The Reference Passage Bible

New Testament.

This Book comprises the New Testament portion of The Reference Passage Bible and appears in two forms: In two volumes known as "THE PARALLEL GOSPELS AND REFERENCE PASSAGES," and "THE ACTS, EPISTLES, REVELATION AND REFERENCE PASSAGES"; and a combined volume entitled as seen above.

GENERAL PURPOSE. Scripture is its own best interpreter, but the constant use of a concordance or a Marginal Reference is laborious and time consuming. And that there may be a conservation of mental energy as well, the full text of each reference passage is given upon the same page with the Scriptural text that is being studied. There are many advantages in having Scripture along one line of thought grouped together, under the eye and hand, for reflection; so as to make deductions by comparison or association, generalizing or specializing, so that one may draw logical conclusions, and have the assurance that they are Scriptural beyond doubt.

AUTHORITIES. The Authorized text and marginal notes are used throughout. In the matter of harmony and chronology, Robinson, Andrews, Butler, Kephart and others were consulted. The Reference Texts and reference passages are those found in the Bibles in common use, with some exception, and thousands more drawn from Canne, Browne, Blayney, Scott, Cobbin and others. The principle governing the collations is that of direct relevancy to the thought of the text indicated, without reflection or purpose as to doctrine. The work is without note or comment, and the association of Scriptures that chances by grouping them, is not intended to confirm or deny any doctrine. Each student is left to draw his own conclusions. We desire to acknowledge the very valuable assistance of Mr. J. F. Kempfer in the compilation of the Gospels.

METHODS OF STUDY. Several well defined methods of study may be pursued with facility. First the ordinary method of reading chapters and verses in their consecutive order. In reading the Gospels thus, recourse may be had to the Chapter and verse index, since Chronological order breaks up the consecutive order in a slight manner. The Second method is analytical in its character; and has as its object the acquiring of more complete knowledge of the books of the Bible, by a close investigation of their contents. For this purpose there is a division into Sections (§) called topics, which may be seen to advantage in the Topic Index. The Third method is topical in its character. For this purpose superior reference letters will be found throughout the consecutive Scripture text (largest type); these designate important texts, subjects or thoughts, and refer to groups of passages along the same line of thought, but in such different connections that one's knowledge of the subject is thereby expanded. The fourth method is Synthetic in its character, and its application will be found a little farther on. Other methods might be mentioned, but these are sufficient for rudimentary study; and perhaps, too, it is better that each individual should be directed in large measure by his own spirit in particulars.

GENERAL DIRECTIONS. There are 604 topics marked as sections (§). The Gospels covering 225 of this number, and the Acts, Epistles and Revelation, the remaining 379. The consecutive Scripture text, or Text of the Topic, as it is often referred to, is found in 10 pt. (largest) type. The Reference Passages are given in 8 pt. (next to largest) type; and other references and marginal notes are given in 6 pt. (smallest) type. The two open pages always serve for one; as will be seen by the sectional title lines, which are made to extend across both.

The superior reference letters (<sup>a</sup>, <sup>b</sup>, <sup>c</sup>, etc.) in The Text of the Topic, point out important texts, subjects, persons, places, words, phrases, etc., for study and refer to the groups of passages from various portions of the Scriptures in 8 pt. type, under corresponding capital letters (A, B, C, etc.). A passage is never repeated on the same open pages; if it is needed a second time, it is referred to in its first place. Thus: "Acts 2. 4. See under D." (See it under H, 3d col. pages 638, 639). It may be referred to thus: "Acts 2. 24. See text of topic," which means you shall look into the large type of the section you are studying, for it. (See S, 4th col. page 628, 629). Reference is also made to some other part of the book, where the same subject has been fully developed, to avoid increasing the size of the book beyond convenient handling, thus: "Acts 1. 8. See k, K, § 227, page 628." (See T, 4th col., pages 638, 639); the small k in this reference refers to the superior reference letter in the Text of the topic, pointing out the subject. The large K refers to the group of passages in 8 pt. type, and teaches that the subject should always be read first and the passages afterwards; otherwise the latter might not associate with proper sense. A passage usually contains other thoughts besides the one for which it was chosen.

THE ANALYTICAL METHOD. This method implies studying by books. Its purpose is to ascertain what a book contains. It may be concerning its authorship, to whom addressed, when and where written, the purpose, geographical and historical setting; conditions surrounding the writer—those addressed, its teachings, doctrines, etc. But should the young reader not wish to enter into so close an inspection, then let him read each book carefully, time and again, until he can make for himself a few very general divisions, as the following upon The Acts:

I. The ascension and closing events of our Lord's life on earth.

II. The disciples awaiting, and receiving the Holy Spirit—Marking the inception of the Christian Church.

III. Peter and John the principal workers. Disciples increase greatly. Troubles arise without, difficulties within, all of which is entrusted to the Holy Spirit. Joy, peace and love rule the congregation—The character of the early Church is here set forth.

IV. The Church expands. Deacons, or stewards, are chosen. Stephen and Philip are the principals. Evangelistic work begins. Persecutions grow sore. The first martyrdom comes like a thunder clap and scatters the lovely community into all the world to become witnesses of the gospel.

V. Saul now appears upon the scene. Peter introduces the Gentile branch of the Church that the former is to champion. Barnabas appears in his strength, and as a foster brother to Saul.

VI. Missionary work begins. The supremacy of Paul's ministry asserts itself. The mighty apostle to the Gentiles stands out conspicuously with satellites of his own, almost a dictator; nevertheless, beautifully submissive to the mother Church at Jerusalem, the oracle of the Son of Righteousness.

VII. Persecution always, everywhere present, closes this intensely interesting history of the early Church. Paul is a prisoner at Rome, where he established the gospel.

It will be noticed that the chapters and verses designating the beginning and the closing of these divisions are not given; let each reader do that for himself. The topic index for each book will give some help along this line; but in most instances, the divisions are too numerous to be easily retained in the mind for ready use.

THE TOPICAL METHOD. This method consists in studying any text, subject, or topic, in the light the Scripture itself may throw upon it. To illustrate: turn to pages 626, 627, § 226. Acts 1. 3. (Text of the topic) under f. "Speaking of the things pertaining to the kingdom of God." Now turn to the group of passages under F in the 4th column. Read these carefully. Notice what Daniel says about the kingdom: "God shall set it up." "Never be destroyed." "A powerful kingdom." "Stands forever." Matthew says: "It is at hand." "Those Jews lose it, another nation gets it." Luke says: "It cometh not with observation." "Is within you." Romans says: "It is not meat and drink but righteousness and peace and joy in the Holy Ghost." Meditate over the several statements and a clearer understanding of the Kingdom of God may be found.

