To King Artaxerxes from your servants, the men from the region west of the Euphrates River:

<sup>12</sup> Let it be known to the king that the Jews who came from you have returned to us at Jerusalem. They are rebuilding that rebellious and evil city, finishing its walls, and repairing its foundations. <sup>13</sup> Let it now be known to the king that if that city is rebuilt and its walls are finished, they will not pay tribute, duty, or land tax, and the royal revenue <sup>J</sup> will suffer. <sup>14</sup> Since we have taken an oath of loyalty to the king, <sup>K</sup> and it is not right for us to witness his dishonor, we have sent to inform the king <sup>15</sup> that a search should be made in your fathers' record books. In these record books you will discover and verify that the city is a rebellious city, harmful to kings and provinces. There have been revolts in it since ancient times. That is why this city was destroyed. <sup>16</sup> We advise the king that if this city is rebuilt and its walls are finished, you will not have any possession west of the Euphrates.

Artaxerxes' Reply

<sup>17</sup> The king sent a reply to his chief deputy Rehum, Shimshai the scribe, and the rest of their colleagues living in Samaria and elsewhere in the region west of the Euphrates River:

Greetings.

<sup>18</sup> The letter you sent us has been translated and read <sup>L</sup>, in my presence. <sup>19</sup> I issued a decree and a search was conducted. It was discovered that this city has had uprisings against kings since ancient times, and there have been rebellions and revolts in it. <sup>20†</sup> Powerful kings have also ruled over Jerusalem and exercised authority over the whole region, and tribute, duty, and land tax were paid to them. <sup>21</sup> Therefore, issue an order for these men to stop, so that this city will not be rebuilt until a further decree has been pronounced by me. <sup>22</sup> See that you not neglect this matter.

Otherwise, the damage will increase and the royal interests <sup>M</sup> will suffer.

<sup>23</sup> As soon as the text of King Artaxerxes' letter was read to Rehum, Shimshai the scribe, and their colleagues, they immediately went to the Jews in Jerusalem and forcibly stopped them.

Rebuilding of the Temple Resumed

<sup>24</sup> Now the construction of God's house in Jerusalem had stopped and remained at a standstill until the second year of the reign of King Darius of Persia.

EZRA

5† But when the prophets Haggai and Zechariah son of Iddo prophesied to the Jews who were in Judah and Jerusalem, in the name of the God of Israel who was over them, <sup>2</sup> Zerubbabel son of Shealtiel and Jeshua son of Jozadak began to rebuild God's house in Jerusalem. The prophets of God were with them, helping them.

<sup>3</sup> At that time Tattenai the governor of the region west of the Euphrates River, Shethar-bozenai, and their colleagues came to the Jews and asked, "Who gave you the order to rebuild this temple and finish this structure?" <sup>A</sup>, <sup>4</sup> They also asked them, "What are the names of the workers who are constructing this building?" <sup>5†</sup> But God was watching <sup>B</sup> over the Jewish elders. These men wouldn't stop them until a report was sent to Darius, so that they could receive written instructions about this matter.

The Letter to Darius

To King Darius:

All greetings.

<sup>8</sup> Let it be known to the king that we went to the house of the great God in the province of Judah. It is being built with cut <sup>C</sup> stones, and its beams are being set in the walls. This work is being done diligently and succeeding through the people's efforts. <sup>9</sup> So we questioned the elders and asked, "Who gave you the order to rebuild this temple and finish this structure?" <sup>D</sup> <sup>10</sup> We also asked them for their names, so that we could write down the names of their leaders for your information.

We are the servants of the God of heaven and earth and are rebuilding the temple that was built many years ago, which a great king of Israel built and finished. <sup>12†</sup> But since our fathers angered the God of heaven, He handed them over to King Nebuchadnezzar of Babylon, the Chaldean, who destroyed this temple and deported the people to Babylon. <sup>13</sup> However, in the first year of Cyrus king of Babylon, he issued a decree to rebuild the house of God. <sup>14</sup> He also took from the temple in Babylon the gold and silver articles of God's house that Nebuchadnezzar had taken from the temple in Jerusalem and carried them to the temple in Babylon. He released them from the temple in Babylon to a man named Sheshbazzar, the governor by the appointment of King Cyrus. <sup>15</sup> Cyrus told him, "Take these articles, put them in the temple in Jerusalem, and let the house of God be rebuilt on its original site." <sup>16</sup> Then this same Sheshbazzar came and laid the foundation of God's house in Jerusalem. It has been under construction from that time until now, yet it has not been completed.

<sup>17</sup> So if it pleases the king, let a search of the royal archives <sup>E</sup> in Babylon be conducted to see if it is true that a decree was issued by King Cyrus to rebuild the house of God in Jerusalem. Let the king's decision regarding this matter be sent to us.

Darius's Search

6 King Darius gave the order, and they searched in the library of Babylon in the archives. <sup>A</sup> <sup>2</sup> But it was in the fortress of Ecbatana in the province of Media that a scroll was found with this record written on it:

<sup>3</sup> In the first year of King Cyrus, he issued a decree concerning the house of God in Jerusalem:

Let the house be rebuilt as a place for offering sacrifices, and let its original foundations be retained. <sup>B</sup> Its height is to be 90 feet <sup>C</sup> and its width 90 feet, <sup>D</sup> , , <sup>4</sup> with three layers of cut <sup>E</sup> stones and one of timber. The cost is to be paid from the royal treasury.

<sup>5</sup> The gold and silver articles of God's house that Nebuchadnezzar took from the temple in Jerusalem and carried to Babylon must also be returned. They are to be brought to the temple in Jerusalem where they belong <sup>F</sup> and put into the house of God.

Darius's Decree

<sup>7</sup> Leave the construction of the house of God alone. Let the governor and elders of the Jews rebuild this house of God on its original site.

<sup>8†</sup> I hereby issue a decree concerning what you must do, so that the elders of the Jews can rebuild the house of God:

The cost is to be paid in full to these men out of the royal revenues from the taxes of the region west of the Euphrates River, so that the work will not stop. <sup>9</sup> Whatever is needed — young bulls, rams, and lambs for •burnt offerings to the God of heaven, or wheat, salt, wine, and oil, as requested by the priests in Jerusalem — let it be given to them every day without fail, <sup>10</sup> so that they can offer sacrifices of pleasing aroma to the God of heaven and pray for the life of the king and his sons.

Let a beam be torn from his house and raised up; he will be impaled on it, and his house will be made into a garbage dump because of this offense. <sup>12</sup> May the God who caused His name to dwell there overthrow any king or people who dares <sup>H</sup> to harm or interfere with this house of God in Jerusalem. I, Darius, have issued the decree. Let it be carried out diligently.

Temple Dedication and the Passover

<sup>16</sup> Then the Israelites, including the priests, the Levites, and the rest of the exiles, celebrated the dedication of the house of God with joy. <sup>17</sup> For the dedication of God's house they offered 100 bulls, 200 rams, and 400 lambs, as well as 12 male goats as a •sin offering for all Israel — one for each Israelite tribe. <sup>18†</sup> They also appointed the priests by their divisions and the Levites by their groups to the service of God in Jerusalem, according to what is written in the book of Moses.

<sup>19</sup> The exiles observed the •Passover on the fourteenth day of the first month. <sup>20</sup> All of the priests and Levites were ceremonially •clean, because they had purified themselves. They killed the Passover lamb for themselves, their priestly brothers, and all the exiles. <sup>21†</sup> The Israelites who had returned from exile ate it, together with all who had separated themselves from the uncleanness of the Gentiles of the land <sup>I</sup>, in order to worship •Yahweh, the God of Israel. <sup>22</sup> They observed the Festival of Unleavened Bread for seven days with joy, because the LORD had made them joyful, having changed the Assyrian king's attitude toward them, so that he supported them<sup>J</sup> in the work on the house of the God of Israel.

Ezra's Arrival

7 After these events, during the reign of King Artaxerxes of Persia, Ezra —

Seraiah's son, Azariah's son,
Hilkiah's son, <sup>2</sup> Shallum's son,
Zadok's son, Ahitub's son,
<sup>3</sup> Amariah's son, Azariah's son,
Meraioth's son, <sup>4</sup> Zerahiah's son,
Uzzi's son, Bukki's son,
<sup>5</sup> Abishua's son, Phinehas's son,
Eleazar's son, Aaron the chief priest's son

<sup>6†</sup> — came up from Babylon. He was a scribe skilled in the law of Moses, which •Yahweh, the God of Israel, had given. The king had granted him everything he requested because the hand of Yahweh his God was on him.

<sup>8</sup> Ezra came to Jerusalem in the fifth month, during the seventh year of the king. <sup>9</sup> He began the journey from Babylon on the first day of the first month and arrived in Jerusalem on the first day of the fifth month since the gracious hand of his God was on him. <sup>10</sup> Now Ezra had determined in his heart to study the law of the LORD, obey it, and teach its statutes and ordinances in Israel.

Letter from Artaxerxes

<sup>11</sup> This is the text of the letter King Artaxerxes gave to Ezra the priest and scribe, an expert in matters of the LORD's commands and statutes for Israel:

Greetings.

<sup>13</sup> I issue a decree that any of the Israelites in my kingdom, including their priests and Levites, who want to go to Jerusalem, may go with you. <sup>14</sup> You are sent by the king and his seven counselors to evaluate Judah and Jerusalem according to the law of your God, which is in your possession. <sup>15</sup> You are also to bring the silver and gold the king and his counselors have willingly given to the God of Israel, whose dwelling is in Jerusalem, <sup>16</sup> and all the silver and gold you receive throughout the province of Babylon, together with the freewill offerings given by the people and the priests to the house of their God in Jerusalem. <sup>17</sup> Then you are to buy with this money as many bulls, rams, and lambs as needed, along with their •grain and •drink offerings, and offer them on the altar at the house of your God in Jerusalem. <sup>18</sup> You may do whatever seems best to you and your brothers with the rest of the silver and gold, according to the will of your God. <sup>19</sup> You must deliver to the God of Jerusalem all the articles given to you for the service of the house of your God. <sup>20</sup> You may use the royal treasury to pay for anything else needed for the house of your God.

Whatever Ezra the priest, an expert in the law of the God of heaven, asks of you must be provided promptly, <sup>22</sup> up to 7,500 pounds <sup>A</sup> of silver, 500 bushels <sup>B</sup> of wheat, 550 gallons <sup>C</sup> of wine, 550 gallons <sup>D</sup> of oil, and salt without limit. <sup>E</sup> <sup>23</sup> Whatever is commanded by the God of heaven must be done diligently for the house of the God of heaven, so that wrath will not fall on the realm of the king and his sons. <sup>24†</sup> Be advised that tribute, duty, and land tax must not be imposed on any priests, Levites, singers, doorkeepers, temple servants, or other servants of this house of God.

to teach anyone who does not know them. <sup>26†</sup> Anyone who does not keep the law of your God and the law of the king, let a fair judgment be executed against him, whether death, banishment, confiscation of property, or imprisonment.

<sup>27</sup> Praise Yahweh the God of our fathers, who has put it into the king's mind to glorify the house of the LORD in Jerusalem, <sup>28</sup> and who has shown favor to me before the king, his counselors, and all his powerful officers. So I took courage because I was strengthened by Yahweh my God, <sup>G</sup> and I gathered Israelite leaders to return with me.

Those Returning with Ezra

8 These are the family leaders and the genealogical records of those who returned with me from Babylon during the reign of King Artaxerxes:

Daniel, from Ithamar's descendants;

Hattush, from David's descendants,

<sup>3</sup> who was of Shecaniah's descendants;

Zechariah, from Parosh's descendants, and 150 men <sup>A</sup> with him who were registered by genealogy;

from Pahath-moab's descendants,

and 200 men with him;

<sup>5</sup> Shecaniah son of Jahaziel

from Zattu's descendants,

and 300 men with him;

<sup>6</sup> Ebed son of Jonathan

from Adin's descendants,

and 50 men with him;

<sup>7</sup> Jeshaiiah son of Athaliah

from Elam's descendants,

and 70 men with him;

<sup>8</sup> Zebadiah son of Michael from Shephatiah's descendants,

and 80 men with him;

<sup>9</sup> Obadiah son of Jehiel

from Joab's descendants,

and 218 men with him;

<sup>10</sup> Shelomith son of Josiphiah

from Bani's descendants,

and 160 men with him;

<sup>11</sup> Zechariah son of Bebai

from Bebai's descendants,

and 28 men with him;

<sup>12</sup> Johanan son of Hakkatan

from Azgad's descendants,
and 110 men with him;

<sup>13</sup> these are the last ones, from Adonikam's descendants, and their names are:

Eliphelet, Jeuel, and Shemaiah,
and 60 men with them;

<sup>14</sup> Uthai and Zaccur
from Bigvai's descendants,
and 70 men with them.

<sup>15</sup> I gathered them at the river <sup>B</sup> that flows to Ahava, and we camped there for three days. I searched among the people and priests, but found no Levites there. <sup>16</sup> Then I summoned the leaders: Eliezer, Ariel, Shemaiah, Elnathan, Jarib, Elnathan, Nathan, Zechariah, and Meshullam, as well as the teachers Joiarib and Elnathan. <sup>17</sup> I sent them to Iddo, the leader at Casiphia, with a message for <sup>C</sup> him and his brothers, the temple servants at Casiphia, that they should bring us ministers for the house of our God.

<sup>18</sup> Since the gracious hand of our God was on us, they brought us Sherebiah — a man of insight from the descendants of Mahli, a descendant of Levi son of Israel — along with his sons and brothers, 18 men, <sup>19</sup> plus Hashabiah, along with Jeshaiyah, from the descendants of Merari, and his brothers and their sons, 20 men. <sup>20</sup> There were also 220 of the temple servants, who had been appointed by David and the leaders for the work of the Levites. All were identified by name.

Preparing to Return

<sup>21</sup> I proclaimed a fast by the Ahava River, <sup>D</sup> so that we might humble ourselves before our God and ask Him for a safe journey for us, our children, and all our possessions. <sup>22</sup> I did this because I was ashamed to ask the king for infantry and cavalry to protect us from enemies during the journey, since we had told him, "The hand of our God is gracious to all who seek Him, but His great anger is against all who abandon Him." <sup>23</sup> So we fasted and pleaded with our God about this, and He granted our request.

<sup>24</sup> I selected 12 of the leading priests, along with Sherebiah, Hashabiah, and 10 of their brothers. <sup>25</sup> I weighed out to them the silver, the gold, and the articles — the contribution for the house of our God that the king, his counselors, his leaders, and all the Israelites who were present had offered. <sup>26</sup> I weighed out to them 24 tons <sup>E</sup> of silver, silver articles weighing 7,500 pounds, <sup>F</sup> 7,500 pounds <sup>G</sup> of gold, <sup>27</sup> 20 gold bowls worth 1,000 gold coins, <sup>H</sup> and two articles of fine gleaming bronze, as valuable as gold. <sup>28</sup> Then I said to them, “You are holy to the LORD, and the articles are holy. The silver and gold are a freewill offering to the LORD God of your fathers. <sup>29</sup> Guard them carefully until you weigh them out in the chambers of the LORD’s house before the leading priests, Levites, and heads of the Israelite families in Jerusalem.” <sup>30</sup> So the priests and Levites took charge of the silver, the gold, and the articles that had been weighed out, to bring them to the house of our God in Jerusalem.

Arrival in Jerusalem

<sup>31</sup> We set out from the Ahava River <sup>I</sup> on the twelfth day of the first month to go to Jerusalem. We were strengthened by our God, <sup>J</sup> and He protected us from the power of the enemy and from ambush along the way. <sup>32</sup> So we arrived at Jerusalem and rested there for three days. <sup>33</sup> On the fourth day the silver, the gold, and the articles were weighed out in the house of our God into the care of Meremoth the priest, son of Uriah. Eleazar son of Phinehas was with him. The Levites Jozabad son of Jeshua and Noadiah son of Binnui were also with them. <sup>34</sup> Everything was verified by number and weight, and the total weight was recorded at that time.

<sup>35</sup> The exiles who had returned from the captivity offered •burnt offerings to the God of Israel: 12 bulls for all Israel, 96 rams, and 77 lambs, along with 12 male goats as a •sin offering. All this was a burnt offering for the LORD. <sup>36</sup> They also delivered the king’s edicts to the royal satraps and governors of the region west of the Euphrates, so that they would support the people and the house of God.

Israel's Intermarriage with Pagans

9 After these things had been done, the leaders approached me and said: “The people of Israel, the priests, and the Levites have not separated themselves from the surrounding peoples whose detestable practices are like those of the Canaanites, Hittites, Perizzites, Jebusites, Ammonites, Moabites, Egyptians, and Amorites. <sup>2</sup> Indeed, the Israelite men <sup>A</sup> have taken some of their daughters as wives for themselves and their sons, so that the holy •seed has become mixed with the surrounding peoples. The leaders <sup>B</sup> and officials have taken the lead in this unfaithfulness! ” <sup>3†</sup> When I heard this report, I tore my tunic and robe, pulled out some of the hair from my head and beard, and sat down devastated.

Ezra’s Confession

<sup>4</sup> Everyone who trembled at the words of the God of Israel gathered around me, because of the unfaithfulness of the exiles, while I sat devastated until the evening offering. <sup>5</sup> At the evening offering, I got up from my humiliation, with my tunic and robe torn. Then I fell on my knees and spread out my hands to •Yahweh my God. <sup>6</sup> And I said:

My God, I am ashamed and embarrassed to lift my face toward You, my God, because our iniquities are higher than our heads and our •guilt is as high as the heavens. <sup>7</sup> Our guilt has been terrible from the days of our fathers until the present. Because of our iniquities we have been handed over, along with our kings and priests, to the surrounding kings, and to the sword, captivity, plundering, and open shame, as it is today. <sup>8</sup> But now, for a brief moment, grace has come from Yahweh our God to preserve a remnant for us and give us a stake in His holy place. Even in our slavery, God has given us new life and light to our eyes. <sup>9</sup> Though we are slaves, our God has not abandoned us in our slavery. He has extended grace to us in the presence of the Persian kings, giving us new life, so that we can rebuild the house of our God and repair its ruins, to give us a wall in Judah and Jerusalem.

<sup>10</sup> Now, our God, what can we say in light of <sup>C</sup> this? For we have abandoned the commands <sup>11†</sup> You gave through Your servants the prophets, saying: “The land you are entering to possess is an impure land. The surrounding peoples have filled it from end to end with their uncleanness by their impurity and detestable practices. <sup>12</sup> So do not give your daughters to their sons in marriage or take their daughters for your sons. Never seek their peace or prosperity, so that you will be strong, eat the good things of the land, and leave it as an inheritance to your sons forever.”

<sup>13</sup> After all that has happened to us because of our evil deeds and terrible guilt — though You, our God, have punished us less than our sins deserve and have allowed us to survive <sup>D</sup> — <sup>14</sup> should we break Your commands again and intermarry with the peoples who commit these detestable practices? Wouldn't You become so angry with us that You would destroy us, leaving no survivors?

<sup>15</sup> LORD God of Israel, You are righteous, for we survive as a remnant today. Here we are before You with our guilt, though no one can stand in Your presence because of this.

Sending Away Foreign Wives

10 While Ezra prayed and confessed, weeping and falling facedown before the house of God, an extremely large assembly of Israelite men, women, and children gathered around him. The people also wept bitterly. <sup>2</sup> Then Shecaniah son of Jehiel, an Elamite, responded to Ezra: “We have been unfaithful to our God by marrying foreign women from the surrounding peoples, but there is still hope for Israel in spite of this. <sup>3†</sup> Let us therefore make a covenant before our God to send away all the foreign wives and their children, according to the counsel of my lord and of those who tremble at the command of our God. Let it be done according to the law. <sup>4</sup> Get up, for this matter is your responsibility, and we support you. Be strong and take action! ”

<sup>5</sup> Then Ezra got up and made the leading priests, Levites, and all Israel take an oath to do what had been said; so they took the oath. <sup>6</sup> Ezra then went from the house of God and walked to the chamber of Jehohanan son of Eliashib, where he spent the night. He did not eat food or drink water, because he was mourning over the unfaithfulness of the exiles.

<sup>9</sup> So all the men of Judah and Benjamin gathered in Jerusalem within the three days. On the twentieth day of the ninth month, all the people sat in the square at the house of God, trembling because of this matter and because of the heavy rain. <sup>10</sup> Then Ezra the priest stood up and said to them, “You have been unfaithful by marrying foreign women, adding to Israel’s •guilt.

<sup>12</sup> Then all the assembly responded with a loud voice: “Yes, we will do as you say! <sup>13</sup> But there are many people, and it is the rainy season. We don’t have the stamina to stay out in the open. This isn’t something that can be done in a day or two, for we have rebelled terribly in this matter. <sup>14</sup> Let our leaders represent the entire assembly. Then let all those in our towns who have married foreign women come at appointed times, together with the elders and judges of each town, in order to avert the fierce anger of our God concerning this matter.” <sup>15</sup> Only Jonathan son of Asahel and Jahzeiah son of Tikvah opposed this, with Meshullam and Shabbethai the Levite supporting them.

<sup>16</sup> The exiles did what had been proposed. Ezra the priest selected men who were family leaders, all identified by name, to represent <sup>B</sup> their ancestral houses. They convened on the first day of the tenth month to investigate the matter, <sup>17</sup> and by the first day of the first month they had dealt with all the men who had married foreign women.

Those Married to Foreign Wives

from the descendants of Jeshua son of Jozadak and his brothers:
Maaseiah, Eliezer, Jarib, and Gedaliah. <sup>19</sup> They pledged <sup>C</sup> to send their wives away, and being guilty, they offered a ram from the flock for their guilt;

from Harim’s descendants;

<sup>22</sup> Elioenai, Maaseiah, Ishmael, Nethanel, Jozabad, and Elasah from Pashhur’s descendants.

Jozabad, Shimei, Kelaiah (that is Kelita), Pethahiah, Judah, and Eliezer.

Eliashib.

The gatekeepers:

Shallum, Telem, and Uri.

Parosh's descendants: Ramiah, Izziah, Malchijah, Mijamin, Eleazar, Malchijah, and Benaiah;

<sup>44</sup> All of these had married foreign women, and some of the wives had given birth to children.

NEHEMIAH

1 †The words of Nehemiah son of Hacaliah:

News from Jerusalem

During the month of Chislev in the twentieth year, when I was in the fortress city of Susa, <sup>2</sup> Hanani, one of my brothers, arrived with men from Judah, and I questioned them about Jerusalem and the Jewish remnant that had survived the exile. <sup>3</sup> They said to me, “The remnant in the province, who survived the exile, are in great trouble and disgrace. Jerusalem’s wall has been broken down, and its gates have been burned down.”

Nehemiah’s Prayer

<sup>4</sup> When I heard these words, I sat down and wept. I mourned for a number of days, fasting and praying before the God of heaven. <sup>5</sup> I said, •Yahweh, the God of heaven, the great and awe-inspiring God who keeps His gracious covenant with those who love Him and keep His commands, <sup>6</sup> let Your eyes be open and Your ears be attentive to hear Your servant’s prayer that I now pray to You day and night for Your servants, the Israelites. I confess the sins <sup>A</sup> we have committed against You. Both I and my father’s house have sinned. <sup>7†</sup> We have acted corruptly toward You and have not kept the commands, statutes, and ordinances You gave Your servant Moses. <sup>8</sup> Please remember what You commanded Your servant Moses: “If you are unfaithful, I will scatter you among the peoples. <sup>9</sup> But if you return to Me and carefully observe My commands, even though your exiles were banished to the ends of the earth, <sup>B</sup> I will gather them from there and bring them to the place where I chose to have My name dwell.” <sup>10</sup> They are Your servants and Your people. You redeemed them by Your great power and strong hand. <sup>11†</sup> Please, Lord, let Your ear be attentive to the prayer of Your servant and to that of Your servants who delight to revere Your name. Give Your servant success today, and have compassion on him in the presence of this man.

At the time, I was the king's cupbearer.

Nehemiah Sent to Jerusalem

2 During the month of Nisan in the twentieth year of King Artaxerxes, when wine was set before him, I took the wine and gave it to the king. I had never been sad in his presence,<sup>2</sup> so the king said to me, “Why are you<sup>A</sup> sad, when you aren’t sick? This is nothing but depression.”<sup>B</sup>

I was overwhelmed with fear<sup>3†</sup> and replied to the king, “May the king live forever! Why should I<sup>C</sup> not be sad when the city where my ancestors are buried lies in ruins and its gates have been destroyed by fire? ”

So I prayed to the God of heaven<sup>5</sup> and answered the king, “If it pleases the king, and if your servant has found favor with you, send me to Judah and to the city where my ancestors are buried,<sup>D</sup> so that I may rebuild it.”

<sup>6</sup> The king, with the queen seated beside him, asked me, “How long will your journey take, and when will you return? ” So I gave him a definite time, and it pleased the king to send me.

<sup>7</sup> I also said to the king: “If it pleases the king, let me have letters written to the governors of the region west of the Euphrates River, so that they will grant me safe passage until I reach Judah.<sup>8†</sup> And let me have a letter written to Asaph, keeper of the king’s forest, so that he will give me timber to rebuild the gates of the temple’s fortress, the city wall, and the home where I will live.”<sup>E</sup> The king granted my requests, for I was graciously strengthened by my God.<sup>F</sup>

<sup>9</sup> I went to the governors of the region west of the Euphrates and gave them the king’s letters. The king had also sent officers of the infantry and cavalry with me.<sup>10†</sup> When Sanballat the Horonite and Tobiah the Ammonite official heard that someone had come to seek the well-being of the Israelites, they were greatly displeased.

Preparing to Rebuild the Walls

<sup>11</sup> After I arrived in Jerusalem and had been there three days, <sup>12</sup> I got up at night and took a few men with me. I didn't tell anyone what my God had laid on my heart to do for Jerusalem. The only animal I took <sup>G</sup> was the one I was riding. <sup>13</sup> I went out at night through the Valley Gate toward the Serpent's <sup>H</sup> Well and the Dung Gate, and I inspected the walls of Jerusalem that had been broken down and its gates that had been destroyed by fire. <sup>14</sup> I went on to the Fountain Gate and the King's Pool, but farther down it became too narrow for my animal to go through. <sup>15</sup> So I went up at night by way of the valley and inspected the wall. Then heading back, I entered through the Valley Gate and returned. <sup>16†</sup> The officials did not know where I had gone or what I was doing, for I had not yet told the Jews, priests, nobles, officials, or the rest of those who would be doing the work. <sup>17</sup> So I said to them, "You see the trouble we are in. Jerusalem lies in ruins and its gates have been burned down. Come, let's rebuild Jerusalem's wall, so that we will no longer be a disgrace." <sup>18</sup> I told them how the gracious hand of my God had been on me, and what the king had said to me.

They said, "Let's start rebuilding," and they were encouraged <sup>I</sup> to do this good work.

<sup>19</sup> When Sanballat the Horonite, Tobiah the Ammonite official, and Geshem the Arab heard about this, they mocked and despised us, and said, "What is this you're doing? Are you rebelling against the king?"

<sup>20</sup> I gave them this reply, "The God of heaven is the One who will grant us success. We, His servants, will start building, but you have no share, right, or historic claim in Jerusalem."

Rebuilding the Walls

3 Eliashib the high priest and his fellow priests began rebuilding the Sheep Gate. They dedicated it and installed its doors. After building the wall to the Tower of the Hundred and the Tower of Hananel, they dedicated it.<sup>2</sup> The men of Jericho built next to Eliashib, and next to them Zaccur son of Imri built.

Fish Gate

<sup>3</sup> The sons of Hassenaah built the Fish Gate. They built it with beams and installed its doors, bolts, and bars.<sup>4</sup> Next to them Meremoth son of Uriah, son of Hakkoz, made repairs. Beside them Meshullam son of Berechiah, son of Meshezabel, made repairs. Next to them Zadok son of Baana made repairs.<sup>5</sup> Beside them the Tekoites made repairs, but their nobles did not lift a finger to help<sup>A</sup> their supervisors.

Old Gate, Broad Wall, and Tower of the Ovens

<sup>6</sup> Joiada son of Paseah and Meshullam son of Besodeiah repaired the Old<sup>B</sup> Gate. They built it with beams and installed its doors, bolts, and bars.<sup>7</sup> Next to them the repairs were done by Melatiah the Gibeonite, Jadon the Meronothite, and the men of Gibeon and Mizpah, who were under the authority<sup>C</sup> of the governor of the region west of the Euphrates River.<sup>8</sup> After him Uzziel son of Harhaiah, the goldsmith, made repairs, and next to him Hananiah son of the perfumer made repairs. They restored Jerusalem as far as the Broad Wall.

<sup>9</sup> Next to them Rephaiah son of Hur, ruler over half the district of Jerusalem, made repairs.<sup>10</sup> After them Jedaiah son of Harumaph made repairs across from his house. Next to him Hattush the son of Hashabneiah made repairs.<sup>11</sup> Malchijah son of Harim and Hasshub son of Pahath-moab made repairs to another section, as well as to the Tower of the Ovens.<sup>12</sup> Beside him Shallum son of Hallohesh, ruler over half the district of Jerusalem, made repairs — he and his daughters.

Valley Gate, Dung Gate, and Fountain Gate

<sup>15</sup> Shallun son of Col-hozeh, ruler over the district of Mizpah, repaired the Fountain Gate. He rebuilt it and roofed it. Then he installed its doors, bolts, and bars. He also made repairs to the wall of the Pool of Shelah near the king's garden, as far as the stairs that descend from the city of David.

<sup>16</sup> After him Nehemiah son of Azbuk, ruler over half the district of Beth-zur, made repairs up to a point opposite the tombs of David, as far as the artificial pool and the House of the Warriors. <sup>17</sup> Next to him the Levites made repairs under Rehum son of Bani. Beside him Hashabiah, ruler over half the district of Keilah, made repairs for his district. <sup>18</sup> After him their fellow Levites made repairs under Binnui son of Henadad, ruler over half the district of Keilah. <sup>19</sup> Next to him Ezer son of Jeshua, ruler over Mizpah, made repairs to another section opposite the ascent to the armory at the Angle.

The Angle, Water Gate, and Tower on the Ophel

<sup>20</sup> After him Baruch son of Zabbai diligently repaired another section, from the Angle to the door of the house of Eliashib the high priest.

Pedaiah son of Parosh,<sup>26</sup> and the temple servants living on Ophel made repairs opposite the Water Gate toward the east and the tower that juts out.<sup>27</sup> Next to him the Tekoites made repairs to another section from a point opposite the great tower that juts out, as far as the wall of Ophel.

Horse Gate, Inspection Gate, and Sheep Gate

After them Meshullam son of Berechiah made repairs opposite his room.<sup>31</sup> Next to him Malchijah, one of the goldsmiths, made repairs to the house of the temple servants and the merchants, opposite the Inspection<sup>F</sup> Gate, and as far as the upper room of the corner.<sup>32</sup> The goldsmiths and merchants made repairs between the upper room of the corner and the Sheep Gate.

Chapter 4 Progress in Spite of Opposition

<sup>1</sup>When Sanballat heard that we were rebuilding the wall, he became furious. He mocked the Jews <sup>2</sup> before his colleagues and the powerful men <sup>A</sup> of Samaria, and said, “What are these pathetic Jews doing? Can they restore it by themselves? Will they offer sacrifices? Will they ever finish it? Can they bring these burnt stones back to life from the mounds of rubble?” <sup>3</sup> Then Tobiah the Ammonite, who was beside him, said, “Indeed, even if a fox climbed up what they are building, he would break down their stone wall!”

<sup>7</sup> When Sanballat, Tobiah, and the Arabs, Ammonites, and Ashdodites heard that the repair to the walls of Jerusalem was progressing and that the gaps were being closed, they became furious. <sup>8</sup> They all plotted together to come and fight against Jerusalem and throw it into confusion. <sup>9</sup> So we prayed to our God and stationed a guard because of them day and night.

The strength of the laborer fails,
since there is so much rubble.
We will never be able to rebuild the wall.

<sup>11</sup> And our enemies said, “They won’t know or see anything until we’re among them and can kill them and stop the work.” <sup>12</sup> When the Jews who lived nearby arrived, they said to us time and again, <sup>D</sup> “Everywhere you turn, they attack <sup>E</sup> us.” <sup>13</sup> So I stationed people behind the lowest sections of the wall, at the vulnerable areas. I stationed them by families with their swords, spears, and bows. <sup>14</sup> After I made an inspection, I stood up and said to the nobles, the officials, and the rest of the people, “Don’t be afraid of them. Remember the great and awe-inspiring Lord, and fight for your countrymen, your sons and daughters, your wives and homes.”

Sword and Trowel

<sup>15†</sup> When our enemies heard that we knew their scheme and that God had frustrated it, every one of us returned to his own work on the wall. <sup>16</sup> From that day on, half of my men did the work while the other half held spears, shields, bows, and armor. The officers supported all the people of Judah, <sup>17</sup> who were rebuilding the wall. The laborers who carried the loads worked with one hand and held a weapon with the other. <sup>18</sup> Each of the builders had his sword strapped around his waist while he was building, and the trumpeter was beside me. <sup>19</sup> Then I said to the nobles, the officials, and the rest of the people: “The work is enormous and spread out, and we are separated far from one another along the wall. <sup>20</sup> Wherever you hear the trumpet sound, rally to us there. Our God will fight for us!” <sup>21</sup> So we continued the work, while half of the men were holding spears from daybreak until the stars came out. <sup>22</sup> At that time, I also said to the people, “Let everyone and his servant spend the night inside Jerusalem, so that they can stand guard by night and work by day.” <sup>23</sup> And I, my brothers, my men, and the guards with me never took off our clothes. Each carried his weapon, even when washing. <sup>F</sup>

NEHEMIAH

Social Injustice

<sup>5</sup> There was a widespread outcry from the people and their wives against their Jewish countrymen. <sup>2</sup> Some were saying, “We, our sons, and our daughters are numerous. Let us get grain so that we can eat and live.”

So I summoned the priests and made everyone take an oath to do this. <sup>13</sup> I also shook the folds of my robe and said, “May God likewise shake from his house and property everyone who doesn’t keep this promise. May he be shaken out and have nothing! ”

The whole assembly said, “•Amen,” and they praised the LORD. Then the people did as they had promised.

Good and Bad Governors

<sup>14</sup> Furthermore, from the day King Artaxerxes appointed me to be their governor in the land of Judah — from the twentieth year until his thirty-second year, 12 years — I and my associates never ate from the food allotted to the governor. <sup>15†</sup> The governors who preceded me had heavily burdened the people, taking food and wine from them, as well as a pound <sup>D</sup> of silver. Their subordinates also oppressed the people, but I didn't do this, because of the fear of God. <sup>16</sup> Instead, I devoted myself to the construction of the wall, and all my subordinates were gathered there for the work. We didn't buy any land.

<sup>17</sup> There were 150 Jews and officials, as well as guests from the surrounding nations at my table. <sup>18</sup> Each <sup>E</sup> day, one ox, six choice sheep, and some fowl were prepared for me. An abundance of all kinds of wine was provided every 10 days. But I didn't demand the food allotted to the governor, because the burden on the people was so heavy.

<sup>19</sup> Remember me favorably, my God, for all that I have done for this people.

NEHEMIAH

Attempts to Discourage the Builders

6 When Sanballat, Tobiah, Geshem the Arab, and the rest of our enemies heard that I had rebuilt the wall and that no gap was left in it — though at that time I had not installed the doors in the gates — <sup>2</sup> Sanballat and Geshem sent me a message: “Come, let’s meet together in the villages of <sup>A</sup> the Ono Valley.” But they were planning to harm me.

<sup>3</sup> So I sent messengers to them, saying, “I am doing a great work and cannot come down. Why should the work cease while I leave it and go down to you?” <sup>4</sup> Four times they sent me the same proposal, and I gave them the same reply.

It is reported among the nations — and Geshem <sup>B</sup> agrees — that you and the Jews plan to rebel. This is the reason you are building the wall. According to these reports, you are to become their king <sup>7</sup> and have even set up the prophets in Jerusalem to proclaim on your behalf: “There is a king in Judah.” These rumors will be heard by the king. So come, let’s confer together.

<sup>8</sup> Then I replied to him, “There is nothing to these rumors you are spreading; you are inventing them in your own mind.” <sup>9</sup> For they were all trying to intimidate us, saying, “They will become discouraged <sup>C</sup> in the work, and it will never be finished.”

But now, my God, strengthen me. <sup>D</sup>

Attempts to Intimidate Nehemiah

<sup>10†</sup> I went to the house of Shemaiah son of Delaiah, son of Mehetabel, who was restricted to his house. He said:

Let us meet at the house of God
inside the temple.
Let us shut the temple doors

because they are coming to kill you.

They are coming to kill you tonight! <sup>E</sup>

<sup>11</sup> But I said, “Should a man like me run away? How can I enter the temple and live? I will not go.” <sup>12</sup> I realized that God had not sent him, because of the prophecy he spoke against me. Tobiah and Sanballat had hired him.

<sup>13</sup> He was hired, so that I would be intimidated, do as he suggested, sin, and get a bad reputation, in order that they could discredit me.

<sup>14</sup> My God, remember Tobiah and Sanballat for what they have done, and also Noadiah the prophetess and the other prophets who wanted to intimidate me.

The Wall Completed

<sup>15</sup> The wall was completed in 52 days, on the twenty-fifth day of the month Elul. <sup>16</sup> When all our enemies heard this, all the surrounding nations were intimidated and lost their confidence, <sup>F</sup> for they realized that this task had been accomplished by our God.

<sup>17</sup> During those days, the nobles of Judah sent many letters to Tobiah, and Tobiah’s letters came to them. <sup>18</sup> For many in Judah were bound by oath to him, since he was a son-in-law of Shecaniah son of Arah, and his son Jehohanan had married the daughter of Meshullam son of Berechiah.

<sup>19</sup> These nobles kept mentioning Tobiah’s good deeds to me, and they reported my words to him. And Tobiah sent letters to intimidate me.

NEHEMIAH

The Exiles Return

7 When the wall had been rebuilt and I had the doors installed, the gatekeepers, singers, and Levites were appointed. <sup>2</sup> Then I put my brother Hanani in charge of Jerusalem, along with Hananiah, commander of the fortress, because he was a faithful man who •feared God more than most. <sup>3</sup> I said to them, “Do not open the gates of Jerusalem until the sun is hot, and let the doors be shut and securely fastened while the guards are on duty. Station the citizens of Jerusalem as guards, some at their posts and some at their homes.”

<sup>4†</sup> The city was large and spacious, but there were few people in it, and no houses had been built yet. <sup>5</sup> Then my God put it into my mind to assemble the nobles, the officials, and the people to be registered by genealogy. I found the genealogical record of those who came back first, and I found the following written in it:

<sup>6</sup> These are the people of the province who went up among the captive exiles deported by King Nebuchadnezzar of Babylon. Each of them returned to Jerusalem and Judah, to his own town. <sup>7</sup> They came with Zerubbabel, Jeshua, Nehemiah, Azariah, Raamiah, Nahamani, Mordecai, Bilshan, Mispereth, Bigvai, Nehum, and Baanah.

The number of the Israelite men included:

<sup>19</sup> Bigvai's descendants	2,067

<sup>32</sup> Bethel's and Ai's men	123
<sup>33</sup> the other Nebo's men	52
<sup>34</sup> the other Elam's people	1,254
Jedaiah's descendants of the house of Jeshua	973
Jeshua's descendants: of Kadmiel

Hodevah's descendants 74.

Shallum's descendants, Ater's descendants,

Talmon's descendants, Akkub's descendants,

Hatita's descendants, Shobai's descendants 138.

Ziha's descendants, Hasupha's descendants,

Tabbaoth's descendants, <sup>47</sup> Keros's descendants,

Sia's descendants, Padon's descendants,

Shalmi's descendants, <sup>49</sup> Hanan's descendants,

Giddel's descendants, Gahar's descendants,

Nekoda's descendants, <sup>51</sup> Gazzam's descendants,

Uzza's descendants, Paseah's descendants,

Nephishesim's descendants, <sup>53</sup> Bakbuk's descendants,

Hakupha's descendants, Harhur's descendants,

Harsha's descendants, <sup>55</sup> Barkos's descendants,

Sisera's descendants, Temah's descendants,

Sotai's descendants, Sophereth's descendants,
Perida's descendants, <sup>58</sup> Jaala's descendants, Darkon's descendants, Giddel's descendants,
Pochereth-hazzebaim's descendants, Amon's descendants.

and the descendants of Solomon's servants 392.

<sup>61</sup> The following are those who came from Tel-melah, Tel-harsha, Cherub, Addon, and Immer, but were unable to prove that their families and ancestors were Israelite:

Tobiah's descendants,

and Nekoda's descendants 642

as well as their 245 male and female singers.

<sup>71</sup> Some of the family leaders gave 20,000 gold coins and 2,200 silver minas to the treasury for the project. <sup>72</sup> The rest of the people gave 20,000 gold coins, 2,000 silver minas, and 67 priestly garments. <sup>73†</sup> So the priests, Levites, gatekeepers, temple singers, some of the people, temple servants, and all Israel settled in their towns.

Public Reading of the Law

When the seventh month came and the Israelites had settled in their towns,

NEHEMIAH

8† All the people gathered together at the square in front of the Water Gate. They asked Ezra the scribe to bring the book of the law of Moses that the LORD had given Israel.<sup>2</sup> On the first day of the seventh month, Ezra the priest brought the law before the assembly of men, women, and all who could listen with understanding.<sup>3†</sup> While he was facing the square in front of the Water Gate, he read out of it from daybreak until noon before the men, the women, and those who could understand. All the people listened attentively<sup>A</sup> to the book of the law.<sup>4</sup> Ezra the scribe stood on a high wooden platform made for this purpose. Mattithiah, Shema, Anaiyah, Uriah, Hilkiah, and Maaseiah stood beside him on his right; to his left were Pedaiah, Mishael, Malchijah, Hashum, Hashbaddanah, Zechariah, and Meshullam.<sup>5</sup> Ezra opened the book in full view of all the people, since he was elevated above everyone. As he opened it, all the people stood up.<sup>6</sup> Ezra praised the LORD, the great God, and with their hands uplifted all the people said, “•Amen, Amen!” Then they bowed down and worshiped the LORD with their faces to the ground.

<sup>7</sup> Jeshua, Bani, Sherebiah, Jamin, Akkub, Shabbethai, Hodiah, Maaseiah, Kelita, Azariah, Jozabad, Hanan, and Pelaiah, who were Levites, explained the law to the people as they stood in their places.<sup>8</sup> They read out of the book of the law of God, translating and giving the meaning so that the people could understand what was read.<sup>9</sup> Nehemiah the governor, Ezra the priest and scribe, and the Levites who were instructing the people said to all of them, “This day is holy to the LORD your God. Do not mourn or weep.” For all the people were weeping as they heard the words of the law.<sup>10</sup> Then he said to them, “Go and eat what is rich, drink what is sweet, and send portions to those who have nothing prepared, since today is holy to our Lord. Do not grieve, because the joy of the LORD is your stronghold.”<sup>11</sup> And the Levites quieted all the people, saying, “Be still, since today is holy. Do not grieve.”<sup>12</sup> Then all the people began to eat and drink, send portions, and have a great celebration, because they had understood the words that were explained to them.

<sup>13</sup> On the second day, the family leaders of all the people, along with the priests and Levites, assembled before Ezra the scribe to study the words of the law. <sup>14†</sup> They found written in the law how the LORD had commanded through Moses that the Israelites should dwell in booths during the festival of the seventh month. <sup>15</sup> So they proclaimed and spread this news throughout their towns and in Jerusalem, saying, “Go out to the hill country and bring back branches of olive, wild olive, myrtle, palm, and other leafy trees to make booths, just as it is written.” <sup>16</sup> The people went out, brought back branches, and made booths for themselves on each of their rooftops, and courtyards, the court of the house of God, the square by the Water Gate, and the square by the Gate of Ephraim. <sup>17</sup> The whole community that had returned from exile made booths and lived in them. They had not celebrated like this from the days of Joshua son of Nun until that day. And there was tremendous joy. <sup>18</sup> Ezra read out of the book of the law of God every day, from the first day to the last. The Israelites celebrated the festival for seven days, and on the eighth day there was an assembly, according to the ordinance.

NEHEMIAH

National Confession of Sin

9 On the twenty-fourth day of this month the Israelites assembled; they were fasting, wearing •sackcloth, and had put dust on their heads.

Praise Your glorious name,
and may it be exalted above all blessing and praise.

You created the heavens,
the highest heavens with all their host,
the earth and all that is on it,
the seas and all that is in them.

You give life to all of them,
and the heavenly host worships You.

the God who chose Abram
and brought him out of Ur of the Chaldeans, and changed his name to Abraham.

<sup>8†</sup> You found his heart faithful in Your sight,
and made a covenant with him
to give the land of the Canaanites, Hittites, Amorites, Perizzites, Jebusites, and Girgashites —
to give it to his descendants.
You have kept Your promise,
for You are righteous.

<sup>9</sup> You saw the oppression of our ancestors in Egypt and heard their cry at the •Red Sea.

<sup>10†</sup> You performed signs and wonders against Pharaoh,
all his officials, and all the people of his land,
for You knew how arrogantly they treated our ancestors.
You made a name for Yourself
that endures to this day.

and they crossed through it on dry ground.
You hurled their pursuers into the depths
like a stone into churning waters.

<sup>12</sup> You led them with a pillar of cloud by day,
and with a pillar of fire by night,
to illuminate the way they should go.

<sup>13</sup> You came down on Mount Sinai,
and spoke to them from heaven.
You gave them impartial ordinances, reliable instructions,
and good statutes and commands.

<sup>14</sup> You revealed Your holy Sabbath to them,
and gave them commands, statutes, and instruction
through Your servant Moses.

<sup>15</sup> You provided bread from heaven for their hunger;
You brought them water from the rock for their thirst.
You told them to go in and possess the land
You had sworn <sup>A</sup> to give them.

they became stiff-necked and did not listen to Your commands.

and did not remember Your wonders
You performed among them.
They became stiff-necked and appointed a leader
to return to their slavery in Egypt.
But You are a forgiving God,
gracious and compassionate,
slow to anger and rich in faithful love,
and You did not abandon them.

for themselves and said,
“This is your God who brought you out of Egypt,”
and they had committed terrible blasphemies,

<sup>19</sup> You did not abandon them in the wilderness
because of Your great compassion.

During the day the pillar of cloud never turned away from them,
guiding them on their journey.

And during the night the pillar of fire
illuminated the way they should go.

You did not withhold Your manna from their mouths,
and You gave them water for their thirst.

and they lacked nothing.

Their clothes did not wear out,
and their feet did not swell.

<sup>22</sup> You gave them kingdoms and peoples
and assigned them to be a boundary.

They took possession of the land of Sihon king of Heshbon
and of the land of Og king of Bashan.

<sup>23</sup> You multiplied their descendants
like the stars of heaven and brought them to the land
You told their ancestors to go in and take possession of it.

<sup>24</sup> So their descendants went in and possessed the land:
You subdued the Canaanites who inhabited the land before them and handed their kings and the surrounding peoples over to them, to do as they pleased with them.

and took possession of well-supplied houses, cisterns cut out of rock, vineyards,
olive groves, and fruit trees in abundance.
They ate, were filled,
became prosperous, and delighted in Your great goodness.

<sup>26</sup> But they were disobedient and rebelled against You.
They flung Your law behind their backs
and killed Your prophets who warned them
in order to turn them back to You.

They committed terrible blasphemies.

<sup>27</sup> So You handed them over to their enemies,
who oppressed them.

In their time of distress, they cried out to You,
and You heard from heaven.

In Your abundant compassion
You gave them deliverers, who rescued them from the power of their enemies.

<sup>28</sup> But as soon as they had relief,
they again did what was evil in Your sight.
So You abandoned them to the power of their enemies,
who dominated them.

When they cried out to You again,
You heard from heaven and rescued them
many times in Your compassion.

<sup>29</sup> You warned them to turn back to Your law,
but they acted arrogantly
and would not obey Your commands.
They sinned against Your ordinances,
which a person will live by if he does them.

They stubbornly resisted, <sup>B</sup>
stiffened their necks, and would not obey.

<sup>30†</sup> You were patient with them for many years,
and Your Spirit warned them through Your prophets,
but they would not listen.

Therefore, You handed them over to the surrounding peoples.

<sup>31</sup> However, in Your abundant compassion,
You did not destroy them or abandon them,
for You are a gracious and compassionate God.

<sup>32</sup> So now, our God — the great, mighty,

and awe-inspiring God who keeps His gracious covenant —
do not view lightly all the hardships that have afflicted us,
our kings and leaders,
our priests and prophets,
our ancestors and all Your people,
from the days of the Assyrian kings until today.

<sup>33</sup> You are righteous concerning all that has come on us, because You have acted faithfully,
while we have acted wickedly.

<sup>34</sup> Our kings, leaders, priests, and ancestors
did not obey Your law or listen to Your commands
and warnings You gave them.

<sup>35</sup> When they were in their kingdom,
with Your abundant goodness that You gave them,
and in the spacious and fertile land You set before them,
they would not serve You or turn from their wicked ways.

slaves in the land You gave our ancestors
so that they could enjoy its fruit and its goodness.
Here we are — slaves in it!

You have set over us, because of our sins.
They rule over our bodies
and our livestock as they please.
We are in great distress.

Israel's Vow of Faithfulness

<sup>38</sup> In view of all this, we are making a binding agreement in writing on a sealed document containing the names of our leaders, Levites, and priests.

NEHEMIAH

10 Those whose seals were on the document were:

Nehemiah the governor, son of Hacaliah, and Zedekiah,

These were the priests.

Jeshua son of Azaniah,

Binnui of the sons of Henadad, Kadmiel,

<sup>10</sup> and their brothers

Shebaniah, Hodiah, Kelita, Pelaiah, Hanan,

<sup>14</sup> The leaders of the people were:

Parosh, Pahath-moab, Elam, Zattu, Bani,

<sup>28</sup> The rest of the people — the priests, Levites, gatekeepers, singers, and temple servants, along with their wives, sons, and daughters, everyone who is able to understand and who has separated themselves from the surrounding peoples to obey the law of God — <sup>29</sup> join with their noble brothers and commit themselves with a sworn oath <sup>A</sup>, to follow the law of God given through God's servant Moses and to carefully obey all the commands, ordinances, and statutes of •Yahweh our Lord.

Details of the Vow

<sup>30†</sup> We will not give our daughters in marriage to the surrounding peoples and will not take their daughters as wives for our sons.

<sup>31</sup> When the surrounding peoples bring merchandise or any kind of grain to sell on the Sabbath day, we will not buy from them on the Sabbath or a holy day. We will also leave the land uncultivated in the seventh year and will cancel every debt.

To give an eighth of an ounce of silver <sup>B</sup> yearly for the service of the house of our God: <sup>33</sup> the bread displayed before the LORD, <sup>C</sup>, the daily •grain offering, the regular •burnt offering, the Sabbath and New Moon offerings, the appointed festivals, the holy things, the •sin offerings to •atone for Israel, and for all the work of the house of our God.

<sup>34</sup> We have cast lots among the priests, Levites, and people for the donation of wood by our ancestral houses at the appointed times each year. They are to bring the wood to our God's house to burn on the altar of the LORD our God, as it is written in the law.

<sup>35</sup> We will bring the •firstfruits of our land and of every fruit tree to the LORD's house year by year. <sup>36</sup> We will also bring the firstborn of our sons and our livestock, as prescribed by the law, and will bring the firstborn of our herds and flocks to the house of our God, to the priests who serve in our God's house.<sup>37</sup> We will bring a loaf from our first batch of dough to the priests at the storerooms of the house of our God. We will also bring the firstfruits of our grain offerings, of every fruit tree, and of the new wine and oil. A tenth of our land's produce belongs to the Levites, for the Levites are to collect the one-tenth offering in all our agricultural towns.<sup>38</sup> A priest of Aaronic descent must accompany the Levites when they collect the tenth, and the Levites must take a tenth of this offering to the storerooms of the treasury in the house of our God.<sup>39</sup> For the Israelites and the Levites are to bring the contributions of grain, new wine, and oil to the storerooms where the articles of the sanctuary are kept and where the priests who minister are, along with the gatekeepers and singers. We will not neglect the house of our God.

NEHEMIAH

Resettling Jerusalem

11 Now the leaders of the people stayed in Jerusalem, and the rest of the people cast lots for one out of ten to come and live in Jerusalem, the holy city, while the other nine-tenths remained in their towns. <sup>2</sup> The people praised all the men who volunteered to live in Jerusalem.

Judah’s descendants:

Athaiah son of Uziah, son of Zechariah, son of Amariah, son of Shephatiah, son of Mahalalel, of Perez’s descendants; <sup>5</sup> and Maaseiah son of Baruch, son of Col-hozeh, son of Hazaiah, son of Adaiah, son of Joiarib, son of Zechariah, a descendant of the Shilonite. <sup>6</sup> The total number of Perez’s descendants, who settled in Jerusalem, was 468 capable men.

Sallu son of Meshullam, son of Joed, son of Pedaiiah, son of Kolaiah, son of Maaseiah, son of Ithiel, son of Jeshaiiah, <sup>8</sup> and after him Gabbai and Sallai: 928. <sup>9</sup> Joel son of Zichri was the officer over them, and Judah son of Hassenuah was second in command over the city.

Jedaiah son of Joiarib, Jachin, and <sup>11</sup> Seraiah son of Hilkiyah, son of Meshullam, son of Zadok, son of Meraioth, son of Ahitub, the chief official of God’s temple, <sup>12</sup> and their relatives who did the work at the temple: 822. Adaiah son of Jeroham, son of Pelaliah, son of Amzi, son of Zechariah, son of Pashhur, son of Malchijah <sup>13</sup> and his relatives, the leaders of families: 242. Amashsai son of Azarel, son of Ahzai, son of Meshillemoth, son of Immer, <sup>14</sup> and their relatives, capable men: 128. Zabdiel son of Haggedolim, was their chief.

Shemaiah son of Hasshub, son of Azrikam, son of Hashabiah, son of Bunni; <sup>16</sup> and Shabbethai and Jozabad, from the leaders of the Levites, who supervised the work outside the house of God;

<sup>17</sup> Mattaniah son of Mica, son of Zabdi, son of •Asaph, the leader who began the thanksgiving in prayer; Bakbukiah, second among his relatives; and Abda son of Shammua, son of Galal, son of Jeduthun. <sup>18</sup> All the Levites in the holy city: 284.

Akkub, Talmon, and their relatives, who guarded the gates: 172.

<sup>20</sup> The rest of Israel, the priests, and the Levites were in all the villages of Judah, each on his own inherited property. <sup>21</sup> The temple servants lived on Ophel; Ziha and Gishpa supervised the temple servants.

The Levites and Priests

Some of Judah's descendants lived in Kiriath-arba and its villages, Dibon and its villages, and Jekabzeel and its villages;

in Lachish with its fields and Azekah and its villages.
So they settled from Beer-sheba to the Valley of Hinnom.

from Geba, <sup>C</sup> Michmash, Aija,
and Bethel — and its villages,

NEHEMIAH

12 These are the priests and Levites who went up with Zerubbabel son of Shealtiel and with Jeshua:

Seraiah, Jeremiah, Ezra,
2 Amariah, Malluch, Hattush,
3 Shecaniah, Rehum, Meremoth,
4 Iddo, Ginnethoi, Abijah,
5 Mijamin, Maadiah, Bilgah,
6 Shemaiah, Joiarib, Jedaiah,
7 Sallu, Amok, Hilkiah, Jedaiah.

These were the leaders of the priests and their relatives in the days of Jeshua.

8 The Levites:

Jeshua, Binnui, Kadmiel, Sherebiah, Judah, and Mattaniah —
he and his relatives were in charge of the praise songs.

9 Bakbukiah, Unni, and their relatives stood opposite them in the services.

10 Jeshua fathered Joiakim, Joiakim fathered Eliashib, Eliashib fathered Joiada,

11 Joiada fathered Jonathan,
and Jonathan fathered Jaddua.

12 In the days of Joiakim, the leaders of the priestly families were:

Meraiah	of Seraiah,
Hananiah	of Jeremiah,
13 Meshullam	of Ezra,
Jehohanan	of Amariah,
14 Jonathan	of Malluchi,

Joseph	of Shebaniah,
<sup>15</sup> Adna	of Harim,
Helkai	of Meraioth,
<sup>16</sup> Zechariah	of Iddo,
Meshullam	of Ginnethon,
<sup>17</sup> Zichri	of Abijah,
Piltai	of Moadiah, of Miniamin,
<sup>18</sup> Shammua	of Bilgah,
Jehonathan	of Shemaiah,
<sup>19</sup> Mattenai	of Joiarib,
Uzzi	of Jedaiah,
<sup>20</sup> Kallai	of Sallai,
Eber	of Amok,
and Nethanel	of Jedaiah.

<sup>22</sup> In the days of Eliashib, Joiada, Johanan, and Jaddua, the leaders of the families of the Levites and priests were recorded while Darius the Persian ruled. <sup>23</sup> Levi's descendants, the leaders of families, were recorded in the Book of the Historical Records during the days of Johanan son of Eliashib.

<sup>24</sup> The leaders of the Levites — Hashabiah, Sherebiah, and Jeshua son of Kadmiel, along with their relatives opposite them — gave praise and thanks, division by division, as David the man of God had prescribed.

<sup>26</sup> These served in the days of Joiakim son of Jeshua, son of Jozadak, and in the days of Nehemiah the governor and Ezra the priest and scribe.

Dedication of the Wall

of Geba and Azmaveth, for they had built villages for themselves around Jerusalem. <sup>30</sup> After the priests and Levites had purified themselves, they purified the people, the gates, and the wall.

Eliakim, Maaseiah, Miniamin, Micaiah, Elioenai, Zechariah,
and Hananiah, with trumpets;
Uzzi, Jehohanan, Malchijah, Elam, and Ezer.

Then the singers sang, with Jezrahiah as the leader. <sup>43</sup> On that day they offered great sacrifices and rejoiced because God had given them great joy. The women and children also celebrated, and Jerusalem's rejoicing was heard far away.

Support of the Levites' Ministry

<sup>44</sup> On that same day men were placed in charge of the rooms that housed the supplies, contributions, •firstfruits, and tenths. The legally required portions for the priests and Levites were gathered from the village fields, because Judah was grateful to the priests and Levites who were serving.

<sup>45</sup> They performed the service of their God and the service of purification, along with the singers and gatekeepers, as David and his son Solomon had prescribed. <sup>46</sup> For long ago, in the days of David and Asaph, there were leaders of the singers and songs of praise and thanksgiving to God. <sup>47</sup> So in the days of Zerubbabel and Nehemiah, all Israel contributed the daily portions for the singers and gatekeepers. They also set aside daily portions for the Levites, and the Levites set aside daily portions for the descendants of Aaron.

NEHEMIAH

Nehemiah's Further Reforms

13 At that time the book of Moses was read publicly to <sup>A</sup> the people. The command was found written in it that no Ammonite or Moabite should ever enter the assembly of God, <sup>2</sup> because they did not meet the Israelites with food and water. Instead, they hired Balaam against them to curse them, but our God turned the curse into a blessing. <sup>3†</sup> When they heard the law, they separated all those of mixed descent from Israel.

<sup>4</sup> Now before this, Eliashib the priest had been put in charge of the storerooms of the house of our God. He was a relative <sup>B</sup> of Tobiah <sup>5</sup> and had prepared a large room for him where they had previously stored the •grain offerings, the frankincense, the articles, and the tenths of grain, new wine, and oil prescribed for the Levites, singers, and gatekeepers, along with the contributions for the priests.

<sup>6</sup> While all this was happening, I was not in Jerusalem, because I had returned to King Artaxerxes of Babylon in the thirty-second year of his reign. It was only later that I asked the king for a leave of absence <sup>7</sup> so I could return to Jerusalem. Then I discovered the evil that Eliashib had done on behalf of Tobiah by providing him a room in the courts of God's house. <sup>8</sup> I was greatly displeased and threw all of Tobiah's household possessions out of the room. <sup>9</sup> I ordered that the rooms be purified, and I had the articles of the house of God restored there, along with the grain offering and frankincense. <sup>10</sup> I also found out that because the portions for the Levites had not been given, each of the Levites and the singers performing the service had gone back to his own field. <sup>11</sup> Therefore, I rebuked the officials, saying, "Why has the house of God been neglected?" I gathered the Levites and singers together and stationed them at their posts. <sup>12</sup> Then all Judah brought a tenth of the grain, new wine, and oil into the storehouses. <sup>13</sup> I appointed as treasurers over the storehouses Shelemiah the priest, Zadok the scribe, and Pedaiah of the Levites, with Hanan son of Zaccur, son of Mattaniah to assist them, because they were considered trustworthy. They were responsible for the distribution to their colleagues.

<sup>14</sup> Remember me for this, my God, and don't erase the deeds of faithful love I have done for the house of my God and for its services.

<sup>15</sup> At that time I saw people in Judah treading wine presses on the Sabbath. They were also bringing in stores of grain and loading them on donkeys, along with wine, grapes, and figs. All kinds of goods were being brought to Jerusalem on the Sabbath day. So I warned them against selling food on that day. <sup>16</sup> The Tyrians living there were importing fish and all kinds of merchandise and selling them on the Sabbath to the people of Judah in Jerusalem.

<sup>17</sup> I rebuked the nobles of Judah and said to them: “What is this evil you are doing — profaning the Sabbath day? <sup>18</sup> Didn’t your ancestors do the same, so that our God brought all this disaster on us and on this city? And now you are rekindling His anger against Israel by profaning the Sabbath!”

<sup>19</sup> When shadows began to fall on the gates of Jerusalem just before the Sabbath, I gave orders that the gates be closed and not opened until after the Sabbath. I posted some of my men at the gates, so that no goods could enter during the Sabbath day. <sup>20</sup> Once or twice the merchants and those who sell all kinds of goods camped outside Jerusalem, <sup>21</sup> but I warned them, “Why are you camping in front of the wall? If you do it again, I’ll use force <sup>C</sup> against you.” After that they did not come again on the Sabbath. <sup>22</sup> Then I instructed the Levites to purify themselves and guard the gates in order to keep the Sabbath day holy.

Remember me for this also, my God, and look on me with compassion in keeping with Your abundant, faithful love.

women drew him into sin. <sup>27</sup> Why then should we hear about you doing all this terrible evil and acting unfaithfully against our God by marrying foreign women? ”

<sup>28</sup> Even one of the sons of Jehoiada, son of Eliashib the high priest, had become a son-in-law to Sanballat the Horonite. So I drove him away from me.

<sup>30</sup> So I purified them from everything foreign and assigned specific duties to each of the priests and Levites. <sup>31</sup> I also arranged for the donation of wood at the appointed times and for the •firstfruits.

Remember me, my God, with favor.

Vashti Angers the King

<sup>5</sup> At the end of this time, the king held a week-long banquet in the garden courtyard of the royal palace for all the people, from the greatest to the least, who were present in the fortress of Susa. <sup>6</sup> White and violet linen hangings were fastened with fine white and purple linen cords to silver rods on marble <sup>A</sup> columns. Gold and silver couches were arranged on a mosaic pavement of red feldspar, <sup>B</sup> marble, <sup>C</sup> mother-of-pearl, and precious stones.

The King's Decree

Marsena, and Memucan. They were the seven officials of Persia and Media who had personal access to the king and occupied the highest positions in the kingdom. <sup>15</sup> The king asked, “According to the law, what should be done with Queen Vashti, since she refused to obey King Ahasuerus’s command that was delivered by the eunuchs? ”

<sup>19†</sup> “If it meets the king’s approval, he should personally issue a royal decree. Let it be recorded in the laws of Persia and Media, so that it cannot be revoked: Vashti is not to enter King Ahasuerus’s presence, and her royal position is to be given to another woman who is more worthy than she. <sup>20</sup> The decree the king issues will be heard throughout his vast kingdom, so all women will honor their husbands, from the least to the greatest.”

<sup>21</sup> The king and his counselors approved the proposal, and he followed Memucan’s advice. <sup>22†</sup> He sent letters to all the royal provinces, to each province in its own script and to each ethnic group in its own language, that every man should be master of his own house and speak in the language of his own people.

2 † Some time later, when King Ahasuerus's rage had cooled down, he remembered Vashti, what she had done, and what was decided against her. 2 The king's personal attendants <sup>A</sup> suggested, "Let a search be made for beautiful young women for the king. 3 Let the king appoint commissioners in each province of his kingdom, so that they may assemble all the beautiful young women to the harem at the fortress of Susa. Put them under the care of Hegai, the king's eunuch, who is in charge of the women, and give them the required beauty treatments. 4 Then the young woman who pleases the king will become queen instead of Vashti." This suggestion pleased the king, and he did accordingly.

5 † In the fortress of Susa, there was a Jewish man named Mordecai son of Jair, son of Shimei, son of Kish, a Benjaminite. 6 † He had been taken into exile from Jerusalem with the other captives when King Nebuchadnezzar of Babylon took King Jeconiah of Judah into exile.

7 † Mordecai was the legal guardian of his cousin <sup>B</sup> Hadassah (that is, Esther), because she didn't have a father or mother. The young woman had a beautiful figure and was extremely good-looking. When her father and mother died, Mordecai had adopted her as his own daughter.

8 When the king's command and edict became public knowledge, many young women gathered at the fortress of Susa under Hegai's care. Esther was also taken to the palace and placed under the care of Hegai, who was in charge of the women. 9 † The young woman pleased him and gained his favor <sup>C</sup> so that he accelerated the process of the beauty treatments and the special diet that she received. He assigned seven hand-picked female servants to her from the palace and transferred her and her servants to the harem's best quarters.

10 Esther did not reveal her ethnic background or her birthplace, because Mordecai had ordered her not to. 11 Every day Mordecai took a walk in front of the harem's courtyard to learn how Esther was doing and to see what was happening to her.

12 During the year before each young woman's turn to go to King Ahasuerus, the harem regulation required her to receive beauty treatments with oil of myrrh for six months and then with perfumes and cosmetics for another six months. <sup>13</sup> When the young woman would go to the king, she was given whatever she requested to take with her from the harem to the palace. <sup>14</sup> She would go in the evening, and in the morning she would return to a second harem under the supervision of Shaashgaz, the king's eunuch in charge of the concubines. She never went to the king again, unless he desired her and summoned her by name.

Esther Becomes Queen

<sup>15</sup> Esther was the daughter of Abihail, the uncle of Mordecai who had adopted her as his own daughter. When her turn came to go to the king, she did not ask for anything except what Hegai, the king's trusted official in charge of the harem, suggested. Esther won approval in the sight of everyone who saw her.

<sup>16</sup> She was taken to King Ahasuerus in the royal palace in the tenth month, the month Tebeth, in the seventh year of his reign. <sup>17†</sup> The king loved Esther more than all the other women. She won more favor and approval from him than did any of the other young women. He placed the royal crown on her head and made her queen in place of Vashti. <sup>18</sup> The king held a great banquet for all his officials and staff. It was Esther's banquet. He freed his provinces from tax payments and gave gifts worthy of the king's bounty.

Mordecai Saves the King

Mordecai's behalf. <sup>23</sup> When the report was investigated and verified, both men were hanged on the gallows. This event was recorded in the Historical Record in the king's presence.

Haman's Plan to Kill the Jews

3 After all this took place, King Ahasuerus honored Haman, son of Hammedatha the Agagite. He promoted him in rank and gave him a higher position than all the other officials. <sup>2†</sup> The entire royal staff at the King's Gate bowed down and paid homage to Haman, because the king had commanded this to be done for him. But Mordecai would not bow down or pay homage. <sup>3</sup> The members of the royal staff at the King's Gate asked Mordecai, "Why are you disobeying the king's command?" <sup>4</sup> When they had warned him day after day and he still would not listen to them, they told Haman to see if Mordecai's actions would be tolerated, since he had told them he was a Jew.

<sup>5</sup> When Haman saw that Mordecai was not bowing down or paying him homage, he was filled with rage. <sup>6†</sup> And when he learned of Mordecai's ethnic identity, Haman decided not to do away with <sup>A</sup> Mordecai alone. He planned to destroy all of Mordecai's people, the Jews, throughout Ahasuerus's kingdom.

<sup>12</sup> The royal scribes were summoned on the thirteenth day of the first month, and the order was written exactly as Haman commanded. It was intended for the royal satraps, the governors of each of the provinces, and the officials of each ethnic group and written for each province in its own script and to each ethnic group in its own language. It was written in the name of King Ahasuerus and sealed with the royal signet ring. <sup>13†</sup> Letters were sent by couriers to each of the royal provinces telling the officials to destroy, kill, and annihilate all the Jewish people — young and old, women and children — and plunder their possessions on a single day, the thirteenth day of Adar, the twelfth month.

Mordecai Appeals to Esther

<sup>4</sup> When Mordecai learned all that had occurred, he tore his clothes, put on sackcloth and ashes, went into the middle of the city, and cried loudly and bitterly. <sup>2</sup> He only went as far as the King's Gate, since the law prohibited anyone wearing sackcloth from entering the King's Gate. <sup>3</sup> There was great mourning among the Jewish people in every province where the king's command and edict came. They fasted, wept, and lamented, and many lay on sackcloth and ashes.

<sup>4</sup> Esther's female servants and her eunuchs came and reported the news to her, and the queen was overcome with fear. She sent clothes for Mordecai to wear so he could take off his sackcloth, but he did not accept them. <sup>5</sup> Esther summoned Hathach, one of the king's eunuchs assigned to her, and dispatched him to Mordecai to learn what he was doing and why. <sup>6</sup> So Hathach went out to Mordecai in the city square in front of the King's Gate. <sup>7</sup> Mordecai told him everything that had happened as well as the exact amount of money Haman had promised to pay the royal treasury for the slaughter of the Jews.

<sup>10</sup> Esther spoke to Hathach and commanded him to tell Mordecai, <sup>11†</sup> "All the royal officials and the people of the royal provinces know that one law applies to every man or woman who approaches the king in the inner courtyard and who has not been summoned — the death penalty. Only if the king extends the gold scepter will that person live. I have not been summoned to appear before the king for the last <sup>B</sup> 30 days."

<sup>13</sup> Mordecai told the messenger to reply to Esther, "Don't think that you will escape the fate of all the Jews because you are in the king's palace.

the Jewish people from another place, but you and your father's house will be destroyed. Who knows, perhaps you have come to your royal position for such a time as this."

<sup>15</sup> Esther sent this reply to Mordecai: <sup>16</sup> "Go and assemble all the Jews who can be found in Susa and fast for me. Don't eat or drink for three days, day or night. I and my female servants will also fast in the same way. After that, I will go to the king even if it is against the law. If I perish, I perish."

<sup>5†</sup> The king commanded, “Hurry, and get Haman so we can do as Esther has requested.” So the king and Haman went to the banquet Esther had prepared.

<sup>7</sup> Esther answered, “This is my petition and my request: <sup>8</sup> If the king approves of me <sup>C</sup> and if it pleases the king to grant my petition and perform my request, may the king and Haman come to the banquet I will prepare for them. Tomorrow I will do what the king has asked.”

<sup>12</sup> “What’s more,” Haman added, “Queen Esther invited no one but me to join the king at the banquet she had prepared. I am invited again tomorrow to join her with the king. <sup>13</sup> Still, none of this satisfies me since I see Mordecai the Jew sitting at the King's Gate all the time."

<sup>14</sup> His wife Zeresh and all his friends told him, "Have them build a gallows 75 feet <sup>E</sup> high. Ask the king in the morning to hang Mordecai on it. Then go to the banquet with the king and enjoy yourself." The advice pleased Haman, so he had the gallows constructed.

Mordecai Honored by the King

6 That night sleep escaped the king, so he ordered the book recording daily events to be brought and read to the king. <sup>2</sup> They found the written report of how Mordecai had informed on Bigthana and Teresh, two eunuchs who guarded the king's entrance, when they planned to assassinate King Ahasuerus. <sup>3</sup> The king inquired, "What honor and special recognition have been given to Mordecai for this act? "

The king's personal attendants replied, "Nothing has been done for him."

"Have him enter," the king ordered.

Haman thought to himself, "Who is it the king would want to honor more than me? " <sup>7</sup> Haman told the king, "For the man the king wants to honor: <sup>8</sup> Have them bring a royal garment that the king himself has worn and a horse the king himself has ridden, which has a royal diadem on its head. <sup>9</sup> Put the garment and the horse under the charge of one of the king's most noble officials. Have them clothe the man the king wants to honor, parade him on the horse through the city square, and proclaim before him, 'This is what is done for the man the king wants to honor.' "

Haman Is Executed

7 The king and Haman came to feast <sup>A</sup> with Esther the queen. <sup>2</sup> Once again, on the second day while drinking wine, the king asked Esther, “Queen Esther, whatever you ask will be given to you. Whatever you seek, even to half the kingdom, will be done.”

Haman stood terrified before the king and queen. <sup>7</sup> Angered by this, the king arose from where they were drinking wine and went to the palace garden. Haman remained to beg Queen Esther for his life because he realized the king was planning something terrible for him. <sup>8</sup> Just as the king returned from the palace garden to the house of wine drinking, Haman was falling on the couch where Esther was reclining. The king exclaimed, “Would he actually violate the queen while I am in the palace? ” As soon as the statement left the king’s mouth, Haman’s face was covered.

The king commanded, “Hang him on it.”

Esther Intervenes for the Jews

8 That same day King Ahasuerus awarded Queen Esther the estate of Haman, the enemy of the Jews. Mordecai entered the king's presence because Esther had revealed her relationship to Mordecai. <sup>2</sup> The king removed his signet ring he had recovered from Haman and gave it to Mordecai, and Esther put him in charge of Haman's estate.

<sup>3</sup> Then Esther addressed the king again. She fell at his feet, wept, and begged him to revoke the evil of Haman the Agagite, and his plot he had devised against the Jews. <sup>4</sup> The king extended the gold scepter toward Esther, so she got up and stood before the king.

<sup>5</sup> She said, "If it pleases the king, and I have found approval before him, if the matter seems right to the king and I am pleasing in his sight, let a royal edict be written. Let it revoke the documents the scheming Haman son of Hammedatha the Agagite, wrote to destroy the Jews who are in all the king's provinces. <sup>6</sup> For how could I bear to see the disaster that would come on my people? How could I bear to see the destruction of my relatives?"

<sup>9</sup> On the twenty-third day of the third month (that is, the month Sivan), the royal scribes were summoned. Everything was written exactly as Mordecai ordered for the Jews, to the satraps, the governors, and the officials of the 127 provinces from India to •Cush. The edict was written for each province in its own script, for each ethnic group in its own language, and to the Jews in their own script and language.

9 The king's command and law went into effect on the thirteenth day of the twelfth month, the month Adar. On the day when the Jews' enemies had hoped to overpower them, just the opposite happened. The Jews overpowered those who hated them. <sup>2</sup> In each of King Ahasuerus's provinces the Jews assembled in their cities to attack those who intended to harm them. <sup>A</sup> Not a single person could withstand them; terror of them fell on every nationality.

<sup>11</sup> On that day the number of people killed in the fortress of Susa was reported to the king. <sup>12</sup> The king said to Queen Esther, "In the fortress of Susa the Jews have killed and destroyed 500 men, including Haman's 10 sons. What have they done in the rest of the royal provinces? Whatever you ask will be given to you. Whatever you seek will also be done."

<sup>13</sup> Esther answered, "If it pleases the king, may the Jews who are in Susa also have tomorrow to carry out today's law, and may the bodies of Haman's 10 sons be hung on the gallows." <sup>14†</sup> The king gave the orders for this to be done, so a law was announced in Susa, and they hung the bodies of Haman's 10 sons. <sup>15</sup> The Jews in Susa assembled again on the fourteenth day of the month of Adar and killed 300 men in Susa, but they did not seize <sup>D</sup> any plunder.

<sup>18</sup> But the Jews in Susa had assembled on the thirteenth and the fourteenth days of the month. They rested on the fifteenth day of the month, and it became a day of feasting and rejoicing. <sup>19</sup> This explains why the rural Jews who live in villages observe the fourteenth day of the month of Adar as a time of rejoicing and feasting. It is a holiday when they send gifts to one another.

Because of all the instructions in this letter as well as what they had witnessed and what had happened to them,<sup>27</sup> the Jews bound themselves, their descendants, and all who joined with them to a commitment that they would not fail to celebrate these two days each and every year according to the written instructions and according to the time appointed.<sup>28</sup> These days are remembered and celebrated by every generation, family, province, and city, so that these days of Purim will not lose their significance in Jewish life and their memory will not fade from their descendants.

Mordecai's Fame

10 King Ahasuerus imposed a tax throughout the land even to the farthest shores. <sup>A</sup>, <sup>2</sup> All of his powerful and magnificent accomplishments and the detailed account of Mordecai's great rank to which the king had honored him, have they not been written in the Historical Records of the Kings of Media and Persia? <sup>3†</sup> Mordecai the Jew was second only to King Ahasuerus, famous among the Jews, and highly popular with many of his relatives. He continued to seek good for his people and to speak for the welfare of all his descendants.

God Restores Job (Job 42:10-17)

JOB

Job and His Family

1 †There was a man in the country of Uz named Job. He was a man of perfect integrity, who •feared God and turned away from evil. <sup>2</sup> He had seven sons and three daughters. <sup>3</sup> His estate included 7,000 sheep, 3,000 camels, 500 yoke of oxen, 500 female donkeys, and a very large number of servants. Job was the greatest man among all the people of the east.

<sup>5</sup> Whenever a round of banqueting was over, Job would send for his children and purify them, rising early in the morning to offer burnt offerings for <sup>A</sup> all of them. For Job thought: Perhaps my children have sinned, having cursed God in their hearts. This was Job's regular practice.

Satan's First Test of Job

<sup>6†</sup> One day the sons of God came to present themselves before the LORD, and Satan <sup>B</sup> also came with them. <sup>7†</sup> The LORD asked Satan, "Where have you come from?"

"From roaming through the earth," Satan answered Him, "and walking around on it."

<sup>12†</sup> "Very well," the LORD told Satan, "everything he owns is in your power. However, you must not lay a hand on Job himself." So Satan left the LORD's presence.

How Can God Have All Power and Be Loving and Yet There Be Evil? ⇒

<sup>16</sup> He was still speaking when another messenger came and reported: "A lightning storm <sup>C</sup> struck from heaven. It burned up the sheep and the servants and devoured them, and I alone have escaped to tell you! "

<sup>17†</sup> That messenger was still speaking when yet another came and reported: "The Chaldeans formed three bands, made a raid on the camels, and took them away. They struck down the servants with the sword, and I alone have escaped to tell you! "

<sup>18</sup> He was still speaking when another messenger came and reported: "Your sons and daughters were eating and drinking wine in their oldest brother's house. <sup>19</sup> Suddenly a powerful wind swept in from the desert and struck the four corners of the house. It collapsed on the young people so that they died, and I alone have escaped to tell you! "

Naked I came from my mother's womb,
and naked I will leave this life. <sup>D</sup>,
The LORD gives, and the LORD takes away.
Praise the name of •Yahweh.

<sup>22</sup> Throughout all this Job did not sin or blame God for anything. <sup>E</sup>

JOB

Satan's Second Test of Job

2 One day the sons of God came again to present themselves before the LORD, and Satan also came with them to present himself before the LORD. <sup>2</sup> The LORD asked Satan, “Where have you come from?”

<sup>10</sup> “You speak as a foolish woman speaks,” he told her. “Should we accept only good from God and not adversity?” Throughout all this Job did not sin in what he said. <sup>A</sup>

Job’s Three Friends

<sup>11</sup> Now when Job’s three friends — Eliphaz the Temanite, Bildad the Shuhite, and Zophar the Naamathite — heard about all this adversity that had happened to him, each of them came from his home. They met together to go and sympathize with him and comfort him. <sup>12</sup> When they looked from a distance, they could barely recognize him. They wept aloud, and each man tore his robe and threw dust into the air and on his head. <sup>13</sup> Then they sat on the ground with him seven days and nights, but no one spoke a word to him because they saw that his suffering was very intense.

JOB

Job's Opening Speech

3 After this, Job began to speak and cursed the day he was born. <sup>2</sup> He said:

<sup>3</sup> May the day I was born perish,
and the night when they said,

<sup>4</sup> If only that day had turned to darkness!
May God above not care about it,
or light shine on it.

<sup>5</sup> May darkness and gloom reclaim it,
and a cloud settle over it.
May an eclipse of the sun <sup>A</sup> terrify it.

<sup>6</sup> If only darkness had taken that night away!
May it not appear among the days of the year
or be listed in the calendar. <sup>B</sup>

<sup>7</sup> Yes, may that night be barren;
may no joyful shout be heard in it.

<sup>8†</sup> Let those who curse certain days
cast a spell on it,
those who are skilled in rousing •Leviathan.

<sup>9</sup> May its morning stars grow dark.
May it wait for daylight but have none;
may it not see the breaking <sup>C</sup> of dawn.

<sup>10</sup> For that night did not shut
the doors of my mother’s womb,
and hide sorrow from my eyes.

<sup>11</sup> Why was I not stillborn;
why didn’t I die as I came from the womb?

<sup>12</sup> Why did the knees receive me,
and why were there breasts for me to nurse?

I would be asleep.

Then I would be at rest

<sup>14</sup> with the kings and counselors of the earth,
who rebuilt ruined cities for themselves,

<sup>15</sup> or with princes who had gold,
who filled their houses with silver.
<sup>16</sup> Or why was I not hidden like a miscarried child,
like infants who never see daylight?
<sup>17</sup> There the wicked cease to make trouble,
and there the weary find rest.
<sup>18</sup> The captives are completely at ease;
they do not hear the voice of their oppressor.
<sup>19</sup> Both small and great are there,
and the slave is set free from his master.
<sup>20</sup> Why is light given to one burdened with grief,
and life to those whose existence is bitter, <sup>21</sup> who wait for death, but it does not come,
and search for it more than for hidden treasure, <sup>22</sup> who are filled with much joy
and are glad when they reach the grave?
whom God has hedged in?

What Does the Bible Say About Euthanasia? ⇒

<sup>24</sup> I sigh when food is put before me, <sup>D</sup>
and my groans pour out like water.
<sup>25</sup> For the thing I feared has overtaken me,
and what I dreaded has happened to me.
<sup>26</sup> I cannot relax or be still;
I have no rest, for trouble comes.

JOB

FIRST SERIES OF SPEECHES

Eliphaz Speaks

4 Then Eliphaz the Temanite replied:

2 Should anyone try to speak with you
when you are exhausted?

Yet who can keep from speaking?

3 Indeed, you have instructed many and have strengthened weak hands.

4 Your words have steadied the one who was stumbling and braced the knees that were buckling.

5 But now that this has happened to you,
you have become exhausted.

It strikes you, and you are dismayed.

6 Isn't your piety your confidence, and the integrity of your life <sup>A</sup> your hope?

7 Consider: who has perished when he was innocent?
Where have the honest been destroyed?

8 In my experience, those who plow injustice and those who sow trouble reap the same.

9 They perish at a single blast from God and come to an end by the breath of His nostrils.

10 The lion may roar and the fierce lion growl,
but the fangs of young lions are broken.

11 The strong lion dies if it catches no prey,
and the cubs of the lioness are scattered.

12† A word was brought to me in secret;
my ears caught a whisper of it.

13 Among unsettling thoughts from visions in the night,
when deep sleep descends on men,

14 fear and trembling came over me
and made all my bones shake.

15 A wind <sup>B</sup> passed by me, and I shuddered with fear. <sup>C</sup>

16 A figure stood there,
but I could not recognize its appearance;

a form loomed before my eyes.

I heard a quiet voice:

<sup>17</sup> “Can a person be more righteous than God,
or a man more pure than his Maker? ”

and He charges His angels with foolishness, <sup>D</sup>

<sup>19</sup> how much more those who dwell in clay houses, whose foundation is in the dust,
who are crushed like a moth!

they perish forever while no one notices.

They die without wisdom.

JOB

5 † Call out if you please. Will anyone answer you?
Which of the holy ones will you turn to?

2 For anger kills a fool,
and jealousy slays the gullible.

3 I have seen a fool taking root,
but I immediately pronounced a curse on his home.

4 His children are far from safety.
They are crushed at the city •gate,
with no one to rescue them.

5 The hungry consume his harvest, even taking it out of the thorns. <sup>A</sup>
The thirsty pant for his children's wealth.

6 For distress does not grow out of the soil,
and trouble does not sprout from the ground.

7 But mankind is born for trouble
as surely as sparks fly upward.

8 However, if I were you, I would appeal to God and would present my case to Him.

9 He does great and unsearchable things, wonders without number.

10 He gives rain to the earth and sends water to the fields.

11 He sets the lowly on high,
and mourners are lifted to safety.

12 He frustrates the schemes of the crafty
so that they <sup>B</sup> achieve no success.

13† He traps the wise in their craftiness
so that the plans of the deceptive are quickly brought to an end.

14 They encounter darkness by day,
and they grope at noon
as if it were night.

15 He saves the needy from their sharp words <sup>C</sup>,
and from the clutches of the powerful.

and injustice shuts its mouth.

so do not reject the discipline of the •Almighty.

<sup>18</sup> For He crushes but also binds up;
He strikes, but His hands also heal.

<sup>19</sup> He will rescue you from six calamities;
no harm will touch you in seven.

<sup>20</sup> In famine He will redeem you from death,
and in battle, from the power of the sword.

and not fear destruction when it comes.

<sup>22</sup> You will laugh at destruction and hunger
and not fear the animals of the earth.

<sup>23</sup> For you will have a covenant with the stones of the field,
and the wild animals will be at peace with you.

<sup>24</sup> You will know that your tent is secure,
and nothing will be missing when you inspect your home.

<sup>25</sup> You will also know that your offspring will be many and your descendants like the grass of the earth.

as a stack of sheaves is gathered in its season.

Hear it and understand it for yourself.

JOB

Job's Reply to Eliphaz

6 †Then Job answered:

2 If only my grief could be weighed and my devastation placed with it in the scales.

3 For then it would outweigh the sand of the seas!
That is why my words are rash.

4 Surely the arrows of the •Almighty have pierced <sup>A</sup> me;
my spirit drinks their poison.
God's terrors are arrayed against me.

5 Does a wild donkey bray over fresh grass or an ox low over its fodder?

6 Is bland food eaten without salt?
Is there flavor in an egg white? <sup>B</sup>

7 I refuse to touch them;
they are like contaminated food.

8 If only my request would be granted and God would provide what I hope for:

9 that He would decide to crush me,
to unleash His power and cut me off!

10 It would still bring me comfort,
and I would leap for joy in unrelenting pain that I have not denied <sup>C</sup> the words of the Holy One.

11 What strength do I have that I should continue to hope?
What is my future, that I should be patient?

12 Is my strength that of stone,
or my flesh made of bronze?

13 Since I cannot help myself,
the hope for success has been banished from me.

14 A despairing man should receive loyalty from his friends, <sup>D</sup>, even if he abandons the •fear of the Almighty.

15 My brothers are as treacherous as a •wadi,
as seasonal streams that overflow

16 and become darkened <sup>E</sup> because of ice, and the snow melts into them.

they disappear from their channels in hot weather.

go up into the desert, and perish.

The traveling merchants of Sheba hope for them.

When they arrive there, they are frustrated.

<sup>21</sup> So this is what you have now become to me.
When you see something dreadful, you are afraid.

<sup>22</sup> Have I ever said: “Give me something”
or “Pay a bribe for me from your wealth”

<sup>23</sup> or “Deliver me from the enemy’s power”
or “Redeem me from the grasp of the ruthless”?

<sup>24</sup> Teach me, and I will be silent.
Help me understand what I did wrong.

But what does your rebuke prove?

<sup>26</sup> Do you think that you can disprove my words or that a despairing man’s words are mere wind?

and negotiate a price to sell your friend.

<sup>28</sup> But now, please look at me;
would I lie to your face?

Reconsider; my righteousness is still the issue.

<sup>30</sup> Is there injustice on my tongue
or can my palate not taste disaster?

JOB

7 † Isn't mankind consigned to forced labor on earth?
Are not his days like those of a hired hand?
2 Like a slave he longs for shade;
like a hired man he waits for his pay.
3 So I have been made to inherit months of futility,
and troubled nights have been assigned to me.
4 When I lie down I think:
When will I get up?
But the evening drags on endlessly,
and I toss and turn until dawn.
5 My flesh is clothed with maggots and encrusted with dirt. <sup>A</sup>
My skin forms scabs <sup>B</sup> and then oozes.
6 My days pass more swiftly than a weaver's shuttle;
they come to an end without hope.
7† Remember that my life is but a breath.
My eye will never again see anything good.
8 The eye of anyone who looks on me
will no longer see me.
Your eyes will look for me, but I will be gone.
9 As a cloud fades away and vanishes,
so the one who goes down to •Sheol will never rise again.
10 He will never return to his house;
his hometown will no longer remember <sup>C</sup> him.
11 Therefore I will not restrain my mouth.
I will speak in the anguish of my spirit;
I will complain in the bitterness of my soul.
12† Am I the sea <sup>D</sup>, or a sea monster,
that You keep me under guard?
13 When I say: My bed will comfort me,
and my couch will ease my complaint, 14 then You frighten me with dreams,
and terrify me with visions, 15 so that I prefer strangling <sup>E</sup> —

death rather than life in this body. <sup>F</sup>

<sup>16</sup> I give up! I will not live forever.

Leave me alone, for my days are a breath. <sup>G</sup>

<sup>17</sup> What is man, that You think so highly of him and pay so much attention to him?

<sup>18</sup> You inspect him every morning,
and put him to the test every moment.

<sup>19</sup> Will You ever look away from me,
or leave me alone long enough to swallow? <sup>H</sup>

<sup>20</sup> If I have sinned, what have I done to You, Watcher of mankind?

Why have You made me Your target,
so that I have become a burden to You?

<sup>21†</sup> Why not forgive my sin
and pardon my transgression?

For soon I will lie down in the grave.

You will eagerly seek me, but I will be gone.

JOB

Bildad Speaks

8 Then Bildad the Shuhite replied:

<sup>2</sup> How long will you go on saying these things?
Your words are a blast of wind.

Does the •Almighty pervert what is right?

He gave them over to their rebellion.

<sup>5</sup> But if you earnestly seek God
and ask the Almighty for mercy,

<sup>6</sup> if you are pure and upright,
then He will move even now on your behalf and restore the home where your righteousness dwells.

<sup>7</sup> Then, even if your beginnings were modest,
your final days will be full of prosperity.

<sup>8</sup> For ask the previous generation,
and pay attention to what their fathers discovered, <sup>9†</sup> since we were born only yesterday and know nothing.
Our days on earth are but a shadow.

<sup>10</sup> Will they not teach you and tell you and speak from their understanding?

<sup>11</sup> Does papyrus grow where there is no marsh?
Do reeds flourish without water?

they would dry up quicker than any other plant.

the hope of the godless will perish.

what he trusts in is a spider's web.

He grabs it, but it does not hold up.

He looks for a home among the stones.

it will deny knowing him, saying, “I never saw you.”

yet others will sprout from the dust.

and He will not support evildoers.

<sup>21</sup> He will yet fill your mouth with laughter
and your lips with a shout of joy.

<sup>22</sup> Your enemies will be clothed with shame;
the tent of the wicked will exist no longer.

Who can ask Him, "What are You doing?"

•Rahab's assistants cringe in fear beneath Him!

<sup>14</sup> How then can I answer Him or choose my arguments against Him?

<sup>15</sup> Even if I were in the right, I could not answer.
I could only beg my Judge for mercy.

<sup>16</sup> If I summoned Him and He answered me,
I do not believe He would pay attention to what I said.

<sup>17</sup> He batters me with a whirlwind
and multiplies my wounds without cause.

<sup>18</sup> He doesn't let me catch my breath
but soaks me with bitter experiences.

If it is a matter of justice, who can summon Him?

<sup>20</sup> Even if I were in the right, my own mouth would condemn me;
if I were blameless, my mouth would declare me •guilty.

<sup>21</sup> Though I am blameless,
I no longer care about myself;
I renounce my life.

<sup>22</sup> It is all the same. Therefore I say,
"He destroys both the blameless and the wicked."

<sup>23</sup> When disaster brings sudden death,
He mocks the despair of the innocent.

He blindfolds <sup>G</sup> its judges.
If it isn't He, then who is it?

they flee without seeing any good.

<sup>26</sup> They sweep by like boats made of papyrus,
like an eagle swooping down on its prey.

<sup>27</sup> If I said, "I will forget my complaint, change my expression, and smile,"

<sup>28</sup> I would still live in terror of all my pains.
I know You will not acquit me.

<sup>29</sup> Since I will be found guilty,
why should I labor in vain?

<sup>30</sup> If I wash myself with snow,

and cleanse my hands with lye,

<sup>31</sup> then You dip me in a pit of mud,
and my own clothes despise me!

<sup>32</sup> For He is not a man like me, that I can answer Him,
that we can take each other to court.

<sup>33</sup> There is no one to judge between us,
to lay his hand on both of us.

so His terror will no longer frighten me.

<sup>35</sup> Then I would speak and not fear Him.
But that is not the case; I am on my own.

JOB

10 I am disgusted with my life.
I will express my complaint
and speak in the bitterness of my soul.

<sup>2</sup> I will say to God:

“Do not declare me •guilty!

Let me know why You prosecute me.

<sup>3</sup> Is it good for You to oppress,
to reject the work of Your hands,
and favor <sup>A</sup> the plans of the wicked?

<sup>4</sup> Do You have eyes of flesh,
or do You see as a human sees?

<sup>5</sup> Are Your days like those of a human,
or Your years like those of a man,

<sup>6</sup> that You look for my wrongdoing
and search for my sin,

<sup>7</sup> even though You know that I am not wicked
and that there is no one who can deliver from Your hand?

<sup>8</sup> “Your hands shaped me and formed me.

Will You now turn and destroy me?

<sup>9</sup> Please remember that You formed me like clay.

Will You now return me to dust?

<sup>10</sup> Did You not pour me out like milk
and curdle me like cheese?

<sup>11</sup> You clothed me with skin and flesh,
and wove me together with bones and tendons.

<sup>12</sup> You gave me life and faithful love,
and Your care has guarded my life.

<sup>13</sup> “Yet You concealed these thoughts in Your heart;

I know that this was Your hidden plan: <sup>B</sup>

and would not acquit me of my wrongdoing.

<sup>15</sup> If I am wicked, woe to me!

And even if I am righteous, I cannot lift up my head.

I am filled with shame

and aware of my affliction.

<sup>16</sup> If I am proud, <sup>D</sup> You hunt me like a lion and again display Your miraculous power against me.

and multiply Your anger toward me.

Hardships assault me, wave after wave. <sup>F</sup>

<sup>18</sup> “Why did You bring me out of the womb?
I should have died and never been seen.

but had been carried from the womb to the grave.

Leave me alone, so that I can smile a little

never to return.

<sup>22</sup> It is a land of blackness like the deepest darkness,
gloomy and chaotic,

where even the light is like <sup>H</sup> the darkness.”

JOB

Zophar Speaks

11 Then Zophar the Naamathite replied:

<sup>2</sup> Should this stream of words go unanswered
and such a talker <sup>A</sup> be acquitted?

so that you can keep on ridiculing
with no one to humiliate you?

<sup>4</sup> You have said, “My teaching is sound, and I am pure in Your sight.”

<sup>5</sup> But if only God would speak and declare His case <sup>B</sup> against you,

<sup>6†</sup> He would show you the secrets of wisdom,
for true wisdom has two sides.

Know then that God has chosen to overlook some of your sin.

<sup>7†</sup> Can you fathom the depths of God
or discover the limits of the •Almighty?

They are deeper than •Sheol — what can you know?

<sup>9</sup> Their measure is longer than the earth and wider than the sea.

<sup>10</sup> If He passes by and throws someone in prison
or convenes a court, who can stop Him?

If He sees iniquity, will He not take note of it?

<sup>12</sup> But a stupid man will gain understanding
as soon as a wild donkey is born a man!

<sup>13</sup> As for you, if you redirect your heart and lift up your hands to Him in prayer —

<sup>14</sup> if there is iniquity in your hand, remove it,
and don’t allow injustice to dwell in your tents —

<sup>15</sup> then you will hold your head high, free from fault.
You will be firmly established and unafraid.

<sup>16</sup> For you will forget your suffering,

recalling it only as waters that have flowed by.

its darkness will be like the morning.

<sup>18</sup> You will be confident, because there is hope.
You will look carefully about and lie down in safety.

<sup>19</sup> You will lie down without fear,
and many will seek your favor.

<sup>20</sup> But the sight of the wicked will fail.
Their way of escape will be cut off,
and their only hope is their last breath.

JOB

Job's Reply to Zophar

12 Then Job answered:

<sup>2</sup> No doubt you are the people,
and wisdom will die with you!

<sup>3</sup> But I also have a mind;
I am not inferior to you.

Who doesn't know the things you are talking about? <sup>A</sup>

<sup>4†</sup> I am a laughingstock to my <sup>B</sup> friends, by calling on God, who answers me. <sup>C</sup>

The righteous and upright man is a laughingstock.

and thinks it is prepared for those whose feet are slipping.

and those who provoke God are secure;
God's power provides this. <sup>D</sup>

<sup>7</sup> But ask the animals, and they will instruct you;
ask the birds of the sky, and they will tell you.

<sup>8</sup> Or speak to the earth, and it will instruct you;
let the fish of the sea inform you.

<sup>9†</sup> Which of all these does not know that the hand of the LORD has done this?

as well as the breath of all mankind.

<sup>11</sup> Doesn't the ear test words
as the palate tastes food?

<sup>12</sup> Wisdom is found with the elderly,
and understanding comes with long life.

<sup>13</sup> Wisdom and strength belong to God;
counsel and understanding are His.

whoever He imprisons cannot be released.

and when He releases them, they destroy the land.

<sup>16</sup> True wisdom and power belong to Him.
The deceived and the deceiver are His.

<sup>17</sup> He leads counselors away barefoot
and makes judges go mad.

<sup>18</sup> He releases the bonds put on by kings
and fastens a belt around their waists.

<sup>19</sup> He leads priests away barefoot
and overthrows established leaders.

<sup>20</sup> He deprives trusted advisers of speech and takes away the elders' good judgment.

and brings the deepest darkness into the light.

He enlarges nations, then leads them away.

<sup>24</sup> He deprives the world's leaders of reason,
and makes them wander in a trackless wasteland.

He makes them stagger like drunken men.

JOB

13 Look, my eyes have seen all this;
my ears have heard and understood it.

<sup>2</sup> Everything you know, I also know;
I am not inferior to you.

<sup>3</sup> Yet I prefer to speak to the •Almighty
and argue my case before God.

<sup>4</sup> But you coat the truth with lies;
you are all worthless doctors.

<sup>5</sup> If only you would shut up and let that be your wisdom!

<sup>6</sup> Hear now my argument, and listen to my defense. <sup>A</sup>

or speak deceitfully for Him?

or argue the case in His defense?

<sup>9</sup> Would it go well if He examined you?
Could you deceive Him as you would deceive a man?

<sup>10</sup> Surely He would rebuke you
if you secretly showed partiality.

<sup>11</sup> Would God's majesty not terrify you?
Would His dread not fall on you?

your defenses are made of clay.

Let whatever comes happen to me.

and take my life in my own hands?

<sup>15†</sup> Even if He kills me, I will hope in Him.
I will still defend my ways before Him.

<sup>16</sup> Yes, this will result in my deliverance,
for no godless person can appear before Him.

<sup>17</sup> Pay close attention to my words;
let my declaration ring in your ears.

<sup>18</sup> Now then, I have prepared my case;
I know that I am right.

If so, I will be silent and die.

<sup>20</sup> Only grant these two things to me, God,
so that I will not have to hide from Your presence:

<sup>21</sup> remove Your hand from me,
and do not let Your terror frighten me.

<sup>22</sup> Then call, and I will answer,
or I will speak, and You can respond to me.

Reveal to me my transgression and sin.

<sup>24</sup> Why do You hide Your face and consider me Your enemy?

<sup>25</sup> Will You frighten a wind-driven leaf?
Will You chase after dry straw?

<sup>26</sup> For You record bitter accusations against me and make me inherit the iniquities of my youth.

<sup>27</sup> You put my feet in the stocks
and stand watch over all my paths, setting a limit for the soles <sup>E</sup> of my feet.

like a moth-eaten garment.

JOB

14 †Man born of woman
is short of days and full of trouble.

<sup>2</sup> He blossoms like a flower, then withers;
he flees like a shadow and does not last.

Will You bring me into judgment against You?

No one!

<sup>5</sup> Since man's days are determined
and the number of his months depends on You, and since You have set <sup>A</sup> limits he cannot pass,

<sup>6</sup> look away from him and let him rest
so that he can enjoy his day like a hired hand.

<sup>7</sup> There is hope for a tree:
If it is cut down, it will sprout again,
and its shoots will not die.

<sup>8</sup> If its roots grow old in the ground and its stump starts to die in the soil,

<sup>9</sup> the smell of water makes it thrive
and produce twigs like a sapling.

<sup>10</sup> But a man dies and fades away;
he breathes his last — where is he?

<sup>11</sup> As water disappears from the sea
and a river becomes parched and dry,

<sup>12</sup> so man lies down never to rise again.

They will not wake up until the heavens are no more;
they will not stir from their sleep.

<sup>13†</sup> If only You would hide me in •Sheol
and conceal me until Your anger passes.
If only You would appoint a time for me
and then remember me.

<sup>14</sup> When a man dies, will he come back to life?
If so, I would wait all the days of my struggle until my relief comes.

<sup>15</sup> You would call, and I would answer You.
You would long for the work of Your hands.

<sup>16</sup> For then You would count my steps
but would not take note of my sin.

and You would cover over my iniquity.

<sup>18</sup> But as a mountain collapses and crumbles
and a rock is dislodged from its place,

<sup>19</sup> as water wears away stones
and torrents wash away the soil from the land,
so You destroy a man's hope.

<sup>20</sup> You completely overpower him, and he passes on;
You change his appearance and send him away.

if they become insignificant, he is unaware of it.

<sup>22</sup> He feels only the pain of his own body
and mourns only for himself.

JOB

SECOND SERIES OF SPEECHES

Eliphaz Speaks

15 Then Eliphaz the Temanite replied:

<sup>2</sup> Does a wise man answer with empty <sup>A</sup> counsel or fill himself <sup>B</sup> with the hot east wind?

<sup>3</sup> Should he argue with useless talk or with words that serve no good purpose?

<sup>4</sup> But you even undermine the •fear of God
and hinder meditation before Him.

<sup>5</sup> Your iniquity teaches you what to say,
and you choose the language of the crafty.

your own lips testify against you.

<sup>7</sup> Were you the first person ever born,
or were you brought forth before the hills?

<sup>8</sup> Do you listen in on the council of God,
or have a monopoly on wisdom?

<sup>9</sup> What do you know that we don't?
What do you understand that is not clear to us?

<sup>10</sup> Both the gray-haired and the elderly are with us,
men older than your father.

<sup>11</sup> Are God's consolations not enough for you,
even the words that deal gently with you?

<sup>12</sup> Why has your heart misled you,
and why do your eyes flash

and allow such words to leave your mouth?

<sup>14†</sup> What is man, that he should be pure,
or one born of woman, that he should be righteous?

<sup>15</sup> If God puts no trust in His holy ones
and the heavens are not pure in His sight,

<sup>16</sup> how much less one who is revolting and corrupt,
who drinks injustice like water?

<sup>17</sup> Listen to me and I will inform you.

I will describe what I have seen,
18 what was declared by wise men
and was not suppressed by their ancestors, 19 the land was given to them alone
when no foreigner passed among them.
20 A wicked man writhes in pain all his days;
only a few <sup>D</sup> years are reserved for the ruthless.
21 Dreadful sounds fill his ears;
when he is at peace, a robber attacks him.
22 He doesn't believe he will return from darkness;
he is destined for the sword.
23 He wanders about for food, saying, "Where is it? "
He knows the day of darkness is at hand.
24 Trouble and distress terrify him,
overwhelming him like a king prepared for battle.
25 For he has stretched out his hand against God
and has arrogantly opposed the •Almighty.
26 He rushes headlong at Him
with his thick, studded shields.
27 Though his face is covered with fat <sup>E</sup>
and his waistline bulges with it, 28 he will dwell in ruined cities,
in abandoned houses destined to become piles of rubble.
29 He will no longer be rich; his wealth will not endure.
His possessions will not increase in the land.
30 He will not escape from the darkness;
flames will wither his shoots,
and by the breath of God's mouth, he will depart.
31 Let him not put trust in worthless things, being led astray,
for what he gets in exchange will prove worthless.
32 It will be accomplished before his time,
and his branch will not flourish.
33 He will be like a vine that drops its unripe grapes
and like an olive tree that sheds its blossoms.

and fire will consume the tents of those who offer bribes.

their womb prepares deception.

JOB

Job's Reply to Eliphaz

16 Then Job answered:

<sup>2</sup> I have heard many things like these.

You are all miserable comforters.

What provokes you that you continue testifying?

<sup>4</sup> If you were in my place I could also talk like you.

I could string words together against you
and shake my head at you.

<sup>5</sup> Instead, I would encourage you with my mouth,
and the consolation from my lips would bring relief.

and if I hold back, what have I lost?

You have devastated my entire family.

My frailty rises up against me and testifies to my face.

<sup>9</sup> His anger tears at me, and He harasses me.

He gnashes His teeth at me.

My enemy pierces me with His eyes.

and strike my cheeks with contempt;
they join themselves together against me.

<sup>11</sup> God hands me over to unjust men;
He throws me into the hands of the wicked.

<sup>12</sup> I was at ease, but He shattered me;
He seized me by the scruff of the neck
and smashed me to pieces.

He set me up as His target;

He pierces my kidneys without mercy
and pours my bile on the ground.

<sup>14</sup> He breaks through my defenses again and again; <sup>E</sup>
He charges at me like a warrior.

15 I have sewn •sackcloth over my skin;
I have buried my strength <sup>F</sup> in the dust.
16 My face has grown red with weeping,
and darkness covers my eyes, 17 although my hands are free from violence and my prayer is pure.
18 Earth, do not cover my blood;
may my cry for help find no resting place.
19† Even now my witness is in heaven,
and my advocate is in the heights!
20 My friends scoff at me
as I weep before God.
21 I wish that someone might arbitrate between a man and God
just as a •man pleads for his friend.
22 For only a few years will pass
before I go the way of no return.

JOB

17 My spirit is broken.
My days are extinguished.
A graveyard awaits me.
2 Surely mockers surround <sup>A</sup> me
and my eyes must gaze at their rebellion.
3 Make arrangements! Put up security for me. <sup>B</sup>,
Who else will be my sponsor? <sup>C</sup>
4 You have closed their minds to understanding, therefore You will not honor them.
5 If a man informs on his friends for a price,
the eyes of his children will fail.
6 He has made me an object of scorn to the people;
I have become a man people spit at. <sup>D</sup>,
7 My eyes have grown dim from grief,
and my whole body has become but a shadow.
8 The upright are appalled at this,
and the innocent are roused against the godless.
9 Yet the righteous person will hold to his way,
and the one whose hands are •clean will grow stronger.
10 But come back and try again, all of you.
I will not find a wise man among you.
11 My days have slipped by;
my plans have been ruined,
even the things dear to my heart.
12 They turned night into day
and made light seem near in the face of darkness.
13† If I await •Sheol as my home,
spread out my bed in darkness,
14 and say to corruption: You are my father,
and to the maggot: My mother or my sister, 15 where then is my hope?
Who can see any hope for me?
16† Will it go down to the gates of Sheol,

or will we descend together to the dust?

JOB

Bildad Speaks

18 Then Bildad the Shuhite replied:

<sup>2</sup> How long until you stop talking?
Show some sense, and then we can talk.

<sup>3</sup> Why are we regarded as cattle,
as stupid in your sight?

should the earth be abandoned on your account, or a rock be removed from its place?

<sup>5</sup> Yes, the light of the wicked is extinguished;
the flame of his fire does not glow.

and the lamp beside him is put out.

and his own schemes trip him up.

<sup>8</sup> For his own feet lead him into a net,
and he strays into its mesh.

<sup>9</sup> A trap catches him by the heel;
a noose seizes him.

<sup>10</sup> A rope lies hidden for him on the ground,
and a snare waits for him along the path.

<sup>11</sup> Terrors frighten him on every side
and harass him at every step.

disaster lies ready for him to stumble. <sup>B</sup>

death's firstborn consumes his limbs.

<sup>14†</sup> He is ripped from the security of his tent
and marched away to the king of terrors.

Burning sulfur is scattered over his home.

and his branches above wither away.

<sup>17</sup> All memory of him perishes from the earth;

he has no name anywhere. <sup>C</sup>

<sup>18</sup> He is driven from light to darkness
and chased from the inhabited world.

no survivor where he used to live.

while those in the east tremble in horror.

and this is the place of the one who does not know God.

JOB

Job's Reply to Bildad

19 Then Job answered:

<sup>2</sup> How long will you torment me
and crush me with words?

<sup>3</sup> You have humiliated me ten times now,
and you mistreat <sup>A</sup> me without shame.

<sup>4</sup> Even if it is true that I have sinned,
my mistake concerns only <sup>B</sup> me.

<sup>5</sup> If you really want to appear superior to me
and would use my disgrace as evidence against me,

<sup>6</sup> then understand that it is God who has wronged me and caught me in His net.

I call for help, but there is no justice.

<sup>8</sup> He has blocked my way so that I cannot pass through;
He has veiled my paths with darkness.

<sup>9</sup> He has stripped me of my honor and removed the crown from my head.

<sup>10</sup> He tears me down on every side so that I am ruined. <sup>C</sup>
He uproots my hope like a tree.

and He regards me as one of His enemies.

they construct a ramp <sup>D</sup> against me
and camp around my tent.

<sup>13</sup> He has removed my brothers from me;
my acquaintances have abandoned me.

<sup>14</sup> My relatives stop coming by,
and my close friends have forgotten me.

I am a foreigner in their sight.

<sup>16</sup> I call for my servant, but he does not answer,
even if I beg him with my own mouth.

17 My breath is offensive to my wife,
and my own family <sup>F</sup> finds me repulsive.

18 Even young boys scorn me.
When I stand up, they mock me.

19 All of my best friends <sup>G</sup> despise me,
and those I love have turned against me.

20† My skin and my flesh cling to my bones;
I have escaped by the skin of my teeth.

21 Have mercy on me, my friends, have mercy,
for God's hand has struck me.

22 Why do you persecute me as God does?
Will you never get enough of my flesh?

23† I wish that my words were written down,
that they were recorded on a scroll

24 or were inscribed in stone forever
by an iron stylus and lead!

25† But I know my living Redeemer, <sup>H</sup>, and He will stand on the dust <sup>I</sup> at last. <sup>J</sup>

26 Even after my skin has been destroyed, <sup>K</sup>
yet I will see God in <sup>L</sup> my flesh.

27 I will see Him myself;
my eyes will look at Him, and not as a stranger. <sup>M</sup>
My heart longs <sup>N</sup> within me.

28 If you say, "How will we pursue him,
since the root of the problem lies with him? "

29 then be afraid of the sword,
because wrath brings punishment by the sword,
so that you may know there is a judgment.

JOB

Zophar Speaks

20 †Then Zophar the Naamathite replied:

<sup>2</sup> This is why my unsettling thoughts compel me to answer, because I am upset! <sup>A</sup>

<sup>3</sup> I have heard a rebuke that insults me, and my understanding <sup>B</sup> makes me reply.

<sup>4</sup> Don't you know that ever since antiquity,
from the time man was placed on earth,

<sup>5</sup> the joy of the wicked has been brief and the happiness of the godless has lasted only a moment?

and his head touches the clouds,

<sup>7</sup> he will vanish forever like his own dung.

Those who know <sup>C</sup> him will ask, "Where is he? "

he will be chased away like a vision in the night.

<sup>9</sup> The eye that saw him will see him no more,
and his household will no longer see him.

for his own hands must give back his wealth.

but will lie down with him in the grave.

and he conceals it under his tongue,

<sup>13</sup> though he cherishes it and will not let it go
but keeps it in his mouth,

<sup>14</sup> yet the food in his stomach turns into cobras' venom inside him.

<sup>15</sup> He swallows wealth but must vomit it up;
God will force it from his stomach.

<sup>16</sup> He will suck the poison of cobras;
a viper's fangs <sup>E</sup> will kill him.

<sup>17</sup> He will not enjoy the streams,

the rivers flowing with honey and cream.

<sup>18</sup> He must return the fruit of his labor without consuming it;
he doesn't enjoy the profits from his trading.

<sup>19</sup> For he oppressed and abandoned the poor;
he seized a house he did not build.

he does not let anything he desires escape.

therefore, his prosperity will not last.

the full weight of misery will crush him.

God will send His burning anger against him,
raining it down on him while he is eating.

<sup>24</sup> If he flees from an iron weapon,
an arrow from a bronze bow will pierce him.

the flashing tip out of his liver. <sup>H</sup>
Terrors come over him.

A fire unfanned by human hands will consume him;
it will feed on what is left in his tent.

<sup>27</sup> The heavens will expose his iniquity,
and the earth will rise up against him.

<sup>28</sup> The possessions in his house will be removed,
flowing away on the day of God's anger.

the inheritance God ordained for him.

JOB

Job's Reply to Zophar

21 Then Job answered:

<sup>2</sup> Pay close attention to my words;
let this be the consolation you offer.

then after I have spoken, you may continue mocking.

<sup>4</sup> As for me, is my complaint against a man?
Then why shouldn't I be impatient?

put your hand over your mouth.

<sup>6</sup> When I think about it, I am terrified and my body trembles in horror.

<sup>7†</sup> Why do the wicked continue to live,
growing old and becoming powerful?

and their descendants, before their eyes.

no rod from God strikes them.

their cows calve and do not miscarry.

their children skip about,

<sup>12</sup> singing to the tambourine and lyre
and rejoicing at the sound of the flute.

<sup>13</sup> They spend their days in prosperity
and go down to •Sheol in peace.

<sup>14</sup> Yet they say to God: "Leave us alone!
We don't want to know Your ways.

<sup>15</sup> Who is the •Almighty, that we should serve Him,
and what will we gain by pleading with Him? "

The counsel of the wicked is far from me!

Does disaster <sup>B</sup> come on them?

Does He apportion destruction in His anger?

like chaff a storm sweeps away?

Let God repay the person himself, so that he may know it.

let him drink from the Almighty's wrath!

<sup>21</sup> For what does he care about his family once he is dead,
when the number of his months has run out?

<sup>22</sup> Can anyone teach God knowledge,
since He judges the exalted ones?

completely secure and at ease.

and his bones are full of marrow. <sup>F</sup>

having never tasted prosperity.

<sup>26</sup> But they both lie in the dust,
and worms cover them.

<sup>27</sup> I know your thoughts very well,
the schemes you would wrong me with.

and "Where are the tents the wicked lived in?"

<sup>29</sup> Have you never consulted those who travel the roads?
Don't you accept their reports? <sup>G</sup>

rescued from the day of wrath.

Who would repay him for what he has done?

<sup>32</sup> He is carried to the grave,
and someone keeps watch over his tomb.

Everyone follows behind him,

and those who go before him are without number.

<sup>34</sup> So how can you offer me such futile comfort?
Your answers are deceptive.

JOB

THIRD SERIES OF SPEECHES

Eliphaz Speaks

22 Then Eliphaz the Temanite replied:

<sup>2</sup> Can a man be of any use to God?

Can even a wise man be of use to Him?

<sup>3</sup> Does it delight the •Almighty if you are righteous?

Does He profit if you perfect your behavior?

<sup>4</sup> Does He correct you and take you to court
because of your piety?

<sup>5</sup> Isn't your wickedness abundant and aren't your iniquities endless?

stripping off their clothes and leaving them naked.

<sup>7</sup> You gave no water to the thirsty
and withheld food from the famished,

<sup>8†</sup> while the land belonged to a powerful man
and an influential man lived on it.

<sup>9</sup> You sent widows away empty-handed,
and the strength of the fatherless was crushed.

<sup>10</sup> Therefore snares surround you,
and sudden dread terrifies you,

<sup>11</sup> or darkness, so you cannot see,
and a flood of water covers you.

<sup>12</sup> Isn't God as high as the heavens?

And look at the highest stars — how lofty they are!

<sup>13</sup> Yet you say: "What does God know?

Can He judge through thick darkness?

<sup>14</sup> Clouds veil Him so that He cannot see,
as He walks on the circle of the sky."

<sup>15</sup> Will you continue on the ancient path that wicked men have walked?

<sup>16</sup> They were snatched away before their time,
and their foundations were washed away by a river.

<sup>17</sup> They were the ones who said to God, "Leave us alone!"
and "What can the Almighty do to us?"

The counsel of the wicked is far from me!

the innocent mock them, saying,

<sup>20</sup> “Surely our opponents are destroyed,
and fire has consumed what they left behind.”

in this way <sup>A</sup> good will come to you.

and place His sayings in your heart.

<sup>23</sup> If you return to the Almighty, you will be renewed.
If you banish injustice from your tent

<sup>24†</sup> and consign your gold to the dust,
the gold of Ophir to the stones in the •wadis,

<sup>25</sup> the Almighty will be your gold and your finest silver.

<sup>26</sup> Then you will delight in the Almighty and lift up your face to God.

<sup>27</sup> You will pray to Him, and He will hear you,
and you will fulfill your vows.

<sup>28</sup> When you make a decision, it will be carried out, <sup>B</sup>
and light will shine on your ways.

God will save the humble. <sup>C</sup>,

<sup>30</sup> He will even rescue the •guilty one,
who will be rescued by the purity of your hands.

JOB

Job's Reply to Eliphaz

23 Then Job answered:

<sup>2</sup> Today also my complaint is bitter.
His hand is heavy despite my groaning.

so that I could go to His throne.

<sup>4</sup> I would plead my case before Him
and fill my mouth with arguments.

and understand what He would say to me.

<sup>6</sup> Would He prosecute me forcefully?
No, He will certainly pay attention to me.

<sup>7</sup> Then an upright man could reason with Him,
and I would escape from my Judge forever.

<sup>8†</sup> If I go east, He is not there,
and if I go west, I cannot perceive Him.

<sup>9</sup> When He is at work to the north, I cannot see Him;
when He turns south, I cannot find Him.

when He has tested me, I will emerge as pure gold.

<sup>11</sup> My feet have followed in His tracks;
I have kept to His way and not turned aside.

<sup>12</sup> I have not departed from the commands of His lips;
I have treasured the words of His mouth
more than my daily food.

<sup>13</sup> But He is unchangeable; who can oppose Him?
He does what He desires.

<sup>14</sup> He will certainly accomplish what He has decreed for me, and He has many more things like these in mind. <sup>C</sup>

<sup>15</sup> Therefore I am terrified in His presence;
when I consider this, I am afraid of Him.

<sup>16</sup> God has made my heart faint;
the •Almighty has terrified me.

by the thick darkness that covers my face.

JOB

24 †Why does the •Almighty not reserve times for judgment?
Why do those who know Him never see His days?

They steal a flock and provide pasture for it.

and take the widow's ox as collateral.

the poor of the land are forced into hiding.

the poor go out to their task of foraging for food;
the wilderness provides nourishment for their children.

<sup>6</sup> They gather their fodder in the field
and glean the vineyards of the wicked.

<sup>7</sup> Without clothing, they spend the night naked, having no covering against the cold.

<sup>8</sup> Drenched by mountain rains,
they huddle against <sup>A</sup> the rocks, shelterless.

the nursing child of the poor is seized as collateral.

<sup>10</sup> Without clothing, they wander about naked.
They carry sheaves but go hungry.

they tread the winepresses, but go thirsty.

the mortally wounded cry for help,
yet God pays no attention to this crime.

They do not recognize its ways
or stay on its paths.

<sup>14</sup> The murderer rises at dawn
to kill the poor and needy,
and by night he becomes a thief.

<sup>15</sup> The adulterer's eye watches for twilight,
thinking: No eye will see me;

he covers his face.

<sup>16</sup> In the dark they break <sup>C</sup> into houses;
by day they lock themselves in, <sup>D</sup>
never experiencing the light.

<sup>17</sup> For the morning is like darkness to them.
Surely they are familiar with the terrors of darkness!

Their section of the land is cursed,
so that they never go to their vineyards.

<sup>19</sup> As dry ground and heat snatch away the melted snow,
so •Sheol steals those who have sinned.

worms feed on them;
they are remembered no more.
So injustice is broken like a tree.

<sup>21</sup> They prey on the childless woman who is unable to conceive,
and do not deal kindly with the widow.

when He rises up, they have no assurance of life.

<sup>23</sup> He gives them a sense of security, so they can rely on it,
but His eyes watch over their ways.

<sup>24</sup> They are exalted for a moment, then they are gone;
they are brought low and shrivel up like everything else.
They wither like heads of grain.

<sup>25</sup> If this is not true, then who can prove me a liar and show that my speech is worthless?

JOB

Bildad Speaks

25 Then Bildad the Shuhite replied:

the One who establishes harmony in the heavens. <sup>A</sup>

Does His light not shine on everyone?

How can one born of woman be pure?

<sup>5</sup> If even the moon does not shine
and the stars are not pure in His sight,

<sup>6†</sup> how much less man, who is a maggot,
and the son of man, who is a worm!

JOB

Job's Reply to Bildad

26 Then Job answered:

<sup>2</sup> How you have helped the powerless
and delivered the arm that is weak!

<sup>3</sup> How you have counseled the unwise
and thoroughly explained the path to success!

<sup>4</sup> Who did you speak these words to?
Whose breath came out of your mouth?

<sup>5</sup> The departed spirits tremble
beneath the waters and all that inhabit them.

and •Abaddon has no covering.

<sup>7†</sup> He stretches the northern skies over empty space;
He hangs the earth on nothing.

yet the clouds do not burst beneath their weight.

spreading His cloud over it.

<sup>10</sup> He laid out the horizon on the surface of the waters
at the boundary between light and darkness.

astounded at His rebuke.

and by His understanding He crushed •Rahab.

His hand pierced the fleeing serpent.

<sup>14</sup> These are but the fringes of His ways;
how faint is the word we hear of Him!
Who can understand His mighty thunder?

JOB

27 Job continued his discourse, saying:

<sup>2†</sup> As God lives, who has deprived me of justice, and the •Almighty who has made me bitter,

<sup>3</sup> as long as my breath is still in me
and the breath from God remains in my nostrils,

<sup>4</sup> my lips will not speak unjustly,
and my tongue will not utter deceit.

<sup>5</sup> I will never affirm that you are right.

I will maintain my integrity <sup>A</sup> until I die.

<sup>6</sup> I will cling to my righteousness and never let it go.
My conscience will not accuse me as long as I live!

<sup>7</sup> May my enemy be like the wicked and my opponent like the unjust.

<sup>8</sup> For what hope does the godless man have when he is cut off,
when God takes away his life?

<sup>9</sup> Will God hear his cry
when distress comes on him?

<sup>10</sup> Will he delight in the Almighty?
Will he call on God at all times?

<sup>11</sup> I will teach you about God's power.

I will not conceal what the Almighty has planned. <sup>B</sup>

<sup>12</sup> All of you have seen this for yourselves,
why do you keep up this empty talk?

the inheritance the ruthless receive from the Almighty.

<sup>14</sup> Even if his children increase, they are destined for the sword;
his descendants will never have enough food.

<sup>15</sup> Those who survive him will be buried by the plague,
yet their widows will not weep for them.

<sup>16</sup> Though he piles up silver like dust
and heaps up a wardrobe like clay —

<sup>17</sup> he may heap it up, but the righteous will wear it, and the innocent will divide up his silver.

<sup>18</sup> The house he built is like a moth's cocoon
or a booth set up by a watchman.

<sup>19</sup> He lies down wealthy, but will do so no more;
when he opens his eyes, it is gone.

a storm wind sweeps him away at night.

<sup>21</sup> An east wind picks him up, and he is gone;
it carries him away from his place.

<sup>22</sup> It blasts at him without mercy,
while he flees desperately from its grasp.

and scorns him from its place.

JOB

Job's Hymn to Wisdom

28 † Surely there is a mine for silver and a place where gold is refined.

2† Iron is taken from the ground,
and copper is smelted from ore.

3 A miner puts an end to the darkness;
he probes <sup>A</sup> the deepest recesses
for ore in the gloomy darkness.

4 He cuts a shaft far from human habitation, in places unknown to those who walk above ground. <sup>B</sup> Suspended far away from people,
the miners swing back and forth.

5 Food may come from the earth,
but below the surface the earth is transformed as by fire.

6 Its rocks are a source of sapphire, <sup>C</sup> containing flecks of gold.

7 No bird of prey knows that path;
no falcon's eye has seen it.

8 Proud beasts have never walked on it;
no lion has ever prowled over it.

9 The miner strikes the flint and transforms the mountains at their foundations.

10 He cuts out channels in the rocks,
and his eyes spot every treasure.

11 He dams up the streams from flowing
so that he may bring to light what is hidden.

12 But where can wisdom be found,
and where is understanding located?

13 No man can know its value,
since it cannot be found in the land of the living.

14 The ocean depths say, "It's not in me,"
while the sea declares, "I don't have it."

15 Gold cannot be exchanged for it,
and silver cannot be weighed out for its price.

16 Wisdom cannot be valued in the gold of Ophir,

in precious onyx or sapphire. <sup>D</sup>,

<sup>17</sup> Gold and glass do not compare with it,
and articles of fine gold cannot be exchanged for it.

The price of wisdom is beyond pearls.

and it cannot be valued in pure gold.

<sup>20</sup> Where then does wisdom come from,
and where is understanding located?

<sup>21</sup> It is hidden from the eyes of every living thing and concealed from the birds of the sky.

“We have heard news of it with our ears.”

<sup>23</sup> But God understands the way to wisdom,
and He knows its location.

<sup>24</sup> For He looks to the ends of the earth and sees everything under the heavens.

and limited the water by measure,

and a path for the lightning,

<sup>27</sup> He considered wisdom and evaluated it;
He established it and examined it.

<sup>28†</sup> He said to mankind,
“The •fear of the Lord is this: wisdom.
And to turn from evil is understanding.”

JOB

Job's Final Claim of Innocence

29 Job continued his discourse, saying:

<sup>2</sup> If only I could be as in months gone by,
in the days when God watched over me,

and I walked through darkness by His light!

<sup>4</sup> I would be as I was in the days of my youth
when God's friendship rested on my tent,

<sup>5</sup> when the •Almighty was still with me and my children were around me,

<sup>6†</sup> when my feet were bathed in cream
and the rock poured out streams of oil for me!

<sup>7</sup> When I went out to the city •gate
and took my seat in the town square,

<sup>8</sup> the young men saw me and withdrew,
while older men stood to their feet.

<sup>9</sup> City officials stopped talking and covered their mouths with their hands.

<sup>10</sup> The noblemen's voices were hushed,
and their tongues stuck to the roof of their mouths.

<sup>11</sup> When they heard me, they blessed me,
and when they saw me, they spoke well of me. <sup>A</sup>

and the fatherless child who had no one to support him.

<sup>13</sup> The dying man blessed me,
and I made the widow's heart rejoice.

<sup>14</sup> I clothed myself in righteousness,
and it enveloped me;
my just decisions were like a robe and a turban.

<sup>15</sup> I was eyes to the blind
and feet to the lame.

<sup>16</sup> I was a father to the needy,
and I examined the case of the stranger.

<sup>17</sup> I shattered the fangs of the unjust

and snatched the prey from his teeth.

<sup>18</sup> So I thought: I will die in my own nest and multiply my days as the sand. <sup>B</sup>

<sup>19</sup> My roots will have access to water,
and the dew will rest on my branches all night.

<sup>20</sup> My strength will be refreshed within me,
and my bow will be renewed in my hand.

waiting silently for my advice.

<sup>22</sup> After a word from me they did not speak again;
my speech settled on them like dew.

<sup>23</sup> They waited for me as for the rain
and opened their mouths as for spring showers.

they were thrilled at <sup>C</sup> the light of my countenance.

I lived as a king among his troops,
like one who comforts those who mourn.

JOB

30 But now they mock me,
men younger than I am,
whose fathers I would have refused to put
with my sheep dogs.

<sup>2</sup> What use to me was the strength of their hands?
Their vigor had left them.

they gnawed the dry land,
the desolate wasteland by night.

and the roots of the broom tree were their food.

<sup>5</sup> They were expelled from human society;
people shouted at them as if they were thieves.

<sup>6</sup> They are living on the slopes of the •wadis,
among the rocks and in holes in the ground.

<sup>7</sup> They bray among the shrubs;
they huddle beneath the thistles.

They were forced to leave the land.

<sup>9</sup> Now I am mocked by their songs;
I have become an object of scorn to them.

<sup>10</sup> They despise me and keep their distance from me;
they do not hesitate to spit in my face.

<sup>11</sup> Because God has loosened my bowstring and oppressed me,
they have cast off restraint in my presence.

they trap <sup>C</sup> my feet
and construct their siege ramp <sup>D</sup> against me.

<sup>13</sup> They tear up my path;
they contribute to my destruction,
without anyone to help them.

<sup>14</sup> They advance as through a gaping breach;
they keep rolling in through the ruins.

<sup>15</sup> Terrors are turned loose against me;

they chase my dignity away like the wind,
and my prosperity has passed by like a cloud.

<sup>16†</sup> Now my life is poured out before my eyes,
and days of suffering have seized me.

<sup>17</sup> Night pierces my bones,
but my gnawing pains never rest.

He chokes me by the neck of my garment. <sup>E</sup>

<sup>19</sup> He throws me into the mud,
and I have become like dust and ashes.

<sup>20</sup> I cry out to You for help, but You do not answer me;
when I stand up, You merely look at me.

<sup>21</sup> You have turned against me with cruelty;
You harass me with Your strong hand.

<sup>22</sup> You lift me up on the wind and make me ride it;
You scatter me in the storm.

<sup>23</sup> Yes, I know that You will lead me to death —
the place appointed for all who live.

<sup>24</sup> Yet no one would stretch out his hand against a ruined man <sup>F</sup>
when he cries out to him for help
because of his distress.

<sup>25</sup> Have I not wept for those who have fallen on hard times?
Has my soul not grieved for the needy?

<sup>26</sup> But when I hoped for good, evil came;
when I looked for light, darkness came.

days of suffering confront me.

<sup>28</sup> I walk about blackened, but not by the sun. <sup>H</sup>
I stood in the assembly and cried out for help.

<sup>29</sup> I have become a brother to jackals
and a companion of ostriches.

and my bones burn with fever.

<sup>31</sup> My lyre is used for mourning
and my flute for the sound of weeping.

JOB

31 † I have made a covenant with my eyes.
How then could I look at a young woman? <sup>A</sup>, <sup>2</sup> For what portion would I have from God above,
or what inheritance from the •Almighty on high?
<sup>3</sup> Doesn't disaster come to the unjust
and misfortune to evildoers?
<sup>4</sup> Does He not see my ways
and number all my steps?
<sup>5</sup> If I have walked in falsehood
or my foot has rushed to deceit, <sup>6</sup> let God weigh me in accurate scales,
and He will recognize my integrity.
<sup>7</sup> If my step has turned from the way,
my heart has followed my eyes,
or impurity has stained my hands, <sup>8</sup> let someone else eat what I have sown,
and let my crops be uprooted.
<sup>9</sup> If my heart has been seduced by my neighbor's wife or I have lurked at his door, <sup>10</sup> let my own wife grind grain for another man,
and let other men sleep with <sup>B</sup> her.
<sup>11</sup> For that would be a disgrace;
it would be a crime deserving punishment. <sup>C</sup>, <sup>12</sup> For it is a fire that consumes down to •Abaddon;
it would destroy my entire harvest.
<sup>13</sup> If I have dismissed the case of my male or female servants
when they made a complaint against me, <sup>14</sup> what could I do when God stands up to judge?
How should I answer Him when He calls me to account?
<sup>15†</sup> Did not the One who made me in the womb also make them?
Did not the same God form us both in the womb?
<sup>16</sup> If I have refused the wishes of the poor or let the widow's eyes go blind, 17 if I have eaten my few crumbs alone without letting the fatherless eat any of it — 18† for from my youth, I raised him as his father, and since the day I was born <sup>D</sup> I guided the widow — 19 if I have seen anyone dying for lack of clothing or a needy person without a cloak, 20 if he <sup>E</sup> did not bless me

while warming himself with the fleece from my sheep, 21 if I ever cast my vote <sup>F</sup> against a fatherless child when I saw that I had support in the city •gate, 22 then let my shoulder blade fall from my back,
and my arm be pulled from its socket.
23 For disaster from God terrifies me,
and because of His majesty I could not do these things.
24 If I placed my confidence in gold or called fine gold my trust, 25 if I have rejoiced because my wealth is great or because my own hand has acquired so much, 26 if I have gazed at the sun when it was shining or at the moon moving in splendor, 27 so that my heart was secretly enticed and I threw them a kiss, <sup>G</sup> 28 this would also be a crime deserving punishment, for I would have denied God above.
29 Have I rejoiced over my enemy's distress,
or become excited when trouble came his way?
30 I have not allowed my mouth to sin
by asking for his life with a curse.
31 Haven't the members of my household said,
"Who is there who has not had enough to eat at Job's table? "
32 No stranger had to spend the night on the street,
for I opened my door to the traveler.

by hiding my •guilt in my heart,

<sup>34</sup> because I greatly feared the crowds,
and the contempt of the clans terrified me,
so I grew silent and would not go outside?

<sup>35</sup> If only I had someone to hear my case!
Here is my signature; let the Almighty answer me.
Let my Opponent compose His indictment.

<sup>36</sup> I would surely carry it on my shoulder and wear it like a crown.

<sup>37</sup> I would give Him an account of all my steps;
I would approach Him like a prince.

<sup>38</sup> If my land cries out against me
and its furrows join in weeping,

<sup>39</sup> if I have consumed its produce without payment or shown contempt for its tenants, <sup>I</sup>

<sup>40†</sup> then let thorns grow instead of wheat and stinkweed instead of barley.

The words of Job are concluded.

Elihu's Angry Response

32 † So these three men quit answering Job, because he was righteous in his own eyes. <sup>2</sup> Then Elihu son of Barachel the Buzite from the family of Ram became angry. He was angry at Job because he had justified himself rather than God. <sup>3</sup> He was also angry at Job's three friends because they had failed to refute him and yet had condemned him.

<sup>4</sup> Now Elihu had waited to speak to Job because they were all older than he. <sup>5</sup> But when he saw that the three men could not answer Job, he became angry.

I am young in years,
while you are old;
therefore I was timid and afraid
to tell you what I know.

<sup>7</sup> I thought that age should speak
and maturity should teach wisdom.

<sup>8</sup> But it is a spirit in man <sup>A</sup>
and the breath of the •Almighty that give him understanding.

<sup>9</sup> It is not only the old who are wise
or the elderly who understand how to judge.

I too will declare what I know."

<sup>11</sup> Look, I waited for your conclusions;
I listened to your insights
as you sought for words.

<sup>12</sup> I paid close attention to you.
Yet no one proved Job wrong;
not one of you refuted his arguments.

<sup>13</sup> So do not claim, "We have found wisdom;
let God deal with him, not man."

<sup>14</sup> But Job has not directed his argument to me, and I will not respond to him with your arguments.

<sup>15</sup> Job's friends are dismayed and can no longer answer;
words have left them.

<sup>16</sup> Should I continue to wait now that they are silent,
now that they stand there and no longer answer?

<sup>17</sup> I too will answer; <sup>B</sup>
yes, I will tell what I know.

<sup>18</sup> For I am full of words,
and my spirit <sup>C</sup> compels me to speak.

it is about to burst like new wineskins.

<sup>20</sup> I must speak so that I can find relief;
I must open my lips and respond.

<sup>21</sup> I will be partial to no one,
and I will not give anyone an undeserved title.

otherwise, my Maker would remove me in an instant.

JOB

Elihu Confronts Job

33 But now, Job, pay attention to my speech, and listen to all my words.

<sup>2</sup> I am going to open my mouth;
my tongue will form words on my palate.

<sup>3</sup> My words come from my upright heart,
and my lips speak with sincerity what they know.

<sup>4</sup> The Spirit of God has made me,
and the breath of the •Almighty gives me life.

<sup>5</sup> Refute me if you can.
Prepare your case against me; take your stand.

<sup>6</sup> I am just like you before God;
I was also pinched off from a piece of clay.

<sup>7</sup> Fear of me should not terrify you;
the pressure I exert <sup>A</sup> against you will be light.

<sup>8</sup> Surely you have spoken in my hearing,
and I have heard these very <sup>B</sup> words:

<sup>9</sup> “I am pure, without transgression;
I am •clean and have no •guilt.

<sup>10</sup> But He finds reasons to oppose me;
He regards me as His enemy.

<sup>11</sup> He puts my feet in the stocks;
He stands watch over all my paths.”

<sup>12</sup> But I tell you that you are wrong in this matter, since God is greater than man.

<sup>13†</sup> Why do you take Him to court for not answering anything a person asks? <sup>C</sup>

<sup>14</sup> For God speaks time and again,
but a person may not notice it.

<sup>15</sup> In a dream, a vision in the night,
when deep sleep falls on people
as they slumber on their beds,

<sup>16</sup> He uncovers their ears at that time
and terrifies them with warnings,

<sup>17</sup> in order to turn a person from his actions and suppress his pride. <sup>D</sup>

his life from crossing the river of death. <sup>E</sup>

and constant distress in his bones,

<sup>20</sup> so that he detests bread,
and his soul despises his favorite food.

and his unseen bones stick out.

and his life to the executioners.

<sup>23†</sup> If there is an angel on his side,
one mediator out of a thousand,
to tell a person what is right for him <sup>G</sup>

<sup>24</sup> and to be gracious to him and say, “Spare him from going down to the Pit;
I have found a ransom,”

<sup>25</sup> then his flesh will be healthier <sup>H</sup> than in his youth,
and he will return to the days of his youthful vigor.

<sup>26</sup> He will pray to God, and God will delight in him.
That man will see His face with a shout of joy,
and God will restore his righteousness to him.

<sup>27</sup> He will look at men and say,
“I have sinned and perverted what was right;
yet I did not get what I deserved. <sup>I</sup>

<sup>28</sup> He redeemed my soul from going down to the Pit,
and I will continue to see the light.”

<sup>29</sup> God certainly does all these things
two or three times to a man

<sup>30</sup> in order to turn him back from the Pit,
so he may shine with the light of life.

Be quiet, and I will speak.

<sup>32</sup> But if you have something to say, <sup>J</sup> answer me;
speak, for I would like to justify you.

<sup>33</sup> If not, then listen to me;
be quiet, and I will teach you wisdom.

34 Then Elihu continued, <sup>A</sup> saying:

<sup>2</sup> Hear my words, you wise men,
and listen to me, you knowledgeable ones.

<sup>3</sup> Doesn't the ear test words
as the palate tastes food?

let us decide together what is good.

<sup>5</sup> For Job has declared, "I am righteous,
yet God has deprived me of justice.

<sup>6</sup> Would I lie about my case?

My wound <sup>B</sup> is incurable,
though I am without transgression."

He drinks derision like water.

<sup>8</sup> He keeps company with evildoers
and walks with wicked men.

<sup>9</sup> For he has said, "A man gains nothing
when he becomes God's friend."

<sup>10</sup> Therefore listen to me, you men of understanding.
It is impossible for God to do wrong,
and for the •Almighty to act unjustly.

<sup>11</sup> For He repays a person according to his deeds,
and He brings his ways on him.

<sup>12</sup> Indeed, it is true that God does not act wickedly
and the Almighty does not pervert justice.

<sup>13</sup> Who gave Him authority over the earth?
Who put Him in charge of the entire world?

<sup>14</sup> If He put His mind to it and withdrew the spirit and breath He gave,

<sup>15</sup> every living thing would perish together
and mankind would return to the dust.

<sup>16</sup> If you have understanding, hear this;
listen to what I have to say.

17 Could one who hates justice govern the world?

Will you condemn the mighty Righteous One,

18 who says to a king, “Worthless man! ”

and to nobles, “Wicked men! ”?

19 God is not partial to princes and does not favor the rich over the poor,

for they are all the work of His hands.

20 They die suddenly in the middle of the night;

people shudder, then pass away.

Even the mighty are removed without effort.

21 For His eyes watch over a man’s ways,

and He observes all his steps.

22 There is no darkness, no deep darkness,

where evildoers can hide themselves.

23 God does not need to examine a person further,

that one should approach Him in court.

24 He shatters the mighty without an investigation and sets others in their place.

25 Therefore, He recognizes their deeds

and overthrows them by night, and they are crushed.

26 In full view of the public, <sup>C</sup>

He strikes them for their wickedness,

27 because they turned aside from following Him and did not understand any of His ways

28 but caused the poor to cry out to Him, and He heard the outcry of the afflicted.

29† But when God is silent, who can declare Him •guilty?

When He hides His face, who can see Him?

Yet He watches over both individuals and nations,

30 so that godless men should not rule or ensnare the people.

31 Suppose someone says to God,

“I have endured my punishment;

I will no longer act wickedly.

<sup>32</sup> Teach me what I cannot see;
if I have done wrong, I won't do it again."

<sup>33</sup> Should God repay you on your terms
when you have rejected His?
You must choose, not I!
So declare what you know.

<sup>34</sup> Reasonable men will say to me,
along with the wise men who hear me,

his words are without insight."

<sup>36</sup> If only Job were tested to the limit,
because his answers are like those of wicked men.

<sup>37</sup> For he adds rebellion to his sin;
he scornfully claps in our presence,
while multiplying his words against God.

JOB

35 Then Elihu continued, saying:

“I am righteous before God”?

<sup>3</sup> For you ask, “What does it profit You, and what benefit comes to me, if I do not sin? ”

<sup>4</sup> I will answer you and your friends with you.

<sup>5</sup> Look at the heavens and see;
gaze at the clouds high above you.

<sup>6†</sup> If you sin, how does it affect God?
If you multiply your transgressions, what does it do to Him?

<sup>7</sup> If you are righteous, what do you give Him,
or what does He receive from your hand?

<sup>8</sup> Your wickedness affects a person like yourself,
and your righteousness another human being.

they shout for help because of the arm of the mighty.

<sup>10</sup> But no one asks, “Where is God my Maker,
who provides us with songs in the night,

<sup>11</sup> who gives us more understanding than the animals of the earth and makes us wiser than the birds of the sky? ”

<sup>12</sup> There they cry out, but He does not answer,
because of the pride of evil men.

<sup>13</sup> Indeed, God does not listen to empty cries,
and the •Almighty does not take note of it —

<sup>14</sup> how much less when <sup>A</sup> you complain <sup>B</sup>
that you do not see Him,
that your case is before Him
and you are waiting for Him.

<sup>15</sup> But now, because God’s anger does not punish and He does not pay attention to transgression,

and multiplies words without knowledge.

JOB

36 Then Elihu continued, saying:

<sup>2</sup> Be patient with me a little longer, and I will inform you, for there is still more to be said on God's behalf.

<sup>3</sup> I will get my knowledge from a distant place and ascribe justice to my Maker.

one who has perfect knowledge is with you.

<sup>5</sup> Yes, God is mighty, but He despises no one;
He understands all things. <sup>B</sup>

<sup>6</sup> He does not keep the wicked alive,
but He gives justice to the afflicted.

<sup>7</sup> He does not remove His gaze from the righteous,
but He seats them forever with enthroned kings,
and they are exalted.

<sup>8</sup> If people are bound with chains
and trapped by the cords of affliction,

<sup>9</sup> God tells them what they have done
and how arrogantly they have transgressed.

<sup>10</sup> He opens their ears to correction
and insists they repent from iniquity.

<sup>11</sup> If they serve Him obediently,
they will end their days in prosperity
and their years in happiness.

<sup>12</sup> But if they do not obey,
they will cross the river of death <sup>C</sup>
and die without knowledge.

<sup>13</sup> Those who have a godless heart harbor anger;
even when God binds them, they do not cry for help.

their life ends among male cult prostitutes.

He instructs them by their torment.

to a spacious and unconfined place.

Your table was spread with choice food.

<sup>17</sup> Yet now you are obsessed with the judgment due the wicked;
judgment and justice have seized you.

do not let a large ransom <sup>F</sup> lead you astray.

keep you from distress?

<sup>20</sup> Do not long for the night
when nations will disappear from their places.

<sup>21</sup> Be careful that you do not turn to iniquity,
for that is why you have been tested by <sup>H</sup> affliction.

Who is a teacher like Him?

<sup>23</sup> Who has appointed His way for Him,
and who has declared, "You have done wrong"?

which people have sung about.

<sup>25†</sup> All mankind has seen it;
people have looked at it from a distance.

<sup>26</sup> Yes, God is exalted beyond our knowledge;
the number of His years cannot be counted.

they distill the rain into its <sup>J</sup> mist,

<sup>28</sup> which the clouds pour out
and shower abundantly on mankind.

<sup>29</sup> Can anyone understand how the clouds spread out or how the thunder roars from God's pavilion?

<sup>30</sup> See how He spreads His lightning around Him
and covers the depths of the sea.

He gives food in abundance.

and commands it to hit its mark.

the cattle also, the approaching storm.

JOB

37 My heart pounds at this and leaps from my chest. <sup>A</sup>

<sup>2</sup> Just listen to His thunderous voice
and the rumbling that comes from His mouth.

<sup>3</sup> He lets it loose beneath the entire sky;
His lightning to the ends of the earth.

<sup>4</sup> Then there comes a roaring sound;
God thunders with His majestic voice.
He does not restrain the lightning
when His rumbling voice is heard.

He does great things that we cannot comprehend.

and the torrential rains, His mighty torrential rains,

<sup>7</sup> serve as His sign to all mankind,
so that all men may know His work.

<sup>8</sup> The wild animals enter their lairs
and stay in their dens.

and the cold from the driving north winds.

<sup>10</sup> Ice is formed by the breath of God,
and watery expanses are frozen.

He scatters His lightning through them.

turning round and round at His direction,
accomplishing everything He commands them
over the surface of the inhabited world.

<sup>13</sup> He causes this to happen for punishment,
for His land, or for His faithful love.

Stop and consider God's wonders.

<sup>15</sup> Do you know how God directs His clouds
or makes their lightning flash?

<sup>16</sup> Do you understand how the clouds float,
those wonderful works of Him who has perfect knowledge?

when the south wind brings calm to the land,

<sup>18†</sup> can you help God spread out the skies
as hard as a cast metal mirror?

<sup>19</sup> Teach us what we should say to Him;
we cannot prepare our case because of our darkness.

<sup>20</sup> Should He be told that I want to speak?
Can a man speak when he is confused?

<sup>21</sup> Now men cannot even look at the sun
when it is in the skies,
after a wind has swept through and cleared them away.

<sup>22†</sup> Yet out of the north He comes, shrouded in a golden glow;
awesome majesty surrounds Him.

<sup>23</sup> The •Almighty — we cannot reach Him —
He is exalted in power!

He will not oppress justice and abundant righteousness,

He does not look favorably on any who are wise in heart.

JOB

The LORD Speaks

38 Then the LORD answered Job from the whirlwind. He said:

<sup>2</sup> Who is this who obscures My counsel with ignorant words?

when I question you, you will inform Me.

<sup>4†</sup> Where were you when I established the earth?
Tell Me, if you have <sup>A</sup> understanding.

Who stretched a measuring line across it?

Or who laid its cornerstone

<sup>7†</sup> while the morning stars sang together and all the sons of God shouted for joy?

<sup>8†</sup> Who enclosed the sea behind doors
when it burst from the womb,

<sup>9</sup> when I made the clouds its garment

<sup>10</sup> when I determined its boundaries <sup>C</sup>
and put its bars and doors in place,

<sup>11</sup> when I declared: “You may come this far, but no farther;
your proud waves stop here”?

<sup>12</sup> Have you ever in your life commanded the morning or assigned the dawn its place,

<sup>13</sup> so it may seize the edges of the earth and shake the wicked out of it?

<sup>14</sup> The earth is changed as clay is by a seal;

its hills stand out like the folds of a garment.

and the arm raised in violence is broken.

<sup>16</sup> Have you traveled to the sources of the sea

<sup>28</sup> Does the rain have a father?

Who fathered the drops of dew?

Can you impose its <sup>K</sup> authority on earth?

34 Can you command <sup>L</sup> the clouds
so that a flood of water covers you?

35 Can you send out lightning bolts, and they go?
Do they report to you: “Here we are.”?

they deliver their newborn. <sup>B</sup>

They leave and do not return. <sup>C</sup>

<sup>5</sup> Who set the wild donkey free?
Who released the swift donkey from its harness?

<sup>6</sup> I made the wilderness its home,

<sup>8</sup> It roams the mountains for its pastureland,
searching for anything green.

<sup>9</sup> Would the wild ox be willing to serve you?
Would it spend the night by your feeding trough?

or that some wild animal may trample them.

<sup>16</sup> She treats her young harshly, as if they were not her own,
with no fear that her labor may have been in vain.

<sup>17</sup> For God has deprived her of wisdom;

He has not endowed her with understanding.

she laughs at the horse and its rider.

<sup>19</sup> Do you give strength to the horse?

Do you adorn his neck with a mane? <sup>F</sup>

<sup>20</sup> Do you make him leap like a locust?
His proud snorting fills one with terror.

<sup>21</sup> He paws in the valley and rejoices in his strength;
He charges into battle. <sup>G</sup>

he does not run from the sword.

along with a flashing spear and a lance. <sup>H</sup>

he cannot stand still at the trumpet's sound.

<sup>25</sup> When the trumpet blasts, he snorts defiantly. <sup>J</sup>
He smells the battle from a distance;
he hears the officers' shouts and the battle cry.

its stronghold is on a rocky crag.

<sup>29</sup> From there it searches for prey;
its eyes penetrate the distance.

<sup>30</sup> Its brood gulps down blood,
and where the slain are, it is there.

JOB

40 The LORD answered Job:

<sup>2</sup> Will the one who contends with the •Almighty correct Him?
Let him who argues with God give an answer. <sup>A</sup>

<sup>3</sup> Then Job answered the LORD:

<sup>4</sup> I am so insignificant. How can I answer You?
I place my hand over my mouth.

<sup>5</sup> I have spoken once, and I will not reply;
twice, but now I can add nothing.

When I question you, you will inform Me.

<sup>8</sup> Would you really challenge My justice?
Would you declare Me •guilty to justify yourself?

<sup>9</sup> Do you have an arm like God's?
Can you thunder with a voice like His?

and clothe yourself with honor and glory.

look on every proud person and humiliate him.

<sup>12</sup> Look on every proud person and humble him;
trample the wicked where they stand. <sup>B</sup>

imprison them in the grave. <sup>C</sup>

<sup>14</sup> Then I will confess to you that your own right hand can deliver you.

which I made along with you.
He eats grass like an ox.

<sup>16</sup> Look at the strength of his loins

and the power in the muscles of his belly.

the tendons of his thighs are woven firmly together.

<sup>18</sup> His bones are bronze tubes;
his limbs are like iron rods.

<sup>19</sup> He is the foremost of God's works;
only his Maker can draw the sword against him.

while all sorts of wild animals play there.

<sup>21</sup> He lies under the lotus plants,
hiding in the protection <sup>D</sup> of marshy reeds.

the willows by the brook surround him.

he remains confident, even if the Jordan surges up to his mouth.

<sup>24</sup> Can anyone capture him while he looks on, <sup>E</sup>
or pierce his nose with snares?

JOB

Chapter 41

<sup>1</sup> Can you pull in •Leviathan with a hook
or tie his tongue down with a rope?

<sup>2</sup> Can you put a cord <sup>A</sup> through his nose or pierce his jaw with a hook?

<sup>3</sup> Will he beg you for mercy
or speak softly to you?

<sup>4</sup> Will he make a covenant with you
so that you can take him as a slave forever?

<sup>5</sup> Can you play with him like a bird
or put him on a leash <sup>B</sup> for your girls?

<sup>6</sup> Will traders bargain for him
or divide him among the merchants?

<sup>7</sup> Can you fill his hide with harpoons
or his head with fishing spears?

You will remember the battle
and never repeat it!

<sup>9</sup> Any hope of capturing him proves false.
Does a person not collapse at the very sight of him?

who then can stand against Me?

<sup>11</sup> Who confronted Me, that I should repay him?
Everything under heaven belongs to Me.

<sup>12</sup> I cannot be silent about his limbs,
his power, and his graceful proportions.

Who can penetrate his double layer of armor?

<sup>14</sup> Who can open his jaws, <sup>D</sup>
surrounded by those terrifying teeth?

<sup>15</sup> His pride is in his rows of scales,
closely sealed together.

<sup>16</sup> One scale is so close to another <sup>E</sup>
that no air can pass between them.

17 They are joined to one another,
so closely connected <sup>F</sup> they cannot be separated.

18 His snorting <sup>G</sup> flashes with light, while his eyes are like the rays <sup>H</sup> of dawn.

19 Flaming torches shoot from his mouth;
fiery sparks fly out!

20 Smoke billows from his nostrils
as from a boiling pot or burning reeds.

21 His breath sets coals ablaze,
and flames pour out of his mouth.

22 Strength resides in his neck,
and dismay dances before him.

23 The folds of his flesh are joined together,
solid as metal <sup>I</sup> and immovable.

24 His heart is as hard as a rock,
as hard as a lower millstone!

25† When Leviathan rises, the mighty <sup>J</sup> are terrified;
they withdraw because of his thrashing.

26 The sword that reaches him will have no effect,
nor will a spear, dart, or arrow.

27 He regards iron as straw,
and bronze as rotten wood.

28 No arrow can make him flee;
slingstones become like stubble to him.

29 A club is regarded as stubble,
and he laughs at the sound of a javelin.

30 His undersides are jagged potsherds,
spreading the mud like a threshing sledge.

31 He makes the depths seethe like a cauldron;
he makes the sea like an ointment jar.

32 He leaves a shining wake behind him; <sup>K</sup>
one would think the deep had gray hair!

33 He has no equal on earth —
a creature devoid of fear!

<sup>34</sup> He surveys everything that is haughty;
he is king over all the proud beasts. <sup>L</sup>

JOB

Job Replies to the LORD

42 †Then Job replied to the LORD:

<sup>2</sup> I know that You can do anything and no plan of Yours can be thwarted.

<sup>3</sup> You asked, “Who is this who conceals My counsel with ignorance? ”
Surely I spoke about things I did not understand, things too wonderful for me to <sup>A</sup> know.

<sup>4</sup> You said, “Listen now, and I will speak.
When I question you, you will inform Me.”

<sup>5</sup> I had heard rumors about You,
but now my eyes have seen You.

<sup>6</sup> Therefore I take back my words
and repent in dust and ashes.

<sup>7†</sup> After the LORD had finished speaking <sup>B</sup> to Job, He said to Eliphaz the Temanite: “I am angry with you and your two friends, for you have not spoken the truth about Me, as My servant Job has. <sup>8</sup> Now take seven bulls and seven rams, go to My servant Job, and offer a burnt offering for yourselves. Then My servant Job will pray for you. I will surely accept his prayer and not deal with you as your folly deserves. For you have not spoken the truth about Me, as My servant Job has.” <sup>9</sup> Then Eliphaz the Temanite, Bildad the Shuhite, and Zophar the Naamathite went and did as the LORD had told them, and the LORD accepted Job’s prayer.

God Restores Job

<sup>10</sup> After Job had prayed for his friends, the LORD restored his prosperity and doubled his previous possessions. <sup>11</sup> All his brothers, sisters, and former acquaintances came to his house and dined with him in his house. They sympathized with him and comforted him concerning all the adversity the LORD had brought on him. Each one gave him a qesitah and a gold earring.

<sup>12</sup> So the LORD blessed the last part of Job’s life more than the first. He owned 14,000 sheep, 6,000 camels, 1,000 yoke of oxen, and 1,000 female donkeys. <sup>13</sup> He also had seven sons and three daughters. <sup>14</sup> He named his first daughter Jemimah, his second Keziah, and his third Keren-happuch.

BOOK I

(Psalms 1–41)

The Two Ways

1 † How happy is the man who does not follow <sup>A</sup> the advice of the wicked or take <sup>B</sup> the path of sinners or join a group <sup>C</sup> of mockers!

2† Instead, his delight is in the LORD's instruction,
and he meditates on it day and night.

3† He is like a tree planted beside streams of water <sup>D</sup> that bears its fruit in season <sup>E</sup>
and whose leaf does not wither.
Whatever he does prospers.

4† The wicked are not like this;
instead, they are like chaff that the wind blows away.

5† Therefore the wicked will not survive <sup>F</sup> the judgment, and sinners will not be in the community of the righteous.

6† For the LORD watches over the way of the righteous,
but the way of the wicked leads to ruin.

Coronation of the Son

2 † Why do the nations rebel <sup>A</sup>,
and the peoples plot in vain?

2† The kings of the earth take their stand,
and the rulers conspire together
against the LORD and His Anointed One: <sup>B</sup>

3 “Let us tear off their chains and free ourselves from their restraints.” <sup>C</sup>

4† The One enthroned <sup>D</sup> in heaven laughs;
the Lord ridicules them.

5 Then He speaks to them in His anger and terrifies them in His wrath:

6 “I have consecrated My King <sup>E</sup>
on •Zion, My holy mountain.”

7† I will declare the LORD’s decree:
He said to Me, “You are My Son; <sup>F</sup>
today I have become Your <sup>G</sup> Father.

8 Ask of Me, and I will make the nations Your <sup>H</sup> inheritance
and the ends of the earth Your <sup>I</sup> possession.

9† You will break them with a rod of iron;
You <sup>J</sup> will shatter them like pottery.” <sup>K</sup>

10 So now, kings, be wise;
receive instruction, you judges of the earth.

11 Serve the LORD with reverential awe and rejoice with trembling.

12† Pay homage to <sup>L</sup> the Son or He <sup>M</sup> will be angry and you will perish in your rebellion, <sup>N</sup>, for His <sup>O</sup> anger may ignite at any moment.
All those who take refuge in Him <sup>P</sup> are happy.

Confidence in Troubled Times

3 LORD, how my foes increase!
There are many who attack me.
<sup>2†</sup> Many say about me,
“There is no help for him in God.”

•Selah

<sup>3†</sup> But You, LORD, are a shield around me, my glory, and the One who lifts up my head.
<sup>4†</sup> I cry aloud to the LORD,
and He answers me from His holy mountain.

Selah

<sup>5</sup> I lie down and sleep;
I wake again because the LORD sustains me.
<sup>6</sup> I am not afraid of the thousands of people who have taken their stand against me on every side.
<sup>7†</sup> Rise up, LORD!
Save me, my God!

4 Answer me when I call,
God, who vindicates me. <sup>A</sup>
You freed me from affliction;
be gracious to me and hear my prayer.

<sup>2</sup> How long, exalted men, will my honor be insulted?
How long will you love what is worthless

<sup>3</sup> Know that the LORD has set apart
the faithful for Himself;
the LORD will hear when I call to Him.

<sup>4</sup> Be angry <sup>B</sup> and do not sin;
on your bed, reflect in your heart and be still.

<sup>5</sup> Offer sacrifices in righteousness <sup>C</sup>
and trust in the LORD.

Look on us with favor, LORD.

The Refuge of the Righteous

5 Listen to my words, LORD;
consider my sighing.

2 Pay attention to the sound of my cry,
my King and my God,
for I pray to You.

3 At daybreak, LORD, You hear my voice;
at daybreak I plead my case to You and watch expectantly.

4 For You are not a God who delights in wickedness;
evil cannot dwell with You.

5† The boastful cannot stand in Your presence;
You hate all evildoers.

6 You destroy those who tell lies;
the LORD abhors a man of bloodshed and treachery.

7 But I enter Your house
by the abundance of Your faithful love;
I bow down toward Your holy temple
in reverential awe of You.

8 LORD, lead me in Your righteousness because of my adversaries; <sup>A</sup>
make Your way straight before me.

9 For there is nothing reliable in what they say; <sup>B</sup>, destruction is within them;
their throat is an open grave;
they flatter with their tongues.

10† Punish them, God;
let them fall by their own schemes.
Drive them out because of their many crimes,
for they rebel against You.

11 But let all who take refuge in You rejoice;
let them shout for joy forever.
May You shelter them,
and may those who love Your name boast about You.

12† For You, LORD, bless the righteous one;

You surround him with favor like a shield.

2 Be gracious to me, LORD, for I am weak; <sup>A</sup>

3 my whole being is shaken with terror.
And You, LORD — how long?

4† Turn, LORD! Rescue me;
save me because of Your faithful love.

5† For there is no remembrance of You in death;
who can thank You in •Sheol?

6† I am weary from my groaning;
with my tears I dampen my pillow <sup>B</sup>
and drench my bed every night.

7 My eyes are swollen from grief;
they grow old because of all my enemies.

8 Depart from me, all evildoers,
for the LORD has heard the sound of my weeping.

9 The LORD has heard my plea for help;
the LORD accepts my prayer.

10† All my enemies will be ashamed and shake with terror;
they will turn back and suddenly be disgraced.

6 Rise up, LORD, in Your anger;
lift Yourself up against the fury of my adversaries;
awake for me;

7 Let the assembly of peoples gather around You;
take Your seat on high over it.

8† The LORD judges the peoples;
vindicate me, LORD,
according to my righteousness and my integrity. <sup>E</sup>

9† Let the evil of the wicked come to an end,
but establish the righteous.

The One who examines the thoughts and emotions <sup>F</sup>
is a righteous God.

10 My shield is with <sup>G</sup> God,
who saves the upright in heart.

11 God is a righteous judge

<sup>5</sup> His ways are always secure; <sup>C</sup>
Your lofty judgments are beyond his sight;
he scoffs at all his adversaries.

<sup>7</sup> Cursing, deceit, and violence fill his mouth;
trouble and malice are under his tongue.

<sup>8</sup> He waits in ambush near the villages;
he kills the innocent in secret places.
His eyes are on the lookout for the helpless;

Praise for Deliverance

<sup>2</sup> The LORD is my rock,
my fortress, and my deliverer,
my God, my mountain where I seek refuge,
my shield and the •horn of my salvation,
my stronghold.

<sup>3</sup> I called to the LORD, who is worthy of praise,
and I was saved from my enemies.

<sup>4</sup> The ropes of death were wrapped around me;
the torrents of destruction terrified me.

<sup>5</sup> The ropes of •Sheol entangled me;
the snares of death confronted me.

<sup>6</sup> I called to the LORD in my distress,
and I cried to my God for help.
From His temple He heard my voice,
and my cry to Him reached His ears.

<sup>7</sup> Then the earth shook and quaked;
the foundations of the mountains trembled;
they shook because He burned with anger.

<sup>8†</sup> Smoke rose from His nostrils,
and consuming fire came from His mouth;
coals were set ablaze by it. <sup>A</sup>,

<sup>9</sup> He parted the heavens and came down,
a dark cloud beneath His feet.

<sup>10</sup> He rode on a cherub and flew,
soaring on the wings of the wind.

<sup>11</sup> He made darkness His hiding place,
dark storm clouds His canopy around Him.

<sup>12</sup> From the radiance of His presence,
His clouds swept onward with hail and blazing coals.

<sup>13</sup> The LORD thundered from heaven;
the •Most High projected His voice.

He hurled <sup>B</sup> lightning bolts and routed them.

<sup>15</sup> The depths of the sea became visible,
the foundations of the world were exposed,
at Your rebuke, LORD,
at the blast of the breath of Your nostrils.

<sup>16</sup> He reached down from heaven
and took hold of me;
He pulled me out of deep waters.

<sup>17</sup> He rescued me from my powerful enemy
and from those who hated me,
for they were too strong for me.

<sup>18</sup> They confronted me in the day of my distress, but the LORD was my support.

<sup>19</sup> He brought me out to a spacious place;
He rescued me because He delighted in me.

<sup>20</sup> The LORD rewarded me
according to my righteousness;
He repaid me
according to the cleanness of my hands.

<sup>21</sup> For I have kept the ways of the LORD and have not turned from my God to wickedness.

and have not disregarded His statutes.

<sup>23</sup> I was blameless toward Him
and kept myself from sinning.

<sup>24</sup> So the LORD repaid me
according to my righteousness,
according to the cleanness of my hands in His sight.

<sup>25</sup> With the faithful
You prove Yourself faithful;
with the blameless man
You prove Yourself blameless;

<sup>26</sup> with the pure
You prove Yourself pure,
but with the crooked

You prove Yourself shrewd.

<sup>27</sup> For You rescue an afflicted people,
but You humble those with haughty eyes.

<sup>28</sup> LORD, You light my lamp;
my God illuminates my darkness.

<sup>29</sup> With You I can attack a barrier, <sup>D</sup>
and with my God I can leap over a wall.

the word of the LORD is pure.
He is a shield to all who take refuge in Him.

<sup>31</sup> For who is God besides •Yahweh?
And who is a rock? Only our God.

<sup>32</sup> God — He clothes me with strength and makes my way perfect.

<sup>33</sup> He makes my feet like the feet of a deer and sets me securely on the heights. <sup>E</sup>,

<sup>34†</sup> He trains my hands for war;
my arms can bend a bow of bronze.

<sup>35</sup> You have given me the shield of Your salvation;
Your right hand upholds me,
and Your humility exalts me.

<sup>36</sup> You widen a place beneath me for my steps,
and my ankles do not give way.

<sup>37</sup> I pursue my enemies and overtake them;
I do not turn back until they are wiped out.

<sup>38</sup> I crush them, and they cannot get up;
they fall beneath my feet.

<sup>39</sup> You have clothed me with strength for battle;
You subdue my adversaries beneath me.

<sup>40</sup> You have made my enemies retreat before me; <sup>F</sup>
I annihilate those who hate me.

<sup>41</sup> They cry for help, but there is no one to save them —
they cry to the LORD, but He does not answer them.

I trample them like mud in the streets.

<sup>43</sup> You have freed me from the feuds among the people;
You have appointed me the head of nations;
a people I had not known serve me.

<sup>44</sup> Foreigners submit to me grudgingly;
as soon as they hear, <sup>G</sup> they obey me.

<sup>45</sup> Foreigners lose heart
and come trembling from their fortifications.

<sup>46</sup> The LORD lives — may my rock be praised!
The God of my salvation is exalted.

<sup>47</sup> God — He gives me vengeance
and subdues peoples under me.

<sup>48</sup> He frees me from my enemies.
You exalt me above my adversaries;
You rescue me from violent men.

<sup>49</sup> Therefore I will praise You, Yahweh, among the nations;
I will sing about Your name.

He shows loyalty to His anointed,
to David and his descendants forever.

<sup>3</sup> For You meet him with rich blessings;
You place a crown of pure gold on his head.

<sup>4</sup> He asked You for life, and You gave it to him —
length of days forever and ever.

You confer majesty and splendor on him.

You cheer him with joy in Your presence.

<sup>7</sup> For the king relies on the LORD;
through the faithful love of the •Most High
he is not shaken.

<sup>8</sup> Your hand will capture all your enemies;
your right hand will seize those who hate you.

<sup>9</sup> You will make them burn
like a fiery furnace when you appear;
the LORD will engulf them in His wrath,
and fire will devour them.

<sup>10</sup> You will wipe their descendants from the earth and their offspring from the •human race.

and devise a wicked plan, they will not prevail.

<sup>12</sup> Instead, you will put them to flight
when you aim your bow <sup>B</sup> at their faces.

<sup>13</sup> Be exalted, LORD, in Your strength;
we will sing and praise Your might.

From Suffering to Praise

22 † My God, my God, why have You forsaken me?
Why are You so far from my deliverance
and from my words of groaning? <sup>A</sup>

<sup>2</sup> My God, I cry by day, but You do not answer,
by night, yet I have no rest.

<sup>3</sup> But You are holy,
enthroned on the praises of Israel.

they trusted, and You rescued them.

<sup>5</sup> They cried to You and were set free;
they trusted in You and were not disgraced.

<sup>6</sup> But I am a worm and not a man,
scorned by men and despised by people.

<sup>7</sup> Everyone who sees me mocks me;
they sneer <sup>B</sup> and shake their heads:

<sup>8†</sup> “He relies on <sup>C</sup> the LORD;
let Him rescue him;
let the LORD <sup>D</sup> deliver him,
since He takes pleasure in him.”

<sup>9</sup> You took me from the womb, making me secure while at my mother’s breast.

You have been my God from my mother’s womb.

and there is no one to help.

strong ones of Bashan encircle me.

lions, mauling and roaring.

<sup>14</sup> I am poured out like water,
and all my bones are disjointed;
my heart is like wax,
melting within me.

<sup>15</sup> My strength is dried up like baked clay;
my tongue sticks to the roof of my mouth.
You put me into the dust of death.

<sup>16†</sup> For dogs have surrounded me;
a gang of evildoers has closed in on me;
they pierced my hands and my feet.

<sup>17</sup> I can count all my bones;
people <sup>F</sup> look and stare at me.

<sup>18†</sup> They divided my garments among themselves,
and they cast lots for my clothing.

<sup>19</sup> But You, LORD, don't be far away.
My strength, come quickly to help me.

<sup>20</sup> Deliver my life from the sword,
my only life <sup>G</sup> from the power of these dogs.

<sup>21</sup> Save me from the mouth of the lion!
You have rescued <sup>H</sup> me
from the horns of the wild oxen.

<sup>22</sup> I will proclaim Your name to my brothers;
I will praise You in the congregation.

<sup>23</sup> You who •fear •Yahweh, praise Him!
All you descendants of Jacob, honor Him!
All you descendants of Israel, revere Him!

<sup>24</sup> For He has not despised or detested
the torment of the afflicted.
He did not hide His face from him
but listened when he cried to Him for help.

<sup>25</sup> I will give praise <sup>I</sup> in the great congregation
because of You;
I will fulfill my vows
before those who fear You. <sup>J</sup>,

those who seek the LORD will praise Him.
May your hearts live forever!

<sup>27</sup> All the ends of the earth will remember and turn to the LORD.

All the families of the nations
will bow down before You,

<sup>28</sup> for kingship belongs to the LORD;
He rules over the nations.

<sup>29</sup> All who prosper on earth will eat and bow down;
all those who go down to the dust
will kneel before Him —
even the one who cannot preserve his life.

<sup>30</sup> Their descendants will serve Him;
the next generation will be told about the Lord.

<sup>31</sup> They will come and tell a people yet to be born about His righteousness —
what He has done.

He leads me along the right paths <sup>A</sup>
for His name's sake.

I fear no danger,
for You are with me;
Your rod and Your staff — they comfort me.

<sup>5</sup> You prepare a table before me
in the presence of my enemies;
You anoint my head with oil;
my cup overflows.

<sup>6†</sup> Only goodness and faithful love will pursue me

Dependence on the LORD

25 LORD, I turn to You. <sup>A</sup>

<sup>2</sup> My God, I trust in You.

Do not let me be disgraced;
do not let my enemies gloat over me.

<sup>3</sup> No one who waits for You
will be disgraced;
those who act treacherously without cause
will be disgraced.

<sup>4</sup> Make Your ways known to me, LORD;
teach me Your paths.

<sup>5</sup> Guide me in Your truth and teach me,
for You are the God of my salvation;
I wait for You all day long.

<sup>6</sup> Remember, LORD, Your compassion and Your faithful love,
for they have existed from antiquity. <sup>B</sup>

<sup>7</sup> Do not remember the sins of my youth
or my acts of rebellion;
in keeping with Your faithful love, remember me
because of Your goodness, LORD.

<sup>8</sup> The LORD is good and upright;
therefore He shows sinners the way.

<sup>9</sup> He leads the humble in what is right and teaches them His way.

<sup>10</sup> All the LORD's ways show faithful love and truth to those who keep His covenant and decrees.

<sup>11</sup> Because of Your name, •Yahweh, forgive my sin, for it is great.

<sup>12</sup> Who is the man who •fears the LORD?
He will show him the way he should choose.

<sup>13</sup> He will live a good life,
and his descendants will inherit the land. <sup>C</sup>

<sup>14</sup> The secret counsel of the LORD

is for those who fear Him,
and He reveals His covenant to them.

<sup>15</sup> My eyes are always on the LORD,
for He will pull my feet out of the net.

<sup>16</sup> Turn to me and be gracious to me,
for I am alone and afflicted.

<sup>17</sup> The distresses of my heart increase; <sup>D</sup>
bring me out of my sufferings.

<sup>18</sup> Consider my affliction and trouble,
and take away all my sins.

<sup>19</sup> Consider my enemies; they are numerous,
and they hate me violently.

<sup>20</sup> Guard me and deliver me;
do not let me be put to shame,
for I take refuge in You.

<sup>21</sup> May integrity and what is right
watch over me,
for I wait for You.

<sup>22</sup> God, redeem Israel, from all its distresses.

Prayer for Vindication

26 Vindicate me, LORD,
because I have lived with integrity
and have trusted in the LORD without wavering.

2† Test me, LORD, and try me;
examine my heart and mind.

3 For Your faithful love is before my eyes,
and I live by Your truth.

4† I do not sit with the worthless
or associate with hypocrites.

5 I hate a crowd of evildoers,
and I do not sit with the wicked.

6 I wash my hands in innocence and go around Your altar, LORD,

7 raising my voice in thanksgiving
and telling about Your wonderful works.

8 LORD, I love the house where You dwell,
the place where Your glory resides.

9† Do not destroy me along with sinners,
or my life along with men of bloodshed

10 in whose hands are evil schemes and whose right hands are filled with bribes.

11 But I live with integrity;
redeem me and be gracious to me.

12 My foot stands on level ground;
I will praise the LORD in the assemblies.

My Stronghold

27 The LORD is my light and my salvation — whom should I fear?

The LORD is the stronghold of my life —
of whom should I be afraid?

<sup>2</sup> When evildoers came against me to devour my flesh,
my foes and my enemies stumbled and fell.

<sup>3</sup> Though an army deploys against me,
my heart is not afraid;
though a war breaks out against me,
still I am confident.

<sup>4†</sup> I have asked one thing from the LORD;
it is what I desire:
to dwell in the house of the LORD
all the days of my life,
gazing on the beauty of the LORD
and seeking Him in His temple.

<sup>5</sup> For He will conceal me in His shelter
in the day of adversity;
He will hide me under the cover of His tent;
He will set me high on a rock.

<sup>6</sup> Then my head will be high above my enemies around me;
I will offer sacrifices in His tent with shouts of joy.
I will sing and make music to the LORD.

<sup>7</sup> LORD, hear my voice when I call;
be gracious to me and answer me.

<sup>8†</sup> My heart says this about You,
“You are to seek My face.”
LORD, I will seek Your face.

<sup>9</sup> Do not hide Your face from me;
do not turn Your servant away in anger.
You have been my helper;
do not leave me or abandon me,
God of my salvation.

<sup>10</sup> Even if my father and mother abandon me,

the LORD cares for me.

<sup>11</sup> Because of my adversaries,
show me Your way, LORD,
and lead me on a level path.

<sup>12</sup> Do not give me over to the will of my foes,
for false witnesses rise up against me,
breathing violence.

<sup>13</sup> I am certain that I will see the LORD's goodness
in the land of the living.

<sup>14</sup> Wait for the LORD;
be strong <sup>A</sup> and courageous.
Wait for the LORD.

Joy in the Morning

30 I will exalt You, LORD, because You have lifted me up

but there is joy in the morning.

<sup>6</sup> When I was secure, I said,
“I will never be shaken.”

<sup>7</sup> LORD, when You showed Your favor,
You made me stand like a strong mountain;
when You hid Your face, I was terrified.

<sup>8</sup> LORD, I called to You;
I sought favor from my Lord:

<sup>6</sup> I hate those who are devoted to worthless idols,
but I trust in the LORD.

<sup>7</sup> I will rejoice and be glad in Your faithful love because You have seen my affliction.
You have known the troubles of my life

<sup>8</sup> and have not handed me over to the enemy.
You have set my feet in a spacious place.

<sup>9</sup> Be gracious to me, LORD,
because I am in distress;
my eyes are worn out from angry sorrow —
my whole being <sup>B</sup> as well.

<sup>10</sup> Indeed, my life is consumed with grief
and my years with groaning;
my strength has failed
because of my sinfulness,
and my bones waste away.

<sup>11</sup> I am ridiculed by all my adversaries
and even by my neighbors.
I am dreaded by my acquaintances;
those who see me in the street run from me.

<sup>12</sup> I am forgotten: gone from memory
like a dead person — like broken pottery.

<sup>13</sup> I have heard the gossip of many;
terror is on every side.

When they conspired against me,
they plotted to take my life.

<sup>14</sup> But I trust in You, LORD;
I say, “You are my God.”

<sup>15</sup> The course of my life is in Your power;
deliver me from the power of my enemies
and from my persecutors.

<sup>16</sup> Show Your favor to Your servant;
save me by Your faithful love.

<sup>17</sup> LORD, do not let me be disgraced when I call on You.
Let the wicked be disgraced;
let them be silent in •Sheol.

<sup>18</sup> Let lying lips be quieted;
they speak arrogantly against the righteous
with pride and contempt.

<sup>19</sup> How great is Your goodness

from quarrelsome tongues.

<sup>21</sup> May the LORD be praised,
for He has wonderfully shown His faithful love to me
in a city under siege. <sup>E</sup>

<sup>22</sup> In my alarm I had said,
“I am cut off from Your sight.”
But You heard the sound of my pleading
when I cried to You for help.

<sup>23</sup> Love the LORD, all His faithful ones.

<sup>7</sup> He gathers the waters of the sea into a heap;
He puts the depths into storehouses.

<sup>8</sup> Let the whole earth tremble before the LORD;
let all the inhabitants of the world stand in awe of Him.

<sup>9</sup> For He spoke, and it came into being;
He commanded, and it came into existence.

<sup>10</sup> The LORD frustrates the counsel of the nations;
He thwarts the plans of the peoples.

<sup>11</sup> The counsel of the LORD stands forever,
the plans of His heart from generation to generation.

the people He has chosen to be His own possession!

<sup>13</sup> The LORD looks down from heaven;
He observes everyone.

<sup>14</sup> He gazes on all the inhabitants of the earth

<sup>12</sup> Who is the man who delights in life, loving a long life to enjoy what is good?

<sup>13</sup> Keep your tongue from evil
and your lips from deceitful speech.

<sup>14</sup> Turn away from evil and do what is good;
seek peace and pursue it.

<sup>15</sup> The eyes of the LORD are on the righteous, and His ears are open to their cry for help.

<sup>16</sup> The face of the LORD is set against those who do what is evil,

to erase <sup>A</sup> all memory of them from the earth.

and come to my aid.

<sup>3</sup> Draw the spear and javelin against my pursuers,
and assure me: “I am your deliverance.”

<sup>4</sup> Let those who seek to kill me

let those who plan to harm me
be turned back and ashamed.

<sup>5</sup> Let them be like chaff in the wind,
with the angel of the LORD driving them away.

<sup>6</sup> Let their way be dark and slippery,
with the angel of the LORD pursuing them.

<sup>7</sup> They hid their net for me without cause;
they dug a pit for me without cause.

<sup>8</sup> Let ruin come on him unexpectedly,
and let the net that he hid ensnare him;
let him fall into it — to his ruin.

<sup>9</sup> Then I will rejoice in the LORD;
I will delight in His deliverance.

<sup>10</sup> My very bones will say,
“LORD, who is like You,
rescuing the poor from one too strong for him,
the poor or the needy from one who robs him? ”

<sup>11</sup> Malicious witnesses come forward;
they question me about things I do not know.

<sup>12</sup> They repay me evil for good,
making me desolate.

<sup>13</sup> Yet when they were sick,
my clothing was •sackcloth;
I humbled myself with fasting,
and my prayer was genuine. <sup>A</sup>,

<sup>14</sup> I went about grieving as if for my friend or brother;

I was bowed down with grief,
like one mourning a mother.

<sup>15</sup> But when I stumbled, they gathered in glee;
they gathered against me.

Assailants I did not know tore at me and did not stop.

<sup>16</sup> With godless mockery <sup>B</sup>
they gnashed their teeth at me.

<sup>17</sup> Lord, how long will You look on?
Rescue my life from their ravages,
my only one from the young lions.

<sup>18</sup> I will praise You in the great congregation;
I will exalt You among many people.

<sup>19</sup> Do not let my deceitful enemies rejoice over me;
do not let those who hate me without cause
look at me maliciously.

<sup>20</sup> For they do not speak in friendly ways, but contrive deceitful schemes <sup>C</sup> against those who live peacefully in the land.

<sup>21</sup> They open their mouths wide against me and say, “Aha, aha! We saw it!” <sup>D</sup>

<sup>22</sup> You saw it, LORD; do not be silent.
Lord, do not be far from me.

<sup>23</sup> Wake up and rise to my defense,
to my cause, my God and my LORD!

<sup>24</sup> Vindicate me, LORD my God,
in keeping with Your righteousness,
and do not let them rejoice over me.

<sup>25</sup> Do not let them say in their hearts,
“Aha! Just what we wanted.”

Do not let them say,
“We have swallowed him up!”

<sup>26</sup> Let those who rejoice at my misfortune be disgraced and humiliated;

let those who exalt themselves over me
be clothed with shame and reproach.

<sup>27</sup> Let those who want my vindication shout for joy and be glad;
let them continually say,
“The LORD be exalted.
He takes pleasure in His servant’s well-being.”
<sup>28</sup> And my tongue will proclaim Your righteousness,
Your praise all day long.

Human Wickedness and God's Love

36 † An •oracle within my heart concerning the transgression of the wicked person:
There is no dread of God before his eyes,
2 for in his own eyes he flatters himself too much to discover and hate his sin.
3 The words of his mouth are malicious and deceptive;
he has stopped acting wisely and doing good.
4 Even on his bed he makes malicious plans.
He sets himself on a path that is not good
and does not reject evil.
5 LORD, Your faithful love reaches to heaven,
Your faithfulness to the clouds.
6 Your righteousness is like the highest mountains;
Your judgments, like the deepest sea.
LORD, You preserve man and beast.
7† God, Your faithful love is so valuable that •people take refuge in the shadow of Your wings.
8 They are filled from the abundance of Your house;
You let them drink from Your refreshing stream,
9 for with You is life's fountain.
In Your light we will see light.
10 Spread Your faithful love over those who know You,
and Your righteousness over the upright in heart.
11 Do not let the foot of the arrogant man come near me or the hand of the wicked one drive me away.
12 There the evildoers fall;
they have been thrown down and cannot rise.

Instruction in Wisdom

37 † Do not be agitated by evildoers;
do not envy those who do wrong.

<sup>2</sup> For they wither quickly like grass
and wilt like tender green plants.

<sup>3</sup> Trust in the LORD and do what is good;
dwell in the land and live securely. <sup>A</sup>

and He will give you your heart's desires.

<sup>5</sup> Commit your way to the LORD;
trust in Him, and He will act,

<sup>6</sup> making your righteousness shine like the dawn,
your justice like the noonday.

<sup>7</sup> Be silent before the LORD and wait expectantly for Him;
do not be agitated by one who prospers in his way,
by the man who carries out evil plans.

<sup>8</sup> Refrain from anger and give up your rage;
do not be agitated — it can only bring harm.

<sup>9</sup> For evildoers will be destroyed,
but those who put their hope in the LORD will inherit the land. <sup>B</sup>

<sup>10</sup> A little while, and the wicked person will be no more;
though you look for him, he will not be there.

<sup>11</sup> But the humble will inherit the land <sup>C</sup>
and will enjoy abundant prosperity.

<sup>12</sup> The wicked person schemes against the righteous and gnashes his teeth at him.

<sup>13</sup> The Lord laughs at him
because He sees that his day is coming.

<sup>14</sup> The wicked have drawn the sword and strung the <sup>D</sup> bow
to bring down the afflicted and needy
and to slaughter those whose way is upright.

15 Their swords will enter their own hearts,
and their bows will be broken.

16 The little that the righteous man has is better than the abundance of many wicked people.

17 For the arms <sup>E</sup> of the wicked will be broken,
but the LORD supports the righteous.

18 The LORD watches over the blameless all their days,
and their inheritance will last forever.

19 They will not be disgraced in times of adversity;
they will be satisfied in days of hunger.

20 But the wicked will perish;
the LORD's enemies, like the glory of the pastures,
will fade away —
they will fade away like smoke.

21 The wicked man borrows and does not repay,
but the righteous one is gracious and giving.

22 Those who are blessed by Him will inherit the land, <sup>F</sup>
but those cursed by Him will be destroyed.

23 A man's steps are established by the LORD,
and He takes pleasure in his way.

24 Though he falls, he will not be overwhelmed, because the LORD holds his hand. <sup>G</sup>

25† I have been young and now I am old,
yet I have not seen the righteous abandoned
or his children begging for bread.

26 He is always generous, always lending,
and his children are a blessing.

27 Turn away from evil and do what is good,
and dwell there forever.

28 For the LORD loves justice and will not abandon His faithful ones.
They are kept safe forever,

but the children of the wicked will be destroyed.

<sup>29</sup> The righteous will inherit the land <sup>H</sup>
and dwell in it permanently.

<sup>30</sup> The mouth of the righteous utters wisdom;
his tongue speaks what is just.

<sup>31</sup> The instruction of his God is in his heart;
his steps do not falter.

<sup>32</sup> The wicked one lies in wait for the righteous and seeks to kill him;

<sup>33</sup> the LORD will not leave him in the power of the wicked one or allow him to be condemned when he is judged.

<sup>34</sup> Wait for the LORD and keep His way,
and He will exalt you to inherit the land.
You will watch when the wicked are destroyed.

<sup>35</sup> I have seen a wicked, violent man
well-rooted <sup>I</sup> like a flourishing native tree.

<sup>36</sup> Then I passed by and noticed he was gone;
I searched for him, but he could not be found.

<sup>37</sup> Watch the blameless and observe the upright,
for the man of peace will have a future. <sup>J</sup>,

<sup>38</sup> But transgressors will all be eliminated;
the future <sup>K</sup> of the wicked will be destroyed.

<sup>39</sup> The salvation of the righteous is from the LORD,
their refuge in a time of distress.

<sup>40</sup> The LORD helps and delivers them;
He will deliver them from the wicked and will save them
because they take refuge in Him.

Prayer of a Suffering Sinner

38 LORD, do not punish me in Your anger or discipline me in Your wrath.

<sup>2</sup> For Your arrows have sunk into me,
and Your hand has pressed down on me.

<sup>3</sup> There is no health in my body
because of Your indignation;
there is no strength <sup>A</sup> in my bones
because of my sin.

<sup>4</sup> For my sins have flooded over my head;
they are a burden too heavy for me to bear.

<sup>5</sup> My wounds are foul and festering because of my foolishness.

<sup>6</sup> I am bent over and brought low;
all day long I go around in mourning.

<sup>7</sup> For my loins are full of burning pain,
and there is no health in my body.

<sup>8</sup> I am faint and severely crushed;
I groan because of the anguish of my heart.

my sighing is not hidden from You.

<sup>10</sup> My heart races, my strength leaves me, and even the light of my eyes has faded. <sup>C</sup>

<sup>11</sup> My loved ones and friends stand back from my affliction, and my relatives stand at a distance.

<sup>12</sup> Those who seek my life set traps,
and those who want to harm me threaten to destroy me;
they plot treachery all day long.

<sup>13</sup> I am like a deaf person; I do not hear.
I am like a speechless person who does not open his mouth.

<sup>14</sup> I am like a man who does not hear
and has no arguments in his mouth.

<sup>15</sup> I put my hope in You, LORD;

You will answer, Lord my God.

<sup>16</sup> For I said, “Don’t let them rejoice over me —
those who are arrogant toward me when I stumble.”

<sup>17</sup> For I am about to fall,
and my pain is constantly with me.

<sup>18</sup> So I confess my •guilt;
I am anxious because of my sin.

<sup>19</sup> But my enemies are vigorous and powerful; <sup>D</sup>
many hate me for no reason.

<sup>20</sup> Those who repay evil for good attack me for pursuing good.

<sup>21</sup> LORD, do not abandon me;
my God, do not be far from me.

<sup>22</sup> Hurry to help me,
Lord, my Savior.

The Fleeting Nature of Life

39 I said, “I will guard my ways
so that I may not sin with my tongue;
I will guard my mouth with a muzzle
as long as the wicked are in my presence.”

<sup>2</sup> I was speechless and quiet;
I kept silent, even from speaking good,
and my pain intensified.

<sup>3</sup> My heart grew hot within me;
as I mused, a fire burned.
I spoke with my tongue:

<sup>4</sup> “LORD, reveal to me the end of my life and the number of my days.
Let me know how short-lived I am.

<sup>5</sup> You, indeed, have made my days short in length, and my life span as nothing in Your sight.
Yes, every mortal man is only a vapor.

•Selah

<sup>6</sup> “Certainly, man walks about like a mere shadow.
Indeed, they frantically rush around in vain,
gathering possessions
without knowing who will get them.

My hope is in You.

<sup>8</sup> Deliver me from all my transgressions;
do not make me the taunt of fools.

<sup>9</sup> I am speechless; I do not open my mouth
because of what You have done.

<sup>10</sup> Remove Your torment from me;
I fade away because of the force of Your hand.

<sup>11</sup> You discipline a man with punishment for sin,
consuming like a moth what is precious to him;
every man is only a vapor.

<sup>12</sup> “Hear my prayer, LORD,

and listen to my cry for help;
do not be silent at my tears.
For I am a foreigner residing with You,
a temporary resident like all my fathers.
<sup>13</sup> Turn Your angry gaze from me
so that I may be cheered up before I die and am gone.”

