the Ammonites are too strong for you, I’ll help you. <sup>13</sup> Be strong! We must prove ourselves strong for our people and for the cities of our God. May the LORD's will be done.” <sup>C</sup>

<sup>14</sup> Joab and the people with him approached the Arameans for battle, and they fled before him. <sup>15</sup> When the Ammonites saw that the Arameans had fled, they likewise fled before Joab's brother Abishai and entered the city. Then Joab went to Jerusalem.

<sup>16</sup> When the Arameans realized that they had been defeated by Israel, they sent messengers to summon the Arameans who were across the Euphrates. They were led by Shophach, the commander of Hadadezer's army.

<sup>17</sup> When this was reported to David, he gathered all Israel and crossed the Jordan. He came up to the Arameans and lined up in battle formation against them. When David lined up to engage them in battle, they fought against him. <sup>18</sup> But the Arameans fled before Israel, and David killed 7,000 of their charioteers and 40,000 foot soldiers. He also killed Shophach, commander of the army. <sup>19</sup> When Hadadezer's subjects saw that they had been defeated by Israel, they made peace with David and became his subjects. After this, the Arameans were never willing to help the Ammonites again.

1 CHRONICLES

Capture of the City of Rabbah

20 †In the spring <sup>A</sup> when kings march out to war, Joab led the army and destroyed the Ammonites' land. He came to Rabbah and besieged it, but David remained in Jerusalem. Joab attacked Rabbah and demolished it. <sup>2</sup> Then David took the crown from the head of their king, , and it was placed on David's head. He found that the crown weighed 75 pounds <sup>B</sup> of gold, and there was a precious stone in it. In addition, David took away a large quantity of plunder from the city. <sup>3</sup> He brought out the people who were in it and put them to work with saws, iron picks, and axes. David did the same to all the Ammonite cities. Then he and all his troops returned to Jerusalem.

The Philistine Giants

<sup>5</sup> Once again there was a battle with the Philistines, and Elhanan son of Jair killed Lahmi the brother of Goliath the Gittite. The shaft of his spear was like a weaver's beam.

<sup>6</sup> There was still another battle at Gath where there was a man of extraordinary stature with six fingers on each hand and six toes on each foot — 24 in all. He, too, was descended from the giant. <sup>D</sup> <sup>7</sup> When he taunted Israel, Jonathan son of David's brother Shimei killed him.

<sup>8†</sup> These were the descendants of the giant <sup>E</sup> in Gath killed by David and his soldiers.

1 CHRONICLES

David's Military Census

21 †Satan <sup>A</sup> stood up against Israel and incited David to count the people of Israel. <sup>2</sup> So David said to Joab and the commanders of the troops, “Go and count Israel from Beer-sheba to Dan and bring a report to me so I can know their number.”

<sup>3</sup> Joab replied, “May the LORD multiply the number of His people a hundred times over! My lord the king, aren’t they all my lord’s servants? Why does my lord want to do this? Why should he bring •guilt on Israel? ”

<sup>4</sup> Yet the king’s order prevailed over Joab. So Joab left and traveled throughout Israel and then returned to Jerusalem. <sup>5†</sup> Joab gave the total troop registration to David. In all Israel there were 1,100,000 swordsmen and in Judah itself 470,000 swordsmen. <sup>6</sup> But he did not include Levi and Benjamin in the count because the king’s command was detestable to him. <sup>7</sup> This command was also evil in God’s sight, so He afflicted Israel.

<sup>8†</sup> David said to God, “I have sinned greatly because I have done this thing. Now, please take away Your servant’s guilt, for I’ve been very foolish.”

David’s Punishment

<sup>9</sup> Then the LORD instructed Gad, David’s seer, <sup>10</sup> “Go and say to David, ‘This is what the LORD says: I am offering you three choices. Choose one of them for yourself, and I will do it to you.’ ”

<sup>11</sup> So Gad went to David and said to him, “This is what the LORD says: ‘Take your choice: <sup>12</sup> three years of famine, or three months of devastation by your foes with the sword of your enemy overtaking you, or three days of the sword of the LORD — a plague on the land, the angel of the LORD bringing destruction to the whole territory of Israel.’ Now decide what answer I should take back to the One who sent me.”

<sup>13</sup> David answered Gad, “I’m in anguish. Please, let me fall into the LORD’s hands because His mercies are very great, but don’t let me fall into human hands.”

<sup>14</sup> So the LORD sent a plague on Israel, and 70,000 Israelite men died.
<sup>15</sup> Then God sent an angel to Jerusalem to destroy it, but when the angel was about to destroy the city, <sup>B</sup> the LORD looked, relented concerning the destruction, and said to the angel who was destroying the people, “Enough, withdraw your hand now!” The angel of the LORD was then standing at the threshing floor of Ornan the Jebusite.

<sup>16</sup> When David looked up and saw the angel of the LORD standing between earth and heaven, with his drawn sword in his hand stretched out over Jerusalem, David and the elders, clothed in •sackcloth, fell down with their faces to the ground. <sup>17</sup> David said to God, “Wasn’t I the one who gave the order to count the people? I am the one who has sinned and acted very wickedly. But these sheep, what have they done? My LORD God, please let Your hand be against me and against my father’s family, but don’t let the plague be against Your people.”

David’s Altar

<sup>18†</sup> So the angel of the LORD ordered Gad to tell David to go and set up an altar to the LORD on the threshing floor of Ornan the Jebusite. <sup>19</sup> David went up at Gad’s command spoken in the name of the LORD.

<sup>20</sup> Ornan was threshing wheat when he turned and saw the angel. His four sons, who were with him, hid themselves. <sup>21</sup> David came to Ornan, and when Ornan looked and saw David, he left the threshing floor and bowed to David with his face to the ground.

<sup>22</sup> Then David said to Ornan, “Give me this threshing-floor plot so that I may build an altar to the LORD on it. Give it to me for the full price, so the plague on the people may be stopped.”

<sup>23</sup> Ornan said to David, “Take it! My lord the king may do whatever he wants. <sup>C</sup> See, I give the oxen for the •burnt offerings, the threshing sledges for the wood, and the wheat for the •grain offering — I give it all.”

<sup>24</sup> King David answered Ornan, “No, I insist on paying the full price, for I will not take for the LORD what belongs to you or offer burnt offerings that cost me nothing.”

<sup>25</sup> So David gave Ornan 15 pounds of gold <sup>D</sup> for the plot. <sup>26</sup> He built an altar to the LORD there and offered burnt offerings and •fellowship offerings. He called on the LORD, and He answered him with fire from heaven on the altar of burnt offering.

<sup>27</sup> Then the LORD spoke to the angel, and he put his sword back into its sheath. <sup>28</sup> At that time, David offered sacrifices there when he saw that the LORD answered him at the threshing floor of Ornan the Jebusite. <sup>29</sup> The tabernacle of the LORD, which Moses made in the desert, and the altar of burnt offering were at the •high place in Gibeon, <sup>30</sup> but David could not go before it to inquire of God, because he was terrified of the sword of the LORD’s angel.

1 CHRONICLES

22 † Then David said, “This is the house of the LORD God, and this is the altar of •burnt offering for Israel.”

David’s Preparations for the Temple

2† So David gave orders to gather the foreigners that were in the land of Israel, and he appointed stonemasons to cut finished stones for building God’s house. 3† David supplied a great deal of iron to make the nails for the doors of the gateways and for the fittings, together with an immeasurable quantity of bronze, 4 and innumerable cedar logs because the Sidonians and Tyrians had brought a large quantity of cedar logs to David. 5 David said, “My son Solomon is young and inexperienced, and the house that is to be built for the LORD must be exceedingly great and famous and glorious in all the lands. Therefore, I must make provision for it.” So David made lavish preparations for it before his death.

6 Then he summoned his son Solomon and instructed him to build a house for the LORD God of Israel. 7 “My son,” David said to Solomon, “It was in my heart to build a house for the name of •Yahweh my God, 8 but the word of the LORD came to me: ‘You have shed much blood and waged great wars. You are not to build a house for My name because you have shed so much blood on the ground before Me. 9 But a son will be born to you; he will be a man of rest. I will give him rest from all his surrounding enemies, for his name will be Solomon, and I will give peace and quiet to Israel during his reign. 10 He is the one who will build a house for My name. He will be My son, and I will be his father. I will establish the throne of his kingdom over Israel forever.’

11 “Now, my son, may the LORD be with you, and may you succeed in building the house of the LORD your God, as He said about you. 12 Above all, may the LORD give you insight and understanding when He puts you in charge of Israel so that you may keep the law of the LORD your God.

13† Then you will succeed if you carefully follow the statutes and ordinances the LORD commanded Moses for Israel. Be strong and courageous. Don’t be afraid or discouraged.

<sup>14</sup> “Notice I have taken great pains to provide for the house of the LORD — 3,775 tons of gold, 37,750 tons of silver, <sup>A</sup> and bronze and iron that can’t be weighed because there is so much of it. I have also provided timber and stone, but you will need to add more to them. <sup>15</sup> You also have many workers: stonecutters, masons, carpenters, and people skilled in every kind of work <sup>16</sup> in gold, silver, bronze, and iron — beyond number. Now begin the work, and may the LORD be with you.”

<sup>17</sup> Then David ordered all the leaders of Israel to help his son Solomon:
<sup>18</sup> “The LORD your God is with you, isn’t He? And hasn’t He given you rest on every side? For He has handed the land’s inhabitants over to me, and the land has been subdued before the LORD and His people. <sup>19</sup> Now determine in your mind and heart to seek the LORD your God. Get started building the LORD God’s sanctuary so that you may bring the ark of the LORD’s covenant and the holy articles of God to the temple that is to be built for the name of Yahweh.”

The Divisions of the Levites

23 †When David was old and full of days, he installed his son Solomon as king over Israel. <sup>2</sup> Then he gathered all the leaders of Israel, the priests, and the Levites. <sup>3†</sup> The Levites 30 years old or more were counted; the total number of men was 38,000 by headcount. <sup>4†</sup> “Of these,” David said, “24,000 are to be in charge of the work on the LORD’s temple, 6,000 are to be officers and judges, <sup>5</sup> 4,000 are to be gatekeepers, and 4,000 are to praise the LORD with the instruments that I have made for worship.”

<sup>9</sup> Shimei’s sons: Shelomoth, Haziël, and Haran — three. Those were the heads of the families of Ladan.

<sup>10</sup> Shimei’s sons: Jahath, Zizah, Jeush, and Beriah. Those were Shimei’s sons — four. <sup>11</sup> Jahath was the first and Zizah was the second; however, Jeush and Beriah did not have many sons, so they became an ancestral house and received a single assignment.

Aaron, along with his descendants, was set apart forever to consecrate the most holy things, to burn incense in the presence of •Yahweh, to minister to Him, and to pronounce blessings in His name forever. <sup>14</sup> As for Moses the man of God, his sons were named among the tribe of Levi.

<sup>17</sup> Eliezer’s sons were Rehabiah, first; Eliezer did not have any other sons, but Rehabiah’s sons were very numerous.

Jekameam fourth.

Mahli's sons: Eleazar and Kish.

<sup>24</sup> These were the sons of Levi by their ancestral houses — the heads of families, according to their registration by name in the headcount — 20 years old or more, who worked in the service of the LORD's temple. <sup>25</sup> For David said, "The LORD God of Israel has given rest to His people, and He has come to stay in Jerusalem forever. <sup>26</sup> Also, the Levites no longer need to carry the tabernacle or any of the equipment for its service" — <sup>27</sup> for according to the last words of David, the Levites 20 years old or more were to be counted — <sup>28</sup> "but their duty will be to assist the sons of Aaron with the service of the LORD's temple, being responsible for the courts and the chambers, the purification of all the holy things, and the work of the service of God's temple — <sup>29</sup> as well as the rows of the •bread of the Presence, the fine flour for the •grain offering, the wafers of unleavened bread, the baking, <sup>B</sup>, the mixing, and all measurements of volume and length.

<sup>30</sup> They are also to stand every morning to give thanks and praise to the LORD, and likewise in the evening. <sup>31</sup> Whenever •burnt offerings are offered to the LORD on the Sabbaths, New Moons, and appointed festivals, they are to do so regularly in the LORD's presence according to the number prescribed for them. <sup>32</sup> They are to carry out their responsibilities for the tent of meeting, for the holy place, and for their relatives, the sons of Aaron, in the service of the LORD's temple."

The Divisions of the Priests

24 The divisions of the descendants of Aaron were as follows: Aaron's sons were Nadab, Abihu, Eleazar, and Ithamar. <sup>2</sup> But Nadab and Abihu died before their father, and they had no sons, so Eleazar and Ithamar served as priests. <sup>3</sup> Together with Zadok from the sons of Eleazar and Ahimelech from the sons of Ithamar, David divided them according to the assigned duties of their service. <sup>4</sup> Since more leaders were found among Eleazar's descendants than Ithamar's, they were divided accordingly: 16 heads of ancestral houses were from Eleazar's descendants, and eight heads of ancestral houses were from Ithamar's. <sup>5</sup> They were assigned by lot, for there were officers of the sanctuary and officers of God among both Eleazar's and Ithamar's descendants.

<sup>6</sup> The secretary, Shemaiah son of Nethanel, a Levite, recorded them in the presence of the king and the officers, Zadok the priest, Ahimelech son of Abiathar, and the heads of families of the priests and the Levites. One ancestral house was taken for Eleazar, and then one for Ithamar.

<sup>8</sup> the third to Harim, the fourth to Seorim, <sup>9</sup> the fifth to Malchijah, the sixth to Mijamin, <sup>10†</sup> the seventh to Hakkoz, the eighth to Abijah, <sup>11</sup> the ninth to Jeshua, the tenth to Shecaniah, <sup>12</sup> the eleventh to Eliashib, the twelfth to Jakim, <sup>13</sup> the thirteenth to Huppah, the fourteenth to Jeshebeab, <sup>14</sup> the fifteenth to Bilgah, the sixteenth to Immer, <sup>15</sup> the seventeenth to Hezir, the eighteenth to Happizzesz,
<sup>16</sup> the nineteenth to Pethahiah, the twentieth to Jehezkel, <sup>17</sup> the twenty-first to Jachin, the twenty-second to Gamul, <sup>18</sup> the twenty-third to Delaiah, and the twenty-fourth to Maaziah.

<sup>19</sup> These had their assigned duties for service when they entered the LORD's temple, according to their regulations, which they received from their ancestor Aaron, as the LORD God of Israel had commanded him.

The Rest of the Levites

<sup>20</sup> As for the rest of Levi's sons:

from Amram's sons: Shubael; from Shubael's sons: Jehdeiah.

<sup>21</sup> From Rehabiah:

from Rehabiah's sons: Isshiah was the first.

<sup>22</sup> From the Izharites: Shelomoth; from Shelomoth's sons: Jahath.

<sup>23</sup> Hebron's sons:

Jeriah the first, Amariah the second,

Jahaziel the third, and Jekameam the fourth.

<sup>24</sup> From Uzziel's sons: Micah;

from Micah's sons: Shamir.

<sup>25</sup> Micah's brother: Isshiah; from Isshiah's sons: Zechariah.

<sup>26</sup> Merari's sons: Mahli and Mushi,

and from his sons, Jaaziah his son. <sup>A</sup>

Shoham, Zaccur, and Ibri.

Those were the sons of the Levites according to their ancestral houses.

<sup>31</sup> They also cast lots the same way as their relatives the sons of Aaron did in the presence of King David, Zadok, Ahimelech, and the heads of the families of the priests and Levites — the family heads and their younger brothers alike.

The Levitical Musicians

25 †David and the officers of the army also set apart some of the sons of •Asaph, Heman, and Jeduthun, who were to prophesy accompanied by lyres, harps, and cymbals. This is the list of the men who performed their service:

Zaccur, Joseph, Nethaniah, and Asarelah, sons of Asaph, under Asaph's authority, who prophesied under the authority of the king.

Gedaliah, Zeri, Jeshaiiah, Shimei, Hashabiah, and Mattithiah — six — under the authority of their father Jeduthun, prophesying to the accompaniment of lyres, giving thanks and praise to the LORD.

Bukkiah, Mattaniah, Uzziel, Shebuel, Jerimoth, Hananiah, Hanani, Eliathah, Giddalti, Romanti-ezer, Joshbekashah, Mallothi, Hothir, and Mahazioth. <sup>5</sup> All these sons of Heman, the king's seer, were given by the promises of God to exalt him, <sup>A</sup> for God had given Heman fourteen sons and three daughters.

<sup>6</sup> All these men were under their own fathers' authority for the music in the LORD's temple, with cymbals, harps, and lyres for the service of God's temple. Asaph, Jeduthun, and Heman were under the king's authority.

<sup>7†</sup> They numbered 288 together with their relatives who were all trained and skillful in music for the LORD. <sup>8</sup> They cast lots for their duties, young and old alike, teacher as well as pupil.

<sup>9</sup> The first lot for Asaph fell to Joseph, his sons, and his brothers — 12 to Gedaliah the second: him, his brothers, and his sons — 12

<sup>10</sup> the third to Zaccur, his sons, and his brothers — 12

<sup>11</sup> the fourth to Izri, <sup>B</sup> his sons, and his brothers — 12

12	the fifth to Nethaniah, his sons, and his brothers —	12
13	the sixth to Bukkiah, his sons, and his brothers —	12
14	the seventh to Jesarelah, his sons, and his brothers —	12
15	the eighth to Jeshaiiah, his sons, and his brothers —	12
16	the ninth to Mattaniah, his sons, and his brothers —	12
17	the tenth to Shimei, his sons, and his brothers —	12
18	the eleventh to Azarel, his sons, and his brothers —	12
19	the twelfth to Hashabiah, his sons, and his brothers —	12
20	the thirteenth to Shubael, his sons, and his brothers —	12
21	the fourteenth to Mattithiah, his sons, and his brothers —	12
22	the fifteenth to Jeremoth, his sons, and his brothers —	12
23	the sixteenth to Hananiah, his sons, and his brothers —	12
24	the seventeenth to Joshbekashah, his sons, and his brothers —	12
25	the eighteenth to Hanani, his sons, and his brothers —	12
26	the nineteenth to Mallothi, his sons, and his brothers —	12
27	the twentieth to Eliathah, his sons, and his brothers —	12
28	the twenty-first to Hothir, his sons, and his brothers —	12

- <sup>29</sup> the twenty-second to Giddalti, his sons, and his brothers — 12
- <sup>30</sup> the twenty-third to Mahazioth, his sons, and his brothers — 12
- <sup>31</sup> and the twenty-fourth to Romamti-ezer, his sons, and his brothers — 12.

The Levitical Gatekeepers

26 †The following were the divisions of the gatekeepers:

From the Korahites: Meshelemiah son of Kore, one of the sons of •Asaph.

<sup>2</sup> Meshelemiah had sons:

Zechariah the firstborn, Jediael the second,
Zebadiah the third, Jathniel the fourth,

<sup>3</sup> Elam the fifth, Jehohanan the sixth, and Eliehoenai the seventh.

<sup>4†</sup> Obed-edom also had sons:

Shemaiah the firstborn, Jehozabad the second,
Joah the third, Sachar the fourth,

Nethanel the fifth, <sup>5</sup> Ammiel the sixth, Issachar the seventh, and Peullethai the eighth,
for God blessed him.

<sup>6</sup> Also, to his son Shemaiah were born sons who ruled over their ancestral houses because they were strong, capable men.

<sup>7</sup> Shemaiah's sons: Othni, Rephael, Obed, and Elzabad; his brothers Elihu and Semachiah were also capable men. <sup>8</sup> All of these were among the sons of Obed-edom with their sons and brothers; they were capable men with strength for the work — 62 from Obed-edom.

<sup>9</sup> Meshelemiah also had sons and brothers who were capable men — 18.

<sup>10</sup> Hosah, from the Merarites, also had sons: Shimri the first (although he was not the firstborn, his father had appointed him as the first), <sup>11</sup> Hilkiyah the second, Tebaliah the third, and Zechariah the fourth. The sons and brothers of Hosah were 13 in all.

<sup>14</sup> The lot for the east gate fell to Shelemiah. They also cast lots for his son Zechariah, an insightful counselor, and his lot came out for the north gate. <sup>15</sup> Obed-edom's was the south gate, and his sons' lot was for the storehouses; <sup>16†</sup> it was the west gate and the gate of Shallecheth on the ascending highway for Shuppim and Hosah.

There were guards stationed at every watch. <sup>17</sup> There were six Levites each day on the east, four each day on the north, four each day on the south, and two pair at the storehouses. <sup>18</sup> As for the court on the west, there were four at the highway and two at the court. <sup>19</sup> Those were the divisions of the gatekeepers from the sons of the Korahites and Merarites.