The character of these deductions will change; on some texts they are simple, upon others more complex. Sometimes the collated passages are merely similar incidents, others the peculiar use of a word. The biography of a person. Sometimes they stand to show the relation of one event to another. Often they are prophecies, or Mosaic law relevant to the subject.

This method is well adapted for those who teach, lead meetings, or exhort. And it is here the study of the scattered truth takes the form of synthesis.

THE SYNTHETIC METHOD. This method is the very opposite of the Analytic. To illustrate simply: Take an apple, divide it, remove the core, carefully lay it to one side; now pare the rind from it equally careful; you have the pulp remaining; three distinct parts; each different from the other; you have Analyzed. Now return each part to its proper place as well as you can, so that you can recognize the apple again. This latter is a simple act of Synthesis. But the Synthetic study of the scattered truth of the Scripture is not so simple; in the illustration you had the pattern of the apple before you first; whereas, in the matter of truth we are not possessed of the pattern until it is taught us, or we see it in the Lord, deducted from the Word of God. And this truth must be laid together for our several needs. Read Isa. 28: 9-13. And we trust it may be done after the manner God has laid down. Read I. John 2:27. Synthetical study will then, as you see, be applied after you have acquired some scattered truth of a subject or topic; arranging them into logical thought, or series of thoughts, so as to enable you to give forth the truth in an intelligent manner.

TEACHING S. S. LESSONS. Most S. S. Lesson Helps tend to omit the use of the Bible itself. This work holds that purpose especially in view. Let every child who can read readily be provided with a Bible. If they possess one of their own, use it. For example of application turn to Acts 12 : 11, page 706, (1st col.), under k and l, The Text or Subject is, The Lord delivering out of trouble. Now look to the passages under K and L (2nd, 3rd cols.): let the first child find Ps. 34 : 7 in his own Bible; by simple questions draw out how those who fear God are protected. Let another find Ps. 33 : 18, 19; still another, Job 5 : 19, questioning to a point of instruction each time. When the subject has been exhausted, review it by summing up the scattered facts and expounding them more fully and completely unto the perfect truth. By this method the young learn to handle the Bible with aptness; they are taught to think upon what is read; God's will and promises are known by his Word; and their own Bibles will become endeared to them, and possess a value not likely to be acquired in any other way.

Adult classes may be supplied with the Book; these are more apt to choose a method of their own, so that we shall only add, that reasoning and comparison of different views may profitably engage their attention after they have satisfied themselves with the facts that constitute the setting of the lesson.

DIRECTIONS FOR THE STUDY OF THE GOSPELS. Turn to pages 54 and 55. You observe four columns; one for each of the gospels respectively. It is the 16th §; that is the sixteenth event in our Lord's life, viz., "The Temptation." It probably occurred in January or February of A. D. 27, in the desert of Judea. You will now notice that this event is recorded by Matthew in the 4th chapter: 11; by Mark 1 : 12, 13 and by Luke 3 : 23 ; 4 : 1-13. This you will know by the large type text in their respective columns. In John's column you see no large text type; thereby it may be known that John gave no record of this event. The gospel names at the head of the columns apply only to large type text. Looking over the gospel text as given here by the three first named gospels, beginning with Matthew, superior reference letters, a, b, c, etc., will be seen located here and there, indicating the more important thoughts of the topic; these refer to the groups of passages in smaller type designated correspondingly by capital letters thus: A, B C, etc., e. g. the b in the 1st verse of Matthew 4, at the head of the left hand column refers to the thought of being "led by the Spirit." Under B in the lower half of the same column will be found Scripture quoting other instances of the same character. Under the "A" will be found reference made to the text of topic; this indicates that the first verses given in Matthew's and Mark's columns and the second one in Luke's column are along the same line of thought. Turning to pages 56 and 57 it will be found that there the subject is concluded. On this page Mark has no parallel account, his record being very brief.

HOW TO STUDY. For the family circle, and for those who desire to begin a regular reading of the Scriptures, we recommend that first of all, section after section of the gospel text (large type) be read in whatever column or columns it may be found. This course will render every portion of the gospels, and present a continuous Chronological narrative of our Lord's Life without any change from the Bible except the order of arrangement. To be interested in a matter one must be busied therein. Therefore parents should encourage children to collect pictures illustrating events in our Lord's life, and tell the story they represent in a simple manner. Sunday-school lesson pictures, journals, papers and the family Bible are fruitful sources. Family worship should largely be instruction for children.

HOW TO STUDY. With the Map. Another exercise in which the older children will participate with zeal is the study of places as associated with our Lord's journeys up and down the Holy Land. Procure a map of "Palestine in the time of Christ;" lesson journals contain them. Begin with section 4; "Annunciation to Mary" at Nazareth. Read the text and trace every movement of Mary and Jesus in the order given. Observe the outline given on page VI. Devote a map to each of the periods given. Or if desired, all of his life up to the first passover, § 4—§ 20 on the first map; and each passover year on each succeeding map as follows: § 21—§ 36; § 37—§ 85; § 86—§ 202. The value of this exercise cannot be over-estimated. The work of the hand in tracing over the map makes a lasting impression, and aids the mind to properly associate the teachings of the gospels.

MAPS AND INDICES. Several maps are provided that easy reference may be made to places mentioned. An Index of the Books of the New Testament giving their arrangement Sections (§) and pages will be found on page VII. A Chapter and verse index for Matthew, Mark, Luke and John on page 1418, and a topic Index on page 1402. If at any time it should be desired to locate a subject, the text of which is not known, a concordance should be used to ascertain the texts, then by referring to the indices here given, the subject can readily be found. To have added a concordance, or even a word index, would have so increased the size of the book that it would not serve as a handbook convenient to carry.

CONCLUSION. In conclusion we will add that the Lord is the Christian's portion. In this work it was sought to draw each one closer to him. His words are Spirit and Life (John 6:63); they abide for ever, and they are our meat and drink (I. Peter 2:2). Therefore as did Paul to the Ephesian elders—"I commend you to God, and to the word of his grace, which is able to build you up and to give you an inheritance among all them which are sanctified."

26 Jesus saith unto her, <sup>t</sup>I that speak unto thee am he.

27 And upon this came his disciples, and marvelled that he talked with the woman: yet no man said, What seekest thou? or, Why talkest thou with her?