Thanksgiving and a Cry for Help

40 I waited patiently for the LORD, and He turned to me and heard my cry for help.

<sup>2</sup> He brought me up from a desolate <sup>A</sup> pit,
out of the muddy clay,
and set my feet on a rock,
making my steps secure.

<sup>3</sup> He put a new song in my mouth,
a hymn of praise to our God.
Many will see and fear and put their trust in the LORD.

<sup>4</sup> How happy is the man who has put his trust in the LORD and has not turned to the proud or to those who run after lies!

<sup>5</sup> LORD my God, You have done many things —
Your wonderful works and Your plans for us;
none can compare with You.
If I were to report and speak of them,
they are more than can be told.

<sup>6†</sup> You do not delight in sacrifice and offering;
You open my ears to listen. <sup>B</sup>
You do not ask for a whole •burnt offering or a •sin offering.

<sup>7</sup> Then I said, “See, I have come;
it is written about me in the volume of the scroll.

<sup>8</sup> I delight to do Your will, my God;
Your instruction lives within me.” <sup>C</sup>

<sup>9</sup> I proclaim righteousness in the great assembly;
see, I do not keep my mouth closed <sup>D</sup> —
as You know, LORD.

<sup>10</sup> I did not hide Your righteousness in my heart;
I spoke about Your faithfulness and salvation;
I did not conceal Your constant love and truth
from the great assembly.

<sup>11</sup> LORD, do not withhold Your compassion from me;
Your constant love and truth will always guard me.

<sup>12</sup> For troubles without number have surrounded me;
my sins have overtaken me; I am unable to see.
They are more than the hairs of my head,
and my courage leaves me.

<sup>13</sup> LORD, be pleased to deliver me;
hurry to help me, LORD.

<sup>14</sup> Let those who seek to take my life
be disgraced and confounded.
Let those who wish me harm
be driven back and humiliated.

<sup>15</sup> Let those who say to me, "Aha, aha!"
be horrified because of their shame.

<sup>16</sup> Let all who seek You rejoice and be glad in You;
let those who love Your salvation continually say,
"The LORD is great!"

<sup>17</sup> I am afflicted and needy;
the Lord thinks of me.
You are my helper and my deliverer;
my God, do not delay.

You will not give him over to the desire of his enemies.

<sup>3</sup> The LORD will sustain him on his sickbed;
You will heal him on the bed where he lies.

<sup>4</sup> I said, "LORD, be gracious to me;
heal me, for I have sinned against You."

<sup>5</sup> My enemies speak maliciously about me:
"When will he die and be forgotten? "

<sup>6</sup> When one of them comes to visit, he speaks deceitfully;
he stores up evil in his heart;
he goes out and talks.

<sup>7</sup> All who hate me whisper together about me;
they plan to harm me.

<sup>8</sup> "Lethal poison has been poured into him, and he won't rise again from where he lies! "

one who ate my bread,
has raised his heel against me.

<sup>10</sup> But You, LORD, be gracious to me and raise me up;
then I will repay them.

<sup>11</sup> By this I know that You delight in me:
my enemy does not shout in triumph over me.

<sup>12</sup> You supported me because of my integrity and set me in Your presence forever.

<sup>13†</sup> May •Yahweh, the God of Israel, be praised
from everlasting to everlasting.

•Amen and amen.

BOOK II

(Psalms 42–72)

Longing for God

42 As a deer longs for streams of water,
so I long for You, God.

<sup>2†</sup> I thirst for God, the living God.

When can I come and appear before God?

<sup>3</sup> My tears have been my food day and night,
while all day long people say to me,
“Where is your God? ”

<sup>4</sup> I remember this as I pour out my heart:
how I walked with many,
leading the festive procession to the house of God,
with joyful and thankful shouts.

<sup>5†</sup> Why am I so depressed?
Why this turmoil within me?
Put your hope in God, for I will still praise Him,
my Savior and my God.

<sup>6†</sup> I am deeply depressed;
therefore I remember You from the land of Jordan
and the peaks of Hermon, from Mount Mizar.

<sup>7</sup> Deep calls to deep in the roar of Your waterfalls;
all Your breakers and Your billows have swept over me.

<sup>8</sup> The LORD will send His faithful love by day;
His song will be with me in the night —
a prayer to the God of my life.

<sup>9</sup> I will say to God, my rock,
“Why have You forgotten me?
Why must I go about in sorrow
because of the enemy’s oppression? ”

<sup>10</sup> My adversaries taunt me,
as if crushing my bones,
while all day long they say to me,
“Where is your God? ”

<sup>11</sup> Why am I so depressed?
Why this turmoil within me?
Put your hope in God, for I will still praise Him,
my Savior and my God.

Israel's Complaint

44 God, we have heard with our ears —
our ancestors have told us —
the work You accomplished in their days,
in days long ago:
<sup>2</sup> to plant them,
You drove out the nations with Your hand;
to settle them,
You crushed the peoples.
<sup>3</sup> For they did not take the land by their sword —
their arm did not bring them victory —
but by Your right hand, Your arm,
and the light of Your face,
for You were pleased with them.
<sup>4</sup> You are my King, my God,
who ordains victories for Jacob.
<sup>5</sup> Through You we drive back our foes;
through Your name we trample our enemies.
<sup>6</sup> For I do not trust in my bow,
and my sword does not bring me victory.
<sup>7</sup> But You give us victory over our foes
and let those who hate us be disgraced.
<sup>8</sup> We boast in God all day long;
we will praise Your name forever.

•Selah

<sup>9</sup> But You have rejected and humiliated us;
You do not march out with our armies.
<sup>10</sup> You make us retreat from the foe,
and those who hate us
have taken plunder for themselves.
<sup>11</sup> You hand us over to be eaten like sheep
and scatter us among the nations.
<sup>12</sup> You sell Your people for nothing;
You make no profit from selling them.
<sup>13</sup> You make us an object of reproach to our neighbors,

a source of mockery and ridicule to those around us.

<sup>14</sup> You make us a joke among the nations,
a laughingstock <sup>A</sup> among the peoples.

<sup>15</sup> My disgrace is before me all day long,
and shame has covered my face,

<sup>16</sup> because of the voice of the scorner and reviler,
because of the enemy and avenger.

<sup>17</sup> All this has happened to us,
but we have not forgotten You or betrayed Your covenant.

<sup>18</sup> Our hearts have not turned back;
our steps have not strayed from Your path.

<sup>19</sup> But You have crushed us in a haunt of jackals and have covered us with deepest darkness.

<sup>20†</sup> If we had forgotten the name of our God
and spread out our hands to a foreign god,

<sup>21</sup> wouldn't God have found this out,
since He knows the secrets of the heart?

<sup>22</sup> Because of You we are slain all day long;
we are counted as sheep to be slaughtered.

<sup>23†</sup> Wake up, LORD! Why are You sleeping?
Get up! Don't reject us forever!

<sup>24</sup> Why do You hide Yourself
and forget our affliction and oppression?

<sup>25</sup> For we have sunk down to the dust;
our bodies cling to the ground.

Redeem us because of Your faithful love.

grace flows from your lips.

Therefore God has blessed you forever.

<sup>3</sup> Mighty warrior, strap your sword at your side.
In your majesty and splendor —

will seek your favor with gifts.

<sup>13</sup> In her chamber, the royal daughter is all glorious,
her clothing embroidered with gold.

<sup>14</sup> In colorful garments she is led to the king;
after her, the virgins, her companions, are brought to you.

<sup>15</sup> They are led in with gladness and rejoicing;
they enter the king's palace.

Misplaced Trust in Wealth

49 Hear this, all you peoples;
listen, all who inhabit the world,

<sup>2</sup> both low and high, <sup>A</sup>
rich and poor together.

<sup>3</sup> My mouth speaks wisdom;
my heart's meditation brings understanding.

<sup>4</sup> I turn my ear to a proverb;
I explain my riddle with a lyre.

<sup>5</sup> Why should I fear in times of trouble?
The iniquity of my foes surrounds me.

<sup>6</sup> They trust in their wealth
and boast of their abundant riches.

<sup>7†</sup> Yet these cannot redeem a person <sup>B</sup>
or pay his ransom to God —

<sup>8</sup> since the price of redeeming him is too costly, one should forever stop trying <sup>C</sup>, —

<sup>9</sup> so that he may live forever and not see the •Pit.

<sup>10</sup> For one can see that wise men die;
foolish and stupid men also pass away.
Then they leave their wealth to others.

<sup>11</sup> Their graves are their eternal homes,
their homes from generation to generation,
though they have named estates after themselves.

he is like the animals that perish.

<sup>13</sup> This is the way of those who are arrogant,
and of their followers,
who approve of their words. <sup>E</sup>

<sup>15</sup> But God will redeem my life
from the power of Sheol,
for He will take me.

<sup>16</sup> Do not be afraid when a man gets rich,

God as Judge

50 •Yahweh, the God of gods <sup>A</sup> speaks;
He summons the earth from east to west. <sup>B</sup>, <sup>2</sup> From •Zion, the perfection of beauty, God appears in radiance. <sup>C</sup>
<sup>3</sup> Our God is coming; He will not be silent!
Devouring fire precedes Him,
and a storm rages around Him.
<sup>4</sup> On high, He summons heaven and earth
in order to judge His people.
<sup>5</sup> “Gather My faithful ones to Me,
those who made a covenant with Me by sacrifice.”
<sup>6</sup> The heavens proclaim His righteousness,
for God is the Judge.

•Selah

<sup>7†</sup> “Listen, My people, and I will speak;
I will testify against you, Israel.
I am God, your God.
<sup>8</sup> I do not rebuke you for your sacrifices or for your •burnt offerings,
which are continually before Me.
<sup>9</sup> I will not accept a bull from your household or male goats from your pens, <sup>10</sup> for every animal of the forest is Mine,
the cattle on a thousand hills.
<sup>11</sup> I know every bird of the mountains,
and the creatures of the field are Mine.
<sup>12</sup> If I were hungry, I would not tell you,
for the world and everything in it is Mine.
<sup>13</sup> Do I eat the flesh of bulls

<sup>14</sup> Sacrifice a thank offering to God,
and pay your vows to the •Most High.
<sup>15</sup> Call on Me in a day of trouble;
I will rescue you, and you will honor Me.”

16† But God says to the wicked:
“What right do you have to recite My statutes and to take My covenant on your lips?
17 You hate instruction and turn your back on My words. <sup>D</sup> 18 When you see a thief,
you make friends with him,
and you associate with adulterers.
19 You unleash your mouth for evil
and harness your tongue for deceit.
20 You sit, maligning your brother,
slandering your mother’s son.
21 You have done these things, and I kept silent;
you thought I was just like you.
But I will rebuke you and lay out the case before you. <sup>E</sup> 22† “Understand this, you who forget God,
or I will tear you apart,
and there will be no one to rescue you.

and whoever orders his conduct,
I will show him the salvation of God.”

A Prayer for Restoration

51 Be gracious to me, God,
according to Your faithful love;
according to Your abundant compassion,
blot out my rebellion.

<sup>2</sup> Wash away my •guilt
and cleanse me from my sin.

<sup>3</sup> For I am conscious of my rebellion,
and my sin is always before me.

<sup>4†</sup> Against You — You alone — I have sinned
and done this evil in Your sight.
So You are right when You pass sentence;
You are blameless when You judge.

<sup>5†</sup> Indeed, I was guilty when I was born;
I was sinful when my mother conceived me.

<sup>6</sup> Surely You desire integrity in the inner self,
and You teach me wisdom deep within.

<sup>7</sup> Purify me with hyssop, and I will be •clean;
wash me, and I will be whiter than snow.

<sup>8†</sup> Let me hear joy and gladness;
let the bones You have crushed rejoice.

<sup>9</sup> Turn Your face away <sup>A</sup> from my sins and blot out all my guilt.

<sup>10†</sup> God, create a clean heart for me and renew a steadfast <sup>B</sup> spirit within me.

<sup>11†</sup> Do not banish me from Your presence or take Your Holy Spirit from me.

<sup>12†</sup> Restore the joy of Your salvation to me, and give me a willing spirit. <sup>C</sup>

<sup>13</sup> Then I will teach the rebellious Your ways, and sinners will return to You.

<sup>14</sup> Save me from the guilt of bloodshed, God,
the God of my salvation,
and my tongue will sing of Your righteousness.

15† Lord, open my lips,
and my mouth will declare Your praise.

16† You do not want a sacrifice, or I would give it;
You are not pleased with a •burnt offering.

17 The sacrifice pleasing to God is <sup>D</sup> a broken spirit.
God, You will not despise a broken and humbled heart.

18† In Your good pleasure, cause •Zion to prosper;
build <sup>E</sup> the walls of Jerusalem.

19 Then You will delight in righteous sacrifices,
whole burnt offerings;
then bulls will be offered on Your altar.

God Judges the Proud

52 Why brag about evil, you hero!
God's faithful love is constant.

<sup>2</sup> Like a sharpened razor,
your tongue devises destruction,
working treachery.

<sup>3</sup> You love evil instead of good,
lying instead of speaking truthfully.

•Selah

<sup>4</sup> You love any words that destroy,
you treacherous tongue!

<sup>5</sup> This is why God will bring you down forever.
He will take you, ripping you out of your tent;
He will uproot you from the land of the living.

<sup>6</sup> The righteous will look on with awe
and will ridicule him:

<sup>7</sup> "Here is the man

but trusted in the abundance of his riches,
taking refuge in his destructive behavior." <sup>A</sup>

<sup>8</sup> But I am like a flourishing olive tree

God's Majestic Power

68 † God arises. His enemies scatter, and those who hate Him flee from His presence.

<sup>2</sup> As smoke is blown away,
so You blow them away.
As wax melts before the fire,
so the wicked are destroyed before God.

<sup>3</sup> But the righteous are glad;
they rejoice before God and celebrate with joy.

<sup>4†</sup> Sing to God! Sing praises to His name.
Exalt Him who rides on the clouds <sup>A</sup> —
His name is •Yahweh <sup>B</sup> — and rejoice before Him.

<sup>5</sup> God in His holy dwelling is a father of the fatherless
and a champion of widows.

<sup>6</sup> God provides homes for those who are deserted.
He leads out the prisoners to prosperity, <sup>C</sup>
but the rebellious live in a scorched land.

<sup>7†</sup> God, when You went out before Your people,
when You marched through the desert,

•Selah

<sup>8</sup> the earth trembled and the skies poured down rain before God, the God of Sinai, <sup>D</sup>
before God, the God of Israel.

<sup>9</sup> You, God, showered abundant rain;
You revived Your inheritance when it languished.

<sup>10</sup> Your people settled in it;
God, You provided for the poor by Your goodness.

<sup>11†</sup> The Lord gave the command;
a great company of women brought the good news:

<sup>12</sup> “The kings of the armies flee — they flee! ”
She who stays at home divides the spoil.

<sup>13†</sup> While <sup>E</sup> you lie among the sheepfolds, <sup>F</sup>

the wings of a dove are covered with silver,
and its feathers with glistening gold.

<sup>14</sup> When the •Almighty scattered kings in the land, it snowed on Zalmon. <sup>G</sup>

Mount Bashan is a mountain of many peaks.

<sup>16†</sup> Why gaze with envy, you mountain peaks,
at the mountain God desired for His dwelling?
The LORD will live there forever!

<sup>17†</sup> God's chariots are tens of thousands,
thousands and thousands;
the Lord is among them in the sanctuary <sup>H</sup>
as He was at Sinai.

<sup>18†</sup> You ascended to the heights, taking away captives;
You received gifts from <sup>I</sup> people,
even from the rebellious,
so that the LORD God might live there. <sup>J</sup>

<sup>19</sup> May the Lord be praised!
Day after day He bears our burdens;
God is our salvation.

Selah

<sup>20</sup> Our God is a God of salvation, and escape from death belongs to the Lord GOD.

<sup>21</sup> Surely God crushes the heads of His enemies,
the hairy head of one who goes on in his •guilty acts.

<sup>22</sup> The Lord said, "I will bring them back from Bashan;
I will bring them back from the depths of the sea

<sup>23</sup> so that your foot may wade in blood and your dogs' tongues may have their share
from the enemies."

<sup>24</sup> People have seen Your procession, God,
the procession of my God,
my King, in the sanctuary. <sup>K</sup>,

<sup>25</sup> Singers lead the way,
with musicians following;
among them are young women
playing tambourines.

<sup>26</sup> Praise God in the assemblies; praise the LORD from the fountain of Israel.

the rulers of Judah in their assembly, <sup>L</sup>
the rulers of Zebulun, the rulers of Naphtali.

<sup>28</sup> Your God has decreed your strength.
Show Your strength, God,
You who have acted on our behalf.

<sup>29</sup> Because of Your temple at Jerusalem, kings will bring tribute to You.

<sup>30</sup> Rebuke the beast in the reeds,
the herd of bulls with the calves of the peoples.
Trample underfoot those with bars of silver. <sup>M</sup>
Scatter the peoples who take pleasure in war.

•Cush will stretch out its hands to God.

<sup>32</sup> Sing to God, you kingdoms of the earth;
sing praise to the Lord,

<sup>33</sup> to Him who rides in the ancient, highest heavens.
Look, He thunders with His powerful voice!

His majesty is over Israel,

<sup>35</sup> God, You are awe-inspiring in Your sanctuaries.
The God of Israel gives power and strength to His people.
May God be praised!

A Plea for Rescue

69 Save me, God,
for the water has risen to my neck.

<sup>2†</sup> I have sunk in deep mud, and there is no footing;
I have come into deep waters,
and a flood sweeps over me.

<sup>3</sup> I am weary from my crying;
my throat is parched.
My eyes fail, looking for my God.

<sup>4</sup> Those who hate me without cause
are more numerous than the hairs of my head;
my deceitful enemies, who would destroy me,
are powerful.
Though I did not steal, I must repay.

<sup>5</sup> God, You know my foolishness,
and my •guilty acts are not hidden from You.

<sup>6</sup> Do not let those who put their hope in You be disgraced because of me,
Lord GOD of •Hosts;
do not let those who seek You
be humiliated because of me,
God of Israel.

<sup>7</sup> For I have endured insults because of You,
and shame has covered my face.

<sup>8</sup> I have become a stranger to my brothers and a foreigner to my mother's sons

<sup>9</sup> because zeal for Your house has consumed me, and the insults of those who insult You have fallen on me.

<sup>10</sup> I mourned and fasted,
but it brought me insults.

<sup>11</sup> I wore •sackcloth as my clothing,
and I was a joke to them.

<sup>12†</sup> Those who sit at the city •gate talk about me,
and drunkards make up songs about me.

<sup>13</sup> But as for me, LORD,
my prayer to You is for a time of favor.
In Your abundant, faithful love, God,
answer me with Your sure salvation.

<sup>14</sup> Rescue me from the miry mud; don't let me sink.
Let me be rescued from those who hate me
and from the deep waters.

<sup>15</sup> Don't let the floodwaters sweep over me
or the deep swallow me up;
don't let the •Pit close its mouth over me.

<sup>16</sup> Answer me, LORD,
for Your faithful love is good;
in keeping with Your great compassion,
turn to me.

<sup>17</sup> Don't hide Your face from Your servant,
for I am in distress.
Answer me quickly!

<sup>18</sup> Draw near to me and redeem me;
ransom me because of my enemies.

my shame and disgrace.
You are aware of all my adversaries.

<sup>20</sup> Insults have broken my heart,
and I am in despair.
I waited for sympathy,
but there was none;
for comforters, but found no one.

<sup>21†</sup> Instead, they gave me gall for my food,
and for my thirst
they gave me vinegar to drink.

<sup>22†</sup> Let their table set before them be a snare,
and let it be a trap for their allies.

<sup>23</sup> Let their eyes grow too dim to see,
and let their loins continually shake.

<sup>24</sup> Pour out Your rage on them,
and let Your burning anger overtake them.

<sup>25</sup> Make their fortification desolate;
may no one live in their tents.

<sup>26</sup> For they persecute the one You struck and talk about the pain of those You wounded.

<sup>27</sup> Add guilt to their guilt;
do not let them share in Your righteousness.

<sup>28</sup> Let them be erased from the book of life
and not be recorded with the righteous.

<sup>29</sup> But as for me — poor and in pain —
let Your salvation protect me, God.

<sup>30</sup> I will praise God's name with song and exalt Him with thanksgiving.

<sup>31</sup> That will please •Yahweh more than an ox,
more than a bull with horns and hooves.

<sup>32</sup> The humble will see it and rejoice.
You who seek God, take heart!

<sup>33</sup> For the LORD listens to the needy and does not despise
His own who are prisoners.

<sup>34</sup> Let heaven and earth praise Him,
the seas and everything that moves in them,

<sup>35</sup> for God will save •Zion
and build up <sup>A</sup> the cities of Judah.
They will live there and possess it.

<sup>36</sup> The descendants of His servants will inherit it,
and those who love His name will live in it.

let those who wish me harm
be driven back and humiliated.

<sup>3</sup> Let those who say, “Aha, aha!”
retreat because of their shame.

<sup>4</sup> Let all who seek You rejoice and be glad in You;
let those who love Your salvation continually say, “God is great!”

hurry to me, God.
You are my help and my deliverer;
LORD, do not delay.

God's Help in Old Age

71 LORD, I seek refuge in You;
let me never be disgraced.

<sup>2</sup> In Your justice, rescue and deliver me;
listen closely to me and save me.

<sup>3</sup> Be a rock of refuge for me,
where I can always go.

Give the command to save me,
for You are my rock and fortress.

<sup>4</sup> Deliver me, my God, from the power of the wicked,
from the grasp of the unjust and oppressive.

<sup>5</sup> For You are my hope, Lord GOD,
my confidence from my youth.

You took me from my mother's womb.
My praise is always about You.

<sup>7</sup> I have become an ominous sign to many,
but You are my strong refuge.

<sup>8</sup> My mouth is full of praise
and honor to You all day long.

<sup>9</sup> Don't discard me in my old age;
as my strength fails, do not abandon me.

<sup>10</sup> For my enemies talk about me,
and those who spy on me plot together,

<sup>11</sup> saying, "God has abandoned him;
chase him and catch him,
for there is no one to rescue him."

<sup>12</sup> God, do not be far from me;
my God, hurry to help me.

<sup>13</sup> May my adversaries be disgraced and destroyed;
may those who seek my harm
be covered with disgrace and humiliation.

<sup>14</sup> But I will hope continually and will praise You more and more.

<sup>15</sup> My mouth will tell about Your righteousness and Your salvation all day long,

though I cannot sum them up.

<sup>16</sup> I come because of the mighty acts of the Lord GOD;
I will proclaim Your righteousness, Yours alone.

<sup>17</sup> God, You have taught me from my youth,
and I still proclaim Your wonderful works.

<sup>18</sup> Even when I am old and gray,
God, do not abandon me.

Then I will <sup>A</sup> proclaim Your power
to another generation,
Your strength to all who are to come.

<sup>19</sup> Your righteousness reaches heaven, God,
You who have done great things;
God, who is like You?

<sup>20</sup> You caused me to experience
many troubles and misfortunes,
but You will revive me again.
You will bring me up again,
even from the depths of the earth.

<sup>21</sup> You will increase my honor
and comfort me once again.

<sup>22</sup> Therefore, I will praise You with a harp
for Your faithfulness, my God;
I will sing to You with a lyre,
Holy One of Israel.

<sup>23</sup> My lips will shout for joy
when I sing praise to You because You have redeemed me.

<sup>24</sup> Therefore, my tongue will proclaim
Your righteousness all day long,
for those who seek my harm
will be disgraced and confounded.

A Prayer for the King

72 God, give Your justice to the king and Your righteousness to the king's son.

<sup>2</sup> He will judge Your people with righteousness and Your afflicted ones with justice.

<sup>3</sup> May the mountains bring prosperity <sup>A</sup> to the people and the hills, righteousness.

<sup>4†</sup> May he vindicate the afflicted among the people,
help the poor,
and crush the oppressor.

<sup>5</sup> May he continue while the sun endures
and as long as the moon, throughout all generations.

<sup>6</sup> May he be like rain that falls on the cut grass,
like spring showers that water the earth.

<sup>7</sup> May the righteous flourish in his days
and prosperity <sup>B</sup> abound
until the moon is no more.

<sup>8</sup> May he rule from sea to sea and from the Euphrates
to the ends of the earth.

<sup>9</sup> May desert tribes kneel before him and his enemies lick the dust.

<sup>10</sup> May the kings of Tarshish
and the coasts and islands bring tribute,
the kings of Sheba and Seba offer gifts.

<sup>11</sup> Let all kings bow down to him,
all nations serve him.

<sup>12</sup> For he will rescue the poor who cry out and the afflicted who have no helper.

<sup>13</sup> He will have pity on the poor and helpless and save the lives of the poor.

<sup>14</sup> He will redeem them from oppression and violence,
for their lives are <sup>C</sup> precious <sup>D</sup> in his sight.

<sup>15</sup> May he live long!

May gold from Sheba be given to him.
May prayer be offered for him continually,
and may he be blessed all day long.

<sup>16</sup> May there be plenty of grain in the land;
may it wave on the tops of the mountains.

May its crops be like Lebanon.

May people flourish in the cities
like the grass of the field.

<sup>17</sup> May his name endure forever;
as long as the sun shines,
may his fame increase.

May all nations be blessed by him
and call him blessed.

<sup>18†</sup> May the LORD God, the God of Israel, who alone does wonders, be praised.

<sup>19</sup> May His glorious name be praised forever;
the whole earth is filled with His glory.

•Amen and amen.

BOOK III

(Psalms 73–89)

God's Ways Vindicated

73 God is indeed good to Israel,
to the pure in heart.

<sup>2</sup> But as for me, my feet almost slipped;
my steps nearly went astray.

<sup>3</sup> For I envied the arrogant;
I saw the prosperity of the wicked.

<sup>4</sup> They have an easy time until they die, <sup>A</sup>
and their bodies are well fed. <sup>B</sup>,

<sup>5</sup> They are not in trouble like others;
they are not afflicted like most people.

<sup>6</sup> Therefore, pride is their necklace,
and violence covers them like a garment.

<sup>7</sup> Their eyes bulge out from fatness;
the imaginations of their hearts run wild.

<sup>8</sup> They mock, and they speak maliciously;
they arrogantly threaten oppression.

<sup>9</sup> They set their mouths against heaven,
and their tongues strut across the earth.

and drink in their overflowing words. <sup>D</sup>

Does the •Most High know everything?”

<sup>12</sup> Look at them — the wicked!
They are always at ease,
and they increase their wealth.

<sup>13</sup> Did I purify my heart and wash my hands in innocence for nothing?

<sup>14</sup> For I am afflicted all day long and punished every morning.

<sup>15</sup> If I had decided to say these things aloud,
I would have betrayed Your people. <sup>E</sup>

<sup>16</sup> When I tried to understand all this, it seemed hopeless <sup>F</sup>

17 until I entered God's sanctuary.
Then I understood their destiny.
18 Indeed, You put them in slippery places;
You make them fall into ruin.
19 How suddenly they become a desolation!
They come to an end, swept away by terrors.
20 Like one waking from a dream,
Lord, when arising, You will despise their image.
21 When I became embittered
and my innermost being <sup>G</sup> was wounded, 22 I was stupid and didn't understand;
I was an unthinking animal toward You.
23 Yet I am always with You;
You hold my right hand.
24† You guide me with Your counsel, and afterward You will take me up in glory. <sup>H</sup>, 25 Who do I have in heaven but You?
And I desire nothing on earth but You.
26 My flesh and my heart may fail,
but God is the strength <sup>I</sup> of my heart,
my portion forever.
27 Those far from You will certainly perish;
You destroy all who are unfaithful to You.
28 But as for me, God's presence is my good.
I have made the Lord GOD my refuge,
so I can tell about all You do.

Prayer for Israel

74 Why have You rejected us forever, God?
Why does Your anger burn
against the sheep of Your pasture?
2 Remember Your congregation, which You purchased long ago
and redeemed as the tribe for Your own possession.
Remember Mount •Zion where You dwell.
3 Make Your way <sup>A</sup> to the everlasting ruins,
to all that the enemy has destroyed in the sanctuary.
4 Your adversaries roared in the meeting place where You met with us. <sup>B</sup>
They set up their emblems as signs.
5 It was like men in a thicket of trees,
wielding axes,
6 then smashing all the carvings
with hatchets and picks.
7 They set Your sanctuary on fire;
they utterly <sup>C</sup> desecrated
the dwelling place of Your name.
8 They said in their hearts,
“Let us oppress them relentlessly.”
They burned down every place throughout the land where God met with us. <sup>D</sup>, 9 There are no signs for us to see.
There is no longer a prophet.
And none of us knows how long this will last.
10 God, how long will the enemy mock?
Will the foe insult Your name forever?
11 Why do You hold back Your hand?
Stretch out <sup>E</sup> Your right hand and destroy them!
12 God my King is from ancient times, performing saving acts on the earth.
13† You divided the sea with Your strength;
You smashed the heads of the sea monsters

in the waters;

<sup>14</sup> You crushed the heads of •Leviathan;
You fed him to the creatures of the desert.

<sup>15</sup> You opened up springs and streams;
You dried up ever-flowing rivers.

<sup>16</sup> The day is Yours, also the night;
You established the moon and the sun.

<sup>17</sup> You set all the boundaries of the earth;
You made summer and winter.

<sup>18</sup> Remember this: the enemy has mocked •Yahweh,
and a foolish people has insulted Your name.

<sup>19</sup> Do not give the life of Your dove to beasts;
do not forget the lives of Your poor people forever.

<sup>20</sup> Consider the covenant,
for the dark places of the land are full of violence.

<sup>21</sup> Do not let the oppressed turn away in shame;
let the poor and needy praise Your name.

Remember the insults
that fools bring against You all day long.

<sup>23</sup> Do not forget the clamor of Your adversaries, the tumult of Your opponents that goes up constantly.

God Judges the Wicked

75 We give thanks to You, God;
we give thanks to You, for Your name is near.

<sup>5†</sup> Do not lift up your horn against heaven or speak arrogantly.’ ”

<sup>6</sup> Exaltation does not come from the east, the west, or the desert,

<sup>7</sup> for God is the Judge:
He brings down one and exalts another.

<sup>8</sup> For there is a cup in the LORD’s hand, full of wine blended with spices, and He pours from it.
All the wicked of the earth will drink,
draining it to the dregs.

<sup>9</sup> As for me, I will tell about Him forever;
I will sing praise to the God of Jacob.

•Selah

<sup>4</sup> You are resplendent and majestic coming down from the mountains of prey.

<sup>5</sup> The brave-hearted have been plundered;
they have slipped into their final sleep.
None of the warriors was able to lift a hand.

<sup>6</sup> At Your rebuke, God of Jacob,
both chariot and horse lay still.

<sup>7</sup> And You — You are to be •feared. <sup>A</sup>
When You are angry,
who can stand before You?

<sup>8</sup> From heaven You pronounced judgment.
The earth feared and grew quiet

<sup>9</sup> when God rose up to judge and to save all the lowly of the earth.

<sup>10</sup> Even human wrath will praise You;
You will clothe Yourself

Confidence in a Time of Crisis

77 I cry aloud to God, aloud to God, and He will hear me.

<sup>2</sup> I sought the Lord in my day of trouble.
My hands were continually lifted up
all night long;
I refused to be comforted.
<sup>3</sup> I think of God; I groan;
I meditate; my spirit becomes weak.

•Selah

<sup>4</sup> You have kept me from closing my eyes;
I am troubled and cannot speak.
<sup>5</sup> I consider days of old,
years long past.
<sup>6</sup> At night I remember my music;
I meditate in my heart, and my spirit ponders.
<sup>7</sup> “Will the Lord reject forever
and never again show favor?
<sup>8</sup> Has His faithful love ceased forever?
Is His promise at an end for all generations?
<sup>9</sup> Has God forgotten to be gracious?
Has He in anger withheld His compassion? ”

Selah

<sup>10</sup> So I say, “I am grieved <sup>A</sup>
that the right hand of the •Most High has changed.”
<sup>11</sup> I will remember the LORD’s works;
yes, I will remember Your ancient wonders.
<sup>12</sup> I will reflect on all You have done and meditate on Your actions.
<sup>13</sup> God, Your way is holy.
What god is great like God?
<sup>14</sup> You are the God who works wonders;
You revealed Your strength among the peoples.

<sup>15</sup> With power You redeemed Your people,
the descendants of Jacob and Joseph.

<sup>16</sup> The waters saw You, God.
The waters saw You; they trembled.
Even the depths shook.

<sup>17</sup> The clouds poured down water.
The storm clouds thundered;
Your arrows flashed back and forth.

<sup>18</sup> The sound of Your thunder was in the whirlwind;
lightning lit up the world.
The earth shook and quaked.

<sup>19</sup> Your way went through the sea
and Your path through the great waters,
but Your footprints were unseen.

Lessons from Israel's Past

78 My people, hear my instruction;
listen to what I say.

<sup>2</sup> I will declare wise sayings;
I will speak mysteries from the past —

<sup>3</sup> things we have heard and known and that our fathers have passed down to us.

<sup>4</sup> We must not hide them from their children,
but must tell a future generation
the praises of the LORD,
His might, and the wonderful works
He has performed.

<sup>5</sup> He established a •testimony in Jacob and set up a law in Israel,
which He commanded our fathers
to teach to their children

<sup>6</sup> so that a future generation — children yet to be born — might know.
They were to rise and tell their children

<sup>7</sup> so that they might put their confidence in God and not forget God's works,
but keep His commands.

<sup>8</sup> Then they would not be like their fathers,
a stubborn and rebellious generation,
a generation whose heart was not loyal and whose spirit was not faithful to God.

<sup>9</sup> The Ephraimite archers turned back on the day of battle.

<sup>10</sup> They did not keep God's covenant
and refused to live by His law.

<sup>11</sup> They forgot what He had done,
the wonderful works He had shown them.

<sup>12</sup> He worked wonders in the sight of their fathers
in the land of Egypt, the region of Zoan.

<sup>13</sup> He split the sea and brought them across;
the water stood firm like a wall.

14 He led them with a cloud by day and with a fiery light throughout the night.

15 He split rocks in the wilderness
and gave them drink as abundant as the depths.

16 He brought streams out of the stone and made water flow down like rivers.

17 But they continued to sin against Him, rebellious in the desert against the •Most High.

18 They deliberately <sup>A</sup> tested God, demanding the food they craved.

19 They spoke against God, saying,
“Is God able to provide food in the wilderness?”

20 Look! He struck the rock and water gushed out;
torrents overflowed.
But can He also provide bread
or furnish meat for His people? ”

21 Therefore, the LORD heard and became furious;
then fire broke out against Jacob,
and anger flared up against Israel

22 because they did not believe God or rely on His salvation.

23 He gave a command to the clouds above
and opened the doors of heaven.

24 He rained manna for them to eat;
He gave them grain from heaven.

25 People <sup>B</sup> ate the bread of angels. <sup>C</sup>
He sent them an abundant supply of food.

26 He made the east wind blow in the skies and drove the south wind by His might.

27 He rained meat on them like dust,
and winged birds like the sand of the seas.

28 He made them fall in His camp,
all around His tent. ,

29 They ate and were completely satisfied,

for He gave them what they craved.

<sup>30</sup> Before they had satisfied their desire,
while the food was still in their mouths,

<sup>31</sup> God's anger flared up against them,
and He killed some of their best men.
He struck down Israel's choice young men.

<sup>32</sup> Despite all this, they kept sinning
and did not believe His wonderful works.

<sup>33</sup> He made their days end in futility,
their years in sudden disaster.

<sup>34</sup> When He killed some of them,
the rest began to seek Him;
they repented and searched for God.

<sup>35</sup> They remembered that God was their rock,
the Most High God, their Redeemer.

<sup>36</sup> But they deceived Him with their mouths,
they lied to Him with their tongues,

<sup>37</sup> their hearts were insincere toward Him,
and they were unfaithful to His covenant.

<sup>38</sup> Yet He was compassionate;

He •atoned for <sup>E</sup> their •guilt
and did not destroy them.

He often turned His anger aside and did not unleash <sup>F</sup> all His wrath.

<sup>39</sup> He remembered that they were only flesh,
a wind that passes and does not return.

<sup>40</sup> How often they rebelled against Him
in the wilderness
and grieved Him in the desert.

<sup>41</sup> They constantly tested God and provoked the Holy One of Israel.

<sup>42</sup> They did not remember His power shown on the day He redeemed them from the foe,

<sup>43</sup> when He performed His miraculous signs in Egypt and His wonders in the region of Zoan.

<sup>44</sup> He turned their rivers into blood,
and they could not drink from their streams.

<sup>45</sup> He sent among them swarms of flies,
which fed on them,
and frogs, which devastated them.

<sup>46</sup> He gave their crops to the caterpillar
and the fruit of their labor to the locust.

<sup>47</sup> He killed their vines with hail
and their sycamore fig trees with a flood.

<sup>48</sup> He handed over their livestock to hail and their cattle to lightning bolts.

<sup>49</sup> He sent His burning anger against them:
fury, indignation, and calamity —
a band of deadly messengers. <sup>G</sup>

<sup>50</sup> He cleared a path for His anger.
He did not spare them from death
but delivered their lives to the plague.

<sup>51</sup> He struck all the firstborn in Egypt,
the first progeny of the tents of Ham.

<sup>52</sup> He led His people out like sheep
and guided them like a flock in the wilderness.

<sup>53</sup> He led them safely, and they were not afraid;
but the sea covered their enemies.

<sup>54</sup> He brought them to His holy land,
to the mountain His right hand acquired.

<sup>55</sup> He drove out nations before them.
He apportioned their inheritance by lot and settled the tribes of Israel in their tents.

<sup>56</sup> But they rebelliously tested the Most High God, for they did not keep His decrees.

<sup>57</sup> They treacherously turned away like their fathers;
they became warped like a faulty bow.

<sup>58</sup> They enraged Him with their •high places

and provoked His jealousy with their carved images.

<sup>59</sup> God heard and became furious;

He completely rejected Israel.

<sup>60</sup> He abandoned the tabernacle at Shiloh,
the tent where He resided among men. <sup>H</sup>,

<sup>61</sup> He gave up His strength to captivity
and His splendor to the hand of a foe.

<sup>62</sup> He surrendered His people to the sword
because He was enraged with His heritage.

and His young women had no wedding songs. <sup>I</sup>

<sup>64</sup> His priests fell by the sword,
but the <sup>J</sup> widows could not lament.

<sup>65</sup> Then the Lord awoke as if from sleep,
like a warrior from the effects of wine.

He gave them lasting shame.

<sup>67†</sup> He rejected the tent of Joseph and did not choose the tribe of Ephraim.

<sup>68</sup> He chose instead the tribe of Judah, Mount •Zion, which He loved.

<sup>69</sup> He built His sanctuary like the heights,
like the earth that He established forever.

<sup>70</sup> He chose David His servant
and took him from the sheepfolds;

<sup>71</sup> He brought him from tending ewes to be shepherd over His people Jacob — over Israel, His inheritance.

<sup>72</sup> He shepherded them with a pure heart and guided them with his skillful hands.

Faith amid Confusion

79 God, the nations have invaded Your inheritance, desecrated Your holy temple,
and turned Jerusalem into ruins.

<sup>2</sup> They gave the corpses of Your servants
to the birds of the sky for food,
the flesh of Your godly ones
to the beasts of the earth.

<sup>3</sup> They poured out their blood
like water all around Jerusalem,
and there was no one to bury them.

<sup>4</sup> We have become an object of reproach
to our neighbors,
a source of mockery and ridicule
to those around us.

<sup>5</sup> How long, •Yahweh? Will You be angry forever?
Will Your jealousy keep burning like fire?

<sup>6</sup> Pour out Your wrath on the nations
that don't acknowledge You,
on the kingdoms that don't call on Your name,

<sup>7</sup> for they have devoured Jacob and devastated his homeland.

<sup>8</sup> Do not hold past sins <sup>A</sup> against us;
let Your compassion come to us quickly,
for we have become weak.

<sup>9</sup> God of our salvation, help us —
for the glory of Your name.
Deliver us and •atone for <sup>B</sup> our sins,
because of Your name.

<sup>10</sup> Why should the nations ask,
“Where is their God? ”
Before our eyes,
let vengeance for the shed blood of Your servants
be known among the nations.

<sup>11</sup> Let the groans of the prisoners reach You;
according to Your great power,

preserve those condemned to die.

<sup>12</sup> Pay back sevenfold to our neighbors
the reproach they have hurled at You, Lord.

<sup>13</sup> Then we, Your people, the sheep of Your pasture, will thank You forever;
we will declare Your praise
to generation after generation.

A Prayer for Restoration

80 † Listen, Shepherd of Israel,
who leads Joseph like a flock;
You who sit enthroned on the •cherubim,
rise up
2 before Ephraim,
Benjamin, and Manasseh.
Rally Your power and come to save us.
3† Restore us, God;
look on us with favor,
and we will be saved.

4 LORD God of •Hosts,
how long will You be angry
with Your people's prayers?
5 You fed them the bread of tears and gave them a full measure <sup>A</sup>
of tears to drink.

6 You make us quarrel with our neighbors;
our enemies make fun of us.
7 Restore us, God of Hosts;
look on us with favor, and we will be saved.

8 You uprooted a vine from Egypt;
You drove out the nations and planted it.
9 You cleared a place for it;
it took root and filled the land.
10 The mountains were covered by its shade,
and the mighty cedars <sup>B</sup> with its branches.
11 It sent out sprouts toward the Sea and shoots toward the River.

12 Why have You broken down its walls
so that all who pass by pick its fruit?
13 The boar from the forest tears it and creatures of the field feed on it.
14 Return, God of Hosts.

Look down from heaven and see;
take care of this vine,

<sup>15</sup> the root <sup>C</sup> Your right hand has planted,
the shoot <sup>D</sup> that You made strong for Yourself.

<sup>16</sup> It was cut down and burned up; <sup>E</sup>
they <sup>F</sup> perish at the rebuke of Your countenance.

with the son of man
You have made strong for Yourself.

<sup>18</sup> Then we will not turn away from You;
revive us, and we will call on Your name.

<sup>19</sup> Restore us, •Yahweh, the God of Hosts;
look on us with favor, and we will be saved.

A Call to Obedience

81 † Sing for joy to God our strength;
shout in triumph to the God of Jacob.

<sup>2</sup> Lift up a song — play the tambourine,
the melodious lyre, and the harp.

<sup>3</sup> Blow the horn on the day of our feasts <sup>A</sup>
during the new moon
and during the full moon.

<sup>4</sup> For this is a statute for Israel, a judgment of the God of Jacob.

<sup>5</sup> He set it up as an ordinance for Joseph
when He went throughout the land of Egypt.

I heard an unfamiliar language:

<sup>6</sup> “I relieved his shoulder from the burden;
his hands were freed from carrying the basket.

<sup>7†</sup> You called out in distress, and I rescued you;
I answered you from the thundercloud.
I tested you at the waters of Meribah.

•Selah

<sup>8†</sup> Listen, My people, and I will admonish you.
Israel, if you would only listen to Me!

<sup>9</sup> There must not be a strange god among you;
you must not bow down to a foreign god.

<sup>10</sup> I am •Yahweh your God,
who brought you up from the land of Egypt.
Open your mouth wide, and I will fill it.

<sup>11</sup> “But My people did not listen to Me;
Israel did not obey Me.

<sup>12</sup> So I gave them over to their stubborn hearts to follow their own plans.

<sup>13</sup> If only My people would listen to Me and Israel would follow My ways,

<sup>14</sup> I would quickly subdue their enemies
and turn My hand against their foes.”

<sup>15</sup> Those who hate the LORD
would pretend submission to Him;
their doom would last forever.

“I would satisfy you with honey from the rock.”

A Plea for Righteous Judgment

82 † God has taken His place in the divine assembly;
He judges among the gods: <sup>A</sup>

<sup>2</sup> “How long will you judge unjustly and show partiality to the wicked?”

•Selah

<sup>3</sup> Provide justice for the needy and the fatherless;
uphold the rights of the oppressed and the destitute.

<sup>4</sup> Rescue the poor and needy;
save them from the power of the wicked.”

<sup>5</sup> They do not know or understand;
they wander in darkness.
All the foundations of the earth are shaken.

<sup>6</sup> I said, “You are gods;
you are all sons of the •Most High.

<sup>7</sup> However, you will die like men
and fall like any other ruler.”

<sup>8</sup> Rise up, God, judge the earth,
for all the nations belong to You.

Prayer against Enemies

83 God, do not keep silent.
Do not be deaf, God; do not be idle.

<sup>2</sup> See how Your enemies make an uproar;
those who hate You have acted arrogantly. <sup>A</sup>,

they conspire against Your treasured ones.

<sup>4</sup> They say, “Come, let us wipe them out as a nation
so that Israel’s name will no longer be remembered.”

<sup>5</sup> For they have conspired with one mind;
they form an alliance <sup>B</sup> against You —

<sup>6</sup> the tents of Edom and the Ishmaelites, Moab and the Hagrites,

<sup>7</sup> Gebal, Ammon, and Amalek,
Philistia with the inhabitants of Tyre.

<sup>8</sup> Even Assyria has joined them;
they lend support <sup>C</sup> to the sons of Lot.

•Selah

<sup>9</sup> Deal with them as You did with Midian, as You did with Sisera
and Jabin at the Kishon River.

<sup>10</sup> They were destroyed at En-dor;
they became manure for the ground.

and all their tribal leaders like Zebah and Zalmunna,

<sup>13</sup> Make them like tumbleweed, my God,
like straw before the wind.

<sup>14</sup> As fire burns a forest,
as a flame blazes through mountains,

<sup>15</sup> so pursue them with Your tempest
and terrify them with Your storm.

<sup>16</sup> Cover their faces with shame
so that they will seek Your name •Yahweh.

<sup>17</sup> Let them be put to shame and terrified forever;
let them perish in disgrace.

<sup>18</sup> May they know that You alone —
whose name is Yahweh —
are the •Most High over all the earth.

<sup>3</sup> Even a sparrow finds a home,
and a swallow, a nest for herself
where she places her young — near Your altars, LORD of Hosts,
my King and my God.

<sup>4</sup> How happy are those who reside in Your house,
who praise You continually.

•Selah

<sup>5</sup> Happy are the people whose strength is in You, whose hearts are set on pilgrimage.

<sup>6†</sup> As they pass through the Valley of Baca, <sup>B</sup>
they make it a source of springwater;
even the autumn rain will cover it with blessings. <sup>C</sup>,

<sup>7</sup> They go from strength to strength;
each appears before God in •Zion.

<sup>8</sup> LORD God of Hosts, hear my prayer;
listen, God of Jacob.

Selah

<sup>9</sup> Consider our shield, God;
look on the face of Your anointed one.

<sup>10</sup> Better a day in Your courts
than a thousand anywhere else.
I would rather be at the door of the house of my God
than to live in the tents of wicked people.

<sup>11</sup> For the LORD God is a sun and shield.
The LORD gives grace and glory;
He does not withhold the good

from those who live with integrity.

•Selah

<sup>3</sup> You withdrew all Your fury;
You turned from Your burning anger.

<sup>4</sup> Return to us, God of our salvation,

<sup>5</sup> Will You be angry with us forever?
Will You prolong Your anger for all generations?

<sup>6</sup> Will You not revive us again
so that Your people may rejoice in You?

<sup>7</sup> Show us Your faithful love, LORD,
and give us Your salvation.

<sup>8</sup> I will listen to what God will say;
surely the LORD will declare peace
to His people, His godly ones,
and not let them go back to foolish ways.

<sup>9</sup> His salvation is very near those who •fear Him,
so that glory may dwell in our land.

<sup>10</sup> Faithful love and truth will join together;
righteousness and peace will embrace.

<sup>11</sup> Truth will spring up from the earth,
and righteousness will look down from heaven.

I am like the slain lying in the grave,
whom You no longer remember,
and who are cut off from Your care. <sup>B</sup>

LORD, I cry out to You all day long;
I spread out my hands to You.

<sup>10†</sup> Do You work wonders for the dead?
Do departed spirits rise up to praise You?

Selah

<sup>11</sup> Will Your faithful love be declared in the grave,

<sup>12</sup> Will Your wonders be known in the darkness or Your righteousness in the land of oblivion?

<sup>13</sup> But I call to You for help, LORD;

Perplexity about God's Promises

89 I will sing about the LORD's faithful love forever;
I will proclaim Your faithfulness to all generations

<sup>2</sup> For I will declare,
"Faithful love is built up forever;
You establish Your faithfulness in the heavens."

<sup>3</sup> The LORD said,
"I have made a covenant with My chosen one;
I have sworn an oath to David My servant:

and build up your throne for all generations.' "

•Selah

<sup>5</sup> LORD, the heavens praise Your wonders —
Your faithfulness also — in the assembly of the holy ones.

<sup>6</sup> For who in the skies can compare with the LORD?
Who among the heavenly beings <sup>A</sup> is like the LORD?

<sup>7</sup> God is greatly •feared in the council of the holy ones, more awe-inspiring than <sup>B</sup> all who surround Him.

<sup>8</sup> LORD God of •Hosts,
who is strong like You, LORD?
Your faithfulness surrounds You.

<sup>9</sup> You rule the raging sea;
when its waves surge, You still them.

<sup>10†</sup> You crushed •Rahab like one who is slain;
You scattered Your enemies with Your powerful arm.

<sup>11</sup> The heavens are Yours; the earth also is Yours.
The world and everything in it — You founded them.

<sup>12</sup> North and south — You created them.
Tabor and Hermon shout for joy at Your name.

<sup>13</sup> You have a mighty arm;
Your hand is powerful;
Your right hand is lifted high.

<sup>14</sup> Righteousness and justice are the foundation of Your throne;
faithful love and truth go before You.

<sup>15</sup> Happy are the people who know the joyful shout;
•Yahweh, they walk in the light of Your presence.

<sup>16</sup> They rejoice in Your name all day long,
and they are exalted by Your righteousness.

<sup>17</sup> For You are their magnificent strength;
by Your favor our •horn is exalted.

<sup>18</sup> Surely our shield belongs to the LORD,

I have exalted one chosen <sup>C</sup> from the people.

<sup>20</sup> I have found David My servant;
I have anointed him with My sacred oil.

<sup>21</sup> My hand will always be with him,
and My arm will strengthen him.

<sup>22</sup> The enemy will not afflict <sup>D</sup> him;
no wicked man will oppress him.

<sup>23</sup> I will crush his foes before him
and strike those who hate him.

<sup>24</sup> My faithfulness and love will be with him, and through My name
his horn will be exalted.

<sup>25</sup> I will extend his power to the sea
and his right hand to the rivers.

<sup>26†</sup> He will call to Me, ‘You are my Father,
my God, the rock of my salvation.’

<sup>27</sup> I will also make him My firstborn, greatest of the kings of the earth.

<sup>28</sup> I will always preserve My faithful love for him, and My covenant with him will endure.

<sup>29</sup> I will establish his line forever,

his throne as long as heaven lasts. <sup>E</sup>

<sup>30</sup> If his sons forsake My instruction and do not live by My ordinances,

<sup>31</sup> if they dishonor My statutes
and do not keep My commands,

<sup>32</sup> then I will call their rebellion
to account with the rod,
their sin with blows.

<sup>33</sup> But I will not withdraw My faithful love from him or betray My faithfulness.

<sup>34</sup> I will not violate My covenant or change what My lips have said.

<sup>35</sup> Once and for all
I have sworn an oath by My holiness;
I will not lie to David.

<sup>36</sup> His offspring will continue forever,
his throne like the sun before Me,

<sup>37</sup> like the moon, established forever,
a faithful witness in the sky.”

Selah

<sup>38</sup> But You have spurned and rejected him;
You have become enraged with Your anointed.

<sup>39</sup> You have repudiated the covenant with Your servant;
You have completely dishonored his crown. <sup>F</sup>,

<sup>40</sup> You have broken down all his walls;
You have reduced his fortified cities to ruins.

<sup>41</sup> All who pass by plunder him;
he has become an object of ridicule
to his neighbors.

You have made all his enemies rejoice.

<sup>43</sup> You have also turned back his sharp sword and have not let him stand in battle.

<sup>44</sup> You have made his splendor <sup>G</sup> cease and have overturned his throne.

<sup>45</sup> You have shortened the days of his youth;
You have covered him with shame.

Selah

<sup>46</sup> How long, LORD? Will You hide Yourself forever?
Will Your anger keep burning like fire?

<sup>47</sup> Remember how short my life is.
Have You created •everyone for nothing?

<sup>48</sup> What man can live and never see death?
Who can save himself from the power of •Sheol?

<sup>49</sup> Lord, where are the former acts of Your faithful love that You swore to David in Your faithfulness?

<sup>50</sup> Remember, Lord, the ridicule against Your servants —
in my heart I carry abuse from all the peoples —

<sup>51</sup> how Your enemies have ridiculed, LORD,
how they have ridiculed every step of Your anointed.

<sup>52†</sup> May the LORD be praised forever.

BOOK IV

(Psalms 90–106)

Eternal God and Mortal Man

90 Lord, You have been our refuge in every generation.

<sup>2</sup> Before the mountains were born,
before You gave birth to the earth and the world,
from eternity to eternity, You are God.

<sup>3</sup> You return mankind to the dust,
saying, “Return, descendants of Adam.”

<sup>4</sup> For in Your sight a thousand years are like yesterday that passes by,
like a few hours of the night.

They are like grass that grows in the morning —

<sup>6</sup> in the morning it sprouts and grows;
by evening it withers and dries up.

<sup>7</sup> For we are consumed by Your anger;
we are terrified by Your wrath.

<sup>8</sup> You have set our unjust ways before You,
our secret sins in the light of Your presence.

<sup>9</sup> For all our days ebb away under Your wrath;
we end our years like a sigh.

<sup>10</sup> Our lives last <sup>B</sup> seventy years
or, if we are strong, eighty years.
Even the best of them are struggle and sorrow;
indeed, they pass quickly and we fly away.

<sup>11</sup> Who understands the power of Your anger?
Your wrath matches the fear that is due You.

<sup>12†</sup> Teach us to number our days carefully
so that we may develop wisdom in our hearts. <sup>C</sup>

<sup>13</sup> LORD — how long?
Turn and have compassion on Your servants.

<sup>14</sup> Satisfy us in the morning with Your faithful love
so that we may shout with joy and be glad all our days.

<sup>15</sup> Make us rejoice for as many days as You have humbled us, for as many years as we have seen adversity.

<sup>16</sup> Let Your work be seen by Your servants,
and Your splendor by their children.

<sup>17</sup> Let the favor of the Lord our God be on us;
establish for us the work of our hands —
establish the work of our hands!

The Protection of the Most High

91 † The one who lives under the protection of the •Most High dwells in the shadow of the •Almighty.

<sup>2</sup> I will say to the LORD, “My refuge and my fortress, my God, in whom I trust.”

<sup>4†</sup> He will cover you with His feathers; you will take refuge under His wings. His faithfulness will be a protective shield.

<sup>5</sup> You will not fear the terror of the night, the arrow that flies by day, <sup>6</sup> the plague that stalks in darkness, or the pestilence that ravages at noon.

<sup>7</sup> Though a thousand fall at your side and ten thousand at your right hand, the pestilence will not reach you.

<sup>8</sup> You will only see it with your eyes and witness the punishment of the wicked.

<sup>9</sup> Because you have made the LORD — my refuge, the Most High — your dwelling place, <sup>10</sup> no harm will come to you; no plague will come near your tent.

<sup>11†</sup> For He will give His angels orders concerning you, to protect you in all your ways.

<sup>12</sup> They will support you with their hands so that you will not strike your foot against a stone.

<sup>13</sup> You will tread on the lion and the cobra; you will trample the young lion and the serpent.

<sup>14</sup> Because he is lovingly devoted to Me, I will deliver him; I will protect him because he knows My name.

<sup>15</sup> When he calls out to Me, I will answer him; I will be with him in trouble.

I will rescue him and give him honor.

<sup>16†</sup> I will satisfy him with a long life and show him My salvation.

God's Love and Faithfulness

92 It is good to praise •Yahweh,
to sing praise to Your name, •Most High, <sup>2</sup> to declare Your faithful love in the morning and Your faithfulness at night, <sup>3</sup> with a ten-stringed harp
and the music of a lyre.

<sup>4</sup> For You have made me rejoice, LORD,
by what You have done;
I will shout for joy
because of the works of Your hands.

<sup>5</sup> How magnificent are Your works, LORD,
how profound Your thoughts!

<sup>6</sup> A stupid person does not know,
a fool does not understand this:
<sup>7</sup> though the wicked sprout like grass
and all evildoers flourish,
they will be eternally destroyed.

<sup>8</sup> But You, LORD, are exalted forever.

<sup>9</sup> For indeed, LORD, Your enemies —
indeed, Your enemies will perish;
all evildoers will be scattered.

<sup>10</sup> You have lifted up my •horn
like that of a wild ox;
I have been anointed with oil.

<sup>11</sup> My eyes look down on my enemies;
my ears hear evildoers when they attack me.

<sup>12</sup> The righteous thrive like a palm tree and grow like a cedar tree in Lebanon.

<sup>13</sup> Planted in the house of the LORD,
they thrive in the courts of our God.

<sup>14</sup> They will still bear fruit in old age,
healthy and green,

<sup>15</sup> to declare: “The LORD is just;
He is my rock,

and there is no unrighteousness in Him.”

God's Eternal Reign

93 The LORD reigns! He is robed in majesty;
The LORD is robed, enveloped in strength.
The world is firmly established;
it cannot be shaken.

<sup>2</sup> Your throne has been established from the beginning; <sup>A</sup>
You are from eternity.

<sup>3†</sup> The floods have lifted up, LORD,
the floods have lifted up their voice;
the floods lift up their pounding waves.

<sup>4</sup> Greater than the roar of many waters —
the mighty breakers of the sea —
the LORD on high is majestic.

The Just Judge

94 LORD, God of vengeance —
God of vengeance, appear.

<sup>2†</sup> Rise up, Judge of the earth;
repay the proud what they deserve.

<sup>3</sup> LORD, how long will the wicked —
how long will the wicked gloat?

<sup>4</sup> They pour out arrogant words;
all the evildoers boast.

<sup>5</sup> LORD, they crush Your people;
they afflict Your heritage.

<sup>6</sup> They kill the widow and the foreigner and murder the fatherless.

<sup>7</sup> They say, “The LORD doesn’t see it.
The God of Jacob doesn’t pay attention.”

<sup>8</sup> Pay attention, you stupid people!
Fools, when will you be wise?

<sup>9</sup> Can the One who shaped the ear not hear,
the One who formed the eye not see?

<sup>10</sup> The One who instructs nations,
the One who teaches man knowledge —
does He not discipline?

<sup>11</sup> The LORD KNOWS man’s thoughts;
they are meaningless.

<sup>12†</sup> LORD, happy is the man You discipline and teach from Your law

<sup>13</sup> to give him relief from troubled times
until a pit is dug for the wicked.

<sup>14†</sup> The LORD will not forsake His people or abandon His heritage,

<sup>15</sup> for justice will again be righteous, and all the upright in heart will follow <sup>A</sup> it.

<sup>16</sup> Who stands up for me against the wicked?
Who takes a stand for me against evildoers?

<sup>17</sup> If the LORD had not been my helper,
I would soon rest in the silence of death.

<sup>18</sup> If I say, "My foot is slipping,"
Your faithful love will support me, LORD.

<sup>19</sup> When I am filled with cares,
Your comfort brings me joy.

<sup>20</sup> Can a corrupt throne —
one that creates trouble by law — become Your ally?

<sup>21</sup> They band together against the life of the righteous and condemn the innocent to death.

<sup>22</sup> But the LORD is my refuge;
my God is the rock of my protection.

<sup>23</sup> He will pay them back for their sins
and destroy them for their evil.
The LORD our God will destroy them.

Worship and Warning

95 Come, let us shout joyfully to the LORD,
shout triumphantly to the rock of our salvation!

<sup>2</sup> Let us enter His presence with thanksgiving;
let us shout triumphantly to Him in song.

<sup>3†</sup> For the LORD is a great God,
a great King above all gods.

and the mountain peaks are His.

<sup>5</sup> The sea is His; He made it.
His hands formed the dry land.

<sup>6</sup> Come, let us worship and bow down;
let us kneel before the LORD our Maker.

<sup>7</sup> For He is our God,
and we are the people of His pasture,
the sheep under His care. <sup>A</sup>

Today, if you hear His voice:

<sup>8†</sup> Do not harden your hearts as at Meribah,
as on that day at Massah in the wilderness

<sup>9</sup> where your fathers tested Me;
they tried Me, though they had seen what I did.

<sup>10</sup> For 40 years I was disgusted with that generation;
I said, "They are a people whose hearts go astray;
they do not know My ways."

<sup>11†</sup> So I swore in My anger,
"They will not enter My rest."

<sup>5</sup> For all the gods of the peoples are idols,
but the LORD made the heavens.

strength and beauty are in His sanctuary.

<sup>7</sup> Ascribe to the LORD, you families of the peoples, ascribe to the LORD glory and strength.

<sup>8</sup> Ascribe to Yahweh the glory of His name;
bring an offering and enter His courts.

<sup>9</sup> Worship the LORD in the splendor of His holiness;
tremble before Him, all the earth.

<sup>10</sup> Say among the nations: “The LORD reigns.
The world is firmly established; it cannot be shaken.
He judges the peoples fairly.”

Affliction in Light of Eternity

102 LORD, hear my prayer;
let my cry for help come before You.

<sup>2</sup> Do not hide Your face from me in my day of trouble.
Listen closely to me;
answer me quickly when I call.

<sup>3</sup> For my days vanish like smoke,
and my bones burn like a furnace.

<sup>4</sup> My heart is afflicted, withered like grass;

<sup>8</sup> My enemies taunt me all day long;
they ridicule and curse me.

<sup>9</sup> I eat ashes like bread
and mingle my drinks with tears

<sup>10†</sup> because of Your indignation and wrath;
for You have picked me up and thrown me aside.

<sup>11</sup> My days are like a lengthening shadow,
and I wither away like grass.

<sup>12</sup> But You, LORD, are enthroned forever;
Your fame endures to all generations.

<sup>13</sup> You will rise up and have compassion on •Zion, for it is time to show favor to her —
the appointed time has come.

He will appear in His glory.

<sup>17</sup> He will pay attention to the prayer of the destitute and will not despise their prayer.

<sup>18</sup> This will be written for a later generation, and a newly created people will praise the LORD:

<sup>19</sup> He looked down from His holy heights —
the LORD gazed out from heaven to earth —

<sup>20</sup> to hear a prisoner's groaning, to set free those condemned to die, <sup>B</sup>

<sup>21</sup> so that they might declare the name of Yahweh in Zion
and His praise in Jerusalem,

<sup>10</sup> He has not dealt with us as our sins deserve or repaid us according to our offenses.

<sup>11</sup> For as high as the heavens are above the earth, so great is His faithful love toward those who •fear Him.

<sup>12</sup> As far as the east is from the west,
so far has He removed
our transgressions from us.

<sup>13</sup> As a father has compassion on his children,
so the LORD has compassion on those who fear Him.

<sup>14</sup> For He knows what we are made of,
remembering that we are dust.

<sup>15</sup> As for man, his days are like grass —
he blooms like a flower of the field;

God the Creator

104 My soul, praise •Yahweh!
LORD my God, You are very great;
You are clothed with majesty and splendor.
2 He wraps Himself in light as if it were a robe,
spreading out the sky like a canopy,
3 laying the beams of His palace
on the waters above,
making the clouds His chariot,
walking on the wings of the wind,
4 and making the winds His messengers, <sup>A</sup> flames of fire His servants.
5 He established the earth on its foundations;
it will never be shaken.
6 You covered it with the deep
as if it were a garment;
the waters stood above the mountains.
7 At Your rebuke the waters fled;
at the sound of Your thunder they hurried away —
8 mountains rose and valleys sank <sup>B</sup> —
to the place You established for them.
9 You set a boundary they cannot cross;
they will never cover the earth again.
10 He causes the springs to gush into the valleys;
they flow between the mountains.
11 They supply water for every wild beast;
the wild donkeys quench their thirst.
12 The birds of the sky live beside the springs;
they sing among the foliage.
13 He waters the mountains from His palace;
the earth is satisfied by the fruit of Your labor.
14 He causes grass to grow for the livestock and provides crops for man to cultivate,
producing food from the earth, 15 wine that makes man's heart glad — making his face shine with oil —

and bread that sustains man's heart.

<sup>16</sup> The trees of the LORD flourish, <sup>C</sup>
the cedars of Lebanon that He planted.

<sup>17</sup> There the birds make their nests;
the stork makes its home in the pine trees.

<sup>18</sup> The high mountains are for the wild goats;
the cliffs are a refuge for hyraxes.

<sup>19</sup> He made the moon to mark the <sup>D</sup> festivals; <sup>E</sup>
the sun knows when to set.

<sup>20</sup> You bring darkness, and it becomes night,
when all the forest animals stir.

<sup>21</sup> The young lions roar for their prey
and seek their food from God.

<sup>22</sup> The sun rises; they go back and lie down in their dens.

<sup>23</sup> Man goes out to his work and to his labor until evening.

<sup>24</sup> How countless are Your works, LORD!
In wisdom You have made them all;
the earth is full of Your creatures. <sup>F</sup>,

<sup>25</sup> Here is the sea, vast and wide,
teeming with creatures beyond number —

<sup>5</sup> Remember the wonderful works He has done,
His wonders, and the judgments He has pronounced, <sup>A</sup>

<sup>6</sup> you offspring of Abraham His servant,
Jacob's descendants — His chosen ones.

<sup>7</sup> He is the LORD our God;
His judgments govern the whole earth.

<sup>8</sup> He remembers His covenant forever,
the promise He ordained for a thousand generations —

<sup>9</sup> the covenant He made with Abraham, swore <sup>B</sup> to Isaac,

<sup>10</sup> and confirmed to Jacob as a decree
and to Israel as an everlasting covenant:

<sup>11</sup> “I will give the land of Canaan to you as your inherited portion.”

<sup>12</sup> When they were few in number,
very few indeed,
and temporary residents in Canaan,

<sup>13</sup> wandering from nation to nation
and from one kingdom to another,

<sup>14</sup> He allowed no one to oppress them;
He rebuked kings on their behalf:

<sup>15</sup> “Do not touch My anointed ones, or harm My prophets.”

<sup>16</sup> He called down famine against the land and destroyed the entire food supply.

<sup>17</sup> He had sent a man ahead of them —
Joseph, who was sold as a slave.

<sup>18</sup> They hurt his feet with shackles;
his neck was put in an iron collar.

<sup>19</sup> Until the time his prediction came true,
the word of the LORD tested him.

<sup>20</sup> The king sent for him and released him;
the ruler of peoples set him free.

<sup>21</sup> He made him master of his household,
ruler over all his possessions —

<sup>22</sup> binding his officials at will and instructing his elders.

<sup>23</sup> Then Israel went to Egypt;
Jacob lived as a foreigner in the land of Ham.

<sup>24</sup> The LORD <sup>C</sup> made His people very fruitful;
He made them more numerous than their foes,

<sup>25</sup> whose hearts He turned to hate His people and to deal deceptively with His servants.

<sup>26</sup> He sent Moses His servant,
and Aaron, whom He had chosen.

<sup>27</sup> They performed His miraculous signs among them,
and wonders in the land of Ham.

<sup>28</sup> He sent darkness, and it became dark —
for did they not defy His commands?

<sup>29</sup> He turned their water into blood and caused their fish to die.

<sup>30</sup> Their land was overrun with frogs,
even in their royal chambers.

<sup>31</sup> He spoke, and insects came — gnats throughout their country.

<sup>32</sup> He gave them hail for rain,
and lightning throughout their land.

<sup>33</sup> He struck their vines and fig trees

and shattered the trees of their territory.

<sup>34</sup> He spoke, and locusts came — young locusts without number.

<sup>35</sup> They devoured all the vegetation in their land and consumed the produce of their land.

<sup>36</sup> He struck all the firstborn in their land,
all their first progeny.

<sup>37</sup> Then He brought Israel out with silver and gold,
and no one among His tribes stumbled.

<sup>38</sup> Egypt was glad when they left,
for the dread of Israel <sup>D</sup> had fallen on them.

<sup>39</sup> He spread a cloud as a covering
and gave a fire to light up the night.

<sup>40</sup> They asked, and He brought quail
and satisfied them with bread from heaven.

<sup>41</sup> He opened a rock, and water gushed out;
it flowed like a stream in the desert.

<sup>42</sup> For He remembered His holy promise to Abraham His servant.

<sup>43</sup> He brought His people out with rejoicing,
His chosen ones with shouts of joy.

<sup>44</sup> He gave them the lands of the nations,
and they inherited
what other peoples had worked for.

<sup>45</sup> All this happened
so that they might keep His statutes and obey His instructions.

or remember Your many acts of faithful love;
instead, they rebelled by the sea — the •Red Sea.

<sup>8</sup> Yet He saved them because of His name,
to make His power known.

<sup>9</sup> He rebuked the Red Sea, and it dried up;
He led them through the depths as through a desert.

<sup>10</sup> He saved them from the hand of the adversary;
He redeemed them from the hand of the enemy.

<sup>11</sup> Water covered their foes;
not one of them remained.

<sup>12</sup> Then they believed His promises and sang His praise.

<sup>13</sup> They soon forgot His works
and would not wait for His counsel.

<sup>14</sup> They were seized with craving in the wilderness and tested God in the desert.

<sup>15</sup> He gave them what they asked for,
but sent a wasting disease among them.

<sup>16</sup> In the camp they were envious of Moses and of Aaron, the LORD's holy one.

<sup>17</sup> The earth opened up and swallowed Dathan;
it covered the assembly of Abiram.

<sup>18</sup> Fire blazed throughout their assembly;
flames consumed the wicked.

<sup>19</sup> At Horeb they made a calf
and worshiped the cast metal image.

<sup>20</sup> They exchanged their glory
for the image of a grass-eating ox.

<sup>21</sup> They forgot God their Savior,
who did great things in Egypt,

<sup>22</sup> wonderful works in the land of Ham,
awe-inspiring acts at the Red Sea.

<sup>23</sup> So He said He would have destroyed them —
if Moses His chosen one had not stood before Him in the breach to turn His wrath away from destroying them.

<sup>24</sup> They despised the pleasant land and did not believe His promise.

<sup>25</sup> They grumbled in their tents and did not listen to the LORD's voice.

<sup>26</sup> So He raised His hand against them with an oath that He would make them fall in the desert

<sup>27</sup> and would disperse their descendants
among the nations,
scattering them throughout the lands.

<sup>28</sup> They aligned themselves with •Baal of Peor
and ate sacrifices offered to lifeless gods. <sup>A</sup>

<sup>29</sup> They provoked the LORD with their deeds,
and a plague broke out against them.

<sup>30</sup> But Phinehas stood up and intervened,
and the plague was stopped.

<sup>31</sup> It was credited to him as righteousness throughout all generations to come.

<sup>32</sup> They angered the LORD at the waters of Meribah,
and Moses suffered <sup>B</sup> because of them;

<sup>33</sup> for they embittered his spirit,
and he spoke rashly with his lips.

<sup>34</sup> They did not destroy the peoples
as the LORD had commanded them

<sup>35</sup> but mingled with the nations and adopted their ways.

<sup>36</sup> They served their idols,
which became a snare to them.

<sup>37</sup> They sacrificed their sons and daughters to demons.

<sup>38</sup> They shed innocent blood —
the blood of their sons and daughters
whom they sacrificed to the idols of Canaan;
so the land became polluted with blood.

<sup>39</sup> They defiled themselves by their actions and prostituted themselves by their deeds.

<sup>40</sup> Therefore the LORD's anger burned against His people, and He abhorred His own inheritance.

<sup>41</sup> He handed them over to the nations;
those who hated them ruled them.

<sup>42</sup> Their enemies oppressed them,
and they were subdued under their power.

<sup>43</sup> He rescued them many times,
but they continued to rebel deliberately
and were beaten down by their sin.

<sup>44</sup> When He heard their cry,
He took note of their distress,

<sup>45</sup> remembered His covenant with them,

and relented according to the riches
of His faithful love.

<sup>46</sup> He caused them to be pitied
before all their captors.

<sup>47</sup> Save us, •Yahweh our God,
and gather us from the nations,
so that we may give thanks to Your holy name
and rejoice in Your praise.

<sup>48†</sup> May Yahweh, the God of Israel, be praised
from everlasting to everlasting.
Let all the people say, “•Amen! ”
Hallelujah!

BOOK V

(Psalms 107–150)

Thanksgiving for God's Deliverance

107 Give thanks to the LORD, for He is good;
His faithful love endures forever.

<sup>2</sup> Let the redeemed of the LORD proclaim that He has redeemed them from the hand of the foe

<sup>3</sup> and has gathered them from the lands —
from the east and the west,
from the north and the south.

<sup>4</sup> Some <sup>A</sup> wandered in the desolate wilderness, finding no way to a city where they could live.

<sup>5</sup> They were hungry and thirsty;
their spirits failed <sup>B</sup> within them.

<sup>6</sup> Then they cried out to the LORD in their trouble;
He rescued them from their distress.

<sup>7</sup> He led them by the right path
to go to a city where they could live.

<sup>8</sup> Let them give thanks to the LORD
for His faithful love
and His wonderful works for all •humanity.

<sup>9</sup> For He has satisfied the thirsty and filled the hungry with good things.

prisoners in cruel chains —

<sup>11</sup> because they rebelled against God's commands and despised the counsel of the •Most High.

they stumbled, and there was no one to help.

<sup>13</sup> Then they cried out to the LORD in their trouble;
He saved them from their distress.

<sup>14</sup> He brought them out of darkness and gloom <sup>F</sup>
and broke their chains apart.

<sup>15</sup> Let them give thanks to the LORD
for His faithful love
and His wonderful works for all humanity.

<sup>16</sup> For He has broken down the bronze gates and cut through the iron bars.

<sup>17</sup> Fools suffered affliction
because of their rebellious ways and their sins.

<sup>18</sup> They loathed all food
and came near the gates of death.

<sup>19</sup> Then they cried out to the LORD in their trouble;
He saved them from their distress.

<sup>20</sup> He sent His word and healed them;
He rescued them from the •Pit.

<sup>21</sup> Let them give thanks to the LORD
for His faithful love
and His wonderful works for all humanity.

<sup>22</sup> Let them offer sacrifices of thanksgiving and announce His works with shouts of joy.

conducting trade on the vast waters.

<sup>24</sup> They saw the LORD's works,
His wonderful works in the deep.

<sup>25</sup> He spoke and raised a tempest that stirred up the waves of the sea. <sup>H</sup>,

<sup>26</sup> Rising up to the sky, sinking down to the depths,
their courage <sup>I</sup> melting away in anguish,

<sup>27</sup> they reeled and staggered like drunken men,
and all their skill was useless.

<sup>28</sup> Then they cried out to the LORD in their trouble,
and He brought them out of their distress.

<sup>29</sup> He stilled the storm to a murmur,
and the waves of the sea <sup>J</sup> were hushed.

Then He guided them to the harbor they longed for.

<sup>31</sup> Let them give thanks to the LORD
for His faithful love
and His wonderful works for all humanity.

<sup>32</sup> Let them exalt Him in the assembly of the people and praise Him in the council of the elders.

<sup>33</sup> He turns rivers into desert,
springs of water into thirsty ground,

<sup>34</sup> and fruitful land into salty wasteland,
because of the wickedness of its inhabitants.

<sup>35</sup> He turns a desert into a pool of water,
dry land into springs of water.

<sup>36</sup> He causes the hungry to settle there,
and they establish a city where they can live.

<sup>37</sup> They sow fields and plant vineyards that yield a fruitful harvest.

<sup>38</sup> He blesses them, and they multiply greatly;
He does not let their livestock decrease.

<sup>39</sup> When they are diminished and are humbled
by cruel oppression and sorrow,

<sup>40</sup> He pours contempt on nobles
and makes them wander in a trackless wasteland.

<sup>41</sup> But He lifts the needy out of their suffering and makes their families multiply like flocks.

<sup>42</sup> The upright see it and rejoice,
and all injustice shuts its mouth.

<sup>43</sup> Let whoever is wise pay attention to these things and consider <sup>L</sup> the LORD's acts of faithful love.

A Plea for Victory

108 My heart is confident, God;
I will sing; I will sing praises with the whole of my being. <sup>A</sup>,

<sup>2</sup> Wake up, harp and lyre!
I will wake up the dawn.

<sup>3</sup> I will praise You, LORD, among the peoples;
I will sing praises to You among the nations.

<sup>4</sup> For Your faithful love is higher than the heavens,
and Your faithfulness reaches to the clouds.

<sup>5</sup> God, be exalted above the heavens,
and let Your glory be over the whole earth.

<sup>6†</sup> Save with Your right hand and answer me
so that those You love may be rescued.

<sup>7</sup> God has spoken in His sanctuary: <sup>B</sup>

“I will triumph!

I will divide up Shechem.

I will apportion the Valley of Succoth.

<sup>8</sup> Gilead is Mine, Manasseh is Mine,
and Ephraim is My helmet;
Judah is My scepter.

<sup>9</sup> Moab is My washbasin;
I throw My sandal on Edom.
I shout in triumph over Philistia.”

<sup>10</sup> Who will bring me to the fortified city?
Who will lead me to Edom?

<sup>11</sup> God, haven't You rejected us?
God, You do not march out with our armies.

<sup>12</sup> Give us aid against the foe,
for human help is worthless.

<sup>13</sup> With God we will perform valiantly;
He will trample our foes.

Prayer against an Enemy

109 God of my praise, do not be silent.

<sup>2</sup> For wicked and deceitful mouths open against me;
they speak against me with lying tongues.

<sup>3</sup> They surround me with hateful words and attack me without cause.

<sup>4</sup> In return for my love they accuse me, but I continue to pray. <sup>A</sup>

<sup>5</sup> They repay me evil for good,
and hatred for my love.

<sup>6†</sup> Set a wicked person over him;
let an accuser <sup>B</sup> stand at his right hand.

<sup>7†</sup> When he is judged, let him be found •guilty,
and let his prayer be counted as sin.

<sup>8†</sup> Let his days be few;
let another take over his position.

<sup>9</sup> Let his children be fatherless
and his wife a widow.

<sup>10</sup> Let his children wander as beggars,
searching for food far from their demolished homes.

<sup>11</sup> Let a creditor seize all he has;
let strangers plunder what he has worked for.

<sup>12</sup> Let no one show him kindness,
and let no one be gracious to his fatherless children.

<sup>13</sup> Let the line of his descendants be cut off;
let their name be blotted out in the next generation.

<sup>14</sup> Let his ancestors' guilt
be remembered before the LORD,
and do not let his mother's sin be blotted out.

<sup>15</sup> Let their sins <sup>C</sup> always remain before the LORD, and let Him erase <sup>D</sup> all memory of them from the earth.

<sup>16†</sup> For he did not think to show kindness, but pursued the afflicted, poor, and brokenhearted
in order to put them to death.

<sup>17</sup> He loved cursing — let it fall on him;
he took no delight in blessing — let it be far from him.

<sup>18</sup> He wore cursing like his coat —
let it enter his body like water and go into his bones like oil.

<sup>19</sup> Let it be like a robe he wraps around himself, like a belt he always wears.

<sup>20</sup> Let this be the LORD's payment to my accusers,
to those who speak evil against me.

<sup>21</sup> But You, •Yahweh my Lord, deal kindly with me because of Your name;
deliver me because of the goodness of Your faithful love.

<sup>22</sup> For I am afflicted and needy;
my heart is wounded within me.

<sup>23</sup> I fade away like a lengthening shadow;
I am shaken off like a locust.

<sup>24</sup> My knees are weak from fasting,
and my body is emaciated. <sup>E</sup>,

<sup>25</sup> I have become an object of ridicule to my accusers; <sup>F</sup>
when they see me, they shake their heads in scorn.

<sup>26</sup> Help me, LORD my God;
save me according to Your faithful love

<sup>27</sup> so they may know that this is Your hand and that You, LORD, have done it.

<sup>28</sup> Though they curse, You will bless.
When they rise up, they will be put to shame,
but Your servant will rejoice.

<sup>29</sup> My accusers will be clothed with disgrace;
they will wear their shame like a cloak.

<sup>30</sup> I will fervently thank the LORD with my mouth;
I will praise Him in the presence of many.

<sup>31</sup> For He stands at the right hand of the needy to save him from those who would condemn him.

The Priestly King

110 This is the declaration of the LORD
to my Lord:

“Sit at My right hand
until I make Your enemies Your footstool.”

<sup>2</sup> The LORD will extend Your mighty scepter from •Zion.
Rule over Your surrounding <sup>A</sup> enemies.

<sup>3†</sup> Your people will volunteer
on Your day of battle. <sup>B</sup>,
In holy splendor, from the womb of the dawn,
the dew of Your youth belongs to You. <sup>C</sup>

<sup>4†</sup> The LORD has sworn an oath and will not take it back:
“Forever, You are a priest
like Melchizedek.”

<sup>5</sup> The Lord is at Your right hand;
He will crush kings on the day of His anger.

<sup>6</sup> He will judge the nations, heaping up corpses;
He will crush leaders over the entire world.

<sup>7†</sup> He will drink from the brook by the road;
therefore, He will lift up His head.

Praise for the LORD's Works

111 •Hallelujah!
I will praise the LORD with all my heart
in the assembly of the upright and in the congregation.

<sup>2</sup> The LORD's works are great,
studied by all who delight in them.

<sup>3</sup> All that He does is splendid and majestic;
His righteousness endures forever.

<sup>4</sup> He has caused His wonderful works to be remembered.
The LORD is gracious and compassionate.

<sup>5</sup> He has provided food for those who fear Him;
He remembers His covenant forever.

<sup>6</sup> He has shown His people the power of His works by giving them the inheritance of the nations.

all His instructions are trustworthy.

<sup>8</sup> They are established forever and ever,
enacted in truth and in what is right.

<sup>9</sup> He has sent redemption to His people.
He has ordained His covenant forever.
His name is holy and awe-inspiring.

<sup>10†</sup> The •fear of the LORD is the beginning of wisdom;
all who follow His instructions <sup>A</sup> have good insight.
His praise endures forever.

The Traits of the Righteous

112 •Hallelujah!

Happy is the man who •fears the LORD,
taking great delight in His commands.

<sup>2</sup> His descendants will be powerful in the land;
the generation of the upright will be blessed.

<sup>3</sup> Wealth and riches are in his house,
and his righteousness endures forever.

He is gracious, compassionate, and righteous.

<sup>5</sup> Good will come to a man who lends generously and conducts his business fairly.

<sup>6</sup> He will never be shaken.

The righteous man will be remembered forever.

<sup>7</sup> He will not fear bad news;
his heart is confident, trusting in the LORD.

<sup>8</sup> His heart is assured; he will not fear.
In the end he will look in triumph on his foes.

<sup>9</sup> He distributes freely to the poor;
his righteousness endures forever.
His •horn will be exalted in honor.

<sup>10</sup> The wicked man will see it and be angry;
he will gnash his teeth in despair.
The desire of the wicked man will come to nothing.

Praise to the Merciful God

113 •Hallelujah!
Give praise, servants of •Yahweh;
praise the name of Yahweh.

<sup>2</sup> Let the name of Yahweh be praised
both now and forever.

<sup>3</sup> From the rising of the sun to its setting,
let the name of Yahweh be praised.

His glory above the heavens.

<sup>5</sup> Who is like Yahweh our God —
the One enthroned on high,

<sup>6</sup> who stoops down to look on the heavens and the earth?

<sup>7†</sup> He raises the poor from the dust
and lifts the needy from the garbage pile

<sup>8</sup> in order to seat them with nobles —
with the nobles of His people.

<sup>9</sup> He gives the childless woman a household,
making her the joyful mother of children.
Hallelujah!

God's Deliverance of Israel

114 When Israel came out of Egypt —
the house of Jacob from a people who spoke a foreign language —

<sup>2</sup> Judah became His sanctuary, Israel, His dominion.

<sup>3</sup> The sea looked and fled;
the Jordan turned back.

<sup>4</sup> The mountains skipped like rams,
the hills, like lambs.

<sup>5†</sup> Why was it, sea, that you fled?
Jordan, that you turned back?

<sup>6</sup> Mountains, that you skipped like rams?
Hills, like lambs?

<sup>7</sup> Tremble, earth, at the presence of the Lord,
at the presence of the God of Jacob,

<sup>8</sup> who turned the rock into a pool of water,
the flint into a spring of water.

Glory to God Alone

115 Not to us, •Yahweh, not to us, but to Your name give glory
because of Your faithful love, because of Your truth.

<sup>2</sup> Why should the nations say,
“Where is their God? ”

<sup>3</sup> Our God is in heaven and does whatever He pleases.

<sup>4</sup> Their idols are silver and gold,
made by human hands.

<sup>5</sup> They have mouths but cannot speak,
eyes, but cannot see.

<sup>6</sup> They have ears but cannot hear,
noses, but cannot smell.

<sup>7</sup> They have hands but cannot feel,
feet, but cannot walk.

They cannot make a sound with their throats.

<sup>8†</sup> Those who make them are <sup>A</sup> just like them,
as are all who trust in them.

<sup>9</sup> Israel, trust in the LORD!
He is their help and shield.

<sup>10</sup> House of Aaron, trust in the LORD!
He is their help and shield.

<sup>11</sup> You who •fear the LORD, trust in the LORD!
He is their help and shield.

<sup>12</sup> The LORD remembers us and will bless us.
He will bless the house of Israel;
He will bless the house of Aaron;

<sup>13</sup> He will bless those who fear the LORD —
small and great alike.

<sup>14</sup> May the LORD add to your numbers, both yours and your children’s.

<sup>15</sup> May you be blessed by the LORD,
the Maker of heaven and earth.

<sup>16</sup> The heavens are the LORD's, <sup>B</sup>
but the earth He has given to the •human race.

<sup>17</sup> It is not the dead who praise the LORD,
nor any of those descending into the silence of death.

<sup>18</sup> But we will praise the LORD,
both now and forever.

•Hallelujah!

Thanks to God for Deliverance

116 I love the LORD because He has heard my appeal for mercy.

<sup>2</sup> Because He has turned His ear to me,
I will call out to Him as long as I live.

<sup>3</sup> The ropes of death were wrapped around me,
and the torments of •Sheol overcame me;
I encountered trouble and sorrow.

<sup>4</sup> Then I called on the name of •Yahweh:
“Yahweh, save me! ”

<sup>5</sup> The LORD is gracious and righteous;
our God is compassionate.

<sup>6</sup> The LORD guards the inexperienced;
I was helpless, and He saved me.

<sup>7</sup> Return to your rest, my soul,
for the LORD has been good to you.

<sup>8</sup> For You, LORD, rescued me from death,
my eyes from tears,
my feet from stumbling.

<sup>9</sup> I will walk before the LORD
in the land of the living.

<sup>10</sup> I believed, even when I said,
“I am severely afflicted.”

<sup>11</sup> In my alarm I said,
“Everyone is a liar.”

<sup>12</sup> How can I repay the LORD
for all the good He has done for me?

<sup>13†</sup> I will take the cup of salvation
and call on the name of Yahweh.

<sup>14</sup> I will fulfill my vows to the LORD
in the presence of all His people.

<sup>15†</sup> The death of His faithful ones
is valuable in the LORD’s sight.

<sup>16</sup> LORD, I am indeed Your servant;

I am Your servant, the son of Your female servant.
You have loosened my bonds.

<sup>17</sup> I will offer You a sacrifice of thanksgiving
and call on the name of Yahweh.

<sup>18</sup> I will fulfill my vows to the LORD
in the presence of all His people,

<sup>19</sup> in the courts of the LORD's house —
within you, Jerusalem.

•Hallelujah!

Thanksgiving for Victory

118 Give thanks to the LORD, for He is good;
His faithful love endures forever.

<sup>2†</sup> Let Israel say,

“His faithful love endures forever.”

<sup>4</sup> Let those who fear the LORD say,
“His faithful love endures forever.”

<sup>5†</sup> I called to the LORD in distress;
the LORD answered me
and put me in a spacious place. <sup>A</sup>

<sup>6</sup> The LORD is for me; I will not be afraid.
What can man do to me?

<sup>7</sup> The LORD is my helper,
Therefore, I will look in triumph on those who hate me.

<sup>8</sup> It is better to take refuge in the LORD
than to trust in man.

<sup>9</sup> It is better to take refuge in the LORD
than to trust in nobles.

<sup>10</sup> All the nations surrounded me;
in the name of •Yahweh I destroyed them.

<sup>11</sup> They surrounded me, yes, they surrounded me;
in the name of Yahweh I destroyed them.

<sup>12</sup> They surrounded me like bees;
they were extinguished like a fire among thorns;
in the name of Yahweh I destroyed them.

<sup>13</sup> You pushed me hard to make me fall,
but the LORD helped me.

<sup>14</sup> The LORD is my strength and my song;
He has become my salvation.

<sup>15</sup> There are shouts of joy and victory
in the tents of the righteous:
“The LORD’s right hand performs valiantly!

<sup>16</sup> The LORD's right hand is raised.
The LORD's right hand performs valiantly! ”

<sup>17</sup> I will not die, but I will live and proclaim what the LORD has done.

<sup>18</sup> The LORD disciplined me severely
but did not give me over to death.

<sup>19†</sup> Open the gates of righteousness for me;
I will enter through them
and give thanks to the LORD.

<sup>20</sup> This is the gate of the LORD;
the righteous will enter through it.

<sup>21</sup> I will give thanks to You because You have answered me
and have become my salvation.

<sup>22†</sup> The stone that the builders rejected
has become the cornerstone.

<sup>23</sup> This came from the LORD;
it is wonderful in our eyes.

<sup>24†</sup> This is the day the LORD has made;
let us rejoice and be glad in it.

<sup>25†</sup> LORD, save us!
LORD, please grant us success!

<sup>26†</sup> He who comes in the name of the LORD is blessed.

From the house of the LORD we bless you.

<sup>27†</sup> The LORD is God and has given us light.
Bind the festival sacrifice with cords
to the horns of the altar.

<sup>28</sup> You are my God, and I will give You thanks.
You are my God; I will exalt You.

<sup>29</sup> Give thanks to the LORD, for He is good;
His faithful love endures forever.

TWISTED SCRIPTURE

Psalm 119:15

There is a distinct difference between Christian and New Age forms of meditation. In Christian meditation, the believer's mind is actively engaged and focuses on the Word of God. The believer is always conscious and never seeks a mystical experience of direct contact with God. New Age meditators, on the other hand, attempt to empty their minds through repetitious chanting or yogic breathing exercises. For them the goal is to experience oneness with the universe or attain God-consciousness.

Gimel

<sup>21</sup> You rebuke the proud,
the ones under a curse,
who wander from Your commands.

<sup>22</sup> Take insult and contempt away from me,
for I have kept Your decrees.

<sup>23</sup> Though princes sit together speaking against me,
Your servant will think about Your statutes;

<sup>24</sup> Your decrees are my delight

<sup>29</sup> Keep me from the way of deceit
and graciously give me Your instruction.

<sup>30</sup> I have chosen the way of truth;
I have set Your ordinances before me.

<sup>31</sup> I cling to Your decrees;
LORD, do not put me to shame.

<sup>32</sup> I pursue the way of Your commands, for You broaden my understanding. <sup>C</sup>

He

<sup>33</sup> Teach me, LORD, the meaning <sup>D</sup> of Your statutes, and I will always keep them. <sup>E</sup>

<sup>34</sup> Help me understand Your instruction, and I will obey it
and follow it with all my heart.

<sup>35</sup> Help me stay on the path of Your commands, for I take pleasure in it.

<sup>36</sup> Turn my heart to Your decrees
and not to material gain.

<sup>37</sup> Turn my eyes
from looking at what is worthless;
give me life in Your ways.

<sup>38</sup> Confirm what You said to Your servant,
for it produces reverence for You.

<sup>39</sup> Turn away the disgrace I dread;
indeed, Your judgments are good.

<sup>40</sup> How I long for Your precepts!
Give me life through Your righteousness.

Vav

<sup>41</sup> Let Your faithful love come to me, LORD,
Your salvation, as You promised.

<sup>42</sup> Then I can answer the one who taunts me,
for I trust in Your word.

<sup>43</sup> Never take the word of truth from my mouth,
for I hope in Your judgments.

<sup>44</sup> I will always obey Your instruction,
forever and ever.

<sup>45</sup> I will walk freely in an open place
because I seek Your precepts.

<sup>46</sup> I will speak of Your decrees before kings and not be ashamed.

<sup>47</sup> I delight in Your commands,
which I love.

<sup>48</sup> I will lift up my hands to Your commands,
which I love,
and will meditate on Your statutes.

Zayin

<sup>49</sup> Remember Your word to Your servant;
You have given me hope through it.

<sup>50</sup> This is my comfort in my affliction:
Your promise has given me life.

<sup>51</sup> The arrogant constantly ridicule me,
but I do not turn away from Your instruction.

<sup>52</sup> LORD, I remember Your judgments from long ago and find comfort.

<sup>53</sup> Rage seizes me because of the wicked
who reject Your instruction.

<sup>54</sup> Your statutes are the theme of my song during my earthly life. <sup>F</sup>

<sup>55</sup> •Yahweh, I remember Your name in the night, and I obey Your instruction.

<sup>56</sup> This is my practice:
I obey Your precepts.

Khet

<sup>57</sup> The LORD is my portion; G,
I have promised to keep Your words.

<sup>58</sup> I have sought Your favor with all my heart;
be gracious to me according to Your promise.

<sup>59</sup> I thought about my ways
and turned my steps back to Your decrees.

<sup>60</sup> I hurried, not hesitating to keep Your commands.

<sup>61</sup> Though the ropes of the wicked
were wrapped around me,
I did not forget Your instruction.

<sup>62</sup> I rise at midnight to thank You for Your righteous judgments.

<sup>63</sup> I am a friend to all who •fear You,
to those who keep Your precepts.

<sup>64</sup> LORD, the earth is filled with Your faithful love;
teach me Your statutes.

Tet

<sup>65</sup> LORD, You have treated Your servant well, just as You promised.

<sup>66</sup> Teach me good judgment and discernment,
for I rely on Your commands.

<sup>67</sup> Before I was afflicted I went astray,
but now I keep Your word.

<sup>68</sup> You are good, and You do what is good;
teach me Your statutes.

<sup>69</sup> The arrogant have smeared me with lies,
but I obey Your precepts with all my heart.

<sup>70</sup> Their hearts are hard and insensitive,
but I delight in Your instruction.

<sup>71</sup> It was good for me to be afflicted
so that I could learn Your statutes.

<sup>72</sup> Instruction from Your lips is better for me than thousands of gold and silver pieces.

Yod

<sup>73</sup> Your hands made me and formed me;
give me understanding
so that I can learn Your commands.

<sup>74</sup> Those who fear You will see me and rejoice, for I put my hope in Your word.

<sup>75</sup> I know, LORD, that Your judgments are just and that You have afflicted me fairly.

<sup>76</sup> May Your faithful love comfort me
as You promised Your servant.

<sup>77</sup> May Your compassion come to me
so that I may live,
for Your instruction is my delight.

<sup>78</sup> Let the arrogant be put to shame
for slandering me with lies;
I will meditate on Your precepts.

<sup>79</sup> Let those who fear You,
those who know Your decrees, turn to me.

<sup>80</sup> May my heart be blameless regarding Your statutes
so that I will not be put to shame.

Kaf

<sup>81</sup> I long for Your salvation;
I put my hope in Your word.

<sup>82</sup> My eyes grow weary
looking for what You have promised;
I ask, "When will You comfort me? "

<sup>83</sup> Though I have become like a wineskin dried by smoke,

I do not forget Your statutes.

When will You execute judgment on my persecutors?

<sup>85</sup> The arrogant have dug pits for me;
they violate Your instruction.

<sup>86</sup> All Your commands are true;
people persecute me with lies — help me!

<sup>87</sup> They almost ended my life on earth,
but I did not abandon Your precepts.

<sup>88</sup> Give me life in accordance with Your faithful love,
and I will obey the decree You have spoken.

Lamed

<sup>89</sup> LORD, Your word is forever;
it is firmly fixed in heaven.

<sup>90</sup> Your faithfulness is for all generations;
You established the earth, and it stands firm.

<sup>91</sup> They stand today in accordance with Your judgments,
for all things are Your servants.

<sup>92</sup> If Your instruction had not been my delight,
I would have died in my affliction.

<sup>93</sup> I will never forget Your precepts,
for You have given me life through them.

<sup>94</sup> I am Yours; save me,
for I have sought Your precepts.

<sup>95</sup> The wicked hope to destroy me,
but I contemplate Your decrees.

<sup>96</sup> I have seen a limit to all perfection,
but Your command is without limit.

Mem

<sup>97</sup> How I love Your instruction!
It is my meditation all day long.

<sup>98</sup> Your commands make me wiser than my enemies,
for they are always with me.

<sup>99</sup> I have more insight than all my teachers
because Your decrees are my meditation.

<sup>100</sup> I understand more than the elders
because I obey Your precepts.

<sup>101</sup> I have kept my feet from every evil path to follow Your word.

<sup>102</sup> I have not turned from Your judgments,
for You Yourself have instructed me.

<sup>103</sup> How sweet Your word is to my taste —
sweeter than honey in my mouth.

<sup>104</sup> I gain understanding from Your precepts;
therefore I hate every false way.

Nun

<sup>105</sup> Your word is a lamp for my feet
and a light on my path.

<sup>106</sup> I have solemnly sworn to keep Your righteous judgments.

<sup>107</sup> I am severely afflicted;
LORD, give me life through Your word.

<sup>108</sup> LORD, please accept my willing offerings of praise, and teach me Your judgments.

<sup>109</sup> My life is constantly in danger, <sup>H</sup>
yet I do not forget Your instruction.

<sup>110</sup> The wicked have set a trap for me,
but I have not wandered from Your precepts.

<sup>111</sup> I have Your decrees as a heritage forever;
indeed, they are the joy of my heart.

<sup>112</sup> I am resolved to obey Your statutes to the very end. <sup>I</sup>

Samek

<sup>113</sup> I hate those who are double-minded,
but I love Your instruction.

<sup>114</sup> You are my shelter and my shield;

I put my hope in Your word.

<sup>115</sup> Depart from me, you evil ones,
so that I may obey my God's commands.

<sup>116</sup> Sustain me as You promised, and I will live;
do not let me be ashamed of my hope.

<sup>117</sup> Sustain me so that I can be safe and always be concerned about Your statutes.

<sup>118</sup> You reject all who stray from Your statutes,
for their deceit is a lie.

<sup>119</sup> You remove all the wicked on earth
as if they were dross;
therefore, I love Your decrees.

<sup>120</sup> I tremble <sup>J</sup> in awe of You;
I fear Your judgments.

Ayin

<sup>121</sup> I have done what is just and right;
do not leave me to my oppressors.

do not let the arrogant oppress me.

<sup>123</sup> My eyes grow weary looking for Your salvation and for Your righteous promise.

<sup>124</sup> Deal with Your servant based on Your faithful love;
teach me Your statutes.

<sup>125</sup> I am Your servant; give me understanding
so that I may know Your decrees.

<sup>126</sup> It is time for the LORD to act,
for they have violated Your instruction.

<sup>127</sup> Since I love Your commands
more than gold, even the purest gold,

<sup>128</sup> I carefully follow <sup>K</sup> all Your precepts and hate every false way.

Pe

<sup>129</sup> Your decrees are wonderful;

therefore I obey them.

<sup>130</sup> The revelation of Your words brings light
and gives understanding to the inexperienced.

<sup>131</sup> I open my mouth and pant
because I long for Your commands.

<sup>132</sup> Turn to me and be gracious to me,
as is Your practice toward those who love Your name.

<sup>133</sup> Make my steps steady through Your promise;
don't let any sin dominate me.

<sup>134</sup> Redeem me from human oppression,
and I will keep Your precepts.

<sup>135</sup> Show favor to Your servant,
and teach me Your statutes.

<sup>136</sup> My eyes pour out streams of tears
because people do not follow Your instruction.

Tsade

<sup>137</sup> You are righteous, LORD, and Your judgments are just.

<sup>138</sup> The decrees You issue are righteous and altogether trustworthy.

<sup>139</sup> My anger overwhelms me because my foes forget Your words.

<sup>140</sup> Your word is completely pure,
and Your servant loves it.

<sup>141</sup> I am insignificant and despised,
but I do not forget Your precepts.

<sup>142</sup> Your righteousness is an everlasting righteousness, and Your instruction is true.

<sup>143</sup> Trouble and distress have overtaken me,
but Your commands are my delight.

<sup>144</sup> Your decrees are righteous forever.
Give me understanding, and I will live.

Qof

<sup>145</sup> I call with all my heart; answer me, LORD.
I will obey Your statutes.
<sup>146</sup> I call to You; save me,
and I will keep Your decrees.
<sup>147</sup> I rise before dawn and cry out for help;
I put my hope in Your word.
<sup>148</sup> I am awake through each watch of the night to meditate on Your promise.
<sup>149</sup> In keeping with Your faithful love, hear my voice.
LORD, give me life in keeping with Your justice.
<sup>150</sup> Those who pursue evil plans come near;
they are far from Your instruction.
<sup>151</sup> You are near, LORD,
and all Your commands are true.
<sup>152</sup> Long ago I learned from Your decrees that You have established them forever.

Resh

<sup>153</sup> Consider my affliction and rescue me,
for I have not forgotten Your instruction.
<sup>154</sup> Defend my cause and redeem me;
give me life as You promised.
<sup>155</sup> Salvation is far from the wicked
because they do not seek Your statutes.
<sup>156</sup> Your compassions are many, LORD;
give me life according to Your judgments.
<sup>157</sup> My persecutors and foes are many.
I have not turned from Your decrees.
<sup>158</sup> I have seen the disloyal and feel disgust
because they do not keep Your word.
<sup>159</sup> Consider how I love Your precepts;
LORD, give me life according to Your faithful love.
<sup>160</sup> The entirety of Your word is truth,
and all Your righteous judgments endure forever.

Sin / ש Shin

161 Princes have persecuted me without cause,
but my heart fears only Your word.

162 I rejoice over Your promise
like one who finds vast treasure.

163 I hate and abhor falsehood,
but I love Your instruction.

164 I praise You seven times a day
for Your righteous judgments.

165 Abundant peace belongs to those who love Your instruction;
nothing makes them stumble.

166 LORD, I hope for Your salvation and carry out Your commands.

167 I obey Your decrees
and love them greatly.

168 I obey Your precepts and decrees,
for all my ways are before You.

169 Let my cry reach You, LORD;
give me understanding according to Your word.

170 Let my plea reach You;
rescue me according to Your promise.

171 My lips pour out praise,
for You teach me Your statutes.

172 My tongue sings about Your promise,
for all Your commands are righteous.

173 May Your hand be ready to help me,
for I have chosen Your precepts.

174 I long for Your salvation, LORD,
and Your instruction is my delight.

175 Let me live, and I will praise You;
may Your judgments help me.

176 I wander like a lost sheep;

seek Your servant,
for I do not forget Your commands.

<sup>2</sup> “LORD, deliver me from lying lips
and a deceitful tongue.”

<sup>3</sup> What will He give you,
and what will He do to you,
you deceitful tongue?

<sup>4</sup> A warrior’s sharp arrows with burning charcoal! <sup>A</sup>

<sup>5†</sup> What misery that I have stayed in Meshech, that I have lived among the tents of Kedar!

A Prayer for Jerusalem

122 I rejoiced with those who said to me,
“Let us go to the house of the LORD.”

<sup>2</sup> Our feet are standing within your gates, Jerusalem —

<sup>3</sup> Jerusalem, built as a city should be,
solidly joined together,

<sup>4†</sup> where the tribes, •Yahweh’s tribes, go up to give thanks to the name of Yahweh.

(This is an ordinance for Israel. )

<sup>5†</sup> There, thrones for judgment are placed, thrones of the house of David.

“May those who love you prosper;

<sup>7</sup> may there be peace within your walls, prosperity within your fortresses.”

<sup>8</sup> Because of my brothers and friends,
I will say, “Peace be with you.”

Lament of the Exiles

137 By the rivers of Babylon —
there we sat down and wept
when we remembered •Zion.

<sup>2†</sup> There we hung up our lyres
on the poplar trees,

<sup>3</sup> for our captors there asked us for songs,
and our tormentors, for rejoicing:

<sup>4</sup> How can we sing the LORD’s song
on foreign soil?

<sup>5†</sup> If I forget you, Jerusalem,
may my right hand forget its skill.

<sup>6</sup> May my tongue stick to the roof of my mouth
if I do not remember you,
if I do not exalt Jerusalem as my greatest joy!

<sup>7†</sup> Remember, LORD, what the Edomites said that day at Jerusalem: “Destroy it! Destroy it down to its foundations! ”

<sup>8</sup> Daughter Babylon, doomed to destruction, happy is the one who pays you back
what you have done to us.

<sup>9</sup> Happy is he who takes your little ones
and dashes them against the rocks.

A Thankful Heart

138 I will give You thanks with all my heart;
I will sing Your praise before the heavenly beings. <sup>A</sup>

<sup>2</sup> I will bow down toward Your holy temple and give thanks to Your name for Your constant love and truth.
You have exalted Your name and Your promise above everything else.

<sup>3</sup> On the day I called, You answered me;
You increased strength within me. <sup>B</sup>

<sup>4</sup> All the kings on earth will give You thanks, LORD,
when they hear what You have promised. <sup>C</sup>

<sup>5</sup> They will sing of the LORD's ways, for the LORD's glory is great.

<sup>6</sup> Though the LORD is exalted,
He takes note of the humble;
but He knows the haughty from a distance.

<sup>7</sup> If I walk into the thick of danger,
You will preserve my life
from the anger of my enemies.
You will extend Your hand;
Your right hand will save me.

<sup>8</sup> The LORD will fulfill His purpose for me.
LORD, Your love is eternal;
do not abandon the work of Your hands.

The All-Knowing, Ever-Present God

139 LORD, You have searched me and known me.
2† You know when I sit down and when I stand up;
You understand my thoughts from far away.
3 You observe my travels and my rest;
You are aware of all my ways.
4 Before a word is on my tongue,
You know all about it, LORD.
5† You have encircled me;
You have placed Your hand on me.
6 This extraordinary knowledge is beyond me.
It is lofty; I am unable to reach it.
7† Where can I go to escape Your Spirit?
Where can I flee from Your presence?
8 If I go up to heaven, You are there;
if I make my bed in •Sheol, You are there.
9 If I live at the eastern horizon or settle at the western limits, <sup>A</sup>
10 even there Your hand will lead me;
Your right hand will hold on to me.
11 If I say, “Surely the darkness will hide me,
and the light around me will be night” —
12 even the darkness is not dark to You.
The night shines like the day;
darkness and light are alike to You.
13 For it was You who created my inward parts; <sup>B</sup>
You knit me together in my mother’s womb.
14 I will praise You because I have been remarkably and wonderfully made.
Your works are wonderful,
and I know this very well.
15† My bones were not hidden from You
when I was made in secret,
when I was formed in the depths of the earth.
16† Your eyes saw me when I was formless;

all my days were written in Your book and planned before a single one of them began.

<sup>18</sup> If I counted them, they would outnumber the grains of sand; when I wake up, I am still with You.

Your enemies swear by You falsely.

<sup>21†</sup> LORD, don't I hate those who hate You, and detest those who rebel against You?

<sup>23</sup> Search me, God, and know my heart; test me and know my concerns.

<sup>24</sup> See if there is any offensive <sup>E</sup> way in me; lead me in the everlasting way.

Protection from Sin and Sinners

141 LORD, I call on You; hurry to help me.
Listen to my voice when I call on You.

<sup>2</sup> May my prayer be set before You as incense,
the raising of my hands as the evening offering.

<sup>3</sup> LORD, set up a guard for my mouth;
keep watch at the door of my lips.

<sup>4</sup> Do not let my heart turn to any evil thing or perform wicked acts
with men who commit sin.

Do not let me feast on their delicacies.

<sup>5</sup> Let the righteous one strike me —
it is an act of faithful love; let him rebuke me —
it is oil for my head;
let me <sup>A</sup> not refuse it.

Even now my prayer is against the evil acts of the wicked. <sup>B</sup>,

<sup>6</sup> When their rulers <sup>C</sup> will be thrown off

144 May the LORD, my rock, be praised,
who trains my hands for battle
and my fingers for warfare.

<sup>2</sup> He is my faithful love and my fortress,
my stronghold and my deliverer.
He is my shield, and I take refuge in Him;
He subdues my people under me.

<sup>3</sup> LORD, what is man, that You care for him,
the son of man, that You think of him?

<sup>4</sup> Man is like a breath;
his days are like a passing shadow.

<sup>5</sup> LORD, part Your heavens and come down.
Touch the mountains, and they will smoke.

<sup>6</sup> Flash Your lightning and scatter the foe; <sup>A</sup> shoot Your arrows and rout them.

<sup>7</sup> Reach down <sup>B</sup> from heaven;
rescue me from deep water, and set me free
from the grasp of foreigners

<sup>8</sup> whose mouths speak lies,
whose right hands are deceptive.

<sup>9</sup> God, I will sing a new song to You;
I will play on a ten-stringed harp for You —

<sup>10</sup> the One who gives victory to kings, who frees His servant David
from the deadly sword.

<sup>11</sup> Set me free and rescue me
from the grasp of foreigners

PROVERBS

The Purpose of Proverbs

1 The proverbs of Solomon son of David, king of Israel:

<sup>2</sup> For learning what wisdom and discipline are;
for understanding insightful sayings;

<sup>3</sup> for receiving wise instruction
in righteousness, justice, and integrity;

<sup>4</sup> for teaching shrewdness to the inexperienced, <sup>A</sup>,
knowledge and discretion to a young man —

<sup>5</sup> a wise man will listen and increase his learning, and a discerning man will obtain guidance —

<sup>6</sup> for understanding a proverb or a parable, <sup>B</sup>
the words of the wise, and their riddles.

<sup>7†</sup> The •fear of the LORD
is the beginning of knowledge;
fools despise wisdom and discipline.

Avoid the Path of the Violent

<sup>8†</sup> Listen, my son, to your father's instruction,
and don't reject your mother's teaching,
<sup>9</sup> for they will be a garland of grace on your head and a gold chain around your neck.

<sup>10†</sup> My son, if sinners entice you,
don't be persuaded.

<sup>11</sup> If they say — "Come with us!

Let's set an ambush and kill someone. <sup>C</sup>

Let's attack some innocent person just for fun! <sup>D</sup>

still healthy as they go down to the •Pit.

<sup>13</sup> We'll find all kinds of valuable property and fill our houses with plunder.

<sup>14</sup> Throw in your lot with us,
and we'll all share our money" <sup>E</sup> —

<sup>15</sup> my son, don't travel that road with them
or set foot on their path,

<sup>16</sup> because their feet run toward trouble and they hurry to commit murder. <sup>F</sup>, <sup>17</sup> It is foolish to spread a net
where any bird can see it, <sup>18</sup> but they set an ambush to kill themselves; <sup>G</sup>
they attack their own lives.
<sup>19†</sup> Such are the paths of all who make profit dishonestly;
it takes the lives of those who receive it. <sup>H</sup>

Wisdom's Plea

<sup>20†</sup> Wisdom calls out in the street;
she raises her voice in the public squares.
<sup>21</sup> She cries out above <sup>I</sup> the commotion;
she speaks at the entrance of the city •gates:
<sup>22</sup> “How long, foolish ones, will you love ignorance?
How long will you mockers enjoy mocking and you fools hate knowledge?
<sup>23</sup> If you respond to my warning, <sup>J</sup>
then I will pour out my spirit on you and teach you my words.
<sup>24</sup> Since I called out and you refused,
extended my hand and no one paid attention, <sup>25</sup> since you neglected all my counsel
and did not accept my correction, <sup>26</sup> I, in turn, will laugh at your calamity.
I will mock when terror strikes you,
<sup>27</sup> when terror strikes you like a storm
and your calamity comes like a whirlwind,
when trouble and stress overcome you.
<sup>28</sup> Then they will call me, but I won't answer;
they will search for me, but won't find me.
<sup>29</sup> Because they hated knowledge,
didn't choose to fear the LORD, <sup>30</sup> were not interested in my counsel,

and rejected all my correction,

<sup>31</sup> they will eat the fruit of their way
and be gluttoned with their own schemes.

<sup>32</sup> For the turning away of the inexperienced will kill them, and the complacency of fools will destroy them.

<sup>33</sup> But whoever listens to me will live securely and be free from the fear of danger.”

Wisdom's Worth

2 My son, if you accept my words
and store up my commands within you, 2 listening closely <sup>A</sup> to wisdom
and directing your heart to understanding;
3 furthermore, if you call out to insight and lift your voice to understanding, 4 if you seek it like silver and search for it like hidden treasure,
5† then you will understand the •fear of the LORD and discover the knowledge of God.
6 For the LORD gives wisdom;
from His mouth come knowledge and understanding.
7 He stores up success <sup>B</sup> for the upright;
He is a shield for those who live with integrity
8 so that He may guard the paths of justice and protect the way of His loyal followers.
9 Then you will understand righteousness, justice,
and integrity — every good path.
10 For wisdom will enter your mind,
and knowledge will delight your heart.
11 Discretion will watch over you,
and understanding will guard you, 12† rescuing you from the way of evil —
from the one who says perverse things, 13 from those who abandon the right paths
to walk in ways of darkness, 14 from those who enjoy doing evil
and celebrate perversion, 15 whose paths are crooked,
and whose ways are devious.
16 It will rescue you from a forbidden woman,
from a stranger <sup>C</sup> with her flattering talk, 17 who abandons the companion of her youth
and forgets the covenant of her God;

<sup>18</sup> for her house sinks down to death
and her ways to the land of the departed spirits.

<sup>19</sup> None return who go to her;
none reach the paths of life.

<sup>20</sup> So follow the way of good people,
and keep to the paths of the righteous.

<sup>21</sup> For the upright will inhabit the land,
and those of integrity will remain in it;

<sup>22</sup> but the wicked will be cut off from the land, and the treacherous uprooted from it.

Trust the LORD

3 My son, don't forget my teaching,
but let your heart keep my commands;
2 for they will bring you many days, a full life, <sup>A</sup>, and well-being.
3† Never let loyalty and faithfulness leave you.
Tie them around your neck;
write them on the tablet of your heart.
4 Then you will find favor and high regard in the sight of God and man.
5† Trust in the LORD with all your heart,
and do not rely on your own understanding;
6 think about Him in all your ways,
and He will guide you on the right paths. <sup>B</sup>,
7 Don't consider yourself to be wise;
•fear the LORD and turn away from evil.
8 This will be healing for your body <sup>C</sup>,
and strengthening for your bones.
9† Honor the LORD with your possessions
and with the first produce of your entire harvest; 10† then your barns will be completely filled,
and your vats will overflow with new wine.
11 Do not despise the LORD's instruction, my son,
and do not loathe His discipline;
12 for the LORD disciplines the one He loves,
just as a father, the son he delights in.

Wisdom Brings Happiness

13† Happy is a man who finds wisdom and who acquires understanding, 14 for she is more profitable than silver,
and her revenue is better than gold.
15 She is more precious than jewels;
nothing you desire compares with her.
16 Long life <sup>D</sup> is in her right hand;
in her left, riches and honor.
17† Her ways are pleasant,
and all her paths, peaceful.
18 She is a tree of life to those who embrace her,
and those who hold on to her are happy.
19 The LORD founded the earth by wisdom and established the heavens by understanding.
20 By His knowledge the watery depths broke open,
and the clouds dripped with dew.
21† Maintain your competence and discretion.
My son, don't lose sight of them.
22 They will be life for you <sup>E</sup> , ,
and adornment <sup>F</sup> for your neck.
23 Then you will go safely on your way;
your foot will not stumble.
24 When you lie down, you will not be afraid;
you will lie down, and your sleep will be pleasant.
25 Don't fear sudden danger or the ruin of the wicked when it comes, 26 for the LORD will be your confidence <sup>G</sup>
and will keep your foot from a snare.

Treat Others Fairly

27 When it is in your power, <sup>H</sup>
don't withhold good from the one it belongs to.
28 Don't say to your neighbor, "Go away! Come back later.

I'll give it tomorrow" — when it is there with you.

<sup>29</sup> Don't plan any harm against your neighbor,
for he trusts you and lives near you.

<sup>30</sup> Don't accuse anyone without cause,
when he has done you no harm.

<sup>31</sup> Don't envy a violent man
or choose any of his ways;

<sup>32</sup> for the devious are detestable to the LORD,
but He is a friend <sup>I</sup> to the upright.

<sup>33</sup> The LORD's curse is on the household of the wicked,
but He blesses the home of the righteous;

<sup>34</sup> He mocks those who mock,
but gives grace to the humble.

<sup>35</sup> The wise will inherit honor,
but He holds up fools to dishonor. <sup>J</sup>

A Father's Example

<sup>4</sup> Listen, my sons, to a father's discipline,
and pay attention so that you may gain understanding, <sup>2</sup> for I am giving you good instruction.
Don't abandon my teaching.
<sup>3</sup> When I was a son with my father,
tender and precious to my mother, <sup>4</sup> he taught me and said:
"Your heart must hold on to my words.
Keep my commands and live.
<sup>5</sup> Get wisdom, get understanding;
don't forget or turn away from the words of my mouth.
<sup>6</sup> Don't abandon wisdom, and she will watch over you;
love her, and she will guard you.
<sup>7</sup> Wisdom is supreme — so get wisdom.
And whatever else you get, get understanding.
<sup>8</sup> Cherish her, and she will exalt you;
if you embrace her, she will honor you.
<sup>9</sup> She will place a garland of grace on your head;
she will give you a crown of beauty."

Two Ways of Life

<sup>10</sup> Listen, my son. Accept my words, and you will live many years.
<sup>11</sup> I am teaching you the way of wisdom;
I am guiding you on straight paths.
<sup>12</sup> When you walk, your steps will not be hindered;
when you run, you will not stumble.
<sup>13</sup> Hold on to instruction; don't let go.
Guard it, for it is your life.
<sup>14</sup> Don't set foot on the path of the wicked;
don't proceed in the way of evil ones.
<sup>15</sup> Avoid it; don't travel on it.
Turn away from it, and pass it by.
<sup>16</sup> For they can't sleep

unless they have done what is evil;
they are robbed of sleep
unless they make someone stumble.

<sup>17</sup> They eat the bread of wickedness and drink the wine of violence.

<sup>18</sup> The path of the righteous is like the light of dawn, shining brighter and brighter until midday.

<sup>19</sup> But the way of the wicked is like the darkest gloom;
they don't know what makes them stumble.

The Straight Path

<sup>20</sup> My son, pay attention to my words;
listen closely to my sayings.

<sup>21</sup> Don't lose sight of them;
keep them within your heart.

<sup>22</sup> For they are life to those who find them,
and health to one's whole body.

<sup>23†</sup> Guard your heart above all else, <sup>A</sup>
for it is the source of life.

<sup>24</sup> Don't let your mouth speak dishonestly,
and don't let your lips talk deviously.

<sup>25</sup> Let your eyes look forward;
fix your gaze <sup>B</sup> straight ahead.

and all your ways will be established.

<sup>27</sup> Don't turn to the right or to the left;
keep your feet away from evil.

Avoid Seduction

5 My son, pay attention to my wisdom;
listen closely <sup>A</sup> to my understanding 2 so that you may maintain discretion and your lips safeguard knowledge.
3 Though the lips of the forbidden woman drip honey
and her words are <sup>B</sup> smoother than oil, 4 in the end she's as bitter as •wormwood
and as sharp as a double-edged sword.
5 Her feet go down to death;
her steps head straight for •Sheol.
6 She doesn't consider the path of life;
she doesn't know that her ways are unstable.
7 So now, my sons, listen to me,
and don't turn away from the words of my mouth.
8 Keep your way far from her.
Don't go near the door of her house.
9 Otherwise, you will give up your vitality to others and your years to someone cruel;
10 strangers will drain your resources,
and your earnings will end up in a foreigner's house.
11 At the end of your life, you will lament
when your physical body has been consumed, 12 and you will say, "How I hated discipline,
and how my heart despised correction.
13 I didn't obey my teachers or listen closely <sup>C</sup> to my mentors.
14 I am on the verge of complete ruin
before the entire community."

Enjoy Marriage

15† Drink water from your own cistern,
water flowing from your own well.
16 Should your springs flow in the streets,

streams of water in the public squares?

<sup>17</sup> They should be for you alone and not for you to share with strangers.

<sup>18</sup> Let your fountain be blessed,
and take pleasure in the wife of your youth.

<sup>19</sup> A loving doe, a graceful fawn —
let her breasts always satisfy you;
be lost in her love forever.

<sup>20</sup> Why, my son, would you be infatuated with a forbidden woman or embrace the breast of a stranger?

<sup>21</sup> For a man's ways are before the LORD's eyes, and He considers all his paths.

<sup>22</sup> A wicked man's iniquities entrap him;
he is entangled in the ropes of his own sin.

<sup>23</sup> He will die because there is no discipline,
and be lost because of his great stupidity.

Financial Entanglements

6 My son, if you have put up security for your neighbor <sup>A</sup> or entered into an agreement with <sup>B</sup> a stranger, <sup>2</sup> you have been trapped by the words of your lips <sup>C</sup> — ensnared by the words of your mouth.
<sup>3</sup> Do this, then, my son, and free yourself,
for you have put yourself in your neighbor's power:
Go, humble yourself, and plead with your neighbor.
<sup>4</sup> Don't give sleep to your eyes
or slumber to your eyelids.
<sup>5</sup> Escape like a gazelle from a hunter, <sup>D</sup> like a bird from a fowler's trap. <sup>E</sup>

Laziness

<sup>6</sup> Go to the ant, you slacker!
Observe its ways and become wise.
<sup>7</sup> Without leader, administrator, or ruler, <sup>8</sup> it prepares its provisions in summer;
it gathers its food during harvest.
<sup>9</sup> How long will you stay in bed, you slacker?
When will you get up from your sleep?
<sup>10</sup> A little sleep, a little slumber,
a little folding of the arms to rest,
<sup>11</sup> and your poverty will come like a robber,
your need, like a bandit.

The Malicious Man

<sup>12</sup> A worthless person, a wicked man goes around speaking dishonestly, <sup>13</sup> winking his eyes, signaling with his feet,
and gesturing with his fingers.
<sup>14</sup> He always plots evil with perversity in his heart —
he stirs up trouble.
<sup>15†</sup> Therefore calamity will strike him suddenly;

he will be shattered instantly — beyond recovery.

What the LORD Hates

<sup>16</sup> The LORD hates six things;
in fact, seven are detestable to Him:
<sup>17</sup> arrogant eyes, a lying tongue,
hands that shed innocent blood, <sup>18</sup> a heart that plots wicked schemes,
feet eager to run to evil, <sup>19</sup> a lying witness who gives false testimony,
and one who stirs up trouble among brothers.

Warning against Adultery

<sup>20†</sup> My son, keep your father's command,
and don't reject your mother's teaching.
<sup>21</sup> Always bind them to your heart;
tie them around your neck.
<sup>22</sup> When you walk here and there, they will guide you;
when you lie down, they will watch over you;
when you wake up, they will talk to you.
<sup>23</sup> For a command is a lamp, teaching is a light,
and corrective discipline is the way to life.
<sup>24</sup> They will protect you from an evil woman,
from the flattering <sup>F</sup> tongue of a stranger.
<sup>25</sup> Don't lust in your heart for her beauty or let her captivate you with her eyelashes.
<sup>26</sup> For a prostitute's fee is only a loaf of bread, <sup>G</sup>
but an adulteress <sup>H</sup> goes after a precious life.
<sup>27</sup> Can a man embrace fire <sup>I</sup>
and his clothes not be burned?
<sup>28†</sup> Can a man walk on burning coals
without scorching his feet?
<sup>29</sup> So it is with the one who sleeps with another man's wife;

no one who touches her will go unpunished.

<sup>30</sup> People don't despise the thief if he steals to satisfy himself when he is hungry.

<sup>31</sup> Still, if caught, he must pay seven times as much;
he must give up all the wealth in his house.

whoever does so destroys himself.

<sup>33</sup> He will get a beating <sup>K</sup> and dishonor,
and his disgrace will never be removed.

<sup>34</sup> For jealousy enrages a husband,
and he will show no mercy when he takes revenge.

<sup>35</sup> He will not be appeased by anything or be persuaded by lavish gifts.

as the pupil of your eye.
3 Tie them to your fingers;
write them on the tablet of your heart.
4 Say to wisdom, “You are my sister,”

A Story of Seduction

6 At the window of my house
I looked through my lattice.
7 I saw among the inexperienced, <sup>A</sup>
I noticed among the youths,
a young man lacking sense.
8 Crossing the street near her corner,
he strolled down the road to her house 9 at twilight, in the evening, in the dark of the night.
10 A woman came to meet him
dressed like a prostitute, having a hidden agenda. <sup>B</sup> 11 She is loud and defiant;
her feet do not stay at home.
12 Now in the street, now in the squares,
she lurks at every corner.
13 She grabs him and kisses him;
she brazenly says <sup>C</sup> to him, 14 “I’ve made •fellowship offerings;
today I’ve fulfilled my vows.
15 So I came out to meet you,

to search for you, and I've found you.

<sup>16</sup> I've spread coverings on my bed —
richly colored linen from Egypt.

<sup>17</sup> I've perfumed my bed
with myrrh, aloes, and cinnamon.

<sup>18</sup> Come, let's drink deeply of lovemaking until morning.
Let's feast on each other's love!

<sup>19</sup> My husband isn't home;
he went on a long journey.

<sup>20</sup> He took a bag of money with him and will come home at the time of the full moon."

<sup>21</sup> She seduces him with her persistent pleading;
she lures with her flattering <sup>D</sup> talk.

<sup>22</sup> He follows her impulsively
like an ox going to the slaughter,
like a deer bounding toward a trap

<sup>23</sup> until an arrow pierces its <sup>E</sup> liver, like a bird darting into a snare —
he doesn't know it will cost him his life.

<sup>24</sup> Now, my sons, listen to me,
and pay attention to the words of my mouth.

<sup>25</sup> Don't let your heart turn aside to her ways;
don't stray onto her paths.

<sup>26</sup> For she has brought many down to death;
her victims are countless. <sup>F</sup>

descending to the chambers of death.

my cry is to mankind.

<sup>5</sup> Learn to be shrewd, you who are inexperienced;
develop common sense, you who are foolish.

<sup>6</sup> Listen, for I speak of noble things,
and what my lips say is right.

<sup>7</sup> For my mouth tells the truth,
and wickedness is detestable to my lips.

<sup>8</sup> All the words of my mouth are righteous;
none of them are deceptive or perverse.

<sup>9</sup> All of them are clear to the perceptive,
and right to those who discover knowledge.

<sup>10</sup> Accept my instruction instead of silver,
and knowledge rather than pure gold.

<sup>11</sup> For wisdom is better than jewels,
and nothing desirable can compare with it.

<sup>12</sup> I, Wisdom, share a home with shrewdness
and have knowledge and discretion.

<sup>13</sup> To •fear the LORD is to hate evil.

I hate arrogant pride, evil conduct,
and perverse speech.

<sup>14</sup> I possess good advice and competence; <sup>B</sup>
I have understanding and strength.

<sup>15</sup> It is by me that kings reign
and rulers enact just law;

<sup>16</sup> by me, princes lead,
as do nobles and all righteous judges.

<sup>17†</sup> I love those who love me,
and those who search for me find me.

<sup>18</sup> With me are riches and honor,
lasting wealth and righteousness.

<sup>19</sup> My fruit is better than solid gold,
and my harvest than pure silver.

<sup>20</sup> I walk in the way of righteousness,
along the paths of justice,

<sup>21</sup> giving wealth as an inheritance to those who love me, and filling their treasuries.

A Collection of Solomon's Proverbs

10 Solomon's proverbs:

A wise son brings joy to his father,
but a foolish son, heartache to his mother.

<sup>2</sup> Ill-gotten gains do not profit anyone,
but righteousness rescues from death.

<sup>3†</sup> The LORD will not let the righteous go hungry,
but He denies the wicked what they crave.

<sup>4</sup> Idle hands make one poor,
but diligent hands bring riches.

<sup>5</sup> The son who gathers during summer is prudent;
the son who sleeps during harvest is disgraceful.

<sup>6†</sup> Blessings are on the head of the righteous,
but the mouth of the wicked conceals violence.

<sup>7</sup> The remembrance of the righteous is a blessing,
but the name of the wicked will rot.

<sup>8</sup> A wise heart accepts commands,
but foolish lips will be destroyed.

<sup>9</sup> The one who lives with integrity lives securely,
but whoever perverts his ways will be found out.

<sup>10</sup> A sly wink of the eye causes grief,
and foolish lips will be destroyed.

<sup>11</sup> The mouth of the righteous is a fountain of life,
but the mouth of the wicked conceals violence.

<sup>12</sup> Hatred stirs up conflicts,
but love covers all offenses.

<sup>13</sup> Wisdom is found on the lips of the discerning,
but a rod is for the back of the one who lacks sense.

<sup>14</sup> The wise store up knowledge,
but the mouth of the fool hastens destruction.

<sup>15</sup> A rich man's wealth is his fortified city;
the poverty of the poor is their destruction.

<sup>16</sup> The labor of the righteous leads to life;
the activity of the wicked leads to sin.

<sup>17</sup> The one who follows instruction is on the path to life,
but the one who rejects correction goes astray.

<sup>18†</sup> The one who conceals hatred has lying lips,
and whoever spreads slander is a fool.

<sup>19</sup> When there are many words, sin is unavoidable,
but the one who controls his lips is wise.

<sup>20</sup> The tongue of the righteous is pure silver;
the heart of the wicked is of little value.

<sup>21</sup> The lips of the righteous feed many,
but fools die for lack of sense.

<sup>22</sup> The LORD's blessing enriches, and struggle adds nothing to it. <sup>A</sup>

so wisdom is for a man of understanding.

<sup>24</sup> What the wicked dreads will come to him,
but what the righteous desire will be given to them.

<sup>25</sup> When the whirlwind passes,
the wicked are no more,
but the righteous are secure forever.

<sup>26</sup> Like vinegar to the teeth and smoke to the eyes, so the slacker is to the one who sends him on an errand.

<sup>27†</sup> The •fear of the LORD prolongs life, <sup>B</sup>
but the years of the wicked are cut short.

<sup>28</sup> The hope of the righteous is joy,
but the expectation of the wicked comes to nothing.

<sup>29</sup> The way of the LORD is a stronghold for the honorable,
but destruction awaits the malicious.

<sup>30†</sup> The righteous will never be shaken,
but the wicked will not remain on the earth.

<sup>31</sup> The mouth of the righteous produces wisdom,
but a perverse tongue will be cut out.

<sup>32</sup> The lips of the righteous know what is appropriate,
but the mouth of the wicked, only what is perverse.

PROVERBS

11 Dishonest scales are detestable to the LORD,
but an accurate weight is His delight.

<sup>2</sup> When pride comes, disgrace follows,
but with humility comes wisdom.

<sup>3</sup> The integrity of the upright guides them,
but the perversity of the treacherous destroys them.

<sup>4</sup> Wealth is not profitable on a day of wrath,
but righteousness rescues from death.

<sup>5</sup> The righteousness of the blameless clears his path,
but the wicked person will fall because of his wickedness.

<sup>6</sup> The righteousness of the upright rescues them,
but the treacherous are trapped by their own desires.

<sup>7</sup> When the wicked man dies,
his expectation comes to nothing,
and hope placed in wealth vanishes.

<sup>8</sup> The righteous one is rescued from trouble;
in his place, the wicked one goes in.

<sup>9</sup> With his mouth the ungodly destroys his neighbor,
but through knowledge the righteous are rescued.

<sup>10</sup> When the righteous thrive, a city rejoices,
and when the wicked die, there is joyful shouting.

<sup>11</sup> A city is built up by the blessing of the upright,
but it is torn down by the mouth of the wicked.

<sup>12</sup> Whoever shows contempt for his neighbor lacks sense,
but a man with understanding keeps silent.

<sup>13</sup> A gossip goes around revealing a secret,
but a trustworthy person keeps a confidence.

but with many counselors there is deliverance.

15 If someone puts up security for a stranger,
he will suffer for it,
but the one who hates such agreements is protected.

16 A gracious woman gains honor,
but violent <sup>B</sup> men gain only riches.

17 A kind man benefits himself,
but a cruel man brings disaster on himself.

18 The wicked man earns an empty wage,
but the one who sows righteousness, a true reward.

19† Genuine righteousness leads to life,
but pursuing evil leads to death.

20 Those with twisted minds are detestable to the LORD,
but those with blameless conduct are His delight.

21 Be assured <sup>C</sup> that the wicked
will not go unpunished,
but the offspring of the righteous will escape.

22† A beautiful woman who rejects good sense is like a gold ring in a pig's snout.

23 The desire of the righteous turns out well,
but the hope of the wicked leads to wrath.

24 One person gives freely,
yet gains more;
another withholds what is right,
only to become poor.

25 A generous person will be enriched,
and the one who gives a drink of water
will receive water.

26 People will curse anyone who hoards grain,
but a blessing will come to the one who sells it.

27 The one who searches for what is good finds favor,

but if someone looks for trouble, it will come to him.

<sup>28</sup> Anyone trusting in his riches will fall,
but the righteous will flourish like foliage.

<sup>29</sup> The one who brings ruin on his household will inherit the wind,
and a fool will be a slave
to someone whose heart is wise.

<sup>30</sup> The fruit of the righteous is a tree of life, but violence takes lives.

<sup>31</sup> If the righteous will be repaid on earth,
how much more the wicked and sinful.

PROVERBS

12 Whoever loves discipline loves knowledge,
but one who hates correction is stupid.

<sup>2</sup> The good person obtains favor from the LORD,
but He condemns a man who schemes.

<sup>3</sup> Man cannot be made secure by wickedness,
but the root of the righteous is immovable.

<sup>4</sup> A capable wife <sup>A</sup> is her husband's crown,
but a wife who causes shame
is like rottenness in his bones.

<sup>5</sup> The thoughts of the righteous are just,
but guidance from the wicked leads to deceit.

<sup>6</sup> The words of the wicked are a deadly ambush,
but the speech of the upright rescues them.

<sup>7</sup> The wicked are overthrown and perish,
but the house of the righteous will stand.

<sup>8</sup> A man is praised for his insight,
but a twisted mind is despised.

<sup>9</sup> Better to be dishonored, yet have a servant,
than to act important but have no food.

<sup>10</sup> A righteous man cares about his animal's health,
but even the merciful acts of the wicked are cruel.

<sup>11</sup> The one who works his land will have plenty of food,
but whoever chases fantasies lacks sense.

<sup>12</sup> The wicked desire what evil men have, <sup>B</sup>
but the root of the righteous produces fruit.

but a righteous one escapes from trouble.

<sup>14</sup> A man will be satisfied with good
by the words of his mouth,

and the work of a man's hands will reward him.

<sup>15</sup> A fool's way is right in his own eyes,
but whoever listens to counsel is wise.

<sup>16</sup> A fool's displeasure is known at once,
but whoever ignores an insult is sensible.

<sup>17</sup> Whoever speaks the truth declares what is right,
but a false witness, deceit.

<sup>18</sup> There is one who speaks rashly,
like a piercing sword;
but the tongue of the wise brings healing.

<sup>19</sup> Truthful lips endure forever,
but a lying tongue, only a moment.

<sup>20</sup> Deceit is in the hearts of those who plot evil,
but those who promote peace have joy.

<sup>21†</sup> No disaster overcomes the righteous,
but the wicked are full of misery.

<sup>22</sup> Lying lips are detestable to the LORD,
but faithful people are His delight.

<sup>23</sup> A shrewd person conceals knowledge,
but a foolish heart publicizes stupidity.

<sup>24</sup> The diligent hand will rule,
but laziness will lead to forced labor.

<sup>25</sup> Anxiety in a man's heart weighs it down,
but a good word cheers it up.

<sup>26</sup> A righteous man is careful in dealing with his neighbor, <sup>C</sup>
but the ways of the wicked lead them astray.

<sup>27</sup> A lazy man doesn't roast his game,
but to a diligent man, his wealth is precious.

<sup>28</sup> There is life in the path of righteousness, but another path leads to death. <sup>D</sup>

PROVERBS

13 A wise son responds to his father's discipline,
but a mocker doesn't listen to rebuke.

<sup>2</sup> From the words of his mouth,
a man will enjoy good things,
but treacherous people have an appetite for violence.

<sup>3</sup> The one who guards his mouth protects his life;
the one who opens his lips invites his own ruin.

<sup>4</sup> The slacker craves, yet has nothing,
but the diligent is fully satisfied.

<sup>5</sup> The righteous hate lying,
but the wicked act disgustingly and disgracefully.

<sup>6</sup> Righteousness guards people of integrity, <sup>A</sup>
but wickedness undermines the sinner.

<sup>7</sup> One man pretends to be rich but has nothing;
another pretends to be poor but has great wealth.

<sup>8</sup> Riches are a ransom for a man's life,
but a poor man hears no threat.

<sup>9</sup> The light of the righteous shines brightly,
but the lamp of the wicked is put out.

<sup>10</sup> Arrogance leads to nothing but strife,
but wisdom is gained by those who take advice.

<sup>11</sup> Wealth obtained by fraud will dwindle, but whoever earns it through labor <sup>B</sup> will multiply it.

<sup>12</sup> Delayed hope makes the heart sick,
but fulfilled desire is a tree of life.

<sup>13</sup> The one who has contempt for instruction will pay the penalty,
but the one who respects a command will be rewarded.

<sup>14</sup> A wise man's instruction is a fountain of life,
turning people away from the snares of death.

but the way of the treacherous never changes.

<sup>16</sup> Every sensible person acts knowledgeably,
but a fool displays his stupidity.

<sup>17</sup> A wicked messenger falls into trouble,
but a trustworthy courier brings healing.

<sup>18</sup> Poverty and disgrace come to those who ignore discipline,
but the one who accepts correction will be honored.

<sup>19</sup> Desire fulfilled is sweet to the taste,
but to turn from evil
is an abomination to fools.

<sup>20</sup> The one who walks with the wise will become wise,
but a companion of fools will suffer harm.

<sup>21</sup> Disaster pursues sinners,
but good rewards the righteous.

<sup>22</sup> A good man leaves an inheritance to his <sup>C</sup> grandchildren,
but the sinner's wealth is stored up for the righteous.

but without justice, it is swept away.

<sup>24†</sup> The one who will not use the rod hates his son,
but the one who loves him disciplines him diligently.

<sup>25†</sup> A righteous man eats until he is satisfied,
but the stomach of the wicked is empty.

PROVERBS

14 Every wise woman builds her house,
but a foolish one tears it down with her own hands.

<sup>2</sup> Whoever lives with integrity •fears the LORD,
but the one who is devious in his ways despises Him.

<sup>3</sup> The proud speech of a fool brings a rod of discipline,
but the lips of the wise protect them.

<sup>4</sup> Where there are no oxen, the feeding trough is empty, <sup>A</sup>
but an abundant harvest comes through the strength of an ox.

<sup>5</sup> An honest witness does not deceive,
but a dishonest witness utters lies.

<sup>6</sup> A mocker seeks wisdom and doesn't find it,
but knowledge comes easily to the perceptive.

<sup>7</sup> Stay away from a foolish man;
you will gain no knowledge from his speech.

<sup>8</sup> The sensible man's wisdom is to consider his way,
but the stupidity of fools deceives them.

<sup>9</sup> Fools mock at making restitution, <sup>B</sup>
but there is goodwill among the upright.

<sup>10</sup> The heart knows its own bitterness,
and no outsider shares in its joy.

<sup>11</sup> The house of the wicked will be destroyed, but the tent of the upright will stand. <sup>C</sup>

<sup>12</sup> There is a way that seems right to a man,
but its end is the way to death.

<sup>13</sup> Even in laughter a heart may be sad,
and joy may end in grief.

<sup>14</sup> The disloyal one will get what his conduct deserves,
and a good man, what his deeds deserve.

- 15† The inexperienced one believes anything, but the sensible one watches <sup>D</sup> his steps.
- 16 A wise man is cautious and turns from evil,
but a fool is easily angered and is careless. <sup>E</sup>
- 17 A quick-tempered man acts foolishly,
and a man who schemes is hated.
- 18 The inexperienced inherit foolishness,
but the sensible are crowned with knowledge.
- 19 The evil bow before those who are good,
the wicked, at the gates of the righteous.
- 20 A poor man is hated even by his neighbor,
but there are many who love the rich.
- 21 The one who despises his neighbor sins,
but whoever shows kindness to the poor will be happy.
- 22 Don't those who plan evil go astray?
But those who plan good find loyalty and faithfulness.
- 23 There is profit in all hard work,
but endless talk <sup>F</sup> leads only to poverty.
- 24 The crown of the wise is their wealth,
but the foolishness of fools produces foolishness.
- 25 A truthful witness rescues lives,
but one who utters lies is deceitful.
- 26 In the fear of the LORD one has strong confidence and his children have a refuge.
- 27 The fear of the LORD is a fountain of life,
turning people away from the snares of death.
- 28 A large population is a king's splendor,
but a shortage of people is a ruler's devastation.

<sup>29</sup> A patient person shows great understanding,
but a quick-tempered one promotes foolishness.

<sup>30</sup> A tranquil heart is life to the body,
but jealousy is rottenness to the bones.

but one who is kind to the needy honors Him.

<sup>32</sup> The wicked one is thrown down by his own sin,
but the righteous one has a refuge in his death.

<sup>33</sup> Wisdom resides in the heart of the discerning;
she is known even among fools.

<sup>34</sup> Righteousness exalts a nation,
but sin is a disgrace to any people.

<sup>35</sup> A king favors a wise servant,
but his anger falls on a disgraceful one.

PROVERBS

15 A gentle answer turns away anger,
but a harsh word stirs up wrath.

<sup>2</sup> The tongue of the wise makes knowledge attractive,
but the mouth of fools blurts out foolishness.

<sup>3</sup> The eyes of the LORD are everywhere,
observing the wicked and the good.

<sup>4</sup> The tongue that heals is a tree of life,
but a devious tongue <sup>A</sup> breaks the spirit.

<sup>5</sup> A fool despises his father's discipline,
but a person who accepts correction is sensible.

<sup>6</sup> The house of the righteous has great wealth,
but trouble accompanies the income of the wicked.

but not so the heart of fools.

<sup>8</sup> The sacrifice of the wicked is detestable to the LORD,
but the prayer of the upright is His delight.

<sup>9</sup> The LORD detests the way of the wicked,
but He loves the one who pursues righteousness.

<sup>10</sup> Discipline is harsh for the one who leaves the path;
the one who hates correction will die.

<sup>11</sup> •Sheol and •Abaddon lie open before the LORD —
how much more, human hearts.

<sup>12</sup> A mocker doesn't love one who corrects him;
he will not consult the wise.

<sup>13</sup> A joyful heart makes a face cheerful,
but a sad heart produces a broken spirit.

<sup>14</sup> A discerning mind seeks knowledge,
but the mouth of fools feeds on foolishness.

<sup>15</sup> All the days of the oppressed are miserable,

but a cheerful heart has a continual feast.

<sup>16</sup> Better a little with the •fear of the LORD
than great treasure with turmoil.

<sup>17</sup> Better a meal of vegetables where there is love than a fattened ox with hatred.

<sup>18</sup> A hot-tempered man stirs up conflict,
but a man slow to anger calms strife.

<sup>19</sup> A slacker's way is like a thorny hedge,
but the path of the upright is a highway.

<sup>20</sup> A wise son brings joy to his father,
but a foolish man despises his mother.

<sup>21</sup> Foolishness brings joy to one without sense,
but a man with understanding walks a straight path.

<sup>22</sup> Plans fail when there is no counsel,
but with many advisers they succeed.

<sup>23</sup> A man takes joy in giving an answer; <sup>B</sup>
and a timely word — how good that is!

so that he may avoid going down to Sheol.

<sup>25</sup> The LORD destroys the house of the proud,
but He protects the widow's territory.

<sup>26</sup> The LORD detests the plans of an evil man,
but pleasant words are pure.

<sup>27</sup> The one who profits dishonestly troubles his household,
but the one who hates bribes will live.

but the mouth of the wicked blurts out evil things.

<sup>29†</sup> The LORD is far from the wicked,
but He hears the prayer of the righteous.

<sup>30</sup> Bright eyes cheer the heart;
good news strengthens <sup>C</sup> the bones.

will be at home among the wise.

<sup>32</sup> Anyone who ignores discipline despises himself, but whoever listens to correction acquires good sense. <sup>E</sup>

<sup>33</sup> The fear of the LORD is what wisdom teaches,
and humility comes before honor.

PROVERBS

16 The reflections of the heart belong to man,
but the answer of the tongue is from the LORD.

<sup>2</sup> All a man's ways seem right to him,
but the LORD evaluates the motives. <sup>A</sup>

<sup>3</sup> Commit your activities to the LORD,
and your plans will be achieved.

<sup>4†</sup> The LORD has prepared everything for His purpose —
even the wicked for the day of disaster.

be assured, <sup>B</sup> he will not go unpunished.

<sup>6</sup> Wickedness is •atoned for by loyalty and faithfulness, and one turns from evil by the •fear of the LORD.

<sup>7†</sup> When a man's ways please the LORD,
He <sup>C</sup> makes even his enemies to be at peace with him.

<sup>8</sup> Better a little with righteousness
than great income with injustice.

<sup>9†</sup> A man's heart plans his way,
but the LORD determines his steps.

<sup>10</sup> God's verdict is on the lips of a king; <sup>D</sup>
his mouth should not give an unfair judgment.

<sup>11</sup> Honest balances and scales are the LORD's;
all the weights in the bag are His concern.

<sup>12</sup> Wicked behavior is detestable to kings,
since a throne is established through righteousness.

<sup>13</sup> Righteous lips are a king's delight,
and he loves one who speaks honestly.

<sup>14</sup> A king's fury is a messenger of death,
but a wise man appeases it.

15 When a king's face lights up, there is life;
his favor is like a cloud with spring rain.

16 Get wisdom —
how much better it is than gold!
And get understanding —
it is preferable to silver.

17 The highway of the upright avoids evil;
the one who guards his way protects his life.

18 Pride comes before destruction,
and an arrogant spirit before a fall.

19 Better to be lowly of spirit with the humble than to divide plunder with the proud.

20 The one who understands a matter finds success, and the one who trusts in the LORD will be happy.

21 Anyone with a wise heart is called discerning,
and pleasant speech <sup>E</sup> increases learning.

22 Insight is a fountain of life for its possessor,
but the discipline of fools is folly.

23 A wise heart instructs its mouth
and increases learning with its speech. <sup>F</sup>

24 Pleasant words are a honeycomb:
sweet to the taste <sup>G</sup> and health to the body. <sup>H</sup>

25 There is a way that seems right to a man,
but its end is the way to death.

26 A worker's appetite works for him because his hunger <sup>I</sup> urges him on.

27 A worthless man digs up evil,
and his speech is like a scorching fire.

28 A contrary man spreads conflict,

and a gossip separates close friends.

<sup>29</sup> A violent man lures his neighbor,
leading him in a way that is not good.

<sup>30</sup> The one who narrows his eyes is planning deceptions;
the one who compresses his lips brings about evil.

<sup>31</sup> Gray hair is a glorious crown;
it is found in the way of righteousness.

<sup>32†</sup> Patience is better than power,
and controlling one's temper, <sup>J</sup> than capturing a city.

<sup>33†</sup> The lot is cast into the lap,
but its every decision is from the LORD.

PROVERBS

17 Better a dry crust with peace than a house full of feasting with strife.

<sup>2</sup> A wise servant will rule over a disgraceful son and share an inheritance among brothers.

<sup>3</sup> A crucible for silver, and a smelter for gold,
and the LORD is the tester of hearts.

<sup>4</sup> A wicked person listens to malicious talk; <sup>A</sup>
a liar pays attention to a destructive tongue.

and one who rejoices over calamity
will not go unpunished.

<sup>6</sup> Grandchildren are the crown of the elderly,
and the pride of sons is their fathers.

<sup>7</sup> Eloquent words are not appropriate on a fool's lips;
how much worse are lies for a ruler.

<sup>8</sup> A bribe seems like a magic stone to its owner;
wherever he turns, he succeeds.

<sup>9</sup> Whoever conceals an offense promotes love,
but whoever gossips about it separates friends.

<sup>10</sup> A rebuke cuts into a perceptive person
more than a hundred lashes into a fool.

<sup>11</sup> An evil man seeks only rebellion;
a cruel messenger <sup>B</sup> will be sent against him.

<sup>12</sup> Better for a man to meet a bear robbed of her cubs than a fool in his foolishness.

<sup>13</sup> If anyone returns evil for good,
evil will never depart from his house.

<sup>14</sup> To start a conflict is to release a flood;
stop the dispute before it breaks out.

<sup>15</sup> Acquitting the •guilty and condemning the just —
both are detestable to the LORD.

<sup>16</sup> Why does a fool have money in his hand
with no intention of buying wisdom?

<sup>17</sup> A friend loves at all times,
and a brother is born for a difficult time.

<sup>18</sup> One without sense enters an agreement <sup>C</sup>
and puts up security for his friend.

<sup>19</sup> One who loves to offend loves strife;
one who builds a high threshold invites injury.

<sup>20</sup> One with a twisted mind will not succeed,
and one with deceitful speech will fall into ruin.

<sup>21</sup> A man fathers a fool to his own sorrow;
the father of a fool has no joy.

<sup>22</sup> A joyful heart is good medicine,
but a broken spirit dries up the bones.

<sup>23</sup> A wicked man secretly takes a bribe
to subvert the course of justice.

<sup>24</sup> Wisdom is the focus of the perceptive,
but a fool's eyes roam to the ends of the earth.

<sup>25</sup> A foolish son is grief to his father and bitterness to the one who bore him.

<sup>26</sup> It is certainly not good to fine an innocent person or to beat a noble for his honesty. <sup>D</sup>

<sup>27</sup> The intelligent person restrains his words, and one who keeps a cool head <sup>E</sup>
is a man of understanding.

<sup>28</sup> Even a fool is considered wise when he keeps silent, discerning when he seals his lips.

PROVERBS

18 One who isolates himself pursues selfish desires;
he rebels against all sound judgment.

<sup>2</sup> A fool does not delight in understanding, but only wants to show off his opinions. <sup>A</sup>

<sup>3</sup> When a wicked man comes, contempt also does,
and along with dishonor, disgrace.

<sup>4</sup> The words of a man's mouth are deep waters,
a flowing river, a fountain of wisdom. <sup>B</sup>

<sup>5</sup> It is not good to show partiality to the •guilty
by perverting the justice due the innocent.

<sup>6</sup> A fool's lips lead to strife,
and his mouth provokes a beating.

<sup>7</sup> A fool's mouth is his devastation,
and his lips are a trap for his life.

<sup>8</sup> A gossip's words are like choice food
that goes down to one's innermost being. <sup>C</sup>

<sup>9</sup> The one who is truly lazy in his work is brother to a vandal. <sup>D</sup>

<sup>10</sup> The name of •Yahweh is a strong tower;
the righteous run to it and are protected. <sup>E</sup>

in his imagination it is like a high wall.

<sup>12</sup> Before his downfall a man's heart is proud,
but humility comes before honor.

this is foolishness and disgrace for him.

<sup>14</sup> A man's spirit can endure sickness,
but who can survive a broken spirit?

<sup>15</sup> The mind of the discerning acquires knowledge,
and the ear of the wise seeks it.

<sup>16</sup> A gift opens doors <sup>F</sup> for a man and brings him before the great.

<sup>17</sup> The first to state his case seems right
until another comes and cross-examines him.

<sup>18</sup> Casting the lot ends quarrels and separates powerful opponents.

<sup>19</sup> An offended brother is harder to reach
than a fortified city,
and quarrels are like the bars of a fortress.

<sup>20</sup> From the fruit of his mouth a man's stomach is satisfied;
he is filled with the product of his lips.

<sup>21</sup> Life and death are in the power of the tongue,
and those who love it will eat its fruit.

<sup>22†</sup> A man who finds a wife finds a good thing
and obtains favor from the LORD.

<sup>23</sup> The poor man pleads,
but the rich one answers roughly.

<sup>24</sup> A man with many friends may be harmed,
but there is a friend who stays closer than a brother.

PROVERBS

19 Better a poor man who lives with integrity than someone who has deceitful lips and is a fool.

<sup>2</sup> Even zeal is not good without knowledge,
and the one who acts hastily <sup>A</sup> sins.

<sup>3</sup> A man's own foolishness leads him astray,
yet his heart rages against the LORD.

<sup>4</sup> Wealth attracts many friends,
but a poor man is separated from his friend.

<sup>5†</sup> A false witness will not go unpunished,
and one who utters lies will not escape.

<sup>6</sup> Many seek a ruler's favor,
and everyone is a friend of one who gives gifts.

<sup>7</sup> All the brothers of a poor man hate him;
how much more do his friends
keep their distance from him!
He may pursue them with words,
but they are not there. <sup>B</sup>

one who safeguards understanding finds success.

<sup>9</sup> A false witness will not go unpunished,
and one who utters lies perishes.

<sup>10</sup> Luxury is not appropriate for a fool —
how much less for a slave to rule over princes!

<sup>11</sup> A person's insight gives him patience,
and his virtue is to overlook an offense.

<sup>12</sup> A king's rage is like the roaring of a lion,
but his favor is like dew on the grass.

<sup>13</sup> A foolish son is his father's ruin,
and a wife's nagging is an endless dripping.

<sup>14</sup> A house and wealth are inherited from fathers, but a sensible wife is from the LORD.

<sup>15</sup> Laziness induces deep sleep,
and a lazy person will go hungry.

<sup>16</sup> The one who keeps commands preserves himself;
one who disregards <sup>D</sup> his ways will die.

<sup>17</sup> Kindness to the poor is a loan to the LORD, and He will give a reward to the lender. <sup>E</sup>

<sup>18†</sup> Discipline your son while there is hope;
don't be intent on killing him. <sup>F</sup>

<sup>19</sup> A person with great anger bears the penalty;
if you rescue him, you'll have to do it again.

<sup>20</sup> Listen to counsel and receive instruction
so that you may be wise later in life. <sup>G</sup>

<sup>21†</sup> Many plans are in a man's heart, but the LORD's decree will prevail.

better to be a poor man than a liar.

<sup>23†</sup> The •fear of the LORD leads to life;
one will sleep at night <sup>H</sup> without danger.

<sup>24</sup> The slacker buries his hand in the bowl;
he doesn't even bring it back to his mouth.

<sup>25</sup> Strike a mocker, and the inexperienced learn a lesson;
rebuke the discerning, and he gains knowledge.

<sup>26</sup> The one who assaults his father and evicts his mother is a disgraceful and shameful son.

<sup>27</sup> If you stop listening to correction, my son,
you will stray from the words of knowledge.

<sup>28</sup> A worthless witness mocks justice,
and a wicked mouth swallows iniquity.

<sup>29</sup> Judgments are prepared for mockers,
and beatings for the backs of fools.

PROVERBS

20 Wine is a mocker, beer is a brawler,
and whoever staggers because of them is not wise.

<sup>2</sup> A king's terrible wrath is like the roaring of a lion;
anyone who provokes him endangers himself.

<sup>3</sup> It is honorable for a man to resolve a dispute,
but any fool can get himself into a quarrel.

<sup>4</sup> The slacker does not plow during planting season; <sup>A</sup>
at harvest time he looks, <sup>B</sup> and there is nothing.

<sup>5</sup> Counsel in a man's heart is deep water;
but a man of understanding draws it out.

<sup>6</sup> Many a man proclaims his own loyalty,
but who can find a trustworthy man?

<sup>7</sup> The one who lives with integrity is righteous;
his children <sup>C</sup> who come after him will be happy.

<sup>8</sup> A king sitting on a throne to judge
sifts out all evil with his eyes.

<sup>9†</sup> Who can say, "I have kept my heart pure;
I am cleansed from my sin"?

<sup>10</sup> Differing weights and varying measures <sup>D</sup> —
both are detestable to the LORD.

<sup>11</sup> Even a young man is known by his actions —
if his behavior is pure and upright.

<sup>12</sup> The hearing ear and the seeing eye —

the LORD made them both.

<sup>13</sup> Don't love sleep, or you will become poor;
open your eyes, and you'll have enough to eat.

<sup>14</sup> "It's worthless, it's worthless!" the buyer says,
but after he is on his way, he gloats.

<sup>15</sup> There is gold and a multitude of jewels,
but knowledgeable lips are a rare treasure.

<sup>16</sup> Take his garment,
for he has put up security for a stranger;
get collateral if it is for foreigners.

<sup>17</sup> Food gained by fraud is sweet to a man,
but afterward his mouth is full of gravel.

<sup>18</sup> Finalize plans with counsel,
and wage war with sound guidance.

<sup>19</sup> The one who reveals secrets is a constant gossip;
avoid someone with a big mouth.

<sup>20</sup> Whoever curses his father or mother —
his lamp will go out in deep darkness.

<sup>21</sup> An inheritance gained prematurely will not be blessed ultimately.

<sup>22</sup> Don't say, "I will avenge this evil!"
Wait on the LORD, and He will rescue you.

<sup>23</sup> Differing weights <sup>E</sup> are detestable to the LORD,
and dishonest scales are unfair.

<sup>24†</sup> A man's steps are determined by the LORD,
so how can anyone understand his own way?

<sup>25</sup> It is a trap for anyone to dedicate something rashly and later to reconsider his vows.

<sup>26</sup> A wise king separates out the wicked

and drives the threshing wheel over them.

<sup>27</sup> The LORD's lamp sheds light on a person's life, <sup>F</sup> searching the innermost parts. <sup>G</sup>

through loyalty he maintains his throne.

<sup>29</sup> The glory of young men is their strength, and the splendor of old men is gray hair.

<sup>30†</sup> Lashes and wounds purge away evil,
and beatings cleanse the innermost parts. <sup>H</sup>

21 A king's heart is like streams of water in the LORD's hand:
He directs it wherever He chooses.

<sup>2</sup> All a man's ways seem right to him,
but the LORD evaluates the motives. <sup>A</sup>

<sup>3</sup> Doing what is righteous and just is more acceptable to the LORD than sacrifice.

<sup>4</sup> The lamp that guides the wicked —
haughty eyes and an arrogant heart — is sin.

<sup>5</sup> The plans of the diligent certainly lead to profit,
but anyone who is reckless certainly becomes poor.

<sup>6</sup> Making a fortune through a lying tongue
is a vanishing mist, <sup>B</sup> a pursuit of death. ,

<sup>7</sup> The violence of the wicked sweeps them away
because they refuse to act justly.

<sup>8</sup> A •guilty man's conduct is crooked,
but the behavior of the innocent is upright.

<sup>9</sup> Better to live on the corner of a roof
than to share a house with a nagging wife.

<sup>10</sup> A wicked person desires evil;
he has no consideration <sup>D</sup> for his neighbor.

<sup>11</sup> When a mocker is punished,
the inexperienced become wiser;
when one teaches a wise man,
he acquires knowledge.

<sup>12†</sup> The Righteous One considers the house of the wicked;
He brings the wicked to ruin.

<sup>13</sup> The one who shuts his ears to the cry of the poor will himself also call out and not be answered.

<sup>15</sup> Justice executed is a joy to the righteous
but a terror to those who practice iniquity.

<sup>16</sup> The man who strays from the way of wisdom will come to rest
in the assembly of the departed spirits.

<sup>17</sup> The one who loves pleasure will become a poor man;
whoever loves wine and oil will not get rich.

<sup>18</sup> The wicked are a ransom for the righteous,
and the treacherous, for <sup>F</sup> the upright.

<sup>19</sup> Better to live in a wilderness than with a nagging and hot-tempered wife.

<sup>20</sup> Precious treasure and oil are in the dwelling of a wise person, but a foolish man consumes them. <sup>G</sup>

<sup>21</sup> The one who pursues righteousness and faithful love will find life, righteousness, and honor.

<sup>22</sup> A wise person went up against a city of warriors and brought down its secure fortress.

<sup>23</sup> The one who guards his mouth and tongue keeps himself out of trouble.

<sup>24</sup> The proud and arrogant person, named “Mocker,” acts with excessive pride.

<sup>25</sup> A slacker’s craving will kill him
because his hands refuse to work.

<sup>26</sup> He is filled with craving <sup>H</sup> all day long,
but the righteous give and don’t hold back.

<sup>27</sup> The sacrifice of a wicked person is detestable —
how much more so
when he brings it with ulterior motives!

<sup>28</sup> A lying witness will perish,
but the one who listens will speak successfully.

<sup>29</sup> A wicked man puts on a bold face,
but the upright man considers his way.

<sup>30</sup> No wisdom, no understanding, and no counsel will prevail against the LORD.

<sup>31</sup> A horse is prepared for the day of battle,
but victory comes from the LORD.

22 A good name is to be chosen over great wealth;
favor is better than silver and gold.

<sup>2</sup> The rich and the poor have this in common: <sup>A</sup>
the LORD made them both. <sup>B</sup>

but the inexperienced keep going and are punished.

<sup>4</sup> The result of humility is •fear of the LORD,
along with wealth, honor, and life.

<sup>5</sup> There are thorns and snares on the path of the crooked;
the one who guards himself stays far from them.

<sup>6†</sup> Teach a youth about the way he should go;
even when he is old he will not depart from it.

<sup>7</sup> The rich rule over the poor,
and the borrower is a slave to the lender.

<sup>8</sup> The one who sows injustice will reap disaster,
and the rod of his fury will be destroyed.

for he shares his food with the poor.

<sup>10†</sup> Drive out a mocker, and conflict goes too;
then quarreling and dishonor will cease.

<sup>11</sup> The one who loves a pure heart
and gracious lips — the king is his friend.

<sup>12</sup> The LORD's eyes keep watch over knowledge,
but He overthrows the words of the treacherous.

I'll be killed in the public square! "

a man cursed by the LORD will fall into it.

<sup>15†</sup> Foolishness is tangled up in the heart of a youth;

the rod of discipline will drive it away from him.

<sup>16</sup> Oppressing the poor to enrich oneself,
and giving to the rich — both lead only to poverty.

Words of the Wise

<sup>17†</sup> Listen closely, <sup>D</sup> pay attention to the words of the wise,
and apply your mind to my knowledge.

<sup>18</sup> For it is pleasing if you keep them within you and if <sup>E</sup> they are constantly on your lips.

<sup>19</sup> I have instructed you today — even you —
so that your confidence may be in the LORD.

<sup>20</sup> Haven't I written for you thirty sayings about counsel and knowledge,

<sup>21</sup> in order to teach you true and reliable words, so that you may give a dependable report <sup>F</sup>
to those who sent you?

<sup>22</sup> Don't rob a poor man because he is poor,
and don't crush the oppressed at the •gate,

<sup>23</sup> for the LORD will take up their case
and will plunder those who plunder them.

<sup>24</sup> Don't make friends with an angry man, <sup>G</sup>
and don't be a companion of a hot-tempered man,

<sup>25</sup> or you will learn his ways
and entangle yourself in a snare.

<sup>26</sup> Don't be one of those who enter agreements, <sup>H</sup>
who put up security for loans.

<sup>27</sup> If you have no money to pay,
even your bed will be taken from under you.

<sup>28</sup> Don't move an ancient boundary marker,
that your fathers set up.

He will stand in the presence of kings.

He will not stand in the presence of unknown men.

PROVERBS

23 When you sit down to dine with a ruler,
consider carefully what <sup>A</sup> is before you, <sup>2</sup> and put a knife to your throat
if you have a big <sup>B</sup> appetite; <sup>3</sup> don't desire his choice food,
for that food is deceptive.

<sup>4</sup> Don't wear yourself out to get rich;
stop giving your attention to it.
<sup>5</sup> As soon as your eyes fly to it, it disappears,
for it makes wings for itself
and flies like an eagle to the sky.

<sup>6</sup> Don't eat a stingy person's bread, <sup>C</sup>
and don't desire his choice food, <sup>7</sup> for it's like someone calculating inwardly.
"Eat and drink," he says to you,
but his heart is not with you.

<sup>8</sup> You will vomit the little you've eaten
and waste your pleasant words.

<sup>9</sup> Don't speak to <sup>D</sup> a fool,
for he will despise the insight of your words.

<sup>10</sup> Don't move an ancient boundary marker,
and don't encroach on the fields of the fatherless, <sup>11</sup> for their Redeemer is strong,
and He will take up their case against you.

<sup>12</sup> Apply yourself to discipline and listen to words of knowledge.

<sup>13†</sup> Don't withhold discipline from a youth;
if you beat him with a rod, he will not die.
<sup>14</sup> Strike him with a rod,
and you will rescue his life from •Sheol.

<sup>15</sup> My son, if your heart is wise,
my heart will indeed rejoice.

<sup>16</sup> My innermost being will cheer
when your lips say what is right.

<sup>17</sup> Don't let your heart envy sinners;
instead, always •fear the LORD.

<sup>18</sup> For then you will have a future,
and your hope will never fade.

<sup>19</sup> Listen, my son, and be wise;
keep your mind on the right course.

<sup>20</sup> Don't associate with those who drink too much wine or with those who gorge themselves on meat.

<sup>21</sup> For the drunkard and the glutton will become poor,
and grogginess will clothe them in rags.

<sup>22</sup> Listen to your father who gave you life, and don't despise your mother when <sup>E</sup> she is old.

<sup>23</sup> Buy — and do not sell — truth,
wisdom, instruction, and understanding.

<sup>24</sup> The father of a righteous son will rejoice greatly,
and one who fathers a wise son will delight in him.

<sup>25</sup> Let your father and mother have joy,
and let her who gave birth to you rejoice.

<sup>26</sup> My son, give me your heart,
and let your eyes observe my ways.

<sup>27</sup> For a prostitute is a deep pit,
and a stranger is a narrow well;

<sup>28</sup> indeed, she sets an ambush like a robber
and increases those among men who are unfaithful.

<sup>29†</sup> Who has woe? Who has sorrow?
Who has conflicts? Who has complaints?
Who has wounds for no reason?
Who has red eyes?

<sup>30</sup> Those who linger over wine,
those who go looking for mixed wine.

<sup>31</sup> Don't gaze at wine because it is red,
when it gleams in the cup
and goes down smoothly.

<sup>32</sup> In the end it bites like a snake
and stings like a viper.

<sup>33</sup> Your eyes will see strange things, and you will say absurd things. <sup>F</sup>

<sup>34</sup> You'll be like someone sleeping out at sea
or lying down on the top of a ship's mast.

<sup>35</sup> "They struck me, but I feel no pain!
They beat me, but I didn't know it!
When will I wake up?
I'll look for another drink."

PROVERBS

24 Don't envy evil men
or desire to be with them, 2 for their hearts plan violence,
and their words stir up trouble.

3 A house is built by wisdom,
and it is established by understanding;
4 by knowledge the rooms are filled with every precious and beautiful treasure.

5 A wise warrior is better than a strong one,
and a man of knowledge than one of strength;
6 for you should wage war with sound guidance —
victory comes with many counselors.

7 Wisdom is inaccessible to <sup>A</sup> a fool;
he does not open his mouth at the •gate.

8 The one who plots evil
will be called a schemer.

9 A foolish scheme is sin,
and a mocker is detestable to people.

10 If you do nothing in a difficult time,
your strength is limited.

11† Rescue those being taken off to death,
and save those stumbling toward slaughter.

12 If you say, "But we didn't know about this,"
won't He who weighs hearts consider it?
Won't He who protects your life know?
Won't He repay a person according to his work?

13 Eat honey, my son, for it is good,
and the honeycomb is sweet to your palate;

14 realize that wisdom is the same for you.
If you find it, you will have a future,
and your hope will never fade.

15 Wicked man, don't set an ambush,

at the camp of the righteous man;
don't destroy his dwelling.

<sup>16</sup> Though a righteous man falls seven times,
he will get up,
but the wicked will stumble into ruin.

<sup>17</sup> Don't gloat when your enemy falls,
and don't let your heart rejoice when he stumbles,

<sup>18</sup> or the LORD will see, be displeased,
and turn His wrath away from him.

<sup>19</sup> Don't be agitated by evildoers,
and don't envy the wicked.

<sup>20</sup> For the evil have no future;
the lamp of the wicked will be put out.

<sup>21</sup> My son, •fear the LORD, as well as the king, and don't associate with rebels, <sup>B</sup>

<sup>22</sup> for destruction from them will come suddenly;
who knows what distress these two can bring?

<sup>23</sup> These sayings also belong to the wise:

It is not good to show partiality in judgment.

<sup>24</sup> Whoever says to the •guilty, "You are innocent" — people will curse him, and tribes will denounce him;

<sup>25</sup> but it will go well with those who convict the guilty,
and a generous blessing will come to them.

<sup>26</sup> He who gives an honest answer gives a kiss on the lips.

<sup>27</sup> Complete your outdoor work, and prepare your field;
afterward, build your house.

<sup>28</sup> Don't testify against your neighbor without cause.
Don't deceive with your lips.

<sup>29</sup> Don't say, "I'll do to him what he did to me;
I'll repay the man for what he has done."

<sup>30</sup> I went by the field of a slacker
and by the vineyard of a man lacking sense.

<sup>31</sup> Thistles had come up everywhere,
weeds covered the ground,
and the stone wall was ruined.

<sup>32</sup> I saw, and took it to heart;
I looked, and received instruction:

<sup>33</sup> a little sleep, a little slumber,
a little folding of the arms to rest,

<sup>34</sup> and your poverty will come like a robber,
your need, like a bandit.

Hezekiah's Collection

25 These too are proverbs of Solomon, which the men of Hezekiah, king of Judah, copied.

<sup>2</sup> It is the glory of God to conceal a matter
and the glory of kings to investigate a matter.

<sup>3</sup> As the heaven is high and the earth is deep,
so the hearts of kings cannot be investigated.

<sup>4</sup> Remove impurities from silver,
and a vessel will be produced <sup>A</sup> for a silversmith.

<sup>5</sup> Remove the wicked from the king's presence,
and his throne will be established in righteousness.

<sup>6</sup> Don't brag about yourself before the king,
and don't stand in the place of the great;

<sup>7</sup> for it is better for him to say to you, "Come up here!"
than to demote you in plain view of a noble. <sup>B</sup>

<sup>8</sup> Don't take a matter to court hastily.
Otherwise, what will you do afterward
if your opponent <sup>C</sup> humiliates you?

<sup>9</sup> Make your case with your opponent <sup>D</sup> without revealing another's secret;

<sup>10</sup> otherwise, the one who hears will disgrace you, and you'll never live it down. <sup>E</sup>

<sup>11</sup> A word spoken at the right time is like gold apples on a silver tray. <sup>F</sup>

<sup>12</sup> A wise correction to a receptive ear
is like a gold ring or an ornament of gold.

<sup>13</sup> To those who send him, a trustworthy messenger is like the coolness of snow on a harvest day;
he refreshes the life of his masters.

<sup>14</sup> The man who boasts about a gift that does not exist is like clouds and wind without rain.

<sup>15</sup> A ruler can be persuaded through patience,

and a gentle tongue can break a bone.

otherwise, you'll get sick from it and vomit.

<sup>17</sup> Seldom set foot in your neighbor's house;
otherwise, he'll get sick of you and hate you.

<sup>18</sup> A man giving false testimony against his neighbor is like a club, a sword, or a sharp arrow.

<sup>19</sup> Trusting an unreliable person in a difficult time is like a rotten tooth or a faltering foot.

<sup>20</sup> Singing songs to a troubled heart is like taking off clothing on a cold day or like pouring vinegar on soda. <sup>G</sup>

<sup>21</sup> If your enemy is hungry, give him food to eat,
and if he is thirsty, give him water to drink;

<sup>22</sup> for you will heap burning coals on his head, and the LORD will reward you.

<sup>23</sup> The north wind produces rain,
and a backbiting tongue, angry looks.

<sup>24</sup> Better to live on the corner of a roof
than to share a house with a nagging wife.

<sup>25</sup> Good news from a distant land is like cold water to a parched throat. <sup>H</sup>

<sup>26</sup> A righteous person who yields to the wicked is like a muddied spring or a polluted well.

<sup>27</sup> It is not good to eat too much honey or to seek glory after glory. <sup>I</sup>

<sup>28</sup> A man who does not control his temper
is like a city whose wall is broken down.

PROVERBS

26 Like snow in summer and rain at harvest, honor is inappropriate for a fool.

<sup>2</sup> Like a flitting sparrow or a fluttering swallow,
an undeserved curse goes nowhere.

<sup>3†</sup> A whip for the horse, a bridle for the donkey,
and a rod for the backs of fools.

<sup>4</sup> Don't answer a fool according to his foolishness or you'll be like him yourself.

<sup>5</sup> Answer a fool according to his foolishness or he'll become wise in his own eyes.

<sup>6</sup> The one who sends a message by a fool's hand cuts off his own feet and drinks violence.

<sup>7</sup> A proverb in the mouth of a fool
is like lame legs that hang limp.

<sup>8</sup> Giving honor to a fool
is like binding a stone in a sling.

<sup>9</sup> A proverb in the mouth of a fool
is like a stick with thorns, brandished by <sup>A</sup> the hand of a drunkard.

<sup>10†</sup> The one who hires a fool or who hires those passing by is like an archer who wounds everyone.

<sup>11</sup> As a dog returns to its vomit,
so a fool repeats his foolishness.

<sup>12</sup> Do you see a man who is wise in his own eyes?
There is more hope for a fool than for him.

a lion in the public square! "

<sup>14</sup> A door turns on its hinges,
and a slacker, on his bed.

he is too weary to bring it to his mouth.

<sup>16</sup> In his own eyes, a slacker is wiser than seven men who can answer sensibly.

<sup>17</sup> A person who is passing by and meddles in a quarrel that's not his

is like one who grabs a dog by the ears.

<sup>19</sup> so is the man who deceives his neighbor and says, “I was only joking! ”

<sup>20</sup> Without wood, fire goes out;
without a gossip, conflict dies down.

<sup>21</sup> As charcoal for embers and wood for fire,
so is a quarrelsome man for kindling strife.

that goes down to one’s innermost being. <sup>B</sup>

<sup>23</sup> Smooth lips with an evil heart are like glaze on an earthen vessel.

<sup>24</sup> A hateful person disguises himself with his speech and harbors deceit within.

<sup>25</sup> When he speaks graciously, don’t believe him,
for there are seven abominations in his heart.

<sup>26</sup> Though his hatred is concealed by deception,
his evil will be revealed in the assembly.

<sup>27</sup> The one who digs a pit will fall into it, and whoever rolls a stone —
it will come back on him.

<sup>28</sup> A lying tongue hates those it crushes,
and a flattering mouth causes ruin.

PROVERBS

27 Don't boast about tomorrow, for you don't know what a day might bring.

<sup>2</sup> Let another praise you, and not your own mouth —
a stranger, and not your own lips.

<sup>3</sup> A stone is heavy and sand, a burden,
but aggravation from a fool outweighs them both.

<sup>4</sup> Fury is cruel, and anger a flood,
but who can withstand jealousy?

<sup>5</sup> Better an open reprimand
than concealed love.

<sup>6</sup> The wounds of a friend are trustworthy,
but the kisses of an enemy are excessive.

<sup>7</sup> A person who is full tramples on a honeycomb,
but to a hungry person, any bitter thing is sweet.

<sup>8</sup> A man wandering from his home
is like a bird wandering from its nest.

<sup>9</sup> Oil and incense bring joy to the heart, and the sweetness of a friend is better than self-counsel.

<sup>10</sup> Don't abandon your friend or your father's friend, and don't go to your brother's house
in your time of calamity;
better a neighbor nearby than a brother far away.

<sup>11</sup> Be wise, my son, and bring my heart joy,
so that I can answer anyone who taunts me.

the inexperienced keep going and are punished.

for he has put up security for a stranger;
get collateral if it is for foreigners. <sup>A</sup>

14 If one blesses his neighbor
with a loud voice early in the morning,
it will be counted as a curse to him.

15 An endless dripping on a rainy day
and a nagging wife are alike.

16 The one who controls her controls the wind and grasps oil with his right hand.

17 Iron sharpens iron, and one man sharpens another. <sup>B</sup>

18 Whoever tends a fig tree will eat its fruit,
and whoever looks after his master will be honored.

19 As water reflects the face,
so the heart reflects the person.

20 •Sheol and •Abaddon are never satisfied,
and people's eyes are never satisfied.

28 The wicked flee when no one is pursuing them,
but the righteous are as bold as a lion.

<sup>2</sup> When a land is in rebellion, it has many rulers,
but with a discerning and knowledgeable person, it endures.

<sup>3†</sup> A destitute leader who oppresses the poor
is like a driving rain that leaves no food.

<sup>4</sup> Those who reject the law praise the wicked,
but those who keep the law battle against them.

<sup>5</sup> Evil men do not understand justice,
but those who seek the LORD understand everything.

<sup>6</sup> Better a poor man who lives with integrity than a rich man who distorts right and wrong. <sup>A</sup>

<sup>7</sup> A discerning son keeps the law,
but a companion of gluttons humiliates his father.

<sup>8</sup> Whoever increases his wealth through excessive interest collects it for one who is kind to the poor.

<sup>9</sup> Anyone who turns his ear away from hearing the law —
even his prayer is detestable.

<sup>10</sup> The one who leads the upright into an evil way will fall into his own pit,
but the blameless will inherit what is good.

<sup>11</sup> A rich man is wise in his own eyes,
but a poor man who has discernment sees through him.

<sup>21†</sup> It is not good to show partiality —
yet a man may sin for a piece of bread.

he doesn't know that poverty will come to him.

<sup>23</sup> One who rebukes a person will later find more favor than one who flatters <sup>F</sup> with his tongue.

<sup>24</sup> The one who robs his father or mother and says, "That's no sin,"

is a companion to a man who destroys.

<sup>25</sup> A greedy person provokes conflict,
but whoever trusts in the LORD will prosper.

but one who walks in wisdom will be safe.

<sup>27</sup> The one who gives to the poor
will not be in need,
but one who turns his eyes away <sup>H</sup>
will receive many curses.

<sup>28</sup> When the wicked come to power,
people hide,
but when they are destroyed,
the righteous flourish.

PROVERBS

29 One who becomes stiff-necked,
after many reprimands
will be shattered instantly —
beyond recovery.

<sup>2</sup> When the righteous flourish, the people rejoice,
but when the wicked rule, people groan.

but one who consorts with prostitutes destroys his wealth.

<sup>4</sup> By justice a king brings stability to a land,
but a man who demands “contributions”
demolishes it.

<sup>5</sup> A man who flatters <sup>A</sup> his neighbor spreads a net for his feet.

<sup>6</sup> An evil man is caught by sin,
but the righteous one sings and rejoices.

but the wicked one does not understand these concerns.

<sup>8</sup> Mockers inflame a city,
but the wise turn away anger.

<sup>9</sup> If a wise man goes to court with a fool,
there will be ranting and raving but no resolution. <sup>C</sup>

<sup>10</sup> Bloodthirsty men hate an honest person, but the upright care about him. <sup>D</sup>

<sup>11</sup> A fool gives full vent to his anger, <sup>E</sup>
but a wise man holds it in check.

<sup>12</sup> If a ruler listens to lies,
all his officials will be wicked.

<sup>13</sup> The poor and the oppressor have this in common: <sup>F</sup>
the LORD gives light to the eyes of both.

14 A king who judges the poor with fairness —
his throne will be established forever.

15† A rod of correction imparts wisdom, but a youth left to himself <sup>G</sup>
is a disgrace to his mother.

16 When the wicked increase, rebellion increases,
but the righteous will see their downfall.

17 Discipline your son, and it will bring you peace of mind and give you delight.

18 Without revelation <sup>H</sup> people run wild,
but one who listens to instruction will be happy.

19† A slave cannot be disciplined by words;
though he understands, he doesn't respond.

20 Do you see a man who speaks too soon?
There is more hope for a fool than for him.

21 A slave pampered from his youth will become arrogant <sup>I</sup> later on.

22 An angry man stirs up conflict,
and a hot-tempered man <sup>J</sup> increases rebellion.

23 A person's pride will humble him,
but a humble spirit will gain honor.

24 To be a thief's partner is to hate oneself;
he hears the curse but will not testify.

25 The fear of man is a snare,
but the one who trusts in the LORD is protected. <sup>K</sup>

26 Many seek a ruler's favor,
but a man receives justice from the LORD.

27 An unjust man is detestable to the righteous, and one whose way is upright

is detestable to the wicked.

The Words of Agur

30 The words of Agur son of Jakeh. The oracle. <sup>A</sup>

The man's oration to Ithiel, to Ithiel and Ucal:

<sup>2</sup> I am more stupid than any other man, <sup>B</sup>
and I lack man's ability to understand.

<sup>3</sup> I have not gained wisdom,
and I have no knowledge of the Holy One.

<sup>4</sup> Who has gone up to heaven and come down?
Who has gathered the wind in His hands?
Who has bound up the waters in a cloak?
Who has established all the ends of the earth?
What is His name,
and what is the name of His Son —
if you know?

<sup>5</sup> Every word of God is pure; <sup>C</sup>
He is a shield to those who take refuge in Him.

<sup>6</sup> Don't add to His words,
or He will rebuke you, and you will be proved a liar.

<sup>7</sup> Two things I ask of You;
don't deny them to me before I die:

<sup>8</sup> Keep falsehood and deceitful words far from me.
Give me neither poverty nor wealth;
feed me with the food I need.

<sup>9</sup> Otherwise, I might have too much and deny You, saying, "Who is the LORD? "
or I might have nothing and steal,
profaning <sup>D</sup> the name of my God.

<sup>10</sup> Don't slander a servant to his master or he will curse you, and you will become •guilty.

<sup>11</sup> There is a generation that curses its father and does not bless its mother.

<sup>12</sup> There is a generation that is pure in its own eyes, yet is not washed from its filth.

<sup>13</sup> There is a generation — how haughty its eyes and pretentious its looks. <sup>E</sup>

<sup>14</sup> There is a generation whose teeth are swords,
whose fangs are knives, devouring the oppressed from the land
and the needy from among mankind.

<sup>15</sup> The leech has two daughters: “Give, Give!”
Three things are never satisfied;
four never say, “Enough! ”:

<sup>16</sup> •Sheol; a childless womb;
earth, which is never satisfied with water;
and fire, which never says, “Enough! ”

<sup>17</sup> As for the eye that ridicules a father and despises obedience to a mother,
may ravens of the valley pluck it out and young vultures eat it.

<sup>18</sup> Three things are beyond me;
four I can’t understand:

<sup>19</sup> the way of an eagle in the sky,
the way of a snake on a rock,
the way of a ship at sea,
and the way of a man with a young woman.

<sup>20</sup> This is the way of an adulteress:
she eats and wipes her mouth
and says, “I’ve done nothing wrong.”

<sup>21†</sup> The earth trembles under three things;
it cannot bear up under four:

<sup>22</sup> a servant when he becomes king,
a fool when he is stuffed with food,

<sup>23</sup> an unloved woman when she marries,
and a servant girl when she ousts her queen.

<sup>24</sup> Four things on earth are small,
yet they are extremely wise:

<sup>25</sup> the ants are not a strong people,
yet they store up their food in the summer;

<sup>26</sup> hyraxes are not a mighty people,
yet they make their homes in the cliffs;

<sup>27</sup> locusts have no king,
yet all of them march in ranks;

<sup>28</sup> a lizard <sup>F</sup> can be caught in your hands,
yet it lives in kings' palaces.

<sup>29</sup> Three things are stately in their stride,
even four are stately in their walk:

<sup>30</sup> a lion, which is mightiest among beasts
and doesn't retreat before anything,

<sup>31</sup> a strutting rooster, <sup>G</sup> a goat,
and a king at the head of his army.

<sup>32</sup> If you have been foolish by exalting yourself or if you've been scheming,
put your hand over your mouth.

<sup>33</sup> For the churning of milk produces butter,
and twisting a nose draws blood,
and stirring up anger produces strife.

PROVERBS

The Words of Lemuel

31 The words of King Lemuel,
an oracle <sup>A</sup> that his mother taught him:

<sup>2</sup> What should I say, my son?

What, son of my womb?

What, son of my vows?

<sup>3</sup> Don't spend your energy on women or your efforts on those who destroy kings.

<sup>4</sup> It is not for kings, Lemuel,
it is not for kings to drink wine
or for rulers to desire beer.

<sup>5</sup> Otherwise, they <sup>B</sup> will drink, forget what is decreed,
and pervert justice for all the oppressed. <sup>C</sup>,

<sup>6†</sup> Give beer to one who is dying
and wine to one whose life is bitter.

<sup>7</sup> Let him drink so that he can forget his poverty and remember his trouble no more.

for the justice of all who are dispossessed. <sup>F</sup>

and defend the cause of <sup>H</sup> the oppressed and needy.

In Praise of a Capable Wife

<sup>10</sup> Who can find a capable wife? <sup>I</sup>,
She is far more precious than jewels.

<sup>11</sup> The heart of her husband trusts in her,
and he will not lack anything good.

<sup>12†</sup> She rewards him with good, not evil,
all the days of her life.

<sup>13</sup> She selects wool and flax
and works with willing hands.

<sup>14</sup> She is like the merchant ships, bringing her food from far away.

15 She rises while it is still night
and provides food for her household and portions <sup>J</sup> for her female servants.

16 She evaluates a field and buys it;
she plants a vineyard with her earnings. <sup>K</sup>,

17 She draws on her strength <sup>L</sup>
and reveals that her arms are strong.

18 She sees that her profits are good,
and her lamp never goes out at night.

19 She extends her hands to the spinning staff,
and her hands hold the spindle.

20 Her hands reach <sup>M</sup> out to the poor,
and she extends her hands to the needy.

21 She is not afraid for her household when it snows,
for all in her household are doubly clothed.

22 She makes her own bed coverings;
her clothing is fine linen and purple.

23 Her husband is known at the city •gates,
where he sits among the elders of the land.

24 She makes and sells linen garments;
she delivers belts <sup>N</sup> to the merchants.

25 Strength and honor are her clothing,
and she can laugh at the time to come.

26 She opens her mouth with wisdom and loving instruction <sup>O</sup> is on her tongue.

27 She watches over the activities of her household and is never idle. <sup>P</sup>

28 Her sons rise up and call her blessed.
Her husband also praises her:

29 “Many women <sup>Q</sup> are capable,
but you surpass them all! ”

30 Charm is deceptive and beauty is fleeting,
but a woman who •fears the LORD will be praised.

31 Give her the reward of her labor, <sup>R</sup>

and let her works praise her at the city gates.

Everything is Futile

1 The words of the Teacher, <sup>A</sup> son of David, king in Jerusalem.

<sup>3</sup> What does a man gain for all his efforts that he labors at under the sun?

<sup>4</sup> A generation goes and a generation comes,
but the earth remains forever.

<sup>5</sup> The sun rises and the sun sets;
panting, it returns to its place
where it rises.

<sup>6</sup> Gusting to the south,
turning to the north,
turning, turning, goes the wind,
and the wind returns in its cycles.

<sup>7</sup> All the streams flow to the sea,
yet the sea is never full.
The streams are flowing to the place,
and they flow there again.

<sup>8†</sup> All things <sup>B</sup> are wearisome;
man is unable to speak.
The eye is not satisfied by seeing or the ear filled with hearing.

<sup>9</sup> What has been is what will be,
and what has been done is what will be done;
there is nothing new under the sun.

<sup>10</sup> Can one say about anything, “Look, this is new”?
It has already existed in the ages before us.

<sup>11</sup> There is no remembrance of those who <sup>C</sup> came before;
and of those who <sup>D</sup> will come after there will also be no remembrance
by those who follow them.

The Limitations of Wisdom

<sup>12</sup> I, the Teacher, have been <sup>E</sup> king over Israel in Jerusalem. <sup>13</sup> I applied my mind to seek and explore through wisdom all that is done under heaven. God has given •people this miserable task to keep them occupied. <sup>14</sup> I have seen all the things that are done under the sun and have found everything to be futile, a pursuit of the wind. <sup>F</sup>

what is lacking cannot be counted.

<sup>16</sup> I said to myself, <sup>G</sup> “Look, I have amassed wisdom far beyond all those who were over Jerusalem before me, and my mind has thoroughly grasped <sup>H</sup> wisdom and knowledge.” <sup>17</sup> I applied my mind to know wisdom and knowledge, madness and folly; I learned that this too is a pursuit of the wind. <sup>I</sup>

as knowledge increases, grief increases.

ECCLESIASTES

The Emptiness of Pleasure

2 I said to myself, “Go ahead, I will test you with pleasure; enjoy what is good.” But it turned out to be futile. <sup>2</sup> I said about laughter, “It is madness,” and about pleasure, “What does this accomplish?” <sup>3†</sup> I explored with my mind how to let my body enjoy life <sup>A</sup> with wine and how to grasp folly — my mind still guiding me with wisdom — until I could see what is good for •people to do under heaven during the few days of their lives.