The Levitical Treasurers and Other Officials

<sup>20</sup> From the Levites, Ahijah was in charge of the treasuries of God's temple and the treasuries of what had been dedicated. <sup>21</sup> From the sons of Ladan, who were the sons of the Gershonites through Ladan and were the heads of families belonging to Ladan the Gershonite: Jehieli. <sup>22</sup> The sons of Jehieli, Zetham and his brother Joel, were in charge of the treasuries of the LORD's temple.

genealogical records of his ancestors. A search was made in the fortieth year of David's reign and strong, capable men were found among them at Jazer in Gilead.<sup>32</sup> There were among Jerijah's relatives, 2,700 capable men who were heads of families. King David appointed them over the Reubenites, the Gadites, and half the tribe of Manasseh as overseers in every matter relating to God and the king.

David's Secular Officials

27 This is the list of the Israelites, the heads of families, the commanders of thousands and the commanders of hundreds, and their officers who served the king in every matter to do with the divisions that were on rotated military duty each month throughout <sup>A</sup> the year. There were 24,000 in each division:

<sup>2</sup> Jashobeam son of Zabdiel was in charge of the first division, for the first month; 24,000 were in his division. <sup>3</sup> He was a descendant of Perez and chief of all the army commanders for the first month.

<sup>4</sup> Dodai the Ahohite was in charge of the division for the second month, and Mikloth was the leader; 24,000 were in his division.

<sup>5</sup> The third army commander, as chief for the third month, was Benaiah son of Jehoiada the priest; 24,000 were in his division. <sup>6</sup> This Benaiah was a mighty man among the Thirty and over the Thirty, and his son Ammizabad was in charge of his division.

<sup>7</sup> The fourth commander, for the fourth month, was Joab's brother Asahel, and his son Zebadiah was commander after him; 24,000 were in his division.

<sup>8</sup> The fifth, for the fifth month, was the commander Shamhuth the Izrahite; 24,000 were in his division.

<sup>9</sup> The sixth, for the sixth month, was Ira son of Ikkesh the Tekoite; 24,000 were in his division.

<sup>10</sup> The seventh, for the seventh month, was Helez the Pelonite from the sons of Ephraim; 24,000 were in his division.

<sup>11</sup> The eighth, for the eighth month, was Sibbecai the Hushathite, a Zerahite; 24,000 were in his division.

<sup>12</sup> The ninth, for the ninth month, was Abiezer the Anathothite, a Benjaminite; 24,000 were in his division.

<sup>13</sup> The tenth, for the tenth month, was Maharai the Netophathite, a Zerahite; 24,000 were in his division.

<sup>14</sup> The eleventh, for the eleventh month, was Benaiah the Pirathonite from the sons of Ephraim; 24,000 were in his division.

<sup>15</sup> The twelfth, for the twelfth month, was Heldai the Netophathite, of Othniel's family; <sup>B</sup> 24,000 were in his division.

<sup>16</sup> The following were in charge of the tribes of Israel:

For the Reubenites, Eliezer son of Zichri was the chief official;
for the Simeonites, Shephatiah son of Maacah;

for Naphtali, Jerimoth son of Azriel;

<sup>20</sup> for the Ephraimites, Hoshea son of Azaziah;

for half the tribe of Manasseh, Joel son of Pedaiah;

<sup>21</sup> for half the tribe of Manasseh in Gilead, Iddo son of Zechariah; for Benjamin, Jaasiel son of Abner;

Those were the leaders of the tribes of Israel.

<sup>23</sup> David didn't count the men aged 20 or under, for the LORD had said He would make Israel as numerous as the stars of heaven. <sup>24†</sup> Joab son of Zeruiah began to count them, but he didn't complete it. There was wrath against Israel because of this census, and the number was not entered in the Historical Record of King David.

Jonathan son of Uzziah was in charge of the storehouses in the country, in the cities, in the villages, and in the fortresses.

<sup>26</sup> Ezri son of Chelub was in charge of those who worked in the fields tilling the soil.

Zabdi the Shiphmite was in charge of the produce of the vineyards for the wine cellars.

<sup>28</sup> Baal-hanan the Gederite was in charge of the olive and sycamore trees in the Judean foothills. <sup>C</sup>

Joash was in charge of the stores of olive oil.

<sup>29</sup> Shitrai the Sharonite was in charge of the herds that grazed in Sharon, while

Shaphat son of Adlai was in charge of the herds in the valleys.

<sup>30</sup> Obil the Ishmaelite was in charge of the camels.

Jehdeiah the Meronothite was in charge of the donkeys.

<sup>31</sup> Jaziz the Hagrite was in charge of the flocks.

All these were officials in charge of King David's property.

<sup>32</sup> David's uncle Jonathan was a counselor; he was a man of understanding and a scribe. Jehiel son of Hachmoni attended <sup>D</sup> the king's sons. <sup>33†</sup> Ahithophel was the king's counselor. Hushai the Archite was the king's friend. <sup>34</sup> After Ahithophel came Jehoiada son of Benaiah, then Abiathar. Joab was the commander of the king's army.

David Commissions Solomon to Build the Temple

28 †David assembled all the leaders of Israel in Jerusalem: the leaders of the tribes, the leaders of the divisions in the king's service, the commanders of thousands and the commanders of hundreds, and the officials in charge of all the property and cattle of the king and his sons, along with the court officials, the fighting men, and all the brave warriors. <sup>2†</sup> Then King David rose to his feet and said, "Listen to me, my brothers and my people. It was in my heart to build a house as a resting place for the ark of the LORD's covenant and as a footstool for our God. I had made preparations to build, <sup>3†</sup> but God said to me, 'You are not to build a house for My name because you are a man of war and have shed blood.'

<sup>4†</sup> "Yet the LORD God of Israel chose me out of all my father's household to be king over Israel forever. For He chose Judah as leader, and from the house of Judah, my father's household, and from my father's sons, He was pleased to make me king over all Israel. <sup>5</sup> And out of all my sons — for the LORD has given me many sons — He has chosen my son Solomon to sit on the throne of the LORD's kingdom over Israel. <sup>6</sup> He said to me, 'Your son Solomon is the one who is to build My house and My courts, for I have chosen him to be My son, and I will be his father. <sup>7†</sup> I will establish his kingdom forever if he perseveres in keeping My commands and My ordinances as he is today.'

<sup>8</sup> "So now in the sight of all Israel, the assembly of the LORD, and in the hearing of our God, observe and follow all the commands of the LORD your God so that you may possess this good land and leave it as an inheritance to your descendants forever.

<sup>9</sup> "As for you, Solomon my son, know the God of your father, and serve Him with a whole heart and a willing mind, for the LORD searches every heart and understands the intention of every thought. If you seek Him, He will be found by you, but if you forsake Him, He will reject you forever.

<sup>10</sup> Realize now that the LORD has chosen you to build a house for the sanctuary. Be strong, and do it.”

<sup>11</sup> Then David gave his son Solomon the plans for the portico of the temple and its buildings, treasuries, upper rooms, inner rooms, and a room for the •mercy seat. <sup>12†</sup> The plans contained everything he had in mind <sup>A</sup>, for the courts of the LORD’s house, all the surrounding chambers, the treasuries of God’s house, and the treasuries for what is dedicated. <sup>13</sup> Also included were plans for the divisions of the priests and the Levites; all the work of service in the LORD’s house; all the articles of service of the LORD’s house; <sup>14</sup> the weight of gold for all the articles for every kind of service; the weight of all the silver articles for every kind of service; <sup>15</sup> the weight of the gold lampstands and their gold lamps, including the weight of each lampstand and its lamps; the weight of each silver lampstand and its lamps, according to the service of each lampstand; <sup>16</sup> the weight of gold for each table for the rows of the •bread of the Presence and the silver for the silver tables; <sup>17</sup> the pure gold for the forks, sprinkling basins, and pitchers; the weight of each gold dish; the weight of each silver bowl; <sup>18</sup> the weight of refined gold for the altar of incense; and the plans for the chariot of <sup>B</sup>, the gold •cherubim that spread out their wings and cover the ark of the LORD’s covenant.

<sup>19†</sup> David concluded, “By the LORD’s hand on me, He enabled me to understand everything in writing, all the details of the plan.” <sup>C</sup>

<sup>20</sup> Then David said to his son Solomon, “Be strong and courageous, and do the work. Don’t be afraid or discouraged, for the LORD God, my God, is with you. He won’t leave you or forsake you until all the work for the service of the LORD’s house is finished. <sup>21</sup> Here are the divisions of the priests and the Levites for all the service of God’s house. Every willing man of any skill will be at your disposal for the work, and the leaders and all the people are at your every command.”

Contributions for Building the Temple

29 Then King David said to all the assembly, “My son Solomon — God has chosen him alone — is young and inexperienced. The task is great because the temple will not be for man but for the LORD God. <sup>2</sup> So to the best of my ability I’ve made provision for the house of my God: gold for the gold articles, silver for the silver, bronze for the bronze, iron for the iron, and wood for the wood, as well as onyx, stones for mounting, <sup>A</sup> antimony, stones of various colors, all kinds of precious stones, and a great quantity of marble. <sup>3</sup> Moreover, because of my delight in the house of my God, I now give my personal treasures of gold and silver for the house of my God over and above all that I’ve provided for the holy house: <sup>4</sup> 100 tons <sup>B</sup>, of gold (gold of Ophir ) and 250 tons <sup>C</sup> of refined silver for overlaying the walls of the buildings, <sup>5</sup> the gold for the gold work and the silver for the silver, for all the work to be done by the craftsmen. Now who will volunteer to consecrate himself to the LORD today? ”

<sup>6†</sup> Then the leaders of the households, the leaders of the tribes of Israel, the commanders of thousands and of hundreds, and the officials in charge of the king’s work gave willingly. <sup>7†</sup> For the service of God’s house they gave 185 tons <sup>D</sup> of gold and 10,000 gold coins, <sup>E</sup>, 375 tons <sup>F</sup> of silver, 675 tons <sup>G</sup> of bronze, and 4,000 tons <sup>H</sup> of iron. <sup>8</sup> Whoever had precious stones gave them to the treasury of the LORD’s house under the care of Jehiel the Gershonite. <sup>9</sup> Then the people rejoiced because of their leaders’ willingness to give, for they had given to the LORD with a whole heart. King David also rejoiced greatly.

David’s Prayer

<sup>10†</sup> Then David praised the LORD in the sight of all the assembly. David said,

May You be praised, LORD God of our father Israel, from eternity to eternity. <sup>11</sup> Yours, LORD, is the greatness and the power and the glory and the splendor and the majesty, for everything in the heavens and on earth belongs to You. Yours, LORD, is the kingdom, and You are exalted as head over all. <sup>12</sup> Riches and honor come from You, and You are the ruler of everything. Power and might are in Your hand, and it is in Your hand to make great and to give strength to all. <sup>13</sup> Now therefore, our God, we give You thanks and praise Your glorious name.

<sup>14</sup> But who am I, and who are my people, that we should be able to give as generously as this? For everything comes from You, and we have given You only what comes from Your own hand. <sup>I</sup>

<sup>15</sup> For we live before You as foreigners and temporary residents in Your presence as were all our ancestors. Our days on earth are like a shadow, without hope. <sup>16</sup> •Yahweh our God, all this wealth that we've provided for building You a house for Your holy name comes from Your hand; everything belongs to You. <sup>17</sup> I know, my God, that You test the heart and that You are pleased with what is right. I have willingly given all these things with an upright heart, and now I have seen Your people who are present <sup>J</sup> here giving joyfully and <sup>K</sup> willingly to You. <sup>18</sup> LORD God of Abraham, Isaac, and Israel, our ancestors, keep this desire forever in the thoughts of the hearts of Your people, and confirm their hearts toward You. <sup>19</sup> Give my son Solomon a whole heart to keep and to carry out all Your commands, Your decrees, and Your statutes, and to build the temple for which I have made provision.

<sup>20</sup> Then David said to the whole assembly, "Praise the LORD your God." So the whole assembly praised the LORD God of their ancestors. They bowed down and paid homage to the LORD and the king.

<sup>21</sup> The following day they offered sacrifices to the LORD and •burnt offerings to the LORD: 1,000 bulls, 1,000 rams, and 1,000 lambs, along with their •drink offerings, and sacrifices in abundance for all Israel. <sup>22†</sup> They ate and drank with great joy in the LORD's presence that day.

The Enthronement of Solomon

Then, for a second time, they made David's son Solomon king; they anointed him as the LORD's ruler, and Zadok as the priest. <sup>23</sup> Solomon sat on the LORD's throne as king in place of his father David. He prospered, and all Israel obeyed him. <sup>24</sup> All the leaders and the mighty men, and all of King David's sons as well, pledged their allegiance to King Solomon.

<sup>25</sup> The LORD highly exalted Solomon in the sight of all Israel and bestowed on him such royal majesty as had not been bestowed on any king over Israel before him.

A Summary of David's Life

<sup>26</sup> David son of Jesse was king over all Israel. <sup>27</sup> The length of his reign over Israel was 40 years; he reigned in Hebron for seven years and in Jerusalem for 33. <sup>28</sup> He died at a ripe old age, full of days, riches, and honor, and his son Solomon became king in his place. <sup>29†</sup> As for the events of King David's reign, from beginning to end, note that they are written in the Events of Samuel the Seer, the Events of Nathan the Prophet, and the Events of Gad the Seer, <sup>30</sup> along with all his reign, his might, and the incidents that affected him and Israel and all the kingdoms of the surrounding lands.

2 CHRONICLES

Solomon's Request for Wisdom

1 †Solomon son of David strengthened his hold on his kingdom. The LORD his God was with him and highly exalted him. <sup>2†</sup> Then Solomon spoke to all Israel, to the commanders of thousands and of hundreds, to the judges, and to every leader in all Israel — the heads of the families.

<sup>3</sup> Solomon and the whole assembly with him went to the •high place that was in Gibeon because God’s tent of meeting, which the LORD’s servant Moses had made in the wilderness, was there. <sup>4†</sup> Now David had brought the ark of God from Kiriath-jearim to the place he had set up for it, because he had pitched a tent for it in Jerusalem, <sup>5†</sup> but he put the bronze altar, which Bezalel son of Uri, son of Hur, had made, in front of the LORD’s tabernacle. Solomon and the assembly inquired of Him <sup>A</sup> there. <sup>6</sup> Solomon offered sacrifices there in the LORD’s presence on the bronze altar at the tent of meeting; he offered 1,000 •burnt offerings on it.

<sup>7†</sup> That night God appeared to Solomon and said to him: “Ask. What should I give you? ”

<sup>8</sup> And Solomon said to God: “You have shown great and faithful love to my father David, and You have made me king in his place. <sup>9</sup> LORD God, let Your promise to my father David now come true. For You have made me king over a people as numerous as the dust of the earth. <sup>10</sup> Now grant me wisdom and knowledge so that I may lead these people, for who can judge this great people of Yours? ”

<sup>11†</sup> God said to Solomon, “Since this was in your heart, and you have not requested riches, wealth, or glory, or for the life of those who hate you, and you have not even requested long life, but you have requested for yourself wisdom and knowledge that you may judge My people over whom I have made you king, <sup>12</sup> wisdom and knowledge are given to you. I will also give you riches, wealth, and glory, unlike what was given to the kings who were before you, or will be given to those after you.” <sup>13†</sup> So Solomon went to Jerusalem from the high place that was in Gibeon in front of the tent of meeting, and he reigned over Israel.

Solomon’s Horses and Wealth

<sup>14†</sup> Solomon accumulated 1,400 chariots and 12,000 horsemen, which he stationed in the chariot cities and with the king in Jerusalem. <sup>15†</sup> The king made silver and gold as common in Jerusalem as stones, and he made cedar as abundant as sycamore in the Judean foothills. <sup>16†</sup> Solomon's horses came from Egypt and Kue. The king's traders would get them from Kue at the going price. <sup>17†</sup> A chariot could be imported from Egypt for 15 pounds <sup>B</sup> of silver and a horse for about four pounds. <sup>C</sup> In the same way, they exported them to all the kings of the Hittites and to the kings of Aram through their agents.

2 CHRONICLES

Chapter 2 Solomon's Letter to Hiram

<sup>1</sup>Solomon decided to build a temple for the name of •Yahweh and a royal palace for himself, <sup>2</sup> so he assigned 70,000 men as porters, 80,000 men as stonecutters in the mountains, and 3,600 as supervisors over them.

Do for me what you did for my father David. You sent him cedars to build him a house to live in. <sup>4</sup> Now I am building a temple for the name of Yahweh my God in order to dedicate it to Him for burning fragrant incense before Him, for displaying the rows of the •bread of the Presence continuously, and for sacrificing •burnt offerings for the morning and the evening, the Sabbaths and the New Moons, and the appointed festivals of the LORD our God.

This is ordained for Israel forever. <sup>5</sup> The temple that I am building will be great, for our God is greater than any of the gods. <sup>6†</sup> But who is able to build a temple for Him, since even heaven and the highest heaven cannot contain Him? Who am I then that I should build a temple for Him except as a place to burn incense before Him? <sup>7†</sup> Therefore, send me a craftsman who is skilled in engraving to work with gold, silver, bronze, and iron, and with purple, crimson, and blue yarn. He will work with the craftsmen who are with me in Judah and Jerusalem, appointed by my father David. <sup>8</sup> Also, send me cedar, cypress, and algum logs from Lebanon, for I know that your servants know how to cut the trees of Lebanon. Note that my servants will be with your servants <sup>9</sup> to prepare logs for me in abundance because the temple I am building will be great and wonderful. <sup>10†</sup> I will give your servants, the woodcutters who cut the trees, 100,000 bushels <sup>A</sup> of wheat flour, 100,000 bushels <sup>B</sup> of barley, 110,000 gallons <sup>C</sup> of wine, and 110,000 gallons <sup>D</sup> of oil.

Hiram's Reply

Because the LORD loves His people, He set you over them as king.

<sup>12</sup> Hiram also said:

May the LORD God of Israel, who made the heavens and the earth, be praised! He gave King David a wise son with insight and understanding, who will build a temple for the LORD and a royal palace for himself. <sup>13</sup> I have now sent Hiram-abi, <sup>F</sup> a skillful man who has understanding. <sup>14</sup> He is the son of a woman from the daughters of Dan. His father is a man of Tyre. He knows how to work with gold, silver, bronze, iron, stone, and wood, with purple, blue, crimson yarn, and fine linen. He knows how to do all kinds of engraving and to execute any design that may be given him. I have sent him to be with your craftsmen and the craftsmen of my lord, your father David. <sup>15</sup> Now, let my lord send the wheat, barley, oil, and wine to his servants as promised. <sup>16</sup> We will cut logs from Lebanon, as many as you need, and bring them to you as rafts by sea to Joppa. You can then take them up to Jerusalem.

Solomon's Work Force

<sup>17†</sup> Solomon took a census of all the foreign men in the land of Israel, after the census that his father David had conducted, and the total was 153,600. <sup>18</sup> Solomon made 70,000 of them porters, 80,000 stonemasons in the mountains, and 3,600 supervisors to make the people work.

2 CHRONICLES

Building the Temple

3 Then Solomon began to build the LORD's temple in Jerusalem on Mount Moriah where the LORD had appeared to his father David, at the site David had prepared on the threshing floor of Ornan the Jebusite. <sup>2</sup> He began to build on the second day of the second month in the fourth year of his reign. <sup>3†</sup> These are Solomon's foundations for building God's temple: the length <sup>A</sup> was 90 feet, <sup>B</sup> and the width 30 feet. <sup>C</sup> <sup>4</sup> The portico, which was across the front extending across the width of the temple, was 30 feet <sup>D</sup> wide; its height was 30 feet; he overlaid its inner surface with pure gold. <sup>5</sup> The larger room <sup>F</sup> he paneled with cypress wood, overlaid with fine gold, and decorated with palm trees and chains. <sup>6</sup> He adorned the temple with precious stones for beauty, and the gold was the gold of Parvaim. <sup>7</sup> He overlaid the temple — the beams, the thresholds, its walls and doors — with gold, and he carved •cherubim on the walls.

The Most Holy Place

<sup>8</sup> Then he made the most holy place; its length corresponded to the width of the temple, 30 feet, <sup>G</sup> and its width was 30 feet. <sup>H</sup>, He overlaid it with 45,000 pounds <sup>I</sup> of fine gold. <sup>9</sup> The weight of the nails was 20 ounces <sup>J</sup> of gold, and he overlaid the ceiling with gold.

<sup>10</sup> He made two cherubim of sculptured work, for the most holy place, and he overlaid them with gold. <sup>11</sup> The overall length of the wings of the cherubim was 30 feet: <sup>K</sup> the wing of one was 7 1/2 feet, <sup>L</sup> touching the wall of the room; its other wing was 7 1/2 feet, <sup>M</sup> touching the wing of the other cherub. <sup>12</sup> The wing of the other cherub was 7 1/2 feet, <sup>N</sup> touching the wall of the room; its other wing was 7 1/2 feet, <sup>O</sup> reaching the wing of the other cherub. <sup>13</sup> The wingspan of these cherubim was 30 feet. <sup>P</sup> They stood on their feet and faced the larger room. <sup>Q</sup>

<sup>14</sup> He made the veil of blue, purple, and crimson yarn and fine linen, and he wove cherubim into it.