28 The woman then left her waterpot, and went her way into the city, and saith to the men,

29 Come, see a man <sup>w</sup>which told me all things that ever I did: is not this the Christ?

30 Then they went out of the city, and came unto him.

32 But he said unto them, <sup>r</sup>I have meat to eat that ye know not of.

33 Therefore said the disciples one to another, Hath any man brought him aught to eat?

34 Jesus saith unto them, <sup>v</sup>My meat is to do the will of him that sent me, and to finish his work.

35 Say not ye, There are yet four months, and then cometh harvest? behold, I say unto you, Lift up your eyes, and look on the fields; <sup>f</sup>for they are white already to harvest.

36 <sup>a</sup>And he that reapeth receiveth wages, and gathereth fruit unto life eternal: <sup>b</sup>that both he that soweth and he that reapeth may rejoice together.

2 And saw two ships standing by the lake: but the fishermen were gone out of them, and were washing their nets.

3 And he entered into one of the ships, which was Simon's, and prayed him that he would thrust out a little from the land. And he sat down, and taught the people out of the ship.

5 And Simon answering said unto him, Master, <sup>we</sup> have toiled all the night, and have taken nothing: <sup>nevertheless</sup> at thy word I will let down the net.

5 : 1-16.

Ex. 20. 10 But the seventh day is the sabbath of the LORD thy God : in it thou shalt not do any work, thou, nor thy son, nor thy daughter, thy manservant, nor thy maidservant, nor thy cattle, nor thy stranger that is within thy gates :

Neh. 13. 19 And it came to pass, that when the gates of Jerusalem began to be dark before the sabbath, I commanded that the gates should be shut, and charged that they should not be opened till after the sabbath : and some of my servants set I at the gates, that there should no burden be brought in on the sabbath day.

Jer. 17. 21 Thus saith the LORD ; Take heed to yourselves, and bear no burden on the sabbath day, nor bring it in by the gates of Jerusalem ;

22 Neither carry forth a burden out of your houses on the sabbath day, neither do ye any work, but hallow ye the sabbath day, as I commanded your fathers.

3 And he saith unto the man which had the withered hand, Stand forth.

4 And he saith unto them, Is it lawful to do good on the sabbath days, or to do evil ? to save life, or to kill ? But they held their peace.

Luke 6. 2 And certain of the Pharisees said unto them, Why do ye that which is not lawful to do on the sabbath days ?

John 7. 23 If a man on the sabbath day receive circumcision, that the law of Moses should not be broken ; are ye angry at me, because I have made a man every whit whole on the sabbath day ?

2 Now there is at Jerusalem <sup>b</sup>by the sheep <sup>1</sup>market, a <sup>c</sup>pool, which is called in the Hebrew tongue <sup>2</sup>Bethesda, having five porches.

3 In these lay a great multitude of impotent folk, of blind, halt, withered, waiting for the moving of the water.

4 For an angel went down at a certain season into the pool, and troubled the water : whosoever then <sup>d</sup>first after the troubling of the water stepped in was made whole of whatsoever disease he had.

5 And a certain man was there, which had an infirmity thirty and eight years.

6 When Jesus saw him lie, and <sup>e</sup>knew that he had been now a long time in that case, he saith unto him, <sup>f</sup>Wilt thou be made whole ?

7 The impotent man answered him, Sir, I have no man, when the water is troubled, to put me into the pool : but while I am coming, another steppeth down before me.

8 Jesus saith unto him, <sup>g</sup>Rise, take up thy bed, and walk.

9 And immediately the man was made whole, and took up his bed, and walked : and <sup>h</sup>on the same day was the sabbath.

10 The Jews therefore said unto him that was cured, It is the sabbath day : <sup>i</sup>it is not lawful for thee to carry thy bed.

CHAP. 5.

16 Let <sup>i</sup>your light so shine before men, <sup>k</sup>that they may see your good works, and <sup>l</sup>glorify your Father which is in heaven.

17 <sup>m</sup>Think not that I am come to destroy the law, or the prophets: I am not come to destroy, but to fulfil.

18 For verily I say unto you, <sup>n</sup>Till heaven and earth pass, one jot or one tittle shall in no wise pass from the law, till all be fulfilled.

19 <sup>o</sup>Whosoever therefore shall break one of these least commandments, and shall teach men so, he shall be called the least in the kingdom of heaven: but whosoever shall do and teach them, the same shall be called great in the kingdom of heaven.

20 For I say unto you, That except your righteousness shall exceed <sup>p</sup>the righteousness of the scribes and Pharisees, ye shall in no case enter into the kingdom of heaven.

Deut.15. 7 If there be among you a poor man of one of thy brethren within any of thy gates in thy land which the LORD thy God giveth thee, thou shalt not harden thine heart, nor shut thine hand from thy poor brother:

9 Beware that there be not a thought in thy wicked heart, saying, The seventh year, the year of release, is at hand; and thine eye be evil against thy poor brother, and thou givest him nought; and he cry unto the LORD against thee; and it be sin unto thee.

10 Thou shalt surely give him, and thine heart shall not be grieved when thou givest unto him: because that for this thing the LORD thy God shall bless thee in all thy works, and in all that thou puttest thine hand unto.

2 Therefore <sup>p</sup>when thou doest thine alms, <sup>9</sup>do not sound a trumpet before thee, as the hypocrites do in the synagogues and in the streets, that they may have glory of men. Verily I say unto you, They have their reward.

3 But when thou doest alms, let not thy left hand know what thy right hand doeth:

4 That thine alms may be in secret: and thy Father which seeth in secret himself <sup>q</sup>shall reward thee openly.

5 And when thou prayest, thou shalt not be as the hypocrites are: for they love to pray standing in the synagogues and in the corners of the streets, that they may be seen of men. Verily I say unto you, They have their reward.

23 And blessed is he, whosoever shall not be offended in me.

24 ¶ And when the messengers of John were departed, he began to speak unto the people concerning John, What went ye out into the wilderness for to see? A reed shaken with the wind?

25 But what went ye out for to see? A man clothed in soft raiment? Behold, they which are gorgeously apparelled, and live delicately, are in kings' courts.

26 But what went ye out for to see? A prophet? Yea, I say unto you, and much more than a prophet.

27 This is he, of whom it is written, ¶ Behold, I send my messenger before thy face, which shall prepare thy way before thee.

28 For I say unto you, Among those that are born of women there is not a greater prophet than John the Baptist: but he that is least in the kingdom of God is greater than he.

29 And all the people that heard him, and the publicans, justified God, ¶ being baptized with the baptism of John.

41 There was a certain creditor which had two debtors: the one owed five hundred <sup>e</sup>pence, and the other fifty.

42 And when they had nothing to pay, he frankly <sup>d</sup>forgave them both. Tell me therefore, which of them will love him most?