The Emptiness of Possessions

<sup>4</sup> I increased my achievements. I built houses and planted vineyards for myself. <sup>5</sup> I made gardens and parks for myself and planted every kind of fruit tree in them. <sup>6</sup> I constructed reservoirs of water for myself from which to irrigate a grove of flourishing trees. <sup>7</sup> I acquired male and female servants and had slaves who were born in my house. I also owned many herds of cattle and flocks, more than all who were before me in Jerusalem. <sup>8</sup> I also amassed silver and gold for myself, and the treasure of kings and provinces. I gathered male and female singers for myself, and many concubines, the delights of men. <sup>9</sup> So I became great and surpassed all who were before me in Jerusalem; my wisdom also remained with me. <sup>10</sup> All that my eyes desired, I did not deny them. I did not refuse myself any pleasure, for I took pleasure in all my struggles. This was my reward for all my struggles. <sup>11</sup> When I considered all that I had accomplished <sup>C</sup> and what I had labored to achieve, I found everything to be futile and a pursuit of the wind. There was nothing to be gained under the sun.

The Relative Value of Wisdom

<sup>12</sup> Then I turned to consider wisdom, madness, and folly, for what will the man be like who comes after the king? He will do what has already been done. <sup>13</sup> And I realized that there is an advantage to wisdom over folly, like the advantage of light over darkness.

<sup>14</sup> The wise man has eyes in his head,
but the fool walks in darkness.

Yet I also knew that one fate comes to them both. <sup>15</sup> So I said to myself, “What happens to the fool will also happen to me. Why then have I been overly wise?” And I said to myself that this is also futile. <sup>16</sup> For, just like the fool, there is no lasting remembrance of the wise man, since in the days to come both will be forgotten. How is it that the wise man dies just like the fool? <sup>17</sup> Therefore, I hated life because the work that was done under the sun was distressing to me. For everything is futile and a pursuit of the wind.

The Emptiness of Work

<sup>18</sup> I hated all my work that I labored at under the sun because I must leave it to the man who comes after me. <sup>19</sup> And who knows whether he will be a wise man or a fool? Yet he will take over all my work that I labored at skillfully under the sun. This too is futile. <sup>20</sup> So I began to give myself over <sup>D</sup> to despair concerning all my work that I had labored at under the sun. <sup>21</sup> When there is a man whose work was done with wisdom, knowledge, and skill, and he must give his portion to a man who has not worked for it, this too is futile and a great wrong. <sup>22</sup> For what does a man get with all his work and all his efforts that he labors at under the sun? <sup>23</sup> For all his days are filled with grief, and his occupation is sorrowful; even at night, his mind does not rest. This too is futile.

ECCLESIASTES

The Mystery of Time

3 There is an occasion for everything,
and a time for every activity under heaven:
<sup>2</sup> a time to give birth and a time to die;
a time to plant and a time to uproot; <sup>A</sup> <sup>3</sup> a time to kill and a time to heal;
a time to tear down and a time to build;
<sup>4</sup> a time to weep and a time to laugh;
a time to mourn and a time to dance;
<sup>5</sup> a time to throw stones and a time to gather stones;
a time to embrace and a time to avoid embracing;
<sup>6</sup> a time to search and a time to count as lost;
a time to keep and a time to throw away;
<sup>7</sup> a time to tear and a time to sew;
a time to be silent and a time to speak;
<sup>8</sup> a time to love and a time to hate;
a time for war and a time for peace.

<sup>9</sup> What does the worker gain from his struggles? <sup>10</sup> I have seen the task that God has given •people to keep them occupied. <sup>11</sup> He has made everything appropriate <sup>B</sup> in its time. He has also put eternity in their hearts, <sup>C</sup> but man cannot discover the work God has done from beginning to end. <sup>12</sup> I know that there is nothing better for them than to rejoice and enjoy the <sup>D</sup> good life. <sup>13</sup> It is also the gift of God whenever anyone eats, drinks, and enjoys all his efforts. <sup>14</sup> I know that all God does will last forever; there is no adding to it or taking from it. God works so that people will be in awe of Him. <sup>15</sup> Whatever is, has already been, and whatever will be, already is. God repeats what has passed. <sup>E</sup>

The Mystery of Injustice and Death

<sup>16</sup> I also observed under the sun: there is wickedness at the place of judgment and there is wickedness at the place of righteousness. <sup>17</sup> I said to myself, “God will judge the righteous and the wicked, since there is a time for every activity and every work.” <sup>18</sup> I said to myself, “This happens concerning people, so that God may test them and they may see for themselves that they are like animals.”<sup>19†</sup> For the fate of people and the fate of animals is the same. As one dies, so dies the other; they all have the same breath. People have no advantage over animals since everything is futile.<sup>20</sup> All are going to the same place; all come from dust, and all return to dust.<sup>21</sup> Who knows if the spirit of people rises upward and the spirit of animals goes downward to the earth?<sup>22</sup> I have seen that there is nothing better than for a person to enjoy his activities because that is his reward. For who can enable him to see what will happen after he dies? <sup>F</sup>

ECCLESIASTES

4 Again, I observed all the acts of oppression being done under the sun. Look at the tears of those who are oppressed; they have no one to comfort them. Power is with those who oppress them; they have no one to comfort them. <sup>2†</sup> So I admired the dead, who have already died, more than the living, who are still alive. <sup>3</sup> But better than either of them is the one who has not yet existed, who has not seen the evil activity that is done under the sun.

The Loneliness of Wealth

<sup>4</sup> I saw that all labor and all skillful work is due to a man's jealousy of his friend. This too is futile and a pursuit of the wind.

<sup>5†</sup> The fool folds his arms
and consumes his own flesh.

<sup>6</sup> Better one handful with rest
than two handfuls with effort and a pursuit of the wind.

<sup>7</sup> Again, I saw futility under the sun: <sup>8</sup> There is a person without a companion, <sup>A</sup> without even a son or brother, and though there is no end to all his struggles, his eyes are still not content with riches. "So who am I struggling for," he asks, "and depriving myself from good?" This too is futile and a miserable task.

<sup>9</sup> Two are better than one because they have a good reward for their efforts. <sup>10</sup> For if either falls, his companion can lift him up; but pity the one who falls without another to lift him up. <sup>11</sup> Also, if two lie down together, they can keep warm; but how can one person alone keep warm? <sup>12</sup> And if someone overpowers one person, two can resist him. A cord of three strands is not easily broken.

<sup>16</sup> There is no limit to all the •people who were before them, yet those who come later will not rejoice in him. This too is futile and a pursuit of the wind.

ECCLESIASTES

Chapter 5 Caution in God's Presence

<sup>1</sup>Guard your steps when you go to the house of God. Better to draw near in obedience than to offer the sacrifice as fools do, for they ignorantly do wrong. <sup>2</sup> Do not be hasty to speak, and do not be impulsive to make a speech before God. God is in heaven and you are on earth, so let your words be few. <sup>3</sup> For dreams result from much work and a fool's voice from many words. <sup>4</sup> When you make a vow to God, don't delay fulfilling it, because He does not delight in fools. Fulfill what you vow. <sup>5</sup> Better that you do not vow than that you vow and not fulfill it. <sup>6</sup> Do not let your mouth bring •guilt on you, and do not say in the presence of the messenger that it was a mistake. Why should God be angry with your words and destroy the work of your hands? <sup>7</sup> For many dreams bring futility, so do many words. Therefore, •fear God.

The Realities of Wealth

<sup>8†</sup> If you see oppression of the poor and perversion of justice and righteousness in the province, don't be astonished at the situation, because one official protects another official, and higher officials protect them.

<sup>13</sup> There is a sickening tragedy I have seen under the sun: wealth kept by its owner to his harm. <sup>14</sup> That wealth was lost in a bad venture, so when he fathered a son, he was empty-handed. <sup>15</sup> As he came from his mother's womb, so he will go again, naked as he came; he will take nothing for his efforts that he can carry in his hands. <sup>16</sup> This too is a sickening tragedy: exactly as he comes, so he will go. What does the one gain who struggles for the wind? <sup>17</sup> What is more, he eats in darkness all his days, with much sorrow, sickness, and anger.

<sup>18†</sup> Here is what I have seen to be good: it is appropriate to eat, drink, and experience good in all the labor one does under the sun during the few days of his life God has given him, because that is his reward. <sup>19</sup> God has also given riches and wealth to every man, and He has allowed him to enjoy them, take his reward, and rejoice in his labor. This is a gift of God, <sup>20</sup> for he does not often consider the days of his life because God keeps him occupied with the joy of his heart.

ECCLESIASTES

6 Here is a tragedy I have observed under the sun, and it weighs heavily on humanity: <sup>A</sup> 2 God gives a man riches, wealth, and honor so that he lacks nothing of all he desires for himself, but God does not allow him to enjoy them. Instead, a stranger will enjoy them. This is futile and a sickening tragedy. <sup>3</sup> A man may father a hundred children and live many years. No matter how long he lives, <sup>B</sup> if he is not satisfied by good things and does not even have a proper burial, I say that a stillborn child is better off than he. <sup>4†</sup> For he comes in futility and he goes in darkness, and his name is shrouded in darkness. <sup>5</sup> Though a stillborn child does not see the sun and is not conscious, it has more rest than he. <sup>6</sup> And if he lives a thousand years twice, but does not experience happiness, do not both go to the same place?

yet the appetite is never satisfied.

<sup>8</sup> What advantage then does the wise man have over the fool? What advantage is there for the poor person who knows how to conduct himself before others? <sup>9</sup> Better what the eyes see than wandering desire. This too is futile and a pursuit of the wind.

<sup>10</sup> Whatever exists was given its name long ago, <sup>D</sup> and it is known what man is. But he is not able to contend with the One stronger than he. <sup>11</sup> For when there are many words, they increase futility. What is the advantage for man? <sup>12</sup> For who knows what is good for man in life, in the few days of his futile life that he spends like a shadow? Who can tell man what will happen after him under the sun?

ECCLESIASTES

Wise Sayings

<sup>7</sup> A good name is better than fine perfume, and the day of one's death than the day of one's birth.

<sup>2</sup> It is better to go to a house of mourning
than to go to a house of feasting,
since that is the end of all mankind,
and the living should take it to heart.

<sup>3</sup> Grief is better than laughter,
for when a face is sad, a heart may be glad.

<sup>4</sup> The heart of the wise is in a house of mourning,
but the heart of fools is in a house of pleasure.

<sup>5</sup> It is better to listen to rebuke from a wise person than to listen to the song of fools,

<sup>6</sup> for like the crackling of burning thorns under the pot,
so is the laughter of the fool.

This too is futile.

<sup>7</sup> Surely, the practice of extortion turns a wise person into a fool, and a bribe destroys the mind.

<sup>8</sup> The end of a matter is better than its beginning;
a patient spirit is better than a proud spirit.

<sup>9</sup> Don't let your spirit rush to be angry,
for anger abides in the heart of fools.

since it is not wise of you to ask this.

<sup>11</sup> Wisdom is as good as an inheritance
and an advantage to those who see the sun,

<sup>12</sup> because wisdom is protection as money is protection, and the advantage of knowledge
is that wisdom preserves the life of its owner.

<sup>13</sup> Consider the work of God,
for who can straighten out
what He has made crooked?

<sup>14</sup> In the day of prosperity be joyful, but in the day of adversity, consider: God has made the one as well as the other, so that man cannot discover anything that will come after him.

Avoiding Extremes

<sup>20</sup> There is certainly no righteous man on the earth who does good and never sins.

<sup>21</sup> Don't pay attention <sup>B</sup> to everything •people say, or you may hear your servant cursing you, <sup>22</sup> for you know that many times you yourself have cursed others.

What the Teacher Found

<sup>23</sup> I have tested all this by wisdom. I resolved, "I will be wise," but it was beyond me. <sup>24</sup> What exists is beyond reach and very deep. Who can discover it? <sup>25</sup> I turned my thoughts to know, explore, and seek wisdom and an explanation for things, and to know that wickedness is stupidity and folly is madness. <sup>26†</sup> And I find more bitter than death the woman who is a trap, her heart a net, and her hands chains. The one who pleases God will escape her, but the sinner will be captured by her. <sup>27</sup> "Look," says the Teacher, "I have discovered this by adding one thing to another to find out the explanation, <sup>28</sup> which my soul continually searches for but does not find: among a thousand people I have found one true man, but among all these I have not found a true woman. <sup>29</sup> Only see this: I have discovered that God made people upright, but they pursued many schemes."

Wisdom, Authorities, and Inequities

8 Who is like the wise person, and who knows the interpretation of a matter? A man's wisdom brightens his face, and the sternness of his face is changed.

<sup>3</sup> Do not be in a hurry; leave his presence, and don't persist in a bad cause, since he will do whatever he wants. <sup>4</sup> For the king's word is authoritative, and who can say to him, "What are you doing?" <sup>5</sup> The one who keeps a command will not experience anything harmful, and a wise heart knows the right time and procedure. <sup>6</sup> For every activity there is a right time and procedure, even though man's troubles are heavy on him. <sup>7</sup> Yet no one knows what will happen because who can tell him what will happen? <sup>8</sup> No one has authority over the wind <sup>A</sup> to restrain it, and there is no authority over the day of death; there is no furlough in battle, and wickedness will not allow those who practice it to escape. <sup>9</sup> All this I have seen, applying my mind to all the work that is done under the sun, at a time when one man has authority over another to his harm.

<sup>10</sup> In such circumstances, I saw the wicked buried. They came and went from the holy place, and they were praised in the city where they did so. This too is futile. <sup>11</sup> Because the sentence against a criminal act is not carried out quickly, the heart of •people is filled with the desire to commit crime. <sup>12</sup> Although a sinner commits crime a hundred times and prolongs his life, yet I also know that it will go well with God-fearing people, for they are reverent before Him. <sup>13</sup> However, it will not go well with the wicked, and they will not lengthen their days like a shadow, for they are not reverent before God.

<sup>16</sup> When I applied my mind to know wisdom and to observe the activity that is done on the earth (even though one's eyes do not close in sleep day or night), <sup>17</sup> I observed all the work of God and concluded that man is unable to discover the work that is done under the sun. Even though a man labors hard to explore it, he cannot find it; even if the wise man claims to know it, he is unable to discover it.

Enjoy Life Despite Death

9 Indeed, I took all this to heart and explained it all: the righteous, the wise, and their works are in God's hands. •People don't know whether to expect love or hate. Everything lies ahead of them. <sup>2†</sup> Everything is the same for everyone: there is one fate for the righteous and the wicked, for the good and the bad, for the •clean and the •unclean, for the one who sacrifices and the one who does not sacrifice. As it is for the good, so it is for the sinner; as for the one who takes an oath, so for the one who fears an oath. <sup>3</sup> This is an evil in all that is done under the sun: there is one fate for everyone. In addition, the hearts of people are full of evil, and madness is in their hearts while they live — after that they go to the dead. <sup>4</sup> But there is hope for whoever is joined with all the living, since a live dog is better than a dead lion. <sup>5</sup> For the living know that they will die, but the dead don't know anything. There is no longer a reward for them because the memory of them is forgotten. <sup>6</sup> Their love, their hate, and their envy have already disappeared, and there is no longer a portion for them in all that is done under the sun.

<sup>7</sup> Go, eat your bread with pleasure, and drink your wine with a cheerful heart, for God has already accepted your works. <sup>8†</sup> Let your clothes be white all the time, and never let oil be lacking on your head. <sup>9</sup> Enjoy life with the wife you love all the days of your fleeting <sup>A</sup> life, which has been given to you under the sun, all your fleeting days. For that is your portion in life and in your struggle under the sun. <sup>10</sup> Whatever your hands find to do, do with all your strength, because there is no work, planning, knowledge, or wisdom in •Sheol where you are going.

The Limitations of Wisdom

<sup>11</sup> Again I saw under the sun that the race is not to the swift, or the battle to the strong, or bread to the wise, or riches to the discerning, or favor to the skillful; rather, time and chance happen to all of them. <sup>12</sup> For man certainly does not know his time: like fish caught in a cruel net or like birds caught in a trap, so people are trapped in an evil time as it suddenly falls on them.

<sup>18</sup> Wisdom is better than weapons of war, but one sinner can destroy much good.

ECCLESIASTES

The Burden of Folly

10 Dead flies make a perfumer's oil ferment and stink;
so a little folly outweighs wisdom and honor.

but a fool's heart to the <sup>B</sup> left.

<sup>3</sup> Even when the fool walks along the road, his heart lacks sense,
and he shows everyone he is a fool.

<sup>4</sup> If the ruler's anger rises against you, don't leave your place, for calmness puts great offenses to rest.

<sup>5</sup> There is an evil I have seen under the sun, an error proceeding from the presence of the ruler:

<sup>6</sup> The fool is appointed to great heights,
but the rich remain in lowly positions.

<sup>7†</sup> I have seen slaves on horses,
but princes walking on the ground like slaves.

<sup>8</sup> The one who digs a pit may fall into it, and the one who breaks through a wall may be bitten by a snake.

<sup>9</sup> The one who quarries stones may be hurt by them;
the one who splits trees may be endangered by them.

<sup>10</sup> If the ax is dull, and one does not sharpen its edge, then one must exert more strength;
however, the advantage of wisdom is that it brings success.

<sup>11</sup> If the snake bites before it is charmed, then there is no advantage for the charmer. <sup>C</sup>

<sup>12</sup> The words from the mouth of a wise man are gracious,
but the lips of a fool consume him.

but the end of his speaking is evil madness.

<sup>14</sup> Yet the fool multiplies words.
No one knows what will happen,
and who can tell anyone what will happen after him?

<sup>15</sup> The struggles of fools weary them,
for they don't know how to go to the city.

<sup>16</sup> Woe to you, land, when your king is a youth and your princes feast in the morning.

<sup>17</sup> Blessed are you, land, when your king is a son of nobles and your princes feast at the proper time —
for strength and not for drunkenness.

<sup>18</sup> Because of laziness the roof caves in,
and because of negligent hands the house leaks.

<sup>19†</sup> A feast is prepared for laughter,
and wine makes life happy,
and money is the answer for everything.

<sup>20</sup> Do not curse the king even in your thoughts, and do not curse a rich person even in your bedroom,
for a bird of the sky may carry the message,
and a winged creature may report the matter.

Invest in Life

11 Send your bread on the surface of the waters,
for after many days you may find it.

<sup>2</sup> Give a portion to seven or even to eight,
for you don't know what disaster may happen on earth.

<sup>3</sup> If the clouds are full, they will pour out rain on the earth;
whether a tree falls to the south or the north,
the place where the tree falls, there it will lie.

<sup>4</sup> One who watches the wind will not sow,
and the one who looks at the clouds will not reap.

<sup>5</sup> Just as you don't know the path of the wind, or how bones develop in <sup>A</sup> the womb of a pregnant woman,
so you don't know the work of God who makes everything.

<sup>6</sup> In the morning sow your seed,
and at evening do not let your hand rest,
because you don't know which will succeed,
whether one or the other,
or if both of them will be equally good.

<sup>7</sup> Light is sweet,
and it is pleasing for the eyes to see the sun.

<sup>8</sup> Indeed, if a man lives many years,
let him rejoice in them all,
and let him remember the days of darkness, since they will be many.
All that comes is futile.

<sup>9</sup> Rejoice, young man, while you are young,
and let your heart be glad in the days of your youth.
And walk in the ways of your heart
and in the sight of your eyes;
but know that for all of these things God will bring you to judgment.

<sup>10</sup> Remove sorrow from your heart,
and put away pain from your flesh,
because youth and the prime of life are fleeting.

The Twilight of Life

12 So remember your Creator in the days of your youth:

Before the days of adversity come,
and the years approach when you will say,
“I have no delight in them”;

<sup>2</sup> before the sun and the light are darkened,
and the moon and the stars,
and the clouds return after <sup>A</sup> the rain;

<sup>3</sup> on the day when the guardians of the house tremble,
and the strong men stoop,
the women who grind cease because they are few,
and the ones who watch through the windows see dimly,

<sup>4</sup> the doors at the street are shut
while the sound of the mill fades;
when one rises at the sound of a bird,
and all the daughters of song grow faint.

<sup>5</sup> Also, they are afraid of heights and dangers on the road;
the almond tree blossoms,
the grasshopper loses its spring, <sup>B</sup>
and the caper berry has no effect;
for man is headed to his eternal home,
and mourners will walk around in the street;

<sup>6</sup> before the silver cord is snapped,
and the gold bowl is broken,
and the jar is shattered at the spring,
and the wheel is broken into the well;

<sup>7</sup> and the dust returns to the earth as it once was,
and the spirit returns to God who gave it.

The Teacher’s Objectives and Conclusion

<sup>9</sup> In addition to the Teacher being a wise man, he constantly taught the •people knowledge; he weighed, explored, and arranged many proverbs.

<sup>10</sup> The Teacher sought to find delightful sayings and write words of truth accurately. <sup>11</sup> The sayings of the wise are like goads, and those from masters of collections are like firmly embedded nails. The sayings are given by one Shepherd. <sup>C</sup>

<sup>12</sup> But beyond these, my son, be warned: there is no end to the making of many books, and much study wearies the body. <sup>13†</sup> When all has been heard, the conclusion of the matter is: •fear God and keep His commands, because this is for all humanity. <sup>14</sup> For God will bring every act to judgment, including every hidden thing, whether good or evil.

1

W<sup>2</sup> Oh, that he would kiss me
with the kisses of his mouth!
For your <sup>B</sup> love is <sup>C</sup> more delightful than wine.

<sup>3</sup> The fragrance of your perfume is intoxicating;
your name is perfume poured out.
No wonder young women <sup>D</sup> adore you.

<sup>4†</sup> Take me with you — let us hurry.
Oh, that the king would bring <sup>E</sup> me to his chambers.

Y We will rejoice and be glad for you;
we will praise your love more than
wine.

W It is only right that they adore you.

<sup>5†</sup> Daughters of Jerusalem,
I am dark like the tents of Kedar,
yet lovely like the curtains of Solomon.

<sup>6</sup> Do not stare at me because I am dark,
for the sun has gazed on me.
My mother's sons were angry with me;
they made me a keeper of the vineyards.

I have not kept my own vineyard. <sup>F</sup>

<sup>7</sup> Tell me, you, the one I love:
Where do you pasture your sheep?
Where do you let them rest at noon?
Why should I be like one who veils herself <sup>G</sup>
beside the flocks of your companions?

M<sup>8</sup> If you do not know,
most beautiful of women,
follow <sup>H</sup> the tracks of the flock,

and pasture your young goats
near the shepherds' tents.

<sup>9</sup> I compare you, my darling,
to a <sup>I</sup> mare among Pharaoh's chariots.

<sup>10</sup> Your cheeks are beautiful with jewelry,
your neck with its necklace.

<sup>11</sup> We will make gold jewelry for you, accented with silver.

W<sup>12</sup> While the king is on his couch, <sup>J</sup>
my perfume <sup>K</sup> releases its fragrance.

<sup>13</sup> My love is a sachet of myrrh to me,
spending the night between my breasts.

<sup>14</sup> My love is a cluster of henna blossoms to
me,
in the vineyards of En-gedi.

M<sup>15</sup> How beautiful you are, my darling.
How very beautiful!
Your eyes are doves.

W<sup>16</sup> How handsome you are, my love.
How delightful!
Our bed is lush with foliage;

<sup>17</sup> the beams of our house are cedars, and our rafters are cypresses. <sup>L</sup>

2

I am a rose <sup>A</sup>, of Sharon,
a lily <sup>B</sup> of the valleys.

M<sup>2</sup> Like a lily among thorns,
so is my darling among the young women.

W<sup>3</sup> Like an apricot <sup>C</sup> tree among the trees of the forest,
so is my love among the young men.
I delight to sit in his shade,
and his fruit is sweet to my taste.

<sup>4</sup> He brought me to the banquet hall, <sup>D</sup>, and he looked on me with love. <sup>E</sup>

<sup>5</sup> Sustain me with raisins; refresh me with apricots, <sup>F</sup>
for I am lovesick.

and his right arm embraces me. <sup>G</sup>

<sup>7†</sup> Young women of Jerusalem, I charge you
by the gazelles and the wild does of the field:
do not stir up or awaken love
until the appropriate time. <sup>H</sup>

<sup>8</sup> Listen! My love is approaching.
Look! Here he comes,
leaping over the mountains,
bounding over the hills.

<sup>9</sup> My love is like a gazelle
or a young stag.
Look, he is standing behind our wall,
gazing through the windows,
peering through the lattice.

<sup>10</sup> My love calls to me:

M Arise, my darling.
Come away, my beautiful one.
For now the winter is past;

11

the rain has ended and gone away.

<sup>12</sup> The blossoms appear in the countryside.

The time of singing <sup>I</sup> has come,
and the turtledove's cooing is heard in our land.

<sup>13</sup> The fig tree ripens its figs;
the blossoming vines give off their fragrance.

Arise, my darling.

Come away, my beautiful one.

<sup>14†</sup> My dove, in the clefts of the rock,
in the crevices of the cliff,

let me see your face, <sup>J</sup>

let me hear your voice;

for your voice is sweet,

and your face is lovely.

(W) <sup>15†</sup> Catch the foxes for us —
the little foxes that ruin the vineyards —
for our vineyards are in bloom.

W <sup>16†</sup> My love is mine and I am his;
he feeds among the lilies.

<sup>17</sup> Before the day breaks <sup>K</sup>
and the shadows flee,
turn to me, my love, and be like a gazelle
or a young stag on the divided mountains. <sup>L</sup>

3

- In my bed at night <sup>A</sup>
I sought the one I love;
I sought him, but did not find him.
- <sup>2</sup> I will arise now and go about the city,
through the streets and the plazas.
I will seek the one I love.
I sought him, but did not find him.
- <sup>3</sup> The guards who go about the city found me.
I asked them, “Have you seen the one I love? ”
- <sup>4</sup> I had just passed them
when I found the one I love.
I held on to him and would not let him go until I brought him to my mother’s house —
to the chamber of the one who conceived
me.
- <sup>5</sup> Young women of Jerusalem, I charge you
by the gazelles and the wild does of the field:
do not stir up or awaken love
until the appropriate time. <sup>B</sup>
- N <sup>6</sup> What is this coming up from the wilderness like columns of smoke, scented with myrrh and frankincense
from every fragrant powder of the merchant?
- <sup>7†</sup> It is Solomon’s royal litter surrounded by 60 warriors
from the mighty of Israel.
- <sup>8</sup> All of them are skilled with swords
and trained in warfare.
Each has his sword at his side
to guard against the terror of the night.
- <sup>9</sup> King Solomon made a sedan chair for himself

with wood from Lebanon.

<sup>10+</sup> He made its posts of silver,
its back <sup>C</sup> of gold,
and its seat of purple.

Its interior is inlaid with love <sup>D</sup>
by the young women of Jerusalem.

<sup>11</sup> Come out, young women of •Zion,
and gaze at King Solomon,
wearing the crown his mother placed on him
the day of his wedding —
the day of his heart's rejoicing.

4

- M How beautiful you are, my darling.
How very beautiful!
Behind your veil,
your eyes are doves.
Your hair is like a flock of goats
streaming down Mount Gilead.
- <sup>2</sup> Your teeth are like a flock of newly shorn sheep
coming up from washing,
each one having a twin,
and not one missing. <sup>A</sup>,
- <sup>3</sup> Your lips are like a scarlet cord,
and your mouth <sup>B</sup> is lovely.
Behind your veil,
your brow <sup>C</sup> is like a slice of pomegranate.
- <sup>4</sup> Your neck is like the tower of David,
constructed in layers.
A thousand bucklers are hung on it —
all of them shields of warriors.
- <sup>5†</sup> Your breasts are like two fawns,
twins of a gazelle, that feed among the lilies.
- <sup>6</sup> Before the day breaks <sup>D</sup>
and the shadows flee,
I will make my way to the mountain of myrrh
and the hill of frankincense.
- <sup>7</sup> You are absolutely beautiful, my darling,
with no imperfection in you.
- <sup>8</sup> Come with me from Lebanon, my bride —
with me from Lebanon!
Descend from the peak of Amana,
from the summit of Senir and Hermon,
from the dens of the lions,

from the mountains of the leopards.

<sup>9</sup> You have captured my heart, my sister, my bride.

You have captured my heart with one glance
of your eyes,
with one jewel of your necklace.

<sup>10</sup> How delightful your love is, my sister, my
bride.

Your love is much better than wine,
and the fragrance of your perfume than any balsam.

<sup>11</sup> Your lips drip sweetness like the honeycomb,
my bride.

Honey and milk are under your tongue.
The fragrance of your garments is like the fragrance of Lebanon.

<sup>12+</sup> My sister, my bride, you are a locked garden —
a locked garden and a sealed spring.

<sup>13</sup> Your branches are a paradise <sup>E</sup> of pomegranates
with choicest fruits,
henna with nard —

<sup>14</sup> nard and saffron, calamus and cinnamon, with all the trees of frankincense,
myrrh and aloes,
with all the best spices.

<sup>15</sup> You are a garden spring,
a well of flowing water streaming from Lebanon.

W<sup>16</sup> Awaken, north wind —
come, south wind.
Blow on my garden,
and spread the fragrance of its spices.
Let my love come to his garden
and eat its choicest fruits.

5

M I have come to my garden — my sister, my
bride.

I gather <sup>A</sup> my myrrh with my spices.

I eat my honeycomb with my honey.

I drink my wine with my milk.

N Eat, friends!

Drink, be intoxicated with love! <sup>B</sup>

W<sup>2</sup> I sleep, but my heart is awake.

A sound! My love is knocking!

M Open to me, my sister, my darling,
my dove, my perfect one.

For my head is drenched with dew,
my hair with droplets of the night.

W<sup>3</sup> I have taken off my clothing.

How can I put it back on?

I have washed my feet.

How can I get them dirty?

<sup>4</sup> My love thrust his hand through the opening,
and my feelings were stirred for him.

<sup>5</sup> I rose to open for my love.
My hands dripped with myrrh,
my fingers with flowing myrrh
on the handles of the bolt.

<sup>6</sup> I opened to my love,
but my love had turned and gone away.

I was crushed <sup>C</sup> that he had left. <sup>D</sup>

I sought him, but did not find him.

I called him, but he did not answer.

<sup>7</sup> The guards who go about the city found me.
They beat and wounded me;

they took my cloak <sup>E</sup> from me —
the guardians of the walls.

- 8 Young women of Jerusalem, I charge you:
if you find my love,
tell him that I am lovesick.
- Y 9 What makes the one you love better than another,
most beautiful of women?
What makes him better than another,
that you would give us this charge?
- W 10 My love is fit and strong, <sup>F</sup>,
notable among ten thousand.
- 11 His head is purest gold.
His hair is wavy <sup>G</sup>
and black as a raven.
- 12 His eyes are like doves
beside streams of water, washed in milk
and set like jewels. <sup>H</sup>
- 13 His cheeks are like beds of spice,
towers of perfume.
His lips are lilies,
dripping with flowing myrrh.
- 14 His arms <sup>I</sup> are rods of gold set <sup>J</sup> with topaz.
His body <sup>K</sup> is an ivory panel covered with sapphires.
- 15 His legs are alabaster pillars set on pedestals of pure gold.
His presence is like Lebanon,
as majestic as the cedars.
- 16 His mouth is sweetness.
He is absolutely desirable.
This is my love, and this is my friend,
young women of Jerusalem.

6

- Y Where has your love gone,
most beautiful of women?
Which way has he <sup>A</sup> turned?
We will seek him with you.
- W<sup>2</sup> My love has gone down to his garden,
to beds of spice,
to feed in the gardens
and gather lilies.
- <sup>3</sup> I am my love's and my love is mine;
he feeds among the lilies.
- M<sup>4</sup> You are as beautiful as Tirzah, my darling,
lovely as Jerusalem,
awe-inspiring as an army with banners.
- <sup>5</sup> Turn your eyes away from me,
for they captivate me.
Your hair is like a flock of goats
streaming down from Gilead.
- <sup>6</sup> Your teeth are like a flock of ewes
coming up from washing,
each one having a twin,
and not one missing. <sup>B</sup>,
- <sup>7</sup> Behind your veil,
your brow <sup>C</sup> is like a slice of pomegranate.
- <sup>8†</sup> There are 60 queens and 80 concubines
and young women <sup>D</sup> without number.
- <sup>9</sup> But my dove, my virtuous one, is unique;
she is the favorite of her mother,
perfect to the one who gave her birth.
Women see her and declare her fortunate;
queens and concubines also, and they sing her praises:
- Y<sup>10</sup> Who is this who shines like the dawn —

as beautiful as the moon,
bright as the sun,
awe-inspiring as an army with banners?

11†

I came down to the walnut grove

to see the blossoms of the valley,
to see if the vines were budding
and the pomegranates
blooming.

12†

Before I knew it,
my desire put
me
among the chariots of my noble
people. <sup>E</sup>

Y <sup>13</sup> Come back, come back, Shulammitte! <sup>F</sup> Come back, come back, that we may look at you!

M Why are you looking at the Shulammitte,
as you look at the dance of the two camps? <sup>G</sup>

7

- How beautiful are your sandaled feet,
princess! <sup>A</sup>,
The curves of your thighs are like jewelry,
the handiwork of a master.
- <sup>2</sup> Your navel is a rounded bowl;
it never lacks mixed wine.
Your waist <sup>B</sup> is a mound of wheat surrounded by lilies.
- <sup>3</sup> Your breasts are like two fawns,
twins of a gazelle.
- <sup>4</sup> Your neck is like a tower of ivory,
your eyes like pools in Heshbon
by the gate of Bath-rabbim.
Your nose is like the tower of Lebanon
looking toward Damascus.
- <sup>5</sup> Your head crowns you <sup>C</sup> like Mount Carmel,
the hair of your head like purple cloth —
a king could be held captive in your tresses.
- <sup>6</sup> How beautiful you are and how pleasant,
my love, with such delights!
- <sup>7</sup> Your stature is like a palm tree;
your breasts are clusters of fruit.
- <sup>8</sup> I said, “I will climb the palm tree and take hold of its fruit.”
May your breasts be like clusters of grapes,
and the fragrance of your breath like apricots.
- <sup>9</sup> Your mouth <sup>D</sup> is like fine wine —
W flowing smoothly for my love, gliding past my lips and teeth!
- <sup>10</sup> I belong to my love,
and his desire is for me.
- <sup>11</sup> Come, my love,
let’s go to the field;

let's spend the night among the henna blossoms. <sup>E</sup>

<sup>12</sup> Let's go early to the vineyards;
let's see if the vine has budded,
if the blossom has opened,
if the pomegranates are in bloom.
There I will give you my love.

<sup>13</sup> The mandrakes give off a fragrance, and at our doors is every delicacy —
new as well as old.
I have treasured them up for you, my love.

8

- If only I could treat you like my brother,<sup>A</sup>
one who nursed at my mother's breasts,
I would find you in public and kiss you,
and no one would scorn me.
- <sup>2</sup> I would lead you, I would take you,
to the house of my mother who taught me.
I would give you spiced wine to drink
from my pomegranate juice.
- <sup>3</sup> His left hand is under my head,
and his right arm embraces me.
- <sup>4</sup> Young women of Jerusalem, I charge you:
do not stir up or awaken love
until the appropriate time.
- Y<sup>5</sup> Who is this coming up from the wilderness,
leaning on the one she loves?
- W I awakened you under the apricot tree.
There your mother conceived you;
there she conceived and gave you birth.
- <sup>6†</sup> Set me as a seal on your heart,
as a seal on your arm.
For love is as strong as death;
ardent love is as unrelenting as •Sheol.
Love's flames are fiery flames —
the fiercest of all.<sup>B</sup>
- <sup>7</sup> Mighty waters cannot extinguish love;
rivers cannot sweep it away.
If a man were to give all his wealth<sup>C</sup> for love,
it would be utterly scorned.
- B<sup>8</sup> Our sister is young;
she has no breasts.
What will we do for our sister
on the day she is spoken for?

<sup>9</sup> If she is a wall,
we will build a silver parapet on it.
If she is a door,
we will enclose it with cedar planks.

W<sup>10</sup> I am <sup>D</sup> a wall
and my breasts like towers.
So in his eyes I have become like one who finds peace.

<sup>11</sup> Solomon owned a vineyard in Baal-

He leased the vineyard to tenants.
Each was to bring for his fruit
1,000 pieces of silver.

<sup>12</sup> I have my own vineyard. <sup>E</sup>
The 1,000 are for you, Solomon,
but 200 for those who guard its fruits.

M<sup>13</sup> You who dwell in the gardens — companions are listening for your voice —
let me hear you!

W<sup>14</sup> Hurry to me, my love,
and be like a gazelle
or a young stag
on the mountains of spices.

ISAIAH

1 The vision concerning Judah and Jerusalem that Isaiah son of Amoz saw during the reigns <sup>A</sup> of Uzziah, Jotham, Ahaz, and Hezekiah, kings of Judah.

Judah on Trial

<sup>2</sup> Listen, heavens, and pay attention, earth,
for the LORD has spoken:
“I have raised children <sup>B</sup> and brought them up,
but they have rebelled against Me.

<sup>3</sup> The ox knows its owner,
and the donkey its master’s feeding trough,
but Israel does not know;
My people do not understand.”

<sup>4</sup> Oh sinful nation,
people weighed down with iniquity,
brood of evildoers,
depraved children! <sup>C</sup>
They have abandoned the LORD;
they have despised the Holy One of Israel;
they have turned their backs on Him.

<sup>5</sup> Why do you want more beatings?
Why do you keep on rebelling?
The whole head is hurt,
and the whole heart is sick.

<sup>6</sup> From the sole of the foot even to the head,
no spot is uninjured —
wounds, welts, and festering sores
not cleansed, bandaged,
or soothed with oil.

<sup>7</sup> Your land is desolate,
your cities burned with fire;
foreigners devour your fields
before your very eyes —
a desolation demolished by foreigners.

<sup>8</sup> Daughter •Zion is abandoned
like a shelter in a vineyard,
like a shack in a cucumber field,
like a besieged city.

<sup>9</sup> If the LORD of •Hosts had not left us a few survivors,
we would be like Sodom,
we would resemble Gomorrah.

<sup>10</sup> Hear the word of the LORD,
you rulers of Sodom!
Listen to the instruction of our God,
you people of Gomorrah!

<sup>11†</sup> “What are all your sacrifices to Me? ”
asks the LORD.

“I have had enough of •burnt offerings and rams and the fat of well-fed cattle;
I have no desire for the blood of bulls,
lambs, or male goats.

<sup>12</sup> When you come to appear before Me,
who requires this from you —
this trampling of My courts?

<sup>13</sup> Stop bringing useless offerings.
Your incense is detestable to Me.
New Moons and Sabbaths,
and the calling of solemn assemblies —
I cannot stand iniquity with a festival.

<sup>14</sup> I hate your New Moons and prescribed festivals.
They have become a burden to Me;
I am tired of putting up with them.

<sup>15</sup> When you lift up your hands in prayer,
I will refuse to look at you;
even if you offer countless prayers,
I will not listen.
Your hands are covered with blood.

Purification of Jerusalem

16† “Wash yourselves. Cleanse yourselves.
Remove your evil deeds from My sight.
Stop doing evil.

17 Learn to do what is good.
Seek justice.

Correct the oppressor. <sup>D</sup>
Defend the rights of the fatherless.
Plead the widow’s cause.

18 “Come, let us discuss this,”
says the LORD.

“Though your sins are like scarlet,
they will be as white as snow;
though they are as red as crimson,
they will be like wool.

19 If you are willing and obedient,
you will eat the good things of the land.

20 But if you refuse and rebel,
you will be devoured by the sword.”
For the mouth of the LORD has spoken.

21 The faithful city — what an adulteress <sup>E</sup> she has become!
She was once full of justice.
Righteousness once dwelt in her —
but now, murderers!

22 Your silver has become dross, <sup>F</sup>
your beer <sup>G</sup> is diluted with water.

23 Your rulers are rebels,
friends of thieves.
They all love graft
and chase after bribes.
They do not defend the rights of the fatherless,
and the widow’s case never comes before them.

24 Therefore the Lord GOD of Hosts,
the Mighty One of Israel, declares:

“Ah, I will gain satisfaction from My foes;
I will take revenge against My enemies.

<sup>25</sup> I will turn My hand against you and will burn away your dross <sup>H</sup> completely; <sup>I</sup>
I will remove all your impurities.

<sup>26</sup> I will restore your judges to what they once were, <sup>J</sup>
and your advisers to their former state. <sup>K</sup>

Afterward you will be called the Righteous City,
a Faithful City.”

<sup>27</sup> Zion will be redeemed by justice,
her repentant ones by righteousness.

<sup>28</sup> But both rebels and sinners will be destroyed, and those who abandon the LORD will perish.

<sup>29</sup> Indeed, they will be ashamed of the sacred trees
you desired,
and you will be embarrassed because of the gardens
you have chosen.

<sup>30</sup> For you will become like an oak whose leaves are withered,
and like a garden without water.

Does the Bible Support a Just War? ⇒

<sup>31</sup> The strong one will become tinder,
and his work a spark;
both will burn together,
with no one to quench the flames.

The City of Peace

2 The vision that Isaiah son of Amoz saw concerning Judah and Jerusalem:

<sup>2†</sup> In the last days
the mountain of the LORD's house will be established
at the top of the mountains
and will be raised above the hills.
All nations will stream to it,
<sup>3</sup> and many peoples will come and say,
"Come, let us go up to the mountain of the LORD,
to the house of the God of Jacob.
He will teach us about His ways
so that we may walk in His paths."
For instruction will go out of •Zion
and the word of the LORD from Jerusalem.
<sup>4</sup> He will settle disputes among the nations
and provide arbitration for many peoples.
They will turn their swords into plows
and their spears into pruning knives.
Nations will not take up the sword against other nations,
and they will never again train for war.

The Day of the LORD

<sup>5</sup> House of Jacob,
come and let us walk in the LORD's light.
<sup>6</sup> For You have abandoned Your people,
the house of Jacob,
because they are full of •divination from the East
and of fortune-tellers like the Philistines.
They are in league <sup>A</sup> with foreigners.
<sup>7</sup> Their <sup>B</sup>, land is full of silver and gold,
and there is no limit to their treasures;
their land is full of horses,
and there is no limit to their chariots.
<sup>8</sup> Their land is full of idols;

they bow down to the work of their hands,
to what their fingers have made.

<sup>9†</sup> So humanity is brought low,
and man is humbled.

Do not forgive them!

<sup>10</sup> Go into the rocks
and hide in the dust
from the terror of the LORD
and from His majestic splendor.

<sup>11</sup> Human pride <sup>C</sup> will be humbled,
and the loftiness of men will be brought low;
the LORD alone will be exalted on that day.

<sup>12</sup> For a day belonging to the LORD of •Hosts is coming against all that is proud and lofty,
against all that is lifted up — it will be humbled —

<sup>13</sup> against all the cedars of Lebanon, lofty and lifted up,
against all the oaks of Bashan,

<sup>14</sup> against all the high mountains,
against all the lofty hills,

<sup>15</sup> against every high tower,
against every fortified wall,

<sup>16</sup> against every ship of Tarshish,
and against every splendid sea vessel.

<sup>17</sup> So human pride will be brought low,
and the loftiness of men will be humbled;
the LORD alone will be exalted on that day.

<sup>18</sup> The idols will vanish completely.

<sup>19</sup> People will go into caves in the rocks
and holes in the ground,
away from the terror of the LORD
and from His majestic splendor,
when He rises to terrify the earth.

<sup>20</sup> On that day people will throw their silver and gold idols,

which they made to worship,
to the moles and the bats.

<sup>21</sup> They will go into the caves of the rocks
and the crevices in the cliffs,
away from the terror of the LORD
and from His majestic splendor,
when He rises to terrify the earth.

<sup>22†</sup> Put no more trust in man,
who has only the breath in his nostrils.
What is he really worth?

Judah's Leaders Judged

3 Observe this: The Lord GOD of •Hosts is about to remove from Jerusalem and from Judah
every kind of security:

the entire supply of bread and water,

<sup>2</sup> the hero and warrior,

the judge and prophet,

the fortune-teller and elder,

<sup>3</sup> the commander of 50 and the dignitary,

the counselor, cunning magician, <sup>A</sup> and necromancer. <sup>B</sup>

<sup>4</sup> “I will make youths their leaders, and the unstable <sup>C</sup> will govern them.”

<sup>5</sup> The people will oppress one another, man against man, neighbor against neighbor;

the youth will act arrogantly toward the elder,

and the worthless toward the honorable.

<sup>6</sup> A man will even seize his brother

in his father’s house, saying:

“You have a cloak — you be our leader!

This heap of rubble will be under your control.”

<sup>7</sup> On that day he will cry out, saying:

“I’m not a healer.

I don’t even have food or clothing in my house.

Don’t make me the leader of the people! ”

<sup>8</sup> For Jerusalem has stumbled and Judah has fallen

because they have spoken and acted against the LORD, defying His glorious presence.

<sup>9</sup> The look on their faces testifies against them,

and like Sodom, they flaunt their sin.

They do not conceal it.

Woe to them,

for they have brought evil on themselves.

<sup>10†</sup> Tell the righteous that it will go well for them,

for they will eat the fruit of their labor.

<sup>11</sup> Woe to the wicked — it will go badly for them,

for what they have done will be done to them.

<sup>12</sup> Youths oppress My people,
and women rule over them.
My people, your leaders mislead you;
they confuse the direction of your paths.

<sup>13</sup> The LORD rises to argue the case and stands to judge the people.

<sup>14</sup> The LORD brings this charge against the elders and leaders of His people:
“You have devastated the vineyard.
The plunder from the poor is in your houses.

<sup>15</sup> Why do you crush My people and grind the faces of the poor? ”

Jerusalem's Women Judged of the Lord GOD of Hosts. This is the declaration

<sup>16†</sup> The LORD also says:

Because the daughters of •Zion are haughty, walking with heads held high
and seductive eyes,
going along with prancing steps,
jingling their ankle bracelets,

<sup>17</sup> the Lord will put scabs on the heads of the daughters of Zion,
and the LORD will shave their foreheads bare.

<sup>18</sup> On that day the Lord will strip their finery: ankle bracelets, headbands, crescents, <sup>19</sup> pendants, bracelets, veils, <sup>20</sup> headdresses, ankle jewelry, sashes, perfume bottles, amulets, <sup>21</sup> signet rings, nose rings, <sup>22</sup> festive robes, capes, cloaks, purses, <sup>23</sup> garments, linen clothes, turbans, and veils.

<sup>24</sup> Instead of perfume there will be a stench;
instead of a belt, a rope;
instead of beautifully styled hair, baldness;

instead of fine clothes, •sackcloth;
instead of beauty, branding.

<sup>25</sup> Your men will fall by the sword,
your warriors in battle.

<sup>26</sup> Then her gates will lament and mourn;
deserted, she will sit on the ground.

4 † On that day seven women will seize one man, saying, “We will eat our own bread
and provide our own clothing.
Just let us be called by your name.
Take away our disgrace.”

Zion's Future Glory

2† On that day the Branch of <sup>A</sup> the LORD will be beautiful and glorious, and the fruit of the land will be the pride and glory of Israel's survivors.
3 Whoever remains in •Zion and whoever is left in Jerusalem will be called holy — all in Jerusalem who are destined to live — <sup>4</sup> when the Lord has washed away the filth of the daughters of Zion and cleansed the bloodguilt from the heart of Jerusalem by a spirit of judgment and a spirit of burning.
5 Then the LORD will create a cloud of smoke by day and a glowing flame of fire by night over the entire site of Mount Zion and over its assemblies.
For there will be a canopy over all the glory, <sup>B</sup> <sup>6</sup> and there will be a booth for shade from heat by day, and a refuge and shelter from storm and rain.

Song of the Vineyard

5 I will sing about the one I love,
a song about my loved one's vineyard:
The one I love had a vineyard
on a very fertile hill.

<sup>2</sup> He broke up the soil, cleared it of stones,
and planted it with the finest vines.
He built a tower in the middle of it and even dug out a winepress there.
He expected it to yield good grapes,
but it yielded worthless grapes.

<sup>3</sup> So now, residents of Jerusalem and men of Judah,
please judge between Me
and My vineyard.

<sup>4</sup> What more could I have done for My vineyard than I did?
Why, when I expected a yield of good grapes,
did it yield worthless grapes?

<sup>5</sup> Now I will tell you what I am about to do to My vineyard:
I will remove its hedge,
and it will be consumed;
I will tear down its wall,
and it will be trampled.

<sup>6</sup> I will make it a wasteland.
It will not be pruned or weeded;
thorns and briars will grow up.
I will also give orders to the clouds
that rain should not fall on it.

<sup>7</sup> For the vineyard of the LORD of •Hosts
is the house of Israel,
and the men <sup>A</sup> of Judah,
the plant He delighted in.
He looked for justice
but saw injustice,
for righteousness,

but heard cries of wretchedness.

Judah's Sins Denounced

<sup>8</sup> Woe to those who add house to house and join field to field
until there is no more room
and you alone are left in the land.

<sup>9</sup> I heard the LORD of Hosts say:

Indeed, many houses will become desolate,
grand and lovely ones without inhabitants.

<sup>10</sup> For a ten-acre <sup>B</sup> vineyard will yield only six gallons, <sup>C</sup> and 10 bushels <sup>D</sup> of seed will yield only one bushel. <sup>E</sup>

<sup>11</sup> Woe to those who rise early in the morning
in pursuit of beer,
who linger into the evening,
inflamed by wine.

<sup>12†</sup> At their feasts they have lyre, harp, tambourine, flute, and wine.
They do not perceive the LORD's actions,
and they do not see the work of His hands.

<sup>13</sup> Therefore My people will go into exile
because they lack knowledge;
her <sup>F</sup> dignitaries are starving,
and her <sup>G</sup> masses are parched with thirst.

<sup>14</sup> Therefore •Sheol enlarges its throat
and opens wide its enormous jaws,
and down go •Zion's dignitaries, her masses,
her crowds, and those who carouse in her!

<sup>15</sup> Humanity is brought low, man is humbled,
and haughty eyes are humbled.

<sup>16</sup> But the LORD of Hosts is exalted by His justice, and the holy God is distinguished by righteousness.

<sup>17</sup> Lambs will graze
as if in their own pastures,
and strangers will eat
among the ruins of the rich.

<sup>18</sup> Woe to those who drag wickedness with cords of deceit
and pull sin along with cart ropes,

<sup>19</sup> to those who say:

“Let Him hurry up and do His work quickly
so that we can see it!

Let the plan of the Holy One of Israel take place
so that we can know it! ”

<sup>20</sup> Woe to those who call evil good and good evil,
who substitute darkness for light
and light for darkness,
who substitute bitter for sweet
and sweet for bitter.

<sup>21</sup> Woe to those who are wise in their own opinion and clever in their own sight. <sup>H</sup>,

<sup>22</sup> Woe to those who are heroes at drinking wine,
who are fearless at mixing beer,

<sup>23</sup> who acquit the •guilty for a bribe
and deprive the innocent of justice.

<sup>24</sup> Therefore, as a tongue of fire consumes straw and as dry grass shrivels in the flame,
so their roots will become like something rotten
and their blossoms will blow away like dust,
for they have rejected
the instruction of the LORD of Hosts, and they have despised
the word of the Holy One of Israel.

<sup>25</sup> Therefore the LORD’s anger burns against His people.

He raised His hand against them and struck them;
the mountains quaked,
and their corpses were like garbage in the streets.
In all this, His anger is not removed,
and His hand is still raised to strike.

<sup>26</sup> He raises a signal flag for the distant nations and whistles for them from the ends of the earth.
Look — how quickly and swiftly they come!

<sup>27</sup> None of them grows weary or stumbles;
no one slumbers or sleeps.

No belt is loose
and no sandal strap broken.

<sup>28</sup> Their arrows are sharpened,
and all their bows strung.
Their horses' hooves are like flint;
their chariot wheels are like a whirlwind.

<sup>29</sup> Their roaring is like a lion's;
they roar like young lions;
they growl and seize their prey
and carry it off,
and no one can rescue it.

<sup>30</sup> On that day they will roar over it,
like the roaring of the sea.
When one looks at the land,
there will be darkness and distress;
light will be obscured by clouds. <sup>1</sup>

Isaiah's Call and Mission

6† In the year that King Uzziah died, I saw the Lord seated on a high and lofty throne, and His robe<sup>A</sup> filled the temple. <sup>2</sup> Seraphim were standing above Him; each one had six wings: with two he covered his face, with two he covered his feet, and with two he flew. <sup>3</sup> And one called to another:

Holy, holy, holy is the LORD of •Hosts;
His glory fills the whole earth.

<sup>4</sup> The foundations of the doorways shook at the sound of their voices, and the temple was filled with smoke.

<sup>5</sup> Then I said:

Woe is me for I am ruined<sup>B</sup>
because I am a man of •unclean lips
and live among a people of unclean lips,
and because my eyes have seen the King,
the LORD of Hosts.

<sup>6</sup> Then one of the seraphim flew to me, and in his hand was a glowing coal that he had taken from the altar with tongs. <sup>7</sup> He touched my mouth with it and said:

Now that this has touched your lips,
your wickedness is removed
and your sin is atoned for.

<sup>8</sup> Then I heard the voice of the Lord saying:

Who should I send?
Who will go for Us?

I said:

Here I am. Send me.

<sup>9†</sup> And He replied:

Go! Say to these people:
Keep listening, but do not understand;
keep looking, but do not perceive.

<sup>10</sup> Dull the minds <sup>C</sup> of these people;
deafen their ears and blind their eyes;
otherwise they might see with their eyes
and hear with their ears,
understand with their minds,
turn back, and be healed.

<sup>11</sup> Then I said, “Until when, Lord?” And He replied:

Until cities lie in ruins without inhabitants,
houses are without people,
the land is ruined and desolate,

<sup>12</sup> and the LORD drives the people far away,
leaving great emptiness in the land.

<sup>13</sup> Though a tenth will remain in the land,
it will be burned again.

Like the terebinth or the oak that leaves a stump when felled,
the holy •seed is the stump.

The Message to Ahaz

<sup>7</sup> This took place during the reign of Ahaz, son of Jotham, son of Uzziah king of Judah: Rezin king of Aram, along with Pekah, son of Remaliah, king of Israel, waged war against Jerusalem, but he could not succeed.

<sup>3†</sup> Then the LORD said to Isaiah, “Go out with your son Shear-jashub to meet Ahaz at the end of the conduit of the upper pool, by the road to the Fuller’s Field. <sup>4</sup> Say to him: Calm down and be quiet. Don’t be afraid or cowardly because of these two smoldering stubs of firebrands, the fierce anger of Rezin and Aram, and the son of Remaliah. <sup>5</sup> For Aram, along with Ephraim and the son of Remaliah, has plotted harm against you. They say, <sup>6</sup> ‘Let us go up against Judah, terrorize it, and conquer it for ourselves. Then we can install Tabeel’s son as king in it.’ ”

It will not happen; it will not occur.

<sup>8</sup> The <sup>B</sup> head of Aram is Damascus,
the head of Damascus is Rezin

(within 65 years

Ephraim will be too shattered to be a people),

<sup>9</sup> the head of Ephraim is Samaria,

and the head of Samaria is the son of Remaliah.

If you do not stand firm in your faith,

then you will not stand at all.

The Immanuel Prophecy

<sup>10</sup> Then the LORD spoke again to Ahaz: <sup>11</sup> “Ask for a sign from the LORD your God — from the depths of •Sheol to the heights of heaven.”

<sup>12</sup> But Ahaz replied, “I will not ask. I will not test the LORD.”

<sup>13</sup> Isaiah said, “Listen, house of David! Is it not enough for you to try the patience of men? Will you also try the patience of my God? <sup>14†</sup> Therefore, the Lord Himself will give you a sign: The virgin will conceive, <sup>C</sup> have a son, and name him Immanuel. <sup>15</sup> By the time he learns to reject what is bad and choose what is good, he will be eating butter <sup>D</sup> and honey. <sup>16</sup> For before the boy knows to reject what is bad and choose what is good, the land of the two kings you dread will be abandoned. <sup>17</sup> The LORD will bring on you, your people, and the house of your father, such a time as has never been since Ephraim separated from Judah — the king of Assyria is coming.”

the LORD will whistle to the fly
that is at the farthest streams of the Nile
and to the bee that is in the land of Assyria.

<sup>19</sup> All of them will come and settle in the steep ravines, in the clefts of the rocks,
in all the thornbushes, and in all the water holes.

<sup>20</sup> On that day the Lord will use a razor hired from beyond the Euphrates River — the king of Assyria — to shave the head, the hair on the legs, and to remove the beard as well.

a man will raise a young cow and two sheep, <sup>22</sup> and from the abundant milk they give
he will eat butter,
for every survivor in the land will eat butter and honey.

<sup>23</sup> And on that day

every place where there were 1,000 vines, worth 1,000 pieces of silver,
will become thorns and briers.

<sup>24</sup> A man will go there with bow and arrows
because the whole land will be thorns and briers.

<sup>25</sup> You will not go to all the hills
that were once tilled with a hoe,
for fear of the thorns and briers.
Those hills will be places for oxen to graze
and for sheep to trample.

The Coming Assyrian Invasion

8 Then the LORD said to me, “Take a large piece of parchment <sup>A</sup> and write on it with an ordinary pen: <sup>B</sup> Maher-shalal-hash-baz. <sup>2</sup> I have appointed trustworthy witnesses — Uriah the priest and Zechariah son of Jeberechiah.”

<sup>3</sup> I was then intimate with the prophetess, and she conceived and gave birth to a son. The LORD said to me, “Name him Maher-shalal-hash-baz, <sup>4</sup> for before the boy knows how to call out father or mother, the wealth of Damascus and the spoils of Samaria will be carried off to the king of Assyria.”

<sup>5</sup> The LORD spoke to me again:

<sup>6†</sup> Because these people rejected
the slowly flowing waters of Shiloah and rejoiced with <sup>C</sup> Rezin
and the son of Remaliah, <sup>7</sup> the Lord will certainly bring against them
the mighty rushing waters of the Euphrates River —
the king of Assyria and all his glory.

It will overflow its channels
and spill over all its banks.

<sup>8</sup> It will pour into Judah, flood over it, and sweep through,
reaching up to the neck;
and its spreading streams <sup>D</sup>
will fill your entire land, Immanuel!

<sup>9</sup> Band together, peoples, and be broken;
pay attention, all you distant lands;
prepare for war, and be broken;
prepare for war, and be broken.

<sup>10</sup> Devise a plan; it will fail.
Make a prediction; it will not happen.
For God is with us. <sup>E</sup>

The LORD of Hosts, the Only Refuge

<sup>11</sup> For this is what the LORD said to me with great power, to keep me from going the way of this people:

<sup>12</sup> Do not call everything an alliance these people say is an alliance. Do not fear what they fear; do not be terrified.

<sup>13</sup> You are to regard only the LORD of •Hosts as holy. Only He should be •feared; only He should be held in awe.

<sup>14†</sup> He will be a sanctuary; but for the two houses of Israel, He will be a stone to stumble over and a rock to trip over, and a trap and a snare to the inhabitants of Jerusalem.

<sup>15</sup> Many will stumble over these; they will fall and be broken; they will be snared and captured.

<sup>17</sup> I will wait for the LORD, who is hiding His face from the house of Jacob. I will wait for Him.

<sup>18</sup> Here I am with the children the LORD has given me to be signs and wonders in Israel from the LORD of Hosts who dwells on Mount •Zion.

<sup>19</sup> When they say to you, “Consult the spirits of the dead and the spiritists who chirp and mutter,” shouldn’t a people consult their God? <sup>F</sup> Should they consult the dead on behalf of the living? <sup>20</sup> To the law and to the testimony! If they do not speak according to this word, there will be no dawn for them.

<sup>21</sup> They will wander through the land, dejected and hungry. When they are famished, they will become enraged, and, looking upward, will curse their king and their God. <sup>22</sup> They will look toward the earth and see only distress, darkness, and the gloom of affliction, and they will be driven into thick darkness.

Chapter 9 Birth of the Prince of Peace

<sup>1</sup>Nevertheless, the gloom of the distressed land will not be like that of the former times when He humbled the land of Zebulun and the land of Naphtali. But in the future He will bring honor to the Way of the Sea, to the land east of the Jordan, and to Galilee of the nations.

<sup>2</sup> The people walking in darkness
have seen a great light;
a light has dawned
on those living in the land of darkness.

<sup>3</sup> You have enlarged the nation and increased its joy.
The people have rejoiced before You
as they rejoice at harvest time
and as they rejoice when dividing spoils.

<sup>4</sup> For You have shattered their oppressive yoke
and the rod on their shoulders,
the staff of their oppressor,
just as You did on the day of Midian.

<sup>5</sup> For the trampling boot of battle and the bloodied garments of war
will be burned as fuel for the fire.

<sup>6†</sup> For a child will be born for us,
a son will be given to us,
and the government will be on His shoulders.
He will be named
Wonderful Counselor, Mighty God,
Eternal Father, Prince of Peace.

<sup>7</sup> The dominion will be vast,
and its prosperity will never end.
He will reign on the throne of David and over his kingdom,
to establish and sustain it
with justice and righteousness from now on and forever.
The zeal of the LORD of •Hosts will accomplish this.

The Hand Raised against Israel

<sup>8</sup> The Lord sent a message against Jacob;
it came against Israel.

<sup>9</sup> All the people —
Ephraim and the inhabitants of Samaria — will know it.
They will say with pride and arrogance:

<sup>10</sup> “The bricks have fallen,
but we will rebuild with cut stones;
the sycamores have been cut down,
but we will replace them with cedars.”

<sup>11</sup> The LORD has raised up Rezin’s adversaries against him and stirred up his enemies.

<sup>12</sup> Aram from the east and Philistia from the west have consumed Israel with open mouths.
In all this, His anger is not removed,
and His hand is still raised to strike.

<sup>13</sup> The people did not turn to Him who struck them;
they did not seek the LORD of Hosts.

<sup>14</sup> So the LORD cut off Israel’s head and tail,
palm branch and reed in a single day.

<sup>15</sup> The head is the elder, the honored one;
the tail is the prophet, the lying teacher.

<sup>16</sup> The leaders of the people mislead them,
and those they mislead are swallowed up. <sup>A</sup>

<sup>17</sup> Therefore the Lord does not rejoice over Israel’s young men and has no compassion
on its fatherless and widows,
for everyone is a godless evildoer,
and every mouth speaks folly.
In all this, His anger is not removed,
and His hand is still raised to strike.

<sup>18</sup> For wickedness burns like a fire that consumes thorns and briars

and kindles the forest thickets
so that they go up in a column of smoke.

<sup>19</sup> The land is scorched

by the wrath of the LORD of Hosts,
and the people are like fuel for the fire.
No one has compassion on his brother.

<sup>20</sup> They carve meat on the right,

but they are still hungry;
they have eaten on the left,
but they are still not satisfied.

Each one eats the flesh of his own arm.

<sup>21</sup> Manasseh is with Ephraim,

and Ephraim with Manasseh;
together, both are against Judah.

In all this, His anger is not removed,
and His hand is still raised to strike.

10 Woe to those enacting crooked statutes and writing oppressive laws
2 to keep the poor from getting a fair trial and to deprive the afflicted among my people of justice,
so that widows can be their spoil
and they can plunder the fatherless.
3 What will you do on the day of punishment
when devastation comes from far away?
Who will you run to for help?
Where will you leave your wealth?
4 There will be nothing to do except crouch among the prisoners
or fall among the slain.
In all this, His anger is not removed,
and His hand is still raised to strike.

Assyria, the Instrument of Wrath

5† Woe to Assyria, the rod of My anger —
the staff in their hands is My wrath.
6 I will send him against a godless nation;
I will command him to go against a people destined for My rage,
to take spoils, to plunder,
and to trample them down like clay in the streets.
7 But this is not what he intends;
this is not what he plans.
It is his intent to destroy
and to cut off many nations.
8 For he says,
“Aren’t all my commanders kings?
9 Isn’t Calno like Carchemish?
Isn’t Hamath like Arpad?
Isn’t Samaria like Damascus?
10 As my hand seized the idolatrous kingdoms,
whose idols exceeded those of Jerusalem and Samaria,

<sup>11</sup> and as I did to Samaria and its idols
will I not also do to Jerusalem and its idols?”

Judgment on Assyria

<sup>12</sup> But when the Lord finishes all His work against Mount •Zion and Jerusalem, He will say, “I will punish the king of Assyria for his arrogant acts and the proud look in his eyes.” <sup>13</sup> For he said:

I have done this by my own strength and wisdom, for I am clever.
I abolished the borders of nations and plundered their treasures;
like a mighty warrior, I subjugated the inhabitants. <sup>A</sup>

<sup>14</sup> My hand has reached out, as if into a nest,
to seize the wealth of the nations.
Like one gathering abandoned eggs,
I gathered the whole earth.
No wing fluttered;
no beak opened or chirped.

<sup>15</sup> Does an ax exalt itself
above the one who chops with it?
Does a saw magnify itself
above the one who saws with it?
It would be like a staff waving the one who lifts it!
It would be like a rod lifting a man who isn't wood!

<sup>16</sup> Therefore the Lord GOD of •Hosts will inflict an emaciating disease
on the well-fed of Assyria, and He will kindle a burning fire
under its glory.

<sup>17</sup> Israel's Light will become a fire,
and its Holy One, a flame.
In one day it will burn up Assyria's thorns and thistles.

<sup>18</sup> He will completely destroy the glory of its forests and orchards

as a sickness consumes a person.

<sup>19</sup> The remaining trees of its forest will be so few in number that a child could count them.

The Remnant Will Return

<sup>20</sup> On that day the remnant of Israel and the survivors of the house of Jacob will no longer depend on the one who struck them, but they will faithfully depend on the LORD, the Holy One of Israel.

<sup>21</sup> The remnant will return, the remnant of Jacob,
to the Mighty God.

<sup>22</sup> Israel, even if your people were as numerous as the sand of the sea,
only a remnant of them will return.
Destruction has been decreed;
justice overflows.

<sup>23</sup> For throughout the land
the Lord GOD of Hosts
is carrying out a destruction that was decreed.

<sup>24</sup> Therefore, the Lord GOD of Hosts says this: “My people who dwell in Zion, do not fear Assyria, though he strikes you with a rod and raises his staff over you as the Egyptians did. <sup>25</sup> In just a little while My wrath will be spent and My anger will turn to their destruction.” <sup>26</sup> And the LORD of Hosts will brandish a whip against him as He did when He struck Midian at the rock of Oreb; and He will raise His staff over the sea as He did in Egypt.

God Will Judge Assyria

<sup>27</sup> On that day
his burden will fall from your shoulders,
and his yoke from your neck.

The yoke will be broken because of fatness. <sup>B</sup>

<sup>28</sup> Assyria has come to Aiath

and has gone through Migron, storing his equipment at Michmash.

<sup>29</sup> They crossed over at the ford, saying,
“We will spend the night at Geba.”

The people of Ramah are trembling;
those at Gibeah of Saul have fled.

<sup>30</sup> Cry aloud, daughter of Gallim!

Listen, Laishah!

Anathoth is miserable.

The inhabitants of Gebim have sought refuge.

<sup>32</sup> Today he will stand at Nob, shaking his fist at the mountain of Daughter Zion,
the hill of Jerusalem.

<sup>33</sup> Look, the Lord GOD of Hosts will chop off the branches with terrifying power,
and the tall trees will be cut down,
the high trees felled.

<sup>34</sup> He is clearing the thickets of the forest with an ax, and Lebanon with its majesty will fall.

Reign of the Davidic King

11 Then a shoot will grow from the stump of Jesse,
and a branch from his roots will bear fruit.

<sup>2</sup> The Spirit of the LORD will rest on Him —
a Spirit of wisdom and understanding,
a Spirit of counsel and strength,
a Spirit of knowledge and of the •fear of the LORD.

<sup>3</sup> His delight will be in the fear of the LORD.

He will not judge
by what He sees with His eyes,
He will not execute justice
by what He hears with His ears,

<sup>4</sup> but He will judge the poor righteously
and execute justice for the oppressed of the land.

He will strike the land
with discipline <sup>A</sup> from His mouth, and He will kill the wicked
with a command <sup>B</sup> from His lips.

<sup>5</sup> Righteousness will be a belt around His loins;
faithfulness will be a belt around His waist.

<sup>6†</sup> The wolf will live with the lamb,
and the leopard will lie down with the goat.
The calf, the young lion, and the fatling will be together,
and a child will lead them.

<sup>7</sup> The cow and the bear will graze,
their young ones will lie down together,
and the lion will eat straw like the ox.

<sup>8</sup> An infant will play beside the cobra's pit,
and a toddler will put his hand into a snake's den.

<sup>9</sup> None will harm or destroy another
on My entire holy mountain,
for the land will be as full of the knowledge of the LORD
as the sea is filled with water.

Israel Regathered

<sup>10</sup> On that day the root of Jesse will stand as a banner for the peoples.
The nations will seek Him,
and His resting place will be glorious.

<sup>11</sup> On that day the Lord will extend His hand a second time to recover — from Assyria, Egypt, Pathros, •Cush, Elam, •Shinar, Hamath, and the coasts and islands of the west — the remnant of His people who survive.

<sup>12</sup> He will lift up a banner for the nations and gather the dispersed of Israel;
He will collect the scattered of Judah
from the four corners of the earth.

<sup>13</sup> Ephraim's envy will cease;
Judah's harassment will end.
Ephraim will no longer be envious of Judah,
and Judah will not harass Ephraim.

<sup>14</sup> But they will swoop down on the Philistine flank to the west.
Together they will plunder the people of the east.
They will extend their power over Edom and Moab,
and the Ammonites will be their subjects.

<sup>15</sup> The LORD will divide the Gulf of Suez. <sup>D</sup>
He will wave His hand over the Euphrates with His mighty wind
and will split it into seven streams,
letting people walk through on foot.

<sup>16</sup> There will be a highway for the remnant of His people who will survive from Assyria,
as there was for Israel
when they came up from the land of Egypt.

A Song of Praise

12 On that day you will say:
“I will praise You, LORD,
although You were angry with me.
Your anger has turned away,
and You have had compassion on me.

<sup>2</sup> Indeed, God is my salvation;
I will trust Him and not be afraid,
for •Yah, the LORD,
is my strength and my song.
He has become my salvation.”

<sup>3</sup> You will joyfully draw water from the springs of salvation,

<sup>4</sup> and on that day you will say:
“Give thanks to Yahweh; proclaim His name!
Celebrate His works among the peoples.
Declare that His name is exalted.

<sup>5</sup> Sing to Yahweh, for He has done glorious things.
Let this be known throughout the earth.

<sup>6</sup> Cry out and sing, citizen of •Zion,
for the Holy One of Israel is among you in His greatness.”

An Oracle against Babylon

13 An •oracle against Babylon that Isaiah son of Amoz saw:

<sup>2</sup> Lift up a banner on a barren mountain.

Call out to them.

Wave your hand, and they will go through the gates of the nobles.

<sup>3</sup> I have commanded My chosen ones;
I have also called My warriors,
who exult in My triumph,
to execute My wrath.

<sup>4</sup> Listen, a tumult on the mountains,
like that of a mighty people!
Listen, an uproar among the kingdoms,
like nations being gathered together!
The LORD of •Hosts is mobilizing an army for war.

<sup>5</sup> They are coming from a far land,
from the distant horizon —
the LORD and the weapons of His wrath —
to destroy the whole country. <sup>A</sup>

<sup>6</sup> Wail! For the day of the LORD is near.
It will come like destruction from the •Almighty.

<sup>7</sup> Therefore everyone's hands will become weak,
and every man's heart will melt.

<sup>8†</sup> They will be horrified;
pain and agony will seize them;
they will be in anguish like a woman in labor.
They will look at each other,
their faces flushed with fear.

<sup>9</sup> Look, the day of the LORD is coming — cruel, with rage and burning anger —
to make the earth a desolation
and to destroy the sinners on it.

<sup>10</sup> Indeed, the stars of the sky and its constellations <sup>B</sup> will not give their light.
The sun will be dark when it rises,

and the moon will not shine.

<sup>11</sup> I will bring disaster on the world,
and their own iniquity, on the wicked.

I will put an end to the pride of the arrogant
and humiliate the insolence of tyrants.

<sup>12</sup> I will make man scarcer than gold,
and mankind more rare than the gold of Ophir.

<sup>13</sup> Therefore I will make the heavens tremble,
and the earth will shake from its foundations
at the wrath of the LORD of Hosts,
on the day of His burning anger.

<sup>14</sup> Like wandering gazelles
and like sheep without a shepherd,
each one will turn to his own people,
each one will flee to his own land.

<sup>15</sup> Whoever is found will be stabbed,
and whoever is caught will die by the sword.

<sup>16</sup> Their children will be smashed to death before their eyes;
their houses will be looted,
and their wives raped.

<sup>17†</sup> Look! I am stirring up the Medes against them, who cannot be bought off with <sup>C</sup> silver and who have no desire for gold.

<sup>18</sup> Their bows will cut young men to pieces.
They will have no compassion on little ones;
they will not look with pity on children.

<sup>19</sup> And Babylon, the jewel of the kingdoms,
the glory of the pride of the Chaldeans,
will be like Sodom and Gomorrah
when God overthrew them.

<sup>20</sup> It will never be inhabited or lived in from generation to generation;
a nomad will not pitch his tent there,
and shepherds will not let their flocks rest there.

<sup>21</sup> But desert creatures will lie down there, and owls will fill the houses.

Ostriches will dwell there,
and wild goats will leap about.

<sup>22</sup> Hyenas will howl in the fortresses,
and jackals, in the luxurious palaces.

Babylon's time is almost up;
her days are almost over.

Israel's Return

14 For the LORD will have compassion on Jacob and will choose Israel again. He will settle them on their own land. The foreigner will join them and be united with the house of Jacob. <sup>2</sup> The nations will escort Israel and bring it to its homeland. Then the house of Israel will possess them as male and female slaves in the LORD's land. They will make captives of their captors and will rule over their oppressors.

Downfall of the King of Babylon

<sup>3</sup> When the LORD gives you rest from your pain, torment, and the hard labor you were forced to do, <sup>4†</sup> you will sing this song of contempt about the king of Babylon and say:

How the oppressor has quieted down,
and how the raging has become quiet!

<sup>5</sup> The LORD has broken the staff of the wicked,
the scepter of the rulers.

<sup>6</sup> It struck the peoples in anger
with unceasing blows.

It subdued the nations in rage
with relentless persecution.

<sup>7</sup> All the earth is calm and at rest;
people shout with a ringing cry.

<sup>8</sup> Even the cypresses and the cedars of Lebanon
rejoice over you:

“Since you have been laid low,
no woodcutter has come against us.”

<sup>9</sup> •Sheol below is eager to greet your coming.
He stirs up the spirits of the departed for you —
all the rulers <sup>A</sup> of the earth.

He makes all the kings of the nations rise from their thrones.

<sup>10</sup> They all respond to you, saying:

“You too have become as weak as we are;
you have become like us!

<sup>11</sup> Your splendor has been brought down to Sheol, along with the music of your harps.
Maggots are spread out under you,
and worms cover you.”

<sup>12</sup> Shining morning star, <sup>B</sup>,
how you have fallen from the heavens!
You destroyer of nations,
you have been cut down to the ground.

<sup>13</sup> You said to yourself:
“I will ascend to the heavens;
I will set up my throne
above the stars of God.
I will sit on the mount of the gods’ assembly,
in the remotest parts of the North. <sup>C</sup>

<sup>14</sup> I will ascend above the highest clouds;
I will make myself like the •Most High.”

<sup>15</sup> But you will be brought down to Sheol into the deepest regions of the •Pit.

<sup>16</sup> Those who see you will stare at you;
they will look closely at you:
“Is this the man who caused the earth to tremble,
who shook the kingdoms,

<sup>17</sup> who turned the world into a wilderness,
who destroyed its cities
and would not release the prisoners to return home? ”

<sup>18</sup> All the kings of the nations lie in splendor, each in his own tomb.

<sup>19</sup> But you are thrown out without a grave,
like a worthless branch,
covered by those slain with the sword
and dumped into a rocky pit like a trampled corpse.

<sup>20</sup> You will not join them in burial,
because you destroyed your land
and slaughtered your own people.
The offspring of evildoers

will never be remembered.

<sup>21</sup> Prepare a place of slaughter for his sons,
because of the iniquity of their fathers.
They will never rise up to possess a land or fill the surface of the earth with cities.

<sup>22</sup> “I will rise up against them” — this is the declaration of the LORD of •Hosts — “and I will cut off from Babylon her reputation, remnant, offspring, and posterity” — this is the LORD’s declaration. <sup>23</sup> “I will make her a swampland and a region for screech owls, <sup>D</sup> and I will sweep her away with a broom of destruction.”

This is the declaration of the LORD of Hosts.

Assyria Will Be Destroyed

<sup>24</sup> The LORD of Hosts has sworn:

As I have purposed, so it will be;
as I have planned it, so it will happen.

<sup>25</sup> I will break Assyria in My land;
I will tread him down on My mountain.
Then his yoke will be taken from them,
and his burden will be removed from their shoulders.

<sup>26</sup> This is the plan prepared for the whole earth,
and this is the hand stretched out
against all the nations.

<sup>27</sup> The LORD of Hosts Himself has planned it;
therefore, who can stand in its way?
It is His hand that is outstretched,
so who can turn it back?

An Oracle against Philistia

<sup>28</sup> In the year that King Ahaz died, this •oracle came:

<sup>29</sup> Don't rejoice, all of you in Philistia, because the rod of the one who struck you is broken.
For a viper will come from the root <sup>E</sup> of a snake,
and from its egg comes a flying serpent.

<sup>30</sup> Then the firstborn of the poor will be well fed,
and the impoverished will lie down in safety,
but I will kill your root with hunger,
and your remnant will be slain.

<sup>31</sup> Wail, you gates! Cry out, city!
Tremble with fear, all Philistia!
For a cloud of dust is coming from the north,
and there is no one missing from the invader's ranks.

<sup>32</sup> What answer will be given to the messengers from that nation?
The LORD has founded •Zion,
and His afflicted people find refuge in her.

An Oracle against Moab

15 †An •oracle against Moab:

Ar in Moab is devastated,
destroyed in a night.

Kir in Moab is devastated,
destroyed in a night.

<sup>2</sup> Dibon went up to its temple
to weep at its •high places.

Moab wails on Nebo and at <sup>A</sup> Medeba.
Every head is shaved;
every beard is cut off.

<sup>3</sup> In its streets they wear •sackcloth;
on its rooftops and in its public squares everyone wails,
falling down and weeping.

<sup>4</sup> Heshbon and Elealeh cry out;
their voices are heard as far away as Jahaz.
Therefore the soldiers of Moab cry out,
and they tremble. <sup>B</sup>

whose fugitives flee as far as Zoar,
to Eglath-shelishiyah;
they go up the slope of Luhith weeping;
they raise a cry of destruction
on the road to Horonaim.

<sup>6</sup> The waters of Nimrim are desolate;
the grass is withered, the foliage is gone,
and the vegetation has vanished.

<sup>7</sup> So they carry their wealth and belongings over the •Wadi of the Willows.

<sup>8</sup> For their cry echoes
throughout the territory of Moab.
Their wailing reaches Eglaim;
their wailing reaches Beer-elim.

<sup>9</sup> The waters of Dibon are full of blood,
but I will bring on Dibon even more than this —
a lion for those who escape from Moab,

and for the survivors in the land.

16 Send lambs to the ruler of the land,
from Sela in the desert
to the mountain of Daughter •Zion.

<sup>2</sup> Like a bird fleeing,
forced from the nest,
the daughters of Moab
will be at the fords of the Arnon.

<sup>3</sup> Give us counsel and make a decision.
Shelter us at noonday
with shade that is as dark as night.
Hide the refugees;
do not betray the one who flees.

<sup>4</sup> Let my refugees stay with you;
be a refuge for Moab <sup>A</sup> from the aggressor.

When the oppressor has gone,
destruction has ended,
and marauders have vanished from the land.

<sup>5†</sup> Then in the tent of David
a throne will be established by faithful love.
A judge who seeks what is right and is quick to execute justice will sit on the throne forever.

<sup>6</sup> We have heard of Moab's pride —
how very proud he is — his haughtiness, his pride, his arrogance,
and his empty boasting.

let every one of them wail for Moab.
Mourn, you who are completely devastated,
for the raisin cakes of Kir-hareseth.

<sup>8</sup> For Heshbon's terraced vineyards
and the grapevines of Sibmah have withered.
The rulers of the nations
have trampled its choice vines

that reached as far as Jazer
and spread to the desert.
Their shoots spread out
and reached the Dead Sea.

<sup>9</sup> So I join with Jazer
to weep for the vines of Sibmah;
I drench Heshbon and Elealeh with my tears.
Triumphant shouts have fallen silent <sup>B</sup>
over your summer fruit and your harvest.

<sup>10</sup> Joy and rejoicing have been removed from the orchard;
no one is singing or shouting for joy in the vineyards.
No one tramples grapes <sup>C</sup> in the winepresses.
I have put an end to the shouting.

<sup>11</sup> Therefore I moan like the sound of a lyre for Moab,
as does my innermost being for Kir-heres.

<sup>12</sup> When Moab appears on the •high place,
when he tires himself out
and comes to his sanctuary to pray,
it will do him no good.

<sup>14</sup> And now the LORD says, “In three years, as a hired worker counts years, Moab’s splendor will become an object of contempt, in spite of a very large population. And those who are left will be few and weak.”

An Oracle against Damascus

17 †An •oracle against Damascus:

Look, Damascus is no longer a city.
It has become a ruined heap.

<sup>2</sup> The cities of Aroer are forsaken;
they will be places for flocks.
They will lie down without fear.

<sup>3</sup> The fortress disappears from Ephraim,
and a kingdom from Damascus.
The remnant of Aram will be like the splendor of the Israelites.

This is the declaration of the LORD of •Hosts.

Judgment against Israel

<sup>4</sup> On that day
the splendor of Jacob will fade,
and his healthy body <sup>A</sup> will become emaciated.

<sup>5</sup> It will be as if a reaper had gathered standing grain —
his arm harvesting the heads of grain — and as if one had gleaned heads of grain
in the Valley of Rephaim.

<sup>6</sup> Only gleanings will be left in Israel,
as if an olive tree had been beaten —
two or three berries at the very top of the tree,
four or five on its fruitful branches.

This is the declaration of the LORD,
the God of Israel.

<sup>7</sup> On that day people will look to their Maker and will turn their eyes to the Holy One of Israel. <sup>8</sup> They will not look to the altars they made with their hands or to the •Asherahs and incense altars they made with their fingers.

<sup>9</sup> On that day their strong cities will be like the abandoned woods and mountaintops

that were abandoned because of the Israelites;
there will be desolation.

<sup>10</sup> For you have forgotten the God of your salvation, and you have failed to remember
the rock of your strength;
therefore you will plant beautiful plants
and set out cuttings from exotic vines.

<sup>11</sup> On the day that you plant,
you will help them to grow,
and in the morning
you will help your seed to sprout,
but the harvest will vanish
on the day of disease and incurable pain.

Judgment against the Nations

<sup>12</sup> Ah! The roar of many peoples — they roar like the roaring of the seas.
The raging of the nations —
they rage like the raging of mighty waters.

<sup>13</sup> The nations rage like the raging of many waters.
He rebukes them, and they flee far away,
driven before the wind like chaff on the hills
and like tumbleweeds before a gale.

<sup>14</sup> In the evening — sudden terror!
Before morning — it is gone!
This is the fate of those who plunder us
and the lot of those who ravage us.

The LORD's Message to Cush

18 Ah! The land of buzzing insect wings<sup>A</sup> beyond the rivers of •Cush

<sup>2</sup> sends couriers by sea,
in reed vessels on the waters.

Go, swift messengers,
to a nation tall and smooth-skinned,
to a people feared far and near,
a powerful nation with a strange language,<sup>B</sup>
whose land is divided by rivers.

<sup>3</sup> All you inhabitants of the world
and you who live on the earth,
when a banner is raised on the mountains, look!
When a trumpet sounds, listen!

<sup>4</sup> For, the LORD said to me:

I will quietly look out from My place,
like shimmering heat in sunshine,
like a rain cloud in harvest heat.

<sup>5</sup> For before the harvest, when the blossoming is over and the blossom becomes a ripening grape,
He will cut off the shoots with a pruning knife,
and tear away and remove the branches.

<sup>6</sup> They will all be left for the birds of prey on the hills and for the wild animals of the land.
The birds will spend the summer on them,
and all the animals, the winter on them.

<sup>7†</sup> At that time a gift will be brought to •Yahweh of •Hosts from a people tall and smooth-skinned, a people feared far and near, a powerful nation with a strange language, whose land is divided by rivers — to Mount •Zion, the place of the name of Yahweh of Hosts.

An Oracle against Egypt

19 An •oracle against Egypt:

Look, the LORD rides on a swift cloud
and is coming to Egypt.

Egypt's idols will tremble before Him,
and Egypt's heart will melt within it.

<sup>2</sup> I will provoke Egypt against Egypt;
each will fight against his brother
and each against his friend,
city against city, kingdom against kingdom.

<sup>3</sup> Egypt's spirit will be disturbed within it,
and I will frustrate its plans.

Then they will seek idols, ghosts,
spirits of the dead, and spiritists.

<sup>4</sup> I will deliver Egypt into the hands of harsh masters,
and a strong king will rule it.

This is the declaration of the Lord GOD of •Hosts.

<sup>5</sup> The waters of the sea will dry up,
and the river will be parched and dry.

<sup>6</sup> The channels will stink;
they will dwindle, and Egypt's canals will be parched.
Reed and rush will die. <sup>A</sup>

and all the cultivated areas of the Nile
will wither, blow away, and vanish.

<sup>8</sup> Then the fishermen will mourn.
All those who cast hooks into the Nile will lament,
and those who spread nets on the water will shrivel up.

<sup>9</sup> Those who work with flax will be dismayed;
the combers and weavers will turn pale.

all her wage earners will be demoralized.

Pharaoh's wisest advisers give stupid advice!

How can you say to Pharaoh,
“I am one <sup>C</sup> of the wise,
a student of eastern <sup>D</sup> kings”?

<sup>12</sup> Where then are your wise men?

Let them tell you and reveal what the LORD of Hosts has planned against Egypt.

<sup>13</sup> The princes of Zoan have been fools;
the princes of Memphis are deceived.

Her tribal chieftains have led Egypt astray.

<sup>14</sup> The LORD has mixed within her a spirit of confusion.
The leaders have made Egypt stagger in all she does,
as a drunkard staggers in his vomit.

<sup>15</sup> No head or tail, palm or reed,
will be able to do anything for Egypt.

Egypt Will Know the LORD

<sup>16</sup> On that day Egypt will be like women. She will tremble with fear because of the threatening hand of the LORD of Hosts when He raises it against her. <sup>17</sup> The land of Judah will terrify Egypt; whenever Judah is mentioned, Egypt will tremble because of what the LORD of Hosts has planned against it.

<sup>18†</sup> On that day five cities in the land of Egypt will speak the language of Canaan and swear loyalty to the LORD of Hosts. One of the cities will be called the City of the Sun.

<sup>19</sup> On that day there will be an altar to the LORD in the center of the land of Egypt and a pillar to the LORD near her border. <sup>20</sup> It will be a sign and witness to the LORD of Hosts in the land of Egypt. When they cry out to the LORD because of their oppressors, He will send them a savior and leader, and he will rescue them. <sup>21</sup> The LORD will make Himself known to Egypt, and Egypt will know the LORD on that day. They will offer sacrifices and offerings; they will make vows to the LORD and fulfill them. <sup>22</sup> The LORD will strike Egypt, striking and healing. Then they will return to the LORD and He will hear their prayers and heal them.

<sup>23</sup> On that day there will be a highway from Egypt to Assyria. Assyria will go to Egypt, Egypt to Assyria, and Egypt will worship with Assyria.

<sup>24</sup> On that day Israel will form a triple alliance with Egypt and Assyria — a blessing within the land. <sup>25</sup> The LORD of Hosts will bless them, saying, “Egypt My people, Assyria My handiwork, and Israel My inheritance are blessed.”

No Help from Cush or Egypt

20 In the year that the chief commander, sent by Sargon king of Assyria, came to Ashdod and attacked and captured it — <sup>2†</sup> during that time the LORD had spoken through Isaiah son of Amoz, saying, “Go, take off your •sackcloth <sup>A</sup> and remove the sandals from your feet,” and he did so, going naked and barefoot — <sup>3</sup> the LORD said, “As My servant Isaiah has gone naked and barefoot three years as a sign and omen against Egypt and •Cush, <sup>4</sup> so the king of Assyria will lead the captives of Egypt and the exiles of Cush, young and old alike, naked and barefoot, with bared buttocks — to Egypt’s shame. <sup>5</sup> Those who made Cush their hope and Egypt their boast will be dismayed and ashamed. <sup>6</sup> And the inhabitants of this coastland will say on that day, ‘Look, this is what has happened to those we relied on and fled to for help to rescue us from the king of Assyria! Now, how will we escape?’ ”

A Judgment on Babylon

21 An •oracle against the desert by the sea:

Like storms that pass over the •Negev, it comes from the desert, from the land of terror.

<sup>2†</sup> A troubling vision is declared to me:
“The treacherous one acts treacherously,
and the destroyer destroys.
Advance, Elam! Lay siege, you Medes!
I will put an end to all her groaning.”

Pain grips me, like the pain of a woman in labor.
I am too perplexed to hear,
too dismayed to see.

<sup>4</sup> My heart staggers;
horror terrifies me.
He has turned my last glimmer of hope <sup>B</sup>
into sheer terror.

<sup>5</sup> Prepare a table, and spread out a carpet!
Eat and drink!
Rise up, you princes, and oil the shields!

<sup>6</sup> For the Lord has said to me, “Go, post a lookout;
let him report what he sees.

<sup>7</sup> When he sees riders — pairs of horsemen,
riders on donkeys,
riders on camels —
he must pay close attention.”

<sup>8</sup> Then the lookout reported,
“Lord, I stand on the watchtower all day,
and I stay at my post all night.

<sup>9</sup> Look, riders come — horsemen in pairs.”
And he answered, saying, “Babylon has fallen, has fallen.

All the images of her gods
have been shattered on the ground.”

<sup>10</sup> My people who have been crushed
on the threshing floor,
I have declared to you
what I have heard from the LORD of •Hosts,
the God of Israel.

An Oracle against Dumah

<sup>11</sup> An oracle against Dumah:

One calls to me from Seir,
“Watchman, what is left of the night?
Watchman, what is left of the night? ”

<sup>12</sup> The watchman said,
“Morning has come, and also night.
If you want to ask, ask!
Come back again.”

An Oracle against Arabia

<sup>13</sup> An oracle against Arabia:

In the desert brush
you will camp for the night,
you caravans of Dedanites.

<sup>14</sup> Bring water for the thirsty.
The inhabitants of the land of Tema
meet the refugees with food.

<sup>15</sup> For they have fled from swords,
from the drawn sword,
from the bow that is strung,
and from the stress of battle.

<sup>16</sup> For the Lord said this to me: “Within one year, as a hired worker counts years, all the glory of Kedar will be gone. <sup>17</sup> The remaining Kedarite archers will be few in number.” For the LORD, the God of Israel, has spoken.

An Oracle against Jerusalem

22 An •oracle against the Valley of Vision:

What's the matter with you?

Why have all of you gone up to the rooftops?

<sup>2</sup> The noisy city, the jubilant town,
is filled with revelry.

Your dead did not die by the sword;
they were not killed in battle.

<sup>3</sup> All your rulers have fled together,
captured without a bow.

All your fugitives were captured together;
they had fled far away.

<sup>4</sup> Therefore I said,

“Look away from me! Let me weep bitterly!

Do not try to comfort me

about the destruction of my dear <sup>A</sup> people.”

<sup>5</sup> For the Lord GOD of •Hosts had a day of tumult, trampling, and confusion in the Valley of Vision —

people shouting <sup>B</sup> and crying to the mountains;

<sup>6</sup> Elam took up a quiver with chariots and horsemen, <sup>C</sup>

and Kir uncovered the shield.

<sup>7</sup> Your best valleys were full of chariots,
and horsemen were positioned at the gates.

On that day you looked to the weapons in the House of the Forest. <sup>9</sup> You saw that there were many breaches in the walls of the city of David. You collected water from the lower pool. <sup>10</sup> You counted the houses of Jerusalem so that you could tear them down to fortify the wall. <sup>11</sup> You made a reservoir between the walls for the waters of the ancient pool, but you did not look to the One who made it, or consider the One who created it long ago.

<sup>13</sup> But look: joy and gladness, butchering of cattle, slaughtering of sheep, eating of meat, and drinking of wine — “Let us eat and drink, for tomorrow we die! ”

<sup>14</sup> The LORD of Hosts has directly revealed to me: “This sin of yours will never <sup>D</sup> be wiped out.” The Lord GOD of Hosts has spoken.

An Oracle against Shebna

<sup>15†</sup> The Lord GOD of Hosts said: “Go to Shebna, that steward who is in charge of the palace, and say to him: <sup>16</sup> What are you doing here? Who authorized you to carve out a tomb for yourself here, carving your tomb on the height and cutting a crypt for yourself out of rock? <sup>17</sup> Look, you strong man! The LORD is about to shake you violently. He will take hold of you, <sup>18</sup> wind you up into a ball, and sling you into a wide land. <sup>E</sup> There you will die, and there your glorious chariots will be — a disgrace to the house of your lord. <sup>19</sup> I will remove you from your office; you will be ousted from your position.

<sup>20</sup> “On that day I will call for my servant, Eliakim son of Hilkiah. <sup>21</sup> I will clothe him with your robe and tie your sash around him. I will put your authority into his hand, and he will be like a father to the inhabitants of Jerusalem and to the House of Judah. <sup>22</sup> I will place the key of the House of David on his shoulder; what he opens, no one can close; what he closes, no one can open. <sup>23</sup> I will drive him, like a peg, into a firm place. He will be a throne of honor for his father’s house. <sup>24</sup> They will hang on him the whole burden of his father’s house: the descendants and the offshoots — all the small vessels, from bowls to every kind of jar. <sup>25</sup> On that day” — the declaration of the LORD of Hosts — “the peg that was driven into a firm place will give way, be cut off, and fall, and the load on it will be destroyed.” Indeed, the LORD has spoken.

An Oracle against Tyre

23 An •oracle against Tyre:

Wail, ships of Tarshish,
for your haven has been destroyed.

Word has reached them from the land of Cyprus. <sup>A</sup>,

<sup>2</sup> Mourn, inhabitants of the coastland,
you merchants of Sidon;
your agents have crossed the sea

<sup>3</sup> on many waters.

Tyre's revenue was the grain from Shihor —
the harvest of the Nile.

She was the merchant among the nations.

<sup>4</sup> Be ashamed Sidon, the stronghold of the sea,
for the sea has spoken:

"I have not been in labor or given birth.

I have not raised young men
or brought up young women."

<sup>5</sup> When the news reaches Egypt,
they will be in anguish over the news about Tyre.

<sup>6</sup> Cross over to Tarshish;
wail, inhabitants of the coastland!

<sup>7</sup> Is this your jubilant city,
whose origin was in ancient times,
whose feet have taken her
to settle far away?

<sup>8†</sup> Who planned this against Tyre,
the bestower of crowns,
whose traders are princes,
whose merchants are the honored ones of the earth?

<sup>9</sup> The LORD of •Hosts planned it,
to desecrate all its glorious beauty,
to disgrace all the honored ones of the earth.

<sup>10</sup> Overflow your land like the Nile, daughter of Tarshish;
there is no longer anything to restrain you. <sup>B</sup>

He made kingdoms tremble.
The LORD has commanded that the Canaanite fortresses be destroyed.

<sup>12</sup> He said,
“You will not rejoice anymore,
ravished young woman, daughter of Sidon.
Get up and cross over to Cyprus —
even there you will have no rest!”

<sup>13</sup> Look at the land of the Chaldeans —
a people who no longer exist.
Assyria destined it for desert creatures.
They set up their siege towers
and stripped its palaces.
They made it a ruin.

because your fortress is destroyed!

<sup>15†</sup> On that day Tyre will be forgotten for 70 years — the life span of one king. At the end of 70 years, what the song says about the prostitute will happen to Tyre:

<sup>16</sup> Pick up your lyre,
stroll through the city,
prostitute forgotten by men.
Play skillfully,
sing many a song,
and you will be thought of again.

<sup>17</sup> And at the end of the 70 years, the LORD will restore Tyre and she will go back into business, prostituting herself with all the kingdoms of the world on the face of the earth. <sup>18</sup> But her profits and wages will be dedicated to the LORD. They will not be stored or saved, for her profit will go to those who live in the LORD’s presence, to provide them with ample food and sacred clothing.

The Earth Judged

24 Look, the LORD is stripping the earth bare and making it desolate.

He will twist its surface and scatter its inhabitants:

<sup>2</sup> people and priest alike,
servant and master,
female servant and mistress,
buyer and seller,
lender and borrower,
creditor and debtor.

<sup>3</sup> The earth will be stripped completely bare and will be totally plundered,
for the LORD has spoken this message.

<sup>4</sup> The earth mourns and withers;
the world wastes away and withers;
the exalted people of the earth waste away.

<sup>5</sup> The earth is polluted by its inhabitants,
for they have transgressed teachings,
overstepped decrees,
and broken the everlasting covenant.

<sup>6</sup> Therefore a curse has consumed the earth,
and its inhabitants have become •guilty;
the earth's inhabitants have been burned,
and only a few survive.

<sup>7</sup> The new wine mourns;
the vine withers.

All the carousers now groan.

<sup>8</sup> The joyful tambourines have ceased.
The noise of the jubilant has stopped.
The joyful lyre has ceased.

<sup>9</sup> They no longer sing and drink wine;
beer is bitter to those who drink it.

<sup>10</sup> The city of chaos is shattered;
every house is closed to entry.

<sup>11</sup> In the streets they cry <sup>A</sup> for wine.
All joy grows dark;

earth's rejoicing goes into exile.

<sup>12</sup> Only desolation remains in the city;
its gate has collapsed in ruins.

<sup>13</sup> For this is how it will be on earth
among the nations:
like a harvested olive tree,
like a gleaning after a grape harvest.

<sup>14†</sup> They raise their voices, they sing out;
they proclaim in the west
the majesty of the LORD.

<sup>15</sup> Therefore, in the east honor the LORD!
In the islands of the west
honor the name of •Yahweh,
the God of Israel.

<sup>16</sup> From the ends of the earth we hear songs:
The Splendor of the Righteous One.

But I said, "I waste away! I waste away! <sup>B</sup> Woe is me."

The treacherous act treacherously;
the treacherous deal very treacherously.

<sup>17</sup> Panic, pit, and trap await you who dwell on the earth.

<sup>18</sup> Whoever flees at the sound of panic
will fall into a pit,
and whoever escapes from the pit
will be caught in a trap.
For the windows are opened from heaven,
and the foundations of the earth are shaken.

<sup>19</sup> The earth is completely devastated;
the earth is split open;
the earth is violently shaken.

<sup>20</sup> The earth staggers like a drunkard and sways like a hut.
Earth's rebellion weighs it down,

and it falls, never to rise again.

<sup>21</sup> On that day the LORD will punish the host of heaven above
and kings of the earth below.

<sup>22</sup> They will be gathered together
like prisoners in a pit.
They will be confined to a dungeon;
after many days they will be punished.

<sup>23</sup> The moon will be put to shame
and the sun disgraced,
because the LORD of •Hosts will reign as king
on Mount •Zion in Jerusalem, and He will display His glory
in the presence of His elders.

Salvation and Judgment on That Day

25 •Yahweh, You are my God;
I will exalt You. I will praise Your name, for You have accomplished wonders,
plans formed long ago, with perfect faithfulness.
2 For You have turned the city into a pile of rocks,
a fortified city, into ruins;
the fortress of barbarians is no longer a city;
it will never be rebuilt.
3 Therefore, a strong people will honor You.
The cities of violent nations will •fear You.
4 For You have been a stronghold for the poor,
a stronghold for the needy person in his distress,
a refuge from the rain, a shade from the heat.
When the breath of the violent
is like rain against a wall,
5 like heat in a dry land,
You subdue the uproar of barbarians.
As <sup>A</sup> the shade of a cloud cools the heat of the day,
so He silences the song of the violent.
6† The LORD of •Hosts will prepare a feast for all the peoples on this mountain —
a feast of aged wine, choice meat, <sup>B</sup> finely aged wine.
7† On this mountain
He will destroy the burial shroud,
the shroud over all the peoples,
the sheet covering all the nations;
8 He will destroy death forever.
The Lord GOD will wipe away the tears
from every face
and remove His people’s disgrace
from the whole earth,
for the LORD has spoken.
9 On that day it will be said,
“Look, this is our God;
we have waited for Him, and He has saved us.

This is the LORD; we have waited for Him.
Let us rejoice and be glad in His salvation.”

<sup>10</sup> For the LORD’s power will rest on this mountain.

But Moab will be trampled in his place <sup>C</sup>
as straw is trampled in a dung pile.

<sup>11</sup> He will spread out his arms in the middle of it, as a swimmer spreads out his arms to swim.

His pride will be brought low,
along with the trickery of his hands.

<sup>12</sup> The high-walled fortress will be brought down, thrown to the ground, to the dust.

The Song of Judah

26 On that day this song will be sung in the land of Judah:

We have a strong city.

Salvation is established as walls and ramparts.

<sup>2</sup> Open the gates

so a righteous nation can come in — one that remains faithful.

<sup>3</sup> You will keep the mind that is dependent on You in perfect peace,

for it is trusting in You.

<sup>4</sup> Trust in the LORD forever,

because in •Yah, the LORD, is an everlasting rock!

<sup>5</sup> For He has humbled those who live in lofty places —

an inaccessible city.

He brings it down; He brings it down to the ground;

He throws it to the dust.

<sup>6</sup> Feet trample it,

the feet of the humble,

the steps of the poor.

God's People Vindicated

<sup>7</sup> The path of the righteous is level;

You clear a straight path for the righteous.

<sup>8</sup> Yes, Yahweh, we wait for You in the path of Your judgments.

Our desire is for Your name and renown.

<sup>9</sup> I long for You in the night;

yes, my spirit within me diligently seeks You,

for when Your judgments are in the land,

the inhabitants of the world will learn righteousness.

<sup>10</sup> But if the wicked man is shown favor,

he does not learn righteousness.

In a righteous land he acts unjustly and does not see the majesty of the LORD.

<sup>11</sup> LORD, Your hand is lifted up to take action,

but they do not see it.

They will see Your zeal for Your people,
and they will be put to shame.

The fire for Your adversaries will consume them!

<sup>12</sup> LORD, You will establish peace for us,
for You have also done all our work for us.

<sup>13</sup> Yahweh our God, lords other than You have ruled over us, but we remember Your name alone.

<sup>14†</sup> The dead do not live;
departed spirits do not rise up.

Indeed, You have visited and destroyed them;
You have wiped out all memory of them.

<sup>15</sup> You have added to the nation, LORD.
You have added to the nation; You are honored.
You have expanded all the borders of the land.

<sup>16</sup> LORD, they went to You in their distress;
they poured out whispered prayers
because Your discipline fell on them. <sup>A</sup>

<sup>17</sup> As a pregnant woman about to give birth
writhes and cries out in her pains,
so we were before You, LORD.

<sup>18</sup> We became pregnant, we writhed in pain;
we gave birth to wind.
We have won no victories on earth,
and the earth's inhabitants have not fallen.

<sup>19</sup> Your dead will live; their bodies <sup>B</sup> will rise.
Awake and sing, you who dwell in the dust!
For you will be covered with the morning dew, <sup>C</sup>
and the earth will bring out the departed spirits.

<sup>20</sup> Go, my people, enter your rooms
and close your doors behind you.
Hide for a little while until the wrath has passed.

<sup>21</sup> For look, the LORD is coming from His place
to punish the inhabitants of the earth for their iniquity.

The earth will reveal the blood shed on it and will no longer conceal her slain.

Leviathan Slain

27 † On that day the LORD with His harsh, great, and strong sword, will bring judgment on •Leviathan, the fleeing serpent — Leviathan, the twisting serpent. He will slay the monster that is in the sea.

The LORD's Vineyard

sing about a desirable vineyard:

<sup>3</sup> I, •Yahweh, watch over it;
I water it regularly.
I guard it night and day
so that no one disturbs it.

<sup>4</sup> I am not angry,
but if it produces thorns and briers for Me,
I will fight against it, trample it,
and burn it to the ground.

<sup>5</sup> Or let it take hold of My strength;
let it make peace with Me —
make peace with Me.

<sup>6</sup> In days to come, Jacob will take root.
Israel will blossom and bloom
and fill the whole world with fruit.

<sup>7</sup> Did the LORD strike Israel
as He struck the one who struck Israel?
Was he killed like those killed by Him?

<sup>8</sup> You disputed with her
by banishing and driving her away. <sup>A</sup>
He removed her with His severe storm
on the day of the east wind.

<sup>9</sup> Therefore Jacob's iniquity will be purged in this way, and the result of the removal of his sin will be this:
when he makes all the altar stones
like crushed bits of chalk,
no •Asherah poles or incense altars will remain standing.

<sup>10</sup> For the fortified city will be deserted, pastures abandoned and forsaken like a wilderness.

Calves will graze there,

and there they will spread out and strip its branches.

<sup>11</sup> When its branches dry out, they will be broken off.

Women will come and make fires with them,

for they are not a people with understanding.

Therefore their Maker will not have compassion on them, and their Creator will not be gracious to them.

the LORD will thresh grain from the Euphrates River

as far as the •Wadi of Egypt, and you Israelites will be gathered one by one.

<sup>13</sup> On that day

a great trumpet will be blown,

and those lost in the land of Assyria will come,

as well as those dispersed in the land of Egypt;

and they will worship the LORD

at Jerusalem on the holy mountain.

Woe to Samaria

28 Woe to the majestic crown of Ephraim's drunkards,
and to the fading flower of its beautiful splendor,
which is on the summit above the rich valley.

Woe to those overcome with wine.

<sup>2</sup> Look, the Lord has a strong and mighty one —
like a devastating hail storm,
like a storm with strong flooding waters.

He will bring it across the land with His hand.

<sup>3</sup> The majestic crown of Ephraim's drunkards will be trampled underfoot.

<sup>4</sup> The fading flower of his beautiful splendor,
which is on the summit above the rich valley,
will be like a ripe fig before the summer harvest.
Whoever sees it will swallow it while it is still in his hand.

<sup>5</sup> On that day
the LORD of •Hosts will become a crown of beauty and a diadem of splendor
to the remnant of His people,

<sup>6</sup> a spirit of justice to the one who sits in judgment,
and strength
to those who turn back the battle at the gate.

<sup>7†</sup> These also stagger because of wine and stumble under the influence of beer:
priest and prophet stagger because of beer,
they are confused by wine.
They stumble because of beer,
they are muddled in their visions,
they stumble in their judgments.

<sup>8</sup> Indeed, all their tables are covered with vomit;
there is no place without a stench.

Who is he <sup>B</sup> trying to instruct?

Infants <sup>C</sup> just weaned from milk?

Babies <sup>D</sup> removed from the breast?

<sup>10</sup> For he says: “Law after law, law after law,
line after line, line after line,
a little here, a little there.” <sup>E</sup>

<sup>11</sup> So He will speak to this people with stammering speech
and in a foreign language.

<sup>12</sup> He had said to them:
“This is the place of rest,
let the weary rest;
this is the place of repose.”
But they would not listen.

<sup>13</sup> Then the word of the LORD came to them:
“Law after law, law after law,
line after line, line after line,
a little here, a little there,” <sup>F</sup>
so they go stumbling backward,
to be broken, trapped, and captured.

A Deal with Death

<sup>14</sup> Therefore hear the word of the LORD, you mockers who rule this people in Jerusalem.

<sup>15†</sup> For you said, “We have cut a deal with Death,
and we have made an agreement with •Sheol;
when the overwhelming scourge passes through,
it will not touch us,
because we have made falsehood our refuge
and have hidden behind treachery.”

<sup>16†</sup> Therefore the Lord GOD said:
“Look, I have laid a stone in •Zion,
a tested stone,
a precious cornerstone, a sure foundation;
the one who believes will be unshakable. <sup>G</sup>,

<sup>17</sup> And I will make justice the measuring line

and righteousness the mason's level.”

Hail will sweep away the false refuge,
and water will flood your hiding place.

<sup>18</sup> Your deal with Death will be dissolved, and your agreement with Sheol will not last.
When the overwhelming scourge passes through,
you will be trampled.

<sup>19</sup> Every time it passes through,
it will carry you away;
it will pass through every morning —
every day and every night.
Only terror will cause you to understand the message. <sup>H</sup>

<sup>20</sup> Indeed, the bed is too short to stretch out on,
and its cover too small to wrap up in.

<sup>21</sup> For the LORD will rise up as He did at Mount Perazim.
He will rise in wrath, as at the Valley of Gibeon,
to do His work, His strange work,
and to perform His task, His disturbing task.

<sup>22</sup> So now, do not mock,
or your shackles will become stronger.
Indeed, I have heard from the Lord GOD of Hosts
a decree of destruction for the whole land.

God's Wonderful Advice

<sup>23</sup> Listen and hear my voice.

Pay attention and hear what I say.

<sup>24</sup> Does the plowman plow every day to plant seed?
Does he continuously break up and cultivate the soil?

<sup>25</sup> When he has leveled its surface,
does he not then scatter black cumin and sow cumin?
He plants wheat in rows and barley in plots,
with spelt as their border.

<sup>26</sup> His God teaches him order;
He instructs him.

<sup>27</sup> Certainly black cumin is not threshed
with a threshing board,
and a cart wheel is not rolled over the cumin.
But black cumin is beaten out with a stick,
and cumin with a rod.

<sup>28</sup> Bread grain is crushed,
but is not threshed endlessly.
Though the wheel of the farmer's cart rumbles,
his horses do not crush it.

<sup>29</sup> This also comes from the LORD of Hosts.
He gives wonderful advice;
He gives great wisdom.

Woe to Jerusalem

29 Woe to Ariel, <sup>A</sup> Ariel,
the city where David camped!

Continue year after year;
let the festivals recur.

<sup>2</sup> I will oppress Ariel,
and there will be mourning and crying,
and she will be to Me like an Ariel. <sup>B</sup>

<sup>3</sup> I will camp in a circle around you;
I will besiege you with earth ramps,
and I will set up my siege towers against you.

<sup>4</sup> You will be brought down;
you will speak from the ground,
and your words will come from low in the dust.
Your voice will be like that of a spirit from the ground;
your speech will whisper from the dust.

and many of the ruthless, like blowing chaff.
Then suddenly, in an instant,

<sup>6</sup> you will be visited by the LORD of •Hosts with thunder, earthquake, and loud noise, storm, tempest, and a flame of consuming fire.

<sup>7</sup> All the many nations going out to battle against Ariel —
all the attackers, the siege works against her,
and those who oppress her —
will then be like a dream, a vision in the night.

<sup>8</sup> It will be like a hungry one who dreams he is eating,
then wakes and is still hungry;
and like a thirsty one who dreams he is drinking,
then wakes and is still thirsty, longing for water.
So it will be for all the many nations
who go to battle against Mount •Zion.

<sup>9†</sup> Stop and be astonished;
blind yourselves and be blind!
They are drunk, but not with wine;

they stagger, but not with beer.

<sup>10</sup> For the LORD has poured out on you an overwhelming urge to <sup>D</sup> sleep;
He has shut your eyes — the prophets,
and covered your heads — the seers.

<sup>11</sup> For you the entire vision will be like the words of a sealed document. If it is given to one who can read and he is asked to read it, <sup>E</sup> he will say, “I can’t read it, because it is sealed.” <sup>12</sup> And if the document is given to one who cannot read and he is asked to read it, <sup>F</sup> he will say, “I can’t read.”

<sup>13</sup> The Lord said:

Because these people approach Me with their mouths to honor Me with lip-service <sup>G</sup> —
yet their hearts are far from Me,
and their worship consists of man-made rules
learned by rote —

<sup>14</sup> therefore I will again confound these people with wonder after wonder.
The wisdom of their wise men will vanish,
and the understanding of the perceptive will be hidden.

<sup>15†</sup> Woe to those who go to great lengths to hide their plans from the LORD.
They do their works in darkness,
and say, “Who sees us? Who knows us? ”

<sup>16</sup> You have turned things around,
as if the potter were the same as the clay.
How can what is made say about its maker,
“He didn’t make me”?
How can what is formed
say about the one who formed it,
“He doesn’t understand what he’s doing”?

<sup>17</sup> Isn’t it true that in just a little while Lebanon will become an orchard,

and the orchard will seem like a forest?

<sup>18</sup> On that day the deaf will hear
the words of a document,
and out of a deep darkness
the eyes of the blind will see.

<sup>19</sup> The humble will have joy
after joy in the LORD,
and the poor people will rejoice
in the Holy One of Israel.

<sup>20</sup> For the ruthless one will vanish,
the scorner will disappear,
and all those who lie in wait with evil intent
will be killed —

<sup>21</sup> those who, with their speech,
accuse a person of wrongdoing,
who set a trap at the •gate for the mediator,
and without cause deprive the righteous of justice.

<sup>22</sup> Therefore, the LORD who redeemed Abraham says this about the house
of Jacob:

Jacob will no longer be ashamed and his face will no longer be pale.

<sup>23</sup> For when he sees his children,
the work of My hands within his nation,
they will honor My name,
they will honor the Holy One of Jacob and stand in awe of the God of Israel.

<sup>24</sup> Those who are confused will gain understanding,
and those who grumble will accept instruction.

Condemnation of the Egyptian Alliance

30 Woe to the rebellious children!
They carry out a plan, but not Mine; This is the LORD's declaration.
they make an alliance,
but against My will,
piling sin on top of sin.

<sup>2</sup> They set out to go down to Egypt
without asking My advice,
in order to seek shelter under Pharaoh's protection and take refuge in Egypt's shadow.

<sup>3</sup> But Pharaoh's protection will become your shame,
and refuge in Egypt's shadow your disgrace.

<sup>4</sup> For though his <sup>A</sup> princes are at Zoan
and his messengers reach as far as Hanes,

<sup>5</sup> everyone will be ashamed
because of a people who can't help.
They are of no benefit, they are no help;
they are good for nothing but shame and reproach.

<sup>6</sup> An •oracle about the animals of the •Negev: <sup>B</sup>

Through a land of trouble and distress,
of lioness and lion,
of viper and flying serpent,
they carry their wealth on the backs of donkeys
and their treasures on the humps of camels,
to a people who will not help them.

<sup>7†</sup> Egypt's help is completely worthless;
therefore, I call her:
•Rahab Who Just Sits.

<sup>8</sup> Go now, write it on a tablet in their presence and inscribe it on a scroll;
it will be for the future,
forever and ever.

<sup>9</sup> They are a rebellious people,
deceptive children,
children who do not want to obey the LORD's instruction.

<sup>10</sup> They say to the seers, “Do not see,”
and to the prophets,
“Do not prophesy the truth to us.
Tell us flattering things.
Prophecy illusions.

<sup>11</sup> Get out of the way!
Leave the pathway.
Rid us of the Holy One of Israel.”

<sup>12</sup> Therefore the Holy One of Israel says:
“Because you have rejected this message
and have trusted in oppression and deceit,
and have depended on them,

<sup>13</sup> this iniquity of yours will be like a spreading breach,
a bulge in a high wall
whose collapse will come in an instant — suddenly!

<sup>14</sup> Its collapse will be like the shattering of a potter’s jar, crushed to pieces,
so that not even a fragment of pottery will be found among its shattered remains — no fragment large enough to take fire from a hearth or scoop water from a cistern.”

<sup>15</sup> For the Lord GOD, the Holy One of Israel, has said:
“You will be delivered by returning and resting;
your strength will lie in quiet confidence.
But you are not willing.”

We will escape on horses” —
therefore you will escape! —
and, “We will ride on fast horses” —
but those who pursue you will be faster.

<sup>17</sup> One thousand will flee at the threat of one,
at the threat of five you will flee,
until you alone remain
like a solitary pole on a mountaintop
or a banner on a hill.

The LORD's Mercy to Israel

<sup>18†</sup> Therefore the LORD is waiting to show you mercy,
and is rising up to show you compassion,
for the LORD is a just God.
All who wait patiently for Him are happy.

<sup>19</sup> For you people will live on •Zion in Jerusalem and will never cry again. He will show favor to you at the sound of your cry; when He hears, He will answer you. <sup>20</sup> The Lord will give you meager bread and water during oppression, but your Teacher <sup>C</sup> will not hide Himself <sup>D</sup> any longer. Your eyes will see your Teacher, <sup>E</sup> <sup>21</sup> and whenever you turn to the right or to the left, your ears will hear this command behind you: “This is the way. Walk in it.” <sup>22</sup> Then you will defile your silver-plated idols and your gold-plated images. You will throw them away like menstrual cloths, and call them filth.

<sup>23</sup> Then He will send rain for your seed that you have sown in the ground, and the food, the produce of the ground, will be rich and plentiful. On that day your cattle will graze in open pastures. <sup>24</sup> The oxen and donkeys that work the ground will eat salted fodder scattered with winnowing shovel and fork. <sup>25</sup> Streams flowing with water will be on every high mountain and every raised hill on the day of great slaughter when the towers fall. <sup>26†</sup> The moonlight will be as bright as the sunlight, and the sunlight will be seven times brighter — like the light of seven days — on the day that the LORD bandages His people's injuries and heals the wounds He inflicted.

Annihilation of the Assyrians

His anger burning and heavy with smoke. <sup>G</sup>
His lips are full of fury,
and His tongue is like a consuming fire.
<sup>28†</sup> His breath is like an overflowing torrent that rises to the neck.
He comes to sift the nations in a sieve of destruction and to put a bridle on the jaws of the peoples to lead them astray.

<sup>29</sup> Your singing will be like that on the night of a holy festival,
and your heart will rejoice
like one who walks to the music of a flute, going up to the mountain of the LORD,
to the Rock of Israel.

<sup>30</sup> And the LORD will make the splendor of His voice heard and reveal His arm striking in angry wrath
and a flame of consuming fire,
in driving rain, a torrent, and hailstones.

<sup>31</sup> Assyria will be shattered by the voice of the LORD.
He will strike with a rod.

<sup>32</sup> And every stroke of the appointed staff that the LORD brings down on him
will be to the sound of tambourines and lyres;
He will fight against him with brandished weapons.

<sup>33</sup> Indeed! •Topheth has been ready for the king for a long time now.
Its funeral pyre is deep and wide,
with plenty of fire and wood.
The breath of the LORD, like a torrent of brimstone,
kindles it.

The LORD, the Only Help

31 Woe to those who go down to Egypt for help and who depend on horses!

They trust in the abundance of chariots
and in the large number of horsemen.
They do not look to the Holy One of Israel
and they do not seek the LORD's help.

<sup>2</sup> But He also is wise and brings disaster.
He does not go back on what He says;
He will rise up against the house of wicked men
and against the allies of evildoers.

<sup>3</sup> Egyptians are men, not God;
their horses are flesh, not spirit.
When the LORD raises His hand to strike,
the helper will stumble
and the one who is helped will fall;
both will perish together.

<sup>4</sup> For this is what the LORD said to me:

As a lion or young lion growls over its prey
when a band of shepherds is called out against it,
and is not terrified by their shouting
or subdued by their noise,
so the LORD of •Hosts will come down to fight on Mount •Zion
and on its hill.

<sup>5</sup> Like hovering birds,
so the LORD of Hosts will protect Jerusalem —
by protecting it, He will rescue it,
by sparing it, He will deliver it.

<sup>6</sup> Return to the One the Israelites have greatly rebelled against. <sup>7</sup> For on that day, every one of you will reject the silver and gold idols that your own hands have sinfully made.

<sup>8†</sup> Then Assyria will fall,

but not by human sword;
a sword will devour him,
but not one made by man.
He will flee from the sword;
his young men will be put to forced labor.
<sup>9</sup> His rock will pass away because of fear, and his officers will be afraid because of the signal flag.

This is the LORD's declaration — whose fire is in Zion and whose furnace is in Jerusalem.

The Righteous Kingdom Announced

32 †Indeed, a king will reign righteously, and rulers will rule justly.

<sup>2</sup> Each will be like a shelter from the wind,
a refuge from the rain,
like streams of water in a dry land
and the shade of a massive rock in an arid land.

<sup>3</sup> Then the eyes of those who see will not be closed,
and the ears of those who hear will listen.

<sup>4</sup> The reckless mind will gain knowledge,
and the stammering tongue will speak clearly and fluently.

<sup>5</sup> A fool will no longer be called a noble,
nor a scoundrel said to be important.

<sup>6</sup> For a fool speaks foolishness
and his mind plots iniquity.
He lives in a godless way
and speaks falsely about the LORD.
He leaves the hungry empty and deprives the thirsty of drink.

<sup>7</sup> The scoundrel's weapons are destructive;
he hatches plots to destroy the needy with lies,
even when the poor says what is right.

<sup>8</sup> But a noble person plans noble things;
he stands up for noble causes.

<sup>9</sup> Stand up, you complacent women;
listen to me.

Pay attention to what I say,
you overconfident daughters.

<sup>10</sup> In a little more than a year
you overconfident ones will shudder,
for the vintage will fail
and the harvest will not come.

<sup>11</sup> Shudder, you complacent ones;
tremble, you overconfident ones!
Strip yourselves bare
and put sackcloth around your waists.

<sup>12</sup> Beat your breasts in mourning
for the delightful fields and the fruitful vines, <sup>13</sup> for the ground of my people growing thorns and briers,
indeed, for every joyous house in the joyful city.
<sup>14</sup> For the palace will be forsaken,
the busy city abandoned.
The hill and the watchtower will become barren places forever,
the joy of wild donkeys,
and a pasture for flocks,
<sup>15</sup> until the Spirit from heaven is poured out on us.
Then the desert will become an orchard,
and the orchard will seem like a forest.
<sup>16</sup> Then justice will inhabit the wilderness,
and righteousness will dwell in the orchard.
<sup>17</sup> The result of righteousness will be peace;
the effect of righteousness
will be quiet confidence forever.
<sup>18</sup> Then my people will dwell in a peaceful place,
in safe and secure dwellings.
<sup>19</sup> But hail will level the forest, <sup>A</sup>
and the city will sink into the depths.
<sup>20</sup> Those who sow seed are happy
beside abundant waters;
they let ox and donkey range freely.

The LORD Rises Up

33 Woe, you destroyer never destroyed,
you traitor never betrayed!

When you have finished destroying,
you will be destroyed.

When you have finished betraying,
they will betray you.

<sup>2</sup> LORD, be gracious to us! We wait for You.

Be our strength every morning
and our salvation in time of trouble.

<sup>3</sup> The peoples flee at the thunderous noise;
the nations scatter when You rise in Your majesty.

<sup>4</sup> Your spoil will be gathered as locusts are gathered;
people will swarm over it like an infestation of locusts.

<sup>5</sup> The LORD is exalted, for He dwells on high;
He has filled •Zion with justice and righteousness.

<sup>6</sup> There will be times of security for you —
a storehouse of salvation, wisdom, and knowledge.
The •fear of the LORD is Zion's treasure.

<sup>7</sup> Listen! Their warriors cry loudly in the streets;
the messengers of peace weep bitterly.

<sup>8</sup> The highways are deserted;
travel has ceased.

An agreement has been broken,
cities despised,
and human life disregarded.

<sup>9</sup> The land mourns and withers;
Lebanon is ashamed and decayed.

Sharon is like a desert;
Bashan and Carmel shake off their leaves.

<sup>10</sup> “Now I will rise up,” says the LORD.

“Now I will lift Myself up.

Now I will be exalted.

<sup>11</sup> You will conceive chaff;
you will give birth to stubble.

Your breath is fire that will consume you.

<sup>12</sup> The peoples will be burned to ashes,
like thorns cut down and burned in a fire.

<sup>13</sup> You who are far off, hear what I have done;
you who are near, know My strength.”

trembling seizes the ungodly:
“Who among us can dwell with a consuming fire?
Who among us can dwell with ever-burning flames? ”

<sup>15</sup> The one who lives righteously
and speaks rightly,
who refuses gain from extortion,
whose hand never takes a bribe,
who stops his ears from listening to murderous plots <sup>A</sup>
and shuts his eyes to avoid endorsing evil <sup>B</sup> —

<sup>16</sup> he will dwell on the heights;
his refuge will be the rocky fortresses,
his food provided, his water assured.

<sup>17</sup> Your eyes will see the King in His beauty;
you will see a vast land.

<sup>18</sup> Your mind will meditate on the past terror:

“Where is the accountant? <sup>C</sup>

Where is the tribute collector? <sup>D</sup>

Where is the one who spied out our defenses? ” <sup>E</sup>

<sup>19</sup> You will no longer see the barbarians,
a people whose speech is difficult to comprehend —
who stammer in a language that is not understood.

<sup>20</sup> Look at Zion, the city of our festival times.

Your eyes will see Jerusalem,
a peaceful pasture, a tent that does not wander;
its tent pegs will not be pulled up
nor will any of its cords be loosened.

<sup>21</sup> For the majestic One, our LORD, will be there,
a place of rivers and broad streams
where ships that are rowed will not go,

and majestic vessels will not pass.

<sup>22</sup> For the LORD is our Judge,
the LORD is our lawgiver,
the LORD is our King.
He will save us.

<sup>23</sup> Your ropes are slack;
they cannot hold the base of the mast
or spread out the flag.
Then abundant spoil will be divided,
the lame will plunder it,

<sup>24</sup> and none there will say, "I am sick."
The people who dwell there will be forgiven their iniquity.

The Judgment of the Nations

34 †You nations, come here and listen;
you peoples, pay attention!

Let the earth hear, and all that fills it,
the world and all that comes from it.

<sup>2</sup> The LORD is angry with all the nations —
furious with all their armies.

He will set them apart for destruction,
giving them over to slaughter.

<sup>3</sup> Their slain will be thrown out,
and the stench of their corpses will rise;
the mountains will flow <sup>A</sup> with their blood.

The skies will roll up like a scroll,
and their stars will all wither
as leaves wither on the vine,
and foliage on the fig tree.

The Judgment of Edom

<sup>5</sup> When My sword has drunk its fill in the heavens, it will then come down on Edom
and on the people I have •set apart for destruction.

<sup>6</sup> The LORD's sword is covered with blood.

It drips with fat,
with the blood of lambs and goats,
with the fat of the kidneys of rams.

For the LORD has a sacrifice in Bozrah,
a great slaughter in the land of Edom.

<sup>7</sup> The wild oxen will be struck <sup>B</sup> down with them,
and young bulls with the mighty bulls.

Their land will be soaked with <sup>C</sup> blood,
and their soil will be saturated with fat.

<sup>8</sup> For the LORD has a day of vengeance,
a time of paying back Edom
for its hostility against •Zion.

<sup>9</sup> Edom's streams will be turned into pitch,
her soil into sulfur;
her land will become burning pitch.

<sup>10</sup> It will never go out — day or night.
Its smoke will go up forever.
It will be desolate, from generation to generation;
no one will pass through it forever and ever.

<sup>11</sup> The desert owl <sup>D</sup> and the screech owl <sup>E</sup> will possess it,
and the great owl and the raven will dwell there.
The LORD will stretch out a measuring line
and a plumb line over her for her destruction and chaos.

<sup>12</sup> No nobles will be left to proclaim a king,
and all her princes will come to nothing.

<sup>13</sup> Her palaces will be overgrown with thorns;
her fortified cities, with thistles and briars.
She will become a dwelling for jackals,
an abode for ostriches.

<sup>14</sup> The desert creatures will meet hyenas,
and one wild goat will call to another.
Indeed, the screech owl will stay there
and will find a resting place for herself.

<sup>15</sup> The sand partridge <sup>F</sup> will make her nest there;
she will lay and hatch her eggs
and will gather her brood under her shadow.
Indeed, the birds of prey will gather there,
each with its mate.

<sup>16</sup> Search and read the scroll of the LORD:
Not one of them will be missing,
none will be lacking its mate,
because He has ordered it by my mouth,
and He will gather them by His Spirit.

<sup>17</sup> He has ordained a lot for them;
His hand allotted their portion with a measuring line.
They will possess it forever;
they will dwell in it from generation to generation.

The Ransomed Return to Zion

35 †The wilderness and the dry land will be glad;
the desert will rejoice and blossom like a rose. <sup>A</sup>, ,

<sup>2</sup> It will blossom abundantly
and will also rejoice with joy and singing.
The glory of Lebanon will be given to it,
the splendor of Carmel and Sharon.
They will see the glory of the LORD,
the splendor of our God.

<sup>3</sup> Strengthen the weak hands, steady the shaking knees!

<sup>4</sup> Say to the cowardly:
“Be strong; do not fear!
Here is your God; vengeance is coming.
God’s retribution is coming; He will save you.”

<sup>5</sup> Then the eyes of the blind will be opened,
and the ears of the deaf unstopped.

<sup>6</sup> Then the lame will leap like a deer,
and the tongue of the mute will sing for joy,
for water will gush in the wilderness,
and streams in the desert;

<sup>7</sup> the parched ground will become a pool of water, and the thirsty land springs of water.
In the haunt of jackals, in their lairs,
there will be grass, reeds, and papyrus.

<sup>8</sup> A road will be there and a way;
it will be called the Holy Way.
The •unclean will not travel on it,
but it will be for the one who walks the path.
Even the fool will not go astray.

<sup>9</sup> There will be no lion there,
and no vicious beast will go up on it;
they will not be found there.
But the redeemed will walk on it,

<sup>10</sup> and the redeemed of the LORD will return
and come to •Zion with singing,

crowned with unending joy.
Joy and gladness will overtake them,
and sorrow and sighing will flee.

Sennacherib's Invasion

36 †In the fourteenth year of King Hezekiah, Sennacherib king of Assyria attacked all the fortified cities of Judah and captured them.

The great king, the king of Assyria, says this: What are you relying on? <sup>A</sup> <sup>5</sup> I say that your strategy and military preparedness are mere words. What are you now relying on that you have rebelled against me? <sup>6</sup> Look, you are trusting in Egypt, that splintered reed of a staff that will enter and pierce the hand of anyone who leans on it. This is how Pharaoh king of Egypt is to all who trust in him. <sup>7†</sup> Suppose you say to me, ‘We trust in the LORD our God.’ Isn’t He the One whose •high places and altars Hezekiah has removed, saying to Judah and Jerusalem, ‘You are to worship at this altar’?

<sup>8</sup> Now make a deal with my master, the king of Assyria. I’ll give you 2,000 horses if you’re able to supply riders for them! <sup>9</sup> How then can you drive back a single officer among the weakest of my master’s officers and trust in Egypt for chariots and horsemen?

<sup>10</sup> Have I attacked this land to destroy it without the LORD’s approval? The LORD said to me, ‘Attack this land and destroy it.’ ”

<sup>11</sup> Then Eliakim, Shebna, and Joah said to the Rabshakeh, “Please speak to your servants in Aramaic, since we understand it. Don’t speak to us in Hebrew <sup>B</sup> within earshot of the people who are on the wall.”

<sup>12</sup> But the Rabshakeh replied, “Has my master sent me to speak these words to your master and to you, and not to the men who are sitting on the wall, who are destined with you to eat their own excrement and drink their own urine? ”

Listen to the words of the great king, the king of Assyria! <sup>14</sup> This is what the king says: “Don’t let Hezekiah deceive you, for he cannot deliver you. <sup>15</sup> Don’t let Hezekiah persuade you to trust in the LORD, saying, ‘The LORD will certainly deliver us! This city will not be handed over to the king of Assyria.’ ”

<sup>21</sup> But they kept silent; they didn’t say anything, for the king’s command was, “Don’t answer him.” <sup>22</sup> Then Eliakim son of Hilkiah, who was in charge of the palace, Shebna the court secretary, and Joah son of Asaph, the court historian, came to Hezekiah with their clothes torn and reported to him the words of the Rabshakeh.

Hezekiah Seeks Isaiah's Counsel

37 When King Hezekiah heard their report, he tore his clothes, put on sackcloth, and went to the LORD's temple. <sup>2</sup> Then he sent Eliakim, who was in charge of the palace, Shebna the court secretary, and the leading priests, who were wearing sackcloth, to the prophet Isaiah son of Amoz. <sup>3</sup> They said to him, "This is what Hezekiah says: 'Today is a day of distress, rebuke, and disgrace, for children have come to the point of birth, and there is no strength to deliver them. <sup>4</sup> Perhaps Yahweh your God will hear all the words of the Rabshakeh, whom his master the king of Assyria sent to mock the living God, and will rebuke him for the words that Yahweh your God has heard. Therefore offer a prayer for the surviving remnant.' "

<sup>5</sup> So the servants of King Hezekiah went to Isaiah, <sup>6</sup> who said to them, "Tell your master this, 'The LORD says: Don't be afraid because of the words you have heard, which the king of Assyria's attendants have blasphemed Me with. <sup>7†</sup> I am about to put a spirit in him and he will hear a rumor and return to his own land, where I will cause him to fall by the sword.' "

Sennacherib's Letter

<sup>8</sup> When the Rabshakeh heard that the king of Assyria had left Lachish, he returned and found him fighting against Libnah. <sup>9†</sup> The king had heard this about Tirhakah king of Cush: "He has set out to fight against you." So when he heard this, he sent messengers to Hezekiah, saying, <sup>10</sup> "Say this to Hezekiah king of Judah: 'Don't let your God, whom you trust, deceive you by promising that Jerusalem won't be handed over to the king of Assyria. <sup>11</sup> Look, you have heard what the kings of Assyria have done to all the countries: they completely destroyed them. Will you be rescued? <sup>12</sup> Did the gods of the nations that my predecessors destroyed rescue them — Gozan, Haran, Rezeph, and the Edenites in Telassar? <sup>13</sup> Where is the king of Hamath, the king of Arpad, the king of the city of Sepharvaim, Hena, or Ivvah? ' "

Hezekiah's Prayer

<sup>14</sup> Hezekiah took the letter from the messengers, read it, then went up to the LORD's temple and spread it out before the LORD. <sup>15</sup> Then Hezekiah prayed to the LORD:

<sup>16</sup> LORD of •Hosts, God of Israel, who is enthroned above the •cherubim, You are God — You alone — of all the kingdoms of the earth. You made the heavens and the earth. <sup>17</sup> Listen closely, LORD, and hear; open Your eyes, LORD, and see. Hear all the words that Sennacherib has sent to mock the living God. <sup>18</sup> LORD, it is true that the kings of Assyria have devastated all these countries and their lands. <sup>19</sup> They have thrown their gods into the fire, for they were not gods but made by human hands — wood and stone. So they have destroyed them. <sup>20</sup> Now, LORD our God, save us from his power so that all the kingdoms of the earth may know that You are the LORD — You alone.

God's Answer through Hezekiah

<sup>21</sup> Then Isaiah son of Amoz sent a message to Hezekiah: “The LORD, the God of Israel, says: ‘Because you prayed to Me about Sennacherib king of Assyria, <sup>22</sup> this is the word the LORD has spoken against him:

Virgin Daughter •Zion
despises you and scorns you:
Daughter Jerusalem shakes her head behind your back. <sup>A</sup>

<sup>23</sup> Who is it you have mocked and blasphemed?
Who have you raised your voice against
and lifted your eyes in pride?
Against the Holy One of Israel!

<sup>24</sup> You have mocked the LORD through <sup>B</sup> your servants.
You have said, “With my many chariots
I have gone up to the heights of the mountains, to the far recesses of Lebanon.
I cut down its tallest cedars,
its choice cypress trees.

I came to its distant heights,
its densest forest.

<sup>25</sup> I dug wells and drank water.
I dried up all the streams of Egypt
with the soles of my feet.”

<sup>26†</sup> Have you not heard?
I designed it long ago;
I planned it in days gone by.
I have now brought it to pass,
and you have crushed fortified cities
into piles of rubble.

<sup>27</sup> Their inhabitants have become powerless, dismayed, and ashamed.
They are plants of the field,
tender grass,
grass on the rooftops,
blasted by the east wind.

<sup>28</sup> But I know your sitting down, your going out and your coming in,
and your raging against Me.

<sup>29</sup> Because your raging against Me
and your arrogance have reached My ears,
I will put My hook in your nose
and My bit in your mouth;
I will make you go back
the way you came.

<sup>30</sup> “ ‘This will be the sign for you: This year you will eat what grows on its own, and in the second year what grows from that. But in the third year sow and reap, plant vineyards and eat their fruit. <sup>31</sup> The surviving remnant of the house of Judah will again take root downward and bear fruit upward.
<sup>32</sup> For a remnant will go out from Jerusalem and survivors, from Mount Zion. The zeal of the LORD of Hosts will accomplish this.’

<sup>33</sup> “Therefore, this is what the LORD says about the king of Assyria:

He will not enter this city
or shoot an arrow there or come before it with a shield
or build up an assault ramp against it.

<sup>34</sup> He will go back
the way he came,
and he will not enter this city.

This is the LORD's declaration.

<sup>35</sup> I will defend this city and rescue it because of Me
and because of My servant David.”

Defeat and Death of Sennacherib

<sup>36†</sup> Then the angel of the LORD went out and struck down 185,000 in the camp of the Assyrians. When the people got up the next morning — there were all the dead bodies! <sup>37</sup> So Sennacherib king of Assyria broke camp and left. He returned home and lived in Nineveh.

<sup>38</sup> One day, while he was worshiping in the temple of his god Nisroch, his sons Adrammelech and Sharezer struck him down with the sword and escaped to the land of Ararat. Then his son Esar-haddon became king in his place.

Hezekiah's Illness and Recovery

38 † In those days Hezekiah became terminally ill. The prophet Isaiah son of Amoz came and said to him, “This is what the LORD says: ‘Put your affairs in order, <sup>A</sup>, for you are about to die; you will not recover.’ ” <sup>B</sup>

<sup>2</sup> Then Hezekiah turned his face to the wall and prayed to the LORD. <sup>3</sup> He said, “Please, LORD, remember how I have walked before You faithfully and wholeheartedly, and have done what pleases You.” <sup>C</sup> And Hezekiah wept bitterly.

<sup>4</sup> Then the word of the LORD came to Isaiah: <sup>5</sup> “Go and tell Hezekiah that this is what the LORD God of your ancestor David says: I have heard your prayer; I have seen your tears. Look, I am going to add 15 years to your life. <sup>D</sup>, <sup>6</sup> And I will deliver you and this city from the power of the king of Assyria; I will defend this city. <sup>7</sup> This is the sign to you from the LORD that He will do what <sup>E</sup> He has promised: <sup>F</sup> <sup>8†</sup> I am going to make the sun’s shadow that goes down on Ahaz’s stairway go back by 10 steps.” So the sun’s shadow <sup>G</sup> went back the 10 steps it had descended.

<sup>9</sup> A poem by Hezekiah king of Judah after he had been sick and had recovered from his illness:

<sup>10</sup> I said: In the prime <sup>H</sup> of my life <sup>I</sup>,
I must go to the gates of •Sheol;
I am deprived of the rest of my years.

<sup>11</sup> I said: I will never see the LORD,
the LORD in the land of the living;
I will not look on humanity any longer
with the inhabitants of what is passing away.

<sup>12</sup> My dwelling is plucked up and removed from me like a shepherd’s tent.
I have rolled up my life like a weaver;
He cuts me off from the loom. <sup>J</sup>
You make an end of me from day until night.

<sup>13</sup> I thought until the morning:
He will break all my bones like a lion;

You make an end of me day and night.

<sup>14</sup> I chirp like a swallow or a crane;
I moan like a dove.
My eyes grow weak looking upward.
Lord, I am oppressed; support me.

<sup>15</sup> What can I say?
He has spoken to me,
and He Himself has done it.
I walk along slowly all my years
because of the bitterness of my soul,

<sup>16</sup> Lord, because of these promises people live,
and in all of them is the life of my spirit as well;
You have restored me to health and let me live.

<sup>17</sup> Indeed, it was for my own welfare that I had such great bitterness;
but Your love has delivered me
from the •Pit of destruction,
for You have thrown all my sins behind Your back.

<sup>18</sup> For Sheol cannot thank You;
Death cannot praise You.
Those who go down to the Pit cannot hope for Your faithfulness.

<sup>19</sup> The living, only the living can thank You,
as I do today;
a father will make Your faithfulness known to children.

<sup>20</sup> The LORD will <sup>K</sup> save me;
we will play stringed instruments
all the days of our lives
at the house of the LORD.

<sup>21†</sup> Now Isaiah had said, “Let them take a lump of pressed figs and apply it to his infected skin, so that he may recover.” <sup>22</sup> And Hezekiah had asked, “What is the sign that I will go up to the LORD’s temple? ”

Hezekiah's Folly

39 †At that time Merodach-baladan son of Baladan, king of Babylon, sent letters and a gift to Hezekiah since he heard that he had been sick and had recovered. <sup>2</sup> Hezekiah was pleased with them, and showed them his treasure house — the silver, the gold, the spices, and the precious oil — and all his armory, and everything that was found in his treasuries. There was nothing in his palace and in all his realm that Hezekiah did not show them.

<sup>3</sup> Then the prophet Isaiah came to King Hezekiah and asked him, “Where did these men come from and what did they say to you? ”

Hezekiah replied, “They came to me from a distant country, from Babylon.”

Hezekiah answered, “They have seen everything in my palace. There isn’t anything in my treasuries that I didn’t show them.”

<sup>5</sup> Then Isaiah said to Hezekiah, “Hear the word of the LORD of •Hosts:
<sup>6</sup> ‘The time will certainly come when everything in your palace and all that your fathers have stored up until this day will be carried off to Babylon; nothing will be left,’ says the LORD. <sup>7†</sup> ‘Some of your descendants who come from you will be taken away, and they will become eunuchs in the palace of the king of Babylon.’ ”

<sup>8†</sup> Then Hezekiah said to Isaiah, “The word of the LORD that you have spoken is good,” for he thought: There will be peace and security during my lifetime.

God's People Comforted

40 “Comfort, comfort My people,”
says your God.

2† “Speak tenderly to <sup>A</sup> Jerusalem, and announce to her
that her time of forced labor is over,
her iniquity has been pardoned,
and she has received from the LORD’s hand
double for all her sins.”

3† A voice of one crying out:

Prepare the way of the LORD in the wilderness;
make a straight highway for our God in the desert.

4 Every valley will be lifted up,
and every mountain and hill will be leveled;
the uneven ground will become smooth
and the rough places, a plain.

5 And the glory of the LORD will appear,
and all humanity <sup>B</sup> together will see it,
for the mouth of the LORD has spoken.

6 A voice was saying, “Cry out! ”
Another said, “What should I cry out? ”
“All humanity is grass,
and all its goodness is like the flower of the field.

7 The grass withers, the flowers fade
when the breath <sup>C</sup> of the LORD blows on them; <sup>D</sup> indeed, the people are grass.

8 The grass withers, the flowers fade,
but the word of our God remains forever.”

9 •Zion, herald of good news,
go up on a high mountain.
Jerusalem, herald of good news,
raise your voice loudly.
Raise it, do not be afraid!
Say to the cities of Judah,

“Here is your God! ”

<sup>10†</sup> See, the Lord GOD comes with strength, and His power establishes His rule.

His reward is with Him,
and His gifts accompany Him.

<sup>11</sup> He protects His flock like a shepherd;
He gathers the lambs in His arms
and carries them in the fold of His garment.
He gently leads those that are nursing.

<sup>12†</sup> Who has measured the waters in the hollow of his hand or marked off the heavens with the span of his hand?
Who has gathered the dust of the earth in a measure or weighed the mountains in a balance
and the hills in the scales?

<sup>13</sup> Who has directed <sup>E</sup> the Spirit of the LORD, or who gave Him His counsel?

<sup>14</sup> Who did He consult with?
Who gave Him understanding and taught Him the paths of justice?
Who taught Him knowledge
and showed Him the way of understanding?

<sup>15</sup> Look, the nations are like a drop in a bucket;
they are considered as a speck of dust in the scales;
He lifts up the islands like fine dust.

<sup>16</sup> Lebanon is not enough for fuel,
or its animals enough for a •burnt offering.

<sup>17</sup> All the nations are as nothing before Him;
they are considered by Him
as nothingness and emptiness.

<sup>18</sup> Who will you compare God with?
What likeness will you compare Him to?

<sup>19</sup> To an idol? — something that a smelter casts,
and a metalworker plates with gold
and makes silver welds for it?

<sup>20</sup> To one who shapes a pedestal,

choosing wood that does not rot? <sup>F</sup>
He looks for a skilled craftsman
to set up an idol that will not fall over.

<sup>21</sup> Do you not know?
Have you not heard?
Has it not been declared to you
from the beginning?
Have you not considered
the foundations of the earth?

<sup>22†</sup> God is enthroned above the circle of the earth;
its inhabitants are like grasshoppers.
He stretches out the heavens like thin cloth and spreads them out like a tent to live in.

<sup>23</sup> He reduces princes to nothing
and makes judges of the earth irrational.

<sup>24</sup> They are barely planted, barely sown,
their stem hardly takes root in the ground
when He blows on them and they wither,
and a whirlwind carries them away like stubble.

<sup>25</sup> “Who will you compare Me to,
or who is My equal? ” asks the Holy One.

<sup>26</sup> Look up <sup>G</sup> and see:
who created these?
He brings out the starry host by number;
He calls all of them by name.
Because of His great power and strength,
not one of them is missing.

<sup>27</sup> Jacob, why do you say,
and Israel, why do you assert:
“My way is hidden from the LORD,
and my claim is ignored by my God”?

<sup>28</sup> Do you not know?
Have you not heard?
•Yahweh is the everlasting God,

the Creator of the whole earth.
He never grows faint or weary;
there is no limit to His understanding.

<sup>29</sup> He gives strength to the weary and strengthens the powerless.

<sup>30</sup> Youths may faint and grow weary,
and young men stumble and fall,

<sup>31</sup> but those who trust in the LORD
will renew their strength;
they will soar on wings like eagles;
they will run and not grow weary;
they will walk and not faint.

The LORD versus the Nations' Gods

41 “Be silent before Me, islands!
And let peoples renew their strength.

Let them approach, then let them testify;
let us come together for the trial.

<sup>2</sup> Who has stirred him up from the east?

He calls righteousness to his feet. <sup>A</sup>,
The LORD hands nations over to him,
and he subdues kings.

He makes them like dust with his sword,
like wind-driven stubble with his bow.

<sup>3</sup> He pursues them, going on safely, hardly touching the path with his feet.

<sup>4</sup> Who has performed and done this,
calling the generations from the beginning?

I, •Yahweh, am the first,
and with the last — I am He.”

<sup>5</sup> The islands see and are afraid,
the whole earth trembles.

They approach and arrive.

<sup>6</sup> Each one helps the other,
and says to another, “Take courage! ”

<sup>7</sup> The craftsman encourages the metalworker;

the one who flattens with the hammer supports the one who strikes the anvil, saying of the soldering, “It is good.”

He fastens it with nails so that it will not fall over.

<sup>8†</sup> But you, Israel, My servant,
Jacob, whom I have chosen, descendant of Abraham, My friend —

<sup>9</sup> I brought <sup>B</sup> you from the ends of the earth and called you from its farthest corners.

I said to you: You are My servant;
I have chosen you and not rejected you.

<sup>10</sup> Do not fear, for I am with you;
do not be afraid, for I am your God.

I will strengthen you; I will help you;
I will hold on to you with My righteous right hand.

<sup>11</sup> Be sure that all who are enraged against you will be ashamed and disgraced;
those who contend with you will become as nothing and will perish.

<sup>12</sup> You will look for those who contend with you,
but you will not find them.
Those who war against you will become absolutely nothing.

<sup>13</sup> For I, Yahweh your God,
hold your right hand
and say to you: Do not fear,
I will help you.

<sup>14†</sup> Do not fear, you worm Jacob,
you men of Israel:
I will help you —

Your Redeemer is the Holy One of Israel. this is the LORD's declaration.

<sup>15</sup> See, I will make you into a sharp threshing board, new, with many teeth.
You will thresh mountains and pulverize them
and make hills into chaff.

<sup>16</sup> You will winnow them
and a wind will carry them away,
a gale will scatter them.
But you will rejoice in the LORD;
you will boast in the Holy One of Israel.

<sup>17†</sup> The poor and the needy seek water, but there is none;
their tongues are parched with thirst.

I, Yahweh, will answer them;
I, the God of Israel, will not forsake them.

<sup>18</sup> I will open rivers on the barren heights, and springs in the middle of the plains.
I will turn the desert into a pool of water and dry land into springs of water.

<sup>19</sup> I will plant cedars in the desert,
acacias, myrtles, and olive trees.
I will put juniper trees in the desert,
elms and cypress trees together, <sup>20</sup> so that all may see and know,
consider and understand,
that the hand of the LORD has done this,
the Holy One of Israel has created it.

<sup>21</sup> “Submit your case,” says the LORD.
“Present your arguments,” says Jacob’s King.

<sup>22†</sup> “Let them come and tell us what will happen.
Tell us the past events,
so that we may reflect on them
and know the outcome,
or tell us the future.

<sup>23</sup> Tell us the coming events,
then we will know that you are gods.
Indeed, do something good or bad,
then we will be in awe and perceive.

<sup>24</sup> Look, you are nothing
and your work is worthless.
Anyone who chooses you is detestable.

<sup>25</sup> “I have raised up one from the north, and he has come,
one from the east who invokes My name.
He will march over rulers as if they were mud,
like a potter who treads the clay.

<sup>26</sup> Who told about this from the beginning,
so that we might know,
and from times past,
so that we might say: He is right?
No one announced it,
no one told it,
no one heard your words.

<sup>27</sup> I was the first to say to •Zion: <sup>C</sup>

Look! Here they are!

And I gave a herald of good news to Jerusalem.

<sup>28</sup> When I look, there is no one;

there is no counselor among them;

when I ask them, they have nothing to say.

<sup>29</sup> Look, all of them are a delusion;

their works are nonexistent;

their images are wind and emptiness.

The Servant's Mission

42 †“This is My Servant; I strengthen Him, this is My Chosen One; I delight in Him.

I have put My Spirit on Him;
He will bring justice to the nations.

<sup>2</sup> He will not cry out or shout
or make His voice heard in the streets.

<sup>3</sup> He will not break a bruised reed,
and He will not put out a smoldering wick;
He will faithfully bring justice.

<sup>4</sup> He will not grow weak or be discouraged
until He has established justice on earth.
The islands will wait for His instruction.”

who created the heavens and stretched them out,
who spread out the earth and what comes from it,
who gives breath to the people on it and life <sup>A</sup> to those who walk on it —

<sup>6</sup> “I, Yahweh, have called You for a righteous purpose, <sup>B</sup>
and I will hold You by Your hand.
I will keep You and appoint You
to be a covenant for the people
and a light to the nations,

<sup>7</sup> in order to open blind eyes,
to bring out prisoners from the dungeon,
and those sitting in darkness from the prison house.

<sup>8</sup> I am Yahweh, that is My name;
I will not give My glory to another
or My praise to idols.

<sup>9</sup> The past events have indeed happened.
Now I declare new events;
I announce them to you before they occur.”

A Song of Praise

<sup>10</sup> Sing a new song to the LORD;
sing His praise from the ends of the earth,
you who go down to the sea with all that fills it,
you islands with your <sup>C</sup> inhabitants.

<sup>11</sup> Let the desert and its cities shout,
the settlements where Kedar dwells cry aloud.
Let the inhabitants of Sela sing for joy;
let them cry out from the mountaintops.

<sup>12</sup> Let them give glory to the LORD and declare His praise in the islands.

<sup>13</sup> The LORD advances like a warrior;
He stirs up His zeal like a soldier.
He shouts, He roars aloud,
He prevails over His enemies.

<sup>14</sup> “I have kept silent from ages past;
I have been quiet and restrained Myself.
But now, I will groan like a woman in labor,
gasping breathlessly.

<sup>15</sup> I will lay waste mountains and hills
and dry up all their vegetation.
I will turn rivers into islands
and dry up marshes.

<sup>16</sup> I will lead the blind by a way they did not know;
I will guide them on paths they have not known.
I will turn darkness to light in front of them
and rough places into level ground.
This is what I will do for them,
and I will not forsake them.

<sup>17</sup> They will be turned back and utterly ashamed —
those who trust in idols
and say to metal-plated images:
You are our gods!

Israel's Blindness and Deafness

<sup>18</sup> “Listen, you deaf!

Look, you blind, so that you may see.

<sup>19</sup> Who is blind but My servant,
or deaf like My messenger I am sending?

Who is blind like My dedicated one, <sup>D</sup>
or blind like the servant of the LORD?

Though his ears are open, he does not listen.”

<sup>21†</sup> The LORD was pleased, because of His righteousness, to magnify His instruction and make it glorious.

<sup>22</sup> But this is a people plundered and looted,
all of them trapped in holes
or imprisoned in dungeons.
They have become plunder
with no one to rescue them
and loot, with no one saying, “Give it back! ”

<sup>23</sup> Who among you will pay attention to this?
Let him listen and obey in the future.

and Israel to the plunderers?

Was it not the LORD?

Have we not sinned against Him?

They were not willing to walk in His ways,
and they would not listen to His instruction.

<sup>25</sup> So He poured out on Jacob His furious anger and the power of war.

It surrounded him with fire, but he did not know it;
it burned him, but he paid no attention. <sup>F</sup>

Restoration of Israel

43 Now this is what the LORD says —
the One who created you, Jacob,
and the One who formed you, Israel —
“Do not fear, for I have redeemed you;
I have called you by your name; you are Mine.

<sup>2</sup> I will be with you
when you pass through the waters,
and when you pass through the rivers,
they will not overwhelm you.
You will not be scorched
when you walk through the fire,
and the flame will not burn you.

<sup>3†</sup> For I •Yahweh your God,
the Holy One of Israel, and your Savior,
give Egypt as a ransom for you, •Cush and Seba in your place.

<sup>4</sup> Because you are precious in My sight
and honored, and I love you,
I will give people in exchange for you and nations instead of your life.

<sup>5</sup> Do not fear, for I am with you;
I will bring your descendants from the east,
and gather you from the west.

<sup>6</sup> I will say to the north: Give them up!
and to the south: Do not hold them back!
Bring My sons from far away,
and My daughters from the ends of the earth —

<sup>7</sup> everyone called by My name and created for My glory.
I have formed him; indeed, I have made him.”

<sup>8</sup> Bring out a people who are blind, yet have eyes, and are deaf, yet have ears.

<sup>9</sup> All the nations are gathered together,
and the peoples are assembled.
Who among them can declare this,

and tell us the former things?
Let them present their witnesses
to vindicate themselves,
so that people may hear and say, “It is true.”

<sup>10</sup> “You are My witnesses” —

“and My servant whom I have chosen,      this is the LORD’s declaration — so that you may know and believe Me and understand that I am He.

No god was formed before Me,
and there will be none after Me.

<sup>11†</sup> I, I am Yahweh,
and there is no other Savior but Me.

<sup>12</sup> I alone declared, saved, and proclaimed —
and not some foreign god <sup>A</sup> among you.

So you are My witnesses” —

“and <sup>B</sup> I am God.      this is the LORD’s declaration —

<sup>13</sup> Also, from today on I am He alone,
and none can deliver from My hand.
I act, and who can reverse it? ”

God’s Deliverance of Rebellious Israel

<sup>14†</sup> This is what the LORD, your Redeemer, the Holy One of Israel says:

Because of you, I will send to Babylon and bring all of them as fugitives, <sup>C</sup>
even the Chaldeans in the ships in which they rejoice. <sup>D</sup>

<sup>15</sup> I am Yahweh, your Holy One,
the Creator of Israel, your King.

<sup>16</sup> This is what the LORD says —
who makes a way in the sea,
and a path through surging waters,

<sup>17</sup> who brings out the chariot and horse,
the army and the mighty one together (they lie down, they do not rise again;

they are extinguished, quenched like a wick ) —

<sup>18</sup> “Do not remember the past events, pay no attention to things of old.

<sup>19</sup> Look, I am about to do something new;
even now it is coming. Do you not see it?
Indeed, I will make a way in the wilderness,
rivers in the desert.

<sup>20†</sup> The animals of the field will honor Me,
jackals and ostriches,
because I provide water in the wilderness,
and rivers in the desert,
to give drink to My chosen people.

<sup>21</sup> The people I formed for Myself will declare My praise.

<sup>22</sup> “But Jacob, you have not called on Me, because, Israel, you have become weary of Me.

<sup>23†</sup> You have not brought Me your sheep for •burnt offerings or honored Me with your sacrifices.
I have not burdened you with offerings
or wearied you with incense.

<sup>24</sup> You have not bought Me aromatic cane with silver, or satisfied Me with the fat of your sacrifices.
But you have burdened Me with your sins;
you have wearied Me with your iniquities.

<sup>25</sup> “It is I who sweep away your transgressions for My own sake
and remember your sins no more.

<sup>26</sup> Take Me to court; let us argue our case together.
State your case, so that you may be vindicated.

<sup>27</sup> Your first father sinned,
and your mediators have rebelled against Me.

<sup>28</sup> So I defiled the officers of the sanctuary, and •set Jacob apart for destruction and Israel for abuse.

Spiritual Blessing

44 “And now listen, Jacob My servant,
Israel whom I have chosen.

<sup>2</sup> This is the word of the LORD
your Maker who formed you from the womb;
He <sup>A</sup> will help you:
Do not fear; Jacob is My servant;
I have chosen Jeshurun.

<sup>3</sup> For I will pour water on the thirsty land and streams on the dry ground;
I will pour out My Spirit on your descendants
and My blessing on your offspring.

<sup>4</sup> They will sprout among the grass
like poplars by flowing streams.

<sup>5</sup> This one will say, ‘I am the LORD’s’;
another will call himself by the name of Jacob;
still another will write on his hand, ‘The LORD’s,’
and name himself by the name of Israel.”

No God Other Than Yahweh

<sup>6†</sup> This is what the LORD, the King of Israel and its Redeemer, the LORD of •Hosts, says:

I am the first and I am the last.
There is no God but Me.

<sup>7</sup> Who, like Me, can announce the future?
Let him say so and make a case before Me,
since I have established an ancient people.
Let these gods declare <sup>B</sup> the coming things,
and what will take place.

<sup>8</sup> Do not be startled or afraid.
Have I not told you and declared it long ago?
You are my witnesses!
Is there any God but Me?
There is no other Rock; I do not know any.

<sup>9†</sup> All who make idols are nothing,

and what they treasure does not profit.
Their witnesses do not see or know anything,
so they will be put to shame.

<sup>10</sup> Who makes a god or casts a metal image
for no profit?

<sup>11</sup> Look, all its worshipers will be put to shame,
and the craftsmen are humans.
They all will assemble and stand;
they all will be startled and put to shame.

<sup>12</sup> The ironworker labors over the coals, shapes the idol with hammers,
and works it with his strong arm.
Also he grows hungry and his strength fails;
he doesn't drink water and is faint.

<sup>13</sup> The woodworker stretches out a measuring line,
he outlines it with a stylus;
he shapes it with chisels
and outlines it with a compass.
He makes it according to a human likeness,
like a beautiful person,
to dwell in a temple.

<sup>14</sup> He cuts down <sup>C</sup> cedars for his use,
or he takes a cypress or an oak.
He lets it grow strong among the trees of the forest.
He plants a laurel, and the rain makes it grow.

<sup>15</sup> It serves as fuel for man.
He takes some of it and warms himself;
also he kindles a fire and bakes bread;
he even makes it into a god and worships it;
he makes an idol from it and bows down to it.

<sup>16</sup> He burns half of it in a fire,
and he roasts meat on that half.
He eats the roast and is satisfied.
He warms himself and says, "Ah!
I am warm, I see the blaze."

<sup>17</sup> He makes a god or his idol with the rest of it.
He bows down to it and worships;
He prays to it, “Save me, for you are my god.”

<sup>18</sup> Such people <sup>D</sup> do not comprehend and cannot understand,
for He has shut their eyes <sup>E</sup> so they cannot see,
and their minds so they cannot understand.

<sup>19</sup> No one reflects,
no one has the perception or insight to say,
“I burned half of it in the fire,
I also baked bread on its coals,
I roasted meat and ate.
I will make something detestable with the rest of it, and I will bow down to a block of wood.”

<sup>20</sup> He feeds on <sup>F</sup> ashes.
His deceived mind has led him astray,
and he cannot deliver himself,
or say, “Isn’t there a lie in my right hand? ”

<sup>21</sup> Remember these things, Jacob,
and Israel, for you are My servant;
I formed you, you are My servant;
Israel, you will never be forgotten by Me.

<sup>22</sup> I have swept away your transgressions like a cloud,
and your sins like a mist.
Return to Me,
for I have redeemed you.

<sup>23</sup> Rejoice, heavens, for the LORD has acted;
shout, depths of the earth.
Break out into singing, mountains,
forest, and every tree in it.
For the LORD has redeemed Jacob,
and glorifies Himself through Israel.

Restoration of Israel through Cyrus

<sup>24</sup> This is what •Yahweh, your Redeemer who formed you from the womb, says:

I am Yahweh, who made everything;
who stretched out the heavens by Myself;
who alone spread out the earth;
<sup>25</sup> who destroys the omens of the false prophets and makes fools of diviners;
who confounds the wise
and makes their knowledge foolishness;
<sup>26</sup> who confirms the message of His servant
and fulfills the counsel of His messengers;
who says to Jerusalem, “She will be inhabited,”
and to the cities of Judah, “They will be rebuilt,”
and I will restore her ruins;
<sup>27</sup> who says to the depths of the sea, “Be dry,”
and I will dry up your rivers;
<sup>28†</sup> who says to Cyrus, “My shepherd,
he will fulfill all My pleasure”
and says to Jerusalem, “She will be rebuilt,”
and of the temple, “Its foundation will be laid.”

45 †The LORD says this to Cyrus, His anointed, whose right hand I have grasped to subdue nations before him,

to disarm <sup>A</sup> kings,

to open the doors before him

and the gates will not be shut:

<sup>2</sup> “I will go before you and level the uneven places;

I will shatter the bronze doors and cut the iron bars in two.

<sup>3</sup> I will give you the treasures of darkness and riches from secret places,

so that you may know that I, •Yahweh,

the God of Israel call you by your name.

<sup>4</sup> I call you by your name,

because of Jacob My servant

and Israel My chosen one.

I give a name to you,

though you do not know Me.

<sup>5</sup> I am Yahweh, and there is no other;

there is no God but Me.

I will strengthen <sup>B</sup> you,

though you do not know Me,

<sup>6</sup> so that all may know from the rising of the sun to its setting that there is no one but Me.

I am Yahweh, and there is no other.

<sup>7†</sup> I form light and create darkness,

I make success and create disaster;

I, Yahweh, do all these things.

<sup>8</sup> “Heavens, sprinkle from above,

and let the skies shower righteousness.

Let the earth open up

so that salvation will sprout

and righteousness will spring up with it.

I, Yahweh, have created it.

<sup>9</sup> “Woe to the one who argues with his Maker —
one clay pot among many. <sup>C</sup>

Does clay say to the one forming it,

‘What are you making?’

Or does your work say,

‘He has no hands’? <sup>D</sup>

‘What are you fathering?’

or to his mother,

‘What are you giving birth to? ’ ”

<sup>11</sup> This is what the LORD,

the Holy One of Israel and its Maker, says:

“Ask Me what is to happen to <sup>E</sup> My sons,
and instruct Me about the work of My hands.

<sup>12</sup> I made the earth,

and created man on it.

It was My hands that stretched out the heavens,

and I commanded all their host.

<sup>13</sup> I have raised him up in righteousness,

and will level all roads for him.

He will rebuild My city,

and set My exiles free,

not for a price or a bribe,”

says the LORD of •Hosts.

God Alone is the Savior

<sup>14</sup> This is what the LORD says:

The products of Egypt and the merchandise of •Cush

and the Sabeans, men of stature,

will come over to you

and will be yours;

they will follow you,

they will come over in chains

and bow down to you.

They will confess <sup>F</sup> to you:
God is indeed with you, and there is no other;
there is no other God.

<sup>15†</sup> Yes, You are a God who hides Himself, God of Israel, Savior.

<sup>16</sup> All of them are put to shame, even humiliated;
the makers of idols go in humiliation together.

<sup>17</sup> Israel will be saved by the LORD
with an everlasting salvation;
you will not be put to shame or humiliated
for all eternity.

<sup>18</sup> For this is what the LORD says —
God is the Creator of the heavens.
He formed the earth and made it.
He established it;
He did not create it to be empty,
but formed it to be inhabited — “I am Yahweh,
and there is no other.

<sup>19</sup> I have not spoken in secret,
somewhere in a land of darkness.
I did not say to the descendants of Jacob:
Seek Me in a wasteland.
I, Yahweh, speak truthfully;
I say what is right.

<sup>20†</sup> “Come, gather together,
and draw near, you fugitives of the nations.
Those who carry their wooden idols,
and pray to a god who cannot save,
have no knowledge.

<sup>21</sup> Speak up and present your case <sup>G</sup> —
yes, let them take counsel together.

Who predicted this long ago?

Who announced it from ancient times?

Was it not I, Yahweh?

There is no other God but Me,

a righteous God and Savior;

there is no one except Me.

<sup>22</sup> Turn to Me and be saved,

all the ends of the earth.

For I am God,

and there is no other.

<sup>23</sup> By Myself I have sworn;

Truth has gone from My mouth,

a word that will not be revoked:

Every knee will bow to Me,

every tongue will swear allegiance.

<sup>24</sup> It will be said to Me: Righteousness and strength is only in the LORD.”

All who are enraged against Him

will come to Him and be put to shame.

<sup>25</sup> All the descendants of Israel

will be justified and find glory through the LORD.

There is No One Like God

46 †Bel crouches; Nebo cowers.
Their idols are consigned to beasts and cattle.

The images you carry are loaded,
as a burden for the weary animal.

<sup>2</sup> The gods cower; they crouch together;
they are not able to rescue the burden,
but they themselves go into captivity.

<sup>3</sup> “Listen to Me, house of Jacob,
all the remnant of the house of Israel,
who have been sustained from the womb,
carried along since birth.

<sup>4</sup> I will be the same until your old age,
and I will bear you up when you turn gray.
I have made you, and I will carry you;
I will bear and save you.

<sup>5</sup> “Who will you compare Me or make Me equal to?
Who will you measure Me with,
so that we should be like each other?

<sup>6</sup> Those who pour out their bags of gold and weigh out silver on scales —
they hire a goldsmith and he makes it into a god.
Then they kneel and bow down to it.

<sup>7</sup> They lift it to their shoulder and bear it along;
they set it in its place, and there it stands;
it does not budge from its place.
They cry out to it but it doesn’t answer;
it saves no one from his trouble.

<sup>8</sup> “Remember this and be brave; <sup>A</sup>
take it to heart, you transgressors!

<sup>9</sup> Remember what happened long ago,
for I am God, and there is no other;
I am God, and no one is like Me.

<sup>10</sup> I declare the end from the beginning,
and from long ago what is not yet done,

saying: My plan will take place,
and I will do all My will.

<sup>11</sup> I call a bird of prey from the east,
a man for My purpose from a far country.
Yes, I have spoken; so I will also bring it about.
I have planned it; I will also do it.

<sup>12</sup> Listen to me, you hardhearted,
far removed from justice:

<sup>13</sup> I am bringing My justice near;
it is not far away,
and My salvation will not delay.
I will put salvation in •Zion,
My splendor in Israel.

The Fall of Babylon

47 “Go down and sit in the dust,
Virgin Daughter Babylon.
Sit on the ground without a throne,
Daughter Chaldea!
For you will no longer be called pampered and spoiled.

<sup>2</sup> Take millstones and grind meal;
remove your veil,
strip off your skirt, bare your thigh,
wade through the streams.

<sup>3</sup> Your nakedness will be uncovered,
and your shame will be exposed.

I will take vengeance;

I will spare no one. <sup>A</sup>

<sup>4</sup> The Holy One of Israel is our Redeemer;

•Yahweh of •Hosts is His name.

<sup>5</sup> “Daughter Chaldea,
sit in silence and go into darkness.
For you will no longer be called mistress of kingdoms.

<sup>6†</sup> I was angry with My people;
I profaned My possession,
and I placed them under your control.
You showed them no mercy;
you made your yoke very heavy on the elderly.

<sup>7</sup> You said, ‘I will be the mistress forever.’
You did not take these things to heart
or think about their outcome.

<sup>8</sup> “So now hear this, lover of luxury,
who sits securely,
who says to herself,
‘I exist, and there is no one else.
I will never be a widow
or know the loss of children.’

<sup>9</sup> These two things will happen to you suddenly, in one day:
loss of children and widowhood.

They will happen to you in their entirety,
in spite of your many sorceries
and the potency of your spells.

<sup>10</sup> You were secure in your wickedness;
you said, 'No one sees me.'
Your wisdom and knowledge
led you astray.

You said to yourself,
'I exist, and there is no one else.'

<sup>11</sup> But disaster will happen to you;
you will not know how to avert it.
And it will fall on you,
but you will be unable to ward it off. <sup>B</sup> Devastation will happen to you suddenly and unexpectedly.

<sup>12</sup> So take your stand with your spells
and your many sorceries,
which you have wearied yourself with from your youth.
Perhaps you will be able to succeed;
perhaps you will inspire terror!

TWISTED SCRIPTURE

Isaiah 47:13-14

God has spoken in no uncertain terms against astrology (Dt 4:19; 18:9-12; Jr 8:1-2; 10:2; Dn 2:2-17). Astrology, in the form of either worshipping the stars or seeking guidance from them, is condemned as idolatry. Those who trust in the heavenly bodies are misguided. Isaiah declared that astrologers cannot save themselves or their clients. God's Word also warns that those who engage in such activities will not inherit the kingdom of God (1 Co 6:9-10; Gl 5:20-21; Rv 21:8).

<sup>13†</sup> You are worn out with your many consultations.

So let them stand and save you —
the astrologers, <sup>C</sup> who observe the stars, who predict monthly
what will happen to you.

<sup>14</sup> Look, they are like stubble;
fire burns them up.

They cannot deliver themselves
from the power <sup>D</sup> of the flame.
This is not a coal for warming themselves,
or a fire to sit beside!

<sup>15</sup> This is what they are to you —
those who have wearied you and have traded with you from your youth —
each wanders on his own way;
no one can save you.

Israel Must Leave Babylon

48 “Listen to this, house of Jacob — those who are called by the name Israel and have descended from <sup>A</sup> Judah, who swear by the name of •Yahweh
and declare the God of Israel,
but not in truth or righteousness.
<sup>2</sup> For they are named after the Holy City,
and lean on the God of Israel;
His name is Yahweh of •Hosts.
<sup>3</sup> I declared the past events long ago;
they came out of My mouth; I proclaimed them.
Suddenly I acted, and they occurred.
<sup>4</sup> Because I know that you are stubborn, and your neck is iron <sup>B</sup>
and your forehead bronze,
<sup>5</sup> therefore I declared to you long ago.
I announced it to you before it occurred,
so you could not claim, ‘My idol caused them;
my carved image and cast idol control them.’
<sup>6</sup> You have heard it. Observe it all.
Will you not acknowledge it?
From now on I will announce new things to you,
hidden things that you have not known.
<sup>7</sup> They have been created now, and not long ago;
you have not heard of them before today,
so you could not claim, ‘I already knew them!’
<sup>8†</sup> You have never heard; you have never known;
For a long time your ears have not been open.
For I knew that you were very treacherous,
and were known as a rebel from birth.
<sup>9</sup> I will delay My anger for the honor of My name, and I will restrain Myself for your benefit and for My praise,
so that you will not be destroyed.
<sup>10</sup> Look, I have refined you, but not as silver;
I have tested <sup>C</sup> you in the furnace of affliction.

<sup>11</sup> I will act for My own sake, indeed, My own,
for how can I be defiled?
I will not give My glory to another.

<sup>12</sup> “Listen to Me, Jacob,
and Israel, the one called by Me:
I am He; I am the first,
I am also the last.

<sup>13</sup> My own hand founded the earth,
and My right hand spread out the heavens;
when I summoned them,
they stood up together.

<sup>14</sup> All of you, assemble and listen!
Who among the idols <sup>D</sup> has declared these things?
The LORD loves him;
he will accomplish His will against Babylon,
and His arm will be against the Chaldeans.

<sup>15</sup> I — I have spoken;
yes, I have called him;
I have brought him,
and he will succeed in his mission.

<sup>16</sup> Approach Me and listen to this.
From the beginning I have not spoken in secret;
from the time anything existed, I was there.”
And now the Lord GOD
has sent me and His Spirit.

<sup>17</sup> This is what Yahweh, your Redeemer, the Holy One of Israel says:

I am the LORD your God,
who teaches you for your benefit,
who leads you in the way you should go.

<sup>18</sup> If only you had paid attention to My commands.
Then your peace would have been like a river,
and your righteousness like the waves of the sea.

<sup>19</sup> Your descendants would have been as countless as the sand, and the offspring of your body like its grains;

their name would not be cut off
or eliminated from My presence.

<sup>20</sup> Leave Babylon,
flee from the Chaldeans!
Declare with a shout of joy,
proclaim this,
let it go out to the end of the earth;
announce,
“The LORD has redeemed His servant Jacob! ”

<sup>21</sup> They did not thirst
when He led them through the deserts;
He made water flow for them from the rock;
He split the rock, and water gushed out.

<sup>22</sup> “There is no peace for the wicked,” says the LORD.

The Servant Brings Salvation

49 †Coastlands, <sup>A</sup> listen to me;
distant peoples, pay attention.
The LORD called me before I was born.
He named me while I was in my mother's womb.
<sup>2</sup> He made my words like a sharp sword;
He hid me in the shadow of His hand.
He made me like a sharpened arrow;
He hid me in His quiver.
<sup>3</sup> He said to me, "You are My Servant, Israel;
I will be glorified in him."
<sup>4</sup> But I myself said: I have labored in vain,
I have spent my strength for nothing and futility;
yet my vindication is with the LORD,
and my reward is with my God.
<sup>5</sup> And now, says the LORD,
who formed me from the womb to be His Servant,
to bring Jacob back to Him
so that Israel might be gathered to Him;
for I am honored in the sight of the LORD,
and my God is my strength — <sup>6</sup> He says,
"It is not enough for you to be My Servant
raising up the tribes of Jacob and restoring the protected ones of Israel.
I will also make you a light for the nations,
to be My salvation to the ends of the earth."
<sup>7</sup> This is what the LORD,
the Redeemer of Israel, his Holy One, says
to one who is despised,
to one abhorred by people, <sup>B</sup>,
to a servant of rulers:
"Kings will see and stand up,
and princes <sup>C</sup> will bow down,
because of the LORD, who is faithful,
the Holy One of Israel — and He has chosen you."

<sup>8</sup> This is what the LORD says:

I will answer you in a time of favor,
and I will help you in the day of salvation.

I will keep you, and I will appoint you
to be a covenant for the people,
to restore the land,
to make them possess the desolate inheritances,

<sup>9</sup> saying to the prisoners: Come out,
and to those who are in darkness: Show yourselves.
They will feed along the pathways,
and their pastures will be on all the barren heights.

<sup>10</sup> They will not hunger or thirst,
the scorching heat or sun will not strike them;
for their compassionate One will guide them,
and lead them to springs of water.

<sup>11</sup> I will make all My mountains into a road,
and My highways will be raised up.

<sup>12</sup> See, these will come from far away, from the north and from the west, <sup>D</sup>
and from the land of Sinim.

<sup>13</sup> Shout for joy, you heavens!
Earth, rejoice!
Mountains break into joyful shouts!
For the LORD has comforted His people,
and will have compassion on His afflicted ones.

Zion Remembered

<sup>14</sup> •Zion says, “The LORD has abandoned me;
The Lord has forgotten me! ”

<sup>15</sup> “Can a woman forget her nursing child,
or lack compassion for the child of her womb?
Even if these forget,
yet I will not forget you.

<sup>16</sup> Look, I have inscribed you on the palms of My hands;

your walls are continually before Me.

those who destroy and devastate you will leave you.

<sup>18</sup> Look up, and look around.
They all gather together; they come to you.
As I live” —

“you will wear all your children <sup>E</sup> as jewelry, and put them on as a bride does.

<sup>19†</sup> For your waste and desolate places and your land marked by ruins —
will now be indeed too small for the inhabitants,
and those who swallowed you up will be far away.

<sup>20</sup> Yet as you listen, the children
that you have been deprived of will say, ‘This place is too small for me;
make room for me so that I may settle.’

<sup>21</sup> Then you will say within yourself,
‘Who fathered these for me?
I was deprived of my children and unable to conceive,
exiled and wandering —
but who brought them up?
See, I was left by myself —
but these, where did they come from? ’ ” <sup>F</sup>

<sup>22</sup> This is what the Lord GOD says:

Look, I will lift up My hand to the nations,
and raise My banner to the peoples.
They will bring your sons in their arms,
and your daughters will be carried on their shoulders.

<sup>23</sup> Kings will be your foster fathers,
and their queens <sup>G</sup> your nursing mothers.
They will bow down to you
with their faces to the ground,
and lick the dust at your feet.

Then you will know that I am •Yahweh;
those who put their hope in Me
will not be put to shame.

<sup>24</sup> Can the prey be taken from the mighty,
or the captives of the righteous be delivered?

<sup>25</sup> For this is what the LORD says:

“Even the captives of a mighty man will be taken,
and the prey of a tyrant will be delivered;
I will contend with the one who contends with you,
and I will save your children.

<sup>26†</sup> I will make your oppressors eat their own flesh,
and they will be drunk with their own blood
as with sweet wine.

Then all flesh will know that I, Yahweh, am your Savior,
and your Redeemer, the Mighty One of Jacob.”

50 †This is what the LORD says:

Where is your mother's divorce certificate
that I used to send her away?

Or who were My creditors that I sold you to?

Look, you were sold for your iniquities,
and your mother was put away
because of your transgressions.

<sup>2</sup> Why was no one there when I came?

Why was there no one to answer when I called?

Is My hand too short to redeem?

Or do I have no power to deliver?

Look, I dry up the sea by My rebuke;
I turn the rivers into a wilderness;
their fish rot because of lack of water
and die of thirst.

<sup>3</sup> I dress the heavens in black and make •sackcloth their clothing.

The Obedient Servant

<sup>4†</sup> The Lord GOD has given Me
the tongue of those who are instructed to know how to sustain the weary with a word.
He awakens Me each morning;
He awakens My ear to listen like those being instructed.

<sup>5</sup> The Lord GOD has opened My ear,
and I was not rebellious;
I did not turn back.

<sup>6</sup> I gave My back to those who beat Me,
and My cheeks to those who tore out My beard.
I did not hide My face from scorn and spitting.

<sup>7</sup> The Lord GOD will help Me;
therefore I have not been humiliated;
therefore I have set My face like flint,
and I know I will not be put to shame.

<sup>8</sup> The One who vindicates Me is near;
who will contend with Me?

Let us confront each other. <sup>A</sup>

Who has a case against Me? <sup>B</sup>

Let him come near Me!

<sup>9</sup> In truth, the Lord GOD will help Me;
who will condemn Me?

Indeed, all of them will wear out like a garment;
a moth will devour them.

<sup>10</sup> Who among you •fears the LORD,
listening to the voice of His Servant?

Who among you walks in darkness,
and has no light?

Let him trust in the name of •Yahweh;
let him lean on his God.

<sup>11</sup> Look, all you who kindle a fire,
who encircle yourselves with firebrands;
walk in the light of your fire
and in the firebrands you have lit!
This is what you'll get from My hand:
you will lie down in a place of torment.

Salvation for Zion

51 Listen to Me, you who pursue righteousness, you who seek the LORD:

Look to the rock from which you were cut,
and to the quarry from which you were dug.

<sup>2</sup> Look to Abraham your father,
and to Sarah who gave birth to you in pain.
When I called him, he was only one;
I blessed him and made him many.

<sup>3†</sup> For the LORD will comfort •Zion;
He will comfort all her waste places,
and He will make her wilderness like Eden,
and her desert like the garden of the LORD.
Joy and gladness will be found in her,
thanksgiving and melodious song.

<sup>4</sup> Pay attention to Me, My people,
and listen to Me, My nation;
for instruction will come from Me,
and My justice for a light to the nations.
I will bring it about quickly.

<sup>5</sup> My righteousness is near,
My salvation appears,
and My arms will bring justice to the nations.
The coastlands <sup>A</sup> will put their hope in Me,
and they will look to My strength. <sup>B</sup>

<sup>6</sup> Look up to the heavens,
and look at the earth beneath;
for the heavens will vanish like smoke,
the earth will wear out like a garment,
and its inhabitants will die like gnats. <sup>C</sup>
But My salvation will last forever,
and My righteousness will never be shattered.

<sup>7</sup> Listen to Me, you who know righteousness,
the people in whose heart is My instruction:
do not fear disgrace by men,
and do not be shattered by their taunts.

<sup>8</sup> For the moth will devour them like a garment,
and the worm will eat them like wool.
But My righteousness will last forever,
and My salvation for all generations.

<sup>9†</sup> Wake up, wake up!
Put on the strength of the LORD's power.
Wake up as in days past,
as in generations of long ago.
Wasn't it You who hacked •Rahab to pieces,
who pierced the sea monster?

<sup>10</sup> Wasn't it You who dried up the sea,
the waters of the great deep,
who made the sea-bed into a road
for the redeemed to pass over?

<sup>11</sup> And the redeemed of the LORD will return
and come to Zion with singing,
crowned with unending joy.
Joy and gladness will overtake them,
and sorrow and sighing will flee.

<sup>12</sup> I — I am the One who comforts you.
Who are you that you should fear man who dies,
or a son of man who is given up like grass?

<sup>13</sup> But you have forgotten the LORD, your Maker,
who stretched out the heavens
and laid the foundations of the earth.
You are in constant dread all day long because of the fury of the oppressor,
who has set himself to destroy.
But where is the fury of the oppressor?

<sup>14</sup> The prisoner <sup>D</sup> is soon to be set free;
he will not die and go to the •Pit,
and his food will not be lacking.

<sup>15</sup> For I am •Yahweh your God who stirs up the sea so that its waves roar —
His name is Yahweh of •Hosts.

<sup>16</sup> I have put My words in your mouth,
and covered you in the shadow of My hand,
in order to plant the heavens,
to found the earth,
and to say to Zion, “You are My people.”

<sup>17</sup> Wake yourself, wake yourself up!
Stand up, Jerusalem,
you who have drunk the cup of His fury
from the hand of the LORD;
you who have drunk the goblet to the dregs —
the cup that causes people to stagger.

<sup>18</sup> There is no one to guide her among all the children she has raised;
there is no one to take hold of her hand
among all the offspring she has brought up.

<sup>19</sup> These two things have happened to you:
devastation and destruction,
famine and sword.

Who will grieve for you?
How can I comfort you?

<sup>20</sup> Your children have fainted;
they lie at the head of every street
like an antelope in a net.
They are full of the LORD’s fury,
the rebuke of your God.

<sup>21</sup> So listen to this, afflicted and drunken one — but not with wine.

<sup>22†</sup> This is what your Lord says —
Yahweh, even your God, who defends His people — “Look, I have removed the cup of staggering from your hand;
that goblet, the cup of My fury.
You will never drink it again.

<sup>23</sup> I will put it into the hands of your tormentors,

who said to you:

Lie down, so we can walk over you.

You made your back like the ground,
and like a street for those who walk on it.

52 “Wake up, wake up;
put on your strength, •Zion!
Put on your beautiful garments,
Jerusalem, the Holy City!
For the uncircumcised and the •unclean
will no longer enter you.

<sup>2</sup> Stand up, shake the dust off yourself!
Take your seat, Jerusalem.
Remove the bonds from your neck,
captive Daughter Zion.”

<sup>3†</sup> For this is what the LORD says:
“You were sold for nothing,
and you will be redeemed without silver.”

<sup>4</sup> For this is what the Lord GOD says:
“At first My people went down to Egypt to live there,
then Assyria oppressed them without cause. <sup>A</sup>

<sup>5</sup> So now what have I here” —
“that My people are taken away for nothing? — this is the LORD’s declaration — nothing?
Its rulers wail” —
“and My name is continually blasphemed this is the LORD’s declaration — all day long.

<sup>6</sup> Therefore My people will know My name;
therefore they will know on that day
that I am He who says:
Here I am.”

<sup>7</sup> How beautiful on the mountains
are the feet of the herald,
who proclaims peace,
who brings news of good things,
who proclaims salvation,
who says to Zion, “Your God reigns! ”

<sup>8</sup> The voices of your watchmen —
they lift up their voices,
shouting for joy together;

for every eye will see
when the LORD returns to Zion.

<sup>9</sup> Be joyful, rejoice together,
you ruins of Jerusalem!
For the LORD has comforted His people;
He has redeemed Jerusalem.

<sup>10</sup> The LORD has displayed His holy arm
in the sight of all the nations;
all the ends of the earth will see the salvation of our God.

<sup>11</sup> Leave, leave, go out from there!
Do not touch anything unclean;
go out from her, purify yourselves,
you who carry the vessels of the LORD.

<sup>12</sup> For you will not leave in a hurry,
and you will not have to take flight;
because the LORD is going before you,
and the God of Israel is your rear guard.

The Servant's Suffering and Exaltation

<sup>13†</sup> See, My Servant will act wisely; <sup>B</sup>
He will be raised and lifted up and greatly exalted.

<sup>14</sup> Just as many were appalled at You —
His appearance was so disfigured
that He did not look like a man, and His form did not resemble a human being —

<sup>15</sup> so He will sprinkle <sup>C</sup> many nations.
Kings will shut their mouths because of Him,
For they will see what had not been told them,
and they will understand what they had not heard.

53 Who has believed what we have heard? <sup>A</sup>
And who has the arm of the LORD been revealed to?

<sup>2</sup> He grew up before Him like a young plant
and like a root out of dry ground.

He didn't have an impressive form or majesty that we should look at Him,
no appearance that we should desire Him.

<sup>3†</sup> He was despised and rejected by men,
a man of suffering who knew what sickness was.
He was like someone people turned away from; <sup>B</sup>
He was despised, and we didn't value Him.

<sup>4</sup> Yet He Himself bore our sicknesses,
and He carried our pains;
but we in turn regarded Him stricken,
struck down by God, and afflicted.

<sup>5</sup> But He was pierced because of our transgressions, crushed because of our iniquities;
punishment for our peace was on Him,
and we are healed by His wounds.

<sup>6</sup> We all went astray like sheep;
we all have turned to our own way;
and the LORD has punished Him
for <sup>C</sup> the iniquity of us all.

<sup>7†</sup> He was oppressed and afflicted,
yet He did not open His mouth.
Like a lamb led to the slaughter
and like a sheep silent before her shearers,
He did not open His mouth.

<sup>8</sup> He was taken away because of oppression and judgment; and who considered His fate? <sup>D</sup>
For He was cut off from the land of the living;
He was struck because of my people's rebellion.

<sup>9†</sup> They made His grave with the wicked
and with a rich man at His death,

although He had done no violence
and had not spoken deceitfully.

<sup>10†</sup> Yet the LORD was pleased to crush Him severely. <sup>E</sup>,
When <sup>F</sup> You make Him a •restitution offering,
He will see His •seed, He will prolong His days,
and by His hand, the LORD's pleasure will be accomplished.

<sup>11</sup> He will see it out of His anguish,
and He will be satisfied with His knowledge.
My righteous Servant will justify many,
and He will carry their iniquities.

<sup>12</sup> Therefore I will give Him <sup>G</sup> the many as a portion,
and He will receive <sup>H</sup> the mighty as spoil,
because He submitted Himself to death,
and was counted among the rebels;
yet He bore the sin of many
and interceded for the rebels.

Future Glory for Israel

54 †“Rejoice, childless one, who did not give birth;
burst into song and shout,
you who have not been in labor!
For the children of the forsaken one will be more than the children of the married woman,”
says the LORD.

<sup>2</sup> “Enlarge the site of your tent,
and let your tent curtains be stretched out;
do not hold back;
lengthen your ropes,
and drive your pegs deep.

<sup>3</sup> For you will spread out to the right and to the left,
and your descendants will dispossess nations
and inhabit the desolate cities.

<sup>4</sup> “Do not be afraid, for you will not be put to shame;
don’t be humiliated, for you will not be disgraced.
For you will forget the shame of your youth,
and you will no longer remember
the disgrace of your widowhood.

<sup>5</sup> Indeed, your husband is your Maker —
His name is •Yahweh of •Hosts —
and the Holy One of Israel is your Redeemer;
He is called the God of all the earth.

<sup>6</sup> For the LORD has called you,
like a wife deserted and wounded in spirit,
a wife of one’s youth when she is rejected,”
says your God.

<sup>7</sup> “I deserted you for a brief moment,
but I will take you back with great compassion.

<sup>8</sup> In a surge of anger
I hid My face from you for a moment,
but I will have compassion on you
with everlasting love,”
says the LORD your Redeemer.

<sup>9</sup> “For this is like the days of Noah to Me:

when I swore that the waters of Noah
would never flood the earth again, so I have sworn that I will not be angry with you or rebuke you.

<sup>10</sup> Though the mountains move
and the hills shake,
My love will not be removed from you and My covenant of peace will not be shaken,” says your compassionate LORD.

<sup>11</sup> “Poor Jerusalem, storm-tossed, and not comforted,
I will set your stones in black mortar, <sup>A</sup>
and lay your foundations in sapphires. <sup>B</sup>,

<sup>12</sup> I will make your fortifications <sup>C</sup> out of rubies,
your gates out of sparkling stones,
and all your walls out of precious stones.

<sup>13</sup> Then all your children will be taught by the LORD,
their prosperity will be great,

<sup>14</sup> and you will be established on a foundation of righteousness.

You will be far from oppression,
you will certainly not be afraid;
you will be far from terror,
it will certainly not come near you.