The Bronze Pillars

<sup>15</sup> In front of the temple he made two pillars, each 27 feet high. The capital on top of each was 7 1/2 feet <sup>S</sup> high. <sup>16</sup> He had made chainwork in the inner sanctuary and also put it on top of the pillars. He made 100 pomegranates and fastened them into the chainwork. <sup>17</sup> Then he set up the pillars in front of the sanctuary, one on the right and one on the left. He named the one on the right Jachin and the one on the left Boaz.

2 CHRONICLES

The Altar, Reservoir, and Basins

4 † He made a bronze altar 30 feet <sup>A</sup> long, 30 feet <sup>B</sup> wide, and 15 feet <sup>C</sup> high.

2 † Then he made the cast metal reservoir, 15 feet <sup>D</sup> from brim to brim, perfectly round. It was 7 1/2 feet <sup>E</sup> high and 45 feet <sup>F</sup> in circumference.

3 The likeness of oxen was below it, completely encircling it, 10 every half yard, <sup>G</sup> completely surrounding the reservoir. The oxen were cast in two rows when the reservoir was cast. 4 It stood on 12 oxen, three facing north, three facing west, three facing south, and three facing east. The reservoir was on top of them and all their hindquarters were toward the center. 5 The reservoir was three inches <sup>H</sup> thick, and its rim was fashioned like the brim of a cup or a lily blossom. It could hold 11,000 gallons.

6 He made 10 basins for washing and he put five on the right and five on the left. The parts of the •burnt offering were rinsed in them, but the reservoir was used by the priests for washing.

The Lampstands, Tables, and Courts

7 † He made the 10 gold lampstands according to their specifications and put them in the sanctuary, five on the right and five on the left. 8 He made 10 tables and placed them in the sanctuary, five on the right and five on the left. He also made 100 gold bowls.

9 † He made the courtyard of the priests and the large court, and doors for the court. He overlaid the doors with bronze. 10 He put the reservoir on the right side, toward the southeast. 11 Then Hiram made the pots, the shovels, and the bowls.

Completion of the Bronze Furnishings

So Hiram finished doing the work that he was doing for King Solomon in God's temple: 12 two pillars; the bowls and the capitals on top of the two pillars; the two gratings for covering both bowls of the capitals that were on top of the pillars; 13 the 400 pomegranates for the two gratings (two rows of pomegranates for each grating covering both capitals' bowls on top of the pillars ).<sup>14</sup> He also made the water carts<sup>I</sup> and the basins on the water carts.<sup>15</sup> The one reservoir and the 12 oxen underneath it,<sup>16</sup> the pots, the shovels, the forks, and all their utensils — Hiram-abi<sup>J</sup> made them for King Solomon for the LORD's temple. All these were made of polished bronze.<sup>17</sup> The king had them cast in clay molds in the Jordan Valley between Succoth and Zeredah.<sup>18</sup> Solomon made all these utensils in such great abundance that the weight of the bronze was not determined.

Completion of the Gold Furnishings

<sup>19†</sup> Solomon also made all the equipment in God's temple: the gold altar; the tables on which to put the •bread of the Presence; <sup>20</sup> the lampstands and their lamps of pure gold to burn in front of the inner sanctuary according to specifications; <sup>21</sup> the flowers, lamps, and gold tongs — of purest gold; <sup>22</sup> the wick trimmers, sprinkling basins, ladles,<sup>K</sup> and firepans — of purest gold; and the entryway to the temple, its inner doors to the most holy place, and the doors of the temple sanctuary — of gold.

2 CHRONICLES

5 So all the work Solomon did for the LORD's temple was completed. Then Solomon brought the consecrated things of his father David — the silver, the gold, and all the utensils — and put them in the treasuries of God's temple.

Preparations for the Temple Dedication

<sup>2†</sup> At that time Solomon assembled at Jerusalem the elders of Israel — all the tribal heads, the ancestral chiefs of the Israelites — in order to bring the ark of the covenant of the LORD up from the city of David, that is, •Zion. <sup>3</sup> So all the men of Israel were assembled in the king's presence at the festival; this was in the seventh month.

<sup>4†</sup> All the elders of Israel came, and the Levites picked up the ark. <sup>5</sup> They brought up the ark, the tent of meeting, and the holy utensils that were in the tent. The priests and the Levites brought them up. <sup>6</sup> King Solomon and the entire congregation of Israel who had gathered around him were in front of the ark sacrificing sheep and cattle that could not be counted or numbered because there were so many. <sup>7</sup> The priests brought the ark of the LORD's covenant to its place, into the inner sanctuary of the temple, to the most holy place, beneath the wings of the •cherubim. <sup>8</sup> And the cherubim spread their wings over the place of the ark so that the cherubim formed a cover above the ark and its poles. <sup>9†</sup> The poles were so long that their ends were seen from the holy place in front of the inner sanctuary, but they were not seen from outside; they are there to this very day. <sup>10</sup> Nothing was in the ark except the two tablets that Moses had put in it at Horeb, where the LORD had made a covenant with the Israelites when they came out of Egypt.

<sup>11</sup> Now all the priests who were present had consecrated themselves regardless of their divisions. When the priests came out of the holy place, <sup>12</sup> the Levitical singers dressed in fine linen and carrying cymbals, harps, and lyres were standing east of the altar, and with them were 120 priests blowing trumpets. The Levitical singers were descendants of •Asaph, Heman, and Jeduthun and their sons and relatives. <sup>13</sup> The trumpeters and singers joined together to praise and thank the LORD with one voice. They raised their voices, accompanied by trumpets, cymbals, and musical instruments, in praise to the LORD:

For He is good;
His faithful love endures forever.

The temple, the LORD's temple, was filled with a cloud. <sup>14†</sup> And because of the cloud, the priests were not able to continue ministering, for the glory of the LORD filled God's temple.

2 CHRONICLES

Solomon's Dedication of the Temple

6 Then Solomon said:

The LORD said He would dwell in thick darkness,
2 but I have built an exalted temple for You,
a place for Your residence forever.

3 Then the king turned and blessed the entire congregation of Israel while they were standing. 4 He said:

May the LORD God of Israel be praised!
He spoke directly to my father David, and He has fulfilled the promise by His power.
He said,

5 “Since the day I brought My people Israel out of the land of Egypt,
I have not chosen a city to build a temple in among any of the tribes of Israel,
so that My name would be there,
and I have not chosen a man to be ruler over My people Israel.

6† But I have chosen Jerusalem so that My name will be there, and I have chosen David to be over My people Israel.”

7 Now it was in the heart of my father David to build a temple for the name of •Yahweh, the God of Israel.

8 However, Yahweh said to my father David,
“Since it was your desire to build a temple for My name,
you have done well to have this desire.

9 Yet, you are not the one to build the temple, but your son, your own offspring, will build the temple for My name.”

10 So Yahweh has fulfilled what He promised.
I have taken the place of my father David and I sit on the throne of Israel, as Yahweh promised.

I have built the temple for the name of Yahweh, the God of Israel.

<sup>11</sup> I have put the ark there, where Yahweh's covenant is that He made with the Israelites.

Solomon's Prayer

<sup>12</sup> Then Solomon stood before the altar of the LORD in front of the entire congregation of Israel and spread out his hands. <sup>13</sup> For Solomon had made a bronze platform 7 1/2 feet <sup>A</sup> long, 7 1/2 feet <sup>B</sup> wide, and 4 1/2 feet <sup>C</sup> high and put it in the court. He stood on it, knelt down in front of the entire congregation of Israel, and spread out his hands toward heaven. <sup>14</sup> He said:

LORD God of Israel,
there is no God like You
in heaven or on earth, keeping His gracious covenant with Your servants who walk before You
with their whole heart.

<sup>15</sup> You have kept what You promised to Your servant, my father David.
You spoke directly to him,
and You fulfilled Your promise by Your power,
as it is today.

<sup>16</sup> Therefore, LORD God of Israel,
keep what You promised
to Your servant, my father David:
"You will never fail to have a man
to sit before Me on the throne of Israel, if only your sons guard their way to walk in My Law
as you have walked before Me."

<sup>17</sup> Now, LORD God of Israel, please confirm what You promised to Your servant David.

<sup>18</sup> But will God indeed live on earth with man?
Even heaven, the highest heaven, cannot contain You,
much less this temple I have built.

<sup>19</sup> Listen <sup>D</sup> to Your servant's prayer and his petition, LORD my God,

so that You may hear the cry and the prayer that Your servant prays before You,

<sup>20</sup> so that Your eyes watch over this temple day and night,

toward the place where You said

You would put Your name;

and so that You may hear the prayer

Your servant prays toward this place.

<sup>21</sup> Hear the petitions of Your servant

and Your people Israel,

which they pray toward this place.

May You hear in Your dwelling place in heaven.

May You hear and forgive.

<sup>22</sup> If a man sins against his neighbor and is forced to take an oath <sup>E</sup>

and he comes to take an oath

before Your altar in this temple,

<sup>23</sup> may You hear in heaven and act.

May You judge Your servants,

condemning the wicked man by bringing

what he has done on his own head

and providing justice for the righteous

by rewarding him according to his righteousness.

<sup>24†</sup> If Your people Israel are defeated before an enemy, because they have sinned against You,

and they return to You and praise Your name, and they pray and plead for mercy before You in this temple,

<sup>25</sup> may You hear in heaven

and forgive the sin of Your people Israel.

May You restore them to the land

You gave them and their ancestors.

<sup>26</sup> When the skies are shut and there is no rain

because they have sinned against You,

and they pray toward this place
and praise Your name,
and they turn from their sins
because You are afflicting them,
<sup>27</sup> may You hear in heaven
and forgive the sin of Your servants
and Your people Israel,
so that You may teach them the good way
they should walk in.

May You send rain on Your land
that You gave Your people for an inheritance.

<sup>28†</sup> When there is famine on the earth,
when there is pestilence,
when there is blight, mildew, locust, or grasshopper,
when their enemies besiege them in the region of their fortified cities, <sup>F</sup>,
when there is any plague or illness,
<sup>29</sup> whatever prayer or petition
anyone from your people Israel might have — each man knowing his own affliction <sup>G</sup> and suffering, and spreading out his hands toward this temple —

<sup>30†</sup> may You hear in heaven, Your dwelling place, and may You forgive and repay the man
according to all his ways, since You know his heart, for You alone know the human heart,

<sup>31</sup> so that they may •fear You and walk in Your ways
all the days they live on the land
You gave our ancestors.

<sup>32</sup> Even for the foreigner who is not of Your people Israel but has come from a distant land because of Your great name and Your mighty hand and outstretched arm:
when he comes and prays toward this temple,

<sup>33</sup> may You hear in heaven in Your dwelling place, and do all the foreigner asks You.

Then all the peoples of the earth will know Your name,
to fear You as Your people Israel do
and know that this temple I have built
is called by Your name.

<sup>34</sup> When Your people go out to fight against their enemies, wherever You send them,
and they pray to You in the direction of this city You have chosen and the temple that I have built for Your name, <sup>35</sup> may You hear their prayer and petition in heaven and uphold their cause.

<sup>36</sup> When they sin against You —
for there is no one who does not sin —
and You are angry with them
and hand them over to the enemy, and their captors deport them to a distant or nearby country,

<sup>37</sup> and when they come to their senses
in the land where they were deported
and repent and petition You in their captors' land, saying: "We have sinned and done wrong;
we have been wicked,"

<sup>38</sup> and when they return to You with their whole mind and heart in the land of their captivity where they were taken captive, and when they pray in the direction of their land that You gave their ancestors, and the city You have chosen,
and toward the temple I have built for Your name,

<sup>39</sup> may You hear their prayer and petitions in heaven,
Your dwelling place, and uphold their cause. <sup>H</sup>

May You forgive Your people who sinned against You.

<sup>40</sup> Now, my God, please let Your eyes be open and Your ears attentive to the prayer of this place.

<sup>41</sup> Now therefore:

Arise, LORD God, come to Your resting place,
You and Your powerful ark.

May Your priests, LORD God, be clothed with salvation, and may Your godly people rejoice in goodness.

<sup>42†</sup> LORD God, do not reject Your anointed one; remember the loyalty of Your servant David.

2 CHRONICLES

The Dedication Ceremonies

7 When Solomon finished praying, fire descended from heaven and consumed the •burnt offering and the sacrifices, and the glory of the LORD filled the temple. <sup>2</sup> The priests were not able to enter the LORD's temple because the glory of the LORD filled the temple of the LORD. <sup>3</sup> All the Israelites were watching when the fire descended and the glory of the LORD came on the temple. They bowed down on the pavement with their faces to the ground. They worshiped and praised the LORD:

For He is good,
for His faithful love endures forever.

<sup>4</sup> The king and all the people were offering sacrifices in the LORD's presence. <sup>5†</sup> King Solomon offered a sacrifice of 22,000 cattle and 120,000 sheep. In this manner the king and all the people dedicated God's temple. <sup>6</sup> The priests and the Levites were standing at their stations. The Levites had the musical instruments of the LORD, which King David had made to praise the LORD — “for His faithful love endures forever” — when he offered praise with them. Across from the Levites, the priests were blowing trumpets, and all the people were standing. <sup>7</sup> Since the bronze altar that Solomon had made could not accommodate the burnt offering, the •grain offering, and the fat of the •fellowship offerings, Solomon first consecrated the middle of the courtyard that was in front of the LORD's temple and then offered the burnt offerings and the fat of the fellowship offerings there.

<sup>8†</sup> So Solomon and all Israel with him — a very great assembly, from the entrance to Hamath <sup>A</sup> to the Brook of Egypt — observed the festival at that time for seven days. <sup>9†</sup> On the eighth day they held a sacred assembly, for the dedication of the altar lasted seven days and the festival seven days.

<sup>10</sup> On the twenty-third day of the seventh month he sent the people away to their tents, rejoicing and with happy hearts for the goodness the LORD had done for David, for Solomon, and for His people Israel.

<sup>11</sup> So Solomon finished the LORD's temple and the royal palace. Everything that had entered Solomon's heart to do for the LORD's temple and for his own palace succeeded.

The LORD's Response

<sup>12†</sup> Then the LORD appeared to Solomon at night and said to him:

I have heard your prayer and have chosen this place for Myself as a temple of sacrifice. <sup>13</sup> If I close the sky so there is no rain, or if I command the grasshopper to consume the land, or if I send pestilence on My people, <sup>14</sup> and My people who are called by My name humble themselves, pray and seek My face, and turn from their evil ways, then I will hear from heaven, forgive their sin, and heal their land. <sup>15</sup> My eyes will now be open and My ears attentive to prayer from this place. <sup>16</sup> And I have now chosen and consecrated this temple so that My name may be there forever; My eyes and My heart will be there at all times.

<sup>17</sup> As for you, if you walk before Me as your father David walked, doing everything I have commanded you, and if you keep My statutes and ordinances, <sup>18†</sup> I will establish your royal throne, as I promised your father David: You will never fail to have a man ruling in Israel.

<sup>19†</sup> However, if you turn away and abandon My statutes and My commands that I have set before you and if you go and serve other gods and worship them, <sup>20</sup> then I will uproot Israel from the soil that I gave them, and this temple that I have sanctified for My name I will banish from My presence; I will make it an object of scorn and ridicule among all the peoples. <sup>21</sup> As for this temple, which was exalted, everyone who passes by will be appalled and will say: Why did the LORD do this to this land and this temple? <sup>22</sup> Then they will say: Because they abandoned the LORD God of their ancestors who brought them out of the land of Egypt. They clung to other gods and worshiped and served them. Because of this, He brought all this ruin on them.

2 CHRONICLES

Solomon's Later Building Projects

8 At the end of 20 years during which Solomon had built the LORD's temple and his own palace — <sup>2†</sup> Solomon had rebuilt the cities Hiram gave him and settled Israelites there — <sup>3†</sup> Solomon went to Hamath-zobah and seized it. <sup>4</sup> He built Tadmor in the wilderness along with all the storage cities that he built in Hamath. <sup>5</sup> He built Upper Beth-horon and Lower Beth-horon — fortified cities with walls, gates, and bars — <sup>6</sup> Baalath, all the storage cities that belonged to Solomon, all the chariot cities, the cavalry cities, and everything Solomon desired to build in Jerusalem, Lebanon, or anywhere else in the land of his dominion.

<sup>7</sup> As for all the peoples who remained of the Hittites, Amorites, Perizzites, Hivites, and Jebusites, who were not from Israel — <sup>8</sup> their descendants who remained in the land after them, those the Israelites had not completely destroyed — Solomon imposed forced labor on them; it is this way today. <sup>9</sup> But Solomon did not consign the Israelites to be slaves for his work; they were soldiers, commanders of his captains, and commanders of his chariots and his cavalry. <sup>10</sup> These were King Solomon's deputies: 250 who ruled over the people.

<sup>11†</sup> Solomon brought the daughter of Pharaoh from the city of David to the house he had built for her, for he said, "My wife must not live in the house of David king of Israel because the places the ark of the LORD has come into are holy."

Public Worship Established at the Temple

<sup>12</sup> At that time Solomon offered •burnt offerings to the LORD on the LORD's altar he had made in front of the portico. <sup>13</sup> He followed the daily requirement for offerings according to the commandment of Moses for Sabbaths, New Moons, and the three annual appointed festivals: the Festival of Unleavened Bread, the Festival of Weeks, and the Festival of Booths. <sup>14</sup> According to the ordinances of his father David, he appointed the divisions of the priests over their service, of the Levites over their responsibilities to offer praise and to minister before the priests following the daily requirement, and of the gatekeepers by their divisions with respect to each gate, for this had been the command of David, the man of God. <sup>15</sup> They did not turn aside from the king's command regarding the priests and the Levites concerning any matter or concerning the treasuries.

<sup>16</sup> All of Solomon's work was carried out from the day the foundation was laid for the LORD's temple until it was finished. So the LORD's temple was completed.

Solomon's Fleet

<sup>17</sup> At that time Solomon went to Ezion-geber and to Eloth on the seashore in the land of Edom. <sup>18†</sup> So Hiram <sup>A</sup> sent ships to him by his servants along with crews of experienced seamen. They went with Solomon's servants to Ophir, took from there 17 tons <sup>B</sup> of gold, and delivered it to King Solomon.

2 CHRONICLES

The Queen of Sheba

9† The queen of Sheba heard of Solomon's fame, so she came to test Solomon with difficult questions at Jerusalem with a very large entourage, with camels bearing spices, gold in abundance, and precious stones. She came to Solomon and spoke with him about everything that was on her mind.<sup>2</sup> So Solomon answered all her questions; nothing was too difficult for Solomon to explain to her.<sup>3</sup> When the queen of Sheba observed Solomon's wisdom, the palace he had built,<sup>4</sup> the food at his table, his servants' residence, his attendants' service and their attire, his cupbearers and their attire, and the •burnt offerings he offered at the LORD's temple, it took her breath away.

<sup>5</sup> She said to the king, "The report I heard in my own country about your words and about your wisdom is true.<sup>6</sup> But I didn't believe their reports until I came and saw with my own eyes. Indeed, I was not even told half of your great wisdom! You far exceed the report I heard.<sup>7</sup> How happy are your men. How happy are these servants of yours, who always stand in your presence hearing your wisdom.<sup>8</sup> May the LORD your God be praised! He delighted in you and put you on His throne as king for the LORD your God. Because Your God loved Israel enough to establish them forever, He has set you over them as king to carry out justice and righteousness."

<sup>9</sup> Then she gave the king four and a half tons <sup>A</sup> of gold, a great quantity of spices, and precious stones. There never were such spices as those the queen of Sheba gave to King Solomon.<sup>10</sup> In addition, Hiram's servants and Solomon's servants who brought gold from Ophir also brought alnum wood and precious stones.<sup>11</sup> The king made the alnum wood into walkways for the LORD's temple and for the king's palace and into lyres and harps for the singers. Never before had anything like them been seen in the land of Judah.

<sup>12</sup> King Solomon gave the queen of Sheba her every desire, whatever she asked — far more than she had brought the king. Then she, along with her servants, returned to her own country.

<sup>14</sup> besides what was brought by the merchants and traders. All the Arabian kings and governors of the land also brought gold and silver to Solomon.

pounds <sup>C</sup> of hammered gold went into each shield. <sup>16</sup> He made 300 small shields of hammered gold; about eight pounds <sup>D</sup> of gold went into each shield. The king put them in the House of the Forest of Lebanon.