43 Simon answered and said, I suppose that he, to whom he forgave most. And he said unto him, Thou hast rightly judged.

44 And he turned to the woman, and said unto Simon, Seest thou this woman? I entered into thine house, thou gavest me no <sup>e</sup>water for my feet: but she hath washed my feet with tears, and wiped them with the hairs of her head.

45 Thou gavest me no <sup>f</sup>kiss: but this woman, since the time I came in, hath not ceased to kiss my feet.

46 <sup>g</sup>My head with oil thou didst not anoint: but this woman hath anointed my feet with ointment.

47 <sup>h</sup>Wherefore I, say unto thee, Her sins, which are many, are forgiven; for <sup>i</sup>she loved much: but to whom little is forgiven, the same loveth little.

I Thes. 2. 14 For ye, brethren, became followers of the churches of God which in Judæa are in Christ Jesus: for ye also have suffered like things of your own countrymen, even as they have of the Jews:

15 Who both killed the Lord Jesus, and their own prophets, and have persecuted us; and they please not God, and are contrary to all men:

16 Forbidding us to speak to the Gentiles that they might be saved, to fill up their sins always: for the wrath is come upon them to the uttermost.

Prov. 1. 20 Wisdom crieth without; she uttereth her voice in the streets:

21 She crieth in the chief place of concourse, in the openings of the gates: in the city she uttereth her words, saying,

22 How long, ye simple ones, will ye love simplicity? and the scorners delight in their scorning, and fools hate knowledge?

23 Turn you at my reproof: behold, I will pour out my spirit unto you, I will make known my words unto you.

N—CONCLUDED.

I Cor. 1. 22 For the Jews require a sign, and the Greeks seek after wisdom:

23 But we preach Christ crucified, unto the Jews a stumblingblock, and unto the Greeks foolishness;

24 But unto them which are called, both Jews and Greeks, Christ the power of God, and the wisdom of God.

35 That upon you may come all the righteous blood shed upon the earth, from the blood of righteous Abel unto the blood of Zacharias son of Barachias, whom ye slew between the temple and the altar.

47 <sup>1</sup>Woe unto you! for ye build the sepulchres of the prophets, and your fathers killed them.

48 Truly ye bear witness that ye allow the deeds of your fathers: for <sup>m</sup>they indeed killed them, and ye build their sepulchres.

49 Therefore also said <sup>n</sup>the wisdom of God, <sup>o</sup>I will send them prophets and apostles, and some of them they shall slay and persecute:

51 <sup>p</sup>From the blood of Abel unto <sup>q</sup>the blood of Zacharias, which perished between the altar and the temple: verily I say unto you, It shall be required of this generation.

52 <sup>r</sup>Woe unto you, lawyers! for ye have taken away the key of knowledge: ye entered not in yourselves, and them that were entering in ye <sup>z</sup>hindered.

53 And as he said these things unto them, the scribes and the Pharisees began to urge him vehemently, and to provoke him to speak of many things:

Matt. 25. 1 Then shall the kingdom of heaven be likened unto ten virgins, which took their lamps, and went forth to meet the bridegroom.

2 And five of them were wise, and five were foolish.

3 They that were foolish took their lamps, and took no oil with them:

4 But the wise took oil in their vessels with their lamps.

5 While the bridegroom tarried, they all slumbered and slept.

6 And at midnight there was a cry made, Behold, the bridegroom cometh; go ye out to meet him.

7 Then all those virgins arose, and trimmed their lamps.

8 And the foolish said unto the wise, Give us of your oil; for our lamps are gone out.

9 But the wise answered, saying, Not so; lest there be not enough for us and you: but go ye rather to them that sell, and buy for yourselves.

10 And while they went to buy, the bridegroom came; and they that were ready went in with him to the marriage: and the door was shut.

11 Afterward came also the other virgins, saying, Lord, Lord, open to us.

Ex. 32. 30 And it came to pass on the morrow, that Moses said unto the people, Ye have sinned a great sin : and now I will go up unto the LORD ; peradventure I shall make an atonement for your sin.

‡ 59. THE PARABLE OF THE SOWER.

4 : 1-20.

1 And <sup>k</sup>he began again to teach by the sea side: and there was gathered unto him a great multitude, so that he entered into a ship, and sat in the sea; and the whole multitude was by the sea on the land.

2 And he taught them many things by parables, <sup>l</sup>and said unto them in his doctrine,

3 Hearken; Behold, there went out a sower to sow:

4 And it came to pass, as he sowed, some fell by the way side, and the fowls of the air came and devoured it up.

5 And some fell on stony ground, where it had not much earth; and immediately it sprang up, because it had no depth of earth:

6 But when the sun was up, it was scorched; and because it had no root, it withered away.

7 And some fell among thorns, and the thorns grew up, and choked it, and it yielded no fruit.

8 And other fell on good ground, <sup>m</sup>and did yield fruit that sprang up and increased, and brought forth, some thirty, and some sixty, and some a hundred.

9 And he said unto them, He that hath ears to hear, let him hear.

4 <sup>o</sup>And when much people were gathered together, and were come to him out of every city, he spake by a parable:

5 A sower went out to sow his seed: and as he sowed, some fell by the way side; and it was trodden down, and the fowls of the air devoured it.

6 And some fell upon a rock; and as soon as it was sprung up, it withered away, because it lacked moisture.

7 And some fell among thorns; and the thorns sprang up with it, and choked it.

8 And other fell on good ground, and sprang up, and bare fruit a hundred-fold. And when he had said these things, he cried, He that hath ears to hear, let him hear.

§ 59. THE PARABLE OF THE SOWER (CONTINUED).

CHAP. 13.

11 He answered and said unto them, Because <sup>it</sup> is given unto you to know the mysteries of the kingdom of heaven, but to them it is not given.

12 <sup>r</sup>For whosoever hath, to him shall be given, and he shall have more abundance: but whosoever hath not, from him shall be taken away even that he hath.

13 Therefore speak I to them in parables: because they seeing see not; and hearing they hear not, neither do they understand.

14 And in them is fulfilled the prophecy of Esaias, which saith, <sup>s</sup>By hearing ye shall hear, and shall not understand; and seeing ye shall see, and shall not perceive:

15 For this people's heart is waxed gross, and their ears <sup>t</sup>are dull of hearing, and their eyes they have closed; lest at any time they should see with their eyes, and hear with their ears, and should understand with their heart, and should be converted, and I should heal them.