<sup>15</sup> If anyone attacks you,
it is not from Me;
whoever attacks you
will fall before you.

<sup>16</sup> Look, I have created the craftsman who blows on the charcoal fire
and produces a weapon suitable for its task;
and I have created the destroyer to cause havoc.

<sup>17</sup> No weapon formed against you will succeed,
and you will refute any accusation <sup>D</sup>
raised against you in court.

This is the heritage of the LORD’s servants,

and their righteousness is from Me.”

This is the LORD’s declaration.

Come to the LORD

55 “Come, everyone who is thirsty,
come to the waters;
and you without money,
come, buy, and eat!
Come, buy wine and milk
without money and without cost!

<sup>2</sup> Why do you spend money on what is not food,
and your wages on what does not satisfy?
Listen carefully to Me, and eat what is good,
and you will enjoy the choicest of foods. <sup>A</sup>

<sup>3</sup> Pay attention and come to Me;
listen, so that you will live.
I will make an everlasting covenant with you,
the promises assured to David.

<sup>4</sup> Since I have made him a witness to the peoples,
a leader and commander for the peoples, <sup>5</sup> so you will summon a nation you do not know,
and nations who do not know you will run to you.
For the LORD your God,
even the Holy One of Israel,
has glorified you.”

<sup>6</sup> Seek the LORD while He may be found;
call to Him while He is near.

<sup>7</sup> Let the wicked one abandon his way
and the sinful one his thoughts;
let him return to the LORD,
so He may have compassion on him,
and to our God, for He will freely forgive.

<sup>8†</sup> “For My thoughts are not your thoughts, and your ways are not My ways.”

<sup>9</sup> “For as heaven is higher than earth,                      This is the LORD’s declaration.
so My ways are higher than your ways,
and My thoughts than your thoughts.

<sup>10</sup> For just as rain and snow fall from heaven
and do not return there without saturating the earth and making it germinate and sprout,

and providing seed to sow
and food to eat,

<sup>11</sup> so My word that comes from My mouth
will not return to Me empty,
but it will accomplish what I please and will prosper in what I send it to do.”

<sup>12</sup> You will indeed go out with joy and be peacefully guided;
the mountains and the hills will break into singing before you,
and all the trees of the field will clap their hands.

<sup>13</sup> Instead of the thornbush, a cypress will come up,
and instead of the brier, a myrtle will come up;
it will make a name for •Yahweh
as an everlasting sign that will not be destroyed.

A House of Prayer for All

56 This is what the LORD says:

Preserve justice and do what is right,
for My salvation is coming soon,
and My righteousness will be revealed.

<sup>2</sup> Happy is the man who does this,
anyone who maintains this,
who keeps the Sabbath without desecrating it,
and keeps his hand from doing any evil.

<sup>3†</sup> No foreigner who has joined himself to the LORD should say,

“The LORD will exclude me from His people”;
and the eunuch should not say,
“Look, I am a dried-up tree.”

<sup>4</sup> For the LORD says this:

“For the eunuchs who keep My Sabbaths,
and choose what pleases Me,
and hold firmly to My covenant,

<sup>5</sup> I will give them, in My house and within My walls, a memorial and a name
better than sons and daughters.

I will give each of them an everlasting name
that will never be cut off.

<sup>6</sup> And the foreigners who join themselves to the LORD minister to Him, love the name of •Yahweh
and become His servants,
all who keep the Sabbath without desecrating it and who hold firmly to My covenant —

<sup>7</sup> I will bring them to My holy mountain and let them rejoice in My house of prayer.

Their •burnt offerings and sacrifices
will be acceptable on My altar, for My house will be called a house of prayer for all nations.”

“I will gather to them still others” <sup>8</sup> This is the declaration of the Lord GOD, besides those already gathered.” who gathers the dispersed of Israel:

Unrighteous Leaders Condemned

<sup>9†</sup> All you animals of the field and forest, come and eat!

<sup>10</sup> Israel's <sup>A</sup> watchmen are blind, all of them,
they know nothing;
all of them are mute dogs,
they cannot bark;
they dream, lie down,
and love to sleep.

<sup>11</sup> These dogs have fierce appetites;
they never have enough.
And they are shepherds
who have no discernment;
all of them turn to their own way,
every last one for his own gain.

<sup>12</sup> "Come, let me get some wine,
let's guzzle some beer;
and tomorrow will be like today,
only far better! "

57 †The righteous one perishes,
and no one takes it to heart;
faithful men are swept away,
with no one realizing that the righteous one is swept away from the presence <sup>A</sup> of evil.

<sup>2</sup> He will enter into peace —
they will rest on their beds —
everyone who lives uprightly.

Pagan Religion Denounced

<sup>3</sup> But come here,
you sons of a sorceress,
offspring of an adulterer and a prostitute! <sup>B</sup>

<sup>4</sup> Who is it you are mocking?
Who is it you are opening your mouth
and sticking out your tongue at?
Isn't it you, you rebellious children,
you race of liars,

<sup>5</sup> who burn with lust among the oaks,
under every green tree,
who slaughter children in the •wadis
below the clefts of the rocks?

<sup>6</sup> Your portion is among the smooth stones of the wadi;
indeed, they are your lot.
You have even poured out a •drink offering to them;
you have offered a •grain offering;
should I be satisfied with these?

<sup>7</sup> You have placed your bed
on a high and lofty mountain;
you also went up there to offer sacrifice.

<sup>8</sup> You have set up your memorial behind the door and doorpost.
For away from Me, you stripped,
went up, and made your bed wide,

and you have made a bargain <sup>C</sup> for yourself with them.
You have loved their bed;

you have gazed on their genitals. <sup>D</sup>,

<sup>9</sup> You went to the king with oil
and multiplied your perfumes;
you sent your couriers far away
and sent them down even to •Sheol.

<sup>10</sup> You became weary on your many journeys,
but you did not say, “I give up! ”

You found a renewal of your strength; <sup>E</sup>
therefore you did not grow weak.

<sup>11</sup> Who was it you dreaded and feared,
so that you lied and didn’t remember Me
or take it to heart?

Have I not kept silent for such a long time
and you do not •fear Me?

<sup>12</sup> I will expose your righteousness,
and your works — they will not profit you.

<sup>13</sup> When you cry out,
let your collection of idols deliver you!
The wind will carry all of them off,
a breath will take them away.
But whoever takes refuge in Me
will inherit the land and possess My holy mountain.

Healing and Peace

<sup>14</sup> He said,
“Build it up, build it up, prepare the way,
remove every obstacle from My people’s way.”

<sup>15</sup> For the High and Exalted One who lives forever, whose name is Holy says this:
“I live in a high and holy place,
and with the oppressed and lowly of spirit,
to revive the spirit of the lowly

and revive the heart of the oppressed.

<sup>16</sup> For I will not accuse you forever,
and I will not always be angry;
for then the spirit would grow weak before Me,
even the breath of man, which I have made.

<sup>17†</sup> Because of his sinful greed I was angry, so I struck him; I was angry and hid; <sup>F</sup>
but he went on turning back to the desires of his heart.

<sup>18</sup> I have seen his ways, but I will heal him;
I will lead him and restore comfort
to him and his mourners,

<sup>19</sup> creating words of praise.” <sup>G</sup>

The LORD says,
“Peace, peace to the one who is far or near,
and I will heal him.

<sup>20</sup> But the wicked are like the storm-tossed sea,
for it cannot be still,
and its waters churn up mire and muck.

<sup>21</sup> There is no peace for the wicked,” says my God.

True Fasting

58 †“Cry out loudly, <sup>A</sup> don’t hold back!
Raise your voice like a trumpet.

Tell My people their transgression
and the house of Jacob their sins.

<sup>2</sup> They seek Me day after day
and delight to know My ways,
like a nation that does what is right and does not abandon the justice of their God.
They ask Me for righteous judgments;
they delight in the nearness of God.”

<sup>3</sup> “Why have we fasted, but You have not seen?
We have denied ourselves, but You haven’t noticed! ” “Look, you do as you please on the day of your fast,
and oppress all your workers.

<sup>4</sup> You fast with contention and strife
to strike viciously with your fist.
You cannot fast as you do today,
hoping to make your voice heard on high.

<sup>5</sup> Will the fast I choose be like this:
A day for a person to deny himself,
to bow his head like a reed,
and to spread out •sackcloth and ashes?
Will you call this a fast
and a day acceptable to the LORD?

<sup>6</sup> Isn’t the fast I choose:
To break the chains of wickedness,
to untie the ropes of the yoke,
to set the oppressed free,
and to tear off every yoke?

<sup>7</sup> Is it not to share your bread with the hungry,
to bring the poor and homeless into your house,
to clothe the naked when you see him,
and not to ignore <sup>B</sup> your own flesh and blood?

<sup>8</sup> Then your light will appear like the dawn,
and your recovery will come quickly.
Your righteousness will go before you,

and the LORD's glory will be your rear guard.

<sup>9</sup> At that time, when you call, the LORD will answer;
when you cry out, He will say, 'Here I am.'

If you get rid of the yoke among you, <sup>C</sup>
the finger-pointing and malicious speaking,

<sup>10</sup> and if you offer yourself to the hungry,
and satisfy the afflicted one,

then your light will shine in the darkness,
and your night will be like noonday.

<sup>11</sup> The LORD will always lead you, satisfy you in a parched land,
and strengthen your bones.

You will be like a watered garden
and like a spring whose waters never run dry.

<sup>12</sup> Some of you will rebuild the ancient ruins;
you will restore the foundations laid long ago; <sup>D</sup>
you will be called the repairer of broken walls,
the restorer of streets where people live.

from doing whatever you want on My holy day;
if you call the Sabbath a delight,
and the holy day of the LORD honorable;
if you honor it, not going your own ways,
seeking your own pleasure, or talking too much; <sup>F</sup>

<sup>14</sup> then you will delight yourself in the LORD, and I will make you ride over the heights of the land,
and let you enjoy the heritage of your father Jacob."

For the mouth of the LORD has spoken.

Sin and Redemption

59 †Indeed, the LORD's hand is not too short to save,
and His ear is not too deaf to hear.

<sup>2</sup> But your iniquities have built barriers between you and your God, and your sins have made Him hide His face from you
so that He does not listen.

<sup>3</sup> For your hands are defiled with blood and your fingers, with iniquity;
your lips have spoken lies,
and your tongues mutter injustice.

<sup>4</sup> No one makes claims justly;
no one pleads honestly.
They trust in empty and worthless words;
they conceive trouble and give birth to iniquity.

<sup>5</sup> They hatch viper's eggs
and weave spider's webs.
Whoever eats their eggs will die;
crack one open, and a viper is hatched.

<sup>6</sup> Their webs cannot become clothing,
and they cannot cover themselves with their works.
Their works are sinful works,
and violent acts are in their hands.

<sup>7</sup> Their feet run after evil,
and they rush to shed innocent blood.
Their thoughts are sinful thoughts;
ruin and wretchedness are in their paths.

<sup>8</sup> They have not known the path of peace,
and there is no justice in their ways.
They have made their roads crooked;
no one who walks on them will know peace.

<sup>9</sup> Therefore justice is far from us,
and righteousness does not reach us.
We hope for light, but there is darkness;
for brightness, but we live in the night.

<sup>10</sup> We grope along a wall like the blind;

we grope like those without eyes.
We stumble at noon as though it were twilight;
we are like the dead among those who are healthy.

<sup>11</sup> We all growl like bears and moan like doves.

We hope for justice, but there is none;
for salvation, but it is far from us.

<sup>12</sup> For our transgressions have multiplied before You,
and our sins testify against us.

For our transgressions are with us,
and we know our iniquities:

<sup>13</sup> transgression and deception against the LORD, turning away from following our God,
speaking oppression and revolt,
conceiving and uttering lying words from the heart.

<sup>14</sup> Justice is turned back,
and righteousness stands far off.
For truth has stumbled in the public square,
and honesty cannot enter.

<sup>15</sup> Truth is missing,
and whoever turns from evil is plundered.

The LORD saw that there was no justice,
and He was offended.

<sup>16†</sup> He saw that there was no man —
He was amazed that there was no one interceding;
so His own arm brought salvation,
and His own righteousness supported Him.

<sup>17</sup> He put on righteousness like a breastplate,
and a helmet of salvation on His head;
He put on garments of vengeance for clothing,
and He wrapped Himself in zeal as in a cloak.

<sup>18</sup> So He will repay according to their deeds:
fury to His enemies,
retribution to His foes,
and He will repay the coastlands.

<sup>19</sup> They will •fear the name of •Yahweh in the west and His glory in the east;
for He will come like a rushing stream driven by the wind of the LORD.

<sup>20</sup> “The Redeemer will come to •Zion, and to those in Jacob who turn from transgression.”

This is the LORD’s declaration.

<sup>21</sup> “As for Me, this is My covenant with them,” says the LORD: “My Spirit who is on you, and My words that I have put in your mouth, will not depart from your mouth, or from the mouth of your children, or from the mouth of your children’s children, from now on and forever,” says the LORD.

The LORD's Glory in Zion

60 † Arise, shine, for your light has come,
and the glory of the LORD shines over you.

<sup>2</sup> For look, darkness covers the earth,
and total darkness the peoples;
but the LORD will shine over you,
and His glory will appear over you.

<sup>3</sup> Nations will come to your light,
and kings to the brightness of your radiance.

<sup>4</sup> Raise your eyes and look around:
they all gather and come to you;
your sons will come from far away,
and your daughters will be carried on the hip.

<sup>5</sup> Then you will see and be radiant,
and your heart will tremble and rejoice, <sup>A</sup>
because the riches of the sea will become yours
and the wealth of the nations will come to you.

<sup>6</sup> Caravans of camels will cover your land <sup>B</sup> —
young camels of Midian and Ephah —
all of them will come from Sheba.
They will carry gold and frankincense
and proclaim the praises of the LORD.

<sup>7</sup> All the flocks of Kedar will be gathered to you;
the rams of Nebaioth will serve you and go up on My altar as an acceptable sacrifice.
I will glorify My beautiful house.

<sup>8</sup> Who are these who fly like a cloud,
like doves to their shelters?

<sup>9</sup> Yes, the islands will wait for Me
with the ships of Tarshish in the lead,
to bring your children from far away,
their silver and gold with them,
for the honor of the LORD your God,
the Holy One of Israel,
who has glorified you.

<sup>10</sup> Foreigners will build up your walls,

and their kings will serve you.
Although I struck you in My wrath,
yet I will show mercy to you with My favor.

<sup>11</sup> Your gates will always be open;
they will never be shut day or night
so that the wealth of the nations
may be brought into you,
with their kings being led in procession.

<sup>12</sup> For the nation and the kingdom
that will not serve you will perish;
those nations will be annihilated.

<sup>13</sup> The glory of Lebanon will come to you —
its pine, fir, and cypress together —
to beautify the place of My sanctuary,
and I will glorify My dwelling place. <sup>C</sup>

<sup>14†</sup> The sons of your oppressors
will come and bow down to you;
all who reviled you
will fall facedown at your feet.
They will call you the City of the LORD, •Zion of the Holy One of Israel.

<sup>15</sup> Instead of your being deserted and hated,
with no one passing through,
I will make you an object of eternal pride,
a joy from age to age.

<sup>16†</sup> You will nurse on the milk of nations,
and nurse at the breast of kings;
you will know that I, •Yahweh, am your Savior
and Redeemer, the Mighty One of Jacob.

<sup>17</sup> I will bring gold instead of bronze;
I will bring silver instead of iron,
bronze instead of wood,
and iron instead of stones.
I will appoint peace as your guard
and righteousness as your ruler.

<sup>18</sup> Violence will never again be heard of in your land;
devastation and destruction
will be gone from your borders.
But you will name your walls salvation
and your gates, praise.

<sup>19†</sup> The sun will no longer be your light by day, and the brightness of the moon will not shine on you;
but the LORD will be your everlasting light,
and your God will be your splendor.

<sup>20</sup> Your sun will no longer set,
and your moon will not fade;
for the LORD will be your everlasting light,
and the days of your sorrow will be over.

<sup>21</sup> Then all your people will be righteous;
they will possess the land forever;
they are the branch I planted,
the work of My hands,
so that I may be glorified.

<sup>22</sup> The least will become a thousand,
the smallest a mighty nation.

I am Yahweh;
I will accomplish it quickly in its time.

Messiah's Jubilee

61 †The Spirit of the Lord GOD is on Me, because the LORD has anointed Me
to bring good news to the poor.
He has sent Me to heal <sup>A</sup> the brokenhearted,
to proclaim liberty to the captives
and freedom to the prisoners;
<sup>2</sup> to proclaim the year of the LORD's favor,
and the day of our God's vengeance;
to comfort all who mourn,
<sup>3</sup> to provide for those who mourn in •Zion;
to give them a crown of beauty instead of ashes,
festive oil instead of mourning,
and splendid clothes instead of despair. <sup>B</sup>
And they will be called righteous trees, planted by the LORD
to glorify Him.

<sup>4</sup> They will rebuild the ancient ruins;
they will restore the former devastations;
they will renew the ruined cities,
the devastations of many generations.

<sup>5</sup> Strangers will stand and feed your flocks,
and foreigners will be your plowmen and vinedressers.

<sup>6</sup> But you will be called the LORD's priests;
they will speak of you as ministers of our God;
you will eat the wealth of the nations,
and you will boast in their riches.

<sup>7</sup> Because your shame was double,
and they cried out, "Disgrace is their portion,"
therefore, they will possess double in their land,
and eternal joy will be theirs.

<sup>8</sup> For I •Yahweh love justice;
I hate robbery and injustice;
I will faithfully reward them
and make an everlasting covenant with them.

<sup>9</sup> Their descendants will be known among the nations,

and their posterity among the peoples.
All who see them will recognize that they are a people the LORD has blessed.

<sup>10</sup> I greatly rejoice in the LORD,
I exult in my God;
for He has clothed me with the garments of salvation
and wrapped me in a robe of righteousness,
as a groom wears a turban
and as a bride adorns herself with her jewels.

<sup>11</sup> For as the earth produces its growth,
and as a garden enables what is sown to spring up,
so the Lord GOD will cause righteousness and praise
to spring up before all the nations.

Zion's Restoration

62 I will not keep silent because of •Zion,
and I will not keep still because of Jerusalem,
until her righteousness shines like a bright light
and her salvation, like a flaming torch.

<sup>2</sup> Nations will see your righteousness
and all kings, your glory.

You will be called by a new name
that the LORD's mouth will announce.

<sup>3</sup> You will be a glorious crown in the LORD's hand,
and a royal diadem in the palm of your God.

<sup>4</sup> You will no longer be called Deserted,
and your land will not be called Desolate;
instead, you will be called My Delight is in Her, <sup>A</sup> and your land Married; <sup>B</sup>,
for the LORD delights in you,
and your land will be married.

<sup>5</sup> For as a young man marries a young woman,
so your sons will marry you;
and as a groom rejoices <sup>C</sup> over his bride,
so your God will rejoice over you.

I have appointed watchmen on your walls;
they will never be silent, day or night.
There is no rest for you,
who remind the LORD.

<sup>7</sup> Do not give Him rest until He establishes and makes Jerusalem
the praise of the earth.

<sup>8</sup> The LORD has sworn with His right hand and His strong arm:
I will no longer give your grain
to your enemies for food,
and foreigners will not drink your new wine
you have labored for.

<sup>9</sup> For those who gather grain will eat it and praise the LORD,

and those who harvest the grapes will drink the wine
in My holy courts.

<sup>10</sup> Go out, go out through the gates;
prepare a way for the people!
Build it up, build up the highway;
clear away the stones!
Raise a banner for the peoples.

<sup>11</sup> Look, the LORD has proclaimed
to the ends of the earth,
“Say to Daughter Zion:
Look, your salvation is coming,
His reward is with Him,
and His gifts accompany Him.”

<sup>12</sup> And they will be called <sup>D</sup> the Holy People,
the LORD’s Redeemed;
and you will be called Cared For,
A City Not Deserted.

The LORD's Day of Vengeance

63 †Who is this coming from Edom
in crimson-stained garments from Bozrah —
this One who is splendid in His apparel, rising up proudly in His great might?

It is I, proclaiming vindication, <sup>A</sup> powerful to save.

<sup>2</sup> Why are Your clothes red,
and Your garments like one who treads a winepress?

<sup>3</sup> I trampled the winepress alone,
and no one from the nations was with Me.
I trampled them in My anger
and ground them underfoot in My fury;
their blood spattered My garments,
and all My clothes were stained.

and the year of My redemption <sup>C</sup> came.

<sup>5</sup> I looked, but there was no one to help,
and I was amazed that no one assisted;
so My arm accomplished victory for Me,
and My wrath assisted Me.

<sup>6</sup> I crushed nations in My anger;
I made them drunk with My wrath
and poured out their blood on the ground.

Remembrance of Grace

<sup>7</sup> I will make known the LORD's faithful love and the LORD's praiseworthy acts, because of all the LORD has done for us —
even the many good things
He has done for the house of Israel and has done for them based on His compassion and the abundance of His faithful love.

<sup>8</sup> He said, "They are indeed My people,
children who will not be disloyal,"

and He became their Savior.

<sup>9†</sup> In all their suffering, He suffered,
and the Angel of His Presence saved them.

He redeemed them
because of His love and compassion;
He lifted them up and carried them
all the days of the past.

<sup>10†</sup> But they rebelled
and grieved His Holy Spirit.
So He became their enemy
and fought against them.

<sup>11†</sup> Then He <sup>D</sup> remembered the days of the past,
the days of Moses and his people.

Where is He who brought them out of the sea
with the shepherds of His flock?

Where is He who put His Holy Spirit among the flock?

<sup>12</sup> He sent His glorious arm
to be at Moses' right hand, divided the waters before them
to obtain eternal fame for Himself,

<sup>13</sup> and led them through the depths
like a horse in the wilderness,
so that they did not stumble.

<sup>14</sup> Like cattle that go down into the valley,
the Spirit of the LORD gave them <sup>E</sup> rest.

You led Your people this way to make a glorious name for Yourself.

Israel's Prayer

<sup>15</sup> Look down from heaven and see from Your lofty home — holy and beautiful.
Where is Your zeal and Your might?

Your yearning <sup>F</sup> and Your compassion are withheld from me.

<sup>16</sup> Yet You are our Father,

even though Abraham does not know us
and Israel doesn't recognize us.

You, •Yahweh, are our Father;
from ancient times,

Your name is our Redeemer.

<sup>17†</sup> Why, Yahweh, do You make us stray from Your ways?

You harden our hearts so we do not •fear <sup>G</sup> You.

Return, because of Your servants,
the tribes of Your heritage.

<sup>18</sup> Your holy people had a possession <sup>H</sup>

for a little while,

but our enemies have trampled down

Your sanctuary.

<sup>19</sup> We have become like those You never ruled over,
like those not called by Your name.

Chapter 64 <sup>1</sup>If only You would tear the heavens open and come down,

so that mountains would quake at Your presence —

<sup>2</sup> as fire kindles the brushwood,
and fire causes water to boil —

to make Your name known to Your enemies,
so that nations will tremble at Your presence!

<sup>3</sup> When You did awesome works
that we did not expect,

You came down,
and the mountains quaked at Your presence.

<sup>4</sup> From ancient times no one has heard,
no one has listened,
no eye has seen any God except You,
who acts on behalf of the one who waits for Him.

<sup>5</sup> You welcome the one who joyfully does what is right;
they remember You in Your ways.

But we have sinned, and You were angry.

How can we be saved if we remain in our sins? <sup>A</sup>

<sup>6†</sup> All of us have become like something •unclean, and all our righteous acts are like a polluted <sup>B</sup> garment;
all of us wither like a leaf,
and our iniquities carry us away like the wind.

<sup>7</sup> No one calls on Your name,
striving to take hold of You.
For You have hidden Your face from us
and made us melt because of our iniquity.

<sup>8</sup> Yet LORD, You are our Father;
we are the clay, and You are our potter;
we all are the work of Your hands.

<sup>9</sup> LORD, do not be terribly angry
or remember our iniquity forever.
Please look — all of us are Your people!

<sup>10</sup> Your holy cities have become a wilderness;

•Zion has become a wilderness,
Jerusalem a desolation.

<sup>11</sup> Our holy and beautiful <sup>D</sup> temple, where our fathers praised You,
has been burned with fire,
and all that was dear to us lies in ruins.

<sup>12</sup> LORD, after all this, will You restrain Yourself?
Will You keep silent and afflict severely?

The LORD's Response

65 “I was sought by those who did not ask;
I was found by those who did not seek Me.

I said: Here I am, here I am,
to a nation that was not called by My name.

<sup>2</sup> I spread out My hands all day long to a rebellious people
who walk in the wrong path,
following their own thoughts.

<sup>3</sup> These people continually provoke Me to My face,
sacrificing in gardens,
burning incense on bricks,

<sup>4</sup> sitting among the graves,
spending nights in secret places,
eating the meat of pigs,
and putting polluted broth in their bowls.

<sup>5†</sup> They say, ‘Keep to yourself,
don’t come near me, for I am too holy for you!’
These practices are smoke in My nostrils,
a fire that burns all day long.

<sup>6</sup> It is written before Me:
I will not keep silent, but I will repay;
I will repay them fully <sup>A</sup>

<sup>7</sup> for your iniquities and the iniquities of your fathers together,”
says the LORD.

“Because they burned incense on the mountains and reproached Me on the hills,
I will reward them fully <sup>B</sup>
for their former deeds.”

<sup>8</sup> The LORD says this:

As the new wine is found in a bunch of grapes,
and one says, ‘Don’t destroy it,
for there’s some good <sup>C</sup> in it,’

so I will act because of My servants and not destroy them all.

<sup>9</sup> I will produce descendants from Jacob,
and heirs to My mountains from Judah;
My chosen ones will possess it,
and My servants will dwell there.

<sup>10</sup> Sharon will be a pasture for flocks,
and the Valley of Achor a place for cattle to lie down,
for My people who have sought Me.

<sup>11</sup> But you who abandon the LORD,
who forget My holy mountain, who prepare a table for Fortune
and fill bowls of mixed wine for Destiny,

<sup>12</sup> I will destine you for the sword,
and all of you will kneel down to be slaughtered,
because I called and you did not answer,
I spoke and you did not hear;
you did what was evil in My sight and chose what I did not delight in.

<sup>13</sup> Therefore, this is what the Lord GOD says:

My servants will eat,
but you will be hungry;
My servants will drink,
but you will be thirsty;
My servants will rejoice,
but you will be put to shame.

<sup>14</sup> My servants will shout for joy from a glad heart, but you will cry out from an anguished heart,
and you will lament out of a broken spirit.

<sup>15</sup> You will leave your name behind
as a curse for My chosen ones,
and the Lord GOD will kill you;
but He will give His servants another name.

<sup>16</sup> Whoever is blessed in the land

will be blessed by the God of truth,
and whoever swears in the land
will swear by the God of truth.
For the former troubles will be forgotten and hidden from My sight.

A New Creation

<sup>17†</sup> “For I will create a new heaven and a new earth;
the past events will not be remembered or come to mind.

<sup>18</sup> Then be glad and rejoice forever
in what I am creating;
for I will create Jerusalem to be a joy
and its people to be a delight.

<sup>19</sup> I will rejoice in Jerusalem and be glad in My people.
The sound of weeping and crying
will no longer be heard in her.

<sup>20</sup> In her, a nursing infant will no longer live only a few days, <sup>D</sup>
or an old man not live out his days.
Indeed, the youth will die at a hundred years,
and the one who misses a hundred years will be cursed.

<sup>21</sup> People will build houses and live in them;
they will plant vineyards and eat their fruit.

<sup>22</sup> They will not build and others live in them;
they will not plant and others eat.
For My people’s lives will be like the lifetime of a tree.
My chosen ones will fully enjoy
the work of their hands.

<sup>23</sup> They will not labor without success or bear children destined for disaster, for they will be a people blessed by the LORD
along with their descendants.

<sup>24</sup> Even before they call, I will answer;

while they are still speaking, I will hear.

<sup>25</sup> The wolf and the lamb will feed together, <sup>E</sup>

and the lion will eat straw like the ox,

but the serpent's food will be dust!

They will not do what is evil or destroy

on My entire holy mountain,"

says the LORD.

Final Judgment and Joyous Restoration

66 This is what the LORD says:

Heaven is My throne,
and earth is My footstool.

What house could you possibly build for Me?
And what place could be My home?

<sup>2</sup> My hand made all these things,
and so they all came into being.

I will look favorably on this kind of person: This is the LORD's declaration.
one who is humble, submissive <sup>A</sup> in spirit, and trembles at My word.

<sup>3</sup> One slaughters an ox, one kills a man;
one sacrifices a lamb, one breaks a dog's neck;
one offers a •grain offering, one offers pig's blood;
one offers incense, one praises an idol —
all these have chosen their ways
and delight in their detestable practices.

<sup>4</sup> So I will choose their punishment,
and I will bring on them what they dread
because I called and no one answered;
I spoke and they didn't hear;
they did what was evil in My sight and chose what I didn't delight in.

<sup>5</sup> You who tremble at His word,
hear the word of the LORD:
“Your brothers who hate and exclude you because of Me have said, ‘Let the LORD be glorified
so that we can see your joy!’
But they will be put to shame.”

<sup>6</sup> A sound of uproar from the city!
A voice from the temple —
the voice of the LORD,
paying back His enemies what they deserve!

<sup>7</sup> Before •Zion was in labor, she gave birth;

before she was in pain, she delivered a boy.

<sup>8</sup> Who has heard of such a thing?

Who has seen such things?

Can a land be born in one day

or a nation be delivered in an instant?

Yet as soon as Zion was in labor,

she gave birth to her sons.

<sup>9</sup> “Will I bring a baby to the point of birth and not deliver it? ”

says the LORD;

“or will I who deliver, close the womb? ”

says your God.

<sup>10</sup> Be glad for Jerusalem and rejoice over her,
all who love her.

Rejoice greatly with her,

all who mourn over her —

<sup>11</sup> so that you may nurse and be satisfied
from her comforting breast and drink deeply and delight yourselves
from her glorious breasts.

<sup>12</sup> For this is what the LORD says:

I will make peace flow to her like a river,
and the wealth <sup>B</sup> of nations like a flood;
you will nurse and be carried on her hip
and bounced on her lap.

<sup>13</sup> As a mother comforts her son,
so I will comfort you,
and you will be comforted in Jerusalem.

<sup>14</sup> You will see, you will rejoice,
and you <sup>C</sup> will flourish like grass;
then the LORD’s power will be revealed to His servants,
but He will show His wrath against His enemies.

<sup>15</sup> Look, the LORD will come with fire —

His chariots are like the whirlwind — to execute His anger with fury
and His rebuke with flames of fire.

<sup>16</sup> For the LORD will execute judgment on all flesh with His fiery sword,
and many will be slain by the LORD.

<sup>17</sup> “Those who dedicate and purify themselves to enter the groves following their leader, <sup>D</sup> eating meat from pigs, vermin, and rats, will perish together.”

This is the LORD’s declaration.

<sup>18</sup> “Knowing their works and their thoughts, I have come to gather all nations and languages; they will come and see My glory. <sup>19</sup> I will establish a sign among them, and I will send survivors from them to the nations — to Tarshish, Put, Lud (who are archers), Tubal, Javan, and the islands far away — who have not heard of My fame or seen My glory. And they will proclaim My glory among the nations. <sup>20</sup> They will bring all your brothers from all the nations as a gift to the LORD on horses and chariots, in litters, and on mules and camels, to My holy mountain Jerusalem,” says the LORD, “just as the Israelites bring an offering in a •clean vessel to the house of the LORD. <sup>21†</sup> I will also take some of them as priests and Levites,” says the LORD.

<sup>22</sup> “For just as the new heavens and the new earth, which I will make,
will endure before Me” —
“so your offspring and your name will endure. this is the LORD’s declaration — endure.

<sup>23</sup> All mankind will come to worship Me
from one New Moon to another and from one Sabbath to another,”
says the LORD.

<sup>24</sup> “As they leave, they will see the dead bodies of the men who have rebelled against Me; for their worm will never die, their fire will never go out, and they will be a horror to all mankind.”

JEREMIAH

1 †The words of Jeremiah, the son of Hilkiah, one of the priests living in Anathoth in the territory of Benjamin. 2 The word of the LORD came to him in the thirteenth year of the reign of Josiah son of Amon, king of Judah. 3 It also came throughout the days of Jehoiakim son of Josiah, king of Judah, until the fifth month of the eleventh year of Zedekiah son of Josiah, king of Judah, when the people of Jerusalem went into exile.

The Call of Jeremiah

4 The word of the LORD came to me:

5† I chose you before I formed you in the womb;
I set you apart before you were born.
I appointed you a prophet to the nations.

6 But I protested, “Oh no, Lord, GOD! Look, I don’t know how to speak since I am only a youth.”

7 Then the LORD said to me:

Do not say, “I am only a youth,”
for you will go to everyone I send you to and speak whatever I tell you.

8 Do not be afraid of anyone,
for I will be with you to deliver you.

This is the LORD’s declaration.

9 Then the LORD reached out His hand,
touched my mouth, and told me:

I have now filled your mouth with My words.

10 See, I have appointed you today over nations and kingdoms
to uproot and tear down,
to destroy and demolish,
to build and plant.

Two Visions

<sup>11</sup> Then the word of the LORD came to me, asking, “What do you see, Jeremiah? ”

I replied, “I see a branch of an almond tree.”

<sup>12</sup> The LORD said to me, “You have seen correctly, for I watch over My word to accomplish it.” <sup>13</sup> Again the word of the LORD came to me inquiring, “What do you see? ”

And I replied, “I see a boiling pot, its lip tilted from the north to the south.”

<sup>14</sup> Then the LORD said to me, “Disaster will be poured out from the north on all who live in the land. <sup>15</sup> Indeed, I am about to summon all the clans and kingdoms of the north.”

This is the LORD’s declaration.

They will come, and each king will set up his throne
at the entrance to Jerusalem’s gates.
They will attack all her surrounding walls and all the other cities of Judah.

<sup>16</sup> “I will pronounce My judgments against them for all the evil they did when they abandoned Me to burn incense to other gods and to worship the works of their own hands.

<sup>17</sup> “Now, get ready. Stand up and tell them everything that I command you. Do not be intimidated by them or I will cause you to cower before them. <sup>18</sup> Today, I am the One who has made you a fortified city, an iron pillar, and bronze walls against the whole land — against the kings of Judah, its officials, its priests, and the population. <sup>19</sup> They will fight against you but never prevail over you, since I am with you to rescue you.”

This is the LORD’s declaration.

Israel Accused of Apostasy

2 The word of the LORD came to me: <sup>2</sup> “Go and announce directly to Jerusalem that this is what the LORD says:

I remember the loyalty of your youth,
your love as a bride —
how you followed Me in the wilderness,
in a land not sown.

<sup>3</sup> Israel was holy to the LORD,
the •firstfruits of His harvest.
All who ate of it found themselves •guilty;
disaster came on them.”

This is the LORD’s declaration.

<sup>4</sup> Hear the word of the LORD, house
of Jacob
and all families of the house of Israel.

<sup>5</sup> This is what the LORD says:

What fault did your fathers find in Me that they went so far from Me,
followed worthless idols,
and became worthless themselves?

<sup>6</sup> They stopped asking, “Where is the LORD who brought us from the land of Egypt,
who led us through the wilderness,
through a land of deserts and ravines,
through a land of drought and darkness, <sup>A</sup>
a land no one traveled through and where no one lived? ”

<sup>7</sup> I brought you to a fertile land
to eat its fruit and bounty,
but after you entered, you defiled My land;
you made My inheritance detestable.

<sup>8</sup> The priests quit asking, “Where is the LORD? ”
The experts in the law no longer knew Me,
and the rulers rebelled against Me.
The prophets prophesied by •Baal
and followed useless idols.

<sup>9</sup> Therefore, I will bring a case against you again.
I will bring a case against your children's children. This is the LORD's declaration.

Send someone to Kedar and consider carefully;
see if there has ever been anything like this:

<sup>11†</sup> Has a nation ever exchanged its gods?
(But they were not gods! )
Yet My people have exchanged their Glory for useless idols.

<sup>12</sup> Be horrified at this, heavens;
be shocked and utterly appalled.

<sup>13</sup> For My people have committed a double evil: This is the LORD's declaration.

They have abandoned Me,
the fountain of living water,
and dug cisterns for themselves,
cracked cisterns that cannot hold water.

Consequences of Apostasy

<sup>14</sup> Is Israel a slave?
Was he born into slavery? <sup>C</sup>
Why else has he become a prey?

<sup>15</sup> The young lions have roared at him;
they have roared loudly.
They have laid waste his land.
His cities are in ruins, without inhabitants.

<sup>16</sup> The men of Memphis and Tahpanhes
have also broken your skull.

<sup>17</sup> Have you not brought this on yourself
by abandoning the LORD your God
while He was leading you along the way?

<sup>18</sup> Now what will you gain
by traveling along the way to Egypt

to drink the waters of the Nile? <sup>D</sup>

What will you gain
by traveling along the way to Assyria
to drink the waters of the Euphrates?

<sup>19</sup> Your own evil will discipline you;
your own apostasies will reprimand you.
Think it over and see how evil and bitter it is for you to abandon the LORD your God
and to have no •fear of Me.

<sup>20</sup> For long ago I broke <sup>of the Lord GOD of •Hosts.</sup>This is the declaration your yoke;

I tore off your chains.
You insisted, “I will not serve! ”
On every high hill
and under every green tree
you lie down like a prostitute.

<sup>21</sup> I planted you, a choice vine
from the very best seed.
How then could you turn into a degenerate, foreign vine?

<sup>22</sup> Even if you wash with lye
and use a great amount of soap,
the stain of your sin is still in front of Me.

<sup>23</sup> How can you protest, “I am not <sup>This is the Lord GOD’s declaration.</sup> defiled;

I have not followed the Baals”?
Look at your behavior in the valley;
acknowledge what you have done.

You are a swift young camel
twisting and turning on her way,

<sup>24</sup> a wild donkey at home <sup>E</sup> in the wilderness.

She sniffs the wind in the heat of her desire.

Who can control her passion?

All who look for her will not become tired;

they will find her in her mating season. <sup>F</sup>

<sup>25</sup> Keep your feet from going bare
and your throat from thirst.
But you say, “It’s hopeless;
I love strangers,
and I will continue to follow them.”

<sup>26</sup> Like the shame of a thief when he is caught, so the house of Israel has been put to shame.
They, their kings, their officials,
their priests, and their prophets

<sup>27</sup> say to a tree, “You are my father,”
and to a stone, “You gave birth to me.”
For they have turned their back to Me
and not their face,
yet in their time of disaster they beg,
“Rise up and save us! ”

<sup>28</sup> But where are your gods you made for yourself?
Let them rise up and save you
in your time of disaster if they can,
for your gods are as numerous as your cities, Judah.

Judgment Deserved

<sup>29</sup> Why do you bring a case against Me?
All of you have rebelled against Me.

<sup>30</sup> I have struck down your children in      This is the LORD’s declaration.
vain;
they would not accept discipline.
Your own sword has devoured your prophets like a ravaging lion.

<sup>31</sup> Evil generation,
pay attention to the word of the LORD!
Have I been a wilderness to Israel
or a land of dense darkness?
Why do My people claim,
“We will go where we want; <sup>G</sup>
we will no longer come to You”?

<sup>32</sup> Can a young woman forget her jewelry or a bride her wedding sash?
Yet My people have forgotten Me
for countless days.

<sup>33</sup> How skillfully you pursue love;
you also teach evil women your ways.

<sup>34</sup> Moreover, your skirts are stained with the blood of the innocent poor.
You did not catch them breaking and entering.
But in spite of all these things

<sup>35</sup> you claim, “I am innocent.
His anger is sure to turn away from me.”
But I will certainly judge you because you have said, “I have not sinned.”

<sup>36</sup> How unstable you are,
constantly changing your ways!
You will be put to shame by Egypt
just as you were put to shame by Assyria.

<sup>37</sup> Moreover, you will be led out from here with your hands on your head
since the LORD has rejected those you trust;
you will not succeed even with their help. <sup>H</sup>

Wages of Apostasy

3 † If a man divorces his wife and she leaves him to marry another,
can he ever return to her?

Wouldn't such a land become totally defiled?

But you!

You have played the prostitute with many partners —
can you return to Me?

2 Look to the barren heights and see. This is the LORD's declaration.

Where have you not been immoral?

You sat waiting for them beside the highways
like a nomad in the desert.

You have defiled the land
with your prostitution and wickedness.

3 This is why the showers haven't come —
why there has been no spring rain.

You have the brazen look of a prostitute <sup>A</sup>
and refuse to be ashamed.

4 Have you not lately called to Me, "My Father.
You were my friend in my youth.

5 Will He bear a grudge forever?
Will He be endlessly infuriated? "

This is what you have said,
but you have done the evil things
you are capable of.

Unfaithful Israel, Treacherous Judah

6 In the days of King Josiah the LORD asked me, "Have you seen what unfaithful Israel has done? She has ascended every high hill and gone under every green tree to prostitute herself there. <sup>7†</sup> I thought: After she has done all these things, she will return to Me. But she didn't return, and her treacherous sister Judah saw it. <sup>8</sup> I observed that it was because unfaithful Israel had committed adultery that I had sent her away and had given her a certificate of divorce. Nevertheless, her treacherous sister Judah was not afraid but also went and prostituted herself. <sup>9</sup> Indifferent to <sup>B</sup> her prostitution, she defiled the land and committed adultery with stones and trees. <sup>10</sup> Yet in spite of all this, her treacherous sister Judah didn't return to Me with all her heart — only in pretense.”

This is the LORD's declaration.

<sup>11</sup> The LORD announced to me, “Unfaithful Israel has shown herself more righteous than treacherous Judah. <sup>12</sup> Go, proclaim these words to the north, and say:

Return, unfaithful Israel.

I will not look on you with anger, <sup>C</sup>
for I am unfailing in My love.

This is the LORD's declaration.

I will not be angry forever.

This is the LORD's declaration.

<sup>13</sup> Only acknowledge your •guilt —
you have rebelled against the LORD your God.
You have scattered your favors to strangers
under every green tree
and have not obeyed My voice.

This is the LORD's declaration.

<sup>14</sup> “Return, you faithless children” — this is the LORD's declaration — “for I am your master, and I will take you, one from a city and two from a family, and I will bring you to •Zion. <sup>15</sup> I will give you shepherds who are loyal to Me, <sup>D</sup>, and they will shepherd you with knowledge and skill. <sup>16</sup> When you multiply and increase in the land, in those days” — the LORD's declaration — “no one will say any longer, ‘The ark of the LORD's covenant.’ It will never come to mind, and no one will remember or miss it. It will never again be made. <sup>17</sup> At that time Jerusalem will be called, •Yahweh's Throne, and all the nations will be gathered to it, to the name of Yahweh in Jerusalem. They will cease to follow the stubbornness of their evil hearts. <sup>18</sup> In those days the house of Judah will join with the house of Israel, and they will come together from the land of the north to the land I have given your ancestors to inherit.”

True Repentance

<sup>19†</sup> I thought: How I long to make you My sons and give you a desirable land,

the most beautiful inheritance of all the nations.
I thought: You will call Me, my Father,
and never turn away from Me.

<sup>20</sup> However, as a woman may betray her lover, <sup>E</sup>
so you have betrayed Me, house of Israel.

<sup>21</sup> A sound is heard on the barren heights, <sup>This is the LORD's declaration.</sup>
the children of Israel weeping and begging for mercy,
for they have perverted their way;
they have forgotten the LORD their God.

<sup>22</sup> Return, you faithless children.

I will heal your unfaithfulness.

“Here we are, coming to You,
for You are the LORD our God.

<sup>23</sup> Surely, falsehood comes from the hills, commotion from the mountains,
but the salvation of Israel
is only in the LORD our God.

<sup>24</sup> From the time of our youth
the shameful one has consumed what our fathers have worked for — their flocks and their herds,
their sons and their daughters.

<sup>25</sup> Let us lie down in our shame;
let our disgrace cover us.

We have sinned against the LORD our God,
both we and our fathers,
from the time of our youth even to this day.

We have not obeyed the voice of the LORD our God.”

Blessing or Curse

Your cities will be reduced to uninhabited ruins.

<sup>8</sup> Because of this, put on •sackcloth;
mourn and wail,
for the LORD's burning anger
has not turned away from us.

<sup>9</sup> "On that day" — this is the LORD's declaration — "the king and the officials will lose their courage. The priests will tremble in fear, and the prophets will be scared speechless."

<sup>10†</sup> I said, "Oh no, Lord GOD, You have certainly deceived this people and Jerusalem, by announcing, 'You will have peace,' while a sword is at <sup>C</sup> our throats."

<sup>11</sup> "At that time it will be said to this people and to Jerusalem, 'A searing wind blows from the barren heights in the wilderness on the way to My dear <sup>D</sup> people. It comes not to winnow or to sift; <sup>12</sup> a wind too strong for this comes at My call. <sup>E</sup> Now I will also pronounce judgments against them.' "

his chariots are like a storm.
His horses are swifter than eagles.
Woe to us, for we are ruined!

<sup>14</sup> Wash the evil from your heart, Jerusalem,
so that you will be delivered.
How long will you harbor malicious thoughts within you?

<sup>15</sup> For a voice announces from Dan, proclaiming malice from Mount Ephraim.

<sup>16</sup> Warn the nations: Look!
Proclaim to Jerusalem:
Those who besiege are coming from a distant land;
they raise their voices
against the cities of Judah.

<sup>17</sup> They have her surrounded like those who guard a field,
because she has rebelled against Me.

<sup>18</sup> Your way of life and your actions
have brought this on you.
This is your punishment. It is very bitter,
because it has reached your heart!

This is the LORD's declaration.

Jeremiah's Lament

<sup>19</sup> My anguish, my anguish! <sup>F</sup> I writhe in agony!
Oh, the pain in <sup>G</sup> my heart!
My heart pounds;
I cannot be silent.
For you, my soul,
have heard the sound of the ram's horn —
the shout of battle.

<sup>20</sup> Disaster after disaster is reported
because the whole land is destroyed.
Suddenly my tents are destroyed,
my tent curtains, in a moment.

<sup>21</sup> How long must I see the signal flag and hear the sound of the ram's horn?

<sup>22</sup> "For My people are fools;
they do not know Me.
They are foolish children,
without understanding.
They are skilled in doing what is evil,
but they do not know how to do what is good."

<sup>23</sup> I looked at the earth,
and it was formless and empty.
I looked to the heavens,
and their light was gone.

<sup>24</sup> I looked at the mountains,
and they were quaking;

all the hills shook.

<sup>25</sup> I looked, and no man was left;
all the birds of the sky had fled.

<sup>26</sup> I looked, and the fertile field was a wilderness.
All its cities were torn down
because of the LORD
and His burning anger.

<sup>27</sup> For this is what the LORD says:

The whole land will be a desolation,
but I will not finish it off.

<sup>28†</sup> Because of this, the earth will mourn;
the skies above will grow dark.
I have spoken; I have planned,
and I will not relent or turn back from it.

<sup>29</sup> Every city flees
at the sound of the horseman and the archer.
They enter the thickets
and climb among the rocks.
Every city is abandoned;
no inhabitant is left.

<sup>30</sup> And you, devastated one, what are you doing that you dress yourself in scarlet,
that you adorn yourself with gold jewelry,
that you enlarge your eyes with paint?
You beautify yourself for nothing.
Your lovers reject you;
they want to take your life.

<sup>31</sup> I hear a cry like a woman in labor,
a cry of anguish like one bearing her first child.
The cry of Daughter Zion gasping for breath,
stretching out her hands:
Woe is me, for my life is weary
because of the murderers!

The Depravity of Jerusalem

<sup>5</sup> Roam through the streets of Jerusalem.

Look and take note;
search in her squares.

If you find one person,
any who acts justly,
who seeks to be faithful,
then I will forgive her.

<sup>2</sup> When they say, “As the LORD lives,” they are swearing falsely.

<sup>3</sup> LORD, don’t Your eyes look for faithfulness?
You have struck them, but they felt no pain.
You finished them off,
but they refused to accept discipline.
They made their faces harder than rock,
and they refused to return.

<sup>4</sup> Then I thought:

They are just the poor;
they have played the fool.
For they don’t understand the way of the LORD,
the justice of their God.

<sup>5</sup> I will go to the powerful and speak to them.
Surely they know the way of the LORD,
the justice of their God.
However, these also had broken the yoke
and torn off the chains.

<sup>6</sup> Therefore, a lion from the forest will strike them down.
A wolf from an arid plain will ravage them.
A leopard keeps watch over their cities.
Anyone who leaves them will be torn to pieces
because their rebellious acts are many,
their unfaithful deeds numerous.

<sup>7</sup> Why should I forgive you?
Your children have abandoned Me and sworn by those who are not gods.

I satisfied their needs, yet they committed adultery;

they gashed themselves at the <sup>A</sup> prostitute's house.

each neighing after someone else's wife.

<sup>9</sup> Should I not punish them for these things?

Should I not avenge Myself
on such a nation as this?

This is the LORD's declaration.

<sup>10</sup> Go up among her vineyard terraces and destroy them,
but do not finish them off.

Prune away her shoots,
for they do not belong to the LORD.

<sup>11</sup> They, the house of Israel and the house of Judah, have dealt very treacherously with Me.

<sup>12</sup> They have contradicted the LORD and insisted, "It won't happen. <sup>D</sup>

Harm won't come to us;
we won't see sword or famine."

<sup>13</sup> The prophets become only wind,
for the LORD's word is not in them.

This will in fact happen to them.

This is the LORD's declaration.

Coming Judgment

<sup>14</sup> Therefore, this is what the Lord GOD of •Hosts says:

Because you have spoken this word,
I am going to make My words
become fire in your mouth.

These people are the wood,
and the fire will consume them.

<sup>15</sup> I am about to bring a nation
from far away against you, house of Israel.

It is an established nation,
an ancient nation,

This is the LORD's declaration.

Your sins have withheld My bounty from you,

<sup>26</sup> for wicked men live among My people.

They watch like fowlers lying in wait. <sup>F</sup>

They set a trap;

they catch men.

<sup>27</sup> Like a cage full of birds,

so their houses are full of deceit.

Therefore they have grown powerful and rich.

<sup>28</sup> They have become fat and sleek.

They have also excelled in evil matters.

They have not taken up cases,

such as the case of the fatherless, so they might prosper,

and they have not defended the rights of the needy.

<sup>29</sup> Should I not punish them for these things?

Should I not avenge Myself

This is the LORD's declaration.

on such a nation as this?

<sup>30†</sup> A horrible, terrible thing

has taken place in the land.

<sup>31</sup> The prophets prophesy falsely,

and the priests rule by their own authority.

My people love it like this.

But what will you do at the end of it?

Threatened Siege of Jerusalem

6 “Run for cover, Benjaminites, out of Jerusalem!

Sound the ram’s horn in Tekoa;
raise a smoke signal over Beth-haccherem,
for disaster threatens from the north,
even great destruction.

<sup>2</sup> Though she is beautiful and delicate,
I will destroy <sup>A</sup> Daughter •Zion.

<sup>3</sup> Shepherds and their flocks will come against her;
they will pitch their tents all around her.
Each will pasture his own portion.

<sup>4</sup> Set them apart for war against her;
rise up, let’s attack at noon.
Woe to us, for the day is passing;
the evening shadows grow long.

Let us destroy her fortresses.”

<sup>6†</sup> For this is what the LORD of •Hosts says:

Cut down the trees;
raise a siege ramp against Jerusalem.
This city must be punished.
There is nothing but oppression within her.

<sup>7</sup> As a well gushes out its water,
so she pours out her evil. <sup>B</sup>
Violence and destruction resound in her.
Sickness and wounds keep coming to My attention.

<sup>8</sup> Be warned, Jerusalem,
or I will turn away from you;
I will make you a desolation,
a land without inhabitants.

Wrath on Israel

<sup>9</sup> This is what the LORD of Hosts says:

Glean the remnant of Israel
as thoroughly as a vine.
Pass your hand once more like a grape gatherer
over the branches.

<sup>10</sup> Who can I speak to and give such a warning <sup>C</sup> that they will listen?

Look, their ear is uncircumcised,
so they cannot pay attention.

See, the word of the LORD has become contemptible to them —
they find no pleasure in it.

I am tired of holding it back.

Pour it out on the children in the street,
on the gang of young men as well.
For both husband and wife will be captured,
the old with the very old. <sup>D</sup>

<sup>12</sup> Their houses will be turned over to others,
their fields and wives as well,
for I will stretch out My hand
against the inhabitants of the land.

This is the LORD's declaration.

<sup>13</sup> For from the least to the greatest of them,
everyone is making profit dishonestly.
From prophet to priest,
everyone deals falsely.

<sup>14</sup> They have treated My people's brokenness superficially, claiming, "Peace, peace,"
when there is no peace.

<sup>15</sup> Were they ashamed when they acted so abhorrently?
They weren't at all ashamed.
They can no longer feel humiliation.
Therefore, they will fall among the fallen.
When I punish them, they will collapse,
says the LORD.

Disaster because of Disobedience

<sup>16</sup> This is what the LORD says:

Stand by the roadways and look.
Ask about the ancient paths:
Which is the way to what is good?
Then take it
and find rest for yourselves.
But they protested, “We won’t!”

<sup>17</sup> I appointed watchmen over you and said: Listen for the sound of the ram’s horn.
But they protested, “We won’t listen!”

<sup>18</sup> Therefore listen, you nations
and you witnesses,
learn what the charge is against them.

<sup>19</sup> Listen, earth!
I am about to bring disaster on these people,
the fruit of their own plotting,
for they have paid no attention to My word.
They have rejected My instruction.

<sup>20†</sup> What use to Me is frankincense from Sheba
or sweet cane from a distant land?
Your •burnt offerings are not acceptable;
your sacrifices do not please Me.

<sup>21†</sup> Therefore, this is what the LORD says:
I am going to place stumbling blocks before these people;
fathers and sons together will stumble over them;
friends and neighbors will also perish.

A Cruel Nation from the North

<sup>22</sup> This is what the LORD says:

Look, an army is coming from a northern land;
a great nation will be awakened

from the remote regions of the earth.

<sup>23</sup> They grasp bow and javelin.
They are cruel and show no mercy.
Their voice roars like the sea,
and they ride on horses,
lined up like men in battle formation
against you, Daughter Zion.

<sup>24</sup> We have heard about it, and we are discouraged. <sup>E</sup>

Distress has seized us —
pain like a woman in labor.

<sup>25</sup> Don't go out to the fields;
don't walk on the road.
For the enemy has a sword;
terror is on every side.

<sup>26</sup> My dear <sup>F</sup> people, dress yourselves in •sackcloth and roll in the dust.
Mourn as you would for an only son,
a bitter lament,
for suddenly the destroyer will come on us.

Jeremiah Appointed as an Examiner

<sup>27</sup> I have appointed you to be an assayer among My people —
a refiner —
so you may know and assay their way of life.

<sup>28</sup> All are stubborn rebels spreading slander.
They are bronze and iron;
all of them are corrupt.

<sup>29</sup> The bellows blow,
blasting the lead with fire.
The refining is completely in vain;
the evil ones are not separated out.

<sup>30</sup> They are called rejected silver,

for the LORD has rejected them.

False Trust in the Temple

7 † This is the word that came to Jeremiah from the LORD: <sup>2</sup> “Stand in the gate of the house of the LORD and there call out this word: Hear the word of the LORD, all you people of Judah who enter through these gates to worship the LORD.

<sup>3</sup> “This is what the LORD of •Hosts, the God of Israel, says: Correct your ways and your deeds, and I will allow you to live in this place. <sup>4</sup> Do not trust deceitful words, chanting: This is the temple of the LORD, the temple of the LORD, the temple of the LORD. <sup>5</sup> Instead, if you really change your ways and your actions, if you act justly toward one another, <sup>A</sup> <sup>6</sup> if you no longer oppress the foreigner, the fatherless, and the widow and no longer shed innocent blood in this place or follow other gods, bringing harm on yourselves, <sup>7</sup> I will allow you to live in this place, the land I gave to your ancestors long ago and forever. <sup>8</sup> But look, you keep trusting in deceitful words that cannot help.

<sup>9</sup> “Do you steal, murder, commit adultery, swear falsely, burn incense to •Baal, and follow other gods that you have not known? <sup>10</sup> Then do you come and stand before Me in this house called by My name and say, ‘We are delivered, so we can continue doing all these detestable acts’? <sup>11</sup> Has this house, which is called by My name, become a den of robbers in your view? Yes, I too have seen it.”

This is the LORD’s declaration.

Shiloh As a Warning

<sup>12</sup> “But return to My place that was at Shiloh, where I made My name dwell at first. See what I did to it because of the evil of My people Israel. <sup>13</sup> Now, because you have done all these things” — this is the LORD’s declaration — “and because I have spoken to you time and time again <sup>B</sup> but you wouldn’t listen, and I have called to you, but you wouldn’t answer, <sup>14</sup> what I did to Shiloh I will do to the house that is called by My name — the house in which you trust — the place that I gave you and your ancestors. <sup>15</sup> I will drive you from My presence, just as I drove out all of your brothers, all the descendants of Ephraim.

Do Not Pray for Judah

<sup>16†</sup> “As for you, do not pray for these people. Do not offer a cry or a prayer on their behalf, and do not beg Me, for I will not listen to you.
<sup>17</sup> Don’t you see how they behave in the cities of Judah and in the streets of Jerusalem? <sup>18</sup> The sons gather wood, the fathers light the fire, and the women knead dough to make cakes for the queen of heaven, and they pour out •drink offerings to other gods so that they provoke Me to anger. <sup>19</sup> But are they really provoking Me? ” This is the LORD’s declaration. “Isn’t it they themselves being provoked to disgrace? ”

<sup>20</sup> Therefore, this is what the Lord GOD says: “Look, My anger — My burning wrath — is about to be poured out on this place, on man and beast, on the tree of the field, and on the produce of the land. My wrath will burn and not be quenched.”

Obedience Over Sacrifice

<sup>21†</sup> This is what the LORD of Hosts, the God of Israel, says: “Add your •burnt offerings to your other sacrifices, and eat the meat yourselves, <sup>22</sup> for when I brought your ancestors out of the land of Egypt, I did not speak with them or command them concerning burnt offering and sacrifice.
<sup>23</sup> However, I did give them this command: Obey Me, and then I will be your God, and you will be My people. You must follow every way I command you so that it may go well with you. <sup>24</sup> Yet they didn’t listen or pay attention but followed their own advice and according to their own stubborn, evil heart. They went backward and not forward. <sup>25</sup> Since the day your ancestors came out of the land of Egypt until this day, I have sent all My servants the prophets to you time and time again. <sup>C</sup> <sup>26</sup> However, they wouldn’t listen to Me or pay attention but became obstinate; <sup>D</sup> they did more evil than their ancestors.

A Lament for Disobedient Judah

<sup>27</sup> “When you speak all these things to them, they will not listen to you. When you call to them, they will not answer you. <sup>28</sup> You must therefore declare to them: This is the nation that would not listen to the voice of the LORD their God and would not accept discipline. Truth <sup>E</sup> has perished — it has disappeared from their mouths. <sup>29</sup> Cut off the hair of your sacred vow <sup>F</sup> and throw it away. Raise up a dirge on the barren heights, for the LORD has rejected and abandoned the generation under His wrath.

<sup>30</sup> “For the Judeans have done what is evil in My sight.” This is the LORD’s declaration. “They have set up their detestable things in the house that is called by My name and defiled it. <sup>31</sup> They have built the •high places of •Topheth <sup>G</sup>, in the Valley of Hinnom in order to burn their sons and daughters in the fire, a thing I did not command; I never entertained the thought. <sup>H</sup>

<sup>32</sup> “Therefore, take note! Days are coming” — the LORD’s declaration — “when this place will no longer be called Topheth and the Valley of Hinnom, but the Valley of Slaughter. Topheth will become a cemetery, <sup>I</sup> because there will be no other burial place. <sup>33</sup> The corpses of these people will become food for the birds of the sky and for the wild animals of the land, with no one to scare them away. <sup>34</sup> I will remove from the cities of Judah and the streets of Jerusalem the sound of joy and gladness and the voices of the groom and the bride, for the land will become a desolate waste.

Death over Life

8 “At that time” — this is the LORD’s declaration — “the bones of the kings of Judah, the bones of her officials, the bones of the priests, the bones of the prophets, and the bones of the residents of Jerusalem will be brought out of their graves. <sup>2</sup> They will be exposed to the sun, the moon, and the whole heavenly •host, which they have loved, served, followed, consulted, and worshiped. Their bones will not be collected and buried but will become like manure on the surface of the soil. <sup>3</sup> Death will be chosen over life by all the survivors of this evil family, those who remain wherever I have banished them.” This is the declaration of the LORD of Hosts.

<sup>4</sup> “You are to say to them: This is what the LORD says:

Do people fall and not get up again?

If they turn away, do they not return?

<sup>5</sup> Why have these people turned away?

Why is Jerusalem always turning away?

They take hold of deceit;

they refuse to return.

<sup>6</sup> I have paid careful attention.

They do not speak what is right.

No one regrets his evil,

asking, ‘What have I done?’

Everyone has stayed his course

like a horse rushing into battle.

<sup>7</sup> Even the stork in the sky

knows her seasons.

The turtledove, swallow, and crane <sup>A</sup>

are aware of their migration,

but My people do not know

the requirements of the LORD.

Punishment for Judah’s Leaders

<sup>8</sup> “How can you claim, ‘We are wise;

the law of the LORD is with us’?

In fact, the lying pen of scribes

has produced falsehood.

<sup>9</sup> The wise will be put to shame;
they will be dismayed and snared.
They have rejected the word of the LORD,
so what wisdom do they really have?

<sup>10</sup> Therefore, I will give their wives to other men,
their fields to new occupants,
for from the least to the greatest,
everyone is making profit dishonestly.
From prophet to priest,
everyone deals falsely.

<sup>11</sup> They have treated superficially the brokenness of My dear <sup>B</sup> people,
claiming, 'Peace, peace,'
when there is no peace.

<sup>12</sup> Were they ashamed when they acted so abhorrently?
They weren't at all ashamed.
They can no longer feel humiliation.
Therefore, they will fall among the fallen.
When I punish them, they will collapse,"
says the LORD.

<sup>13</sup> I will gather them and bring them to an end. <sup>C</sup>
There will be no grapes on the vine,            This is the LORD's declaration.
no figs on the fig tree,
and even the leaf will wither.
Whatever I have given them will be lost to them.

God's People Unrepentant

<sup>14</sup> Why are we just sitting here?
Gather together; let us enter the fortified cities and perish there, <sup>D</sup>
for the LORD our God has destroyed <sup>E</sup> us.
He has given us poisoned water to drink,
because we have sinned against the LORD.

<sup>15</sup> We hoped for peace, but there was nothing good;
for a time of healing, but there was only terror.

<sup>16</sup> From Dan the snorting of horses
is heard.

At the sound of the neighing of mighty steeds,
the whole land quakes.

They come to devour the land and everything in it,
the city and all its residents.

<sup>17</sup> Indeed, I am about to send snakes among you, poisonous vipers that cannot be charmed.
They will bite you.

This is the LORD's declaration.

Lament over Judah

<sup>18</sup> My joy has flown away;
grief has settled on me.
My heart is sick.

<sup>19</sup> Listen — the cry of my dear <sup>F</sup> people from a far away land, “Is the LORD no longer in •Zion,
her King not within her?”

Why have they provoked me to anger
with their carved images,
with their worthless foreign idols?

<sup>20</sup> Harvest has passed, summer has ended,
but we have not been saved.

<sup>21</sup> I am broken by the brokenness
of my dear <sup>G</sup> people.

I mourn; horror has taken hold of me.

<sup>22</sup> Is there no balm in Gilead?

Is there no physician there?

So why has the healing of my dear <sup>H</sup> people not come about?

Chapter 9 <sup>1</sup>If my head were a spring of water, my eyes a fountain of tears,

I would weep day and night
over the slain of my dear <sup>A</sup> people.

<sup>2</sup>If only I had a traveler's lodging place
in the wilderness,
I would abandon my people
and depart from them,
for they are all adulterers,
a solemn assembly of treacherous people.

<sup>3</sup> They bent their tongues like their bows;
lies and not faithfulness prevail in the land,
for they proceed from one evil to another,
and they do not take Me into account.

This is the LORD's declaration.

Imminent Ruin and Exile

<sup>4</sup> Everyone has to be on guard against his friend.
Don't trust any brother,
for every brother will certainly deceive,
and every friend spread slander.

<sup>5</sup> Each one betrays his friend;
no one tells the truth.
They have taught their tongues to speak lies;
they wear themselves out doing wrong.

<sup>6</sup> You live in a world of deception.
In their deception they refuse to know Me.

This is the LORD's declaration.

<sup>7</sup> Therefore, this is what the LORD of •Hosts says:

I am about to refine them and test them,
for what else can I do
because of My dear <sup>B</sup> people?

<sup>8</sup> Their tongues are deadly arrows —

they speak deception.

With his mouth

a man speaks peaceably with his friend,

but inwardly he sets up an ambush.

<sup>9</sup> Should I not punish them for these things?

Should I not avenge Myself

This is the LORD's declaration.

on such a nation as this?

<sup>10</sup> I will raise weeping and a lament

over the mountains,

a dirge over the wilderness grazing land,

for they have been so scorched

that no one passes through.

The sound of cattle is no longer heard.

From the birds of the sky to the animals,

everything has fled — they have gone away.

<sup>11</sup> I will make Jerusalem a heap of rubble,

a jackals' den.

I will make the cities of Judah a desolation,

an uninhabited place.

<sup>12</sup> Who is the man wise enough to understand this? Who has the LORD spoken to, that he may explain it? Why is the land destroyed and scorched like a wilderness, so no one can pass through?

<sup>13</sup> The LORD said, "It is because they abandoned My instruction that I set in front of them and did not obey My voice or walk according to it.

of Hosts, the God of Israel, says: "I am about to feed this people

•wormwood and give them poisonous water to drink. <sup>16</sup> I will scatter them among the nations that they and their fathers have not known. I will send a sword after them until I have finished them off."

Mourning over Judah

<sup>17</sup> This is what the LORD of Hosts says:

Consider, and summon the women who mourn;
send for the skillful women.

<sup>18</sup> Let them come quickly to raise a lament over us so that our eyes may overflow with tears,
our eyelids soaked with weeping.

<sup>19</sup> For a sound of lamentation is heard from •Zion:
How devastated we are.
We are greatly ashamed,
for we have abandoned the land;
our dwellings have been torn down.

<sup>20</sup> Now hear the word of the LORD, you women.
Pay attention to <sup>C</sup> the word of His mouth.
Teach your daughters a lament
and one another a dirge,

<sup>21</sup> for Death has climbed through our windows;
it has entered our fortresses,
cutting off children from the streets,
young men from the squares.

<sup>22</sup> Speak as follows:

This is what the LORD says:

Human corpses will fall
like manure on the surface of the field,
like newly cut grain after the reaper
with no one to gather it.

Boast in the LORD

<sup>23</sup> This is what the LORD says:

The wise man must not boast in his wisdom;
the strong man must not boast in his strength;
the wealthy man must not boast in his wealth.

<sup>24</sup> But the one who boasts should boast in this,
that he understands and knows Me —
that I am •Yahweh, showing faithful love,
justice, and righteousness on the earth,
for I delight in these things.

This is the LORD's declaration.

<sup>25</sup> “The days are coming” — the LORD's declaration — “when I will punish all the circumcised yet uncircumcised:

<sup>26</sup> Egypt, Judah, Edom, the Ammonites, Moab, and all the inhabitants of the desert who clip the hair on their temples. <sup>D</sup> All these nations are uncircumcised, and the whole house of Israel is uncircumcised in heart.”

False Gods Contrasted with the Creator

10 Hear the word that the LORD has spoken to <sup>A</sup> you, house of Israel.
<sup>2</sup> This is what the LORD says:

Do not learn the way of the nations
or be terrified by signs in the heavens,
although the nations are terrified by them,
<sup>3</sup> for the customs of the peoples are worthless.
Someone cuts down a tree from the forest;
it is worked by the hands of a craftsman with a chisel.
<sup>4</sup> He decorates it with silver and gold.
It is fastened with hammer and nails,
so it won't totter.

<sup>5†</sup> Like scarecrows in a cucumber patch,
their idols cannot speak.
They must be carried because they cannot walk.
Do not fear them for they can do no harm —
and they cannot do any good.

<sup>6</sup> •Yahweh, there is no one like You.
You are great;
Your name is great in power.

<sup>7</sup> Who should not •fear You,
King of the nations?
It is what You deserve.
For among all the wise people of the nations
and among all their kingdoms,
there is no one like You.

<sup>8</sup> They are both stupid and foolish, instructed by worthless idols
made of wood!

<sup>9</sup> Beaten silver is brought from Tarshish, and gold from Uphaz <sup>B</sup>
from the hands of a goldsmith,
the work of a craftsman.
Their clothing is blue and purple,
all the work of skilled artisans.

<sup>10</sup> But Yahweh is the true God;
He is the living God and eternal King.
The earth quakes at His wrath,
and the nations cannot endure His rage.

<sup>11†</sup> You are to say this to them, “The gods that did not make the heavens and the earth will perish from the earth and from under these heavens.”

<sup>12</sup> He made the earth by His power,
established the world by His wisdom,
and spread out the heavens by His understanding.

<sup>13</sup> When He thunders, <sup>C</sup>
the waters in the heavens are in turmoil,
and He causes the clouds to rise
from the ends of the earth.
He makes lightning for the rain
and brings the wind from His storehouses.

<sup>14</sup> Everyone is stupid and ignorant.
Every goldsmith is put to shame
by his carved image,
for his cast images are a lie;
there is no breath in them.

<sup>15</sup> They are worthless, a work to be mocked.
At the time of their punishment
they will be destroyed.

<sup>16</sup> Jacob’s Portion is not like these
because He is the One who formed all things.
Israel is the tribe of His inheritance;
Yahweh of •Hosts is His name.

Exile After the Siege

<sup>17</sup> Gather up your belongings <sup>D</sup> from the ground, you who live under siege.

<sup>18</sup> For this is what the LORD says:

Look, I am slinging out
the land's residents at this time and bringing them such distress
that they will feel it.

Jeremiah Grieves

<sup>19</sup> Woe to me because of my brokenness —
I am severely wounded!
I exclaimed, “This is my intense suffering,
but I must bear it.”

<sup>20</sup> My tent is destroyed;
all my tent cords are snapped.
My sons have departed from me and are no more.
I have no one to pitch my tent again
or to hang up my curtains.

<sup>21</sup> For the shepherds are stupid:
they don't seek the LORD.
Therefore they have not prospered,
and their whole flock is scattered.

<sup>22</sup> Listen! A noise — it is coming —
a great commotion from the land to the north.
The cities of Judah will be made desolate,
a jackals' den.

<sup>23†</sup> I know, LORD,
that a man's way of life is not his own;
no one who walks determines his own steps.

<sup>24</sup> Discipline me, LORD, but with justice —
not in Your anger,
or You will reduce me to nothing.

<sup>25</sup> Pour out Your wrath on the nations
that don't recognize You and on the families
that don't call on Your name,
for they have consumed Jacob;
they have consumed him and finished him off

and made his homeland desolate.

Reminder of the Covenant

11 This is the word that came to Jeremiah from the LORD: <sup>2</sup> “Listen to the words of this covenant and tell them to the men of Judah and the residents of Jerusalem. <sup>3</sup> You must tell them: This is what the LORD, the God of Israel, says: ‘Let a curse be on the man who does not obey the words of this covenant, <sup>4</sup> which I commanded your ancestors when I brought them out of the land of Egypt, out of the iron furnace.’ I declared: ‘Obey Me, and do everything that I command you, and you will be My people, and I will be your God,’ <sup>5</sup> in order to establish the oath I swore to your ancestors, to give them a land flowing with milk and honey, as it is today.”

I answered, “•Amen, LORD.”

<sup>6</sup> The LORD said to me, “Proclaim all these words in the cities of Judah and in the streets of Jerusalem: Obey the words of this covenant and carry them out. <sup>7</sup> For I strongly warned your ancestors when I brought them out of the land of Egypt until today, warning them time and time again, <sup>A</sup> ‘Obey My voice.’ <sup>8</sup> Yet they would not obey or pay attention; each one followed the stubbornness of his evil heart. So I brought on them all the curses of this covenant, because they had not done what I commanded them to do.”

<sup>9</sup> The LORD said to me, “A conspiracy has been discovered among the men of Judah and the residents of Jerusalem. <sup>10†</sup> They have returned to the sins of their ancestors who refused to obey My words and have followed other gods to worship them. The house of Israel and the house of Judah broke My covenant I made with their ancestors.

<sup>11</sup> “Therefore, this is what the LORD says: I am about to bring on them disaster that they cannot escape. They will cry out to Me, but I will not hear them. <sup>12</sup> Then the cities of Judah and the residents of Jerusalem will go and cry out to the gods they have been burning incense to, but they certainly will not save them in their time of disaster. <sup>13</sup> Your gods are indeed as numerous as your cities, Judah, and the altars you have set up to Shame — altars to burn incense to •Baal — as numerous as the streets of Jerusalem.

<sup>14†</sup> “As for you, do not pray for these people. Do not raise up a cry or a prayer on their behalf, for I will not be listening when they call out to Me at the time of their disaster.

to be in My house,
having carried out so many evil schemes?
Can holy meat prevent your disaster
so you can rejoice?

<sup>16</sup> The LORD named you
a flourishing olive tree,
beautiful with well-formed fruit.
He has set fire to it,
and its branches are consumed
with a great roaring sound.

<sup>17</sup> “The LORD of •Hosts who planted you has decreed disaster against you, because of the harm the house of Israel and the house of Judah brought on themselves, provoking Me to anger by burning incense to Baal.”

<sup>18</sup> The LORD informed me, so I knew.

Then You helped me to see their deeds,

<sup>19</sup> for I was like a docile <sup>B</sup> lamb led to slaughter.

I didn't know that they had devised plots against me:

“Let's destroy the tree with its fruit; <sup>C</sup>

let's cut him off from the land of the living

so that his name will no longer be remembered.”

<sup>20</sup> But, LORD of Hosts, who judges righteously, who tests heart <sup>D</sup> and mind,

let me see Your vengeance on them,

for I have presented my case to You.

<sup>21</sup> Therefore, here is what the LORD says concerning the people of Anathoth who want to take your life. They warn, “You must not prophesy in the name of •Yahweh, or you will certainly die at our hand.”

<sup>22</sup> Therefore, this is what the LORD of Hosts says: “I am about to punish them. The young men will die by the sword; their sons and daughters will die by famine. <sup>23</sup> They will have no remnant, for I will bring disaster on the people of Anathoth in the year of their punishment.”

Jeremiah's Complaint

12 †You will be righteous, LORD, even if I bring a case against You.
Yet, I wish to contend with You:
Why does the way of the wicked prosper?
Why do all the treacherous live at ease?
<sup>2</sup> You planted them, and they have taken root.
They have grown and produced fruit.
You are ever on their lips, <sup>A</sup>
but far from their conscience. <sup>B</sup> <sup>3</sup> As for You, LORD, You know me; You see me.
You test whether my heart is with You.
Drag the wicked away like sheep to slaughter
and set them apart for the day of killing.
<sup>4</sup> How long will the land mourn
and the grass of every field wither?
Because of the evil of its residents,
animals and birds have been swept away,
for the people have said,
“He cannot see what our end will be.”

The LORD's Response

<sup>5</sup> If you have raced with runners
and they have worn you out,
how can you compete with horses?
If you stumble <sup>C</sup> in a peaceful land,
what will you do in the thickets of the Jordan?
<sup>6</sup> Even your brothers — your own father's household —
even they were treacherous to you;
even they have cried out loudly after you.
Do not have confidence in them,
though they speak well of you.
<sup>7†</sup> I have abandoned My house;
I have deserted My inheritance.
I have given the love of My life
into the hands of her enemies.

<sup>8†</sup> My inheritance has acted toward Me
like a lion in the forest.
She has roared against Me.
Therefore, I hate her.

<sup>9</sup> Is My inheritance like a hyena <sup>D</sup> to Me?
Are birds of prey circling her?
Go, gather all the wild animals;
bring them to devour her.

<sup>10</sup> Many shepherds have destroyed My vineyard;
they have trampled My plot of land.
They have turned My desirable plot
into a desolate wasteland.

<sup>11</sup> They have made it a desolation.
It mourns, desolate, before Me.
All the land is desolate,
but no one takes it to heart.

<sup>12</sup> Over all the barren heights in the wilderness
the destroyers have come,
for the LORD has a sword that devours
from one end of the earth to the other.
No one has peace.

<sup>13</sup> They have sown wheat but harvested thorns.
They have exhausted themselves but have no profit.
Be put to shame by your harvests
because of the LORD's burning anger.

<sup>14</sup> This is what the LORD says: "Concerning all My evil neighbors who attack the inheritance that I bequeathed to My people, Israel, I am about to uproot them from their land, and I will uproot the house of Judah from them. <sup>15</sup> After I have uprooted them, I will once again have compassion on them and return each one to his inheritance and to his land. <sup>16†</sup> If they will diligently learn the ways of My people — to swear by My name, 'As •Yahweh lives,' just as they taught My people to swear by •Baal — they will be built up among My people. <sup>17</sup> However, if they will not obey, then I will uproot and destroy that nation."

This is the LORD's declaration.

Linen Underwear

13 This is what the LORD said to me: “Go and buy yourself a linen undergarment and put it on, <sup>A</sup> but do not put it in water.” <sup>2</sup> So I bought underwear as the LORD instructed me and put it on.

<sup>3</sup> Then the word of the LORD came to me a second time: <sup>4†</sup> “Take the underwear that you bought and are wearing, <sup>B</sup> and go at once to the Euphrates and hide it in a rocky crevice.” <sup>5</sup> So I went and hid it by the Euphrates, as the LORD commanded me.

<sup>6</sup> A long time later the LORD said to me, “Go at once to the Euphrates and get the underwear that I commanded you to hide there.” <sup>7</sup> So I went to the Euphrates and dug up the underwear and got it from the place where I had hidden it, but it was ruined — of no use at all.

<sup>8</sup> Then the word of the LORD came to me: <sup>9</sup> “This is what the LORD says: Just like this I will ruin the great pride of both Judah and Jerusalem.

<sup>10</sup> These evil people, who refuse to listen to Me, who follow the stubbornness of their own hearts, and who have followed other gods to serve and worship — they will be like this underwear, of no use at all.

<sup>11</sup> Just as underwear clings to one’s waist, so I fastened the whole house of Israel and of Judah to Me” — this is the LORD’s declaration — “so that they might be My people for My fame, praise, and glory, but they would not obey.

The Wine Jars

<sup>12</sup> “Say this to them: This is what the LORD, the God of Israel, says: Every jar should be filled with wine. Then they will respond to you, ‘Don’t we know that every jar should be filled with wine?’ <sup>13</sup> And you will say to them: This is what the LORD says: I am about to fill all who live in this land — the kings who reign for David on his throne, the priests, the prophets and all the residents of Jerusalem — with drunkenness. <sup>14†</sup> I will smash them against each other, fathers and sons alike” — this is the LORD’s declaration. “I will allow no mercy, pity, or compassion to keep Me from destroying them.”

The LORD's Warning

<sup>15</sup> Listen and pay attention. Do not be proud,
for the LORD has spoken.

<sup>16</sup> Give glory to the LORD your God
before He brings darkness, before your feet stumble
on the mountains at dusk.

You wait for light,
but He brings darkest gloom <sup>C</sup>
and makes thick darkness.

<sup>17</sup> But if you will not listen,
my innermost being will weep in secret
because of your pride.
My eyes will overflow with tears,
for the LORD's flock has been taken captive.

<sup>18</sup> Say to the king and the queen mother:
Take a humble seat,
for your glorious crowns
have fallen from your heads.

<sup>19</sup> The cities of the •Negev are under siege;
no one can help them.
All of Judah has been taken into exile,
taken completely into exile.

<sup>20</sup> Look up and see those coming from the north.
Where is the flock entrusted to you,
the sheep that were your pride?

The Destiny of Jerusalem

<sup>21</sup> What will you say when He appoints close friends as leaders over you,
ones you yourself trained?
Won't labor pains seize you,
as they do a woman in labor?

<sup>22</sup> And when you ask yourself,
“Why have these things happened to me? ”
It is because of your great •guilt
that your skirts have been stripped off, your body exposed. <sup>D</sup>

or a leopard his spots?
If so, you might be able to do what is good,
you who are instructed in evil.

<sup>24</sup> I will scatter you <sup>E</sup> like drifting chaff before the desert wind.

<sup>25</sup> This is your lot,
what I have decreed for you — because you have forgotten Me                      this is the LORD’s declaration — and trusted in Falsehood.

<sup>26</sup> I will pull your skirts up over your face
so that your shame might be seen.

<sup>27</sup> Your adulteries and your lustful neighing,
your heinous prostitution
on the hills, in the fields —
I have seen your detestable acts.
Woe to you, Jerusalem!
You are •unclean —
for how long yet?

The Drought

14 The word of the LORD that came to Jeremiah concerning the drought:

<sup>2</sup> Judah mourns;
her gates languish.

Her people are on the ground in mourning;
Jerusalem's cry rises up.

<sup>3</sup> Their nobles send their servants <sup>A</sup> for water.

They go to the cisterns;
they find no water;
their containers return empty.

They are ashamed and humiliated;
they cover their heads.

<sup>4</sup> The ground is cracked
since no rain has fallen on the land.
The farmers are ashamed;
they cover their heads.

<sup>5</sup> Even the doe in the field
gives birth and abandons her fawn since there is no grass.

<sup>6</sup> Wild donkeys stand on the barren heights panting for air like jackals.

Their eyes fail
because there are no green plants.

<sup>7†</sup> Though our •guilt testifies against us, •Yahweh, act for Your name's sake.
Indeed, our rebellions are many;
we have sinned against You.

<sup>8</sup> Hope of Israel,
its Savior in time of distress,
why are You like a foreigner in the land,
like a traveler stopping only for the night?

<sup>9</sup> Why are You like a helpless man,
like a warrior unable to save?
Yet You are among us, Yahweh,
and we are called by Your name.
Don't leave us!

<sup>10</sup> This is what the LORD says concerning these people:

Truly they love to wander;
they never rest their feet.
So the LORD does not accept them.
Now He will remember their guilt
and punish their sins.

False Prophets to be Punished

<sup>11†</sup> Then the LORD said to me, “Do not pray for the well-being of these people. <sup>12</sup> If they fast, I will not hear their cry of despair. If they offer •burnt offering and •grain offering, I will not accept them. Rather, I will finish them off by sword, famine, and plague.”

<sup>13</sup> And I replied, “Oh no, Lord GOD! The prophets are telling them, ‘You won’t see sword or suffer famine. I will certainly give you true peace in this place.’ ”

<sup>14†</sup> But the LORD said to me, “These prophets are prophesying a lie in My name. I did not send them, nor did I command them or speak to them. They are prophesying to you a false vision, worthless •divination, the deceit of their own minds.

TWISTED SCRIPTURE

Jeremiah 14:14

Throughout the ages, self-proclaimed prophets such as Joseph Smith, Jeane Dixon, and Edgar Cayce have claimed to speak for God. Jeremiah, an authorized ambassador of God, identified false prophets as "prophesying . . . a false vision, worthless divination, the deceit of their own minds" which is "spoken . . . presumptuously" (Dt 18:22).

<sup>15</sup> “Therefore, this is what the LORD says concerning the prophets who prophesy in My name, though I did not send them, and who say, ‘There will never be sword or famine in this land.’ By sword and famine these prophets will meet their end. <sup>16†</sup> The people they are prophesying to will be thrown into the streets of Jerusalem because of the famine and the sword. There will be no one to bury them — they, their wives, their sons, and their daughters. I will pour out their own evil on them.”

Jeremiah’s Request

<sup>17</sup> You are to speak this word to them:

Let my eyes overflow with tears;
day and night may they not stop,
for the virgin daughter of my people
has been destroyed by a great disaster,
an extremely severe wound.

<sup>18</sup> If I go out to the field,
look — those slain by the sword!
If I enter the city,
look — those ill from famine!
For both prophet and priest
travel to a land they do not know.

<sup>19</sup> Have You completely rejected Judah?
Do You detest •Zion?
Why do You strike us
with no hope of healing for us?
We hoped for peace,
but there was nothing good;
for a time of healing,
but there was only terror.

<sup>20</sup> We acknowledge our wickedness, LORD,
the guilt of our fathers;
indeed, we have sinned against You.

<sup>21</sup> Because of Your name, don’t despise us.
Don’t disdain Your glorious throne.
Remember Your covenant with us;

do not break it.

<sup>22</sup> Can any of the worthless idols of the nations bring rain?

Or can the skies alone give showers?

Are You not the LORD our God?

We therefore put our hope in You,

for You have done all these things.

The LORD's Negative Response

15 Then the LORD said to me: “Even if Moses and Samuel should stand before Me, My compassions would not reach out to these people. Send them from My presence, and let them go. <sup>2</sup> If they ask you, ‘Where will we go?’ you must tell them: This is what the LORD says:

Those destined for death, to death;
those destined for the sword, to the sword.
Those destined for famine, to famine;
those destined for captivity, to captivity.

<sup>3</sup> “I will ordain four kinds <sup>A</sup> of judgment for them” — this is the LORD’s declaration — “the sword to kill, the dogs to drag away, and the birds of the sky and the wild animals of the land to devour and destroy. <sup>4</sup> I will make them a horror to all the kingdoms of the earth because of Manasseh son of Hezekiah, the king of Judah, for what he did in Jerusalem.

<sup>5</sup> Who will have pity on you, Jerusalem?
Who will show sympathy toward you?
Who will turn aside
to ask about your welfare?

<sup>6</sup> You have left Me.

You have turned your back,
so I have stretched out My hand against you and destroyed you.

This is the LORD’s declaration.

I am tired of showing compassion.

<sup>7</sup> I scattered them with a winnowing fork
at the gates of the land.

I made them childless; I destroyed My people.
They would not turn from their ways.

<sup>8</sup> I made their widows more numerous than the sand of the seas.

I brought a destroyer at noon
against the mother of young men.

I suddenly released on her agitation and terrors.

<sup>9</sup> The mother of seven grew faint;

she breathed her last breath.
Her sun set while it was still day;
she was ashamed and humiliated.
The rest of them I will give over to the sword
in the presence of their enemies.”

This is the LORD’s declaration.

Jeremiah’s Complaint

<sup>10</sup> Woe is me, my mother,
that you gave birth to me,
a man who incites dispute and conflict
in all the land.
I did not lend or borrow,
yet everyone curses me.

The LORD’s Response

<sup>11</sup> The LORD said:

I will certainly set you free and care for you. <sup>B</sup>
I will certainly intercede for you
in a time of trouble,
in your time of distress, with the enemy.

<sup>12</sup> Can anyone smash iron,
iron from the north, or bronze?

<sup>13</sup> I will give up your wealth
and your treasures as plunder, without cost, for all your sins
in all your borders.

<sup>14</sup> Then I will make you serve your enemies
in a land you do not know,
for My anger will kindle a fire
that will burn against you.

Jeremiah’s Prayer for Vengeance

<sup>15</sup> You know, LORD;
remember me and take note of me.

Avenge me against my persecutors.
In Your patience, <sup>C</sup> don't take me away.
Know that I suffer disgrace for Your honor.
<sup>16</sup> Your words were found, and I ate them.
Your words became a delight to me
and the joy of my heart,
for I am called by Your name, •Yahweh God of •Hosts.

<sup>17</sup> I never sat with the band of revelers,
and I did not celebrate with them.
Because Your hand was on me, I sat alone,
for You filled me with indignation.

<sup>18</sup> Why has my pain become unending,
my wound incurable,
refusing to be healed?
You truly have become like a mirage to me —
water that is not reliable.

Jeremiah Told to Repent

<sup>19</sup> Therefore, this is what the LORD says:

If you return, I will restore you;
you will stand in My presence.
And if you speak noble words,
rather than worthless ones,
you will be My spokesman.
It is they who must return to you;
you must not return to them.

<sup>20</sup> Then I will make you a fortified wall of bronze to this people.
They will fight against you
but will not overcome you,
for I am with you
to save you and deliver you.

<sup>21</sup> I will deliver you from the power of evil. This is the LORD's declaration.
people

and redeem you from the control of the ruthless.

No Marriage for Jeremiah

16 The word of the LORD came to me: <sup>2</sup> “You must not marry or have sons or daughters in this place. <sup>3</sup> For this is what the LORD says concerning sons and daughters born in this place as well as concerning the mothers who bear them and the fathers who father them in this land: <sup>4</sup> They will die from deadly diseases. They will not be mourned or buried but will be like manure on the face of the earth. They will be finished off by sword and famine. Their corpses will become food for the birds of the sky and for the wild animals of the land.

<sup>5</sup> “For this is what the LORD says: Don’t enter a house where a mourning feast is taking place. <sup>A</sup> Don’t go to lament or sympathize with them, for I have removed My peace from these people” — this is the LORD’s declaration — “as well as My faithful love and compassion. <sup>6†</sup> Both great and small will die in this land without burial. No lament will be made for them, nor will anyone cut himself or shave his head for them. <sup>7</sup> Food won’t be provided for the mourner to comfort him because of the dead. A cup of consolation won’t be given him because of the loss of his father or mother. <sup>8</sup> You must not enter the house where feasting is taking place to sit with them to eat and drink. <sup>9</sup> For this is what the LORD of •Hosts, the God of Israel, says: I am about to eliminate from this place, before your very eyes and in your time, the sound of joy and gladness, the voice of the groom and the bride.

Abandoning the LORD and His Law

<sup>10</sup> “When you tell these people all these things, they will say to you, ‘Why has the LORD declared all this great disaster against us? What is our •guilt? What is our sin that we have committed against the LORD our God?’ <sup>11</sup> Then you will answer them: Because your fathers abandoned Me” — this is the LORD’s declaration — “and followed other gods, served them, and worshiped them. Indeed, they abandoned Me and did not keep My instruction. <sup>12</sup> You did more evil than your fathers. Look, each one of you was following the stubbornness of his evil heart, not obeying Me. <sup>13</sup> So I will hurl you from this land into a land that you and your fathers are not familiar with. There you will worship other gods both day and night, for I will not grant you grace. <sup>B</sup>

<sup>14</sup> “However, take note! The days are coming” — the LORD’s declaration — “when it will no longer be said, ‘As the LORD lives who brought the Israelites from the land of Egypt,’ <sup>15</sup> but rather, ‘As the LORD lives who brought the Israelites from the land of the north and from all the other lands where He had banished them.’ For I will return them to their land that I gave to their ancestors.

Punishment of Exile

<sup>16</sup> “I am about to send for many fishermen” — this is the LORD’s declaration — “and they will fish for them. Then I will send for many hunters, and they will hunt them down on every mountain and hill and out of the clefts of the rocks, <sup>17</sup> for My gaze takes in all their ways. They are not concealed from Me, and their guilt is not hidden from My sight. <sup>18</sup> I will first repay them double for their guilt and sin because they have polluted My land. They have filled My inheritance with the lifelessness of their detestable and abhorrent idols.”

<sup>19</sup> LORD, my strength and my stronghold,
my refuge in a time of distress,
the nations will come to You
from the ends of the earth, and they will say, “Our fathers inherited only lies,
worthless idols of no benefit at all.”

<sup>20</sup> Can one make gods for himself?
But they are not gods.

<sup>21</sup> “Therefore, I am about to inform them,
and this time I will make them know
My power and My might;
then they will know that My name is •Yahweh.”

The Persistent Sin of Judah

17 The sin of Judah is written with an iron stylus.

With a diamond point
it is engraved on the tablet of their hearts
and on the horns of their altars, 2 while their children remember their altars
and their •Asherah poles, by the green trees on the high hills —

3 My mountains in the countryside.
I will give up your wealth
and all your treasures as plunder
because of the sin of your •high places <sup>A</sup>
in all your borders.

4 You will, on your own, relinquish your inheritance
that I gave you.

I will make you serve your enemies
in a land you do not know,
for you have set My anger on fire;
it will burn forever.

Curse and Blessing

5 This is what the LORD says:

The man who trusts in mankind,
who makes human flesh his strength
and turns his heart from the LORD is cursed.

6 He will be like a juniper in the •Arabah;
he cannot see when good comes
but dwells in the parched places in the wilderness,
in a salt land where no one lives.

7 The man who trusts in the LORD,
whose confidence indeed is the LORD, is blessed.

8 He will be like a tree planted by water:
it sends its roots out toward a stream,
it doesn't fear when heat comes,

and its foliage remains green.
It will not worry in a year of drought or cease producing fruit.

The Deceitful Heart

<sup>9</sup> The heart is more deceitful than anything else,
and incurable — who can understand it?

<sup>10†</sup> I, •Yahweh, examine the mind,

I test the heart <sup>B</sup>

to give to each according to his way,
according to what his actions deserve.

<sup>11</sup> He who makes a fortune unjustly
is like a partridge that hatches eggs it didn't lay.
In the middle of his days
his riches will abandon him,
so in the end he will be a fool.

<sup>12</sup> A throne of glory
on high from the beginning is the place of our sanctuary.

<sup>13</sup> LORD, the hope of Israel,
all who abandon You
will be put to shame.
All who turn away from Me
will be written in the dirt,
for they have abandoned
the LORD, the fountain of living water.

Jeremiah's Plea

<sup>14</sup> Heal me, LORD, and I will be healed;
save me, and I will be saved,
for You are my praise.

<sup>15</sup> Hear how they keep challenging me,
“Where is the word of the LORD?
Let it come! ”

<sup>16</sup> But I have not run away from being Your shepherd,
and I have not longed for the fatal day.

You know my words were spoken in Your presence.

<sup>17</sup> Don't become a terror to me.

You are my refuge in the day of disaster.

<sup>18</sup> Let my persecutors be put to shame,
but don't let me be put to shame.

Let them be terrified, but don't let me be terrified.

Bring on them the day of disaster;

shatter them with total <sup>C</sup> destruction.

Observing the Sabbath

<sup>19</sup> This is what the LORD said to me, "Go and stand at the People's Gate, through which the kings of Judah enter and leave, as well as at all the gates of Jerusalem. <sup>20</sup> Announce to them: Hear the word of the LORD, kings of Judah, all Judah, and all the residents of Jerusalem who enter through these gates. <sup>21†</sup> This is what the LORD says: Watch yourselves; do not pick up a load and bring it in through the gates of Jerusalem on the Sabbath day.

<sup>22</sup> You must not carry a load out of your houses on the Sabbath day or do any work, but you must consecrate the Sabbath day, just as I commanded your ancestors. <sup>23</sup> They wouldn't listen or pay attention but became obstinate, not listening or accepting discipline.

<sup>24</sup> "However, if you listen to Me, says the LORD, and do not bring loads through the gates of this city on the Sabbath day and consecrate the Sabbath day and do no work on it, <sup>25</sup> kings and princes will enter through the gates of this city. They will sit on the throne of David, riding in chariots and on horses with their officials, the men of Judah, and the residents of Jerusalem. This city will be inhabited forever. <sup>26</sup> Then people will come from the cities of Judah and from the area around Jerusalem, from the land of Benjamin and from the Judean foothills, from the hill country and from the •Negev bringing •burnt offerings and sacrifice, •grain offerings and frankincense, and thank offerings to the house of the LORD. <sup>27</sup> If you do not listen to Me to consecrate the Sabbath day by not carrying a load while entering the gates of Jerusalem on the Sabbath day, I will set fire to its gates, and it will consume the citadels of Jerusalem and not be extinguished.”

Parable of the Potter

18 This is the word that came to Jeremiah from the LORD: <sup>2</sup> “Go down at once to the potter’s house; there I will reveal My words to you.” <sup>3</sup> So I went down to the potter’s house, and there he was, working away at the wheel. <sup>A</sup> <sup>4</sup> But the jar that he was making from the clay became flawed in the potter’s hand, so he made it into another jar, as it seemed right for him to do.

<sup>5</sup> The word of the LORD came to me: <sup>6†</sup> “House of Israel, can I not treat you as this potter treats his clay?” — this is the LORD’s declaration. “Just like clay in the potter’s hand, so are you in My hand, house of Israel. <sup>7</sup> At one moment I might announce concerning a nation or a kingdom that I will uproot, tear down, and destroy it. <sup>8†</sup> However, if that nation I have made an announcement about turns from its evil, I will relent concerning the disaster I had planned to do to it. <sup>9</sup> At another time I announce that I will build and plant a nation or a kingdom. <sup>10</sup> However, if it does what is evil in My sight by not listening to My voice, I will relent concerning the good I had said I would do to it. <sup>11</sup> So now, say to the men of Judah and to the residents of Jerusalem: This is what the LORD says: I am about to bring harm to you and make plans against you. Turn now, each from your evil way, and correct your ways and your deeds. <sup>12</sup> But they will say, ‘It’s hopeless. We will continue to follow our plans, and each of us will continue to act according to the stubbornness of his evil heart.’ ”

Deluded Israel

<sup>13</sup> Therefore, this is what the LORD says:

Ask among the nations,
Who has heard things like these?
Virgin Israel has done a most terrible thing.

<sup>14</sup> Does the snow of Lebanon ever leave the highland crags?
Or does cold water flowing from a distance ever fail?

<sup>15</sup> Yet My people have forgotten Me.
They burn incense to false idols that make them stumble in their ways
on the ancient roads

and walk on new paths, not the highway.

<sup>16</sup> They have made their land a horror, a perpetual object of scorn; <sup>B</sup>
everyone who passes by it will be horrified
and shake his head.

<sup>17</sup> I will scatter them before the enemy like the east wind.
I will show them My back and not My face
on the day of their calamity.

Plot against Jeremiah

<sup>18†</sup> Then certain ones said, “Come, let’s make plans against Jeremiah, for instruction will never be lost from the priest, or counsel from the wise, or an •oracle from the prophet. Come, let’s denounce him <sup>C</sup> and pay no attention to all his words.”

<sup>19</sup> Pay attention to me, LORD.
Hear what my opponents are saying!

<sup>20</sup> Should good be repaid with evil?
Yet they have dug a pit for me.
Remember how I stood before You
to speak good on their behalf,
to turn Your anger from them.

<sup>21</sup> Therefore, hand their children over to famine,
and pour the sword’s power on them.
Let their wives become childless and widowed,
their husbands slain by deadly disease, <sup>D</sup>
their young men struck down by the sword in battle.

<sup>22</sup> Let a cry be heard from their houses
when You suddenly bring raiders against them,
for they have dug a pit to capture me
and have hidden snares for my feet.

<sup>23</sup> But You, LORD, know
all their deadly plots against me.
Do not wipe out their •guilt;
do not blot out their sin before You.

Let them be forced to stumble before You;
deal with them in the time of Your anger.

The Clay Jar

19 This is what the LORD says: “Go, buy a potter’s clay jar. Take some of the elders of the people and some of the leading priests <sup>2</sup> and go out to the Valley of Hinnom near the entrance of the Potsherd Gate. Proclaim there the words I speak to you. <sup>3</sup> Say: Hear the word of the LORD, kings of Judah and residents of Jerusalem. This is what the LORD of •Hosts, the God of Israel, says: I am going to bring such disaster on this place that everyone who hears about it will shudder <sup>A</sup>, <sup>4</sup> because they have abandoned Me and made this a foreign place. They have burned incense in it to other gods that they, their fathers, and the kings of Judah have never known. They have filled this place with the blood of the innocent. <sup>5</sup> They have built •high places to •Baal on which to burn their children in the fire as burnt offerings to Baal, something I have never commanded or mentioned; I never entertained the thought. <sup>B</sup>

<sup>6</sup> “Therefore, take note! The days are coming” — this is the LORD’s declaration — “when this place will no longer be called Topheth and the Valley of Hinnom, but the Valley of Slaughter. <sup>7</sup> I will spoil the plans of Judah and Jerusalem in this place. I will make them fall by the sword before their enemies, by the hand of those who want to take their life. I will provide their corpses as food for the birds of the sky and for the wild animals of the land. <sup>8†</sup> I will make this city desolate, an object of scorn. Everyone who passes by it will be horrified and scoff because of all its wounds. <sup>9</sup> I will make them eat the flesh of their sons and their daughters, and they will eat each other’s flesh in the siege and distress that their enemies, those who want to take their life, inflict on them.

<sup>10</sup> “Then you are to shatter the jar in the presence of the people traveling with you, <sup>11</sup> and you are to proclaim to them: This is what the LORD of Hosts says: I will shatter these people and this city, like one shatters a potter’s jar that can never again be mended. They will bury the dead in Topheth because there is no other place for burials. <sup>12</sup> I will do so to this place” — this is the declaration of the LORD — “and to its residents, making this city like Topheth. <sup>13</sup> The houses of Jerusalem and the houses of the kings of Judah will become impure like that place Topheth — all the houses on whose rooftops they have burned incense to the whole heavenly host and poured out •drink offerings to other gods.”

<sup>14</sup> Jeremiah came back from Topheth, where the LORD had sent him to prophesy, stood in the courtyard of the LORD’s temple, and proclaimed to all the people, <sup>15</sup> “This is what the LORD of Hosts, the God of Israel, says: ‘I am about to bring on this city — and on all its dependent villages — all the disaster that I spoke against it, for they have become obstinate, not obeying My words.’ ”

Jeremiah Beaten by Pashhur

20 Pashhur the priest, the son of Immer and chief official in the temple of the LORD, heard Jeremiah prophesying these things. <sup>2</sup> So Pashhur had Jeremiah the prophet beaten and put him in the stocks at the Upper Benjamin Gate in the LORD's temple. <sup>3</sup> The next day, when Pashhur released Jeremiah from the stocks, Jeremiah said to him, "The LORD does not call you Pashhur, but Magor-missabib, <sup>4</sup> for this is what the LORD says, 'I am about to make you a terror to both yourself and those you love. They will fall by the sword of their enemies before your very eyes. I will hand Judah over to the king of Babylon, and he will deport them to Babylon and put them to the sword. <sup>5</sup> I will give away all the wealth of this city, all its products and valuables. Indeed, I will hand all the treasures of the kings of Judah over to their enemies. They will plunder them, seize them, and carry them off to Babylon. <sup>6</sup> As for you, Pashhur, and all who live in your house, you will go into captivity. You will go to Babylon. There you will die, and there you will be buried, you and all your friends that you prophesied falsely to.' "

Jeremiah Compelled to Preach

<sup>7†</sup> You deceived me, LORD, and I was deceived.

You seized me and prevailed.

I am a laughingstock all the time;
everyone ridicules me.

<sup>8†</sup> For whenever I speak, I cry out,
I proclaim, "Violence and destruction! " because the word of the LORD has become for me constant disgrace and derision.

<sup>9</sup> If I say, "I won't mention Him or speak any longer in His name,"
His message becomes a fire burning in my heart,
shut up in my bones.

I become tired of holding it in,
and I cannot prevail.

<sup>10</sup> For I have heard the gossip of many people, "Terror is on every side! <sup>A</sup>, Report him; let's report him! "

Everyone I trusted <sup>B</sup> watches for my fall.

“Perhaps he will be deceived
so that we might prevail against him and take our vengeance on him.”

<sup>11†</sup> But the LORD is with me like a violent warrior.

Therefore, my persecutors will stumble and not prevail.
Since they have not succeeded, they will be utterly shamed,
an everlasting humiliation that will never be forgotten.

<sup>12</sup> LORD of •Hosts, testing the righteous and seeing the heart <sup>C</sup> and mind,
let me see Your vengeance on them,
for I have presented my case to You.

<sup>13</sup> Sing to the LORD!

Praise the LORD,
for He rescues the life of the needy
from the hand of evil people.

Jeremiah's Lament

<sup>14</sup> May the day I was born be cursed.

May the day my mother bore me
never be blessed.

<sup>15</sup> May the man be cursed who brought the news to my father, saying, “A male child is born to you,”
bringing him great joy.

<sup>16</sup> Let that man be like the cities
the LORD demolished without compassion.
Let him hear an outcry in the morning
and a war cry at noontime

<sup>17</sup> because he didn't kill me in the womb
so that my mother might have been my grave,
her womb eternally pregnant.

<sup>18</sup> Why did I come out of the womb
to see only struggle and sorrow,

to end my life in shame?

Zedekiah's Request Denied

21 This is the word that came to Jeremiah from the LORD when King Zedekiah sent Pashhur son of Malchijah and the priest Zephaniah son of Maaseiah to Jeremiah, asking, <sup>2</sup> “Ask the LORD on our behalf, since Nebuchadnezzar <sup>A</sup> king of Babylon is making war against us. Perhaps the LORD will perform for us something like all His past wonderful works so that Nebuchadnezzar will withdraw from us.”

<sup>4</sup> ‘This is what the LORD, the God of Israel, says: I will repel the weapons of war in your hands, those you are using to fight the king of Babylon and the Chaldeans who are besieging you outside the wall, and I will bring them into the center of this city. <sup>5</sup> I will fight against you with an outstretched hand and a mighty arm, with anger, rage, and great wrath. <sup>6</sup> I will strike the residents of this city, both man and beast. They will die in a great plague. <sup>7</sup> Afterward’ ” — this is the LORD’s declaration — “ ‘King Zedekiah of Judah, his officers, and the people — those in this city who survive the plague, the sword, and the famine — I will hand over to King Nebuchadnezzar of Babylon, to their enemies, yes, to those who want to take their lives. He will put them to the sword; he won’t spare them or show pity or compassion.’

A Warning for the People

<sup>8</sup> “But you must say to this people, ‘This is what the LORD says: Look, I am presenting to you the way of life and the way of death. <sup>9</sup> Whoever stays in this city will die by the sword, famine, and plague, but whoever goes out and surrenders to the Chaldeans who are besieging you will live and will retain his life like the spoils of war. <sup>10†</sup> For I have turned <sup>B</sup> against this city to bring disaster and not good’ ” — this is the LORD’s declaration. “ ‘It will be handed over to the king of Babylon, who will burn it down.’

<sup>11</sup> “And to the house of the king of Judah say this: ‘Hear the word of the LORD! <sup>12</sup> House of David, this is what the LORD says:

Administer justice every morning,
and rescue the victim of robbery

from the hand of his oppressor, or My anger will flare up like fire
and burn unquenchably
because of their evil deeds.

<sup>13</sup> Beware! I am against you,
you who sit above the valley,
you atop the rocky plateau —
you who say, “Who can come down            this is the LORD’s declaration — against us?”

Who can enter our hiding places? ”
<sup>14</sup> I will punish you according to what you have done —
I will kindle a fire in its forest            this is the LORD’s declaration.
that will consume everything around it.’ ”

Judgment against Sinful Kings

22 This is what the LORD says: “Go down to the palace of the king of Judah and announce this word there. <sup>2</sup> You are to say: Hear the word of the LORD, king of Judah, you who sit on the throne of David — you, your officers, and your people who enter these gates. <sup>3†</sup> This is what the LORD says: Administer justice and righteousness. Rescue the victim of robbery from the hand of his oppressor. Don’t exploit or brutalize the foreigner, the fatherless, or the widow. Don’t shed innocent blood in this place. <sup>4</sup> For if you conscientiously carry out this word, then kings sitting on David’s throne will enter through the gates of this palace riding on chariots and horses — they, their officers, and their people. <sup>5</sup> But if you do not obey these words, then I swear by Myself” — this is the LORD’s declaration — “that this house will become a ruin.”

You are like Gilead to Me,
or the summit of Lebanon,
but I will certainly turn you into a wilderness,
uninhabited cities.

<sup>7</sup> I will appoint destroyers against you,
each with his weapons.
They will cut down the choicest of your cedars
and throw them into the fire.

<sup>8</sup> “Many nations will pass by this city and ask one another, ‘Why did the LORD do such a thing to this great city?’ <sup>9</sup> They will answer, ‘Because they abandoned the covenant of •Yahweh their God and worshiped and served other gods.’ ”

A Message Concerning Shallum

<sup>10</sup> Do not weep for the dead;
do not mourn for him.
Weep bitterly for the one who has gone away,
for he will never return again

and see his native land.

<sup>11†</sup> For this is what the LORD says concerning Shallum son of Josiah, king of Judah, who became king in place of his father Josiah: “He has left this place — he will never return here again, <sup>12</sup> but he will die in the place where they deported him, never seeing this land again.”

A Message concerning Jehoiakim

<sup>13</sup> Woe for the one who builds his palace
through unrighteousness,
his upper rooms through injustice,
who makes his fellow man serve without pay
and will not give him his wages, <sup>14</sup> who says, “I will build myself a massive palace, with spacious upper rooms.”
He will cut windows <sup>A</sup> in it, and it will be paneled with cedar
and painted with vermilion.

<sup>15</sup> Are you a king because you excel in cedar?
Didn't your father eat and drink
and administer justice and righteousness?
Then it went well with him.

<sup>16</sup> He took up the case of the poor and needy,
then it went well.

Is this not what it means to know Me?

<sup>17</sup> But you have eyes and a heart for                    This is the LORD's declaration.
nothing
except your own dishonest profit,
shedding innocent blood
and committing extortion and oppression.

<sup>18</sup> Therefore, this is what the LORD says concerning Jehoiakim son of Josiah, king of Judah:

They will not mourn for him, saying,

“Woe, my brother! ” or “Woe, my sister! ”

They will not mourn for him, saying,

“Woe, lord! Woe, his majesty! ”

<sup>19</sup> He will be buried like a donkey, dragged off and thrown outside the gates of Jerusalem.

<sup>20</sup> Go up to Lebanon and cry out;
raise your voice in Bashan;
cry out from Abarim,
for all your lovers <sup>B</sup> have been crushed.

<sup>21</sup> I spoke to you when you were secure.
You said, “I will not listen.”

This has been your way since youth;
indeed, you have never listened to Me.

<sup>22</sup> The wind will take charge of <sup>C</sup> all your shepherds, and your lovers <sup>D</sup> will go into captivity.
Then you will be ashamed and humiliated
because of all your evil.

<sup>23</sup> You residents of Lebanon,
nestled among the cedars,
how you will groan when labor pains come on you,
agony like a woman in labor.

A Message concerning Coniah

<sup>24</sup> “As I live,” says the LORD, “though you, Coniah son of Jehoiakim, the king of Judah, were a signet ring on My right hand, I would tear you from it. <sup>25</sup> In fact, I will hand you over to those you dread, who want to take your life, to Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon and the Chaldeans. <sup>26</sup> I will hurl you and the mother who gave birth to you into another land, where neither of you were born, and there you will both die. <sup>27</sup> They will never return to the land they long to return to.”

a jar no one wants?

Why are he and his descendants hurled out and cast into a land they have not known?

<sup>29</sup> Earth, earth, earth,
hear the word of the LORD!

<sup>30</sup> This is what the LORD says:

Record this man as childless,
a man who will not be successful in his lifetime.
None of his descendants will succeed in sitting on the throne of David or ruling again in Judah.

The LORD and His Sheep

23 †“Woe to the shepherds who destroy and scatter the sheep of My pasture!” This is the LORD’s declaration. <sup>2</sup> “Therefore, this is what the LORD, the God of Israel, says about the shepherds who shepherd My people: You have scattered My flock, banished them, and have not attended to them. I will attend to you because of your evil acts” — this is the LORD’s declaration. <sup>3</sup> “I will gather the remnant of My flock from all the lands where I have banished them, and I will return them to their grazing land. They will become fruitful and numerous. <sup>4</sup> I will raise up shepherds over them who will shepherd them. They will no longer be afraid or dismayed, nor will any be missing.” This is the LORD’s declaration.

The Righteous Branch of David

<sup>5</sup> “The days are coming” — this is the LORD’s declaration — “when I will raise up a Righteous Branch of David. He will reign wisely as king and administer justice and righteousness in the land.

<sup>6†</sup> In His days Judah will be saved, and Israel will dwell securely. This is what He will be named:
• Yahweh Our Righteousness.

<sup>7</sup> “The days are coming” — the LORD’s declaration — “when it will no longer be said, ‘As the LORD lives who brought the Israelites from the land of Egypt,’ <sup>8</sup> but, ‘As the LORD lives, who brought and led the descendants of the house of Israel from the land of the north and from all the other countries where I had banished them.’ They will dwell once more in their own land.”

False Prophets Condemned

<sup>9</sup> Concerning the prophets:

My heart is broken within me,
and all my bones tremble.
I have become like a drunkard,

like a man overcome by wine,
because of the LORD,
because of His holy words.

<sup>10</sup> For the land is full of adulterers;
the land mourns because of the curse,
and the grazing lands in the wilderness have dried up.
Their way of life <sup>A</sup> has become evil,
and their power is not rightly used

<sup>11</sup> because both prophet and priest are ungodly, even in My house I have found their evil.

<sup>12</sup> Therefore, their way will be to them      This is the LORD's declaration.
like slippery paths in the gloom.
They will be driven away and fall down there,
for I will bring disaster on them,
the year of their punishment.

<sup>13</sup> Among the prophets of Samaria      This is the LORD's declaration.
I saw something disgusting:
They prophesied by •Baal
and led My people Israel astray.

<sup>14</sup> Among the prophets of Jerusalem also
I saw a horrible thing:
They commit adultery and walk in lies.
They strengthen the hands of evildoers,
and none turns his back on evil.
They are all like Sodom to Me;
Jerusalem's residents are like Gomorrah.

<sup>15</sup> Therefore, this is what the LORD of •Hosts says concerning the prophets:

I am about to feed them •wormwood
and give them poisoned water to drink,
for from the prophets of Jerusalem
ungodliness <sup>B</sup> has spread throughout the land.

<sup>16†</sup> This is what the LORD of Hosts says: “Do not listen to the words of the prophets who prophesy to you. They are making you worthless. They speak visions from their own minds, not from the LORD’s mouth. <sup>17</sup> They keep on saying to those who despise Me, ‘The LORD has said: You will have peace.’ They have said to everyone who follows the stubbornness of his heart, ‘No harm will come to you.’ ”

<sup>18</sup> For who has stood in the council of the LORD to see and hear His word?
Who has paid attention to His word and obeyed?

<sup>19</sup> Look, a storm from the LORD!

Wrath has gone out,
a whirling storm.

It will whirl about the heads of the wicked.

<sup>20</sup> The LORD’s anger will not turn back until He has completely fulfilled the purposes of His heart.
In time to come you will understand it clearly.

<sup>21</sup> I did not send these prophets,
yet they ran with a message.
I did not speak to them,
yet they prophesied.

<sup>22</sup> If they had really stood in My council,
they would have enabled My people to hear My words and would have turned them back from their evil ways
and their evil deeds.

<sup>23†</sup> “Am I a God who is only near” — this is the LORD’s declaration — “and not a God who is far away? <sup>24</sup> Can a man hide himself in secret places where I cannot see him? ” — the LORD’s declaration. “Do I not fill the heavens and the earth? ” — the LORD’s declaration.

<sup>25</sup> “I have heard what the prophets who prophesy a lie in My name have said, ‘I had a dream! I had a dream!’ <sup>26</sup> How long will this continue in the minds of the prophets prophesying lies, prophets of the deceit of their own minds? <sup>27</sup> Through their dreams that they tell one another, they plan to cause My people to forget My name as their fathers forgot My name through Baal worship. <sup>28†</sup> The prophet who has only a dream should recount the dream, but the one who has My word should speak My word truthfully, for what is straw compared to grain? ” — this is the LORD’s declaration. <sup>29</sup> “Is not My word like fire” — this is the LORD’s declaration — “and like a hammer that pulverizes rock? <sup>30</sup> Therefore, take note! I am against the prophets” — the LORD’s declaration — “who steal My words from each other. <sup>31</sup> I am against the prophets” — the LORD’s declaration — “who use their own tongues to make a declaration. <sup>32</sup> I am against those who prophesy false dreams” — the LORD’s declaration — “telling them and leading My people astray with their falsehoods and their boasting. It was not I who sent or commanded them, and they are of no benefit at all to these people” — this is the LORD’s declaration.

The Burden of the LORD

<sup>33</sup> “Now when these people or a prophet or a priest asks you, ‘What is the burden of the LORD?’ you will respond to them: What is the burden? I will throw you away” — this is the LORD’s declaration. <sup>34</sup> “As for the prophet, priest, or people who say, ‘The burden of the LORD,’ I will punish that man and his household. <sup>35</sup> This is what each man is to say to his friend and to his brother, ‘What has the LORD answered?’ or ‘What has the LORD spoken?’ <sup>36</sup> But no longer refer to <sup>C</sup> the burden of the LORD, for each man’s word becomes his burden and you pervert the words of the living God, the LORD of Hosts, our God. <sup>37</sup> You must say to the prophet: What has the LORD answered you? and What has the LORD spoken? <sup>38</sup> But if you say, ‘The burden of the LORD,’ then this is what the LORD says: Because you have said, ‘The burden of the LORD,’ and I specifically told you not to say, ‘The burden of the LORD,’ <sup>39†</sup> I will surely forget you and throw away from My presence both you and the city that I gave you and your fathers. <sup>40</sup> I will bring on you everlasting shame and humiliation that will never be forgotten.”

The Good and the Bad Figs

24 After Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon had deported Jeconiah son of Jehoiakim king of Judah, the officials of Judah, and the craftsmen and metalsmiths from Jerusalem and had brought them to Babylon, the LORD showed me two baskets of figs placed before the temple of the LORD. <sup>2</sup> One basket contained very good figs, like early figs, but the other basket contained very bad figs, so bad they were inedible. <sup>3</sup> The LORD said to me, “What do you see, Jeremiah?” I said, “Figs! The good figs are very good, but the bad figs are extremely bad, so bad they are inedible.”

<sup>4</sup> The word of the LORD came to me: <sup>5</sup> “This is what the LORD, the God of Israel, says: Like these good figs, so I regard as good the exiles from Judah I sent away from this place to the land of the Chaldeans. <sup>6</sup> I will keep My eyes on them for their good and will return them to this land. I will build them up and not demolish them; I will plant them and not uproot them. <sup>7</sup> I will give them a heart to know Me, that I am •Yahweh. They will be My people, and I will be their God because they will return to Me with all their heart.

<sup>8</sup> “But as for the bad figs, so bad they are inedible, this is what the LORD says: in this way I will deal with king Zedekiah of Judah, his officials, and the remnant of Jerusalem — those remaining in this land and those living in the land of Egypt. <sup>9</sup> I will make them an object of horror and disaster to all the kingdoms of the earth, a disgrace, an object of scorn, ridicule, and cursing, wherever I have banished them. <sup>10</sup> I will send the sword, famine, and plague against them until they have perished from the land I gave to them and their ancestors.”

The Seventy-Year Exile

25 This is the word that came to Jeremiah concerning all the people of Judah in the fourth year of Jehoiakim son of Josiah, king of Judah (which was the first year of Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon).<sup>2</sup> The prophet Jeremiah spoke concerning all the people of Judah and all the residents of Jerusalem as follows:<sup>3</sup> “From the thirteenth year of Josiah son of Amon, king of Judah, until this very day — 23 years — the word of the LORD has come to me, and I have spoken to you time and time again,<sup>A</sup> but you have not obeyed.<sup>4</sup> The LORD sent all His servants the prophets to you time and time again,<sup>B</sup> but you have not obeyed or even paid attention.<sup>C</sup><sup>5</sup> He announced, ‘Turn, each of you, from your<sup>D</sup> evil way of life and from your evil deeds. Live in the land the LORD gave to you and your ancestors long ago and forever.’<sup>6</sup> Do not follow other gods to serve them and to worship them, and do not provoke Me to anger by the work of your hands. Then I will do you no harm.

<sup>7</sup> “ ‘But you would not obey Me’ — this is the LORD’s declaration — ‘in order that you might provoke Me to anger by the work of your hands and bring disaster on yourselves.’

<sup>8</sup> “Therefore, this is what the LORD of •Hosts says: ‘Because you have not obeyed My words,<sup>9</sup> I am going to send for all the families of the north’ — this is the LORD’s declaration — ‘and send for My servant Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon, and I will bring them against this land, against its residents, and against all these surrounding nations, and I will •completely destroy them and make them a desolation, a derision, and ruins forever.’<sup>10</sup> I will eliminate the sound of joy and gladness from them — the voice of the groom and the bride, the sound of the millstones and the light of the lamp.<sup>11†</sup> This whole land will become a desolate ruin, and these nations will serve the king of Babylon for 70 years.<sup>12</sup> When the 70 years are completed, I will punish the king of Babylon and that nation’ — this is the LORD’s declaration — ‘the land of the Chaldeans, for their •guilt, and I will make it a ruin forever.’<sup>13†</sup> I will bring on that land all My words I have spoken against it, all that is written in this book that Jeremiah prophesied against all the nations.<sup>14</sup> For many nations and great kings will enslave them, and I will repay them according to their deeds and the work of their hands.’ ”

The Cup of God's Wrath

<sup>15</sup> This is what the LORD, the God of Israel, said to me: “Take this cup of the wine of wrath from My hand and make all the nations I am sending you to, drink from it. <sup>16</sup> They will drink, stagger, <sup>E</sup> and go out of their minds because of the sword I am sending among them.”

<sup>17</sup> So I took the cup from the LORD's hand and made all the nations drink from it, everyone the LORD sent me to. <sup>18</sup> These included:

Jerusalem and the other cities of Judah, its kings and its officials, to make them a desolate ruin, an object of scorn and cursing — as it is today;

<sup>20</sup> and all the mixed peoples;

all the kings of the land of Uz;

all the kings of the land of the Philistines — Ashkelon, Gaza, Ekron, and the remnant of Ashdod;

all the kings of Sidon,

and the kings of the coastlands across the sea;

and all the kings of the mixed peoples who have settled in the desert;

<sup>25</sup> all the kings of Zimri,

all the kings of Elam,

and all the kings of Media;

<sup>26</sup> all the kings of the north, both near and far from one another;

that is, all the kingdoms of the world which are on the face of the earth.

Finally, the king of Sheshach will drink after them.

<sup>27</sup> “Then you are to say to them: This is what the LORD of Hosts, the God of Israel, says: Drink, get drunk, and vomit. Fall down and never get up again, as a result of the sword I am sending among you. <sup>28</sup> If <sup>G</sup> they refuse to take the cup from you and drink, you are to say to them: This is what the LORD of Hosts says: You must drink! <sup>29</sup> For I am already bringing disaster on the city that bears My name, so how could you possibly go unpunished? You will not go unpunished, for I am summoning a sword against all the inhabitants of the earth” — this is the declaration of the LORD of Hosts.

Judgment on the Whole World

<sup>30</sup> “As for you, you are to prophesy all these things to them, and say to them:

The LORD roars from heaven;
He raises His voice from His holy dwelling.
He roars loudly over His grazing land;
He calls out with a shout, like those who tread grapes,
against all the inhabitants of the earth.

<sup>31</sup> The tumult reaches to the ends of the earth
because the LORD brings a case against the nations.
He enters into judgment with all flesh.
As for the wicked, He hands them over to the sword —
this is the LORD’s declaration.

<sup>32</sup> “This is what the LORD of Hosts says:

Pay attention! Disaster spreads from nation to nation.
A great storm is stirred up
from the ends of the earth.”

<sup>33</sup> Those slain by the LORD on that day will be spread from one end of the earth to the other. They will not be mourned, gathered, or buried. They will be like manure on the surface of the ground.

<sup>34</sup> Wail, you shepherds, and cry out.
Roll in the dust, you leaders of the flock.

Because the days of your slaughter have come,
you will fall and become shattered like a precious vase.

<sup>35</sup> Flight will be impossible for the shepherds,
and escape, for the leaders of the flock.

<sup>36</sup> Hear the sound of the shepherds' cry,
the wail of the leaders of the flock,
for the LORD is destroying their pasture.

<sup>37</sup> Peaceful grazing land will become lifeless
because of the LORD's burning anger.

<sup>38</sup> He has left His den like a lion,
for their land has become a desolation
because of the sword of the oppressor,
because of His burning anger.

Jeremiah's Speech in the Temple

26 At the beginning of the reign of Jehoiakim son of Josiah, king of Judah, this word came from the LORD: <sup>2†</sup> “This is what the LORD says: Stand in the courtyard of the LORD’s temple and speak all the words I have commanded you to speak to all Judah’s cities that are coming to worship there. Do not hold back a word. <sup>3†</sup> Perhaps they will listen and return — each from his evil way of life — so that I might relent concerning the disaster that I plan to do to them because of the evil of their deeds. <sup>4†</sup> You are to say to them: This is what the LORD says: If you do not listen to Me by living according to My instruction that I set before you <sup>5</sup> and by listening to the words of My servants the prophets I have been sending you time and time again, <sup>A</sup> though you did not listen, <sup>6</sup> I will make this temple like Shiloh. I will make this city an object of cursing for all the nations of the earth.”

Jeremiah Seized

<sup>7</sup> The priests, the prophets, and all the people heard Jeremiah speaking these words in the temple of the LORD. <sup>8</sup> He finished the address the LORD had commanded him to deliver to all the people. Then the priests, the prophets, and all the people took hold of him, yelling, “You must surely die! <sup>9</sup> How dare you prophesy in the name of •Yahweh, ‘This temple will become like Shiloh and this city will become an uninhabited ruin!’ ” Then all the people assembled against Jeremiah at the LORD’s temple.

<sup>10</sup> When the officials of Judah heard these things, they went from the king’s palace to the LORD’s temple and sat at the entrance of the New Gate. <sup>11</sup> Then the priests and prophets said to the officials and all the people, “This man deserves the death sentence because he has prophesied against this city, as you have heard with your own ears.”

Jeremiah’s Defense

<sup>12</sup> Then Jeremiah said to all the officials and the people, “The LORD sent me to prophesy all the words that you have heard against this temple and city. <sup>13</sup> So now, correct your ways and deeds and obey the voice of the LORD your God so that He might relent concerning the disaster that He warned about. <sup>14</sup> As for me, here I am in your hands; do to me what you think is good and right. <sup>15</sup> But know for certain that if you put me to death, you will bring innocent blood on yourselves, on this city, and on its residents, for it is certain the LORD has sent me to speak all these things directly to you.”

Jeremiah Released

<sup>16</sup> Then the officials and all the people told the priests and prophets, “This man doesn’t deserve the death sentence, for he has spoken to us in the name of Yahweh our God! ”

<sup>17</sup> Some of the elders of the land stood up and said to all the assembled people, <sup>18†</sup> “Micah the Moreshite prophesied in the days of Hezekiah king of Judah and said to all the people of Judah, ‘This is what the LORD of •Hosts says:

•Zion will be plowed like a field,
Jerusalem will become ruins,
and the temple mount a forested hill.’

<sup>19</sup> Did Hezekiah king of Judah and all the people of Judah put him to death? Did he not •fear the LORD and plead for the LORD’s favor, <sup>B</sup> and did not the LORD relent concerning the disaster He had pronounced against them? We are about to bring great harm on ourselves! ”

The Prophet Uriah

<sup>20</sup> Another man was also prophesying in the name of Yahweh — Uriah son of Shemaiah from Kiriath-jearim. He prophesied against this city and against this land in words like all those of Jeremiah. <sup>21</sup> King Jehoiakim, all his warriors, and all the officials heard his words, and the king tried to put him to death. When Uriah heard, he fled in fear and went to Egypt. <sup>22</sup> But King Jehoiakim sent men to Egypt: Elnathan son of Achbor and certain other men with him went to Egypt. <sup>23</sup> They brought Uriah out of Egypt and took him to King Jehoiakim, who executed him with the sword and threw his corpse into the burial place of the common people. <sup>C</sup>

<sup>24</sup> But Ahikam son of Shaphan supported Jeremiah, so he was not handed over to the people to be put to death.

The Yoke of Babylon

27 At the beginning of the reign of Zedekiah son of Josiah, king of Judah, this word came to Jeremiah from the LORD: <sup>2</sup> “This is what the LORD said to me: Make chains and yoke bars for yourself and put them on your neck. <sup>3</sup> Send word to the king of Edom, the king of Moab, the king of the Ammonites, the king of Tyre, and the king of Sidon through messengers who are coming to Zedekiah king of Judah in Jerusalem. <sup>4</sup> Command them to go to their masters, saying: This is what the LORD of •Hosts, the God of Israel, says: This is what you must say to your masters: <sup>5</sup> By My great strength and outstretched arm, I made the earth, and the people, and animals on the face of the earth. I give it to anyone I please. <sup>A</sup> <sup>6</sup> So now I have placed all these lands under the authority of My servant Nebuchadnezzar, king of Babylon. I have even given him the wild animals to serve him. <sup>7</sup> All nations will serve him, his son, and his grandson until the time for his own land comes, and then many nations and great kings will enslave him.

<sup>8†</sup> “As for the nation or kingdom that does not serve Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon and does not place its neck under the yoke of the king of Babylon, that nation I will punish by sword, famine, and plague” — this is the LORD’s declaration — “until through him I have destroyed it. <sup>9</sup> But as for you, do not listen to your prophets, diviners, dreamers, fortune-tellers, or sorcerers who say to you, ‘Don’t serve the king of Babylon!’ <sup>10</sup> for they prophesy a lie to you so that you will be removed from your land. I will banish you, and you will perish. <sup>11</sup> But as for the nation that will put its neck under the yoke of the king of Babylon and serve him, I will leave it in its own land, and that nation will cultivate <sup>B</sup> it and reside in it.” This is the LORD’s declaration.

Warning to Zedekiah

<sup>12</sup> I spoke to Zedekiah king of Judah in the same way: “Put your necks under the yoke of the king of Babylon, serve him and his people, and live! <sup>13</sup> Why should you and your people die by the sword, famine, or plague as the LORD has threatened against any nation that does not serve the king of Babylon? <sup>14†</sup> Do not listen to the words of the prophets who are telling you,

‘You must not serve the king of Babylon,’ for they are prophesying a lie to you. <sup>15†</sup> ‘I have not sent them’ — this is the LORD’s declaration — ‘and they are prophesying falsely in My name; therefore, I will banish you, and you will perish — you and the prophets who are prophesying to you.’ ”

<sup>16</sup> Then I spoke to the priests and all these people, saying, “This is what the LORD says: ‘Do not listen to the words of your prophets. They are prophesying to you, claiming, “Look, very soon now the articles of the LORD’s temple will be brought back from Babylon.” They are prophesying a lie to you. <sup>17</sup> Do not listen to them. Serve the king of Babylon and live! Why should this city become a ruin? <sup>18</sup> If they are indeed prophets and if the word of the LORD is with them, let them intercede with the LORD of Hosts not to let the articles that remain in the LORD’s temple, in the palace of the king of Judah, and in Jerusalem go to Babylon.’ <sup>19</sup> For this is what the LORD of Hosts says about the pillars, the sea, the water carts, and the rest of the articles that still remain in this city, <sup>20</sup> those Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon did not take when he deported Jeconiah son of Jehoiakim, king of Judah, from Jerusalem to Babylon along with all the nobles of Judah and Jerusalem. <sup>21</sup> Yes, this is what the LORD of Hosts, the God of Israel, says about the articles that remain in the temple of the LORD, in the palace of the king of Judah, and in Jerusalem: <sup>22†</sup> ‘They will be brought to Babylon and will remain there until I attend to them again.’ This is the LORD’s declaration. ‘Then I will bring them up and restore them to this place.’ ”

Hananiah's False Prophecy

28 In that same year, at the beginning of the reign of King Zedekiah of Judah, in the fifth month of the fourth year, the prophet Hananiah son of Azzur from Gibeon said to me in the temple of the LORD in the presence of the priests and all the people, <sup>2†</sup> “This is what the LORD of •Hosts, the God of Israel, says: ‘I have broken the yoke of the king of Babylon. <sup>3</sup> Within two years I will restore to this place all the articles of the LORD’s temple that King Nebuchadnezzar of Babylon took from here and transported to Babylon. <sup>4</sup> And I will restore to this place Jeconiah son of Jehoiakim, king of Judah, and all the exiles from Judah who went to Babylon’ — this is the LORD’s declaration — ‘for I will break the yoke of the king of Babylon.’ ”

Jeremiah’s Response to Hananiah

<sup>5</sup> The prophet Jeremiah replied to the prophet Hananiah in the presence of the priests and all the people who were standing in the temple of the LORD. <sup>6</sup> The prophet Jeremiah said, “•Amen! May the LORD do so. May the LORD make the words you have prophesied come true and may He restore the articles of the LORD’s temple and all the exiles from Babylon to this place! <sup>7</sup> Only listen to this message I am speaking in your hearing and in the hearing of all the people. <sup>8</sup> The prophets who preceded you and me from ancient times prophesied war, disaster, and plague against many lands and great kingdoms. <sup>9</sup> As for the prophet who prophesies peace — only when the word of the prophet comes true will the prophet be recognized as one the LORD has truly sent.”

Hananiah Breaks Jeremiah’s Yoke

<sup>10</sup> The prophet Hananiah then took the yoke bar from the neck of Jeremiah the prophet and broke it. <sup>11</sup> In the presence of all the people Hananiah proclaimed, “This is what the LORD says: ‘In this way, within two years I will break the yoke of King Nebuchadnezzar of Babylon from the neck of all the nations.’ ” Jeremiah the prophet then went on his way.

The LORD’s Word against Hananiah

<sup>12</sup> The word of the LORD came to Jeremiah after Hananiah the prophet had broken the yoke bar from the neck of Jeremiah the prophet: <sup>13</sup> “Go say to Hananiah: This is what the LORD says, ‘You broke a wooden yoke bar, but in its place you will make an iron yoke bar.’ <sup>14</sup> For this is what the LORD of Hosts, the God of Israel, says, ‘I have put an iron yoke on the neck of all these nations that they might serve King Nebuchadnezzar of Babylon, and they will serve him. I have also put the wild animals under him.’ ”

<sup>15</sup> The prophet Jeremiah said to the prophet Hananiah, “Listen, Hananiah! The LORD did not send you, but you have led these people to trust in a lie. <sup>16</sup> Therefore, this is what the LORD says: ‘I am about to send you off the face of the earth. You will die this year because you have spoken rebellion against the LORD.’ ” <sup>17</sup> And the prophet Hananiah died that year in the seventh month.

Jeremiah's Letter to the Exiles

29 This is the text of the letter that Jeremiah the prophet sent from Jerusalem to the rest of the elders of the exiles, the priests, the prophets, and all the people Nebuchadnezzar had deported from Jerusalem to Babylon.<sup>2</sup> This was after King Jeconiah, the queen mother, the court officials, the officials of Judah and Jerusalem, the craftsmen, and the metalsmiths had left Jerusalem.<sup>3</sup> The letter was sent by Elasah son of Shaphan and Gemariah son of Hilkiah whom Zedekiah king of Judah had sent to Babylon to Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon. The letter stated:

<sup>8</sup> For this is what the LORD of Hosts, the God of Israel, says: “Don’t let your prophets who are among you and your diviners deceive you, and don’t listen to the dreams you elicit from them,<sup>9</sup> for they are prophesying falsely to you in My name. I have not sent them.” This is the LORD’s declaration.

<sup>10†</sup> For this is what the LORD says: “When 70 years for Babylon are complete, I will attend to you and will confirm My promise concerning you to restore you to this place.<sup>11</sup> For I know the plans I have for you” — this is the LORD’s declaration — “plans for your welfare, not for disaster, to give you a future and a hope.

<sup>12</sup> You will call to Me and come and pray to Me, and I will listen to you.<sup>13</sup> You will seek Me and find Me when you search for Me with all your heart.<sup>14</sup> I will be found by you” — this is the LORD’s declaration — “and I will restore your fortunes<sup>A</sup> and gather you from all the nations and places where I banished you” — this is the LORD’s declaration. “I will restore you to the place I deported you from.”

<sup>15</sup> You have said, “The LORD has raised up prophets for us in Babylon! ” <sup>16</sup> But this is what the LORD says concerning the king sitting on David’s throne and concerning all the people living in this city — that is, concerning your brothers who did not go with you into exile. <sup>17</sup> This is what the LORD of Hosts says: “I am about to send against them sword, famine, and plague and will make them like rotten figs that are inedible because they are so bad. <sup>18</sup> I will pursue them with sword, famine, and plague. I will make them a horror to all the kingdoms of the earth — a curse and a desolation, an object of scorn and a disgrace among all the nations where I have banished them. <sup>19</sup> I will do this because they have not listened to My words” — this is the LORD’s declaration — “that I sent to them with My servants the prophets time and time again. <sup>B</sup> And you too have not listened.” This is the LORD’s declaration.

<sup>20</sup> Hear the word of the LORD, all you exiles I have sent from Jerusalem to Babylon. <sup>21</sup> This is what the LORD of Hosts, the God of Israel, says to Ahab son of Kolaiah and to Zedekiah son of Maaseiah, the ones prophesying a lie to you in My name: “I am about to hand them over to Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon, and he will kill them before your very eyes. <sup>22</sup> Based on what happens to them, all the exiles of Judah who are in Babylon will create a curse that says, ‘May the LORD make you like Zedekiah and Ahab, whom the king of Babylon roasted in the fire! ’ <sup>23</sup> because they have committed an outrage in Israel by committing adultery with their neighbors’ wives and have spoken a lie in My name, which I did not command them. I am He who knows, and I am a witness.” This is the LORD’s declaration.

madman who acts like a prophet. You must confine him in the stocks and an iron collar.<sup>27</sup> So now, why have you not rebuked Jeremiah of Anathoth who has been acting like a prophet among you?<sup>28</sup> For he has sent word to us in Babylon, claiming, “The exile will be long. Build houses and settle down. Plant gardens and eat their produce.” ’ ’ ”

A Message about Shemaiah

<sup>30</sup> Then the word of the LORD came to Jeremiah:<sup>31</sup> “Send a message to all the exiles, saying: This is what the LORD says concerning Shemaiah the Nehelamite. Because Shemaiah prophesied to you, though I did not send him, and made you trust a lie,<sup>32</sup> this is what the LORD says: I am about to punish Shemaiah the Nehelamite and his descendants. There will not be even one of his descendants living among these people, nor will any ever see the good that I will bring to My people” — this is the LORD’s declaration — “for he has preached rebellion against the LORD.”

Restoration from Captivity

30 †This is the word that came to Jeremiah from the LORD. <sup>2</sup> This is what the LORD, the God of Israel, says: “Write down on a scroll all the words that I have spoken to you, <sup>3</sup> for the days are certainly coming” — this is the LORD’s declaration — “when I will restore the fortunes <sup>A</sup> of My people Israel and Judah” — the LORD’s declaration. “I will restore them to the land I gave to their ancestors and they will possess it.”

<sup>4</sup> These are the words the LORD spoke to Israel and Judah. <sup>5</sup> Yes, this is what the LORD says:

We have heard a cry of terror,
of dread — there is no peace.

<sup>6</sup> Ask and see whether a male can give birth.
Why then do I see every man with his hands on his stomach like a woman in labor and every face turned pale?

<sup>7</sup> How awful that day will be!
There will be none like it!
It will be a time of trouble for Jacob,
but he will be delivered out of it.

<sup>8</sup> “On that day” — this is the declaration of the LORD of •Hosts — “I will break his yoke from your neck and tear off your chains so strangers will never again enslave him. <sup>9</sup> They will serve the LORD their God and I will raise up David their king for them.”

<sup>10</sup> As for you, My servant Jacob,
do not be afraid —
and do not be dismayed, Israel,                      this is the LORD’s declaration — for without fail I will save you from far away,
your descendants, from the land of their captivity!
Jacob will return and have calm and quiet
with no one to frighten him.

<sup>11</sup> For I will be with you — to save you! this is the LORD's declaration —

I will bring destruction on all the nations
where I have scattered you;
however, I will not bring destruction on you.
I will discipline you justly,
and I will by no means leave you unpunished.

Healing Zion's Wounds

<sup>12</sup> For this is what the LORD says:

Your injury is incurable;
your wound most severe.

<sup>13</sup> No one takes up the case for your sores.
There is no healing for you.

<sup>14</sup> All your lovers have forgotten you;
they no longer look for you,
for I have struck you as an enemy would,
with the discipline of someone cruel,
because of your enormous •guilt
and your innumerable sins.

<sup>15</sup> Why do you cry out about your injury?
Your pain has no cure!
I have done these things to you
because of your enormous guilt
and your innumerable sins.

<sup>16</sup> Nevertheless, all who devoured you will be devoured, and all your adversaries — all of them —
will go off into exile.

Those who plunder you will be plundered,
and all who raid you will be raided.

<sup>17</sup> But I will bring you health and will heal you of your wounds —
for they call you Outcast, •Zion whom no one cares about.

this is the LORD's declaration —

Restoration of the Land

God's Relationship with His People

31 “At that time” — this is the LORD’s declaration — “I will be the God of all the families of Israel, and they will be My people.”

<sup>2</sup> This is what the LORD says:

They found favor in the wilderness —
the people who survived the sword.

When Israel went to find rest,

<sup>3</sup> the LORD appeared to him from far away.

I have loved you with an everlasting love;
therefore, I have continued to extend faithful love to you.

<sup>4†</sup> Again I will build you so that you will be rebuilt, Virgin Israel.

You will take up your tambourines again
and go out in joyful dancing.

<sup>5</sup> You will plant vineyards again on the mountains of Samaria;
the planters will plant and will enjoy the fruit.

<sup>6</sup> For there will be a day when watchmen will call out in the hill country of Ephraim, “Get up, let’s go up to •Zion,
to •Yahweh our God! ”

God’s People Brought Home

<sup>7</sup> For this is what the LORD says:

Sing with joy for Jacob;
shout for the chief of the nations!
Proclaim, praise, and say, “LORD, save Your people,
the remnant of Israel! ”

<sup>8</sup> Watch! I am going to bring them from the northern land.
I will gather them from remote regions of the earth —
the blind and the lame will be with them, along with those who are pregnant and those about to give birth.
They will return here as a great assembly!

<sup>9</sup> They will come weeping,
but I will bring them back with consolation.
I will lead them to •wadis filled with water
by a smooth way where they will not stumble,
for I am Israel's Father,
and Ephraim is My firstborn.

<sup>10</sup> Nations, hear the word of the LORD,
and tell it among the far off coastlands!
Say: The One who scattered Israel will gather him.
He will watch over him as a shepherd guards his flock,

<sup>11</sup> for the LORD has ransomed Jacob and redeemed him from the power of one stronger than he.

<sup>12</sup> They will come and shout for joy on the heights of Zion;
they will be radiant with joy
because of the LORD's goodness,
because of the grain, the new wine, the fresh oil,
and because of the young of the flocks and herds.
Their life will be like an irrigated garden,
and they will no longer grow weak from hunger.

<sup>13</sup> Then the young woman will rejoice with dancing,
while young and old men rejoice together.
I will turn their mourning into joy,
give them consolation,
and bring happiness out of grief.

<sup>14</sup> I will refresh the priests with an abundance, <sup>A</sup>
and My people will be satisfied with My goodness.

This is the LORD's declaration.

Lament Turned to Joy

<sup>15†</sup> This is what the LORD says:

A voice was heard in Ramah,
a lament with bitter weeping —
Rachel weeping for her children,
refusing to be comforted for her children
because they are no more.

<sup>16</sup> This is what the LORD says:

Keep your voice from weeping
and your eyes from tears,
for the reward for your work will come —
and your children will return from the enemy's land. —
this is the LORD's declaration —

<sup>17</sup> There is hope for your future —
and your children will return to their own territory. —
this is the LORD's declaration —

<sup>18</sup> I have heard Ephraim moaning, “You disciplined me, and I have been disciplined
like an untrained calf.
Restore me, and I will return,
for you, LORD, are my God.

<sup>19</sup> After I returned, I repented;
After I was instructed, I struck my thigh in grief.
I was ashamed and humiliated
because I bore the disgrace of my youth.”

<sup>20</sup> Isn't Ephraim a precious son to Me, a delightful child?
Whenever I speak against him,
I certainly still think about him.
Therefore, My inner being yearns for him;
I will truly have compassion on him.

This is the LORD's declaration.

Repentance and Restoration

<sup>21</sup> Set up road markers for yourself; establish signposts!
Keep the highway in mind,
the way you have traveled.
Return, Virgin Israel!
Return to these cities of yours.

<sup>22</sup> How long will you turn here and there, faithless daughter?

For the LORD creates something new in the land <sup>B</sup> —
a female <sup>C</sup> will shelter <sup>D</sup> a man.

<sup>26†</sup> At this I awoke and looked around. My sleep had been most pleasant to me.

<sup>27</sup> “The days are coming” — this is the LORD’s declaration — “when I will sow the house of Israel and the house of Judah with the seed of man and the seed of beast. <sup>28</sup> Just as I watched over them to uproot and to tear them down, to demolish and to destroy, and to cause disaster, so will I be attentive to build and to plant them,” says the LORD. <sup>29†</sup> “In those days, it will never again be said:

The fathers have eaten sour grapes,
and the children’s teeth are set on edge.

<sup>30</sup> Rather, each will die for his own wrongdoing. Anyone who eats sour grapes — his own teeth will be set on edge.

The New Covenant

<sup>31</sup> “Look, the days are coming” — this is the LORD’s declaration — “when I will make a new covenant with the house of Israel and with the house of Judah. <sup>32†</sup> This one will not be like the covenant I made with their ancestors when I took them by the hand to bring them out of the land of Egypt — a covenant they broke even though I had married them” — the LORD’s declaration. <sup>33</sup> “Instead, this is the covenant I will make with the house of Israel after those days” — the LORD’s declaration. “I will put My teaching within them and write it on their hearts. I will be their

God, and they will be My people. <sup>34†</sup> No longer will one teach his neighbor or his brother, saying, ‘Know the LORD,’ for they will all know Me, from the least to the greatest of them” — this is the LORD’s declaration. “For I will forgive their wrongdoing and never again remember their sin.”

The One who gives the sun for light by day,
the fixed order of moon and stars for light by night,
who stirs up the sea and makes its waves roar —
Yahweh of Hosts is His name:

<sup>36</sup> If this fixed order departs from My presence —
then also Israel’s descendants will cease — this is the LORD’s declaration — to be a nation before Me forever.

If the heavens above can be measured
and the foundations of the earth below explored,
I will reject all of Israel’s descendants
because of all they have done —

this is the LORD’s declaration.

<sup>38</sup> “Look, the days are coming” — the LORD’s declaration — “when the city from the Tower of Hananel to the Corner Gate will be rebuilt for the LORD. <sup>39</sup> A measuring line will once again stretch out straight to the hill of Gareb and then turn toward Goah.

<sup>40</sup> The whole valley — the corpses, the ashes, and all the fields as far as the Kidron Valley to the corner of the Horse Gate to the east — will be holy to the LORD. It will never be uprooted or demolished again.”

Jeremiah's Land Purchase

32 This is the word that came to Jeremiah from the LORD in the tenth year of Zedekiah king of Judah, which was the eighteenth year of Nebuchadnezzar. <sup>2</sup> At that time, the army of the king of Babylon was besieging Jerusalem, and Jeremiah the prophet was imprisoned in the guard's courtyard in the palace of the king of Judah. <sup>3</sup> Zedekiah king of Judah had imprisoned him, saying: "Why are you prophesying, 'This is what the LORD says: Look, I am about to hand this city over to Babylon's king, and he will capture it.' <sup>4</sup> Zedekiah king of Judah will not escape from the Chaldeans; indeed, he will certainly be handed over to Babylon's king. They will speak face to face <sup>A</sup> and meet eye to eye. <sup>5</sup> He will take Zedekiah to Babylon where he will stay until I attend to him' — this is the LORD's declaration. 'You will fight the Chaldeans, but you will not succeed?'"

<sup>8</sup> "Then my cousin Hanamel came to the guard's courtyard as the LORD had said and urged me, 'Please buy my field in Anathoth in the land of Benjamin, for you own the right of inheritance and redemption. Buy it for yourself.' Then I knew that this was the word of the LORD. <sup>9</sup> So I bought the field in Anathoth from my cousin Hanamel, and I weighed out to him the money — 17 •shekels of silver. <sup>10</sup> I recorded it on a scroll, sealed it, called in witnesses, and weighed out the silver in the scales. <sup>11</sup> I took the purchase agreement — the sealed copy with its terms and conditions and the open copy — <sup>12</sup> and gave the purchase agreement to Baruch son of Neriah, son of Mahseiah. I did this in the sight of my cousin Hanamel, the witnesses who were signing the purchase agreement, and all the Judeans sitting in the guard's courtyard.

of Israel, says: Houses, fields, and vineyards will again be bought in this land.'

<sup>16</sup> “After I had given the purchase agreement to Baruch, son of Neriah, I prayed to the LORD: <sup>17</sup> Oh, Lord GOD! You Yourself made the heavens and earth by Your great power and with Your outstretched arm. Nothing is too difficult for You! <sup>18</sup> You show faithful love to thousands but lay the fathers’ sins on their sons’ laps after them, great and mighty God whose name is •Yahweh of Hosts, <sup>19</sup> the One great in counsel and mighty in deed, whose eyes are on all the ways of the sons of men in order to give to each person according to his ways and the result of his deeds. <sup>20</sup> You performed signs and wonders in the land of Egypt and do so to this very day both in Israel and among mankind. You made a name for Yourself, as is the case today. <sup>21</sup> You brought Your people Israel out of Egypt with signs and wonders, with a strong hand and an outstretched arm, and with great terror. <sup>22</sup> You gave them this land You swore to give to their ancestors, a land flowing with milk and honey. <sup>23</sup> They entered and possessed it, but they did not obey Your voice or live according to Your instructions. They failed to perform all You commanded them to do, and so You have brought all this disaster on them. <sup>24</sup> Look! Siege ramps have come against the city to capture it, and the city, as a result of the sword, famine, and plague, has been handed over to the Chaldeans who are fighting against it. What You have spoken has happened. Look, You can see it! <sup>25</sup> Yet You, Lord GOD, have said to me: Buy the field with silver and call in witnesses — even though the city has been handed over to the Chaldeans! ”

<sup>26</sup> Then the word of the LORD came to Jeremiah: <sup>27</sup> “Look, I am Yahweh, the God of all flesh. Is anything too difficult for Me? <sup>28</sup> Therefore, this is what the LORD says: I am about to hand this city over to the Chaldeans, to Babylon’s king Nebuchadnezzar, and he will capture it. <sup>29</sup> The Chaldeans who are going to fight against this city will come, set this city on fire, and burn it along with the houses where incense has been burned to •Baal on their rooftops and where •drink offerings have been poured out to other gods to provoke Me to anger. <sup>30</sup> From their youth, the Israelites and Judeans have done nothing but what is evil in My sight! They have done nothing but provoke Me to anger by the work of their hands” — this is the LORD’s declaration — <sup>31</sup> “for this city has caused My wrath and fury from the day it was built until now. I will therefore remove it from My presence, <sup>32</sup> because of all the evil the Israelites and Judeans have done to provoke Me to anger — they, their kings, their officials, their priests, and their prophets, the men of Judah, and the residents of Jerusalem. <sup>33</sup> They have turned their backs to Me and not their faces. Though I taught them time and time again, <sup>B</sup>, they do not listen and receive discipline. <sup>34</sup> They have placed their detestable things in the house that is called by My name and have defiled it. <sup>35†</sup> They have built the •high places of Baal in the Valley of Hinnom to make their sons and daughters pass through the fire to •Molech — something I had not commanded them. I had never entertained the thought <sup>C</sup> that they do this detestable act causing Judah to sin!

<sup>36</sup> “Now therefore, this is what the LORD, the God of Israel, says to this city about which you said, ‘It has been handed over to Babylon’s king through sword, famine, and plague’: <sup>37</sup> I am about to gather them from all the lands where I have banished them in My anger, rage and great wrath, and I will return them to this place and make them live in safety. <sup>38</sup> They will be My people, and I will be their God. <sup>39</sup> I will give them one heart and one way so that for their good and for the good of their descendants after them, they will •fear Me always.

<sup>40</sup> “I will make an everlasting covenant with them: I will never turn away from doing good to them, and I will put fear of Me in their hearts so they will never again turn away from Me. <sup>41</sup> I will take delight in them to do what is good for them, and with all My heart and mind I will faithfully plant them in this land.

<sup>42</sup> “For this is what the LORD says: Just as I have brought all this great disaster on these people, so am I about to bring on them all the good I am promising them. <sup>43</sup> Fields will be bought in this land about which you are saying, ‘It’s a desolation without man or beast; it has been handed over to the Chaldeans!’ <sup>44</sup> Fields will be purchased with silver, the transaction written on a scroll and sealed, and witnesses will be called on in the land of Benjamin, in the areas surrounding Jerusalem, and in Judah's cities — the cities of the hill country, the cities of the Judean foothills, and the cities of the •Negev — because I will restore their fortunes.”<sup>D</sup>

This is the LORD's declaration.

Israel's Restoration

33 While he was still confined in the guard's courtyard, the word of the LORD came to Jeremiah a second time: <sup>2</sup> "The LORD who made the earth, the LORD who forms it to establish it, •Yahweh is His name, says this: <sup>3</sup> Call to Me and I will answer you and tell you great and incomprehensible things you do not know. <sup>4</sup> For this is what the LORD, the God of Israel, says concerning the houses of this city and the palaces of Judah's kings, the ones torn down for defense against the siege ramps and the sword: <sup>5</sup> The people coming to fight the Chaldeans will fill the houses with the corpses of their own men that I strike down in My wrath and rage. I have hidden My face from this city because of all their evil. <sup>6</sup> Yet I will certainly bring health and healing to it and will indeed heal them. I will let them experience the abundance <sup>A</sup> of peace and truth. <sup>7</sup> I will restore the fortunes <sup>B</sup> of Judah and of Israel and will rebuild them as in former times. <sup>8</sup> I will purify them from all the wrongs they have committed against Me, and I will forgive all the wrongs they have committed against Me, rebelling against Me. <sup>9</sup> This city will bear on My behalf a name of joy, praise, and glory before all the nations of the earth, who will hear of all the good I will do for them. They will tremble with awe because of all the good and all the peace I will bring about for them.

<sup>10</sup> "This is what the LORD says: In this place, which you say is a ruin, without man or beast — that is, in Judah's cities and Jerusalem's streets that are a desolation without man, without inhabitant, and without beast — there will be heard again <sup>11</sup> a sound of joy and gladness, the voice of the groom and the bride, and the voice of those saying,

Praise the LORD of •Hosts,
for the LORD is good;
His faithful love endures forever

as they bring thank offerings to the temple of the LORD. For I will restore the fortunes <sup>C</sup> of the land as in former times, says the LORD.

<sup>12</sup> "This is what the LORD of Hosts says: In this desolate place — without man or beast — and in all its cities there will once more be a grazing land where shepherds may rest flocks. <sup>13</sup> The flocks will again pass under the hands of the one who counts them in the cities of the hill country, the cities of the Judean foothills, the cities of the •Negev, the land of Benjamin — the cities surrounding Jerusalem and Judah’s cities, says the LORD.

God’s Covenant with David

<sup>14</sup> “Look, the days are coming” —
this is the LORD’s declaration —
“when I will fulfill the good promises that I have spoken concerning the house of Israel
and the house of Judah.

<sup>15</sup> In those days and at that time
I will cause a Righteous Branch to sprout up for David,
and He will administer justice
and righteousness in the land.

<sup>16†</sup> In those days Judah will be saved,
and Jerusalem will dwell securely,
and this is what she will be named:
Yahweh Our Righteousness.

<sup>17</sup> For this is what the LORD says: David will never fail to have a man sitting on the throne of the house of Israel. <sup>18</sup> The Levitical priests will never fail to have a man always before Me to offer •burnt offerings, to burn •grain offerings, and to make sacrifices.”

<sup>19</sup> The word of the LORD came to Jeremiah: <sup>20</sup> “This is what the LORD says: If you can break My covenant with the day and My covenant with the night so that day and night cease to come at their regular time, <sup>21</sup> then also My covenant with My servant David may be broken so that he will not have a son reigning on his throne, and the Levitical priests will not be My ministers. <sup>22</sup> The hosts of heaven cannot be counted; the sand of the sea cannot be measured. So, too, I will make the descendants of My servant David and the Levites who minister to Me innumerable.”

<sup>23</sup> The word of the LORD came to Jeremiah: <sup>24</sup> “Have you not noticed what these people have said? They say, ‘The LORD has rejected the two families He had chosen.’ My people are treated with contempt and no longer regarded as a nation among them. <sup>25</sup> This is what the LORD says: If I do not keep My covenant with the day and with the night and fail to establish the fixed order of heaven and earth, <sup>26</sup> then I might also reject the •seed of Jacob and of My servant David — not taking from his descendants rulers over the descendants of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob. Instead, I will restore their fortunes <sup>D</sup> and have compassion on them.”

Jeremiah's Word to King Zedekiah

34 This is the word that came to Jeremiah from the LORD when Nebuchadnezzar, king of Babylon, all his army, all the earthly kingdoms under his control, and all other nations were fighting against Jerusalem and all its surrounding cities: <sup>2</sup> “This is what the LORD, the God of Israel, says: Go, speak to Zedekiah, king of Judah, and tell him: This is what the LORD says: I am about to hand this city over to the king of Babylon, and he will burn it down. <sup>3</sup> As for you, you will not escape from his hand but are certain to be captured and handed over to him. You will meet the king of Babylon eye to eye and speak face to face; <sup>A</sup> you will go to Babylon.

<sup>4†</sup> “Yet hear the LORD’s word, Zedekiah, king of Judah. This is what the LORD says concerning you: You will not die by the sword; <sup>5</sup> you will die peacefully. There will be a burning ceremony for you just like the burning ceremonies for your fathers, the former kings who preceded you. ‘Our king is dead!’ <sup>B</sup> will be the lament for you, for I have spoken this word.” This is the LORD’s declaration.

<sup>6</sup> So Jeremiah the prophet related all these words to Zedekiah king of Judah in Jerusalem <sup>7</sup> while the king of Babylon’s army was attacking Jerusalem and all of Judah’s remaining cities — against Lachish and Azekah, for they were the only ones left of Judah’s fortified cities.

The People and Their Slaves

<sup>8</sup> This is the word that came to Jeremiah from the LORD after King Zedekiah made a covenant with all the people who were in Jerusalem to proclaim freedom to them, <sup>9</sup> so each man would free his male and female Hebrew slaves and no one would enslave his Judean brother. <sup>10</sup> All the officials and people who entered into covenant to free their male and female slaves — in order not to enslave them any longer — obeyed and freed them. <sup>11</sup> Afterward, however, they changed their minds and took back their male and female slaves they had freed and forced them to become slaves again.

ancestors when I brought them out of the land of Egypt, out of the place of slavery, saying: <sup>14</sup> At the end of seven years, each of you must free his Hebrew brother who sold himself <sup>C</sup> to you. He may serve you six years, but then you must send him out free from you. But your ancestors did not obey Me or pay any attention. <sup>15</sup> Today you repented and did what pleased Me, each of you proclaiming freedom for his neighbor. You made a covenant before Me at the temple called by My name. <sup>16</sup> But you have changed your minds and profaned My name. Each has taken back his male and female slaves who had been freed to go wherever they wanted, and you have again subjugated them to be your slaves.

<sup>17</sup> “Therefore, this is what the LORD says: You have not obeyed Me by proclaiming freedom, each man for his brother and for his neighbor. I hereby proclaim freedom for you” — this is the LORD’s declaration — “to the sword, to plague, and to famine! I will make you a horror to all the earth’s kingdoms. <sup>18</sup> As for those who disobeyed My covenant, not keeping the terms of the covenant they made before Me, I will treat them like the calf they cut in two in order to pass between its pieces. <sup>19</sup> The officials of Judah and Jerusalem, the court officials, the priests, and all the people of the land who passed between the pieces of the calf <sup>20</sup> will be handed over to their enemies, to those who want to take their life. Their corpses will become food for the birds of the sky and for the wild animals of the land. <sup>21</sup> I will hand Zedekiah king of Judah and his officials over to their enemies, to those who want to take their lives, to the king of Babylon’s army that is withdrawing. <sup>22</sup> I am about to give the command” — this is the LORD’s declaration — “and I will bring them back to this city. They will fight against it, capture it, and burn it down. I will make Judah’s cities a desolation, without inhabitant.”

The Rechabites' Example

35 This is the word that came to Jeremiah from the LORD in the days of Jehoiakim son of Josiah, king of Judah: <sup>2†</sup> “Go to the house of the Rechabites, speak to them, and bring them to one of the chambers of the temple of the LORD to offer them a drink of wine.”

<sup>3</sup> So I took Jaazaniah son of Jeremiah, son of Habazziniah, and his brothers and all his sons — the entire house of the Rechabites — <sup>4</sup> and I brought them into the temple of the LORD to a chamber occupied by the sons of Hanan son of Igdaliah, a man of God, who had a chamber near the officials’ chamber, which was above the chamber of Maaseiah son of Shallum the doorkeeper. <sup>5</sup> I set jars filled with wine and some cups before the sons of the house of the Rechabites and said to them, “Drink wine!”

<sup>6</sup> But they replied, “We do not drink wine, for Jonadab, son of our ancestor Rechab, commanded: ‘You and your sons must never drink wine. <sup>7</sup> You must not build a house or sow seed or plant a vineyard. Those things are not for you. Rather, you must live in tents your whole life, so you may live a long time on the soil where you stay as a temporary resident.’ <sup>8</sup> We have obeyed the voice of Jonadab, son of our ancestor Rechab, in all he commanded us. So we haven’t drunk wine our whole life — we, our wives, our sons, and our daughters. <sup>9</sup> We also have not built houses to live in and do not have vineyard, field, or seed. <sup>10</sup> But we have lived in tents and have obeyed and done as our ancestor Jonadab commanded us. <sup>11</sup> However, when Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon marched into the land, we said: Come, let’s go into Jerusalem to get away from the Chaldean and Aramean armies. So we have been living in Jerusalem.”

<sup>12</sup> Then the word of the LORD came to Jeremiah: <sup>13</sup> “This is what the LORD of •Hosts, the God of Israel, says: Go, say to the men of Judah and the residents of Jerusalem: Will you not accept discipline by listening to My words?” — this is the LORD’s declaration. <sup>14</sup> “The words of Jonadab, son of Rechab, have been carried out. He commanded his sons not to drink wine, and they have not drunk to this very day because they have obeyed their ancestor’s command. But I have spoken to you time and time again, <sup>A</sup>, and you have not obeyed Me! <sup>15</sup> Time and time again <sup>B</sup> I have sent you all My servants the prophets, proclaiming: Turn, each one from his evil way of life, and correct your actions. Stop following other gods to serve them. Live in the land that I gave you and your ancestors. But you would not pay attention or obey Me. <sup>16</sup> Yes, the sons of Jonadab son of Rechab carried out their ancestor's command he gave them, but these people have not obeyed Me. <sup>17</sup> Therefore, this is what the LORD, the God of Hosts, the God of Israel, says: I will certainly bring to Judah and to all the residents of Jerusalem all the disaster I have pronounced against them because I have spoken to them, but they have not obeyed, and I have called to them, but they would not answer.”

<sup>18</sup> Jeremiah said to the house of the Rechabites: “This is what the LORD of Hosts, the God of Israel, says: ‘Because you have obeyed the command of your ancestor Jonadab and have kept all his commands and have done all that he commanded you, <sup>19</sup> this is what the LORD of Hosts, the God of Israel, says: Jonadab son of Rechab will never fail to have a man to always stand before Me.’ ”

Jeremiah Dictates a Scroll

36 In the fourth year of Jehoiakim son of Josiah, king of Judah, this word came to Jeremiah from the LORD:<sup>2†</sup> “Take a scroll, and write on it all the words I have spoken to you concerning Israel, Judah, and all the nations from the time I first spoke to you during Josiah’s reign until today.<sup>3</sup> Perhaps when the house of Judah hears about all the disaster I am planning to bring on them, each one of them will turn from his evil way. Then I will forgive their wrongdoing and their sin.”

<sup>4</sup> So Jeremiah summoned Baruch son of Neriah. At Jeremiah’s dictation, <sup>A</sup> Baruch wrote on a scroll all the words the LORD had spoken to Jeremiah. <sup>5</sup> Then Jeremiah commanded Baruch, “I am restricted; I cannot enter the temple of the LORD, <sup>6</sup> so you must go and read from the scroll — which you wrote at my dictation <sup>B</sup> — the words of the LORD in the hearing of the people at the temple of the LORD on a day of fasting. You must also read them in the hearing of all the Judeans who are coming from their cities. <sup>7</sup> Perhaps their petition will come before the LORD, and each one will turn from his evil way, for the anger and fury that the LORD has pronounced against this people are great.” <sup>8</sup> So Baruch son of Neriah did everything Jeremiah the prophet had commanded him. At the LORD’s temple he read the LORD’s words from the scroll.

Baruch Reads the Scroll

<sup>9</sup> In the fifth year of Jehoiakim son of Josiah, king of Judah, in the ninth month, all the people of Jerusalem and all those coming in from Judah’s cities into Jerusalem proclaimed a fast before the LORD. <sup>10</sup> Then at the LORD’s temple, in the chamber of Gemariah son of Shaphan the scribe, in the upper courtyard at the opening of the New Gate of the LORD’s temple, in the hearing of all the people, Baruch read Jeremiah’s words from the scroll.

<sup>11</sup> When Micaiah son of Gemariah, son of Shaphan, heard all the words of the LORD from the scroll, <sup>12†</sup> he went down to the scribe’s chamber in the king’s palace. All the officials were sitting there — Elishama the scribe, Delaiah son of Shemaiah, Elnathan son of Achbor, Gemariah son of Shaphan, Zedekiah son of Hananiah, and all the other officials.<sup>13</sup> Micaiah reported to them all the words he had heard when Baruch read from the scroll in the hearing of the people.<sup>14</sup> Then all the officials sent word to Baruch through Jehudi son of Nethaniah, son of Shelemiah, son of Cushi, saying, “Bring the scroll that you read in the hearing of the people, and come.” So Baruch son of Neriah took the scroll and went to them.<sup>15</sup> They said to him, “Sit down and read it in our hearing.” So Baruch read it in their hearing.

<sup>16</sup> When they had heard all the words, they turned to each other in fear and said to Baruch, “We must surely tell the king all these things.”<sup>17</sup> Then they asked Baruch, “Tell us — how did you write all these words? At his dictation?”<sup>C</sup>

Jehoiakim Burns the Scroll

<sup>19</sup> The officials said to Baruch, “You and Jeremiah must hide yourselves and tell no one where you are.”<sup>20</sup> Then they came to the king at the courtyard, having deposited the scroll in the chamber of Elishama the scribe, and reported everything in the hearing of the king.<sup>21</sup> The king sent Jehudi to get the scroll, and he took it from the chamber of Elishama the scribe. Jehudi then read it in the hearing of the king and all the officials who were standing by the king.<sup>22</sup> Since it was the ninth month, the king was sitting in his winter quarters with a fire burning in front of him.<sup>23</sup> As soon as Jehudi would read three or four columns, Jehoiakim would cut the scroll<sup>E</sup> with a scribe’s knife and throw the columns into the blazing fire until the entire scroll was consumed by the fire in the brazier.<sup>24</sup> As they heard all these words, the king and all of his servants did not become terrified or tear their garments.<sup>25</sup> Even though Elnathan, Delaiah, and Gemariah had urged the king not to burn the scroll, he would not listen to them.<sup>26†</sup> Then the king commanded Jerahmeel the king’s son, Seraiah son of Azriel, and Shelemiah son of Abdeel to seize Baruch the scribe and Jeremiah the prophet, but the LORD had hidden them.

Jeremiah Dictates Another Scroll

<sup>27</sup> After the king had burned the scroll with the words Baruch had written at Jeremiah's dictation, <sup>F</sup> the word of the LORD came to Jeremiah: <sup>28</sup> "Take another scroll, and once again write on it the very words that were on the original scroll that Jehoiakim king of Judah burned. <sup>29</sup> You are to proclaim concerning Jehoiakim king of Judah: This is what the LORD says: You have burned the scroll, saying, 'Why have you written on it: The king of Babylon will certainly come and destroy this land and cause it to be without man or beast?' <sup>30†</sup> Therefore, this is what the LORD says concerning Jehoiakim king of Judah: He will have no one to sit on David's throne, and his corpse will be thrown out to be exposed to the heat of day and the frost of night. <sup>31†</sup> I will punish him, his descendants, and his officers for their wrongdoing. I will bring on them, on the residents of Jerusalem, and on the men of Judah all the disaster, which I warned them about but they did not listen."

<sup>32</sup> Then Jeremiah took another scroll and gave it to Baruch son of Neriah, the scribe, and he wrote on it at Jeremiah's dictation <sup>G</sup> all the words of the scroll that Jehoiakim, Judah's king, had burned in the fire. And many other words like them were added.

Jerusalem's Last Days

37 Zedekiah son of Josiah reigned as king in the land of Judah in place of Jehoiachin son of Jehoiakim, for Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon made him king.<sup>2</sup> He and his officers and the people of the land did not obey the words of the LORD that He spoke through Jeremiah the prophet.

<sup>3</sup> Nevertheless, King Zedekiah sent Jehucal son of Shelemiah and Zephaniah son of Maaseiah, the priest, to Jeremiah the prophet, requesting, “Please pray to the LORD our God for us!”<sup>4</sup> Jeremiah was going about his daily tasks<sup>A</sup> among the people, for they had not yet put him into the prison.<sup>5</sup> Pharaoh’s army had left Egypt, and when the Chaldeans, who were besieging Jerusalem, heard the report, they withdrew from Jerusalem.

<sup>6</sup> The word of the LORD came to Jeremiah the prophet:<sup>7</sup> “This is what the LORD, the God of Israel, says: This is what you will say to Judah’s king, who is sending you to inquire of Me: Watch: Pharaoh’s army, which has come out to help you, is going to return to its own land of Egypt.<sup>8</sup> The Chaldeans will then return and fight against this city. They will capture it and burn it down.<sup>9</sup> This is what the LORD says: Don’t deceive yourselves by saying, ‘The Chaldeans will leave us for good,’ for they will not leave.<sup>10</sup> Indeed, if you were to strike down the entire Chaldean army that is fighting with you, and there remained among them only the badly wounded<sup>B</sup> men, each in his tent, they would get up and burn this city down.”

Jeremiah’s Imprisonment

<sup>11</sup> When the Chaldean army withdrew from Jerusalem because of Pharaoh’s army,<sup>12</sup> Jeremiah started to leave Jerusalem to go to the land of Benjamin to claim his portion there among the people.<sup>13</sup> But when he was at the Benjamin Gate, an officer of the guard was there, whose name was Irijah son of Shelemiah, son of Hananiah, and he apprehended Jeremiah the prophet, saying, “You are deserting to the Chaldeans.”

<sup>14</sup> “That’s a lie,” Jeremiah replied. “I am not deserting to the Chaldeans!” Irijah would not listen to him but apprehended Jeremiah and took him to the officials. <sup>15</sup> The officials were angry at Jeremiah and beat him and placed him in jail in the house of Jonathan the scribe, for it had been made into a prison. <sup>16</sup> So Jeremiah went into a cell in the dungeon and stayed there many days.

Jeremiah Summoned by Zedekiah

<sup>17</sup> King Zedekiah later sent for him and received him, and in his house privately asked him, “Is there a word from the LORD?”

“There is,” Jeremiah responded, and he continued, “You will be handed over to the king of Babylon.” <sup>18</sup> Then Jeremiah said to King Zedekiah, “How have I sinned against you or your servants or these people that you have put me in prison? <sup>19</sup> Where are your prophets who prophesied to you, claiming, ‘The king of Babylon will not come against you and this land’? <sup>20</sup> So now please listen, my lord the king. May my petition come before you. Don’t send me back to the house of Jonathan the scribe, or I will die there.”

<sup>21</sup> So King Zedekiah gave orders, and Jeremiah was placed in the guard’s courtyard. He was given a loaf of bread each day from the baker’s street until all the bread was gone from the city. So Jeremiah remained in the guard’s courtyard.

Jeremiah Thrown into a Cistern

38 Now Shephatiah son of Mattan, Gedaliah son of Pashhur, Jucal son of Shelemiah, and Pashhur son of Malchijah heard the words Jeremiah was speaking to all the people: <sup>2</sup> “This is what the LORD says: ‘Whoever stays in this city will die by the sword, famine, and plague, but whoever surrenders to the Chaldeans will live. He will keep his life like the spoils of war and will live.’ <sup>3</sup> This is what the LORD says: ‘This city will most certainly be handed over to the king of Babylon’s army, and he will capture it.’ ”

<sup>4</sup> The officials then said to the king, “This man ought to die, because he is weakening the morale of the warriors who remain in this city and of all the people by speaking to them in this way. This man is not seeking the well-being of this people, but disaster.”

clothes between your armpits and the ropes.” Jeremiah did so,<sup>13</sup> and they pulled him up with the ropes and lifted him out of the cistern, but he continued to stay in the guard’s courtyard.

Zedekiah’s Final Meeting with Jeremiah

<sup>14</sup> King Zedekiah sent for Jeremiah the prophet and received him at the third entrance of the LORD’s temple. The king said to Jeremiah, “I am going to ask you something; don’t hide anything from me.”

<sup>15</sup> Jeremiah replied to Zedekiah, “If I tell you, you will kill me, won’t you? Besides, if I give you advice, you won’t listen to me anyway.”

<sup>16</sup> King Zedekiah swore to Jeremiah in private, “As the LORD lives, who has given us this life, I will not kill you or hand you over to these men who want to take your life.”

<sup>17</sup> Jeremiah therefore said to Zedekiah, “This is what the LORD, the God of •Hosts, the God of Israel, says: ‘If indeed you surrender to the officials of the king of Babylon, then you will live, this city will not be burned down, and you and your household will survive.’<sup>18</sup> But if you do not surrender to the officials of the king of Babylon, then this city will be handed over to the Chaldeans. They will burn it down, and you yourself will not escape from them.’ ”

<sup>19</sup> But King Zedekiah said to Jeremiah, “I am worried about the Judeans who have deserted to the Chaldeans. They may hand me over to the Judeans to abuse me.”

<sup>20</sup> “They will not hand you over,” Jeremiah replied. “Obey the voice of the LORD in what I am telling you, so it may go well for you and you can live.”<sup>21</sup> But if you refuse to surrender, this is the verdict <sup>B</sup> that the LORD has shown me: <sup>22</sup> ‘All the women <sup>C</sup> who remain in the palace of Judah’s king will be brought out to the officials of the king of Babylon and will say:

Your trusted friends <sup>D</sup> misled <sup>E</sup> you and overcame you.

Your feet sank into the mire,
and they deserted you.

<sup>23</sup> All your wives and sons will be brought out to the Chaldeans. You yourself will not escape from them, for you will be seized by the king of Babylon and this city will burn down.’ ”

<sup>24</sup> Then Zedekiah warned Jeremiah, “Don’t let anyone know about these things or you will die. <sup>25</sup> If the officials hear that I have spoken with you and come and demand of you, ‘Tell us what you said to the king; don’t hide anything from us and we won’t kill you. Also, what did the king say to you?’ <sup>26</sup> then you will tell them, ‘I was bringing before the king my petition that he not return me to the house of Jonathan to die there.’ ”

<sup>27†</sup> When all the officials came to Jeremiah and questioned him, he reported the exact words to them the king had commanded, and they quit speaking with him because nothing had been heard. <sup>28</sup> Jeremiah remained in the guard’s courtyard until the day Jerusalem was captured, and he was there when it happened. <sup>F</sup>

The Fall of Jerusalem to Babylon

39 In the ninth year of Zedekiah king of Judah, in the tenth month, King Nebuchadnezzar of Babylon advanced against Jerusalem with his entire army and laid siege to it. <sup>2†</sup> In the fourth month of Zedekiah's eleventh year, on the ninth day of the month, the city was broken into. <sup>3</sup> All the officials of the king of Babylon entered and sat at the Middle Gate: Nergal-sharezer, Samgar, Nebusarsechim the Rab-saris, Nergal-sharezer the Rab-mag, and all the rest of the officials of Babylon's king.

<sup>5</sup> However, the Chaldean army pursued them and overtook Zedekiah in the plains <sup>A</sup> of Jericho, arrested him, and brought him to Nebuchadnezzar, Babylon's king, at Riblah in the land of Hamath. The king passed sentence on him there.

<sup>6</sup> At Riblah the king of Babylon slaughtered Zedekiah's sons before his eyes, and he also slaughtered all Judah's nobles. <sup>7</sup> Then he blinded Zedekiah and put him in bronze chains to take him to Babylon. <sup>8</sup> The Chaldeans next burned down the king's palace and the people's houses and tore down the walls of Jerusalem. <sup>9</sup> Nebuzaradan, the commander of the guards, deported the rest of the people to Babylon — those who had remained in the city and those deserters who had defected to him along with the rest of the people who had remained. <sup>10</sup> However, Nebuzaradan, the commander of the guards, left in the land of Judah some of the poor people who owned nothing, and he gave them vineyards and fields at that time.

Jeremiah Freed by Nebuchadnezzar

<sup>11</sup> Speaking through Nebuzaradan, captain of the guard, King Nebuchadnezzar of Babylon gave orders concerning Jeremiah, saying: <sup>12</sup> "Take him, look after him, and don't let any harm come to him; do for him whatever he says." <sup>13</sup> Nebuzaradan, captain of the guard, Nebushazban the Rab-saris, Nergal-sharezer the Rab-mag, and all the captains of the king of Babylon <sup>14</sup> had Jeremiah brought from the guard's courtyard and turned him over to Gedaliah son of Ahikam, son of Shaphan, to take him home. So he settled among his own people.

<sup>15†</sup> Now the word of the LORD had come to Jeremiah when he was confined in the guard's courtyard: <sup>16†</sup> “Go tell Ebed-melech the •Cushite: This is what the LORD of •Hosts, the God of Israel, says: I am about to fulfill My words for harm and not for good against this city. They will take place before your eyes on that day. <sup>17</sup> But I will rescue you on that day” — this is the LORD's declaration — “and you will not be handed over to the men you fear. <sup>18</sup> Indeed, I will certainly deliver you so that you do not fall by the sword. Because you have trusted in Me, you will keep your life like the spoils of war.” This is the LORD's declaration.

Jeremiah Stays in Judah

40 †This is the word that came to Jeremiah from the LORD after Nebuzaradan, captain of the guard, released him at Ramah. When he found him, he was bound in chains with all the exiles of Jerusalem and Judah who were being exiled to Babylon. <sup>2†</sup> The captain of the guard took Jeremiah and said to him, “The LORD your God decreed this disaster on this place, <sup>3</sup> and the LORD has fulfilled it. He has done just what He decreed. Because you people have sinned against the LORD and have not obeyed Him, this thing has happened. <sup>4</sup> Now pay attention: Today I am setting you free from the chains that were on your hands. If it pleases you to come with me to Babylon, come, and I will take care of you. But if it seems wrong to you to come with me to Babylon, go no farther. <sup>A</sup> Look — the whole land is in front of you. Wherever it seems good and right for you to go, go there.” <sup>5</sup> When Jeremiah had not yet turned to go, Nebuzaradan said to him: “Return to Gedaliah son of Ahikam, son of Shaphan, whom the king of Babylon has appointed over the cities of Judah, and stay with him among the people or go wherever you want to go.” So the captain of the guard gave him a ration and a gift and released him. <sup>6</sup> Jeremiah therefore went to Gedaliah son of Ahikam at Mizpah, and he stayed with him among the people who remained in the land.

Gedaliah Advises Peace

<sup>7</sup> When all the commanders of the armies in the field — they and their men — heard that the king of Babylon had appointed Gedaliah son of Ahikam over the land and that he had put him in charge of the men, women, and children from the poorest of the land who had not been deported to Babylon, <sup>8</sup> they came to Gedaliah at Mizpah. The commanders included Ishmael son of Nethaniah, Johanan and Jonathan the sons of Kareah, Seraiah son of Tanhumeth, the sons of Ephai the Netophathite, and Jezaniah son of the Maacathite — they and their men.

<sup>9</sup> Gedaliah son of Ahikam, son of Shaphan, swore an oath to them and their men, assuring them, “Don’t be afraid to serve the Chaldeans. Live in the land and serve the king of Babylon, and it will go well for you. <sup>10</sup> As for me, I am going to live in Mizpah to represent <sup>B</sup> you before the Chaldeans who come to us. As for you, gather wine, summer fruit, and oil, place them in your storage jars, and live in the cities you have captured.”

<sup>11</sup> When all the Judeans in Moab and among the Ammonites and in Edom and in all the other lands also heard that the king of Babylon had left a remnant in Judah and had appointed Gedaliah son of Ahikam, son of Shaphan, over them, <sup>12</sup> they all returned from all the places where they had been banished and came to the land of Judah, to Gedaliah at Mizpah, and harvested a great amount of wine and summer fruit.

<sup>13</sup> Meanwhile, Johanan son of Kareah and all the commanders of the armies in the field came to Gedaliah at Mizpah <sup>14</sup> and warned him, “Don’t you realize that Baalis, king of the Ammonites, has sent Ishmael son of Nethaniah to kill you?” But Gedaliah son of Ahikam would not believe them. <sup>15</sup> Then Johanan son of Kareah suggested to Gedaliah in private at Mizpah, “Let me go kill Ishmael son of Nethaniah. No one will know it. Why should he kill you and scatter all of Judah that has gathered to you so that the remnant of Judah would perish?”

Gedaliah Assassinated by Ishmael

41 In the seventh month, Ishmael son of Nethaniah, son of Elishama, of the royal family and one of the king's chief officers, came with 10 men to Gedaliah son of Ahikam at Mizpah. They ate a meal together there in Mizpah, <sup>2</sup> but then Ishmael son of Nethaniah and the 10 men who were with him got up and struck down Gedaliah son of Ahikam, son of Shaphan, with the sword; he killed the one the king of Babylon had appointed in the land. <sup>3</sup> Ishmael also struck down all the Judeans who were with Gedaliah at Mizpah, as well as the Chaldean soldiers who were there.

<sup>4</sup> On the second day after he had killed Gedaliah, when no one knew yet, <sup>5†</sup> 80 men came from Shechem, Shiloh, and Samaria who had shaved their beards, torn their garments, and gashed themselves, and who were carrying •grain and incense offerings to bring to the temple of the LORD. <sup>6</sup> Ishmael son of Nethaniah came out of Mizpah to meet them, weeping as he came. When he encountered them, he said: "Come to Gedaliah son of Ahikam!" <sup>7</sup> But when they came into the city, Ishmael son of Nethaniah and the men with him slaughtered them and threw them into a cistern.

<sup>8</sup> However, there were 10 men among them who said to Ishmael, "Don't kill us, for we have hidden treasure in the field — wheat, barley, oil, and honey!" So he stopped and did not kill them along with their companions. <sup>9</sup> Now the cistern where Ishmael had thrown all the corpses of the men he had struck down was a large one that King Asa had made in the encounter with Baasha king of Israel. Ishmael son of Nethaniah filled it with the slain.

<sup>10</sup> Then Ishmael took captive all the remnant of the people of Mizpah including the daughters of the king — all those who remained in Mizpah over whom Nebuzaradan, captain of the guard, had appointed Gedaliah son of Ahikam. Ishmael son of Nethaniah took them captive and set off to cross over to the Ammonites.

The Captives Rescued by Johanan

<sup>11</sup> When Johanan son of Kareah and all the commanders of the armies with him heard of all the evil that Ishmael son of Nethaniah had done,

<sup>12</sup> they took all their men and went to fight with Ishmael son of Nethaniah and found him by the great pool in Gibeon. <sup>13</sup> When all the people with Ishmael saw Johanan son of Kareah and all the commanders of the army with him, they rejoiced, <sup>14</sup> and all the people whom Ishmael had taken captive from Mizpah turned around and rejoined Johanan son of Kareah. <sup>15</sup> But Ishmael son of Nethaniah escaped from Johanan with eight men and went to the Ammonites. <sup>16</sup> Johanan son of Kareah and all the commanders of the armies with him then took from Mizpah all the remnant of the people whom he had recovered from Ishmael son of Nethaniah after Ishmael had killed Gedaliah son of Ahikam — men, soldiers, women, children, and court officials whom he brought back from Gibeon. <sup>17</sup> They left, stopping in Geruth Chimham, which is near Bethlehem, in order to make their way into Egypt, <sup>18</sup> away from the Chaldeans. For they feared them because Ishmael son of Nethaniah had struck down Gedaliah son of Ahikam, whom the king of Babylon had appointed in the land.

The People Seek Jeremiah's Counsel

42 Then all the commanders of the armies, along with Johanan son of Kareah, Jezaniah son of Hoshaiah, and all the people from the least to the greatest, approached <sup>2</sup> Jeremiah the prophet and said, “May our petition come before you; pray to the LORD your God on our behalf, on behalf of this entire remnant (for few of us remain out of the many, as you can see with your own eyes), <sup>3</sup> that the LORD your God may tell us the way we should walk and the thing we should do.”

<sup>4</sup> So Jeremiah the prophet said to them, “I have heard. I will now pray to the LORD your God according to your words, and every word that the LORD answers you I will tell you; I won’t withhold a word from you.”

<sup>5</sup> And they said to Jeremiah, “As for every word the LORD your God sends you to tell us, if we don’t act accordingly, may the LORD be a true and faithful witness against us. <sup>6</sup> Whether it is pleasant or unpleasant, we will obey the voice of the LORD our God to whom we are sending you so that it may go well with us. We will certainly obey the voice of the LORD our God! ”

Jeremiah’s Advice to Stay

<sup>7</sup> Now at the end of 10 days, the word of the LORD came to Jeremiah, <sup>8</sup> and he summoned Johanan son of Kareah, all the commanders of the armies who were with him, and all the people from the least to the greatest.

<sup>9</sup> He said to them, “This is what the LORD says, the God of Israel to whom you sent me to bring your petition before Him: <sup>10†</sup> ‘If you will indeed stay in this land, then I will rebuild and not demolish you, and I will plant and not uproot you, because I relent concerning the disaster that I have brought on you. <sup>11</sup> Don’t be afraid of the king of Babylon whom you now fear; don’t be afraid of him’ — this is the LORD’s declaration — ‘because I am with you to save you and deliver you from him. <sup>12</sup> I will grant you compassion, and he will have compassion on you and allow you to return to your own soil. <sup>13</sup> But if you say, ‘We will not stay in this land,’ so as not to obey the voice of the LORD your God, <sup>14</sup> and if you say, ‘No, instead we’ll go to the land of Egypt where we will not see war or hear the sound of the ram's horn or hunger for food, and we'll live there,' <sup>15</sup> then hear the word of the LORD, remnant of Judah! This is what the LORD of •Hosts, the God of Israel, says: If you are firmly resolved to go to Egypt and live there for a while, <sup>16</sup> then the sword you fear will overtake you there in the land of Egypt, and the famine you are worried about will follow on your heels <sup>A</sup> there to Egypt, and you will die there.

<sup>17†</sup> All who resolve to go to Egypt to live there for a while will die by the sword, famine, and plague. They will have no one escape or survive from the disaster I will bring on them.'

<sup>18</sup> "For this is what the LORD of Hosts, the God of Israel, says: 'Just as My anger and fury were poured out on Jerusalem's residents, so will My fury pour out on you if you go to Egypt. You will become an object of cursing, scorn, execration, and disgrace, and you will never see this place again.' <sup>19</sup> The LORD has spoken concerning you, remnant of Judah: 'Don't go to Egypt.' Know for certain that I have warned you today! <sup>20</sup> You have led your own selves astray because you are the ones who sent me to the LORD your God, saying, 'Pray to the LORD our God on our behalf, and as for all that the LORD our God says, tell it to us, and we'll act accordingly.'

<sup>21</sup> For I have told you today, but you have not obeyed the voice of the LORD your God in everything He has sent me to tell you. <sup>22</sup> Now therefore, know for certain that by the sword, famine, and plague you will die in the place where you desired to go to live for a while."

Jeremiah's Counsel Rejected

43 When Jeremiah had finished speaking to all the people all the words of the LORD their God — all these words the LORD their God had sent him to give them — <sup>2</sup> then Azariah son of Hoshaiah, Johanan son of Kareah, and all the other arrogant men responded to Jeremiah, “You are speaking a lie! The LORD our God has not sent you to say, ‘You must not go to Egypt to live there for a while!’” <sup>3</sup> Rather, Baruch son of Neriah is inciting you against us to hand us over to the Chaldeans to put us to death or to deport us to Babylon!”

<sup>4</sup> So Johanan son of Kareah and all the commanders of the armies did not obey the voice of the LORD to stay in the land of Judah. <sup>5</sup> Instead, Johanan son of Kareah and all the commanders of the armies took the whole remnant of Judah, those who had returned from all the nations where they had been banished to live in the land of Judah for a while — <sup>6</sup> the men, women, children, king’s daughters, and everyone whom Nebuzaradan, captain of the guard, had allowed to remain with Gedaliah son of Ahikam son of Shaphan, along with Jeremiah the prophet and Baruch son of Neriah — <sup>7</sup> and they went to the land of Egypt because they did not obey the voice of the LORD. They went as far as Tahpanhes.

God’s Sign to the People in Egypt

<sup>8†</sup> Then the word of the LORD came to Jeremiah at Tahpanhes: <sup>9</sup> “Pick up some large stones and set them in the mortar of the brick pavement that is at the opening of Pharaoh’s palace at Tahpanhes. Do this in the sight of the Judean men <sup>10</sup> and tell them: This is what the LORD of •Hosts, the God of Israel, says: I will send for My servant Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon, and I will place his throne on these stones that I have embedded, and he will pitch his pavilion over them. <sup>11</sup> He will come and strike down the land of Egypt — those destined for death, to death; those destined for captivity, to captivity; and those destined for the sword, to the sword. <sup>12</sup> I will kindle a fire in the temples of Egypt’s gods, and he will burn them and take them prisoner. He will •clean the land of Egypt as a shepherd picks lice off <sup>A</sup> his garment, and he will leave there unscathed. <sup>13</sup> He will smash the sacred pillars of the sun temple <sup>B</sup> in the land of Egypt and burn down the temples of the Egyptian gods.”