<sup>18</sup> The throne had six steps; there was a footstool covered in gold for the throne, armrests on either side of the seat, and two lions standing beside the armrests. <sup>19</sup> Twelve lions were standing there on the six steps, one at each end. Nothing like it had ever been made in any other kingdom.

<sup>20</sup> All of King Solomon's drinking cups were gold, and all the utensils of the House of the Forest of Lebanon were pure gold. There was no silver, since it was considered as nothing in Solomon's time, <sup>21†</sup> for the king's ships kept going to Tarshish with Hiram's servants, and once every three years the ships of Tarshish would arrive bearing gold, silver, ivory, apes, and peacocks. <sup>E</sup>

wisdom. <sup>23</sup> All the kings of the world wanted an audience with Solomon to hear the wisdom God had put in his heart. <sup>24</sup> Each of them would bring his own gift — items <sup>F</sup> of silver and gold, clothing, weapons, spices, and horses and mules — as an annual tribute.

<sup>25</sup> Solomon had 4,000 stalls for horses and chariots, and 12,000 horsemen. He stationed them in the chariot cities and with the king in Jerusalem. <sup>26</sup> He ruled over all the kings from the Euphrates River to the land of the Philistines and as far as the border of Egypt. <sup>27</sup> The king made silver as common in Jerusalem as stones, and he made cedar as abundant as sycamore in the Judean foothills. <sup>28</sup> They were bringing horses for Solomon from Egypt and from all the countries.

Solomon's Death

<sup>29†</sup> The remaining events of Solomon's reign, from beginning to end, are written in the Events of Nathan the Prophet, the Prophecy of Ahijah the Shilonite, and the Visions of Iddo the Seer concerning Jeroboam son of Nebat. <sup>30</sup> Solomon reigned in Jerusalem over all Israel for 40 years.

<sup>31†</sup> Solomon rested with his fathers and was buried in the city of his father David. His son Rehoboam became king in his place.

2 CHRONICLES

The Kingdom Divided

10 Then Rehoboam went to Shechem, for all Israel had gone to Shechem to make him king.<sup>2</sup> When Jeroboam son of Nebat heard about it — for he was in Egypt where he had fled from King Solomon’s presence — Jeroboam returned from Egypt.<sup>3†</sup> So they summoned him. Then Jeroboam and all Israel came and spoke to Rehoboam:<sup>4</sup> “Your father made our yoke difficult. Therefore, lighten your father’s harsh service and the heavy yoke he put on us, and we will serve you.”

<sup>6</sup> Then King Rehoboam consulted with the elders who had served his father Solomon when he was alive, asking, “How do you advise me to respond to these people?”

<sup>7</sup> They replied, “If you will be kind to these people and please them by speaking kind words to them, they will be your servants forever.”

<sup>8</sup> But he rejected the advice of the elders who had advised him, and he consulted with the young men who had grown up with him, the ones serving him.<sup>9</sup> He asked them, “What message do you advise we send back to these people who said to me, ‘Lighten the yoke your father put on us’?”

<sup>10</sup> Then the young men who had grown up with him told him, “This is what you should say to the people who said to you, ‘Your father made our yoke heavy, but you, make it lighter on us!’ This is what you should say to them: ‘My little finger is thicker than my father’s loins.<sup>A</sup><sup>11</sup> Now therefore, my father burdened you with a heavy yoke, but I will add to your yoke; my father disciplined you with whips, but I, with barbed whips.’ ”<sup>B</sup>

<sup>12</sup> So Jeroboam and all the people came to Rehoboam on the third day, just as the king had ordered, saying, “Return to me on the third day.”

<sup>13</sup> Then the king answered them harshly. King Rehoboam rejected the elders’ advice<sup>14</sup> and spoke to them according to the young men’s advice, saying, “My father made your yoke heavy, but I will add to it; my father disciplined you with whips, but I, with barbed whips.”<sup>C</sup>

<sup>15</sup> The king did not listen to the people because the turn of events came from God, in order that the LORD might carry out His word that He had spoken through Ahijah the Shilonite to Jeroboam son of Nebat.

<sup>16†</sup> When all Israel saw that the king had not listened to them, the people answered the king:

What portion do we have in David?
We have no inheritance in the son of Jesse.
Israel, each man to your tent;
David, look after your own house now!

So all Israel went to their tents. <sup>17</sup> But as for the Israelites living in the cities of Judah, Rehoboam reigned over them.

<sup>18†</sup> Then King Rehoboam sent Hadoram, who was in charge of the forced labor, but the Israelites stoned him to death. However, King Rehoboam managed to get into his chariot to flee to Jerusalem. <sup>19</sup> Israel is in rebellion against the house of David until today.

2 CHRONICLES

Rehoboam in Jerusalem

11 When Rehoboam arrived in Jerusalem, he mobilized the house of Judah and Benjamin — 180,000 choice warriors — to fight against Israel to restore the reign to Rehoboam. <sup>2</sup> But the word of the LORD came to Shemaiah, the man of God: <sup>3</sup> “Say to Rehoboam son of Solomon, king of Judah, to all Israel in Judah and Benjamin, and to the rest of the people: <sup>4</sup> ‘This is what the LORD says: You are not to march up and fight against your brothers. Each of you must return home, for this incident has come from Me.’ ”

So they listened to what the LORD said and turned back from going against Jeroboam.

Judah’s King Rehoboam

<sup>22†</sup> Rehoboam appointed Abijah son of Maacah as chief, leader among his brothers, intending to make him king. <sup>23</sup> Rehoboam also showed discernment by dispersing some of his sons to all the regions of Judah and Benjamin and to all the fortified cities. He gave them plenty of provisions and sought many wives for them.

2 CHRONICLES

Shishak's Invasion

12† When Rehoboam had established his sovereignty and royal power, he abandoned the law of the LORD — he and all Israel with him.

<sup>2</sup> Because they were unfaithful to the LORD, in the fifth year of King Rehoboam, Shishak king of Egypt went to war against Jerusalem <sup>3†</sup> with 1,200 chariots, 60,000 cavalrymen, and countless people who came with him from Egypt — Libyans, Sukkiim, and Cushites. <sup>4†</sup> He captured the fortified cities of Judah and came as far as Jerusalem.

<sup>5</sup> Then Shemaiah the prophet went to Rehoboam and the leaders of Judah who were gathered at Jerusalem because of Shishak. He said to them: “This is what the LORD says: ‘You have abandoned Me; therefore, I have abandoned you into the hand of Shishak.’ ”

<sup>6</sup> So the leaders of Israel and the king humbled themselves and said, “•Yahweh is righteous.”

<sup>7</sup> When the LORD saw that they had humbled themselves, the LORD’s message came to Shemaiah: “They have humbled themselves; I will not destroy them but will grant them a little deliverance. My wrath will not be poured out on Jerusalem through Shishak. <sup>8</sup> However, they will become his servants so that they may recognize the difference between serving Me and serving the kingdoms of other lands.”

<sup>9</sup> So King Shishak of Egypt went to war against Jerusalem. He seized the treasuries of the LORD’s temple and the treasuries of the royal palace. He took everything. He took the gold shields that Solomon had made. <sup>10</sup> King Rehoboam made bronze shields in their place and committed them into the care of the captains of the royal escorts <sup>A</sup> who guarded the entrance to the king’s palace. <sup>11</sup> Whenever the king entered the LORD’s temple, the royal escorts would carry the shields and take them back to the royal escorts’ armory. <sup>12†</sup> When Rehoboam humbled himself, the LORD’s anger turned away from him, and He did not destroy him completely. Besides that, conditions were good in Judah.

Rehoboam’s Last Days

<sup>13</sup> King Rehoboam established his royal power in Jerusalem. Rehoboam was 41 years old when he became king and reigned 17 years in Jerusalem, the city the LORD had chosen from all the tribes of Israel to put His name. Rehoboam's mother's name was Naamah the Ammonite. <sup>14</sup> Rehoboam did what was evil, because he did not determine in his heart to seek the LORD.

<sup>15</sup> The events of Rehoboam's reign, from beginning to end, are written in the Events of Shemaiah the Prophet and of Iddo the Seer concerning genealogies. There was war between Rehoboam and Jeroboam throughout their reigns. <sup>16†</sup> Rehoboam rested with his fathers and was buried in the city of David. His son Abijah became king in his place.

2 CHRONICLES

Judah's King Abijah

13 In the eighteenth year of Israel's King Jeroboam, Abijah became king over Judah<sup>2</sup> and reigned three years in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Micaiah daughter of Uriel; she was from Gibeah.

There was war between Abijah and Jeroboam.<sup>3†</sup> Abijah set his army of warriors in order with 400,000 choice men. Jeroboam arranged his mighty army of 800,000 choice men in battle formation against him.<sup>4†</sup> Then Abijah stood on Mount Zemaraim, which is in the hill country of Ephraim, and said, "Jeroboam and all Israel, hear me.<sup>5</sup> Don't you know that the LORD God of Israel gave the kingship over Israel to David and his descendants forever by a covenant of salt?<sup>6</sup> But Jeroboam son of Nebat, a servant of Solomon son of David, rose up and rebelled against his lord.<sup>7</sup> Then worthless and •wicked men gathered around him to resist Rehoboam son of Solomon when Rehoboam was young, inexperienced, and unable to assert himself against them.

<sup>8</sup> "And now you are saying you can assert yourselves against the LORD's kingdom, which is in the hand of one of David's sons. You are a vast number and have with you the golden calves that Jeroboam made for you as gods. <sup>A</sup>, <sup>9</sup> Didn't you banish the priests of •Yahweh, the descendants of Aaron and the Levites, and make your own priests like the peoples of other lands do? Whoever comes to ordain himself with a young bull and seven rams may become a priest of what are not gods.

<sup>10</sup> "But as for us, Yahweh is our God. We have not abandoned Him; the priests ministering to the LORD are descendants of Aaron, and the Levites serve at their tasks.<sup>11</sup> They offer a •burnt offering and fragrant incense to the LORD every morning and every evening, and they set the rows of the •bread of the Presence on the ceremonially •clean table. They light the lamps of the gold lampstand every evening. We are carrying out the requirements of Yahweh our God, while you have abandoned Him.

<sup>12</sup> Look, God and His priests are with us at our head. The trumpets are ready to sound the charge against you. Israelites, don't fight against the LORD God of your ancestors, for you will not succeed."

<sup>13</sup> Now Jeroboam had sent an ambush around to advance from behind them. So they were in front of Judah, and the ambush was behind them.

<sup>14</sup> Judah turned and discovered that the battle was in front of them and behind them, so they cried out to the LORD. Then the priests blew the trumpets, <sup>15</sup> and the men of Judah raised the battle cry. When the men of Judah raised the battle cry, God routed Jeroboam and all Israel before Abijah and Judah. <sup>16</sup> So the Israelites fled before Judah, and God handed them over to them. <sup>17</sup> Then Abijah and his people struck them with a mighty blow, and 500,000 choice men of Israel were killed. <sup>18†</sup> The Israelites were subdued at that time. The Judahites succeeded because they depended on the LORD, the God of their ancestors.

<sup>19</sup> Abijah pursued Jeroboam and captured some cities from him: Bethel and its villages, Jeshanah and its villages, and Ephron and its villages.

<sup>21</sup> However, Abijah grew strong, acquired 14 wives, and fathered 22 sons and 16 daughters. <sup>22</sup> The rest of the events of Abijah's reign, along with his ways and his sayings, are written in the Writing of the Prophet Iddo.

2 CHRONICLES

14† Abijah rested with his fathers and was buried in the city of David. His son Asa became king in his place. During his reign the land experienced peace for 10 years.

Judah's King Asa

<sup>3</sup> He removed the pagan altars and the •high places. He shattered their sacred pillars and chopped down their •Asherah poles. <sup>4†</sup> He told the people of Judah to seek the LORD God of their ancestors and to carry out the instruction and the commands. <sup>5</sup> He also removed the high places and the incense altars from all the cities of Judah, and the kingdom experienced peace under him.

<sup>6</sup> Because the land experienced peace, Asa built fortified cities in Judah. No one made war with him in those days because the LORD gave him rest. <sup>7</sup> So he said to the people of Judah, “Let’s build these cities and surround them with walls and towers, with doors and bars. The land is still ours because we sought the LORD our God. We sought Him and He gave us rest on every side.” So they built and succeeded.

The Cushite Invasion

<sup>8</sup> Asa had an army of 300,000 from Judah bearing large shields and spears, and 280,000 from Benjamin bearing regular shields and drawing the bow. All these were brave warriors. <sup>9†</sup> Then Zerah the •Cushite came against them with an army of one million men and 300 chariots. They came as far as Mareshah. <sup>10</sup> So Asa marched out against him and lined up in battle formation in the Valley of Zephathah at Mareshah.

<sup>11</sup> Then Asa cried out to the LORD his God: “LORD, there is no one besides You to help the mighty and those without strength. Help us, LORD our God, for we depend on You, and in Your name we have come against this large army. •Yahweh, You are our God. Do not let a mere mortal hinder You.”

<sup>12</sup> So the LORD routed the Cushites before Asa and before Judah, and the Cushites fled. <sup>13</sup> Then Asa and the people who were with him pursued them as far as Gerar. The Cushites fell until they had no survivors, for they were crushed before Yahweh and His army. So the people of Judah carried off a great supply of loot. <sup>14</sup> Then they attacked all the cities around Gerar because the terror of the LORD was on them. They also plundered all the cities, since there was a great deal of plunder in them. <sup>15†</sup> They also attacked the tents of the herdsmen and captured many sheep and camels. Then they returned to Jerusalem.

2 CHRONICLES

Revival Under Asa

15 The Spirit of God came on Azariah son of Oded. <sup>2</sup> So he went out to meet Asa and said to him, “Asa and all Judah and Benjamin, hear me. The LORD is with you when you are with Him. If you seek Him, He will be found by you, but if you abandon Him, He will abandon you. <sup>3†</sup> For many years Israel has been without the true God, without a teaching priest, and without instruction, <sup>4</sup> but when they turned to the LORD God of Israel in their distress and sought Him, He was found by them. <sup>5</sup> In those times there was no peace for those who went about their daily activities because the residents of the lands had many conflicts. <sup>6</sup> Nation was crushed by nation and city by city, for God troubled them with every possible distress. <sup>7</sup> But as for you, be strong; don’t be discouraged, <sup>A</sup> for your work has a reward.”

<sup>8</sup> When Asa heard these words and the prophecy of Azariah son of Oded the prophet, he took courage and removed the detestable idols from the whole land of Judah and Benjamin and from the cities he had captured in the hill country of Ephraim. He renovated the altar of the LORD that was in front of the portico of the LORD’s temple. <sup>9†</sup> Then he gathered all Judah and Benjamin, as well as those from the tribes of Ephraim, Manasseh, and Simeon who had settled among them, for they had defected to him from Israel in great numbers when they saw that •Yahweh his God was with him.

<sup>10</sup> They were gathered in Jerusalem in the third month of the fifteenth year of Asa’s reign. <sup>11</sup> At that time they sacrificed to the LORD 700 cattle and 7,000 sheep from all the plunder they had brought. <sup>12</sup> Then they entered into a covenant to seek the LORD God of their ancestors with all their mind and all their heart. <sup>13</sup> Whoever would not seek the LORD God of Israel would be put to death, young or old, <sup>B</sup> man or woman. <sup>14</sup> They took an oath to the LORD in a loud voice, with shouting, with trumpets, and with rams’ horns. <sup>15</sup> All Judah rejoiced over the oath, for they had sworn it with all their mind. They had sought Him with all their heart, and He was found by them. So the LORD gave them rest on every side.

Kidron Valley. <sup>17†</sup> The •high places were not taken away from Israel; nevertheless, Asa was wholehearted his entire life. <sup>D 18</sup> He brought his father's consecrated gifts and his own consecrated gifts into God's temple: silver, gold, and utensils.

<sup>19</sup> There was no war until the thirty-fifth year of Asa's reign.

2 CHRONICLES

Asa's Treaty with Aram

16 †In the thirty-sixth year of Asa, Israel's King Baasha went to war against Judah. He built Ramah in order to deny access to anyone — going or coming — to Judah's King Asa. <sup>2</sup> So Asa brought out the silver and gold from the treasuries of the LORD's temple and the royal palace and sent it to Aram's King Ben-hadad, who lived in Damascus, saying, <sup>3</sup> "There's a treaty between me and you, between my father and your father. Look, I have sent you silver and gold. Go break your treaty with Israel's King Baasha so that he will withdraw from me."

Hanani's Rebuke of Asa

<sup>7</sup> At that time, Hanani the seer came to King Asa of Judah and said to him, "Because you depended on the king of Aram and have not depended on the LORD your God, the army of the king of Aram has escaped from your hand. <sup>8</sup> Were not the •Cushites and Libyans a vast army with many chariots and horsemen? When you depended on •Yahweh, He handed them over to you. <sup>9†</sup> For the eyes of Yahweh roam throughout the earth to show Himself strong for those whose hearts are completely His. You have been foolish in this matter. Therefore, you will have wars from now on." <sup>10</sup> Asa was angry with the seer and put him in prison <sup>B</sup> because of his anger over this. And Asa mistreated some of the people at that time.

Asa's Death

<sup>11†</sup> Note that the events of Asa's reign, from beginning to end, are written in the Book of the Kings of Judah and Israel. <sup>12</sup> In the thirty-ninth year of his reign, Asa developed a disease in his feet, and his disease became increasingly severe. Yet even in his disease he didn't seek the LORD but only the physicians. <sup>13</sup> Asa died in the forty-first year of his reign and rested with his fathers. <sup>14†</sup> He was buried in his own tomb that he had made for himself in the city of David. They laid him out in a coffin that was full of spices and various mixtures of prepared ointments; then they made a great fire in his honor.

2 CHRONICLES

Judah's King Jehoshaphat

17 † His son Jehoshaphat became king in his place and strengthened himself against Israel. <sup>2</sup> He stationed troops in every fortified city of Judah and set garrisons in the land of Judah and in the cities of Ephraim that his father Asa had captured.

<sup>3</sup> Now the LORD was with Jehoshaphat because he walked in the former ways of his father David. He did not seek the •Baals <sup>4</sup> but sought the God of his father and walked by His commands, not according to the practices of Israel. <sup>5</sup> So the LORD established the kingdom in his hand. Then all Judah brought him tribute, and he had riches and honor in abundance. <sup>6</sup> His mind rejoiced in the LORD's ways, and he again removed the •high places and •Asherah poles from Judah.

Jehoshaphat's Educational Plan

<sup>7†</sup> In the third year of his reign, Jehoshaphat sent his officials — Ben-hail, Obadiah, Zechariah, Nethanel, and Micaiah — to teach in the cities of Judah. <sup>8</sup> The Levites with them were Shemaiah, Nethaniah, Zebadiah, Asahel, Shemiramoth, Jehonathan, Adonijah, Tobijah, and Tob-adonijah; the priests, Elishama and Jehoram, were with these Levites. <sup>9†</sup> They taught throughout Judah, having the book of the LORD's instruction with them. They went throughout the towns of Judah and taught the people.

<sup>10</sup> The terror of the LORD was on all the kingdoms of the lands that surrounded Judah, so they didn't fight against Jehoshaphat. <sup>11</sup> Some of the Philistines also brought gifts and silver as tribute to Jehoshaphat, and the Arabs brought him flocks: 7,700 rams and 7,700 male goats.

Jehoshaphat's Military Might

<sup>12</sup> Jehoshaphat grew stronger and stronger. He built fortresses and storage cities in Judah <sup>13</sup> and carried out great works in the towns of Judah. He had fighting men, brave warriors, in Jerusalem. <sup>14</sup> These are their numbers according to their ancestral families. For Judah, the commanders of thousands:

Adnah the commander and 300,000 brave warriors with him;

<sup>15</sup> next to him, Jehohanan the commander and 280,000 with him;

<sup>16</sup> next to him, Amasiah son of Zichri, the volunteer of the LORD, and 200,000 brave warriors with him;

<sup>17</sup> from Benjamin, Eliada, a brave warrior, and 200,000 with him armed with bow and shield;

<sup>18</sup> next to him, Jehozabad and 180,000 with him equipped for war.

<sup>19</sup> These were the ones who served the king, besides those he stationed in the fortified cities throughout all Judah.

2 CHRONICLES

Jehoshaphat's Alliance with Ahab

18 Now Jehoshaphat had riches and honor in abundance, and he made an alliance with Ahab through marriage. <sup>A, 2†</sup> Then after some years, he went down to visit Ahab in Samaria. Ahab sacrificed many sheep and cattle for him and for the people who were with him. Then he persuaded him to march up to Ramoth-gilead, <sup>3†</sup> for Israel's King Ahab asked Judah's King Jehoshaphat, "Will you go with me to Ramoth-gilead?"