16 But <sup>u</sup>blessed are your eyes, for they see: and your ears, for they hear.

17 For verily I say unto you, <sup>x</sup>That many prophets and righteous men have desired to see those things which ye see, and have not seen them; and to hear those things which ye hear, and have not heard them.

CHAP. 13.

18 <sup>b</sup>Hear ye therefore the parable of the sower.

19 When any one heareth the word <sup>c</sup>of the kingdom, and understandeth it not, then cometh <sup>d</sup>the wicked one, and catcheth away that which was sown in his heart. This is he which received seed by the way side.

20 But he that received the seed into stony places, the same is he that heareth the word, and anon <sup>e</sup>with joy receiveth it;

21 Yet hath he not root in himself, but dureth for a while: for when tribulation or persecution ariseth because of the word, by and by <sup>f</sup>he is offended.

22 He also that received seed <sup>g</sup>among the thorns is he that heareth the word; and the <sup>h</sup>care of this world, and the deceitfulness of riches, choke the word, and he becometh unfruitful.

23 But he that received seed into the good ground is he that heareth the word, and understandeth it; which also beareth fruit, and bringeth forth, some a hundredfold, some sixty, some thirty.

CHAP. 4.

14 <sup>i</sup>The sower soweth the word.

15 And these are they by the way side, where the word is sown; but when they have heard, Satan cometh immediately, and taketh away the word that was sown in their hearts.

16 And these are they likewise which are sown on stony ground; who, when they have heard the word, immediately receive it with gladness;

17 And have no root in themselves, and so endure but for a time: afterward, when affliction or persecution ariseth for the word's sake, immediately they are offended.

18 And these are they which are sown among thorns; such as hear the word,

19 And the cares of this world, <sup>k</sup>and the deceitfulness of riches, and the lusts of other things entering in, choke the word, and it becometh unfruitful.

20 And these are they which are sown on good ground; such as hear the word, and receive it, and bring forth fruit, some thirtyfold, some sixty, and some a hundred.

11 'Now the parable is this: The seed is the word of God.

12 Those by the way side are they that hear; then cometh the devil, and taketh away the word out of their hearts, lest they should believe and be saved.

13 They on the rock are they, which, when they hear, receive the word with joy; and these have no root, which for a while believe, and in time of temptation fall away.

14 And that which fell among thorns are they, which, when they have heard, go forth, and are choked with cares and riches and pleasures of this life, and bring no fruit to perfection.

‡ 62. PARABLE OF THE GROWTH OF SEED.

4: 26–29.

26 And he said, So is the kingdom of God, as if a man should cast seed into the ground;

27 And should sleep, and rise night and day, and the seed should spring and grow up, he knoweth not how.

28 For the earth bringeth forth fruit of herself; first the blade, then the ear, after that the full corn in the ear.

29 But when the fruit is brought forth, immediately he putteth in the sickle, because the harvest is come.

§ 66. THE WHEAT AND THE TARES EXPLAINED.

13: 36-43.

36 Then Jesus sent the multitude away, and went into the house: and his disciples came unto him, saying, Declare unto us the parable of the tares of the field.

37 He answered and said unto them, He that <sup>a</sup>soweth the good seed is the Son of man;

4 : 37-41.

37 And there arose a great storm of wind, and the waves beat into the ship, so that it was now full.

38 And he was in the hinder part of the ship, asleep on a pillow: and they awoke him, and say unto him, Master, carest thou not that we perish?

57 <sup>g</sup>And it came to pass, that, as they went in the way, a certain man said unto him, Lord, I will follow thee whithersoever thou goest.

58 <sup>h</sup>And Jesus said unto him, Foxes have holes, and birds of the air have nests; but the Son of man hath not where to lay his head.

59 <sup>i</sup>And he said unto another, Follow me. But he said, Lord, suffer me first to go and bury my father.

60 Jesus said unto him, Let the dead bury their dead: but go thou and preach the kingdom of God.

61 And another also said, Lord, <sup>k</sup>I will follow thee; but let me first go bid them farewell, which are at home at my house.

62 And Jesus said unto him, <sup>l</sup>No man, having put his hand to the plough, and looking back, is fit for the kingdom of God. (p. 305.)

23 But as they sailed, he fell asleep: and there came down a storm of wind on the lake; and they were filled with water, and were in jeopardy.

I Cor. 10. 16 The cup of blessing which we bless, is it not the communion of the blood of Christ? The bread which we break, is it not the communion of the body of Christ?

17 For we being many are one bread, and one body: for we are all partakers of that one bread.

18 Behold Israel after the flesh: are not they which eat of the sacrifices partakers of the altar?

I Cor. 11. 23 For I have received of the Lord that which also I delivered unto you, That the Lord Jesus, the same night in which he was betrayed, took bread:

24 And when he had given thanks, he brake it, and said, Take, eat; this is my body, which is broken for you: this do in remembrance of me.

25 After the same manner also he took the cup, when he had supped, saying, This cup is the new testament in my blood: this do ye, as oft as ye drink it, in remembrance of me.

26 For as often as ye eat this bread, and drink this cup, ye do show the Lord's death till he come.

27 Wherefore whosoever shall eat this bread, and drink this cup of the Lord, unworthily, shall be guilty of the body and blood of the Lord.

28 But let a man examine himself, and so let him eat of that bread, and drink of that cup.

Rom. 14. 21 It is good neither to eat flesh, nor to drink wine, nor any thing whereby thy brother stumbleth, or is offended, or is made weak.

22 Hast thou faith? have it to thyself before God. Happy is he that condemneth not himself in that thing which he alloweth.

23 And he that doubteth is damned if he eat, because he eateth not of faith: for whatsoever is not of faith is sin.

Rom. 15. 1 We then that are strong ought to bear the infirmities of the weak, and not to please ourselves.

2 Let every one of us please his neighbour for his good to edification.

3 For even Christ pleased not himself; but, as it is written, The reproaches of them that reproached thee fell on me.

§ 104. THE PARABLE OF THE UNMERCIFUL SERVANT.

18: 21-35.

21 Then came Peter to him, and said, Lord, how oft shall my brother sin against me, and I forgive him? <sup>a</sup>till seven times?

22 Jesus saith unto him, I say not unto thee, Until seven times: <sup>b</sup>but, Until seventy times seven.

23 Therefore is the kingdom of heaven likened unto a certain king, which would take account of his servants.

24 And when he had begun to reckon, one was brought unto him, which owed him ten thousand <sup>t</sup>talents.

25 But forasmuch as he had not to pay, his lord commanded him <sup>e</sup>to be sold, and his wife, and children, and all that he had, and payment to be made.