God's Judgment against His People in Egypt

44 This is the word that came to Jeremiah for all the Jews living in the land of Egypt — at Migdol, Tahpanhes, Memphis, and in the land of Pathros: <sup>2</sup> “This is what the LORD of •Hosts, the God of Israel, says: You have seen all the disaster I brought against Jerusalem and all Judah’s cities; look, they are a ruin today without an inhabitant in them <sup>3</sup> because of their evil ways that provoked Me to anger, going and burning incense to serve other gods that they, you, and your fathers did not know. <sup>4</sup> So I sent you all My servants the prophets time and time again, <sup>A</sup> saying: Don’t do this detestable thing that I hate. <sup>5</sup> But they did not listen or pay attention; they did not turn from their evil or stop burning incense to other gods. <sup>6</sup> So My fierce wrath poured out and burned in Judah’s cities and Jerusalem’s streets so that they became the desolate ruin they are today.

<sup>7</sup> “So now, this is what the LORD, the God of Hosts, the God of Israel, says: Why are you doing such great harm to yourselves? You are cutting off man and woman, child and infant from Judah, leaving yourselves without a remnant. <sup>8</sup> You are provoking Me to anger by the work of your hands. You are burning incense to other gods in the land of Egypt where you have gone to live for a while. As a result, you will be cut off and become an object of cursing and insult among all the nations of earth. <sup>9</sup> Have you forgotten the evils of your fathers, the evils of Judah’s kings, the evils of their wives, your own evils, and the evils of your wives that were committed in the land of Judah and in the streets of Jerusalem? <sup>10</sup> They have not become humble to this day, and they have not •feared or followed My instruction or My statutes that I set before you and your ancestors.

<sup>11</sup> “Therefore, this is what the LORD of Hosts, the God of Israel, says: I am about to turn against you to bring disaster, to cut off all Judah. <sup>12</sup> And I will take away the remnant of Judah, those who have resolved to go to the land of Egypt to live there for a while; they will meet their end. All of them in the land of Egypt will fall by the sword; they will meet their end by famine. From the least to the greatest, they will die by the sword and by famine. Then they will become an object of cursing, scorn, execration, and disgrace. <sup>13</sup> I will punish those living in the land of Egypt just as I punished Jerusalem by sword, famine, and plague. <sup>14†</sup> Then the remnant of Judah — those going to live for a while there in the land of Egypt — will have no fugitive or survivor to return to the land of Judah where they are longing <sup>B</sup> to return to live, for they will not return except for a few fugitives.”

The People’s Stubborn Response

<sup>15</sup> However, all the men who knew that their wives were burning incense to other gods, all the women standing by — a great assembly — and all the people who were living in the land of Egypt at Pathros answered Jeremiah, <sup>16</sup> “As for the word you spoke to us in the name of •Yahweh, we are not going to listen to you! <sup>17</sup> Instead, we will do everything we said we would: burn incense to the queen of heaven and offer •drink offerings to her just as we, our fathers, our kings, and our officials did in Judah’s cities and in Jerusalem’s streets. Then we had enough food and good things and saw no disaster, <sup>18</sup> but from the time we ceased to burn incense to the queen of heaven and to offer her drink offerings, we have lacked everything, and through sword and famine we have met our end.”

<sup>20</sup> But Jeremiah responded to all the people — the men, women, and all the people who were answering him: <sup>21</sup> “As for the incense you burned in Judah’s cities and in Jerusalem’s streets — you, your fathers, your kings, your officials, and the people of the land — did the LORD not remember them? He brought this to mind. <sup>22</sup> The LORD can no longer bear your evil deeds and the detestable acts you have committed, so your land has become a waste, a desolation, and an object of cursing, without inhabitant, as you see today. <sup>23</sup> Because you burned incense and sinned against the LORD and didn’t obey the LORD’s voice and didn’t follow His instruction, His statutes, and His testimonies, this disaster has come to you, as you see today.”

<sup>24</sup> Then Jeremiah said to all the people, including all the women, “Hear the word of the LORD, all Judah who are in the land of Egypt. <sup>25†</sup> This is what the LORD of Hosts, the God of Israel, says: ‘As for you and your wives, you women have spoken with your mouths, and you men fulfilled it by your deeds, saying, “We will keep our vows that we have made to burn incense to the queen of heaven and to pour out drink offerings for her.” Go ahead, confirm your vows! Pay your vows!’

<sup>26</sup> “Therefore, hear the word of the LORD, all you Judeans who live in the land of Egypt: ‘I have sworn by My great name, says Yahweh, that My name will never again be invoked by anyone of Judah in all the land of Egypt, saying, “As the Lord GOD lives.” <sup>27</sup> I am watching over them for disaster and not for good, and every man of Judah who is in the land of Egypt will meet his end by sword or famine until they are finished off. <sup>28†</sup> Those who escape the sword will return from the land of Egypt to the land of Judah only few in number, and the whole remnant of Judah, the ones going to the land of Egypt to live there for a while, will know whose word stands, Mine or theirs! <sup>29†</sup> This will be a sign to you’ — this is the LORD’s declaration — ‘that I am about to punish you in this place, so you may know that My words of disaster concerning you will certainly come to pass. <sup>30</sup> This is what the LORD says: I am about to hand over Pharaoh Hophra, Egypt’s king, to his enemies, to those who want to take his life, just as I handed over Judah’s King Zedekiah to Babylon’s King Nebuchadnezzar, who was his enemy, the one who wanted to take his life.’ ”

The LORD's Message to Baruch

45 †This is the word that Jeremiah the prophet spoke to Baruch son of Neriah when he wrote these words on a scroll at Jeremiah's dictation <sup>A</sup>, in the fourth year of Jehoiakim son of Josiah, king of Judah: <sup>2</sup> "This is what the LORD, the God of Israel, says to you, Baruch: <sup>3</sup> 'You have said, "Woe is me, because the LORD has added misery to my pain! I am worn out with <sup>B</sup> groaning and have found no rest." '

<sup>4</sup> "This is what you are to say to him: 'This is what the LORD says: What I have built I am about to demolish, and what I have planted I am about to uproot — the whole land! <sup>5</sup> But as for you, do you seek great things for yourself? Stop seeking! For I am about to bring disaster on every living creature' — this is the LORD's declaration — 'but I will grant you your life like the spoils of war wherever you go.' "

PROPHECIES AGAINST THE NATIONS

46 †The word of the LORD that came to Jeremiah the prophet about the nations:

Prophecies against Egypt

<sup>3</sup> Deploy small shields and large;
draw near for battle!

<sup>4</sup> Harness the horses;
mount the steeds; <sup>A</sup>
take your positions with helmets on!
Polish the lances;
put on armor!

<sup>5</sup> Why have I seen this?
They are terrified,
they are retreating,
their warriors are crushed,
they flee headlong,
they never look back,
terror is on every side!

<sup>6</sup> The swift cannot flee,
and the warrior cannot escape!
In the north by the bank of the Euphrates River,
they stumble and fall.

This is the LORD's declaration.

<sup>7</sup> Who is this, rising like the Nile,
like rivers whose waters churn?

<sup>8</sup> Egypt rises like the Nile,
and its waters churn like rivers.
He boasts, "I will go up, I will cover the earth;
I will destroy cities with their residents."

<sup>9</sup> Rise up, you cavalry!
Race furiously, you chariots!
Let the warriors go out —

•Cush and Put,
who are able to handle shields,
and the Ludim,
who are able to handle and string the bow.

<sup>10</sup> That day belongs to the Lord, the GOD of •Hosts, a day of vengeance to avenge Himself against His adversaries.

The sword will devour and be satisfied;
it will drink its fill of their blood,
because it will be a sacrifice to the Lord, the GOD of Hosts,
in the northern land by the Euphrates River.

<sup>11</sup> Go up to Gilead and get balm, Virgin Daughter Egypt!
You have multiplied remedies in vain;
there is no healing for you.

<sup>12</sup> The nations have heard of your dishonor,
and your outcry fills the earth,
because warrior stumbles against warrior
and together both of them have fallen.

<sup>13†</sup> This is the word the LORD spoke to Jeremiah the prophet about the coming of Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon to defeat the land of Egypt:

<sup>14</sup> Announce it in Egypt, and proclaim it in Migdol!
Proclaim it in Memphis and in Tahpanhes!
Say: Take positions! Prepare yourself,
for the sword devours all around you.

<sup>15</sup> Why have your strong ones been swept away?
Each has not stood,
for the LORD has thrust him down.

<sup>16</sup> He continues to stumble.
Indeed, each falls over the other.
They say, “Get up! Let’s return to our people and to the land of our birth,
away from the sword that oppresses.”

<sup>17</sup> There they will cry out,

“Pharaoh king of Egypt was all noise;
he let the opportune moment pass.”

<sup>18</sup> As I live —

He will •Yahweh of Hosts is His name. this is the King’s declaration;
come like Tabor among the mountains and like Carmel by the sea.

<sup>19</sup> Get your bags ready for exile,
inhabitant of Daughter Egypt!
For Memphis will become a desolation, uninhabited ruins.

<sup>20</sup> Egypt is a beautiful young cow,
but a horsefly from the north is coming against her.

<sup>21</sup> Even her mercenaries among her
are like stall-fed calves.
They too will turn back;
together they will flee;
they will not take their stand,
for the day of their calamity is coming on them,
the time of their punishment.

<sup>22</sup> Egypt will hiss like a slithering snake, <sup>B</sup>
for the enemy will come with an army;
with axes they will come against her like those who cut trees.

<sup>23</sup> They will cut down her forest —
though it is dense, this is the LORD’s declaration —
for they are more numerous than locusts;
they cannot be counted.

<sup>24</sup> Daughter Egypt will be put to shame, handed over to a northern people.

<sup>25</sup> The LORD of Hosts, the God of Israel, says: “I am about to punish Amon, god of Thebes, along with Pharaoh, Egypt, her gods, and her kings — Pharaoh and those trusting in him. <sup>26†</sup> I will hand them over to those who want to take their lives — to Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon

Prophecies against the Philistines

47 †This is the word of the LORD that came to Jeremiah the prophet about the Philistines before Pharaoh defeated Gaza. <sup>2</sup> This is what the LORD says:

Look, waters are rising from the north and becoming an overflowing •wadi.
They will overflow the land and everything in it,
the cities and their inhabitants.

The people will cry out,
and every inhabitant of the land will wail.

<sup>3</sup> At the sound of the stomping hooves of his stallions,
the rumbling of his chariots,
and the clatter of their wheels,
fathers will not turn back for their sons,
because they will be utterly helpless <sup>A</sup>

<sup>4</sup> on account of the day that is coming to destroy all the Philistines, to cut off from Tyre and Sidon
every remaining ally.

Indeed, the LORD is about to destroy the Philistines,
the remnant of the islands of Caphtor.

Ashkelon will become silent,
a remnant of their valley.
How long will you gash yourself?

<sup>6</sup> Oh, sword of the LORD!
How long will you be restless?
Go back to your sheath;
be still; be silent!

<sup>7</sup> How can it rest
when the LORD has given it a command?
He has assigned it against Ashkelon and the shore of the sea.

Prophecies against Moab

48 About Moab, this is what the LORD of •Hosts, the God of Israel, says:

Woe to Nebo, because it is about to be destroyed;
Kiriathaim will be put to shame; it will be taken captive.
The fortress will be put to shame and dismayed!

<sup>2</sup> There is no longer praise for Moab;
they plan harm against her in Heshbon:
Come, let's cut her off from nationhood.
Also, Madmen, you will be silenced;
the sword will pursue you.

“devastation and great disaster!”

<sup>4</sup> Moab will be shattered;
her little ones will cry out.

<sup>5</sup> For on the Ascent to Luhith
they will be weeping continually, <sup>A</sup>
and on the descent to Horonaim
will be heard cries of distress over the destruction:

<sup>6</sup> Flee! Save your lives!
Be like a juniper bush <sup>B</sup>, in the wilderness.

<sup>7</sup> Because you trust in your works and treasures,
you will be captured also.
Chemosh will go into exile
with his priests and officials.

<sup>8</sup> The destroyer will move against every town;
not one town will escape.
The valley will perish,
and the plain will be annihilated,
as the LORD has said.

<sup>9</sup> Make Moab a salt marsh, for she will run away; <sup>C</sup>
her towns will become a desolation,
without inhabitant.

<sup>10†</sup> The one who does the LORD's business deceitfully <sup>D</sup> is cursed,

and the one who withholds
his sword from bloodshed is cursed.

<sup>11</sup> Moab has been left quiet since his youth, settled like wine on its dregs.
He hasn't been poured from one container to another or gone into exile.
So his taste has remained the same,
and his aroma hasn't changed.

<sup>12</sup> Therefore look, the days are coming —
when I will send those to him, who will this is the LORD's declaration — pour him out.

They will empty his containers
and smash his jars.

<sup>13†</sup> Moab will be put to shame because of Chemosh, just as the house of Israel was put to shame
because of Bethel that they trusted in.

<sup>14</sup> How can you say, "We are warriors — mighty men ready for battle"?

<sup>15</sup> The destroyer of Moab and its towns has come up, <sup>E</sup> and the best of its young men have gone down to slaughter.

<sup>16</sup> Moab's •Yahweh of Hosts is His name. This is the King's declaration;
calamity is near at hand;
his disaster is rushing swiftly.

<sup>17</sup> Mourn for him, all you surrounding nations,
everyone who knows his name.
Say: How the mighty scepter is shattered,
the glorious staff!

<sup>18</sup> Come down from glory; sit on parched ground, resident of the daughter of Dibon,
for the destroyer of Moab has come against you;
he has destroyed your fortresses.

<sup>19</sup> Stand by the highway and look,

resident of Aroer!

Ask him who is fleeing or her who is escaping:

What happened?

<sup>20</sup> Moab is put to shame, indeed dismayed.

Wail and cry out!

Declare by the Arnon
that Moab is destroyed.

This is the LORD’s declaration.

<sup>26</sup> “Make him drunk, because he has exalted himself against the LORD. Moab will wallow in his own vomit, and he will also become a laughingstock. <sup>27</sup> Wasn’t Israel a laughingstock to you? Was he ever found among thieves? For whenever you speak of him you shake your head.”

<sup>28</sup> Abandon the towns! Live in the cliffs, residents of Moab!
Be like a dove
that nests inside the mouth of a cave.

<sup>29†</sup> We have heard of Moab’s pride,
great pride, indeed —
his insolence, arrogance, pride,
and haughty heart.

<sup>30</sup> I know his outburst.

It is empty.

His boast is empty.

<sup>31</sup> Therefore, I will wail over Moab.

I will cry out for Moab, all of it;
he will moan for the men of Kir-heres.

<sup>32</sup> I will weep for you, vine of Sibmah,

This is the LORD’s declaration.

with more than the weeping for Jazer.
Your tendrils have extended to the sea;
they have reached to the sea and to Jazer.
The destroyer has fallen on your summer fruit and grape harvest.
<sup>33</sup> Joy and celebration are taken from the fertile field and from the land of Moab.
I have stopped the flow of wine from the winepresses;
no one will tread with shouts of joy.
The shouting is not a shout of joy.

<sup>34</sup> “There is a cry from Heshbon to Elealeh; they raise their voices as far as Jahaz — from Zoar to Horonaim and Eglath-shelishiyah — because even the waters of Nimrim have become desolate. <sup>35</sup> In Moab, I will stop” — this is the LORD’s declaration — “the one who offers sacrifices on the •high place and burns incense to his gods. <sup>36</sup> Therefore, My heart moans like flutes for Moab, and My heart moans like flutes for the people of Kir-heres. And therefore, the wealth he has gained has perished.

<sup>40</sup> For this is what the LORD says:

He will swoop down like an eagle
and spread his wings against Moab.

<sup>41</sup> The towns have <sup>F</sup> been captured,
and the strongholds seized.

In that day the heart of Moab’s warriors
will be like the heart of a woman with contractions.

<sup>42</sup> Moab will be destroyed as a people because he has exalted himself against the LORD.

<sup>43</sup> Panic, pit, and trap await you, resident of Moab.

<sup>44</sup> He who flees from the panic will fall in the pit,
and he who climbs from the pit
will be captured in the trap,
for I will bring against Moab
the year of their punishment. This is the LORD's declaration.

<sup>45</sup> Those who flee will stand exhausted
in Heshbon's shadow
because fire has come out from Heshbon
and a flame from within Sihon.
It will devour Moab's forehead and the skull of the noisemakers. This is the LORD's declaration.

<sup>46</sup> Woe to you, Moab!
The people of Chemosh have perished
because your sons have been taken captive
and your daughters have gone into captivity.

<sup>47†</sup> Yet, I will restore the fortunes <sup>G</sup> of Moab in the last days.
The judgment on Moab ends here. This is the LORD's declaration.

Prophecies against Ammon

49 About the Ammonites, this is what the LORD says:

Does Israel have no sons?

Is he without an heir?

Why then has •Milcom dispossessed Gad
and his people settled in their cities?

<sup>2</sup> Therefore look, the days are coming —
when I will make the shout of this is the LORD's declaration — battle heard against Rabbah of the Ammonites.

It will become a desolate mound,
and its villages will be burned down.

Israel will dispossess their dispossessors,
says the LORD.

<sup>3</sup> Wail, Heshbon, for Ai is devastated;
cry out, daughters of Rabbah!

Clothe yourselves with •sackcloth, and lament;

run back and forth within your walls, <sup>A</sup>

because Milcom will go into exile
together with his priests and officials.

<sup>4</sup> Why do you brag about your valleys, your flowing valley, <sup>B</sup>

you faithless daughter?

You who trust in your treasures
and boast, “Who can attack me? ”

<sup>5</sup> Look, I am about to bring terror on you — from all those around the Lord GOD of •Hosts —this is the declaration of you.

You will be banished, each man headlong,
with no one to gather up the fugitives.

<sup>6†</sup> But after that, I will restore the fortunes <sup>C</sup> of the Ammonites.

This is the LORD's declaration.

Prophecies against Edom

<sup>7</sup> About Edom, this is what the LORD of Hosts says:

Is there no longer wisdom in Teman?

Has counsel perished from the prudent?
Has their wisdom rotted away?

<sup>8</sup> Run! Turn back! Lie low, residents of Dedan,
for I will bring Esau's calamity on him
at the time I punish him.

<sup>9†</sup> If grape harvesters came to you,
wouldn't they leave some gleanings?
Were thieves to come in the night,
they would destroy only what they wanted.

<sup>10†</sup> But I will strip Esau bare;
I will uncover his secret places.
He will try to hide himself, but he will be unable.
His descendants will be destroyed
along with his relatives and neighbors.
He will exist no longer.

<sup>11</sup> Abandon your fatherless; I will preserve them;
let your widows trust in Me.

<sup>12</sup> "For this is what the LORD says: If those who do not deserve to drink the cup must drink it, can you possibly remain unpunished? You will not remain unpunished, for you must drink it too. <sup>13</sup> For by Myself I have sworn" — this is the LORD's declaration — "Bozrah will become a desolation, a disgrace, a ruin, and a curse, and all her cities will become ruins forever."

<sup>14†</sup> I have heard a message from the LORD;
a messenger has been sent among the nations:
Assemble yourselves to come against her.
Rise up for war!

<sup>15</sup> Look, I will certainly make you insignificant among the nations, despised among humanity.

<sup>16†</sup> As to the terror you cause, <sup>D</sup>
your presumptuous heart has deceived you.
You who live in the clefts of the rock,
you who occupy the mountain summit,

though you elevate your nest like the eagle,
even from there I will bring you down.

Everyone who passes by her will be horrified and scoff because of all her wounds. <sup>18</sup> As when Sodom and Gomorrah were overthrown along with their neighbors," says the LORD, "no one will live there; no human being will even stay in it as a temporary resident.

<sup>19</sup> "Look, it will be like a lion coming from the thickets <sup>E</sup> of the Jordan to the watered grazing land. Indeed, I will chase Edom away from her land in a flash. I will appoint whoever is chosen for her. For who is like Me? Who will summon Me? Who is the shepherd who can stand against Me? "

<sup>20</sup> Therefore, hear the plans that the LORD has drawn up against Edom and the strategies He has devised against the people of Teman: The flock's little lambs will certainly be dragged away, and their grazing land will be made desolate because of them. <sup>21</sup> At the sound of their fall the earth will quake; the sound of her cry will be heard at the •Red Sea. <sup>22</sup> Look! It will be like an eagle soaring upward, then swooping down and spreading its wings over Bozrah. In that day the hearts of Edom's warriors will be like the heart of a woman with contractions.

Prophecies against Damascus

Hamath and Arpad are put to shame,
for they have heard a bad report and are agitated;
in the sea there is anxiety that cannot be calmed.

<sup>24</sup> Damascus has become weak;
she has turned to run;
panic has gripped her.
Distress and labor pains have seized her
like a woman in labor.

<sup>25</sup> How can the city of praise not be abandoned,

the town that brings Me joy?

<sup>26</sup> Therefore, her young men will fall in her public squares;
all the warriors will perish in that day.

<sup>27</sup> I will set fire to the wall the LORD of Hosts. This is the declaration of of Damascus;
it will consume Ben-hadad's citadels.

Prophecies against Kedar and Hazor

<sup>28</sup> About Kedar and the kingdoms of Hazor, which Nebuchadnezzar, Babylon's king, defeated, this is what the LORD says:

Rise up, go against Kedar,
and destroy the people of the east!

<sup>29</sup> They will take their tents and their flocks
along with their tent curtains and all their equipment.
They will take their camels for themselves.

They will call out to them:
Terror is on every side!

<sup>30</sup> Run! Escape quickly! Lie low, residents of Hazor —
for Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon this is the LORD's declaration — has drawn up a plan against you;
he has devised a strategy against you.

<sup>31</sup> Rise up, go up against a nation at ease,
one living in security.
They have no doors, not even a gate bar; This is the LORD's declaration.
they live alone.

<sup>32</sup> Their camels will become plunder,
and their massive herds of cattle will become spoil.
I will scatter them to the wind in every direction,
those who shave their temples;
I will bring calamity on them across all their borders.

a desolation forever.
No one will live there;

no human being will even stay in it as a temporary resident.

Prophecies against Elam

<sup>34†</sup> This is the word of the LORD that came to Jeremiah the prophet about Elam at the beginning of the reign of Zedekiah king of Judah. <sup>35</sup> This is what the LORD of Hosts says:

I am about to shatter Elam's bow,
the source <sup>F</sup> of their might.

<sup>36</sup> I will bring the four winds against Elam
from the four corners of the heavens,
and I will scatter them to all these winds.
There will not be a nation
to which Elam's banished ones will not go.

<sup>37</sup> I will devastate Elam before their enemies, before those who want to take their lives.
I will bring disaster on them,
My burning anger.

I will send the sword after them                      This is the LORD's declaration.
until I finish them off.

<sup>38</sup> I will set My throne in Elam,
and I will destroy the king and officials from there.

<sup>39</sup> In the last days,    This is the LORD's declaration.

I will restore the fortunes <sup>G</sup> of Elam.

This is the LORD's declaration.

Prophecies against Babylon

50 †The word the LORD spoke about Babylon, the land of the Chaldeans, through Jeremiah the prophet:

<sup>2</sup> Announce to the nations;
proclaim and raise up a signal flag;
proclaim, and hide nothing.
Say: Babylon is captured;
Bel is put to shame;
Marduk is devastated;
her idols are put to shame;
her false gods, devastated.

<sup>3†</sup> For a nation from the north will come against her;
it will make her land desolate.
No one will be living in it —
both man and beast will escape. <sup>A</sup>

<sup>4</sup> In those days and at that time —
the Israelites and Judeans will come together,                      this is the LORD's declaration — weeping as they come,
and will seek the LORD their God.

<sup>5</sup> They will ask about •Zion,
turning their faces to this road.
They will come and join themselves to the LORD
in an everlasting covenant that will never be forgotten.

<sup>6</sup> My people are lost sheep;
their shepherds have led them astray,
guiding them the wrong way in the mountains.
They have wandered from mountain to hill;
they have forgotten their resting place.

<sup>7</sup> All who found them devoured them.
Their adversaries said, "We're not •guilty;
instead, they have sinned against the LORD,
their righteous grazing land,
the hope of their ancestors, the LORD."

depart from the Chaldeans' land.

Be like the rams that lead the flock.

<sup>9†</sup> For I will soon stir up and bring against Babylon an assembly of great nations from the north country.
They will line up in battle formation against her;
from there she will be captured.

Their arrows will be like those of a skilled warrior who does not return empty-handed.

<sup>10</sup> The Chaldeans will become plunder;
all Babylon's plunderers will be fully satisfied.

<sup>11</sup> Because you rejoice, This is the LORD's declaration.
because you sing in triumph —
you who plundered My inheritance —
because you frolic like a young cow treading grain
and neigh like stallions,

<sup>12</sup> your mother will be utterly humiliated;
she who bore you will be put to shame.

Look! She will lag behind all <sup>B</sup> the nations —
a dry land, a wilderness, an •Arabah.

<sup>13</sup> Because of the LORD's wrath,
she will not be inhabited;
she will become a desolation, every bit of her.
Everyone who passes through Babylon will be horrified
and scoff because of all her wounds.

<sup>14</sup> Line up in battle formation around Babylon,
all you archers!
Shoot at her! Do not spare an arrow,
for she has sinned against the LORD.

<sup>15</sup> Raise a war cry against her on every side!
She has thrown up her hands in surrender;
her defense towers have fallen;
her walls are demolished.
Since this is the LORD's vengeance,
take out your vengeance on her;
as she has done, do the same to her.

<sup>16</sup> Cut off the sower from Babylon
as well as him who wields the sickle at harvest time.
Because of the oppressor's sword,
each will turn to his own people,
each will flee to his own land.

The Return of God's People

<sup>17</sup> Israel is a stray lamb, chased by lions.
The first who devoured him was the king of Assyria;
the last one who crushed his bones
was Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon.

<sup>18</sup> Therefore, this is what the LORD of •Hosts, the God of Israel, says: "I am about to punish the king of Babylon and his land just as I punished the king of Assyria.

<sup>19</sup> I will return Israel to his grazing land,
and he will feed on Carmel and Bashan;
he will be satisfied
in the hill country of Ephraim and of Gilead.

<sup>20</sup> In those days and at that time —
one will search for Israel's guilt,                      this is the LORD's declaration — but there will be none,
and for Judah's sins,
but they will not be found,
for I will forgive those I leave as a remnant.

The Invasion of Babylon

<sup>21</sup> "Go against the land of Merathaim, and against those living in Pekod.
Put them to the sword;
•completely destroy them —
do everything I have commanded you.                      this is the LORD's declaration —

<sup>22</sup> The sound of war is in the land —
a great destruction.

<sup>23</sup> How the hammer of the whole earth
is cut down and smashed!
What a horror Babylon has become
among the nations!

<sup>24</sup> Babylon, I laid a trap for you, and you were caught,
but you did not even know it.
You were found and captured
because you fought against the LORD.

<sup>25</sup> The LORD opened His armory
and brought out His weapons of wrath, because it is a task of the Lord GOD of Hosts
in the land of the Chaldeans.

<sup>26</sup> Come against her from the most distant places. <sup>C</sup> Open her granaries;
pile her up like mounds of grain
and completely destroy her.
Leave her no survivors.

<sup>27</sup> Put all her young bulls to the sword;
let them go down to the slaughter.
Woe to them, because their day has come,
the time of their punishment.

The Humiliation of Babylon

<sup>28</sup> “There is a voice of fugitives and those who escape from the land of Babylon announcing in Zion the vengeance of the LORD our God,
the vengeance for His temple.

<sup>29†</sup> Summon the archers to Babylon,
all who string the bow;
camp all around her; let none escape.
Repay her according to her deeds;
just as she has done, do the same to her,
for she has acted arrogantly against the LORD,
against the Holy One of Israel.

<sup>30</sup> Therefore, her young men will fall

in her public squares;
all the warriors will perish in that day.

<sup>31</sup> Look, I am against you, you arrogant one — This is the LORD's declaration.

the Lord GOD of Hosts —this is the declaration of because your day has come,
the time when I will punish you.

<sup>32</sup> The arrogant will stumble and fall
with no one to pick him up.
I will set fire to his cities,
and it will consume everything around him.”

The Desolation of Babylon

<sup>33</sup> This is what the LORD of Hosts says:

Israelites and Judeans alike have been oppressed.
All their captors hold them fast;
they refuse to release them.

<sup>34</sup> Their Redeemer is strong;
•Yahweh of Hosts is His name.
He will fervently plead their case
so that He might bring rest to the earth
but turmoil to those who live in Babylon.

<sup>35</sup> A sword is over the Chaldeans —
against those who live in Babylon, this is the LORD's declaration — against her officials, and against her sages.

<sup>36</sup> A sword is against the diviners,
and they will act foolishly.
A sword is against her heroic warriors,
and they will be terrified.

<sup>37</sup> A sword is against his horses and chariots
and against all the foreigners among them,
and they will be like women.
A sword is against her treasuries,
and they will be plundered.

<sup>45</sup> Therefore, hear the plans that the LORD has drawn up against Babylon and the strategies He has devised against the land of the Chaldeans: Certainly the flock's little lambs will be dragged away; certainly the grazing land will be made desolate because of them. <sup>46</sup> At the sound of Babylon's conquest the earth will quake; a cry will be heard among the nations.

God's Judgment on Babylon

51 This is what the LORD says:

I am about to stir up a destructive wind <sup>A</sup> against Babylon and against the population of Leb-qamai. <sup>B</sup>,

<sup>2</sup> I will send strangers to Babylon who will scatter her and strip her land bare,
for they will come against her
from every side in the day of disaster.

<sup>3</sup> Don't let the archer string his bow;
don't let him put on <sup>C</sup> his armor.
Don't spare her young men;
•completely destroy her entire army!

<sup>4</sup> Those who were slain will fall in the land of the Chaldeans, those who were pierced through, in her streets.

<sup>5</sup> For Israel and Judah are not left widowed by their God, the LORD of •Hosts, though their land is full of •guilt
against the Holy One of Israel.

save your lives, each of you!
Don't perish because of her guilt.
For this is the time of the LORD's vengeance —
He will pay her what she deserves.

<sup>7</sup> Babylon was a gold cup in the LORD's hand, making the whole earth drunk.
The nations drank her wine;
therefore, the nations go mad.

<sup>8</sup> Suddenly Babylon fell and was shattered.
Wail for her;
get balm for her wound —
perhaps she can be healed.

<sup>9</sup> We tried to heal Babylon,
but she could not be healed.
Abandon her!
Let each of us go to his own land,

for her judgment extends to the sky
and reaches as far as the clouds.

<sup>10</sup> The LORD has brought about our vindication;
come, let's tell in •Zion
what the LORD our God has accomplished.

<sup>11†</sup> Sharpen the arrows!
Fill the quivers!
The LORD has put it into the mind of the kings of the Medes
because His plan is aimed at Babylon
to destroy her,
for it is the LORD's vengeance, vengeance for His temple.

<sup>12</sup> Raise up a signal flag against the walls of Babylon;
fortify the watch post;
set the watchmen in place;
prepare the ambush.
For the LORD has both planned and accomplished
what He has threatened against those who live in Babylon.

<sup>13</sup> You who reside by many waters,
rich in treasures,
your end has come,
your life thread is cut.

<sup>14</sup> The LORD of Hosts has sworn by Himself:

I will fill you up with men as with locusts,
and they will sing the victory song over you.

<sup>15†</sup> He made the earth by His power,
established the world by His wisdom,
and spread out the heavens by His understanding.

<sup>16</sup> When He thunders, <sup>D</sup>
the waters in the heavens are in turmoil,

and He causes the clouds
to rise from the ends of the earth.
He makes lightning for the rain
and brings the wind from His storehouses.

<sup>17</sup> Everyone is stupid and ignorant.
Every goldsmith is put to shame by his carved image,
for his cast images are a lie;
there is no breath in them.

<sup>18</sup> They are worthless, a work to be mocked.
At the time of their punishment they will be destroyed.

because He is the One who formed all things.
Israel is the tribe of His inheritance;
•Yahweh of Hosts is His name.

<sup>20</sup> You are My battle club,
My weapons of war.
With you I will smash nations;
with you I will bring kingdoms to ruin.

<sup>21</sup> With you I will smash the horse and its rider;
with you I will smash the chariot and its rider.

<sup>22</sup> With you I will smash man and woman;
with you I will smash the old man and the youth;
with you I will smash the young man and the young woman.

<sup>23</sup> With you I will smash the shepherd and his flock;
with you I will smash the farmer and his ox-team. <sup>E</sup>
With you I will smash governors and officials.

<sup>24</sup> "I will repay Babylon and all the residents of Chaldea for all their evil
they have done in Zion before your very eyes."

This is the LORD's declaration.

you devastate the whole earth.                      this is the LORD's declaration —
I will stretch out My hand against you,
roll you down from the cliffs,

at the time it is trampled.
In just a little while her harvest time will come.

<sup>34</sup> “Nebuchadnezzar of Babylon has devoured me;
he has crushed me.
He has set me aside like an empty dish;
he has swallowed me like a sea monster;
he filled his belly with my delicacies;
he has vomited me out,” <sup>G</sup>

<sup>35</sup> says the inhabitant of Zion;
“Let the violence done to me and my family be done to Babylon.
Let my blood be on the inhabitants of Chaldea,” says Jerusalem.

<sup>36†</sup> Therefore, this is what the LORD says:

I am about to plead your case
and take vengeance on your behalf;
I will dry up her sea
and make her fountain run dry.

<sup>37</sup> Babylon will become a heap of rubble,
a jackals’ den,
a desolation and an object of scorn,
without inhabitant.

<sup>38</sup> They will roar together like young lions;
they will growl like lion cubs.

<sup>39†</sup> While they are flushed with heat, I will serve them a feast,
and I will make them drunk so that they revel.
Then they will fall asleep forever
and never wake up.

<sup>40</sup> I will bring them down like lambs to the slaughter, like rams together with male goats. This is the LORD’s declaration.

<sup>41</sup> How Sheshach has been captured,
the praise of the whole earth seized.
What a horror Babylon has become

among the nations!

<sup>42</sup> The sea has risen over Babylon;
she is covered with its turbulent waves.

<sup>43</sup> Her cities have become a desolation,
a dry and arid land,
a land where no one lives,
where no human being passes through.

<sup>44</sup> I will punish Bel in Babylon.
I will make him vomit what he swallowed.
The nations will no longer stream to him;
even Babylon's wall will fall.

<sup>45</sup> Come out from among her, My people!
Save your lives, each of you,
from the LORD's burning anger.

<sup>46</sup> May you not become cowardly and fearful
when the report is proclaimed in the land,
for the report will come one year,
and then another the next year.
There will be violence in the land
with ruler against ruler.

<sup>47</sup> Therefore, look, the days are coming
when I will punish Babylon's carved images.
Her entire land will suffer shame,
and all her slain will lie fallen within her.

<sup>48</sup> Heaven and earth and everything in them will shout for joy over Babylon
because the destroyers from the north will come against her.

<sup>49</sup> Babylon must fall because of the slain
of Israel,
even as the slain of all the earth fell because of Babylon.

<sup>50</sup> You who have escaped the sword,
go and do not stand still!
Remember the LORD from far away,

This is the LORD's declaration.

and let Jerusalem come to your mind.

<sup>51</sup> We are ashamed
because we have heard insults.
Humiliation covers our faces because foreigners have entered the holy places of the LORD's temple.

<sup>52</sup> Therefore, look, the days are coming —
when I will punish her carved images,      this is the LORD's declaration — and the wounded will groan throughout her land.

<sup>53</sup> Even if Babylon should ascend to the heavens and fortify her tall fortresses, destroyers will come against her from Me.

<sup>54</sup> The sound of a cry from Babylon!      This is the LORD's declaration.
The sound of great destruction
from the land of the Chaldeans!

<sup>55</sup> For the LORD is going to devastate Babylon;
He will silence her mighty voice.
Their waves roar like abundant waters;
the tumult of their voice resounds,

<sup>56</sup> for a destroyer is coming against her,
against Babylon.

Her warriors will be captured,
their bows shattered,
for the LORD is a God of retribution;
He will certainly repay.

<sup>57</sup> I will make her princes and sages drunk,
along with her governors, officials, and warriors.
Then they will fall asleep forever
and never wake up.

Yahweh of Hosts is His name. This is the King's declaration;

<sup>58</sup> This is what Yahweh of Hosts says:

Babylon's thick walls will be totally demolished,

and her high gates consumed by fire.
The peoples will have labored for nothing;
the nations will exhaust themselves only to feed the fire.

<sup>59</sup> This is what Jeremiah the prophet commanded Seraiah son of Neriah son of Mahseiah, the quartermaster, when he went to Babylon with King Zedekiah of Judah in the fourth year of Zedekiah's reign. <sup>60†</sup> Jeremiah wrote on one scroll about all the disaster that would come to Babylon; all these words were written against Babylon.

<sup>61</sup> Jeremiah told Seraiah, "When you get to Babylon, see that you read all these words aloud. <sup>62</sup> You must say, 'LORD, You have threatened to cut off this place so that no one will live in it — man or beast. Indeed, it will remain desolate forever.' <sup>63</sup> When you have finished reading this scroll, tie a stone to it and throw it into the middle of the Euphrates River. <sup>64</sup> Then say, 'In the same way, Babylon will sink and never rise again because of the disaster I am bringing on her. They will grow weary.' "

The words of Jeremiah end here.

The Fall of Jerusalem

52 †Zedekiah was 21 years old when he became king and reigned 11 years in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Hamutal daughter of Jeremiah; she was from Libnah. <sup>2</sup> Zedekiah did what was evil in the LORD's sight just as Jehoiakim had done. <sup>3</sup> Because of the LORD's anger, it came to the point in Jerusalem and Judah that He finally banished them from His presence. Nevertheless, Zedekiah rebelled against the king of Babylon.

<sup>4</sup> In the ninth year of Zedekiah's reign, on the tenth day of the tenth month, King Nebuchadnezzar of Babylon advanced against Jerusalem with his entire army. They laid siege to the city and built a siege wall all around it. <sup>5</sup> The city was under siege until King Zedekiah's eleventh year.

<sup>6</sup> By the ninth day of the fourth month the famine was so severe in the city that the people of the land had no food. <sup>7</sup> Then the city was broken into, and all the warriors fled. They left the city by night by way of the gate between the two walls near the king's garden, though the Chaldeans surrounded the city. They made their way along the route to the •Arabah.

<sup>8</sup> The Chaldean army pursued the king and overtook Zedekiah in the plains of Jericho. Zedekiah's entire army was scattered from him. <sup>9</sup> The Chaldeans seized the king and brought him to the king of Babylon at Riblah in the land of Hamath, and he passed sentence on him.

in the city, the deserters who had defected to the king of Babylon, and the rest of the craftsmen. <sup>16</sup> But some of the poorest people of the land Nebuzaradan, the commander of the guards, left to be vinedressers and farmers.

Nebuchadnezzar's twenty-third year, Nebuzaradan, the commander of the guards, deported 745 Jews. All together 4,600 people were deported.

Jehoiachin Pardoned

LAMENTATIONS

Lament over Jerusalem

Alef

1 †How she sits alone,
the city once crowded with people!
She who was great among the nations
has become like a widow.
The princess among the provinces
has been put to forced labor.

Bet

2 She weeps aloud during the night,
with tears on her cheeks.
There is no one to offer her comfort,
not one from all her lovers.
All her friends have betrayed her;
they have become her enemies.

Gimel

3 Judah has gone into exile
following <sup>A</sup> affliction and harsh slavery;
she lives among the nations
but finds no place to rest.
All her pursuers have overtaken her
in narrow places.

Dalet

4 The roads to •Zion mourn,
for no one comes to the appointed festivals.
All her gates are deserted;
her priests groan,
her young women grieve,
and she herself is bitter.

He

5† Her adversaries have become her masters;
her enemies are at ease,
for the LORD has made her suffer
because of her many transgressions.
Her children have gone away

as captives before the adversary.

Vav

<sup>6</sup> All her splendor has vanished from Daughter Zion.
Her leaders are like stags
that find no pasture;
they walk away exhausted
before the hunter.

<sup>7</sup> During the days of her affliction and homelessness
Jerusalem remembers all her precious belongings
that were hers in days of old.
When her people fell into the adversary's hand,
she had no one to help.
The adversaries looked at her,
laughing over her downfall.

Khet

<sup>8</sup> Jerusalem has sinned grievously;
therefore, she has become an object of scorn. <sup>B</sup>
All who honored her now despise her,
for they have seen her nakedness.
She herself groans and turns away.

<sup>9</sup> Her uncleanness stains her skirts.
She never considered her end.
Her downfall was astonishing;
there was no one to comfort her.
LORD, look on my affliction,
for the enemy triumphs!

Yod

<sup>10†</sup> The adversary has seized all her precious belongings.

She has even seen the nations
enter her sanctuary —
those You had forbidden to enter Your assembly.

Kaf

<sup>11</sup> All her people groan
while they search for bread.
They have traded their precious belongings for food
in order to stay alive.
LORD, look and see how I have become despised.

Lamed

<sup>12</sup> Is this nothing to you, all you who pass by?
Look and see!
Is there any pain like mine,
which was dealt out to me,
which the LORD made me suffer
on the day of His burning anger?

Mem

<sup>13</sup> He sent fire from heaven into my bones;
He made it descend.
He spread a net for my feet
and turned me back.
He made me desolate,
sick all day long.

Nun

<sup>14</sup> My transgressions have been formed into a yoke, , fastened together by His hand;
they have been placed on my neck,
and the Lord has broken my strength.
He has handed me over
to those I cannot withstand.

Samek

<sup>15</sup> The Lord has rejected
all the mighty men within me.
He has summoned an army <sup>D</sup> against me
to crush my young warriors.
The Lord has trampled Virgin Daughter Judah
like grapes in a winepress.

Ayin

<sup>16</sup> I weep because of these things;
my eyes flow <sup>E</sup> with tears.
For there is no one nearby to comfort me,
no one to keep me alive.
My children are desolate
because the enemy has prevailed.

<sup>17</sup> Zion stretches out her hands;
there is no one to comfort her.
The LORD has issued a decree against Jacob that his neighbors should be his adversaries.
Jerusalem has become something impure among them.

<sup>18</sup> The LORD is just,
for I have rebelled against His command.
Listen, all you people;
look at my pain.
My young men and women
have gone into captivity.

Qof

<sup>19</sup> I called to my lovers,
but they betrayed me.
My priests and elders perished in the city
while searching for food

to keep themselves alive.

Resh

<sup>20</sup> LORD, see how I am in distress.
I am churning within;
my heart is broken, <sup>F</sup>
for I have been very rebellious.
Outside, the sword takes the children;
inside, there is death.

Shin

<sup>21</sup> People have heard me groaning,
but there is no one to comfort me.
All my enemies have heard of my misfortune;
they are glad that You have caused it.
Bring on the day You have announced,
so that they may become like me.

Tav

<sup>22</sup> Let all their wickedness come before You,
and deal with them
as You have dealt with me
because of all my transgressions.
For my groans are many,
and I am sick at heart.

Judgment on Jerusalem

Alef

2 How the Lord has overshadowed Daughter •Zion with His anger!
He has thrown down Israel's glory
from heaven to earth.
He has abandoned His footstool
in the day of His anger.

Bet

2 Without compassion the Lord has swallowed up all the dwellings of Jacob.
In His wrath He has demolished
the fortified cities of Daughter Judah.
He brought them to the ground
and defiled the kingdom and its leaders.

Gimel

3 He has cut off every •horn of Israel in His burning anger and withdrawn His right hand
in the presence of the enemy.
He has blazed against Jacob like a flaming fire
that consumes everything.

Dalet

4 He has bent His bow like an enemy;
His right hand is positioned like an adversary.
He has killed everyone who was loved, <sup>A</sup> pouring out His wrath like fire on the tent of Daughter Zion.

He

5 The Lord is like an enemy;
He has swallowed up Israel.
He swallowed up all its palaces
and destroyed its fortified cities.
He has multiplied mourning and lamentation within Daughter Judah.

Vav

<sup>6</sup> He has done violence to His temple <sup>B</sup>
as if it were a garden booth, destroying His place of meeting.
The LORD has abolished
appointed festivals and Sabbaths in Zion.
He has despised king and priest
in His fierce anger.

Zayin

<sup>7</sup> The Lord has rejected His altar, repudiated His sanctuary;
He has handed the walls of her palaces
over to the enemy.
They have raised a shout in the house of the LORD
as on the day of an appointed festival.

Khet

<sup>8</sup> The LORD determined to destroy the wall of Daughter Zion.
He stretched out a measuring line
and did not restrain Himself from destroying.
He made the ramparts and walls grieve;
together they waste away.

Tet

<sup>9†</sup> Zion's gates have fallen to the ground;
He has destroyed and shattered the bars on her gates.
Her king and her leaders live among the nations,
instruction <sup>C</sup> is no more,
and even her prophets receive no vision from the LORD.

Yod

<sup>10</sup> The elders of Daughter Zion sit on the ground in silence.
They have thrown dust on their heads and put on •sackcloth.

The young women of Jerusalem
have bowed their heads to the ground.

Kaf

<sup>11</sup> My eyes are worn out from weeping;
I am churning within.
My heart is poured out in grief <sup>D</sup>
because of the destruction of my dear people,
because children and infants faint
in the streets of the city.

<sup>12</sup> They cry out to their mothers:
Where is the grain and wine?
as they faint like the wounded
in the streets of the city,
as their lives fade away
in the arms of their mothers.

Mem

<sup>13</sup> What can I say on your behalf?
What can I compare you to, Daughter Jerusalem?
What can I liken you to,
so that I may console you, Virgin Daughter Zion?
For your ruin is as vast as the sea.
Who can heal you?

Nun

<sup>14†</sup> Your prophets saw visions for you that were empty and deceptive;
they did not reveal your •guilt
and so restore your fortunes.
They saw •oracles for you
that were empty and misleading.

<sup>15</sup> All who pass by scornfully clap their hands at you.
They mock <sup>E</sup> and shake their heads
at Daughter Jerusalem:
Is this the city that was called
the perfection of beauty,
the joy of the whole earth?

Pe

<sup>16</sup> All your enemies
open their mouths against you.
They hiss and gnash their teeth,
saying, "We have swallowed her up.
This is the day we have waited for!
We have lived to see it."

Ayin

<sup>17</sup> The LORD has done what He planned;
He has accomplished His decree,
which He ordained in days of old.
He has demolished without compassion,
letting the enemy gloat over you
and exalting the horn of your adversaries.

Tsade

<sup>18</sup> The hearts of the people cry out to the Lord.
Wall of Daughter Zion,
let your tears run down like a river
day and night.
Give yourself no relief
and your <sup>F</sup> eyes no rest.

<sup>19</sup> Arise, cry out in the night
from the first watch of the night.
Pour out your heart like water
before the Lord's presence.

Lift up your hands to Him
for the lives of your children who are fainting from hunger
on the corner of every street.

Resh

<sup>20†</sup> LORD, look and consider who You have done this to.
Should women eat their own children,
the infants they have nurtured? <sup>G</sup> Should priests and prophets be killed in the Lord's sanctuary?

Shin

<sup>21</sup> Both young and old are lying on the ground in the streets.
My young men and women
have fallen by the sword.
You have killed them in the day of Your anger,
slaughtering without compassion.

Tav

<sup>22</sup> You summoned my attackers <sup>H</sup> on every side,
as if for an appointed festival day;
on the day of the LORD's anger
no one escaped or survived.
My enemy has destroyed
those I nurtured <sup>I</sup> and reared.

Hope through God's Mercy

Alef

3 I am the man who has seen affliction
under the rod of God's wrath.

<sup>2</sup> He has driven me away and forced me to walk in darkness instead of light.

<sup>3</sup> Yes, He repeatedly turns His hand against me all day long.

Bet

<sup>4</sup> He has worn away my flesh and skin;
He has shattered my bones.

<sup>5</sup> He has laid siege against me,
encircling me with bitterness and hardship.

<sup>6</sup> He has made me dwell in darkness
like those who have been dead for ages.

Gimel

<sup>7</sup> He has walled me in so I cannot escape;
He has weighed me down with chains.

<sup>8†</sup> Even when I cry out and plead for help,
He rejects my prayer.

<sup>9</sup> He has walled in my ways with cut stones;
He has made my paths crooked.

<sup>10</sup> He is <sup>A</sup> a bear waiting in ambush,
a lion in hiding.

<sup>11</sup> He forced me off my way and tore me to pieces;
He left me desolate.

<sup>12</sup> He strung His bow
and set me as the target for His arrow.

He

<sup>13</sup> He pierced my kidneys
with His arrows.

<sup>14</sup> I am a laughingstock to all my people,
mocked by their songs all day long.

<sup>15</sup> He filled me with bitterness,
satiated me with •wormwood.

Vav

<sup>16</sup> He ground my teeth on gravel and made me cower <sup>B</sup> in the dust.
<sup>17</sup> My soul has been deprived of peace;
I have forgotten what happiness is.
<sup>18</sup> Then I thought: My future <sup>C</sup> is lost,
as well as my hope from the LORD.

Zayin

<sup>19</sup> Remember <sup>D</sup> my affliction and my homelessness, the wormwood and the poison.
<sup>20</sup> I continually remember them
and have become depressed.
<sup>21</sup> Yet I call this to mind,
and therefore I have hope:

Khet

<sup>22</sup> Because of the LORD's faithful love
we do not perish,
for His mercies never end.
<sup>23</sup> They are new every morning;
great is Your faithfulness!
<sup>24</sup> I say: The LORD is my portion, therefore I will put my hope in Him.

Tet

<sup>25</sup> The LORD is good to those who wait for Him, to the person who seeks Him.
<sup>26</sup> It is good to wait quietly
for deliverance from the LORD.
<sup>27</sup> It is good for a man to bear the yoke
while he is still young.

Yod

<sup>28</sup> Let him sit alone and be silent,
for God has disciplined him.

<sup>29</sup> Let him put his mouth in the dust —
perhaps there is still hope.

<sup>30</sup> Let him offer his cheek
to the one who would strike him;
let him be filled with shame.

Kaf

<sup>31</sup> For the Lord will not reject us forever.

<sup>32</sup> Even if He causes suffering,
He will show compassion
according to His abundant, faithful love.

<sup>33</sup> For He does not enjoy bringing affliction or suffering on •mankind.

Lamed

<sup>34</sup> Crushing all the prisoners of the land <sup>E</sup> beneath one's feet,

<sup>35</sup> denying justice to a man in the presence of the •Most High,

<sup>36</sup> or suppressing a person's lawsuit —
the Lord does not approve of these things.

Mem

<sup>37†</sup> Who is there who speaks and it happens, unless the Lord has ordained it?

<sup>38</sup> Do not both adversity and good come from the mouth of the Most High?

<sup>39</sup> Why should any living person complain,
any man, because of the punishment for his sins?

Nun

<sup>40</sup> Let us search out and examine our ways,

and turn back to the LORD.

<sup>41</sup> Let us lift up our hearts and our hands
to God in heaven:

<sup>42</sup> We have sinned and rebelled;
You have not forgiven.

Samek

<sup>43</sup> You have covered Yourself in anger and pursued us;
You have killed without compassion.

<sup>44†</sup> You have covered Yourself with a cloud
so that no prayer can pass through.

<sup>45</sup> You have made us disgusting filth
among the peoples.

<sup>46</sup> All our enemies
open their mouths against us.

<sup>47</sup> We have experienced panic and pitfall,
devastation and destruction.

<sup>48</sup> My eyes flow with streams of tears
because of the destruction of my dear people.

Ayin

<sup>49</sup> My eyes overflow unceasingly, without end,

<sup>50</sup> until the LORD looks down
from heaven and sees.

<sup>51</sup> My eyes bring me grief
because of the fate of all the women in my city.

<sup>52</sup> For no apparent reason, my enemies <sup>F</sup> hunted me like a bird.

<sup>53</sup> They dropped me alive into <sup>G</sup> a pit and threw stones at me.

<sup>54</sup> Water flooded over my head,

and I thought: I'm going to die!

Qof

<sup>55</sup> I called on Your name, •Yahweh, from the depths of the •Pit.

<sup>56</sup> You hear my plea:
Do not ignore my cry for relief.

<sup>57</sup> You come near when I call on You;
You say: "Do not be afraid."

Resh

<sup>58</sup> You defend my cause, Lord;
You redeem my life.

<sup>59</sup> LORD, You see the wrong done to me;
judge my case.

<sup>60</sup> You see all their malice,
all their plots against me.

<sup>61</sup> LORD, You hear their insults,
all their plots against me.

<sup>62</sup> The slander <sup>H</sup> and murmuring of my opponents attack me all day long.

<sup>63</sup> When they sit and when they rise, look,
I am mocked by their songs.

Tav

<sup>64</sup> You will pay them back what they deserve, LORD, according to the work of their hands.

<sup>65</sup> You will give them a heart filled with anguish. <sup>I</sup>
May Your curse be on them!

<sup>66</sup> You will pursue them in anger and destroy them under Your heavens. ,

Terrors of the Besieged City

Alef

4 How the gold has become tarnished,
the fine gold become dull!

The stones of the temple <sup>A</sup> lie scattered at the corner of every street.

<sup>2</sup> •Zion's precious people —
once worth their weight in pure gold —
how they are regarded as clay jars,
the work of a potter's hands!

<sup>3</sup> Even jackals offer their breasts to nurse their young,
but my dear people have become cruel
like ostriches in the wilderness.

<sup>4†</sup> The nursing infant's tongue clings to the roof of his mouth from thirst.
Little children beg for bread,
but no one gives them any.

He

<sup>5</sup> Those who used to eat delicacies are destitute in the streets;
those who were reared in purple garments huddle in garbage heaps.

Vav

<sup>6†</sup> The punishment of my dear people is greater than that of Sodom, which was overthrown in an instant
without a hand laid on it.

<sup>7</sup> Her dignitaries were brighter than snow, whiter than milk;

their bodies <sup>B</sup> were more ruddy than coral,
their appearance like sapphire. <sup>C</sup>

Khet

<sup>8</sup> Now they appear darker than soot;
they are not recognized in the streets.
Their skin has shriveled on their bones;
it has become dry like wood.

Tet

<sup>9</sup> Those slain by the sword are better off
than those slain by hunger,
who waste away, pierced with pain
because the fields lack produce.

Yod

<sup>10†</sup> The hands of compassionate women have cooked their own children;
they became their food
during the destruction of my dear people.

Kaf

<sup>11</sup> The LORD has exhausted His wrath, poured out His burning anger;
He has ignited a fire in Zion,
and it has consumed her foundations.

Lamed

<sup>12†</sup> The kings of the earth and all the world's inhabitants did not believe that an enemy or adversary
could enter Jerusalem's gates.

Mem

<sup>13</sup> Yet it happened because of the sins of her prophets and the •guilt of her priests, who shed the blood of the righteous

within her.

Nun

<sup>14</sup> Blind, they stumbled in the streets, defiled by this blood,
so that no one dared
to touch their garments.

“Away, away! Don’t touch us!”
So they wandered aimlessly.
It was said among the nations,
“They can stay here no longer.”

Pe

<sup>16</sup> The LORD Himself has scattered them;
He regards them no more.
The priests are not respected;
the elders find no favor.

Ayin

<sup>17</sup> All the while our eyes were failing as we looked in vain for assistance;
we watched from our towers
for a nation that refused to help.

<sup>18</sup> Our steps were closely followed
so that we could not walk in our streets.
Our end drew near; our time ran out.
Our end had come!

Qof

<sup>19</sup> Those who chased us were swifter
than eagles in the sky;

they relentlessly pursued us over the mountains
and ambushed us in the wilderness.

Resh

<sup>20†</sup> The LORD's anointed, the breath of our life, <sup>D</sup> was captured in their traps.
We had said about him,
"We will live under his protection among the nations."

Sin

<sup>21</sup> So rejoice and be glad, Daughter Edom,
you resident of the land of Uz!
Yet the cup will pass to you as well;
you will get drunk and expose yourself.

Tav

<sup>22</sup> Daughter Zion, your punishment is complete;
He will not lengthen your exile. <sup>E</sup>
But He will punish your iniquity, Daughter Edom,
and will expose your sins.

Prayer for Restoration

5 •Yahweh, remember what has happened to us.
Look, and see our disgrace!

2 Our inheritance has been turned over to strangers,
our houses to foreigners.

3 We have become orphans, fatherless;
our mothers are widows.

4 We must pay for the water we drink;
our wood comes at a price.

5 We are closely pursued;
we are tired, and no one offers us rest.

6 We made a treaty with <sup>A</sup> Egypt and with Assyria, to get enough food.

7† Our fathers sinned; they no longer exist,
but we bear their punishment.

8 Slaves rule over us;
no one rescues us from their hands.

9 We secure our food at the risk of our lives
because of the sword in the wilderness.

10 Our skin is as hot <sup>B</sup> as an oven
from the ravages of hunger.

11 Women are raped in •Zion,
girls in the cities of Judah.

12 Princes are hung up by their hands;
elders are shown no respect.

13† Young men labor at millstones;
boys stumble under loads of wood.

14 The elders have left the city •gate,
the young men, their music.

15 Joy has left our hearts;
our dancing has turned to mourning.

16 The crown has fallen from our head.
Woe to us, for we have sinned.

17 Because of this, our heart is sick;
because of these, our eyes grow dim:

<sup>18</sup> because of Mount Zion, which lies desolate
and has jackals prowling in it.

<sup>19</sup> You, LORD, are enthroned forever;
Your throne endures from generation to generation.

<sup>20</sup> Why have You forgotten us forever,
abandoned us for our entire lives?

<sup>21</sup> LORD, restore us to Yourself, so we may return;
renew our days as in former times,

<sup>22</sup> unless You have completely rejected us
and are intensely angry with us.

EZEKIEL

1 †In the thirtieth year, in the fourth month, on the fifth day of the month, while I was among the exiles by the Chebar Canal, the heavens opened and I saw visions of God. <sup>2†</sup> On the fifth day of the month — it was the fifth year of King Jehoiachin’s exile — <sup>3†</sup> the word of the LORD came directly to Ezekiel the priest, the son of Buzi, in the land of the Chaldeans by the Chebar Canal. And the LORD’s hand was on him there.

Vision of the LORD’s Glory

<sup>4†</sup> I looked and there was a whirlwind coming from the north, a great cloud with fire flashing back and forth and brilliant light all around it. In the center of the fire, there was a gleam like amber. <sup>5†</sup> The form of four living creatures came from it. And this was their appearance: They had human form, <sup>6</sup> but each of them had four faces and four wings. <sup>7</sup> Their legs were straight, and the soles of their feet were like the hooves of a calf, sparkling like the gleam of polished bronze. <sup>8</sup> They had human hands under their wings on their four sides. All four of them had faces and wings. <sup>9</sup> Their wings were touching. The creatures did not turn as they moved; each one went straight ahead. <sup>10†</sup> The form of each of their faces was that of a man, and each of the four had the face of a lion on the right, the face of an ox on the left, and the face of an eagle. <sup>11</sup> That is what their faces were like. Their wings were spread upward; each had two wings touching that of another and two wings covering its body. <sup>12</sup> Each creature went straight ahead. Wherever the Spirit <sup>A</sup> wanted to go, they went without turning as they moved.

<sup>13</sup> The form of the living creatures was like the appearance of burning coals of fire and torches. Fire was moving back and forth between the living creatures; it was bright, with lightning coming out of it. <sup>14</sup> The creatures were darting back and forth like flashes of lightning.

<sup>15†</sup> When I looked at the living creatures, there was one wheel on the ground beside each creature that had four faces. <sup>16</sup> The appearance of the wheels and their craftsmanship was like the gleam of beryl, and all four had the same form. Their appearance and craftsmanship was like a wheel within a wheel. <sup>17</sup> When they moved, they went in any of the four directions, without pivoting as they moved. <sup>18</sup> Their rims were large and frightening. Each of their four rims were full of eyes all around. <sup>19</sup> So when the living creatures moved, the wheels moved beside them, and when the creatures rose from the earth, the wheels also rose. <sup>20</sup> Wherever the Spirit <sup>B</sup> wanted to go, the creatures went in the direction the Spirit was moving. The wheels rose alongside them, for the spirit of the living creatures was in the wheels. <sup>21</sup> When the creatures moved, the wheels moved; when the creatures stood still, the wheels stood still; and when the creatures rose from the earth, the wheels rose alongside them, for the spirit of the living creatures was in the wheels.

<sup>28†</sup> The appearance of the brilliant light all around was like that of a rainbow in a cloud on a rainy day. This was the appearance of the form of the LORD's glory. When I saw it, I fell facedown and heard a voice speaking.

Mission to Rebellious Israel

2 †He said to me, “Son of man, stand up on your feet and I will speak with you.” 2 As He spoke to me, the Spirit entered me and set me on my feet, and I listened to the One who was speaking to me. 3† He said to me: “Son of man, I am sending you to the Israelites, to <sup>A</sup> the rebellious pagans who have rebelled against Me. The Israelites and their ancestors have transgressed against Me to this day. 4 The children are obstinate <sup>B</sup> and hardhearted. I am sending you to them, and you must say to them, ‘This is what the Lord GOD says.’ 5 Whether they listen or refuse to listen — for they are a rebellious house — they will know that a prophet has been among them.

6 “But you, son of man, do not be afraid of them or their words, though briars and thorns are beside you and you live among scorpions. Don’t be afraid of their words or be discouraged by the look on their faces, for they are a rebellious house. 7 But speak My words to them whether they listen or refuse to listen, for they are rebellious.

8 “And you, son of man, listen to what I tell you: Do not be rebellious like that rebellious house. Open your mouth and eat what I am giving you.” 9 So I looked and saw a hand reaching out to me, and there was a written scroll in it. 10 When He unrolled it before me, it was written on the front and back; words of lamentation, mourning, and woe were written on it.

3 He said to me: “Son of man, eat what you find here. Eat this scroll, then go and speak to the house of Israel.” <sup>2</sup> So I opened my mouth, and He fed me the scroll. <sup>3†</sup> “Son of man,” he said to me, “eat <sup>A</sup> and fill your stomach with this scroll I am giving you.” So I ate it, and it was as sweet as honey in my mouth.

<sup>4</sup> Then He said to me: “Son of man, go to the house of Israel and speak My words to them. <sup>5</sup> For you are not being sent to a people of unintelligible speech or difficult language but to the house of Israel. <sup>6</sup> You are not being sent to many peoples of unintelligible speech or difficult language, whose words you cannot understand. No doubt, if I sent you to them, they would listen to you. <sup>7</sup> But the house of Israel will not want to listen to you because they do not want to listen to Me. For the whole house of Israel is hardheaded and hardhearted. <sup>8†</sup> Look, I have made your face as hard as their faces and your forehead as hard as their foreheads. <sup>9</sup> I have made your forehead like a diamond, harder than flint. Don’t be afraid of them or discouraged by the look on their faces, even though they are a rebellious house.”

<sup>10</sup> Next He said to me: “Son of man, listen carefully to all My words that I speak to you and take them to heart. <sup>11</sup> Go to your people, the exiles, and speak to them. Tell them, ‘This is what the Lord GOD says,’ whether they listen or refuse to listen.”

<sup>12</sup> The Spirit then lifted me up, and I heard a great rumbling sound behind me — praise the glory of the LORD in His place! — <sup>13</sup> with the sound of the living creatures’ wings brushing against each other and the sound of the wheels beside them, a great rumbling sound. <sup>14</sup> So the Spirit lifted me up and took me away. I left in bitterness and in an angry spirit, and the LORD’s hand was on me powerfully. <sup>15</sup> I came to the exiles at Tel-abib, who were living by the Chebar Canal, and I sat there among them stunned for seven days.

Ezekiel as a Watchman

<sup>16†</sup> Now at the end of seven days the word of the LORD came to me:
<sup>17</sup> “Son of man, I have made you a watchman over the house of Israel. When you hear a word from My mouth, give them a warning from Me.
<sup>18</sup> If I say to the wicked person, ‘You will surely die,’ but you do not warn him — you don’t speak out to warn him about his wicked way in order to save his life — that wicked person will die for his iniquity. Yet I will hold you responsible for his blood. <sup>19</sup> But if you warn a wicked person and he does not turn from his wickedness or his wicked way, he will die for his iniquity, but you will have saved your life. <sup>20</sup> Now if a righteous person turns from his righteousness and practices iniquity, and I put a stumbling block in front of him, he will die. If you did not warn him, he will die because of his sin and the righteous acts he did will not be remembered. Yet I will hold you responsible for his blood. <sup>21</sup> But if you warn the righteous person that he should not sin, and he does not sin, he will indeed live because he listened to your warning, and you will have saved your life.”

<sup>22</sup> Then the hand of the LORD was on me there, and He said to me, “Get up, go out to the plain, and I will speak with you there.” <sup>23</sup> So I got up and went out to the plain. The LORD’s glory was present there, like the glory I had seen by the Chebar Canal, and I fell facedown. <sup>24</sup> The Spirit entered me and set me on my feet. He spoke with me and said: “Go, shut yourself inside your house. <sup>25</sup> And you, son of man, they will put ropes on you and bind you with them so you cannot go out among them. <sup>26</sup> I will make your tongue stick to the roof of your mouth, and you will be mute and unable to rebuke them, for they are a rebellious house. <sup>27</sup> But when I speak with you, I will open your mouth, and you will say to them, ‘This is what the Lord GOD says.’ Let the one who listens, listen, and let the one who refuses, refuse — for they are a rebellious house.

Jerusalem's Siege Dramatized

4 †“Now you, son of man, take a brick, set it in front of you, and draw the city of Jerusalem on it. <sup>2</sup> Then lay siege against it: construct a siege wall, build a ramp, pitch military camps, and place battering rams against it on all sides. <sup>3</sup> Take an iron plate and set it up as an iron wall between yourself and the city. Turn your face toward it so that it is under siege, and besiege it. This will be a sign for the house of Israel.

<sup>4</sup> “Then lie down on your left side and place the iniquity <sup>A</sup> of the house of Israel on it. You will bear their iniquity for the number of days you lie on your side. <sup>5</sup> For I have assigned you the years of their iniquity according to the number of days you lie down, 390 days; so you will bear the iniquity of the house of Israel. <sup>6</sup> When you have completed these days, lie down again, but on your right side, and bear the iniquity of the house of Judah. I have assigned you 40 days, a day for each year. <sup>7</sup> You must turn your face toward the siege of Jerusalem with your arm bared, and prophesy against it. <sup>8</sup> Be aware that I will put cords on you so you cannot turn from side to side until you have finished the days of your siege.

<sup>9†</sup> “Also take wheat, barley, beans, lentils, millet, and spelt. Put them in a single container and make them into bread for yourself. You are to eat it during the number of days you lie on your side, 390 days. <sup>10</sup> The food you eat each day will be eight ounces <sup>B</sup> by weight; you will eat it from time to time. <sup>C</sup> <sup>11</sup> You are also to drink water by measure, a sixth of a gallon, <sup>D</sup> which you will drink from time to time. <sup>12†</sup> You will eat it as you would a barley cake and bake it over dried human excrement in their sight.” <sup>13</sup> The LORD said, “This is how the Israelites will eat their bread — ceremonially •unclean — among the nations where I will banish them.”

<sup>14</sup> But I said, “Oh, Lord GOD, I have never been defiled. From my youth until now I have not eaten anything that died naturally or was mauled by wild beasts. And impure meat has never entered my mouth.”

<sup>15</sup> He replied to me, “Look, I will let you use cow dung instead of human excrement, and you can make your bread over that.” <sup>16</sup> Then He said to me, “Son of man, I am going to cut off the supply of bread in Jerusalem. They will anxiously eat bread rationed by weight and in dread drink water by measure. <sup>17</sup> So they will lack bread and water; everyone will be devastated and waste away because of their iniquity.

Ezekiel Dramatizes Jerusalem's Fall

5 †“Now you, son of man, take a sharp sword, use it as you would a barber’s razor, and shave your head and beard. Then take a set of scales and divide the hair. <sup>2</sup> You are to burn up a third of it in the city when the days of the siege have ended; you are to take a third and slash it with the sword all around the city; and you are to scatter a third to the wind, for I will draw a sword to chase after them. <sup>3</sup> But you are to take a few strands from the hair and secure them in the folds of your robe. <sup>4</sup> Take some more of them, throw them into the fire, and burn them in it. A fire will spread from it to the whole house of Israel.

<sup>5</sup> “This is what the Lord GOD says: I have set this Jerusalem in the center of the nations, with countries all around her. <sup>6</sup> But she has rebelled against My ordinances with more wickedness than the nations, and against My statutes more than the countries that surround her. For her people have rejected My ordinances and have not walked in My statutes.

<sup>7</sup> “Therefore, this is what the Lord GOD says: Because you have been more insubordinate than the nations around you — you have not walked in My statutes or kept My ordinances; you have not even kept the ordinances of the nations around you — <sup>8</sup> therefore, this is what the Lord GOD says: See, I am against you, Jerusalem, and I will execute judgments within you in the sight of the nations. <sup>9</sup> Because of all your detestable practices, I will do to you what I have never done before and what I will never do again. <sup>10†</sup> As a result, fathers will eat their sons within Jerusalem, <sup>A</sup> and sons will eat their fathers. I will execute judgments against you and scatter all your survivors to every direction of the wind.

<sup>11</sup> “Therefore, as I live” — this is the declaration of the Lord GOD — “I am going to cut you off and show you no pity, because you have defiled My sanctuary with all your detestable practices and abominations. Yes, I will not spare you. <sup>12†</sup> A third of your people will die by plague and be consumed by famine within you; a third will fall by the sword all around you; and I will scatter a third to every direction of the wind, and I will draw a sword to chase after them. <sup>13</sup> When My anger is spent and I have vented

My wrath on them, I will be appeased. Then after I have spent My wrath on them, they will know that I, •Yahweh, have spoken in My jealousy.

<sup>14</sup> “I will make you a ruin and a disgrace among the nations around you, in the sight of everyone who passes by. <sup>15</sup> So you will be a disgrace and a taunt, a warning and a horror, to the nations around you when I execute judgments against you in anger, wrath, and furious rebukes. I, Yahweh, have spoken. <sup>16</sup> When I shoot deadly arrows of famine at them, arrows for destruction that I will send to destroy you, inhabitants of Jerusalem, I will intensify the famine against you and cut off your supply of bread. <sup>17</sup> I will send famine and dangerous animals against you. They will leave you childless, Jerusalem. Plague and bloodshed will sweep through you, and I will bring a sword against you. I, Yahweh, have spoken.”

Prophecy against Israel's Idolatry

6 †The word of the LORD came to me: 2 “Son of man, turn your face toward the mountains of Israel and prophesy against them. 3 You are to say: Mountains of Israel, hear the word of the Lord GOD! This is what the Lord GOD says to the mountains and the hills, to the ravines and the valleys: I am about to bring a sword against you, and I will destroy your •high places. 4† Your altars will be desolated and your incense altars smashed. I will throw down your slain in front of your idols. 5 I will lay the corpses of the Israelites in front of their idols and scatter your bones around your altars. 6 Wherever you live the cities will be in ruins and the high places will be desolate, so that your altars will lie in ruins and be desecrated, A your idols smashed and obliterated, your incense altars cut down, and your works wiped out. 7 The slain will fall among you, and you will know that I am •Yahweh.

8 “Yet I will leave a remnant when you are scattered among the nations, for throughout the countries there will be some of you who will escape the sword. 9 Then your survivors will remember Me among the nations where they are taken captive, how I was crushed by their promiscuous hearts that turned away from Me and by their eyes that lusted after their idols. They will loathe themselves because of the evil things they did, their detestable practices of every kind. 10 And they will know that I am the LORD; I did not threaten to bring this disaster on them without a reason.

Lament over the Fall of Jerusalem

11† “This is what the Lord GOD says: Clap your hands, stamp your feet, and cry out over all the evil and detestable practices of the house of Israel, who will fall by the sword, famine, and plague. 12 The one who is far off will die by plague; the one who is near will fall by the sword; and the one who remains and is spared B will die of famine. In this way I will exhaust My wrath on them. 13 You will all know that I am Yahweh when their slain lie among their idols around their altars, on every high hill, on all the mountaintops, and under every green tree and every leafy oak — the places where they offered pleasing aromas to all their idols. 14 I will stretch out My hand against them, and wherever they live I will make the land a desolate waste, from the wilderness to Diblah. Then they will know that I am Yahweh.”

Announcement of the End

7 † And the word of the LORD came to me: <sup>2</sup> “Son of man, this is what the Lord GOD says to the land of Israel:

An end! The end has come on the four corners of the land.

<sup>3</sup> The end is now upon you;
I will send My anger against you
and judge you according to your ways.
I will punish you for all your detestable practices.

<sup>4</sup> I will not look on you with pity or spare you,
but I will punish you for your ways
and for your detestable practices within you.
Then you will know that I am •Yahweh.”

<sup>5†</sup> This is what the Lord GOD says:

Look, one disaster after another is coming!

<sup>6</sup> An end has come; the end has come!
It has awakened against you.
Look, it is coming!

<sup>7</sup> Doom <sup>A</sup> has come on you,
inhabitants of the land.
The time has come; the day is near.
There will be panic on the mountains and not celebration.

<sup>8</sup> I will pour out My wrath on you very soon;
I will exhaust My anger against you
and judge you according to your ways.
I will punish you for all your detestable practices.

<sup>9</sup> I will not look on you with pity or spare you.
I will punish you for your ways
and for your detestable practices within you.
Then you will know that it is I, Yahweh, who strikes.

<sup>10</sup> Look, the day is coming!

Doom has gone out.
The rod has blossomed;
arrogance has bloomed.

<sup>11</sup> Violence has grown into a rod of wickedness.
None of them will remain:
none of their multitude,
none of their wealth,
and none of the eminent among them.

<sup>12</sup> The time has come; the day has arrived.
Let the buyer not rejoice
and the seller not mourn,
for wrath is on all her masses.

<sup>13</sup> The seller will certainly not return to what was sold
as long as he and the buyer remain alive. <sup>B</sup>
For the vision concerning all its people will not be revoked,
and none of them will preserve
his life because of his iniquity.

<sup>14</sup> They have blown the trumpet
and prepared everything,
but no one goes to war,
for My wrath is on all her masses.

<sup>15†</sup> The sword is on the outside;
plague and famine are on the inside.
Whoever is in the field will die by the sword,
and famine and plague will devour
whoever is in the city.

<sup>16</sup> The survivors among them will escape
and live on the mountains
like doves of the valley,
all of them moaning,
each over his own iniquity.

<sup>17</sup> All their hands will become weak,
and all their knees will turn to water.

18† They will put on •sackcloth,
and horror will overwhelm them.
Shame will cover all their faces,
and all their heads will be bald.

19 They will throw their silver into the streets,
and their gold will seem like something filthy.
Their silver and gold will be unable to save them
in the day of the LORD'S WRATH.
They will not satisfy their appetites
or fill their stomachs,
for these were the stumbling blocks
that brought about their iniquity.

20 He appointed His beautiful ornaments for majesty, but <sup>C</sup> they made their abhorrent images from them,
their detestable things.
Therefore, I have made these into something filthy for them.

21 I will hand these things over to foreigners as plunder
and to the wicked of the earth as spoil,
and they will profane them.

22 I will turn My face from the wicked
as they profane My treasured place.
Violent men will enter it and profane it.

23† Forge the chain,
for the land is filled with crimes of bloodshed,
and the city is filled with violence.

24 So I will bring the most evil of nations to take possession of their houses.
I will put an end to the pride of the strong,
and their sacred places will be profaned.

25 Anguish is coming!
They will seek peace, but there will be none.

26 Disaster after disaster will come,

and there will be rumor after rumor.

Then they will seek a vision from a prophet,
but instruction will perish from the priests
and counsel from the elders.

<sup>27</sup> The king will mourn;
the prince will be clothed in grief;
and the hands of the people of the land will tremble.
I will deal with them according to their own conduct,
and I will judge them by their own standards.
Then they will know that I am Yahweh.

Visionary Journey to Jerusalem

8 † In the sixth year, in the sixth month, on the fifth day of the month, I was sitting in my house and the elders of Judah were sitting in front of me, and there the hand of the Lord GOD came down on me. <sup>2</sup> I looked, and there was a form that had the appearance of a man. From what seemed to be His waist down was fire, and from His waist up was something that looked bright, like the gleam of amber. <sup>3</sup> He stretched out what appeared to be a hand and took me by the hair of my head. Then the Spirit lifted me up between earth and heaven and carried me in visions of God to Jerusalem, to the entrance of the inner gate that faces north, where the offensive statue that provokes jealousy was located. <sup>4</sup> I saw the glory of the God of Israel there, like the vision I had seen in the plain.

Pagan Practices in the Temple

<sup>5†</sup> The LORD said to me, “Son of man, look toward the north.” I looked to the north, and there was this offensive statue north of the altar gate, at the entrance. <sup>6</sup> He said to me, “Son of man, do you see what they are doing here, more detestable things that the house of Israel is committing, so that I must depart from My sanctuary? You will see even more detestable things.”

<sup>7†</sup> Then He brought me to the entrance of the court, and when I looked there was a hole in the wall. <sup>8</sup> He said to me, “Son of man, dig through the wall.” So I dug through the wall, and there was a doorway. <sup>9</sup> He said to me, “Go in and see the terrible and detestable things they are committing here.” <sup>10</sup> I went in and looked, and there engraved all around the wall was every form of detestable thing, crawling creatures and beasts, as well as all the idols of the house of Israel.

<sup>11</sup> Seventy elders from the house of Israel were standing before them, with Jaazaniah son of Shaphan standing among them. Each had a firepan in his hand, and a fragrant cloud of incense was rising up. <sup>12</sup> Then He said to me, “Son of man, do you see what the elders of the house of Israel are doing in the darkness, each at the shrine of his idol? For they are saying, ‘The LORD does not see us. The LORD has abandoned the land.’ ” <sup>13</sup> Again He said to me, “You will see even more detestable things, which they are committing.”

<sup>14†</sup> So He brought me to the entrance of the north gate of the LORD's house, and I saw women sitting there weeping for Tammuz. <sup>15</sup> And He said to me, "Do you see this, son of man? You will see even more detestable things than these."

<sup>16†</sup> So He brought me to the inner court of the LORD's house, and there were about 25 men at the entrance of the LORD's temple, between the portico and the altar, with their backs to the LORD's temple and their faces turned to the east. They were bowing to the east in worship of the sun. <sup>17</sup> And He said to me, "Do you see this, son of man? Is it not enough for the house of Judah to commit the detestable things they are practicing here, that they must also fill the land with violence and repeatedly provoke Me to anger, even putting the branch to their nose? <sup>18</sup> Therefore I will respond with wrath. I will not show pity or spare them. Though they cry out in My ears with a loud voice, I will not listen to them."

Vision of Slaughter in Jerusalem

9 Then He called to me directly with a loud voice, “Come near, executioners of the city, each of you with a destructive weapon in his hand.”<sup>2†</sup> And I saw six men coming from the direction of the Upper Gate, which faces north, each with a war club in his hand. There was another man among them, clothed in linen, with writing equipment at his side. They came and stood beside the bronze altar.

<sup>3</sup> Then the glory of the God of Israel rose from above the •cherub where it had been, to the threshold of the temple. He called to the man clothed in linen with the writing equipment at his side.<sup>4</sup> “Pass throughout the city of Jerusalem,” the LORD said to him, “and put a mark on the foreheads of the men who sigh and groan over all the detestable practices committed in it.”

<sup>5†</sup> He spoke as I listened to the others, “Pass through the city after him and start killing; do not show pity or spare them!<sup>6</sup> Slaughter the old men, the young men and women, as well as the older women and little children, but do not come near anyone who has the mark. Now begin at My sanctuary.” So they began with the elders who were in front of the temple.<sup>7</sup> Then He said to them, “Defile the temple and fill the courts with the slain. Go!” So they went out killing people in the city.

<sup>8</sup> While they were killing, I was left alone. And I fell facedown and cried out, “Oh, Lord GOD! Are You going to destroy the entire remnant of Israel when You pour out Your wrath on Jerusalem?”

<sup>9</sup> He answered me: “The iniquity of the house of Israel and Judah is extremely great; the land is full of bloodshed, and the city full of perversity. For they say, ‘The LORD has abandoned the land; He does not see.’<sup>10</sup> But as for Me, I will not show pity or spare them. I will bring their actions down on their own heads.”<sup>11</sup> Then the man clothed in linen with the writing equipment at his side reported back, “I have done as You commanded me.”

God's Glory Leaves the Temple

10 Then I looked, and there above the expanse over the heads of the •cherubim was something like sapphire <sup>A</sup> stone resembling the shape of a throne that appeared above them. <sup>2</sup> The LORD spoke to the man clothed in linen and said, “Go inside the wheelwork beneath the cherubim. Fill your hands with hot coals from among the cherubim and scatter them over the city.” So he went in as I watched.

<sup>3</sup> Now the cherubim were standing to the south of the temple when the man went in, and the cloud filled the inner court. <sup>4</sup> Then the glory of the LORD rose from above the cherub to the threshold of the temple. The temple was filled with the cloud, and the court was filled with the brightness of the LORD’s glory. <sup>5</sup> The sound of the cherubim’s wings could be heard as far as the outer court; it was like the voice of •God Almighty when He speaks.

<sup>6</sup> After the LORD commanded the man clothed in linen, saying, “Take fire from inside the wheelwork, from among the cherubim,” the man went in and stood beside a wheel. <sup>7</sup> Then the cherub reached out his hand to the fire that was among them. He took some, and put it into the hands of the man clothed in linen, who took it and went out. <sup>8</sup> The cherubim appeared to have the form of human hands under their wings.

<sup>9</sup> I looked, and there were four wheels beside the cherubim, one wheel beside each cherub. The luster of the wheels was like the gleam of beryl. <sup>10</sup> In appearance, all four had the same form, like a wheel within a wheel. <sup>11</sup> When they moved, they would go in any of the four directions, without pivoting as they moved. But wherever the head faced, they would go in that direction, <sup>B</sup> without pivoting as they went. <sup>12</sup> Their entire bodies, including their backs, hands, wings, and the wheels that the four of them had, were full of eyes all around. <sup>13</sup> As I listened the wheels were called “the wheelwork.” <sup>14†</sup> Each one had four faces: the first face was that of a cherub, the second that of a man, the third that of a lion, and the fourth that of an eagle.

<sup>18†</sup> Then the glory of the LORD moved away from the threshold of the temple and stood above the cherubim. <sup>19†</sup> The cherubim lifted their wings and ascended from the earth right before my eyes; the wheels were beside them as they went. The glory of the God of Israel was above them, and it stood at the entrance to the eastern gate of the LORD's house.

<sup>20</sup> These were the living creatures I had seen beneath the God of Israel by the Chebar Canal, and I recognized that they were cherubim. <sup>21</sup> Each had four faces and each had four wings, with the form of human hands under their wings. <sup>22</sup> Their faces looked like the same faces I had seen by the Chebar Canal. Each creature went straight ahead.

Vision of Israel's Corrupt Leaders

11 †The Spirit then lifted me up and brought me to the eastern gate of the LORD's house, which faces east, and at the gate's entrance were 25 men. Among them I saw Jaazaniah son of Azzur, and Pelatiah son of Benaiah, leaders of the people. <sup>2</sup> The LORD said to me, "Son of man, these are the men who plan evil and give wicked advice in this city. <sup>3†</sup> They are saying, 'Isn't the time near to build houses? <sup>A</sup>, The city is the pot, and we are the meat.' <sup>4†</sup> Therefore, prophesy against them. Prophesy, son of man! "

<sup>5</sup> Then the Spirit of the LORD came on me, and He told me, "You are to say: This is what the LORD says: That is what you are thinking, house of Israel; and I know the thoughts that arise in your mind. <sup>6</sup> You have multiplied your slain in this city, filling its streets with the dead.

<sup>7</sup> "Therefore, this is what the Lord GOD says: The slain you have put within it are the meat, and the city is the pot, but I will remove you from it. <sup>8</sup> You fear the sword, so I will bring the sword against you." This is the declaration of the Lord GOD. <sup>9</sup> "I will bring you out of the city and hand you over to foreigners; I will execute judgments against you. <sup>10</sup> You will fall by the sword, and I will judge you at the border of Israel. Then you will know that I am •Yahweh. <sup>11</sup> The city will not be a pot for you, and you will not be the meat within it. I will judge you at the border of Israel, <sup>12</sup> so you will know that I am Yahweh, whose statutes you have not followed and whose ordinances you have not practiced. Instead, you have acted according to the ordinances of the nations around you."

<sup>13†</sup> Now while I was prophesying, Pelatiah son of Benaiah died. Then I fell facedown and cried out with a loud voice: "Oh, Lord GOD! Will You bring to an end the remnant of Israel? "

Promise of Israel's Restoration

<sup>14</sup> The word of the LORD came to me again: <sup>15</sup> "Son of man, your own relatives, those who have the right to redeem you, and the entire house of Israel, all of them, are those that the residents of Jerusalem have said this to, 'Stay away from the LORD; this land has been given to us as a possession.'

<sup>16</sup> “Therefore say: This is what the Lord GOD says: Though I sent them far away among the nations and scattered them among the countries, yet for a little while I have been a sanctuary for them in the countries where they have gone.

<sup>17</sup> “Therefore say: This is what the Lord GOD says: I will gather you from the peoples and assemble you from the countries where you have been scattered, and I will give you the land of Israel.

<sup>18</sup> “When they arrive there, they will remove all its detestable things and practices from it. <sup>19</sup> And I will give them one heart and put a new spirit within them; I will remove their heart of stone from their bodies <sup>C</sup> and give them a heart of flesh, <sup>20</sup> so they may follow My statutes, keep My ordinances, and practice them. Then they will be My people, and I will be their God. <sup>21</sup> But as for those whose hearts pursue their desire for detestable things and practices, I will bring their actions down on their own heads.” This is the declaration of the Lord GOD.

God’s Glory Leaves Jerusalem

<sup>22</sup> Then the •cherubim, with the wheels beside them, lifted their wings, and the glory of the God of Israel was above them. <sup>23†</sup> The glory of the LORD rose up from within the city and stood on the mountain east of the city. <sup>24</sup> The Spirit lifted me up and brought me to Chaldea and to the exiles in a vision from the Spirit of God. After the vision I had seen left me, <sup>25</sup> I spoke to the exiles about all the things the LORD had shown me.

Ezekiel Dramatizes the Exile

12 †The word of the LORD came to me: <sup>2</sup> “Son of man, you are living among a rebellious house. They have eyes to see but do not see, and ears to hear but do not hear, for they are a rebellious house.

<sup>7</sup> So I did just as I was commanded. In the daytime I brought out my bags like an exile’s bags. In the evening I dug through the wall by hand; I took them out in the dark, carrying them on my shoulder in their sight.

<sup>8</sup> Then the word of the LORD came to me in the morning: <sup>9</sup> “Son of man, hasn’t the house of Israel, that rebellious house, asked you, ‘What are you doing?’ <sup>10</sup> Say to them: This is what the Lord GOD says: This •oracle is about the prince in Jerusalem and all the house of Israel who are living there. <sup>A</sup> <sup>11</sup> You are to say, ‘I am a sign for you. Just as I have done, so it will be done to them; they will go into exile, into captivity.’ <sup>12</sup> The prince who is among them will lift his bags to his shoulder in the dark and go out. They will dig through the wall to bring him out through it. He will cover his face so he cannot see the land with his eyes. <sup>13</sup> But I will spread My net over him, and he will be caught in My snare. I will bring him to Babylon, the land of the Chaldeans, yet he will not see it, and he will die there. <sup>14</sup> I will also scatter all the attendants who surround him and all his troops to every direction of the wind, and I will draw a sword to chase after them. <sup>15</sup> They will know that I am •Yahweh when I disperse them among the nations and scatter them among the countries. <sup>16</sup> But I will spare a few of them from the sword, famine, and plague so they can tell about all their detestable practices among the nations where they go. Then they will know that I am Yahweh.”

Ezekiel Dramatizes Israel's Anxiety

<sup>17</sup> The word of the LORD came to me: <sup>18</sup> “Son of man, eat your bread with trembling and drink your water with shaking and anxiety. <sup>19</sup> Then say to the people of the land: This is what the Lord GOD says about the residents of Jerusalem in the land of Israel: They will eat their bread with anxiety and drink their water in dread, for their <sup>B</sup> land will be stripped of everything in it because of the violence of all who live there. <sup>20</sup> The inhabited cities will be destroyed, and the land will become a desolation. Then you will know that I am Yahweh.”

A Deceptive Proverb Stopped

<sup>21†</sup> Again the word of the LORD came to me: <sup>22</sup> “Son of man, what is this proverb you people have about the land of Israel, which goes:

The days keep passing by,
and every vision fails?

<sup>23</sup> Therefore say to them: This is what the Lord GOD says: I will put a stop to this proverb, and they will not use it again in Israel. But say to them: The days draw near, as well as the fulfillment of every vision. <sup>24</sup> For there will no longer be any false vision or flattering •divination within the house of Israel. <sup>25</sup> But I, Yahweh, will speak whatever message I will speak, and it will be done. It will no longer be delayed. For in your days, rebellious house, I will speak a message and bring it to pass.” This is the declaration of the Lord GOD.

<sup>26</sup> The word of the LORD came to me: <sup>27</sup> “Son of man, notice that the house of Israel is saying, ‘The vision that he sees concerns many years from now; he prophesies about distant times.’ <sup>28</sup> Therefore say to them: This is what the Lord GOD says: None of My words will be delayed any longer. The message I speak will be fulfilled.” This is the declaration of the Lord GOD.

Israel's False Prophets Condemned

13 †The word of the LORD came to me: <sup>2</sup> “Son of man, prophesy against the prophets of Israel who are prophesying. Say to those who prophesy out of their own imagination: Hear the word of the LORD! <sup>3</sup> This is what the Lord GOD says: Woe to the foolish prophets who follow their own spirit and have seen nothing. <sup>4</sup> Your prophets, Israel, are like jackals among ruins. <sup>5</sup> You did not go up to the gaps or restore the wall around the house of Israel so that it might stand in battle on the day of the LORD. <sup>6</sup> They see false visions and speak lying •divinations. They claim, ‘This is the LORD’s declaration,’ when the LORD did not send them, yet they wait for the fulfillment of their message. <sup>7</sup> Didn’t you see a false vision and speak a lying divination when you proclaimed, ‘This is the LORD’s declaration,’ even though I had not spoken?

<sup>8</sup> “Therefore, this is what the Lord GOD says: I am against you because you have spoken falsely and had lying visions.” This is the declaration of the Lord GOD. <sup>9</sup> “My hand will be against the prophets who see false visions and speak lying divinations. They will not be present in the fellowship of My people or be recorded in the register of the house of Israel, and they will not enter the land of Israel. Then you will know that I am the Lord •Yahweh.

<sup>10</sup> “Since they have led My people astray saying, ‘Peace,’ when there is no peace, for when someone builds a wall they plaster it with whitewash, <sup>11</sup> therefore, tell those who plaster it that it will fall. Torrential rain will come, and I will send hailstones plunging down, and a windstorm will be released. <sup>12</sup> Now when the wall has fallen, will you not be asked, ‘Where is the coat of whitewash that you put on it?’

<sup>13</sup> “So this is what the Lord GOD says: I will release a windstorm in My wrath. Torrential rain will come in My anger, and hailstones will fall in destructive fury. <sup>14</sup> I will tear down the wall you plastered with whitewash and knock it to the ground so that its foundation is exposed. The city will fall, and you will be destroyed within it. Then you will know that I am Yahweh. <sup>15</sup> After I exhaust My wrath against the wall and against those who plaster it with whitewash, I will say to you: The wall is no more and neither are those who plastered it — <sup>16</sup> those prophets of Israel who prophesied to Jerusalem and saw a vision of peace for her when there was no peace.” This is the declaration of the Lord GOD.

<sup>20</sup> “Therefore, this is what the Lord GOD says: I am against your magic bands that you ensnare people with like birds, and I will tear them from your arms. I will free the people you have ensnared like birds. <sup>21</sup> I will also tear off your veils and deliver My people from your hands, so that they will no longer be prey in your hands. Then you will know that I am Yahweh. <sup>22</sup> Because you have disheartened the righteous person with lies, even though I have not caused him grief, and because you have encouraged the wicked person not to turn from his evil way to save his life, <sup>23</sup> therefore you will no longer see false visions or practice divination. I will deliver My people from your hands. Then you will know that I am Yahweh.”

Idolatrous Elders Punished

14 Some of the elders of Israel came to me and sat down in front of me.
<sup>2</sup> Then the word of the LORD came to me: <sup>3</sup> “Son of man, these men have set up idols in their hearts and have put sinful stumbling blocks before their faces. Should I be consulted by them at all?

<sup>4</sup> “Therefore, speak to them and tell them: This is what the Lord GOD says: When anyone from the house of Israel sets up idols in his heart, puts a sinful stumbling block before his face, and then comes to the prophet, I, •Yahweh, will answer him appropriately. I will answer him according to his many idols, <sup>5</sup> so that I may take hold of the house of Israel by their hearts. They are all estranged from Me because of their idols.

<sup>6</sup> “Therefore, say to the house of Israel: This is what the Lord GOD says: Repent and turn away from your idols; turn your faces away from all your detestable things. <sup>7</sup> For when anyone from the house of Israel or from the foreigners who reside in Israel separates himself from Me, setting up idols in his heart and putting a sinful stumbling block before his face, and then comes to the prophet to inquire of Me, <sup>A</sup> I, Yahweh, will answer him Myself. <sup>8</sup> I will turn against that one and make him a sign and a proverb; I will cut him off from among My people. Then you will know that I am Yahweh.

<sup>9</sup> “But if the prophet is deceived and speaks a message, it was I, Yahweh, who deceived that prophet. I will stretch out My hand against him and destroy him from among My people Israel. <sup>10</sup> They will bear their punishment — the punishment of the one who inquires will be the same as that of the prophet — <sup>11</sup> in order that the house of Israel may no longer stray from following Me and no longer defile themselves with all their transgressions. Then they will be My people and I will be their God.” This is the declaration of the Lord GOD.

Four Devastating Judgments

<sup>12</sup> The word of the LORD came to me: <sup>13</sup> “Son of man, if a land sins against Me by acting faithlessly, and I stretch out My hand against it to cut off its supply of bread, to send famine through it, and to wipe out both man and animal from it, <sup>14†</sup> even if these three men — Noah, Daniel, and Job — were in it, they would deliver only themselves by their righteousness.” This is the declaration of the Lord GOD.

<sup>15</sup> “If I allow dangerous animals to pass through the land and depopulate it so that it becomes desolate, with no one passing through it for fear of the animals, <sup>16</sup> even if these three men were in it, as I live” — the declaration of the Lord GOD — “they could not deliver their sons or daughters. They alone would be delivered, but the land would be desolate.

<sup>17</sup> “Or if I bring a sword against that land and say: Let a sword pass through it, so that I wipe out both man and animal from it, <sup>18</sup> even if these three men were in it, as I live” — the declaration of the Lord GOD — “they could not deliver their sons or daughters, but they alone would be delivered.

<sup>19</sup> “Or if I send a plague into that land and pour out My wrath on it with bloodshed to wipe out both man and animal from it, <sup>20</sup> even if Noah, Daniel, and Job were in it, as I live” — the declaration of the Lord GOD — “they could not deliver their son or daughter. They would deliver only themselves by their righteousness.

<sup>21</sup> “For this is what the Lord GOD says: How much worse will it be when I send My four devastating judgments against Jerusalem — sword, famine, dangerous animals, and plague — in order to wipe out both man and animal from it! <sup>22</sup> Even so, there will be survivors left in it, sons and daughters who will be brought out. Indeed, they will come out to you, and you will observe their conduct and actions. Then you will be consoled about the devastation I have brought on Jerusalem, about all I have brought on it. <sup>23</sup> They will bring you consolation when you see their conduct and actions, and you will know that it was not without cause that I have done what I did to it.” This is the declaration of the Lord GOD.

15 Then the word of the LORD came to me: <sup>2†</sup> “Son of man, how does the wood of the vine, that branch among the trees of the forest, compare to any other wood? <sup>3</sup> Can wood be taken from it to make something useful? Or can anyone make a peg from it to hang things on? <sup>4</sup> In fact, it is put into the fire as fuel. The fire devours both of its ends, and the middle is charred. Can it be useful for anything? <sup>5</sup> Even when it was whole it could not be made into a useful object. How much less can it ever be made into anything useful when the fire has devoured it and it is charred!

<sup>6</sup> “Therefore, this is what the Lord GOD says: Like the wood of the vine among the trees of the forest, which I have given to the fire as fuel, so I will give up the residents of Jerusalem. <sup>7</sup> I will turn against them. They may have escaped from the fire, but it will still consume them. And you will know that I am •Yahweh when I turn against them. <sup>8</sup> I will make the land desolate because they have acted unfaithfully.” This is the declaration of the Lord GOD.

Parable of God's Adulterous Wife

16 †The word of the LORD came to me again: <sup>2</sup> “Son of man, explain Jerusalem’s detestable practices to her. <sup>3</sup> You are to say: This is what the Lord GOD says to Jerusalem: Your origin and your birth were in the land of the Canaanites. Your father was an Amorite and your mother a Hittite. <sup>4</sup> As for your birth, your umbilical cord wasn’t cut on the day you were born, and you weren’t washed •clean <sup>A</sup> with water. You were not rubbed with salt or wrapped in cloths. <sup>5†</sup> No one cared enough about you to do even one of these things out of compassion for you. But you were thrown out into the open field because you were despised on the day you were born.

<sup>6</sup> “I passed by you and saw you lying in your blood, and I said to you as you lay in your blood: Live! Yes, I said to you as you lay in your blood: Live! <sup>7</sup> I made you thrive like plants of the field. You grew up and matured and became very beautiful. <sup>B</sup> Your breasts were formed and your hair grew, but you were stark naked.

<sup>8</sup> “Then I passed by you and saw you, and you were indeed at the age for love. So I spread the edge of My garment over you and covered your nakedness. I pledged Myself to you, entered into a covenant with you, and you became Mine.” This is the declaration of the Lord GOD. <sup>9</sup> “I washed you with water, rinsed off your blood, and anointed you with oil. <sup>10</sup> I clothed you in embroidered cloth and provided you with leather sandals. I also wrapped you in fine linen and covered you with silk. <sup>11</sup> I adorned you with jewelry, putting bracelets on your wrists and a chain around your neck. <sup>12</sup> I put a ring in your nose, earrings on your ears, and a beautiful tiara on your head. <sup>13</sup> So you were adorned with gold and silver, and your clothing was made of fine linen, silk, and embroidered cloth. You ate fine flour, honey, and oil. You became extremely beautiful and attained royalty. <sup>14</sup> Your fame spread among the nations because of your beauty, for it was perfect through My splendor, which I had bestowed on you.” This is the declaration of the Lord GOD.

<sup>15</sup> “But you were confident in your beauty and acted like a prostitute because of your fame. You lavished your sexual favors on everyone who passed by. Your beauty became his. <sup>C 16</sup> You took some of your garments and made colorful •high places for yourself, and you engaged in prostitution on them. These places should not have been built, and this should never have happened! <sup>D 17†</sup> You also took your beautiful jewelry made from the gold and silver I had given you, and you made male images so that you could engage in prostitution with them. <sup>18</sup> Then you took your embroidered garments to cover them, and set My oil and incense before them. <sup>19</sup> You also set before them as a pleasing aroma the food I gave you — the fine flour, oil, and honey that I fed you. That is what happened.” This is the declaration of the Lord GOD.

<sup>20</sup> “You even took your sons and daughters you bore to Me and sacrificed them to these images as food. Wasn’t your prostitution enough? <sup>21</sup> You slaughtered My children and gave them up when you passed them through the fire to the images. <sup>22</sup> In all your detestable practices and acts of prostitution, you did not remember the days of your youth when you were stark naked and lying in your blood.

<sup>23</sup> “Then after all your evil — Woe, woe to you! ” — the declaration of the Lord GOD — <sup>24</sup> “you built yourself a mound and made yourself an elevated place in every square. <sup>25</sup> You built your elevated place at the head of every street and turned your beauty into a detestable thing. You spread your legs to everyone who passed by and increased your prostitution. <sup>26</sup> You engaged in promiscuous acts with Egyptian men, your well-endowed neighbors, and increased your prostitution to provoke Me to anger.

Is God Male? ⇒

<sup>27</sup> “Therefore, I stretched out My hand against you and reduced your provisions. I gave you over to the desire of those who hate you, the Philistine women, who were embarrassed by your indecent behavior.

<sup>28</sup> Then you engaged in prostitution with the Assyrian men because you were not satisfied. Even though you did this with them, you were still not satisfied. <sup>29</sup> So you extended your prostitution to Chaldea, the land of merchants, but you were not even satisfied with this!

<sup>30</sup> “How your heart was inflamed with lust” — the declaration of the Lord GOD — “when you did all these things, the acts of a brazen prostitute, <sup>31</sup> building your mound at the head of every street and making your elevated place in every square. But you were unlike a prostitute because you scorned payment. <sup>32</sup> You adulterous wife, who receives strangers instead of her husband! <sup>33</sup> Men give gifts to all prostitutes, but you gave gifts to all your lovers. You bribed them to come to you from all around for your sexual favors. <sup>34</sup> So you were the opposite of other women in your acts of prostitution; no one solicited you. When you paid a fee instead of one being paid to you, you were the opposite.

<sup>35</sup> “Therefore, you prostitute, hear the word of the LORD! <sup>36</sup> This is what the Lord GOD says: Because your lust was poured out and your nakedness exposed by your acts of prostitution with your lovers, and because of all your detestable idols and the blood of your children that you gave to them, <sup>37</sup> I am therefore going to gather all the lovers you pleased — all those you loved as well as all those you hated. I will gather them against you from all around and expose your nakedness to them so they see you completely naked. <sup>38</sup> I will judge you the way adulteresses and those who shed blood are judged. Then I will bring about your bloodshed in wrath and jealousy. <sup>39</sup> I will hand you over to them, and they will level your mounds and tear down your elevated places. They will strip off your clothes, take your beautiful jewelry, and leave you stark naked. <sup>40</sup> They will bring a mob against you to stone you and cut you to pieces with their swords. <sup>41</sup> Then they will burn down your houses and execute judgments against you in the sight of many women. I will stop you from being a prostitute, and you will never again pay fees for lovers. <sup>42</sup> So I will satisfy My wrath against you, and My jealousy will turn away from you. Then I will be silent and no longer angry. <sup>43</sup> Because you did not remember the days of your youth but enraged Me with all these things, I will also bring your actions down on your own head.” This is the declaration of the Lord GOD. “Haven’t you committed immoral acts in addition to all your detestable practices?”

Like mother, like daughter.

<sup>45</sup> You are the daughter of your mother, who despised her husband and children. You are the sister of your sisters, who despised their husbands and children. Your mother was a Hittite and your father an Amorite. <sup>46</sup> Your older sister was Samaria, who lived with her daughters to the north of you, and your younger sister was Sodom, who lived with her daughters to the south of you. <sup>47</sup> Didn’t you walk in their ways and do their detestable practices? It was only a short time before you behaved more corruptly than they did. <sup>E</sup>

<sup>48†</sup> “As I live” — the declaration of the Lord GOD — “your sister Sodom and her daughters have not behaved as you and your daughters have.

<sup>49</sup> Now this was the iniquity of your sister Sodom: she and her daughters had pride, plenty of food, and comfortable security, but didn’t support the poor and needy. <sup>50</sup> They were haughty and did detestable things before Me, so I removed them when I saw this. <sup>F</sup> <sup>51</sup> But Samaria did not commit even half your sins. You have multiplied your detestable practices beyond theirs and made your sisters appear righteous by all the detestable things you have committed. <sup>52</sup> You must also bear your disgrace, since you have been an advocate for your sisters. For they appear more righteous than you because of your sins, which you committed more abhorrently than they did. So you also, be ashamed and bear your disgrace, since you have made your sisters appear righteous.

<sup>53</sup> “I will restore their fortunes, the fortunes of Sodom and her daughters and those of Samaria and her daughters. I will also restore your fortunes among them, <sup>54</sup> so you will bear your disgrace and be ashamed of all you did when you comforted them. <sup>55</sup> As for your sisters, Sodom and her daughters and Samaria and her daughters will return to their former state. You and your daughters will also return to your former state. <sup>56</sup> Didn’t you treat your sister Sodom as an object of scorn when you were proud, <sup>57</sup> before your wickedness was exposed? It was like the time you were scorned by the daughters of Aram and all those around her, and by the daughters of the Philistines — those who treated you with contempt from every side. <sup>58</sup> You yourself must bear the consequences of your indecency and detestable practices” — this is the LORD’s declaration.

<sup>59†</sup> “For this is what the Lord GOD says: I will deal with you according to what you have done, since you have despised the oath by breaking the covenant. <sup>60</sup> But I will remember the covenant I made with you in the days of your youth, and I will establish an everlasting covenant with you. <sup>61</sup> Then you will remember your ways and be ashamed when you receive your older and younger sisters. I will give them to you as daughters, but not because of your covenant. <sup>62</sup> I will establish My covenant with you, and you will know that I am •Yahweh, <sup>63</sup> so that when I make •atonement for all you have done, you will remember and be ashamed, and never open your mouth again because of your disgrace.” This is the declaration of the Lord GOD.

Parable of the Eagles

17 The word of the LORD came to me: <sup>2</sup> “Son of man, pose a riddle and speak a parable to the house of Israel. <sup>3</sup> You are to say: This is what the Lord GOD says:

A great eagle with great wings, long pinions,
and full plumage of many colors
came to Lebanon and took the top of the cedar.

<sup>4</sup> He plucked off its topmost shoot, brought it to the land of merchants,
and set it in a city of traders.

<sup>5</sup> Then he took some of the land’s seed and put it in a fertile field;
he set it like a willow,
a plant <sup>A</sup> by abundant waters.

<sup>6</sup> It sprouted and became a spreading vine,
low in height with its branches turned toward him,
yet its roots stayed under it.
So it became a vine,
produced branches, and sent out shoots.

<sup>7</sup> But there was another great eagle with great wings and thick plumage.
And this vine bent its roots toward him!
It stretched out its branches to him
from its planting bed,
so that he might water it.

<sup>8</sup> It had been planted in a good field by abundant waters
in order to produce branches,
bear fruit, and become a splendid vine.

<sup>9</sup> You are to say: This is what the Lord GOD says:

Will it flourish?
Will he not tear out its roots
and strip off its fruit
so that it shrivels?

All its fresh leaves will wither!
Great strength and many people will not be needed to pull it from its roots.
<sup>10</sup> Even though it is planted, will it flourish?
Won't it completely wither
when the east wind strikes it?
It will wither on the bed where it sprouted.”

<sup>11†</sup> The word of the LORD came to me: <sup>12</sup> “Now say to that rebellious house: Don't you know what these things mean? Tell them: The king of Babylon came to Jerusalem, took its king and officials, and brought them back with him to Babylon. <sup>13</sup> He took one of the royal family and made a covenant with him, putting him under oath. Then he took away the leading men of the land, <sup>14</sup> so the kingdom might be humble and not exalt itself but might keep his covenant in order to endure. <sup>15</sup> However, this king revolted against him by sending his ambassadors to Egypt so they might give him horses and a large army. Will he flourish? Will the one who does such things escape? Can he break a covenant and still escape?

<sup>16</sup> “As I live” — this is the declaration of the Lord GOD — “he will die in Babylon, in the land of the king who put him on the throne, whose oath he despised and whose covenant he broke. <sup>17</sup> Pharaoh will not help him with his great army and vast horde in battle, when ramps are built and siege walls constructed to destroy many lives. <sup>18</sup> He despised the oath by breaking the covenant. He did all these things even though he gave his hand in pledge. He will not escape! ”

<sup>19</sup> Therefore, this is what the Lord GOD says: “As I live, I will bring down on his head My oath that he despised and My covenant that he broke. <sup>20</sup> I will spread My net over him, and he will be caught in My snare. I will bring him to Babylon and execute judgment on him there for the treachery he committed against Me. <sup>21</sup> All the fugitives among his troops will fall by the sword, and those who survive will be scattered to every direction of the wind. Then you will know that I, •Yahweh, have spoken.”

<sup>22†</sup> This is what the Lord GOD says:

I will take a sprig
from the lofty top of the cedar and plant it.
I will pluck a tender sprig
from its topmost shoots,
and I will plant it
on a high towering mountain.

<sup>23</sup> I will plant it on Israel's high mountain
so that it may bear branches, produce fruit,
and become a majestic cedar.

Birds of every kind will nest under it,
taking shelter in the shade of its branches.

<sup>24</sup> Then all the trees of the field will know that I am Yahweh.

I bring down the tall tree,
and make the low tree tall.

I cause the green tree to wither
and make the withered tree thrive.

I, Yahweh, have spoken
and I will do it.

Personal Responsibility for Sin

18 †The word of the LORD came to me: <sup>2</sup> “What do you mean by using this proverb concerning the land of Israel:

The fathers eat sour grapes,
and the children’s teeth are set on edge?

<sup>3</sup> As I live” — this is the declaration of the Lord GOD — “you will no longer use this proverb in Israel. <sup>4</sup> Look, every life belongs to Me. The life of the father is like the life of the son — both belong to Me. The person who sins is the one who will die.

<sup>10†</sup> “Now suppose the man has a violent son, who sheds blood and does any of these things, <sup>11</sup> though the father has done none of them. Indeed, when the son eats at the mountain shrines and defiles his neighbor’s wife, <sup>12</sup> and when he oppresses the poor and needy, commits robbery, and does not return collateral, and when he raises his eyes to the idols, commits detestable acts, <sup>13</sup> and lends at interest or for profit, will he live? He will not live! Since he has committed all these detestable acts, he will certainly die. His blood will be on him.

<sup>14</sup> “Now suppose he has a son who sees all the sins his father has committed, and though he sees them, he does not do likewise. <sup>15</sup> He does not eat at the mountain shrines or raise his eyes to the idols of the house of Israel. He does not defile his neighbor’s wife. <sup>16</sup> He doesn’t oppress anyone, hold collateral, or commit robbery. He gives his bread to the hungry and covers the naked with clothing. <sup>17</sup> He keeps his hand from harming the poor, not taking interest or profit on a loan. He practices My ordinances and follows My statutes. Such a person will not die for his father's iniquity. He will certainly live.

<sup>18</sup> "As for his father, he will die for his own iniquity because he practiced fraud, robbed his brother, and did what was wrong among his people.

<sup>19</sup> But you may ask, 'Why doesn't the son suffer punishment for the father's iniquity?' Since the son has done what is just and right, carefully observing all My statutes, he will certainly live. <sup>20</sup> The person who sins is the one who will die. A son won't suffer punishment for the father's iniquity, and a father won't suffer punishment for the son's iniquity. The righteousness of the righteous person will be on him, and the wickedness of the wicked person will be on him.

<sup>21†</sup> "Now if the wicked person turns from all the sins he has committed, keeps all My statutes, and does what is just and right, he will certainly live; he will not die. <sup>22</sup> None of the transgressions he has committed will be held against him. He will live because of the righteousness he has practiced.

<sup>23</sup> Do I take any pleasure in the death of the wicked?" This is the declaration of the Lord God. "Instead, don't I take pleasure when he turns from his ways and lives? <sup>24</sup> But when a righteous person turns from his righteousness and practices iniquity, committing the same detestable acts that the wicked do, will he live? None of the righteous acts he did will be remembered. He will die because of the treachery he has engaged in and the sin he has committed.

<sup>25†</sup> "But you say, 'The Lord's way isn't fair.' Now listen, house of Israel: Is it My way that is unfair? Instead, isn't it your ways that are unfair?

<sup>26</sup> When a righteous person turns from his righteousness and practices iniquity, he will die for this. He will die because of the iniquity he has practiced. <sup>27</sup> But if a wicked person turns from the wickedness he has committed and does what is just and right, he will preserve his life. <sup>28</sup> He will certainly live because he thought it over and turned from all the transgressions he had committed; he will not die. <sup>29</sup> But the house of Israel says, 'The Lord's way isn't fair.' Is it My ways that are unfair, house of Israel? Instead, isn't it your ways that are unfair?

<sup>30†</sup> “Therefore, house of Israel, I will judge each one of you according to his ways.” This is the declaration of the Lord GOD. “Repent and turn from all your transgressions, so they will not be a stumbling block that causes your punishment. <sup>31</sup> Throw off all the transgressions you have committed, and get yourselves a new heart and a new spirit. Why should you die, house of Israel? <sup>32</sup> For I take no pleasure in anyone's death.” This is the declaration of the Lord GOD. “So repent and live!

19 †“Now, lament for the princes of Israel <sup>2</sup> and say:

What was your mother? A lioness!
She lay down among the lions;
she reared her cubs among the young lions.

<sup>3</sup> She brought up one of her cubs,
and he became a young lion.
After he learned to tear prey,
he devoured people.

<sup>4</sup> When the nations heard about him,
he was caught in their pit.
Then they led him away with hooks
to the land of Egypt.

<sup>5</sup> When she saw that she waited in vain,
that her hope was lost,
she took another of her cubs
and made him a young lion.

<sup>6</sup> He prowled among the lions,
and he became a young lion.
After he learned to tear prey,
he devoured people.

<sup>7</sup> He devastated their strongholds
and destroyed their cities.
The land and everything in it shuddered
at the sound of his roaring.

<sup>8</sup> Then the nations from the surrounding provinces set out against him.
They spread their net over him;
he was caught in their pit.

<sup>9</sup> They put a wooden yoke on him <sup>A</sup> with hooks
and led him away to the king of Babylon.
They brought him into the fortresses
so his roar could no longer be heard on the mountains of Israel.

<sup>10</sup> Your mother was like a vine in your vineyard, planted by the water;

it was fruitful and full of branches
because of plentiful waters.

<sup>11</sup> It had strong branches, fit for the scepters of rulers;
its height towered among the clouds. <sup>B</sup>
So it was conspicuous for its height
as well as its many branches.

<sup>12</sup> But it was uprooted in fury,
thrown to the ground,
and the east wind dried up its fruit.
Its strong branches were torn off and dried up;
fire consumed them.

<sup>13</sup> Now it is planted in the wilderness,
in a dry and thirsty land.

<sup>14</sup> Fire has gone out from its main branch <sup>C</sup>
and has devoured its fruit,
so that it no longer has a strong branch,
a scepter for ruling.

This is a lament and should be used as a lament.”

Israel's Rebellion

20 †In the seventh year, in the fifth month, on the tenth day of the month, some of Israel's elders came to consult the LORD, and they sat down in front of me. <sup>2</sup> Then the word of the LORD came to me: <sup>3</sup> "Son of man, speak with the elders of Israel and tell them: This is what the Lord GOD says: Are you coming to consult Me? As I live, I will not be consulted by you." This is the declaration of the Lord GOD.

<sup>4</sup> "Will you pass judgment against them, will you pass judgment, son of man? Explain the detestable practices of their fathers to them. <sup>5</sup> Say to them: This is what the Lord GOD says: On the day I chose Israel, I swore an oath <sup>A</sup>, to the descendants of Jacob's house and made Myself known to them in the land of Egypt. I swore to them, saying: I am •Yahweh your God. <sup>6</sup> On that day I swore <sup>B</sup> to them that I would bring them out of the land of Egypt into a land I had searched out for them, a land flowing with milk and honey, the most beautiful of all lands. <sup>7</sup> I also said to them: Each of you must throw away the detestable things that are before your eyes and not defile yourselves with the idols of Egypt. I am Yahweh your God.

<sup>8</sup> "But they rebelled against Me and were unwilling to listen to Me. None of them threw away the detestable things that were before their eyes, and they did not forsake the idols of Egypt. So I considered pouring out My wrath on them, exhausting My anger against them within the land of Egypt. <sup>9</sup> But I acted because of My name, so that it would not be profaned in the eyes of the nations they were living among, in whose sight I had made Myself known to Israel by bringing them out of Egypt.

<sup>10</sup> "So I brought them out of the land of Egypt and led them into the wilderness. <sup>11</sup> Then I gave them My statutes and explained My ordinances to them — the person who does them will live by them. <sup>12</sup> I also gave them My Sabbaths to serve as a sign between Me and them, so they will know that I am Yahweh who sets them apart as holy.

<sup>13</sup> "But the house of Israel rebelled against Me in the wilderness. They did not follow My statutes and they rejected My ordinances — the person who does them will live by them. They also completely profaned My Sabbaths. So I considered pouring out My wrath on them in the wilderness to put an end to them. <sup>14</sup> But I acted because of My name, so that it would not be profaned in the eyes of the nations in whose sight I had brought them out. <sup>15†</sup> However, I swore <sup>C</sup> to them in the wilderness that I would not bring them into the land I had given them — the most beautiful of all lands, flowing with milk and honey — <sup>16</sup> because they rejected My ordinances, profaned My Sabbaths, and did not follow My statutes. For their hearts went after their idols. <sup>17</sup> But I spared them from destruction and did not bring them to an end in the wilderness.

<sup>18</sup> “Then I said to their children in the wilderness: Don’t follow the statutes of your fathers, defile yourselves with their idols, or keep their ordinances. <sup>19</sup> I am Yahweh your God. Follow My statutes, keep My ordinances, and practice them. <sup>20</sup> Keep My Sabbaths holy, and they will be a sign between Me and you, so you may know that I am Yahweh your God.

<sup>21</sup> “But the children rebelled against Me. They did not follow My statutes or carefully keep My ordinances — the person who does them will live by them. They also profaned My Sabbaths. So I considered pouring out My wrath on them and exhausting My anger against them in the wilderness. <sup>22</sup> But I withheld My hand and acted because of My name, so that it would not be profaned in the eyes of the nations in whose sight I brought them out. <sup>23†</sup> However, I swore <sup>D</sup> to them in the wilderness that I would disperse them among the nations and scatter them among the countries. <sup>24</sup> For they did not practice My ordinances but rejected My statutes and profaned My Sabbaths, and their eyes were fixed on their fathers’ idols. <sup>25</sup> I also gave them statutes that were not good and ordinances they could not live by. <sup>26</sup> When they made every firstborn pass through the fire, I defiled them through their gifts in order to devastate them so they would know that I am Yahweh.

They also sent up their pleasing aromas and poured out their •drink offerings there. <sup>29</sup> So I asked them: What is this •high place you are going to? And it is called High Place to this day.

<sup>30</sup> “Therefore say to the house of Israel: This is what the Lord GOD says: Are you defiling yourselves the way your fathers did, and prostituting yourselves with their detestable things? <sup>31</sup> When you offer your gifts, making your children pass through the fire, you continue to defile yourselves with all your idols to this day. So should I be consulted by you, house of Israel? As I live” — this is the declaration of the Lord GOD — “I will not be consulted by you!

Israel's Restoration

<sup>32</sup> “When you say, ‘Let us be like the nations, like the peoples of other countries, worshiping wood and stone,’ what you have in mind will never happen. <sup>33</sup> As I live” — the declaration of the Lord GOD — “I will rule over you with a strong hand, an outstretched arm, and outpoured wrath. <sup>34</sup> I will bring you from the peoples and gather you from the countries where you were scattered, with a strong hand, an outstretched arm, and outpoured wrath. <sup>35</sup> I will lead you into the wilderness of the peoples and enter into judgment with you there face to face. <sup>36</sup> Just as I entered into judgment with your fathers in the wilderness of the land of Egypt, so I will enter into judgment with you.” This is the declaration of the Lord GOD. <sup>37</sup> “I will make you pass under the rod and will bring you into the bond of the covenant. <sup>38</sup> And I will also purge you of those who rebel and transgress against Me. I will bring them out of the land where they live as foreign residents, but they will not enter the land of Israel. Then you will know that I am Yahweh.

<sup>39†</sup> “As for you, house of Israel, this is what the Lord GOD says: Go and serve your idols, each of you. But afterward you will surely listen to Me, and you will no longer defile My holy name with your gifts and idols. <sup>40</sup> For on My holy mountain, Israel's high mountain” — the declaration of the Lord GOD — “there the entire house of Israel, all of them, will serve Me in the land. There I will accept them and will require your contributions and choicest gifts, all your holy offerings. <sup>41</sup> When I bring you from the peoples and gather you from the countries where you have been scattered, I will accept you as a pleasing aroma. And I will demonstrate My holiness through you in the sight of the nations. <sup>42</sup> When I lead you into the land of Israel, the land I swore <sup>F</sup> to give your fathers, you will know that I am Yahweh. <sup>43</sup> There you will remember your ways and all your deeds that you have defiled yourselves with, and you will loathe yourselves for all the evil things you have done. <sup>44</sup> You will know that I am Yahweh, house of Israel, when I have dealt with you because of My name rather than according to your evil ways and corrupt acts.” This is the declaration of the Lord GOD.

Fire in the South

<sup>45</sup> The word of the LORD came to me: <sup>46</sup> “Son of man, face the south and preach against it. Prophecy against the forest land in the •Negev, <sup>47</sup> and say to the forest there: Hear the word of the LORD! This is what the Lord GOD says: I am about to ignite a fire in you, and it will devour every green tree and every dry tree in you. The blazing flame will not be extinguished, and every face from the south to the north will be scorched by it. <sup>48</sup> Then all people will see that I, Yahweh, have kindled it. It will not be extinguished.”

<sup>49</sup> Then I said, “Oh, Lord GOD, they are saying of me, ‘Isn’t he just posing riddles?’ ”

Chapter 21 God's Sword of Judgment

<sup>1</sup>The word of the LORD came to me again: <sup>2</sup> “Son of man, turn your face toward Jerusalem and preach against the sanctuaries. Prophecy against the land of Israel, <sup>3</sup> and say to it: This is what the LORD says: I am against you. I will draw My sword from its sheath and cut off both the righteous and the wicked from you. <sup>4</sup> Since I will cut off <sup>A</sup> both the righteous and the wicked, My sword will therefore come out of its sheath against everyone from the south to the north. <sup>5</sup> So all the people will know that I, •Yahweh, have taken My sword from its sheath — it will not be sheathed again.

<sup>6</sup> “But you, son of man, groan! Groan bitterly with a broken heart <sup>B</sup> right before their eyes. <sup>7</sup> And when they ask you, ‘Why are you groaning?’ then say: Because of the news that is coming. Every heart will melt, and every hand will become weak. Every spirit will be discouraged, and every knee will turn to water. Yes, it is coming and it will happen.” This is the declaration of the Lord GOD.

<sup>8†</sup> The word of the LORD came to me: <sup>9</sup> “Son of man, prophecy: This is what the Lord says! You are to proclaim:

A sword! A sword is sharpened and also polished.

<sup>10</sup> It is sharpened for slaughter,
polished to flash like lightning!
Should we rejoice?

The scepter of My son,
the sword despises every tree. <sup>C</sup>

<sup>11</sup> The sword is given to be polished,
to be grasped in the hand.
It is sharpened, and it is polished,
to be put in the hand of the slayer.

<sup>12</sup> Cry out and wail, son of man,
for it is against My people.
It is against all the princes of Israel!

They are given over to the sword with My people.
Therefore strike your thigh in grief.

<sup>13</sup> Surely it will be a trial!

And what if the sword despises even the scepter?

The scepter will not continue. <sup>D</sup>

This is the declaration of the Lord God.

<sup>14</sup> Therefore, son of man, prophesy
and clap your hands together.
Let the sword strike two times, even three.
It is a sword for massacre,
a sword for great massacre —
it surrounds <sup>E</sup> them!

<sup>15</sup> I have appointed a sword for slaughter <sup>F</sup>
at all their gates,
so that their hearts may melt
and many may stumble.
Yes! It is ready to flash like lightning;
it is drawn <sup>G</sup> for slaughter.

turn to the left —
wherever your blade is directed.

<sup>17</sup> I also will clap My hands together,
and I will satisfy My wrath.
I, Yahweh, have spoken.”

<sup>18†</sup> Then the word of the LORD came to me: <sup>19</sup> “Now you, son of man, mark out two roads that the sword of Babylon’s king can take. Both of them should originate from the same land. And make a signpost at the fork in the road to each city. <sup>20</sup> Mark out a road that the sword can take to Rabbah of the Ammonites and to Judah into fortified Jerusalem. <sup>21</sup> For the king of Babylon stands at the split in the road, at the fork of the two roads, to practice •divination: he shakes the arrows, consults the idols, and observes
the liver. <sup>22</sup> The answer marked <sup>H</sup> Jerusalem appears in his right hand, indicating that he should set up battering rams, give the order to <sup>I</sup> slaughter, raise a battle cry, set battering rams against the gates, build a ramp, and construct a siege wall. <sup>23</sup> It will seem like false divination in the eyes of those who have sworn an oath to the Babylonians, <sup>J</sup>, but it will draw attention to their •guilt so that they will be captured.

<sup>24</sup> “Therefore, this is what the Lord GOD says: Because you have drawn attention to your guilt, exposing your transgressions, so that your sins are revealed in all your actions, since you have done this, you will be captured by them.

<sup>25</sup> And you, profane and wicked prince of Israel, the day has come for your punishment.” <sup>K</sup>

<sup>26</sup> This is what the Lord GOD says:

Remove the turban, and take off the crown.
Things will not remain as they are; <sup>L</sup>
exalt the lowly and bring down the exalted.

<sup>27</sup> A ruin, a ruin,
I will make it a ruin!
Yet this will not happen
until He comes;
I have given the judgment to Him. <sup>M</sup>

<sup>28†</sup> “Now prophesy, son of man, and say: This is what the Lord GOD says concerning the Ammonites and their contempt. You are to proclaim:

A sword! A sword
is drawn for slaughter,
polished to consume, to flash like lightning.

<sup>29</sup> While they offer false visions
and lying divinations about you,
the time has come to put you to the necks of the profane wicked ones;
the day has come

for your punishment. <sup>N</sup>

<sup>30</sup> Return it to its sheath!

I will judge you
in the place where you were created,
in the land of your origin.

<sup>31</sup> I will pour out My indignation on you;
I will blow the fire of My fury on you.
I will hand you over to brutal men,
skilled at destruction.

<sup>32</sup> You will be fuel for the fire.
Your blood will be spilled in the land.
You will not be remembered,
for I, Yahweh, have spoken.”

Indictment of Sinful Jerusalem

22 †The word of the LORD came to me: <sup>2</sup> “As for you, son of man, will you pass judgment? Will you pass judgment against the city of blood? Then explain all her detestable practices to her. <sup>3</sup> You are to say: This is what the Lord GOD says: A city that sheds blood within her walls so that her time of judgment has come and who makes idols for herself so that she is defiled! <sup>4</sup> You are •guilty of the blood you have shed, and you are defiled from the idols you have made. You have brought your judgment days near and have come to your years of punishment. Therefore, I have made you a disgrace to the nations and a mockery to all the lands. <sup>5</sup> Those who are near and those far away from you will mock you, you infamous one full of turmoil.

<sup>6</sup> “Look, every prince of Israel within you has used his strength to shed blood. <sup>7</sup> Father and mother are treated with contempt, and the foreign resident is exploited within you. The fatherless and widow are oppressed in you. <sup>8</sup> You despise My holy things and profane My Sabbaths. <sup>9</sup> There are men within you who slander in order to shed blood. People who live in you eat at the mountain shrines; they commit immoral acts within you. <sup>10</sup> Men within you have sexual intercourse with their father’s wife and violate women during their menstrual impurity. <sup>11</sup> One man within you commits a detestable act with his neighbor’s wife; another wickedly defiles his daughter-in-law; and yet another violates his sister, his father’s daughter. <sup>12</sup> People who live in you accept bribes in order to shed blood. You take interest and profit on a loan and brutally extort your neighbors. You have forgotten Me.” This is the declaration of the Lord GOD.

<sup>13</sup> “Now look, I clap My hands together against the dishonest profit you have made and against the blood shed among you. <sup>14</sup> Will your courage endure or your hands be strong in the days when I deal with you? I, •Yahweh, have spoken, and I will act. <sup>15</sup> I will disperse you among the nations and scatter you among the countries; I will purge your uncleanness. <sup>16</sup> You will be profaned in the sight of the nations. Then you will know that I am Yahweh.”

Jerusalem as God’s Furnace

<sup>17</sup> The word of the LORD came to me: <sup>18</sup> “Son of man, the house of Israel has become dross to Me. All of them are copper, tin, iron, and lead inside the furnace; they are the dross of silver. <sup>19</sup> Therefore, this is what the Lord GOD says: Because all of you have become dross, I am about to gather you into Jerusalem. <sup>20</sup> Just as one gathers silver, copper, iron, lead, and tin into the furnace to blow fire on them and melt them, so I will gather you in My anger and wrath, put you inside, and melt you. <sup>21</sup> Yes, I will gather you together and blow on you with the fire of My fury, and you will be melted within the city. <sup>22</sup> As silver is melted inside a furnace, so you will be melted inside the city. Then you will know that I, Yahweh, have poured out My wrath on you.”

Indictment of a Sinful Land

<sup>23†</sup> The word of the LORD came to me: <sup>24</sup> “Son of man, say to her: You are a land that has not been cleansed, that has not received rain in the day of indignation. <sup>25</sup> The conspiracy of her prophets within her is like a roaring lion tearing its prey: they devour people, seize wealth and valuables, and multiply the widows within her. <sup>26</sup> Her priests do violence to My instruction and profane My holy things. They make no distinction between the holy and the common, and they do not explain the difference between the •clean and the •unclean. They disregard <sup>A</sup> My Sabbaths, and I am profaned among them.

<sup>27</sup> “Her officials within her are like wolves tearing their prey, shedding blood, and destroying lives in order to make profit dishonestly. <sup>28</sup> Her prophets plaster with whitewash for them by seeing false visions and lying •divinations, and they say, ‘This is what the Lord GOD says,’ when the LORD has not spoken. <sup>29</sup> The people of the land have practiced extortion and committed robbery. They have oppressed the poor and needy and unlawfully exploited the foreign resident. <sup>30</sup> I searched for a man among them who would repair the wall and stand in the gap before Me on behalf of the land so that I might not destroy it, but I found no one. <sup>31</sup> So I have poured out My indignation on them and consumed them with the fire of My fury. I have brought their actions down on their own heads.” This is the declaration of the Lord GOD.

The Two Immoral Sisters

23 †The word of the LORD came to me again: <sup>2</sup> “Son of man, there were two women, daughters of the same mother, <sup>3</sup> who acted like prostitutes in Egypt, behaving promiscuously in their youth. Their breasts were fondled there, and their virgin nipples caressed. <sup>4</sup> The older one was named Oholah, and her sister was Oholibah. They became Mine and gave birth to sons and daughters. As for their names, Oholah represents Samaria and Oholibah represents Jerusalem.

<sup>5</sup> “Oholah acted like a prostitute even though she was Mine. She lusted after her lovers, the Assyrians: warriors <sup>6</sup> dressed in blue, governors and prefects, all of them desirable young men, horsemen riding on steeds. <sup>7</sup> She offered her sexual favors to them; all of them were the elite of Assyria. She defiled herself with all those she lusted after and with all their idols. <sup>8</sup> She didn’t give up her promiscuity that began in Egypt, when men slept with her in her youth, caressed her virgin nipples, and poured out their lust on her. <sup>9</sup> Therefore, I handed her over to her lovers, the Assyrians she lusted for. <sup>10</sup> They exposed her nakedness, seized her sons and daughters, and killed her with the sword. Since they executed judgment against her, she became notorious among women.

<sup>11</sup> “Now her sister Oholibah saw this, but she was even more depraved in her lust than Oholah, and made her promiscuous acts worse than those of her sister. <sup>12</sup> She lusted after the Assyrians: governors and prefects, warriors splendidly dressed, horsemen riding on steeds, all of them desirable young men. <sup>13</sup> And I saw that she had defiled herself; both of them had taken the same path. <sup>14</sup> But she increased her promiscuity when she saw male figures carved on the wall, images of the Chaldeans, engraved in vermilion, <sup>15</sup> wearing belts on their waists and flowing turbans on their heads; all of them looked like officers, a depiction of the Babylonians in Chaldea, the land of their birth. <sup>16</sup> At the sight of them <sup>A</sup> she lusted after them and sent messengers to them in Chaldea. <sup>17</sup> Then the Babylonians came to her, to the bed of love, and defiled her with their lust. But after she was defiled by them, she turned away from them in disgust. <sup>18</sup> When she flaunted her promiscuity and exposed her nakedness, I turned away from her in disgust just as I turned away from her sister. <sup>19</sup> Yet she multiplied her acts of promiscuity, remembering the days of her youth when she acted like a prostitute in the land of Egypt<sup>20</sup> and lusted after their lovers, whose sexual members were like those of donkeys and whose emission was like that of stallions.<sup>21</sup> So you revisited the indecency of your youth, when the Egyptians caressed your nipples to enjoy your youthful breasts.

<sup>22</sup> “Therefore Oholibah, this is what the Lord GOD says: I am going to incite your lovers against you, those you turned away from in disgust. I will bring them against you from every side:<sup>23</sup> the Babylonians and all the Chaldeans; Pekod, Shoa, and Koa; and all the Assyrians with them — desirable young men, all of them governors and prefects, officers and administrators, all of them riding on horses.<sup>24</sup> They will come against you with an alliance of nations and with weapons, chariots, and wagons. They will set themselves against you on every side with shields, bucklers, and helmets. I will delegate judgment to them, and they will judge you by their own standards.<sup>25</sup> When I vent My jealous rage on you, they will deal with you in wrath. They will cut off your nose and ears, and your descendants will fall by the sword. They will seize your sons and daughters, and your descendants will be consumed by fire.<sup>26</sup> They will strip off your clothes and take your beautiful jewelry.<sup>27</sup> So I will put an end to your indecency and sexual immorality, which began in the land of Egypt, and you will not look longingly at them or remember Egypt anymore.

<sup>28</sup> “For this is what the Lord GOD says: I am going to hand you over to those you hate, to those you turned away from in disgust.<sup>29</sup> They will treat you with hatred, take all you have worked for, and leave you stark naked, so that the shame of your debauchery will be exposed, both your indecency and promiscuity.<sup>30</sup> These things will be done to you because you acted like a prostitute with the nations, defiling yourself with their idols.<sup>31</sup> You have followed the path of your sister, so I will put her cup in your hand.”

You will drink your sister’s cup,
which is deep and wide.

You will be an object of <sup>B</sup> ridicule and scorn,
for it holds so much.

<sup>33</sup> You will be filled with drunkenness and grief,
with a cup of devastation and desolation,
the cup of your sister Samaria.

<sup>34</sup> You will drink it and drain it;
then you will gnaw its broken pieces,
and tear your breasts.
For I have spoken.

This is the declaration of the Lord GOD.

<sup>35</sup> Therefore, this is what the Lord GOD says: “Because you have forgotten Me and cast Me behind your back, you must bear the consequences of your indecency and promiscuity.”

<sup>36</sup> Then the LORD said to me: “Son of man, will you pass judgment against Oholah and Oholibah? Then declare their detestable practices to them. <sup>37</sup> For they have committed adultery, and blood is on their hands; they have committed adultery with their idols. They have even made the children they bore to Me pass through the fire as food for the idols. <sup>38</sup> They also did this to Me: they defiled My sanctuary on that same day and profaned My Sabbaths. <sup>39</sup> On the same day they slaughtered their children for their idols, they entered My sanctuary to profane it. Yes, that is what they did inside My house.

<sup>40</sup> “In addition, they sent for men who came from far away when a messenger was dispatched to them. And look how they came! You bathed, painted your eyes, and adorned yourself with jewelry for them. <sup>41</sup> You sat on a luxurious couch with a table spread before it, on which you had set My incense and oil. <sup>42</sup> The sound of a carefree crowd was there.

Drunkards <sup>C</sup> from the desert were brought in, along with common men. They put bracelets on the women’s hands and beautiful crowns on their heads. <sup>43</sup> Then I said concerning this woman worn out by adultery: Will they now have illicit sex with her, even her? <sup>44</sup> Yet they had sex with her as one does with a prostitute. This is how they had sex with Oholah and Oholibah, those obscene women. <sup>45</sup> But righteous men will judge them the way adulteresses and those who shed blood are judged, for they are adulteresses and blood is on their hands.

Parable of the Boiling Pot

24 †The word of the LORD came to me in the ninth year, in the tenth month, on the tenth day of the month: <sup>2</sup> “Son of man, write down today’s date, this very day. The king of Babylon has laid siege to Jerusalem this very day. <sup>3</sup> Now speak a parable to the rebellious house. Tell them: This is what the Lord GOD says:

Put the pot on the fire —
put it on,
and then pour water into it!

<sup>4</sup> Place the pieces of meat in it,
every good piece —
thigh and shoulder.
Fill it with choice bones.

<sup>5</sup> Take the choicest of the flock
and also pile up the fuel <sup>A</sup> under it.
Bring it to a boil
and cook the bones in it.”

<sup>6</sup> Therefore, this is what the Lord GOD says:

Woe to the city of bloodshed,
the pot that has rust inside it,
and whose rust will not come off!
Empty it piece by piece;
lots should not be cast for its contents.

<sup>7</sup> For the blood she shed <sup>B</sup> is still within her.
She put it out on the bare rock;
she didn’t pour it on the ground
to cover it with dust.

<sup>8</sup> In order to stir up wrath and take vengeance,
I have put her blood on the bare rock,
so that it would not be covered.

<sup>9</sup> Therefore, this is what the Lord GOD says:

Woe to the city of bloodshed!

I Myself will make the pile of kindling large.

<sup>10</sup> Pile on the logs and kindle the fire!

Cook the meat well
and mix in the spices!

Let the bones be burned!

<sup>11</sup> Set the empty pot on its coals
so that it becomes hot and its copper glows.

Then its impurity will melt inside it;
its rust will be consumed.

<sup>12</sup> It has frustrated every effort; <sup>D</sup> its thick rust will not come off.

Into the fire with its rust!

<sup>13</sup> Because of the indecency of your uncleanness —
since I tried to purify you,
but you would not be purified from your uncleanness —
you will not be pure again
until I have satisfied My wrath on you.

<sup>14</sup> I, •Yahweh, have spoken.

It is coming, and I will do it!

I will not refrain, I will not show pity,
and I will not relent.

I will judge you
according to your ways and deeds.

This is the declaration of the Lord GOD.

The Death of Ezekiel's Wife: A Sign

<sup>15†</sup> Then the word of the LORD came to me: <sup>16</sup> “Son of man, I am about to take the delight of your eyes away from you with a fatal blow. But you must not lament or weep or let your tears flow. <sup>17</sup> Groan quietly; do not observe mourning rites for the dead. Put on your turban and strap your sandals on your feet; do not cover your mustache or eat the bread of mourners.” <sup>E</sup>

<sup>18</sup> I spoke to the people in the morning, and my wife died in the evening. The next morning I did just as I was commanded. <sup>19</sup> Then the people asked me, “Won’t you tell us what these things you are doing mean for us? ”

<sup>20</sup> So I answered them: “The word of the LORD came to me: <sup>21</sup> ‘Say to the house of Israel: This is what the Lord GOD says: I am about to desecrate My sanctuary, the pride of your power, the delight of your eyes, and the desire of your heart. Also, the sons and daughters you left behind will fall by the sword. <sup>22</sup> Then you will do just as I have done: You will not cover your mustache or eat the bread of mourners. <sup>F 23</sup> Your turbans will remain on your heads and your sandals on your feet. You will not lament or weep but will waste away because of your sins and will groan to one another. <sup>24</sup> Now Ezekiel will be a sign for you. You will do everything that he has done. When this happens, you will know that I am the Lord Yahweh.

<sup>25</sup> “ ‘Son of man, know that on the day I take their stronghold from them, their pride and joy, the delight of their eyes and the longing of their hearts, as well as their sons and daughters, <sup>26</sup> on that day a fugitive will come to you and report the news. <sup>27</sup> On that day your mouth will be opened to talk with him; you will speak and no longer be mute. So you will be a sign for them, and they will know that I am Yahweh.’ ”

PROPHECIES AGAINST THE NATIONS

Judgment against Ammon

25† Then the word of the LORD came to me: <sup>2</sup> “Son of man, turn your face toward the Ammonites and prophesy against them. <sup>3</sup> Say to the Ammonites: Hear the word of the Lord GOD: This is what the Lord GOD says: Because you said, ‘Good!’ about My sanctuary when it was desecrated, about the land of Israel when it was laid waste, and about the house of Judah when they went into exile, <sup>4</sup> therefore I am about to give you to the people of the east as a possession. They will set up their encampments and pitch their tents among you. They will eat your fruit and drink your milk. <sup>5</sup> I will make Rabbah a pasture for camels and Ammon a sheepfold. Then you will know that I am •Yahweh.”

<sup>6</sup> For this is what the Lord GOD says: “Because you clapped your hands, stamped your feet, and rejoiced over the land of Israel with wholehearted contempt, <sup>7</sup> therefore I am about to stretch out My hand against you and give you as plunder to the nations. I will cut you off from the peoples and eliminate you from the countries. I will destroy you, and you will know that I am Yahweh.”

Judgment against Moab

Judgment against Edom

<sup>12†</sup> This is what the Lord GOD says: “Because Edom acted vengefully against the house of Judah and incurred grievous •guilt by taking revenge on them, <sup>13</sup> therefore this is what the Lord GOD says: I will stretch out My hand against Edom and cut off both man and animal from it. I will make it a wasteland; they will fall by the sword from Teman to Dedan. <sup>14</sup> I will take My vengeance on Edom through My people Israel, and they will deal with Edom according to My anger and wrath. So they will know My vengeance.” This is the declaration of the Lord GOD.

Judgment against Philistia

<sup>15†</sup> This is what the Lord GOD says: “Because the Philistines acted in vengeance and took revenge with deep contempt, destroying because of their ancient hatred, <sup>16</sup> therefore this is what the Lord GOD says: I am about to stretch out My hand against the Philistines, cutting off the Cherethites and wiping out what remains of the coastal peoples. <sup>B</sup> <sup>17</sup> I will execute great vengeance against them with furious rebukes. They will know that I am Yahweh when I take My vengeance on them.”

The Downfall of Tyre

26 †In the eleventh year, on the first day of the month, the word of the LORD came to me: <sup>2</sup> “Son of man, because Tyre said about Jerusalem, ‘Good! The gateway to the peoples is shattered. She has been turned over to me. I will be filled now that she lies in ruins,’ <sup>3</sup> therefore this is what the Lord GOD says: See, I am against you, Tyre! I will raise up many nations against you, just as the sea raises its waves. <sup>4</sup> They will destroy the walls of Tyre and demolish her towers. I will scrape the soil from her and turn her into a bare rock. <sup>5</sup> She will become a place in the sea to spread nets, for I have spoken.” This is the declaration of the Lord GOD. “She will become plunder for the nations, <sup>6</sup> and her villages on the mainland will be slaughtered by the sword. Then they will know that I am •Yahweh.”

<sup>7</sup> For this is what the Lord GOD says: “See, I am about to bring King Nebuchadnezzar of Babylon, king of kings, against Tyre from the north with horses, chariots, cavalry, and a vast company of troops. <sup>8</sup> He will slaughter your villages on the mainland with the sword. He will set up siege works against you, and will build a ramp <sup>A</sup> and raise a wall of shields against you. <sup>9</sup> He will direct the blows of his battering rams against your walls and tear down your towers with his iron tools. <sup>10</sup> His horses will be so numerous that their dust will cover you. When he enters your gates as an army entering a breached city, your walls will shake from the noise of cavalry, wagons, and chariots. <sup>11</sup> He will trample all your streets with the hooves of his horses. He will slaughter your people with the sword, and your mighty pillars will fall to the ground. <sup>12</sup> They will take your wealth as spoil and plunder your merchandise. They will also demolish your walls and tear down your beautiful homes. Then they will throw your stones, timber, and soil into the water. <sup>13</sup> I will put an end to the noise of your songs, and the sound of your lyres will no longer be heard. <sup>14</sup> I will turn you into a bare rock, and you will be a place to spread nets. You will never be rebuilt, for I, Yahweh, have spoken.” This is the declaration of the Lord GOD.

<sup>15</sup> This is what the Lord GOD says to Tyre: “Won’t the coasts and islands quake at the sound of your downfall, when the wounded groan and slaughter occurs within you? <sup>16</sup> All the princes of the sea will descend from their thrones, remove their robes, and strip off their embroidered garments. They will clothe themselves with trembling; they will sit on the ground, tremble continually, and be appalled at you.<sup>17</sup> Then they will lament for you and say of you:

How you have perished, city of renown,
you who were populated from the seas!
She who was powerful on the sea,
she and all of her inhabitants inflicted their terror.<sup>B</sup>

<sup>18</sup> Now the coastlands tremble
on the day of your downfall;
the islands in the sea
are alarmed by your demise.”

<sup>19</sup> For this is what the Lord GOD says: “When I make you a ruined city like other deserted cities, when I raise up the deep against you so that the mighty waters cover you,<sup>20</sup> then I will bring you down to be with those who descend to the •Pit, to the people of antiquity. I will make you dwell in the underworld<sup>C</sup> like the ancient ruins, with those who descend to the Pit, so that you will no longer be inhabited or display your splendor in the land of the living.<sup>21</sup> I will make you an object of horror, and you will no longer exist. You will be sought but will never be found again.” This is the declaration of the Lord GOD.

The Sinking of Tyre

27 †The word of the LORD came to me: <sup>2</sup> “Now, son of man, lament for Tyre. <sup>3</sup> Say to Tyre, who is located at the entrance of the sea, merchant of the peoples to many coasts and islands: This is what the Lord GOD says:

Tyre, you declared,
'I am perfect in beauty.'

<sup>4</sup> Your realm was in the heart of the sea;
your builders perfected your beauty.

<sup>5</sup> They constructed all your planking with pine trees from Senir.
They took a cedar from Lebanon
to make a mast for you.

<sup>6</sup> They made your oars of oaks from Bashan.
They made your deck of cypress wood
from the coasts of Cyprus, inlaid with ivory.

<sup>7</sup> Your sail was made of fine embroidered linen from Egypt,
and served as your banner.
Your awning was of blue and purple fabric
from the coasts of Elishah.

<sup>8</sup> The inhabitants of Sidon and Arvad
were your rowers.
Your wise men were within you, Tyre;
they were your captains.

<sup>9</sup> The elders of Gebal and its wise men were within you, repairing your leaks.

All the ships of the sea and their sailors came to <sup>A</sup> you to barter for your goods.

<sup>10</sup> Men of Persia, Lud, and Put were in your army, serving as your warriors.
They hung shields and helmets in you;
they gave you splendor.

<sup>11</sup> Men of Arvad and Helech

were stationed on your walls all around,
and Gammadites were in your towers.
They hung their shields <sup>B</sup> all around your walls;
they perfected your beauty.

<sup>12</sup> “Tarshish was your trading partner because of your great wealth of every kind. They exchanged silver, iron, tin, and lead for your merchandise. <sup>13</sup> Javan, Tubal, and Meshech were your merchants. They exchanged slaves <sup>C</sup> and bronze utensils for your goods. <sup>14</sup> Those from Beth-togarmah exchanged horses, war horses, and mules for your merchandise. <sup>15</sup> Men of Dedan were also your merchants; many coasts and islands were your regular markets. They brought back ivory tusks and ebony as your payment. <sup>16</sup> Aram was your trading partner because of your numerous products. They exchanged turquoise, <sup>D</sup> purple and embroidered cloth, fine linen, coral, <sup>E</sup> and rubies <sup>F</sup> for your merchandise. <sup>17</sup> Judah and the land of Israel were your merchants. They exchanged wheat from Minnith, meal, <sup>G</sup> honey, oil, and balm, for your goods. <sup>18</sup> Damascus was also your trading partner because of your numerous products and your great wealth of every kind, trading in wine from Helbon and white wool. <sup>H</sup> <sup>19</sup> Vedan <sup>I</sup> and Javan from Uzal <sup>J</sup>, dealt in your merchandise; wrought iron, cassia, and aromatic cane were exchanged for your goods. <sup>20</sup> Dedan was your merchant in saddlecloths for riding. <sup>21</sup> Arabia and all the princes of Kedar were your business <sup>K</sup> partners, trading with you in lambs, rams, and goats. <sup>22</sup> The merchants of Sheba and Raamah traded with you. They exchanged gold, the best of all spices, and all kinds of precious stones for your merchandise. <sup>23</sup> Haran, Canneh, Eden, the merchants of Sheba, Asshur, and Chilmad traded with you. <sup>24</sup> They were your merchants in choice garments, cloaks of blue and embroidered materials, and multicolored carpets, <sup>L</sup> which were bound and secured with cords in your marketplace. <sup>25</sup> Ships of Tarshish were the carriers for your goods.

So you became full and heavily loaded <sup>M</sup>
in the heart of the sea.

<sup>26</sup> Your rowers have brought you onto the high seas,

but the east wind has shattered you
in the heart of the sea.

<sup>27</sup> Your wealth, merchandise, and goods,
your sailors and captains,
those who repair your leaks,
those who barter for your goods,
and all the warriors within you,
with all the other people on board, <sup>N</sup> sink into the heart of the sea
on the day of your downfall.

<sup>28</sup> The countryside shakes
at the sound of your sailors' cries.

<sup>29</sup> All those who handle an oar
disembark from their ships.
The sailors and all the captains of the sea stand on the shore.

<sup>30</sup> They raise their voices over you and cry out bitterly.
They throw dust on their heads;
they roll in ashes.

<sup>31</sup> They shave their heads because of you and wrap themselves in sackcloth.
They weep over you
with deep anguish and bitter mourning.

<sup>32</sup> In their wailing they lament for you,
mourning over you:
Who was like Tyre,
silenced <sup>O</sup> in the middle of the sea?

<sup>33</sup> When your merchandise was unloaded from the seas,
you satisfied many peoples.
You enriched the kings of the earth
with your abundant wealth and goods.

<sup>34</sup> Now you are shattered by the sea
in the depths of the waters;

your goods and the people within you have gone down.

<sup>35</sup> All the inhabitants of the coasts and islands are appalled at you.
Their kings shudder with fear;
their faces are contorted.

<sup>36</sup> Those who trade among the peoples
mock <sup>P</sup> you;
you have become an object of horror
and will never exist again.”

The Fall of Tyre's Ruler

28 † The word of the LORD came to me: <sup>2</sup> “Son of man, say to the ruler of Tyre: This is what the Lord GOD says:

Your <sup>A</sup> heart is proud,
and you have said, ‘I am a god;
I sit in the seat of gods
in the heart of the sea.’
Yet you are a man and not a god,
though you have regarded your heart
as that of a god.

<sup>3†</sup> Yes, you are wiser than Daniel;
no secret is hidden from you!

<sup>4</sup> By your wisdom and understanding
you have acquired wealth for yourself.
You have acquired gold and silver
for your treasuries.

<sup>5</sup> By your great skill in trading
you have increased your wealth,
but your heart has become proud because of your wealth.”

<sup>6</sup> Therefore this is what the Lord GOD says:

Because you regard your heart as that of a god,

<sup>7</sup> I am about to bring strangers against you,
ruthless men from the nations.

They will draw their swords against your magnificent wisdom
and will defile your splendor.

<sup>8</sup> They will bring you down to the •Pit,
and you will die a violent death
in the heart of the sea.

<sup>9</sup> Will you still say, ‘I am a god,’
in the presence of those who kill you?
Yet you will be only a man, not a god,
in the hands of those who kill you.

<sup>10</sup> You will die the death of the uncircumcised
at the hands of strangers.
For I have spoken.

This is the declaration of the Lord GOD.

A Lament for Tyre's King

<sup>11</sup> The word of the LORD came to me: <sup>12</sup> “Son of man, lament for the king of Tyre and say to him: This is what the Lord GOD says:

You were the seal <sup>B</sup> of perfection, <sup>C</sup> full of wisdom and perfect in beauty.

<sup>13</sup> You were in Eden, the garden of God.
Every kind of precious stone covered you:
carnelian, topaz, and diamond, <sup>D</sup>
beryl, onyx, and jasper,

sapphire, <sup>E</sup> turquoise <sup>F</sup> and emerald. <sup>G</sup> Your mountings and settings were crafted in gold;
they were prepared on the day you were created.

<sup>14</sup> You were an anointed guardian cherub,
for <sup>H</sup> I had appointed you.
You were on the holy mountain of God;
you walked among the fiery stones.

<sup>15</sup> From the day you were created
you were blameless in your ways
until wickedness was found in you.

<sup>16</sup> Through the abundance of your trade,
you were filled with violence, and you sinned.
So I expelled you in disgrace
from the mountain of God, and banished you, guardian cherub, <sup>I</sup>
from among the fiery stones.

<sup>17</sup> Your heart became proud because of your beauty;
For the sake of your splendor
you corrupted your wisdom.

So I threw you down to the earth;
I made you a spectacle before kings.

<sup>18</sup> You profaned your sanctuaries
by the magnitude of your iniquities
in your dishonest trade.

So I made fire come from within you,
and it consumed you.

I reduced you to ashes on the ground
in the sight of everyone watching you.

<sup>19</sup> All those who know you among the nations
are appalled at you.

You have become an object of horror
and will never exist again.”

A Prophecy against Sidon

<sup>20†</sup> The word of the LORD came to me: <sup>21</sup> “Son of man, turn your face toward Sidon and prophesy against it. <sup>22</sup> You are to say: This is what the Lord GOD says:

Look! I am against you, Sidon, and I will display My glory within you.
They will know that I am •Yahweh
when I execute judgments against her and demonstrate My holiness through her.

<sup>23</sup> I will send a plague against her
and bloodshed in her streets;
the slain will fall within her,
while the sword is against her <sup>J</sup> on every side.
Then they will know that I am Yahweh.

<sup>24</sup> “The house of Israel will no longer be hurt by <sup>K</sup> prickly briars or painful thorns from all their neighbors who treat them with contempt. Then they will know that I am the Lord Yahweh.

<sup>25</sup> “This is what the Lord GOD says: When I gather the house of Israel from the peoples where they are scattered and demonstrate My holiness through them in the sight of the nations, then they will live in their own land, which I gave to My servant Jacob. <sup>26</sup> They will live there securely, build houses, and plant vineyards. They will live securely when I execute judgments against all their neighbors who treat them with contempt. Then they will know that I am Yahweh their God.”

A Prophecy of Egypt's Ruin

29 †In the tenth year, in the tenth month on the twelfth day of the month, the word of the LORD came to me: <sup>2</sup> “Son of man, turn your face toward Pharaoh king of Egypt and prophesy against him and against all of Egypt. <sup>3</sup> Speak to him and say: This is what the Lord GOD says:

Look, I am against you, Pharaoh king of Egypt, the great monster <sup>A</sup> lying in the middle of his Nile, who says, ‘My Nile is my own; I made it for myself.’

<sup>4</sup> I will put hooks in your jaws and make the fish of your streams cling to your scales.

I will haul you up from the middle of your Nile, and all the fish of your streams will cling to your scales.

<sup>5</sup> I will leave you in the desert, you and all the fish of your streams. You will fall on the open ground and will not be taken away or gathered for burial.

I have given you to the beasts of the earth and the birds of the sky as food.

<sup>6</sup> Then all the inhabitants of Egypt will know that I am •Yahweh, for they have been a staff made of reed to the house of Israel.

<sup>7</sup> When Israel grasped you by the hand, you splintered, tearing all their shoulders; when they leaned on you, you shattered and made all their hips unsteady.

<sup>8</sup> “Therefore this is what the Lord GOD says: I am going to bring a sword against you and wipe out man and animal from you. <sup>9</sup> The land of Egypt will be a desolate ruin. Then they will know that I am Yahweh. Because you said, 'The Nile is my own; I made it,' <sup>10</sup> therefore, I am against you and your Nile. I will turn the land of Egypt into ruins, a desolate waste from Migdol to Syene, as far as the border of •Cush. <sup>11</sup> No human foot will pass through it, and no animal foot will pass through it. It will be uninhabited for 40 years. <sup>12</sup> I will make the land of Egypt a desolation among <sup>B</sup> desolate lands, and its cities will be a desolation among <sup>C</sup> ruined cities for 40 years. I will disperse the Egyptians among the nations and scatter them across the countries.

<sup>13</sup> "For this is what the Lord GOD says: At the end of 40 years I will gather the Egyptians from the nations where they were dispersed. <sup>14</sup> I will restore the fortunes of Egypt and bring them back to the land of Pathros, the land of their origin. There they will be a lowly kingdom. <sup>15</sup> Egypt will be the lowliest of kingdoms and will never again exalt itself over the nations. I will make them so small they cannot rule over the nations. <sup>16</sup> It will never again be an object of trust for the house of Israel, drawing attention to their sin of turning to the Egyptians. Then they will know that I am the Lord Yahweh."

Babylon Receives Egypt as Compensation

<sup>17†</sup> In the twenty-seventh year in the first month, on the first day of the month, the word of the LORD came to me: <sup>18</sup> "Son of man, Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon made his army labor strenuously against Tyre. Every head was made bald and every shoulder chafed, but he and his army received no compensation from Tyre for the labor he expended against it. <sup>19</sup> Therefore this is what the Lord GOD says: I am going to give the land of Egypt to Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon, who will carry off its wealth, seizing its spoil and taking its plunder. This will be his army's compensation. <sup>20</sup> I have given him the land of Egypt as the pay he labored for, since they worked for Me." This is the declaration of the Lord GOD. <sup>21</sup> "In that day I will cause a •horn to sprout for the house of Israel, and I will enable you to speak out among them. Then they will know that I am Yahweh."

Egypt's Doom

30 The word of the LORD came to me: <sup>2†</sup> “Son of man, prophesy and say:
This is what the Lord GOD says:

Wail: Woe for the day!

<sup>3</sup> For a day is near;
a day belonging to the LORD is near.
It will be a day of clouds,
a time of doom for the nations.

<sup>4</sup> A sword will come against Egypt,
and there will be anguish in •Cush
when the slain fall in Egypt,
and its wealth is taken away,
and its foundations are torn down.

<sup>5</sup> Cush, Put, and Lud, and all the various foreign troops, <sup>A</sup> plus Libya <sup>B</sup> and the men of the covenant land will fall by the sword along with them.

<sup>6</sup> This is what the LORD says:
Those who support Egypt will fall,
and its proud strength will collapse.
From Migdol to Syene
they will fall within it by the sword.

<sup>7</sup> They will be desolate                      This is the declaration of the Lord God.
among <sup>C</sup> desolate lands,
and their cities will lie
among ruined <sup>D</sup> cities.

<sup>8</sup> They will know that I am •Yahweh
when I set fire to Egypt
and all its allies are shattered.

<sup>9</sup> On that day, messengers will go out from Me in ships to terrify confident Cush. Anguish will come over them on the day of Egypt’s doom. For indeed it is coming.”

<sup>10</sup> This is what the Lord GOD says:

I will put an end to the hordes <sup>E</sup> of Egypt
by the hand of Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon.

<sup>11</sup> He along with his people,
ruthless men from the nations,
will be brought in to destroy the land.
They will draw their swords against Egypt
and fill the land with the slain.

<sup>12</sup> I will make the streams dry
and sell the land into the hands of evil men.
I will bring desolation
on the land and everything in it
by the hands of foreigners.
I, Yahweh, have spoken.

<sup>13†</sup> This is what the Lord GOD says:

I will destroy the idols and put an end to the false gods in Memphis.

There will no longer be a prince from the land of Egypt.
So I will instill fear in that land.

<sup>14</sup> I will make Pathros desolate,
set fire to Zoan,
and execute judgments on Thebes.

<sup>15</sup> I will pour out My wrath on Pelusium,
the stronghold of Egypt,
and will wipe out the crowds <sup>F</sup> of Thebes.

<sup>16</sup> I will set fire to Egypt;
Pelusium will writhe in anguish,
Thebes will be breached, and Memphis will face foes in broad daylight. <sup>G</sup>

<sup>17</sup> The young men of On and Pi-beseth
will fall by the sword,
and those cities <sup>H</sup> will go into captivity.

<sup>18</sup> The day will be dark in Tehaphnehes, when I break the yoke of Egypt there and its proud strength

comes to an end in the city.

A cloud will cover Tehaphnehes,<sup>1</sup>
and its villages will go into captivity.

<sup>19</sup> So I will execute judgments against Egypt,
and they will know that I am Yahweh.

Pharaoh's Power Broken

<sup>20†</sup> In the eleventh year, in the first month, on the seventh day of the month, the word of the LORD came to me: <sup>21</sup> “Son of man, I have broken the arm of Pharaoh king of Egypt. Look, it has not been bandaged — no medicine has been applied and no splint put on to bandage it so that it can grow strong enough to handle a sword. <sup>22</sup> Therefore this is what the Lord GOD says: Look! I am against Pharaoh king of Egypt. I will break his arms, both the strong one and the one already broken, and will make the sword fall from his hand. <sup>23</sup> I will disperse the Egyptians among the nations and scatter them among the countries. <sup>24</sup> I will strengthen the arms of Babylon's king and place My sword in his hand. But I will break the arms of Pharaoh, and he will groan before him as a mortally wounded man. <sup>25</sup> I will strengthen the arms of Babylon's king, but Pharaoh's arms will fall. They will know that I am Yahweh when I place My sword in the hand of Babylon's king and he wields it against the land of Egypt. <sup>26</sup> When I disperse the Egyptians among the nations and scatter them among the countries, they will know that I am Yahweh.”

Downfall of Egypt and Assyria

31 †In the eleventh year, in the third month, on the first day of the month, the word of the LORD came to me: <sup>2</sup> “Son of man, say to Pharaoh king of Egypt and to his hordes:

Who are you like in your greatness?

<sup>3</sup> Think of Assyria, a cedar in Lebanon, with beautiful branches and shady foliage and of lofty height.

Its top was among the clouds. <sup>A</sup>

<sup>4</sup> The waters caused it to grow; the underground springs made it tall, directing their rivers all around the place where the tree was planted and sending their channels to all the trees of the field.

<sup>5</sup> Therefore the cedar became greater in height than all the trees of the field.

Its branches multiplied, and its boughs grew long as it spread them out because of the plentiful water.

<sup>7</sup> It was beautiful in its greatness, in the length of its limbs, for its roots extended to abundant water.

No tree in the garden of God could compare with it in beauty.

<sup>9</sup> I made it beautiful with its many limbs, and all the trees of Eden,

which were in God's garden, envied it.

<sup>10</sup> “Therefore this is what the Lord GOD says: Since it became great in height and set its top among the clouds, <sup>B</sup> and it <sup>C</sup> grew proud on account of its height, <sup>11</sup> I determined to hand it over to a ruler of nations; he would surely deal with it. I banished it because of its wickedness. <sup>12</sup> Foreigners, ruthless men from the nations, cut it down and left it lying. Its limbs fell on the mountains and in every valley; its boughs lay broken in all the earth's ravines. All the peoples of the earth left its shade and abandoned it. <sup>13</sup> All the birds of the sky nested on its fallen trunk, and all the animals of the field were among its boughs. <sup>14</sup> This happened so that no trees planted beside water would become great in height and set their tops among the clouds, <sup>D</sup> and so that no other well-watered trees would reach them in height. For they have all been consigned to death, to the underworld, among the •people who descend to the •Pit.

<sup>15</sup> “This is what the Lord GOD says: I caused grieving on the day the cedar went down to •Sheol. I closed off the underground deep because of it: <sup>E</sup> I held back the rivers of the deep, and its abundant waters were restrained. I made Lebanon mourn on account of it, and all the trees of the field fainted because of it. <sup>16</sup> I made the nations quake at the sound of its downfall, when I threw it down to Sheol to be with those who descend to the Pit. Then all the trees of Eden, all the well-watered trees, the choice and best of Lebanon, were comforted in the underworld. <sup>17</sup> They too descended with it to Sheol, to those slain by the sword. As its allies they had lived in its shade among the nations.

<sup>18</sup> “Who then are you like in glory and greatness among Eden's trees? You also will be brought down to the underworld to be with the trees of Eden. You will lie among the uncircumcised with those slain by the sword. This is Pharaoh and all his hordes” — the declaration of the Lord GOD.

A Lament for Pharaoh

32 †In the twelfth year, in the twelfth month, on the first day of the month, the word of the LORD came to me: <sup>2</sup> “Son of man, lament for Pharaoh king of Egypt and say to him:

You compare yourself to a lion of the nations,
but <sup>A</sup> you are like a monster in the seas.
You thrash about in your rivers,
churn up the waters with your feet,
and muddy the <sup>B</sup> rivers.”

<sup>3</sup> This is what the Lord GOD says:

I will spread My net over you
with an assembly of many peoples,
and they will haul you up in My net.

<sup>4</sup> I will abandon you on the land and hurl you on the open field.
I will cause all the birds of the sky
to settle on you
and let the beasts of the entire earth
eat their fill of you.

<sup>5</sup> I will put your flesh on the mountains and fill the valleys with your carcass.

<sup>6</sup> I will drench the land
with the flow of your blood,
even to the mountains;
the ravines will be filled with your gore.

<sup>7</sup> When I snuff you out,
I will cover the heavens
and darken their stars.
I will cover the sun with a cloud,
and the moon will not give its light.

<sup>8</sup> I will darken all the shining lights
in the heavens over you,
and will bring darkness on your land.

This is the declaration of the Lord GOD.

<sup>9</sup> I will trouble the hearts of many peoples,
when I bring about your destruction
among the nations,
in countries you do not know.

<sup>10</sup> I will cause many nations to be appalled at you,
and their kings will shudder with fear because of you when I brandish My sword in front of them.
On the day of your downfall
each of them will tremble
every moment for his life.

<sup>11</sup> For this is what the Lord GOD says:

The sword of Babylon's king
will come against you!

<sup>12</sup> I will make your hordes fall
by the swords of warriors,
all of them ruthless men from the nations.
They will ravage Egypt's pride,
and all its hordes will be destroyed.

<sup>13</sup> I will slaughter all its cattle
that are beside many waters.
No human foot will churn them again,
and no cattle hooves will disturb them.

<sup>14</sup> Then I will let their waters settle and will make their rivers flow like oil.

<sup>15</sup> When I make the land of Egypt This is the declaration of the Lord GOD.
a desolation,
so that it is emptied of everything in it,
when I strike down all who live there,
then they will know that I am •Yahweh.

<sup>16</sup> "This is a lament that will be chanted; the women of the nations will chant it. They will chant it over Egypt and all its hordes." This is the declaration of the Lord GOD.

Egypt in Sheol

<sup>17†</sup> In the twelfth year, on the fifteenth day of the month, the word of the LORD came to me: <sup>18</sup> “Son of man, wail over the hordes of Egypt and bring Egypt and the daughters of mighty nations down to the underworld, <sup>C</sup> to be with those who descend to the •Pit:

<sup>19</sup> Who do you surpass in loveliness?
Go down and be laid to rest with the uncircumcised!

<sup>20</sup> They will fall among those slain by the sword.
A sword is appointed!
They drag her and all her hordes away.

<sup>21</sup> Warrior leaders will speak
from the middle of •Sheol
about him and his allies:
They have come down;
the uncircumcised lie
slain by the sword.

<sup>22†</sup> Assyria is there with all her company;
her graves are all around her.
All of them are slain, fallen by the sword.

<sup>23</sup> Her graves are set in the deepest regions of the Pit,
and her company is all around her burial place.
All of them are slain, fallen by the sword —
those who once spread terror
in the land of the living.

<sup>24</sup> Elam is there
with all her hordes around her grave.
All of them are slain, fallen by the sword —
those who went down to the underworld <sup>D</sup> uncircumcised, who once spread their terror
in the land of the living.
They bear their disgrace
with those who descend to the Pit.

<sup>25</sup> Among the slain

they prepare a resting place for Elam with all her hordes.

Her graves are all around her.

All of them are uncircumcised,
slain by the sword,
although their terror was once spread
in the land of the living.

They bear their disgrace
with those who descend to the Pit.
They are placed among the slain.

with all their hordes.

Their graves are all around them.
All of them are uncircumcised, slain by the sword,
although their terror was once spread
in the land of the living.

<sup>27</sup> They do not lie down with the fallen warriors of the uncircumcised, who went down to Sheol
with their weapons of war,
whose swords were placed under their heads. <sup>F</sup>

The punishment for their sins
rested on their bones,
although the terror of these warriors
was once in the land of the living.

<sup>28</sup> But you will be shattered
and will lie down among the uncircumcised,
with those slain by the sword.

<sup>29</sup> Edom is there, her kings and all her princes, who, despite their strength, have been placed
among those slain by the sword.

They lie down with the uncircumcised,
with those who descend to the Pit.

<sup>30</sup> All the leaders of the north and all the Sidonians are there.

They went down in shame with the slain,
despite the terror their strength inspired.
They lie down uncircumcised
with those slain by the sword.
They bear their disgrace
with those who descend to the Pit.

<sup>31</sup> Pharaoh will see them and be comforted over all his hordes — Pharaoh and all his army,
slain by the sword.

This is the declaration of the Lord GOD.

<sup>32</sup> For I will spread My terror
in the land of the living,
so Pharaoh and all his hordes
will be laid to rest among the uncircumcised,
with those slain by the sword.”

This is the declaration of the Lord GOD.

Ezekiel as Israel's Watchman

33 †The word of the LORD came to me: <sup>2</sup> “Son of man, speak to your people and tell them: Suppose I bring the sword against a land, and the people of that land select a man from among them, appointing him as their watchman, <sup>3</sup> and he sees the sword coming against the land and blows his trumpet to warn the people. <sup>4</sup> Then, if anyone hears the sound of the trumpet but ignores the warning, and the sword comes and takes him away, his blood will be on his own head. <sup>5</sup> Since he heard the sound of the trumpet but ignored the warning, his blood is on his own hands. <sup>A</sup> If he had taken warning, he would have saved his life. <sup>6</sup> However, if the watchman sees the sword coming but doesn’t blow the trumpet, so that the people aren’t warned, and the sword comes and takes away their lives, then they have been taken away because of their iniquity, but I will hold the watchman accountable for their blood.

<sup>7</sup> “As for you, son of man, I have made you a watchman for the house of Israel. When you hear a word from My mouth, give them a warning from Me. <sup>8</sup> If I say to the wicked, ‘Wicked one, you will surely die,’ but you do not speak out to warn him about his way, that wicked person will die for his iniquity, yet I will hold you responsible for his blood. <sup>9</sup> But if you warn a wicked person to turn from his way and he doesn’t turn from it, he will die for his iniquity, but you will have saved your life.

<sup>10†</sup> “Now as for you, son of man, say to the house of Israel: You have said this, ‘Our transgressions and our sins are heavy on us, and we are wasting away because of them! How then can we survive?’ <sup>11</sup> Tell them: As I live” — the declaration of the Lord GOD — “I take no pleasure in the death of the wicked, but rather that the wicked person should turn from his way and live. Repent, repent of your evil ways! Why will you die, house of Israel?

<sup>12</sup> “Now, son of man, say to your people: The righteousness of the righteous person will not save him on the day of his transgression; neither will the wickedness of the wicked person cause him to stumble on the day he turns from his wickedness. The righteous person won’t be able to survive by his righteousness on the day he sins. <sup>13</sup> When I tell the righteous person that he will surely live, but he trusts in his righteousness and commits iniquity, then none of his righteousness will be remembered, and he will die because of the iniquity he has committed.

<sup>14</sup> “So when I tell the wicked person, ‘You will surely die,’ but he repents of his sin and does what is just and right — <sup>15</sup> he returns collateral, makes restitution for what he has stolen, and walks in the statutes of life without practicing iniquity — he will certainly live; he will not die. <sup>16</sup> None of the sins he committed will be held against him. He has done what is just and right; he will certainly live.

<sup>17</sup> “But your people say, ‘The Lord’s way isn’t fair,’ even though it is their own way that isn’t fair. <sup>18</sup> When a righteous person turns from his righteousness and commits iniquity, he will die on account of this. <sup>19</sup> But if a wicked person turns from his wickedness and does what is just and right, he will live because of this. <sup>20</sup> Yet you say, ‘The Lord’s way isn’t fair.’ I will judge each of you according to his ways, house of Israel.”

The News of Jerusalem’s Fall

<sup>21†</sup> In the twelfth year of our exile, in the tenth month, on the fifth day of the month, a fugitive from Jerusalem came to me and reported, “The city has been taken! ” <sup>22</sup> Now the hand of the LORD had been on me the evening before the fugitive arrived, and He opened my mouth before the man came to me in the morning. So my mouth was opened and I was no longer mute.

Israel’s Continued Rebellion

<sup>23</sup> Then the word of the LORD came to me: <sup>24</sup> “Son of man, those who live in the <sup>B</sup> ruins in the land of Israel are saying, ‘Abraham was only one person, yet he received possession of the land. But we are many; the land has been given to us as a possession.’ <sup>25</sup> Therefore say to them: This is what the Lord GOD says: You eat meat with blood in it, raise your eyes to your idols, and shed blood. Should you then receive possession of the land? <sup>26</sup> You have relied on your swords, you have committed detestable acts, and each of you has defiled his neighbor's wife. Should you then receive possession of the land?

<sup>27</sup> “Tell them this: This is what the Lord GOD says: As surely as I live, those who are in the ruins will fall by the sword, those in the open field I have given to wild animals to be devoured, and those in the strongholds and caves will die by plague. <sup>28</sup> I will make the land a desolate waste, and its proud strength will come to an end. The mountains of Israel will become desolate, with no one passing through. <sup>29</sup> They will know that I am •Yahweh when I make the land a desolate waste because of all the detestable acts they have committed.

<sup>30</sup> “Now, son of man, your people are talking about you near the city walls and in the doorways of their houses. One person speaks to another, each saying to his brother, ‘Come and hear what the message is that comes from the LORD!’ <sup>31</sup> So My people come to you in crowds, <sup>C</sup> sit in front of you, and hear your words, but they don't obey them. Although they express love with their mouths, their hearts pursue dishonest profit. <sup>32</sup> Yes, to them you are like a singer of love songs who has a beautiful voice and plays skillfully on an instrument. They hear your words, but they don't obey them. <sup>33</sup> Yet when it comes — and it will definitely come — then they will know that a prophet has been among them.”

The Shepherds and God's Flock

34 †The word of the LORD came to me: <sup>2</sup> “Son of man, prophesy against the shepherds of Israel. Prophesy, and say to them: This is what the Lord GOD says to the shepherds: Woe to the shepherds of Israel, who have been feeding themselves! Shouldn’t the shepherds feed their flock? <sup>3</sup> You eat the fat, wear the wool, and butcher the fattened animals, but you do not tend the flock. <sup>4</sup> You have not strengthened the weak, healed the sick, bandaged the injured, brought back the strays, or sought the lost. Instead, you have ruled them with violence and cruelty. <sup>5</sup> They were scattered for lack of a shepherd; they became food for all the wild animals when they were scattered. <sup>6†</sup> My flock went astray on all the mountains and every high hill. They were scattered over the whole face of the earth, and there was no one searching or seeking for them.

<sup>7</sup> “Therefore, you shepherds, hear the word of the LORD. <sup>8</sup> As I live” — the declaration of the Lord GOD — “because My flock has become prey and food for every wild animal since they lack a shepherd, for My shepherds do not search for My flock, and because the shepherds feed themselves rather than My flock, <sup>9</sup> therefore, you shepherds, hear the word of the LORD!

<sup>10</sup> “This is what the Lord GOD says: Look, I am against the shepherds. I will demand My flock from them <sup>A</sup> and prevent them from shepherding the flock. The shepherds will no longer feed themselves, for I will rescue My flock from their mouths so that they will not be food for them.

<sup>11</sup> “For this is what the Lord GOD says: See, I Myself will search for My flock and look for them. <sup>12</sup> As a shepherd looks for his sheep on the day he is among his scattered flock, so I will look for My flock. I will rescue them from all the places where they have been scattered on a cloudy and dark day. <sup>13</sup> I will bring them out from the peoples, gather them from the countries, and bring them into their own land. I will shepherd them on the mountains of Israel, in the ravines, and in all the inhabited places of the land. <sup>14</sup> I will tend them with good pasture, and their grazing place will be on Israel’s lofty mountains. There they will lie down in a good grazing place; they will feed in rich pasture on the mountains of Israel. <sup>15</sup> I will tend

My flock and let them lie down.” This is the declaration of the Lord GOD.

<sup>16</sup> “I will seek the lost, bring back the strays, bandage the injured, and strengthen the weak, but I will destroy the fat and the strong. I will shepherd them with justice.

<sup>17</sup> “The Lord GOD says to you, My flock: I am going to judge between one sheep and another, between the rams and male goats. <sup>18</sup> Isn’t it enough for you to feed on the good pasture? Must you also trample the rest of the pasture with your feet? Or isn’t it enough that you drink the clear water? Must you also muddy the rest with your feet? <sup>19</sup> Yet My flock has to feed on what your feet have trampled, and drink what your feet have muddied.

<sup>25</sup> “I will make a covenant of peace with them and eliminate dangerous animals in the land, so that they may live securely in the wilderness and sleep in the forest. <sup>26</sup> I will make them and the area around My hill a blessing: I will send down showers in their season — showers <sup>B</sup> of blessing. <sup>27</sup> The trees of the field will give their fruit, and the land will yield its produce; My flock will be secure in their land. They will know that I am Yahweh when I break the bars of their yoke and rescue them from the hands of those who enslave them. <sup>28</sup> They will no longer be prey for the nations, and the wild animals of the land will not consume them. They will live securely, and no one will frighten them. <sup>29</sup> I will establish for them a place renowned for its agriculture, and they will no longer be victims of famine in the land. They will no longer endure the insults of the nations. <sup>30</sup> Then they will know that I, Yahweh their God, am with them, and that they, the house of Israel, are My people.” This is the declaration of the Lord GOD.

<sup>31</sup> “You are My flock, the human flock of My pasture, and I am your God.”

This is the declaration of the Lord GOD.

A Prophecy against Edom

35 †The word of the LORD came to me: <sup>2</sup> “Son of man, turn your face toward Mount Seir and prophesy against it. <sup>3</sup> Say to it: This is what the Lord GOD says:

Look! I am against you, Mount Seir.
I will stretch out My hand against you
and make you a desolate waste.

<sup>4</sup> I will turn your cities into ruins,
and you will become a desolation.
Then you will know that I am •Yahweh.

<sup>5†</sup> “Because you maintained an ancient hatred and handed over the Israelites to the power of the sword in the time of their disaster, the time of final punishment, <sup>6</sup> therefore, as I live” — this is the declaration of the Lord GOD — “I will destine you for bloodshed, and it will pursue you. Since you did not hate bloodshed, it will pursue you. <sup>7</sup> I will make Mount Seir a desolate waste and will cut off from it those who come and go. <sup>8</sup> I will fill its mountains with the slain; those slain by the sword will fall on your hills, in your valleys, and in all your ravines. <sup>9</sup> I will make you a perpetual desolation; your cities will not be inhabited. Then you will know that I am Yahweh.

<sup>10</sup> “Because you said, ‘These two nations and two lands will be mine, and we will possess them’ — though the LORD was there — <sup>11</sup> therefore, as I live” — the declaration of the Lord GOD — “I will treat you according to the anger and jealousy you showed in your hatred of them. I will make Myself known among them when I judge you. <sup>12</sup> Then you will know that I, Yahweh, have heard all the blasphemies you uttered against the mountains of Israel, saying, ‘They are desolate. They have been given to us to devour!’ <sup>13</sup> You boasted against Me with your mouth, and spoke many words against Me. I heard it Myself!

<sup>14</sup> “This is what the Lord GOD says: While the whole world rejoices, I will make you a desolation. <sup>15</sup> Just as you rejoiced over the inheritance of the house of Israel because it became a desolation, so I will deal with you:

you will become a desolation, Mount Seir, and so will all Edom in its entirety. Then they will know that I am Yahweh.

Restoration of Israel's Mountains

36 †“Son of man, prophesy to the mountains of Israel and say: Mountains of Israel, hear the word of the LORD. <sup>2</sup> This is what the Lord GOD says: Because the enemy has said about you, ‘Good! The ancient heights have become our possession,’ <sup>3</sup> therefore, prophesy and say: This is what the Lord GOD says: Because they have made you desolate and have trampled you from every side, so that you became a possession for the rest of the nations and an object of people’s gossip and slander, <sup>4</sup> therefore, mountains of Israel, hear the word of the Lord GOD. This is what the Lord GOD says to the mountains and hills, to the ravines and valleys, to the desolate ruins and abandoned cities, which have become plunder and a mockery to the rest of the nations all around.

<sup>8</sup> “You, mountains of Israel, will produce your branches and bear your fruit for My people Israel, since their arrival is near. <sup>9</sup> Look! I am on your side; I will turn toward you, and you will be tilled and sown. <sup>10</sup> I will fill you with people, with the whole house of Israel in its entirety. The cities will be inhabited and the ruins rebuilt. <sup>11</sup> I will fill you with people and animals, and they will increase and be fruitful. I will make you inhabited as you once were and make you better off than you were before. Then you will know that I am •Yahweh. <sup>12</sup> I will cause people, My people Israel, to walk on you; they will possess you, and you will be their inheritance. You will no longer deprive them of their children.

will no longer devour men and deprive your nation of children.” This is the declaration of the Lord GOD. <sup>15</sup> “I will no longer allow the insults of the nations to be heard against you, and you will not have to endure the reproach of the peoples anymore; you will no longer cause your nation to stumble.” This is the declaration of the Lord GOD.

Restoration of Israel’s People

<sup>16†</sup> The word of the LORD came to me: <sup>17</sup> “Son of man, while the house of Israel lived in their land, they defiled it with their conduct and actions. Their behavior before Me was like menstrual impurity. <sup>18</sup> So I poured out My wrath on them because of the blood they had shed on the land, and because they had defiled it with their idols. <sup>19</sup> I dispersed them among the nations, and they were scattered among the countries. I judged them according to their conduct and actions. <sup>20</sup> When they came to the nations where they went, they profaned My holy name, because it was said about them, ‘These are the people of Yahweh, yet they had to leave His land in exile.’ <sup>21</sup> Then I had concern for My holy name, which the house of Israel profaned among the nations where they went.

<sup>22</sup> “Therefore, say to the house of Israel: This is what the Lord GOD says: It is not for your sake that I will act, house of Israel, but for My holy name, which you profaned among the nations where you went. <sup>23</sup> I will honor the holiness of My great name, which has been profaned among the nations — the name you have profaned among them. The nations will know that I am Yahweh” — the declaration of the Lord GOD — “when I demonstrate My holiness through you in their sight.

<sup>24†</sup> “For I will take you from the nations and gather you from all the countries, and will bring you into your own land. <sup>25</sup> I will also sprinkle clean water on you, and you will be •clean. I will cleanse you from all your impurities and all your idols. <sup>26</sup> I will give you a new heart and put a new spirit within you; I will remove your heart of stone <sup>D</sup> and give you a heart of flesh. <sup>27</sup> I will place My Spirit within you and cause you to follow My statutes and carefully observe My ordinances. <sup>28</sup> Then you will live in the land that I gave your fathers; you will be My people, and I will be your God. <sup>29</sup> I will save you from all your uncleanness. I will summon the grain and make it plentiful, and will not bring famine on you. <sup>30</sup> I will also make the fruit of the trees and the produce of the field plentiful, so that you will no longer experience reproach among the nations on account of famine.

<sup>31</sup> “Then you will remember your evil ways and your deeds that were not good, and you will loathe yourselves for your iniquities and detestable practices. <sup>32</sup> It is not for your sake that I will act” — the declaration of the Lord GOD — “let this be known to you. Be ashamed and humiliated because of your ways, house of Israel!

<sup>33</sup> “This is what the Lord GOD says: On the day I cleanse you from all your iniquities, I will cause the cities to be inhabited, and the ruins will be rebuilt. <sup>34</sup> The desolate land will be cultivated instead of lying desolate in the sight of everyone who passes by. <sup>35</sup> Then they will say, ‘This land that was desolate has become like the garden of Eden. The cities that were once ruined, desolate, and destroyed are now fortified and inhabited.’ <sup>36</sup> Then the nations that remain around you will know that I, Yahweh, have rebuilt what was destroyed and have replanted what was desolate. I, Yahweh, have spoken and I will do it.

<sup>37</sup> “This is what the Lord GOD says: I will respond to the house of Israel and do this for them: I will multiply them in number like a flock. <sup>E</sup> <sup>38</sup> So the ruined cities will be filled with a flock of people, just as the flock of sheep for sacrifice is filled <sup>F</sup> in Jerusalem during its appointed festivals. Then they will know that I am Yahweh.”

The Valley of Dry Bones

37 †The hand of the LORD was on me, and He brought me out by His Spirit and set me down in the middle of the valley; it was full of bones. <sup>2</sup> He led me all around them. There were a great many of them on the surface of the valley, and they were very dry. <sup>3</sup> Then He said to me, “Son of man, can these bones live? ”

I replied, “Lord GOD, only You know.”

<sup>4</sup> He said to me, “Prophesy concerning these bones and say to them: Dry bones, hear the word of the LORD! <sup>5</sup> This is what the Lord GOD says to these bones: I will cause breath to enter you, and you will live. <sup>6</sup> I will put tendons on you, make flesh grow on you, and cover you with skin. I will put breath in you so that you come to life. Then you will know that I am •Yahweh.”

<sup>7</sup> So I prophesied as I had been commanded. While I was prophesying, there was a noise, a rattling sound, and the bones came together, bone to bone. <sup>8</sup> As I looked, tendons appeared on them, flesh grew, and skin covered them, but there was no breath in them. <sup>9</sup> He said to me, “Prophesy to the breath, <sup>A</sup> prophesy, son of man. Say to it: This is what the Lord GOD says: Breath, come from the four winds and breathe into these slain so that they may live! ” <sup>10</sup> So I prophesied as He commanded me; the breath <sup>B</sup> entered them, and they came to life and stood on their feet, a vast army.

<sup>11</sup> Then He said to me, “Son of man, these bones are the whole house of Israel. Look how they say, ‘Our bones are dried up, and our hope has perished; we are cut off.’ <sup>12</sup> Therefore, prophesy and say to them: This is what the Lord GOD says: I am going to open your graves and bring you up from them, My people, and lead you into the land of Israel. <sup>13</sup> You will know that I am Yahweh, My people, when I open your graves and bring you up from them. <sup>14</sup> I will put My Spirit in you, and you will live, and I will settle you in your own land. Then you will know that I am Yahweh. I have spoken, and I will do it.” This is the declaration of Yahweh.

The Reunification of Israel

<sup>15</sup> The word of the LORD came to me: <sup>16</sup> “Son of man, take a single stick and write on it: Belonging to Judah and the Israelites associated with him. Then take another stick and write on it: Belonging to Joseph — the stick of Ephraim — and all the house of Israel associated with him. <sup>17</sup> Then join them together into a single stick so that they become one in your hand.

<sup>18</sup> When your people ask you, ‘Won’t you explain to us what you mean by these things?’ — <sup>19</sup> tell them: This is what the Lord GOD says: I am going to take the stick of Joseph, which is in the hand of Ephraim, and the tribes of Israel associated with him, and put them together with the stick of Judah. I will make them into a single stick so that they become one in My hand.

<sup>20</sup> “When the sticks you have written on are in your hand and in full view of the people, <sup>21</sup> tell them: This is what the Lord GOD says: I am going to take the Israelites out of the nations where they have gone. I will gather them from all around and bring them into their own land. <sup>22</sup> I will make them one nation in the land, on the mountains of Israel, and one king will rule over all of them. They will no longer be two nations and will no longer be divided into two kingdoms. <sup>23</sup> They will not defile themselves anymore with their idols, their detestable things, and all their transgressions. I will save them from all their apostasies by which they sinned, and I will cleanse them. Then they will be My people, and I will be their God. <sup>24</sup> My servant David will be king over them, and there will be one shepherd for all of them. They will follow My ordinances, and keep My statutes and obey them.

<sup>25</sup> “They will live in the land that I gave to My servant Jacob, where your fathers lived. They will live in it forever with their children and grandchildren, and My servant David will be their prince forever. <sup>26</sup> I will make a covenant of peace with them; it will be an everlasting covenant with them. I will establish and multiply them and will set My sanctuary among them forever. <sup>27</sup> My dwelling place will be with them; I will be their God, and they will be My people. <sup>28</sup> When My sanctuary is among them forever, the nations will know that I, Yahweh, sanctify Israel.”

The Defeat of Gog

38 † The word of the LORD came to me: <sup>2†</sup> “Son of man, turn your face toward Gog, of the land of Magog, the chief prince of <sup>A</sup> Meshech and Tubal. Prophecy against him <sup>3</sup> and say: This is what the Lord GOD says: Look, I am against you, Gog, chief prince of Meshech and Tubal. <sup>4†</sup> I will turn you around, put hooks in your jaws, and bring you out with all your army, including horses and riders, who are all splendidly dressed, a huge company armed with shields and bucklers, all of them brandishing swords. <sup>5</sup> Persia, •Cush, and Put are with them, all of them with shields and helmets; <sup>6</sup> Gomer with all its troops; and Beth-togarmah from the remotest parts of the north along with all its troops — many peoples are with you.

<sup>7</sup> “Be prepared and get yourself ready, you and all your company who have been mobilized around you; you will be their guard. <sup>8†</sup> After a long time you will be summoned. In the last years you will enter a land that has been restored from war <sup>B</sup> and regathered from many peoples to the mountains of Israel, which had long been a ruin. They were brought out from the peoples, and all of them now live securely. <sup>9</sup> You, all of your troops, and many peoples with you will advance, coming like a thunderstorm; you will be like a cloud covering the land.