He replied to him, "I am as you are, my people as your people; we will be with you in the battle." <sup>4</sup> But Jehoshaphat said to the king of Israel, "First, please ask what the LORD's will is."

<sup>5</sup> So the king of Israel gathered the prophets, 400 men, and asked them, "Should we go to Ramoth-gilead for war or should I refrain?"

They replied, "March up, and God will hand it over to the king."

<sup>6</sup> But Jehoshaphat asked, "Isn't there a prophet of •Yahweh here anymore? Let's ask him."

<sup>7</sup> The king of Israel said to Jehoshaphat, "There is still one man who can ask Yahweh, but I hate him because he never prophesies good about me, but only disaster. He is Micaiah son of Imlah."

"The king shouldn't say that," Jehoshaphat replied.

<sup>8</sup> So the king of Israel called an officer and said, "Hurry and get Micaiah son of Imlah!"

<sup>9</sup> Now the king of Israel and King Jehoshaphat of Judah, clothed in royal attire, were each sitting on his own throne. They were sitting on the threshing floor at the entrance to Samaria's •gate, and all the prophets were prophesying in front of them. <sup>10</sup> Then Zedekiah son of Chenaanah made iron horns and said, "This is what the LORD says: 'You will gore the Arameans with these until they are finished off.'" <sup>11</sup> And all the prophets were prophesying the same, saying, "March up to Ramoth-gilead and succeed, for the LORD will hand it over to the king."

Micaiah's Message of Defeat

<sup>12</sup> The messenger who went to call Micaiah instructed him, “Look, the words of the prophets are unanimously favorable for the king. So let your words be like theirs, and speak favorably.”

<sup>13</sup> But Micaiah said, “As the LORD lives, I will say whatever my God says.”

<sup>14</sup> So he went to the king, and the king asked him, “Micaiah, should we go to Ramoth-gilead for war, or should I refrain? ”

Micaiah said, “March up and succeed, for they will be handed over to you.”

<sup>15</sup> But the king said to him, “How many times must I make you swear not to tell me anything but the truth in the name of Yahweh? ”

<sup>16</sup> So Micaiah said:

I saw all Israel scattered on the hills
like sheep without a shepherd.
And the LORD said,
“They have no master;
let each return home in peace.”

<sup>17</sup> So the king of Israel said to Jehoshaphat, “Didn't I tell you he never prophesies good about me, but only disaster? ”

<sup>18</sup> Then Micaiah said, “Therefore, hear the word of the LORD. I saw the LORD sitting on His throne, and the whole heavenly •host was standing at His right hand and at His left hand. <sup>19</sup> And the LORD said, ‘Who will entice Ahab king of Israel to march up and fall at Ramoth-gilead? ’ So one was saying this and another was saying that.

<sup>20†</sup> “Then a spirit came forward, stood before the LORD, and said, ‘I will entice him.’

“The LORD asked him, ‘How?’

<sup>21†</sup> “So he said, ‘I will go and become a lying spirit in the mouth of all his prophets.’

“Then He said, ‘You will entice him and also prevail. Go and do that.’

<sup>22†</sup> “Now, you see, the LORD has put a lying spirit into the mouth of these prophets of yours, and the LORD has pronounced disaster against you.”

<sup>23</sup> Then Zedekiah son of Chenaanah came up, hit Micaiah in the face, and demanded, “Which way did the spirit from the LORD leave me to speak to you?”

<sup>24</sup> Micaiah replied, “You will soon see when you go to hide yourself in an inner chamber on that day.”

<sup>25</sup> Then the king of Israel ordered, “Take Micaiah and return him to Amon, the governor of the city, and to Joash, the king’s son, <sup>26</sup> and say, ‘This is what the king says: Put this guy in prison and feed him only bread and water <sup>B</sup> until I come back safely.’”

<sup>27†</sup> But Micaiah said, “If you ever return safely, the LORD has not spoken through me.” Then he said, “Listen, all you people!”

Ahab’s Death

<sup>28</sup> Then the king of Israel and Judah’s King Jehoshaphat went up to Ramoth-gilead. <sup>29</sup> But the king of Israel said to Jehoshaphat, “I will disguise myself and go into battle, but you wear your royal attire.” So the king of Israel disguised himself, and they went into battle.

<sup>30</sup> Now the king of Aram had ordered his chariot commanders, “Do not fight with anyone, small or great, except the king of Israel.”

<sup>31</sup> When the chariot commanders saw Jehoshaphat, they shouted, “He must be the king of Israel!” So they turned to attack him, but Jehoshaphat cried out and the LORD helped him. God drew them away from him.

<sup>32</sup> When the chariot commanders saw that he was not the king of Israel, they turned back from pursuing him.

<sup>33†</sup> But a man drew his bow without taking special aim and struck the king of Israel through the joints of his armor. So he said to the charioteer, “Turn around and take me out of the battle, for I am badly wounded!”

<sup>34</sup> The battle raged throughout that day, and the king of Israel propped himself up in his chariot facing the Arameans until evening. Then he died at sunset.

2 CHRONICLES

Jehu's Rebuke of Jehoshaphat

19 Jehoshaphat king of Judah returned to his home in Jerusalem in peace.
2 Then Jehu son of Hanani the seer went out to confront him<sup>A</sup> and said to King Jehoshaphat, “Do you help the wicked and love those who hate the LORD? Because of this, the LORD’s wrath is on you. 3 However, some good is found in you, for you have removed the •Asherah poles from the land and have decided to seek God.”

Jehoshaphat’s Reforms

4 Jehoshaphat lived in Jerusalem, and once again he went out among the people from Beer-sheba to the hill country of Ephraim and brought them back to •Yahweh, the God of their ancestors. 5 He appointed judges in all the fortified cities of the land of Judah, city by city. 6 Then he said to the judges, “Consider what you are doing, for you do not judge for man, but for the LORD, who is with you in the matter of judgment. 7 And now, may the terror of the LORD be on you. Watch what you do, for there is no injustice or partiality or taking bribes with the LORD our God.”

8† Jehoshaphat also appointed in Jerusalem some of the Levites and priests and some of the heads of the Israelite families for deciding the LORD’s will and for settling disputes of the residents of Jerusalem. 9 He commanded them, saying, “In the •fear of the LORD, with integrity, and with a whole heart, you are to do the following: 10 for every dispute that comes to you from your brothers who dwell in their cities — whether it regards differences of bloodguilt, law, commandment, statutes, or judgments — you are to warn them, so they will not incur •guilt before the LORD and wrath will not come on you and your brothers. Do this, and you will not incur guilt.

11 “Note that Amariah, the chief priest, is over you in all matters related to the LORD, and Zebadiah son of Ishmael, the ruler of the house of Judah, in all matters related to the king, and the Levites are officers in your presence. Be strong; may the LORD be with those who do what is good.”

2 CHRONICLES

War against Eastern Enemies

20 †After this, the Moabites and Ammonites, together with some of the Meunites, came to fight against Jehoshaphat. <sup>2</sup> People came and told Jehoshaphat, “A vast number from beyond the Dead Sea and from Edom has come to fight against you; they are already in Hazazon-tamar” (that is, En-gedi). <sup>3</sup> Jehoshaphat was afraid, and he resolved to seek the LORD. Then he proclaimed a fast for all Judah, <sup>4</sup> who gathered to seek the LORD. They even came from all the cities of Judah to seek Him.

Jehoshaphat's Prayer

<sup>5</sup> Then Jehoshaphat stood in the assembly of Judah and Jerusalem in the LORD's temple before the new courtyard. <sup>6</sup> He said:

•Yahweh, the God of our ancestors, are You not the God who is in heaven, and do You not rule over all the kingdoms of the nations? Power and might are in Your hand, and no one can stand against You. <sup>7</sup> Are You not our God who drove out the inhabitants of this land before Your people Israel and who gave it forever to the descendants of Abraham Your friend? <sup>8</sup> They have lived in the land and have built You a sanctuary in it for Your name and have said, <sup>9</sup> “If disaster comes on us — sword or judgment, pestilence or famine — we will stand before this temple and before You, for Your name is in this temple. We will cry out to You because of our distress, and You will hear and deliver.”

<sup>10</sup> Now here are the Ammonites, Moabites, and the inhabitants of Mount Seir. You did not let Israel invade them when Israel came out of the land of Egypt, but Israel turned away from them and did not destroy them. <sup>11</sup> Look how they repay us by coming to drive us out of Your possession that You gave us as an inheritance.

<sup>12</sup> Our God, will You not judge them? For we are powerless before this vast number that comes to fight against us. We do not know what to do, but we look to You. <sup>A</sup>

God's Answer

<sup>13</sup> All Judah was standing before the LORD with their infants, their wives, and their children. <sup>14</sup> In the middle of the congregation, the Spirit of the LORD came on Jahaziel (son of Zechariah, son of Benaiah, son of Jeiel, son of Mattaniah, a Levite from •Asaph’s descendants), <sup>15</sup> and he said, “Listen carefully, all Judah and you inhabitants of Jerusalem, and King Jehoshaphat. This is what the LORD says: ‘Do not be afraid or discouraged because of this vast number, for the battle is not yours, but God’s. <sup>16</sup> Tomorrow, go down against them. You will see them coming up the Ascent of Ziz, and you will find them at the end of the valley facing the Wilderness of Jeruel. <sup>17</sup> You do not have to fight this battle. Position yourselves, stand still, and see the salvation of the LORD. He is with you, Judah and Jerusalem. Do not be afraid or discouraged. Tomorrow, go out to face them, for Yahweh is with you.’ ”

<sup>18</sup> Then Jehoshaphat bowed with his face to the ground, and all Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem fell down before the LORD to worship Him. <sup>19</sup> Then the Levites from the sons of the Kohathites and the Korahites stood up to praise the LORD God of Israel shouting with a loud voice.

Victory and Plunder

<sup>20</sup> In the morning they got up early and went out to the wilderness of Tekoa. As they were about to go out, Jehoshaphat stood and said, “Hear me, Judah and you inhabitants of Jerusalem. Believe in Yahweh your God, and you will be established; believe in His prophets, and you will succeed.” <sup>21</sup> Then he consulted with the people and appointed some to sing for the LORD and some to praise the splendor of His holiness. When they went out in front of the armed forces, they kept singing: <sup>B</sup>

Give thanks to the LORD,

for His faithful love endures forever.

<sup>22</sup> The moment they began their shouts and praises, the LORD set an ambush against the Ammonites, Moabites, and the inhabitants of Mount Seir who came to fight against Judah, and they were defeated. <sup>23</sup> The Ammonites and Moabites turned against the inhabitants of Mount Seir and •completely annihilated them. When they had finished with the inhabitants of Seir, they helped destroy each other.

<sup>24</sup> When Judah came to a place overlooking the wilderness, they looked for the large army, but there were only corpses lying on the ground; nobody had escaped. <sup>25</sup> Then Jehoshaphat and his people went to gather the plunder. They found among them an abundance of goods on the bodies and valuable items. So they stripped them until nobody could carry any more. They were gathering the plunder for three days because there was so much. <sup>26</sup> They assembled in the Valley of Beracah on the fourth day, for there they praised the LORD. Therefore, that place is still called the Valley of Beracah today.

<sup>27</sup> Then all the men of Judah and Jerusalem turned back with Jehoshaphat their leader, returning joyfully to Jerusalem, for the LORD enabled them to rejoice over their enemies. <sup>28</sup> So they came into Jerusalem to the LORD's temple with harps, lyres, and trumpets.

<sup>29</sup> The terror of God was on all the kingdoms of the lands when they heard that Yahweh had fought against the enemies of Israel. <sup>30</sup> Then Jehoshaphat's kingdom was quiet, for his God gave him rest on every side.

Summary of Jehoshaphat's Reign

<sup>31†</sup> Jehoshaphat became king over Judah. He was 35 years old when he became king and reigned 25 years in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Azubah daughter of Shilhi. <sup>32</sup> He walked in the way of Asa his father; he did not turn away from it but did what was right in the LORD's sight.

<sup>33</sup> However, the •high places were not taken away; the people had not yet set their hearts on the God of their ancestors.

<sup>34†</sup> The rest of the events of Jehoshaphat's reign from beginning to end are written in the Events of Jehu son of Hanani, which is recorded in the Book of Israel's Kings.

Jehoshaphat's Fleet of Ships

<sup>35</sup> After this, Judah's King Jehoshaphat made an alliance with Israel's King Ahaziah, who was •guilty of wrongdoing. <sup>36</sup> Jehoshaphat formed an alliance with him to make ships to go to Tarshish, and they made the ships in Ezion-geber. <sup>37</sup> Then Eliezer son of Dodavahu of Mareshah prophesied against Jehoshaphat, saying, "Because you formed an alliance with Ahaziah, the LORD has broken up what you have made." So the ships were wrecked and were not able to go to Tarshish.

2 CHRONICLES

Jehoram Becomes King Over Judah

21 Jehoshaphat rested with his fathers and was buried with his fathers in the city of David. His son Jehoram became king in his place. <sup>2†</sup> He had brothers, sons of Jehoshaphat: Azariah, Jehiel, Zechariah, Azariah, Michael, and Shephatiah; all these were the sons of Jehoshaphat, king of Judah. <sup>3</sup> Their father had given them many gifts of silver, gold, and valuable things, along with fortified cities in Judah, but he gave the kingdom to Jehoram because he was the firstborn. <sup>4</sup> When Jehoram had established himself over his father's kingdom, he strengthened his position by killing with the sword all his brothers as well as some of the princes of Israel.

Judah's King Jehoram

<sup>5†</sup> Jehoram was 32 years old when he became king and reigned eight years in Jerusalem. <sup>6†</sup> He walked in the way of the kings of Israel, as the house of Ahab had done, for Ahab's daughter was his wife. He did what was evil in the LORD's sight, <sup>7†</sup> but because of the covenant the LORD had made with David, He was unwilling to destroy the house of David since the LORD had promised to give a lamp to David and to his sons forever.

<sup>8</sup> During Jehoram's reign, Edom rebelled against Judah's domination and appointed their own king. <sup>9</sup> So Jehoram crossed into Edom with his commanders and all his chariots. Then at night he set out to attack the Edomites who had surrounded him and the chariot commanders. <sup>10†</sup> And now Edom is still in rebellion against Judah's domination today. Libnah also rebelled at that time against his domination because he had abandoned •Yahweh, the God of his ancestors. <sup>11</sup> Jehoram also built •high places in the hills of Judah, and he caused the inhabitants of Jerusalem to prostitute themselves, and he led Judah astray.

Elijah's Letter to Jehoram

<sup>12</sup> Then a letter came to Jehoram from Elijah the prophet, saying:

This is what Yahweh, the God of your ancestor David says:
“Because you have not walked in the ways of your father

Jehoshaphat or in the ways of Asa king of Judah <sup>13</sup> but have walked in the way of the kings of Israel, have caused Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem to prostitute themselves like the house of Ahab prostituted itself, and also have killed your brothers, your father's family, who were better than you, <sup>14</sup> Yahweh is now about to strike your people, your sons, your wives, and all your possessions with a horrible affliction. <sup>15</sup> You yourself will be struck with many illnesses, including a disease of the intestines, until your intestines come out day after day because of the disease.”

Jehoram's Last Days

<sup>16</sup> The LORD put it into the mind of the Philistines and the Arabs who live near the •Cushites to attack Jehoram. <sup>17</sup> So they went to war against Judah and invaded it. They carried off all the possessions found in the king's palace and also his sons and wives; not a son was left to him except Jehoahaz, his youngest son.

<sup>18</sup> After all these things, the LORD afflicted him in his intestines with an incurable disease. <sup>19†</sup> This continued day after day until two full years passed. Then his intestines came out because of his disease, and he died from severe <sup>A</sup> illnesses. But his people did not hold a fire in his honor like the fire in honor of his fathers.

<sup>20</sup> Jehoram was 32 years old when he became king; he reigned eight years in Jerusalem. He died to no one's regret <sup>B</sup> and was buried in the city of David but not in the tombs of the kings.

2 CHRONICLES

Judah's King Ahaziah

22 Then the inhabitants of Jerusalem made Ahaziah, his youngest son, king in his place, because the troops that had come with the Arabs to the camp had killed all the older sons. <sup>A</sup> So Ahaziah son of Jehoram became king of Judah. <sup>2†</sup> Ahaziah was 22 years old when he became king and reigned one year in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Athaliah, granddaughter <sup>B</sup> of Omri.

<sup>3</sup> He walked in the ways of the house of Ahab, for his mother gave him evil advice. <sup>4</sup> So he did what was evil in the LORD's sight like the house of Ahab, for they were his advisers after the death of his father, to his destruction. <sup>5</sup> He also followed their advice and went with Joram son of Israel's King Ahab to fight against Hazael, king of Aram, in Ramoth-gilead. The Arameans <sup>C</sup> wounded Joram, <sup>6</sup> so he returned to Jezreel to recover from the wounds they inflicted on him in Ramoth-gilead <sup>D</sup> when he fought against Aram's King Hazael. Then Judah's King Ahaziah son of Jehoram went down to Jezreel to visit Joram son of Ahab since Joram was ill.

<sup>7</sup> Ahaziah's downfall came from God when he went to Joram. When Ahaziah arrived, he went out with Joram to meet Jehu son of Nimshi, whom the LORD had anointed to destroy the house of Ahab. <sup>8</sup> So when Jehu executed judgment on the house of Ahab, he found the rulers of Judah and the sons of Ahaziah's brothers who were serving Ahaziah, and he killed them. <sup>9</sup> Then Jehu looked for Ahaziah, and Jehu's soldiers captured him (he was hiding in Samaria). So they brought Ahaziah to Jehu, and they killed him. The soldiers buried him, for they said, "He is the grandson of Jehoshaphat who sought the LORD with all his heart." So no one from the house of Ahaziah had the strength to rule the kingdom.

Athaliah Usurps the Throne

<sup>10†</sup> When Athaliah, Ahaziah's mother, saw that her son was dead, she proceeded to annihilate all the royal heirs <sup>E</sup> of the house of Judah.

<sup>11</sup> Jehoshabeath, the king's daughter, rescued Joash son of Ahaziah from the king's sons who were being killed and put him and the one who nursed him in a bedroom. Now Jehoshabeath was the daughter of King Jehoram and the wife of Jehoiada the priest. Since she was Ahaziah's sister, she hid Joash from Athaliah so that she did not kill him.<sup>12</sup> While Athaliah ruled over the land, he was hiding with them in God's temple six years.

2 CHRONICLES

Athaliah Overthrown

23 †Then, in the seventh year, Jehoiada summoned his courage and took the commanders of hundreds into a covenant with him: Azariah son of Jeroham, Ishmael son of Jehohanan, Azariah son of Obed, Maaseiah son of Adaiah, and Elishaphat son of Zichri. <sup>2</sup> They made a circuit throughout Judah. They gathered the Levites from all the cities of Judah and the heads of the families of Israel, and they came to Jerusalem.

<sup>3</sup> Then the whole assembly made a covenant with the king in God's temple. Jehoiada said to them, "Here is the king's son! He must reign, just as the LORD promised concerning David's sons. <sup>4</sup> This is what you are to do: a third of you, priests and Levites who are coming on duty on the Sabbath, are to be gatekeepers. <sup>5</sup> A third are to be at the king's palace, and a third are to be at the Foundation Gate, and all the troops will be in the courtyards of the LORD's temple. <sup>6</sup> No one is to enter the LORD's temple but the priests and those Levites who serve; they may enter because they are holy, but all the people are to obey the requirement of the LORD. <sup>7</sup> You must completely surround the king with weapons in hand. Anyone who enters the temple is to be put to death. You must be with the king in all his daily tasks." <sup>A</sup>

<sup>8</sup> So the commanders of hundreds did everything Jehoiada the priest commanded. They each brought their men — those coming on duty on the Sabbath and those going off duty on the Sabbath — for Jehoiada the priest did not release the divisions. <sup>9</sup> Jehoiada the priest gave to the commanders of hundreds King David's spears, shields, and quivers <sup>B</sup> that were in God's temple. <sup>10</sup> Then he stationed all the troops with their weapons in hand surrounding the king — from the right side of the temple to the left side, by the altar and by the temple.

<sup>11</sup> They brought out the king's son, put the crown on him, gave him the •testimony, and made him king. Jehoiada and his sons anointed him and cried, "Long live the king! "

<sup>12</sup> When Athaliah heard the noise from the troops, the guards, and those praising the king, she went to the troops in the LORD's temple. <sup>13</sup> As she looked, there was the king standing by his pillar at the entrance. The commanders and the trumpeters were by the king, and all the people of the land were rejoicing and blowing trumpets while the singers with musical instruments were leading the praise. Athaliah tore her clothes and screamed, “Treason, treason!”