26 The servant therefore fell down, and <sup>2</sup>worshipped him, saying, Lord, have patience with me, and I will pay thee all.

27 Then the lord of that servant was moved with compassion, and loosed him, and forgave him the debt.

28 But the same servant went out, and found one of his fellow servants, which owed him a hundred <sup>3</sup>pence: and he laid hands on him, and took him by the throat, saying, Pay me that thou owest.

29 And his fellow servant fell down at his feet, and besought him, saying, Have patience with me, and I will pay thee all.

30 And he would not: but went and cast him into prison, till he should pay the debt.

46 And ye shall take them as an inheritance for your children after you, to inherit them for a possession; they shall be your bondmen forever: but over your brethren the children of Israel, ye shall not rule one over another with rigour.

47 And if a sojourner or stranger wax rich by thee, and thy brother that dwelleth by him wax poor, and sell himself unto the stranger or sojourner by thee, or to the stock of the stranger's family:

51 If there be yet many years behind, according unto them he shall give again the price of his redemption out of the money that he was bought for.

52 And if there remain but few years unto the year of jubilee, then he shall count with him, and according unto his years shall he give him again the price of his redemption.

Neh. 5. 1 And there was a great cry of the people and of their wives against their brethren the Jews.

2 For there were that said, We, our sons, and our daughters, are many: therefore we take up corn for them, that we may eat, and live.

3 Some also there were that said, We have mortgaged our lands, vineyards, and houses, that we might buy corn, because of the dearth.

4 There were also that said, We have borrowed money for the king's tribute, and that upon our lands and vineyards.

5 Yet now our flesh is as the flesh of our brethren, our children as their children: and, lo, we bring into bondage our sons and our daughters to be servants, and some of our daughters are brought into bondage already: neither is it in our power to redeem them; for other men have our lands and vineyards.

6 And I was very angry when I heard their cry and these words.

7 Then I consulted with myself, and I rebuked the nobles, and the rulers, and said unto them, Ye exact usury, every one of his brother. And I set a great assembly against them.

8 And I said unto them, We, after our ability, have redeemed our brethren the Jews, which were sold unto the heathen; and will ye even sell your brethren? or shall they be sold unto us? Then held they their peace, and found nothing to answer.

6 For a friend of mine <sup>i</sup>in his journey is come to me, and I have nothing to set before him?

CHAP. 9.

23 Therefore said his parents, He is of age; ask him.

24 Then again called they the man that was blind, and said unto him, Give God the praise: we know that this man is a sinner.

25 He answered and said, Whether he be a sinner or no, I know not: one thing I know, that, whereas I was blind, now I see.

26 Then said they to him again, What did he to thee? how opened he thine eyes?

27 He answered them, I have told you already, and ye did not hear: wherefore would ye hear it again? will ye also be his disciples?

28 Then they reviled him, and said, Thou art his disciple; but we are Moses' disciples.

29 We know that God spake unto Moses: as for this fellow, we know not from whence he is.

30 The man answered and said unto them, Why herein is a marvellous thing, that ye know not from whence he is, and yet he hath opened mine eyes.

31 Now we know that God heareth not sinners: but if any man be a worshipper of God, and doeth his will, him he heareth.

32 Since the world began was it not heard that any man opened the eyes of one that was born blind.

33 If this man were not of God, he could do nothing.

34 They answered and said unto him, Thou wast altogether born in sins, and dost thou teach us? And they cast him out.

15 : 11-32.

11 And he said, A certain man had two sons :

12 And the younger of them said to his father, Father, give me the portion of goods that falleth to me. And he divided unto them his living.

13 And not many days after the younger son gathered all together, and took his journey into a far country, and there wasted his substance with riotous living.

14 And when he had spent all, there arose a mighty famine in that land ; and he began to be in want.

15 And he went and joined himself to a citizen of that country ; and he sent him into his fields to feed swine.

16 And he would fain have filled his belly with the husks that the swine did eat : and no man gave unto him.

17 And when he came to himself, he said, How many hired servants of my father's have bread enough and to spare, and I perish with hunger !

18 I will arise and go to my father, and will say unto him, Father, I have sinned against heaven, and before thee,

19 And am no more worthy to be called thy son : make me as one of thy hired servants.

20 And he arose, and came to his father. But when he was yet a great way off, his father saw him, and had compassion, and ran, and fell on his neck, and kissed him.

Third Day of the Week of our

CHAP. 21.

41 ¶They say unto him, ¶He will miserably destroy those wicked men, ¶and will let out his vineyard unto other husbandmen, which shall render him the fruits in their seasons.

42 Jesus saith unto them, ¶Did ye never read in the Scriptures, The stone which the builders rejected, the same is become the head of the corner: this is the Lord's doing, and it is ¶marvellous in our eyes?

43 Therefore say I unto you, ¶The kingdom of God shall be taken from you, and given to a nation bringing forth the fruits thereof.

44 And whosoever ¶shall fall on this stone shall be broken: but on whomsoever it shall fall, ¶it will grind him to powder.

45 And when the chief priests and Pharisees had heard his parables, they perceived that he spake of them.

46 But when they sought to lay hands on him, they feared the multitude, because ¶they took him for a prophet.

22: 1-14.

1 And Jesus answered and <sup>a</sup>spake unto them again by parables, and said,

2 The kingdom of heaven is like unto a certain king, which made a marriage for his son,

3 And <sup>b</sup>sent forth his servants to call them that were bidden to the wedding: <sup>c</sup>and they would not come.

4 Again, he sent forth other servants, saying, Tell them which are bidden, Behold, I have prepared my dinner: <sup>d</sup>my oxen and my fatlings are killed, and all things are ready: come unto the marriage.

5 But they <sup>e</sup>made light of it, and went their ways, one to his farm, another to his merchandise:

6 And <sup>f</sup>the remnant took his servants, and entreated them spitefully, and slew them.

Luke 14. 16 Then said he unto him, a certain man made a great supper, and bade many:

19 And another said, I have bought five yoke of oxen, and I go to prove them: I pray thee have me excused.

20 And another said, I have married a wife, and therefore I cannot come.

21 So that servant came, and showed his lord these things. Then the master of the house being angry said to his servant, Go out quickly into the streets and lanes of the city, and bring

Third Day of the Week of our

24: 15-42.