<sup>10</sup> “This is what the Lord GOD says: On that day, thoughts will arise in your mind, and you will devise an evil plan. <sup>11</sup> You will say, ‘I will go up against a land of open villages; I will come against a tranquil people who are living securely, all of them living without walls and without bars or gates — <sup>12</sup> in order to seize spoil and carry off plunder, to turn your hand against ruins now inhabited and against a people gathered from the nations, who have been acquiring cattle and possessions and who live at the center of the world.’ <sup>13</sup> Sheba and Dedan and the merchants of Tarshish with all its rulers <sup>C</sup> will ask you, ‘Have you come to seize spoil? Have you assembled your hordes to carry off plunder, to make off with silver and gold, to take cattle and possessions, to seize great spoil?’

<sup>14</sup> “Therefore prophecy, son of man, and say to Gog: This is what the Lord GOD says: On that day when My people Israel are dwelling securely, will you not know this <sup>15</sup> and come from your place in the remotest parts of the north — you and many peoples with you, who are all riding horses — a mighty horde, a huge army? <sup>16</sup> You will advance against My people Israel like a cloud covering the land. It will happen in the last days, Gog, that I will bring you against My land so that the nations may know Me, when I show Myself holy through you in their sight.

<sup>17†</sup> “This is what the Lord GOD says: Are you the one I spoke about in former times through My servants, the prophets of Israel, who for years prophesied in those times that I would bring you against them? <sup>18†</sup> Now on that day, the day when Gog comes against the land of Israel” — this is the declaration of the Lord GOD — “My wrath will flare up. <sup>D</sup> <sup>19</sup> I swear in My zeal and fiery rage: On that day there will be a great earthquake in the land of Israel. <sup>20</sup> The fish of the sea, the birds of the sky, the animals of the field, every creature that crawls on the ground, and every human being on the face of the earth will tremble before Me. The mountains will be thrown down, the cliffs will collapse, and every wall will fall to the ground. <sup>21</sup> I will call for a sword against him on all My mountains” — the declaration of the Lord GOD — “and every man’s sword will be against his brother. <sup>22</sup> I will execute judgment on him with plague and bloodshed. I will pour out torrential rain, hailstones, fire, and brimstone on him, as well as his troops and the many peoples who are with him. <sup>23</sup> I will display My greatness and holiness, and will reveal Myself in the sight of many nations. Then they will know that I am •Yahweh.

The Disposal of Gog

39 “As for you, son of man, prophesy against Gog and say: This is what the Lord GOD says: Look, I am against you, Gog, chief prince of <sup>A</sup> Meshech and Tubal. <sup>2</sup> I will turn you around, drive you on, and lead you up from the remotest parts of the north. I will bring you against the mountains of Israel. <sup>3</sup> Then I will knock your bow from your left hand and make your arrows drop from your right hand. <sup>4†</sup> You, all your troops, and the peoples who are with you will fall on the mountains of Israel. I will give you as food to every kind of predatory bird and to the wild animals. <sup>5</sup> You will fall on the open field, for I have spoken.” This is the declaration of the Lord GOD.

<sup>6</sup> “I will send fire against Magog and those who live securely on the coasts and islands. Then they will know that I am •Yahweh. <sup>7</sup> So I will make My holy name known among My people Israel and will no longer allow it to be profaned. Then the nations will know that I am Yahweh, the Holy One in Israel. <sup>8</sup> Yes, it is coming, and it will happen.” This is the declaration of the Lord GOD. “This is the day I have spoken about.

<sup>9</sup> “Then the inhabitants of Israel’s cities will go out, kindle fires, and burn the weapons — the bucklers and shields, the bows and arrows, the clubs and spears. For seven years they will use them to make fires. <sup>10</sup> They will not gather wood from the countryside or cut it down from the forests, for they will use the weapons to make fires. They will take the loot from those who looted them and plunder those who plundered them.” This is the declaration of the Lord GOD.

<sup>11†</sup> “Now on that day I will give Gog a burial place there in Israel — the Valley of the Travelers <sup>B</sup> east of the Sea. It will block those who travel through, for Gog and all his hordes will be buried there. So it will be called the Valley of Hamon-gog. <sup>12</sup> The house of Israel will spend seven months burying them in order to cleanse the land. <sup>13</sup> All the people of the land will bury them and their fame will spread on the day I display My glory.” This is the declaration of the Lord GOD.

<sup>14</sup> “They will appoint men on a full-time basis to pass through the land and bury the invaders <sup>C</sup> who remain on the surface of the ground, in order to cleanse it. They will make their search at the end of the seven months.

<sup>15</sup> When they pass through the land and one of them sees a human bone, he will set up a marker next to it until the buriers have buried it in the Valley of Hamon-gog. <sup>16</sup> There will even be a city named Hamonah there. So they will cleanse the land.

<sup>17</sup> “Son of man, this is what the Lord GOD says: Tell every kind of bird and all the wild animals: Assemble and come! Gather from all around to My sacrificial feast that I am slaughtering for you, a great feast on the mountains of Israel; you will eat flesh and drink blood. <sup>18</sup> You will eat the flesh of mighty men and drink the blood of the earth’s princes: rams, lambs, male goats, and all the fattened bulls of Bashan. <sup>19</sup> You will eat fat until you are satisfied and drink blood until you are drunk, at My sacrificial feast that I have prepared for you. <sup>20</sup> At My table you will eat your fill of horses and riders, of mighty men and all the warriors.” This is the declaration of the Lord GOD.

Israel’s Restoration to God

<sup>21</sup> “I will display My glory among the nations, and all the nations will see the judgment I have executed and the hand I have laid on them. <sup>22</sup> From that day forward the house of Israel will know that I am Yahweh their God.

<sup>23</sup> And the nations will know that the house of Israel went into exile on account of their iniquity, because they dealt unfaithfully with Me. Therefore, I hid My face from them and handed them over to their enemies, so that they all fell by the sword. <sup>24</sup> I dealt with them according to their uncleanness and transgressions, and I hid My face from them.

<sup>25†</sup> “So this is what the Lord GOD says: Now I will restore the fortunes of Jacob and have compassion on the whole house of Israel, and I will be jealous for My holy name. <sup>26</sup> They will feel remorse for their disgrace and all the unfaithfulness they committed against Me, when they live securely in their land with no one to frighten them. <sup>27</sup> When I bring them back from the peoples and gather them from the countries of their enemies, I will demonstrate My holiness through them in the sight of many nations.

<sup>28</sup> They will know that I am Yahweh their God when I regather them to their own land after having exiled them among the nations. I will leave none of them behind. <sup>E</sup> <sup>29</sup> I will no longer hide My face from them, for I will pour out My Spirit on the house of Israel.” This is the declaration of the Lord GOD.

The New Temple

40† In the twenty-fifth year of our exile, at the beginning of the year, on the tenth day of the month in the fourteenth year after Jerusalem had been captured, on that very day the LORD's hand was on me, and He brought me there.<sup>2</sup> In visions of God He took me to the land of Israel and set me down on a very high mountain. On its southern slope was a structure resembling a city.<sup>3</sup> He brought me there, and I saw a man whose appearance was like bronze, with a linen cord and a measuring rod in his hand. He was standing by the gate.<sup>4</sup> He spoke to me: "Son of man, look with your eyes, listen with your ears, and pay attention to everything I am going to show you, for you have been brought here so that I might show it to you. Report everything you see to the house of Israel."

The Wall and Outer Gates

<sup>5†</sup> Now there was a wall surrounding the outside of the temple. The measuring rod in the man's hand was six units of 21 inches; each unit was the standard length plus three inches.<sup>A</sup> He measured the thickness of the wall structure; it was about 10 feet,<sup>B</sup> and its height was the same.<sup>C</sup><sup>6</sup> Then he came to the gate that faced east and climbed its steps. He measured the threshold of the gate; it was 10 feet deep — the first threshold was 10 feet deep.<sup>7</sup> Each recess was about 10 feet<sup>D</sup> long and 10 feet<sup>E</sup> deep, and there was a space of 8 3/4 feet<sup>F</sup> between the recesses. The inner threshold of the gate on the temple side next to the gate's portico was about 10 feet.<sup>G</sup><sup>8</sup> Next he measured the portico of the gate;<sup>9</sup> it was 14 feet,<sup>H</sup> and its pilasters were 3 1/2 feet.<sup>I</sup> The portico of the gate was on the temple side.

<sup>10</sup> There were three recesses on each side of the east gate, each with the same measurements, and the pilasters on either side also had the same measurements.<sup>11</sup> Then he measured the width of the gate's entrance; it was 17 1/2 feet,<sup>J</sup> while the width<sup>K</sup> of the gateway was 22 3/4 feet.<sup>L</sup><sup>12</sup> There was a barrier of 21 inches<sup>M</sup> in front of the recesses on both sides, and the recesses on each side were 10 1/2 feet<sup>N</sup> square.<sup>13</sup> Then he measured the gateway from the roof of one recess to the roof of the opposite one; the distance was 43 3/4 feet.<sup>O</sup> The openings of the recesses faced each other.<sup>14</sup> Next, he measured the pilasters — 105 feet.<sup>P</sup> The gate extended around to the pilaster of the court. <sup>Q</sup> <sup>15</sup> The distance from the front of the gate at the entrance to the front of the gate's portico on the inside was 87 1/2 feet. <sup>R</sup> <sup>16</sup> The recesses and their pilasters had beveled windows all around the inside of the gateway. The porticoes also had windows all around on the inside. Each pilaster was decorated with palm trees.

<sup>17</sup> Then he brought me into the outer court, and there were chambers and a paved surface laid out all around the court. Thirty chambers faced the pavement, <sup>18</sup> which flanked the gates and corresponded to the length of the gates; this was the lower pavement. <sup>19</sup> Then he measured the distance from the front of the lower gate to the exterior front of the inner court; it was 175 feet. <sup>S</sup> This was the east; next the north is described.

<sup>24</sup> He brought me to the south side, and there was also a gate on the south. He measured its pilasters and portico; they had the same measurements as the others. <sup>25</sup> Both the gate and its portico had windows all around, like the other windows. It was 87 1/2 feet <sup>W</sup> long and 43 3/4 feet <sup>X</sup> wide. <sup>26</sup> Its stairway had seven steps, and its portico was ahead of them. It had palm trees on its pilasters, one on each side. <sup>27</sup> The inner court had a gate on the south. He measured from gate to gate on the south; it was 175 feet. <sup>Y</sup>

The Inner Gates

<sup>28</sup> Then he brought me to the inner court through the south gate. When he measured the south gate, it had the same measurements as the others. <sup>29</sup> Its recesses, pilasters, and portico had the same measurements as the others. Both it and its portico had windows all around. It was 87 1/2 feet <sup>Z</sup> long and 43 3/4 feet <sup>A</sup> wide. <sup>30</sup> (There were porticoes all around, 43 3/4 feet long and 8 3/4 feet <sup>B</sup> wide. ) <sup>31†</sup> Its portico faced the outer court, and its pilasters were decorated with palm trees. Its stairway had eight steps.

<sup>32</sup> Then he brought me to the inner court on the east side. When he measured the gate, it had the same measurements as the others. <sup>33</sup> Its recesses, pilasters, and portico had the same measurements as the others. Both it and its portico had windows all around. It was 87 1/2 feet <sup>C</sup> long and 43 3/4 feet <sup>D</sup> wide. <sup>34</sup> Its portico faced the outer court, and its pilasters were decorated with palm trees on each side. Its stairway had eight steps.

<sup>35</sup> Then he brought me to the north gate. When he measured it, it had the same measurements as the others, <sup>36</sup> as did its recesses, pilasters, and portico. It also had windows all around. It was 87 1/2 feet <sup>E</sup> long and 43 3/4 feet <sup>F</sup> wide. <sup>37</sup> Its portico faced the outer court, and its pilasters were decorated with palm trees on each side. Its stairway had eight steps.

Rooms for Preparing Sacrifices

<sup>38</sup> There was a chamber whose door opened into the portico of the gate. The •burnt offering was to be washed there. <sup>39</sup> Inside the portico of the gate there were two tables on each side, on which to slaughter the burnt offering, •sin offering, and •restitution offering. <sup>40</sup> Outside, as one approaches the entrance of the north gate, there were two tables on one side and two more tables on the other side of the gate's portico. <sup>41</sup> So there were four tables inside the gate and four outside, eight tables in all on which the slaughtering was to be done. <sup>42</sup> There were also four tables of cut stone for the burnt offering, each 31 1/2 inches <sup>G</sup> long, 31 1/2 inches wide, and 21 inches <sup>H</sup> high. The utensils used to slaughter the burnt offerings and other sacrifices were placed on them. <sup>43</sup> There were three-inch <sup>I</sup> hooks <sup>J</sup> fastened all around the inside of the room, and the flesh of the offering was to be laid on the tables.

Rooms for Singers and Priests

<sup>44</sup> Outside the inner gate, within the inner court, there were chambers for the singers: one beside the north gate, facing south, and another beside the south gate, facing north. <sup>45</sup> Then the man said to me: “This chamber that faces south is for the priests who keep charge of the temple. <sup>46</sup> The chamber that faces north is for the priests who keep charge of the altar. These are the sons of Zadok, the ones from the sons of Levi who may approach the LORD to serve Him.” <sup>47</sup> Next he measured the court. It was square, 175 feet <sup>K</sup> long and 175 feet wide. The altar was in front of the temple.

<sup>48</sup> Then he brought me to the portico of the temple and measured the pilasters of the portico; they were  $8 \frac{3}{4}$  feet <sup>L</sup> thick on each side. The width of the gateway was  $24 \frac{1}{2}$  feet, <sup>M</sup> and the side walls of the gate were  $5 \frac{1}{4}$  feet <sup>N</sup> wide on each side. <sup>49</sup> The portico was 35 feet <sup>O</sup> across and 21 feet <sup>P</sup> deep, and 10 steps led up to it. There were pillars by the pilasters, one on each side.

Inside the Temple

41 †Next he brought me into the great hall and measured the pilasters; on each side the width of the pilaster was 10 1/2 feet. <sup>2</sup> The width of the entrance was 17 1/2 feet, <sup>B</sup> and the side walls of the entrance were 8 3/4 feet <sup>C</sup> wide on each side. He also measured the length of the great hall, 70 feet, <sup>D</sup> and the width, 35 feet. <sup>E</sup>, <sup>3</sup> He went inside the next room and measured the pilasters at the entrance; they were 3 1/2 feet <sup>F</sup> wide. The entrance was 10 1/2 feet <sup>G</sup> wide, and the width of the entrance's side walls on each side was 12 1/4 feet. <sup>H</sup> <sup>4</sup> He then measured the length of the room adjacent to the great hall, 35 feet, <sup>I</sup> and the width, 35 feet. And he said to me, "This is the most holy place."

Outside the Temple

<sup>8</sup> I saw that the temple had a raised platform surrounding it; this foundation for the side rooms was 10 1/2 feet high. <sup>N</sup>, <sup>9</sup> The thickness of the outer wall of the side rooms was 8 3/4 feet. <sup>O</sup> The free space between the side rooms of the temple <sup>10</sup> and the outer chambers was 35 feet <sup>P</sup> wide all around the temple. <sup>11</sup> The side rooms opened into the free space, one entrance toward the north and another to the south. The area of free space was 8 3/4 feet <sup>Q</sup> wide all around.

<sup>13</sup> Then the man measured the temple; it was 175 feet <sup>U</sup> long. In addition, the temple yard and the building, including its walls, were 175 feet long. <sup>14</sup> The width of the front of the temple along with the temple yard to the east was 175 feet. <sup>15</sup> Next he measured the length of the building facing the temple yard to the west, with its galleries <sup>V</sup> on each side; it was 175 feet.

Interior Wooden Structures

The interior of the great hall and the porticoes of the court — <sup>16</sup> the thresholds, the beveled windows, and the balconies all around with their three levels opposite the threshold — were overlaid with wood on all sides. They were paneled from the ground to the windows (but the windows were covered), <sup>17</sup> reaching to the top of the entrance, and as far as the inner temple and on the outside. On every wall all around, on the inside and outside, was a pattern <sup>18</sup> carved with •cherubim and palm trees. There was a palm tree between each pair of cherubim. Each cherub had two faces: <sup>19</sup> a human face turned toward the palm tree on one side, and a lion's face turned toward it on the other. They were carved throughout the temple on all sides. <sup>20</sup> Cherubim and palm trees were carved from the ground to the top of the entrance and on the wall of the great hall.

<sup>23</sup> The great hall and the sanctuary each had a double door, <sup>24</sup> and each of the doors had two swinging panels. There were two panels for one door and two for the other. <sup>25</sup> Cherubim and palm trees were carved on the doors of the great hall like those carved on the walls. There was a wooden canopy <sup>Z</sup>, outside, in front of the portico. <sup>26</sup> There were beveled windows and palm trees on both sides, on the side walls of the portico, the side rooms of the temple, and the canopies. <sup>A</sup>

The Priests' Chambers

42 †Then the man led me out by way of the north gate into the outer court. He brought me to the group of chambers opposite the temple yard and opposite the building to the north. <sup>2</sup> Along the length of the chambers, which was 175 feet, <sup>A</sup>, there was an entrance on the north; the width was 87 1/2 feet. <sup>B</sup> <sup>3</sup> Opposite the 35 foot space <sup>C</sup> belonging to the inner court and opposite the paved surface belonging to the outer court, the structure rose gallery by gallery in three tiers. <sup>4</sup> In front of the chambers was a walkway toward the inside, 17 1/2 feet <sup>D</sup> wide and 175 feet <sup>E</sup> long, and their entrances were on the north. <sup>5</sup> The upper chambers were narrower because the galleries took away more space from them than from the lower and middle stories of the building. <sup>6</sup> For they were arranged in three stories and had no pillars like the pillars of the courts; therefore the upper chambers were set back from the ground more than the lower and middle stories. <sup>7</sup> A wall on the outside ran in front of the chambers, parallel to them, toward the outer court; it was 87 1/2 feet <sup>F</sup> long. <sup>8</sup> For the chambers on the outer court were 87 1/2 feet long, while those facing the great hall were 175 feet <sup>G</sup> long. <sup>9</sup> At the base of these chambers there was an entryway on the east side as one enters them from the outer court.

<sup>10</sup> In the thickness of the wall of the court toward the south, there were chambers facing the temple yard and the western building, <sup>11</sup> with a passageway in front of them, just like the chambers that faced north. Their length and width, as well as all their exits, measurements, and entrances, were identical. <sup>12</sup> The entrance at the beginning of the passageway, the way in front of the corresponding <sup>H</sup> wall as one enters on the east side, was similar to the entrances of the chambers that were on the south side.

<sup>13</sup> Then the man said to me, “The northern and southern chambers that face the temple yard are the holy chambers where the priests who approach the LORD will eat the most holy offerings. There they will deposit the most holy offerings — the •grain offerings, •sin offerings, and •restitution offerings — for the place is holy. <sup>14</sup> Once the priests have entered, they must not go out from the holy area to the outer court until they have removed the clothes they minister in, for these are holy. They are to put on other clothes before they approach the public area.”

Outside Dimensions of the Temple Complex

<sup>15</sup> When he finished measuring inside the temple complex, he led me out by way of the gate that faced east and measured all around the complex.

<sup>20</sup> He measured the temple complex on all four sides. It had a wall all around it, 875 feet long and 875 feet wide, to separate the holy from the common.

Return of the LORD's Glory

43 †He led me to the gate, the one that faces east, <sup>2</sup> and I saw the glory of the God of Israel coming from the east. His voice sounded like the roar of mighty waters, and the earth shone with His glory. <sup>3</sup> The vision I saw was like the one I had seen when He came to destroy the city, and like the ones I had seen by the Chebar Canal. I fell facedown. <sup>4</sup> The glory of the LORD entered the temple by way of the gate that faced east. <sup>5</sup> Then the Spirit lifted me up and brought me to the inner court, and the glory of the LORD filled the temple.

<sup>6</sup> While the man was standing beside me, I heard someone speaking to me from the temple. <sup>7</sup> He said to me: “Son of man, this is the place of My throne and the place for the soles of My feet, where I will dwell among the Israelites forever. The house of Israel and their kings will no longer defile My holy name by their religious prostitution and by the corpses <sup>A</sup>, of their kings at their •high places. <sup>8</sup> Whenever they placed their threshold next to My threshold and their doorposts beside My doorposts, with only a wall between Me and them, they were defiling My holy name by the detestable acts they committed. So I destroyed them in My anger. <sup>9</sup> Now let them remove their prostitution and the corpses <sup>B</sup> of their kings far from Me, and I will dwell among them forever.

<sup>10</sup> “As for you, son of man, describe the temple to the house of Israel, so that they may be ashamed of their iniquities. Let them measure its pattern, <sup>11</sup> and they will be ashamed of all that they have done. Reveal the design of the temple to them — its layout with its exits and entrances — its complete design along with all its statutes, design specifications, and laws. Write it down in their sight so that they may observe its complete design and all its statutes and may carry them out. <sup>12</sup> This is the law of the temple: all its surrounding territory on top of the mountain will be especially holy. Yes, this is the law of the temple.

The Altar

deep and 21 inches wide, with a rim of nine inches <sup>E</sup> around its edge. This is the base of the altar. <sup>14</sup> The distance from the gutter on the ground to the lower ledge is 3 1/2 feet, <sup>F</sup> and the width of the ledge is 21 inches. <sup>G</sup> There are seven feet <sup>H</sup> from the small ledge to the large ledge, whose width is also 21 inches. <sup>15</sup> The altar hearth <sup>I</sup> is seven feet <sup>J</sup> high, and four horns project upward from the hearth. <sup>16</sup> The hearth is square, 21 feet <sup>K</sup> long by 21 feet wide. <sup>17</sup> The ledge is 24 1/2 feet <sup>L</sup> long by 24 1/2 feet wide, with four equal sides. The rim all around it is 10 1/2 inches, <sup>M</sup> and its gutter is 21 inches <sup>N</sup> all around it. The altar's steps face east."

<sup>18†</sup> Then He said to me: "Son of man, this is what the Lord GOD says: These are the statutes for the altar on the day it is constructed, so that •burnt offerings may be sacrificed on it and blood may be sprinkled on it: <sup>19</sup> You are to give a bull from the herd as a •sin offering to the Levitical priests who are from the offspring of Zadok, who approach Me in order to serve Me." This is the declaration of the Lord GOD. <sup>20</sup> "You must take some of its blood and apply it to the four horns of the altar, the four corners of the ledge, and all around the rim. In this way you will purify the altar and make •atonement for it. <sup>21</sup> Then you must take away the bull for the sin offering, and it must be burned outside the sanctuary in the place appointed for the temple.

<sup>22</sup> "On the second day you are to present an unblemished male goat as a sin offering. They will purify the altar just as they did with the bull. <sup>23</sup> When you have finished the purification, you are to present a young, unblemished bull and an unblemished ram from the flock. <sup>24</sup> You must present them before the LORD; the priests will throw salt on them and sacrifice them as a burnt offering to the LORD. <sup>25</sup> You will offer a goat for a sin offering each day for seven days. A young bull and a ram from the flock, both unblemished, must also be offered. <sup>26</sup> For seven days the priests are to make atonement for the altar and cleanse it. In this way they will consecrate it <sup>O</sup> <sup>27</sup> and complete the days of purification. Then on the eighth day and afterward, the priests will offer your burnt offerings and •fellowship offerings on the altar, and I will accept you." This is the declaration of the Lord GOD.

The Prince's Privilege

44 †The man then brought me back toward the sanctuary's outer gate that faced east, and it was closed. <sup>2</sup> The LORD said to me: "This gate will remain closed. It will not be opened, and no one will enter through it, because the LORD, the God of Israel, has entered through it. Therefore it will remain closed. <sup>3</sup> The prince himself will sit in the gateway to eat a meal before the LORD. He must enter by way of the portico of the gate and go out the same way."

<sup>4†</sup> Then the man brought me by way of the north gate to the front of the temple. I looked, and the glory of the LORD filled His temple. And I fell facedown. <sup>5</sup> The LORD said to me: "Son of man, pay attention; look with your eyes and listen with your ears to everything I tell you about all the statutes and laws of the LORD's temple. Take careful note of the entrance of the temple along with all the exits of the sanctuary.

The Levites' Duties and Privileges

<sup>6</sup> "Say to the rebellious people, the house of Israel: This is what the Lord GOD says: I have had enough of all your detestable practices, house of Israel. <sup>7</sup> When you brought in foreigners, uncircumcised in both heart and flesh, to occupy My sanctuary, you defiled My temple while you offered My food — the fat and the blood. You broke My covenant by all your detestable practices. <sup>8</sup> You have not kept charge of My holy things but have appointed others to keep charge of My sanctuary for you.

<sup>9</sup> "This is what the Lord GOD says: No foreigner, uncircumcised in heart and flesh, may enter My sanctuary, not even a foreigner who is among the Israelites. <sup>10</sup> Surely the Levites who wandered away from Me when Israel went astray, and who strayed from Me after their idols, will bear the consequences of their sin. <sup>11</sup> Yet they will occupy My sanctuary, serving as guards at the temple gates and ministering at the temple. They will slaughter the •burnt offerings and other sacrifices for the people and will stand before them to serve them. <sup>12</sup> Because they ministered to the house of Israel before their idols and became a sinful stumbling block to them, therefore I swore an oath <sup>A</sup> against them" — this is the declaration of the Lord GOD — “that they would bear the consequences of their sin. <sup>13</sup> They must not approach Me to serve Me as priests or come near any of My holy things or the most holy things. They will bear their disgrace and the consequences of the detestable acts they committed. <sup>14</sup> Yet I will make them responsible for the duties of the temple — for all its work and everything done in it.

The Priests’ Duties and Privileges

<sup>15†</sup> “But the Levitical priests descended from Zadok, who kept charge of My sanctuary when the Israelites went astray from Me, will approach Me to serve Me. They will stand before Me to offer Me fat and blood.” This is the declaration of the Lord GOD. <sup>16</sup> “They are the ones who may enter My sanctuary and draw near to My table to serve Me. They will keep My mandate. <sup>17</sup> When they enter the gates of the inner court they must wear linen garments; they must not have on them anything made of wool when they minister at the gates of the inner court and within it. <sup>18</sup> They must wear linen turbans on their heads and linen undergarments around their waists. They are not to put on anything that makes them sweat. <sup>19</sup> Before they go out to the outer court, to the people, they must take off the clothes they have been ministering in, leave them in the holy chambers, and dress in other clothes so that they do not transmit holiness to the people through their clothes.

<sup>24</sup> “In a dispute, they will officiate as judges and decide the case according to My ordinances. They must observe My laws and statutes regarding all My appointed festivals, and keep My Sabbaths holy. <sup>25</sup> A priest may not come near a dead person so that he becomes defiled.

However, he may defile himself for a father, a mother, a son, a daughter, a brother, or an unmarried sister. <sup>26</sup> After he is cleansed, he is to count off seven days for himself. <sup>27</sup> On the day he goes into the sanctuary, into the inner court to minister in the sanctuary, he must present his •sin offering.” This is the declaration of the Lord GOD.

<sup>28</sup> “This will be their inheritance: I am their inheritance. You are to give them no possession in Israel: I am their possession. <sup>29</sup> They will eat the •grain offering, the sin offering, and the •restitution offering. Everything in Israel that is permanently dedicated to the LORD will belong to them. <sup>30</sup> The best of all the •firstfruits of every kind and contribution of every kind from all your gifts will belong to the priests. You are to give your first batch of dough to the priest so that a blessing may rest on your homes. <sup>31</sup> The priests may not eat any bird or animal that died naturally or was mauled by wild beasts.

The Sacred Portion of the Land

45 †“When you divide the land by lot as an inheritance, you must set aside a donation to the LORD, a holy portion of the land, 8  $\frac{1}{3}$  miles <sup>A</sup> long and 6  $\frac{2}{3}$  miles wide. This entire tract of land will be holy. <sup>2</sup> In this area there will be a square section <sup>B</sup> for the sanctuary, 875 by 875 feet, <sup>C</sup>, with 87  $\frac{1}{2}$  feet <sup>D</sup> of open space all around it. <sup>3</sup> From this holy portion, <sup>E</sup> you will measure off an area 8  $\frac{1}{3}$  miles <sup>F</sup> long and 3  $\frac{1}{3}$  miles <sup>G</sup> wide, in which the sanctuary, the most holy place, will stand. <sup>H</sup> <sup>4</sup> It will be a holy area of the land to be used by the priests who minister in the sanctuary, who draw near to serve the LORD. It will be a place for their houses, as well as a holy area for the sanctuary. <sup>5</sup> There will be another area 8  $\frac{1}{3}$  miles <sup>I</sup> long and 3  $\frac{1}{3}$  miles <sup>J</sup> wide for the Levites who minister in the temple; it will be their possession for towns to live in.

<sup>6</sup> “As the property of the city, you must set aside an area 1  $\frac{2}{3}$  of a mile <sup>K</sup> wide and 8  $\frac{1}{3}$  miles <sup>L</sup> long, adjacent to the holy donation of land. It will be for the whole house of Israel. <sup>7</sup> And the prince will have the area on each side of the holy donation of land and the city’s property, adjacent to the holy donation and the city’s property, stretching to the west on the west side and to the east on the east side. Its length will correspond to one of the tribal portions from the western boundary to the eastern boundary. <sup>8</sup> This will be his land as a possession in Israel. My princes will no longer oppress My people but give the rest of the land to the house of Israel according to their tribes.

<sup>9†</sup> “This is what the Lord GOD says: You have gone too far, <sup>M</sup>, princes of Israel! Put away violence and oppression and do what is just and right. Put an end to your evictions of My people.” This is the declaration of the Lord GOD. <sup>10</sup> “You must have honest scales, an honest dry measure, <sup>N</sup> and an honest liquid measure. <sup>O</sup> <sup>11</sup> The dry measure <sup>P</sup> and the liquid measure <sup>Q</sup> will be uniform, with the liquid measure containing 5  $\frac{1}{2}$  gallons <sup>R</sup> and the dry measure holding half a bushel. <sup>S</sup> Their measurement will be a tenth of the standard larger capacity measure. <sup>T</sup> <sup>12</sup> The •shekel will weigh 20 gerahs. Your mina will equal 60 shekels.

The People’s Contribution to the Sacrifices

<sup>18</sup> “This is what the Lord GOD says: In the first month, on the first day of the month, you are to take a young, unblemished bull and purify the sanctuary. <sup>19</sup> The priest must take some of the blood from the sin offering and apply it to the temple doorposts, the four corners of the altar’s ledge, and the doorposts of the gate to the inner court. <sup>20</sup> You must do the same thing on the seventh day of the month for everyone who sins unintentionally or through ignorance. In this way you will make atonement for the temple.

<sup>21</sup> “In the first month, on the fourteenth day of the month, you are to celebrate the •Passover, a festival of seven days during which unleavened bread will be eaten. <sup>22</sup> On that day the prince will provide a bull as a sin offering on behalf of himself and all the people of the land. <sup>23</sup> During the seven days of the festival, he will provide seven bulls and seven rams without blemish as a burnt offering to the LORD on each of the seven days, along with a male goat each day for a sin offering. <sup>24</sup> He will also provide a grain offering of half a bushel <sup>Z</sup> per bull and half a bushel per ram, along with a gallon <sup>A</sup> of oil for every half bushel. <sup>25</sup> At the festival that begins on the fifteenth day of the seventh month, he will provide the same things for seven days — the same sin offerings, burnt offerings, grain offerings, and oil.

Sacrifices at Appointed Times

46 †“This is what the Lord GOD says: The gate of the inner court that faces east must be closed during the six days of work, but it will be opened on the Sabbath day and opened on the day of the New Moon. <sup>2</sup> The prince should enter from the outside by way of the gate’s portico and stand at the doorpost of the gate while the priests sacrifice his •burnt offerings and •fellowship offerings. He will bow in worship at the threshold of the gate and then depart, but the gate must not be closed until evening. <sup>3</sup> The people of the land will also bow in worship before the LORD at the entrance of that gate on the Sabbaths and New Moons.

<sup>4</sup> “The burnt offering that the prince presents to the LORD on the Sabbath day is to be six unblemished lambs and an unblemished ram. <sup>5</sup> The •grain offering will be half a bushel <sup>A</sup> with the ram, and the grain offering with the lambs will be whatever he wants to give, as well as a gallon <sup>B</sup> of oil for every half bushel. <sup>6</sup> On the day of the New Moon, the burnt offering is to be a young, unblemished bull, as well as six lambs and a ram without blemish. <sup>7</sup> He will provide a grain offering of half a bushel <sup>C</sup> with the bull, half a bushel with the ram, and whatever he can afford with the lambs, together with a gallon <sup>D</sup> of oil for every half bushel. <sup>8</sup> When the prince enters, he must go in by way of the gate’s portico and go out the same way.

<sup>9</sup> “When the people of the land come before the LORD at the appointed times, <sup>E</sup>, whoever enters by way of the north gate to worship must go out by way of the south gate, and whoever enters by way of the south gate must go out by way of the north gate. No one must return through the gate by which he entered, but must go out by the opposite gate. <sup>10</sup> When the people enter, the prince will enter with them, and when they leave, he will leave. <sup>11</sup> At the festivals and appointed times, the grain offering will be half a bushel <sup>F</sup> with the bull, half a bushel with the ram, and whatever he wants to give with the lambs, along with a gallon <sup>G</sup> of oil for every half bushel.

<sup>12</sup> “When the prince makes a freewill offering, whether a burnt offering or a fellowship offering as a freewill offering to the LORD, the gate that faces east must be opened for him. He is to offer his burnt offering or fellowship offering just as he does on the Sabbath day. Then he will go out, and the gate must be closed after he leaves.

<sup>13</sup> “You must offer an unblemished year-old male lamb as a daily burnt offering to the LORD; you will offer it every morning. <sup>14</sup> You must also prepare a grain offering every morning along with it: three quarts, <sup>H</sup> with one-third of a gallon <sup>I</sup> of oil to moisten the fine flour — a grain offering to the LORD. This is a permanent statute to be observed regularly. <sup>15</sup> They will offer the lamb, the grain offering, and the oil every morning as a regular burnt offering.

Transfer of Royal Lands

<sup>16</sup> “This is what the Lord GOD says: If the prince gives a gift to each of his sons as their inheritance, it will belong to his sons. It will become their property by inheritance. <sup>17</sup> But if he gives a gift from his inheritance to one of his servants, it will belong to that servant until the year of freedom, when it will revert to the prince. His inheritance belongs only to his sons; it is theirs. <sup>18</sup> The prince must not take any of the people’s inheritance, evicting them from their property. He is to provide an inheritance for his sons from his own property, so that none of My people will be displaced from his own property.”

The Temple Kitchens

<sup>19†</sup> Then he brought me through the entrance that was at the side of the gate, into the priests’ holy chambers, which faced north. I saw a place there at the far western end. <sup>20</sup> He said to me, “This is the place where the priests will boil the •restitution offering and the •sin offering, and where they will bake the grain offering, so that they do not bring them into the outer court and transmit holiness to the people.” <sup>21</sup> Next he brought me into the outer court and led me past its four corners. There was a separate court in each of its corners. <sup>22</sup> In the four corners of the outer court there were enclosed <sup>J</sup> courts, 70 feet <sup>K</sup> long by 52 1/2 feet <sup>L</sup> wide. All four corner areas had the same dimensions. <sup>23</sup> There was a stone wall <sup>M</sup> around the inside of them, around the four of them, with ovens built at the base of the walls on all sides.<sup>24</sup> He said to me: “These are the kitchens where those who minister at the temple will cook the people’s sacrifices.”

The Life-Giving River

47 † Then he brought me back to the entrance of the temple and there was water flowing from under the threshold of the temple toward the east, for the temple faced east. The water was coming down from under the south side of the threshold of the temple, south of the altar. <sup>2</sup> Next he brought me out by way of the north gate and led me around the outside to the outer gate that faced east; there the water was trickling from the south side. <sup>3</sup> As the man went out east with a measuring line in his hand, he measured off a third of a mile <sup>A</sup> and led me through the water. It came up to my ankles. <sup>4</sup> Then he measured off a third of a mile <sup>B</sup> and led me through the water. It came up to my knees. He measured off another third of a mile <sup>C</sup> and led me through the water. It came up to my waist. <sup>5</sup> Again he measured off a third of a mile <sup>D</sup>, and it was a river that I could not cross on foot. For the water had risen; it was deep enough to swim in, a river that could not be crossed on foot.

<sup>6</sup> He asked me, “Do you see this, son of man?” Then he led me back to the bank of the river. <sup>7</sup> When I had returned, I saw a very large number of trees along both sides of the riverbank. <sup>8</sup> He said to me, “This water flows out to the eastern region and goes down to the •Arabah. When it enters the sea, the sea of foul water, <sup>E</sup> the water of the sea becomes fresh. <sup>9</sup> Every kind of living creature that swarms will live wherever the river flows, and there will be a huge number of fish because this water goes there. Since the water will become fresh, there will be life everywhere the river goes. <sup>10</sup> Fishermen will stand beside it from En-ge-di to En-eglaim. These will become places where nets are spread out to dry. Their fish will consist of many different kinds, like the fish of the Mediterranean Sea. <sup>11</sup> Yet its swamps and marshes will not be healed; they will be left for salt. <sup>12</sup> All kinds of trees providing food will grow along both banks of the river. Their leaves will not wither, and their fruit will not fail. Each month they will bear fresh fruit because the water comes from the sanctuary. Their fruit will be used for food and their leaves for medicine.”

The Borders of the Land

<sup>13†</sup> This is what the Lord GOD says: “This is the border you will use to divide the land as an inheritance for the 12 tribes of Israel. Joseph will receive two shares. <sup>14</sup> You will inherit it in equal portions, since I swore <sup>F</sup> to give it to your ancestors. So this land will fall to you as an inheritance.

On the north side it will extend from the Mediterranean Sea by way of Hethlon and Lebo-hamath to Zedad, <sup>16</sup> Berothah, and Sibraim (which is between the border of Damascus and the border of Hamath), as far as Hazer-hatticon, which is on the border of Hauran. <sup>17</sup> So the border will run from the sea to Hazar-enon at the border of Damascus, with the territory of Hamath to the north. This will be the northern side.

<sup>18</sup> On the east side it will run between Hauran and Damascus, along the Jordan between Gilead and the land of Israel; you will measure from the northern border to the eastern sea. This will be the eastern side.

<sup>19</sup> On the south side it will run from Tamar to the waters of Meribath-kadesh, and on to the Brook of Egypt as far as the Mediterranean Sea. This will be the southern side.

<sup>20</sup> On the west side the Mediterranean Sea will be the border, from the southern border up to a point opposite Lebo-hamath. This will be the western side.

<sup>21</sup> “You are to divide this land among yourselves according to the tribes of Israel. <sup>22</sup> You will allot it as an inheritance for yourselves and for the foreigners living among you, who have fathered children among you. You will treat them <sup>G</sup> like native-born Israelites; along with you, they will be allotted an inheritance among the tribes of Israel. <sup>23</sup> In whatever tribe the foreigner lives, you will assign his inheritance there.” This is the declaration of the Lord GOD.

The Tribal Allotments

48 “Now these are the names of the tribes:

From the northern end, along the road of Hethlon, to Lebo-hamath as far as Hazar-enon, at the northern border of Damascus, alongside Hamath and extending from the eastern side to the sea, will be Dan — one portion.

<sup>2</sup> Next to the territory of Dan, from the east side to the west, will be Asher — one portion.

<sup>3</sup> Next to the territory of Asher, from the east side to the west, will be Naphtali — one portion.

<sup>4</sup> Next to the territory of Naphtali, from the east side to the west, will be Manasseh — one portion.

<sup>5</sup> Next to the territory of Manasseh, from the east side to the west, will be Ephraim — one portion.

<sup>6</sup> Next to the territory of Ephraim, from the east side to the west, will be Reuben — one portion.

<sup>7</sup> Next to the territory of Reuben, from the east side to the west, will be Judah — one portion.

<sup>8</sup> “Next to the territory of Judah, from the east side to the west, will be the portion you donate to the LORD, 8 1/3 miles <sup>A</sup> wide, and as long as one of the tribal portions from the east side to the west. The sanctuary will be in the middle of it.

<sup>11</sup> It is for the consecrated priests, the sons of Zadok, who kept My charge and did not go astray as the Levites did when the Israelites went astray. <sup>12</sup> It will be a special donation for them out of the holy donation of the land, a most holy place adjacent to the territory of the Levites.

<sup>15</sup> “The remaining area,  $1\frac{2}{3}$  of a mile <sup>L</sup> wide and  $8\frac{1}{3}$  miles <sup>M</sup> long, will be for common use by the city, for both residential and open space. The city will be in the middle of it. <sup>16</sup> These are the city’s measurements:

$1\frac{1}{2}$  miles <sup>N</sup> on the north side;
 $1\frac{1}{2}$  miles <sup>O</sup> on the south side;
 $1\frac{1}{2}$  miles <sup>P</sup> on the east side;
and  $1\frac{1}{2}$  miles <sup>Q</sup> on the west side.

<sup>17</sup> The city’s open space will extend:

425 feet <sup>R</sup> to the north,
425 feet <sup>S</sup> to the south,
425 feet <sup>T</sup> to the east,
and 425 feet <sup>U</sup> to the west.

<sup>18</sup> “The remainder of the length alongside the holy donation will be  $3\frac{1}{3}$  miles <sup>V</sup> to the east and  $3\frac{1}{3}$  miles <sup>W</sup> to the west. It will run alongside the holy donation. Its produce will be food for the workers of the city. <sup>19</sup> The city’s workers from all the tribes of Israel will cultivate it. <sup>20</sup> The entire donation will be  $8\frac{1}{3}$  miles <sup>X</sup> by  $8\frac{1}{3}$  miles; <sup>Y</sup> you are to set apart the holy donation along with the city property as a square area.

<sup>21</sup> “The remaining area on both sides of the holy donation and the city property will belong to the prince. He will own the land adjacent to the tribal portions, next to the  $8\frac{1}{3}$  miles <sup>Z</sup> of the donation as far as the eastern border and <sup>A</sup> next to the  $8\frac{1}{3}$  miles <sup>B</sup> of the donation as far as the western border. The holy donation and the sanctuary of the temple will be in the middle of it. <sup>22</sup> Except for the Levitical property and the city property in the middle of the area belonging to the prince, the area between the territory of Judah and that of Benjamin will belong to the prince.

From the east side to the west, will be Benjamin — one portion.

<sup>24</sup> Next to the territory of Benjamin, from the east side to the west, will be Simeon — one portion.

<sup>25</sup> Next to the territory of Simeon, from the east side to the west, will be Issachar — one portion.

<sup>26</sup> Next to the territory of Issachar, from the east side to the west, will be Zebulun — one portion.

<sup>27</sup> Next to the territory of Zebulun, from the east side to the west, will be Gad — one portion.

<sup>28</sup> Next to the territory of Gad toward the south side, the border will run from Tamar to the waters of Meribath-kadesh, to the Brook of Egypt, and out to the Mediterranean Sea. <sup>29</sup> This is the land you are to allot as an inheritance to Israel’s tribes, and these will be their portions.” This is the declaration of the Lord God.

The New City

On the north side, which measures 1 1/2 miles, <sup>C</sup> <sup>31</sup> there will be three gates facing north, the gates of the city being named for the tribes of Israel: one, the gate of Reuben; one, the gate of Judah; and one, the gate of Levi.

<sup>33</sup> On the south side, which measures 1 1/2 miles, <sup>E</sup> there will be three gates: one, the gate of Simeon; one, the gate of Issachar; and one, the gate of Zebulun.

<sup>35</sup> The perimeter of the city will be six miles, <sup>G</sup> and the name of the city from that day on will be: •Yahweh Is There.”

DANIEL

Daniel's Captivity in Babylon

1 † In the third year of the reign of Jehoiakim king of Judah, Nebuchadnezzar <sup>A</sup>, king of Babylon came to Jerusalem and laid siege to it. <sup>2</sup>† The Lord handed Jehoiakim king of Judah over to him, along with some of the vessels from the house of God. Nebuchadnezzar carried them to the land of Babylon, <sup>B</sup>, to the house of his god, <sup>C</sup> and put the vessels in the treasury of his god.

Faithfulness in Babylon

<sup>8</sup>† Daniel determined that he would not defile himself with the king’s food or with the wine he drank. So he asked permission from the chief official not to defile himself. <sup>9</sup> God had granted Daniel favor and compassion from the chief official, <sup>10</sup> yet he said to Daniel, “My lord the king assigned your food and drink. I’m afraid of what would happen if he saw your faces looking thinner than those of the other young men your age. You would endanger my life <sup>F</sup> with the king.”

<sup>11</sup> So Daniel said to the guard whom the chief official had assigned to Daniel, Hananiah, Mishael, and Azariah, <sup>12</sup> “Please test your servants for 10 days. Let us be given vegetables to eat and water to drink. <sup>13</sup> Then examine our appearance and the appearance of the young men who are eating the king’s food, and deal with your servants based on what you see.” <sup>14</sup> He agreed with them about this and tested them for 10 days. <sup>15†</sup> At the end of 10 days they looked better and healthier <sup>G</sup> than all the young men who were eating the king's food. <sup>16</sup> So the guard continued to remove their food and the wine they were to drink and gave them vegetables.

Faithfulness Rewarded

<sup>17</sup> God gave these four young men knowledge and understanding in every kind of literature and wisdom. Daniel also understood visions and dreams of every kind. <sup>18†</sup> At the end of the time that the king had said to present them, the chief official presented them to Nebuchadnezzar. <sup>19</sup> The king interviewed them, and among all of them, no one was found equal to Daniel, Hananiah, Mishael, and Azariah. So they began to serve in the king's court. <sup>20</sup> In every matter of wisdom and understanding that the king consulted them about, he found them 10 times <sup>H</sup>, better than all the diviners, priests and mediums in his entire kingdom. <sup>21†</sup> Daniel remained there until the first year of King Cyrus.

Nebuchadnezzar's Dream

2† In the second year of his reign, Nebuchadnezzar had dreams that troubled him, and sleep deserted him. 2† So the king gave orders to summon the diviner-priests, mediums, sorcerers, and Chaldeans to tell the king his dreams. When they came and stood before the king, 3 he said to them, “I have had a dream and am anxious to understand it.”

4† The Chaldeans spoke to the king (Aramaic begins here): “May the king live forever. Tell your servants the dream, and we will give the interpretation.”

5† The king replied to the Chaldeans, “My word is final: If you don’t tell me the dream and its interpretation, you will be torn limb from limb, <sup>A</sup> and your houses will be made a garbage dump. 6 But if you make the dream and its interpretation known to me, you’ll receive gifts, a reward, and great honor from me. So make the dream and its interpretation known to me.”

7 They answered a second time, “May the king tell the dream to his servants, and we will give the interpretation.”

8 The king replied, “I know for certain you are trying to gain some time, because you see that my word is final. 9 If you don’t tell me the dream, there is one decree for you. You have conspired to tell me something false or fraudulent until the situation changes. So tell me the dream and I will know you can give me its interpretation.”

10 The Chaldeans answered the king, “No one on earth can make known what the king requests. Consequently, no king, however great and powerful, has ever asked anything like this of any diviner-priest, medium, or Chaldean. 11 What the king is asking is so difficult that no one can make it known to him except the gods, whose dwelling is not with mortals.”

12 Because of this, the king became violently angry and gave orders to destroy all the wise men of Babylon. 13 The decree was issued that the wise men were to be executed, and they searched for Daniel and his friends, to execute them.

<sup>17</sup> Then Daniel went to his house and told his friends Hananiah, Mishael, and Azariah about the matter, <sup>18</sup> urging them to ask the God of heaven for mercy concerning this mystery, so Daniel and his friends would not be killed with the rest of Babylon's wise men. <sup>19</sup> The mystery was then revealed to Daniel in a vision at night, and Daniel praised the God of heaven <sup>20</sup> and declared:

May the name of God
be praised forever and ever,
for wisdom and power belong to Him.

<sup>21</sup> He changes the times and seasons;
He removes kings and establishes kings.
He gives wisdom to the wise and knowledge to those who have understanding.

<sup>22</sup> He reveals the deep and hidden things;
He knows what is in the darkness,
and light dwells with Him.

<sup>23</sup> I offer thanks and praise to You,
God of my fathers,
because You have given me
wisdom and power.
And now You have let me know
what we asked of You,

for You have let us know
the king's mystery. <sup>D</sup>

<sup>24</sup> Therefore Daniel went to Arioch, whom the king had assigned to destroy the wise men of Babylon. He came and said to him, "Don't kill the wise men of Babylon! Bring me before the king, and I will give him the interpretation."

<sup>25</sup> Then Arioch quickly brought Daniel before the king and said to him, "I have found a man among the Judean exiles who can let the king know the interpretation."

<sup>26</sup> The king said in reply to Daniel, whose name was Belteshazzar, "Are you able to tell me the dream I had and its interpretation? "

<sup>27†</sup> Daniel answered the king: "No wise man, medium, diviner-priest, or astrologer is able to make known to the king the mystery he asked about. <sup>28†</sup> But there is a God in heaven who reveals mysteries, and He has let King Nebuchadnezzar know what will happen in the last days. Your dream and the visions that came into your mind as you lay in bed were these: <sup>29</sup> Your Majesty, while you were in your bed, thoughts came to your mind about what will happen in the future. <sup>E</sup> The revealer of mysteries has let you know what will happen. <sup>30</sup> As for me, this mystery has been revealed to me, not because I have more wisdom than anyone living, but in order that the interpretation might be made known to the king, and that you may understand the thoughts of your mind.

The Dream's Interpretation

<sup>31†</sup> "My king, as you were watching, a colossal statue appeared. That statue, tall and dazzling, was standing in front of you, and its appearance was terrifying. <sup>32</sup> The head of the statue was pure gold, its chest and arms were silver, its stomach and thighs were bronze, <sup>33</sup> its legs were iron, and its feet were partly iron and partly fired clay. <sup>34</sup> As you were watching, a stone broke off without a hand touching it, <sup>F</sup> struck the statue on its feet of iron and fired clay, and crushed them. <sup>35</sup> Then the iron, the fired clay, the bronze, the silver, and the gold were shattered and became like chaff from the summer threshing floors. The wind carried them away, and not a trace of them could be found. But the stone that struck the statue became a great mountain and filled the whole earth.

<sup>37</sup> Your Majesty, you are king of kings. The God of heaven has given you sovereignty, power, strength, and glory. <sup>38</sup> Wherever people live — or wild animals, or birds of the air — He has handed them over to you and made you ruler over them all. You are the head of gold.

<sup>39</sup> “After you, there will arise another kingdom, inferior to yours, and then another, a third kingdom, of bronze, which will rule the whole earth.
<sup>40</sup> A fourth kingdom will be as strong as iron; for iron crushes and shatters everything, and like iron that smashes, it will crush and smash all the others. <sup>G</sup>, <sup>41</sup> You saw the feet and toes, partly of a potter’s fired clay and partly of iron — it will be a divided kingdom, though some of the strength of iron will be in it. You saw the iron mixed with clay, <sup>42</sup> and that the toes of the feet were partly iron and partly fired clay — part of the kingdom will be strong, and part will be brittle. <sup>43</sup> You saw the iron mixed with clay — the peoples will mix with one another <sup>H</sup> but will not hold together, just as iron does not mix with fired clay.

<sup>44†</sup> “In the days of those kings, the God of heaven will set up a kingdom that will never be destroyed, and this kingdom will not be left to another people. It will crush all these kingdoms and bring them to an end, but will itself endure forever. <sup>45</sup> You saw a stone break off from the mountain without a hand touching it, <sup>I</sup> and it crushed the iron, bronze, fired clay, silver, and gold. The great God has told the king what will happen in the future. <sup>J</sup> The dream is true, and its interpretation certain.”

Nebuchadnezzar’s Response

<sup>46†</sup> Then King Nebuchadnezzar fell down, paid homage to Daniel, and gave orders to present an offering and incense to him. <sup>47</sup> The king said to

Daniel, “Your God is indeed God of gods, Lord of kings, and a revealer of mysteries, since you were able to reveal this mystery.”<sup>48</sup> Then the king promoted Daniel and gave him many generous gifts. He made him ruler over the entire province of Babylon and chief governor over all the wise men of Babylon.<sup>49</sup> At Daniel’s request, the king appointed Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego to manage the province of Babylon. But Daniel remained at the king’s court.

Nebuchadnezzar's Gold Statue

3 † King Nebuchadnezzar made a gold statue, 90 feet high and nine feet wide. <sup>A</sup> He set it up on the plain of Dura in the province of Babylon.

<sup>2†</sup> King Nebuchadnezzar sent word to assemble the satraps, prefects, governors, advisers, treasurers, judges, magistrates, and all the rulers of the provinces to attend the dedication of the statue King Nebuchadnezzar had set up. <sup>3</sup> So the satraps, prefects, governors, advisers, treasurers, judges, magistrates, and all the rulers of the provinces assembled for the dedication of the statue the king had set up. Then they stood before the statue Nebuchadnezzar had set up.

<sup>7</sup> Therefore, when all the people heard the sound of the horn, flute, zither, lyre, harp, and every kind of music, people of every nation and language fell down and worshiped the gold statue that King Nebuchadnezzar had set up.

The Furnace of Blazing Fire

<sup>13</sup> Then in a furious rage Nebuchadnezzar gave orders to bring in Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego. So these men were brought before the king. <sup>14</sup> Nebuchadnezzar asked them, “Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego, is it true that you don’t serve my gods or worship the gold statue I have set up? <sup>15</sup> Now if you’re ready, when you hear the sound of the horn, flute, zither, lyre, harp, drum, and every kind of music, fall down and worship the statue I made. But if you don’t worship it, you will immediately be thrown into a furnace of blazing fire — and who is the god who can rescue you from my power? ”

<sup>19</sup> Then Nebuchadnezzar was filled with rage, and the expression on his face changed toward Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego. He gave orders to heat the furnace seven times more than was customary, <sup>20</sup> and he commanded some of the strongest soldiers in his army to tie up Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego and throw them into the furnace of blazing fire. <sup>21</sup> So these men, in their trousers, robes, head coverings, and other clothes, were tied up and thrown into the furnace of blazing fire. <sup>22</sup> Since the king’s command was so urgent <sup>G</sup>, and the furnace extremely hot, the raging flames <sup>H</sup> killed those men who carried Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego up. <sup>23</sup> And these three men, Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego fell, bound, into the furnace of blazing fire.

Delivered from the Fire

<sup>24</sup> Then King Nebuchadnezzar jumped up in alarm. He said to his advisers, “Didn’t we throw three men, bound, into the fire? ”

“Yes, of course, Your Majesty,” they replied to the king.

<sup>25†</sup> He exclaimed, “Look! I see four men, not tied, walking around in the fire unharmed; and the fourth looks like a son of the gods.” <sup>I</sup>

<sup>26</sup> Nebuchadnezzar then approached the door of the furnace of blazing fire and called: “Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego, you servants of the •Most High God — come out!” So Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego came out of the fire. <sup>27</sup> When the satraps, prefects, governors, and the king’s advisers gathered around, they saw that the fire had no effect on <sup>J</sup> the bodies of these men: not a hair of their heads was singed, their robes were unaffected, and there was no smell of fire on them. <sup>28</sup> Nebuchadnezzar exclaimed, “Praise to the God of Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego! He sent His angel <sup>K</sup>, and rescued His servants who trusted in Him. They violated the king’s command and risked their lives rather than serve or worship any god except their own God. <sup>29†</sup> Therefore I issue a decree that anyone of any people, nation, or language who says anything offensive against the God of Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego will be torn limb from limb and his house made a garbage dump. For there is no other god who is able to deliver like this.” <sup>30</sup> Then the king rewarded Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego in the province of Babylon.

Chapter 4 Nebuchadnezzar's Proclamation

To those of every people, nation, and language, who live in all the earth:

May your prosperity increase. <sup>2</sup> I am pleased to tell you about the miracles and wonders the •Most High God has done for me.

and how mighty His wonders!
His kingdom is an eternal kingdom,
and His dominion is from generation to generation.

The Dream

<sup>4</sup> I, Nebuchadnezzar, was at ease in my house and flourishing in my palace. <sup>5</sup> I had a dream, and it frightened me; while in my bed, the images and visions in my mind alarmed me. <sup>6</sup> So I issued a decree to bring all the wise men of Babylon to me in order that they might make the dream's interpretation known to me. <sup>7</sup> When the diviner-priests, mediums, Chaldeans, and astrologers came in, I told them the dream, but they could not make its interpretation known to me.

<sup>8</sup> Finally Daniel, named Belteshazzar after the name of my god — and the spirit of the holy gods is in him — came before me. I told him the dream: <sup>9</sup> “Belteshazzar, head of the diviners, because I know that you have a spirit of the holy gods and that no mystery puzzles you, explain to me the visions of my dream that I saw, and its interpretation. <sup>10</sup> In the visions of my mind as I was lying in bed, I saw this:

There was a tree in the middle of the earth,
and its height was great.

<sup>11</sup> The tree grew large and strong;
its top reached to the sky,
and it was visible to the ends of the <sup>A</sup> earth.

<sup>12</sup> Its leaves were beautiful, its fruit was abundant,
and on it was food for all.

Wild animals found shelter under it,
the birds of the air lived in its branches,
and every creature was fed from it.

<sup>13</sup> “As I was lying in my bed, I also saw in the visions of my mind an observer, a holy one, coming down from heaven. <sup>14</sup> He called out loudly:

Cut down the tree and chop off its branches;
strip off its leaves and scatter its fruit.

Let the animals flee from under it,
and the birds from its branches.

<sup>15</sup> But leave the stump with its roots in the ground,
and with a band of iron and bronze around it,
in the tender grass of the field.

Let him be drenched with dew from the sky
and share the plants of the earth with the animals.

<sup>16†</sup> Let his mind be changed from that of a man, and let him be given the mind of an animal
for seven periods of time. <sup>B</sup>,

<sup>17</sup> This word is by decree of the observers;
the matter is a command from the holy ones.

This is so the living will know that the Most High is ruler
over the kingdom of men.

He gives it to anyone He wants and sets the lowliest of men over it.

<sup>18</sup> This is the dream that I, King Nebuchadnezzar, had. Now, Belteshazzar, tell me the interpretation, because none of the wise men of my kingdom can make the interpretation known to me. But you can, because you have the spirit of the holy gods.”

The Dream Interpreted

<sup>19</sup> Then Daniel, whose name is Belteshazzar, was stunned for a moment, and his thoughts alarmed him. The king said, “Belteshazzar, don’t let the dream or its interpretation alarm you.”

Belteshazzar answered, “My lord, may the dream apply to those who hate you, and its interpretation to your enemies! <sup>20</sup> The tree you saw, which grew large and strong, whose top reached to the sky and was visible to all the earth, <sup>21</sup> whose leaves were beautiful and its fruit abundant — and on it was food for all, under it the wild animals lived, and in its branches the birds of the air lived — <sup>22</sup> that tree is you, the king. For you have become great and strong: your greatness has grown and even reaches the sky, and your dominion extends to the ends of the earth.

<sup>23</sup> “The king saw an observer, a holy one, coming down from heaven and saying, ‘Cut down the tree and destroy it, but leave the stump with its roots in the ground and with a band of iron and bronze around it, in the tender grass of the field. Let him be drenched with dew from the sky, and share food with the wild animals for seven periods of time.’ <sup>24</sup> This is the interpretation, Your Majesty, and this is the sentence of the Most High that has been passed against my lord the king: <sup>25</sup> You will be driven away from people to live with the wild animals. You will feed on grass like cattle and be drenched with dew from the sky for seven periods of time, until you acknowledge that the Most High is ruler over the kingdom of men, and He gives it to anyone He wants. <sup>26</sup> As for the command to leave the tree’s stump with its roots, your kingdom will be restored <sup>C</sup> to you as soon as you acknowledge that Heaven rules. <sup>27</sup> Therefore, may my advice seem good to you my king. Separate yourself from your sins by doing what is right, and from your injustices by showing mercy to the needy. Perhaps there will be an extension of your prosperity.”

The Sentence Executed

<sup>28</sup> All this happened to King Nebuchadnezzar. <sup>29</sup> At the end of 12 months, as he was walking on the roof of the royal palace in Babylon, <sup>30†</sup> the king exclaimed, “Is this not Babylon the Great that I have built by my vast power to be a royal residence and to display my majestic glory? ”

<sup>31</sup> While the words were still in the king's mouth, a voice came from heaven: "King Nebuchadnezzar, to you it is declared that the kingdom has departed from you. <sup>32</sup> You will be driven away from people to live with the wild animals, and you will feed on grass like cattle for seven periods of time, until you acknowledge that the Most High is ruler over the kingdom of men, and He gives it to anyone He wants."

<sup>33</sup> At that moment the sentence against Nebuchadnezzar was executed. He was driven away from people. He ate grass like cattle, and his body was drenched with dew from the sky, until his hair grew like eagles' feathers and his nails like birds' claws.

Nebuchadnezzar's Praise

<sup>34†</sup> But at the end of those days, I, Nebuchadnezzar, looked up to heaven, and my sanity returned to me. Then I praised the Most High and honored and glorified Him who lives forever:

For His dominion is an everlasting dominion,
and His kingdom is from generation to generation.

<sup>35</sup> All the inhabitants of the earth are counted as nothing, and He does what He wants with the army of heaven
and the inhabitants of the earth.

There is no one who can hold back His hand
or say to Him, "What have You done? "

<sup>36</sup> At that time my sanity returned to me, and my majesty and splendor returned to me for the glory of my kingdom. My advisers and my nobles sought me out, I was reestablished over my kingdom, and even more greatness came to me. <sup>37</sup> Now I, Nebuchadnezzar, praise, exalt, and glorify the King of heaven, because all His works are true and His ways are just. He is able to humble those who walk in pride.

Belshazzar's Feast

5 †King Belshazzar held a great feast for 1,000 of his nobles and drank wine in their presence. 2† Under the influence of <sup>A</sup> the wine, Belshazzar gave orders to bring in the gold and silver vessels that his predecessor <sup>B</sup> Nebuchadnezzar had taken from the temple in Jerusalem, so that the king and his nobles, wives, and concubines could drink from them. 3 So they brought in the gold vessels that had been taken from the temple, the house of God in Jerusalem, and the king and his nobles, wives, and concubines drank from them. 4 They drank the wine and praised their gods made of gold and silver, bronze, iron, wood, and stone.

The Handwriting on the Wall

5 At that moment the fingers of a man's hand appeared and began writing on the plaster of the king's palace wall next to the lampstand. As the king watched the hand <sup>C</sup> that was writing, 6 his face turned pale, <sup>D</sup> and his thoughts so terrified him that his hip joints shook and his knees knocked together. 7† The king called out to bring in the mediums, Chaldeans, and astrologers. He said to these wise men of Babylon, "Whoever reads this inscription and gives me its interpretation will be clothed in purple, have a gold chain around his neck, and have the third highest position in the kingdom." 8 So all the king's wise men came in, but none could read the inscription or make its interpretation known to him. 9 Then King Belshazzar became even more terrified, his face turned pale, <sup>E</sup> and his nobles were bewildered.

10 Because of the outcry of the king and his nobles, the queen came to the banquet hall. "May the king live forever," she said. "Don't let your thoughts terrify you or your face be pale. <sup>F</sup> 11 There is a man in your kingdom who has the spirit of the holy gods in him. In the days of your predecessor he was found to have insight, intelligence, and wisdom like the wisdom of the gods. Your predecessor, King Nebuchadnezzar, appointed him chief of the diviners, mediums, Chaldeans, and astrologers. Your own predecessor, the king, 12 did this because Daniel, the one the king named Belteshazzar, was found to have an extraordinary spirit, knowledge and perception, and the ability to interpret dreams, explain riddles, and solve problems. Therefore, summon Daniel, and he will give the interpretation.”

Daniel before the King

<sup>13</sup> Then Daniel was brought before the king. The king said to him, “Are you Daniel, one of the Judean exiles that my predecessor the king brought from Judah? <sup>14</sup> I’ve heard that you have the spirit of the gods in you, and that you have insight, intelligence, and extraordinary wisdom. <sup>15</sup> Now the wise men and mediums were brought before me to read this inscription and make its interpretation known to me, but they could not give its interpretation. <sup>16</sup> However, I have heard about you that you can give interpretations and solve problems. Therefore, if you can read this inscription and give me its interpretation, you will be clothed in purple, have a gold chain around your neck, and have the third highest position in the kingdom.”

<sup>17</sup> Then Daniel answered the king, “You may keep your gifts, and give your rewards to someone else; however, I will read the inscription for the king and make the interpretation known to him. <sup>18</sup> Your Majesty, the •Most High God gave sovereignty, greatness, glory, and majesty to your predecessor Nebuchadnezzar. <sup>19</sup> Because of the greatness He gave him, all peoples, nations, and languages were terrified and fearful of him. He killed anyone he wanted and kept alive anyone he wanted; he exalted anyone he wanted and humbled anyone he wanted. <sup>20</sup> But when his heart was exalted and his spirit became arrogant, he was deposed from his royal throne and his glory was taken from him. <sup>21</sup> He was driven away from people, his mind was like an animal’s, he lived with the wild donkeys, he was fed grass like cattle, and his body was drenched with dew from the sky until he acknowledged that the Most High God is ruler over the kingdom of men and sets anyone He wants over it.

<sup>22</sup> “But you his successor, Belshazzar, have not humbled your heart, even though you knew all this. <sup>23</sup> Instead, you have exalted yourself against the Lord of heaven. The vessels from His house were brought to you, and as you and your nobles, wives, and concubines drank wine from them, you praised the gods made of silver and gold, bronze, iron, wood, and stone, which do not see or hear or understand. But you have not glorified the God who holds your life-breath in His hand and who controls the whole course of your life. <sup>G</sup> <sup>24</sup> Therefore, He sent the hand, and this writing was inscribed.

The Inscription's Interpretation

<sup>25</sup> “This is the writing that was inscribed:

MENE, MENE, TEKEL, PARSIN.

MENE <sup>H</sup> means that God has numbered the days of your kingdom and brought it to an end.

<sup>27</sup> TEKEL <sup>I</sup> means that you have been weighed in the balance and found deficient.

<sup>29</sup> Then Belshazzar gave an order, and they clothed Daniel in purple, placed a gold chain around his neck, and issued a proclamation concerning him that he should be the third ruler in the kingdom.

The Plot against Daniel

6† Darius decided<sup>A</sup> to appoint 120 satraps over the kingdom, stationed throughout the realm,<sup>2</sup> and over them three administrators, including Daniel. These satraps would be accountable to them so that the king would not be defrauded.<sup>3</sup> Daniel<sup>B</sup> distinguished himself above the administrators and satraps because he had an extraordinary spirit, so the king planned to set him over the whole realm.<sup>4</sup> The administrators and satraps, therefore, kept trying to find a charge against Daniel regarding the kingdom. But they could find no charge or corruption, for he was trustworthy, and no negligence or corruption was found in him.<sup>5</sup> Then these men said, “We will never find any charge against this Daniel unless we find something against him concerning the law of his God.”

<sup>6</sup> So the administrators and satraps went together to the king and said to him, “May King Darius live forever.<sup>7†</sup> All the administrators of the kingdom, the prefects, satraps, advisers, and governors have agreed that the king should establish an ordinance and enforce an edict that for 30 days, anyone who petitions any god or man except you, the king, will be thrown into the lions’ den.<sup>8†</sup> Therefore, Your Majesty, establish the edict and sign the document so that, as a law of the Medes and Persians, it is irrevocable and cannot be changed.”<sup>9</sup> So King Darius signed the document.

Daniel in the Lions’ Den

<sup>10</sup> When Daniel learned that the document had been signed, he went into his house. The windows in its upper room opened toward Jerusalem, and three times a day he got down on his knees, prayed, and gave thanks to his God, just as he had done before.<sup>11</sup> Then these men went as a group and found Daniel petitioning and imploring his God.<sup>12</sup> So they approached the king and asked about his edict: “Didn’t you sign an edict that for 30 days any man who petitions any god or man except you, the king, will be thrown into the lions’ den? ”

The king answered, “As a law of the Medes and Persians, the order stands and is irrevocable.”

<sup>13</sup> Then they replied to the king, “Daniel, one of the Judean exiles, has ignored you, the king, and the edict you signed, for he prays three times a day.” <sup>14</sup> As soon as the king heard this, he was very displeased; he set his mind on rescuing Daniel and made every effort until sundown to deliver him.

<sup>16</sup> So the king gave the order, and they brought Daniel and threw him into the lions’ den. The king said to Daniel, “May your God, whom you serve continually, rescue you!” <sup>17</sup> A stone was brought and placed over the mouth of the den. The king sealed it with his own signet ring and with the signet rings of his nobles, so that nothing in regard to Daniel could be changed. <sup>18</sup> Then the king went to his palace and spent the night fasting. No diversions <sup>C</sup> were brought to him, and he could not sleep.

Daniel Released

<sup>19</sup> At the first light of dawn the king got up and hurried to the lions’ den. <sup>20</sup> When he reached the den, he cried out in anguish to Daniel. “Daniel, servant of the living God,” the king said, <sup>D</sup> “has your God whom you serve continually been able to rescue you from the lions?”

<sup>21</sup> Then Daniel spoke with the king: “May the king live forever. <sup>22</sup> My God sent His angel and shut the lions’ mouths. They haven’t hurt me, for I was found innocent before Him. Also, I have not committed a crime against you my king.”

<sup>23</sup> The king was overjoyed and gave orders to take Daniel out of the den. So Daniel was taken out of the den, uninjured, for he trusted in his God. <sup>24</sup> The king then gave the command, and those men who had maliciously accused Daniel <sup>E</sup> were brought and thrown into the lions’ den — they, their children, and their wives. They had not reached the bottom of the den before the lions overpowered them and crushed all their bones.

Darius Honors God

<sup>25</sup> Then King Darius wrote to those of every people, nation, and language who live in all the earth: “May your prosperity abound. <sup>26</sup> I issue a decree that in all my royal dominion, people must tremble in fear before the God of Daniel:

For He is the living God,
and He endures forever;
His kingdom will never be destroyed,
and His dominion has no end.

<sup>27</sup> He rescues and delivers;
He performs signs and wonders
in the heavens and on the earth,
for He has rescued Daniel from the power of the lions.”

Daniel's Vision of the Four Beasts

7 In the first year of Belshazzar king of Babylon, Daniel had a dream with visions in his mind as he was lying in his bed. He wrote down the dream, and here is the summary <sup>A</sup> of his account. <sup>2</sup> Daniel said, “In my vision at night I was watching, and suddenly the four winds of heaven stirred up the great sea. <sup>3†</sup> Four huge beasts came up from the sea, each different from the other.

<sup>4</sup> “The first was like a lion but had eagle’s wings. I continued watching until its wings were torn off. It was lifted up from the ground, set on its feet like a man, and given a human mind.

<sup>5</sup> “Suddenly, another beast appeared, a second one, that looked like a bear. It was raised up on one side, with three ribs in its mouth between its teeth. It was told, ‘Get up! Gorge yourself on flesh.’

<sup>6†</sup> “While I was watching, another beast appeared. It was like a leopard with four wings of a bird on its back. It had four heads and was given authority to rule.

<sup>7</sup> “While I was watching in the night visions, a fourth beast appeared, frightening and dreadful, and incredibly strong, with large iron teeth. It devoured and crushed, and it trampled with its feet whatever was left. It was different from all the beasts before it, and it had 10 horns.

<sup>8</sup> “While I was considering the horns, suddenly another horn, a little one, came up among them, and three of the first horns were uprooted before it. There were eyes in this horn like a man’s, and it had a mouth that spoke arrogantly.

The Ancient of Days and the Son of Man

<sup>9</sup> “As I kept watching,

thrones were set in place,
and the Ancient of Days took His seat.
His clothing was white like snow,
and the hair of His head like whitest wool.

His throne was flaming fire;
its wheels were blazing fire.
<sup>10</sup> A river of fire was flowing,
coming out from His presence.
Thousands upon thousands served Him;
ten thousand times ten thousand stood before Him.
The court was convened,
and the books were opened.

<sup>11</sup> “I watched, then, because of the sound of the arrogant words the horn was speaking. As I continued watching, the beast was killed and its body destroyed and given over to the burning fire. <sup>12</sup> As for the rest of the beasts, their authority to rule was removed, but an extension of life was granted to them for a certain period of time. <sup>13†</sup> I continued watching in the night visions, and I saw One like a son of man

coming with the clouds of heaven.
He approached the Ancient of Days
and was escorted before Him.
<sup>14</sup> He was given authority to rule,
and glory, and a kingdom;
so that those of every people,
nation, and language
should serve Him.
His dominion is an everlasting dominion
that will not pass away, and His kingdom is one that will not be destroyed.

Interpretation of the Vision

<sup>15</sup> “As for me, Daniel, my spirit was deeply distressed within me, <sup>B</sup> and the visions in my mind terrified me. <sup>16</sup> I approached one of those who were standing by and asked him the true meaning of all this. So he let me know the interpretation of these things: <sup>17</sup> ‘These huge beasts, four in number, are four kings who will rise from the earth. <sup>18</sup> But the holy ones of the •Most High will receive the kingdom and possess it forever, yes, forever and ever.’

<sup>19</sup> “Then I wanted to know the true meaning of the fourth beast, the one different from all the others, extremely terrifying, with iron teeth and bronze claws, devouring, crushing, and trampling with its feet whatever was left. <sup>20</sup> I also wanted to know about the 10 horns on its head and about the other horn that came up, before which three fell — the horn that had eyes, and a mouth that spoke arrogantly, and that was more visible than the others. <sup>21</sup> As I was watching, this horn waged war against the holy ones and was prevailing over them <sup>22</sup> until the Ancient of Days arrived and a judgment was given in favor of the holy ones of the Most High, for the time had come, and the holy ones took possession of the kingdom.

<sup>23</sup> “This is what he said: ‘The fourth beast will be a fourth kingdom on the earth, different from all the other kingdoms. It will devour the whole earth, trample it down, and crush it. <sup>24</sup> The 10 horns are 10 kings who will rise from this kingdom. Another, different from the previous ones, will rise after them and subdue three kings. <sup>25</sup> He will speak words against the Most High and oppress <sup>C</sup> the holy ones of the Most High. He will intend to change religious festivals <sup>D</sup> and laws, and the holy ones will be handed over to him for a time, times, and half a time. <sup>E</sup>, <sup>26†</sup> But the court will convene, and his dominion will be taken away, to be completely destroyed forever. <sup>27</sup> The kingdom, dominion, and greatness of the kingdoms under all of heaven will be given to the people, the holy ones of the Most High. His kingdom will be an everlasting kingdom, and all rulers will serve and obey Him.’

The Vision of a Ram and a Goat

8 † In the third year of King Belshazzar's reign, a vision appeared to me, Daniel, after the one that had appeared to me earlier. <sup>2</sup> I saw the vision, and as I watched, I was in the fortress city of Susa, in the province of Elam. I saw in the vision that I was beside the Ulai Canal. <sup>3†</sup> I looked up, <sup>A</sup> and there was a ram standing beside the canal. He had two horns. The two horns were long, but one was longer than the other, and the longer one came up last. <sup>4</sup> I saw the ram charging to the west, the north, and the south. No animal could stand against him, and there was no rescue from his power. He did whatever he wanted and became great.

<sup>5</sup> As I was observing, a male goat appeared, coming from the west across the surface of the entire earth without touching the ground. The goat had a conspicuous horn <sup>B</sup> between his eyes. <sup>6</sup> He came toward the two-horned ram I had seen standing beside the canal and rushed at him with savage fury. <sup>7</sup> I saw him approaching the ram, and infuriated with him, he struck the ram, shattering his two horns, and the ram was not strong enough to stand against him. The goat threw him to the ground and trampled him, and there was no one to rescue the ram from his power. <sup>8</sup> Then the male goat became very great, but when he became powerful, the large horn was shattered. Four conspicuous horns came up in its place, pointing toward the four winds of heaven.

The Little Horn

<sup>9</sup> From one of them a little horn emerged and grew extensively toward the south and the east and toward the beautiful land. <sup>10</sup> It grew as high as the heavenly •host, made some of the stars and some of the host fall to the earth, and trampled them. <sup>11</sup> It made itself great, even up to the Prince of the host; it removed His daily sacrifice and overthrew the place of His sanctuary. <sup>12</sup> Because of rebellion, a host, together with the daily sacrifice, will be given over. The horn will throw truth to the ground and will be successful in whatever it does.

<sup>13</sup> Then I heard a holy one speaking, and another holy one said to the speaker, "How long will the events of this vision last — the daily sacrifice, the rebellion that makes desolate, and the giving over of the sanctuary and of the host to be trampled? ”

<sup>14</sup> He said to me, “For 2,300 evenings and mornings; then the sanctuary will be restored.”

TWISTED SCRIPTURE

Daniel 8:14

Daniel's prophetic 2,300 days have interested many throughout history who have sought to predict the date of the Lord's return. By interpreting each day as a year, William Miller, a Baptist pastor from New York, calculated that Christ's second advent would take place between March 21, 1843 and March 21, 1844. As the date approached, a wave of excitement and expectation swept across America. Thousands of Christians from mainline churches, convinced of the accuracy of Miller's prognostication, joined with the new adventist movement. Many of these "Millerites" sold their property to wait anxiously for the arrival of God's kingdom. When the date passed without any cataclysmic event, Miller set October 22, 1844, as the new date for the parousia, or return of Christ. A second failure, known as the "Great Disappointment," led Miller to repent of his errors. Several of his followers, however, said that Miller's latest date was correct but that his explanation was wrong. According to them, on October 22, 1844, Jesus moved from His seat at God's right hand into the Most Holy Place to begin an "investigative judgment" of all professing believers, many of whom will be blotted out of the book of Life. This remnant of Millerites eventually founded the Seventh-day Adventist Church.

Interpretation of the Vision

<sup>17</sup> So he approached where I was standing; when he came near, I was terrified and fell facedown. “Son of man,” he said to me, “understand that the vision refers to the time of the end.” <sup>18</sup> While he was speaking to me, I fell into a deep sleep, with my face to the ground. Then he touched me, made me stand up, <sup>19</sup> and said, “I am here to tell you what will happen at the conclusion of the time of wrath, because it refers to the appointed time of the end. <sup>20</sup> The two-horned ram that you saw represents the kings of Media and Persia. <sup>21</sup> The shaggy goat represents the king of Greece, and the large horn between his eyes represents the first king. <sup>22</sup> The four horns that took the place of the shattered horn represent four kingdoms. They will rise from that nation, but without its power.

when the rebels have reached the full measure of their sin, <sup>C</sup> an insolent king, skilled in intrigue, <sup>D</sup>
will come to the throne.

<sup>24</sup> His power will be great,
but it will not be his own.
He will cause terrible destruction
and succeed in whatever he does.
He will destroy the powerful along with the holy people.

<sup>25</sup> He will cause deceit to prosper
through his cunning and by his influence,
and in his own mind he will make himself great.
He will destroy many in a time of peace;
he will even stand against the Prince of princes.
Yet he will be shattered — not by human hands.

<sup>26</sup> The vision of the evenings and the mornings
that has been told is true.
Now you must seal up the vision
because it refers to many days in the future.”

<sup>27</sup> I, Daniel, was overcome and lay sick for days. Then I got up and went about the king's business. I was greatly disturbed by the vision and could not understand it.

Daniel's Prayer

9† In the first year of Darius, the son of Ahasuerus, a Mede by birth, who was ruler over the kingdom of the Chaldeans: <sup>2†</sup> In the first year of his reign, I, Daniel, understood from the books according to the word of the LORD to Jeremiah the prophet that the number of years for the desolation of Jerusalem would be 70. <sup>3</sup> So I turned my attention to the Lord God to seek Him by prayer and petitions, with fasting, •sackcloth, and ashes.

<sup>4</sup> I prayed to the LORD my God and confessed:

Ah, Lord — the great and awe-inspiring God who keeps His gracious covenant with those who love Him and keep His commands — <sup>5</sup> we have sinned, done wrong, acted wickedly, rebelled, and turned away from Your commands and ordinances.

<sup>6</sup> We have not listened to Your servants the prophets, who spoke in Your name to our kings, leaders, fathers, and all the people of the land.

<sup>7</sup> Lord, righteousness belongs to You, but this day public shame belongs to us: the men of Judah, the residents of Jerusalem, and all Israel — those who are near and those who are far, in all the countries where You have dispersed them because of the disloyalty they have shown toward You. <sup>8</sup> LORD, public shame belongs to us, our kings, our leaders, and our fathers, because we have sinned against You. <sup>9</sup> Compassion and forgiveness belong to the Lord our God, though we have rebelled against Him <sup>10</sup> and have not obeyed the voice of the LORD our God by following His instructions that He set before us through His servants the prophets.

<sup>11</sup> All Israel has broken Your law and turned away, refusing to obey You. The promised curse <sup>A</sup> written in the law of Moses, the servant of God, has been poured out on us because we have sinned against Him. <sup>12</sup> He has carried out His words that He spoke against us and against our rulers <sup>B</sup> by bringing on us so great a disaster that nothing like what has been done to Jerusalem has ever been done under all of heaven.

<sup>13</sup> Just as it is written in the law of Moses, all this disaster has come on us, yet we have not appeased the LORD our God by turning from our iniquities and paying attention to Your truth.

<sup>14</sup> So the LORD kept the disaster in mind and brought it on us, for the LORD our God is righteous in all He has done. But we have not obeyed Him.

<sup>15</sup> Now, Lord our God, who brought Your people out of the land of Egypt with a mighty hand and made Your name renowned as it is this day, we have sinned, we have acted wickedly. <sup>16</sup> Lord, in keeping with all Your righteous acts, may Your anger and wrath turn away from Your city Jerusalem, Your holy mountain; for because of our sins and the iniquities of our fathers, Jerusalem and Your people have become an object of ridicule to all those around us.

<sup>17</sup> Therefore, our God, hear the prayer and the petitions of Your servant. Show Your favor to Your desolate sanctuary for the Lord's sake. <sup>18</sup> Listen, <sup>C</sup> my God, and hear. Open Your eyes and see our desolations and the city called by Your name. For we are not presenting our petitions before You based on our righteous acts, but based on Your abundant compassion. <sup>19</sup> Lord, hear! Lord, forgive! Lord, listen and act! My God, for Your own sake, do not delay, because Your city and Your people are called by Your name.

The 70 Weeks of Years

<sup>20</sup> While I was speaking, praying, confessing my sin and the sin of my people Israel, and presenting my petition before •Yahweh my God concerning the holy mountain of my God — <sup>21</sup> while I was praying, Gabriel, the man I had seen in the first vision, came to me in my extreme weariness, about the time of the evening offering. <sup>22</sup> He gave me this explanation: “Daniel, I’ve come now to give you understanding. <sup>23</sup> At the beginning of your petitions an answer went out, and I have come to give it, for you are treasured by God. So consider the message and understand the vision:

<sup>24†</sup> Seventy weeks are decreed about your people and your holy city —
to bring the rebellion to an end,
to put a stop to sin,
to wipe away iniquity,
to bring in everlasting righteousness,
to seal up vision and prophecy,
and to anoint the most holy place.

<sup>25</sup> Know and understand this:
From the issuing of the decree to restore and rebuild Jerusalem until •Messiah the Prince <sup>D</sup> will be seven weeks and 62 weeks.
It will be rebuilt with a plaza and a moat,
but in difficult times.

<sup>26</sup> After those 62 weeks
the Messiah will be cut off
and will have nothing.
The people of the coming prince
will destroy the city and the sanctuary.
The <sup>E</sup> end will come with a flood,
and until the end there will be <sup>F</sup> war;
desolations are decreed.

<sup>27</sup> He will make a firm covenant <sup>G</sup>
with many for one week,
but in the middle of the week
he will put a stop to sacrifice and offering.
And the abomination of desolation
will be on a wing of the temple
until the decreed destruction

is poured out on the desolator.”

Vision of a Glorious One

10 In the third year of Cyrus king of Persia, a message was revealed to Daniel, who was named Belteshazzar. The message was true and was about a great conflict. He understood the message and had understanding of the vision.

<sup>2</sup> In those days I, Daniel, was mourning for three full weeks. <sup>3</sup> I didn't eat any rich food, no meat or wine entered my mouth, and I didn't put any oil on my body until the three weeks were over. <sup>4</sup> On the twenty-fourth day of the first month, as I was standing on the bank of the great river, the Tigris, <sup>5</sup> I looked up, and there was a man dressed in linen, with a belt of gold from Uphaz around his waist. <sup>6</sup> His body was like topaz, his face like the brilliance of lightning, his eyes like flaming torches, his arms and feet like the gleam of polished bronze, and the sound of his words like the sound of a multitude.

Angelic Conflict

<sup>10</sup> Suddenly, a hand touched me and raised me to my hands and knees. <sup>11</sup> He said to me, "Daniel, you are a man treasured by God. Understand the words that I'm saying to you. Stand on your feet, for I have now been sent to you." After he said this to me, I stood trembling.

<sup>12†</sup> "Don't be afraid, Daniel," he said to me, "for from the first day that you purposed to understand and to humble yourself before your God, your prayers were heard. I have come because of your prayers. <sup>13</sup> But the prince of the kingdom of Persia opposed me for 21 days. Then Michael, one of the chief princes, came to help me after I had been left there with the kings of Persia. <sup>14</sup> Now I have come to help you understand what will happen to your people in the last days, for the vision refers to those days."

<sup>15</sup> While he was saying these words to me, I turned my face toward the ground and was speechless. <sup>16</sup> Suddenly one with human likeness touched my lips. I opened my mouth and said to the one standing in front of me, “My lord, because of the vision, anguish overwhelms me and I am powerless. <sup>17</sup> How can someone like me, your servant, <sup>C</sup> speak with someone like you, my lord? Now I have no strength, and there is no breath in me.”

<sup>18</sup> Then the one with human likeness touched me again and strengthened me. <sup>19</sup> He said, “Don’t be afraid, you who are <sup>D</sup> treasured by God. Peace to you; be very strong! ”

As he spoke to me, I was strengthened and said, “Let my lord speak, for you have strengthened me.”

<sup>20</sup> He said, “Do you know why I’ve come to you? I must return at once to fight against the prince of Persia, and when I leave, the prince of Greece will come. <sup>21</sup> No one has the courage to support me against them except Michael, your prince. However, I will tell you what is recorded in the book of truth.

11 In the first year of Darius the Mede, I stood up to strengthen and protect him. <sup>2†</sup> Now I will tell you the truth.

Prophecies about Persia and Greece

“Three more kings will arise in Persia, and the fourth will be far richer than the others. By the power he gains through his riches, he will stir up everyone against the kingdom of Greece. <sup>3†</sup> Then a warrior king will arise; he will rule a vast realm and do whatever he wants. <sup>4</sup> But as soon as he is established, his kingdom will be broken up and divided to the four winds of heaven, but not to his descendants; it will not be the same kingdom that he ruled, because his kingdom will be uprooted and will go to others besides them.

Kings of the South and the North

<sup>5</sup> “The king of the South will grow powerful, but one of his commanders will grow more powerful and will rule a kingdom greater than his. <sup>6</sup> After some years they will form an alliance, and the daughter of the king of the South will go to the king of the North to seal the agreement. She will not retain power, and his strength will not endure. She will be given up, together with her entourage, her father, and the one who supported her during those times. <sup>7</sup> In the place of the king of the South, one from her family <sup>A</sup> will rise up, come against the army, and enter the fortress of the king of the North. He will take action against them and triumph. <sup>8</sup> He will take even their gods captive to Egypt, with their metal images and their precious articles of silver and gold. For some years he will stay away from the king of the North, <sup>9</sup> who will enter the kingdom of the king of the South and then return to his own land.

<sup>10</sup> “His sons will mobilize for war and assemble a large number of armed forces. They will advance, sweeping through like a flood, <sup>B</sup> and will again wage war as far as his fortress. <sup>11</sup> Infuriated, the king of the South will march out to fight with the king of the North who will raise a large army but they will be handed over to his enemy. <sup>12</sup> When the army is carried off, he will become arrogant and cause tens of thousands to fall, but he will not triumph. <sup>13</sup> The king of the North will again raise a multitude larger than the first. After some years <sup>C</sup> he will advance with a great army and many supplies.

<sup>14</sup> “In those times many will rise up against the king of the South. Violent ones among your own people will assert themselves to fulfill a vision, but they will fail. <sup>15</sup> Then the king of the North will come, build up an assault ramp, and capture a well-fortified city. The forces of the South will not stand; even their select troops will not be able to resist. <sup>16</sup> The king of the North who comes against him will do whatever he wants, and no one can oppose him. He will establish himself in the beautiful land with total destruction in his hand. <sup>17</sup> He will resolve to come with the force of his whole kingdom and will reach an agreement with him. He will give him a daughter in marriage <sup>D</sup> to destroy it, but she will not stand with him or support him. <sup>18</sup> Then he will turn his attention to the coasts and islands and capture many. But a commander will put an end to his taunting; instead, he will turn his taunts against him. <sup>19</sup> He will turn his attention back to the fortresses of his own land, but he will stumble, fall, and be no more.

<sup>21</sup> “In his place a despised person will arise; royal honors will not be given to him, but he will come during a time of peace <sup>F</sup>, and seize the kingdom by intrigue. <sup>22</sup> A flood of forces will be swept away before him; they will be shattered, as well as the covenant prince. <sup>23</sup> After an alliance is made with him, he will act deceitfully. He will rise to power with a small nation. <sup>G</sup> <sup>24</sup> During a time of peace, <sup>H</sup> he will come into the richest parts of the province and do what his fathers and predecessors never did. He will lavish plunder, loot, and wealth on his followers, and he will make plans against fortified cities, but only for a time.

extremely large and powerful army, but he will not succeed, because plots will be made against him.<sup>26</sup> Those who eat his provisions will destroy him; his army will be swept away, and many will fall slain.<sup>27</sup> The two kings, whose hearts are bent on evil, will speak lies at the same table but to no avail, for still the end will come at the appointed time.<sup>28</sup> The king of the North will return to his land with great wealth, but his heart will be set against the holy covenant;<sup>I</sup> he will take action, then return to his own land.

<sup>29</sup> “At the appointed time he will come again to the South, but this time<sup>J</sup> will not be like the first.<sup>30</sup> Ships of Kittim will come against him, and being intimidated, he will withdraw. Then he will rage against the holy covenant and take action. On his return, he will favor those who abandon the holy covenant.<sup>31</sup> His forces will rise up and desecrate the temple fortress. They will abolish the daily sacrifice and set up the abomination of desolation.<sup>32</sup> With flattery he will corrupt those who act wickedly toward the covenant, but the people who know their God will be strong and take action.<sup>33</sup> Those who are wise among the people will give understanding to many, yet they will die by sword and flame, and be captured and plundered for a time.<sup>34</sup> When defeated, they will be helped by some, but many others will join them insincerely.<sup>35</sup> Some of the wise will fall so that they may be refined, purified, and cleansed until the time of the end, for it will still come at the appointed time.

<sup>36†</sup> “Then the king will do whatever he wants. He will exalt and magnify himself above every god, and he will say outrageous things against the God of gods. He will be successful until the time of wrath is completed, because what has been decreed will be accomplished.<sup>37</sup> He will not show regard for the gods<sup>K</sup> of his fathers, the god longed for by women, or for any other god, because he will magnify himself above all.<sup>38</sup> Instead, he will honor a god of fortresses — a god his fathers did not know — with gold, silver, precious stones, and riches.<sup>39</sup> He will deal with the strongest fortresses with the help of a foreign god. He will greatly honor those who acknowledge him,<sup>L</sup> making them rulers over many and distributing land as a reward.

<sup>40</sup> “At the time of the end, the king of the South will engage him in battle, but the king of the North will storm against him with chariots, horsemen, and many ships. He will invade countries and sweep through them like a flood. <sup>41</sup> He will also invade the beautiful land, and many will fall. But these will escape from his power: Edom, Moab, and the prominent people <sup>M</sup> of the Ammonites. <sup>42</sup> He will extend his power against the countries, and not even the land of Egypt will escape. <sup>43</sup> He will get control over the hidden treasures of gold and silver and over all the riches of Egypt. The Libyans and •Cushites will also be in submission. <sup>N</sup>, <sup>44</sup> But reports from the east and the north will terrify him, and he will go out with great fury to annihilate and •completely destroy many. <sup>45†</sup> He will pitch his royal tents between the sea and <sup>O</sup> the beautiful holy mountain, but he will meet his end with no one to help him.

12 At that time
Michael the great prince who stands watch over your people will rise up.
There will be a time of distress
such as never has occurred
since nations came into being until that time.
But at that time all your people who are found written in the book will escape.

<sup>2†</sup> Many of those who sleep in the dust
of the earth will awake,
some to eternal life,
and some to shame and eternal contempt.

<sup>3</sup> Those who are wise will shine
like the bright expanse of the heavens,
and those who lead many to righteousness,
like the stars forever and ever.

<sup>4</sup> “But you, Daniel, keep these words secret and seal the book until the time of the end. Many will roam about, and knowledge will increase.”

<sup>5</sup> Then I, Daniel, looked, and two others were standing there, one on this bank of the river and one on the other. <sup>6</sup> One of them said to the man dressed in linen, who was above the waters of the river, “How long until the end of these extraordinary things?” <sup>7</sup> Then I heard the man dressed in linen, who was above the waters of the river. He raised both his hands <sup>A</sup> toward heaven and swore by Him who lives eternally that it would be for a time, times, and half a time. When the power of the holy people is shattered, all these things will be completed.

<sup>8</sup> I heard but did not understand. So I asked, “My lord, what will be the outcome of these things?”

<sup>9</sup> He said, “Go on your way, Daniel, for the words are secret and sealed until the time of the end. <sup>10</sup> Many will be purified, cleansed, and refined, but the wicked will act wickedly; none of the wicked will understand, but the wise will understand. <sup>11†</sup> From the time the daily sacrifice is abolished and the abomination of desolation is set up, there will be 1,290 days. <sup>12</sup> The one who waits for and reaches 1,335 days is blessed. <sup>13</sup> But as for you, go on your way to the end; you will rest, then rise to your destiny at the end of the days.”

HOSEA

1 The word of the LORD that came to Hosea son of Beeri during the reigns of Uzziah, Jotham, Ahaz, and Hezekiah, kings of Judah, and of Jeroboam son of Jehoash, king of Israel.

Hosea's Marriage and Children

<sup>2†</sup> When the LORD first spoke to Hosea, He said this to him:

Go and marry a promiscuous wife
and have children of promiscuity,
for the land is committing blatant acts of promiscuity
by abandoning the LORD.

<sup>3</sup> So he went and married Gomer daughter of Diblaim, and she conceived and bore him a son. <sup>4</sup> Then the LORD said to him:

Name him Jezreel, for in a little while I will bring the bloodshed of Jezreel
on the house of Jehu
and put an end to the kingdom of the house of Israel.

<sup>5</sup> On that day I will break the bow of Israel in the Valley of Jezreel.

<sup>6</sup> She conceived again and gave birth to a daughter, and the LORD said to him:

Name her No Compassion, <sup>A</sup>
for I will no longer have compassion
on the house of Israel.
I will certainly take them away.

<sup>7</sup> But I will have compassion on the house of Judah,
and I will deliver them by the LORD their God.
I will not deliver them by bow, sword, or war,
or by horses and cavalry.

<sup>8</sup> After Gomer had weaned No Compassion, she conceived and gave birth to a son. <sup>9</sup> Then the LORD said:

Name him Not My People, <sup>B</sup>
for you are not My people,
and I will not be your God. <sup>C</sup>,

<sup>10</sup>Yet the number of the Israelites will be like the sand of the sea,
which cannot be measured or counted.
And in the place where they were told:
You are not My people,
they will be called: Sons of the living God.

<sup>11</sup> And the Judeans and the Israelites will be gathered together.
They will appoint for themselves a single ruler
and go up from <sup>D</sup> the land.
For the day of Jezreel will be great.

Chapter 2 <sup>1</sup>Call <sup>A</sup> your brothers: My People and your sisters: Compassion.

Israel's Adultery Rebuked

<sup>2†</sup> Rebuke your mother; rebuke her.
For she is not My wife and I am not her husband.
Let her remove the promiscuous look from her face and her adultery from between her breasts.

<sup>3†</sup> Otherwise, I will strip her naked
and expose her as she was on the day of her birth.
I will make her like a desert
and like a parched land,
and I will let her die of thirst.

<sup>4†</sup> I will have no compassion on her children because they are the children of promiscuity.

<sup>5</sup> Yes, their mother is promiscuous;
she conceived them and acted shamefully.
For she thought, "I will go after my lovers,
the men who give me my food and water,
my wool and flax, my oil and drink."

<sup>6</sup> Therefore, this is what I will do:
I will block her way with thorns;
I will enclose her with a wall,
so that she cannot find her paths.

<sup>7</sup> She will pursue her lovers but not catch them;
she will seek them but not find them.
Then she will think,
"I will go back to my former husband,
for then it was better for me than now."

<sup>8</sup> She does not recognize that it is I who gave her the grain,
the new wine, and the oil.
I lavished silver and gold on her,
which they used for •Baal.

<sup>9</sup> Therefore, I will take back My grain in its time and My new wine in its season;

I will take away My wool and linen,
which were to cover her nakedness.

<sup>10</sup> Now I will expose her shame
in the sight of her lovers,
and no one will rescue her from My hands.

<sup>11</sup> I will put an end to all her celebrations:
her feasts, New Moons, and Sabbaths —
all her festivals.

<sup>12</sup> I will devastate her vines and fig trees.
She thinks that these are her wages
that her lovers have given her.
I will turn them into a thicket,
and the wild animals will eat them.

<sup>13</sup> And I will punish her for the days of the Baals when she burned incense to them,
put on her rings and jewelry,
and went after her lovers,
but forgot Me.

This is the LORD's declaration.

Israel's Adultery Forgiven

<sup>14</sup> Therefore, I am going to persuade her,
lead her to the wilderness,
and speak tenderly to her. <sup>B</sup>

<sup>15</sup> There I will give her vineyards back to her and make the Valley of Achor
into a gateway of hope.
There she will respond as she did in the days of her youth,
as in the day she came out of the land of Egypt.

you will call Me, "My husband,"                      this is the LORD's declaration — and no longer call Me, "My Baal." <sup>C</sup>

<sup>17</sup> For I will remove the names of the Baals

from her mouth;
they will no longer be remembered by their names.

<sup>18</sup> On that day I will make a covenant for them with the wild animals, the birds of the sky,
and the creatures that crawl on the ground.
I will shatter bow, sword,
and weapons of war in the land <sup>D</sup>,
and will enable the people to rest securely.

<sup>19</sup> I will take you to be My wife forever.
I will take you to be My wife in righteousness,
justice, love, and compassion.

<sup>20</sup> I will take you to be My wife in faithfulness,
and you will know •Yahweh.

<sup>21</sup> On that day I will respond —
I will respond to the sky,
and it will respond to the earth.

this is the LORD's declaration.

<sup>22</sup> The earth will respond to the grain,
the new wine, and the oil,
and they will respond to Jezreel.

<sup>23</sup> I will sow her in the land for Myself, and I will have compassion
on No Compassion;
I will say to Not My People:
You are My people,
and he will say, "You are My God."

Waiting for Restoration

3 †Then the LORD said to me, “Go again; show love to a woman who is loved by another man and is an adulteress, just as the LORD loves the Israelites though they turn to other gods and love raisin cakes.”

<sup>2</sup> So I bought her for 15 •shekels of silver and five bushels of barley. , <sup>3</sup> I said to her, “You must live with me many days. Don’t be promiscuous or belong to any man, and I will act the same way toward you.”

<sup>4</sup> For the Israelites must live many days without king or prince, without sacrifice or sacred pillar, and without •ephod or household idols.

<sup>5</sup> Afterward, the people of Israel will return and seek the LORD their God and David their king. They will come with awe to the LORD and to His goodness in the last days.

God's Case against Israel

4 †Hear the word of the LORD, people of Israel, for the LORD has a case
against the inhabitants of the land:
There is no truth, no faithful love,
and no knowledge of God in the land!
2 Cursing, lying, murder, stealing,
and adultery are rampant;
one act of bloodshed follows another.
3 For this reason the land mourns,
and everyone who lives in it languishes,
along with the wild animals and the birds of the sky;
even the fish of the sea disappear.
4 But let no one dispute; let no one argue,
for My case is against you priests. ,
5 You will stumble by day;
the prophet will also stumble with you by night.
And I will destroy your mother.
6 My people are destroyed for lack of knowledge.
Because you have rejected knowledge,
I will reject you from serving as My priest.
Since you have forgotten the law of your God,
I will also forget your sons.
7 The more they multiplied,
the more they sinned against Me.
I will change their honor into disgrace.
8 They feed on the sin <sup>B</sup> of My people;
they have an appetite for their transgressions.
9 The same judgment will happen to both people and priests.
I will punish them for their ways
and repay them for their deeds.
10 They will eat but not be satisfied;
they will be promiscuous but not multiply.
For they have abandoned their devotion to the LORD.
11 Promiscuity, wine, and new wine

take away one's understanding.

<sup>12</sup> My people consult their wooden idols,
and their divining rods inform them.
For a spirit of promiscuity leads them astray;
they act promiscuously
in disobedience to <sup>C</sup> their God.

<sup>13</sup> They sacrifice on the mountaintops,
and they burn offerings on the hills,
and under oaks, poplars, and terebinths,
because their shade is pleasant.
And so your daughters act promiscuously
and your daughters-in-law commit adultery.

<sup>14</sup> I will not punish your daughters
when they act promiscuously
or your daughters-in-law
when they commit adultery,
for the men themselves go off with prostitutes
and make sacrifices with cult prostitutes.
People without discernment are doomed.

Warnings for Israel and Judah

<sup>15</sup> Israel, if you act promiscuously, don't let Judah become •guilty!
Do not go to Gilgal
or make a pilgrimage to Beth-aven,
and do not swear an oath: As the LORD lives!

<sup>16</sup> For Israel is as obstinate as a stubborn cow.
Can the LORD now shepherd them
like a lamb in an open meadow?

<sup>17</sup> Ephraim is attached to idols;
leave him alone!

<sup>18</sup> When their drinking is over,
they turn to promiscuity.

Israel's leaders <sup>D</sup> fervently love disgrace. <sup>E</sup>

and they will be ashamed of their sacrifices.

5 Hear this, priests!
Pay attention, house of Israel!

Listen, royal house!

For the judgment applies to you because you have been a snare at Mizpah
and a net spread out on Tabor.

<sup>2</sup> Rebels are deeply involved in slaughter;
I will be a punishment for all of them. <sup>A</sup>

and Israel is not hidden from Me.
For now, Ephraim,
you have acted promiscuously;
Israel is defiled.

<sup>4</sup> Their actions do not allow them
to return to their God,
for a spirit of promiscuity is among them,
and they do not know the LORD.

<sup>5</sup> Israel's arrogance testifies against them. <sup>B</sup>
Both Israel and Ephraim stumble
because of their wickedness;
even Judah will stumble with them.

<sup>6</sup> They go with their flocks and herds to seek the LORD
but do not find Him;
He has withdrawn from them.

<sup>7</sup> They betrayed the LORD;
indeed, they gave birth to illegitimate children.
Now the New Moon will devour them
along with their fields.

<sup>8</sup> Blow the horn in Gibeah,
the trumpet in Ramah;
raise the war cry in Beth-aven:
After you, Benjamin!

<sup>9</sup> Ephraim will become a desolation
on the day of punishment;

I announce what is certain
among the tribes of Israel.

<sup>10</sup> The princes of Judah are like those who move boundary markers;
I will pour out My fury on them like water.

<sup>11</sup> Ephraim is oppressed, crushed in judgment, for he is determined to follow what is worthless. <sup>C</sup>

<sup>12</sup> So I am like rot to Ephraim and like decay to the house of Judah.

<sup>13</sup> When Ephraim saw his sickness
and Judah his wound, Ephraim went to Assyria
and sent a delegation to the great king. <sup>D</sup>,
But he cannot cure you or heal your wound.

<sup>14</sup> For I am like a lion to Ephraim and like a young lion to the house of Judah.
Yes, I will tear them to pieces and depart.
I will carry them off,
and no one can rescue them.

<sup>15</sup> I will depart and return to My place until they recognize their •guilt and seek My face;
they will search for Me in their distress.

A Call to Repentance

6 Come, let us return to the LORD.
For He has torn us,
and He will heal us;
He has wounded us,
and He will bind up our wounds.
2† He will revive us after two days,
and on the third day He will raise us up
so we can live in His presence.
3 Let us strive to know the LORD.
His appearance is as sure as the dawn.
He will come to us like the rain,
like the spring showers that water the land.

The LORD's First Lament

4 What am I going to do with you, Ephraim?
What am I going to do with you, Judah?
Your loyalty is like the morning mist
and like the early dew that vanishes.
5 This is why I have used the prophets to cut them down; <sup>A</sup>,
I have killed them with the words of My mouth.
My judgment strikes like lightning.
6 For I desire loyalty and not sacrifice,
the knowledge of God rather than •burnt offerings.
7 But they, like Adam, <sup>B</sup> have violated the covenant;
there they have betrayed Me.
8 Gilead is a city of evildoers,
tracked with bloody footprints.
9 Like raiders who wait in ambush for someone,
a band of priests murders on the road to Shechem.
They commit atrocities.
10 I have seen something horrible in the house of Israel:
Ephraim's promiscuity is there; Israel is defiled.
11 A harvest is also appointed for you, Judah.

When I <sup>C</sup> return My people from captivity,

7 when I heal Israel,
the sins of Ephraim and the crimes of Samaria will be exposed.

For they practice fraud;
a thief breaks in;
a raiding party pillages outside.

<sup>2</sup> But they never consider that I remember all their evil.

Now their sins are all around them;
they are right in front of My face.

Israel's Corruption

<sup>3</sup> They please the king with their evil,
the princes with their lies.

<sup>4</sup> All of them commit adultery;
they are like an oven heated by a baker
who stops stirring the fire from the kneading of the dough until it is leavened.

<sup>5</sup> On the day of our king,
the princes are sick with the heat of wine —
there is a conspiracy with traitors. <sup>A</sup>

<sup>6</sup> For they — their hearts like an oven —
draw him into their oven.
Their anger smolders all night;
in the morning it blazes like a flaming fire.

<sup>7</sup> All of them are as hot as an oven,
and they consume their rulers.
All their kings fall;
not one of them calls on Me. <sup>B</sup>

<sup>8</sup> Ephraim has allowed himself to get mixed up with the nations.
Ephraim is unturned bread baked on a griddle.

<sup>9</sup> Foreigners consume his strength,
but he does not notice.
Even his hair is streaked with gray,
but he does not notice.

<sup>10</sup> Israel's arrogance testifies against them, <sup>C</sup>,
yet they do not return to •Yahweh their God,
and for all this, they do not seek Him.

<sup>11</sup> So Ephraim has become like a silly, senseless dove;
they call to Egypt, and they go to Assyria.

<sup>12</sup> As they are going, I will spread My net over them;
I will bring them down like birds of the sky.
I will discipline them in accordance with the news that reaches <sup>D</sup> their assembly.

The LORD's Second Lament

<sup>13</sup> Woe to them, for they fled from Me;
destruction to them, for they rebelled against Me!
Though I want to redeem them,
they speak lies against Me.

<sup>14</sup> They do not cry to Me from their hearts;
rather, they wail on their beds.
They slash themselves for grain and new wine;
they turn away from Me.

<sup>15</sup> I trained and strengthened their arms,
but they plot evil against Me.

<sup>16</sup> They turn, but not to what is above;
they are like a faulty bow.
Their leaders will fall by the sword
because of the cursing of their tongue.
They will be ridiculed for this in the land of Egypt.

Israel's False Hopes

8 Put the horn to your mouth!
One like an eagle comes against the house of the LORD, because they transgress My covenant
and rebel against My law.
2 Israel cries out to Me,
“My God, we know You!”
3 Israel has rejected what is good;
an enemy will pursue him.
4 They have installed kings,
but not through Me.
They have appointed leaders,
but without My approval.
They make their silver and gold into idols for themselves for their own destruction. <sup>A</sup>
5 Your calf-idol <sup>B</sup> is rejected, Samaria.
My anger burns against them.
How long will they be incapable of innocence?
6 For this thing is from Israel — a craftsman made it, and it is not God.
The calf of Samaria will be smashed to bits!
7 Indeed, they sow the wind and reap the whirlwind.
There is no standing grain;
what sprouts fails to yield flour.
Even if they did,
foreigners would swallow it up.
8 Israel is swallowed up!
Now they are among the nations
like discarded pottery.
9 For they have gone up to Assyria
like a wild donkey going off on its own.
Ephraim has paid for love.
10 Even though they hire lovers among the nations,

I will now round them up,
and they will begin to decrease in number
under the burden of the king and leaders.

<sup>11</sup> When Ephraim multiplied his altars for sin,
they became his altars for sinning.

<sup>12</sup> Though I were to write out for him
ten thousand points of My instruction,
they would be <sup>C</sup> regarded as something strange.

<sup>13†</sup> Though they offer sacrificial gifts <sup>D</sup>,
and eat the flesh,
the LORD does not accept them.

Now He will remember their •guilt
and punish their sins;
they will return to Egypt.

<sup>14</sup> Israel has forgotten his Maker and built palaces;
Judah has also multiplied fortified cities.

I will send fire on their cities,
and it will consume their citadels.

The Coming Exile

9 Israel, do not rejoice jubilantly as the nations do, for you have acted promiscuously, leaving your God.
You have loved the wages of a prostitute
on every grain-threshing floor.

<sup>2</sup> Threshing floor and wine vat will not sustain them,
and the new wine will fail them.

<sup>3</sup> They will not stay in the land of the LORD.
Instead, Ephraim will return to Egypt,
and they will eat •unclean food in Assyria.

<sup>4</sup> They will not pour out their wine offerings to the LORD,
and their sacrifices will not please Him.
Their food will be like the bread of mourners;
all who eat it become defiled.
For their bread will be for their appetites alone;
it will not enter the house of the LORD.

<sup>5</sup> What will you do on a festival day,
on the day of the LORD's feast?

<sup>6</sup> For even if they flee from devastation,
Egypt will gather them, and Memphis will bury them.
Thistles will take possession of their precious silver;
thorns will invade their tents.

<sup>7</sup> The days of punishment have come;
the days of retribution have come.
Let Israel recognize it!
The prophet is a fool,
and the inspired man is insane,
because of the magnitude
of your •guilt and hostility.

<sup>8</sup> Ephraim's watchman is with my God.
The prophet encounters a fowler's snare
on all his ways.

Hostility is in the house of his God!

<sup>9</sup> They have deeply corrupted themselves
as in the days of Gibeah.

He will remember their guilt;
He will punish their sins.

Ephraim Bereaved of Offspring

<sup>10</sup> I discovered Israel like grapes in the wilderness.
I saw your fathers
like the first fruit of the fig tree in its first season.
But they went to Baal-peor, consecrated themselves to Shame,
and became detestable,
like the thing they loved.

<sup>11</sup> Ephraim's glory will fly away like a bird:
no birth, no gestation, no conception.

<sup>12</sup> Even if they raise children,
I will bereave them of each one.
Yes, woe to them when I depart from them!

<sup>13</sup> I have seen Ephraim like Tyre,
planted in a meadow,
so Ephraim will bring out his children
to the executioner.

<sup>14</sup> Give them, LORD —
What should You give?
Give them a womb that miscarries
and breasts that are dry!

<sup>15</sup> All their evil appears at Gilgal,
for there I came to hate them.
I will drive them from My house
because of their evil, wicked actions.
I will no longer love them;
all their leaders are rebellious.

<sup>16</sup> Ephraim is struck down;
their roots are withered;
they cannot bear fruit.
Even if they bear children,

I will kill the precious offspring of their wombs.

<sup>17</sup> My God will reject them

because they have not listened to Him;

they will become wanderers among the nations.

The Vine and the Calf

10 Israel is a lush <sup>A</sup> vine;
it yields fruit for itself.
The more his fruit increased,
the more he increased the altars.
The better his land produced,
the better they made the sacred pillars.

<sup>2</sup> Their hearts are devious; <sup>B</sup>,
now they must bear their •guilt.
The LORD will break down their altars
and demolish their sacred pillars.

<sup>3</sup> In fact, they are now saying,
“We have no king!
For we do not •fear the LORD.
What can a king do for us? ”

<sup>4</sup> They speak mere words,
taking false oaths while making covenants.
So lawsuits break out
like poisonous weeds in the furrows of a field.

<sup>5</sup> The residents of Samaria will have anxiety over the calf of Beth-aven.
Indeed, its idolatrous priests rejoiced over it;
the people will mourn over it,
over its glory.
It will certainly depart from them.

<sup>6</sup> The calf itself will be taken to Assyria
as an offering to the great king. <sup>C</sup>, Ephraim will experience shame;
Israel will be ashamed of its counsel.

<sup>7</sup> Samaria’s king will disappear <sup>D</sup>
like foam <sup>E</sup> on the surface of the water.

<sup>8</sup> The •high places of Aven, the sin of Israel,
will be destroyed;
thorns and thistles will grow over their altars.
They will say to the mountains, “Cover us! ”
and to the hills, “Fall on us! ”

Israel's Defeat because of Sin

<sup>9</sup> Israel, you have sinned
since the days of Gibeah;
they have taken their stand there.
Will not war against the unjust
overtake them in Gibeah?

<sup>10</sup> I will discipline them at My discretion;
nations will be gathered against them
to put them in bondage
for their two crimes.

<sup>11</sup> Ephraim is a well-trained calf
that loves to thresh,
but I will place a yoke on <sup>F</sup> her fine neck.
I will harness Ephraim;
Judah will plow;
Jacob will do the final plowing.

<sup>12</sup> Sow righteousness for yourselves
and reap faithful love;
break up your unplowed ground.
It is time to seek the LORD
until He comes and sends righteousness on you like the rain.

<sup>13</sup> You have plowed wickedness and reaped injustice;
you have eaten the fruit of lies.
Because you have trusted in your own way
and in your large number of soldiers,

<sup>14</sup> the roar of battle will rise against your people,
and all your fortifications will be demolished
in a day of war,
like Shalman's destruction of Beth-arbel.
Mothers will be dashed to pieces
along with their children.

<sup>15</sup> So it will be done to you, Bethel,
because of your extreme evil.

At dawn the king of Israel will be totally destroyed.

The LORD's Love for Israel

11 When Israel was a child, I loved him,
and out of Egypt I called My son.

<sup>2</sup> The more they called them,
the more they departed from Me.
They kept sacrificing to the •Baals
and burning offerings to idols.

<sup>3</sup> It was I who taught Ephraim to walk,
taking them in My arms,
but they never knew that I healed them.

<sup>4</sup> I led them with human cords,
with ropes of love.
To them I was like one who eases the yoke from their jaws;
I bent down to give them food.

<sup>5</sup> Israel will not return to the land of Egypt and Assyria will be his king,
because they refused to repent.

<sup>6</sup> A sword will whirl through his cities;
it will destroy and devour the bars of his gates, <sup>A</sup>
because of their schemes.

<sup>7</sup> My people are bent on turning from Me.
Though they call to Him on high,
He will not exalt them at all.

<sup>8</sup> How can I give you up, Ephraim?
How can I surrender you, Israel?
How can I make you like Admah?
How can I treat you like Zeboiim?
I have had a change of heart;
My compassion is stirred!

<sup>9</sup> I will not vent the full fury of My anger;
I will not turn back to destroy Ephraim.
For I am God and not man,
the Holy One among you;
I will not come in rage. <sup>B</sup>

<sup>10</sup> They will follow the LORD;

He will roar like a lion.

When He roars,

His children will come trembling from the west.

<sup>11</sup> They will be roused like birds from Egypt and like doves from the land of Assyria.

Then I will settle them in their homes.

This is the LORD's declaration.

<sup>12</sup> Ephraim surrounds me with lies,
the house of Israel, with deceit.

Judah still wanders with God
and is faithful to the holy ones. <sup>C</sup>

God's Case against Jacob's Heirs

12 Ephraim chases <sup>A</sup> the wind and pursues the east wind.
He continually multiplies lies and violence.
He makes a covenant with Assyria,
and olive oil is carried to Egypt.

<sup>2</sup> The LORD also has a dispute with Judah.
He is about to punish Jacob according to his ways;
He will repay him based on his actions.

<sup>3</sup> In the womb he grasped his brother's heel,
and as an adult he wrestled with God.

<sup>4</sup> Jacob struggled with the Angel and prevailed;
he wept and sought His favor.

He found him <sup>B</sup> at Bethel,
and there He spoke with him.

<sup>5</sup> •Yahweh is the God of •Hosts;
Yahweh is His name.

<sup>6</sup> But you must return to your God.
Maintain love and justice,
and always put your hope in God.

<sup>7</sup> A merchant loves to extort
with dishonest scales in his hands.

<sup>8</sup> But Ephraim says:
“How rich I have become;
I made it all myself.
In all my earnings,
no one can find any crime in me
that I can be punished for! ” <sup>C</sup>

Judgment on Apostate Israel

<sup>9</sup> I have been Yahweh your God
ever since the land of Egypt.
I will make you live in tents again,
as in the festival days.

<sup>10</sup> I spoke through the prophets and granted many visions;

I gave parables through the prophets.

<sup>11</sup> Since Gilead is full of evil,
they will certainly come to nothing.
They sacrifice bulls in Gilgal;
even their altars will be like heaps of rocks
on the furrows of a field.

Further Indictment of Jacob's Heirs

<sup>12</sup> Jacob fled to the land of Aram.
Israel worked to earn a wife;
he tended flocks for a wife.

<sup>13</sup> The LORD brought Israel from Egypt by a prophet, and Israel was tended by a prophet.

Does the "New Physics" Conflict with Christianity? ⇒

<sup>14</sup> Ephraim has provoked bitter anger,
so his Lord will leave his bloodguilt on him
and repay him for his contempt.

13 When Ephraim spoke, there was trembling;
he was exalted in Israel.

But he incurred •guilt through •Baal and died.

<sup>2</sup> Now they continue to sin
and make themselves a cast image,
idols skillfully made from their silver,
all of them the work of craftsmen.

People say about them,

<sup>3</sup> Therefore, they will be like the morning mist, like the early dew that vanishes,
like chaff blown from a threshing floor,
or like smoke from a window.

Death and Resurrection

<sup>4</sup> I have been •Yahweh your God
ever since the land of Egypt;
you know no God but Me,
and no Savior exists besides Me.

<sup>5</sup> I knew you in the wilderness,
in the land of drought.

<sup>6</sup> When they had pasture,
they became satisfied;
they were satisfied,
and their hearts became proud.
Therefore they forgot Me.

<sup>7</sup> So I will be like a lion to them;
I will lurk like a leopard on the path.

<sup>8</sup> I will attack them
like a bear robbed of her cubs
and tear open the rib cage over their hearts.
I will devour them there like a lioness,
like a wild beast that would rip them open.

<sup>9</sup> I will destroy you, Israel;

you have no help but Me.

<sup>10</sup> Where now is your king,
that he may save you in all your cities,
and the <sup>B</sup> rulers <sup>C</sup> you demanded, saying,
“Give me a king and leaders”?

<sup>11</sup> I give you a king in My anger and take away a king in My wrath.

<sup>12</sup> Ephraim’s guilt is preserved;
his sin is stored up.

<sup>13</sup> Labor pains come on him.
He is not a wise son;
when the time comes,
he will not be born. <sup>D</sup>

<sup>14</sup> I will ransom them from the power of •Sheol.
I will redeem <sup>E</sup> them from death.
Death, where are your barbs?
Sheol, where is your sting?
Compassion is hidden from My eyes.

The Coming Judgment

<sup>15</sup> Although he flourishes among his brothers, <sup>F</sup> an east wind will come,
a wind from the LORD rising up from the desert.
His water source will fail,
and his spring will run dry.
The wind will plunder the treasury of every precious item.

<sup>16</sup> Samaria will bear her guilt
because she has rebelled against her God.
They will fall by the sword;
their little ones will be dashed to pieces,
and their pregnant women ripped open.

A Plea to Repent

14 Israel, return to •Yahweh your God,
for you have stumbled in your sin.

<sup>2</sup> Take words of repentance with you and return to the LORD.

Say to Him: “Forgive all our sin
and accept what is good,
so that we may repay You with praise from our <sup>A</sup> lips.

<sup>3</sup> Assyria will not save us,
we will not ride on horses,
and we will no longer proclaim, ‘Our gods!’
to the work of our hands.
For the fatherless receives compassion in You.”

A Promise of Restoration

<sup>4</sup> I will heal their apostasy;
I will freely love them,
for My anger will have turned from him.

<sup>5</sup> I will be like the dew to Israel;
he will blossom like the lily
and take root like the cedars of Lebanon.

<sup>6</sup> His new branches will spread,
and his splendor will be like the olive tree,
his fragrance, like the forest of Lebanon.

<sup>7</sup> The people will return and live beneath his shade.
They will grow grain
and blossom like the vine.
His renown will be like the wine of Lebanon.

<sup>8</sup> Ephraim, why should I have anything more to do with idols?
It is I who answer and watch over him.
I am like a flourishing pine tree;
your fruit comes from Me.

<sup>9</sup> Let whoever is wise understand these things,

and whoever is insightful recognize them.
For the ways of the LORD are right,
and the righteous walk in them,
but the rebellious stumble in them.

Chapter 3

Judgment of the Nations (Joel 3:1-16)

Israel Blessed (Joel 3:17-21)

JOEL

1 The word of the LORD that came to Joel son of Pethuel:

A Plague of Locusts

<sup>2</sup> Hear this, you elders;
listen, all you inhabitants of the land.
Has anything like this ever happened in your days
or in the days of your ancestors?

<sup>3</sup> Tell your children about it,
and let your children tell their children,
and their children the next generation.

<sup>4</sup> What the devouring locust has left,
the swarming locust has eaten;
what the swarming locust has left,
the young locust has eaten;
and what the young locust has left,
the destroying locust has eaten.

<sup>5</sup> Wake up, you drunkards, and weep;
wail, all you wine drinkers,
because of the sweet wine,
for it has been taken from your mouth.

<sup>6</sup> For a nation has invaded My land, powerful and without number;
its teeth are the teeth of a lion,
and it has the fangs of a lioness.

<sup>7</sup> It has devastated My grapevine
and splintered My fig tree.
It has stripped off its bark and thrown it away;
its branches have turned white.

<sup>8</sup> Grieve like a young woman dressed in •sackcloth,
mourning for the husband of her youth.

<sup>9</sup> •Grain and •drink offerings have been cut off from the house of the LORD;
the priests, who are ministers of the LORD, mourn.

<sup>10</sup> The fields are destroyed;
the land grieves;

indeed, the grain is destroyed;
the new wine is dried up;
and the olive oil fails.

<sup>11</sup> Be ashamed, you farmers, wail, you vinedressers, <sup>A</sup>
over the wheat and the barley,
because the harvest of the field has perished.

<sup>12</sup> The grapevine is dried up,
and the fig tree is withered;
the pomegranate, the date palm, and the apple —
all the trees of the orchard — have withered.
Indeed, human joy has dried up.

<sup>13</sup> Dress in sackcloth and lament, you priests;
wail, you ministers of the altar.
Come and spend the night in sackcloth,
you ministers of my God,
because grain and drink offerings
are withheld from the house of your God.

<sup>14</sup> Announce a sacred fast;
proclaim an assembly!
Gather the elders
and all the residents of the land
at the house of the LORD your God,
and cry out to the LORD.

The Day of the LORD

<sup>15†</sup> Woe because of that day!
For the Day of the LORD is near
and will come as devastation from the •Almighty.

<sup>16</sup> Hasn't the food been cut off
before our eyes,
joy and gladness
from the house of our God?

<sup>17</sup> The seeds lie shriveled in their casings. <sup>B</sup>,
The storehouses are in ruin,

and the granaries are broken down,
because the grain has withered away.

<sup>18</sup> How the animals groan!

The herds of cattle wander in confusion
since they have no pasture.

Even the flocks of sheep suffer punishment.

<sup>19</sup> I call to You, LORD,

for fire has consumed
the pastures of the wilderness,
and flames have devoured
all the trees of the countryside.

<sup>20</sup> Even the wild animals cry out to <sup>C</sup> You,
for the river beds are dried up,
and fire has consumed
the pastures of the wilderness.

JOEL

2 † Blow the horn in •Zion;
sound the alarm on My holy mountain!
Let all the residents of the land tremble,
for the Day of the LORD is coming;
in fact, it is near —
2 a day of darkness and gloom,
a day of clouds and dense overcast,
like the dawn spreading over the mountains;
a great and strong people appears,
such as never existed in ages past and never will again
in all the generations to come.

What Is the Relationship Between Science and the Bible? ⇒

---

3 A fire destroys <sup>A</sup> in front of them,
and behind them a flame devours.
The land in front of them
is like the Garden of Eden,
but behind them,
it is like a desert wasteland;
there is no escape from them.
4 Their appearance is like that of horses,
and they gallop like war horses.
5 They bound on the tops of the mountains.
Their sound is like the sound of chariots,
like the sound of fiery flames consuming stubble,
like a mighty army deployed for war.
6 Nations writhe in horror before them;
all faces turn pale.
7 They attack as warriors attack;

they scale walls as men of war do.
Each goes on his own path,
and they do not change their course.

<sup>8</sup> They do not push each other;
each man proceeds on his own path.
They dodge the arrows, never stopping.

<sup>9</sup> They storm the city;
they run on the wall;
they climb into the houses;
they enter through the windows like thieves.

<sup>10</sup> The earth quakes before them;
the sky shakes.
The sun and moon grow dark,
and the stars cease their shining.

<sup>11</sup> The LORD raises His voice
in the presence of His army.
His camp is very large;
Those who carry out His command are powerful.
Indeed, the Day of the LORD is terrible and dreadful — who can endure it?

God's Call for Repentance

<sup>12</sup> Even now —
turn to Me with all your heart,
with fasting, weeping, and mourning.

this is the LORD's declaration —

<sup>13</sup> Tear your hearts,
not just your clothes,
and return to the LORD your God.
For He is gracious and compassionate,
slow to anger, rich in faithful love,
and He relents from sending disaster.

<sup>14</sup> Who knows? He may turn and relent and leave a blessing behind Him,
so you can offer grain and wine
to the LORD your God.

<sup>15</sup> Blow the horn in Zion!
Announce a sacred fast;
proclaim an assembly.

<sup>16</sup> Gather the people;
sanctify the congregation;
assemble the aged; <sup>B</sup>
gather the children,
even those nursing at the breast.

Let the groom leave his bedroom,
and the bride her honeymoon chamber.

<sup>17</sup> Let the priests, the LORD's ministers, weep between the portico and the altar.

Let them say:

“Have pity on Your people, LORD,
and do not make Your inheritance a disgrace,
an object of scorn among the nations.

Why should it be said among the peoples,
‘Where is their God?’ ”

God's Response to His People

<sup>18†</sup> Then the LORD became jealous for His land and spared His people.

<sup>19</sup> The LORD answered His people:

Look, I am about to send you grain, new wine, and olive oil.
You will be satiated with them,
and I will no longer make you
a disgrace among the nations.

<sup>20</sup> I will drive the northerner far from you and banish him to a dry and desolate land,
his front ranks into the Dead Sea,
and his rear guard into the Mediterranean Sea.
His stench will rise;
yes, his rotten smell will rise,
for he has done catastrophic things.

<sup>21</sup> Don't be afraid, land;
rejoice and be glad,
for the LORD has done great things.

<sup>22</sup> Don't be afraid, wild animals,
for the wilderness pastures have turned green,
the trees bear their fruit,
and the fig tree and grapevine yield their riches.

<sup>23</sup> Children of Zion, rejoice and be glad
in the LORD your God,
because He gives you the autumn rain
for your vindication. <sup>C</sup>

He sends showers for you,
both autumn and spring rain as before.

<sup>24</sup> The threshing floors will be full of grain, and the vats will overflow
with new wine and olive oil.

<sup>25</sup> I will repay you for the years that the swarming locust ate,
the young locust, the destroying locust,
and the devouring locust —
My great army that I sent against you.

<sup>26</sup> You will have plenty to eat and be satisfied.
You will praise the name of •Yahweh your God,
who has dealt wondrously with you.
My people will never again be put to shame.

<sup>27</sup> You will know that I am present in Israel and that I am Yahweh your God,
and there is no other.
My people will never again be put to shame.

God's Promise of His Spirit

<sup>28</sup> After this
I will pour out My Spirit on all humanity;
then your sons and your daughters will prophesy,
your old men will have dreams,

and your young men will see visions.

<sup>29</sup> I will even pour out My Spirit
on the male and female slaves in those days.

<sup>30</sup> I will display wonders
in the heavens and on the earth:
blood, fire, and columns of smoke.

<sup>31</sup> The sun will be turned to darkness
and the moon to blood
before the great and awe-inspiring Day of the LORD comes.

<sup>32</sup> Then everyone who calls on the name of Yahweh will be saved,
for there will be an escape
for those on Mount Zion and in Jerusalem,
as the LORD promised,
among the survivors the LORD calls.

Judgment of the Nations

<sup>1</sup>Yes, in those days and at that time,
when I restore the fortunes of Judah and Jerusalem,

<sup>2</sup> I will gather all the nations
and take them to the Valley of Jehoshaphat.
I will enter into judgment with them there because of My people, My inheritance Israel.
The nations have scattered the Israelites in foreign countries and divided up My land.

<sup>3</sup> They cast lots for My people;
they bartered a boy for a prostitute
and sold a girl for wine to drink.

<sup>4</sup> And also: Tyre, Sidon, and all the territories of Philistia — what are you to Me? Are you paying Me back or trying to get even with Me? I will quickly bring retribution on your heads. <sup>5</sup> For you took My silver and gold and carried My finest treasures to your temples. <sup>6</sup> You sold the people of Judah and Jerusalem to the Greeks to remove them far from their own territory. <sup>7</sup> Look, I am about to rouse them up from the place where you sold them; I will bring retribution on your heads. <sup>8</sup> I will sell your sons and daughters into the hands of the people of Judah, and they will sell them to the Sabeans, to a distant nation, for the LORD has spoken.

<sup>9</sup> Proclaim this among the nations:
Prepare for holy war;
rouse the warriors;
let all the men of war advance and attack!

<sup>10</sup> Beat your plows into swords
and your pruning knives into spears.
Let even the weakling say, “I am a warrior.”

<sup>11</sup> Come quickly, all you surrounding nations;

gather yourselves.
Bring down Your warriors there, LORD.

<sup>12</sup> Let the nations be roused
and come to the Valley of Jehoshaphat, for there I will sit down
to judge all the surrounding nations.

<sup>13</sup> Swing the sickle
because the harvest is ripe.
Come and trample the grapes
because the winepress is full;
the wine vats overflow
because the wickedness of the nations is great.

<sup>14</sup> Multitudes, multitudes
in the valley of decision!
For the Day of the LORD is near
in the valley of decision.

<sup>15</sup> The sun and moon will grow dark,
and the stars will cease their shining.

<sup>16</sup> The LORD will roar from •Zion
and raise His voice from Jerusalem;
heaven and earth will shake.
But the LORD will be a refuge for His people,
a stronghold for the Israelites.

Israel Blessed

<sup>17</sup> Then you will know that I am •Yahweh your God, who dwells in Zion, My holy mountain.
Jerusalem will be holy,
and foreigners will never overrun it again.

<sup>18</sup> In that day
the mountains will drip with sweet wine,
and the hills will flow with milk.
All the streams of Judah will flow with water,
and a spring will issue from the LORD's house,

watering the Valley of Acacias. <sup>A</sup>

<sup>19</sup> Egypt will become desolate,
and Edom a desert wasteland,
because of the violence done to the people of Judah
in whose land they shed innocent blood.

<sup>20</sup> But Judah will be inhabited forever,
and Jerusalem from generation to generation.

<sup>21</sup> I will pardon their bloodguilt,
which I have not pardoned,
for the LORD dwells in Zion.

AMOS

1 The words of Amos, who was one of the sheep breeders <sup>A</sup> from Tekoa — what he saw regarding Israel in the days of Uzziah, king of Judah, and Jeroboam son of Jehoash, king of Israel, two years before the earthquake.

<sup>2</sup> He said:

The LORD roars from •Zion
and raises His voice from Jerusalem;
the pastures of the shepherds mourn, <sup>B</sup>
and the summit of Carmel withers.

Judgment on Israel's Neighbors

<sup>3</sup> The LORD says:

I will not relent from punishing Damascus
for three crimes, even four,
because they threshed Gilead with iron sledges.

<sup>4</sup> Therefore, I will send fire against Hazael's palace, and it will consume Ben-hadad's citadels.

I will cut off the ruler from the Valley of Aven,
and the one who wields the scepter from Beth-eden.
The people of Aram will be exiled to Kir.
The LORD has spoken.

<sup>6</sup> The LORD says:

I will not relent from punishing Gaza
for three crimes, even four,
because they exiled a whole community,
handing them over to Edom.

<sup>7</sup> Therefore, I will send fire against the walls of Gaza,
and it will consume its citadels.

<sup>8</sup> I will cut off the ruler from Ashdod,
and the one who wields the scepter from Ashkelon.

I will also turn My hand against Ekron,
and the remainder of the Philistines will perish.
The Lord GOD has spoken.

<sup>9</sup> The LORD says:

I will not relent from punishing Tyre
for three crimes, even four,
because they handed over a whole community of exiles to Edom
and broke <sup>D</sup> a treaty of brotherhood.

<sup>10</sup> Therefore, I will send fire against the walls of Tyre,
and it will consume its citadels.

<sup>11</sup> The LORD says:

I will not relent from punishing Edom
for three crimes, even four,
because he pursued his brother with the sword.
He stifled his compassion,
his anger tore at them continually,
and he harbored his rage incessantly.

<sup>12</sup> Therefore, I will send fire against Teman,
and it will consume the citadels of Bozrah.

<sup>13</sup> The LORD says:

I will not relent from punishing the Ammonites
for three crimes, even four,
because they ripped open
the pregnant women of Gilead
in order to enlarge their territory.

<sup>14</sup> Therefore, I will set fire to the walls of Rabbah,
and it will consume its citadels.

There will be shouting on the day of battle and a violent wind on the day of the storm.

<sup>15</sup> Their king and his princes

will go into exile together.
The LORD has spoken.

2 The LORD says:

I will not relent from punishing Moab
for three crimes, even four,
because he burned the bones
of the king of Edom to lime.

<sup>2</sup> Therefore, I will send fire against Moab,
and it will consume the citadels of Kerioth.
Moab will die with a tumult,
with shouting and the sound of the ram's horn.

<sup>3</sup> I will cut off the judge from the land and kill all its officials with him.
The LORD has spoken.

Judgment on Judah

<sup>4</sup> The LORD says:

I will not relent from punishing Judah
for three crimes, even four,
because they have rejected the instruction of the LORD
and have not kept His statutes.
The lies that their ancestors followed have led them astray.

<sup>5</sup> Therefore, I will send fire against Judah,
and it will consume the citadels of Jerusalem.

Judgment on Israel

<sup>6</sup> The LORD says:

I will not relent from punishing Israel
for three crimes, even four,
because they sell a righteous person for silver and a needy person for a pair of sandals.

<sup>7</sup> They trample the heads of the poor
on the dust of the ground and block the path of the needy.

A man and his father have sexual relations with the same girl,
profaning My holy name.

<sup>8</sup> They stretch out beside every altar
on garments taken as collateral,
and in the house of their God,
they drink wine obtained through fines.

<sup>9</sup> Yet I destroyed the Amorite as Israel advanced;
his height was like the cedars,
and he was as sturdy as the oaks;
I destroyed his fruit above and his roots beneath.

<sup>10</sup> And I brought you from the land of Egypt and led you 40 years in the wilderness
in order to possess the land of the Amorite.

<sup>11</sup> I raised up some of your sons as prophets and some of your young men as Nazirites.
Is this not the case, Israelites?

This is the LORD's declaration.

<sup>12</sup> But you made the Nazirites drink wine
and commanded the prophets,
"Do not prophesy."

<sup>13</sup> Look, I am about to crush <sup>A</sup> you in your place as a wagon full of sheaves crushes grain.

<sup>14</sup> Escape will fail the swift,
the strong one will not prevail by his strength,
and the brave will not save his life.

<sup>15</sup> The archer will not stand his ground,
the one who is swift of foot
will not save himself,
and the one riding a horse will not save his life.

<sup>16</sup> Even the most courageous of the warriors will flee naked on that day —

this is the LORD's declaration.

God's Reasons for Punishing Israel

3 † Listen to this message that the LORD has spoken against you, Israelites, against the entire clan that I brought from the land of Egypt:

2 I have known only you
out of all the clans of the earth;
therefore, I will punish you for all your iniquities.

3 Can two walk together
without agreeing to meet?

4 Does a lion roar in the forest
when it has no prey?
Does a young lion growl from its lair
unless it has captured something?

5 Does a bird land in a trap on the ground
if there is no bait for it?
Does a trap spring from the ground
when it has caught nothing?

6 If a ram's horn is blown in a city,
aren't people afraid?
If a disaster occurs in a city,
hasn't the LORD done it?

7 Indeed, the Lord GOD does nothing without revealing His counsel to His servants the prophets.

8 A lion has roared;
who will not fear?
The Lord GOD has spoken;
who will not prophesy?

9 Proclaim on the citadels in Ashdod
and on the citadels in the land of Egypt:
Assemble on the mountains of Samaria and see the great turmoil in the city and the acts of oppression within it.

10 The people are incapable of doing right — those who store up violence and                      this is the LORD's declaration — destruction

in their citadels.

<sup>11</sup> Therefore, the Lord GOD says:

An enemy will surround the land;
he will destroy your strongholds
and plunder your citadels.

<sup>12</sup> The LORD says:

As the shepherd snatches two legs
or a piece of an ear
from the lion's mouth,
so the Israelites who live in Samaria
will be rescued
with only the corner of a bed
or the <sup>A</sup> cushion <sup>B</sup> of a couch.

<sup>14</sup> I will punish the God of •Hosts. this is the declaration of the Lord GOD, the altars of Bethel
on the day I punish Israel for its crimes;
the horns of the altar will be cut off
and fall to the ground.

<sup>15</sup> I will demolish the winter house
and the summer house;
the houses inlaid with ivory will be destroyed,
and the great houses will come to an end.

This is the LORD's declaration.

Social and Spiritual Corruption

4 Listen to this message, you cows of Bashan who are on the hill of Samaria, women who oppress the poor
and crush the needy,
who say to their husbands,
“Bring us something to drink.”

<sup>2</sup> The Lord GOD has sworn by His holiness:

Look, the days are coming <sup>A</sup>
when you will be taken away with hooks,
every last one of you with fishhooks.
<sup>3</sup> You will go through breaches in the wall,
each woman straight ahead,
and you will be driven along toward Harmon.

This is the LORD’s declaration.

<sup>4</sup> Come to Bethel and rebel;
rebel even more at Gilgal!
Bring your sacrifices every morning,
your tenths every three days.

<sup>5</sup> Offer leavened bread as a thank offering,
and loudly proclaim your freewill offerings,
for that is what you Israelites love to do!

This is the LORD’s declaration.

God’s Discipline and Israel’s Apostasy

<sup>6</sup> I gave you absolutely nothing to eat <sup>B</sup> in all your cities,
a shortage of food in all your communities,
yet you did not return to Me.

This is the LORD’s declaration.

<sup>7</sup> I also withheld the rain from you while there were still three months until harvest.
I sent rain on one city

but no rain on another.
One field received rain
while a field with no rain withered.

<sup>8</sup> Two or three cities staggered to another city to drink water
but were not satisfied,
yet you did not return to Me.

This is the LORD's declaration.

<sup>9</sup> I struck you with blight and mildew;
the locust devoured
your many gardens and vineyards,
your fig trees and olive trees,
yet you did not return to Me.

This is the LORD's declaration.

<sup>10</sup> I sent plagues like those of Egypt;
I killed your young men with the sword,
along with your captured horses.
I caused the stench of your camp
to fill your nostrils,
yet you did not return to Me.

This is the LORD's declaration.

<sup>11</sup> I overthrew some of you
as I <sup>C</sup> overthrew Sodom and Gomorrah, and you were like a burning stick snatched from a fire,
yet you did not return to Me —

this is the LORD's declaration.

<sup>12</sup> Therefore, Israel, that is what I will do to you, and since I will do that to you,
Israel, prepare to meet your God!

<sup>13</sup> He is here:
the One who forms the mountains,
creates the wind,

and reveals His <sup>D</sup> thoughts to man,
the One who makes the dawn out of darkness
and strides on the heights of the earth.
•Yahweh, the God of •Hosts, is His name.

Lamentation for Israel

5 Listen to this message that I am singing for you, a lament, house of Israel:

2 She has fallen;
Virgin Israel will never rise again.
She lies abandoned on her land,
with no one to raise her up.

3 For the Lord GOD says:

The city that marches out a thousand strong will have only a hundred left,
and the one that marches out a hundred strong will have only ten left in the house of Israel.

Seek God and Live

4 For the LORD says to the house of Israel:

Seek Me and live!

5 Do not seek Bethel or go to Gilgal
or journey to Beer-sheba,
for Gilgal will certainly go into exile,
and Bethel will come to nothing.

6 Seek •Yahweh and live,
or He will spread like fire
throughout the house of Joseph;
it will consume everything,
with no one at Bethel to extinguish it.

7 Those who turn justice into •wormwood throw righteousness to the ground.

8 The One who made the Pleiades and Orion, who turns darkness <sup>A</sup> into dawn
and darkens day into night,
who summons the waters of the sea

and pours them out over the face of the earth —
Yahweh is His name.

<sup>9</sup> He brings destruction <sup>B</sup> on the strong, <sup>C</sup>
and it falls on the stronghold.

Does the Design Argument Show There Is a God? ⇒

---

<sup>10</sup> They hate the one who convicts the •guilty at the city •gate
and despise the one who speaks with integrity.

<sup>11</sup> Therefore, because you trample on the poor and exact a grain tax from him,
you will never live in the houses of cut stone
you have built;
you will never drink the wine
from the lush vineyards
you have planted.

<sup>12</sup> For I know your crimes are many
and your sins innumerable.
They oppress the righteous, take a bribe,
and deprive the poor of justice at the gates.

<sup>13</sup> Therefore, the wise person will keep silent <sup>D</sup> at such a time,
for the days are evil.

<sup>14</sup> Seek good and not evil
so that you may live,
and the LORD, the God of •Hosts,
will be with you,
as you have claimed.

<sup>15</sup> Hate evil and love good;
establish justice in the gate.

Perhaps the LORD, the God of Hosts, will be gracious to the remnant of Joseph.

<sup>16</sup> Therefore Yahweh, the God of Hosts, the Lord, says:

There will be wailing in all the public squares;
they will cry out in anguish <sup>E</sup> in all the streets.
The farmer will be called on to mourn,
and professional mourners <sup>F</sup> to wail.

<sup>17</sup> There will be wailing in all the vineyards,
for I will pass among you.
The LORD has spoken.

The Day of the LORD

<sup>18†</sup> Woe to you who long for the Day of the LORD!
What will the Day of the LORD be for you?
It will be darkness and not light.

<sup>19</sup> It will be like a man who flees from a lion
only to have a bear confront him.
He goes home and rests his hand against the wall
only to have a snake bite him.

<sup>20</sup> Won't the Day of the LORD
be darkness rather than light,
even gloom without any brightness in it?

<sup>21</sup> I hate, I despise your feasts!
I can't stand the stench
of your solemn assemblies.

<sup>22</sup> Even if you offer Me
your •burnt offerings and •grain offerings,
I will not accept them;
I will have no regard for your •fellowship offerings of fattened cattle.

I will not listen to the music of your harps.

and righteousness, like an unfailing stream.

<sup>25†</sup> “House of Israel, was it sacrifices and grain offerings that you presented to Me during the 40 years in the wilderness? <sup>26</sup> But you have taken up <sup>G</sup> Sakkuth your king and Kaiwan your star god, images you have made for yourselves. <sup>27</sup> So I will send you into exile beyond Damascus.”
Yahweh, the God of Hosts, is His name. He has spoken.

Woe to the Complacent

6 Woe to those who are at ease in •Zion and to those who feel secure on the hill of Samaria —
the notable people in this first of the nations, those the house of Israel comes to.

<sup>2</sup> Cross over to Calneh and see;
go from there to great Hamath;
then go down to Gath of the Philistines.

Are you better than these kingdoms?
Is their territory larger than yours?

<sup>3</sup> You dismiss any thought of the evil day
and bring in a reign of violence.

<sup>4</sup> They lie on beds inlaid with ivory,
sprawled out on their couches,
and dine on lambs from the flock
and calves from the stall.

<sup>5</sup> They improvise songs <sup>A</sup> to the sound of the harp and invent <sup>B</sup> their own musical instruments like David.

<sup>6</sup> They drink wine by the bowlful
and anoint themselves with the finest oils
but do not grieve over the ruin of Joseph.

<sup>7</sup> Therefore, they will now go into exile
as the first of the captives,
and the feasting of those who sprawl out will come to an end.

Israel's Pride Judged

<sup>8</sup> The Lord GOD has sworn by Himself — this is the declaration of •Yahweh, the God of •Hosts:

I loathe Jacob's pride
and hate his citadels,
so I will hand over the city and everything in it.

<sup>9</sup> And if there are 10 men left in one house, they will die. <sup>10</sup> A close relative <sup>C</sup> and burner will remove his corpse <sup>D</sup> from the house. He will call to someone in the inner recesses of the house, “Any more with you? ”

That person will reply, “None.”

Then he will say, “Silence, because Yahweh’s name must not be invoked.”

<sup>11</sup> For the LORD commands:

The large house will be smashed to pieces,
and the small house to rubble.

<sup>12</sup> Do horses gallop on the cliffs;
does anyone plow there with oxen?
Yet you have turned justice into poison
and the fruit of righteousness into •wormwood —

<sup>13</sup> you who rejoice over Lo-debar
and say, “Didn’t we capture Karnaim for ourselves by our own strength? ”

<sup>14</sup> But look, I am raising up a nation against you, house of Israel — and they will the GOD of Hosts —this is the declaration of the Lord, oppress you
from the entrance of Hamath <sup>E</sup>, to the Brook of the •Arabah.

First Vision: Locusts

<sup>7</sup> The Lord GOD showed me this: He was forming a swarm of locusts at the time the spring crop first began to sprout — after the cutting of the king’s hay. <sup>2</sup> When the locusts finished eating the vegetation of the land, I said, “Lord GOD, please forgive! How will Jacob survive since he is so small? ”

<sup>3</sup> The LORD relented concerning this. “It will not happen,” He said.

Second Vision: Fire

<sup>4</sup> The Lord GOD showed me this: The Lord GOD was calling for a judgment by fire. It consumed the great deep and devoured the land. <sup>5</sup> Then I said, “Lord GOD, please stop! How will Jacob survive since he is so small? ”

<sup>6</sup> The LORD relented concerning this. “This will not happen either,” said the Lord GOD.

Third Vision: A Plumb Line

<sup>7</sup> He showed me this: The Lord was standing there by a vertical wall with a plumb line in His hand. <sup>8</sup> The LORD asked me, “What do you see, Amos? ”

I replied, “A plumb line.”

Then the Lord said, “I am setting a plumb line among My people Israel; I will no longer spare them:

<sup>9</sup> Isaac’s •high places will be deserted,
and Israel’s sanctuaries will be in ruins;
I will rise up against the house of Jeroboam
with a sword.”

Amaziah’s Opposition

<sup>10†</sup> Amaziah the priest of Bethel sent word to Jeroboam king of Israel, saying, “Amos has conspired against you right here in the house of Israel. The land cannot endure all his words, <sup>11</sup> for Amos has said this: ‘Jeroboam will die by the sword, and Israel will certainly go into exile from its homeland.’ ”

<sup>12</sup> Then Amaziah said to Amos, “Go away, you seer! Flee to the land of Judah. Earn your living <sup>A</sup> and give your prophecies there, <sup>13</sup> but don’t ever prophesy at Bethel again, for it is the king’s sanctuary and a royal temple.”

<sup>14</sup> So Amos answered Amaziah, “I was <sup>B</sup> not a prophet or the son of a prophet; rather, I was <sup>C</sup> a herdsman, and I took care of sycamore figs. <sup>15</sup> But the LORD took me from following the flock and said to me, ‘Go, prophesy to My people Israel.’ ”

Do not prophesy against Israel;
do not preach against the house of Isaac.

<sup>17†</sup> Therefore, this is what the LORD says:

Your wife will be a prostitute in the city,
your sons and daughters will fall by the sword,
and your land will be divided up with a measuring line.

You yourself will die on pagan <sup>D</sup> soil,
and Israel will certainly go into exile
from its homeland.

Fourth Vision: A Basket of Summer Fruit

8 The Lord GOD showed me this: A basket of summer fruit. <sup>2</sup> He asked me, “What do you see, Amos?”

I replied, “A basket of summer fruit.”

The LORD said to me, “The end has come for My people Israel; I will no longer spare them. <sup>3</sup> In that day the temple <sup>A</sup> songs will become wailing” — this is the Lord GOD’s declaration. “Many dead bodies, thrown everywhere! Silence!”

<sup>4</sup> Hear this, you who trample on the needy and do away with the poor of the land, <sup>5</sup> asking, “When will the New Moon be over
so we may sell grain,
and the Sabbath,
so we may market wheat?
We can reduce the measure
while increasing the price <sup>B</sup>
and cheat with dishonest scales.
<sup>6</sup> We can buy the poor with silver and the needy for a pair of sandals and even sell the chaff!”

<sup>7</sup> The LORD has sworn by the Pride of Jacob:

I will never forget all their deeds.

<sup>8</sup> Because of this, won’t the land quake
and all who dwell in it mourn?
All of it will rise like the Nile;
it will surge and then subside
like the Nile in Egypt.

<sup>9</sup> And in that day —

I will make the sun go down at noon;
this is the declaration of the Lord GOD —
noon;

I will darken the land in the daytime.

<sup>10</sup> I will turn your feasts into mourning

and all your songs into lamentation;
I will cause everyone <sup>C</sup> to wear •sackcloth
and every head to be shaved.
I will make that grief
like mourning for an only son
and its outcome like a bitter day.

<sup>11</sup> Hear this! The days are coming — when I will send a famine            this is the declaration of the Lord GOD — through the land:
not a famine of bread or a thirst for water,
but of hearing the words of the LORD.

<sup>12</sup> People will stagger from sea to sea
and roam from north to east,
seeking the word of the LORD,
but they will not find it.

<sup>13</sup> In that day the beautiful young women,
the young men also, will faint from thirst.

<sup>14</sup> Those who swear by the •guilt of Samaria and say, “As your god lives, Dan,”
or “As the way of Beer-sheba lives” —
they will fall, never to rise again.

Fifth Vision: The LORD beside the Altar

9 I saw the Lord standing beside the altar, and He said:

Strike the capitals of the pillars
so that the thresholds shake;
knock them down on the heads of all the people.
Then I will kill the rest of them with the sword.
None of those who flee will get away;
none of the fugitives will escape.

<sup>2</sup> If they dig down to •Sheol,
from there My hand will take them;
if they climb up to heaven,
from there I will bring them down.

<sup>3</sup> If they hide themselves
on the top of Carmel,
from there I will track them down
and seize them;
if they conceal themselves
from My sight on the sea floor,
from there I will command
the sea serpent to bite them.

<sup>4</sup> And if they are driven by their enemies into captivity,
from there I will command
the sword to kill them.
I will fix My eyes on them
for harm and not for good.

<sup>5</sup> The Lord, the GOD of •Hosts —
He touches the earth;
it melts, and all who dwell in it mourn;
all of it rises like the Nile
and subsides like the Nile of Egypt.

<sup>6</sup> He builds His upper chambers
in the heavens
and lays the foundation of His vault
on the earth.
He summons the waters of the sea

and pours them out on the face of the earth.
•Yahweh is His name.

Announcement of Judgment

<sup>7†</sup> Israelites, are you not like the •Cushites to Me?
Didn't I bring Israel from the land of Egypt,
the Philistines from Caphtor,
and the Arameans from Kir? This is the LORD's declaration.

<sup>8</sup> Look, the eyes of the Lord GOD
are on the sinful kingdom,
and I will destroy it
from the face of the earth.

However, I will not totally destroy
the house of Jacob —

<sup>9</sup> for I am about to give the command, this is the LORD's declaration — and I will shake the house of Israel
among all the nations,
as one shakes a sieve,
but not a pebble will fall to the ground.

<sup>10</sup> All the sinners among My people who say: "Disaster will never overtake <sup>A</sup> or confront us,"
will die by the sword.

Announcement of Restoration

<sup>11</sup> In that day
I will restore the fallen booth of David:
I will repair its gaps,
restore its ruins,
and rebuild it as in the days of old,

<sup>12</sup> so that they may possess
the remnant of Edom
and all the nations
that are called by My name —

this is the LORD's declaration —

He will do this.

when the plowman will overtake the reaper
and the one who treads grapes,
the sower of seed.

The mountains will drip with sweet wine,
and all the hills will flow with it.

<sup>14</sup> I will restore the fortunes of My people Israel. <sup>B</sup>
They will rebuild and occupy ruined cities,
plant vineyards and drink their wine,
make gardens and eat their produce.

<sup>15</sup> I will plant them on their land,
and they will never again be uprooted
from the land I have given them.
Yahweh your God has spoken.

this is the LORD's declaration —

Edom's Certain Judgment

This is what the Lord GOD has said about Edom:

We have heard a message from the LORD;
a messenger has been sent among the nations:
“Rise up, and let us go to war against her.”

<sup>2</sup> Look, I will make you insignificant
among the nations;
you will be deeply despised.

<sup>3</sup> Your presumptuous heart has deceived you,
you who live in clefts of the rock <sup>A</sup>, ,
in your home on the heights,
who say to yourself,
“Who can bring me down to the ground? ”

<sup>4</sup> Though you seem to soar <sup>B</sup> like an eagle and make your nest among the stars,
even from there I will bring you down.

This is the LORD's declaration.

<sup>5</sup> If thieves came to you,
if marauders by night —
how ravaged you would be! — wouldn't they steal only what they wanted?
If grape pickers came to you,
wouldn't they leave some grapes?

<sup>6</sup> How Esau will be pillaged,
his hidden treasures searched out!

<sup>7</sup> Everyone who has a treaty with you will drive you to the border;
everyone at peace with you
will deceive and conquer you.
Those who eat your bread
will set a trap for you.
He will be unaware of it.

<sup>8</sup> In that day —
will I not eliminate the wise ones                      this is the LORD's declaration — of Edom
and those who understand
from the hill country of Esau?
<sup>9</sup> Teman, your warriors will be terrified
so that everyone from the hill country of Esau
will be destroyed by slaughter.

Edom's Sins against Judah

<sup>10†</sup> You will be covered with shame and destroyed forever
because of violence done to your brother Jacob.
<sup>11</sup> On the day you stood aloof,
on the day strangers captured his wealth, <sup>C</sup> while foreigners entered his •gate
and cast lots for Jerusalem,
you were just like one of them.
<sup>12</sup> Do not <sup>D</sup> gloat over your brother
in the day of his calamity;
do not rejoice over the people of Judah
in the day of their destruction;
do not boastfully mock <sup>E</sup>
in the day of distress.
<sup>13</sup> Do not enter the gate of My people
in the day of their disaster.
Yes, you — do not gloat over their misery
in the day of their disaster
and do not appropriate their possessions
in the day of their disaster.
<sup>14</sup> Do not stand at the crossroads <sup>F</sup>
to cut off their fugitives,
and do not hand over their survivors
in the day of distress.

<sup>15</sup> For the Day of the LORD is near,
against all the nations.
As you have done, so it will be done to you;
what you deserve will return on your own head.
<sup>16</sup> As you have drunk on My holy mountain,
so all the nations will drink continually.
They will drink and gulp down and be as though they had never been.
<sup>17</sup> But there will be a deliverance on Mount •Zion,
and it will be holy;
the house of Jacob will dispossess
those who dispossessed them.
<sup>18</sup> Then the house of Jacob will be a blazing fire,
and the house of Joseph, a burning flame,
but the house of Esau will be stubble;
Jacob <sup>G</sup> will set them on fire and consume Edom. <sup>H</sup> Therefore no survivor will remain
of the house of Esau,
for the LORD has spoken.

Future Blessing for Israel

<sup>19</sup> People from the •Negev will possess
the hill country of Esau;
those from the Judean foothills will possess
the land of the Philistines.
They will possess
the territories of Ephraim and Samaria,
while Benjamin will possess Gilead.
<sup>20</sup> The exiles of the Israelites who are in Halah <sup>I</sup>
and who are among the Canaanites as far as Zarephath
as well as the exiles of Jerusalem who are in Sepharad will possess the cities of the Negev.
<sup>21</sup> Saviors <sup>J</sup> will ascend Mount Zion
to rule over the hill country of Esau, but the kingdom will be the LORD's.

Jonah's Flight

1 The word of the LORD came to Jonah son of Amittai: <sup>2</sup> “Get up! Go to the great city of Nineveh and preach against it, because their wickedness has confronted <sup>A</sup> Me.” <sup>3†</sup> However, Jonah got up to flee to Tarshish from the LORD’s presence. He went down to Joppa and found a ship going to Tarshish. He paid the fare and went down into it to go with them to Tarshish, from the LORD’s presence.

<sup>4</sup> Then the LORD hurled a violent wind on the sea, and such a violent storm arose on the sea that the ship threatened to break apart. <sup>5</sup> The sailors were afraid, and each cried out to his god. They threw the ship’s cargo into the sea to lighten the load. Meanwhile, Jonah had gone down to the lowest part of the vessel and had stretched out and fallen into a deep sleep.

<sup>6</sup> The captain approached him and said, “What are you doing sound asleep? Get up! Call to your god. <sup>B</sup> Maybe this god will consider us, and we won’t perish.”

<sup>7</sup> “Come on!” the sailors said to each other. “Let’s cast lots. Then we’ll know who is to blame for this trouble we’re in.” So they cast lots, and the lot singled out Jonah. <sup>8</sup> Then they said to him, “Tell us who is to blame for this trouble we’re in. What is your business and where are you from? What is your country and what people are you from?”

<sup>10</sup> Then the men were even more afraid and said to him, “What is this you’ve done?” The men knew he was fleeing from the LORD’s presence, because he had told them. <sup>11</sup> So they said to him, “What should we do to you to calm this sea that’s against us?” For the sea was getting worse and worse.

<sup>12</sup> He answered them, “Pick me up and throw me into the sea <sup>D</sup> so it may quiet down for you, for I know that I’m to blame for this violent storm that is against you.” <sup>13</sup> Nevertheless, the men rowed hard to get back to dry land, but they couldn't because the sea was raging against them more and more.

<sup>14</sup> So they called out to the LORD: "Please, Yahweh, don't let us perish because of this man's life, and don't charge us with innocent blood! For You, Yahweh, have done just as You pleased." <sup>15</sup> Then they picked up Jonah and threw him into the sea, and the sea stopped its raging. <sup>16</sup> The men •feared the LORD even more, and they offered a sacrifice to the LORD and made vows.

Jonah's Prayer

2 Jonah prayed to the LORD his God from inside <sup>A</sup> the fish:

<sup>2</sup> I called to the LORD in my distress,
and He answered me.
I cried out for help in the belly of •Sheol;
You heard my voice.

<sup>3</sup> You threw me into the depths,
into the heart of the seas,
and the current <sup>B</sup> overcame me.
All Your breakers and Your billows swept over me.

<sup>4</sup> But I said: I have been banished
from Your sight,
yet I will look once more toward Your holy temple.

<sup>5</sup> The waters engulfed me up to the neck; <sup>C</sup>,
the watery depths overcame me;
seaweed was wrapped around my head.

<sup>6</sup> I sank to the foundations of the mountains;
the earth with its prison bars closed behind me forever!
But You raised my life from the •Pit, LORD my God!

<sup>7</sup> As my life was fading away,
I remembered •Yahweh.
My prayer came to You,
to Your holy temple.

<sup>8</sup> Those who cling to worthless idols
forsake faithful love,

<sup>9</sup> but as for me, I will sacrifice to You with a voice of thanksgiving.
I will fulfill what I have vowed.

Salvation <sup>D</sup> is from the LORD!

<sup>10</sup> Then the LORD commanded the fish, and it vomited Jonah onto dry land.

Jonah's Preaching

3 Then the word of the LORD came to Jonah a second time: <sup>2</sup> “Get up! Go to the great city of Nineveh and preach the message that I tell you.”
<sup>3</sup> So Jonah got up and went to Nineveh according to the LORD’s command.

Now Nineveh was an extremely large city, <sup>A</sup>, a three-day walk. <sup>4</sup> Jonah set out on the first day of his walk in the city and proclaimed, “In 40 days Nineveh will be demolished!” <sup>5</sup> The men of Nineveh believed in God. <sup>B</sup> They proclaimed a fast and dressed in •sackcloth — from the greatest of them to the least.

By order of the king and his nobles: No man or beast, herd or flock, is to taste anything at all. They must not eat or drink water.

<sup>8</sup> Furthermore, both man and beast must be covered with sackcloth, and everyone must call out earnestly to God. Each must turn from his evil ways and from the violence <sup>C</sup> he is doing. <sup>D</sup> <sup>9</sup> Who knows? God may turn and relent; He may turn from His burning anger so that we will not perish.

<sup>10†</sup> Then God saw their actions — that they had turned from their evil ways — so God relented from the disaster He had threatened to do to them. And He did not do it.

Jonah's Anger

4 But Jonah was greatly displeased and became furious. <sup>2</sup> He prayed to the LORD: “Please, LORD, isn’t this what I said while I was still in my own country? That’s why I fled toward Tarshish in the first place. I knew that You are a merciful and compassionate God, slow to become angry, rich in faithful love, and One who relents from sending disaster. <sup>3</sup> And now, LORD, please take my life from me, for it is better for me to die than to live.”

<sup>5</sup> Jonah left the city and sat down east of it. He made himself a shelter there and sat in its shade to see what would happen to the city. <sup>6</sup> Then the LORD God appointed a plant, and it grew up to provide shade over Jonah’s head to ease his discomfort. <sup>A</sup> Jonah was greatly pleased with the plant. <sup>7</sup> When dawn came the next day, God appointed a worm that attacked the plant, and it withered.

<sup>8</sup> As the sun was rising, God appointed a scorching east wind. The sun beat down so much on Jonah’s head that he almost fainted, and he wanted to die. He said, “It’s better for me to die than to live.”

<sup>9</sup> Then God asked Jonah, “Is it right for you to be angry about the plant? ”

“Yes,” he replied. “It is right. I’m angry enough to die! ”

<sup>10</sup> So the LORD said, “You cared about the plant, which you did not labor over and did not grow. It appeared in a night and perished in a night.

MICAH

1 The word of the LORD that came to Micah the Moreshite — what he saw regarding Samaria and Jerusalem in the days of Jotham, Ahaz, and Hezekiah, kings of Judah.

Coming Judgment on Israel

2 Listen, all you peoples;
pay attention, earth <sup>A</sup> and everyone in it!
The Lord GOD will be a witness against you,
the Lord, from His holy temple.

3 Look, the LORD is leaving His place
and coming down to trample
the heights <sup>B</sup> of the earth.

4 The mountains will melt beneath Him,
and the valleys will split apart,
like wax near a fire,
like water cascading down a mountainside.

5 All this will happen because of Jacob's rebellion and the sins of the house of Israel.

What is the rebellion of Jacob?

Isn't it Samaria?

And what is the •high place of Judah?

Isn't it Jerusalem?

6 Therefore, I will make Samaria
a heap of ruins in the countryside,
a planting area for a vineyard.
I will roll her stones into the valley
and expose her foundations.

7 All her carved images will be smashed to pieces;
all her wages will be burned in the fire,
and I will destroy all her idols.

Since she collected the wages of a prostitute,
they will be used again for a prostitute.

Micah's Lament

<sup>8</sup> Because of this I will lament and wail;
I will walk barefoot and naked.
I will howl like the jackals
and mourn like ostriches. <sup>C</sup>

<sup>9</sup> For her wound is incurable
and has reached even Judah;
it has approached the gate of my people,
as far as Jerusalem.

<sup>10</sup> Don't announce it in Gath,
don't weep at all.
Roll in the dust in Beth-leaphrah.

<sup>11</sup> Depart in shameful nakedness,
you residents of Shaphir;
the residents of Zaanan will not come out.
Beth-ezel is lamenting;
its support <sup>D</sup> is taken from you.

<sup>12</sup> Though the residents of Maroth anxiously wait for something good, disaster has come from the LORD
to the gate of Jerusalem.

<sup>13</sup> Harness the horses to the chariot,
you residents of Lachish.
This was the beginning of sin for Daughter •Zion,
because Israel's acts of rebellion can be traced to you.

<sup>14</sup> Therefore, send farewell gifts to Moresheth-gath;
the houses of Achzib are a deception
to the kings of Israel.

<sup>15</sup> I will again bring a conqueror against you who live in Mareshah.
The nobility <sup>E</sup> of Israel will come to Adullam.

<sup>16</sup> Shave yourselves bald and cut off your hair
in sorrow for your precious children;
make yourselves as bald as an eagle,
for they have been taken from you into exile.

Oppressors Judged

<sup>2</sup> Woe to those who dream up wickedness
and prepare evil plans on their beds!

At morning light they accomplish it because the power is in their hands.

<sup>2</sup> They covet fields and seize them;
they also take houses.

They deprive a man of his home,
a person of his inheritance.

<sup>3</sup> Therefore, the LORD says:

I am now planning a disaster
against this nation;
you cannot free your necks from it.
Then you will not walk so proudly
because it will be an evil time.

<sup>4</sup> In that day one will take up a taunt against you,
and lament mournfully, saying,
“We are totally ruined!

He measures out the allotted land of my people.
How He removes it from me!
He allots our fields to traitors.”

<sup>5</sup> Therefore, there will be no one in the assembly of the LORD to divide the land by casting lots. <sup>A</sup>

God's Word Rejected

<sup>6</sup> “Quit your preaching,” they preach.
“They should not preach these things;
shame will not overtake us.”

<sup>7</sup> House of Jacob, should it be asked,
“Is the Spirit of the LORD impatient?
Are these the things He does? ”

Don't My words bring good to the one who walks uprightly?

<sup>8</sup> But recently My people have risen up like an enemy:

You strip off the splendid robe
from those who are passing through confidently,
like those returning from war.

<sup>9</sup> You force the women of My people out of their comfortable homes,
and you take My blessing
from their children forever.

<sup>10</sup> Get up and leave,
for this is not your place of rest,
because defilement brings destruction —
a grievous destruction!

<sup>11</sup> If a man of wind <sup>B</sup> comes and invents lies:
“I will preach to you about wine and beer,”
he would be just the preacher for this people!

The Remnant Regathered

<sup>12</sup> I will indeed gather all of you, Jacob;
I will collect the remnant of Israel.
I will bring them together like sheep in a pen,
like a flock in the middle of its fold.
It will be noisy with people.

<sup>13</sup> One who breaks open the way
will advance before them;
they will break out, pass through the gate,
and leave by it.
Their King will pass through before them,
the LORD as their leader.

Unjust Leaders Judged

3 Then I said, “Now listen, leaders of Jacob,
you rulers of the house of Israel.

Aren’t you supposed to know what is just?

2 You hate good and love evil.

You tear off people’s skin
and strip their flesh from their bones.

3 You eat the flesh of my people
after you strip their skin from them and break their bones.

You chop them up
like flesh for the cooking pot,
like meat in a cauldron.”

4 Then they will cry out to the LORD,
but He will not answer them.

He will hide His face from them at that time
because of the crimes they have committed.

False Prophets Judged

5 This is what the LORD says
concerning the prophets
who lead my people astray,
who proclaim peace
when they have food to sink their teeth into but declare war against the one who puts nothing in their mouths.

6 Therefore, it will be night for you — without visions;
it will grow dark for you —
without •divination.

The sun will set on these prophets,
and the daylight will turn black over them.

7 Then the seers will be ashamed and the diviners disappointed.

They will all cover their mouths <sup>A</sup>
because there will be no answer from God.

<sup>8</sup> As for me, however, I am filled with power
by the Spirit of the LORD,
with justice and courage,
to proclaim to Jacob his rebellion
and to Israel his sin.

Zion's Destruction

<sup>9</sup> Listen to this, leaders of the house of Jacob,
you rulers of the house of Israel,
who abhor justice
and pervert everything that is right, <sup>10</sup> who build •Zion with bloodshed and Jerusalem with injustice.
<sup>11</sup> Her leaders issue rulings for a bribe,
her priests teach for payment,
and her prophets practice divination for money.
Yet they lean on the LORD, saying, “Isn't the LORD among us?
No disaster will overtake us.”
<sup>12</sup> Therefore, because of you,
Zion will be plowed like a field,
Jerusalem will become ruins,
and the hill of the temple mount
will be a thicket.

The LORD's Rule from Restored Zion

4 † In the last days
the mountain of the LORD's house
will be established
at the top of the mountains
and will be raised above the hills.
Peoples will stream to it,
2 and many nations will come and say,
"Come, let us go up to the mountain of the LORD,
to the house of the God of Jacob.
He will teach us about His ways
so we may walk in His paths."

For instruction will go out of •Zion
and the word of the LORD from Jerusalem.

3 He will settle disputes among many peoples and provide arbitration for strong nations that are far away.

They will beat their swords into plows,
and their spears into pruning knives.
Nation will not take up the sword against nation,
and they will never again train for war.

4 But each man will sit under his grapevine and under his fig tree
with no one to frighten him.

For the mouth of the LORD of •Hosts has promised this.

5 Though all the peoples each walk
in the name of their gods,
we will walk in the name of •Yahweh our God
forever and ever.

6 On that day —

I will assemble the lame
and gather the scattered,
those I have injured.

this is the LORD's declaration —

7 I will make the lame into a remnant,
those far removed into a strong nation.

Then the LORD will rule over them in Mount Zion

from this time on and forever.

<sup>8</sup> And you, watchtower for the flock, fortified hill <sup>A</sup> of Daughter Zion,
the former rule will come to you,
sovereignty will come to Daughter Jerusalem.

From Exile to Victory

<sup>9</sup> Now, why are you shouting loudly?
Is there no king with you?
Has your counselor perished
so that anguish grips you like a woman in labor?

<sup>10</sup> Writhe and cry out, <sup>B</sup>, Daughter Zion,
like a woman in labor,
for now you will leave the city
and camp in the open fields.
You will go to Babylon;
there you will be rescued;
there the LORD will redeem you from the power of your enemies!

<sup>11</sup> Many nations have now assembled against you;
they say, "Let her be defiled,
and let us feast our eyes on Zion."

<sup>12</sup> But they do not know the LORD's intentions or understand His plan,
that He has gathered them
like sheaves to the threshing floor.

<sup>13</sup> Rise and thresh, Daughter Zion,
for I will make your horns iron
and your hooves bronze,
so you can crush many peoples.
Then you will •set apart their plunder
to the LORD for destruction,
their wealth to the Lord of all the earth.

Chapter 5 From Defeated Ruler to Conquering King

<sup>1</sup>Now, daughter who is under attack,
you slash yourself in grief;
a siege is set against us!
They are striking the judge of Israel
on the cheek with a rod.

<sup>2†</sup>Bethlehem Ephrathah,
you are small among the clans of Judah;
One will come from you to be ruler over Israel for Me.

His origin <sup>A</sup> is from antiquity,
from eternity. <sup>B</sup>

<sup>3†</sup>Therefore, He will abandon them until the time when she who is in labor has given birth;
then the rest of His brothers will return to the people of Israel.

<sup>4†</sup>He will stand and shepherd them
in the strength of •Yahweh,
in the majestic name of Yahweh His God.
They will live securely,
for then His greatness will extend
to the ends of the earth.

<sup>5</sup>He will be their peace.
When Assyria invades our land,
when it marches against our fortresses,
we will raise against it seven shepherds,
even eight leaders of men.

<sup>6</sup>They will shepherd the land of Assyria with the sword,
the land of Nimrod with a drawn blade.
So He will rescue us from Assyria
when it invades our land,
when it marches against our territory.

The Glorious and Purified Remnant

<sup>7</sup> Then the remnant of Jacob
will be among many peoples
like dew from the LORD,
like showers on the grass,
which do not wait for anyone
or linger for •mankind.

<sup>8</sup> Then the remnant of Jacob
will be among the nations, among many peoples,
like a lion among animals of the forest,
like a young lion among flocks of sheep,
which tramples and tears as it passes through,
and there is no one to rescue them.

<sup>9</sup> Your hand will be lifted up against your adversaries,
and all your enemies will be destroyed.

I will remove your horses from you            this is the LORD's declaration — and wreck your chariots.

<sup>11</sup> I will remove the cities of your land
and tear down all your fortresses.

<sup>12</sup> I will remove sorceries from your hands,
and you will not have any more fortune-tellers.

<sup>13</sup> I will remove your carved images and sacred pillars from you so that you will not bow down again
to the work of your hands.

<sup>14</sup> I will pull up the •Asherah poles from among you and demolish your cities. <sup>C</sup>

<sup>15</sup> I will take vengeance in anger and wrath against the nations that have not obeyed Me.

God's Lawsuit against Judah

6 Now listen to what the LORD is saying:

Rise, plead your case before the mountains,
and let the hills hear your voice.

<sup>2</sup> Listen to the LORD's lawsuit,
you mountains and enduring foundations of the earth,
because the LORD has a case against His people,
and He will argue it against Israel.

<sup>3</sup> My people, what have I done to you,
or how have I wearied you?
Testify against Me!

<sup>4</sup> Indeed, I brought you up from the land of Egypt and redeemed you from that place of slavery.
I sent Moses, Aaron, and Miriam ahead of you.

<sup>5</sup> My people,
remember what Balak king of Moab proposed,
what Balaam son of Beor answered him,
and what happened from the Acacia Grove <sup>A</sup> to Gilgal
so that you may acknowledge the LORD's righteous acts.

<sup>6</sup> What should I bring before the LORD
when I come to bow before God on high?
Should I come before Him with •burnt offerings,
with year-old calves?

<sup>7</sup> Would the LORD be pleased with thousands of rams or with ten thousand streams of oil?
Should I give my firstborn for my transgression,
the child of my body for my own sin?

<sup>8</sup> Mankind, He has told you what is good and what it is the LORD requires of you:
to act justly,
to love faithfulness,
and to walk humbly with your God.

Verdict of Judgment

<sup>9</sup> The voice of •Yahweh calls out to the city
(and it is wise to •fear Your name):

“Pay attention to the rod and the One who ordained it. <sup>B</sup>

<sup>10</sup> Are there still <sup>C</sup> the treasures of wickedness
and the accursed short measure
in the house of the wicked?

<sup>11</sup> Can I excuse wicked scales
or bags of deceptive weights?

<sup>12</sup> For the wealthy of the city are full of violence,
and its residents speak lies;
the tongues in their mouths are deceitful.

<sup>13</sup> “As a result, I have begun to strike you severely, bringing desolation because of your sins.

<sup>14</sup> You will eat but not be satisfied,
for there will be hunger within you.
What you acquire, you cannot save,
and what you do save,
I will give to the sword. <sup>D</sup>

<sup>15</sup> You will sow but not reap;
you will press olives
but not anoint yourself with oil;
and you will tread grapes
but not drink the wine.

<sup>16</sup> The statutes of Omri
and all the practices of Ahab’s house
have been observed;
you have followed their policies.
Therefore, I will make you a desolate place and the city’s <sup>E</sup> residents an object of contempt; <sup>F</sup>
you will bear the scorn of My people.”

Israel's Moral Decline

<sup>1</sup> How sad for me!
For I am like one who —
when the summer fruit has been gathered after the gleanings of the grape harvest — finds no grape cluster to eat,
no early fig, which I crave.

<sup>2</sup> Godly people have vanished from the land;
there is no one upright among the people.
All of them wait in ambush to shed blood;
they hunt each other with a net.

<sup>3</sup> Both hands are good at accomplishing evil:
the official and the judge demand a bribe;
when the powerful man communicates his evil desire,
they plot it together.

<sup>4</sup> The best of them is like a brier;
the most upright is worse than a hedge of thorns.
The day of your watchmen,
the day of your punishment, is coming;
at this time their panic is here.

<sup>5</sup> Do not rely on a friend;
don't trust in a close companion.
Seal your mouth
from the woman who lies in your arms.

<sup>6</sup> Surely a son considers his father a fool,
a daughter opposes her mother,
and a daughter-in-law is against her mother-in-law;
a man's enemies are the men of his own household.

<sup>7</sup> But I will look to the LORD;
I will wait for the God of my salvation.
My God will hear me.

Zion's Vindication

<sup>8</sup> Do not rejoice over me, my enemy!
Though I have fallen, I will stand up;
though I sit in darkness,

the LORD will be my light.

<sup>9</sup> Because I have sinned against Him,
I must endure the LORD's rage
until He argues my case
and establishes justice for me.
He will bring me into the light;
I will see His salvation. <sup>A</sup>

<sup>10</sup> Then my enemy will see,
and she will be covered with shame,
the one who said to me,
"Where is the LORD your God?"
My eyes will look at her in triumph;
at that time she will be trampled
like mud in the streets.

<sup>11</sup> A day will come for rebuilding your walls;
on that day your boundary will be extended.

<sup>12</sup> On that day people will come to you from Assyria and the cities of Egypt, even from Egypt to the Euphrates River
and from sea to sea
and mountain to mountain.

<sup>13</sup> Then the earth will become a wasteland
because of its inhabitants and as a result of their actions.

Micah's Prayer Answered

<sup>14</sup> Shepherd Your people with Your staff,
the flock that is Your possession.
They live alone in a woodland surrounded by pastures.
Let them graze in Bashan and Gilead
as in ancient times.

<sup>15</sup> I will perform miracles for them
as in the days of your exodus

from the land of Egypt.

<sup>16</sup> Nations will see and be ashamed of <sup>B</sup> all their power.

They will put their hands over their mouths,
and their ears will become deaf.

<sup>17</sup> They will lick the dust like a snake;
they will come trembling out of their hiding places
like reptiles slithering on the ground.
They will tremble in the presence of •Yahweh our God;
they will stand in awe of You.

<sup>18</sup> Who is a God like You, removing iniquity and passing over rebellion
for the remnant of His inheritance?
He does not hold on to His anger forever,
because He delights in faithful love.

<sup>19</sup> He will again have compassion on us;
He will vanquish our iniquities.
You will cast all our sins
into the depths of the sea.

<sup>20</sup> You will show loyalty to Jacob and faithful love to Abraham,
as You swore to our fathers
from days long ago.

NAHUM

1 The •oracle concerning Nineveh. The book of the vision of Nahum the Elkoshite.

God's Vengeance

<sup>2†</sup> The LORD is a jealous and avenging God;
the LORD takes vengeance
and is fierce in <sup>A</sup> wrath.

The LORD takes vengeance against His foes;
He is furious with His enemies.

<sup>3</sup> The LORD is slow to anger but great in power;
the LORD will never leave the •guilty unpunished.
His path is in the whirlwind and storm,
and clouds are the dust beneath His feet.

<sup>4</sup> He rebukes the sea so that it dries up,
and He makes all the rivers run dry.
Bashan and Carmel wither;
even the flower of Lebanon withers.

<sup>5</sup> The mountains quake before Him,
and the hills melt;
the earth trembles at His presence —
the world and all who live in it.

<sup>6</sup> Who can withstand His indignation?
Who can endure His burning anger?
His wrath is poured out like fire,
even rocks are shattered before Him.

Destruction of Nineveh

<sup>7</sup> The LORD is good,
a stronghold in a day of distress;
He cares for those who take refuge in Him.

<sup>8</sup> But He will completely destroy Nineveh <sup>C</sup> with an overwhelming flood,
and He will chase His enemies into darkness.

<sup>9</sup> Whatever you plot against the LORD,

He will bring it to complete destruction;
oppression will not rise up a second time.

<sup>10</sup> For they will be consumed
like entangled thorns,
like the drink of a drunkard and like straw that is fully dry. <sup>D</sup>

<sup>11</sup> One has gone out from you,
who plots evil against •Yahweh,
and is a wicked counselor.

Promise of Judah's Deliverance

<sup>12</sup> This is what the LORD says:

Though they are strong <sup>E</sup> and numerous,
they will still be mowed down,
and he will pass away.

Though I have afflicted you,
I will afflict you no longer.

<sup>13</sup> For I will now break off his yoke from you and tear off your shackles.

The Assyrian King's Demise

<sup>14</sup> The LORD has issued an order concerning you:

There will be no offspring
to carry on your name. <sup>F</sup>
I will eliminate the carved idol and cast image
from the house of your gods;
I will prepare your grave,
for you are contemptible.

<sup>15</sup> Look to the mountains —
the feet of one bringing good news
and proclaiming peace!
Celebrate your festivals, Judah;

fulfill your vows.

For the wicked one will never again
march through you;
he will be entirely wiped out.

Attack against Nineveh

2 One who scatters is coming up against you.
Man the fortifications!

Watch the road!

Brace <sup>A</sup> yourself!

Summon all your strength!

<sup>2</sup> For the LORD will restore the majesty of Jacob,
yes, <sup>B</sup> the majesty of Israel,
though ravagers have ravaged them
and ruined their vine branches.

<sup>3</sup> The shields of his warriors are dyed red;
the valiant men are dressed in scarlet.
The fittings of the chariot flash like fire
on the day of its battle preparations,
and the spears are brandished.

<sup>4</sup> The chariots dash madly through the streets;
they rush around in the plazas.
They look like torches;
they dart back and forth like lightning.

<sup>5</sup> He gives orders to his officers;
they stumble as they advance.
They race to its wall;
the protective shield is set in place.

<sup>6</sup> The river gates are opened,
and the palace erodes away.

<sup>7</sup> Beauty is stripped, <sup>C</sup>
she is carried away;
her ladies-in-waiting moan
like the sound of doves,
and beat their breasts.

<sup>8</sup> Nineveh has been like a pool of water from her first days, <sup>D</sup>
but they are fleeing.
“Stop! Stop!” they cry,
but no one turns back.

There is no end to the treasure,
an abundance of every precious thing.

<sup>10</sup> Desolation, decimation, devastation!

Hearts melt,
knees tremble,
loins shake,
every face grows pale!

<sup>11</sup> Where is the lions’ lair,
or the feeding ground of the young lions,
where the lion and lioness prowled,
and the lion’s cub,
with nothing to frighten them away?

<sup>12</sup> The lion mauled whatever its cubs needed
and strangled prey for its lionesses.
It filled up its dens with the kill,
and its lairs with mauled prey.

<sup>13</sup> Beware, I am against you.

I will make your chariots go This is the declaration of the LORD of •Hosts.
up in smoke <sup>E</sup>

and the sword will devour your young lions.
I will cut off your prey from the earth,
and the sound of your messengers
will never be heard again.

Nineveh's Downfall

3 Woe to the city of blood, totally deceitful,
full of plunder,
never without prey.

2 The crack of the whip
and rumble of the wheel, galloping horse
and jolting chariot!

3 Charging horseman,
flashing sword,
shining spear;
heaps of slain,
mounds of corpses,
dead bodies without end —
they stumble over their dead.

4 Because of the continual prostitution of the prostitute,
the attractive mistress of sorcery,
who betrays nations by her prostitution
and clans by her witchcraft,

5 I am against you.

I will lift your skirts over      This is the declaration of the LORD of •Hosts.
your face
and display your nakedness to nations,
your shame to kingdoms.

6 I will throw filth on you and treat you with contempt;
I will make a spectacle of you.

7 Then all who see you will recoil from you, saying, “Nineveh is devastated;
who will show sympathy to her? ”
Where can I find anyone to comfort you?

8 Are you better than Thebes <sup>A</sup>,
that sat along the Nile
with water surrounding her,
whose rampart was the sea,
the river her wall?

<sup>9</sup> •Cush and Egypt were her endless source of strength;
Put and Libya were among her <sup>C</sup> allies.

<sup>10</sup> Yet she became an exile;
she went into captivity.
Her children were also dashed to pieces
at the head of every street.
They cast lots for her dignitaries,
and all her nobles were bound in chains.

<sup>11</sup> You also will become drunk;
you will hide yourself. <sup>D</sup>
You also will seek refuge from the enemy.

<sup>12</sup> All your fortresses are fig trees with figs that ripened first;
when shaken, they fall —
right into the mouth of the eater!

<sup>13</sup> Look, your troops are like women among you;
the gates of your land
are wide open to your enemies.
Fire will devour the bars of your gates.

<sup>14</sup> Draw water for the siege;
strengthen your fortresses.
Step into the clay and tread the mortar;
take hold of the brick-mold!

<sup>15</sup> The fire will devour you there;
the sword will cut you down.
It will devour you like the young locust.
Multiply yourselves like the young locust,
multiply like the swarming locust!

<sup>16</sup> You have made your merchants
more numerous than the stars of the sky.
The young locust strips <sup>E</sup> the land and flies away.

<sup>17</sup> Your court officials are like the swarming locust,
and your scribes like clouds of locusts,

which settle on the walls on a cold day;
when the sun rises, they take off,
and no one knows where they are.

<sup>18</sup> King of Assyria, your shepherds slumber;
your officers sleep.
Your people are scattered across the mountains
with no one to gather them together.

<sup>19</sup> There is no remedy for your injury;
your wound is severe.
All who hear the news about you will clap their hands because of you,
for who has not experienced
your constant cruelty?

HABAKKUK

1 The •oracle that Habakkuk the prophet saw.

Habakkuk's First Prayer

<sup>2</sup> How long, LORD, must I call for help and You do not listen or cry out to You about violence
and You do not save?

<sup>3</sup> Why do You force me to look at injustice?
Why do You tolerate <sup>A</sup> wrongdoing?
Oppression and violence are right in front of me.
Strife is ongoing, and conflict escalates.

<sup>4</sup> This is why the law is ineffective
and justice never emerges.
For the wicked restrict the righteous;
therefore, justice comes out perverted.

God's First Answer

<sup>5</sup> Look at the nations and observe — be utterly astounded!
For something is taking place in your days
that you will not believe
when you hear about it.

<sup>6</sup> Look! I am raising up the Chaldeans, that bitter, impetuous nation
that marches across the earth's open spaces
to seize territories not its own.

<sup>7</sup> They are fierce and terrifying;
their views of justice and sovereignty
stem from themselves.

<sup>8</sup> Their horses are swifter than leopards
and more fierce <sup>B</sup> than wolves of the night.
Their horsemen charge ahead;
their horsemen come from distant lands.
They fly like an eagle, swooping to devour.

<sup>9</sup> All of them come to do violence;
their faces are set in determination. <sup>C</sup>
They gather prisoners like sand.
<sup>10</sup> They mock kings,
and rulers are a joke to them.
They laugh at every fortress
and build siege ramps to capture it.
<sup>11</sup> Then they sweep by like the wind and pass through.
They are •guilty; <sup>D</sup> their strength is their god.

Habakkuk's Second Prayer

<sup>12</sup> Are You not from eternity, •Yahweh my God?
My Holy One, You will not die.
LORD, You appointed them to execute judgment;
my Rock, You destined them to punish us.
<sup>13</sup> Your eyes are too pure to look on evil,
and You cannot tolerate wrongdoing.
So why do You tolerate those who are treacherous?
Why are You silent
while one who is wicked swallows up
one who is more righteous than himself?
<sup>14</sup> You have made mankind
like the fish of the sea,
like marine creatures that have no ruler.
<sup>15</sup> The Chaldeans pull them all up with a hook, catch them in their dragnet,
and gather them in their fishing net;
that is why they are glad and rejoice.
<sup>16</sup> That is why they sacrifice to their dragnet and burn incense to their fishing net,
for by these things their portion is rich
and their food plentiful.
<sup>17</sup> Will they therefore empty their net
and continually slaughter nations without mercy?

Habakkuk Waits for God's Response

2 I will stand at my guard post
and station myself on the lookout tower.
I will watch to see what He will say to me
and what I should reply about my complaint.

God's Second Answer

2† The LORD answered me:

Write down this vision;
clearly inscribe it on tablets
so one may easily read it. <sup>A</sup>

3 For the vision is yet for the appointed time;
it testifies about the end and will not lie.
Though it delays, wait for it,
since it will certainly come and not be late.

4† Look, his ego is inflated; <sup>B</sup>
he is without integrity.

But the righteous one will live by his faith. <sup>C</sup>,

5 Moreover, wine betrays;
an arrogant man is never at rest. <sup>D</sup>
He enlarges his appetite like •Sheol,
and like Death he is never satisfied.
He gathers all the nations to himself;
he collects all the peoples for himself.

The Five Woe Oracles

6 Won't all of these take up a taunt against him,
with mockery and riddles about him?
They will say:

Woe to him who amasses what is not his —
how much longer? —
and loads himself with goods taken in pledge.

7 Won't your creditors suddenly arise,
and those who disturb you wake up?

Then you will become spoil for them.

<sup>8</sup> Since you have plundered many nations,
all the peoples who remain will plunder you —
because of human bloodshed
and violence against lands, cities,
and all who live in them.

<sup>9</sup> Woe to him who dishonestly makes wealth for his house <sup>E</sup>
to place his nest on high,
to escape from the reach of disaster!

<sup>10</sup> You have planned shame for your house
by wiping out many peoples and sinning against your own self.