<sup>14</sup> Then Jehoiada the priest sent out the commanders of hundreds, those in charge of the army, saying, “Take her out between the ranks, and put anyone who follows her to death by the sword,” for the priest had said, “Don’t put her to death in the LORD’s temple.” <sup>15</sup> So they arrested her, and she went by the entrance of the Horses’ Gate to the king’s palace, where they put her to death.

Jehoiada’s Reforms

<sup>16</sup> Then Jehoiada made a covenant between himself, the king, and the people that they would be the LORD’s people. <sup>17†</sup> So all the people went to the temple of •Baal and tore it down. They broke its altars and images into pieces and killed Mattan, the priest of Baal, at the altars.

<sup>18</sup> Then Jehoiada put the oversight of the LORD’s temple into the hands of the Levitical priests, whom David had appointed over the LORD’s temple, to offer •burnt offerings to the LORD as it is written in the law of Moses, with rejoicing and song ordained by <sup>C</sup> David. <sup>19</sup> He stationed gatekeepers at the gates of the LORD’s temple so that nothing •unclean could enter for any reason. <sup>20</sup> Then he took with him the commanders of hundreds, the nobles, the governors of the people, and all the people of the land and brought the king down from the LORD’s temple. They entered the king’s palace through the Upper Gate and seated the king on the throne of the kingdom. <sup>21</sup> All the people of the land rejoiced, and the city was quiet, for they had put Athaliah to death by the sword.

2 CHRONICLES

Judah's King Joash

24 †Joash was seven years old when he became king and reigned 40 years in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Zibiah; she was from Beer-sheba. <sup>2</sup> Throughout the time of Jehoiada the priest, Joash did what was right in the LORD's sight. <sup>3</sup> Jehoiada acquired two wives for him, and he was the father of sons and daughters.

Repairing the Temple

<sup>4</sup> Afterward, Joash took it to heart to renovate the LORD's temple. <sup>5</sup> So he gathered the priests and Levites and said, "Go out to the cities of Judah and collect money from all Israel to repair the temple of your God as needed year by year, and do it quickly."

However, the Levites did not hurry. <sup>6</sup> So the king called Jehoiada the high priest and said, "Why haven't you required the Levites to bring from Judah and Jerusalem the tax imposed by the LORD's servant Moses and the assembly of Israel for the tent of the testimony? <sup>7†</sup> For the sons of that wicked Athaliah broke into the LORD's temple and even used the sacred things of the LORD's temple for the •Baals."

<sup>8</sup> At the king's command a chest was made and placed outside the gate of the LORD's temple. <sup>9†</sup> Then a proclamation was issued in Judah and Jerusalem that the tax God's servant Moses imposed on Israel in the wilderness be brought to the LORD. <sup>10</sup> All the leaders and all the people rejoiced, brought the tax, and put it in the chest until it was full.

<sup>11</sup> Whenever the chest was brought by the Levites to the king's overseers, and when they saw that there was a large amount of money, the king's secretary and the high priest's deputy came and emptied the chest, picked it up, and returned it to its place. They did this daily and gathered the money in abundance. <sup>12</sup> Then the king and Jehoiada gave it to those in charge of the labor on the LORD's temple, who were hiring stonecutters and carpenters to renovate the LORD's temple, also blacksmiths and coppersmiths to repair the LORD's temple.

<sup>13</sup> The workmen did their work, and through them the repairs progressed. They restored God's temple to its specifications and reinforced it. <sup>14†</sup> When they finished, they presented the rest of the money to the king and Jehoiada, who made articles for the LORD's temple with it — articles for ministry and for making •burnt offerings, and ladles <sup>A</sup> and articles of gold and silver. They regularly offered burnt offerings in the LORD's temple throughout Jehoiada's life.

Joash's Apostasy

<sup>15†</sup> Jehoiada died when he was old and full of days; he was 130 years old at his death. <sup>16</sup> He was buried in the city of David with the kings because he had done what was good in Israel with respect to God and His temple.

<sup>17</sup> However, after Jehoiada died, the rulers of Judah came and paid homage to the king. Then the king listened to them, <sup>18</sup> and they abandoned the temple of •Yahweh, the God of their ancestors and served the •Asherah poles and the idols. So there was wrath against Judah and Jerusalem for this •guilt of theirs. <sup>19</sup> Nevertheless, He sent them prophets to bring them back to the LORD; they admonished them, but the people would not listen.

<sup>20</sup> The Spirit of God took control of <sup>B</sup>, Zechariah son of Jehoiada the priest. He stood above the people and said to them, “This is what God says, ‘Why are you transgressing the LORD's commands and you do not prosper? Because you have abandoned the LORD, He has abandoned you.’” <sup>21†</sup> But they conspired against him and stoned him at the king's command in the courtyard of the LORD's temple. <sup>22</sup> King Joash didn't remember the kindness that Zechariah's father Jehoiada had extended to him, but killed his son. While he was dying, he said, “May the LORD see and demand an account.”

Aramean Invasion of Judah

<sup>23</sup> At the turn of the year, an Aramean army went to war against Joash. They entered Judah and Jerusalem and destroyed all the leaders of the people among them and sent all the plunder to the king of Damascus.

<sup>24</sup> Although the Aramean army came with only a few men, the LORD handed over a vast army to them because the people of Judah had abandoned Yahweh, the God of their ancestors. So they executed judgment on Joash.

Joash Assassinated

<sup>25</sup> When the Arameans saw that Joash had many wounds, they left him. His servants conspired against him, and killed him on his bed, because he had shed the blood of the sons of Jehoiada the priest. So he died, and they buried him in the city of David, but they did not bury him in the tombs of the kings.

<sup>26</sup> Those who conspired against him were Zabad, son of the Ammonite woman Shimeath, and Jehozabad, son of the Moabite woman Shimrith.

<sup>27</sup> Concerning his sons, the many •oracles about him, and the restoration of the LORD's temple, they are recorded in the Writing of the Book of the Kings. His son Amaziah became king in his place.

2 CHRONICLES

Judah's King Amaziah

25 †Amaziah became king when he was 25 years old and reigned 29 years in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Jehoaddan; she was from Jerusalem. <sup>2</sup> He did what was right in the LORD's sight but not wholeheartedly.

<sup>3</sup> As soon as the kingdom was firmly in his grasp, he executed his servants who had murdered his father the king. <sup>4†</sup> However, he did not put their children to death, because — as it is written in the Law, in the book of Moses, where the LORD commanded — “Fathers must not die because of children, and children must not die because of fathers, but each one will die for his own sin.”

Amaziah's Campaign against Edom

<sup>5</sup> Then Amaziah gathered Judah and assembled them according to ancestral house, according to commanders of thousands, and according to commanders of hundreds. He numbered those 20 years old or more for all Judah and Benjamin. He found there to be 300,000 choice men who could serve in the army, bearing spear and shield. <sup>6</sup> Then for 7,500 pounds <sup>A</sup> of silver he hired 100,000 brave warriors from Israel.

<sup>7</sup> However, a man of God came to him and said, “King, do not let Israel's army go with you, for the LORD is not with Israel — all the Ephraimites. <sup>8</sup> But if you go with them, do it! Be strong for battle! But God will make you stumble before the enemy, for God has the power to help or to make one stumble.”

<sup>9</sup> Then Amaziah said to the man of God, “What should I do about the 7,500 pounds <sup>B</sup> of silver I gave to Israel's division? ”

The man of God replied, “The LORD is able to give you much more than this.”

<sup>10</sup> So Amaziah released the division that came to him from Ephraim to go home. But they got very angry with Judah and returned home in a fierce rage.

<sup>11</sup> Amaziah strengthened his position and led his people to the Valley of Salt. He struck down 10,000 Seirites, <sup>12</sup> and the Judahites captured 10,000 alive. They took them to the top of a cliff where they threw them off, and all of them were dashed to pieces.

<sup>13</sup> As for the men of the division that Amaziah sent back so they would not go with him into battle, they raided the cities of Judah from Samaria to Beth-horon, struck down 3,000 of their people, and took a great deal of plunder.

<sup>14</sup> After Amaziah came from the attack on the Edomites, he brought the gods of the Seirites and set them up as his gods. He worshiped before them and burned incense to them. <sup>15</sup> So the LORD's anger was against Amaziah, and He sent a prophet to him, who said, "Why have you sought a people's gods that could not deliver their own people from your hand?"

<sup>16</sup> While he was still speaking to him, the king asked, "Have we made you the king's counselor? Stop, why should you lose your life?"

So the prophet stopped, but he said, "I know that God intends to destroy you, because you have done this and have not listened to my advice."

Amaziah's War With Israel's King Joash

<sup>17</sup> King Amaziah of Judah took counsel and sent word to Jehoash <sup>C</sup> son of Jehoahaz, son of Jehu, king of Israel, saying, "Come, let us meet face to face."

<sup>18</sup> King Jehoash of Israel sent word to King Amaziah of Judah, saying, "The thistle that was in Lebanon sent a message to the cedar that was in Lebanon, saying, 'Give your daughter to my son as a wife.' Then a wild animal that was in Lebanon passed by and trampled the thistle. <sup>19</sup> You have said, 'Look, I have defeated Edom,' and you have become overconfident that you will get glory. Now stay at home. Why stir up such trouble so that you fall and Judah with you?"

<sup>20</sup> But Amaziah would not listen, for this turn of events was from God in order to hand them over to their enemies because they went after the gods of Edom. <sup>21</sup> So King Jehoash of Israel advanced. He and King Amaziah of Judah faced off at Beth-shemesh in Judah. <sup>22</sup> Judah was routed before Israel, and each fled to his own tent. <sup>23</sup> King Jehoash of Israel captured Judah's King Amaziah son of Joash, son of Jehoahaz, at Beth-shemesh. Then Jehoash took him to Jerusalem and broke down 200 yards <sup>D</sup> of Jerusalem's wall from the Ephraim Gate to the Corner Gate. <sup>24†</sup> He took all the gold, silver, all the utensils that were found with Obed-edom in God's temple, the treasures of the king's palace, and the hostages. Then he returned to Samaria.

Amaziah's Death

<sup>25</sup> Judah's King Amaziah son of Joash lived 15 years after the death of Israel's King Jehoash son of Jehoahaz. <sup>26</sup> The rest of the events of Amaziah's reign, from beginning to end, are written in the Book of the Kings of Judah and Israel.

<sup>27</sup> From the time Amaziah turned from following the LORD, a conspiracy was formed against him in Jerusalem, and he fled to Lachish. However, men were sent after him to Lachish, and they put him to death there.

<sup>28</sup> They carried him back on horses and buried him with his fathers in the city of Judah.

2 CHRONICLES

Judah's King Uzziah

26 All the people of Judah took Uzziah, who was 16 years old, and made him king in place of his father Amaziah. <sup>2</sup> He rebuilt Eloth and restored it to Judah after Amaziah the king rested with his fathers.

<sup>3†</sup> Uzziah was 16 years old when he became king and reigned 52 years in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Jecoliah from Jerusalem. <sup>4</sup> He did what was right in the LORD's sight as his father Amaziah had done. <sup>5</sup> He sought God throughout the lifetime of Zechariah, the teacher of the •fear of God. During the time that he sought the LORD, God gave him success.

Uzziah's Exploits

<sup>6</sup> Uzziah went out to wage war against the Philistines, and he tore down the wall of Gath, the wall of Jabneh, and the wall of Ashdod. Then he built cities in the vicinity of Ashdod and among the Philistines. <sup>7</sup> God helped him against the Philistines, the Arabs that live in Gur-baal, and the Meunites. <sup>8</sup> The Ammonites gave Uzziah tribute money, and his fame spread as far as the entrance of Egypt, for God made him very powerful. <sup>9</sup> Uzziah built towers in Jerusalem at the Corner Gate, the Valley Gate, and the corner buttress, and he fortified them. <sup>10†</sup> Since he had many cattle both in the Judean foothills <sup>A</sup> and the plain, he built towers in the desert and dug many wells. And since he was a lover of the soil, he had farmers and vinedressers in the hills and in the fertile lands. <sup>B</sup>

<sup>11</sup> Uzziah had an army equipped for combat that went out to war by division according to their assignments, as recorded by Jeiel the court secretary and Maaseiah the officer under the authority of Hananiah, one of the king's commanders. <sup>12</sup> The total number of heads of families was 2,600 brave warriors. <sup>13</sup> Under their authority was an army of 307,500 equipped for combat, a powerful force to help the king against the enemy. <sup>14†</sup> Uzziah provided the entire army with shields, spears, helmets, armor, bows and slingstones. <sup>15†</sup> He made skillfully designed devices in Jerusalem to shoot arrows and catapult large stones for use on the towers and on the corners. So his fame spread even to distant places, for he was marvelously helped until he became strong.

Uzziah's Disease

<sup>16</sup> But when he became strong, he grew arrogant and it led to his own destruction. He acted unfaithfully against the LORD his God by going into the LORD's sanctuary to burn incense on the incense altar. <sup>17</sup> Azariah the priest, along with 80 brave priests of the LORD, went in after him. <sup>18</sup> They took their stand against King Uzziah and said, "Uzziah, you have no right to offer incense to the LORD — only the consecrated priests, the descendants of Aaron, have the right to offer incense. Leave the sanctuary, for you have acted unfaithfully! You will not receive honor from the LORD God."

<sup>19†</sup> Uzziah, with a firepan in his hand to offer incense, was enraged. But when he became enraged with the priests, in the presence of the priests in the LORD's temple beside the altar of incense, a skin disease broke out on his forehead. <sup>20</sup> Then Azariah the chief priest and all the priests turned to him and saw that he was diseased on his forehead. They rushed him out of there. He himself also hurried to get out because the LORD had afflicted him. <sup>21†</sup> So King Uzziah was diseased to the time of his death. He lived in quarantine <sup>C</sup> with a serious skin disease and was excluded from access to the LORD's temple, while his son Jotham was over the king's household governing the people of the land.

<sup>22†</sup> Now the prophet Isaiah son of Amoz wrote about the rest of the events of Uzziah's reign, from beginning to end. <sup>23</sup> Uzziah rested with his fathers, and he was buried with his fathers in the burial ground of the kings' cemetery, for they said, "He has a skin disease." His son Jotham became king in his place.

2 CHRONICLES

Judah's King Jotham

27 †Jotham was 25 years old when he became king and reigned 16 years in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Jerushah daughter of Zadok.

<sup>2</sup> He did what was right in the LORD's sight as his father Uzziah had done. In addition, he didn't enter the LORD's sanctuary, but the people still behaved corruptly.

<sup>3</sup> Jotham built the Upper Gate of the LORD's temple, and he built extensively on the wall of Ophel. <sup>4</sup> He also built cities in the hill country of Judah and fortresses and towers in the forests. <sup>5</sup> He waged war against the king of the Ammonites. He overpowered the Ammonites, and that year they gave him 7,500 pounds <sup>A</sup> of silver, 50,000 bushels <sup>B</sup> of wheat, and 50,000 bushels <sup>C</sup> of barley. They paid him the same in the second and third years. <sup>6†</sup> So Jotham strengthened himself because he did not waver in obeying <sup>D</sup> the LORD his God.

<sup>7</sup> As for the rest of the events of Jotham's reign, along with all his wars and his ways, note that they are written in the Book of the Kings of Israel and Judah. <sup>8</sup> He was 25 years old when he became king and reigned 16 years in Jerusalem. <sup>9</sup> Jotham rested with his fathers and was buried in the city of David. His son Ahaz became king in his place.

2 CHRONICLES

Judah's King Ahaz

28 †Ahaz was 20 years old when he became king and reigned 16 years in Jerusalem. He did not do what was right in the LORD's sight like his ancestor David, <sup>2</sup> for he walked in the ways of the kings of Israel and made cast images of the •Baals. <sup>3</sup> He burned incense in the Valley of Hinnom and burned his children in the fire, imitating the detestable practices of the nations the LORD had dispossessed before the Israelites. <sup>4</sup> He sacrificed and burned incense on the •high places, on the hills, and under every green tree.

<sup>5</sup> So the LORD his God handed Ahaz over to the king of Aram. He attacked him and took many captives to Damascus.

Ahaz was also handed over to the king of Israel, who struck him with great force: <sup>6</sup> Pekah son of Remaliah killed 120,000 in Judah in one day — all brave men — because they had abandoned the LORD God of their ancestors. <sup>7</sup> An Ephraimite warrior named Zichri killed the king's son Maaseiah, Azrikam governor of the palace, and Elkanah who was second to the king. <sup>8</sup> Then the Israelites took 200,000 captives from their brothers — women, sons, and daughters. They also took a great deal of plunder from them and brought it to Samaria.

<sup>9</sup> A prophet of the LORD named Oded was there. He went out to meet the army that came to Samaria and said to them, "Look, the LORD God of your ancestors handed them over to you because of His wrath against Judah, but you slaughtered them in a rage that has reached heaven. <sup>10</sup> Now you plan to reduce the people of Judah and Jerusalem, male and female, to slavery. Are you not also •guilty before •Yahweh your God? <sup>11</sup> Listen to me and return the captives you took from your brothers, for the LORD's burning anger is on you."

<sup>12</sup> So some men who were leaders of the Ephraimites — Azariah son of Jehohanan, Berechiah son of Meshillemoth, Jehizkiah son of Shallum, and Amasa son of Hadlai — stood in opposition to those coming from the war. <sup>13</sup> They said to them, "You must not bring the captives here, for you plan to bring guilt on us from the LORD to add to our sins and our guilt. For we have much guilt, and burning anger is on Israel."

<sup>14</sup> The army left the captives and the plunder in the presence of the officers and the congregation. <sup>15†</sup> Then the men who were designated by name took charge of the captives and provided clothes for their naked ones from the plunder. They clothed them, gave them sandals, food and drink, dressed their wounds, and provided donkeys for all the feeble. The Israelites brought them to Jericho, the City of Palms, among their brothers. Then they returned to Samaria.

<sup>16</sup> At that time King Ahaz asked the king of Assyria for help. <sup>17</sup> The Edomites came again, attacked Judah, and took captives. <sup>18</sup> The Philistines also raided the cities of the Judean foothills <sup>A</sup> and the •Negev of Judah and captured Beth-shemesh, Aijalon, Gederoth, Soco and its villages, Timnah and its villages, Gimzo and its villages, and they lived there. <sup>19</sup> For the LORD humbled Judah because of King Ahaz of Judah, who threw off restraint in Judah and was unfaithful to the LORD. <sup>20</sup> Then Tiglath-pileser king of Assyria came against Ahaz; he oppressed him and did not give him support. <sup>21</sup> Although Ahaz plundered the LORD's temple and the palace of the king and of the rulers and gave the plunder to the king of Assyria, it did not help him.

<sup>22</sup> At the time of his distress, King Ahaz himself became more unfaithful to the LORD. <sup>23</sup> He sacrificed to the gods of Damascus which had defeated him; he said, "Since the gods of the kings of Aram are helping them, I will sacrifice to them so that they will help me." But they were the downfall of him and of all Israel.

<sup>24</sup> Then Ahaz gathered up the utensils of God's temple, cut them into pieces, shut the doors of the LORD's temple, and made himself altars on every street corner in Jerusalem. <sup>25</sup> He made high places in every city of Judah to offer incense to other gods, and he provoked the LORD, the God of his ancestors.

Ahaz's Death

<sup>26</sup> As for the rest of his deeds and all his ways, from beginning to end, they are written in the Book of the Kings of Judah and Israel. <sup>27</sup> Ahaz rested with his fathers and was buried in the city, in Jerusalem, but they did not bring him into the tombs of the kings of Israel. His son Hezekiah became king in his place.

2 CHRONICLES

Judah's King Hezekiah

29 †Hezekiah was 25 years old when he became king and reigned 29 years in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Abijah daughter of Zechariah. <sup>2†</sup> He did what was right in the LORD's sight just as his ancestor David had done.

<sup>3</sup> In the first year of his reign, in the first month, he opened the doors of the LORD's temple and repaired them. <sup>4</sup> Then he brought in the priests and Levites and gathered them in the eastern public square. <sup>5</sup> He said to them, "Hear me, Levites. Consecrate yourselves now and consecrate the temple of •Yahweh, the God of your ancestors. Remove everything impure from the holy place. <sup>6</sup> For our fathers were unfaithful and did what is evil in the sight of the LORD our God. They abandoned Him, turned their faces away from the LORD's tabernacle, and turned their backs on Him. <sup>A</sup>, <sup>7</sup> They also closed the doors of the portico, extinguished the lamps, did not burn incense, and did not offer •burnt offerings in the holy place of the God of Israel. <sup>8</sup> Therefore, the wrath of the LORD was on Judah and Jerusalem, and He made them an object of terror, horror, and mockery, <sup>B</sup> as you see with your own eyes. <sup>9</sup> Our fathers fell by the sword, and our sons, our daughters, and our wives are in captivity because of this. <sup>10</sup> It is in my heart now to make a covenant with Yahweh, the God of Israel so that His burning anger may turn away from us. <sup>11</sup> My sons, don't be negligent now, for the LORD has chosen you to stand in His presence, to serve Him, and to be His ministers and burners of incense."