15 <sup>a</sup>When ye therefore shall see the abomination of desolation, spoken of by <sup>b</sup>Daniel the prophet, stand in the holy place, <sup>c</sup>(whoso readeth, let him understand,)

16 Then let them which be in Judæa flee into the mountains:

17 Let him which is on the housetop not come down to take anything out of his house:

18 Neither let him which is in the field return back to take his clothes.

19 And <sup>d</sup>woe unto them that are with child, and to them that give suck in those days!

20 But pray ye that your flight be not in the winter, neither on the sabbath day:

21 For <sup>e</sup>then shall be great tribulation, such as was not since the beginning of the world to this time, no, nor ever shall be.

22 And except those days should be shortened, there should no flesh be saved: <sup>f</sup>but for the elect's sake those days shall be shortened.

Dan. 9. 27 And he shall confirm the covenant with many for one week: and in the midst of the week he shall cause the sacrifice and the oblation to cease, and for the overspreading of abominations he shall make it desolate, even until the consummation, and that determined shall be poured upon the desolate.

Dan. 12. 11 And from the time that the daily sacrifice shall be taken away, and the abomination that maketh desolate set up, there shall be a thousand two hundred and ninety days.

Dan. 9. 23 At the beginning of thy supplications the commandment came forth,

14 <sup>g</sup>But when ye shall see the abomination of desolation, <sup>h</sup>spoken of by Daniel the prophet, standing where it ought not, (let him that readeth understand,) then <sup>i</sup>let them that be in Judæa flee to the mountains:

15 And let him that is on the housetop not go down into the house, neither enter therein, to take any thing out of his house:

16 And let him that is in the field not turn back again for to take up his garment.

17 <sup>k</sup>But woe to them that are with child, and to them that give suck in those days!

18 And pray ye that your flight be not in the winter.

19 <sup>l</sup>For in those days shall be affliction, such as was not from the beginning of the creation which God created unto this time, neither shall be.

20 And except that the Lord had shortened those days, no flesh should be saved: but for the elect's sake, whom he hath chosen, he hath shortened the days.

21 Then let them which are in Judæa flee to the mountains; and let them which are in the midst of it depart out; and let not them that are in the countries enter thereinto.

22 For these be the days of vengeance, <sup>n</sup>that all things which are written may be fulfilled.

23 <sup>o</sup>But woe unto them that are with child, and to them that give suck, in those days! for there shall be great distress in the land, and wrath upon this people.

E

Dan. 9. 26 And after threescore and two weeks shall Messiah be cut off, but not for himself: and the people of the prince that shall come shall destroy the city and the sanctuary; and the end thereof shall be with a flood, and unto the end of the war desolations are determined.

Zech. 14. 2 For I will gather all nations against Jerusalem to battle; and the city shall be taken, and the houses rifled, and the women ravished; and half of the city shall go forth into captivity, and the residue of the people shall not be cut off from the city.

‡ 175. THE PARABLE OF THE TEN VIRGINS.

1 Then shall the kingdom of heaven be likened unto ten virgins, which took their lamps, and went forth to meet <sup>a</sup>the bridegroom.

2 <sup>b</sup>And five of them were wise, and five were foolish.

3 They that were foolish took their lamps, and took <sup>c</sup>no oil with them:

4 But the wise took oil in their vessels with their lamps.

6 And at midnight <sup>e</sup>there was a cry made, Behold, the bridegroom cometh; go ye out to meet him.

7 Then all those virgins arose, and <sup>f</sup>trimmed their lamps.

8 And the foolish said unto the wise, Give us of your oil; for our lamps are <sup>g</sup>gone out.

9 But the wise answered, saying, Not so; lest there be not enough for us and you: but go ye rather to them that sell, and buy for yourselves.

10 And while they went to buy, the bridegroom came; and they that were ready went in with him to the marriage: and the <sup>h</sup>door was shut.

11 Afterward came also the other virgins, saying, <sup>i</sup>Lord, Lord, open to us.

1 I am the true vine, and my Father is the husbandman.

2 <sup>a</sup>Every branch in me that beareth not fruit he taketh away: and every branch that beareth fruit, he purgeth it, that it may bring forth more fruit.

3 <sup>b</sup>Now ye are clean through the word which I have spoken unto you.

4 <sup>c</sup>Abide in me, and I in you. As the branch cannot bear fruit of itself, except it abide in the vine; no more can ye, except ye abide in me.

5 I am the vine, ye are the branches. He that abideth in me, and I in him, the same bringeth forth much <sup>d</sup>fruit; for <sup>e</sup>without me ye can do nothing.

6 If a man abide not in me, <sup>e</sup>he is cast forth as a branch, and is withered; and men gather them, and cast them into the fire, and they are burned.

7 If ye abide in me, and my words abide in you, <sup>f</sup>ye shall ask what ye will, and it shall be done unto you.

8 <sup>g</sup>Herein is my Father glorified, that ye bear much fruit; <sup>h</sup>so shall ye be my disciples.

9 As the Father hath loved me, so have I loved you: continue ye in my love.

10 <sup>i</sup>If ye keep my commandments, ye shall abide in my love; even as I have kept my Father's commandments, and abide in his love.

John 16. 28 I came forth from the Father, and am come into the world: again, I leave the world, and go to the Father.

CHAP. 16.

5 But now <sup>o</sup>I go my way to him that sent me: and none of you asketh me, Whither goest thou?

6 But because I have said these things unto you, <sup>h</sup>sorrow hath filled your heart.

7 Nevertheless I tell you the truth; It is expedient for you that I go away: for if I go not away, <sup>i</sup>the Comforter will not come unto you; but <sup>k</sup>if I depart, I will send him unto you.

8 And when he is come, he will <sup>l</sup>reprove the world of sin, and of righteousness, and of judgment:

9 <sup>o</sup>Of sin, because they believe not on me;

10 Of righteousness, <sup>m</sup>because I go to my Father, and ye see me no more;

11 <sup>n</sup>Of judgment, because the <sup>o</sup>prince of this world is judged.

12 I have yet many things to say unto you, <sup>p</sup>but ye cannot bear them now.

13 Howbeit when he, <sup>q</sup>the Spirit of truth, is come, <sup>r</sup>he will guide you into all truth: for he shall not speak of himself; but whatsoever he shall hear, that shall he speak: and he will <sup>s</sup>show you things to come.

14 He shall glorify me: for he shall receive of mine, and shall show it unto you.

15 <sup>t</sup>All things that the Father hath are mine: therefore said I, that he shall take of mine, and shall show it unto you.

16 <sup>u</sup>A little while, and ye shall not see me: and again, a little while, and ye shall see me, <sup>v</sup>because I go to the Father.