<sup>11</sup> For the stones will cry out from the wall,
and the rafters will answer them
from the woodwork.

<sup>12</sup> Woe to him who builds a city with bloodshed and founds a town with injustice!

<sup>13</sup> Is it not from the LORD of •Hosts that the peoples labor only to fuel the fire and countries exhaust themselves for nothing?

<sup>14</sup> For the earth will be filled with the knowledge of the LORD's glory,
as the waters cover the sea.

<sup>15</sup> Woe to him who gives his neighbors drink, pouring out your wrath <sup>F</sup>
and even making them drunk,
in order to look at their nakedness!

<sup>16</sup> You will be filled with disgrace instead of glory.
You also — drink,
and expose your uncircumcision!
The cup in the LORD's right hand
will come around to you,
and utter disgrace will cover your glory.

<sup>17</sup> For your violence against Lebanon
will overwhelm you;
the destruction of animals will terrify you because of your human bloodshed and violence against lands, cities, and all who live in them.

<sup>18</sup> What use is a carved idol
after its craftsman carves it?
It is only a cast image, a teacher of lies.
For the one who crafts its shape trusts in it and makes idols that cannot speak.

<sup>19</sup> Woe to him who says to wood: Wake up!
or to mute stone: Come alive!
Can it teach?
Look! It may be plated with gold and silver,
yet there is no breath in it at all.

<sup>20</sup> But the LORD is in His holy temple;
let everyone on earth
be silent in His presence.

Habakkuk's Third Prayer

3 A prayer of Habakkuk the prophet. According to Shigionoth.

<sup>2</sup> LORD, I have heard the report about You;
LORD, I stand in awe of Your deeds.
Revive Your work in these years;
make it known in these years.
In Your wrath remember mercy!

<sup>3</sup> God comes from Teman,
the Holy One from Mount Paran.

•Selah

His splendor covers the heavens,
and the earth is full of His praise.

<sup>4</sup> His brilliance is like light;
rays are flashing from His hand.
This is where His power is hidden.

<sup>5</sup> Plague goes before Him,
and pestilence follows in His steps.

<sup>6</sup> He stands and shakes <sup>A</sup> the earth;
He looks and startles the nations.
The age-old mountains break apart;
the ancient hills sink down.
His pathways are ancient.

<sup>7</sup> I see the tents of Cushan in distress;
the tent curtains of the land of Midian tremble.

<sup>8</sup> Are You angry at the rivers, LORD?
Is Your wrath against the rivers?
Or is Your rage against the sea
when You ride on Your horses,
Your victorious chariot?

<sup>9</sup> You took the sheath from Your bow;
the arrows are ready <sup>B</sup> to be used with an oath. <sup>C</sup>

Selah

You split the earth with rivers.

<sup>10</sup> The mountains see You and shudder;

a downpour of water sweeps by.
The deep roars with its voice and lifts its waves <sup>D</sup> high.

<sup>11</sup> Sun and moon stand still in their lofty residence, at the flash of Your flying arrows,
at the brightness of Your shining spear.

<sup>12</sup> You march across the earth with indignation;
You trample down the nations in wrath.

<sup>13</sup> You come out to save Your people,
to save Your anointed.
You crush the leader of the house of the wicked
and strip him from foot <sup>E</sup> to neck.

Selah

<sup>14</sup> You pierce his head
with his own spears;
his warriors storm out to scatter us,
gloating as if ready to secretly devour the weak.

<sup>15</sup> You tread the sea with Your horses, stirring up the great waters.

Habakkuk's Confidence in God Expressed

<sup>16†</sup> I heard, and I trembled within;
my lips quivered at the sound.
Rottenness entered my bones;
I trembled where I stood.
Now I must quietly wait for the day of distress
to come against the people invading us.

<sup>17</sup> Though the fig tree does not bud
and there is no fruit on the vines,
though the olive crop fails
and the fields produce no food, though there are no sheep in the pen
and no cattle in the stalls,

<sup>18</sup> yet I will triumph in •Yahweh;

I will rejoice in the God of my salvation!

<sup>19†</sup> Yahweh my Lord is my strength;
He makes my feet like those of a deer
and enables me to walk on mountain heights!

1 The word of the LORD that came to Zephaniah son of Cushi, son of Gedaliah, son of Amariah, son of Hezekiah, in the days of Josiah son of Amon, king of Judah.

The Great Day of the LORD

2 I will completely sweep away everything from the face of the earth —

3 I will sweep away man and animal;                      this is the LORD's declaration.
I will sweep away the birds of the sky
and the fish of the sea,
and the ruins along with the wicked.
I will cut off mankind
from the face of the earth.

This is the LORD's declaration.

4 I will stretch out My hand against Judah and against all the residents of Jerusalem.
I will cut off every vestige of •Baal
from this place,

the names of the pagan priests
along with the priests;

5 those who bow in worship on the rooftops
to the heavenly host;
those who bow and pledge loyalty to the LORD
but also pledge loyalty to •Milcom;

6 and those who turn back from following the LORD,
who do not seek the LORD or inquire of Him.

7 Be silent in the presence of the Lord GOD,
for the Day of the LORD is near.

Indeed, the LORD has prepared a sacrifice;
He has consecrated His guests.

8 On the day of the LORD's sacrifice
I will punish the officials, the king's sons,
and all who are dressed in foreign clothing.

9 On that day I will punish

Their blood will be poured out like dust
and their flesh like dung.

<sup>18</sup> Their silver and their gold will not be able to rescue them
on the day of the LORD's wrath.
The whole earth will be consumed
by the fire of His jealousy.
For He will make a complete,
yes, a horrifying end
of all the inhabitants of the earth.

A Call to Repentance

2 †Gather yourselves together;
gather together, undesirable <sup>A</sup> nation,
2 before the decree takes effect
and the day passes like chaff,
before the burning of the LORD's anger overtakes you,
before the day of the LORD's anger overtakes you.
3 Seek the LORD, all you humble of the earth,
who carry out what He commands.
Seek righteousness, seek humility;
perhaps you will be concealed
on the day of the LORD's anger.

Judgment against the Nations

4 For Gaza will be abandoned, and Ashkelon will become a ruin.
Ashdod will be driven out at noon,
and Ekron will be uprooted.
5 Woe, inhabitants of the seacoast,
nation of the Cherethites!
The word of the LORD is against you,
Canaan, land of the Philistines:
I will destroy you until there is no one left.
6 The seacoast will become pasturelands
with caves for shepherds and folds for sheep.
7 The coastland will belong to the remnant of the house of Judah;
they will find pasture there.
They will lie down in the evening
among the houses of Ashkelon,
for the LORD their God will return to them
and restore their fortunes.
8 I have heard the taunting of Moab
and the insults of the Ammonites, who have taunted My people
and threatened their territory.

<sup>9</sup> Therefore, as I live —
Moab the God of Israel —this is the declaration of the LORD of •Hosts, will be like Sodom
and the Ammonites like Gomorrah —
a place overgrown with weeds,
a salt pit, and a perpetual wasteland.
The remnant of My people will plunder them;
the remainder of My nation will dispossess them.

<sup>10</sup> This is what they get for their pride,
because they have taunted and acted arrogantly against the people of the LORD of Hosts.

<sup>11</sup> The LORD will be terrifying to them
when He starves all the gods of the earth.
Then all the distant coastlands of the nations
will bow in worship to Him,
each in its own place.

<sup>12</sup> You •Cushites will also be slain by My sword.

<sup>13</sup> He will also stretch out His hand against the north and destroy Assyria;
He will make Nineveh a desolate ruin,
dry as the desert.

<sup>14</sup> Herds will lie down in the middle of it, every kind of wild animal. <sup>B</sup>
Both the desert owl <sup>C</sup> and the screech owl <sup>D</sup> will roost in the capitals of its pillars.
Their calls will sound <sup>E</sup> from the window,
but devastation will be on the threshold,
for He will expose the cedar work. <sup>F</sup>

<sup>15</sup> This is the self-assured city
that lives in security,
that thinks to herself:
I exist, and there is no one else.
What a desolation she has become,
a place for wild animals to lie down!
Everyone who passes by her jeers <sup>G</sup> and shakes his fist.

Woe to Oppressive Jerusalem

3 Woe to the city that is rebellious<sup>A</sup>, and defiled, the oppressive city!

<sup>2</sup> She has not obeyed;
she has not accepted discipline.
She has not trusted in •Yahweh;
she has not drawn near to her God.

<sup>3</sup> The<sup>B</sup> princes within her are roaring lions;
her judges are wolves of the night,
which leave nothing for<sup>C</sup> the morning.

<sup>4</sup> Her prophets are reckless — treacherous men.

Her priests profane the sanctuary;
they do violence to instruction.

<sup>5</sup> The righteous LORD is in her;
He does no wrong.
He applies His justice morning by morning;
He does not fail at dawn,
yet the one who does wrong knows no shame.

<sup>6</sup> I have cut off nations;
their corner towers are destroyed.
I have laid waste their streets,
with no one to pass through.
Their cities lie devastated,
without a person, without an inhabitant.

<sup>7</sup> I thought: You will certainly •fear Me
and accept correction.
Then her dwelling place
would not be cut off
based on all that I had allocated to her.
However, they became more corrupt
in all their actions.

<sup>8</sup> Therefore, wait for Me —
until the day I rise up for plunder.
For My decision is to gather nations,
to assemble kingdoms,

this is the LORD's declaration —

in order to pour out My indignation on them,
all My burning anger;
for the whole earth will be consumed
by the fire of My jealousy.

Final Restoration Promised

<sup>9</sup> For I will then restore pure speech to the peoples
so that all of them may call on the name of Yahweh
and serve Him with a single purpose. <sup>D</sup>

<sup>10</sup> From beyond the rivers of •Cush
My supplicants, My dispersed people, will bring an offering to Me.

<sup>11</sup> On that day you will not be put to shame because of everything you have done
in rebelling against Me.
For then I will remove your proud, arrogant people from among you,
and you will never again be haughty
on My holy mountain.

<sup>12</sup> I will leave
a meek and humble people among you,
and they will take refuge in the name of Yahweh.

<sup>13</sup> The remnant of Israel will no longer
do wrong or tell lies;
a deceitful tongue will not be found
in their mouths.
But they will pasture and lie down,
with nothing to make them afraid.

<sup>14†</sup> Sing for joy, Daughter •Zion;
shout loudly, Israel!
Be glad and rejoice with all your heart,
Daughter Jerusalem!

<sup>15</sup> The LORD has removed your punishment;

He has turned back your enemy.
The King of Israel, Yahweh, is among you;
you need no longer fear harm.

<sup>16</sup> On that day it will be said to Jerusalem:
“Do not fear;
Zion, do not let your hands grow weak.

<sup>17</sup> Yahweh your God is among you,
a warrior who saves.
He will rejoice over you with gladness.
He will bring you quietness with His love.
He will delight in you with shouts of joy.”

<sup>18</sup> I will gather those who have been driven from the appointed festivals;
they will be a tribute from you and a reproach on her. <sup>E</sup>

<sup>19</sup> Yes, at that time
I will deal with all who afflict you.
I will save the lame and gather the scattered;
I will make those who were disgraced
throughout the earth
receive praise and fame.

<sup>20</sup> At that time I will bring you back,
yes, at the time I will gather you.
I will give you fame and praise
among all the peoples of the earth,
when I restore your fortunes before your eyes.
Yahweh has spoken.

Command to Rebuild the Temple

1 †In the second year of King Darius, on the first day of the sixth month, the word of the LORD came through Haggai the prophet to Zerubbabel son of Shealtiel, the governor of Judah, and to Joshua son of Jehozadak, the high priest:

<sup>2</sup> “The LORD of •Hosts says this: These people say: The time has not come for the house of the LORD to be rebuilt.”

<sup>3</sup> The word of the LORD came through Haggai the prophet: <sup>4</sup> “Is it a time for you yourselves to live in your paneled houses, while this house lies in ruins?” <sup>5†</sup> Now, the LORD of Hosts says this: “Think carefully about <sup>A</sup> your ways:

<sup>6</sup> You have planted much but harvested little.
You eat
but never have enough to be satisfied.
You drink
but never have enough to become drunk.
You put on clothes
but never have enough to get warm.
The wage earner puts his wages
into a bag with a hole in it.”

<sup>7</sup> The LORD of Hosts says this: “Think carefully about <sup>B</sup> your ways. <sup>8</sup> Go up into the hills, bring down lumber, and build the house. Then I will be pleased with it and be glorified,” says the LORD. <sup>9</sup> “You expected much, but then it amounted to little. When you brought the harvest to your house, I ruined <sup>C</sup> it. Why?” This is the declaration of the LORD of Hosts. “Because My house still lies in ruins, while each of you is busy with his own house.

<sup>10</sup> So on your account, <sup>D</sup>
the skies have withheld the dew
and the land its crops.

<sup>11</sup> I have summoned a drought
on the fields and the hills,

on the grain, new wine, olive oil,
and whatever the ground yields,
on man and beast,
and on all that your hands produce.”

The People's Response

<sup>12</sup> Then Zerubbabel son of Shealtiel, the high priest Joshua son of Jehozadak, and the entire remnant of the people obeyed the voice of the LORD their God and the words of the prophet Haggai, because the LORD their God had sent him. So the people •feared the LORD.

<sup>13</sup> Haggai, the LORD's messenger, delivered the LORD's message to the people, “I am with you” — this is the LORD's declaration.

<sup>14</sup> The LORD stirred up the spirit of Zerubbabel son of Shealtiel, governor of Judah, the spirit of the high priest Joshua son of Jehozadak, and the spirit of all the remnant of the people. They began work on the house of •Yahweh of Hosts, their God, <sup>15</sup> on the twenty-fourth day of the sixth month, in the second year of King Darius.

Encouragement and Promise

2 On the twenty-first day of the seventh month, the word of the LORD came through Haggai the prophet: <sup>2†</sup> “Speak to Zerubbabel son of Shealtiel, governor of Judah, to the high priest Joshua son of Jehozadak, and to the remnant of the people: <sup>3</sup> Who is left among you who saw this house in its former glory? How does it look to you now? Doesn’t it seem like nothing to you? <sup>A</sup>, <sup>4</sup> Even so, be strong, Zerubbabel” — this is the LORD’s declaration. “Be strong, Joshua son of Jehozadak, high priest. Be strong, all you people of the land” — this is the LORD’s declaration. “Work! For I am with you” — the declaration of the LORD of •Hosts. <sup>5</sup> “This is the promise I made to you when you came out of Egypt, and My Spirit is present among you; don’t be afraid.”

<sup>6</sup> For the LORD of Hosts says this: “Once more, in a little while, I am going to shake the heavens and the earth, the sea and the dry land. <sup>7</sup> I will shake all the nations so that the treasures of all the nations will come, and I will fill this house with glory,” says the LORD of Hosts. <sup>8</sup> “The silver and gold belong to Me” — this is the declaration of the LORD of Hosts. <sup>9</sup> “The final glory of this house <sup>B</sup> will be greater than the first,” says the LORD of Hosts. “I will provide peace in this place” — this is the declaration of the LORD of Hosts.

From Deprivation to Blessing

<sup>10</sup> On the twenty-fourth day of the ninth month, in the second year of Darius, the word of the LORD came to Haggai the prophet: <sup>11</sup> “This is what the LORD of Hosts says: Ask the priests for a ruling. <sup>12</sup> If a man is carrying consecrated meat in the fold of his garment, and it touches bread, stew, wine, oil, or any other food, does it become holy? ”

The priests answered, “No.”

<sup>13</sup> Then Haggai asked, “If someone defiled by contact with a corpse touches any of these, does it become defiled? ”

The priests answered, “It becomes defiled.”

<sup>14</sup> Then Haggai replied, “So is this people, and so is this nation before Me” — this is the LORD’s declaration. “And so is every work of their hands; even what they offer there is defiled.

<sup>15</sup> “Now, reflect back from this day: Before one stone was placed on another in the LORD’s temple, <sup>16</sup> what state were you in? <sup>C</sup> When someone came to a grain heap of 20 measures, it only amounted to 10; when one came to the winepress to dip 50 measures from the vat, it only amounted to 20. <sup>17</sup> I struck you — all the work of your hands — with blight, mildew, and hail, but you didn’t turn to Me” — this is the LORD’s declaration.

<sup>18</sup> “Consider carefully from this day forward; from the twenty-fourth day of the ninth month, from the day the foundation of the LORD’s temple was laid; consider it carefully. <sup>19</sup> Is there still seed left in the granary? The vine, the fig, the pomegranate, and the olive tree have not yet produced. But from this day on I will bless you.”

Promise to Zerubbabel

<sup>20</sup> The word of the LORD came to Haggai a second time on the twenty-fourth day of the month: <sup>21</sup> “Speak to Zerubbabel, governor of Judah: I am going to shake the heavens and the earth. <sup>22</sup> I will overturn royal thrones and destroy the power of the Gentile kingdoms. I will overturn chariots and their riders. Horses and their riders will fall, each by his brother’s sword. <sup>23</sup> On that day” — this is the declaration of the LORD of Hosts — “I will take you, Zerubbabel son of Shealtiel, My servant” — this is the LORD’s declaration — “and make you like My signet ring, for I have chosen you.” This is the declaration of the LORD of Hosts.

ZECHARIAH

A Plea for Repentance

1 † In the eighth month, in the second year of Darius, the word of the LORD came to the prophet Zechariah son of Berechiah, son of Iddo:
2 “The LORD was extremely angry with your ancestors. 3 So tell the people: This is what the LORD of •Hosts says: Return to Me” — this is the declaration of the LORD of Hosts — “and I will return to you, says the LORD of Hosts. 4 Do not be like your ancestors; the earlier prophets proclaimed to them: This is what the LORD of Hosts says: Turn from your evil ways and your evil deeds. But they did not listen or pay attention to Me” — this is the LORD’s declaration. 5 “Where are your ancestors now? And do the prophets live forever? 6 But didn’t My words and My statutes that I commanded My servants the prophets overtake your ancestors? They repented and said: As the LORD of Hosts purposed to deal with us for our ways and deeds, so He has dealt with us.”

THE NIGHT VISIONS

7 On the twenty-fourth day of the eleventh month, which is the month of Shebat, in the second year of Darius, the word of the LORD came to the prophet Zechariah son of Berechiah, son of Iddo:

First Vision: Horsemen

8 I looked out in the night and saw a man riding on a red horse. He was standing among the myrtle trees in the valley. Behind him were red, sorrel, and white horses. 9 I asked, “What are these, my lord? ”

The angel who was talking to me replied, “I will show you what they are.”

10 Then the man standing among the myrtle trees explained, “They are the ones the LORD has sent to patrol the earth.”

11 They reported to the Angel of the LORD standing among the myrtle trees, “We have patrolled the earth, and right now the whole earth is calm and quiet.”

<sup>12</sup> Then the Angel of the LORD responded, “How long, LORD of Hosts, will You withhold mercy from Jerusalem and the cities of Judah that You have been angry with these 70 years? ” <sup>13</sup> The LORD replied with kind and comforting words to the angel who was speaking with me.

<sup>14</sup> So the angel who was speaking with me said, “Proclaim: The LORD of Hosts says: I am extremely jealous for Jerusalem and •Zion. <sup>15</sup> I am fiercely angry with the nations that are at ease, for I was a little angry, but they made it worse. <sup>16</sup> Therefore, this is what the LORD says: In mercy, I have returned to Jerusalem; My house will be rebuilt within it” — this is the declaration of the LORD of Hosts — “and a measuring line will be stretched out over Jerusalem.

<sup>17</sup> “Proclaim further: This is what the LORD of Hosts says: My cities will again overflow with prosperity; the LORD will once more comfort Zion and again choose Jerusalem.”

Second Vision: Four Horns and Craftsmen

<sup>18</sup> Then I looked up and saw four •horns. <sup>19</sup> So I asked the angel who was speaking with me, “What are these? ”

And he said to me, “These are the horns that scattered Judah, Israel, and Jerusalem.”

<sup>20</sup> Then the LORD showed me four craftsmen. <sup>21</sup> I asked, “What are they coming to do? ”

He replied, “These are the horns that scattered Judah so no one could raise his head. These craftsmen have come to terrify them, to cut off the horns of the nations that raised their horns against the land of Judah to scatter it.”

Chapter 2 Third Vision: Surveyor

He answered me, “To measure Jerusalem to determine its width and length.”

<sup>3</sup>Then the angel who was speaking with me went out, and another angel went out to meet him. <sup>4</sup>He said to him, “Run and tell this young man: Jerusalem will be inhabited without walls because of the number of people and livestock in it.” <sup>5</sup>The declaration of the LORD: “I will be a wall of fire around it, and I will be the glory within it.”

<sup>6</sup>“Get up! Leave the land of the north” — this is the LORD’s declaration — “for I have scattered you like the four winds of heaven” — this is the LORD’s declaration. <sup>7</sup>“Go, •Zion! Escape, you who are living with Daughter Babylon.” <sup>8</sup>For the LORD of •Hosts says this: “He has sent Me <sup>A</sup> for His glory against the nations who are plundering you, for anyone who touches you touches the pupil <sup>B</sup> of His eye. <sup>9</sup>I will move against them with My <sup>C</sup> power, and they will become plunder for their own servants. Then you will know that the LORD of Hosts has sent Me. <sup>D</sup>

<sup>10</sup>“Daughter Zion, shout for joy and be glad, for I am coming to dwell among you” — this is the LORD’s declaration. <sup>11</sup>“Many nations will join themselves to the LORD on that day and become My people. I will dwell among you, and you will know that the LORD of Hosts has sent Me <sup>E</sup> to you. <sup>12</sup>The LORD will take possession of Judah as His portion in the Holy Land, and He will once again choose Jerusalem. <sup>13</sup>Let all people be silent before the LORD, for He is coming from His holy dwelling.”

Fourth Vision: High Priest and Branch

3 † Then he showed me Joshua the high priest standing before the Angel of the LORD, with Satan <sup>A</sup> standing at his right side to accuse him.

2 The LORD said to Satan: “The LORD rebuke you, Satan! May the LORD who has chosen Jerusalem rebuke you! Isn’t this man a burning stick snatched from the fire? ”

3 Now Joshua was dressed with filthy clothes as he stood before the Angel. 4 So the Angel of the LORD <sup>B</sup> spoke to those standing before Him, “Take off his filthy clothes! ” Then He said to him, “See, I have removed your •guilt from you, and I will clothe you with splendid robes.”

5 Then I said, “Let them put a •clean turban on his head.” So a clean turban was placed on his head, and they clothed him in garments while the Angel of the LORD was standing nearby.

6 Then the Angel of the LORD charged Joshua: 7 “This is what the LORD of •Hosts says: If you walk in My ways and keep My instructions, you will both rule My house and take care of My courts; I will also grant you access among these who are standing here.

8 “Listen, Joshua the high priest, you and your colleagues sitting before you; indeed, these men are a sign that I am about to bring My servant, the Branch. 9 Notice the stone I have set before Joshua; on that one stone are seven eyes. I will engrave an inscription on it” — this is the declaration of the LORD of Hosts — “and I will take away the guilt of this land in a single day. 10 On that day, each of you will invite his neighbor to sit under his vine and fig tree.” This is the declaration of the LORD of Hosts.

Fifth Vision: Gold Lampstand

<sup>4</sup> The angel who was speaking with me then returned and roused me as one awakened out of sleep. <sup>2</sup> He asked me, “What do you see? ”

I replied, “I see a solid gold lampstand there with a bowl on its top. It has seven lamps on it and seven channels for each of <sup>A</sup> the lamps on its top.

<sup>4</sup> Then I asked the angel who was speaking with me, “What are these, my lord? ”

<sup>5</sup> “Don’t you know what they are? ” replied the angel who was speaking with me.

I said, “No, my lord.”

<sup>6</sup> So he answered me, “This is the word of the LORD to Zerubbabel: ‘Not by strength or by might, but by My Spirit,’ says the LORD of •Hosts.

<sup>7</sup> ‘What are you, great mountain? Before Zerubbabel you will become a plain. And he will bring out the capstone accompanied by shouts of: Grace, grace to it! ’ ”

<sup>8</sup> Then the word of the LORD came to me: <sup>9</sup> “Zerubbabel’s hands have laid the foundation of this house, and his hands will complete it. Then you will know that the LORD of Hosts has sent me to you. <sup>10</sup> For who scorns the day of small things? These seven eyes of the LORD, which scan throughout the whole earth, will rejoice when they see the plumb line <sup>B</sup> in Zerubbabel’s hand.”

<sup>11</sup> I asked him, “What are the two olive trees on the right and left of the lampstand? ” <sup>12</sup> And I questioned him further, “What are the two olive branches beside the two gold conduits, from which golden oil pours out? ”

<sup>13</sup> Then he inquired of me, “Don’t you know what these are? ”

“No, my lord,” I replied.

<sup>14</sup> “These are the two anointed ones,” he said, “who stand by the Lord of the whole earth.”

Sixth Vision: Flying Scroll

5 I looked up again and saw a flying scroll. <sup>2</sup> “What do you see? ” he asked me.

“I see a flying scroll,” I replied, “30 feet <sup>A</sup> long and 15 feet <sup>B</sup> wide.”

<sup>3</sup> Then he said to me, “This is the curse that is going out over the whole land, for every thief will be removed according to what is written on one side, and everyone who swears falsely will be removed according to what is written on the other side. <sup>4</sup> I will send it out,” — this is the declaration of the LORD of •Hosts — “and it will enter the house of the thief and the house of the one who swears falsely by My name. It will stay inside his house and destroy it along with its timbers and stones.”

Seventh Vision: Woman in the Basket

<sup>5</sup> Then the angel who was speaking with me came forward and told me, “Look up and see what this is that is approaching.”

<sup>6</sup> So I asked, “What is it? ”

He responded, “It’s a measuring basket <sup>C</sup> that is approaching.” And he continued, “This is their iniquity in all the land.” <sup>7</sup> Then a lead cover was lifted, and there was a woman sitting inside the basket. <sup>8</sup> “This is Wickedness,” he said. He shoved her down into the basket and pushed the lead weight over its opening. <sup>9</sup> Then I looked up and saw two women approaching with the wind in their wings. Their wings were like those of a stork, and they lifted up the basket between earth and sky.

<sup>10</sup> So I asked the angel who was speaking with me, “Where are they taking the basket? ”

<sup>11</sup> “To build a shrine for it in the land of •Shinar,” he told me. “When that is ready, the basket will be placed there on its pedestal.”

Eighth Vision: Four Chariots

6 Then I looked up again and saw four chariots coming from between two mountains. And the mountains were made of bronze. <sup>2</sup> The first chariot had red horses, the second chariot black horses, <sup>3</sup> the third chariot white horses, and the fourth chariot dappled horses — all strong horses. <sup>4</sup> So I inquired of the angel who was speaking with me, “What are these, my lord?”

<sup>5</sup> The angel told me, “These are the four spirits <sup>A</sup> of heaven going out after presenting themselves to the Lord of the whole earth. <sup>6</sup> The one with the black horses is going to the land of the north, the white horses are going after them, but the dappled horses are going to the land of the south.” <sup>7</sup> As the strong horses went out, they wanted to go patrol the earth, and the LORD said, “Go, patrol the earth.” So they patrolled the earth. <sup>8</sup> Then He summoned me saying, “See, those going to the land of the north have pacified My Spirit in the northern land.”

Crowning of the Branch

<sup>9</sup> The word of the LORD came to me: <sup>10</sup> “Take an offering from the exiles, from Heldai, Tobijah, and Jedaiah, who have arrived from Babylon, and go that same day to the house of Josiah son of Zephaniah. <sup>11</sup> Take silver and gold, make crowns and place them on the head of Joshua son of Jehozadak, the high priest. <sup>12</sup> You are to tell him: This is what the LORD of •Hosts says: Here is a man whose name is Branch; He will branch out from His place and build the LORD’s temple. <sup>13</sup> Yes, He will build the LORD’s temple; He will be clothed in splendor and will sit on His throne and rule. There will also be a priest on His throne, and there will be peaceful counsel between the two of them. <sup>14</sup> The crown will reside in the LORD’s temple as a memorial to Heldai, Tobijah, Jedaiah, and Hen son of Zephaniah. <sup>15</sup> People who are far off will come and build the LORD’s temple, and you will know that the LORD of Hosts has sent Me to you. This will happen when you fully obey the LORD your God.”

Disobedience and Fasting

7 In the fourth year of King Darius, the word of the LORD came to Zechariah on the fourth day of the ninth month, which is Chislev.<sup>2</sup> Now the people of Bethel had sent Sharezer, Regem-melech, and their men to plead for the LORD's favor<sup>3</sup> by asking the priests who were at the house of the LORD of •Hosts as well as the prophets, "Should we mourn and fast in the fifth month as we have done these many years?"

<sup>4</sup> Then the word of the LORD of Hosts came to me:<sup>5</sup> "Ask all the people of the land and the priests: When you fasted and lamented in the fifth and in the seventh months for these 70 years, did you really fast for Me?<sup>6</sup> When you eat and drink, don't you eat and drink simply for yourselves?<sup>7</sup> Aren't these the words that the LORD proclaimed through the earlier prophets when Jerusalem was inhabited and secure,<sup>A</sup> along with its surrounding cities, and when the southern region and the Judean foothills were inhabited?"

<sup>8</sup> The word of the LORD came to Zechariah:<sup>9</sup> "The LORD of Hosts says this: Make fair decisions. Show faithful love and compassion to one another.<sup>10</sup> Do not oppress the widow or the fatherless, the foreigner or the poor, and do not plot evil in your hearts against one another.<sup>11</sup> But they refused to pay attention and turned a stubborn shoulder; they closed their ears so they could not hear.<sup>12</sup> They made their hearts like a rock so as not to obey the law or the words that the LORD of Hosts had sent by His Spirit through the earlier prophets. Therefore great anger came from the LORD of Hosts.<sup>13</sup> Just as He had called, and they would not listen, so when they called, I would not listen," says the LORD of Hosts.<sup>14</sup> "I scattered them with a windstorm over all the nations that had not known them, and the land was left desolate behind them, with no one coming or going. They turned a pleasant land into a desolation."

Obedience and Feasting

8 The word of the LORD of •Hosts came: <sup>2</sup> “The LORD of Hosts says this: I am extremely jealous for •Zion; I am jealous for her with great wrath.” <sup>3</sup> The LORD says this: “I will return to Zion and live in Jerusalem. Then Jerusalem will be called the Faithful City, the mountain of the LORD of Hosts, and the Holy Mountain.” <sup>4</sup> The LORD of Hosts says this: “Old men and women will again sit along the streets of Jerusalem, each with a staff in hand because of advanced age. <sup>5</sup> The streets of the city will be filled with boys and girls playing in them.” <sup>6</sup> The LORD of Hosts says this: “Though it may seem incredible to the remnant of this people in those days, should it also seem incredible to Me?” — this is the declaration of the LORD of Hosts. <sup>7</sup> The LORD of Hosts says this: “I will save My people from the land of the east and the land of the west. <sup>8</sup> I will bring them back to live in Jerusalem. They will be My people, and I will be their faithful and righteous God.”

<sup>9</sup> The LORD of Hosts says this: “Let your hands be strong, you who now hear these words that the prophets spoke when the foundations were laid for the rebuilding of the temple, the house of the LORD of Hosts. <sup>10</sup> For prior to those days neither man nor beast had wages. There was no safety from the enemy for anyone who came or went, for I turned everyone against his neighbor. <sup>11</sup> But now, I will not treat the remnant of this people as in the former days” — this is the declaration of the LORD of Hosts. <sup>12</sup> “For they will sow in peace: the vine will yield its fruit, the land will yield its produce, and the skies will yield their dew. I will give the remnant of this people all these things as an inheritance. <sup>13</sup> As you have been a curse among the nations, house of Judah and house of Israel, so I will save you, and you will be a blessing. Don’t be afraid; let your hands be strong.” <sup>14</sup> For the LORD of Hosts says this: “As I resolved to treat you badly when your fathers provoked Me to anger, and I did not relent,” says the LORD of Hosts, <sup>15</sup> “so I have resolved again in these days to do what is good to Jerusalem and the house of Judah. Don’t be afraid. <sup>16</sup> These are the things you must do: Speak truth to one another; make true and sound decisions within your •gates. <sup>17</sup> Do not plot evil in your hearts against your neighbor, and do not love perjury, for I hate all this” — this is the LORD’s declaration.

<sup>18</sup> Then the word of the LORD of Hosts came to me: <sup>19</sup> “The LORD of Hosts says this: The fast of the fourth month, the fast of the fifth, the fast of the seventh, and the fast of the tenth will become times of joy, gladness, and cheerful festivals for the house of Judah. Therefore, love truth and peace.” <sup>20</sup> The LORD of Hosts says this: “Peoples will yet come, the residents of many cities; <sup>21</sup> the residents of one city will go to another, saying: Let’s go at once to plead for the LORD’s favor and to seek the LORD of Hosts. I am also going. <sup>22</sup> Many peoples and strong nations will come to seek the LORD of Hosts in Jerusalem and to plead for the LORD’s favor.” <sup>23</sup> The LORD of Hosts says this: “In those days, 10 men from nations of every language will grab the robe of a Jewish man tightly, urging: Let us go with you, for we have heard that God is with you.”

Judgment of Zion's Enemies

The word of the LORD
is against the land of Hadrach, and Damascus is its resting place —
for the eyes of men and all the tribes of Israel
are on the LORD <sup>A</sup> — <sup>2</sup> and also against Hamath, which borders it,
as well as Tyre and Sidon,
though they are very shrewd.
<sup>3</sup> Tyre has built herself a fortress;
she has heaped up silver like dust
and gold like the dirt of the streets.
<sup>4</sup> Listen! The Lord will impoverish her and cast her wealth into the sea;
she herself will be consumed by fire.
<sup>5</sup> Ashkelon will see it and be afraid;
Gaza too, and will writhe in great pain,
as will Ekron, for her hope will fail.
There will cease to be a king in Gaza,
and Ashkelon will become uninhabited.
<sup>6</sup> A mongrel people will live in Ashdod,
and I will destroy the pride of the Philistines.
<sup>7</sup> I will remove the blood from their mouths
and the detestable things
from between their teeth.
Then they too will become a remnant for our God;
they will become like a clan in Judah
and Ekron like the Jebusites.
<sup>8</sup> I will set up camp at My house against an army, <sup>B</sup> against those who march back and forth,
and no oppressor will march against them again,
for now I have seen with My own eyes.

The Coming of Zion's King

<sup>9†</sup> Rejoice greatly, Daughter •Zion!
Shout in triumph, Daughter Jerusalem!
Look, your King is coming to you;
He is righteous and victorious, <sup>C</sup> humble and riding on a donkey,
on a colt, the foal of a donkey.

<sup>10</sup> I will cut off the chariot from Ephraim and the horse from Jerusalem.
The bow of war will be removed,
and He will proclaim peace to the nations.
His dominion will extend from sea to sea,
from the Euphrates River
to the ends of the earth.

<sup>11</sup> As for you,
because of the blood of your covenant,
I will release your prisoners
from the waterless cistern.

<sup>12</sup> Return to a stronghold,
you prisoners who have hope;
today I declare that I will restore double to you.

<sup>13</sup> For I will bend Judah as My bow;
I will fill that bow with Ephraim.
I will rouse your sons, Zion,
against your sons, Greece. <sup>D</sup>,
I will make you like a warrior's sword.

<sup>14</sup> Then the LORD will appear over them,
and His arrow will fly like lightning.
The Lord GOD will sound the trumpet
and advance with the southern storms.

<sup>15</sup> The LORD of •Hosts will defend them.
They will consume and conquer with slingstones;
they will drink and be rowdy as if with wine.
They will be as full as the sprinkling basin,
like those at the corners of the altar.

<sup>16</sup> The LORD their God will save them on that day
as the flock of His people;
for they are like jewels in a crown,
sparkling over His land.

<sup>17</sup> How lovely and beautiful they will be!
Grain will make the young men flourish,
and new wine, the young women.

The LORD Restores His People

10 Ask the LORD for rain
in the season of spring rain.

The LORD makes the rain clouds,
and He will give them showers of rain
and crops in the field for everyone.

<sup>2</sup> For the idols speak falsehood,
and the diviners see illusions;
they relate empty dreams
and offer empty comfort.

Therefore the people wander like sheep;
they suffer affliction because there is no shepherd.

<sup>3</sup> My anger burns against the shepherds, so I will punish the leaders. <sup>A</sup>

For the LORD of •Hosts has tended His flock,
the house of Judah;

He will make them like His majestic steed in battle.

<sup>4</sup> The cornerstone will come from Judah. <sup>B</sup>

The tent peg will come from them and also the battle bow and every <sup>C</sup> ruler.

Together <sup>5</sup> they will be like warriors in battle trampling down the mud of the streets.

They will fight because the LORD is with them,
and they will put horsemen to shame.

<sup>6</sup> I will strengthen the house of Judah
and deliver the house of Joseph.

I will restore them
because I have compassion on them, and they will be
as though I had never rejected them.

For I am •Yahweh their God,
and I will answer them.

<sup>7</sup> Ephraim will be like a warrior,
and their hearts will be glad as if with wine.

Their children will see it and be glad;
their hearts will rejoice in Yahweh.

<sup>8</sup> I will whistle and gather them
because I have redeemed them;
they will be as numerous as they once were.

<sup>9</sup> Though I sow them among the nations,
they will remember Me in the distant lands;
they and their children will live and return.

<sup>10</sup> I will bring them back from the land of Egypt and gather them from Assyria.

I will bring them to the land of Gilead
and to Lebanon,
but it will not be enough for them.

<sup>11</sup> Yahweh <sup>D</sup> will pass through the sea of distress and strike the waves of the sea;
all the depths of the Nile will dry up.
The pride of Assyria will be brought down,
and the scepter of Egypt will come to an end.

<sup>12</sup> I will strengthen them in Yahweh, and they will march in His name —

this is Yahweh's declaration.

Israel's Shepherds: Good and Bad

11 Open your gates, Lebanon, and fire will consume your cedars.

<sup>2</sup> Wail, cypress, for the cedar has fallen;
the glorious trees are destroyed!

Wail, oaks of Bashan,
for the stately forest has fallen!

<sup>3</sup> Listen to the wail of the shepherds,
for their glory is destroyed.

Listen to the roar of young lions,
for the thickets of the Jordan are <sup>A</sup> destroyed.

<sup>5</sup> Those who buy them slaughter them but are not punished. Those who sell them say: Praise the LORD because I have become rich! Even their own shepherds have no compassion for them. <sup>6</sup> Indeed, I will no longer have compassion on the inhabitants of the land” — this is the LORD’s declaration. “Instead, I will turn everyone over to his neighbor and his king. They will devastate the land, and I will not deliver it from them.”

<sup>7</sup> So I shepherded the flock intended for slaughter, the afflicted of the flock. I took two staves, calling one Favor and the other Union, and I shepherded the flock. <sup>8</sup> In one month I got rid of three shepherds. I became impatient with them, and they also detested me. <sup>9</sup> Then I said, “I will no longer shepherd you. Let what is dying die, and let what is going astray go astray; let the rest devour each other’s flesh.” <sup>10</sup> Next I took my staff called Favor and cut it in two, annulling the covenant I had made with all the peoples. <sup>11</sup> It was annulled on that day, and so the afflicted of the flock who were watching me knew that it was the word of the LORD. <sup>12</sup> Then I said to them, “If it seems right to you, give me my wages; but if not, keep them.” So they weighed my wages, 30 pieces of silver.

<sup>13</sup> “Throw it to the potter,” the LORD said to me — this magnificent price I was valued by them. So I took the 30 pieces of silver and threw it into the house of the LORD, to the potter. <sup>14</sup> Then I cut in two my second staff, Union, annulling the brotherhood between Judah and Israel.

<sup>16</sup> I am about to raise up a shepherd in the land who will not care for those who are going astray, and he will not seek the lost <sup>B</sup> or heal the broken. He will not sustain the healthy, <sup>C</sup> but he will devour the flesh of the fat sheep and tear off their hooves.

<sup>17</sup> Woe to the worthless shepherd who deserts the flock!
May a sword strike <sup>D</sup> his arm
and his right eye!
May his arm wither away
and his right eye go completely blind! ”

Judah's Security

The word of the LORD concerning Israel.
A declaration of the LORD,
who stretched out the heavens,
laid the foundation of the earth,
and formed the spirit of man within him.

<sup>2</sup> “Look, I will make Jerusalem a cup that causes staggering for the peoples who surround the city. The siege against Jerusalem will also involve Judah. <sup>3</sup> On that day I will make Jerusalem a heavy stone for all the peoples; all who try to lift it will injure themselves severely when all the nations of the earth gather against her. <sup>4</sup> On that day” — this is the LORD’s declaration — “I will strike every horse with panic and its rider with madness. I will keep a watchful eye on the house of Judah but strike all the horses of the nations with blindness. <sup>5</sup> Then each of the leaders of Judah will think to himself: The residents of Jerusalem are my strength through the LORD of •Hosts, their God. <sup>6</sup> On that day I will make the leaders of Judah like a firepot in a woodpile, like a flaming torch among sheaves; they will consume all the peoples around them on the right and the left, while Jerusalem continues to be inhabited on its site, in Jerusalem. <sup>7</sup> The LORD will save the tents of Judah first, so that the glory of David’s house and the glory of Jerusalem’s residents may not be greater than that of Judah. <sup>8</sup> On that day the LORD will defend the inhabitants of Jerusalem, so that on that day the one who is weakest among them will be like David on that day, and the house of David will be like God, like the Angel of the LORD, before them. <sup>9</sup> On that day I will set out to destroy all the nations that come against Jerusalem.

Mourning for the Pierced One

<sup>10</sup> “Then I will pour out a spirit <sup>A</sup>, of grace and prayer on the house of David and the residents of Jerusalem, and they will look at <sup>B</sup> Me whom they pierced. They will mourn for Him as one mourns for an only child and weep bitterly for Him as one weeps for a firstborn. <sup>11</sup> On that day the mourning in Jerusalem will be as great as the mourning of Hadad-rimmon in the plain of Megiddo. <sup>12</sup> The land will mourn, every family by itself: the family of David's house by itself and their women by themselves; the family of Nathan's house by itself and their women by themselves; <sup>13</sup> the family of Levi's house by itself and their women by themselves; the family of Shimei by itself and their women by themselves; <sup>14</sup> all the remaining families, every family by itself, and their women by themselves.

God's People Cleansed

13 “On that day a fountain will be opened for the house of David and for the residents of Jerusalem, to wash away sin and impurity. <sup>2</sup> On that day” — this is the declaration of the LORD of •Hosts — “I will erase the names of the idols from the land, and they will no longer be remembered. I will remove the prophets and the •unclean spirit from the land. <sup>3</sup> If a man still prophesies, his father and his mother who bore him will say to him: You cannot remain alive because you have spoken falsely in the name of •Yahweh. When he prophesies, his father and his mother who bore him will pierce him through. <sup>4</sup> On that day every prophet will be ashamed of his vision when he prophesies; they will not put on a hairy cloak in order to deceive. <sup>5</sup> He will say: I am not a prophet; I work the land, for a man purchased <sup>A</sup> me as a servant since my youth. <sup>6</sup> If someone asks him: What are these wounds on your chest? <sup>B</sup> — then he will answer: I received the wounds in the house of my friends.

<sup>7</sup> Sword, awake against My shepherd, against the man who is My associate — Strike the shepherd, and the this is the declaration of the LORD of Hosts.
sheep will be scattered;
I will also turn My hand against the little ones.

<sup>8</sup> In the whole land —
two-thirds <sup>C</sup> will be cut off and die, this is the LORD’s declaration — but a third will be left in it.

<sup>9</sup> I will put this third through the fire;
I will refine them as silver is refined and test them as gold is tested.
They will call on My name,
and I will answer them.
I will say: They are My people,
and they will say: Yahweh is our God.”

The LORD's Triumph and Reign

14 A day of the LORD is coming when your plunder will be divided in your presence. <sup>2</sup> I will gather all the nations against Jerusalem for battle. The city will be captured, the houses looted, and the women raped. Half the city will go into exile, but the rest of the people will not be removed from the city.

<sup>3</sup> Then the LORD will go out to fight against those nations as He fights on a day of battle. <sup>4</sup> On that day His feet will stand on the •Mount of Olives, which faces Jerusalem on the east. The Mount of Olives will be split in half from east to west, forming a huge valley, so that half the mountain will move to the north and half to the south. <sup>5</sup> You will flee by My mountain valley, for the valley of the mountains will extend to Azal. You will flee as you fled from the earthquake in the days of Uzziah king of Judah. Then the LORD my God will come and all the holy ones with Him.

<sup>6</sup> On that day there will be no light; the sunlight and moonlight <sup>A</sup> will diminish. <sup>7</sup> It will be a day known only to •Yahweh, without day or night, but there will be light at evening.

<sup>8</sup> On that day living water will flow out from Jerusalem, half of it toward the eastern sea and the other half toward the western sea, in summer and winter alike. <sup>9</sup> On that day Yahweh will become King over all the earth — Yahweh alone, and His name alone. <sup>10</sup> All the land from Geba to Rimmon south of Jerusalem will be changed into a plain. But Jerusalem will be raised up and will remain <sup>B</sup> on its site from the Benjamin Gate to the place of the First Gate, <sup>C</sup> to the Corner Gate, and from the Tower of Hananel to the royal winepresses. <sup>11</sup> People will live there, and never again will there be a curse of •complete destruction. So Jerusalem will dwell in security.

<sup>12</sup> This will be the plague the LORD strikes all the peoples with, who have warred against Jerusalem: their flesh will rot while they stand on their feet, their eyes will rot in their sockets, and their tongues will rot in their mouths. <sup>13</sup> On that day a great panic from the LORD will be among them, so that each will seize the hand of another, and the hand of one will rise against the other. <sup>14</sup> Judah will also fight at Jerusalem, and the wealth of all the surrounding nations will be collected: gold, silver, and clothing in great abundance. <sup>15</sup> The same plague as the previous one will strike <sup>D</sup> the horses, mules, camels, donkeys, and all the animals that are in those camps.

<sup>16</sup> Then all the survivors from the nations that came against Jerusalem will go up year after year to worship the King, the LORD of •Hosts, and to celebrate the Festival of Booths. <sup>17</sup> Should any of the families of the earth not go up to Jerusalem to worship the King, the LORD of Hosts, rain will not fall on them. <sup>18</sup> And if the people <sup>E</sup> of Egypt will not go up and enter, then rain will not fall on them; this will be the plague the LORD inflicts on the nations who do not go up to celebrate the Festival of Booths. <sup>19</sup> This will be the punishment of Egypt and all the nations that do not go up to celebrate the Festival of Booths.

<sup>20</sup> On that day, the words

HOLY TO THE LORD

will be on the bells of the horses. The pots in the house of the LORD will be like the sprinkling basins before the altar. <sup>21</sup> Every pot in Jerusalem and in Judah will be holy to the LORD of Hosts. Everyone who sacrifices will come and take some of the pots to cook in. And on that day there will no longer be a Canaanite <sup>F</sup> in the house of the LORD of Hosts.

The LORD's Love for Israel

1 An •oracle: The word of the LORD to Israel through Malachi.

2† “I have loved you,” says the LORD.

But you ask: “How have You loved us? ”

“Wasn’t Esau Jacob’s brother? ” This is the LORD’s declaration. “Even so, I loved Jacob, <sup>3</sup> but I hated Esau. I turned his mountains into a wasteland, and gave his inheritance to the desert jackals.”

<sup>4</sup> Though Edom says: “We have been devastated, but we will rebuild <sup>A</sup> the ruins,” the LORD of •Hosts says this: “They may build, but I will demolish. They will be called a wicked country and the people the LORD has cursed <sup>B</sup> forever. <sup>5</sup> Your own eyes will see this, and you yourselves will say, ‘The LORD is great, even beyond <sup>C</sup> the borders of Israel.’

Disobedience of the Priests

<sup>6</sup> “A son honors his father, and a servant his master. But if I am a father, where is My honor? And if I am a master, where is your •fear of Me? says •Yahweh of Hosts to you priests, who despise My name.”

Yet you ask: “How have we despised Your name? ”

<sup>7</sup> “By presenting defiled food on My altar.”

You ask: “How have we defiled You? ”

When you say: “The LORD’s table is contemptible.”

<sup>8</sup> “When you present a blind animal for sacrifice, is it not wrong? And when you present a lame or sick animal, is it not wrong? Bring it to your governor! Would he be pleased with you or show you favor? ” asks the LORD of Hosts. <sup>9</sup> “And now ask for God’s favor. Will He be gracious to us? Since this has come from your hands, will He show any of you favor? ” asks the LORD of Hosts. <sup>10</sup> “I wish one of you would shut the temple doors, so you would no longer kindle a useless fire on My altar! I am not pleased with you,” says the LORD of Hosts, “and I will accept no offering from your hands.

<sup>11</sup> “For My name will be great among the nations, from the rising of the sun to its setting. Incense <sup>D</sup> and pure offerings will be presented in My name in every place because My name will be great among the nations,” <sup>E</sup> says Yahweh of Hosts.

<sup>12</sup> But you are profaning it when you say: “The Lord’s table is defiled, and its product, its food, is contemptible.” <sup>13</sup> You also say: “Look, what a nuisance!” “And you scorn <sup>F</sup> it,” says the LORD of Hosts. “You bring stolen, <sup>G</sup> lame, or sick animals. You bring this as an offering! Am I to accept that from your hands?” asks the LORD.

<sup>14</sup> “The deceiver is cursed who has an acceptable male in his flock and makes a vow but sacrifices a defective animal to the Lord. For I am a great King,” says Yahweh of Hosts, “and My name <sup>H</sup> will be feared among the nations.

Warning to the Priests

2 “Therefore, this decree is for you priests: 2 If you don’t listen, and if you don’t take it to heart to honor My name,” says •Yahweh of •Hosts, “I will send a curse among you, and I will curse your blessings. In fact, I have already begun to curse them because you are not taking it to heart.

3 “Look, I am going to rebuke your descendants, and I will spread animal waste over your faces, the waste from your festival sacrifices, and you will be taken away with it. 4 Then you will know that I sent you this decree so My covenant with Levi may continue,” says the LORD of Hosts. 5 “My covenant with him was one of life and peace, and I gave these to him; it called for reverence, and he revered Me and stood in awe of My name. 6 True instruction was in his mouth, and nothing wrong was found on his lips. He walked with Me in peace and fairness and turned many from sin. 7 For the lips of a priest should guard knowledge, and people should seek instruction from his mouth, because he is the messenger of the LORD of Hosts.

8 “You, on the other hand, have turned from the way. You have caused many to stumble by your instruction. You have violated <sup>A</sup> the covenant of Levi,” says the LORD of Hosts. 9 “So I in turn have made you despised and humiliated before all the people because you are not keeping My ways but are showing partiality in your instruction.”

Judah’s Marital Unfaithfulness

10† Don’t all of us have one Father? Didn’t one God create us? Why then do we act treacherously against one another, profaning the covenant of our fathers? 11 Judah has acted treacherously, and a detestable thing has been done in Israel and in Jerusalem. For Judah has profaned the LORD’s sanctuary, <sup>B</sup> which He loves, and has married the daughter of a foreign god. 12 To the man who does this, may the LORD cut off any descendants, from the tents of Jacob, even if they present an offering to the LORD of Hosts.

13 And this is another thing you do: you cover the LORD’s altar with tears, with weeping and groaning, because He no longer respects your offerings or receives them gladly from your hands.

<sup>14</sup> Yet you ask, “For what reason? ” Because the LORD has been a witness between you and the wife of your youth. You have acted treacherously against her, though she was your marriage partner and your wife by covenant. <sup>15</sup> Didn’t the one God make us with a remnant of His life-breath? And what does the One seek? <sup>D</sup> A godly •offspring. So watch yourselves carefully, <sup>E</sup> and do not act treacherously against the wife of your youth.

Judgment at the LORD’s Coming

<sup>17</sup> You have wearied the LORD with your words.

Yet you ask, “How have we wearied Him? ”

When you say, “Everyone who does what is evil is good in the LORD’s sight, and He is pleased with them,” or “Where is the God of justice? ”

3 “See, I am going to send My messenger, and he will clear the way before Me. Then the Lord you seek will suddenly come to His temple, the Messenger of the covenant you desire — see, He is coming,” says the LORD of •Hosts. <sup>2</sup> But who can endure the day of His coming? And who will be able to stand when He appears? For He will be like a refiner’s fire and like cleansing lye. <sup>3</sup> He will be like a refiner and purifier of silver; He will purify the sons of Levi and refine them like gold and silver. Then they will present offerings to the LORD in righteousness. <sup>4</sup> And the offerings of Judah and Jerusalem will please the LORD as in days of old and years gone by.

<sup>5</sup> “I will come to you in judgment, and I will be ready to witness against sorcerers and adulterers; against those who swear falsely; against those who oppress the widow and the fatherless, and cheat the wage earner; and against those who deny justice to the foreigner. They do not •fear Me,” says the LORD of Hosts. <sup>6</sup> “Because I, •Yahweh, have not changed, you descendants of Jacob have not been destroyed.

Robbing God

<sup>7</sup> “Since the days of your fathers, you have turned from My statutes; you have not kept them. Return to Me, and I will return to you,” says the LORD of Hosts.

But you ask: “How can we return? ”

<sup>8†</sup> “Will a man rob God? Yet you are robbing Me! ”

You ask: “How do we rob You? ”

“By not making the payments of the tenth and the contributions. <sup>9</sup> You are suffering under a curse, yet you — the whole nation — are still robbing Me. <sup>10</sup> Bring the full tenth into the storehouse so that there may be food in My house. Test Me in this way,” says the LORD of Hosts. “See if I will not open the floodgates of heaven and pour out a blessing for you without measure. <sup>11</sup> I will rebuke the devourer for you, so that it will not ruin the produce of your land and your vine in your field will not fail to produce fruit,” says the LORD of Hosts. <sup>12</sup> “Then all the nations will consider you fortunate, for you will be a delightful land,” says the LORD of Hosts.

The Righteous and the Wicked

<sup>13</sup> “Your words against Me are harsh,” says the LORD.

Yet you ask: “What have we spoken against You? ”

<sup>14</sup> You have said: “It is useless to serve God. What have we gained by keeping His requirements and walking mournfully before the LORD of Hosts? <sup>15</sup> So now we consider the arrogant to be fortunate. Not only do those who commit wickedness prosper, they even test God and escape.”

<sup>16†</sup> At that time those who feared the LORD spoke to one another. The LORD took notice and listened. So a book of remembrance was written before Him for those who feared Yahweh and had high regard for His name. <sup>17</sup> “They will be Mine,” says the LORD of Hosts, “a special possession on the day I am preparing. I will have compassion on them as a man has compassion on his son who serves him. <sup>18</sup> So you will again see the difference between the righteous and the wicked, between one who serves God and one who does not serve Him.

Chapter 4

<sup>1</sup>“For indeed, the day is coming, burning like a furnace, when all the arrogant and everyone who commits wickedness will become stubble. The coming day will consume them,” says the LORD of •Hosts, “not leaving them root or branches. <sup>2†</sup> But for you who •fear My name, the sun of righteousness will rise with healing in its wings, and you will go out and playfully jump like calves from the stall. <sup>A</sup> <sup>3</sup> You will trample the wicked, for they will be ashes under the soles of your feet on the day I am preparing,” says the LORD of Hosts.

A Final Warning

<sup>4</sup> “Remember the instruction of Moses My servant, the statutes and ordinances I commanded him at Horeb for all Israel. <sup>5</sup> Look, I am going to send you Elijah the prophet before the great and awesome Day of the LORD comes. <sup>6</sup> And he will turn the hearts of fathers to their children and the hearts of children to their fathers. Otherwise, I will come and strike the land <sup>B</sup> with a curse.”

MATTHEW

The Genealogy of Jesus Christ

1 †The historical record <sup>A</sup> of Jesus Christ, the Son of David, the Son of Abraham:

From Abraham to David

2† Abraham fathered Isaac,
Isaac fathered Jacob,
Jacob fathered Judah and his brothers,
3 Judah fathered Perez and Zerah by Tamar, Perez fathered Hezron, Hezron fathered Aram,
4 Aram fathered Amminadab,
Amminadab fathered Nahshon,
Nahshon fathered Salmon,
5 Salmon fathered Boaz by Rahab, Boaz fathered Obed by Ruth,
Obed fathered Jesse,
6 and Jesse fathered King David.

From David to the Babylonian Exile

Then David fathered Solomon by Uriah's wife,
7 Solomon fathered Rehoboam, Rehoboam fathered Abijah, Abijah fathered Asa,
8 Asa fathered Jehoshaphat, Jehoshaphat fathered Joram, Joram fathered Uzziah,
9 Uzziah fathered Jotham, Jotham fathered Ahaz, Ahaz fathered Hezekiah,
10 Hezekiah fathered Manasseh,
Manasseh fathered Amon,
Amon fathered Josiah,

<sup>11†</sup> and Josiah fathered Jechoniah and his brothers at the time of the exile to Babylon.

From the Exile to the Messiah

<sup>12</sup> Then after the exile to Babylon Jechoniah fathered Shealtiel, Shealtiel fathered Zerubbabel,

Eliakim fathered Azor,

<sup>14</sup> Azor fathered Zadok,

Zadok fathered Achim,

Achim fathered Eliud,

<sup>15</sup> Eliud fathered Eleazar,

Eleazar fathered Matthan,

Matthan fathered Jacob,

<sup>16†</sup> and Jacob fathered Joseph the husband of Mary, who gave birth to <sup>B</sup> Jesus who is called the •Messiah.

<sup>17†</sup> So all the generations from Abraham to David were 14 generations; and from David until the exile to Babylon, 14 generations; and from the exile to Babylon until the Messiah, 14 generations.

The Nativity of the Messiah

<sup>18†</sup> The birth of Jesus Christ came about this way: After His mother Mary had been •engaged to Joseph, it was discovered before they came together that she was pregnant by the Holy Spirit. <sup>19</sup> So her husband Joseph, being a righteous man, and not wanting to disgrace her publicly, decided to divorce her secretly.

<sup>20†</sup> But after he had considered these things, an angel of the Lord suddenly appeared to him in a dream, saying, “Joseph, son of David, don’t be afraid to take Mary as your wife, because what has been conceived in her is by the Holy Spirit. <sup>21</sup> She will give birth to a son, and you are to name Him Jesus, <sup>C</sup> because He will save His people from their sins.”

<sup>22†</sup> Now all this took place to fulfill what was spoken by the Lord through the prophet:

<sup>23</sup> See, the virgin will become pregnant and give birth to a son,
and they will name Him Immanuel,

which is translated “God is with us.”

<sup>24</sup> When Joseph got up from sleeping, he did as the Lord’s angel had commanded him. He married her <sup>25†</sup> but did not know her intimately until she gave birth to a son. And he named Him Jesus.

Wise Men Seek the King

2 † After Jesus was born in Bethlehem of Judea in the days of King •Herod, •wise men from the east arrived unexpectedly in Jerusalem, 2 saying, “Where is He who has been born King of the Jews? For we saw His star in the east <sup>A</sup>, and have come to worship Him.” <sup>B</sup>

3 When King Herod heard this, he was deeply disturbed, and all Jerusalem with him. 4 So he assembled all the •chief priests and •scribes of the people and asked them where the •Messiah would be born.

5 “In Bethlehem of Judea,” they told him, “because this is what was written by the prophet:

6† And you, Bethlehem, in the land of Judah,
are by no means least among the leaders of Judah:
because out of you will come a leader who will shepherd My people Israel.”

7 Then Herod secretly summoned the wise men and asked them the exact time the star appeared. 8 He sent them to Bethlehem and said, “Go and search carefully for the child. When you find Him, report back to me so that I too can go and worship Him.” <sup>C</sup>

9 After hearing the king, they went on their way. And there it was — the star they had seen in the east! <sup>D</sup> It led them until it came and stopped above the place where the child was. 10 When they saw the star, they were overjoyed beyond measure. 11 Entering the house, they saw the child with Mary His mother, and falling to their knees, they worshiped Him. <sup>E</sup> Then they opened their treasures and presented Him with gifts: gold, frankincense, and myrrh. 12 And being warned in a dream not to go back to Herod, they returned to their own country by another route.

The Flight into Egypt

13 After they were gone, an angel of the Lord suddenly appeared to Joseph in a dream, saying, “Get up! Take the child and His mother, flee to Egypt, and stay there until I tell you. For Herod is about to search for the child to destroy Him.” <sup>14</sup> So he got up, took the child and His mother during the night, and escaped to Egypt. <sup>15†</sup> He stayed there until Herod’s death, so that what was spoken by the Lord through the prophet might be fulfilled: Out of Egypt I called My Son.

The Massacre of the Innocents

<sup>16†</sup> Then Herod, when he saw that he had been outwitted by the wise men, flew into a rage. He gave orders to massacre all the male children in and around Bethlehem who were two years <sup>F</sup> old and under, in keeping with the time he had learned from the wise men. <sup>17†</sup> Then what was spoken through Jeremiah the prophet was fulfilled:

<sup>18</sup> A voice was heard in Ramah,
weeping, and great mourning,
Rachel weeping for her children;
and she refused to be consoled,
because they were no more.

The Holy Family in Nazareth

<sup>19</sup> After Herod died, an angel of the Lord suddenly appeared in a dream to Joseph in Egypt, <sup>20</sup> saying, “Get up! Take the child and His mother and go to the land of Israel, because those who sought the child’s life are dead.” <sup>21</sup> So he got up, took the child and His mother, and entered the land of Israel. <sup>22</sup> But when he heard that Archelaus was ruling over Judea in place of his father Herod, he was afraid to go there. And being warned in a dream, he withdrew to the region of Galilee. <sup>23†</sup> Then he went and settled in a town called Nazareth to fulfill what was spoken through the prophets, that He will be called a •Nazarene.

The Messiah's Herald

3 In those days John the Baptist came, preaching in the Wilderness of Judea <sup>2</sup> and saying, “Repent, because the kingdom of heaven has come near!” <sup>3</sup> For he is the one spoken of through the prophet Isaiah, who said:

A voice of one crying out in the wilderness:
Prepare the way for the Lord;
make His paths straight!

<sup>4</sup> John himself had a camel-hair garment with a leather belt around his waist, and his food was locusts and wild honey. <sup>5</sup> Then people from Jerusalem, all Judea, and all the vicinity of the Jordan were flocking to him, <sup>6</sup> and they were baptized by him in the Jordan River as they confessed their sins.

The Baptism of Jesus

<sup>13</sup> Then Jesus came from Galilee to John at the Jordan, to be baptized by him. <sup>14</sup> But John tried to stop Him, saying, “I need to be baptized by You, and yet You come to me?”

<sup>15†</sup> Jesus answered him, “Allow it for now, because this is the way for us to fulfill all righteousness.” Then he allowed Him to be baptized.

Does the New Testament Misquote the Old Testament? ⇒

---

<sup>16</sup> After Jesus was baptized, He went up immediately from the water. The heavens suddenly opened for Him, and He saw the Spirit of God descending like a dove and coming down on Him. <sup>17†</sup> And there came a voice from heaven:

This is My beloved Son.
I take delight in Him!

The Temptation of Jesus

4 Then Jesus was led up by the Spirit into the wilderness to be tempted by the Devil. <sup>2†</sup> After He had fasted 40 days and 40 nights, He was hungry. <sup>3</sup> Then the tempter approached Him and said, “If You are the Son of God, tell these stones to become bread.”

<sup>4</sup> But He answered, “It is written:

Man must not live on bread alone
but on every word that comes from the mouth of God.”

<sup>5†</sup> Then the Devil took Him to the holy city, had Him stand on the pinnacle of the temple, <sup>6</sup> and said to Him, “If You are the Son of God, throw Yourself down. For it is written:

He will give His angels orders concerning you,
and they will support you with their hands
so that you will not strike
your foot against a stone.”

<sup>7</sup> Jesus told him, “It is also written: Do not test the Lord your God.”

<sup>8</sup> Again, the Devil took Him to a very high mountain and showed Him all the kingdoms of the world and their splendor. <sup>9</sup> And he said to Him, “I will give You all these things if You will fall down and worship me.” <sup>A</sup>

<sup>10</sup> Then Jesus told him, “Go away, Satan! For it is written:

Worship the Lord your God,
and serve only Him.”

<sup>11</sup> Then the Devil left Him, and immediately angels came and began to serve Him.

Ministry in Galilee

<sup>12†</sup> When He heard that John had been arrested, He withdrew into Galilee. <sup>13</sup> He left Nazareth behind and went to live in Capernaum by the sea, in the region of Zebulun and Naphtali. <sup>14</sup> This was to fulfill what was spoken through the prophet Isaiah:

<sup>15</sup> Land of Zebulun and land of Naphtali, along the sea road, beyond the Jordan,
Galilee of the Gentiles!

<sup>16</sup> The people who live in darkness
have seen a great light,
and for those living in the shadowland of death,
light has dawned. <sup>B</sup> ,

<sup>17†</sup> From then on Jesus began to preach, “Repent, because the kingdom of heaven has come near!”

The First Disciples

<sup>18†</sup> As He was walking along the Sea of Galilee, He saw two brothers, Simon, who was called Peter, and his brother Andrew. They were casting a net into the sea, since they were fishermen. <sup>19</sup> “Follow Me,” He told them, “and I will make you fish for people!” <sup>20</sup> Immediately they left their nets and followed Him.

<sup>21</sup> Going on from there, He saw two other brothers, James the son of Zebedee, and his brother John. They were in a boat with Zebedee their father, mending their nets, and He called them. <sup>22</sup> Immediately they left the boat and their father and followed Him.

Teaching, Preaching, and Healing

<sup>23</sup> Jesus was going all over Galilee, teaching in their •synagogues, preaching the good news of the kingdom, and healing every <sup>C</sup> disease and sickness among the people. <sup>24†</sup> Then the news about Him spread throughout Syria. So they brought to Him all those who were afflicted, those suffering from various diseases and intense pains, the demon-possessed, the epileptics, and the paralytics. And He healed them.<sup>25</sup> Large crowds followed Him from Galilee, •Decapolis, Jerusalem, Judea, and beyond the Jordan.

THE SERMON ON THE MOUNT

5 † When He saw the crowds, He went up on the mountain, and after He sat down, His disciples came to Him. 2 Then <sup>A</sup> He began to teach them, saying:

The Beatitudes

3 “The poor in spirit are blessed,
for the kingdom of heaven is theirs.

4 Those who mourn are blessed,
for they will be comforted.

5 The gentle are blessed,
for they will inherit the earth.

6 Those who hunger and thirst for righteousness are blessed,
for they will be filled.

7 The merciful are blessed,
for they will be shown mercy.

8 The pure in heart are blessed,
for they will see God.

9 The peacemakers are blessed,
for they will be called sons of God.

10 Those who are persecuted for righteousness are blessed,
for the kingdom of heaven is theirs.

11 “You are blessed when they insult and persecute you and falsely say every kind of evil against you because of Me. 12 Be glad and rejoice, because your reward is great in heaven. For that is how they persecuted the prophets who were before you.

Believers Are Salt and Light

13† “You are the salt of the earth. But if the salt should lose its taste, how can it be made salty? It’s no longer good for anything but to be thrown out and trampled on by men.

14 “You are the light of the world. A city situated on a hill cannot be hidden. 15 No one lights a lamp and puts it under a basket, but rather on a lampstand, and it gives light for all who are in the house. <sup>16†</sup> In the same way, let your light shine before men, so that they may see your good works and give glory to your Father in heaven.

Christ Fulfills the Law

<sup>17†</sup> “Don’t assume that I came to destroy the Law or the Prophets. I did not come to destroy but to fulfill. <sup>18</sup> For •I assure you: Until heaven and earth pass away, not the smallest letter or one stroke of a letter will pass from the law until all things are accomplished. <sup>19†</sup> Therefore, whoever breaks one of the least of these commands and teaches people to do so will be called least in the kingdom of heaven. But whoever practices and teaches these commands will be called great in the kingdom of heaven. <sup>20</sup> For I tell you, unless your righteousness surpasses that of the •scribes and •Pharisees, you will never enter the kingdom of heaven.

Murder Begins in the Heart

<sup>21</sup> “You have heard that it was said to our ancestors, Do not murder, and whoever murders will be subject to judgment. <sup>22†</sup> But I tell you, everyone who is angry with his brother will be subject to judgment. And whoever says to his brother, ‘Fool!’ will be subject to the •Sanhedrin. But whoever says, ‘You moron!’ will be subject to •hellfire. <sup>23</sup> So if you are offering your gift on the altar, and there you remember that your brother has something against you, <sup>24</sup> leave your gift there in front of the altar. First go and be reconciled with your brother, and then come and offer your gift. <sup>25</sup> Reach a settlement quickly with your adversary while you’re on the way with him, or your adversary will hand you over to the judge, the judge to the officer, and you will be thrown into prison. <sup>26</sup> I assure you: You will never get out of there until you have paid the last penny!

Adultery in the Heart

<sup>27</sup> “You have heard that it was said, Do not commit adultery. <sup>28</sup> But I tell you, everyone who looks at a woman to lust for her has already committed adultery with her in his heart. <sup>29†</sup> If your right eye •causes you to sin, gouge it out and throw it away. For it is better that you lose one of the parts of your body than for your whole body to be thrown into hell. <sup>30</sup> And if your right hand causes you to sin, cut it off and throw it away. For it is better that you lose one of the parts of your body than for your whole body to go into hell!

Divorce Practices Censured

<sup>31</sup> “It was also said, Whoever divorces his wife must give her a written notice of divorce. <sup>32</sup> But I tell you, everyone who divorces his wife, except in a case of sexual immorality, causes her to commit adultery. And whoever marries a divorced woman commits adultery.

Tell the Truth

<sup>33</sup> “Again, you have heard that it was said to our ancestors, You must not break your oath, but you must keep your oaths to the Lord. <sup>34</sup> But I tell you, don’t take an oath at all: either by heaven, because it is God’s throne; <sup>35</sup> or by the earth, because it is His footstool; or by Jerusalem, because it is the city of the great King. <sup>36</sup> Neither should you swear by your head, because you cannot make a single hair white or black. <sup>37</sup> But let your word ‘yes’ be ‘yes,’ and your ‘no’ be ‘no.’ Anything more than this is from the evil one.

Go the Second Mile

<sup>38†</sup> “You have heard that it was said, An eye for an eye and a tooth for a tooth. <sup>39</sup> But I tell you, don’t resist an evildoer. On the contrary, if anyone slaps you on your right cheek, turn the other to him also. <sup>40</sup> As for the one who wants to sue you and take away your shirt, let him have your coat as well. <sup>41</sup> And if anyone forces you to go one mile, go with him two. <sup>42</sup> Give to the one who asks you, and don't turn away from the one who wants to borrow from you.

Love Your Enemies

<sup>43</sup> “You have heard that it was said, Love your neighbor and hate your enemy. <sup>44</sup> But I tell you, love your enemies and pray for those who persecute you, <sup>45</sup> so that you may be sons of your Father in heaven. For He causes His sun to rise on the evil and the good, and sends rain on the righteous and the unrighteous. <sup>46</sup> For if you love those who love you, what reward will you have? Don't even the tax collectors do the same? <sup>47</sup> And if you greet only your brothers, what are you doing out of the ordinary? Don't even the Gentiles do the same? <sup>48†</sup> Be perfect, therefore, as your heavenly Father is perfect.

How to Give

6 †“Be careful not to practice your righteousness in front of people, to be seen by them. Otherwise, you will have no reward from your Father in heaven. <sup>2</sup> So whenever you give to the poor, don’t sound a trumpet before you, as the hypocrites do in the •synagogues and on the streets, to be applauded by people. •I assure you: They’ve got their reward! <sup>3</sup> But when you give to the poor, don’t let your left hand know what your right hand is doing, <sup>4</sup> so that your giving may be in secret. And your Father who sees in secret will reward you.

How to Pray

<sup>5</sup> “Whenever you pray, you must not be like the hypocrites, because they love to pray standing in the synagogues and on the street corners to be seen by people. I assure you: They’ve got their reward! <sup>6</sup> But when you pray, go into your private room, shut your door, and pray to your Father who is in secret. And your Father who sees in secret will reward you. <sup>7</sup> When you pray, don’t babble like the idolaters, since they imagine they’ll be heard for their many words. <sup>8</sup> Don’t be like them, because your Father knows the things you need before you ask Him.

The Model Prayer

<sup>9†</sup> “Therefore, you should pray like this:

Our Father in heaven,
Your name be honored as holy.

<sup>10</sup> Your kingdom come.

Your will be done
on earth as it is in heaven.

<sup>11</sup> Give us today our daily bread.

<sup>12†</sup> And forgive us our debts,
as we also have forgiven our debtors.

<sup>13†</sup> And do not bring us into temptation,
but deliver us from the evil one.

[For Yours is the kingdom and the power and the glory forever. •Amen.]

<sup>14</sup> “For if you forgive people their wrongdoing, your heavenly Father will forgive you as well. <sup>15</sup> But if you don’t forgive people, your Father will not forgive your wrongdoing.

How to Fast

<sup>16</sup> “Whenever you fast, don’t be sad-faced like the hypocrites. For they make their faces unattractive so their fasting is obvious to people. I assure you: They’ve got their reward! <sup>17</sup> But when you fast, put oil on your head, and wash your face, <sup>18</sup> so that you don’t show your fasting to people but to your Father who is in secret. And your Father who sees in secret will reward you.

God and Possessions

<sup>19</sup> “Don’t collect for yourselves treasures on earth, where moth and rust destroy and where thieves break in and steal. <sup>20</sup> But collect for yourselves treasures in heaven, where neither moth nor rust destroys, and where thieves don’t break in and steal. <sup>21</sup> For where your treasure is, there your heart will be also.

<sup>22†</sup> “The eye is the lamp of the body. If your eye is good, your whole body will be full of light. <sup>23</sup> But if your eye is bad, your whole body will be full of darkness. So if the light within you is darkness — how deep is that darkness!

<sup>24</sup> “No one can be a •slave of two masters, since either he will hate one and love the other, or be devoted to one and despise the other. You cannot be slaves of God and of money.

The Cure for Anxiety

<sup>25</sup> “This is why I tell you: Don’t worry about your life, what you will eat or what you will drink; or about your body, what you will wear. Isn’t life more than food and the body more than clothing? <sup>26</sup> Look at the birds of the sky: They don’t sow or reap or gather into barns, yet your heavenly Father feeds them. Aren't you worth more than they? <sup>27</sup> Can any of you add a single •cubit to his height by worrying? <sup>28</sup> And why do you worry about clothes? Learn how the wildflowers of the field grow: they don't labor or spin thread. <sup>29</sup> Yet I tell you that not even Solomon in all his splendor was adorned like one of these! <sup>30</sup> If that's how God clothes the grass of the field, which is here today and thrown into the furnace tomorrow, won't He do much more for you — you of little faith? <sup>31</sup> So don't worry, saying, 'What will we eat?' or 'What will we drink?' or 'What will we wear?' <sup>32</sup> For the idolaters eagerly seek all these things, and your heavenly Father knows that you need them. <sup>33†</sup> But seek first the kingdom of God and His righteousness, and all these things will be provided for you. <sup>34</sup> Therefore don't worry about tomorrow, because tomorrow will worry about itself. Each day has enough trouble of its own.

Do Not Judge

7 †“Do not judge, so that you won’t be judged. 2 For with the judgment you use, you will be judged, and with the measure you use, it will be measured to you. 3 Why do you look at the speck in your brother’s eye but don’t notice the log in your own eye? 4 Or how can you say to your brother, ‘Let me take the speck out of your eye,’ and look, there’s a log in your eye? 5 Hypocrite! First take the log out of your eye, and then you will see clearly to take the speck out of your brother’s eye. 6 Don’t give what is holy to dogs or toss your pearls before pigs, or they will trample them with their feet, turn, and tear you to pieces.

Keep Asking, Searching, Knocking

7 “Keep asking, and it will be given to you. Keep searching, and you will find. Keep knocking, and the door will be opened to you. 8 For everyone who asks receives, and the one who searches finds, and to the one who knocks, the door will be opened. 9 What man among you, if his son asks him for bread, will give him a stone? 10 Or if he asks for a fish, will give him a snake? 11 If you then, who are evil, know how to give good gifts to your children, how much more will your Father in heaven give good things to those who ask Him! 12 Therefore, whatever you want others to do for you, do also the same for them — this is the Law and the Prophets.

Entering the Kingdom

13 “Enter through the narrow gate. For the gate is wide and the road is broad that leads to destruction, and there are many who go through it. 14 How narrow is the gate and difficult the road that leads to life, and few find it.

15 “Beware of false prophets who come to you in sheep’s clothing but inwardly are ravaging wolves. 16 You’ll recognize them by their fruit. Are grapes gathered from thornbushes or figs from thistles? 17 In the same way, every good tree produces good fruit, but a bad tree produces bad fruit. 18 A good tree can’t produce bad fruit; neither can a bad tree produce good fruit.

<sup>19</sup> Every tree that doesn't produce good fruit is cut down and thrown into the fire. <sup>20</sup> So you'll recognize them by their fruit.

<sup>21†</sup> “Not everyone who says to Me, ‘Lord, Lord!’ will enter the kingdom of heaven, but only the one who does the will of My Father in heaven.

<sup>22</sup> On that day many will say to Me, ‘Lord, Lord, didn't we prophesy in Your name, drive out demons in Your name, and do many miracles in Your name?’ <sup>23</sup> Then I will announce to them, ‘I never knew you! Depart from Me, you lawbreakers!’ ,

The Two Foundations

<sup>24</sup> “Therefore, everyone who hears these words of Mine and acts on them will be like a sensible man who built his house on the rock. <sup>25</sup> The rain fell, the rivers rose, and the winds blew and pounded that house. Yet it didn't collapse, because its foundation was on the rock. <sup>26</sup> But everyone who hears these words of Mine and doesn't act on them will be like a foolish man who built his house on the sand. <sup>27</sup> The rain fell, the rivers rose, the winds blew and pounded that house, and it collapsed. And its collapse was great! ”

Who Are You to Judge Others? ⇒

---

<sup>28</sup> When Jesus had finished this sermon, <sup>A</sup>, the crowds were astonished at His teaching, <sup>29</sup> because He was teaching them like one who had authority, and not like their •scribes.

A Man Cleansed

8 When He came down from the mountain, large crowds followed Him.
2 Right away a man with a serious skin disease came up and knelt before Him, saying, “Lord, if You are willing, You can make me •clean.”

3 Reaching out His hand He touched him, saying, “I am willing; be made clean.” Immediately his disease was healed. <sup>A</sup> 4† Then Jesus told him, “See that you don’t tell anyone; but go, show yourself to the priest, and offer the gift that Moses prescribed, as a testimony to them.”

A Centurion’s Faith

5† When He entered Capernaum, a •centurion came to Him, pleading with Him, <sup>6</sup> “Lord, my servant is lying at home paralyzed, in terrible agony! ”

7 “I will come and heal him,” He told him.

8 “Lord,” the centurion replied, “I am not worthy to have You come under my roof. But only say the word, and my servant will be cured. <sup>9</sup> For I too am a man under authority, having soldiers under my command. <sup>B</sup> I say to this one, ‘Go!’ and he goes; and to another, ‘Come!’ and he comes; and to my •slave, ‘Do this!’ and he does it.”

10 Hearing this, Jesus was amazed and said to those following Him, “•I assure you: I have not found anyone in Israel with so great a faith! <sup>11</sup> I tell you that many will come from east and west, and recline at the table with Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob in the kingdom of heaven. <sup>12</sup> But the sons of the kingdom will be thrown into the outer darkness. In that place there will be weeping and gnashing of teeth.” <sup>13</sup> Then Jesus told the centurion, “Go. As you have believed, let it be done for you.” And his servant was cured that very moment. <sup>C</sup>

Healings at Capernaum

14 When Jesus went into Peter’s house, He saw his mother-in-law lying in bed with a fever. <sup>15</sup> So He touched her hand, and the fever left her. Then she got up and began to serve Him. <sup>16</sup> When evening came, they brought to Him many who were demon-possessed. He drove out the spirits with a word and healed all who were sick, <sup>17†</sup> so that what was spoken through the prophet Isaiah might be fulfilled:

He Himself took our weaknesses and carried our diseases.

Following Jesus

<sup>18</sup> When Jesus saw large crowds around Him, He gave the order to go to the other side of the sea. <sup>19</sup> A •scribe approached Him and said, “Teacher, I will follow You wherever You go! ”

<sup>20†</sup> Jesus told him, “Foxes have dens and birds of the sky have nests, but the Son of Man has no place to lay His head.”

<sup>22†</sup> But Jesus told him, “Follow Me, and let the dead bury their own dead.”

Wind and Wave Obey the Master

<sup>23</sup> As He got into the boat, His disciples followed Him. <sup>24</sup> Suddenly, a violent storm arose on the sea, so that the boat was being swamped by the waves. But He was sleeping. <sup>25</sup> So the disciples came and woke Him up, saying, “Lord, save us! We’re going to die! ”

<sup>26†</sup> But He said to them, “Why are you fearful, you of little faith? ” Then He got up and rebuked the winds and the sea. And there was a great calm.

<sup>27</sup> The men were amazed and asked, “What kind of man is this? — even the winds and the sea obey Him! ”

Demons Driven Out by the Master

<sup>28†</sup> When He had come to the other side, to the region of the Gadarenes, two demon-possessed men met Him as they came out of the tombs. They were so violent that no one could pass that way. <sup>29</sup> Suddenly they shouted, “What do You have to do with us, Son of God? Have You come here to torment us before the time? ”

<sup>32</sup> “Go! ” He told them. So when they had come out, they entered the pigs. And suddenly the whole herd rushed down the steep bank into the sea and perished in the water. <sup>33</sup> Then the men who tended them fled. They went into the city and reported everything — especially what had happened to those who were demon-possessed. <sup>34</sup> At that, the whole town went out to meet Jesus. When they saw Him, they begged Him to leave their region.

The Son of Man Forgives and Heals

9 So He got into a boat, crossed over, and came to His own town. <sup>2</sup> Just then some men <sup>A</sup> brought to Him a paralytic lying on a mat. Seeing their faith, Jesus told the paralytic, “Have courage, son, your sins are forgiven.”

<sup>4</sup> But perceiving their thoughts, Jesus said, “Why are you thinking evil things in your hearts? <sup>5</sup> For which is easier: to say, ‘Your sins are forgiven,’ or to say, ‘Get up and walk’? <sup>6</sup> But so you may know that the •Son of Man has authority on earth to forgive sins” — then He told the paralytic, “Get up, pick up your mat, and go home.” <sup>7</sup> And he got up and went home. <sup>8†</sup> When the crowds saw this, they were awestruck and gave glory to God who had given such authority to men.

The Call of Matthew

<sup>9†</sup> As Jesus went on from there, He saw a man named Matthew sitting at the tax office, and He said to him, “Follow Me! ” So he got up and followed Him.

<sup>12</sup> But when He heard this, He said, “Those who are well don’t need a doctor, but the sick do. <sup>13†</sup> Go and learn what this means: I desire mercy and not sacrifice. For I didn’t come to call the righteous, but sinners.”

A Question about Fasting

<sup>14</sup> Then John’s disciples came to Him, saying, “Why do we and the Pharisees fast often, but Your disciples do not fast? ”

<sup>15</sup> Jesus said to them, “Can the wedding guests be sad while the groom is with them? The time will come when the groom will be taken away from them, and then they will fast. <sup>16</sup> No one patches an old garment with unshrunk cloth, because the patch pulls away from the garment and makes the tear worse. <sup>17</sup> And no one puts new wine into old wineskins. Otherwise, the skins burst, the wine spills out, and the skins are ruined. But they put new wine into fresh wineskins, and both are preserved.”

A Girl Restored and a Woman Healed

<sup>18†</sup> As He was telling them these things, suddenly one of the leaders came and knelt down before Him, saying, “My daughter is near death, <sup>D</sup> but come and lay Your hand on her, and she will live.” <sup>19</sup> So Jesus and His disciples got up and followed him.

<sup>20</sup> Just then, a woman who had suffered from bleeding for 12 years approached from behind and touched the •tassel on His robe, <sup>21</sup> for she said to herself, “If I can just touch His robe, I’ll be made well! ” <sup>E</sup>

<sup>22</sup> But Jesus turned and saw her. “Have courage, daughter,” He said. “Your faith has made you well.” And the woman was made well from that moment. <sup>F</sup>

<sup>23</sup> When Jesus came to the leader’s house, He saw the flute players and a crowd lamenting loudly. <sup>24</sup> “Leave,” He said, “because the girl isn’t dead, but sleeping.” And they started laughing at Him. <sup>25</sup> But when the crowd had been put outside, He went in and took her by the hand, and the girl got up. <sup>26</sup> And this news spread throughout that whole area.

Healing the Blind

<sup>27†</sup> As Jesus went on from there, two blind men followed Him, shouting, “Have mercy on us, Son of David! ”

<sup>28</sup> When He entered the house, the blind men approached Him, and Jesus said to them, “Do you believe that I can do this? ”

“Yes, Lord,” they answered Him.

<sup>29†</sup> Then He touched their eyes, saying, “Let it be done for you according to your faith! ” <sup>30</sup> And their eyes were opened. Then Jesus warned them sternly, “Be sure that no one finds out! ” <sup>31</sup> But they went out and spread the news about Him throughout that whole area.

Driving Out a Demon

<sup>32</sup> Just as they were going out, a demon-possessed man who was unable to speak was brought to Him. <sup>33</sup> When the demon had been driven out, the man <sup>G</sup> spoke. And the crowds were amazed, saying, “Nothing like this has ever been seen in Israel! ”

<sup>34†</sup> But the Pharisees said, “He drives out demons by the ruler of the demons! ”

The Lord of the Harvest

<sup>35</sup> Then Jesus went to all the towns and villages, teaching in their •synagogues, preaching the good news of the kingdom, and healing every <sup>H</sup> disease and every sickness. <sup>36</sup> When He saw the crowds, He felt compassion for them, because they were weary and worn out, like sheep without a shepherd. <sup>37</sup> Then He said to His disciples, “The harvest is abundant, but the workers are few. <sup>38</sup> Therefore, pray to the Lord of the harvest to send out workers into His harvest.”

Commissioning the Twelve

10 Summoning His 12 disciples, He gave them authority over •unclean spirits, to drive them out and to heal every <sup>A</sup> disease and sickness.

<sup>2†</sup> These are the names of the 12 apostles:

First, Simon, who is called Peter,

and Andrew his brother;

James the son of Zebedee,

and John his brother;

<sup>3</sup> Philip and Bartholomew;

Thomas and Matthew the tax collector;

James the son of Alphaeus, and Thaddaeus;

<sup>4</sup> Simon the Zealot, <sup>B</sup> and Judas Iscariot, <sup>C</sup>

who also betrayed Him.

<sup>6</sup> Instead, go to the lost sheep of the house of Israel. <sup>7</sup> As you go, announce this: ‘The kingdom of heaven has come near.’ <sup>8†</sup> Heal the sick, raise the dead, cleanse those with skin diseases, drive out demons. You have received free of charge; give free of charge. <sup>9†</sup> Don’t take along gold, silver, or copper for your money-belts. <sup>10</sup> Don’t take a traveling bag for the road, or an extra shirt, sandals, or a walking stick, for the worker is worthy of his food.

<sup>11</sup> “When you enter any town or village, find out who is worthy, and stay there until you leave. <sup>12</sup> Greet a household when you enter it, <sup>13</sup> and if the household is worthy, let your peace be on it. But if it is unworthy, let your peace return to you. <sup>14</sup> If anyone will not welcome you or listen to your words, shake the dust off your feet when you leave that house or town. <sup>15</sup> •I assure you: It will be more tolerable on the day of judgment for the land of Sodom and Gomorrah than for that town.

Persecutions Predicted

<sup>16†</sup> “Look, I’m sending you out like sheep among wolves. Therefore be as shrewd as serpents and as harmless as doves. <sup>17</sup> Because people will hand you over to sanhedrins and flog you in their •synagogues, beware of them. <sup>18</sup> You will even be brought before governors and kings because of Me, to bear witness to them and to the nations. <sup>19</sup> But when they hand you over, don’t worry about how or what you should speak. For you will be given what to say at that hour, <sup>20</sup> because you are not speaking, but the Spirit of your Father is speaking through you.

<sup>21</sup> “Brother will betray brother to death, and a father his child. Children will even rise up against their parents and have them put to death. <sup>22</sup> You will be hated by everyone because of My name. But the one who endures to the end will be delivered. <sup>23†</sup> When they persecute you in one town, escape to another. For I assure you: You will not have covered the towns of Israel before the •Son of Man comes. <sup>24</sup> A disciple is not above his teacher, or a •slave above his master. <sup>25</sup> It is enough for a disciple to become like his teacher and a slave like his master. If they called the head of the house ‘•Beelzebul,’ how much more the members of his household!

Fear God

<sup>26</sup> “Therefore, don’t be afraid of them, since there is nothing covered that won’t be uncovered and nothing hidden that won’t be made known. <sup>27</sup> What I tell you in the dark, speak in the light. What you hear in a whisper, proclaim on the housetops. <sup>28</sup> Don’t fear those who kill the body but are not able to kill the soul; rather, fear Him who is able to destroy both soul and body in •hell. <sup>29</sup> Aren’t two sparrows sold for a penny? Yet not one of them falls to the ground without your Father’s consent. <sup>30</sup> But even the hairs of your head have all been counted. <sup>31</sup> So don’t be afraid therefore; you are worth more than many sparrows.

Acknowledging Christ

<sup>32</sup> “Therefore, everyone who will acknowledge Me before men, I will also acknowledge him before My Father in heaven. <sup>33</sup> But whoever denies Me before men, I will also deny him before My Father in heaven. <sup>34†</sup> Don't assume that I came to bring peace on the earth. I did not come to bring peace, but a sword. <sup>35</sup> For I came to turn

a man against his father,
a daughter against her mother,
a daughter-in-law against her mother-in-law; <sup>36</sup> and a man's enemies will be
the members of his household.

<sup>37</sup> The person who loves father or mother more than Me is not worthy of Me; the person who loves son or daughter more than Me is not worthy of Me. <sup>38</sup> And whoever doesn't take up his cross and follow Me is not worthy of Me. <sup>39</sup> Anyone finding his life will lose it, and anyone losing his life because of Me will find it.

A Cup of Cold Water

<sup>40†</sup> “The one who welcomes you welcomes Me, and the one who welcomes Me welcomes Him who sent Me. <sup>41</sup> Anyone who welcomes a prophet because he is a prophet will receive a prophet's reward. And anyone who welcomes a righteous person because he's righteous will receive a righteous person's reward. <sup>42</sup> And whoever gives just a cup of cold water to one of these little ones because he is a disciple — I assure you: He will never lose his reward! ”

In Praise of John the Baptist

11 When Jesus had finished giving orders to His 12 disciples, He moved on from there to teach and preach in their towns. <sup>2</sup> When John heard in prison what the •Messiah was doing, he sent a message by his disciples <sup>3†</sup> and asked Him, “Are You the One who is to come, or should we expect someone else? ”

<sup>4</sup> Jesus replied to them, “Go and report to John what you hear and see: <sup>5</sup> the blind see, the lame walk, those with skin diseases are healed, the deaf hear, the dead are raised, and the poor are told the good news. <sup>6</sup> And if anyone is not •offended because of Me, he is blessed.”

<sup>7</sup> As these men went away, Jesus began to speak to the crowds about John: “What did you go out into the wilderness to see? A reed swaying in the wind? <sup>8</sup> What then did you go out to see? A man dressed in soft clothes? Look, those who wear soft clothes are in kings’ palaces. <sup>9</sup> But what did you go out to see? A prophet? Yes, I tell you, and far more than a prophet. <sup>10</sup> This is the one it is written about:

Look, I am sending My messenger ahead of You;
he will prepare Your way before You.

<sup>11†</sup> “•I assure you: Among those born of women no one greater than John the Baptist has appeared, but the least in the kingdom of heaven is greater than he. <sup>12</sup> From the days of John the Baptist until now, the kingdom of heaven has been suffering violence, and the violent have been seizing it by force. <sup>13</sup> For all the prophets and the Law prophesied until John; <sup>14†</sup> if you’re willing to accept it, he is the Elijah who is to come. <sup>15</sup> Anyone who has ears should listen!

TWISTED SCRIPTURE

Matthew 11:14

Those advocating the doctrine of reincarnation point to this passage for support. Since Elijah escaped death, however, his could not be a case of reincarnation. In 17:3 we read that Elijah himself appeared on the Mount of Transfiguration. In Lk 1:17 we discover that the Jews were waiting for a prophet to come "in the spirit and power of Elijah"; that is, one possessing God's Spirit and authority.

An Unresponsive Generation

<sup>16</sup> “To what should I compare this generation? It’s like children sitting in the marketplaces who call out to each other:

<sup>17</sup> We played the flute for you,
but you didn’t dance;
we sang a lament,
but you didn’t mourn!

<sup>18</sup> For John did not come eating or drinking, and they say, ‘He has a demon!’ <sup>19†</sup> The •Son of Man came eating and drinking, and they say, ‘Look, a glutton and a drunkard, a friend of tax collectors and sinners!’ Yet wisdom is vindicated by her deeds.”

<sup>20</sup> Then He proceeded to denounce the towns where most of His miracles were done, because they did not repent: <sup>21</sup> “Woe to you, Chorazin! Woe to you, Bethsaida! For if the miracles that were done in you had been done in Tyre and Sidon, they would have repented in •sackcloth and ashes long ago! <sup>22</sup> But I tell you, it will be more tolerable for Tyre and Sidon on the day of judgment than for you. <sup>23</sup> And you, Capernaum, will you be exalted to heaven? You will go down to •Hades. For if the miracles that were done in you had been done in Sodom, it would have remained until today. <sup>24</sup> But I tell you, it will be more tolerable for the land of Sodom on the day of judgment than for you.”

The Son Gives Knowledge and Rest

<sup>25†</sup> At that time Jesus said, “I praise You, Father, Lord of heaven and earth, because You have hidden these things from the wise and learned and revealed them to infants. <sup>26</sup> Yes, Father, because this was Your good pleasure. <sup>27†</sup> All things have been entrusted to Me by My Father. No one knows the Son except the Father, and no one knows the Father except the Son and anyone to whom the Son desires to reveal Him.

<sup>28</sup> “Come to Me, all of you who are weary and burdened, and I will give you rest. <sup>29</sup> All of you, take up My yoke and learn from Me, because I am gentle and humble in heart, and you will find rest for yourselves. <sup>30</sup> For My yoke is easy and My burden is light.”

Lord of the Sabbath

12 †At that time Jesus passed through the grainfields on the Sabbath. His disciples were hungry and began to pick and eat some heads of grain.
<sup>2</sup> But when the •Pharisees saw it, they said to Him, “Look, Your disciples are doing what is not lawful to do on the Sabbath! ”

<sup>3</sup> He said to them, “Haven’t you read what David did when he and those who were with him were hungry — <sup>4</sup> how he entered the house of God, and they ate the •sacred bread, which is not lawful for him or for those with him to eat, but only for the priests? <sup>5</sup> Or haven’t you read in the Law that on Sabbath days the priests in the temple violate the Sabbath and are innocent? <sup>6</sup> But I tell you that something greater than the temple is here!
<sup>7</sup> If you had known what this means: I desire mercy and not sacrifice, you would not have condemned the innocent. <sup>8</sup> For the •Son of Man is Lord of the Sabbath.”

The Man with the Paralyzed Hand

<sup>9</sup> Moving on from there, He entered their •synagogue. <sup>10</sup> There He saw a man who had a paralyzed hand. And in order to accuse Him they asked Him, “Is it lawful to heal on the Sabbath? ”

<sup>11</sup> But He said to them, “What man among you, if he had a sheep that fell into a pit on the Sabbath, wouldn’t take hold of it and lift it out? <sup>12</sup> A man is worth far more than a sheep, so it is lawful to do what is good on the Sabbath.”

<sup>13</sup> Then He told the man, “Stretch out your hand.” So he stretched it out, and it was restored, as good as the other. <sup>14</sup> But the Pharisees went out and plotted against Him, how they might destroy Him.

The Servant of the Lord

<sup>15</sup> When Jesus became aware of this, He withdrew from there. Huge crowds followed Him, and He healed them all. <sup>16</sup> He warned them not to make Him known, <sup>17</sup> so that what was spoken through the prophet Isaiah might be fulfilled:

18† Here is My Servant whom I have chosen,
My beloved in whom My soul delights;
I will put My Spirit on Him,
and He will proclaim justice to the nations.

19 He will not argue or shout,
and no one will hear His voice in the streets.

20 He will not break a bruised reed,
and He will not put out a smoldering wick,
until He has led justice to victory. <sup>A</sup>

21 The nations will put their hope in His name.

A House Divided

<sup>22</sup> Then a demon-possessed man who was blind and unable to speak was brought to Him. He healed him, so that the man <sup>B</sup> could both speak and see. <sup>23</sup> And all the crowds were astounded and said, “Perhaps this is the Son of David! ”

<sup>24</sup> When the Pharisees heard this, they said, “The man drives out demons only by •Beelzebul, the ruler of the demons.”

<sup>25</sup> Knowing their thoughts, He told them: “Every kingdom divided against itself is headed for destruction, and no city or house divided against itself will stand. <sup>26</sup> If Satan drives out Satan, he is divided against himself. How then will his kingdom stand? <sup>27</sup> And if I drive out demons by Beelzebul, who is it your sons drive them out by? For this reason they will be your judges. <sup>28</sup> If I drive out demons by the Spirit of God, then the kingdom of God has come to you. <sup>29</sup> How can someone enter a strong man’s house and steal his possessions unless he first ties up the strong man? Then he can rob his house. <sup>30†</sup> Anyone who is not with Me is against Me, and anyone who does not gather with Me scatters. <sup>31†</sup> Because of this, I tell you, people will be forgiven every sin and blasphemy, but the blasphemy against the Spirit will not be forgiven. <sup>32</sup> Whoever speaks a word against the Son of Man, it will be forgiven him. But whoever speaks against the Holy Spirit, it will not be forgiven him, either in this age or in the one to come.

A Tree and Its Fruit

The Sign of Jonah

<sup>38†</sup> Then some of the •scribes and Pharisees said to Him, “Teacher, we want to see a sign from You.”

<sup>39</sup> But He answered them, “An evil and adulterous generation demands a sign, but no sign will be given to it except the sign of the prophet Jonah. <sup>40</sup> For as Jonah was in the belly of the huge fish three days and three nights, so the Son of Man will be in the heart of the earth three days and three nights. <sup>41</sup> The men of Nineveh will stand up at the judgment with this generation and condemn it, because they repented at Jonah’s proclamation; and look — something greater than Jonah is here! <sup>42</sup> The queen of the south will rise up at the judgment with this generation and condemn it, because she came from the ends of the earth to hear the wisdom of Solomon; and look — something greater than Solomon is here!

An Unclean Spirit’s Return

<sup>43</sup> “When an •unclean spirit comes out of a man, it roams through waterless places looking for rest but doesn’t find any. <sup>44</sup> Then it says, ‘I’ll go back to my house that I came from.’ And returning, it finds the house vacant, swept, and put in order. <sup>45</sup> Then off it goes and brings with it seven other spirits more evil than itself, and they enter and settle down there. As a result, that man's last condition is worse than the first. That's how it will also be with this evil generation."

True Relationships

<sup>46</sup> He was still speaking to the crowds when suddenly His mother and brothers were standing outside wanting to speak to Him. <sup>47</sup> Someone told Him, "Look, Your mother and Your brothers are standing outside, wanting to speak to You."

<sup>48†</sup> But He replied to the one who told Him, "Who is My mother and who are My brothers? " <sup>49</sup> And stretching out His hand toward His disciples, He said, "Here are My mother and My brothers! <sup>50</sup> For whoever does the will of My Father in heaven, that person is My brother and sister and mother."

The Parable of the Sower

13 On that day Jesus went out of the house and was sitting by the sea.
<sup>2</sup> Such large crowds gathered around Him that He got into a boat and sat down, while the whole crowd stood on the shore.

<sup>3</sup> Then He told them many things in parables, saying: “Consider the sower who went out to sow. <sup>4</sup> As he was sowing, some seed fell along the path, and the birds came and ate them up. <sup>5</sup> Others fell on rocky ground, where there wasn’t much soil, and they sprang up quickly since the soil wasn’t deep. <sup>6</sup> But when the sun came up they were scorched, and since they had no root, they withered. <sup>7</sup> Others fell among thorns, and the thorns came up and choked them. <sup>8</sup> Still others fell on good ground and produced a crop: some 100, some 60, and some 30 times what was sown. <sup>9</sup> Anyone who has ears should listen! ”

Why Jesus Used Parables

<sup>10†</sup> Then the disciples came up and asked Him, “Why do You speak to them in parables? ”

<sup>11</sup> He answered them, “Because the •secrets of the kingdom of heaven have been given for you to know, but it has not been given to them. <sup>12</sup> For whoever has, more will be given to him, and he will have more than enough. But whoever does not have, even what he has will be taken away from him. <sup>13</sup> For this reason I speak to them in parables, because looking they do not see, and hearing they do not listen or understand. <sup>14</sup> Isaiah’s prophecy is fulfilled in them, which says:

You will listen and listen,
yet never understand;
and you will look and look,
yet never perceive.

<sup>15</sup> For this people’s heart has grown callous;
their ears are hard of hearing,
and they have shut their eyes;
otherwise they might see with their eyes
and hear with their ears,

understand with their hearts and turn back —
and I would cure them.

<sup>16</sup> “But your eyes are blessed because they do see, and your ears because they do hear! <sup>17</sup> For •I assure you: Many prophets and righteous people longed to see the things you see yet didn’t see them; to hear the things you hear yet didn’t hear them.

The Parable of the Sower Explained

<sup>18</sup> “You, then, listen to the parable of the sower: <sup>19</sup> When anyone hears the word about the kingdom and doesn’t understand it, the evil one comes and snatches away what was sown in his heart. This is the one sown along the path. <sup>20</sup> And the one sown on rocky ground — this is one who hears the word and immediately receives it with joy. <sup>21</sup> Yet he has no root in himself, but is short-lived. When pressure or persecution comes because of the word, immediately he stumbles. <sup>22</sup> Now the one sown among the thorns — this is one who hears the word, but the worries of this age and the seduction of wealth choke the word, and it becomes unfruitful. <sup>23</sup> But the one sown on the good ground — this is one who hears and understands the word, who does bear fruit and yields: some 100, some 60, some 30 times what was sown.”

The Parable of the Wheat and the Weeds

<sup>24</sup> He presented another parable to them: “The kingdom of heaven may be compared to a man who sowed good seed in his field. <sup>25</sup> But while people were sleeping, his enemy came, sowed weeds among the wheat, and left. <sup>26</sup> When the plants sprouted and produced grain, then the weeds also appeared. <sup>27</sup> The landowner’s •slaves came to him and said, ‘Master, didn’t you sow good seed in your field? Then where did the weeds come from?’

<sup>28</sup> “ ‘An enemy did this!’ he told them.

“ ‘So, do you want us to go and gather them up?’ the slaves asked him.

<sup>29</sup> “ ‘No,’ he said. ‘When you gather up the weeds, you might also uproot the wheat with them. <sup>30</sup> Let both grow together until the harvest. At harvest time I’ll tell the reapers: Gather the weeds first and tie them in bundles to burn them, but store the wheat in my barn.’ ”

The Parables of the Mustard Seed and of the Yeast

<sup>31</sup> He presented another parable to them: “The kingdom of heaven is like a mustard seed that a man took and sowed in his field. <sup>32†</sup> It’s the smallest of all the seeds, but when grown, it’s taller than the vegetables and becomes a tree, so that the birds of the sky come and nest in its branches.”

<sup>33</sup> He told them another parable: “The kingdom of heaven is like yeast that a woman took and mixed into 50 pounds of flour until it spread through all of it.”

Using Parables Fulfills Prophecy

<sup>34</sup> Jesus told the crowds all these things in parables, and He would not speak anything to them without a parable, <sup>35†</sup> so that what was spoken through the prophet might be fulfilled:

I will open My mouth in parables;
I will declare things kept secret
from the foundation of the world.

Jesus Interprets the Wheat and the Weeds

<sup>36</sup> Then He dismissed the crowds and went into the house. His disciples approached Him and said, “Explain the parable of the weeds in the field to us.”

<sup>37</sup> He replied: “The One who sows the good seed is the •Son of Man; <sup>38</sup> the field is the world; and the good seed — these are the sons of the kingdom. The weeds are the sons of the evil one, <sup>39</sup> and the enemy who sowed them is the Devil. The harvest is the end of the age, and the harvesters are angels. <sup>40</sup> Therefore, just as the weeds are gathered and burned in the fire, so it will be at the end of the age. <sup>41</sup> The Son of Man will send out His angels, and they will gather from His kingdom everything that causes sin and those •guilty of lawlessness. <sup>42</sup> They will throw them into the blazing furnace where there will be weeping and gnashing of teeth. <sup>43</sup> Then the righteous will shine like the sun in their Father's kingdom. Anyone who has ears should listen!

The Parables of the Hidden Treasure and of the Priceless Pearl

<sup>44</sup> “The kingdom of heaven is like treasure, buried in a field, that a man found and reburied. Then in his joy he goes and sells everything he has and buys that field.

<sup>45</sup> “Again, the kingdom of heaven is like a merchant in search of fine pearls. <sup>46</sup> When he found one priceless pearl, he went and sold everything he had, and bought it.

The Parable of the Net

<sup>47</sup> “Again, the kingdom of heaven is like a large net thrown into the sea. It collected every kind of fish, <sup>48</sup> and when it was full, they dragged it ashore, sat down, and gathered the good fish into containers, but threw out the worthless ones. <sup>49</sup> So it will be at the end of the age. The angels will go out, separate the evil people from the righteous, <sup>50</sup> and throw them into the blazing furnace. In that place there will be weeping and gnashing of teeth.

The Storehouse of Truth

<sup>51</sup> “Have you understood all these things? ”

“Yes,” they told Him.

<sup>52</sup> “Therefore,” He said to them, “every student of Scripture instructed in the kingdom of heaven is like a landowner who brings out of his storeroom what is new and what is old.” <sup>53</sup> When Jesus had finished these parables, He left there.

Rejection at Nazareth

<sup>54</sup> He went to His hometown and began to teach them in their •synagogue, so that they were astonished and said, “How did this wisdom and these miracles come to Him? <sup>55†</sup> Isn’t this the carpenter’s son? Isn’t His mother called Mary, and His brothers James, Joseph, Simon, and Judas? <sup>56</sup> And His sisters, aren’t they all with us? So where does He get all these things?” <sup>57</sup> And they were •offended by Him.

But Jesus said to them, “A prophet is not without honor except in his hometown and in his household.” <sup>58</sup> And He did not do many miracles there because of their unbelief.

John the Baptist Beheaded

14 At that time •Herod the tetrarch heard the report about Jesus. <sup>2</sup> “This is John the Baptist!” he told his servants. “He has been raised from the dead, and that’s why supernatural powers are at work in him.”

Feeding 5,000

<sup>13</sup> When Jesus heard about it, He withdrew from there by boat to a remote place to be alone. When the crowds heard this, they followed Him on foot from the towns. <sup>14</sup> As He stepped ashore, <sup>C</sup> He saw a huge crowd, felt compassion for them, and healed their sick.

<sup>15†</sup> When evening came, the disciples approached Him and said, “This place is a wilderness, and it is already late. <sup>D</sup> Send the crowds away so they can go into the villages and buy food for themselves.”

<sup>17</sup> “But we only have five loaves and two fish here,” they said to Him.

<sup>18</sup> “Bring them here to Me,” He said. <sup>19</sup> Then He commanded the crowds to sit down <sup>E</sup> on the grass. He took the five loaves and the two fish, and looking up to heaven, He blessed them. He broke the loaves and gave them to the disciples, and the disciples gave them to the crowds. <sup>20</sup> Everyone ate and was filled. Then they picked up 12 baskets full of leftover pieces!
<sup>21</sup> Now those who ate were about 5,000 men, besides women and children.

Walking on the Water

<sup>22</sup> Immediately He made the disciples get into the boat and go ahead of Him to the other side, while He dismissed the crowds. <sup>23</sup> After dismissing the crowds, He went up on the mountain by Himself to pray. When evening came, He was there alone. <sup>24</sup> But the boat was already over a mile <sup>F</sup> from land, battered by the waves, because the wind was against them. <sup>25</sup> Around three in the morning, <sup>G</sup> He came toward them walking on the sea. <sup>26</sup> When the disciples saw Him walking on the sea, they were terrified. “It’s a ghost!” they said, and cried out in fear.

<sup>28</sup> “Lord, if it’s You,” Peter answered Him, “command me to come to You on the water.”

<sup>29</sup> “Come!” He said.

And climbing out of the boat, Peter started walking on the water and came toward Jesus. <sup>30</sup> But when he saw the strength of the wind, he was afraid. And beginning to sink he cried out, “Lord, save me!”

<sup>31</sup> Immediately Jesus reached out His hand, caught hold of him, and said to him, “You of little faith, why did you doubt? ” <sup>32</sup> When they got into the boat, the wind ceased. <sup>33</sup> Then those in the boat worshiped Him and said, “Truly You are the Son of God! ”

Miraculous Healings

<sup>34</sup> Once they crossed over, they came to land at Gennesaret. <sup>35</sup> When the men of that place recognized Him, they alerted <sup>H</sup> the whole vicinity and brought to Him all who were sick. <sup>36</sup> They were begging Him that they might only touch the •tassel on His robe. And as many as touched it were made perfectly well.

The Tradition of the Elders

15 Then •Pharisees and •scribes came from Jerusalem to Jesus and asked, <sup>2</sup> “Why do Your disciples break the tradition of the elders? For they don’t wash their hands when they eat! ” <sup>A</sup>

<sup>3</sup> He answered them, “And why do you break God’s commandment because of your tradition? <sup>4</sup> For God said:

Honor your father and your mother; and,
The one who speaks evil of father or mother
must be put to death.

<sup>5</sup> But you say, ‘Whoever tells his father or mother, “Whatever benefit you might have received from me is a gift committed to the temple” — <sup>6</sup> he does not have to honor his father.’ In this way, you have revoked God’s word because of your tradition. <sup>7</sup> Hypocrites! Isaiah prophesied correctly about you when he said:

<sup>8</sup> These people honor Me with their lips,
but their heart is far from Me.

<sup>9</sup> They worship Me in vain,
teaching as doctrines the commands of men.”

Defilement Is from Within

<sup>10</sup> Summoning the crowd, He told them, “Listen and understand: <sup>11</sup> It’s not what goes into the mouth that defiles a man, but what comes out of the mouth, this defiles a man.”

<sup>12</sup> Then the disciples came up and told Him, “Do You know that the Pharisees took offense when they heard this statement? ”

<sup>13</sup> He replied, “Every plant that My heavenly Father didn’t plant will be uprooted. <sup>14</sup> Leave them alone! They are blind guides. And if the blind guide the blind, both will fall into a pit.”

<sup>16</sup> “Are even you still lacking in understanding?” He asked. <sup>17</sup> “Don’t you realize that whatever goes into the mouth passes into the stomach and is eliminated? <sup>18</sup> But what comes out of the mouth comes from the heart, and this defiles a man. <sup>19</sup> For from the heart come evil thoughts, murders, adulteries, sexual immoralities, thefts, false testimonies, blasphemies. <sup>20†</sup> These are the things that defile a man, but eating with unwashed hands does not defile a man.”

A Gentile Mother’s Faith

<sup>21</sup> When Jesus left there, He withdrew to the area of Tyre and Sidon. <sup>22†</sup> Just then a Canaanite woman from that region came and kept crying out, “Have mercy on me, Lord, Son of David! My daughter is cruelly tormented by a demon.”

<sup>23</sup> Yet He did not say a word to her. So His disciples approached Him and urged Him, “Send her away because she cries out after us.” <sup>B</sup>

<sup>24</sup> He replied, “I was sent only to the lost sheep of the house of Israel.”

<sup>27</sup> “Yes, Lord,” she said, “yet even the dogs eat the crumbs that fall from their masters’ table!”

<sup>28</sup> Then Jesus replied to her, “•Woman, your faith is great. Let it be done for you as you want.” And from that moment <sup>C</sup> her daughter was cured.

Healing Many People

<sup>29</sup> Moving on from there, Jesus passed along the Sea of Galilee. He went up on a mountain and sat there, <sup>30</sup> and large crowds came to Him, having with them the lame, the blind, the deformed, those unable to speak, and many others. They put them at His feet, and He healed them. <sup>31</sup> So the crowd was amazed when they saw those unable to speak talking, the deformed restored, the lame walking, and the blind seeing. And they gave glory to the God of Israel.

Feeding 4,000

<sup>32†</sup> Now Jesus summoned His disciples and said, “I have compassion on the crowd, because they’ve already stayed with Me three days and have nothing to eat. I don’t want to send them away hungry; otherwise they might collapse on the way.”

<sup>33</sup> The disciples said to Him, “Where could we get enough bread in this desolate place to fill such a crowd? ”

<sup>34</sup> “How many loaves do you have? ” Jesus asked them.

“Seven,” they said, “and a few small fish.”

<sup>35</sup> After commanding the crowd to sit down on the ground, <sup>36</sup> He took the seven loaves and the fish, and He gave thanks, broke them, and kept on giving them to the disciples, and the disciples gave them to the crowds.

<sup>37</sup> They all ate and were filled. Then they collected the leftover pieces — seven large baskets full. <sup>38</sup> Now those who ate were 4,000 men, besides women and children. <sup>39†</sup> After dismissing the crowds, He got into the boat and went to the region of Magadan.

The Yeast of the Pharisees and the Sadducees

16 The •Pharisees and •Sadducees approached, and as a test, asked Him to show them a sign from heaven.

<sup>2</sup> He answered them: “When evening comes you say, ‘It will be good weather because the sky is red.’ <sup>3</sup> And in the morning, ‘Today will be stormy because the sky is red and threatening.’ You know how to read the appearance of the sky, but you can’t read the signs of the times. <sup>4</sup> An evil and adulterous generation demands a sign, but no sign will be given to it except the sign of Jonah.” Then He left them and went away.

<sup>5</sup> The disciples reached the other shore, <sup>A</sup> and they had forgotten to take bread.

<sup>8</sup> Aware of this, Jesus said, “You of little faith! Why are you discussing among yourselves that you do not have bread? <sup>9</sup> Don’t you understand yet? Don’t you remember the five loaves for the 5,000 and how many baskets you collected? <sup>10</sup> Or the seven loaves for the 4,000 and how many large baskets you collected? <sup>11</sup> Why is it you don’t understand that when I told you, ‘Beware of the yeast of the Pharisees and Sadducees,’ it wasn’t about bread?” <sup>12</sup> Then they understood that He did not tell them to beware of the yeast in bread, but of the teaching of the Pharisees and Sadducees.

Peter’s Confession of the Messiah

<sup>13</sup> When Jesus came to the region of Caesarea Philippi, He asked His disciples, “Who do people say that the •Son of Man is?”

<sup>16†</sup> Simon Peter answered, “You are the •Messiah, the Son of the living God! ”

<sup>17</sup> And Jesus responded, “Simon son of Jonah, you are blessed because flesh and blood did not reveal this to you, but My Father in heaven. <sup>18†</sup> And I also say to you that you are Peter, and on this rock I will build My church, and the forces of •Hades will not overpower it. <sup>19†</sup> I will give you the keys of the kingdom of heaven, and whatever you bind on earth is already bound in heaven, and whatever you loose on earth is already loosed in heaven.”

<sup>20</sup> And He gave the disciples orders to tell no one that He was the Messiah.

His Death and Resurrection Predicted

<sup>21†</sup> From then on Jesus began to point out to His disciples that He must go to Jerusalem and suffer many things from the elders, •chief priests, and •scribes, be killed, and be raised the third day. <sup>22</sup> Then Peter took Him aside and began to rebuke Him, “Oh no, <sup>B</sup> Lord! This will never happen to You! ”

<sup>23</sup> But He turned and told Peter, “Get behind Me, Satan! You are an offense to Me because you’re not thinking about God’s concerns, but man’s.”

Take Up Your Cross

<sup>24</sup> Then Jesus said to His disciples, “If anyone wants to come with Me, he must deny himself, take up his cross, and follow Me. <sup>25</sup> For whoever wants to save his •life will lose it, but whoever loses his life because of Me will find it. <sup>26</sup> What will it benefit a man if he gains the whole world yet loses his life? Or what will a man give in exchange for his life? <sup>27</sup> For the Son of Man is going to come with His angels in the glory of His Father, and then He will reward each according to what he has done. <sup>28†</sup> •I assure you: There are some standing here who will not taste death until they see the Son of Man coming in His kingdom.”

The Transfiguration

17 †After six days Jesus took Peter, James, and his brother John and led them up on a high mountain by themselves. <sup>2</sup> He was transformed <sup>A</sup> in front of them, and His face shone like the sun. Even His clothes became as white as the light. <sup>3</sup> Suddenly, Moses and Elijah appeared to them, talking with Him.

TWISTED SCRIPTURE

Matthew 17:1-13

Spiritualists and trance mediums refer to these verses as an example of communicating with the dead. They fail to note that Elijah never died but rather was raptured to heaven. Jude 9 hints that the body of Moses was possibly taken to heaven, placing him in a unique category. While Jesus may have had the ability to communicate with the dead, such a practice is strictly forbidden to us (Lv 19:31; 20:27; Dt 18:10-12; Is 8:19; Gl 5:20; Rv 21:8).

<sup>4</sup> Then Peter said to Jesus, “Lord, it’s good for us to be here! If You want, I will make three •tabernacles here: one for You, one for Moses, and one for Elijah.”

<sup>5</sup> While he was still speaking, suddenly a bright cloud covered <sup>B</sup> them, and a voice from the cloud said:

This is My beloved Son.
I take delight in Him.
Listen to Him!

<sup>6</sup> When the disciples heard it, they fell facedown and were terrified.

<sup>7</sup> Then Jesus came up, touched them, and said, “Get up; don’t be afraid.”
<sup>8</sup> When they looked up they saw no one except Him — Jesus alone. <sup>9</sup> As they were coming down from the mountain, Jesus commanded them,

“Don’t tell anyone about the vision until the •Son of Man is raised from the dead.”

<sup>10†</sup> So the disciples questioned Him, “Why then do the •scribes say that Elijah must come first? ”

<sup>11</sup> “Elijah is coming and will restore everything,” He replied. <sup>12</sup> “But I tell you: Elijah has already come, and they didn’t recognize him. On the contrary, they did whatever they pleased to him. In the same way the Son of Man is going to suffer at their hands.” <sup>13</sup> Then the disciples understood that He spoke to them about John the Baptist.

The Power of Faith over a Demon

<sup>14</sup> When they reached the crowd, a man approached and knelt down before Him. <sup>15</sup> “Lord,” he said, “have mercy on my son, because he has seizures <sup>C</sup> and suffers severely. He often falls into the fire and often into the water. <sup>16</sup> I brought him to Your disciples, but they couldn’t heal him.”

<sup>17</sup> Jesus replied, “You unbelieving and rebellious generation! How long will I be with you? How long must I put up with you? Bring him here to Me.” <sup>18</sup> Then Jesus rebuked the demon, <sup>D</sup> and it <sup>E</sup> came out of him, and from that moment <sup>F</sup> the boy was healed.

<sup>19</sup> Then the disciples approached Jesus privately and said, “Why couldn’t we drive it out? ”

<sup>20†</sup> “Because of your little faith,” He told them. “For •I assure you: If you have faith the size of a mustard seed, you will tell this mountain, ‘Move from here to there,’ and it will move. Nothing will be impossible for you. [<sup>21</sup> However, this kind does not come out except by prayer and fasting.]”

The Second Prediction of His Death

<sup>22</sup> As they were meeting in Galilee, Jesus told them, “The Son of Man is about to be betrayed into the hands of men. <sup>23</sup> They will kill Him, and on the third day He will be raised up.” And they were deeply distressed.

Paying the Temple Tax

<sup>24†</sup> When they came to Capernaum, those who collected the double-drachma tax approached Peter and said, “Doesn’t your Teacher pay the double-drachma tax? ”

<sup>25</sup> “Yes,” he said.

When he went into the house, Jesus spoke to him first, <sup>G</sup> “What do you think, Simon? Who do earthly kings collect tariffs or taxes from? From their sons or from strangers? ”

“Then the sons are free,” Jesus told him. <sup>27</sup> “But, so we won’t •offend them, go to the sea, cast in a fishhook, and take the first fish that you catch. When you open its mouth you’ll find a coin. Take it and give it to them for Me and you.”

Who Is the Greatest?

18 At that time <sup>A</sup> the disciples came to Jesus and said, “Who is greatest in the kingdom of heaven?”

<sup>2</sup> Then He called a child to Him and had him stand among them. <sup>3</sup> “I assure you,” He said, “unless you are converted and become like children, you will never enter the kingdom of heaven. <sup>4</sup> Therefore, whoever humbles himself like this child — this one is the greatest in the kingdom of heaven. <sup>5</sup> And whoever welcomes one child like this in My name welcomes Me.

<sup>6</sup> “But whoever •causes the downfall of one of these little ones who believe in Me — it would be better for him if a heavy millstone were hung around his neck and he were drowned in the depths of the sea! <sup>7</sup> Woe to the world because of •offenses. For offenses must come, but woe to that man by whom the offense comes. <sup>8†</sup> If your hand or your foot causes your downfall, cut it off and throw it away. It is better for you to enter life maimed or lame, than to have two hands or two feet and be thrown into the eternal fire. <sup>9</sup> And if your eye causes your downfall, gouge it out and throw it away. It is better for you to enter life with one eye, rather than to have two eyes and be thrown into •hellfire!

The Parable of the Lost Sheep

<sup>10†</sup> “See that you don’t look down on one of these little ones, because I tell you that in heaven their angels continually view the face of My Father in heaven. [<sup>11</sup> For the •Son of Man has come to save the lost.] <sup>12†</sup> What do you think? If a man has 100 sheep, and one of them goes astray, won’t he leave the 99 on the hillside and go and search for the stray? <sup>13</sup> And if he finds it, I assure you: He rejoices over that sheep more than over the 99 that did not go astray. <sup>14</sup> In the same way, it is not the will of your Father in heaven that one of these little ones perish.

Restoring a Brother

<sup>15</sup> “If your brother sins against you, go and rebuke him in private. If he listens to you, you have won your brother. <sup>16</sup> But if he won’t listen, take one or two more with you, so that by the testimony of two or three witnesses every fact may be established. <sup>17†</sup> If he pays no attention to them, tell the church. But if he doesn't pay attention even to the church, let him be like an unbeliever and a tax collector to you. <sup>18†</sup> I assure you: Whatever you bind on earth is already bound in heaven, and whatever you loose on earth is already loosed in heaven. <sup>19</sup> Again, I assure you: If two of you on earth agree about any matter that you pray for, it will be done for you by My Father in heaven. <sup>20</sup> For where two or three are gathered together in My name, I am there among them."

The Parable of the Unforgiving Slave

<sup>21</sup> Then Peter came to Him and said, "Lord, how many times could my brother sin against me and I forgive him? As many as seven times?"

<sup>22</sup> "I tell you, not as many as seven," Jesus said to him, "but 70 times seven. <sup>23</sup> For this reason, the kingdom of heaven can be compared to a king who wanted to settle accounts with his •slaves. <sup>24</sup> When he began to settle accounts, one who owed 10,000 talents was brought before him. <sup>25</sup> Since he had no way to pay it back, his master commanded that he, his wife, his children, and everything he had be sold to pay the debt.

<sup>26</sup> "At this, the slave fell facedown before him and said, 'Be patient with me, and I will pay you everything!' <sup>27</sup> Then the master of that slave had compassion, released him, and forgave him the loan.

<sup>28</sup> "But that slave went out and found one of his fellow slaves who owed him 100 •denarii. He grabbed him, started choking him, and said, 'Pay what you owe!'

<sup>29</sup> "At this, his fellow slave fell down and began begging him, 'Be patient with me, and I will pay you back.'<sup>30</sup> But he wasn't willing. On the contrary, he went and threw him into prison until he could pay what was owed. <sup>31</sup> When the other slaves saw what had taken place, they were deeply distressed and went and reported to their master everything that had happened.

<sup>32</sup> “Then, after he had summoned him, his master said to him, ‘You wicked slave! I forgave you all that debt because you begged me.

<sup>33</sup> Shouldn’t you also have had mercy on your fellow slave, as I had mercy on you?’ <sup>34</sup> And his master got angry and handed him over to the jailers to be tortured until he could pay everything that was owed. <sup>35†</sup> So My heavenly Father will also do to you if each of you does not forgive his brother from his heart.”

The Question of Divorce

19 When Jesus had finished this instruction, He departed from Galilee and went to the region of Judea across the Jordan. <sup>2</sup> Large crowds followed Him, and He healed them there. <sup>3</sup> Some •Pharisees approached Him to test Him. They asked, “Is it lawful for a man to divorce his wife on any grounds? ”

<sup>4</sup> “Haven’t you read,” He replied, “that He who created them in the beginning made them male and female,” <sup>5</sup> and He also said:

“For this reason a man will leave his father and mother
and be joined to his wife,
and the two will become one flesh?”

<sup>6</sup> So they are no longer two, but one flesh. Therefore, what God has joined together, man must not separate.”

<sup>7</sup> “Why then,” they asked Him, “did Moses command us to give divorce papers and to send her away? ”

<sup>8</sup> He told them, “Moses permitted you to divorce your wives because of the hardness of your hearts. But it was not like that from the beginning. <sup>9†</sup> And I tell you, whoever divorces his wife, except for sexual immorality, and marries another, commits adultery.”

<sup>10</sup> His disciples said to Him, “If the relationship of a man with his wife is like this, it’s better not to marry! ”

<sup>11</sup> But He told them, “Not everyone can accept this saying, but only those it has been given to. <sup>12†</sup> For there are eunuchs who were born that way from their mother’s womb, there are eunuchs who were made by men, and there are eunuchs who have made themselves that way because of the kingdom of heaven. Let anyone accept this who can.”

Blessing the Children

<sup>13</sup> Then children were brought to Him so He might put His hands on them and pray. But the disciples rebuked them. <sup>14</sup> Then Jesus said, “Leave the children alone, and don’t try to keep them from coming to Me, because the kingdom of heaven is made up of people like this.” <sup>15</sup> After putting His hands on them, He went on from there.

The Rich Young Ruler

<sup>16†</sup> Just then someone came up and asked Him, “Teacher, what good must I do to have eternal life? ”

<sup>17</sup> “Why do you ask Me about what is good? ” He said to him. “There is only One who is good. If you want to enter into life, keep the commandments.”

<sup>18</sup> “Which ones? ” he asked Him. Jesus answered:

Do not murder;
do not commit adultery;
do not steal;
do not bear false witness;
<sup>19</sup> honor your father and your mother;
and love your neighbor as yourself.

<sup>20</sup> “I have kept all these,” the young man told Him. “What do I still lack? ”

<sup>21†</sup> “If you want to be perfect,” Jesus said to him, “go, sell your belongings and give to the poor, and you will have treasure in heaven. Then come, follow Me.”

<sup>22</sup> When the young man heard that command, he went away grieving, because he had many possessions.

Possessions and the Kingdom

<sup>23</sup> Then Jesus said to His disciples, “•I assure you: It will be hard for a rich person to enter the kingdom of heaven! <sup>24</sup> Again I tell you, it is easier for a camel to go through the eye of a needle than for a rich person to enter the kingdom of God.”

<sup>25</sup> When the disciples heard this, they were utterly astonished and asked, “Then who can be saved? ”

<sup>26</sup> But Jesus looked at them and said, “With men this is impossible, but with God all things are possible.”

<sup>27</sup> Then Peter responded to Him, “Look, we have left everything and followed You. So what will there be for us? ”

<sup>28</sup> Jesus said to them, “I assure you: In the Messianic Age, when the •Son of Man sits on His glorious throne, you who have followed Me will also sit on 12 thrones, judging the 12 tribes of Israel. <sup>29†</sup> And everyone who has left houses, brothers or sisters, father or mother, children, or fields because of My name will receive 100 times more and will inherit eternal life. <sup>30</sup> But many who are first will be last, and the last first.

The Parable of the Vineyard Workers

20† “For the kingdom of heaven is like a landowner who went out early in the morning to hire workers for his vineyard. <sup>2</sup> After agreeing with the workers on one •denarius for the day, he sent them into his vineyard. <sup>3</sup> When he went out about nine in the morning, he saw others standing in the marketplace doing nothing. <sup>4</sup> To those men he said, ‘You also go to my vineyard, and I’ll give you whatever is right.’ So off they went. <sup>5</sup> About noon and at three, he went out again and did the same thing. <sup>6</sup> Then about five he went and found others standing around, and said to them, ‘Why have you been standing here all day doing nothing?’

<sup>7</sup> “ ‘Because no one hired us,’ they said to him.

“ ‘You also go to my vineyard,’ he told them. <sup>8</sup> When evening came, the owner of the vineyard told his foreman, ‘Call the workers and give them their pay, starting with the last and ending with the first.’

<sup>9</sup> “When those who were hired about five came, they each received one denarius. <sup>10</sup> So when the first ones came, they assumed they would get more, but they also received a denarius each. <sup>11</sup> When they received it, they began to complain to the landowner: <sup>12</sup> ‘These last men put in one hour, and you made them equal to us who bore the burden of the day and the burning heat!’

<sup>13</sup> “He replied to one of them, ‘Friend, I’m doing you no wrong. Didn’t you agree with me on a denarius?’ <sup>14</sup> Take what’s yours and go. I want to give this last man the same as I gave you. <sup>15</sup> Don’t I have the right to do what I want with my business? Are you jealous because I’m generous?’

<sup>16</sup> “So the last will be first, and the first last.”

The Third Prediction of His Death

<sup>17</sup> While going up to Jerusalem, Jesus took the 12 disciples aside privately and said to them on the way: <sup>18</sup> “Listen! We are going up to Jerusalem. The •Son of Man will be handed over to the •chief priests and •scribes, and they will condemn Him to death. <sup>19</sup> Then they will hand Him over to the Gentiles to be mocked, flogged, and crucified, and He will be resurrected on the third day.”

Suffering and Service

<sup>20†</sup> Then the mother of Zebedee’s sons approached Him with her sons. She knelt down to ask Him for something. <sup>21</sup> “What do you want? ” He asked her.

“Promise,” <sup>A</sup> she said to Him, “that these two sons of mine may sit, one on Your right and the other on Your left, in Your kingdom.”

<sup>22</sup> But Jesus answered, “You don’t know what you’re asking. Are you able to drink the cup that I am about to drink?”

“We are able,” they said to Him.

<sup>23</sup> He told them, “You will indeed drink My cup. But to sit at My right and left is not Mine to give; instead, it belongs to those for whom it has been prepared by My Father.” <sup>24</sup> When the 10 disciples heard this, they became indignant with the two brothers. <sup>25</sup> But Jesus called them over and said, “You know that the rulers of the Gentiles dominate them, and the men of high position exercise power over them. <sup>26</sup> It must not be like that among you. On the contrary, whoever wants to become great among you must be your servant, <sup>27</sup> and whoever wants to be first among you must be your •slave; <sup>28†</sup> just as the Son of Man did not come to be served, but to serve, and to give His life — a ransom for many.”

Two Blind Men Healed

<sup>29</sup> As they were leaving Jericho, a large crowd followed Him. <sup>30†</sup> There were two blind men sitting by the road. When they heard that Jesus was passing by, they cried out, “Lord, have mercy on us, Son of David! ” <sup>31</sup> The crowd told them to keep quiet, but they cried out all the more, “Lord, have mercy on us, Son of David! ”

<sup>32</sup> Jesus stopped, called them, and said, “What do you want Me to do for you? ”

<sup>33</sup> “Lord,” they said to Him, “open our eyes! ” <sup>34</sup> Moved with compassion, Jesus touched their eyes. Immediately they could see, and they followed Him.

The Triumphal Entry

21 When they approached Jerusalem and came to Bethphage at the •Mount of Olives, Jesus then sent two disciples, <sup>2†</sup> telling them, “Go into the village ahead of you. At once you will find a donkey tied there, and a colt with her. Untie them and bring them to Me. <sup>3</sup> If anyone says anything to you, you should say that the Lord needs them, and immediately he will send them.”

How Should We Treat New Challenges to the Christian Faith? ⇒

---

<sup>4</sup> This took place so that what was spoken through the prophet might be fulfilled:

<sup>5</sup> Tell Daughter •Zion,
“Look, your King is coming to you,
gentle, and mounted on a donkey,
even on a colt,
the foal of a beast of burden.”

<sup>6</sup> The disciples went and did just as Jesus directed them. <sup>7</sup> They brought the donkey and the colt; then they laid their robes on them, and He sat on them. <sup>8</sup> A very large crowd spread their robes on the road; others were cutting branches from the trees and spreading them on the road. <sup>9</sup> Then the crowds who went ahead of Him and those who followed kept shouting:

•Hosanna to the Son of David!
He who comes in the name
of the Lord is the blessed One!
Hosanna in the highest heaven!

<sup>10</sup> When He entered Jerusalem, the whole city was shaken, saying, “Who is this? ” <sup>11</sup> And the crowds kept saying, “This is the prophet Jesus from Nazareth in Galilee! ”

Cleansing the Temple Complex

<sup>12†</sup> Jesus went into the •temple complex and drove out all those buying and selling in the temple. He overturned the money changers' tables and the chairs of those selling doves. <sup>13</sup> And He said to them, "It is written, My house will be called a house of prayer. But you are making it a den of thieves!"

Children Praise Jesus

<sup>14</sup> The blind and the lame came to Him in the temple complex, and He healed them. <sup>15</sup> When the •chief priests and the •scribes saw the wonders that He did and the children shouting in the temple complex, "Hosanna to the Son of David!" they were indignant <sup>16</sup> and said to Him, "Do You hear what these children are saying?"

"Yes," Jesus told them. "Have you never read:

You have prepared praise
from the mouths of children and nursing infants?"

<sup>17</sup> Then He left them, went out of the city to Bethany, and spent the night there.

The Barren Fig Tree

<sup>18</sup> Early in the morning, as He was returning to the city, He was hungry. <sup>19</sup> Seeing a lone fig tree by the road, He went up to it and found nothing on it except leaves. And He said to it, "May no fruit ever come from you again!" At once the fig tree withered.

<sup>20</sup> When the disciples saw it, they were amazed and said, "How did the fig tree wither so quickly?"

<sup>21</sup> Jesus answered them, "•I assure you: If you have faith and do not doubt, you will not only do what was done to the fig tree, but even if you tell this mountain, 'Be lifted up and thrown into the sea,' it will be done.

<sup>22†</sup> And if you believe, you will receive whatever you ask for in prayer."

Messiah's Authority Challenged

<sup>23</sup> When He entered the temple complex, the chief priests and the elders of the people came up to Him as He was teaching and said, "By what authority are You doing these things? Who gave You this authority?"

<sup>24</sup> Jesus answered them, "I will also ask you one question, and if you answer it for Me, then I will tell you by what authority I do these things.
<sup>25</sup> Where did John's baptism come from? From heaven or from men?"

They began to argue among themselves, "If we say, 'From heaven,' He will say to us, 'Then why didn't you believe him?' <sup>26</sup> But if we say, 'From men,' we're afraid of the crowd, because everyone thought John was a prophet." <sup>27</sup> So they answered Jesus, "We don't know."

And He said to them, "Neither will I tell you by what authority I do these things.

The Parable of the Two Sons

<sup>28</sup> "But what do you think? A man had two sons. He went to the first and said, 'My son, go, work in the vineyard today.'

<sup>29</sup> "He answered, 'I don't want to!' Yet later he changed his mind and went. <sup>30</sup> Then the man went to the other and said the same thing.

" 'I will, sir,' he answered. But he didn't go.

<sup>31</sup> "Which of the two did his father's will?"

"The first," they said.

Jesus said to them, "I assure you: Tax collectors and prostitutes are entering the kingdom of God before you! <sup>32</sup> For John came to you in the way of righteousness, and you didn't believe him. Tax collectors and prostitutes did believe him, but you, when you saw it, didn't even change your minds then and believe him.

The Parable of the Vineyard Owner

<sup>33†</sup> “Listen to another parable: There was a man, a landowner, who planted a vineyard, put a fence around it, dug a winepress in it, and built a watchtower. He leased it to tenant farmers and went away. <sup>34</sup> When the grape harvest drew near, he sent his •slaves to the farmers to collect his fruit. <sup>35</sup> But the farmers took his slaves, beat one, killed another, and stoned a third. <sup>36</sup> Again, he sent other slaves, more than the first group, and they did the same to them. <sup>37</sup> Finally, he sent his son to them. ‘They will respect my son,’ he said.

<sup>38</sup> “But when the tenant farmers saw the son, they said among themselves, ‘This is the heir. Come, let's kill him and take his inheritance!’ <sup>39</sup> So they seized him, threw him out of the vineyard, and killed him. <sup>40</sup> Therefore, when the owner of the vineyard comes, what will he do to those farmers?”

<sup>41</sup> “He will completely destroy those terrible men,” they told Him, “and lease his vineyard to other farmers who will give him his produce at the harvest.” <sup>A</sup>

<sup>42</sup> Jesus said to them, “Have you never read in the Scriptures:

The stone that the builders rejected
has become the cornerstone.
This came from the Lord
and is wonderful in our eyes?

<sup>43</sup> Therefore I tell you, the kingdom of God will be taken away from you and given to a nation producing its fruit. [<sup>44</sup> Whoever falls on this stone will be broken to pieces; but on whoever it falls, it will grind him to powder!]

<sup>45</sup> When the chief priests and the •Pharisees heard His parables, they knew He was speaking about them. <sup>46</sup> Although they were looking for a way to arrest Him, they feared the crowds, because they regarded Him as a prophet.

The Parable of the Wedding Banquet

22 Once more Jesus spoke to them in parables: <sup>2</sup> “The kingdom of heaven may be compared to a king who gave a wedding banquet for his son. <sup>3</sup> He sent out his •slaves to summon those invited to the banquet, but they didn’t want to come. <sup>4</sup> Again, he sent out other slaves, and said, ‘Tell those who are invited: Look, I’ve prepared my dinner; my oxen and fattened cattle have been slaughtered, and everything is ready. Come to the wedding banquet.’

<sup>8</sup> “Then he told his slaves, ‘The banquet is ready, but those who were invited were not worthy. <sup>9</sup> Therefore go to where the roads exit the city and invite everyone you find to the banquet.’ <sup>10</sup> So those slaves went out on the roads and gathered everyone they found, both evil and good. The wedding banquet was filled with guests. <sup>11†</sup> But when the king came in to view the guests, he saw a man there who was not dressed for a wedding. <sup>12</sup> So he said to him, ‘Friend, how did you get in here without wedding clothes?’ The man was speechless.

<sup>13</sup> “Then the king told the attendants, ‘Tie him up hand and foot, and throw him into the outer darkness, where there will be weeping and gnashing of teeth.’

God and Caesar

<sup>15</sup> Then the •Pharisees went and plotted how to trap Him by what He said. <sup>A</sup>, <sup>16</sup> They sent their disciples to Him, with the •Herodians. “Teacher,” they said, “we know that You are truthful and teach truthfully the way of God. You defer to no one, for You don’t show partiality. <sup>B</sup>

<sup>17</sup> Tell us, therefore, what You think. Is it lawful to pay taxes to Caesar or not? ”

<sup>18</sup> But perceiving their malice, Jesus said, “Why are you testing Me, hypocrites? <sup>19</sup> Show Me the coin used for the tax.” So they brought Him a •denarius. <sup>20</sup> “Whose image and inscription is this? ” He asked them.

Then He said to them, “Therefore give back to Caesar the things that are Caesar’s, and to God the things that are God’s.” <sup>22</sup> When they heard this, they were amazed. So they left Him and went away.

The Sadducees and the Resurrection

<sup>23</sup> The same day some •Sadducees, who say there is no resurrection, came up to Him and questioned Him: <sup>24</sup> “Teacher, Moses said, if a man dies, having no children, his brother is to marry his wife and raise up offspring for his brother. <sup>25</sup> Now there were seven brothers among us. The first got married and died. Having no offspring, he left his wife to his brother. <sup>26</sup> The same happened to the second also, and the third, and so to all seven. <sup>C</sup> <sup>27</sup> Then last of all the woman died. <sup>28</sup> In the resurrection, therefore, whose wife will she be of the seven? For they all had married her.” <sup>D</sup>

<sup>29</sup> Jesus answered them, “You are deceived, because you don’t know the Scriptures or the power of God. <sup>30†</sup> For in the resurrection they neither marry nor are given in marriage but are like angels in heaven. <sup>31</sup> Now concerning the resurrection of the dead, haven’t you read what was spoken to you by God: <sup>32</sup> I am the God of Abraham and the God of Isaac and the God of Jacob? He is not the God of the dead, but of the living.”

<sup>33</sup> And when the crowds heard this, they were astonished at His teaching.

The Primary Commandments

<sup>34</sup> When the Pharisees heard that He had silenced the Sadducees, they came together. <sup>35</sup> And one of them, an expert in the law, asked a question to test Him: <sup>36</sup> “Teacher, which command in the law is the greatest?” <sup>E</sup>

<sup>37</sup> He said to him, “Love the Lord your God with all your heart, with all your soul, and with all your mind. <sup>38</sup> This is the greatest and most important command. <sup>39</sup> The second is like it: Love your neighbor as yourself. <sup>40</sup> All the Law and the Prophets depend on these two commands.”

The Question about the Messiah

<sup>41</sup> While the Pharisees were together, Jesus questioned them, <sup>42</sup> “What do you think about the •Messiah? Whose Son is He?”

“David’s,” they told Him.

<sup>43</sup> He asked them, “How is it then that David, inspired by the Spirit, calls Him ‘Lord’ :

<sup>44</sup> The Lord declared to my Lord,
‘Sit at My right hand
until I put Your enemies under Your feet’? ,

<sup>45†</sup> “If David calls Him ‘Lord,’ how then can the Messiah be his Son?”
<sup>46</sup> No one was able to answer Him at all, <sup>F</sup> and from that day no one dared to question Him anymore.

Religious Hypocrites Denounced

23 Then Jesus spoke to the crowds and to His disciples: <sup>2†</sup> “The •scribes and the •Pharisees are seated in the chair of Moses. <sup>3</sup> Therefore do whatever they tell you, and observe it. But don’t do what they do, because they don’t practice what they teach. <sup>4</sup> They tie up heavy loads that are hard to carry and put them on people’s shoulders, but they themselves aren’t willing to lift a finger to move them. <sup>5</sup> They do everything to be observed by others: They enlarge their phylacteries and lengthen their •tassels. <sup>6</sup> They love the place of honor at banquets, the front seats in the •synagogues, <sup>7</sup> greetings in the marketplaces, and to be called ‘•Rabbi’ by people.

<sup>8†</sup> “But as for you, do not be called ‘Rabbi,’ because you have one Teacher, and you are all brothers. <sup>9</sup> Do not call anyone on earth your father, because you have one Father, who is in heaven. <sup>10</sup> And do not be called masters either, because you have one Master, the •Messiah. <sup>11</sup> The greatest among you will be your servant. <sup>12</sup> Whoever exalts himself will be humbled, and whoever humbles himself will be exalted.

<sup>13</sup> “But woe to you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! You lock up the kingdom of heaven from people. For you don’t go in, and you don’t allow those entering to go in.

[<sup>14</sup> “Woe to you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! You devour widows’ houses and make long prayers just for show. This is why you will receive a harsher punishment. ]

<sup>15</sup> “Woe to you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! You travel over land and sea to make one •proselyte, and when he becomes one, you make him twice as fit for •hell as you are!

<sup>16</sup> “Woe to you, blind guides, who say, ‘Whoever takes an oath by the sanctuary, it means nothing. But whoever takes an oath by the gold of the sanctuary is bound by his oath.’ <sup>17†</sup> Blind fools! For which is greater, the gold or the sanctuary that sanctified the gold? <sup>18</sup> Also, ‘Whoever takes an oath by the altar, it means nothing. But whoever takes an oath by the gift that is on it is bound by his oath.’ <sup>19</sup> Blind people! For which is greater, the gift or the altar that sanctifies the gift? <sup>20</sup> Therefore, the one who takes an oath by the altar takes an oath by it and by everything on it. <sup>21</sup> The one who takes an oath by the sanctuary takes an oath by it and by Him who dwells in it. <sup>22</sup> And the one who takes an oath by heaven takes an oath by God’s throne and by Him who sits on it.

<sup>23</sup> “Woe to you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! You pay a tenth of mint, dill, and cumin, yet you have neglected the more important matters of the law — justice, mercy, and faith. These things should have been done without neglecting the others. <sup>24</sup> Blind guides! You strain out a gnat, yet gulp down a camel!

<sup>25</sup> “Woe to you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! You •clean the outside of the cup and dish, but inside they are full of greed and self-indulgence! <sup>26</sup> Blind Pharisee! First clean the inside of the cup, so the outside of it may also become clean.

<sup>27</sup> “Woe to you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! You are like whitewashed tombs, which appear beautiful on the outside, but inside are full of dead men’s bones and every impurity. <sup>28</sup> In the same way, on the outside you seem righteous to people, but inside you are full of hypocrisy and lawlessness.

<sup>29</sup> “Woe to you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! You build the tombs of the prophets and decorate the monuments of the righteous, <sup>30</sup> and you say, ‘If we had lived in the days of our fathers, we wouldn’t have taken part with them in shedding the prophets’ blood.’ <sup>31</sup> You, therefore, testify against yourselves that you are sons of those who murdered the prophets. <sup>32</sup> Fill up, then, the measure of your fathers’ sins!

<sup>33</sup> “Snakes! Brood of vipers! How can you escape being condemned to hell? <sup>34†</sup> This is why I am sending you prophets, sages, and scribes. Some of them you will kill and crucify, and some of them you will flog in your synagogues and hound from town to town. <sup>35†</sup> So all the righteous blood shed on the earth will be charged to you, from the blood of righteous Abel to the blood of Zechariah, son of Berechiah, whom you murdered between the sanctuary and the altar. <sup>36</sup> •I assure you: All these things will come on this generation!

Jesus' Lamentation over Jerusalem

<sup>37</sup> “Jerusalem, Jerusalem! She who kills the prophets and stones those who are sent to her. How often I wanted to gather your children together, as a hen gathers her chicks under her wings, yet you were not willing!
<sup>38†</sup> See, your house is left to you desolate. <sup>39</sup> For I tell you, you will never see Me again until you say, ‘He who comes in the name of the Lord is the blessed One!’ ”

Destruction of the Temple Predicted

24 As Jesus left and was going out of the •temple complex, His disciples came up and called His attention to the temple buildings. <sup>2</sup> Then He replied to them, “Don’t you see all these things? •I assure you: Not one stone will be left here on another that will not be thrown down!”

Signs of the End of the Age

<sup>3</sup> While He was sitting on the •Mount of Olives, the disciples approached Him privately and said, “Tell us, when will these things happen? And what is the sign of Your coming and of the end of the age?”

<sup>4</sup> Then Jesus replied to them: “Watch out that no one deceives you. <sup>5</sup> For many will come in My name, saying, ‘I am the •Messiah,’ and they will deceive many. <sup>6</sup> You are going to hear of wars and rumors of wars. See that you are not alarmed, because these things must take place, but the end is not yet. <sup>7</sup> For nation will rise up against nation, and kingdom against kingdom. There will be famines and earthquakes in various places. <sup>8</sup> All these events are the beginning of birth pains.

Persecutions Predicted

<sup>9†</sup> “Then they will hand you over for persecution, and they will kill you. You will be hated by all nations because of My name. <sup>10</sup> Then many will •take offense, betray one another and hate one another. <sup>11</sup> Many false prophets will rise up and deceive many. <sup>12</sup> Because lawlessness will multiply, the love of many will grow cold. <sup>13</sup> But the one who endures to the end will be delivered. <sup>14</sup> This good news of the kingdom will be proclaimed in all the world as a testimony to all nations. And then the end will come.

The Great Tribulation

<sup>15†</sup> “So when you see the abomination that causes desolation, spoken of by the prophet Daniel, standing in the holy place” (let the reader understand), <sup>16</sup> “then those in Judea must flee to the mountains! <sup>17</sup> A man on the housetop must not come down to get things out of his house. <sup>18</sup> And a man in the field must not go back to get his clothes. <sup>19</sup> Woe to pregnant women and nursing mothers in those days! <sup>20</sup> Pray that your escape may not be in winter or on a Sabbath. <sup>21</sup> For at that time there will be great tribulation, the kind that hasn't taken place from the beginning of the world until now and never will again! <sup>22</sup> Unless those days were limited, no one would survive. But those days will be limited because of the elect.

<sup>23</sup> “If anyone tells you then, ‘Look, here is the Messiah!’ or, ‘Over here!’ do not believe it! <sup>24</sup> False messiahs and false prophets will arise and perform great signs and wonders to lead astray, if possible, even the elect. <sup>25</sup> Take note: I have told you in advance. <sup>26</sup> So if they tell you, ‘Look, He’s in the wilderness!’ don’t go out; ‘Look, He’s in the inner rooms!’ do not believe it. <sup>27</sup> For as the lightning comes from the east and flashes as far as the west, so will be the coming of the •Son of Man. <sup>28</sup> Wherever the carcass is, there the vultures will gather.

The Coming of the Son of Man

<sup>29†</sup> “Immediately after the tribulation of those days:

The sun will be darkened,
and the moon will not shed its light;
the stars will fall from the sky,
and the celestial powers will be shaken.

<sup>30</sup> “Then the sign of the Son of Man will appear in the sky, and then all the peoples of the earth will mourn; and they will see the Son of Man coming on the clouds of heaven with power and great glory. <sup>31</sup> He will send out His angels with a loud trumpet, and they will gather His elect from the four winds, from one end of the sky to the other.

The Parable of the Fig Tree

<sup>32</sup> “Now learn this parable from the fig tree: As soon as its branch becomes tender and sprouts leaves, you know that summer is near. <sup>33</sup> In the same way, when you see all these things, recognize that He is near — at the door! <sup>34†</sup> I assure you: This generation will certainly not pass away until all these things take place. <sup>35</sup> Heaven and earth will pass away, but My words will never pass away.

No One Knows the Day or Hour

<sup>36</sup> “Now concerning that day and hour no one knows — neither the angels in heaven, nor the Son — except the Father only. <sup>37</sup> As the days of Noah were, so the coming of the Son of Man will be. <sup>38</sup> For in those days before the flood they were eating and drinking, marrying and giving in marriage, until the day Noah boarded the ark. <sup>39</sup> They didn’t know until the flood came and swept them all away. So this is the way the coming of the Son of Man will be: <sup>40</sup> Then two men will be in the field: one will be taken and one left. <sup>41</sup> Two women will be grinding at the mill: one will be taken and one left. <sup>42</sup> Therefore be alert, since you don’t know what day your Lord is coming. <sup>43</sup> But know this: If the homeowner had known what time the thief was coming, he would have stayed alert and not let his house be broken into. <sup>44</sup> This is why you also must be ready, because the Son of Man is coming at an hour you do not expect.

Faithful Service to the Messiah

<sup>45†</sup> “Who then is a faithful and sensible •slave, whom his master has put in charge of his household, to give them food at the proper time? <sup>46</sup> That slave whose master finds him working when he comes will be rewarded. <sup>47</sup> I assure you: He will put him in charge of all his possessions. <sup>48</sup> But if that wicked slave says in his heart, ‘My master is delayed,’ <sup>49</sup> and starts to beat his fellow slaves, and eats and drinks with drunkards, <sup>50</sup> that slave’s master will come on a day he does not expect and at an hour he does not know. <sup>51</sup> He will cut him to pieces and assign him a place with the hypocrites. In that place there will be weeping and gnashing of teeth.

The Parable of the 10 Virgins

25 “Then the kingdom of heaven will be like 10 virgins who took their lamps and went out to meet the groom. <sup>2</sup> Five of them were foolish and five were sensible. <sup>3</sup> When the foolish took their lamps, they didn’t take olive oil with them. <sup>4</sup> But the sensible ones took oil in their flasks with their lamps. <sup>5</sup> Since the groom was delayed, they all became drowsy and fell asleep.

<sup>6</sup> “In the middle of the night there was a shout: ‘Here’s the groom! Come out to meet him.’

<sup>7</sup> “Then all those virgins got up and trimmed their lamps. <sup>8</sup> But the foolish ones said to the sensible ones, ‘Give us some of your oil, because our lamps are going out.’

<sup>9</sup> “The sensible ones answered, ‘No, there won’t be enough for us and for you. Go instead to those who sell, and buy oil for yourselves.’

<sup>10</sup> “When they had gone to buy some, the groom arrived. Then those who were ready went in with him to the wedding banquet, and the door was shut.

<sup>11</sup> “Later the rest of the virgins also came and said, ‘Master, master, open up for us!’

<sup>12</sup> “But he replied, ‘I assure you: I do not know you!’

<sup>13</sup> “Therefore be alert, because you don’t know either the day or the hour.

The Parable of the Talents

<sup>14†</sup> “For it is just like a man going on a journey. He called his own •slaves and turned over his possessions to them. <sup>15</sup> To one he gave five talents; to another, two; and to another, one — to each according to his own ability. Then he went on a journey. Immediately <sup>16</sup> the man who had received five talents went, put them to work, and earned five more. <sup>17</sup> In the same way the man with two earned two more.<sup>18</sup> But the man who had received one talent went off, dug a hole in the ground, and hid his master's money.

<sup>19</sup> “After a long time the master of those slaves came and settled accounts with them.<sup>20</sup> The man who had received five talents approached, presented five more talents, and said, ‘Master, you gave me five talents. Look, I’ve earned five more talents.’

<sup>22</sup> “Then the man with two talents also approached. He said, ‘Master, you gave me two talents. Look, I’ve earned two more talents.’

<sup>23</sup> “His master said to him, ‘Well done, good and faithful slave! You were faithful over a few things; I will put you in charge of many things. Share your master’s joy!’

<sup>24</sup> “Then the man who had received one talent also approached and said, ‘Master, I know you. You’re a difficult man, reaping where you haven’t sown and gathering where you haven’t scattered seed.<sup>25</sup> So I was afraid and went off and hid your talent in the ground. Look, you have what is yours.’

<sup>26†</sup> “But his master replied to him, ‘You evil, lazy slave! If you knew that I reap where I haven’t sown and gather where I haven’t scattered,<sup>27</sup> then you should have deposited my money with the bankers. And when I returned I would have received my money back with interest.

<sup>28</sup> “ ‘So take the talent from him and give it to the one who has 10 talents.<sup>29</sup> For to everyone who has, more will be given, and he will have more than enough. But from the one who does not have, even what he has will be taken away from him.<sup>30</sup> And throw this good-for-nothing slave into the outer darkness. In that place there will be weeping and gnashing of teeth.’

The Sheep and the Goats

<sup>31†</sup> “When the •Son of Man comes in His glory, and all the angels with Him, then He will sit on the throne of His glory. <sup>32</sup> All the nations will be gathered before Him, and He will separate them one from another, just as a shepherd separates the sheep from the goats. <sup>33</sup> He will put the sheep on His right and the goats on the left. <sup>34</sup> Then the King will say to those on His right, ‘Come, you who are blessed by My Father, inherit the kingdom prepared for you from the foundation of the world.

<sup>35</sup> For I was hungry
and you gave Me something to eat;
I was thirsty
and you gave Me something to drink;
I was a stranger and you took Me in;
<sup>36</sup> I was naked and you clothed Me;
I was sick and you took care of Me;
I was in prison and you visited Me.’

<sup>37</sup> “Then the righteous will answer Him, ‘Lord, when did we see You hungry and feed You, or thirsty and give You something to drink? <sup>38</sup> When did we see You a stranger and take You in, or without clothes and clothe You? <sup>39</sup> When did we see You sick, or in prison, and visit You? ’

<sup>40</sup> “And the King will answer them, ‘I assure you: Whatever you did for one of the least of these brothers of Mine, you did for Me.’ <sup>41</sup> Then He will also say to those on the left, ‘Depart from Me, you who are cursed, into the eternal fire prepared for the Devil and his angels!

<sup>42</sup> For I was hungry
and you gave Me nothing to eat;
I was thirsty
and you gave Me nothing to drink; <sup>43</sup> I was a stranger
and you didn’t take Me in;
I was naked

and you didn't clothe Me, sick and in prison
and you didn't take care of Me.'

<sup>44</sup> "Then they too will answer, 'Lord, when did we see You hungry, or thirsty, or a stranger, or without clothes, or sick, or in prison, and not help You?'

<sup>45</sup> "Then He will answer them, 'I assure you: Whatever you did not do for one of the least of these, you did not do for Me either.'

<sup>46</sup> "And they will go away into eternal punishment, but the righteous into eternal life."

The Plot to Kill Jesus

26 When Jesus had finished saying all this, He told His disciples, <sup>2</sup> “You know that the •Passover takes place after two days, and the •Son of Man will be handed over to be crucified.”

<sup>3</sup> Then the •chief priests and the elders of the people assembled in the palace of the high priest, who was called Caiaphas, <sup>4</sup> and they conspired to arrest Jesus in a treacherous way and kill Him. <sup>5</sup> “Not during the festival,” they said, “so there won’t be rioting among the people.”

The Anointing at Bethany

<sup>6†</sup> While Jesus was in Bethany at the house of Simon, a man who had a serious skin disease, <sup>7</sup> a woman approached Him with an alabaster jar of very expensive fragrant oil. She poured it on His head as He was reclining at the table. <sup>8</sup> When the disciples saw it, they were indignant. “Why this waste?” they asked. <sup>9</sup> “This might have been sold for a great deal and given to the poor.”

<sup>10</sup> But Jesus, aware of this, said to them, “Why are you bothering this woman? She has done a noble thing for Me. <sup>11†</sup> You always have the poor with you, but you do not always have Me. <sup>12</sup> By pouring this fragrant oil on My body, she has prepared Me for burial. <sup>13</sup> •I assure you: Wherever this gospel is proclaimed in the whole world, what this woman has done will also be told in memory of her.”

<sup>14</sup> Then one of the Twelve — the man called Judas Iscariot — went to the chief priests <sup>15</sup> and said, “What are you willing to give me if I hand Him over to you?” So they weighed out 30 pieces of silver for him. <sup>16</sup> And from that time he started looking for a good opportunity to betray Him.

Betrayal at the Passover

<sup>17†</sup> On the first day of •Unleavened Bread the disciples came to Jesus and asked, “Where do You want us to prepare the Passover so You may eat it?”

<sup>18</sup> “Go into the city to a certain man,” He said, “and tell him, ‘The Teacher says: My time is near; I am celebrating the Passover at your place with My disciples.’ ” <sup>19</sup> So the disciples did as Jesus had directed them and prepared the Passover. <sup>20</sup> When evening came, He was reclining at the table with the Twelve. <sup>21</sup> While they were eating, He said, “I assure you: One of you will betray Me.”

<sup>23</sup> He replied, “The one who dipped his hand with Me in the bowl — he will betray Me. <sup>24†</sup> The Son of Man will go just as it is written about Him, but woe to that man by whom the Son of Man is betrayed! It would have been better for that man if he had not been born.”

“You have said it,” He told him.

The First Lord’s Supper

<sup>26†</sup> As they were eating, Jesus took bread, blessed and broke it, gave it to the disciples, and said, “Take and eat it; this is My body.” <sup>27</sup> Then He took a cup, and after giving thanks, He gave it to them and said, “Drink from it, all of you. <sup>28</sup> For this is My blood that establishes the covenant; it is shed for many for the forgiveness of sins. <sup>29</sup> But I tell you, from this moment I will not drink of this fruit of the vine until that day when I drink it in a new way in My Father’s kingdom with you.” <sup>30</sup> After singing psalms, they went out to the •Mount of Olives.

Peter’s Denial Predicted

<sup>31†</sup> Then Jesus said to them, “Tonight all of you will run away because of Me, for it is written:

I will strike the shepherd,

and the sheep of the flock will be scattered.

<sup>32</sup> But after I have been resurrected, I will go ahead of you to Galilee.”

<sup>33</sup> Peter told Him, “Even if everyone runs away because of You, I will never run away! ”

<sup>34</sup> “I assure you,” Jesus said to him, “tonight, before the rooster crows, you will deny Me three times! ”

<sup>35</sup> “Even if I have to die with You,” Peter told Him, “I will never deny You! ” And all the disciples said the same thing.

The Prayer in the Garden

<sup>36†</sup> Then Jesus came with them to a place called Gethsemane, and He told the disciples, “Sit here while I go over there and pray.” <sup>37</sup> Taking along Peter and the two sons of Zebedee, He began to be sorrowful and deeply distressed. <sup>38</sup> Then He said to them, “My soul is swallowed up in sorrow — to the point of death. Remain here and stay awake with Me.”

<sup>39</sup> Going a little farther, He fell facedown and prayed, “My Father! If it is possible, let this cup pass from Me. Yet not as I will, but as You will.”

<sup>40</sup> Then He came to the disciples and found them sleeping. He asked Peter, “So, couldn’t you stay awake with Me one hour? <sup>41</sup> Stay awake and pray, so that you won’t enter into temptation. The spirit is willing, but the flesh is weak.”

<sup>42</sup> Again, a second time, He went away and prayed, “My Father, if this cannot pass unless I drink it, Your will be done.” <sup>43</sup> And He came again and found them sleeping, because they could not keep their eyes open. <sup>A</sup>

<sup>44</sup> After leaving them, He went away again and prayed a third time, saying the same thing once more. <sup>45</sup> Then He came to the disciples and said to them, “Are you still sleeping and resting? Look, the time is near. The Son of Man is being betrayed into the hands of sinners. <sup>46</sup> Get up; let’s go! See, My betrayer is near.”

The Judas Kiss

<sup>47</sup> While He was still speaking, Judas, one of the Twelve, suddenly arrived. A large mob, with swords and clubs, was with him from the chief priests and elders of the people. <sup>48</sup> His betrayer had given them a sign: “The One I kiss, He’s the One; arrest Him! ” <sup>49</sup> So he went right up to Jesus and said, “Greetings, Rabbi! ” and kissed Him.

<sup>50</sup> “Friend,” Jesus asked him, “why have you come? ”

Then they came up, took hold of Jesus, and arrested Him. <sup>51</sup> At that moment one of those with Jesus reached out his hand and drew his sword. He struck the high priest’s •slave and cut off his ear.

<sup>52</sup> Then Jesus told him, “Put your sword back in its place because all who take up a sword will perish by a sword. <sup>53</sup> Or do you think that I cannot call on My Father, and He will provide Me at once with more than 12 legions of angels? <sup>54</sup> How, then, would the Scriptures be fulfilled that say it must happen this way? ”

<sup>55</sup> At that time Jesus said to the crowds, “Have you come out with swords and clubs, as if I were a criminal, to capture Me? Every day I used to sit, teaching in the •temple complex, and you didn’t arrest Me. <sup>56</sup> But all this has happened so that the prophetic Scriptures would be fulfilled.” Then all the disciples deserted Him and ran away.

Jesus Faces the Sanhedrin

<sup>57†</sup> Those who had arrested Jesus led Him away to Caiaphas the high priest, where the •scribes and the elders had convened. <sup>58</sup> Meanwhile, Peter was following Him at a distance right to the high priest's courtyard. <sup>B</sup> He went in and was sitting with the temple police <sup>C</sup> to see the outcome. <sup>D</sup>

<sup>59</sup> The chief priests and the whole •Sanhedrin were looking for false testimony against Jesus so they could put Him to death. <sup>60</sup> But they could not find any, even though many false witnesses came forward. Finally, two who came forward <sup>61</sup> stated, "This man said, 'I can demolish God's sanctuary and rebuild it in three days.' "

<sup>62</sup> The high priest then stood up and said to Him, "Don't You have an answer to what these men are testifying against You? " <sup>63</sup> But Jesus kept silent. Then the high priest said to Him, "By the living God I place You under oath: tell us if You are the •Messiah, the Son of God! "

<sup>64†</sup> "You have said it," Jesus told him. "But I tell you, in the future you will see the Son of Man seated at the right hand of the Power and coming on the clouds of heaven."

<sup>65†</sup> Then the high priest tore his robes and said, "He has blasphemed! Why do we still need witnesses? Look, now you've heard the blasphemy! <sup>66</sup> What is your decision? " <sup>E</sup>

They answered, "He deserves death! " <sup>67</sup> Then they spit in His face and beat Him; others slapped Him <sup>68</sup> and said, "Prophecy to us, Messiah! Who hit You? "

Peter Denies His Lord

<sup>69</sup> Now Peter was sitting outside in the courtyard. A servant approached him and she said, "You were with Jesus the Galilean too."

<sup>70</sup> But he denied it in front of everyone: "I don't know what you're talking about! "

<sup>71†</sup> When he had gone out to the gateway, another woman saw him and told those who were there, “This man was with Jesus the •Nazarene!”

<sup>74†</sup> Then he started to curse and to swear with an oath, “I do not know the man!” Immediately a rooster crowed, <sup>75</sup> and Peter remembered the words Jesus had spoken, “Before the rooster crows, you will deny Me three times.” And he went outside and wept bitterly.

Jesus Handed Over to Pilate

27 When daybreak came, all the •chief priests and the elders of the people plotted against Jesus to put Him to death. <sup>2</sup> After tying Him up, they led Him away and handed Him over to •Pilate, the governor.

Judas Hangs Himself

<sup>3</sup> Then Judas, His betrayer, seeing that He had been condemned, was full of remorse and returned the 30 pieces of silver to the chief priests and elders. <sup>4</sup> “I have sinned by betraying innocent blood,” he said.

“What’s that to us? ” they said. “See to it yourself! ”

<sup>5†</sup> So he threw the silver into the sanctuary and departed. Then he went and hanged himself.

<sup>6</sup> The chief priests took the silver and said, “It’s not lawful to put it into the temple treasury, since it is blood money.” <sup>A 7</sup> So they conferred together and bought the potter’s field with it as a burial place for foreigners. <sup>8</sup> Therefore that field has been called “Blood Field” to this day. <sup>9†</sup> Then what was spoken through the prophet Jeremiah was fulfilled:

They took the 30 pieces of silver, the price of Him whose price was set by the Israelites, <sup>10</sup> and they gave them for the potter’s field, as the Lord directed me.

Jesus Faces the Governor

<sup>11†</sup> Now Jesus stood before the governor. “Are You the King of the Jews? ” the governor asked Him.

Jesus answered, “You have said it.” <sup>12</sup> And while He was being accused by the chief priests and elders, He didn’t answer.

<sup>13</sup> Then Pilate said to Him, “Don’t You hear how much they are testifying against You? ” <sup>14</sup> But He didn’t answer him on even one charge, so that the governor was greatly amazed.

Jesus or Barabbas

<sup>15†</sup> At the festival the governor's custom was to release to the crowd a prisoner they wanted. <sup>16</sup> At that time they had a notorious prisoner called Barabbas. <sup>17</sup> So when they had gathered together, Pilate said to them, "Who is it you want me to release for you — Barabbas, or Jesus who is called •Messiah?" <sup>18</sup> For he knew they had handed Him over because of envy.

<sup>19</sup> While he was sitting on the judge's bench, his wife sent word to him, "Have nothing to do with that righteous man, for today I've suffered terribly in a dream because of Him!"

<sup>20</sup> The chief priests and the elders, however, persuaded the crowds to ask for Barabbas and to execute Jesus. <sup>21</sup> The governor asked them, "Which of the two do you want me to release for you?"

"Barabbas!" they answered.

<sup>22</sup> Pilate asked them, "What should I do then with Jesus, who is called Messiah?"

They all answered, "Crucify Him!" <sup>B</sup>

<sup>23</sup> Then he said, "Why? What has He done wrong?"

But they kept shouting, "Crucify Him!" all the more.

<sup>24†</sup> When Pilate saw that he was getting nowhere, <sup>C</sup> but that a riot was starting instead, he took some water, washed his hands in front of the crowd, and said, "I am innocent of this man's blood. See to it yourselves!"

<sup>25</sup> All the people answered, "His blood be on us and on our children!"

<sup>26</sup> Then he released Barabbas to them. But after having Jesus flogged, he handed Him over to be crucified.

Mocked by the Military

<sup>30</sup> Then they spit on Him, took the reed, and kept hitting Him on the head.
<sup>31</sup> When they had mocked Him, they stripped Him of the robe, put His clothes on Him, and led Him away to crucify Him.

Crucified Between Two Criminals

<sup>32</sup> As they were going out, they found a Cyrenian man named Simon. They forced this man to carry His cross. <sup>33</sup> When they came to a place called Golgotha (which means Skull Place), <sup>34†</sup> they gave Him wine mixed with gall to drink. But when He tasted it, He would not drink it. <sup>35</sup> After crucifying Him they divided His clothes by casting lots. <sup>36</sup> Then they sat down and were guarding Him there. <sup>37†</sup> Above His head they put up the charge against Him in writing:

<sup>38†</sup> Then two criminals <sup>D</sup> were crucified with Him, one on the right and one on the left. <sup>39</sup> Those who passed by were yelling insults at <sup>E</sup> Him, shaking their heads <sup>40</sup> and saying, "The One who would demolish the sanctuary and rebuild it in three days, save Yourself! If You are the Son of God, come down from the cross! " <sup>41</sup> In the same way the chief priests, with the •scribes and elders, mocked Him and said, <sup>42</sup> "He saved others, but He cannot save Himself! He is the King of Israel! Let Him come down now from the cross, and we will believe in Him. <sup>43</sup> He has put His trust in God; let God rescue Him now — if He wants Him! <sup>F</sup> For He said, 'I am God's Son.' " <sup>44†</sup> In the same way even the criminals who were crucified with Him kept taunting Him.

The Death of Jesus

<sup>45</sup> From noon until three in the afternoon <sup>G</sup> darkness came over the whole land. <sup>H</sup>, <sup>46†</sup> About three in the afternoon Jesus cried out with a loud voice, “Elí, Elí, lemá sabachtháni?” that is, “My God, My God, why have You forsaken Me?”

<sup>47</sup> When some of those standing there heard this, they said, “He’s calling for Elijah! ”

<sup>48†</sup> Immediately one of them ran and got a sponge, filled it with sour wine, fixed it on a reed, and offered Him a drink. <sup>49</sup> But the rest said, “Let’s see if Elijah comes to save Him! ”

<sup>51†</sup> Suddenly, the curtain of the sanctuary was split in two from top to bottom; the earth quaked and the rocks were split. <sup>52</sup> The tombs were also opened and many bodies of the •saints who had fallen •asleep were raised.

<sup>53</sup> And they came out of the tombs after His resurrection, entered the holy city, and appeared to many.

TWISTED SCRIPTURE

Matthew 27:50

Muslims do not believe that Jesus actually died on the cross. Rather, they theorize that a substitute died in His place (Sura 4:156-158). But the Gospel writers are unanimous in attesting that Jesus Himself hung on the cross and expired. The Apostle Paul wrote that "He was buried" (1 Co 15:4), attesting to His death.

<sup>54†</sup> When the •centurion and those with him, who were guarding Jesus, saw the earthquake and the things that had happened, they were terrified and said, “This man really was God’s Son! ” <sup>I</sup>

<sup>55</sup> Many women who had followed Jesus from Galilee and ministered to Him were there, looking on from a distance. <sup>56</sup> Among them were •Mary Magdalene, Mary the mother of James and Joseph, and the mother of Zebedee's sons.

The Burial of Jesus

<sup>57</sup> When it was evening, a rich man from Arimathea named Joseph came, who himself had also become a disciple of Jesus. <sup>58</sup> He approached Pilate and asked for Jesus' body. Then Pilate ordered that it be released. <sup>59</sup> So Joseph took the body, wrapped it in •clean, fine linen, <sup>60</sup> and placed it in his new tomb, which he had cut into the rock. He left after rolling a great stone against the entrance of the tomb. <sup>61</sup> Mary Magdalene and the other Mary were seated there, facing the tomb.

The Closely Guarded Tomb

<sup>62†</sup> The next day, which followed the preparation day, the chief priests and the •Pharisees gathered before Pilate <sup>63†</sup> and said, "Sir, we remember that while this deceiver was still alive He said, 'After three days I will rise again.' <sup>64</sup> Therefore give orders that the tomb be made secure until the third day. Otherwise, His disciples may come, steal Him, and tell the people, 'He has been raised from the dead.' Then the last deception will be worse than the first."

<sup>65</sup> "You have <sup>J</sup> a guard of soldiers," Pilate told them. "Go and make it as secure as you know how." <sup>66</sup> Then they went and made the tomb secure by sealing the stone and setting the guard. <sup>K</sup>

Resurrection Morning

28† After the Sabbath, as the first day of the week was dawning, •Mary Magdalene and the other Mary went to view the tomb. <sup>2†</sup> Suddenly there was a violent earthquake, because an angel of the Lord descended from heaven and approached the tomb. He rolled back the stone and was sitting on it. <sup>3</sup> His appearance was like lightning, and his robe was as white as snow. <sup>4</sup> The guards were so shaken from fear of him that they became like dead men.

<sup>5</sup> But the angel told the women, “Don’t be afraid, because I know you are looking for Jesus who was crucified. <sup>6</sup> He is not here! For He has been resurrected, just as He said. Come and see the place where He lay. <sup>7</sup> Then go quickly and tell His disciples, ‘He has been raised from the dead. In fact, He is going ahead of you to Galilee; you will see Him there.’ Listen, I have told you.”

<sup>8†</sup> So, departing quickly from the tomb with fear and great joy, they ran to tell His disciples the news. <sup>9</sup> Just then Jesus met them and said, “Good morning!” They came up, took hold of His feet, and worshiped Him. <sup>10</sup> Then Jesus told them, “Do not be afraid. Go and tell My brothers to leave for Galilee, and they will see Me there.”

The Soldiers Are Bribed to Lie

<sup>11†</sup> As they were on their way, some of the guards came into the city and reported to the •chief priests everything that had happened. <sup>12</sup> After the priests <sup>A</sup> had assembled with the elders and agreed on a plan, they gave the soldiers a large sum of money <sup>13†</sup> and told them, “Say this, ‘His disciples came during the night and stole Him while we were sleeping.’ <sup>14</sup> If this reaches the governor’s ears, <sup>B</sup> we will deal with <sup>C</sup> him and keep you out of trouble.” <sup>15</sup> So they took the money and did as they were instructed. And this story has been spread among Jewish people to this day.

The Great Commission

<sup>16†</sup> The 11 disciples traveled to Galilee, to the mountain where Jesus had directed them. <sup>17†</sup> When they saw Him, they worshiped, but some doubted. <sup>18†</sup> Then Jesus came near and said to them, “All authority has been given to Me in heaven and on earth. <sup>19†</sup> Go, therefore, and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, <sup>20</sup> teaching them to observe everything I have commanded you. And remember, I am with you always, to the end of the age.”

MARK

The Messiah's Herald

1 †The beginning of the gospel of Jesus Christ, the Son of God. <sup>2†</sup> As it is written in Isaiah the prophet:

Look, I am sending My messenger ahead of You,
who will prepare Your way.

<sup>3</sup> A voice of one crying out in the wilderness:
Prepare the way for the Lord;
make His paths straight!

The Baptism of Jesus

<sup>9</sup> In those days Jesus came from Nazareth in Galilee and was baptized in the Jordan by John. <sup>10</sup> As soon as He came up out of the water, He saw the heavens being torn open and the Spirit descending to Him like a dove. <sup>11†</sup> And a voice came from heaven:

You are My beloved Son;
I take delight in You! <sup>D</sup>

The Temptation of Jesus

<sup>12</sup> Immediately the Spirit drove Him into the wilderness. <sup>13</sup> He was in the wilderness 40 days, being tempted by Satan. He was with the wild animals, and the angels began to serve Him.

Ministry in Galilee

<sup>14†</sup> After John was arrested, Jesus went to Galilee, preaching the good news, of God: <sup>F</sup>, <sup>15†</sup> “The time is fulfilled, and the kingdom of God has come near. Repent and believe in the good news!”

Has Historical Criticism Proved the Bible False? ⇒

The First Disciples

<sup>16†</sup> As He was passing along by the Sea of Galilee, He saw Simon and Andrew, Simon’s brother. They were casting a net into the sea, since they were fishermen.

<sup>17</sup> “Follow Me,” Jesus told them, “and I will make you fish for people!” <sup>18</sup> Immediately they left their nets and followed Him. <sup>19</sup> Going on a little farther, He saw James the son of Zebedee and his brother John. They were in their boat mending their nets. <sup>20</sup> Immediately He called them, and they left their father Zebedee in the boat with the hired men and followed Him.

Driving Out an Unclean Spirit

<sup>21†</sup> Then they went into Capernaum, and right away He entered the •synagogue on the Sabbath and began to teach. <sup>22</sup> They were astonished at His teaching because, unlike the •scribes, He was teaching them as one having authority.

<sup>23</sup> Just then a man with an •unclean spirit was in their synagogue. He cried out, <sup>24</sup> “What do You have to do with us, <sup>G</sup> Jesus — Nazarene? Have You come to destroy us? I know who You are — the Holy One of God!”

<sup>25</sup> But Jesus rebuked him and said, “Be quiet, and come out of him!”
<sup>26</sup> And the unclean spirit convulsed him, shouted with a loud voice, and came out of him.

<sup>27</sup> Then they were all amazed, so they began to argue with one another, saying, “What is this? A new teaching with authority! He commands even the unclean spirits, and they obey Him.” <sup>28</sup> News about Him then spread throughout the entire vicinity of Galilee.

Healings at Capernaum

<sup>29†</sup> As soon as they left the synagogue, they went into Simon and Andrew’s house with James and John. <sup>30</sup> Simon’s mother-in-law was lying in bed with a fever, and they told Him about her at once. <sup>31</sup> So He went to her, took her by the hand, and raised her up. The fever left her, and she began to serve them.

<sup>32</sup> When evening came, after the sun had set, they began bringing to Him all those who were sick and those who were demon-possessed. <sup>33</sup> The whole town was assembled at the door, <sup>34</sup> and He healed many who were sick with various diseases and drove out many demons. But He would not permit the demons to speak, because they knew Him.

Preaching in Galilee

<sup>35</sup> Very early in the morning, while it was still dark, He got up, went out, and made His way to a deserted place. And He was praying there.

<sup>36</sup> Simon and his companions went searching for Him. <sup>37</sup> They found Him and said, “Everyone’s looking for You!”

<sup>38</sup> And He said to them, “Let’s go on to the neighboring villages so that I may preach there too. This is why I have come.” <sup>39</sup> So He went into all of Galilee, preaching in their synagogues and driving out demons.

A Man Cleansed

<sup>40</sup> Then a man with a serious skin disease came to Him and, on his knees, begged Him: “If You are willing, You can make me •clean.”

<sup>41</sup> Moved with compassion, Jesus reached out His hand and touched him. “I am willing,” He told him. “Be made clean.” <sup>42</sup> Immediately the disease left him, and he was healed. <sup>H</sup> <sup>43</sup> Then He sternly warned him and sent him away at once, <sup>44†</sup> telling him, “See that you say nothing to anyone; but go and show yourself to the priest, and offer what Moses prescribed for your cleansing, as a testimony to them.” <sup>45</sup> Yet he went out and began to proclaim it widely and to spread the news, with the result that Jesus could no longer enter a town openly. But He was out in deserted places, and they would come to Him from everywhere.

The Son of Man Forgives and Heals

2 When He entered Capernaum again after some days, it was reported that He was at home. <sup>2</sup> So many people gathered together that there was no more room, not even in the doorway, and He was speaking the message to them. <sup>3</sup> Then they came to Him bringing a paralytic, carried by four men. <sup>4</sup> Since they were not able to bring him to Jesus because of the crowd, they removed the roof above where He was. And when they had broken through, they lowered the mat on which the paralytic was lying.

<sup>7</sup> “Why does He speak like this? He’s blaspheming! Who can forgive sins but God alone? ”

<sup>8</sup> Right away Jesus understood in His spirit that they were thinking like this within themselves and said to them, “Why are you thinking these things in your hearts? <sup>9</sup> Which is easier: to say to the paralytic, ‘Your sins are forgiven,’ or to say, ‘Get up, pick up your mat, and walk’? <sup>10†</sup> But so you may know that the •Son of Man has authority on earth to forgive sins,” He told the paralytic, <sup>11</sup> “I tell you: get up, pick up your mat, and go home.”

<sup>12</sup> Immediately he got up, picked up the mat, and went out in front of everyone. As a result, they were all astounded and gave glory to God, saying, “We have never seen anything like this! ”

The Call of Matthew

<sup>13</sup> Then Jesus went out again beside the sea. The whole crowd was coming to Him, and He taught them. <sup>14†</sup> Then, moving on, He saw Levi the son of Alphaeus sitting at the tax office, and He said to him, “Follow Me! ” So he got up and followed Him.

Dining with Sinners

<sup>15</sup> While He was reclining at the table in Levi's house, many tax collectors and sinners were also guests <sup>B</sup>, with Jesus and His disciples, because there were many who were following Him. <sup>16</sup> When the scribes of the •Pharisees saw that He was eating with sinners and tax collectors, they asked His disciples, "Why does He eat with tax collectors and sinners?"

<sup>17</sup> When Jesus heard this, He told them, "Those who are well don't need a doctor, but the sick do need one. I didn't come to call the righteous, but sinners."

A Question about Fasting

<sup>18</sup> Now John's disciples and the Pharisees were fasting. People came and asked Him, "Why do John's disciples and the Pharisees' disciples fast, but Your disciples do not fast?"

<sup>19</sup> Jesus said to them, "The wedding guests cannot fast while the groom is with them, can they? As long as they have the groom with them, they cannot fast. <sup>20</sup> But the time will come when the groom is taken away from them, and then they will fast in that day. <sup>21</sup> No one sews a patch of unshrunk cloth on an old garment. Otherwise, the new patch pulls away from the old cloth, and a worse tear is made. <sup>22</sup> And no one puts new wine into old wineskins. Otherwise, the wine will burst the skins, and the wine is lost as well as the skins. But new wine is for fresh wineskins."

Lord of the Sabbath

<sup>23</sup> On the Sabbath He was going through the grainfields, and His disciples began to make their way picking some heads of grain. <sup>24</sup> The Pharisees said to Him, "Look, why are they doing what is not lawful on the Sabbath?"

<sup>25</sup> He said to them, "Have you never read what David and those who were with him did when he was in need and hungry — <sup>26†</sup> how he entered the house of God in the time of Abiathar the high priest and ate the •sacred bread — which is not lawful for anyone to eat except the priests — and also gave some to his companions? ”<sup>27</sup> Then He told them, “The Sabbath was made for man and not man for the Sabbath. ”<sup>28</sup> Therefore, the Son of Man is Lord even of the Sabbath.”

The Man with the Paralyzed Hand

3 Now He entered the •synagogue again, and a man was there who had a paralyzed hand. <sup>2†</sup> In order to accuse Him, they were watching Him closely to see whether He would heal him on the Sabbath. <sup>3</sup> He told the man with the paralyzed hand, “Stand before us.” <sup>4</sup> Then He said to them, “Is it lawful on the Sabbath to do what is good or to do what is evil, to save life or to kill?” But they were silent. <sup>5</sup> After looking around at them with anger and sorrow at the hardness of their hearts, He told the man, “Stretch out your hand.” So he stretched it out, and his hand was restored. <sup>6</sup> Immediately the •Pharisees went out and started plotting with the •Herodians against Him, how they might destroy Him.

Ministering to the Multitude

<sup>7</sup> Jesus departed with His disciples to the sea, and a large crowd followed from Galilee, Judea, <sup>8</sup> Jerusalem, Idumea, beyond the Jordan, and around Tyre and Sidon. The large crowd came to Him because they heard about everything He was doing. <sup>9</sup> Then He told His disciples to have a small boat ready for Him, so the crowd would not crush Him. <sup>10</sup> Since He had healed many, all who had diseases were pressing toward Him to touch Him. <sup>11†</sup> Whenever the •unclean spirits saw Him, those possessed fell down before Him and cried out, “You are the Son of God!” <sup>12†</sup> And He would strongly warn them not to make Him known.

The 12 Apostles

<sup>13†</sup> Then He went up the mountain and summoned those He wanted, and they came to Him. <sup>14</sup> He also appointed 12 — He also named them apostles — to be with Him, to send them out to preach, <sup>15</sup> and to have authority to drive out demons.

<sup>16</sup> He appointed the Twelve:

To Simon, He gave the name Peter;

<sup>17</sup> and to James the son of Zebedee,

and to his brother John,
He gave the name “Boanerges”
(that is, “Sons of Thunder” );
<sup>18</sup> Andrew;
Philip and Bartholomew;
Matthew and Thomas;
James the son of Alphaeus,
and Thaddaeus;
Simon the Zealot, <sup>A</sup>
<sup>19</sup> and Judas Iscariot, <sup>B</sup>
who also betrayed Him.

A House Divided

<sup>20</sup> Then He went home, and the crowd gathered again so that they were not even able to eat. <sup>C</sup> <sup>21</sup> When His family heard this, they set out to restrain Him, because they said, “He’s out of His mind.”

<sup>22†</sup> The •scribes who had come down from Jerusalem said, “He has •Beelzebul in Him!” and, “He drives out demons by the ruler of the demons!”

<sup>23</sup> So He summoned them and spoke to them in parables: “How can Satan drive out Satan? <sup>24</sup> If a kingdom is divided against itself, that kingdom cannot stand. <sup>25</sup> If a house is divided against itself, that house cannot stand. <sup>26</sup> And if Satan rebels against himself and is divided, he cannot stand but is finished!

<sup>27</sup> “On the other hand, no one can enter a strong man’s house and rob his possessions unless he first ties up the strong man. Then he will rob his house. <sup>28</sup> •I assure you: People will be forgiven for all sins and whatever blasphemies they may blaspheme. <sup>29</sup> But whoever blasphemes against the Holy Spirit never has forgiveness, but is •guilty of an eternal sin” —
<sup>30</sup> because they were saying, “He has an unclean spirit.”

True Relationships

<sup>31†</sup> Then His mother and His brothers came, and standing outside, they sent word to Him and called Him. <sup>32</sup> A crowd was sitting around Him and told Him, “Look, Your mother, Your brothers, and Your sisters are outside asking for You.”

<sup>33</sup> He replied to them, “Who are My mother and My brothers? ” <sup>34</sup> And looking about at those who were sitting in a circle around Him, He said, “Here are My mother and My brothers! <sup>35</sup> Whoever does the will of God is My brother and sister and mother.”

The Parable of the Sower

4 Again He began to teach by the sea, and a very large crowd gathered around Him. So He got into a boat on the sea and sat down, while the whole crowd was on the shore facing the sea. <sup>2</sup> He taught them many things in parables, and in His teaching He said to them: <sup>3</sup> “Listen! Consider the sower who went out to sow. <sup>4</sup> As he sowed, this occurred: Some seed fell along the path, and the birds came and ate it up. <sup>5</sup> Other seed fell on rocky ground where it didn’t have much soil, and it sprang up right away, since it didn’t have deep soil. <sup>6</sup> When the sun came up, it was scorched, and since it didn’t have a root, it withered. <sup>7</sup> Other seed fell among thorns, and the thorns came up and choked it, and it didn’t produce a crop. <sup>8</sup> Still others fell on good ground and produced a crop that increased 30, 60, and 100 times what was sown.” <sup>9</sup> Then He said, “Anyone who has ears to hear should listen! ”

Why Jesus Used Parables

<sup>10</sup> When He was alone with the Twelve, those who were around Him asked Him about the parables. <sup>11†</sup> He answered them, “The •secret of the kingdom of God has been given to you, but to those outside, everything comes in parables <sup>12</sup> so that they may look and look,

yet not perceive;
they may listen and listen,
yet not understand;
otherwise, they might turn back —
and be forgiven.” ,

The Parable of the Sower Explained

<sup>13</sup> Then He said to them: “Don’t you understand this parable? How then will you understand any of the parables? <sup>14</sup> The sower sows the word. <sup>15</sup> These are the ones along the path where the word is sown: when they hear, immediately Satan comes and takes away the word sown in them. <sup>16</sup> And these are the ones sown on rocky ground: when they hear the word, immediately they receive it with joy. <sup>17</sup> But they have no root in themselves; they are short-lived. When pressure or persecution comes because of the word, they immediately •stumble.<sup>18</sup> Others are sown among thorns; these are the ones who hear the word,<sup>19</sup> but the worries of this age, the seduction of wealth, and the desires for other things enter in and choke the word, and it becomes unfruitful.<sup>20</sup> But the ones sown on good ground are those who hear the word, welcome it, and produce a crop: 30, 60, and 100 times what was sown.”

Using Your Light

<sup>21</sup> He also said to them, “Is a lamp brought in to be put under a basket or under a bed? Isn’t it to be put on a lampstand?<sup>22</sup> For nothing is concealed except to be revealed, and nothing hidden except to come to light.<sup>23</sup> If anyone has ears to hear, he should listen!”<sup>24</sup> Then He said to them, “Pay attention to what you hear. By the measure you use, it will be measured and added to you.<sup>25</sup> For to the one who has, it will be given, and from the one who does not have, even what he has will be taken away.”

The Parable of the Growing Seed

<sup>26</sup> “The kingdom of God is like this,” He said. “A man scatters seed on the ground;<sup>27</sup> he sleeps and rises — night and day, and the seed sprouts and grows — he doesn’t know how.<sup>28</sup> The soil produces a crop by itself — first the blade, then the head, and then the ripe grain on the head.<sup>29</sup> But as soon as the crop is ready, he sends for the sickle, because the harvest has come.”