Cleansing the Temple

<sup>12</sup> Then the Levites stood up:

Mahath son of Amasai and Joel son of Azariah from the Kohathites;
Kish son of Abdi and Azariah son of Jehallelel from the Merarites;
Joah son of Zimmah and Eden son of Joah from the Gershonites;
<sup>13</sup> Shimri and Jeuel from the Elizaphanites;
Zechariah and Mattaniah from the Asaphites;

<sup>14</sup> Jehiel and Shimei from the Hemanites; Shemaiah and Uzziel from the Jeduthunites.

<sup>15</sup> They gathered their brothers together, consecrated themselves, and went according to the king's command by the words of the LORD to cleanse the LORD's temple.

<sup>16†</sup> The priests went to the entrance of the LORD's temple to cleanse it. They took all the unclean things they found in the LORD's sanctuary to the courtyard of the LORD's temple. Then the Levites received them and took them outside to the Kidron Valley. <sup>17</sup> They began the consecration on the first day of the first month, and on the eighth day of the month they came to the portico of the LORD's temple. They consecrated the LORD's temple for eight days, and on the sixteenth day of the first month they finished.

<sup>18</sup> Then they went inside to King Hezekiah and said, "We have cleansed the whole temple of the LORD, the altar of burnt offering and all its utensils, and the table for the rows of the •bread of the Presence and all its utensils. <sup>19</sup> We have set up and consecrated all the utensils that King Ahaz rejected during his reign when he became unfaithful. They are in front of the altar of the LORD."

Renewal of Temple Worship

<sup>20†</sup> King Hezekiah got up early, gathered the city officials, and went to the LORD's temple. <sup>21†</sup> They brought seven bulls, seven rams, seven lambs, and seven male goats as a •sin offering for the kingdom, for the sanctuary, and for Judah. Then he told the descendants of Aaron, the priests, to offer them on the altar of the LORD. <sup>22</sup> So they slaughtered the bulls, and the priests received the blood and sprinkled it on the altar. They slaughtered the rams and sprinkled the blood on the altar. They slaughtered the lambs and sprinkled the blood on the altar. <sup>23</sup> Then they brought the goats for the sin offering right into the presence of the king and the congregation, who laid their hands on them. <sup>24</sup> The priests slaughtered the goats and put their blood on the altar for a sin offering, to make •atonement for all Israel, for the king said that the burnt offering and sin offering were for all Israel.

<sup>25</sup> Hezekiah stationed the Levites in the LORD's temple with cymbals, harps, and lyres according to the command of David, Gad the king's seer, and Nathan the prophet. For the command was from the LORD through His prophets. <sup>26</sup> The Levites stood with the instruments of David, and the priests with the trumpets.

<sup>27</sup> Then Hezekiah ordered that the burnt offering be offered on the altar. When the burnt offerings began, the song of the LORD and the trumpets began, accompanied by the instruments of David king of Israel. <sup>28</sup> The whole assembly was worshiping, singing the song, and blowing the trumpets — all of this continued until the burnt offering was completed. <sup>29</sup> When the burnt offerings were completed, the king and all those present with him bowed down and worshiped. <sup>30</sup> Then King Hezekiah and the officials told the Levites to sing praise to the LORD in the words of David and of •Asaph the seer. So they sang praises with rejoicing and bowed down and worshiped.

<sup>31</sup> Hezekiah concluded, “Now you are consecrated <sup>C</sup> to the LORD. Come near and bring sacrifices and thank offerings to the LORD's temple.” So the congregation brought sacrifices and thank offerings, and all those with willing hearts brought burnt offerings. <sup>32</sup> The number of burnt offerings the congregation brought was 70 bulls, 100 rams, and 200 lambs; all these were for a burnt offering to the LORD. <sup>33</sup> Six hundred bulls and 3,000 sheep were consecrated.

<sup>34</sup> However, since there were not enough priests, they weren't able to skin all the burnt offerings, so their Levite brothers helped them until the work was finished and until the priests consecrated themselves. For the Levites were more conscientious <sup>D</sup>, to consecrate themselves than the priests were. <sup>35</sup> Furthermore, the burnt offerings were abundant, along with the fat of the •fellowship offerings and with the •drink offerings for the burnt offering.

So the service of the LORD's temple was established. <sup>36</sup> Then Hezekiah and all the people rejoiced over how God had prepared the people, for it had come about suddenly.

2 CHRONICLES

Celebration of the Passover

30 Then Hezekiah sent word throughout all Israel and Judah, and he also wrote letters to Ephraim and Manasseh to come to the LORD's temple in Jerusalem to observe the •Passover of •Yahweh, the God of Israel. <sup>2†</sup> For the king and his officials and the entire congregation in Jerusalem decided to observe the Passover of the LORD in the second month, <sup>3</sup> because they were not able to observe it at the appropriate time. Not enough of the priests had consecrated themselves and the people hadn't been gathered together in Jerusalem. <sup>4</sup> The proposal pleased the king and the congregation, <sup>5†</sup> so they affirmed the proposal and spread the message throughout all Israel, from Beer-sheba to Dan, to come to observe the Passover of Yahweh, the God of Israel in Jerusalem, for they hadn't observed it often, <sup>A</sup> as prescribed. <sup>B</sup>

<sup>6</sup> So the couriers went throughout Israel and Judah with letters from the hand of the king and his officials, and according to the king's command, saying, "Israelites, return to Yahweh, the God of Abraham, Isaac, and Israel so that He may return to those of you who remain, who have escaped from the grasp of the kings of Assyria. <sup>7†</sup> Don't be like your fathers and your brothers who were unfaithful to Yahweh, the God of their ancestors so that He made them an object of horror as you yourselves see. <sup>8</sup> Don't become obstinate <sup>C</sup>, now like your fathers did. Give your allegiance <sup>D</sup> to Yahweh, and come to His sanctuary that He has consecrated forever. Serve the LORD your God so that He may turn His burning anger away from you, <sup>9</sup> for when you return to Yahweh, your brothers and your sons will receive mercy in the presence of their captors and will return to this land. For Yahweh your God is gracious and merciful; He will not turn His face away from you if you return to Him."

<sup>10</sup> The couriers traveled from city to city in the land of Ephraim and Manasseh as far as Zebulun, but the inhabitants <sup>E</sup> laughed at them and mocked them. <sup>11</sup> But some from Asher, Manasseh, and Zebulun humbled themselves and came to Jerusalem. <sup>12</sup> Also, the power of God was at work in Judah to unite them <sup>F</sup> to carry out the command of the king and his officials by the word of the LORD.

<sup>13</sup> A very large assembly of people was gathered in Jerusalem to observe the Festival of Unleavened Bread in the second month. <sup>14</sup> They proceeded to take away the altars that were in Jerusalem, and they took away the incense altars and threw them into the Kidron Valley. <sup>15</sup> They slaughtered the Passover lamb on the fourteenth day of the second month. The priests and Levites were ashamed, and they consecrated themselves and brought •burnt offerings to the LORD's temple. <sup>16</sup> They stood at their prescribed posts, according to the law of Moses, the man of God. The priests sprinkled the blood received from the hand of the Levites, <sup>17</sup> for there were many in the assembly who had not consecrated themselves, and so the Levites were in charge of slaughtering the Passover lambs for every •unclean person to consecrate the lambs to the LORD. <sup>18</sup> A large number of the people — many from Ephraim, Manasseh, Issachar, and Zebulun — were ritually unclean, yet they had eaten the Passover contrary to what was written. But Hezekiah had interceded for them, saying, “May the good LORD provide •atonement on behalf of <sup>19</sup> whoever sets his whole heart on seeking God, Yahweh, the God of his ancestors, even though not according to the purification rules of the sanctuary.” <sup>20</sup> So the LORD heard Hezekiah and healed the people. <sup>21</sup> The Israelites who were present in Jerusalem observed the Festival of Unleavened Bread seven days with great joy, and the Levites and the priests praised the LORD day after day with loud instruments. <sup>22</sup> Then Hezekiah encouraged <sup>G</sup>, all the Levites who performed skillfully before the LORD. They ate at the appointed festival for seven days, sacrificing •fellowship offerings and giving thanks to Yahweh, the God of their ancestors.

<sup>23</sup> The whole congregation decided to observe seven more days, so they observed seven days with joy, <sup>24</sup> for Hezekiah king of Judah contributed 1,000 bulls and 7,000 sheep for the congregation. Also, the officials contributed 1,000 bulls and 10,000 sheep for the congregation, and many priests consecrated themselves. <sup>25†</sup> Then the whole assembly of Judah with the priests and Levites, the whole assembly that came from Israel, the foreigners who came from the land of Israel, and those who were living in Judah, rejoiced. <sup>26</sup> There was great rejoicing in Jerusalem, for nothing like this was known since the days of Solomon son of David, the king of Israel.

<sup>27</sup> Then the priests and the Levites stood to bless the people, and God heard their voice, and their prayer came into His holy dwelling place in heaven.

2 CHRONICLES

Removal of Idolatry

31 When all this was completed, all Israel who had attended went out to the cities of Judah and broke up the sacred pillars, chopped down the •Asherah poles, and tore down the •high places and altars throughout Judah and Benjamin, as well as in Ephraim and Manasseh, to the last one. <sup>A</sup> Then all the Israelites returned to their cities, each to his own possession.

Offerings for Levites

<sup>2†</sup> Hezekiah reestablished the divisions of the priests and Levites for the •burnt offerings and •fellowship offerings, for ministry, for giving thanks, and for praise in the gates of the camp of the LORD, each division corresponding to his service among the priests and Levites. <sup>3†</sup> The king contributed <sup>B</sup> from his own possessions for the regular morning and evening burnt offerings, the burnt offerings of the Sabbaths, of the New Moons, and of the appointed feasts, as written in the law of the LORD. <sup>4</sup> He told the people who lived in Jerusalem to give a contribution for the priests and Levites so that they could devote their energy to the law of the LORD. <sup>5</sup> When the word spread, the Israelites gave liberally of the best of the grain, new wine, oil, honey, and of all the produce of the field, and they brought in an abundance, a tenth of everything. <sup>6</sup> As for the Israelites and Judahites who lived in the cities of Judah, they also brought a tenth of the cattle and sheep, and a tenth of the dedicated things that were consecrated to the LORD their God. They gathered them into large piles. <sup>7</sup> In the third month they began building up the piles, and they finished in the seventh month. <sup>8</sup> When Hezekiah and his officials came and viewed the piles, they praised the LORD and His people Israel.

<sup>9</sup> Hezekiah asked the priests and Levites about the piles. <sup>10†</sup> Azariah, the chief priest of the household of Zadok, answered him, “Since they began bringing the offering to the LORD’s temple, we eat and are satisfied and there is plenty left over because the LORD has blessed His people; this abundance is what is left over.”

<sup>11</sup> Hezekiah told them to prepare chambers in the LORD’s temple, and they prepared them. <sup>12</sup> The offering, the tenth, and the dedicated things were brought faithfully. Conaniah the Levite was the officer in charge of them, and his brother Shimei was second. <sup>13</sup> Jehiel, Azaziah, Nahath, Asahel, Jerimoth, Jozabad, Eliel, Ismachiah, Mahath, and Benaiah were deputies under the authority of Conaniah and his brother Shimei by appointment of King Hezekiah and of Azariah the chief official of God's temple.

<sup>14</sup> Kore son of Imnah the Levite, the keeper of the East Gate, was over the freewill offerings to God to distribute the contribution to the LORD and the consecrated things. <sup>15</sup> Eden, Miniamin, Jeshua, Shemaiah, Amariah, and Shecaniah in the cities of the priests were to faithfully distribute it under his authority to their brothers by divisions, whether large or small.

<sup>16</sup> In addition, they distributed it to males registered by genealogy three <sup>C</sup> years old and above; to all who would enter the LORD's temple for their daily duty, for their service in their responsibilities according to their divisions. <sup>17</sup> They distributed also to those recorded by genealogy of the priests by their ancestral families and the Levites 20 years old and above, by their responsibilities in their divisions; <sup>18</sup> to those registered by genealogy — with all their infants, wives, sons, and daughters — of the whole assembly (for they had faithfully consecrated themselves as holy); <sup>19</sup> and to the descendants of Aaron, the priests, in the common fields of their cities, in each and every city. There were men who were registered by name to distribute a portion to every male among the priests and to every Levite recorded by genealogy.

<sup>20</sup> Hezekiah did this throughout all Judah. He did what was good and upright and true before the LORD his God. <sup>21</sup> He was diligent in every deed that he began in the service of God's temple, in the instruction and the commands, in order to seek his God, and he prospered.

2 CHRONICLES

Sennacherib's Invasion

32 †After these faithful deeds, Sennacherib king of Assyria came and entered Judah. He laid siege to the fortified cities and intended <sup>A</sup> to break into them. <sup>2</sup> Hezekiah saw that Sennacherib had come and that he planned <sup>B</sup> war on Jerusalem, <sup>3</sup> so he consulted with his officials and his warriors about stopping up the waters of the springs that were outside the city, and they helped him. <sup>4</sup> Many people gathered and stopped up all the springs and the stream that flowed through the land; they said, “Why should the kings of Assyria come and find plenty of water?” <sup>5</sup> Then Hezekiah strengthened his position by rebuilding the entire broken-down wall and heightening the towers and the other outside wall. He repaired the supporting terraces of the city of David, and made an abundance of weapons and shields.

<sup>6</sup> He set military commanders over the people and gathered the people in the square of the city gate. Then he encouraged them, <sup>C</sup>, saying, <sup>7</sup> “Be strong and courageous! Don’t be afraid or discouraged before the king of Assyria or before the large army that is with him, for there are more with us than with him. <sup>8</sup> He has only human strength, <sup>D</sup> but we have •Yahweh our God to help us and to fight our battles.” So the people relied on the words of King Hezekiah of Judah.

Sennacherib’s Servant’s Speech

<sup>9</sup> After this, while Sennacherib king of Assyria with all his armed forces besieged <sup>E</sup> Lachish, he sent his servants to Jerusalem against King Hezekiah of Judah and against all those of Judah who were in Jerusalem, saying, <sup>10</sup> “This is what King Sennacherib of Assyria says: ‘What are you relying on that you remain in Jerusalem under siege? <sup>11</sup> Isn’t Hezekiah misleading you to give you over to death by famine and thirst when he says, “Yahweh our God will deliver us from the power of the king of Assyria”? <sup>12</sup> Didn’t Hezekiah himself remove His •high places and His altars and say to Judah and Jerusalem, “You must worship before one altar, and you must burn incense on it”?

<sup>13</sup> “ ‘Don’t you know what I and my fathers have done to all the peoples of the lands? Have any of the national gods of the lands been able to deliver their land from my power? <sup>14</sup> Who among all the gods of these nations that my predecessors •completely destroyed was able to deliver his people from my power, that your God should be able to do the same for you? <sup>15</sup> So now, don’t let Hezekiah deceive you, and don’t let him mislead you like this. Don’t believe him, for no god of any nation or kingdom has been able to deliver his people from my power or the power of my fathers. How much less will your God deliver you from my power! ’ ”

<sup>16</sup> His servants said more against the LORD God and against His servant Hezekiah. <sup>17</sup> He also wrote letters to mock Yahweh, the God of Israel, saying against Him:

Just like the national gods of the lands that did not deliver their people from my power, so Hezekiah’s God will not deliver His people from my power.

<sup>18†</sup> Then they called out loudly in Hebrew <sup>F</sup> to the people of Jerusalem, who were on the wall, to frighten and discourage them in order that he might capture the city. <sup>19</sup> They spoke against the God of Jerusalem like they had spoken against the gods of the peoples of the earth, which were made by human hands.

Deliverance from Sennacherib

<sup>20</sup> King Hezekiah and the prophet Isaiah son of Amoz prayed about this and cried out to heaven, <sup>21</sup> and the LORD sent an angel who annihilated every brave warrior, leader, and commander in the camp of the king of Assyria. So the king of Assyria returned in disgrace to his land. He went to the temple of his god, and there some of his own children struck him down with the sword.

<sup>22</sup> So the LORD saved Hezekiah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem from the power of King Sennacherib of Assyria and from the power of all others. He gave them rest <sup>G</sup> on every side. <sup>23</sup> Many were bringing an offering to the LORD to Jerusalem and valuable gifts to King Hezekiah of Judah, and he was exalted in the eyes of all the nations after that.

Hezekiah's Illness and Pride

<sup>24†</sup> In those days Hezekiah became sick to the point of death, so he prayed to the LORD, and He spoke to him and gave him a miraculous sign. <sup>25</sup> However, because his heart was proud, Hezekiah didn't respond according to the benefit that had come to him. So there was wrath on him, Judah, and Jerusalem. <sup>26</sup> Then Hezekiah humbled himself for the pride of his heart — he and the inhabitants of Jerusalem — so the LORD's wrath didn't come on them during Hezekiah's lifetime.

Hezekiah's Wealth and Works

<sup>27</sup> Hezekiah had abundant riches and glory, and he made himself treasuries for silver, gold, precious stones, spices, shields, and every desirable item. <sup>28</sup> He made warehouses for the harvest of grain, new wine, and oil, and stalls for all kinds of cattle, and pens for flocks. <sup>29</sup> He made cities for himself, and he acquired herds of sheep and cattle in abundance, for God gave him abundant possessions.

<sup>30†</sup> This same Hezekiah blocked the outlet of the water of the Upper Gihon and channeled it smoothly downward and westward to the city of David. Hezekiah succeeded in everything he did. <sup>31</sup> When the ambassadors of Babylon's rulers were sent to him to inquire about the miraculous sign that happened in the land, God left him to test him and discover what was in his heart.

Hezekiah's Death

<sup>32</sup> As for the rest of the events of Hezekiah's reign and his deeds of faithful love, note that they are written in the Visions of the Prophet Isaiah son of Amoz, and in the Book of the Kings of Judah and Israel.

tombs of David's descendants. All Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem paid him honor at his death. His son Manasseh became king in his place.

2 CHRONICLES

Judah's King Manasseh

33 †Manasseh was 12 years old when he became king and reigned 55 years in Jerusalem. <sup>2</sup> He did what was evil in the LORD's sight, imitating the detestable practices of the nations that the LORD had dispossessed before the Israelites. <sup>3†</sup> He rebuilt the •high places that his father Hezekiah had torn down and reestablished the altars for the •Baals. He made •Asherah poles, and he worshiped the whole heavenly •host and served them. <sup>4</sup> He built altars in the LORD's temple, where •Yahweh had said, "Jerusalem is where My name will remain forever." <sup>5</sup> He built altars to the whole heavenly host in both courtyards of the LORD's temple. <sup>6†</sup> He passed his sons through the fire in the Valley of Hinnom. He practiced witchcraft, •divination, and sorcery, and consulted mediums and spiritists. He did a great deal of evil in the LORD's sight, provoking Him.

<sup>7</sup> Manasseh set up a carved image of the idol he had made, in God's temple, about which God had said to David and his son Solomon, "I will establish My name forever in this temple and in Jerusalem, which I have chosen out of all the tribes of Israel. <sup>8</sup> I will never again remove the feet of the Israelites from the land where I stationed your ancestors, if only they will be careful to do all that I have commanded them through Moses — all the law, statutes, and judgments." <sup>9</sup> So Manasseh caused Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem to stray so that they did worse evil than the nations the LORD had destroyed before the Israelites.

Manasseh's Repentance

<sup>10</sup> The LORD spoke to Manasseh and his people, but they didn't listen. <sup>11</sup> So He brought against them the military commanders of the king of Assyria. They captured Manasseh with hooks, bound him with bronze shackles, and took him to Babylon. <sup>12†</sup> When he was in distress, he sought the favor of Yahweh his God and earnestly humbled himself before the God of his ancestors. <sup>13</sup> He prayed to Him, so He heard his petition and granted his request, and brought him back to Jerusalem, to his kingdom. So Manasseh came to know that Yahweh is God.

<sup>14</sup> After this, he built the outer wall of the city of David from west of Gihon in the valley to the entrance of the Fish Gate; he brought it around the Ophel, and he heightened it considerably. He also placed military commanders in all the fortified cities of Judah.

<sup>15</sup> He removed the foreign gods and the idol from the LORD's temple, along with all the altars that he had built on the mountain of the LORD's temple and in Jerusalem, and he threw them outside the city. <sup>16</sup> He built the altar of the LORD and offered •fellowship and thank offerings on it. Then he told Judah to serve Yahweh, the God of Israel. <sup>17†</sup> However, the people still sacrificed at the high places, but only to Yahweh their God.

Manasseh's Death

<sup>18</sup> The rest of the events of Manasseh's reign, along with his prayer to his God and the words of the seers who spoke to him in the name of Yahweh, the God of Israel, are written in the Records of Israel's Kings.