- Ps. 30. 11 Thou hast turned for me my mourning into dancing: thou hast put off my sackcloth, and girded me with gladness;
- Ps. 40. 1 I waited patiently for the LORD; and he inclined unto me, and heard my cry.
2 He brought me up also out of a horrible pit, out of the miry clay, and set my feet upon a rock, and established my goings.
3 And he hath put a new song in my mouth, even praise unto our God: many shall see it, and fear, and shall trust in the LORD.
- Ps. 97. 11 Light is sown for the righteous, and gladness for the upright in heart.
- Ps. 126. 5 They that sow in tears shall reap in joy.
6 He that goeth forth and weepeth, bearing precious seed, shall doubtless come again with rejoicing, bringing his sheaves with him.
- Isa. 12. 1 And in that day thou shalt say, O LORD, I will praise thee: though thou wast angry with me, thine anger is turned away, and thou comfortedst me.
- Isa. 25. 8 He will swallow up death in victory; and the Lord GOD will wipe away tears from off all faces; and the rebuke of his people shall he take away from off all the earth: for the LORD hath spoken it.
9 And it shall be said in that day, Lo, this is our God; we have waited for him, and he will save us: this is the LORD; we have waited for him, we will be glad and rejoice in his salvation.
- Isa. 61. 3 To appoint unto them that mourn in Zion, to give unto them beauty for ashes, the oil of joy for mourning, the garment of praise for the spirit of heaviness; that they might be called Trees of righteousness, The planting of the LORD, that he might be glorified.
- Isa. 66. 5 Hear the word of the LORD, ye that tremble at his word; Your brethren that hated you, that cast you out for my name's sake, said, Let the LORD be glorified: but he shall appear to your joy, and they shall be ashamed.
- Jer. 31. 9 They shall come with weeping, and with supplications will I lead them: I will cause them to walk by the rivers of waters in a straight way, wherein they shall not stumble: for I am a father to Israel, and Ephraim is my first-born.

A—CONTINUED.

- Jer. 31. 10 Hear the word of the LORD, O ye nations, and declare it in the isles afar off, and say, He that scattered Israel will gather him, and keep him, as a shepherd doth his flock.
11 For the LORD hath redeemed Jacob, and ransomed him from the hand of him that was stronger than he.
12 Therefore they shall come and sing in the height of Zion, and shall flow together to the goodness of the LORD, for wheat, and for wine, and for oil, and for the young of the flock and of the herd: and their soul shall be as a watered garden; and they shall not sorrow any more at all.
13 Then shall the virgin rejoice in the dance, both young men and old together: for I will turn their mourning into joy, and will comfort them, and make them rejoice from their sorrow.
14 And I will satiate the soul of the priests with fatness, and my people shall be satisfied with my goodness, saith the LORD.
- Jer. 31. 25 For I have satiated the weary soul, and I have replenished every sorrowful soul.

- Acts 2. 47 Praising God, and having favour with all the people. And the Lord added to the church daily such as should be saved.
- Acts 5. 41 And they departed from the presence of the council, rejoicing that they were counted worthy to suffer shame for his name.
- Rom. 5. 2 By whom also we have access by faith into this grace wherein we stand, and rejoice in hope of the glory of God.
3 And not only so, but we glory in tribulations also; knowing that tribulation worketh patience;
- Rom. 5. 11 And not only so, but we also joy in God through our Lord Jesus Christ, by whom we have now received the atonement.
- II Cor. 6. 10 As sorrowful, yet alway rejoicing; as poor, yet making many rich; as having nothing, and yet possessing all things.
- Gal. 5. 22 But the fruit of the Spirit is love, joy, peace, longsuffering, gentleness, goodness, faith,

Rom. 7. 23 But I see another law in my members, warring against the law of my mind, and bringing me into captivity to the law of sin which is in my members.

24 O wretched man that I am! who shall deliver me from the body of this death?

25 I thank God through Jesus Christ our Lord. So then with the mind I myself serve the law of God; but with the flesh the law of sin.

Rom. 8. 3 For what the law could not do, in that it was weak through the flesh, God sending his own Son in the likeness of sinful flesh, and for sin, condemned sin in the flesh:

I Cor. 9. 27 But I keep under my body, and bring it into subjection: lest that by any means, when I have preached to others, I myself should be a castaway.

Gal. 5. 16 This I say then, Walk in the Spirit, and ye shall not fulfil the lust of the flesh.

17 For the flesh lusteth against the Spirit, and the Spirit against the flesh: and these are contrary the one to the other; so that ye cannot do the things that ye would.

Gal. 5. 24 And they that are Christ's have crucified the flesh with the affections and lusts.

Phil. 2. 12 Wherefore, my beloved, as ye have always obeyed, not as in my presence only, but now much more in my absence, work out your own salvation with fear and trembling:

13 For it is God which worketh in you both to will and to do of his good pleasure.

Phil. 3. 12 Not as though I had already attained, either were already perfect: but I follow after, if that I may apprehend that for which also I am apprehended of Christ Jesus.

13 Brethren, I count not myself to have apprehended: but this one thing I do, forgetting those things which are behind, and reaching forth unto those things which are before,

14 I press toward the mark for the prize of the high calling of God in Christ Jesus.

CHAP. 18.

33 <sup>a</sup>Then Pilate entered into the judgment hall again, and called Jesus, and said unto him, Art thou the King of the Jews?

34 Jesus answered him, Sayest thou this thing of thyself, or did others tell it thee of me?

35 Pilate answered, Am I a Jew? Thine own nation and the chief priests have delivered thee unto me: what hast thou done?

36 <sup>a</sup>Jesus answered, My kingdom is not of this world: if my kingdom were of this world, then would my servants fight, that I should not be delivered to the Jews: but now is my kingdom not from hence.

37 <sup>a</sup>Pilate therefore said unto him, Art thou a king then? Jesus answered, Thou sayest that I am a king. To this end was I born, and for this cause came I into the world, that I should <sup>b</sup>bear witness unto the truth. Every one that <sup>c</sup>is of the truth heareth my voice.

38 Pilate saith unto him, What is truth? And when he had said this, he went out again unto the Jews, and saith unto them, <sup>a</sup>I find in him no fault at all.

D

Matt. 27. 24 When Pilate saw that he could prevail nothing, but that rather a tumult was made, he took water, and washed his hands before the multitude, saying, I am innocent of the blood of this just person: see ye to it.

II Cor. 5. 21 For he hath made him to be sin for us, who knew no sin; that we might be made the righteousness of God in him.