The Parable of the Mustard Seed

<sup>30</sup> And He said: “How can we illustrate the kingdom of God, or what parable can we use to describe it?<sup>31†</sup> It’s like a mustard seed that, when sown in the soil, is smaller than all the seeds on the ground.<sup>32</sup> And when sown, it comes up and grows taller than all the vegetables, and produces large branches, so that the birds of the sky can nest in its shade.”

Using Parables

<sup>33</sup> He would speak the word to them with many parables like these, as they were able to understand. <sup>34</sup> And He did not speak to them without a parable. Privately, however, He would explain everything to His own disciples.

Wind and Wave Obey the Master

<sup>35</sup> On that day, when evening had come, He told them, “Let’s cross over to the other side of the sea.” <sup>36</sup> So they left the crowd and took Him along since He was already in the boat. And other boats were with Him. <sup>37</sup> A fierce windstorm arose, and the waves were breaking over the boat, so that the boat was already being swamped. <sup>38</sup> But He was in the stern, sleeping on the cushion. So they woke Him up and said to Him, “Teacher! Don’t you care that we’re going to die? ”

<sup>39†</sup> He got up, rebuked the wind, and said to the sea, “Silence! Be still! ” The wind ceased, and there was a great calm. <sup>40</sup> Then He said to them, “Why are you fearful? Do you still have no faith? ”

<sup>41</sup> And they were terrified and asked one another, “Who then is this? Even the wind and the sea obey Him! ”

Demons Driven Out by the Master

5 †Then they came to the other side of the sea, to the region of the Gerasenes. 2† As soon as He got out of the boat, a man with an •unclean spirit came out of the tombs and met Him. 3 He lived in the tombs. No one was able to restrain him anymore — even with chains — 4 because he often had been bound with shackles and chains, but had snapped off the chains and smashed the shackles. No one was strong enough to subdue him. 5 And always, night and day, he was crying out among the tombs and in the mountains and cutting himself with stones.

Can We Still Believe in Demons Today? ⇒

6 When he saw Jesus from a distance, he ran and knelt down before Him. 7 And he cried out with a loud voice, “What do You have to do with me, <sup>A</sup> Jesus, Son of the Most High God? I beg <sup>B</sup> You before God, don’t torment me!” 8 For He had told him, “Come out of the man, you unclean spirit!”

9 “What is your name?” He asked him.

“My name is Legion,” he answered Him, “because we are many.” 10 And he kept begging Him not to send them out of the region.

11† Now a large herd of pigs was there, feeding on the hillside. 12 The demons begged Him, “Send us to the pigs, so we may enter them.” 13 And He gave them permission. Then the unclean spirits came out and entered the pigs, and the herd of about 2,000 rushed down the steep bank into the sea and drowned there. 14 The men who tended them ran off and reported it in the town and the countryside, and people went to see what had happened. 15 They came to Jesus and saw the man who had been demon-possessed by the legion, sitting there, dressed and in his right mind; and they were afraid. 16 The eyewitnesses described to them what had happened to the demon-possessed man and told about the pigs.<sup>17</sup> Then they began to beg Him to leave their region.

<sup>18</sup> As He was getting into the boat, the man who had been demon-possessed kept begging Him to be with Him.<sup>19</sup> But He would not let him; instead, He told him, “Go back home to your own people, and report to them how much the Lord has done for you and how He has had mercy on you.”<sup>20</sup> So he went out and began to proclaim in the •Decapolis how much Jesus had done for him, and they were all amazed.

A Girl Restored and a Woman Healed

<sup>21</sup> When Jesus had crossed over again by boat to the other side, a large crowd gathered around Him while He was by the sea.<sup>22</sup> One of the •synagogue leaders, named Jairus, came, and when he saw Jesus, he fell at His feet<sup>23</sup> and kept begging Him, “My little daughter is at death’s door.<sup>C</sup> Come and lay Your hands on her so she can get well and live.”

<sup>24</sup> So Jesus went with him, and a large crowd was following and pressing against Him.<sup>25</sup> A woman suffering from bleeding for 12 years<sup>26</sup> had endured much under many doctors. She had spent everything she had and was not helped at all. On the contrary, she became worse.<sup>27</sup> Having heard about Jesus, she came behind Him in the crowd and touched His robe.<sup>28</sup> For she said, “If I can just touch His robes, I’ll be made well!”<sup>29</sup> Instantly her flow of blood ceased, and she sensed in her body that she was cured of her affliction.

<sup>30</sup> At once Jesus realized in Himself that power had gone out from Him. He turned around in the crowd and said, “Who touched My robes?”

<sup>31</sup> His disciples said to Him, “You see the crowd pressing against You, and You say, ‘Who touched Me?’”

<sup>32</sup> So He was looking around to see who had done this.<sup>33</sup> Then the woman, knowing what had happened to her, came with fear and trembling, fell down before Him, and told Him the whole truth.<sup>34†</sup> “Daughter,” He said to her, “your faith has made you well. Go in peace and be free from your affliction.”

<sup>35</sup> While He was still speaking, people came from the synagogue leader’s house and said, “Your daughter is dead. Why bother the Teacher anymore? ”

<sup>36</sup> But when Jesus overheard what was said, He told the synagogue leader, “Don’t be afraid. Only believe.” <sup>37</sup> He did not let anyone accompany Him except Peter, James, and John, James’s brother. <sup>38</sup> They came to the leader’s house, and He saw a commotion — people weeping and wailing loudly. <sup>39</sup> He went in and said to them, “Why are you making a commotion and weeping? The child is not dead but asleep.”

<sup>40</sup> They started laughing at Him, but He put them all outside. He took the child’s father, mother, and those who were with Him, and entered the place where the child was. <sup>41</sup> Then He took the child by the hand and said to her, “Talitha kum!” (which is translated, “Little girl, I say to you, get up! ” ). <sup>42</sup> Immediately the girl got up and began to walk. (She was 12 years old.) At this they were utterly astounded. <sup>43</sup> Then He gave them strict orders that no one should know about this and said that she should be given something to eat.

Rejection at Nazareth

6 He went away from there and came to His hometown, and His disciples followed Him. <sup>2</sup> When the Sabbath came, He began to teach in the •synagogue, and many who heard Him were astonished. “Where did this man get these things?” they said. “What is this wisdom given to Him, and how are these miracles performed by His hands?” <sup>3</sup> Isn’t this the carpenter, the son of Mary, and the brother of James, Joses, Judas, and Simon? And aren’t His sisters here with us?” So they were •offended by Him.

<sup>4</sup> Then Jesus said to them, “A prophet is not without honor except in his hometown, among his relatives, and in his household.” <sup>5†</sup> So He was not able to do any miracles <sup>A</sup> there, except that He laid His hands on a few sick people and healed them. <sup>6</sup> And He was amazed at their unbelief.

Commissioning the Twelve

Now He was going around the villages in a circuit, teaching. <sup>7</sup> He summoned the Twelve and began to send them out in pairs and gave them authority over •unclean spirits. <sup>8†</sup> He instructed them to take nothing for the road except a walking stick: no bread, no traveling bag, no money in their belts. <sup>9</sup> They were to wear sandals, but not put on an extra shirt. <sup>10</sup> Then He said to them, “Whenever you enter a house, stay there until you leave that place. <sup>11</sup> If any place does not welcome you and people refuse to listen to you, when you leave there, shake the dust off your feet as a testimony against them.”

<sup>12</sup> So they went out and preached that people should repent. <sup>13</sup> And they were driving out many demons, anointing many sick people with olive oil, and healing them.

John the Baptist Beheaded

<sup>14†</sup> King •Herod heard of this, because Jesus’ name had become well known. Some said, “John the Baptist has been raised from the dead, and that’s why supernatural powers are at work in him.” <sup>15</sup> But others said,

<sup>16</sup> When Herod heard of it, he said, “John, the one I beheaded, has been raised!” <sup>17†</sup> For Herod himself had given orders to arrest John and to chain him in prison on account of Herodias, his brother Philip’s wife, whom he had married. <sup>18</sup> John had been telling Herod, “It is not lawful for you to have your brother’s wife!” <sup>19</sup> So Herodias held a grudge against him and wanted to kill him. But she could not, <sup>20</sup> because Herod was in awe of <sup>C</sup> John and was protecting him, knowing he was a righteous and holy man. When Herod heard him he would be very disturbed, yet would hear him gladly.

<sup>21</sup> Now an opportune time came on his birthday, when Herod gave a banquet for his nobles, military commanders, and the leading men of Galilee. <sup>22</sup> When Herodias’s own daughter came in and danced, she pleased Herod and his guests. The king said to the girl, “Ask me whatever you want, and I’ll give it to you.” <sup>23</sup> So he swore oaths to her: “Whatever you ask me I will give you, up to half my kingdom.”

<sup>24</sup> Then she went out and said to her mother, “What should I ask for?”

“John the Baptist’s head!” she said.

<sup>25</sup> Immediately she hurried to the king and said, “I want you to give me John the Baptist’s head on a platter — right now!”

<sup>26</sup> Though the king was deeply distressed, because of his oaths and the guests <sup>D</sup> he did not want to refuse her. <sup>27</sup> The king immediately sent for an executioner and commanded him to bring John’s head. So he went and beheaded him in prison, <sup>28</sup> brought his head on a platter, and gave it to the girl. Then the girl gave it to her mother. <sup>29</sup> When his disciples heard about it, they came and removed his corpse and placed it in a tomb.

Feeding 5,000

<sup>30</sup> The apostles gathered around Jesus and reported to Him all that they had done and taught. <sup>31</sup> He said to them, “Come away by yourselves to a remote place and rest a while.” For many people were coming and going, and they did not even have time to eat. <sup>32†</sup> So they went away in the boat by themselves to a remote place, <sup>33</sup> but many saw them leaving and recognized them. People ran there by land from all the towns and arrived ahead of them. <sup>34†</sup> So as He stepped ashore, He saw a huge crowd and had compassion on them, because they were like sheep without a shepherd. Then He began to teach them many things.

<sup>35</sup> When it was already late, His disciples approached Him and said, “This place is a wilderness, and it is already late! <sup>36</sup> Send them away, so they can go into the surrounding countryside and villages to buy themselves something to eat.”

They said to Him, “Should we go and buy 200 •denarii worth of bread and give them something to eat? ”

When they found out they said, “Five, and two fish.”

<sup>39</sup> Then He instructed them to have all the people sit down <sup>E</sup> in groups on the green grass. <sup>40</sup> So they sat down in ranks of hundreds and fifties.

<sup>41</sup> Then He took the five loaves and the two fish, and looking up to heaven, He blessed and broke the loaves. He kept giving them to His disciples to set before the people. He also divided the two fish among them all. <sup>42</sup> Everyone ate and was filled. <sup>43</sup> Then they picked up 12 baskets full of pieces of bread and fish. <sup>44</sup> Now those who ate the loaves were 5,000 men.

Walking on the Water

<sup>45</sup> Immediately He made His disciples get into the boat and go ahead of Him to the other side, to Bethsaida, while He dismissed the crowd. <sup>46</sup> After

He said good-bye to them, He went away to the mountain to pray. <sup>47</sup> When evening came, the boat was in the middle of the sea, and He was alone on the land. <sup>48†</sup> He saw them being battered as they rowed, <sup>F</sup> because the wind was against them. Around three in the morning <sup>G</sup> He came toward them walking on the sea and wanted to pass by them. <sup>49</sup> When they saw Him walking on the sea, they thought it was a ghost and cried out; <sup>50†</sup> for they all saw Him and were terrified. Immediately He spoke with them and said, “Have courage! It is I. Don’t be afraid.” <sup>51</sup> Then He got into the boat with them, and the wind ceased. They were completely astounded, <sup>H</sup> <sup>52</sup> because they had not understood about the loaves. Instead, their hearts were hardened.

Miraculous Healings

<sup>53</sup> When they had crossed over, they came to land at Gennesaret and beached the boat. <sup>54</sup> As they got out of the boat, people immediately recognized Him. <sup>55</sup> They hurried throughout that vicinity and began to carry the sick on mats to wherever they heard He was. <sup>56†</sup> Wherever He would go, into villages, towns, or the country, they laid the sick in the marketplaces and begged Him that they might touch just the •tassel of His robe. And everyone who touched it was made well.

The Traditions of the Elders

7 The •Pharisees and some of the •scribes who had come from Jerusalem gathered around Him. <sup>2</sup> They observed that some of His disciples were eating their bread with •unclean — that is, unwashed — hands. <sup>3</sup> (For the Pharisees, in fact all the Jews, will not eat unless they wash their hands ritually, keeping the tradition of the elders. <sup>4</sup> When they come from the marketplace, they do not eat unless they have washed. And there are many other customs they have received and keep, like the washing of cups, jugs, copper utensils, and dining couches. ) <sup>5</sup> Then the Pharisees and the scribes asked Him, “Why don’t Your disciples live according to the tradition of the elders, instead of eating bread with ritually unclean hands?”

<sup>6</sup> He answered them, “Isaiah prophesied correctly about you hypocrites, as it is written:

These people honor Me with their lips,
but their heart is far from Me.

<sup>7</sup> They worship Me in vain,
teaching as doctrines the commands of men.

<sup>8</sup> Disregarding the command of God, you keep the tradition of men.” <sup>9</sup> He also said to them, “You completely invalidate God’s command in order to maintain your tradition! <sup>10</sup> For Moses said:

Honor your father and your mother; and Whoever speaks evil of father or mother
must be put to death.

<sup>11</sup> But you say, ‘If a man tells his father or mother: Whatever benefit you might have received from me is Corban’ ” (that is, a gift committed to the temple), <sup>12</sup> “you no longer let him do anything for his father or mother.

<sup>13</sup> You revoke God’s word by your tradition that you have handed down. And you do many other similar things.” <sup>14</sup> Summoning the crowd again, He told them, “Listen to Me, all of you, and understand: <sup>15</sup> Nothing that goes into a person from outside can defile him, but the things that come out of a person are what defile him. [<sup>16</sup> If anyone has ears to hear, he should listen! ]”

<sup>17</sup> When He went into the house away from the crowd, the disciples asked Him about the parable. <sup>18</sup> And He said to them, “Are you also as lacking in understanding? Don’t you realize that nothing going into a man from the outside can defile him? <sup>19†</sup> For it doesn’t go into his heart but into the stomach and is eliminated.” (As a result, He made all foods •clean. ) <sup>20</sup> Then He said, “What comes out of a person — that defiles him. <sup>21</sup> For from within, out of people’s hearts, come evil thoughts, sexual immoralities, thefts, murders, <sup>22</sup> adulteries, greed, evil actions, deceit, promiscuity, stinginess, blasphemy, pride, and foolishness. <sup>23</sup> All these evil things come from within and defile a person.”

TWISTED SCRIPTURE

Mark 7:15

Many Adventist sects who view themselves as the true Israel observe OT food laws. This includes abstaining from eating unclean animals. New Testament believers, however, were never required to avoid unclean foods. During Peter's vision of a sheet filled with unclean animals, God said, "Get up, Peter; kill and eat!" When Peter refused, God replied, "What God has made clean, you must not call common" (Ac 10:13,15). Galatians 2:12 finds Peter eating with Gentiles. The Apostle Paul indicated that believers were free to eat whatever their conscience allowed (Rm 14:6; 1 Co 10:31). He also warned that no one should judge another with regard to food (Col 2:16,21). To Timothy, Paul said that the command to abstain from certain foods was a doctrine of demons and that "everything created by God is good, and nothing should be rejected if it is received with thanksgiving, since it is sanctified by the word of God and by prayer" (1 Tm 4:1-5). Jesus clearly taught that it is not what goes into a body, but rather what comes out of the heart, that defiles a person (Mk 7:15).

A Gentile Mother's Faith

<sup>24†</sup> He got up and departed from there to the region of Tyre and Sidon. He entered a house and did not want anyone to know it, but He could not escape notice. <sup>25</sup> Instead, immediately after hearing about Him, a woman whose little daughter had an unclean spirit came and fell at His feet.

<sup>26†</sup> Now the woman was Greek, a Syrophenician by birth, and she kept asking Him to drive the demon out of her daughter. <sup>27</sup> He said to her, “Allow the children to be satisfied first, because it isn’t right to take the children’s bread and throw it to the dogs.”

<sup>29</sup> Then He told her, “Because of this reply, you may go. The demon has gone out of your daughter.” <sup>30</sup> When she went back to her home, she found her child lying on the bed, and the demon was gone.

Jesus Does Everything Well

<sup>31†</sup> Again, leaving the region of Tyre, He went by way of Sidon to the Sea of Galilee, through <sup>A</sup> the region of the •Decapolis. <sup>32</sup> They brought to Him a deaf man who also had a speech difficulty, and begged Jesus to lay His hand on him. <sup>33†</sup> So He took him away from the crowd privately. After putting His fingers in the man’s ears and spitting, He touched his tongue.

<sup>34</sup> Then, looking up to heaven, He sighed deeply and said to him, “Ephphatha!” (that is, “Be opened! ”). <sup>35</sup> Immediately his ears were opened, his speech difficulty was removed, <sup>B</sup> and he began to speak clearly. <sup>36</sup> Then He ordered them to tell no one, but the more He would order them, the more they would proclaim it.

<sup>37</sup> They were extremely astonished and said, “He has done everything well! He even makes deaf people hear, and people unable to speak, talk! ”

Feeding 4,000

8 † In those days there was again a large crowd, and they had nothing to eat. He summoned the disciples and said to them, 2 “I have compassion on the crowd, because they’ve already stayed with Me three days and have nothing to eat. 3 If I send them home hungry, they will collapse on the way, and some of them have come a long distance.”

4 His disciples answered Him, “Where can anyone get enough bread here in this desolate place to fill these people? ”

5 “How many loaves do you have? ” He asked them.

“Seven,” they said. 6 Then He commanded the crowd to sit down on the ground. Taking the seven loaves, He gave thanks, broke the loaves, and kept on giving them to His disciples to set before the people. So they served the loaves to the crowd. 7 They also had a few small fish, and when He had blessed them, He said these were to be served as well. 8 They ate and were filled. Then they collected seven large baskets of leftover pieces. 9 About 4,000 men were there. He dismissed them 10† and immediately got into the boat with His disciples and went to the district of Dalmanutha.

The Yeast of the Pharisees and Herod

11 The •Pharisees came out and began to argue with Him, demanding of Him a sign from heaven to test Him. 12† But sighing deeply in His spirit, He said, “Why does this generation demand a sign? •I assure you: No sign will be given to this generation! ” 13 Then He left them, got on board the boat again, and went to the other side.

14 They had forgotten to take bread and had only one loaf with them in the boat. 15 Then He commanded them: “Watch out! Beware of the yeast of the Pharisees and the yeast of •Herod.”

16 They were discussing among themselves that they did not have any bread. 17 Aware of this, He said to them, “Why are you discussing that you do not have any bread? Don’t you understand or comprehend? Is your heart hardened? <sup>18</sup> Do you have eyes, and not see, and do you have ears, and not hear? And do you not remember? <sup>19</sup> When I broke the five loaves for the 5,000, how many baskets full of pieces of bread did you collect? ”

“Twelve,” they told Him.

<sup>20</sup> “When I broke the seven loaves for the 4,000, how many large baskets full of pieces of bread did you collect? ”

“Seven,” they said.

<sup>21</sup> And He said to them, “Don’t you understand yet? ”

Healing a Blind Man

<sup>22</sup> Then they came to Bethsaida. They brought a blind man to Him and begged Him to touch him. <sup>23</sup> He took the blind man by the hand and brought him out of the village. Spitting on his eyes and laying His hands on him, He asked him, “Do you see anything? ”

<sup>24</sup> He looked up and said, “I see people — they look to me like trees walking.”

<sup>25</sup> Again Jesus placed His hands on the man’s eyes, and he saw distinctly. He was cured and could see everything clearly. <sup>26</sup> Then He sent him home, saying, “Don’t even go into the village.”

Peter’s Confession of the Messiah

<sup>27</sup> Jesus went out with His disciples to the villages of Caesarea Philippi. And on the road He asked His disciples, “Who do people say that I am? ”

<sup>29†</sup> “But you,” He asked them again, “who do you say that I am? ”

Peter answered Him, “You are the •Messiah! ”

<sup>30†</sup> And He strictly warned them to tell no one about Him.

His Death and Resurrection Predicted

<sup>31</sup> Then He began to teach them that the •Son of Man must suffer many things and be rejected by the elders, the •chief priests, and the •scribes, be killed, and rise after three days. <sup>32</sup> He was openly talking about this. So Peter took Him aside and began to rebuke Him.

<sup>33†</sup> But turning around and looking at His disciples, He rebuked Peter and said, “Get behind Me, Satan, because you’re not thinking about God’s concerns, but man’s! ”

Take Up Your Cross

<sup>34</sup> Summoning the crowd along with His disciples, He said to them, “If anyone wants to be My follower, he must deny himself, take up his cross, and follow Me. <sup>35</sup> For whoever wants to save his •life will lose it, but whoever loses his life because of Me and the gospel will save it. <sup>36</sup> For what does it benefit a man to gain the whole world yet lose his life? <sup>37</sup> What can a man give in exchange for his life? <sup>38</sup> For whoever is ashamed of Me and of My words in this adulterous and sinful generation, the Son of Man will also be ashamed of him when He comes in the glory of His Father with the holy angels.”

9† Then He said to them, “•I assure you: There are some standing here who will not taste death until they see the kingdom of God come in power.”

The Transfiguration

2† After six days Jesus took Peter, James, and John and led them up on a high mountain by themselves to be alone. He was transformed <sup>A</sup> in front of them, <sup>3</sup> and His clothes became dazzling — extremely white as no launderer on earth could whiten them. <sup>4</sup> Elijah appeared to them with Moses, and they were talking with Jesus.

<sup>5</sup> Then Peter said to Jesus, “•Rabbi, it’s good for us to be here! Let us make three •tabernacles: one for You, one for Moses, and one for Elijah” — <sup>6</sup> because he did not know what he should say, since they were terrified.

<sup>7</sup> A cloud appeared, overshadowing them, and a voice came from the cloud:

This is My beloved Son;
listen to Him!

<sup>8</sup> Then suddenly, looking around, they no longer saw anyone with them except Jesus alone.

<sup>9</sup> As they were coming down from the mountain, He ordered them to tell no one what they had seen until the •Son of Man had risen from the dead.

<sup>12†</sup> “Elijah does come first and restores everything,” He replied. “How then is it written about the Son of Man that He must suffer many things and be treated with contempt? <sup>13</sup> But I tell you that Elijah really has come, and they did whatever they pleased to him, just as it is written about him.”

The Power of Faith over a Demon

<sup>14</sup> When they came to the disciples, they saw a large crowd around them and scribes disputing with them. <sup>15</sup> All of a sudden, when the whole crowd saw Him, they were amazed <sup>B</sup> and ran to greet Him. <sup>16</sup> Then He asked them, “What are you arguing with them about? ”

<sup>17</sup> Out of the crowd, one man answered Him, “Teacher, I brought my son to You. He has a spirit that makes him unable to speak. <sup>18</sup> Wherever it seizes him, it throws him down, and he foams at the mouth, grinds his teeth, and becomes rigid. So I asked Your disciples to drive it out, but they couldn’t.”

<sup>19</sup> He replied to them, “You unbelieving generation! How long will I be with you? How long must I put up with you? Bring him to Me.” <sup>20</sup> So they brought him to Him. When the spirit saw Him, it immediately convulsed the boy. He fell to the ground and rolled around, foaming at the mouth. <sup>21</sup> “How long has this been happening to him? ” Jesus asked his father.

“From childhood,” he said. <sup>22</sup> “And many times it has thrown him into fire or water to destroy him. But if You can do anything, have compassion on us and help us.”

<sup>23†</sup> Then Jesus said to him, “ ‘If You can? ’ Everything is possible to the one who believes.”

<sup>25</sup> When Jesus saw that a crowd was rapidly coming together, He rebuked the •unclean spirit, saying to it, “You mute and deaf spirit, I command you: come out of him and never enter him again! ”

<sup>26</sup> Then it came out, shrieking and convulsing him violently. The boy became like a corpse, so that many said, “He’s dead.” <sup>27</sup> But Jesus, taking him by the hand, raised him, and he stood up.

<sup>28</sup> After He went into a house, His disciples asked Him privately, “Why couldn’t we drive it out? ”

<sup>29†</sup> And He told them, “This kind can come out by nothing but prayer [and fasting ].”

The Second Prediction of His Death

<sup>30</sup> Then they left that place and made their way through Galilee, but He did not want anyone to know it. <sup>31</sup> For He was teaching His disciples and telling them, “The Son of Man is being betrayed into the hands of men. They will kill Him, and after He is killed, He will rise three days later.” <sup>32</sup> But they did not understand this statement, and they were afraid to ask Him.

Who is the Greatest?

<sup>33</sup> Then they came to Capernaum. When He was in the house, He asked them, “What were you arguing about on the way? ” <sup>34</sup> But they were silent, because on the way they had been arguing with one another about who was the greatest. <sup>35</sup> Sitting down, He called the Twelve and said to them, “If anyone wants to be first, he must be last of all and servant of all.” <sup>36</sup> Then He took a child, had him stand among them, and taking him in His arms, He said to them, <sup>37</sup> “Whoever welcomes one little child such as this in My name welcomes Me. And whoever welcomes Me does not welcome Me, but Him who sent Me.”

In His Name

<sup>38</sup> John said to Him, “Teacher, we saw someone driving out demons in Your name, and we tried to stop him because he wasn’t following us.”

<sup>39</sup> “Don’t stop him,” said Jesus, “because there is no one who will perform a miracle in My name who can soon afterward speak evil of Me. <sup>40†</sup> For whoever is not against us is for us. <sup>41</sup> And whoever gives you a cup of water to drink because of My name, since you belong to the •Messiah — I assure you: He will never lose his reward.

Warnings from Jesus

<sup>42</sup> “But whoever •causes the downfall of one of these little ones who believe in Me — it would be better for him if a heavy millstone were hung around his neck and he were thrown into the sea. <sup>43†</sup> And if your hand causes your downfall, cut it off. It is better for you to enter life maimed than to have two hands and go to •hell — the unquenchable fire, [<sup>44</sup> where

Their worm does not die,
and the fire is not quenched. ] ,

<sup>45</sup> And if your foot causes your downfall, cut it off. It is better for you to enter life lame than to have two feet and be thrown into hell — [the unquenchable fire, <sup>46</sup> where

Their worm does not die,
and the fire is not quenched. ] ,

<sup>47</sup> And if your eye causes your downfall, gouge it out. It is better for you to enter the kingdom of God with one eye than to have two eyes and be thrown into hell, <sup>48</sup> where

Their worm does not die,

and the fire is not quenched.

<sup>49</sup> For everyone will be salted with fire. , <sup>50†</sup> Salt is good, but if the salt should lose its flavor, how can you make it salty? Have salt among yourselves and be at peace with one another.”

The Question of Divorce

10 He set out from there and went to the region of Judea and across the Jordan. Then crowds converged on Him again and, as He usually did, He began teaching them once more. <sup>2</sup> Some •Pharisees approached Him to test Him. They asked, “Is it lawful for a man to divorce his wife?”

<sup>3</sup> He replied to them, “What did Moses command you?”

<sup>4</sup> They said, “Moses permitted us to write divorce papers and send her away.”

<sup>5</sup> But Jesus told them, “He wrote this command for you because of the hardness of your hearts. <sup>6</sup> But from the beginning of creation God made them male and female.

<sup>7</sup> For this reason a man will leave his father and mother [and be joined to his wife],
<sup>8</sup> and the two will become one flesh.

So they are no longer two, but one flesh. <sup>9</sup> Therefore what God has joined together, man must not separate.”

<sup>10</sup> Now in the house the disciples questioned Him again about this matter. <sup>11</sup> And He said to them, “Whoever divorces his wife and marries another commits adultery against her. <sup>12</sup> Also, if she divorces her husband and marries another, she commits adultery.”

Blessing the Children

<sup>13</sup> Some people were bringing little children to Him so He might touch them, but His disciples rebuked them. <sup>14</sup> When Jesus saw it, He was indignant and said to them, “Let the little children come to Me. Don’t stop them, for the kingdom of God belongs to such as these. <sup>15†</sup> •I assure you: Whoever does not welcome the kingdom of God like a little child will never enter it.” <sup>16</sup> After taking them in His arms, He laid His hands on them and blessed them.

The Rich Young Ruler

<sup>17</sup> As He was setting out on a journey, a man ran up, knelt down before Him, and asked Him, “Good Teacher, what must I do to inherit eternal life?”

<sup>18†</sup> “Why do you call Me good?” Jesus asked him. “No one is good but One — God. <sup>19†</sup> You know the commandments:

Do not murder;
do not commit adultery;
do not steal;
do not bear false witness;
do not defraud;
honor your father and mother.”

<sup>20</sup> He said to Him, “Teacher, I have kept all these from my youth.”

<sup>21†</sup> Then, looking at him, Jesus loved him and said to him, “You lack one thing: Go, sell all you have and give to the poor, and you will have treasure in heaven. Then come, follow Me.” <sup>22</sup> But he was stunned <sup>A</sup> at this demand, and he went away grieving, because he had many possessions.

Possessions and the Kingdom

<sup>23</sup> Jesus looked around and said to His disciples, “How hard it is for those who have wealth to enter the kingdom of God!” <sup>24</sup> But the disciples were astonished at His words. Again Jesus said to them, “Children, how hard it is to enter the kingdom of God! <sup>25</sup> It is easier for a camel to go through the eye of a needle than for a rich person to enter the kingdom of God.”

<sup>26</sup> So they were even more astonished, saying to one another, “Then who can be saved?”

<sup>27</sup> Looking at them, Jesus said, “With men it is impossible, but not with God, because all things are possible with God.”

<sup>29†</sup> “I assure you,” Jesus said, “there is no one who has left house, brothers or sisters, mother or father, children, or fields because of Me and the gospel, <sup>30</sup> who will not receive 100 times more, now at this time — houses, brothers and sisters, mothers and children, and fields, with persecutions — and eternal life in the age to come. <sup>31</sup> But many who are first will be last, and the last first.”

The Third Prediction of His Death

<sup>32</sup> They were on the road, going up to Jerusalem, and Jesus was walking ahead of them. They were astonished, but those who followed Him were afraid. Taking the Twelve aside again, He began to tell them the things that would happen to Him.

<sup>33</sup> “Listen! We are going up to Jerusalem. The •Son of Man will be handed over to the •chief priests and the •scribes, and they will condemn Him to death. Then they will hand Him over to the Gentiles, <sup>34</sup> and they will mock Him, spit on Him, flog Him, and kill Him, and He will rise after three days.”

Suffering and Service

<sup>35†</sup> Then James and John, the sons of Zebedee, approached Him and said, “Teacher, we want You to do something for us if we ask You.”

<sup>36</sup> “What do you want Me to do for you?” He asked them.

<sup>38</sup> But Jesus said to them, “You don’t know what you’re asking. Are you able to drink the cup I drink or to be baptized with the baptism I am baptized with? ”

<sup>39</sup> “We are able,” they told Him.

Jesus said to them, “You will drink the cup I drink, and you will be baptized with the baptism I am baptized with. <sup>40</sup> But to sit at My right or left is not Mine to give; instead, it is for those it has been prepared for.”

<sup>41</sup> When the other 10 disciples heard this, they began to be indignant with James and John.

<sup>42</sup> Jesus called them over and said to them, “You know that those who are regarded as rulers of the Gentiles dominate them, and their men of high positions exercise power over them. <sup>43</sup> But it must not be like that among you. On the contrary, whoever wants to become great among you must be your servant, <sup>44</sup> and whoever wants to be first among you must be a •slave to all. <sup>45†</sup> For even the Son of Man did not come to be served, but to serve, and to give His life — a ransom for many.”

A Blind Man Healed

<sup>46†</sup> They came to Jericho. And as He was leaving Jericho with His disciples and a large crowd, Bartimaeus (the son of Timaeus), a blind beggar, was sitting by the road. <sup>47†</sup> When he heard that it was Jesus the •Nazarene, he began to cry out, “Son of David, Jesus, have mercy on me! ” <sup>48</sup> Many people told him to keep quiet, but he was crying out all the more, “Have mercy on me, Son of David! ”

So they called the blind man and said to him, “Have courage! Get up; He’s calling for you.” <sup>50</sup> He threw off his coat, jumped up, and came to Jesus.

<sup>51</sup> Then Jesus answered him, “What do you want Me to do for you? ”

“Rabbouni,” <sup>B</sup> the blind man told Him, “I want to see! ”

<sup>52</sup> “Go your way,” Jesus told him. “Your faith has healed you.”
Immediately he could see and began to follow Him on the road.

The Triumphal Entry

11 When they approached Jerusalem, at Bethphage and Bethany near the •Mount of Olives, He sent two of His disciples <sup>2†</sup> and told them, “Go into the village ahead of you. As soon as you enter it, you will find a young donkey tied there, on which no one has ever sat. Untie it and bring it here. <sup>3</sup> If anyone says to you, ‘Why are you doing this?’ say, ‘The Lord needs it and will send it back here right away.’”

<sup>4</sup> So they went and found a young donkey outside in the street, tied by a door. They untied it, <sup>5</sup> and some of those standing there said to them, “What are you doing, untying the donkey?” <sup>6</sup> They answered them just as Jesus had said, so they let them go. <sup>7</sup> Then they brought the donkey to Jesus and threw their robes on it, and He sat on it.

<sup>8</sup> Many people spread their robes on the road, and others spread leafy branches cut from the fields. <sup>9</sup> Then those who went ahead and those who followed kept shouting:

•Hosanna!

He who comes in the name
of the Lord is the blessed One!

<sup>10</sup> The coming kingdom
of our father David is blessed!
Hosanna in the highest heaven!

<sup>11</sup> And He went into Jerusalem and into the •temple complex. After looking around at everything, since it was already late, He went out to Bethany with the Twelve.

The Barren Fig Tree Is Cursed

<sup>12†</sup> The next day when they came out from Bethany, He was hungry. <sup>13</sup> After seeing in the distance a fig tree with leaves, He went to find out if there was anything on it. When He came to it, He found nothing but leaves, because it was not the season for figs. <sup>14</sup> He said to it, “May no one ever eat fruit from you again!” And His disciples heard it.

Cleansing the Temple Complex

<sup>15†</sup> They came to Jerusalem, and He went into the temple complex and began to throw out those buying and selling in the temple. He overturned the money changers' tables and the chairs of those selling doves, <sup>16</sup> and would not permit anyone to carry goods through the temple complex.

<sup>17</sup> Then He began to teach them: "Is it not written, My house will be called a house of prayer for all nations? But you have made it a den of thieves!" <sup>18</sup> Then the •chief priests and the •scribes heard it and started looking for a way to destroy Him. For they were afraid of Him, because the whole crowd was astonished by His teaching.

<sup>19</sup> And whenever evening came, they would go out of the city.

The Barren Fig Tree Is Withered

<sup>20</sup> Early in the morning, as they were passing by, they saw the fig tree withered from the roots up. <sup>21</sup> Then Peter remembered and said to Him, "•Rabbi, look! The fig tree that You cursed is withered."

<sup>22†</sup> Jesus replied to them, "Have faith in God. <sup>23</sup> •I assure you: If anyone says to this mountain, 'Be lifted up and thrown into the sea,' and does not doubt in his heart, but believes that what he says will happen, it will be done for him. <sup>24</sup> Therefore I tell you, all the things you pray and ask for — believe that you have received them, and you will have them. <sup>25†</sup> And whenever you stand praying, if you have anything against anyone, forgive him, so that your Father in heaven will also forgive you your wrongdoing. [<sup>26</sup> But if you don't forgive, neither will your Father in heaven forgive your wrongdoing.]"

Messiah's Authority Challenged

<sup>27</sup> They came again to Jerusalem. As He was walking in the temple complex, the chief priests, the scribes, and the elders came <sup>28</sup> and asked Him, “By what authority are You doing these things? Who gave You this authority to do these things? ”

<sup>29</sup> Jesus said to them, “I will ask you one question; then answer Me, and I will tell you by what authority I am doing these things. <sup>30</sup> Was John’s baptism from heaven or from men? Answer Me.”

<sup>31</sup> They began to argue among themselves: “If we say, ‘From heaven,’ He will say, ‘Then why didn’t you believe him?’ <sup>32</sup> But if we say, ‘From men’ ” — they were afraid of the crowd, because everyone thought that John was a genuine prophet. <sup>33†</sup> So they answered Jesus, “We don’t know.”

And Jesus said to them, “Neither will I tell you by what authority I do these things.”

The Parable of the Vineyard Owner

12 Then He began to speak to them in parables: “A man planted a vineyard, put a fence around it, dug out a pit for a winepress, and built a watchtower. Then he leased it to tenant farmers and went away.<sup>2</sup> At harvest time he sent a •slave to the farmers to collect some of the fruit of the vineyard from the farmers.<sup>3</sup> But they took him, beat him, and sent him away empty-handed.<sup>4</sup> Again he sent another slave to them, and they hit him on the head and treated him shamefully.<sup>5</sup> Then he sent another, and they killed that one. He also sent many others; they beat some and they killed some.

<sup>6†</sup> “He still had one to send, a beloved son. Finally he sent him to them, saying, ‘They will respect my son.’

<sup>7</sup> “But those tenant farmers said among themselves, ‘This is the heir. Come, let’s kill him, and the inheritance will be ours!’<sup>8</sup> So they seized him, killed him, and threw him out of the vineyard.

<sup>9</sup> “Therefore, what will the owner of the vineyard do? He will come and destroy the farmers and give the vineyard to others.<sup>10</sup> Haven’t you read this Scripture:

The stone that the builders rejected
has become the cornerstone.

<sup>11</sup> This came from the Lord
and is wonderful in our eyes? ”

<sup>12</sup> Because they knew He had said this parable against them, they were looking for a way to arrest Him, but they were afraid of the crowd. So they left Him and went away.

God and Caesar

<sup>13</sup> Then they sent some of the •Pharisees and the •Herodians to Him to trap Him by what He said. <sup>A</sup> <sup>14</sup> When they came, they said to Him, “Teacher, we know You are truthful and defer to no one, for You don’t show partiality<sup>B</sup> but teach truthfully the way of God. Is it lawful to pay taxes to Caesar or not?<sup>15</sup> Should we pay, or should we not pay? ”

But knowing their hypocrisy, He said to them, “Why are you testing Me? Bring Me a •denarius to look at.”<sup>16</sup> So they brought one. “Whose image and inscription is this? ” He asked them.

“Caesar’s,” they said.

<sup>17</sup> Then Jesus told them, “Give back to Caesar the things that are Caesar’s, and to God the things that are God’s.” And they were amazed at Him.

The Sadducees and the Resurrection

<sup>18</sup> Some •Sadducees, who say there is no resurrection, came to Him and questioned Him:<sup>19</sup> “Teacher, Moses wrote for us that if a man’s brother dies, leaves his wife behind, and leaves no child, his brother should take the wife and produce •offspring for his brother.<sup>20</sup> There were seven brothers. The first took a wife, and dying, left no offspring.<sup>21</sup> The second also took her, and he died, leaving no offspring. And the third likewise.<sup>22</sup> So the seven left no offspring. Last of all, the woman died too.<sup>23</sup> In the resurrection, when they rise, whose wife will she be, since the seven had married her? ”<sup>C</sup>

<sup>24</sup> Jesus told them, “Are you not deceived because you don’t know the Scriptures or the power of God?<sup>25†</sup> For when they rise from the dead, they neither marry nor are given in marriage but are like angels in heaven.<sup>26</sup> Now concerning the dead being raised — haven’t you read in the book of Moses, in the passage about the burning bush, how God spoke to him: I am the God of Abraham and the God of Isaac and the God of Jacob?<sup>27</sup> He is not God of the dead but of the living. You are badly deceived.”

The Primary Commandments

<sup>28</sup> One of the •scribes approached. When he heard them debating and saw that Jesus answered them well, he asked Him, “Which command is the most important of all? ” <sup>D</sup>

Listen, Israel! The Lord our God, the Lord is One. <sup>30†</sup> Love the Lord your God with all your heart, with all your soul, with all your mind, and with all your strength. ,

<sup>31</sup> “The second is: Love your neighbor as yourself. There is no other command greater than these.”

<sup>32</sup> Then the scribe said to Him, “You are right, Teacher! You have correctly said that He is One, and there is no one else except Him. <sup>33</sup> And to love Him with all your heart, with all your understanding, and with all your strength, and to love your neighbor as yourself, is far more important than all the burnt offerings and sacrifices.”

<sup>34</sup> When Jesus saw that he answered intelligently, He said to him, “You are not far from the kingdom of God.” And no one dared to question Him any longer.

The Question about the Messiah

<sup>35</sup> So Jesus asked this question as He taught in the •temple complex, “How can the scribes say that the •Messiah is the Son of David? <sup>36</sup> David himself says by the Holy Spirit:

The Lord declared to my Lord,
‘Sit at My right hand
until I put Your enemies under Your feet.’

<sup>37†</sup> David himself calls Him ‘Lord’; how then can the Messiah be his Son? ” And the large crowd was listening to Him with delight.

Warning against the Scribes

<sup>38</sup> He also said in His teaching, “Beware of the scribes, who want to go around in long robes, and who want greetings in the marketplaces, <sup>39</sup> the front seats in the •synagogues, and the places of honor at banquets. <sup>40</sup> They devour widows’ houses and say long prayers just for show. These will receive harsher punishment.”

The Widow’s Gift

<sup>41</sup> Sitting across from the temple treasury, He watched how the crowd dropped money into the treasury. Many rich people were putting in large sums. <sup>42</sup> And a poor widow came and dropped in two tiny coins worth very little. <sup>E</sup> <sup>43</sup> Summoning His disciples, He said to them, “•I assure you: This poor widow has put in more than all those giving to the temple treasury. <sup>44</sup> For they all gave out of their surplus, but she out of her poverty has put in everything she possessed — all she had to live on.”

Destruction of the Temple Predicted

13 As He was going out of the •temple complex, one of His disciples said to Him, “Teacher, look! What massive stones! What impressive buildings! ”

<sup>2†</sup> Jesus said to him, “Do you see these great buildings? Not one stone will be left here on another that will not be thrown down! ”

Signs of the End of the Age

<sup>3</sup> While He was sitting on the •Mount of Olives across from the temple complex, Peter, James, John, and Andrew asked Him privately, <sup>4</sup> “Tell us, when will these things happen? And what will be the sign when all these things are about to take place? ”

<sup>5</sup> Then Jesus began by telling them: “Watch out that no one deceives you. <sup>6</sup> Many will come in My name, saying, ‘I am He,’ and they will deceive many. <sup>7</sup> When you hear of wars and rumors of wars, don’t be alarmed; these things must take place, but the end is not yet. <sup>8</sup> For nation will rise up against nation, and kingdom against kingdom. There will be earthquakes in various places, and famines. These are the beginning of birth pains.

Persecutions Predicted

<sup>9</sup> “But you, be on your guard! They will hand you over to sanhedrins, and you will be flogged in the •synagogues. You will stand before governors and kings because of Me, as a witness to them. <sup>10</sup> And the good news must first be proclaimed to all nations. <sup>11</sup> So when they arrest you and hand you over, don’t worry beforehand what you will say. On the contrary, whatever is given to you in that hour — say it. For it isn’t you speaking, but the Holy Spirit. <sup>12</sup> Then brother will betray brother to death, and a father his child. Children will rise up against parents and put them to death. <sup>13</sup> And you will be hated by everyone because of My name. But the one who endures to the end will be delivered.

The Great Tribulation

<sup>14</sup> “When you see the abomination that causes desolation standing where it should not” (let the reader understand ), “then those in Judea must flee to the mountains! <sup>15</sup> A man on the housetop must not come down or go in to get anything out of his house. <sup>16</sup> And a man in the field must not go back to get his clothes. <sup>17</sup> Woe to pregnant women and nursing mothers in those days! <sup>18</sup> Pray it won’t happen in winter. <sup>19</sup> For those will be days of tribulation, the kind that hasn’t been from the beginning of the world, which God created, until now and never will be again! <sup>20</sup> Unless the Lord limited those days, no one would survive. But He limited those days because of the elect, whom He chose.

<sup>21</sup> “Then if anyone tells you, ‘Look, here is the •Messiah!’ Look — there!’ do not believe it! <sup>22</sup> For false messiahs and false prophets will rise up and will perform signs and wonders to lead astray, if possible, the elect. <sup>23</sup> And you must watch! I have told you everything in advance.

The Coming of the Son of Man

<sup>24†</sup> “But in those days, after that tribulation:

The sun will be darkened,
and the moon will not shed its light;
<sup>25</sup> the stars will be falling from the sky,
and the celestial powers will be shaken.

<sup>26</sup> Then they will see the •Son of Man coming in clouds with great power and glory. <sup>27</sup> He will send out the angels and gather His elect from the four winds, from the end of the earth to the end of the sky.

The Parable of the Fig Tree

<sup>28</sup> “Learn this parable from the fig tree: As soon as its branch becomes tender and sprouts leaves, you know that summer is near. <sup>29</sup> In the same way, when you see these things happening, know that He is near — at the door! <sup>30†</sup> •I assure you: This generation will certainly not pass away until all these things take place. <sup>31</sup> Heaven and earth will pass away, but My words will never pass away.

No One Knows the Day or Hour

The Plot to Kill Jesus

14 After two days it was the •Passover and the Festival of •Unleavened Bread. The •chief priests and the •scribes were looking for a treacherous way to arrest and kill Him. <sup>2</sup> “Not during the festival,” they said, “or there may be rioting among the people.”

The Anointing at Bethany

<sup>3†</sup> While He was in Bethany at the house of Simon who had a serious skin disease, as He was reclining at the table, a woman came with an alabaster jar of pure and expensive fragrant oil of nard. She broke the jar and poured it on His head. <sup>4</sup> But some were expressing indignation to one another: “Why has this fragrant oil been wasted? <sup>5</sup> For this oil might have been sold for more than 300 •denarii and given to the poor.” And they began to scold her.

<sup>6</sup> Then Jesus said, “Leave her alone. Why are you bothering her? She has done a noble thing for Me. <sup>7†</sup> You always have the poor with you, and you can do what is good for them whenever you want, but you do not always have Me. <sup>8</sup> She has done what she could; she has anointed My body in advance for burial. <sup>9</sup> •I assure you: Wherever the gospel is proclaimed in the whole world, what this woman has done will also be told in memory of her.”

<sup>10</sup> Then Judas Iscariot, one of the Twelve, went to the chief priests to hand Him over to them. <sup>11</sup> And when they heard this, they were glad and promised to give him silver. <sup>A</sup> So he started looking for a good opportunity to betray Him.

Preparation for Passover

<sup>12†</sup> On the first day of Unleavened Bread, when they sacrifice the Passover lamb, His disciples asked Him, “Where do You want us to go and prepare the Passover so You may eat it? ”

<sup>13</sup> So He sent two of His disciples and told them, “Go into the city, and a man carrying a water jug will meet you. Follow him. <sup>14</sup> Wherever he enters, tell the owner of the house, ‘The Teacher says, “Where is the guest room for Me to eat the Passover with My disciples?” ’ <sup>15</sup> He will show you a large room upstairs, furnished and ready. Make the preparations for us there.” <sup>16</sup> So the disciples went out, entered the city, and found it just as He had told them, and they prepared the Passover.

Betrayal at the Passover

<sup>17</sup> When evening came, He arrived with the Twelve. <sup>18</sup> While they were reclining and eating, Jesus said, “I assure you: One of you will betray Me — one who is eating with Me!”

<sup>19</sup> They began to be distressed and to say to Him one by one, “Surely not I?”

<sup>20</sup> He said to them, “It is one of the Twelve — the one who is dipping bread with Me in the bowl. <sup>21†</sup> For the •Son of Man will go just as it is written about Him, but woe to that man by whom the Son of Man is betrayed! It would have been better for that man if he had not been born.”

The First Lord’s Supper

<sup>22†</sup> As they were eating, He took bread, blessed and broke it, gave it to them, and said, “Take it; this is My body.”

<sup>23</sup> Then He took a cup, and after giving thanks, He gave it to them, and so they all drank from it. <sup>24</sup> He said to them, “This is My blood that establishes the covenant; it is shed for many. <sup>25</sup> I assure you: I will no longer drink of the fruit of the vine until that day when I drink it in a new way in the kingdom of God.” <sup>26</sup> After singing psalms, they went out to the •Mount of Olives.

Peter’s Denial Predicted

<sup>27†</sup> Then Jesus said to them, “All of you will run away, because it is written:

I will strike the shepherd,
and the sheep will be scattered.

<sup>28</sup> But after I have been resurrected, I will go ahead of you to Galilee.”

<sup>29</sup> Peter told Him, “Even if everyone runs away, I will certainly not!”

<sup>30†</sup> “I assure you,” Jesus said to him, “today, this very night, before the rooster crows twice, you will deny Me three times!”

<sup>31</sup> But he kept insisting, “If I have to die with You, I will never deny You!” And they all said the same thing.

The Prayer in the Garden

<sup>32</sup> Then they came to a place named Gethsemane, and He told His disciples, “Sit here while I pray.” <sup>33</sup> He took Peter, James, and John with Him, and He began to be deeply distressed and horrified. <sup>34</sup> Then He said to them, “My soul is swallowed up in sorrow — to the point of death. Remain here and stay awake.” <sup>35</sup> Then He went a little farther, fell to the ground, and began to pray that if it were possible, the hour might pass from Him. <sup>36</sup> And He said, “•Abba, Father! All things are possible for You. Take this cup away from Me. Nevertheless, not what I will, but what You will.”

<sup>37</sup> Then He came and found them sleeping. “Simon, are you sleeping?” He asked Peter. “Couldn’t you stay awake one hour?” <sup>38</sup> Stay awake and pray so that you won’t enter into temptation. The spirit is willing, but the flesh is weak.”

<sup>39</sup> Once again He went away and prayed, saying the same thing. <sup>40</sup> And He came again and found them sleeping, because they could not keep their eyes open. <sup>B</sup> They did not know what to say to Him. <sup>41</sup> Then He came a third time and said to them, “Are you still sleeping and resting? Enough! The time has come. Look, the Son of Man is being betrayed into the hands of sinners. <sup>42</sup> Get up; let’s go! See — My betrayer is near.”

The Judas Kiss

<sup>43</sup> While He was still speaking, Judas, one of the Twelve, suddenly arrived. With him was a mob, with swords and clubs, from the chief priests, the scribes, and the elders. <sup>44</sup> His betrayer had given them a signal. “The One I kiss,” he said, “He’s the One; arrest Him and take Him away under guard.” <sup>45</sup> So when he came, he went right up to Him and said, “•Rabbi!” — and kissed Him. <sup>46</sup> Then they took hold of Him and arrested Him. <sup>47</sup> And one of those who stood by drew his sword, struck the high priest’s •slave, and cut off his ear.

<sup>48</sup> But Jesus said to them, “Have you come out with swords and clubs, as though I were a criminal, to capture Me? <sup>49</sup> Every day I was among you, teaching in the •temple complex, and you didn’t arrest Me. But the Scriptures must be fulfilled.” <sup>50</sup> Then they all deserted Him and ran away.

Jesus Faces the Sanhedrin

<sup>55</sup> The chief priests and the whole •Sanhedrin were looking for testimony against Jesus to put Him to death, but they could find none. <sup>56</sup> For many were giving false testimony against Him, but the testimonies did not agree. <sup>57</sup> Some stood up and were giving false testimony against Him, stating, <sup>58</sup> “We heard Him say, ‘I will demolish this sanctuary made by human hands, and in three days I will build another not made by hands.’ ” <sup>59</sup> Yet their testimony did not agree even on this.

<sup>60</sup> Then the high priest stood up before them all and questioned Jesus, “Don’t You have an answer to what these men are testifying against You? ”
<sup>61†</sup> But He kept silent and did not answer anything. Again the high priest questioned Him, “Are You the •Messiah, the Son of the Blessed One? ”

<sup>62</sup> “I am,” said Jesus, “and all of you will see the Son of Man seated at the right hand of the Power and coming with the clouds of heaven.”

<sup>63†</sup> Then the high priest tore his robes and said, “Why do we still need witnesses? <sup>64</sup> You have heard the blasphemy! What is your decision? ” <sup>E</sup>

And they all condemned Him to be deserving of death. <sup>65</sup> Then some began to spit on Him, to blindfold Him, and to beat Him, saying, “Prophecy! ” The temple police also took Him and slapped Him.

Peter Denies His Lord

<sup>66</sup> While Peter was in the courtyard below, one of the high priest’s servants came. <sup>67</sup> When she saw Peter warming himself, she looked at him and said, “You also were with that •Nazarene, Jesus.”

<sup>68†</sup> But he denied it: “I don’t know or understand what you’re talking about! ” Then he went out to the entryway, and a rooster crowed.

<sup>69</sup> When the servant saw him again she began to tell those standing nearby, “This man is one of them! ”

<sup>70</sup> But again he denied it. After a little while those standing there said to Peter again, “You certainly are one of them, since you’re also a Galilean! ”

<sup>71</sup> Then he started to curse and to swear with an oath, “I don’t know this man you’re talking about! ”

<sup>72</sup> Immediately a rooster crowed a second time, and Peter remembered when Jesus had spoken the word to him, “Before the rooster crows twice, you will deny Me three times.” When he thought about it, he began to weep.<sup>F</sup>

Jesus Faces Pilate

15 †As soon as it was morning, the •chief priests had a meeting with the elders, •scribes, and the whole •Sanhedrin. After tying Jesus up, they led Him away and handed Him over to •Pilate.

2 So Pilate asked Him, “Are You the King of the Jews? ”

He answered him, “You have said it.”

3 And the chief priests began to accuse Him of many things. 4 Then Pilate questioned Him again, “Are You not answering anything? Look how many things they are accusing You of! ” 5 But Jesus still did not answer anything, so Pilate was amazed.

Jesus or Barabbas

6† At the festival it was Pilate’s custom to release for the people a prisoner they requested. 7 There was one named Barabbas, who was in prison with rebels who had committed murder during the rebellion. 8 The crowd came up and began to ask Pilate to do for them as was his custom. 9 So Pilate answered them, “Do you want me to release the King of the Jews for you? ” 10 For he knew it was because of envy that the chief priests had handed Him over. 11 But the chief priests stirred up the crowd so that he would release Barabbas to them instead.

12 Pilate asked them again, “Then what do you want me to do with the One you call the King of the Jews? ”

13 Again they shouted, “Crucify Him! ”

14 Then Pilate said to them, “Why? What has He done wrong? ”

But they shouted, “Crucify Him! ” all the more.

15† Then, willing to gratify the crowd, Pilate released Barabbas to them. And after having Jesus flogged, he handed Him over to be crucified.

Mocked by the Military

<sup>16</sup> Then the soldiers led Him away into the courtyard (that is, •headquarters ) and called the whole •company together. <sup>17†</sup> They dressed Him in a purple robe, twisted together a crown of thorns, and put it on Him. <sup>18</sup> And they began to salute Him, “Hail, King of the Jews!” <sup>19</sup> They kept hitting Him on the head with a reed and spitting on Him. Getting down on their knees, they were paying Him homage. <sup>20</sup> When they had mocked Him, they stripped Him of the purple robe, put His clothes on Him, and led Him out to crucify Him.

Crucified between Two Criminals

<sup>21</sup> They forced a man coming in from the country, who was passing by, to carry Jesus’ cross. He was Simon, a Cyrenian, the father of Alexander and Rufus. <sup>22</sup> And they brought Jesus to the place called Golgotha (which means Skull Place ). <sup>23†</sup> They tried to give Him wine mixed with myrrh, but He did not take it. <sup>24</sup> Then they crucified Him and divided His clothes, casting lots for them to decide what each would get. <sup>25†</sup> Now it was nine in the morning <sup>A</sup> when they crucified Him. <sup>26†</sup> The inscription of the charge written against Him was:

THE KING OF THE JEWS.
------------------------------

The Death of Jesus

<sup>35</sup> When some of those standing there heard this, they said, “Look, He’s calling for Elijah!” <sup>36†</sup> Someone ran and filled a sponge with sour wine, fixed it on a reed, offered Him a drink, and said, “Let’s see if Elijah comes to take Him down!”

<sup>37</sup> But Jesus let out a loud cry and breathed His last. <sup>38†</sup> Then the curtain of the sanctuary was split in two from top to bottom. <sup>39</sup> When the •centurion, who was standing opposite Him, saw the way He breathed His last, he said, “This man really was God’s Son!” <sup>H</sup>

<sup>40</sup> There were also women looking on from a distance. Among them were •Mary Magdalene, Mary the mother of James the younger and of Joses, and Salome. <sup>41</sup> When He was in Galilee, they would follow Him and help Him. Many other women had come up with Him to Jerusalem.

The Burial of Jesus

<sup>42†</sup> When it was already evening, because it was preparation day (that is, the day before the Sabbath), <sup>43</sup> Joseph of Arimathea, a prominent member of the Sanhedrin who was himself looking forward to the kingdom of God, came and boldly went in to Pilate and asked for Jesus’ body. <sup>44</sup> Pilate was surprised that He was already dead. Summoning the centurion, he asked him whether He had already died. <sup>45</sup> When he found out from the centurion, he gave the corpse to Joseph. <sup>46</sup> After he bought some fine linen, he took Him down and wrapped Him in the linen. Then he placed Him in a tomb cut out of the rock, and rolled a stone against the entrance to the tomb. <sup>47†</sup> Now Mary Magdalene and Mary the mother of Joses were watching where He was placed.

Resurrection Morning

16† When the Sabbath was over, •Mary Magdalene, Mary the mother of James, and Salome bought spices, so they could go and anoint Him.

2† Very early in the morning, on the first day of the week, they went to the tomb at sunrise. <sup>3</sup> They were saying to one another, “Who will roll away the stone from the entrance to the tomb for us?” <sup>4</sup> Looking up, they observed that the stone — which was very large — had been rolled away.

5† When they entered the tomb, they saw a young man dressed in a long white robe sitting on the right side; they were amazed and alarmed.

6† “Don’t be alarmed,” he told them. “You are looking for Jesus the •Nazarene, who was crucified. He has been resurrected! He is not here! See the place where they put Him. <sup>7</sup> But go, tell His disciples and Peter, ‘He is going ahead of you to Galilee; you will see Him there just as He told you.’”

8† So they went out and started running from the tomb, because trembling and astonishment overwhelmed them. And they said nothing to anyone, since they were afraid.

Appearances of the Risen Lord

[<sup>9</sup> Early on the first day of the week, after He had risen, He appeared first to Mary Magdalene, out of whom He had driven seven demons.

<sup>10</sup> She went and reported to those who had been with Him, as they were mourning and weeping. <sup>11</sup> Yet, when they heard that He was alive and had been seen by her, they did not believe it. <sup>12</sup> Then after this, He appeared in a different form to two of them walking on their way into the country.

<sup>13</sup> And they went and reported it to the rest, who did not believe them either.

The Great Commission

<sup>14</sup> Later, He appeared to the Eleven themselves as they were reclining at the table. He rebuked their unbelief and hardness of heart, because they did not believe those who saw Him after He had been resurrected. <sup>15</sup> Then He said to them, “Go into all the world and preach the gospel to the whole creation. <sup>16</sup> Whoever believes and is baptized will be saved, but whoever does not believe will be condemned. <sup>17</sup> And these signs will accompany those who believe: In My name they will drive out demons; they will speak in new languages; <sup>18</sup> they will pick up snakes; if they should drink anything deadly, it will never harm them; they will lay hands on the sick, and they will get well.”

TWISTED SCRIPTURE

Mark 16:18

In 1910, after reading Mk 16:18, George Went Hensley introduced snake handling to churches throughout the Appalachian region. Although this passage is a part of the ending of Mk that is considered by many not to be original, much of the church for 18 centuries viewed this passage as authoritative. Therefore, if it is interpreted literally, one would expect to hear that early Christians obeyed the directive to "pick up snakes." No evidence exists that this ever happened, although the Apostle Paul was protected when bitten by a venomous viper (Ac 28:1-6).

The Ascension

<sup>19</sup> Then after speaking to them, the Lord Jesus was taken up into heaven and sat down at the right hand of God. <sup>20</sup> And they went out and preached everywhere, the Lord working with them and confirming the word by the accompanying signs.]

The Dedication to Theophilus

1 † Many have undertaken to compile a narrative about the events that have been fulfilled <sup>A</sup> among us, <sup>2</sup> just as the original eyewitnesses and servants of the word handed them down to us. <sup>3</sup> It also seemed good to me, since I have carefully investigated everything from the very first, to write to you in an orderly sequence, most honorable Theophilus, <sup>4</sup> so that you may know the certainty of the things about which you have been instructed. <sup>B</sup>

Gabriel Predicts John's Birth

<sup>5†</sup> In the days of King •Herod of Judea, there was a priest of Abijah's division named Zechariah. His wife was from the daughters of Aaron, and her name was Elizabeth. <sup>6</sup> Both were righteous in God's sight, living without blame according to all the commands and requirements of the Lord. <sup>7</sup> But they had no children <sup>C</sup> because Elizabeth could not conceive, <sup>D</sup> and both of them were well along in years. <sup>E</sup>

<sup>8</sup> When his division was on duty and he was serving as priest before God, <sup>9</sup> it happened that he was chosen by lot, according to the custom of the priesthood, to enter the sanctuary of the Lord and burn incense. <sup>10</sup> At the hour of incense the whole assembly of the people was praying outside. <sup>11</sup> An angel of the Lord appeared to him, standing to the right of the altar of incense. <sup>12</sup> When Zechariah saw him, he was startled and overcome with fear. <sup>F</sup> <sup>13</sup> But the angel said to him:

Do not be afraid, Zechariah,
because your prayer has been heard.
Your wife Elizabeth will bear you a son,
and you will name him John.

<sup>14</sup> There will be joy and delight for you,
and many will rejoice at his birth.

<sup>15</sup> For he will be great in the sight of the Lord and will never drink wine or beer.
He will be filled with the Holy Spirit
while still in his mother's womb.

<sup>16†</sup> He will turn many of the sons of Israel

to the Lord their God.

<sup>17</sup> And he will go before Him in the spirit and power of Elijah, to turn the hearts of fathers
to their children,
and the disobedient
to the understanding of the righteous,
to make ready for the Lord a prepared people.

<sup>18</sup> “How can I know this?” Zechariah asked the angel. “For I am an old man, and my wife is well along in years.” <sup>G</sup>

<sup>19</sup> The angel answered him, “I am Gabriel, who stands in the presence of God, and I was sent to speak to you and tell you this good news. <sup>20</sup> Now listen! You will become silent and unable to speak until the day these things take place, because you did not believe my words, which will be fulfilled in their proper time.”

<sup>21</sup> Meanwhile, the people were waiting for Zechariah, amazed that he stayed so long in the sanctuary. <sup>22</sup> When he did come out, he could not speak to them. Then they realized that he had seen a vision in the sanctuary. He kept making signs to them and remained speechless. <sup>23</sup> When the days of his ministry were completed, he went back home.

<sup>24</sup> After these days his wife Elizabeth conceived and kept herself in seclusion for five months. She said, <sup>25</sup> “The Lord has done this for me. He has looked with favor in these days to take away my disgrace among the people.”

Gabriel Predicts Jesus' Birth

<sup>26†</sup> In the sixth month, the angel Gabriel was sent by God to a town in Galilee called Nazareth, <sup>27†</sup> to a virgin •engaged to a man named Joseph, of the house of David. The virgin's name was Mary. <sup>28</sup> And the angel came to her and said, “Rejoice, favored woman! The Lord is with you.” <sup>29</sup> But she was deeply troubled by this statement, wondering what kind of greeting this could be. <sup>30</sup> Then the angel told her:

Do not be afraid, Mary,
for you have found favor with God.

<sup>31</sup> Now listen:

You will conceive and give birth to a son,
and you will call His name Jesus.

<sup>32†</sup> He will be great and will be called the Son of the Most High,
and the Lord God will give Him
the throne of His father David.

<sup>33†</sup> He will reign over the house of Jacob forever,
and His kingdom will have no end.

<sup>34</sup> Mary asked the angel, “How can this be, since I have not been intimate with a man?” <sup>H</sup>

“The Holy Spirit will come upon you,
and the power of the Most High will overshadow you.
Therefore, the holy One to be born will be called the Son of God.

<sup>36</sup> And consider your relative Elizabeth — even she has conceived a son in her old age, and this is the sixth month for her who was called childless.

<sup>38</sup> “I am the Lord’s •slave,” <sup>I</sup> said Mary. “May it be done to me according to your word.” Then the angel left her.

Mary’s Visit to Elizabeth

<sup>39</sup> In those days Mary set out and hurried to a town in the hill country of Judah <sup>40</sup> where she entered Zechariah’s house and greeted Elizabeth.

<sup>41</sup> When Elizabeth heard Mary’s greeting, the baby leaped inside her, <sup>J</sup> and Elizabeth was filled with the Holy Spirit. <sup>42</sup> Then she exclaimed with a loud cry:

“You are the most blessed of women, and your child will be blessed! <sup>K</sup>

<sup>43</sup> How could this happen to me, that the mother of my Lord should come to me? <sup>44</sup> For you see, when the sound of your greeting reached my ears, the baby leaped for joy inside me! <sup>L</sup> <sup>45</sup> She who has believed is blessed because what was spoken to her by the Lord will be fulfilled! ”

Mary’s Praise

<sup>46†</sup> And Mary said:

My soul proclaims the greatness of <sup>M</sup> the Lord,

<sup>47</sup> and my spirit has rejoiced in God my Savior,

<sup>48</sup> because He has looked with favor
on the humble condition of His slave.

Surely, from now on all generations
will call me blessed,

<sup>49</sup> because the Mighty One has done great things for me,
and His name is holy.

<sup>50</sup> His mercy is from generation to generation on those who fear Him.

<sup>51†</sup> He has done a mighty deed with His arm;
He has scattered the proud

because of the thoughts of their hearts;

<sup>52</sup> He has toppled the mighty from their thrones and exalted the lowly.

<sup>53</sup> He has satisfied the hungry with good things and sent the rich away empty.

<sup>54</sup> He has helped His servant Israel,
mindful of His mercy,

<sup>55</sup> just as He spoke to our ancestors,
to Abraham and his descendants <sup>N</sup> forever.

<sup>56</sup> And Mary stayed with her about three months; then she returned to her home.

The Birth and Naming of John

<sup>57</sup> Now the time had come for Elizabeth to give birth, and she had a son.

<sup>59</sup> When they came to circumcise the child on the eighth day, they were going to name him Zechariah, after his father. <sup>60</sup> But his mother responded, “No! He will be called John.”

<sup>61</sup> Then they said to her, “None of your relatives has that name.” <sup>62</sup> So they motioned to his father to find out what he wanted him to be called.

<sup>63</sup> He asked for a writing tablet and wrote:

HIS NAME IS JOHN.
--------------------------

And they were all amazed. <sup>64</sup> Immediately his mouth was opened and his tongue set free, and he began to speak, praising God. <sup>65</sup> Fear came on all those who lived around them, and all these things were being talked about throughout the hill country of Judea. <sup>66</sup> All who heard about him took it to heart, saying, “What then will this child become?” For, indeed, the Lord’s hand was with him.

Zechariah's Prophecy

<sup>67</sup> Then his father Zechariah was filled with the Holy Spirit and prophesied:

<sup>68</sup> Praise the Lord, the God of Israel, because He has visited
and provided •redemption for His people.

<sup>69</sup> He has raised up a •horn of salvation for us in the house of His servant David,

<sup>70</sup> just as He spoke by the mouth of His holy prophets in ancient times;

<sup>71</sup> salvation from our enemies and from the clutches <sup>P</sup> of those who hate us.

<sup>72</sup> He has dealt mercifully with our fathers and remembered His holy covenant —

<sup>73</sup> the oath that He swore to our father Abraham.

He has given us the privilege,

<sup>74</sup> since we have been rescued from our enemies' clutches, <sup>Q</sup>
to serve Him without fear

<sup>75</sup> in holiness and righteousness
in His presence all our days.

<sup>76</sup> And child, you will be called a prophet of the Most High,
for you will go before the Lord
to prepare His ways,

<sup>77</sup> to give His people knowledge of salvation
through the forgiveness of their sins.

<sup>78</sup> Because of our God's merciful compassion,
the Dawn from on high will visit us

<sup>79</sup> to shine on those who live in darkness
and the shadow of death,
to guide our feet into the way of peace.

<sup>80</sup> The child grew up and became spiritually strong, and he was in the wilderness until the day of his public appearance to Israel.

The Birth of Jesus

2 † In those days a decree went out from Caesar Augustus that the whole empire <sup>A</sup> should be registered. 2† This first registration took place while <sup>B</sup> Quirinius was governing Syria. 3† So everyone went to be registered, each to his own town.

4 And Joseph also went up from the town of Nazareth in Galilee, to Judea, to the city of David, which is called Bethlehem, because he was of the house and family line of David, 5 to be registered along with Mary, who was •engaged to him and was pregnant. 6 While they were there, the time came for her to give birth. 7† Then she gave birth to her firstborn Son, and she wrapped Him snugly in cloth and laid Him in a feeding trough — because there was no room for them at the lodging place.

The Shepherds and the Angels

8 In the same region, shepherds were staying out in the fields and keeping watch at night over their flock. 9 Then an angel of the Lord stood before <sup>C</sup> them, and the glory of the Lord shone around them, and they were terrified. <sup>D</sup> 10 But the angel said to them, “Don’t be afraid, for look, I proclaim to you good news of great joy that will be for all the people: <sup>E</sup> 11† Today a Savior, who is •Messiah the Lord, was born for you in the city of David. 12 This will be the sign for you: You will find a baby wrapped snugly in cloth and lying in a feeding trough.”

13 Suddenly there was a multitude of the heavenly host with the angel, praising God and saying:

14 Glory to God in the highest heaven,
and peace on earth to people He favors! ,

15 When the angels had left them and returned to heaven, the shepherds said to one another, “Let’s go straight to Bethlehem and see what has happened, which the Lord has made known to us.”

<sup>16</sup> They hurried off and found both Mary and Joseph, and the baby who was lying in the feeding trough. <sup>17</sup> After seeing them, they reported the message they were told about this child, <sup>18</sup> and all who heard it were amazed at what the shepherds said to them. <sup>19†</sup> But Mary was treasuring up all these things <sup>G</sup> in her heart and meditating on them. <sup>20</sup> The shepherds returned, glorifying and praising God for all they had seen and heard, just as they had been told.

The Circumcision and Presentation of Jesus

<sup>21</sup> When the eight days were completed for His circumcision, He was named Jesus — the name given by the angel before He was conceived. <sup>H</sup> <sup>22†</sup> And when the days of their purification according to the law of Moses were finished, they brought Him up to Jerusalem to present Him to the Lord <sup>23</sup> (just as it is written in the law of the Lord: Every firstborn male will be dedicated <sup>J</sup> to the Lord) <sup>24</sup> and to offer a sacrifice (according to what is stated in the law of the Lord: a pair of turtledoves or two young pigeons ).

Simeon's Prophetic Praise

<sup>25</sup> There was a man in Jerusalem whose name was Simeon. This man was righteous and devout, looking forward to Israel's consolation, and the Holy Spirit was on him. <sup>26</sup> It had been revealed to him by the Holy Spirit that he would not see death before he saw the Lord's Messiah. <sup>27</sup> Guided by the Spirit, he entered <sup>K</sup> the •temple complex. When the parents brought in the child Jesus to perform for Him what was customary under the law, <sup>28</sup> Simeon took Him up in his arms, praised God, and said:

You can dismiss Your •slave in peace,
as You promised.

<sup>30</sup> For my eyes have seen Your salvation.

<sup>31</sup> You have prepared it in the presence of all peoples —

<sup>32</sup> a light for revelation to the Gentiles <sup>L</sup>
and glory to Your people Israel.

<sup>33</sup> His father and mother were amazed at what was being said about Him. <sup>34</sup> Then Simeon blessed them and told His mother Mary: “Indeed, this child is destined to cause the fall and rise of many in Israel and to be a sign that will be opposed <sup>M</sup> — <sup>35</sup> and a sword will pierce your own soul — that the thoughts <sup>N</sup> of many hearts may be revealed.”

Anna’s Testimony

The Family’s Return to Nazareth

<sup>39†</sup> When they had completed everything according to the law of the Lord, they returned to Galilee, to their own town of Nazareth. <sup>40</sup> The boy grew up and became strong, filled with wisdom, and God’s grace was on Him.

In His Father’s House

<sup>41</sup> Every year His parents traveled to Jerusalem for the •Passover Festival. <sup>42†</sup> When He was 12 years old, they went up according to the custom of the festival. <sup>43</sup> After those days were over, as they were returning, the boy Jesus stayed behind in Jerusalem, but His parents did not know it. <sup>44</sup> Assuming He was in the traveling party, they went a day’s journey. Then they began looking for Him among their relatives and friends. <sup>45</sup> When they did not find Him, they returned to Jerusalem to search for Him. <sup>46</sup> After three days, they found Him in the temple complex sitting among the teachers, listening to them and asking them questions. <sup>47</sup> And all those who heard Him were astounded at His understanding and His answers. <sup>48</sup> When His parents saw Him, they were astonished, and His mother said to Him, “Son, why have You treated us like this? Your father and I have been anxiously searching for You.”

<sup>49</sup> “Why were you searching for Me? ” He asked them. “Didn’t you know that I had to be in My Father’s house? ” <sup>50</sup> But they did not understand what He said to them.

In Favor with God and with People

<sup>51</sup> Then He went down with them and came to Nazareth and was obedient to them. His mother kept all these things in her heart. <sup>52</sup> And Jesus increased in wisdom and stature, and in favor with God and with people.

The Messiah's Herald

3† In the fifteenth year of the reign of Tiberius Caesar, while Pontius •Pilate was governor of Judea, •Herod was tetrarch<sup>A</sup> of Galilee, his brother Philip tetrarch of the region of Iturea and Trachonitis, and Lysanias tetrarch of Abilene,<sup>2†</sup> during the high priesthood of Annas and Caiaphas, God's word came to John the son of Zechariah in the wilderness.<sup>3†</sup> He went into all the vicinity of the Jordan, preaching a baptism of repentance<sup>B</sup> for the forgiveness of sins,<sup>4</sup> as it is written in the book of the words of the prophet Isaiah:

A voice of one crying out in the wilderness:

Prepare the way for the Lord;

make His paths straight!

<sup>5</sup> Every valley will be filled,

and every mountain and hill will be made low;<sup>C</sup>

the crooked will become straight,

the rough ways smooth,

<sup>7</sup> He then said to the crowds who came out to be baptized by him, "Brood of vipers! Who warned you to flee from the coming wrath?<sup>8</sup> Therefore produce fruit consistent with repentance. And don't start saying to yourselves, 'We have Abraham as our father,' for I tell you that God is able to raise up children for Abraham from these stones!<sup>9</sup> Even now the ax is ready to strike<sup>E</sup> the root of the trees! Therefore, every tree that doesn't produce good fruit will be cut down and thrown into the fire."

<sup>10</sup> "What then should we do?" the crowds were asking him.

<sup>11</sup> He replied to them, "The one who has two shirts<sup>F</sup> must share with someone who has none, and the one who has food must do the same."

<sup>12</sup> Tax collectors also came to be baptized, and they asked him, "Teacher, what should we do?"

<sup>13</sup> He told them, “Don’t collect any more than what you have been authorized.”

<sup>14</sup> Some soldiers also questioned him: “What should we do? ”

He said to them, “Don’t take money from anyone by force or false accusation; be satisfied with your wages.”

<sup>15</sup> Now the people were waiting expectantly, and all of them were debating in their minds <sup>G</sup> whether John might be the •Messiah. <sup>16</sup> John answered them all, “I baptize you with <sup>H</sup> water, but One is coming who is more powerful than I. I am not worthy to untie the strap of His sandals. He will baptize you with <sup>I</sup> the Holy Spirit and fire. <sup>17†</sup> His winnowing shovel is in His hand to clear His threshing floor and gather the wheat into His barn, but the chaff He will burn up with a fire that never goes out.”

<sup>18</sup> Then, along with many other exhortations, he proclaimed good news to the people. <sup>19</sup> But Herod the tetrarch, being rebuked by him about Herodias, his brother’s wife, and about all the evil things Herod had done, <sup>20</sup> added this to everything else — he locked John up in prison.

The Baptism of Jesus

<sup>21</sup> When all the people were baptized, Jesus also was baptized. As He was praying, heaven opened, <sup>22†</sup> and the Holy Spirit descended on Him in a physical appearance like a dove. And a voice came from heaven:

You are My beloved Son.
I take delight in You!

The Genealogy of Jesus Christ

<sup>23†</sup> As He began His ministry, Jesus was about 30 years old and was thought to be the son of Joseph, son of Heli,

<sup>24</sup> son of Matthat, son of Levi,
son of Melchi, son of Jannai,
son of Joseph, <sup>25</sup> son of Mattathias, son of Amos, son of Nahum,
son of Esli, son of Naggai, <sup>26</sup> son of Maath, son of Mattathias, son of Semein, son of Josech,
son of Joda, <sup>27†</sup> son of Joanan,
son of Rhesa, son of Zerubbabel,
son of Shealtiel, son of Neri, <sup>28</sup> son of Melchi, son of Addi, son of Cosam, son of Elmadam, son of Er, <sup>29</sup> son of Joshua,
son of Eliezer, son of Jorim,
son of Matthat, son of Levi, <sup>30</sup> son of Simeon, son of Judah,
son of Joseph, son of Jonam,
son of Eliakim, <sup>31</sup> son of Melea,
son of Menna, son of Mattatha,
son of Nathan, son of David, <sup>32</sup> son of Jesse, son of Obed,
son of Boaz, son of Salmon,
son of Nahshon, <sup>33</sup> son of Amminadab,
son of Ram, son of Hezron,
son of Perez, son of Judah, <sup>34</sup> son of Jacob, son of Isaac,
son of Abraham, son of Terah,
son of Nahor, <sup>35</sup> son of Serug,
son of Reu, son of Peleg,
son of Eber, son of Shelah, <sup>36</sup> son of Cainan, son of Arphaxad,
son of Shem, son of Noah,
son of Lamech, <sup>37</sup> son of Methuselah,
son of Enoch, son of Jared,
son of Mahalaleel, son of Cainan,

<sup>38†</sup> son of Enos, son of Seth,
son of Adam, son of God.

The Temptation of Jesus

4 † Then Jesus returned from the Jordan, full of the Holy Spirit, and was led by the Spirit in the wilderness <sup>2†</sup> for 40 days to be tempted by the Devil. He ate nothing during those days, and when they were over, <sup>A</sup> He was hungry. <sup>3</sup> The Devil said to Him, “If You are the Son of God, tell this stone to become bread.”

<sup>4</sup> But Jesus answered him, “It is written: Man must not live on bread alone.” ,

<sup>5†</sup> So he took Him up and showed Him all the kingdoms of the world in a moment of time. <sup>6</sup> The Devil said to Him, “I will give You their splendor and all this authority, because it has been given over to me, and I can give it to anyone I want. <sup>7</sup> If You, then, will worship me, <sup>B</sup> all will be Yours.”

<sup>8</sup> And Jesus answered him, “It is written:

TWISTED SCRIPTURE

Luke 4:8

For groups rejecting the deity of Jesus Christ, this verse is important. Only God is to be worshiped. When compared with other passages, this verse actually presents a case for Jesus' divine nature, not an argument against it. Scripture is clear in saying that Jesus received worship from a leper (Mt 8:2), from a disciple (Jn 20:28), and from angels (Heb 1:6). If God alone is to be worshiped, then Jesus must be God.

Worship the Lord your God,
and serve Him only.”

<sup>9</sup> So he took Him to Jerusalem, had Him stand on the pinnacle of the temple, and said to Him, “If You are the Son of God, throw Yourself down from here. <sup>10</sup> For it is written:

He will give His angels orders concerning you,
to protect you, <sup>11</sup> and they will support you with their hands,
so that you will not strike
your foot against a stone.”

<sup>12</sup> And Jesus answered him, “It is said: Do not test the Lord your God.”

<sup>13</sup> After the Devil had finished every temptation, he departed from Him for a time.

Ministry in Galilee

<sup>14†</sup> Then Jesus returned to Galilee in the power of the Spirit, and news about Him spread throughout the entire vicinity. <sup>15</sup> He was teaching in their •synagogues, being acclaimed <sup>C</sup> by everyone.

Rejection at Nazareth

<sup>16†</sup> He came to Nazareth, where He had been brought up. As usual, He entered the synagogue on the Sabbath day and stood up to read. <sup>17</sup> The scroll of the prophet Isaiah was given to Him, and unrolling the scroll, He found the place where it was written:

<sup>18†</sup> The Spirit of the Lord is on Me,
because He has anointed Me
to preach good news to the poor.
He has sent Me
to proclaim freedom to the captives
and recovery of sight to the blind,
to set free the oppressed,

<sup>20</sup> He then rolled up the scroll, gave it back to the attendant, and sat down. And the eyes of everyone in the synagogue were fixed on Him.

<sup>21</sup> He began by saying to them, “Today as you listen, this Scripture has been fulfilled.”

<sup>22</sup> They were all speaking well of Him <sup>D</sup> and were amazed by the gracious words that came from His mouth, yet they said, “Isn’t this Joseph’s son? ”

<sup>23</sup> Then He said to them, “No doubt you will quote this proverb to Me: ‘Doctor, heal yourself. So all we’ve heard that took place in Capernaum, do here in Your hometown also.’ ”

<sup>24</sup> He also said, “•I assure you: No prophet is accepted in his hometown. <sup>25</sup> But I say to you, there were certainly many widows in Israel in Elijah’s days, when the sky was shut up for three years and six months while a great famine came over all the land. <sup>26</sup> Yet Elijah was not sent to any of them — but to a widow at Zarephath in Sidon. <sup>27</sup> And in the prophet Elisha’s time, there were many in Israel who had serious skin diseases, yet not one of them was healed — only Naaman the Syrian.”

<sup>28</sup> When they heard this, everyone in the synagogue was enraged. <sup>29</sup> They got up, drove Him out of town, and brought Him to the edge <sup>E</sup> of the hill that their town was built on, intending to hurl Him over the cliff. <sup>30</sup> But He passed right through the crowd and went on His way.

Driving Out an Unclean Spirit

<sup>31</sup> Then He went down to Capernaum, a town in Galilee, and was teaching them on the Sabbath. <sup>32</sup> They were astonished at His teaching because His message had authority. <sup>33</sup> In the synagogue there was a man with an •unclean demonic spirit who cried out with a loud voice, <sup>34</sup> “Leave us alone! <sup>F</sup> What do You have to do with us, <sup>G</sup> Jesus — •Nazarene? Have You come to destroy us? I know who You are — the Holy One of God! ”

<sup>35</sup> But Jesus rebuked him and said, “Be quiet and come out of him! ”

And throwing him down before them, the demon came out of him without hurting him at all. <sup>36</sup> Amazement came over them all, and they kept saying to one another, “What is this message? For He commands the unclean spirits with authority and power, and they come out!” <sup>37</sup> And news about Him began to go out to every place in the vicinity.

Healings at Capernaum

<sup>38</sup> After He left the synagogue, He entered Simon’s house. Simon’s mother-in-law was suffering from a high fever, and they asked Him about her. <sup>39</sup> So He stood over her and rebuked the fever, and it left her. She got up immediately and began to serve them.

<sup>40</sup> When the sun was setting, all those who had anyone sick with various diseases brought them to Him. As He laid His hands on each one of them, He would heal them. <sup>41†</sup> Also, demons were coming out of many, shouting and saying, “You are the Son of God!” But He rebuked them and would not allow them to speak, because they knew He was the •Messiah.

Preaching in Galilee

<sup>42</sup> When it was day, He went out and made His way to a deserted place. But the crowds were searching for Him. They came to Him and tried to keep Him from leaving them. <sup>43</sup> But He said to them, “I must proclaim the good news about the kingdom of God to the other towns also, because I was sent for this purpose.” <sup>44</sup> And He was preaching in the synagogues of Galilee.

The First Disciples

5 † As the crowd was pressing in on Jesus to hear God’s word, He was standing by Lake Gennesaret. 2 He saw two boats at the edge of the lake; <sup>A</sup> the fishermen had left them and were washing their nets. 3 He got into one of the boats, which belonged to Simon, and asked him to put out a little from the land. Then He sat down and was teaching the crowds from the boat.

4 When He had finished speaking, He said to Simon, “Put out into deep water and let down your nets for a catch.”

5 “Master,” Simon replied, “we’ve worked hard all night long and caught nothing! But at Your word, I’ll let down the nets.”

6 When they did this, they caught a great number of fish, and their nets began to tear. 7 So they signaled to their partners in the other boat to come and help them; they came and filled both boats so full that they began to sink.

8 When Simon Peter saw this, he fell at Jesus’ knees and said, “Go away from me, because I’m a sinful man, Lord! ” 9 For he and all those with him were amazed <sup>B</sup> at the catch of fish they took, 10 and so were James and John, Zebedee’s sons, who were Simon’s partners.

“Don’t be afraid,” Jesus told Simon. “From now on you will be catching people! ” 11 Then they brought the boats to land, left everything, and followed Him.

A Man Cleansed

12 While He was in one of the towns, a man was there who had a serious skin disease all over him. He saw Jesus, fell facedown, and begged Him: “Lord, if You are willing, You can make me •clean.”

13 Reaching out His hand, He touched him, saying, “I am willing; be made clean,” and immediately the disease left him. 14 Then He ordered him to tell no one: “But go and show yourself to the priest, and offer what Moses prescribed for your cleansing as a testimony to them.”

<sup>15</sup> But the news <sup>C</sup> about Him spread even more, and large crowds would come together to hear Him and to be healed of their sicknesses. <sup>16</sup> Yet He often withdrew to deserted places and prayed.

The Son of Man Forgives and Heals

<sup>17†</sup> On one of those days while He was teaching, •Pharisees and teachers of the law were sitting there who had come from every village of Galilee and Judea, and also from Jerusalem. And the Lord’s power to heal was in Him. <sup>18</sup> Just then some men came, carrying on a mat a man who was paralyzed. They tried to bring him in and set him down before Him.

<sup>19†</sup> Since they could not find a way to bring him in because of the crowd, they went up on the roof and lowered him on the mat through the roof tiles into the middle of the crowd before Jesus.

<sup>21</sup> Then the •scribes and the Pharisees began to think: “Who is this man who speaks blasphemies? Who can forgive sins but God alone? ”

<sup>22</sup> But perceiving their thoughts, Jesus replied to them, “Why are you thinking this in your hearts? <sup>23</sup> Which is easier: to say, ‘Your sins are forgiven you,’ or to say, ‘Get up and walk’? <sup>24†</sup> But so you may know that the •Son of Man has authority on earth to forgive sins” — He told the paralyzed man, “I tell you: Get up, pick up your mat, and go home.”

<sup>25</sup> Immediately he got up before them, picked up what he had been lying on, and went home glorifying God. <sup>26</sup> Then everyone was astounded, and they were giving glory to God. And they were filled with awe and said, “We have seen incredible things today! ”

The Call of Matthew

<sup>27†</sup> After this, Jesus went out and saw a tax collector named Levi sitting at the tax office, and He said to him, “Follow Me!” <sup>28</sup> So, leaving everything behind, he got up and began to follow Him.

Dining with Sinners

<sup>29</sup> Then Levi hosted a grand banquet for Him at his house. Now there was a large crowd of tax collectors and others who were guests <sup>D</sup> with them.

<sup>30</sup> But the Pharisees and their scribes were complaining to His disciples, “Why do you eat and drink with tax collectors and sinners?”

<sup>31</sup> Jesus replied to them, “The healthy don’t need a doctor, but the sick do. <sup>32</sup> I have not come to call the righteous, but sinners to repentance.”

A Question about Fasting

<sup>33</sup> Then they said to Him, “John’s disciples fast often and say prayers, and those of the Pharisees do the same, but Yours eat and drink.”

<sup>34</sup> Jesus said to them, “You can’t make the wedding guests fast while the groom is with them, can you? <sup>35</sup> But the time will come when the groom will be taken away from them — then they will fast in those days.”

<sup>36</sup> He also told them a parable: “No one tears a patch from a new garment and puts it on an old garment. Otherwise, not only will he tear the new, but also the piece from the new garment will not match the old. <sup>37</sup> And no one puts new wine into old wineskins. Otherwise, the new wine will burst the skins, it will spill, and the skins will be ruined. <sup>38</sup> But new wine should be put into fresh wineskins. <sup>39</sup> And no one, after drinking old wine, wants new, because he says, ‘The old is better.’ ”

Lord of the Sabbath

6 † On a Sabbath, He passed through the grainfields. His disciples were picking heads of grain, rubbing them in their hands, and eating them.
2 But some of the •Pharisees said, “Why are you doing what is not lawful on the Sabbath?”

3 Jesus answered them, “Haven’t you read what David and those who were with him did when he was hungry — 4 how he entered the house of God, and took and ate the •sacred bread, which is not lawful for any but the priests to eat? He even gave some to those who were with him.” 5 Then He told them, “The •Son of Man is Lord of the Sabbath.”

The Man with the Paralyzed Hand

6 On another Sabbath He entered the •synagogue and was teaching. A man was there whose right hand was paralyzed. 7 The •scribes and Pharisees were watching Him closely, to see if He would heal on the Sabbath, so that they could find a charge against Him. 8 But He knew their thoughts and told the man with the paralyzed hand, “Get up and stand here.” So he got up and stood there. 9 Then Jesus said to them, “I ask you: Is it lawful on the Sabbath to do what is good or to do what is evil, to save life or to destroy it?” 10 After looking around at them all, He told him, “Stretch out your hand.” He did so, and his hand was restored. 11 They, however, were filled with rage and started discussing with one another what they might do to Jesus.

The 12 Apostles

12† During those days He went out to the mountain to pray and spent all night in prayer to God. 13 When daylight came, He summoned His disciples, and He chose 12 of them — He also named them apostles:

14 Simon, whom He also named Peter,
and Andrew his brother;
James and John;
Philip and Bartholomew;

<sup>15</sup> Matthew and Thomas;
James the son of Alphaeus,
and Simon called the Zealot; <sup>16</sup> Judas the son of James,
and Judas Iscariot, who became a traitor.

Teaching and Healing

<sup>17†</sup> After coming down with them, He stood on a level place with a large crowd of His disciples and a great number of people from all Judea and Jerusalem and from the seacoast of Tyre and Sidon. <sup>18</sup> They came to hear Him and to be healed of their diseases; and those tormented by •unclean spirits were made well. <sup>19</sup> The whole crowd was trying to touch Him, because power was coming out from Him and healing them all.

The Beatitudes

<sup>20†</sup> Then looking up at <sup>A</sup> His disciples, He said:

You who are poor are blessed,
because the kingdom of God is yours.

<sup>21</sup> You who are now hungry are blessed,
because you will be filled.

You who now weep are blessed,
because you will laugh.

<sup>22</sup> You are blessed when people hate you,
when they exclude you, insult you,
and slander your name as evil
because of the Son of Man.

<sup>23</sup> “Rejoice in that day and leap for joy! Take note — your reward is great in heaven, for this is the way their ancestors used to treat the prophets.

Woe to the Self-Satisfied

<sup>24†</sup> But woe to you who are rich,
for you have received your comfort.

<sup>25</sup> Woe to you who are now full,
for you will be hungry.
Woe to you who are now laughing,
for you will mourn and weep.

<sup>26</sup> Woe to you
when all people speak well of you,
for this is the way their ancestors
used to treat the false prophets.

Love Your Enemies

<sup>27</sup> “But I say to you who listen: Love your enemies, do what is good to those who hate you, <sup>28</sup> bless those who curse you, pray for those who mistreat you. <sup>29†</sup> If anyone hits you on the cheek, offer the other also. And if anyone takes away your coat, don’t hold back your shirt either. <sup>30</sup> Give to everyone who asks you, and from one who takes your things, don’t ask for them back. <sup>31</sup> Just as you want others to do for you, do the same for them. <sup>32</sup> If you love those who love you, what credit is that to you? Even sinners love those who love them. <sup>33</sup> If you do what is good to those who are good to you, what credit is that to you? Even sinners do that. <sup>34</sup> And if you lend to those from whom you expect to receive, what credit is that to you? Even sinners lend to sinners to be repaid in full. <sup>35</sup> But love your enemies, do what is good, and lend, expecting nothing in return. Then your reward will be great, and you will be sons of the Most High. For He is gracious to the ungrateful and evil. <sup>36</sup> Be merciful, just as your Father also is merciful.

Do Not Judge

<sup>37†</sup> “Do not judge, and you will not be judged. Do not condemn, and you will not be condemned. Forgive, and you will be forgiven. <sup>38</sup> Give, and it will be given to you; a good measure — pressed down, shaken together, and running over — will be poured into your lap. For with the measure you use, it will be measured back to you.”

who is fully trained will be like his teacher.

<sup>41</sup> “Why do you look at the speck in your brother’s eye, but don’t notice the log in your own eye? <sup>42</sup> Or how can you say to your brother, ‘Brother, let me take out the speck that is in your eye,’ when you yourself don’t see the log in your eye? Hypocrite! First take the log out of your eye, and then you will see clearly to take out the speck in your brother’s eye.

A Tree and Its Fruit

<sup>43</sup> “A good tree doesn’t produce bad fruit; on the other hand, a bad tree doesn’t produce good fruit. <sup>44</sup> For each tree is known by its own fruit. Figs aren’t gathered from thornbushes, or grapes picked from a bramble bush. <sup>45</sup> A good man produces good out of the good storeroom of his heart. An evil man produces evil out of the evil storeroom, for his mouth speaks from the overflow of the heart.

The Two Foundations

<sup>46</sup> “Why do you call Me ‘Lord, Lord,’ and don’t do the things I say? <sup>47</sup> I will show you what someone is like who comes to Me, hears My words, and acts on them: <sup>48</sup> He is like a man building a house, who dug deep and laid the foundation on the rock. When the flood came, the river crashed against that house and couldn’t shake it, because it was well built. <sup>49</sup> But the one who hears and does not act is like a man who built a house on the ground without a foundation. The river crashed against it, and immediately it collapsed. And the destruction of that house was great! ”

A Centurion's Faith

7 †When He had concluded all His sayings in the hearing of the people, He entered Capernaum. 2 A •centurion’s •slave, who was highly valued by him, was sick and about to die. 3 When the centurion heard about Jesus, he sent some Jewish elders to Him, requesting Him to come and save the life of his slave. 4 When they reached Jesus, they pleaded with Him earnestly, saying, “He is worthy for You to grant this, 5 because he loves our nation and has built us a •synagogue.” 6 Jesus went with them, and when He was not far from <sup>A</sup> the house, the centurion sent friends to tell Him, “Lord, don’t trouble Yourself, since I am not worthy to have You come under my roof. 7 That is why I didn’t even consider myself worthy to come to You. But say the word, and my servant will be cured. 8 For I too am a man placed under authority, having soldiers under my command. <sup>B</sup> I say to this one, ‘Go!’ and he goes; and to another, ‘Come!’ and he comes; and to my slave, ‘Do this!’ and he does it.”

9 Jesus heard this and was amazed at him, and turning to the crowd following Him, He said, “I tell you, I have not found so great a faith even in Israel!” 10 When those who had been sent returned to the house, they found the slave in good health.

A Widow’s Son Raised to Life

11 Soon afterward He was on His way to a town called Nain. His disciples and a large crowd were traveling with Him. 12 Just as He neared the gate of the town, a dead man was being carried out. He was his mother’s only son, and she was a widow. A large crowd from the city was also with her. 13 When the Lord saw her, He had compassion on her and said, “Don’t cry.” 14 Then He came up and touched the open coffin, <sup>C</sup> and the pallbearers stopped. And He said, “Young man, I tell you, get up!”

15 The dead man sat up and began to speak, and Jesus gave him to his mother. 16† Then fear <sup>D</sup> came over everyone, and they glorified God, saying, “A great prophet has risen among us,” and “God has visited <sup>E</sup> His people.” 17 This report about Him went throughout Judea and all the vicinity.

In Praise of John the Baptist

<sup>18†</sup> Then John's disciples told him about all these things. So John summoned two of his disciples <sup>19</sup> and sent them to the Lord, asking, "Are You the One who is to come, or should we look for someone else?"

<sup>20</sup> When the men reached Him, they said, "John the Baptist sent us to ask You, 'Are You the One who is to come, or should we look for someone else?'"

<sup>21</sup> At that time Jesus healed many people of diseases, plagues, and evil spirits, and He granted sight to many blind people. <sup>22</sup> He replied to them, "Go and report to John the things you have seen and heard: The blind receive their sight, the lame walk, those with skin diseases are healed, the deaf hear, the dead are raised, and the poor are told the good news. <sup>23</sup> And anyone who is not •offended because of Me is blessed." <sup>24</sup> After John's messengers left, He began to speak to the crowds about John: "What did you go out into the wilderness to see? A reed swaying in the wind? <sup>25</sup> What then did you go out to see? A man dressed in soft robes? Look, those who are splendidly dressed and live in luxury are in royal palaces. <sup>26</sup> What then did you go out to see? A prophet? Yes, I tell you, and far more than a prophet. <sup>27</sup> This is the one it is written about:

Look, I am sending My messenger ahead of You;
he will prepare Your way before You.

<sup>28†</sup> I tell you, among those born of women no one is greater than John, but the least in the kingdom of God is greater than he."

<sup>29</sup> (And when all the people, including the tax collectors, heard this, they acknowledged God's way of righteousness, <sup>F</sup> because they had been baptized with John's baptism. <sup>30</sup> But since the •Pharisees and experts in the law had not been baptized by him, they rejected the plan of God for themselves. )

An Unresponsive Generation

<sup>31</sup> “To what then should I compare the people of this generation, and what are they like? <sup>32</sup> They are like children sitting in the marketplace and calling to each other:

We played the flute for you,
but you didn’t dance;
we sang a lament,
but you didn’t weep!

<sup>33</sup> For John the Baptist did not come eating bread or drinking wine, and you say, ‘He has a demon!’ <sup>34†</sup> The •Son of Man has come eating and drinking, and you say, ‘Look, a glutton and a drunkard, a friend of tax collectors and sinners!’ <sup>35</sup> Yet wisdom is vindicated by all her children.”

Much Forgiveness, Much Love

<sup>36†</sup> Then one of the Pharisees invited Him to eat with him. He entered the Pharisee’s house and reclined at the table. <sup>37</sup> And a woman in the town who was a sinner found out that Jesus was reclining at the table in the Pharisee’s house. She brought an alabaster jar of fragrant oil <sup>38</sup> and stood behind Him at His feet, weeping, and began to wash His feet with her tears. She wiped His feet with the hair of her head, kissing them and anointing them with the fragrant oil.

<sup>39</sup> When the Pharisee who had invited Him saw this, he said to himself, “This man, if He were a prophet, would know who and what kind of woman this is who is touching Him — she’s a sinner!”

<sup>40</sup> Jesus replied to him, “Simon, I have something to say to you.”

“Teacher,” he said, “say it.”

<sup>41</sup> “A creditor had two debtors. One owed 500 •denarii, and the other 50.
<sup>42</sup> Since they could not pay it back, he graciously forgave them both. So,

which of them will love him more? ”

“You have judged correctly,” He told him. <sup>44</sup> Turning to the woman, He said to Simon, “Do you see this woman? I entered your house; you gave Me no water for My feet, but she, with her tears, has washed My feet and wiped them with her hair. <sup>45</sup> You gave Me no kiss, but she hasn’t stopped kissing My feet since I came in. <sup>46</sup> You didn’t anoint My head with olive oil, but she has anointed My feet with fragrant oil. <sup>47†</sup> Therefore I tell you, her many sins have been forgiven; that’s why she loved much. But the one who is forgiven little, loves little.” <sup>48</sup> Then He said to her, “Your sins are forgiven.”

<sup>49</sup> Those who were at the table with Him began to say among themselves, “Who is this man who even forgives sins? ”

<sup>50</sup> And He said to the woman, “Your faith has saved you. Go in peace.”

Many Women Support Christ's Work

8 Soon afterward He was traveling from one town and village to another, preaching and telling the good news of the kingdom of God. The Twelve were with Him,<sup>2</sup> and also some women who had been healed of evil spirits and sicknesses: Mary, called •Magdalene (seven demons had come out of her);<sup>3</sup> Joanna the wife of Chuza, •Herod's steward; Susanna; and many others who were supporting them from their possessions.

The Parable of the Sower

<sup>4</sup> As a large crowd was gathering, and people were flocking to Him from every town, He said in a parable: <sup>5</sup> "A sower went out to sow his seed. As he was sowing, some fell along the path; it was trampled on, and the birds of the sky ate it up. <sup>6</sup> Other seed fell on the rock; when it sprang up, it withered, since it lacked moisture. <sup>7</sup> Other seed fell among thorns; the thorns sprang up with it and choked it. <sup>8</sup> Still other seed fell on good ground; when it sprang up, it produced a crop: 100 times what was sown." As He said this, He called out, "Anyone who has ears to hear should listen!"

Why Jesus Used Parables

<sup>9</sup> Then His disciples asked Him, "What does this parable mean?" <sup>10†</sup> So He said, "The •secrets of the kingdom of God have been given for you to know, but to the rest it is in parables, so that

Looking they may not see,
and hearing they may not understand.

The Parable of the Sower Explained

<sup>11</sup> "This is the meaning of the parable: The seed is the word of God. <sup>12</sup> The seed along the path are those who have heard and then the Devil comes and takes away the word from their hearts, so that they may not believe and be saved. <sup>13</sup> And the seed on the rock are those who, when they hear, welcome the word with joy. Having no root, these believe for a while and depart in a time of testing. <sup>14</sup> As for the seed that fell among thorns, these are the ones who, when they have heard, go on their way and are choked with worries, riches, and pleasures of life, and produce no mature fruit. <sup>15</sup> But the seed in the good ground — these are the ones who, having heard the word with an honest and good heart, hold on to it and by enduring, bear fruit.

Using Your Light

<sup>16</sup> “No one, after lighting a lamp, covers it with a basket or puts it under a bed, but puts it on a lampstand so that those who come in may see its light. <sup>17</sup> For nothing is concealed that won’t be revealed, and nothing hidden that won’t be made known and come to light. <sup>18†</sup> Therefore take care how you listen. For whoever has, more will be given to him; and whoever does not have, even what he thinks he has will be taken away from him.”

True Relationships

<sup>19†</sup> Then His mother and brothers came to Him, but they could not meet with Him because of the crowd. <sup>20</sup> He was told, “Your mother and Your brothers are standing outside, wanting to see You.”

<sup>21</sup> But He replied to them, “My mother and My brothers are those who hear and do the word of God.”

Wind and Wave Obey the Master

<sup>22</sup> One day He and His disciples got into a boat, and He told them, “Let’s cross over to the other side of the lake.” So they set out, <sup>23</sup> and as they were sailing He fell asleep. Then a fierce windstorm came down on the lake; they were being swamped and were in danger. <sup>24</sup> They came and woke Him up, saying, “Master, Master, we’re going to die! ” Then He got up and rebuked the wind and the raging waves. So they ceased, and there was a calm. <sup>25</sup> He said to them, “Where is your faith? ”

They were fearful and amazed, asking one another, “Who can this be? <sup>A</sup> He commands even the winds and the waves, and they obey Him! ”

Demons Driven Out by the Master

<sup>26†</sup> Then they sailed to the region of the Gerasenes, which is opposite Galilee. <sup>27†</sup> When He got out on land, a demon-possessed man from the town met Him. For a long time he had worn no clothes and did not stay in a house but in the tombs. <sup>28</sup> When he saw Jesus, he cried out, fell down before Him, and said in a loud voice, “What do You have to do with me, <sup>B</sup>, Jesus, You Son of the Most High God? I beg You, don’t torment me! ” <sup>29</sup> For He had commanded the •unclean spirit to come out of the man. Many times it had seized him, and though he was guarded, bound by chains and shackles, he would snap the restraints and be driven by the demon into deserted places.

“Legion,” he said — because many demons had entered him. <sup>31</sup> And they begged Him not to banish them to the •abyss.

<sup>32†</sup> A large herd of pigs was there, feeding on the hillside. The demons begged Him to permit them to enter the pigs, and He gave them permission. <sup>33</sup> The demons came out of the man and entered the pigs, and the herd rushed down the steep bank into the lake and drowned. <sup>34</sup> When the men who tended them saw what had happened, they ran off and reported it in the town and in the countryside. <sup>35</sup> Then people went out to see what had happened. They came to Jesus and found the man the demons had departed from, sitting at Jesus’ feet, dressed and in his right mind. And they were afraid. <sup>36</sup> Meanwhile, the eyewitnesses reported to them how the demon-possessed man was delivered. <sup>37</sup> Then all the people of the Gerasene region asked Him to leave them, because they were gripped by great fear. So getting into the boat, He returned.

<sup>38</sup> The man from whom the demons had departed kept begging Him to be with Him. But He sent him away and said, <sup>39</sup> “Go back to your home, and tell all that God has done for you.” And off he went, proclaiming throughout the town all that Jesus had done for him.

A Girl Restored and a Woman Healed

<sup>40</sup> When Jesus returned, the crowd welcomed Him, for they were all expecting Him. <sup>41</sup> Just then, a man named Jairus came. He was a leader of the •synagogue. He fell down at Jesus’ feet and pleaded with Him to come to his house, <sup>42</sup> because he had an only daughter about 12 years old, and she was at death’s door. <sup>C</sup>

While He was going, the crowds were nearly crushing Him. <sup>43</sup> A woman suffering from bleeding for 12 years, who had spent all she had on doctors yet could not be healed by any, <sup>44</sup> approached from behind and touched the •tassel of His robe. Instantly her bleeding stopped.

<sup>45</sup> “Who touched Me?” Jesus asked.

When they all denied it, Peter said, “Master, the crowds are hemming You in and pressing against You.”

<sup>46†</sup> “Someone did touch Me,” said Jesus. “I know that power has gone out from Me.” <sup>47</sup> When the woman saw that she was discovered, <sup>D</sup> she came trembling and fell down before Him. In the presence of all the people, she declared the reason she had touched Him and how she was instantly cured. <sup>48</sup> “Daughter,” He said to her, “your faith has made you well. Go in peace.”

<sup>49</sup> While He was still speaking, someone came from the synagogue leader’s house, saying, “Your daughter is dead. Don’t bother the Teacher anymore.”

<sup>50</sup> When Jesus heard it, He answered him, “Don’t be afraid. Only believe, and she will be made well.” <sup>51</sup> After He came to the house, He let no one enter with Him except Peter, John, James, and the child's father and mother.<sup>52</sup> Everyone was crying and mourning for her. But He said, "Stop crying, for she is not dead but asleep."

<sup>53</sup> They started laughing at Him, because they knew she was dead.<sup>54</sup> So He took her by the hand and called out, "Child, get up!"<sup>55</sup> Her spirit returned, and she got up at once. Then He gave orders that she be given something to eat.<sup>56</sup> Her parents were astounded, but He instructed them to tell no one what had happened.

Commissioning the Twelve

9 † Summoning the Twelve, He gave them power and authority over all the demons, and power to heal diseases. 2 Then He sent them to proclaim the kingdom of God and to heal the sick.

3† “Take nothing for the road,” He told them, “no walking stick, no traveling bag, no bread, no money; and don’t take an extra shirt. 4 Whatever house you enter, stay there and leave from there. 5 If they do not welcome you, when you leave that town, shake off the dust from your feet as a testimony against them.” 6 So they went out and traveled from village to village, proclaiming the good news and healing everywhere.

Herod’s Desire to See Jesus

7 •Herod the tetrarch heard about everything that was going on. He was perplexed, because some said that John had been raised from the dead, 8 some that Elijah had appeared, and others that one of the ancient prophets had risen. 9 “I beheaded John,” Herod said, “but who is this I hear such things about?” And he wanted to see Him.

Feeding 5,000

10† When the apostles returned, they reported to Jesus all that they had done. He took them along and withdrew privately to a town called Bethsaida. 11 When the crowds found out, they followed Him. He welcomed them, spoke to them about the kingdom of God, and cured A those who needed healing.

12 Late in the day, B the Twelve approached and said to Him, “Send the crowd away, so they can go into the surrounding villages and countryside to find food and lodging, because we are in a deserted place here.”

13 “You give them something to eat,” He told them.

“We have no more than five loaves and two fish,” they said, “unless we go and buy food for all these people.” 14 (For about 5,000 men were there.)

Then He told His disciples, “Have them sit down in groups of about 50 each.”<sup>15</sup> They did so, and had them all sit down.<sup>16</sup> Then He took the five loaves and the two fish, and looking up to heaven, He blessed and broke them. He kept giving them to the disciples to set before the crowd.

<sup>17†</sup> Everyone ate and was filled. Then they picked up <sup>C</sup> 12 baskets of leftover pieces.

Peter’s Confession of the Messiah

<sup>18</sup> While He was praying in private and His disciples were with Him, He asked them, “Who do the crowds say that I am?”

<sup>19</sup> They answered, “John the Baptist; others, Elijah; still others, that one of the ancient prophets has come back.”<sup>D</sup>

<sup>20†</sup> “But you,” He asked them, “who do you say that I am?”

Peter answered, “God’s •Messiah!”

His Death and Resurrection Predicted

<sup>21</sup> But He strictly warned and instructed them to tell this to no one,<sup>22</sup> saying, “The •Son of Man must suffer many things and be rejected by the elders, •chief priests, and •scribes, be killed, and be raised the third day.”

Take Up Your Cross

<sup>23</sup> Then He said to them all, “If anyone wants to come with Me, he must deny himself, take up his cross daily, and follow Me.<sup>24</sup> For whoever wants to save his •life will lose it, but whoever loses his life because of Me will save it.<sup>25</sup> What is a man benefited if he gains the whole world, yet loses or forfeits himself?<sup>26†</sup> For whoever is ashamed of Me and My words, the Son of Man will be ashamed of him when He comes in His glory and that of the Father and the holy angels.<sup>27†</sup> I tell you the truth:

There are some standing here who will not taste death until they see the kingdom of God.”

The Transfiguration

<sup>28†</sup> About eight days after these words, He took along Peter, John, and James and went up on the mountain to pray. <sup>29</sup> As He was praying, the appearance of His face changed, and His clothes became dazzling white. <sup>30</sup> Suddenly, two men were talking with Him — Moses and Elijah. <sup>31</sup> They appeared in glory and were speaking of His death, <sup>E</sup> which He was about to accomplish in Jerusalem.

<sup>32</sup> Peter and those with him were in a deep sleep, <sup>F</sup>, and when they became fully awake, they saw His glory and the two men who were standing with Him. <sup>33</sup> As the two men were departing from Him, Peter said to Jesus, “Master, it’s good for us to be here! Let us make three •tabernacles: one for You, one for Moses, and one for Elijah” — not knowing what he said.

<sup>34</sup> While he was saying this, a cloud appeared and overshadowed them. They became afraid as they entered the cloud. <sup>35</sup> Then a voice came from the cloud, saying:

This is My Son, the Chosen One;
listen to Him!

<sup>36</sup> After the voice had spoken, only Jesus was found. They kept silent, and in those days told no one what they had seen.

The Power of Faith over a Demon

<sup>37</sup> The next day, when they came down from the mountain, a large crowd met Him. <sup>38</sup> Just then a man from the crowd cried out, “Teacher, I beg You to look at my son, because he’s my only child. <sup>39</sup> Often a spirit seizes him; suddenly he shrieks, and it throws him into convulsions until he foams at the mouth; <sup>G</sup> wounding <sup>H</sup> him, it hardly ever leaves him. <sup>40</sup> I begged Your disciples to drive it out, but they couldn't."

<sup>41</sup> Jesus replied, "You unbelieving and rebellious generation! How long will I be with you and put up with you? Bring your son here."

<sup>42</sup> As the boy was still approaching, the demon knocked him down and threw him into severe convulsions. But Jesus rebuked the •unclean spirit, cured the boy, and gave him back to his father. <sup>43</sup> And they were all astonished at the greatness of God.

The Second Prediction of His Death

While everyone was amazed at all the things He was doing, He told His disciples, <sup>44</sup> "Let these words sink in: The Son of Man is about to be betrayed into the hands of men."

<sup>45</sup> But they did not understand this statement; it was concealed from them so that they could not grasp it, and they were afraid to ask Him about it. <sup>I</sup>

Who Is the Greatest?

<sup>46</sup> Then an argument started among them about who would be the greatest of them. <sup>47</sup> But Jesus, knowing the thoughts of their hearts, took a little child and had him stand next to Him. <sup>48</sup> He told them, "Whoever welcomes this little child in My name welcomes Me. And whoever welcomes Me welcomes Him who sent Me. For whoever is least among you — this one is great."

In His Name

<sup>49†</sup> John responded, "Master, we saw someone driving out demons in Your name, and we tried to stop him because he does not follow us."

<sup>50</sup> "Don't stop him," Jesus told him, "because whoever is not against you is for you."

The Journey to Jerusalem

<sup>51†</sup> When the days were coming to a close for Him to be taken up, He determined <sup>J</sup>, to journey to Jerusalem. <sup>52†</sup> He sent messengers ahead of Him, and on the way they entered a village of the •Samaritans to make preparations for Him. <sup>53</sup> But they did not welcome Him, because He determined to journey to Jerusalem. <sup>54</sup> When the disciples James and John saw this, they said, “Lord, do You want us to call down fire from heaven to consume them? ”

<sup>55</sup> But He turned and rebuked them, <sup>56</sup> and they went to another village.

Following Jesus

<sup>57†</sup> As they were traveling on the road someone said to Him, “I will follow You wherever You go! ”

<sup>58</sup> Jesus told him, “Foxes have dens, and birds of the sky have nests, but the Son of Man has no place to lay His head.” <sup>59</sup> Then He said to another, “Follow Me.”

“Lord,” he said, “first let me go bury my father.”

<sup>60†</sup> But He told him, “Let the dead bury their own dead, but you go and spread the news of the kingdom of God.”

<sup>61</sup> Another also said, “I will follow You, Lord, but first let me go and say good-bye to those at my house.”

<sup>62</sup> But Jesus said to him, “No one who puts his hand to the plow and looks back is fit for the kingdom of God.”

Sending Out the Seventy

10 †After this, the Lord appointed 70 others, and He sent them ahead of Him in pairs to every town and place where He Himself was about to go. <sup>2</sup> He told them: “The harvest is abundant, but the workers are few. Therefore, pray to the Lord of the harvest to send out workers into His harvest. <sup>3</sup> Now go; I’m sending you out like lambs among wolves. <sup>4</sup> Don’t carry a money-bag, traveling bag, or sandals; don’t greet anyone along the road. <sup>5</sup> Whatever house you enter, first say, ‘Peace to this household.’ <sup>6†</sup> If a son of peace is there, your peace will rest on him; but if not, it will return to you. <sup>7</sup> Remain in the same house, eating and drinking what they offer, for the worker is worthy of his wages. Don’t be moving from house to house. <sup>8</sup> When you enter any town, and they welcome you, eat the things set before you. <sup>9</sup> Heal the sick who are there, and tell them, ‘The kingdom of God has come near you.’ <sup>10†</sup> When you enter any town, and they don’t welcome you, go out into its streets and say, <sup>11</sup> ‘We are wiping off as a witness against you even the dust of your town that clings to our feet. Know this for certain: The kingdom of God has come near.’ <sup>12</sup> I tell you, on that day it will be more tolerable for Sodom than for that town.

Unrepentant Towns

<sup>13</sup> “Woe to you, Chorazin! Woe to you, Bethsaida! For if the miracles that were done in you had been done in Tyre and Sidon, they would have repented long ago, sitting in •sackcloth and ashes! <sup>14</sup> But it will be more tolerable for Tyre and Sidon at the judgment than for you. <sup>15</sup> And you, Capernaum, will you be exalted to heaven? No, you will go down to •Hades! <sup>16</sup> Whoever listens to you listens to Me. Whoever rejects you rejects Me. And whoever rejects Me rejects the One who sent Me.”

The Return of the Seventy

<sup>18†</sup> He said to them, “I watched Satan fall from heaven like a lightning flash. <sup>19†</sup> Look, I have given you the authority to trample on snakes and scorpions and over all the power of the enemy; nothing will ever harm you. <sup>20</sup> However, don't rejoice that the spirits submit to you, but rejoice that your names are written in heaven."

The Son Reveals the Father

<sup>21</sup> In that same hour He rejoiced in the Holy Spirit and said, "I praise You, Father, Lord of heaven and earth, because You have hidden these things from the wise and the learned and have revealed them to infants. Yes, Father, because this was Your good pleasure. <sup>22†</sup> All things have been entrusted to Me by My Father. No one knows who the Son is except the Father, and who the Father is except the Son, and anyone to whom the Son desires to reveal Him."

<sup>23</sup> Then turning to His disciples He said privately, "The eyes that see the things you see are blessed! <sup>24</sup> For I tell you that many prophets and kings wanted to see the things you see yet didn't see them; to hear the things you hear yet didn't hear them."

The Parable of the Good Samaritan

<sup>25†</sup> Just then an expert in the law stood up to test Him, saying, "Teacher, what must I do to inherit eternal life? "

<sup>26</sup> "What is written in the law? " He asked him. "How do you read it? "

Love the Lord your God with all your heart, with all your soul, with all your strength, and with all your mind; and your neighbor as yourself.

<sup>28</sup> "You've answered correctly," He told him. "Do this and you will live."

<sup>29</sup> But wanting to justify himself, he asked Jesus, "And who is my neighbor? "

<sup>30</sup> Jesus took up the question and said: “A man was going down from Jerusalem to Jericho and fell into the hands of robbers. They stripped him, beat him up, and fled, leaving him half dead. <sup>31</sup> A priest happened to be going down that road. When he saw him, he passed by on the other side. <sup>32</sup> In the same way, a Levite, when he arrived at the place and saw him, passed by on the other side. <sup>33</sup> But a •Samaritan on his journey came up to him, and when he saw the man, he had compassion. <sup>34</sup> He went over to him and bandaged his wounds, pouring on olive oil and wine. Then he put him on his own animal, brought him to an inn, and took care of him. <sup>35</sup> The next day he took out two •denarii, gave them to the innkeeper, and said, ‘Take care of him. When I come back I’ll reimburse you for whatever extra you spend.’

What About Those Who Have Never Heard About Christ? ⇒

<sup>36</sup> “Which of these three do you think proved to be a neighbor to the man who fell into the hands of the robbers? ”

<sup>37</sup> “The one who showed mercy to him,” he said.

Then Jesus told him, “Go and do the same.”

Martha and Mary

<sup>38</sup> While they were traveling, He entered a village, and a woman named Martha welcomed Him into her home. <sup>39</sup> She had a sister named Mary, who also sat at the Lord’s feet and was listening to what He said. <sup>A 40</sup> But Martha was distracted by her many tasks, and she came up and asked, “Lord, don’t You care that my sister has left me to serve alone? So tell her to give me a hand.” <sup>B</sup>

The Model Prayer

11 He was praying in a certain place, and when He finished, one of His disciples said to Him, “Lord, teach us to pray, just as John also taught his disciples.”

<sup>2†</sup> He said to them, “Whenever you pray, say:

Father,

Your name be honored as holy.

Your kingdom come.

<sup>3</sup> Give us each day our daily bread.

<sup>4</sup> And forgive us our sins,
for we ourselves also forgive everyone
in debt to us.

And do not bring us into temptation.”

Keep Asking, Searching, Knocking

<sup>5</sup> He also said to them: “Suppose one of you has a friend and goes to him at midnight and says to him, ‘Friend, lend me three loaves of bread,
<sup>6</sup> because a friend of mine on a journey has come to me, and I don’t have anything to offer him.’ <sup>7</sup> Then he will answer from inside and say, ‘Don’t bother me! The door is already locked, and my children and I have gone to bed. I can’t get up to give you anything.’ <sup>8</sup> I tell you, even though he won’t get up and give him anything because he is his friend, yet because of his friend’s persistence, he will get up and give him as much as he needs.

<sup>9</sup> “So I say to you, keep asking, and it will be given to you. Keep searching, and you will find. Keep knocking, and the door will be opened to you. <sup>10†</sup> For everyone who asks receives, and the one who searches finds, and to the one who knocks, the door will be opened. <sup>11</sup> What father among you, if his son asks for a fish, will give him a snake instead of a fish? <sup>12</sup> Or if he asks for an egg, will give him a scorpion? <sup>13</sup> If you then, who are evil, know how to give good gifts to your children, how much more will the heavenly Father give the Holy Spirit to those who ask Him? ”

A House Divided

<sup>14</sup> Now He was driving out a demon that was mute. When the demon came out, the man who had been mute, spoke, and the crowds were amazed. <sup>15</sup> But some of them said, “He drives out demons by •Beelzebul, the ruler of the demons!” <sup>16</sup> And others, as a test, were demanding of Him a sign from heaven.

<sup>17</sup> Knowing their thoughts, He told them: “Every kingdom divided against itself is headed for destruction, and a house divided against itself falls. <sup>18</sup> If Satan also is divided against himself, how will his kingdom stand? For you say I drive out demons by Beelzebul. <sup>19</sup> And if I drive out demons by Beelzebul, who is it your sons drive them out by? For this reason they will be your judges. <sup>20</sup> If I drive out demons by the finger of God, then the kingdom of God has come to you. <sup>21</sup> When a strong man, fully armed, guards his estate, his possessions are secure. <sup>22</sup> But when one stronger than he attacks and overpowers him, he takes from him all his weapons he trusted in, and divides up his plunder. <sup>23†</sup> Anyone who is not with Me is against Me, and anyone who does not gather with Me scatters.

An Unclean Spirit's Return

<sup>24</sup> “When an •unclean spirit comes out of a man, it roams through waterless places looking for rest, and not finding rest, it then says, ‘I’ll go back to my house where I came from.’ <sup>25</sup> And returning, it finds the house swept and put in order. <sup>26</sup> Then it goes and brings seven other spirits more evil than itself, and they enter and settle down there. As a result, that man’s last condition is worse than the first.”

True Blessedness

<sup>27</sup> As He was saying these things, a woman from the crowd raised her voice and said to Him, “The womb that bore You and the one who nursed You are blessed!”

<sup>28</sup> He said, “Even more, those who hear the word of God and keep it are blessed!”

The Sign of Jonah

<sup>29†</sup> As the crowds were increasing, He began saying: “This generation is an evil generation. It demands a sign, but no sign will be given to it except the sign of Jonah. <sup>30</sup> For just as Jonah became a sign to the people of Nineveh, so also the •Son of Man will be to this generation. <sup>31</sup> The queen of the south will rise up at the judgment with the men of this generation and condemn them, because she came from the ends of the earth to hear the wisdom of Solomon, and look — something greater than Solomon is here! <sup>32</sup> The men of Nineveh will rise up at the judgment with this generation and condemn it, because they repented at Jonah’s proclamation, and look — something greater than Jonah is here!”

The Lamp of the Body

<sup>33</sup> “No one lights a lamp and puts it in the cellar or under a basket, but on a lampstand, so that those who come in may see its light. <sup>34†</sup> Your eye is the lamp of the body. When your eye is good, your whole body is also full of light. But when it is bad, your body is also full of darkness. <sup>35</sup> Take care then, that the light in you is not darkness. <sup>36</sup> If, therefore, your whole body is full of light, with no part of it in darkness, it will be entirely illuminated, as when a lamp shines its light on you.”

TWISTED SCRIPTURE

Luke 11:35

Gurus from the East often urge their devotees to look within themselves for the divine spark that pervades the universe. This goal is accomplished through such disciplines as yoga, meditation, and the chanting of mantras. Jesus warned, however, that evil or non-Christian people who see an inward light are actually encountering darkness. Paul added that Satan appears as "an angel of light" (2 Co 11:14). We experience the true light through the preaching of the gospel (2 Co 4:4).

Religious Hypocrisy Denounced

<sup>37</sup> As He was speaking, a •Pharisee asked Him to dine with him. So He went in and reclined at the table. <sup>38</sup> When the Pharisee saw this, he was amazed that He did not first perform the ritual washing <sup>A</sup>, before dinner. <sup>39</sup> But the Lord said to him: “Now you Pharisees •clean the outside of the cup and dish, but inside you are full of greed and evil. <sup>40†</sup> Fools! Didn’t He who made the outside make the inside too? <sup>41</sup> But give from what is within to the poor, and then everything is clean for you.

<sup>42</sup> “But woe to you Pharisees! You give a tenth of mint, rue, and every kind of herb, and you bypass justice and love for God. These things you should have done without neglecting the others.

<sup>43</sup> “Woe to you Pharisees! You love the front seat in the •synagogues and greetings in the marketplaces.

<sup>44</sup> “Woe to you! You are like unmarked graves; the people who walk over them don’t know it.”

<sup>46</sup> Then He said: “Woe also to you experts in the law! You load people with burdens that are hard to carry, yet you yourselves don’t touch these burdens with one of your fingers.

<sup>47†</sup> “Woe to you! You build monuments to the prophets, and your fathers killed them. <sup>48</sup> Therefore, you are witnesses that you approve the deeds of your fathers, for they killed them, and you build their monuments.

<sup>49</sup> Because of this, the wisdom of God said, ‘I will send them prophets and apostles, and some of them they will kill and persecute,’ <sup>50</sup> so that this generation may be held responsible for the blood of all the prophets shed since the foundation of the world — <sup>51†</sup> from the blood of Abel to the blood of Zechariah, who perished between the altar and the sanctuary.

“Yes, I tell you, this generation will be held responsible.

<sup>52</sup> “Woe to you experts in the law! You have taken away the key of knowledge! You didn’t go in yourselves, and you hindered those who were going in.”

<sup>53</sup> When He left there, the •scribes and the Pharisees began to oppose Him fiercely and to cross-examine Him about many things; <sup>54</sup> they were lying in wait for Him to trap Him in something He said.

Beware of Religious Hypocrisy

12 In these circumstances, <sup>A</sup> a crowd of many thousands came together, so that they were trampling on one another. He began to say to His disciples first: “Be on your guard against the yeast of the •Pharisees, which is hypocrisy. <sup>2</sup> There is nothing covered that won’t be uncovered, nothing hidden that won’t be made known. <sup>3</sup> Therefore, whatever you have said in the dark will be heard in the light, and what you have whispered in an ear in private rooms will be proclaimed on the housetops.

Fear God

<sup>4</sup> “And I say to you, My friends, don’t fear those who kill the body, and after that can do nothing more. <sup>5</sup> But I will show you the One to fear: Fear Him who has authority to throw people into •hell after death. Yes, I say to you, this is the One to fear! <sup>6</sup> Aren’t five sparrows sold for two pennies? Yet not one of them is forgotten in God’s sight. <sup>7</sup> Indeed, the hairs of your head are all counted. Don’t be afraid; you are worth more than many sparrows!

Acknowledging Christ

<sup>8</sup> “And I say to you, anyone who acknowledges Me before men, the •Son of Man will also acknowledge him before the angels of God, <sup>9</sup> but whoever denies Me before men will be denied before the angels of God. <sup>10</sup> Anyone who speaks a word against the Son of Man will be forgiven, but the one who blasphemes against the Holy Spirit will not be forgiven. <sup>11†</sup> Whenever they bring you before •synagogues and rulers and authorities, don’t worry about how you should defend yourselves or what you should say. <sup>12</sup> For the Holy Spirit will teach you at that very hour what must be said.”

The Parable of the Rich Fool

<sup>13</sup> Someone from the crowd said to Him, “Teacher, tell my brother to divide the inheritance with me.”

<sup>14</sup> “Friend,” He said to him, “who appointed Me a judge or arbitrator over you?” <sup>15</sup> He then told them, “Watch out and be on guard against all greed because one’s life is not in the abundance of his possessions.”

<sup>16</sup> Then He told them a parable: “A rich man’s land was very productive. <sup>17</sup> He thought to himself, ‘What should I do, since I don’t have anywhere to store my crops?’ <sup>18</sup> I will do this,’ he said. ‘I’ll tear down my barns and build bigger ones and store all my grain and my goods there. <sup>19</sup> Then I’ll say to myself, ‘You have many goods stored up for many years. Take it easy; eat, drink, and enjoy yourself.’”

<sup>20†</sup> “But God said to him, ‘You fool! This very night your •life is demanded of you. And the things you have prepared — whose will they be?’

<sup>21</sup> “That’s how it is with the one who stores up treasure for himself and is not rich toward God.”

The Cure for Anxiety

<sup>22†</sup> Then He said to His disciples: “Therefore I tell you, don’t worry about your life, what you will eat; or about the body, what you will wear. <sup>23</sup> For life is more than food and the body more than clothing. <sup>24</sup> Consider the ravens: They don’t sow or reap; they don’t have a storeroom or a barn; yet God feeds them. Aren’t you worth much more than the birds? <sup>25</sup> Can any of you add a •cubit to his height by worrying? <sup>26</sup> If then you’re not able to do even a little thing, why worry about the rest?”

<sup>27</sup> “Consider how the wildflowers grow: They don’t labor or spin thread. Yet I tell you, not even Solomon in all his splendor was adorned like one of these! <sup>28</sup> If that’s how God clothes the grass, which is in the field today and is thrown into the furnace tomorrow, how much more will He do for you — you of little faith? <sup>29</sup> Don’t keep striving for what you should eat and what you should drink, and don’t be anxious. <sup>30</sup> For the Gentile world eagerly seeks all these things, and your Father knows that you need them.

<sup>31</sup> “But seek His kingdom, and these things will be provided for you.
<sup>32</sup> Don’t be afraid, little flock, because your Father delights to give you the kingdom. <sup>33</sup> Sell your possessions and give to the poor. Make money-bags for yourselves that won’t grow old, an inexhaustible treasure in heaven, where no thief comes near and no moth destroys. <sup>34</sup> For where your treasure is, there your heart will be also.

Ready for the Master’s Return

<sup>35</sup> “Be ready for service and have your lamps lit. <sup>36</sup> You must be like people waiting for their master to return from the wedding banquet so that when he comes and knocks, they can open the door for him at once. <sup>37†</sup> Those •slaves the master will find alert when he comes will be blessed. •I assure you: He will get ready, have them recline at the table, then come and serve them. <sup>38</sup> If he comes in the middle of the night, or even near dawn, and finds them alert, those slaves are blessed. <sup>39</sup> But know this: If the homeowner had known at what hour the thief was coming, he would not have let his house be broken into. <sup>40</sup> You also be ready, because the Son of Man is coming at an hour that you do not expect.”

Rewards and Punishment

<sup>41</sup> “Lord,” Peter asked, “are You telling this parable to us or to everyone?”

<sup>42</sup> The Lord said: “Who then is the faithful and sensible manager his master will put in charge of his household servants to give them their allotted food at the proper time? <sup>43</sup> That slave whose master finds him working when he comes will be rewarded. <sup>44</sup> I tell you the truth: He will put him in charge of all his possessions. <sup>45</sup> But if that slave says in his heart, ‘My master is delaying his coming,’ and starts to beat the male and female slaves, and to eat and drink and get drunk, <sup>46†</sup> that slave’s master will come on a day he does not expect him and at an hour he does not know. He will cut him to pieces and assign him a place with the unbelievers. <sup>47</sup> And that slave who knew his master’s will and didn’t prepare himself or do it will be severely beaten. <sup>48</sup> But the one who did not know and did things deserving of blows will be beaten lightly. Much will be required of everyone who has been given much. And even more will be expected of the one who has been entrusted with more.

Not Peace but Division

<sup>49†</sup> “I came to bring fire on the earth, and how I wish it were already set ablaze! <sup>50†</sup> But I have a baptism to be baptized with, and how it consumes Me until it is finished! <sup>51</sup> Do you think that I came here to give peace to the earth? No, I tell you, but rather division! <sup>52</sup> From now on, five in one household will be divided: three against two, and two against three.

<sup>53</sup> They will be divided, father against son, son against father,
mother against daughter,

and daughter-in-law against mother-in-law.”

Interpreting the Time

<sup>54</sup> He also said to the crowds: “When you see a cloud rising in the west, right away you say, ‘A storm is coming,’ and so it does. <sup>55</sup> And when the south wind is blowing, you say, ‘It’s going to be a scorcher!’ and it is.

<sup>56</sup> Hypocrites! You know how to interpret the appearance of the earth and the sky, but why don’t you know how to interpret this time?

Settling Accounts

<sup>57</sup> “Why don’t you judge for yourselves what is right? <sup>58</sup> As you are going with your adversary to the ruler, make an effort to settle with him on the way. Then he won’t drag you before the judge, the judge hand you over to the bailiff, and the bailiff throw you into prison. <sup>59</sup> I tell you, you will never get out of there until you have paid the last cent.”

Repent or Perish

13 † At that time, some people came and reported to Him about the Galileans whose blood •Pilate had mixed with their sacrifices. <sup>2</sup> And He responded to them, “Do you think that these Galileans were more sinful than all Galileans because they suffered these things? <sup>3</sup> No, I tell you; but unless you repent, you will all perish as well! <sup>4</sup> Or those 18 that the tower in Siloam fell on and killed — do you think they were more sinful than all the people who live in Jerusalem? <sup>5</sup> No, I tell you; but unless you repent, you will all perish as well! ”

The Parable of the Barren Fig Tree

<sup>6†</sup> And He told this parable: “A man had a fig tree that was planted in his vineyard. He came looking for fruit on it and found none. <sup>7</sup> He told the vineyard worker, ‘Listen, for three years I have come looking for fruit on this fig tree and haven’t found any. Cut it down! Why should it even waste the soil?’ ”

<sup>8</sup> “But he replied to him, ‘Sir, leave it this year also, until I dig around it and fertilize it. <sup>9</sup> Perhaps it will bear fruit next year, but if not, you can cut it down.’ ”

Healing a Daughter of Abraham

<sup>10</sup> As He was teaching in one of the •synagogues on the Sabbath, <sup>11†</sup> a woman was there who had been disabled by a spirit <sup>A</sup>, for over 18 years. She was bent over and could not straighten up at all. <sup>B</sup> <sup>12</sup> When Jesus saw her, He called out to her, <sup>C</sup> “•Woman, you are free of your disability.” <sup>13</sup> Then He laid His hands on her, and instantly she was restored and began to glorify God.

<sup>14</sup> But the leader of the synagogue, indignant because Jesus had healed on the Sabbath, responded by telling the crowd, “There are six days when work should be done; therefore come on those days and be healed and not on the Sabbath day.”

<sup>15</sup> But the Lord answered him and said, “Hypocrites! Doesn’t each one of you untie his ox or donkey from the feeding trough on the Sabbath and lead it to water? <sup>16</sup> Satan has bound this woman, a daughter of Abraham, for 18 years — shouldn’t she be untied from this bondage on the Sabbath day?”

<sup>17</sup> When He had said these things, all His adversaries were humiliated, but the whole crowd was rejoicing over all the glorious things He was doing.

The Parables of the Mustard Seed and of the Yeast

<sup>18</sup> He said, therefore, “What is the kingdom of God like, and what can I compare it to? <sup>19</sup> It’s like a mustard seed that a man took and sowed in his garden. It grew and became a tree, and the birds of the sky nested in its branches.”

<sup>20</sup> Again He said, “What can I compare the kingdom of God to? <sup>21</sup> It’s like yeast that a woman took and mixed into 50 pounds of flour until it spread through the entire mixture.”

The Narrow Way

<sup>22</sup> He went through one town and village after another, teaching and making His way to Jerusalem. <sup>23</sup> “Lord,” someone asked Him, “are there few being saved?” <sup>D</sup>

He said to them, <sup>24</sup> “Make every effort to enter through the narrow door, because I tell you, many will try to enter and won’t be able <sup>25</sup> once the homeowner gets up and shuts the door. Then you will stand outside and knock on the door, saying, ‘Lord, open up for us!’ He will answer you, ‘I don’t know you or where you’re from.’ <sup>26</sup> Then you will say, ‘We ate and drank in Your presence, and You taught in our streets!’ <sup>27</sup> But He will say, ‘I tell you, I don’t know you or where you’re from. Get away from Me, all you workers of unrighteousness!’ <sup>28</sup> There will be weeping and gnashing of teeth in that place, when you see Abraham, Isaac, Jacob, and all the prophets in the kingdom of God but yourselves thrown out.<sup>29</sup> They will come from east and west, from north and south, and recline at the table in the kingdom of God.<sup>30</sup> Note this: Some are last who will be first, and some are first who will be last.”

Jesus and Herod Antipas

<sup>31</sup> At that time some •Pharisees came and told Him, “Go, get out of here! •Herod wants to kill You! ”

<sup>32</sup> He said to them, “Go tell that fox, ‘Look! I’m driving out demons and performing healings today and tomorrow, and on the third day I will complete My work.’ <sup>33†</sup> Yet I must travel today, tomorrow, and the next day, because it is not possible for a prophet to perish outside of Jerusalem!

Jesus’ Lamentation over Jerusalem

<sup>34</sup> “Jerusalem, Jerusalem! She who kills the prophets and stones those who are sent to her. How often I wanted to gather your children together, as a hen gathers her chicks under her wings, but you were not willing!

<sup>35†</sup> See, your house is abandoned to you. And I tell you, you will not see Me until the time comes when you say, ‘He who comes in the name of the Lord is the blessed One!’!”

A Sabbath Controversy

14 One Sabbath, when He went to eat <sup>A</sup> at the house of one of the leading •Pharisees, they were watching Him closely. <sup>2</sup> There in front of Him was a man whose body was swollen with fluid. <sup>3</sup> In response, Jesus asked the law experts and the Pharisees, “Is it lawful to heal on the Sabbath or not?” <sup>4</sup> But they kept silent. He took the man, healed him, and sent him away. <sup>5</sup> And to them, He said, “Which of you whose son or ox falls into a well, will not immediately pull him out on the Sabbath day?” <sup>6</sup> To this they could find no answer.

Teachings on Humility

<sup>7</sup> He told a parable to those who were invited, when He noticed how they would choose the best places for themselves: <sup>8</sup> “When you are invited by someone to a wedding banquet, don’t recline at the best place, because a more distinguished person than you may have been invited by your host. <sup>9</sup> The one who invited both of you may come and say to you, ‘Give your place to this man,’ and then in humiliation, you will proceed to take the lowest place.

<sup>10</sup> “But when you are invited, go and recline in the lowest place, so that when the one who invited you comes, he will say to you, ‘Friend, move up higher.’ You will then be honored in the presence of all the other guests. <sup>11</sup> For everyone who exalts himself will be humbled, and the one who humbles himself will be exalted.”

<sup>12</sup> He also said to the one who had invited Him, “When you give a lunch or a dinner, don’t invite your friends, your brothers, your relatives, or your rich neighbors, because they might invite you back, and you would be repaid. <sup>13†</sup> On the contrary, when you host a banquet, invite those who are poor, maimed, lame, or blind. <sup>14</sup> And you will be blessed, because they cannot repay you; for you will be repaid at the resurrection of the righteous.”

The Parable of the Large Banquet

<sup>15</sup> When one of those who reclined at the table with Him heard these things, he said to Him, “The one who will eat bread in the kingdom of God is blessed! ”

<sup>16</sup> Then He told him: “A man was giving a large banquet and invited many. <sup>17</sup> At the time of the banquet, he sent his •slave to tell those who were invited, ‘Come, because everything is now ready.’

<sup>18</sup> “But without exception they all began to make excuses. The first one said to him, ‘I have bought a field, and I must go out and see it. I ask you to excuse me.’

<sup>19</sup> “Another said, ‘I have bought five yoke of oxen, and I’m going to try them out. I ask you to excuse me.’

<sup>20</sup> “And another said, ‘I just got married, and therefore I’m unable to come.’

<sup>21</sup> “So the slave came back and reported these things to his master. Then in anger, the master of the house told his slave, ‘Go out quickly into the streets and alleys of the city, and bring in here the poor, maimed, blind, and lame! ’

<sup>22</sup> “ ‘Master,’ the slave said, ‘what you ordered has been done, and there’s still room.’

<sup>23†</sup> “Then the master told the slave, ‘Go out into the highways and lanes and make them come in, so that my house may be filled. <sup>24†</sup> For I tell you, not one of those men who were invited will enjoy my banquet! ’ ”

The Cost of Following Jesus

<sup>25</sup> Now great crowds were traveling with Him. So He turned and said to them: <sup>26†</sup> “If anyone comes to Me and does not hate his own father and mother, wife and children, brothers and sisters — yes, and even his own life — he cannot be My disciple. <sup>27</sup> Whoever does not bear his own cross and come after Me cannot be My disciple.

<sup>28†</sup> “For which of you, wanting to build a tower, doesn’t first sit down and calculate the cost to see if he has enough to complete it? <sup>29</sup> Otherwise, after he has laid the foundation and cannot finish it, all the onlookers will begin to make fun of him, <sup>30</sup> saying, ‘This man started to build and wasn’t able to finish.’

<sup>31</sup> “Or what king, going to war against another king, will not first sit down and decide if he is able with 10,000 to oppose the one who comes against him with 20,000? <sup>32</sup> If not, while the other is still far off, he sends a delegation and asks for terms of peace. <sup>33†</sup> In the same way, therefore, every one of you who does not say good-bye to all his possessions cannot be My disciple.

<sup>34†</sup> “Now, salt is good, but if salt should lose its taste, how will it be made salty? <sup>35</sup> It isn’t fit for the soil or for the manure pile; they throw it out. Anyone who has ears to hear should listen! ”

The Parable of the Lost Sheep

15 All the tax collectors and sinners were approaching to listen to Him.
2 And the •Pharisees and •scribes were complaining, “This man welcomes sinners and eats with them!”

3 So He told them this parable: 4 “What man among you, who has 100 sheep and loses one of them, does not leave the 99 in the open field and go after the lost one until he finds it? 5 When he has found it, he joyfully puts it on his shoulders, 6 and coming home, he calls his friends and neighbors together, saying to them, ‘Rejoice with me, because I have found my lost sheep!’ 7† I tell you, in the same way, there will be more joy in heaven over one sinner who repents than over 99 righteous people who don’t need repentance.

The Parable of the Lost Coin

8 “Or what woman who has 10 silver coins, if she loses one coin, does not light a lamp, sweep the house, and search carefully until she finds it? 9 When she finds it, she calls her women friends and neighbors together, saying, ‘Rejoice with me, because I have found the silver coin I lost!’ 10 I tell you, in the same way, there is joy in the presence of God’s angels over one sinner who repents.”

The Parable of the Lost Son

11 He also said: “A man had two sons. 12 The younger of them said to his father, ‘Father, give me the share of the estate I have coming to me.’ So he distributed the assets to them. 13 Not many days later, the younger son gathered together all he had and traveled to a distant country, where he squandered his estate in foolish living. 14 After he had spent everything, a severe famine struck that country, and he had nothing. 15 Then he went to work for one of the citizens of that country, who sent him into his fields to feed pigs. 16 He longed to eat his fill from the carob pods the pigs were eating, but no one would give him any. 17 When he came to his senses, he said, ‘How many of my father’s hired hands have more than enough food, and here I am dying of hunger! 18 I’ll get up, go to my father, and say to him, Father, I have sinned against heaven and in your sight. <sup>19</sup> I'm no longer worthy to be called your son. Make me like one of your hired hands.' <sup>20</sup> So he got up and went to his father. But while the son was still a long way off, his father saw him and was filled with compassion. He ran, threw his arms around his neck, and kissed him. <sup>21</sup> The son said to him, 'Father, I have sinned against heaven and in your sight. I'm no longer worthy to be called your son.'

<sup>22</sup> "But the father told his •slaves, 'Quick! Bring out the best robe and put it on him; put a ring on his finger and sandals on his feet. <sup>23</sup> Then bring the fattened calf and slaughter it, and let's celebrate with a feast, <sup>24</sup> because this son of mine was dead and is alive again; he was lost and is found!' So they began to celebrate.

<sup>25†</sup> "Now his older son was in the field; as he came near the house, he heard music and dancing. <sup>26</sup> So he summoned one of the servants and asked what these things meant. <sup>27</sup> 'Your brother is here,' he told him, 'and your father has slaughtered the fattened calf because he has him back safe and sound.'

<sup>28</sup> "Then he became angry and didn't want to go in. So his father came out and pleaded with him. <sup>29</sup> But he replied to his father, 'Look, I have been slaving many years for you, and I have never disobeyed your orders, yet you never gave me a young goat so I could celebrate with my friends. <sup>30</sup> But when this son of yours came, who has devoured your assets with prostitutes, you slaughtered the fattened calf for him.'

<sup>31</sup> " 'Son,' he said to him, 'you are always with me, and everything I have is yours. <sup>32</sup> But we had to celebrate and rejoice, because this brother of yours was dead and is alive again; he was lost and is found.' "

The Parable of the Dishonest Manager

16 He also said to the disciples: “There was a rich man who received an accusation that his manager was squandering his possessions. <sup>2</sup> So he called the manager in and asked, ‘What is this I hear about you? Give an account of your management, because you can no longer be my manager.’

<sup>3</sup> “Then the manager said to himself, ‘What should I do, since my master is taking the management away from me? I’m not strong enough to dig; I’m ashamed to beg. <sup>4</sup> I know what I’ll do so that when I’m removed from management, people will welcome me into their homes.’

<sup>5</sup> “So he summoned each one of his master’s debtors. ‘How much do you owe my master?’ he asked the first one.

<sup>6</sup> “ ‘A hundred measures of olive oil,’ he said.

“ ‘Take your invoice,’ he told him, ‘sit down quickly, and write 50.’

<sup>7</sup> “Next he asked another, ‘How much do you owe?’

“ ‘A hundred measures of wheat,’ he said.

“ ‘Take your invoice,’ he told him, ‘and write 80.’

<sup>8†</sup> “The master praised the unrighteous manager because he had acted astutely. For the sons of this age are more astute than the sons of light in dealing with their own people. <sup>9</sup> And I tell you, make friends for yourselves by means of the unrighteous money so that when it fails, they may welcome you into eternal dwellings. <sup>10</sup> Whoever is faithful in very little is also faithful in much, and whoever is unrighteous in very little is also unrighteous in much. <sup>11</sup> So if you have not been faithful with the unrighteous money, who will trust you with what is genuine? <sup>12</sup> And if you have not been faithful with what belongs to someone else, who will give you what is your own? <sup>13</sup> No household slave can be the •slave of two masters, since either he will hate one and love the other, or he will be devoted to one and despise the other. You can’t be slaves to both God and money.”

Kingdom Values

<sup>14</sup> The •Pharisees, who were lovers of money, were listening to all these things and scoffing at Him. <sup>15</sup> And He told them: “You are the ones who justify yourselves in the sight of others, but God knows your hearts. For what is highly admired by people is revolting in God’s sight.

<sup>16</sup> “The Law and the Prophets were until John; since then, the good news of the kingdom of God has been proclaimed, and everyone is strongly urged to enter it. <sup>17†</sup> But it is easier for heaven and earth to pass away than for one stroke of a letter in the law to drop out.

<sup>18</sup> “Everyone who divorces his wife and marries another woman commits adultery, and everyone who marries a woman divorced from her husband commits adultery.

The Rich Man and Lazarus

<sup>19†</sup> “There was a rich man who would dress in purple and fine linen, feasting lavishly every day. <sup>20</sup> But a poor man named Lazarus, covered with sores, was left at his gate. <sup>21</sup> He longed to be filled with what fell from the rich man’s table, but instead the dogs would come and lick his sores. <sup>22</sup> One day the poor man died and was carried away by the angels to Abraham’s side. The rich man also died and was buried. <sup>23</sup> And being in torment in •Hades, he looked up and saw Abraham a long way off, with Lazarus at his side. <sup>24</sup> ‘Father Abraham!’ he called out, ‘Have mercy on me and send Lazarus to dip the tip of his finger in water and cool my tongue, because I am in agony in this flame!’

<sup>25†</sup> “ ‘Son,’ Abraham said, ‘remember that during your life you received your good things, just as Lazarus received bad things, but now he is comforted here, while you are in agony. <sup>26</sup> Besides all this, a great chasm has been fixed between us and you, so that those who want to pass over from here to you cannot; neither can those from there cross over to us.’

<sup>27</sup> “ ‘Father,’ he said, ‘then I beg you to send him to my father’s house — <sup>28</sup> because I have five brothers — to warn them, so they won’t also come to this place of torment.’

<sup>29</sup> “But Abraham said, ‘They have Moses and the prophets; they should listen to them.’

<sup>30</sup> “ ‘No, father Abraham,’ he said. ‘But if someone from the dead goes to them, they will repent.’

<sup>31</sup> “But he told him, ‘If they don’t listen to Moses and the prophets, they will not be persuaded if someone rises from the dead.’ ”

Warnings from Jesus

17 †He said to His disciples, “Offenses will certainly come, but woe to the one they come through! <sup>2</sup> It would be better for him if a millstone were hung around his neck and he were thrown into the sea than for him to cause one of these little ones to •stumble. <sup>3</sup> Be on your guard. If your brother sins, rebuke him, and if he repents, forgive him. <sup>4</sup> And if he sins against you seven times in a day, and comes back to you seven times, saying, ‘I repent,’ you must forgive him.”

Faith and Duty

<sup>6</sup> “If you have faith the size of a mustard seed,” the Lord said, “you can say to this mulberry tree, ‘Be uprooted and planted in the sea,’ and it will obey you.

<sup>7</sup> “Which one of you having a •slave tending sheep or plowing will say to him when he comes in from the field, ‘Come at once and sit down to eat’? <sup>8</sup> Instead, will he not tell him, ‘Prepare something for me to eat, get ready, and serve me while I eat and drink; later you can eat and drink’? <sup>9</sup> Does he thank that slave because he did what was commanded? <sup>10†</sup> In the same way, when you have done all that you were commanded, you should say, ‘We are good-for-nothing slaves; we’ve only done our duty.’”

Ten Men Healed

<sup>11†</sup> While traveling to Jerusalem, He passed between <sup>A</sup> Samaria and Galilee. <sup>12</sup> As He entered a village, 10 men with serious skin diseases met Him. They stood at a distance <sup>13</sup> and raised their voices, saying, “Jesus, Master, have mercy on us! ”

<sup>14</sup> When He saw them, He told them, “Go and show yourselves to the priests.” And while they were going, they were healed. <sup>B</sup>

<sup>15</sup> But one of them, seeing that he was healed, returned and, with a loud voice, gave glory to God. <sup>16</sup> He fell facedown at His feet, thanking Him.

And he was a •Samaritan.

<sup>17</sup> Then Jesus said, “Were not 10 cleansed? Where are the nine? <sup>18</sup> Didn’t any return to give glory to God except this foreigner?” <sup>19</sup> And He told him, “Get up and go on your way. Your faith has made you well.”

The Coming of the Kingdom

<sup>20†</sup> Being asked by the •Pharisees when the kingdom of God will come, He answered them, “The kingdom of God is not coming with something observable; <sup>21</sup> no one will say, ‘Look here!’ or ‘There!’ For you see, the kingdom of God is among you.”

<sup>22</sup> Then He told the disciples: “The days are coming when you will long to see one of the days of the •Son of Man, but you won’t see it. <sup>23</sup> They will say to you, ‘Look there!’ or ‘Look here!’ Don’t follow or run after them. <sup>24</sup> For as the lightning flashes from horizon to horizon and lights up the sky, so the Son of Man will be in His day. <sup>25</sup> But first He must suffer many things and be rejected by this generation.

<sup>26</sup> “Just as it was in the days of Noah, so it will be in the days of the Son of Man: <sup>27</sup> People went on eating, drinking, marrying and giving in marriage until the day Noah boarded the ark, and the flood came and destroyed them all. <sup>28</sup> It will be the same as it was in the days of Lot: People went on eating, drinking, buying, selling, planting, building. <sup>29</sup> But on the day Lot left Sodom, fire and sulfur rained from heaven and destroyed them all. <sup>30</sup> It will be like that on the day the Son of Man is revealed. <sup>31</sup> On that day, a man on the housetop, whose belongings are in the house, must not come down to get them. Likewise the man who is in the field must not turn back. <sup>32</sup> Remember Lot’s wife! <sup>33</sup> Whoever tries to make his •life secure will lose it, and whoever loses his life will preserve it. <sup>34</sup> I tell you, on that night two will be in one bed: One will be taken and the other will be left. <sup>35</sup> Two women will be grinding grain together: One will be taken and the other left. [<sup>36</sup> Two will be in a field: One will be taken, and the other will be left.]”

He said to them, “Where the corpse is, there also the vultures will be gathered.”

The Parable of the Persistent Widow

18 He then told them a parable on the need for them to pray always and not become discouraged: <sup>2</sup> “There was a judge in a certain town who didn’t fear God or respect man. <sup>3</sup> And a widow in that town kept coming to him, saying, ‘Give me justice against my adversary.’

<sup>4</sup> “For a while he was unwilling, but later he said to himself, ‘Even though I don’t fear God or respect man, <sup>5</sup> yet because this widow keeps pestering me, I will give her justice, so she doesn’t wear me out by her persistent coming.’ ”

<sup>6</sup> Then the Lord said, “Listen to what the unjust judge says. <sup>7†</sup> Will not God grant justice to His elect who cry out to Him day and night? Will He delay to help them? <sup>8</sup> I tell you that He will swiftly grant them justice. Nevertheless, when the •Son of Man comes, will He find that faith on earth? ”

The Parable of the Pharisee and the Tax Collector

<sup>9</sup> He also told this parable to some who trusted in themselves that they were righteous and looked down on everyone else: <sup>10</sup> “Two men went up to the •temple complex to pray, one a •Pharisee and the other a tax collector. <sup>11</sup> The Pharisee took his stand and was praying like this: ‘God, I thank You that I’m not like other people — greedy, unrighteous, adulterers, or even like this tax collector. <sup>12</sup> I fast twice a week; I give a tenth of everything I get.’

<sup>13</sup> “But the tax collector, standing far off, would not even raise his eyes to heaven but kept striking his chest and saying, ‘God, turn Your wrath from me — a sinner!’ <sup>14</sup> I tell you, this one went down to his house •justified rather than the other; because everyone who exalts himself will be humbled, but the one who humbles himself will be exalted.”

Blessing the Children

<sup>15</sup> Some people were even bringing infants to Him so He might touch them, but when the disciples saw it, they rebuked them. <sup>16</sup> Jesus, however, invited them: “Let the little children come to Me, and don’t stop them, because the kingdom of God belongs to such as these. <sup>17†</sup> •I assure you: Whoever does not welcome the kingdom of God like a little child will never enter it.”

The Rich Young Ruler

<sup>18</sup> A ruler asked Him, “Good Teacher, what must I do to inherit eternal life? ”

<sup>19†</sup> “Why do you call Me good? ” Jesus asked him. “No one is good but One — God. <sup>20</sup> You know the commandments:

Do not commit adultery;
do not murder;
do not steal;
do not bear false witness;
honor your father and mother.”

<sup>21</sup> “I have kept all these from my youth,” he said.

<sup>22†</sup> When Jesus heard this, He told him, “You still lack one thing: Sell all that you have and distribute it to the poor, and you will have treasure in heaven. Then come, follow Me.”

<sup>23</sup> After he heard this, he became extremely sad, because he was very rich.

Possessions and the Kingdom

<sup>24</sup> Seeing that he became sad, Jesus said, “How hard it is for those who have wealth to enter the kingdom of God! <sup>25</sup> For it is easier for a camel to go through the eye of a needle than for a rich person to enter the kingdom of God.”

<sup>26</sup> Those who heard this asked, “Then who can be saved? ”

<sup>28</sup> Then Peter said, “Look, we have left what we had and followed You.”

<sup>29†</sup> So He said to them, “I assure you: There is no one who has left a house, wife or brothers, parents or children because of the kingdom of God, <sup>30</sup> who will not receive many times more at this time, and eternal life in the age to come.”

The Third Prediction of His Death

<sup>31†</sup> Then He took the Twelve aside and told them, “Listen! We are going up to Jerusalem. Everything that is written through the prophets about the Son of Man will be accomplished. <sup>32</sup> For He will be handed over to the Gentiles, and He will be mocked, insulted, spit on; <sup>33</sup> and after they flog Him, they will kill Him, and He will rise on the third day.”

<sup>34†</sup> They understood none of these things. This saying was hidden from them, and they did not grasp what was said.

A Blind Man Receives His Sight

<sup>35†</sup> As He drew near Jericho, a blind man was sitting by the road begging. <sup>36</sup> Hearing a crowd passing by, he inquired what this meant.

<sup>38</sup> So he called out, “Jesus, Son of David, have mercy on me!” <sup>39</sup> Then those in front told him to keep quiet, <sup>A</sup> but he kept crying out all the more, “Son of David, have mercy on me!”

<sup>40</sup> Jesus stopped and commanded that he be brought to Him. When he drew near, He asked him, <sup>41</sup> “What do you want Me to do for you?”

“Lord,” he said, “I want to see!”

<sup>42</sup> “Receive your sight! ” Jesus told him. “Your faith has healed you.”
<sup>43</sup> Instantly he could see, and he began to follow Him, glorifying God. All the people, when they saw it, gave praise to God.

Jesus Visits Zacchaeus

19 He entered Jericho and was passing through. <sup>2</sup> There was a man named Zacchaeus who was a chief tax collector, and he was rich. <sup>3</sup> He was trying to see who Jesus was, but he was not able because of the crowd, since he was a short man. <sup>4</sup> So running ahead, he climbed up a sycamore tree to see Jesus, since He was about to pass that way. <sup>5</sup> When Jesus came to the place, He looked up and said to him, “Zacchaeus, hurry and come down because today I must stay at your house.”

<sup>6</sup> So he quickly came down and welcomed Him joyfully. <sup>7</sup> All who saw it began to complain, “He’s gone to lodge with a sinful man! ”

<sup>8</sup> But Zacchaeus stood there and said to the Lord, “Look, I’ll give <sup>A</sup> half of my possessions to the poor, Lord! And if I have extorted anything from anyone, I’ll pay <sup>B</sup> back four times as much! ”

<sup>9†</sup> “Today salvation has come to this house,” Jesus told him, “because he too is a son of Abraham. <sup>10</sup> For the •Son of Man has come to seek and to save the lost.”

The Parable of the 10 Minas

<sup>11†</sup> As they were listening to this, He went on to tell a parable because He was near Jerusalem, and they thought the kingdom of God was going to appear right away.

<sup>12</sup> Therefore He said: “A nobleman traveled to a far country to receive for himself authority to be king and then return. <sup>13</sup> He called 10 of his •slaves, gave them 10 minas, and told them, ‘Engage in business until I come back.’

<sup>14</sup> “But his subjects hated him and sent a delegation after him, saying, ‘We don’t want this man to rule over us! ’

<sup>15</sup> “At his return, having received the authority to be king, he summoned those slaves he had given the money to, so he could find out how much they had made in business. <sup>16</sup> The first came forward and said, ‘Master, your mina has earned 10 more minas.’

<sup>17</sup> “ ‘Well done, good slave! ’ he told him. ‘Because you have been faithful in a very small matter, have authority over 10 towns.’

<sup>18</sup> “The second came and said, ‘Master, your mina has made five minas.’

<sup>19</sup> “So he said to him, ‘You will be over five towns.’

<sup>20</sup> “And another came and said, ‘Master, here is your mina. I have kept it hidden away in a cloth <sup>21</sup> because I was afraid of you, for you’re a tough man: you collect what you didn’t deposit and reap what you didn’t sow.’

<sup>22</sup> “He told him, ‘I will judge you by what you have said, you evil slave! If you knew I was a tough man, collecting what I didn’t deposit and reaping what I didn’t sow, <sup>23</sup> why didn’t you put my money in the bank? And when I returned, I would have collected it with interest! ’ <sup>24</sup> So he said to those standing there, ‘Take the mina away from him and give it to the one who has 10 minas.’

<sup>25</sup> “But they said to him, ‘Master, he has 10 minas.’

<sup>26†</sup> “ ‘I tell you, that to everyone who has, more will be given; and from the one who does not have, even what he does have will be taken away.

<sup>27†</sup> But bring here these enemies of mine, who did not want me to rule over them, and slaughter them in my presence.’ ”

The Triumphal Entry

<sup>28</sup> When He had said these things, He went on ahead, going up to Jerusalem. <sup>29†</sup> As He approached Bethphage and Bethany, at the place called the •Mount of Olives, He sent two of the disciples <sup>30</sup> and said, “Go into the village ahead of you. As you enter it, you will find a young donkey tied there, on which no one has ever sat. Untie it and bring it here. <sup>31</sup> If anyone asks you, ‘Why are you untying it?’ say this: ‘The Lord needs it.’ ”

<sup>32</sup> So those who were sent left and found it just as He had told them.
<sup>33</sup> As they were untying the young donkey, its owners said to them, “Why are you untying the donkey? ”

<sup>34</sup> “The Lord needs it,” they said. <sup>35</sup> Then they brought it to Jesus, and after throwing their robes on the donkey, they helped Jesus get on it. <sup>36</sup> As He was going along, they were spreading their robes on the road. <sup>37</sup> Now He came near the path down the Mount of Olives, and the whole crowd of the disciples began to praise God joyfully with a loud voice for all the miracles they had seen:

<sup>38†</sup> The King who comes in the name of the Lord ,
is the blessed One.
Peace in heaven
and glory in the highest heaven!

<sup>40</sup> He answered, “I tell you, if they were to keep silent, the stones would cry out! ”

Jesus' Love for Jerusalem

<sup>41</sup> As He approached and saw the city, He wept over it, <sup>42†</sup> saying, “If you knew this day what would bring peace — but now it is hidden from your eyes. <sup>43</sup> For the days will come on you when your enemies will build an embankment against you, surround you, and hem you in on every side. <sup>44</sup> They will crush you and your children within you to the ground, and they will not leave one stone on another in you, because you did not recognize the time of your visitation.”

Cleansing the Temple Complex

<sup>45†</sup> He went into the •temple complex and began to throw out those who were selling, <sup>46</sup> and He said, “It is written, My house will be a house of prayer, but you have made it a den of thieves!”

<sup>47</sup> Every day He was teaching in the temple complex. The •chief priests, the •scribes, and the leaders of the people were looking for a way to destroy Him, <sup>48</sup> but they could not find a way to do it, because all the people were captivated by what they heard. <sup>C</sup>

The Authority of Jesus Challenged

20 One day <sup>A</sup> as He was teaching the people in the •temple complex and proclaiming the good news, the •chief priests and the •scribes, with the elders, came up <sup>2</sup> and said to Him: “Tell us, by what authority are You doing these things? Who is it who gave You this authority? ”

<sup>3</sup> He answered them, “I will also ask you a question. Tell Me, <sup>4</sup> was the baptism of John from heaven or from men? ”

<sup>5</sup> They discussed it among themselves: “If we say, ‘From heaven,’ He will say, ‘Why didn’t you believe him?’ <sup>6</sup> But if we say, ‘From men,’ all the people will stone us, because they are convinced that John was a prophet.”

<sup>7</sup> So they answered that they did not know its origin. <sup>B</sup>

<sup>8†</sup> And Jesus said to them, “Neither will I tell you by what authority I do these things.”

The Parable of the Vineyard Owner

<sup>9†</sup> Then He began to tell the people this parable: “A man planted a vineyard, leased it to tenant farmers, and went away for a long time. <sup>10</sup> At harvest time he sent a •slave to the farmers so that they might give him some fruit from the vineyard. But the farmers beat him and sent him away empty-handed. <sup>11</sup> He sent yet another slave, but they beat that one too, treated him shamefully, and sent him away empty-handed. <sup>12</sup> And he sent yet a third, but they wounded this one too and threw him out.

<sup>13</sup> “Then the owner of the vineyard said, ‘What should I do? I will send my beloved son. Perhaps they will respect him.’

<sup>14</sup> “But when the tenant farmers saw him, they discussed it among themselves and said, ‘This is the heir. Let’s kill him, so the inheritance will be ours!’ <sup>15</sup> So they threw him out of the vineyard and killed him.

“Therefore, what will the owner of the vineyard do to them? <sup>16</sup> He will come and destroy those farmers and give the vineyard to others.”

But when they heard this they said, “No — never! ”

<sup>17</sup> But He looked at them and said, “Then what is the meaning of this Scripture:

The stone that the builders rejected —
this has become the cornerstone? ,

<sup>18</sup> Everyone who falls on that stone will be broken to pieces, and if it falls on anyone, it will grind him to powder! ”

<sup>19</sup> Then the scribes and the chief priests looked for a way to get their hands on Him that very hour, because they knew He had told this parable against them, but they feared the people.

God and Caesar

<sup>20</sup> They watched closely and sent spies who pretended to be righteous, <sup>C</sup> so they could catch Him in what He said, <sup>D</sup> to hand Him over to the governor’s rule and authority. <sup>21</sup> They questioned Him, “Teacher, we know that You speak and teach correctly, and You don’t show partiality, <sup>E</sup> but teach truthfully the way of God. <sup>22</sup> Is it lawful for us to pay taxes to Caesar or not? ”

<sup>23</sup> But detecting their craftiness, He said to them, <sup>24</sup> “Show Me a •denarius. Whose image and inscription does it have? ”

“Caesar’s,” they said.

<sup>25</sup> “Well then,” He told them, “give back to Caesar the things that are Caesar’s and to God the things that are God’s.”

<sup>26</sup> They were not able to catch Him in what He said <sup>F</sup> in public, <sup>G</sup> and being amazed at His answer, they became silent.

The Sadducees and the Resurrection

<sup>27</sup> Some of the •Sadducees, who say there is no resurrection, came up and questioned Him: <sup>28</sup> “Teacher, Moses wrote for us that if a man’s brother has a wife, and dies childless, his brother should take the wife and produce •offspring for his brother. <sup>29</sup> Now there were seven brothers. The first took a wife and died without children. <sup>30</sup> Also the second <sup>31</sup> and the third took her. In the same way, all seven died and left no children. <sup>32</sup> Finally, the woman died too. <sup>33</sup> In the resurrection, therefore, whose wife will the woman be? For all seven had married her.” <sup>H</sup>

<sup>34</sup> Jesus told them, “The sons of this age marry and are given in marriage. <sup>35</sup> But those who are counted worthy to take part in that age and in the resurrection from the dead neither marry nor are given in marriage. <sup>36†</sup> For they cannot die anymore, because they are like angels and are sons of God, since they are sons of the resurrection. <sup>37</sup> Moses even indicated in the passage about the burning bush that the dead are raised, where he calls the Lord the God of Abraham and the God of Isaac and the God of Jacob. <sup>38</sup> He is not God of the dead but of the living, because all are living to Him.”

<sup>40</sup> And they no longer dared to ask Him anything.

The Question about the Messiah

<sup>41</sup> Then He said to them, “How can they say that the •Messiah is the Son of David? <sup>42</sup> For David himself says in the Book of Psalms:

The Lord declared to my Lord,
‘Sit at My right hand

<sup>44†</sup> David calls Him ‘Lord’; how then can the Messiah be his Son? ”

Warning against the Scribes

<sup>45</sup> While all the people were listening, He said to His disciples, <sup>46</sup> “Beware of the scribes, who want to go around in long robes and who love greetings in the marketplaces, the front seats in the •synagogues, and the places of honor at banquets. <sup>47</sup> They devour widows’ houses and say long prayers just for show. These will receive greater punishment.”

The Widow's Gift

21 He looked up and saw the rich dropping their offerings into the temple treasury. <sup>2</sup> He also saw a poor widow dropping in two tiny coins. <sup>A</sup>, <sup>3</sup> “I tell you the truth,” He said. “This poor widow has put in more than all of them. <sup>4†</sup> For all these people have put in gifts out of their surplus, but she out of her poverty has put in all she had to live on.”

Destruction of the Temple Predicted

<sup>5</sup> As some were talking about the •temple complex, how it was adorned with beautiful stones and gifts dedicated to God, He said, <sup>6</sup> “These things that you see — the days will come when not one stone will be left on another that will not be thrown down! ”

Signs of the End of the Age

<sup>7</sup> “Teacher,” they asked Him, “so when will these things be? And what will be the sign when these things are about to take place? ”

<sup>8</sup> Then He said, “Watch out that you are not deceived. For many will come in My name, saying, ‘I am He,’ and, ‘The time is near.’ Don’t follow them. <sup>9</sup> When you hear of wars and rebellions, don’t be alarmed. Indeed, these things must take place first, but the end won’t come right away.”

<sup>10</sup> Then He told them: “Nation will be raised up against nation, and kingdom against kingdom. <sup>11</sup> There will be violent earthquakes, and famines and plagues in various places, and there will be terrifying sights and great signs from heaven. <sup>12†</sup> But before all these things, they will lay their hands on you and persecute you. They will hand you over to the •synagogues and prisons, and you will be brought before kings and governors because of My name. <sup>13</sup> It will lead to an opportunity for you to witness. <sup>14†</sup> Therefore make up your minds not to prepare your defense ahead of time, <sup>15</sup> for I will give you such words and a wisdom that none of your adversaries will be able to resist or contradict. <sup>16</sup> You will even be betrayed by parents, brothers, relatives, and friends. They will kill some of you.<sup>17</sup> You will be hated by everyone because of My name,<sup>18†</sup> but not a hair of your head will be lost.<sup>19</sup> By your endurance gain your •lives.

The Destruction of Jerusalem

<sup>20†</sup> “When you see Jerusalem surrounded by armies, then recognize that its desolation has come near.<sup>21</sup> Then those in Judea must flee to the mountains! Those inside the city must leave it, and those who are in the country must not enter it,<sup>22</sup> because these are days of vengeance to fulfill all the things that are written.<sup>23</sup> Woe to pregnant women and nursing mothers in those days, for there will be great distress in the land and wrath against this people.<sup>24</sup> They will fall by the edge of the sword and be led captive into all the nations, and Jerusalem will be trampled by the Gentiles until the times of the Gentiles are fulfilled.

The Coming of the Son of Man

<sup>25</sup> “Then there will be signs in the sun, moon, and stars; and there will be anguish on the earth among nations bewildered by the roaring sea and waves.<sup>26</sup> People will faint from fear and expectation of the things that are coming on the world, because the celestial powers will be shaken.<sup>27</sup> Then they will see the •Son of Man coming in a cloud with power and great glory.<sup>28†</sup> But when these things begin to take place, stand up and lift up your heads, because your •redemption is near! ”

The Parable of the Fig Tree

<sup>29</sup> Then He told them a parable: “Look at the fig tree, and all the trees.<sup>30</sup> As soon as they put out leaves you can see for yourselves and recognize that summer is already near.<sup>31</sup> In the same way, when you see these things happening, recognize that the kingdom of God is near.<sup>32</sup> •I assure you: This generation will certainly not pass away until all things take place.<sup>33</sup> Heaven and earth will pass away, but My words will never pass away.

The Need for Watchfulness

<sup>34</sup> “Be on your guard, so that your minds are not dulled from carousing, drunkenness, and worries of life, or that day will come on you unexpectedly <sup>35</sup> like a trap. For it will come on all who live on the face of the whole earth. <sup>36</sup> But be alert at all times, praying that you may have strength to escape all these things that are going to take place and to stand before the Son of Man.”

<sup>37</sup> During the day, He was teaching in the temple complex, but in the evening He would go out and spend the night on what is called the •Mount of Olives. <sup>38</sup> Then all the people would come early in the morning to hear Him in the temple complex.

The Plot to Kill Jesus

22 The Festival of •Unleavened Bread, which is called •Passover, was drawing near. <sup>2</sup> The •chief priests and the •scribes were looking for a way to put Him to death, because they were afraid of the people.

<sup>3†</sup> Then Satan entered Judas, called Iscariot, who was numbered among the Twelve. <sup>4</sup> He went away and discussed with the chief priests and temple police how he could hand Him over to them. <sup>5</sup> They were glad and agreed to give him silver. <sup>A</sup> <sup>6</sup> So he accepted the offer and started looking for a good opportunity to betray Him to them when the crowd was not present.

Preparation for Passover

<sup>7†</sup> Then the Day of Unleavened Bread came when the Passover lamb had to be sacrificed. <sup>8</sup> Jesus sent Peter and John, saying, “Go and prepare the Passover meal for us, so we can eat it.”

<sup>9</sup> “Where do You want us to prepare it?” they asked Him.

<sup>10</sup> “Listen,” He said to them, “when you’ve entered the city, a man carrying a water jug will meet you. Follow him into the house he enters. <sup>11</sup> Tell the owner of the house, ‘The Teacher asks you, “Where is the guest room where I can eat the Passover with My disciples?’ ” , <sup>12</sup> Then he will show you a large, furnished room upstairs. Make the preparations there.”

<sup>13</sup> So they went and found it just as He had told them, and they prepared the Passover.

The First Lord’s Supper

<sup>14</sup> When the hour came, He reclined at the table, and the apostles with Him. <sup>15</sup> Then He said to them, “I have fervently desired to eat this Passover with you before I suffer. <sup>16</sup> For I tell you, I will not eat it again until it is fulfilled in the kingdom of God.” <sup>17†</sup> Then He took a cup, and after giving thanks, He said, “Take this and share it among yourselves. <sup>18</sup> For I tell you, from now on I will not drink of the fruit of the vine until the kingdom of God comes.”

<sup>19†</sup> And He took bread, gave thanks, broke it, gave it to them, and said, “This is My body, which is given for you. Do this in remembrance of Me.”

<sup>20</sup> In the same way He also took the cup after supper and said, “This cup is the new covenant established by My blood; it is shed for you. <sup>21†</sup> But look, the hand of the one betraying Me is at the table with Me! <sup>22</sup> For the •Son of Man will go away as it has been determined, but woe to that man by whom He is betrayed! ”

<sup>23</sup> So they began to argue among themselves which of them it could be who was going to do this thing.

The Dispute over Greatness

<sup>24†</sup> Then a dispute also arose among them about who should be considered the greatest. <sup>25</sup> But He said to them, “The kings of the Gentiles dominate them, and those who have authority over them are called ‘Benefactors.’ <sup>26</sup> But it must not be like that among you. On the contrary, whoever is greatest among you must become like the youngest, and whoever leads, like the one serving. <sup>27</sup> For who is greater, the one at the table or the one serving? Isn’t it the one at the table? But I am among you as the One who serves. <sup>28</sup> You are the ones who stood by Me in My trials. <sup>29</sup> I bestow on you a kingdom, just as My Father bestowed one on Me, <sup>30</sup> so that you may eat and drink at My table in My kingdom. And you will sit on thrones judging the 12 tribes of Israel.

Peter’s Denial Predicted

<sup>31</sup> “Simon, Simon, look out! Satan has asked to sift you like wheat. <sup>32</sup> But I have prayed for you that your faith may not fail. And you, when you have turned back, strengthen your brothers.”

<sup>33</sup> “Lord,” he told Him, “I’m ready to go with You both to prison and to death! ”

<sup>34†</sup> “I tell you, Peter,” He said, “the rooster will not crow today until you deny three times that you know Me! ”

Be Ready for Trouble

<sup>35</sup> He also said to them, “When I sent you out without money-bag, traveling bag, or sandals, did you lack anything? ”

“Not a thing,” they said.

<sup>36†</sup> Then He said to them, “But now, whoever has a money-bag should take it, and also a traveling bag. And whoever doesn’t have a sword should sell his robe and buy one. <sup>37</sup> For I tell you, what is written must be fulfilled in Me: And He was counted among the outlaws. Yes, what is written about Me is coming to its fulfillment.”

<sup>38†</sup> “Lord,” they said, “look, here are two swords.”

“Enough of that! ” He told them.

The Prayer in the Garden

<sup>39</sup> He went out and made His way as usual to the •Mount of Olives, and the disciples followed Him. <sup>40</sup> When He reached the place, He told them, “Pray that you may not enter into temptation.” <sup>41</sup> Then He withdrew from them about a stone’s throw, knelt down, and began to pray, <sup>42</sup> “Father, if You are willing, take this cup away from Me — nevertheless, not My will, but Yours, be done.”

The Judas Kiss

<sup>47</sup> While He was still speaking, suddenly a mob was there, and one of the Twelve named Judas was leading them. He came near Jesus to kiss Him, <sup>48</sup> but Jesus said to him, “Judas, are you betraying the Son of Man with a kiss? ”

<sup>49</sup> When those around Him saw what was going to happen, they asked, “Lord, should we strike with the sword? ” <sup>50</sup> Then one of them struck the high priest’s •slave and cut off his right ear.

<sup>51</sup> But Jesus responded, “No more of this! ” And touching his ear, He healed him. <sup>52</sup> Then Jesus said to the chief priests, temple police, and the elders who had come for Him, “Have you come out with swords and clubs as if I were a criminal? <sup>53</sup> Every day while I was with you in the •temple complex, you never laid a hand on Me. But this is your hour — and the dominion of darkness.”

Peter Denies His Lord

<sup>54</sup> They seized Him, led Him away, and brought Him into the high priest’s house. Meanwhile Peter was following at a distance. <sup>55</sup> They lit a fire in the middle of the courtyard and sat down together, and Peter sat among them. <sup>56</sup> When a servant saw him sitting in the firelight, and looked closely at him, she said, “This man was with Him too.”

<sup>57</sup> But he denied it: “Woman, I don’t know Him! ”

<sup>58†</sup> After a little while, someone else saw him and said, “You’re one of them too! ”

“Man, I am not! ” Peter said.

<sup>59</sup> About an hour later, another kept insisting, “This man was certainly with Him, since he’s also a Galilean.”

<sup>60</sup> But Peter said, “Man, I don’t know what you’re talking about! ”
Immediately, while he was still speaking, a rooster crowed. <sup>61†</sup> Then the Lord turned and looked at Peter. So Peter remembered the word of the Lord, how He had said to him, “Before the rooster crows today, you will deny Me three times.” <sup>62</sup> And he went outside and wept bitterly.

Jesus Mocked and Beaten

<sup>63</sup> The men who were holding Jesus started mocking and beating Him.
<sup>64</sup> After blindfolding Him, they kept asking, “Prophecy! Who hit You? ”
<sup>65</sup> And they were saying many other blasphemous things against Him.

Jesus Faces the Sanhedrin

<sup>66†</sup> When daylight came, the elders <sup>C</sup> of the people, both the chief priests and the scribes, convened and brought Him before their •Sanhedrin.
<sup>67</sup> They said, “If You are the •Messiah, tell us.”

But He said to them, “If I do tell you, you will not believe. <sup>68</sup> And if I ask you, you will not answer. <sup>69</sup> But from now on, the Son of Man will be seated at the right hand of the Power of God.”

<sup>70</sup> They all asked, “Are You, then, the Son of God? ”

And He said to them, “You say that I am.”

<sup>71</sup> “Why do we need any more testimony,” they said, “since we’ve heard it ourselves from His mouth? ”

Jesus Faces Pilate

23 Then their whole assembly rose up and brought Him before •Pilate.
2 They began to accuse Him, saying, “We found this man subverting our nation, opposing payment of taxes to Caesar, and saying that He Himself is the •Messiah, a King.”

3† So Pilate asked Him, “Are You the King of the Jews? ”

He answered him, “You have said it.”

4 Pilate then told the •chief priests and the crowds, “I find no grounds for charging this man.”

5 But they kept insisting, “He stirs up the people, teaching throughout all Judea, from Galilee where He started even to here.”

Jesus Faces Herod Antipas

6 When Pilate heard this, he asked if the man was a Galilean. 7† Finding that He was under •Herod’s jurisdiction, he sent Him to Herod, who was also in Jerusalem during those days. 8 Herod was very glad to see Jesus; for a long time he had wanted to see Him because he had heard about Him and was hoping to see some miracle <sup>A</sup> performed by Him. 9 So he kept asking Him questions, but Jesus did not answer him. 10 The chief priests and the •scribes stood by, vehemently accusing Him. 11 Then Herod, with his soldiers, treated Him with contempt, mocked Him, dressed Him in a brilliant robe, and sent Him back to Pilate. 12† That very day Herod and Pilate became friends. <sup>B</sup> Previously, they had been hostile toward each other.

Jesus or Barabbas

<sup>13</sup> Pilate called together the chief priests, the leaders, and the people, <sup>14</sup> and said to them, “You have brought me this man as one who subverts the people. But in fact, after examining Him in your presence, I have found no grounds to charge this man with those things you accuse Him of.

<sup>15</sup> Neither has Herod, because he sent Him back to us. Clearly, He has done nothing to deserve death. <sup>16</sup> Therefore, I will have Him whipped <sup>C</sup> and then release Him.” [<sup>17</sup> For according to the festival he had to release someone to them. ]

<sup>18</sup> Then they all cried out together, “Take this man away! Release Barabbas to us! ” <sup>19</sup> (He had been thrown into prison for a rebellion that had taken place in the city, and for murder.)

<sup>20</sup> Pilate, wanting to release Jesus, addressed them again, <sup>21</sup> but they kept shouting, “Crucify! Crucify Him! ”

<sup>22</sup> A third time he said to them, “Why? What has this man done wrong? I have found in Him no grounds for the death penalty. Therefore, I will have Him whipped and then release Him.”

<sup>23</sup> But they kept up the pressure, demanding with loud voices that He be crucified. And their voices won out. <sup>24</sup> So Pilate decided to grant their demand <sup>25</sup> and released the one they were asking for, who had been thrown into prison for rebellion and murder. But he handed Jesus over to their will.

The Way to the Cross

<sup>26</sup> As they led Him away, they seized Simon, a Cyrenian, who was coming in from the country, and laid the cross on him to carry behind Jesus. <sup>27†</sup> A large crowd of people followed Him, including women who were mourning and lamenting Him. <sup>28</sup> But turning to them, Jesus said, “Daughters of Jerusalem, do not weep for Me, but weep for yourselves and your children. <sup>29</sup> Look, the days are coming when they will say, ‘The women without children, the wombs that never bore and the breasts that never nursed, are fortunate! ’ <sup>30†</sup> Then they will begin to say to the mountains, ‘Fall on us! ’ and to the hills, ‘Cover us! ’ <sup>31</sup> For if they do these things when the wood is green, what will happen when it is dry? ”

Crucified between Two Criminals

<sup>32</sup> Two others — criminals — were also led away to be executed with Him. <sup>33</sup> When they arrived at the place called The Skull, they crucified Him there, along with the criminals, one on the right and one on the left. [<sup>34†</sup> Then Jesus said, “Father, forgive them, because they do not know what they are doing.” ] And they divided His clothes and cast lots.

<sup>35</sup> The people stood watching, and even the leaders kept scoffing: “He saved others; let Him save Himself if this is God’s Messiah, the Chosen One! ” <sup>36†</sup> The soldiers also mocked Him. They came offering Him sour wine <sup>37</sup> and said, “If You are the King of the Jews, save Yourself! ”

THIS IS THE KING OF THE JEWS.
---

<sup>39†</sup> Then one of the criminals hanging there began to yell insults at <sup>D</sup> Him: “Aren’t You the Messiah? Save Yourself and us! ”

<sup>40</sup> But the other answered, rebuking him: “Don’t you even fear God, since you are undergoing the same punishment? <sup>41</sup> We are punished justly, because we’re getting back what we deserve for the things we did, but this man has done nothing wrong.” <sup>42</sup> Then he said, “Jesus, remember me when You come into Your kingdom! ”

<sup>43†</sup> And He said to him, “I assure you: Today you will be with Me in paradise.”

The Death of Jesus

<sup>47†</sup> When the •centurion saw what happened, he began to glorify God, saying, "This man really was righteous!" <sup>48</sup> All the crowds that had gathered for this spectacle, when they saw what had taken place, went home, striking their chests. <sup>49</sup> But all who knew Him, including the women who had followed Him from Galilee, stood at a distance, watching these things.

The Burial of Jesus

<sup>50</sup> There was a good and righteous man named Joseph, a member of the •Sanhedrin, <sup>51</sup> who had not agreed with their plan and action. He was from Arimathea, a Judean town, and was looking forward to the kingdom of God. <sup>52</sup> He approached Pilate and asked for Jesus' body. <sup>53</sup> Taking it down, he wrapped it in fine linen and placed it in a tomb cut into the rock, where no one had ever been placed. <sup>H</sup>, <sup>54</sup> It was preparation day, and the Sabbath was about to begin. <sup>I</sup> <sup>55</sup> The women who had come with Him from Galilee followed along and observed the tomb and how His body was placed. <sup>56</sup> Then they returned and prepared spices and perfumes. And they rested on the Sabbath according to the commandment.

24 † On the first day of the week, very early in the morning, they came to the tomb, bringing the spices they had prepared. <sup>2</sup> They found the stone rolled away from the tomb. <sup>3</sup> They went in but did not find the body of the Lord Jesus. <sup>4†</sup> While they were perplexed about this, suddenly two men stood by them in dazzling clothes. <sup>5</sup> So the women were terrified and bowed down to the ground. <sup>A</sup>

“Why are you looking for the living among the dead?” asked the men. <sup>6</sup> “He is not here, but He has been resurrected! Remember how He spoke to you when He was still in Galilee, <sup>7</sup> saying, ‘The •Son of Man must be betrayed into the hands of sinful men, be crucified, and rise on the third day?’” <sup>8</sup> And they remembered His words.

<sup>9</sup> Returning from the tomb, they reported all these things to the Eleven and to all the rest. <sup>10</sup> •Mary Magdalene, Joanna, Mary the mother of James, and the other women with them were telling the apostles these things. <sup>11</sup> But these words seemed like nonsense to them, and they did not believe the women. <sup>12†</sup> Peter, however, got up and ran to the tomb. When he stooped to look in, he saw only the linen cloths. So he went home, amazed at what had happened.

The Emmaus Disciples

<sup>13†</sup> Now that same day two of them were on their way to a village called <sup>B</sup> Emmaus, which was about seven miles <sup>C</sup>, from Jerusalem. <sup>14</sup> Together they were discussing everything that had taken place. <sup>15</sup> And while they were discussing and arguing, Jesus Himself came near and began to walk along with them. <sup>16†</sup> But they <sup>D</sup> were prevented from recognizing Him. <sup>17</sup> Then He asked them, “What is this dispute that you’re having with each other as you are walking?” And they stopped walking and looked discouraged.

So they said to Him, “The things concerning Jesus the •Nazarene, who was a Prophet powerful in action and speech before God and all the people, <sup>20</sup> and how our •chief priests and leaders handed Him over to be sentenced to death, and they crucified Him. <sup>21</sup> But we were hoping that He was the One who was about to •redeem Israel. Besides all this, it’s the third day since these things happened. <sup>22</sup> Moreover, some women from our group astounded us. They arrived early at the tomb, <sup>23</sup> and when they didn’t find His body, they came and reported that they had seen a vision of angels who said He was alive. <sup>24</sup> Some of those who were with us went to the tomb and found it just as the women had said, but they didn’t see Him.”

<sup>25</sup> He said to them, “How unwise and slow you are to believe in your hearts all that the prophets have spoken! <sup>26</sup> Didn’t the •Messiah have to suffer these things and enter into His glory?” <sup>27†</sup> Then beginning with Moses and all the Prophets, He interpreted for them the things concerning Himself in all the Scriptures.

<sup>28</sup> They came near the village where they were going, and He gave the impression that He was going farther. <sup>29</sup> But they urged Him: “Stay with us, because it’s almost evening, and now the day is almost over.” So He went in to stay with them.

<sup>30</sup> It was as He reclined at the table with them that He took the bread, blessed and broke it, and gave it to them. <sup>31</sup> Then their eyes were opened, and they recognized Him, but He disappeared from their sight. <sup>32</sup> So they said to each other, “Weren’t our hearts ablaze within us while He was talking with us on the road and explaining the Scriptures to us?” <sup>33</sup> That very hour they got up and returned to Jerusalem. They found the Eleven and those with them gathered together, <sup>34</sup> who said, <sup>E</sup> “The Lord has certainly been raised, and has appeared to Simon!” <sup>35</sup> Then they began to describe what had happened on the road and how He was made known to them in the breaking of the bread.

The Reality of the Risen Jesus

<sup>36†</sup> And as they were saying these things, He Himself stood among them. He said to them, “Peace to you!” <sup>37</sup> But they were startled and terrified and thought they were seeing a ghost. <sup>38</sup> “Why are you troubled?” He asked them. “And why do doubts arise in your hearts?” <sup>39†</sup> Look at My hands and My feet, that it is I Myself! Touch Me and see, because a ghost does not have flesh and bones as you can see I have.” <sup>40</sup> Having said this, He showed them His hands and feet. <sup>41</sup> But while they still were amazed and unbelieving because of their joy, He asked them, “Do you have anything here to eat?” <sup>42</sup> So they gave Him a piece of a broiled fish, <sup>43</sup> and He took it and ate in their presence.

<sup>44†</sup> Then He told them, “These are My words that I spoke to you while I was still with you — that everything written about Me in the Law of Moses, the Prophets, and the Psalms must be fulfilled.” <sup>45</sup> Then He opened their minds to understand the Scriptures. <sup>46†</sup> He also said to them, “This is what is written: The Messiah would suffer and rise from the dead the third day, <sup>47</sup> and repentance for forgiveness of sins would be proclaimed in His name to all the nations, beginning at Jerusalem. <sup>48</sup> You are witnesses of these things. <sup>49</sup> And look, I am sending you what My Father promised. As for you, stay in the city until you are empowered from on high.”

The Ascension of Jesus

<sup>50†</sup> Then He led them out as far as Bethany, and lifting up His hands He blessed them. <sup>51</sup> And while He was blessing them, He left them and was carried up into heaven. <sup>52</sup> After worshiping Him, they returned to

Jerusalem with great joy. <sup>53</sup> And they were continually in the •temple complex praising God.