<sup>19</sup> His prayer and how God granted his request, and all his sin and unfaithfulness and the sites where he built high places and set up Asherah poles and carved images before he humbled himself, they are written in the Records of Hozai. <sup>20</sup> Manasseh rested with his fathers, and he was buried in his own house. His son Amon became king in his place.

Judah's King Amon

<sup>21†</sup> Amon was 22 years old when he became king and reigned two years in Jerusalem. <sup>22</sup> He did what was evil in the LORD's sight just as his father Manasseh had done. Amon sacrificed to all the carved images that his father Manasseh had made, and he served them. <sup>23</sup> But he did not humble himself before the LORD like his father Manasseh humbled himself; instead, Amon increased his •guilt.

<sup>24†</sup> So his servants conspired against him and put him to death in his own house. <sup>25†</sup> Then the common people <sup>A</sup> executed all those who conspired against King Amon and made his son Josiah king in his place.

2 CHRONICLES

Judah's King Josiah

34† Josiah was eight years old when he became king and reigned 31 years in Jerusalem. <sup>2†</sup> He did what was right in the LORD's sight and walked in the ways of his ancestor David; he did not turn aside to the right or the left.

Josiah's Reform

<sup>3†</sup> In the eighth year of his reign, while he was still a youth, Josiah began to seek the God of his ancestor David, and in the twelfth year he began to cleanse Judah and Jerusalem of the •high places, the •Asherah poles, the carved images, and the cast images. <sup>4</sup> Then in his presence the altars of the •Baals were torn down, and he chopped down the incense altars that were above them. He shattered the Asherah poles, the carved images, and the cast images, crushed them to dust, and scattered them over the graves of those who had sacrificed to them. <sup>5</sup> He burned the bones of the priests on their altars. So he cleansed Judah and Jerusalem. <sup>6†</sup> He did the same in the cities of Manasseh, Ephraim, and Simeon, and as far as Naphtali and on their surrounding mountain shrines. <sup>7</sup> He tore down the altars, and he smashed the Asherah poles and the carved images to powder. He chopped down all the incense altars throughout the land of Israel and returned to Jerusalem.

Josiah's Repair of the Temple

<sup>8†</sup> In the eighteenth year of his reign, in order to cleanse the land and the temple, Josiah sent Shaphan son of Azaliah, along with Maaseiah the governor of the city and the court historian Joah son of Joahaz, to repair the temple of the LORD his God.

<sup>9</sup> So they went to Hilkiah the high priest, and gave him the money brought into God's temple. The Levites and the doorkeepers had collected money from Manasseh, Ephraim, and from the entire remnant of Israel, and from all Judah, Benjamin, and the inhabitants of Jerusalem. <sup>10</sup> They put it into the hands of those doing the work — those who oversaw the LORD's temple. They gave it to the workmen who were working in the LORD's temple, to repair and restore the temple; <sup>11</sup> they gave it to the carpenters and builders and also used it to buy quarried stone and timbers — for joining and making beams — for the buildings that Judah’s kings had destroyed.

<sup>12</sup> The men were doing the work with integrity. Their overseers were Jahath and Obadiah, Levites from the Merarites, and Zechariah and Meshullam from the Kohathites as supervisors. The Levites were all skilled with musical instruments. <sup>13</sup> They were also over the porters and were supervising all those doing the work task by task. Some of the Levites were secretaries, officers, and gatekeepers.

The Recovery of the Book of the Law

<sup>14†</sup> When they brought out the money that had been deposited in the LORD's temple, Hilkiah the priest found the book of the law of the LORD written by the hand of Moses. <sup>15</sup> Consequently, Hilkiah told Shaphan the court secretary, "I have found the book of the law in the LORD's temple," and he gave the book to Shaphan.

<sup>16</sup> Shaphan took the book to the king, and also reported, "Your servants are doing all that was placed in their hands. <sup>17</sup> They have emptied out the money that was found in the LORD's temple and have put it into the hand of the overseers and the hand of those doing the work." <sup>18</sup> Then Shaphan the court secretary told the king, "Hilkiah the priest gave me a book," and Shaphan read from it in the presence of the king.

<sup>19</sup> When the king heard the words of the law, he tore his clothes. <sup>20</sup> Then he commanded Hilkiah, Ahikam son of Shaphan, Abdon son of Micah, Shaphan the court secretary, and the king's servant Asaiah, <sup>21</sup> "Go. Ask •Yahweh for me and for those remaining in Israel and Judah, concerning the words of the book that was found. For great is the LORD's wrath that is poured out on us because our fathers have not kept the word of the LORD in order to do everything written in this book."

Huldah's Prophecy of Judgment

<sup>22</sup> So Hilkiah and those the king had designated went to the prophetess Huldah, the wife of Shallum son of Tokhath, son of Hasrah, keeper of the wardrobe. She lived in Jerusalem in the Second District. They spoke with her about this.

<sup>23</sup> She said to them, "This is what Yahweh, the God of Israel says: Say to the man who sent you to Me, <sup>24</sup> 'This is what Yahweh says: I am about to bring disaster on this place and on its inhabitants, fulfilling all the curses written in the book that they read in the presence of the king of Judah, <sup>25</sup> because they have abandoned Me and burned incense to other gods in order to provoke Me with all the works of their hands. My wrath will be poured out on this place, and it will not be quenched.’<sup>26</sup> Say this to the king of Judah who sent you to ask Yahweh, ‘This is what Yahweh, the God of Israel says: As for the words that you heard,<sup>27</sup> because your heart was tender and you humbled yourself before God when you heard His words against this place and against its inhabitants, and because you humbled yourself before Me, and you tore your clothes and wept before Me, I Myself have heard’ — this is the LORD’s declaration.<sup>28</sup> ‘I will indeed gather you to your fathers, and you will be gathered to your grave in peace. Your eyes will not see all the disaster that I am bringing on this place and on its inhabitants.’ ”

Then they reported to the king.

Affirmation of the Covenant by Josiah and the People

<sup>29</sup> So the king sent messengers and gathered all the elders of Judah and Jerusalem.<sup>30†</sup> The king went up to the LORD’s temple with all the men of Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem, as well as the priests and the Levites — all the people from great to small. He read in their hearing all the words of the book of the covenant that had been found in the LORD’s temple.<sup>31</sup> Then the king stood at his post and made a covenant in the LORD’s presence to follow the LORD and to keep His commands, His decrees, and His statutes with all his heart and with all his soul in order to carry out the words of the covenant written in this book.

<sup>32</sup> He had all those present in Jerusalem and Benjamin agree <sup>A</sup> to it. So all the inhabitants of Jerusalem carried out the covenant of God, the God of their ancestors.

<sup>33</sup> So Josiah removed everything that was detestable from all the lands belonging to the Israelites, and he required all who were present in Israel to serve the LORD their God. Throughout his reign they did not turn aside from following Yahweh, the God of their ancestors.

2 CHRONICLES

Josiah's Passover Observance

35 Josiah observed the LORD's •Passover and slaughtered the Passover lambs on the fourteenth day of the first month. <sup>2</sup> He appointed the priests to their responsibilities and encouraged them to serve in the LORD's temple. <sup>3†</sup> He said to the Levites who taught all Israel the holy things of the LORD, "Put the holy ark in the temple built by Solomon son of David king of Israel. Since you do not have to carry it on your shoulders, now serve •Yahweh your God and His people Israel.

<sup>4</sup> "Organize your ancestral houses by your divisions according to the written instruction of David king of Israel and that of his son Solomon. <sup>5</sup> Serve in the holy place by the divisions of the ancestral houses for your brothers, the lay people, <sup>A</sup> and the distribution of the tribal household of the Levites. <sup>6</sup> Slaughter the Passover lambs, consecrate yourselves, and make preparations for your brothers to carry out the word of the LORD through Moses."

<sup>7</sup> Then Josiah donated 30,000 sheep, lambs, and young goats, plus 3,000 bulls from his own possessions, for the Passover sacrifices for all the lay people <sup>B</sup> who were present.

<sup>8</sup> His officials also donated willingly for the people, the priests, and the Levites. Hilkiah, Zechariah, and Jehiel, chief officials of God's temple, gave 2,600 Passover sacrifices and 300 bulls for the priests. <sup>9</sup> Conaniah and his brothers Shemaiah and Nethanel, and Hashabiah, Jeiel, and Jozabad, officers of the Levites, donated 5,000 Passover sacrifices for the Levites, plus 500 bulls.

<sup>10</sup> So the service was established; the priests stood at their posts and the Levites in their divisions according to the king's command. <sup>11</sup> Then they slaughtered the Passover lambs, and while the Levites were skinning the animals, the priests sprinkled the blood they had been given. <sup>C</sup> <sup>12</sup> They removed the •burnt offerings so that they might be given to the divisions of the ancestral houses of the lay people <sup>D</sup> to offer to the LORD, according to what is written in the book of Moses; they did the same with the bulls.

boiled the holy sacrifices in pots, kettles, and bowls; and they quickly brought them to the lay people. <sup>E</sup> <sup>14</sup> Afterward, they made preparations for themselves and for the priests, since the priests, the descendants of Aaron, were busy offering up burnt offerings and fat until night. So the Levites made preparations for themselves and for the priests, the descendants of Aaron.

<sup>15</sup> The singers, the descendants of •Asaph, were at their stations according to the command of David, Asaph, Heman, and Jeduthun the king's seer. Also, the gatekeepers were at each gate. None of them left their tasks because their Levite brothers had made preparations for them.

<sup>16</sup> So all the service of the LORD was established that day for observing the Passover and for offering burnt offerings on the altar of the LORD, according to the command of King Josiah. <sup>17</sup> The Israelites who were present in Judah also observed the Passover at that time and the Festival of Unleavened Bread for seven days. <sup>18</sup> No Passover had been observed like it in Israel since the days of Samuel the prophet. None of the kings of Israel ever observed a Passover like the one that Josiah observed with the priests, the Levites, all Judah, the Israelites who were present in Judah, and the inhabitants of Jerusalem. <sup>19</sup> In the eighteenth year of Josiah's reign, this Passover was observed.

Josiah's Last Deeds and Death

<sup>20</sup> After all this that Josiah had prepared for the temple, Neco king of Egypt marched up to fight at Carchemish by the Euphrates, and Josiah went out to confront him. <sup>21†</sup> But Neco sent messengers to him, saying, "What is the issue between you and me, king of Judah? I have not come against you today but I am fighting another dynasty. <sup>F</sup> God told me to hurry. Stop opposing God who is with me; don't make Him destroy you! "

<sup>22</sup> But Josiah did not turn away from him; instead, in order to fight with him he disguised himself. He did not listen to Neco's words from the mouth of God, but went to the Valley of Megiddo to fight. <sup>23</sup> The archers shot King Josiah, and he said to his servants, "Take me away, for I am severely wounded! ” <sup>24</sup> So his servants took him out of the war chariot, carried him in his second chariot, and brought him to Jerusalem. Then he died, and they buried him in the tomb of his fathers. All Judah and Jerusalem mourned for Josiah. <sup>25†</sup> Jeremiah chanted a dirge over Josiah, and all the singing men and singing women still speak of Josiah in their dirges to this very day. They established them as a statute for Israel, and indeed they are written in the Dirges.

<sup>26</sup> The rest of the events of Josiah’s reign, along with his deeds of faithful love according to what is written in the law of the LORD, <sup>27</sup> and his words, from beginning to end, are written in the Book of the Kings of Israel and Judah.

2 CHRONICLES

Judah's King Jehoahaz

36 Then the common people <sup>A</sup> took Jehoahaz son of Josiah and made him king in Jerusalem in place of his father.

Judah's King Jehoiakim

<sup>4</sup> Then Neco king of Egypt made Jehoahaz's brother Eliakim king over Judah and Jerusalem and changed Eliakim's name to Jehoiakim. But Neco took his brother Jehoahaz and brought him to Egypt.

<sup>5†</sup> Jehoiakim was 25 years old when he became king and reigned 11 years in Jerusalem. He did what was evil in the sight of the LORD his God.

<sup>6†</sup> Now Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon attacked him and bound him in bronze shackles to take him to Babylon. <sup>7</sup> Also Nebuchadnezzar took some of the utensils of the LORD's temple to Babylon and put them in his temple in Babylon.

<sup>8</sup> The rest of the deeds of Jehoiakim, the detestable things he did, and what was found against him, are written in the Book of Israel's Kings. His son Jehoiachin became king in his place.

Judah's King Jehoiachin

<sup>9†</sup> Jehoiachin was 18 years old when he became king and reigned three months and 10 days in Jerusalem. He did what was evil in the LORD's sight.

<sup>10</sup> In the spring <sup>D</sup> Nebuchadnezzar sent for him and brought him to Babylon along with the valuable utensils of the LORD's temple. Then he made Jehoiachin's brother Zedekiah king over Judah and Jerusalem.

Judah's King Zedekiah

<sup>11†</sup> Zedekiah was 21 years old when he became king and reigned 11 years in Jerusalem. <sup>12</sup> He did what was evil in the sight of the LORD his God and did not humble himself before Jeremiah the prophet at the LORD's command. <sup>13</sup> He also rebelled against King Nebuchadnezzar who had made him swear allegiance by God. He became obstinate <sup>E</sup>, and hardened his heart against returning to •Yahweh, the God of Israel. <sup>14</sup> All the leaders of the priests and the people multiplied their unfaithful deeds, imitating all the detestable practices of the nations, and they defiled the LORD's temple that He had consecrated in Jerusalem.

The Destruction of Jerusalem

<sup>15</sup> But Yahweh, the God of their ancestors sent word against them by the hand of His messengers, sending them time and time again, for He had compassion on His people and on His dwelling place. <sup>16</sup> But they kept ridiculing God's messengers, despising His words, and scoffing at His prophets, until the LORD's wrath was so stirred up against His people that there was no remedy. <sup>17</sup> So He brought up against them the king of the Chaldeans, who killed their choice young men with the sword in the house of their sanctuary. He had no pity on young men or young women, elderly or aged; He handed them all over to him. <sup>18</sup> He took everything to Babylon — all the articles of God's temple, large and small, the treasures of the LORD's temple, and the treasures of the king and his officials. <sup>19</sup> Then the Chaldeans burned God's temple. They tore down Jerusalem's wall, burned down all its palaces, and destroyed all its valuable articles.

<sup>20</sup> He deported those who escaped from the sword to Babylon, and they became servants to him and his sons until the rise of the Persian kingdom. <sup>21†</sup> This fulfilled the word of the LORD through Jeremiah and the land enjoyed its Sabbath rest all the days of the desolation until 70 years were fulfilled.

The Decree of Cyrus

<sup>22†</sup> In the first year of Cyrus king of Persia, the word of the LORD spoken through <sup>F</sup> Jeremiah was fulfilled. The LORD put it into the mind of King Cyrus of Persia to issue a proclamation throughout his entire kingdom and also to put it in writing:

<sup>23†</sup> This is what King Cyrus of Persia says: The LORD, the God of heaven, has given me all the kingdoms of the earth and has appointed me to build Him a temple at Jerusalem in Judah. Whoever among you of His people may go up, and may the LORD his God be with him.

The Decree of Cyrus

1 †In the first year of Cyrus king of Persia, the word of the LORD spoken through Jeremiah was fulfilled. The LORD put it into the mind of King Cyrus to issue a proclamation throughout his entire kingdom and to put it in writing:

<sup>2†</sup> This is what King Cyrus of Persia says: “The LORD, the God of heaven, has given me all the kingdoms of the earth and has appointed me to build Him a house at Jerusalem in Judah.

<sup>3</sup> Whoever is among His people, may his God be with him, and may he go to Jerusalem in Judah and build the house of the LORD, the God of Israel, the God who is in Jerusalem. <sup>4</sup> Let every survivor, wherever he lives, be assisted by the men of that region with silver, gold, goods, and livestock, along with a freewill offering for the house of God in Jerusalem.”

Return from Exile

<sup>5</sup> So the family leaders of Judah and Benjamin, along with the priests and Levites — everyone God had motivated <sup>A</sup> — prepared to go up and rebuild the LORD’s house in Jerusalem. <sup>6</sup> All their neighbors supported them <sup>B</sup> with silver articles, gold, goods, livestock, and valuables, in addition to all that was given as a freewill offering. <sup>7</sup> King Cyrus also brought out the articles of the LORD’s house that Nebuchadnezzar had taken from Jerusalem and had placed in the house of his gods. <sup>8</sup> King Cyrus of Persia had them brought out under the supervision of Mithredath the treasurer, who counted them out to Sheshbazzar the prince of Judah. <sup>9</sup> This was the inventory:

30 gold basins, 1,000 silver basins,
29 silver knives, <sup>10</sup> 30 gold bowls,
410 various <sup>C</sup> silver bowls, and 1,000 other articles.

<sup>11</sup> The gold and silver articles totaled 5,400. Sheshbazzar brought all of them when the exiles went up from Babylon to Jerusalem.

Sacrifice Restored

3 By the seventh month, the Israelites had settled in their towns, and the people gathered together in Jerusalem. <sup>2†</sup> Jeshua son of Jozadak and his brothers the priests along with Zerubbabel son of Shealtiel and his brothers began to build the altar of Israel's God in order to offer •burnt offerings on it, as it is written in the law of Moses, the man of God. <sup>3†</sup> They set up the altar on its foundation and offered burnt offerings for the morning and evening on it to the LORD even though they feared the surrounding peoples. <sup>4†</sup> They celebrated the Festival of Booths as prescribed, and offered burnt offerings each day, based on the number specified by ordinance for each festival day. <sup>5</sup> After that, they offered the regular burnt offering and the offerings for the beginning of each month <sup>A</sup>, and for all the LORD's appointed holy occasions, as well as the freewill offerings brought to <sup>B</sup> the LORD.

<sup>6†</sup> On the first day of the seventh month they began to offer burnt offerings to the LORD, even though the foundation of the LORD's temple had not yet been laid. <sup>7</sup> They gave money to the stonecutters and artisans, and gave food, drink, and oil to the people of Sidon and Tyre, so they could bring cedar wood from Lebanon to Joppa by sea, according to the authorization given them by King Cyrus of Persia.

Rebuilding the Temple

<sup>8</sup> In the second month of the second year after they arrived at God's house in Jerusalem, Zerubbabel son of Shealtiel, Jeshua son of Jozadak, and the rest of their brothers, including the priests, the Levites, and all who had returned to Jerusalem from the captivity, began to build. They appointed the Levites who were 20 years old or more to supervise the work on the LORD's house. <sup>9</sup> Jeshua with his sons and brothers, Kadmiel with his sons, and the sons of Judah <sup>C</sup> and of Henadad, with their sons and brothers, the Levites, joined together to supervise those working on the house of God.

Temple Foundation Completed

<sup>10†</sup> When the builders had laid the foundation of the LORD's temple, the priests, dressed in their robes and holding trumpets, and the Levites descended from •Asaph, holding cymbals, took their positions to praise the LORD, as King David of Israel had instructed. <sup>11†</sup> They sang with praise and thanksgiving to the LORD: "For He is good; His faithful love to Israel endures forever." Then all the people gave a great shout of praise to the LORD because the foundation of the LORD's house had been laid.

<sup>12</sup> But many of the older priests, Levites, and family leaders, who had seen the first temple, wept loudly when they saw the foundation of this house, but many others shouted joyfully. <sup>13</sup> The people could not distinguish the sound of the joyful shouting from that of the <sup>D</sup> weeping, because the people were shouting so loudly. And the sound was heard far away.

Opposition to Rebuilding the Temple

4 When the enemies of Judah and Benjamin heard that the returned exiles <sup>A</sup>, were building a temple for •Yahweh, the God of Israel, <sup>2</sup> they approached Zerubbabel and the leaders of the families and said to them, “Let us build with you, for we also worship your God and have been sacrificing to Him since the time King Esar-haddon of Assyria brought us here.”

<sup>3†</sup> But Zerubbabel, Jeshua, and the other leaders of Israel’s families answered them, “You may have no part with us in building a house for our God, since we alone must build it for Yahweh, the God of Israel, as King Cyrus, the king of Persia has commanded us.” <sup>4</sup> Then the people who were already in the land <sup>B</sup> discouraged <sup>C</sup> the people of Judah and made them afraid to build. <sup>5</sup> They also bribed officials to act against them to frustrate their plans throughout the reign of King Cyrus of Persia and until the reign of King Darius of Persia.

Opposition to Rebuilding the City

<sup>6</sup> At the beginning of the reign of Ahasuerus, the people who were already in the land <sup>D</sup> wrote an accusation against the residents of Judah and Jerusalem. <sup>7</sup> During the time of King Artaxerxes of Persia, Bishlam, Mithredath, Tabeel and the rest of his colleagues wrote to King Artaxerxes. The letter was written in Aramaic and translated. <sup>E</sup>
